

An Understated Dominance

Chapter 2430

“Bang!” There was a dull sound.

Kassidy was caught off guard and was hit hard on the back. A large hole in her clothes tore open, revealing the soft mithril armor inside.

Despite the mithril soft armor protecting her and causing no harm to her skin or flesh, Rivka’s hidden power had a profound effect on Kassidy.

She staggered, and her back was burning with pain.

“Hiss~!” Kassidy took a breath, and a trace of pain appeared on her beautiful face.

People didn’t need to look at her to know that her back was already red.

Kassidy actually used the sword as a whip, which was difficult to defend against.

“The daughter of the Guildmaster of the Celestial Alliance is truly wealthy and powerful, with even her soft armor crafted from mithril.” Rivka said it sarcastically.

“You——!” Kassidy gritted her teeth; her face was a little ugly. Although she had cut off a strand of Rivka’s hair before, she took advantage of it.

Now that she has returned everything, not only did she not receive any benefit, but she also experienced a loss.

“Sister, you have great swordsmanship!” Seeing that Rivka had the upper hand, Sullivan in the audience immediately cheered.

“That’s how we should fight! See how Kassidy can still be so arrogant!” Halle waved her fists excitedly, looking very relieved.

“The disciples of the Sword Union are really extraordinary! Come on!”

At this point, some people who bet on Rivka also began to cheer and shout, and the scene was very lively.

“What’s wrong with Kassidy? Isn’t it too aggressive?”

On the other side, Noemi frowned slightly and was a little worried.

If she has successfully exploited the situation, she should adjust her strategy quickly to make people unpredictable after a blow.

Elite masters like Rivka, who had already experienced a defeat, would not fall for the same old tricks again.

Instead, they could use this opportunity to exploit the weaknesses and create a more favorable situation.

“Are these the Sword Union’s six sword-breaking moves? It really lives up to its reputation.” Grace narrowed her eyes and praised in a low voice.

The Sword Union’s six sword-breaking moves were unique. Despite having only six moves, one could alter them in countless ways.

According to Rivka’s recent performance, the opponent has already mastered it to perfection, and it’s as easy as an arm.

“Interesting.” Fenley curled his lips and became more interested.

A disciple of the Sword Union has such a high level of swordsmanship. If it were Glenn Hadley, what level would he have reached?

“Come again!” Cassidy, who had suffered a loss, was dissatisfied and attacked again with a sword.

She didn’t believe that she, the daughter of the Guildmaster of the Celestial Alliance, couldn’t deal with a mere disciple of the Sword Union.
