Chapter 2451

“You are such a bold lunatic! How dare you be so arrogant? Do you really think there is no one in Dragonmarsh?!”

Kassidy was furious and was about to continue attacking when Fenley raised his hand to stop her.

Those who could be called nobles in the bld clan were not ordinary people.

With Kassidy’s current strength, she was far from being their opponent.

“Judging from your appearance, this should be your first time in Dragonmarsh, right?” Fenley’s voice was calm, but his eyes were cold.

“So what?” Bill Wolf raised his head.

“You ignorant fool, it seems your predecessors didn’t tell you that after entering Dragonmarsh, you should keep a low profile. Otherwise, you may be in danger of de*th at any time!” Fenley stood up slowly, and a m*rdurous aura began to spread rapidly.

After the Western forces came to Dragonmarsh, as long as they did not cause trouble, most of them could live in peace.

But a guy like Bill Wolf, who was arrogant and provocative, was undoubtedly seeking his own de*th.

“A fatal disaster? Hehehe...” Bill Wolf laughed even louder. “Do you guys have the ability to do that?”

“You’ll know if you try.” Fenley slapped the table with one hand, and the dozen chopsticks in the tube floated up instantly.

Then he waved his hand violently.

“Swoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh, whoosh...”

A dozen chopsticks flew towards Bill Wolf like bullets.

Each chopstick contained the powerful aura of a master, which was enough to penetrate steel plates.

Bill Wolf's eyes turned fierce, and the nails on his hands instantly grew three inches longer, becoming sharp and pointed.

Facing the chopsticks flying towards him, Bill Wolf waved his claws repeatedly, cutting off all the chopsticks one by one with great precision.

His nails were as sharp as divine weapons.

They could tear even steel into pieces, let alone chopsticks.

"Haha...that's it?" Bill Wolf grinned and was about to make a few sarcastic remarks when he saw Fenley in front of the table suddenly disappear.

When Fenley appeared again, he was already half a meter in front of Bill Wolf, and his speed was incredibly fast.

"Um?" Bill Wolf's pupils shrank, and he subconsciously raised his hand to attack.

However, when he had only extended his claws halfway, he felt a pain in his chest.

Looking down, he found that Fenley's palm had pierced his chest.

Fenley's palm was like a knife, stabbing through Bill Wolf's chest and back, his hands covered in bld.

"You—!" Bill Wolf was stunned, his eyes full of shock.

The speed and strength of the vampires have always been their pride, and they have a huge advantage when facing human warriors.

However, Bill Wolf really didn't expect that Fenley's speed was even faster than his.

At this moment, not only he, but also Black Kong, who was sitting next to him drinking and watching the show, and Father Adam, known as Angel Dust, stopped talking and laughing.

The two looked at each other, with a hint of surprise on their faces.

They naturally knew how powerful Bill Wolf was.

Even when facing a martial arts master of the Dragonmarsh, Bill Wolf could win easily.

But now, after just one encounter, he was severely injured.

Chapter 2452

From this, it could be seen that the seemingly young warrior in front of Bill Wolf was definitely not an ordinary person.

“Vulnerable!”

Fenley snorted coldly, and with a flick of his hand, he threw Bill Wolf more than ten meters away.

With a “bang,” he hit the wall heavily, splashing a ball of bld.

“Wow!”

Bill Wolf spat out large amounts of bld, and his already pale face became even paler.

After suffering such a severe blow, even though Bill Wolf had amazing recovery abilities, he couldn’t stand up for a while.

Fenley glanced at Bill Wolf indifferently.

If an ordinary vampire’s heart was pierced, he would probably be close to de*th.

However, as a noble, Bill Wolf possessed stronger vitality and recovery ability than ordinary vampires.

Although his heart was damaged and needed some time to recover, it would not k!!l him instantly.

“How dare you, lowly human warrior, hurt me? I’ll tear you into pieces!”

Bill Wolf roared.

His eyes turned red in an instant, and his canine teeth grew rapidly, becoming sharp and pointed.

Immediately afterward, a bld mist suddenly rose from the surface of his skin, enveloping him.

The bld mist seemed to have a spirit, circling around Bill Wolf madly, and finally all penetrated into his wounds.

As the bld mist poured in, the originally hideous wound was completely healed in the blink of an eye.

This powerful recovery ability made several people frown.

Even though his heart was pierced, it was able to heal so quickly.

The ability of the nobles in the bld clan was indeed extraordinary.

“Go to h*ll!”

After fully recovering, Bill Wolf took a step forward and turned into a bldy shadow, rushing towards Fenley.

Its speed was even faster than before, and Cassidy and Fenley could hardly see his movements.

“You’re courting d*ath!”

Fenley snorted coldly.

Without dodging or evading, he punched bldy shadow.

This punch contained the power to destroy the world.

“Boom~!” There was a loud explosion.

Bill Wolf, hit by Fenley’s fist, exploded on the spot and turned into a bld mist in the sky.

Just when everyone thought that Bill Wolf was k!lled by one punch, the exploding bld mist suddenly rolled up and quickly turned into a human behind Fenley.

In the blink of an eye, Bill Wolf appeared again, and his sharp teeth bit Fenley’s neck.

With just one bite, Bill Wolf could instantly paralyze his opponent, rendering him unable to move.

Then s*ck him dry.

Chapter 2453

“Brother Fenley, be careful!”

The sudden change shocked the sisters Cassidy and Noemi, and they couldn’t help but exclaim.

They didn't expect that Bill Wolf had such a peculiar method.

After being punched into a blood mist, he could actually transform again and launch a surprise attack.

In a first confrontation, facing such a deadly move would be hard to defend against.

The teeth of the blood clan contained nerve-paralyzing toxins, especially those of the nobles, who were more dangerous.

As long as they bit someone, even a martial arts master couldn't resist it.

"A trick!"

Fenley didn't even turn his head; his body shook violently, and a huge phantom of a god flashed behind him.

At the same time, a terrifying shockwave suddenly erupted.

In an instant, Fenley's hair stood up, and his robe billowed.

Bill Wolf, attacking from behind, was blown several meters away by the shockwave and hit the wall heavily.

He fell, dizzy and embarrassed.

"That was a close call!"

Seeing this, the sisters Cassidy and Noemi breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, Fenley had the Heavenly God Four Symbols Jue to protect him; otherwise, it would have been quite dangerous.

"D*mn human warrior! I'm going to suck your blood!"

Bill Wolf, whose attack had failed, became even more irritable.

Surrounded by blood mist, his momentum soared, and with his ferocious face, he looked like a demon.

"Go to hell!"

Bill Wolf turned into a blood-colored hurricane, sweeping towards Fenley.

The advantage of the blood clan was their strong vitality.

Even if seriously injured, they could recover quickly.

So when fighting, Bill Wolf had no reservations, always opting for a life-for-life approach.

'If you hurt me ten times, I can recover, but if I hurt you once, you'll be near death.' This was the blood clan's characteristic and the basis of their survival, instilling fear in the world.

Unless there was a restraining weapon, killing a powerful vampire was extremely difficult.

"The Wrath of the Wind God!"

Looking at the blood-colored hurricane, Fenley lost his patience and used his killer move, the Four Symbols of the Heavenly God.

His body shook, and a huge phantom of the Heavenly God appeared behind him.

Then, he raised his hand and slapped the blood-colored hurricane in front of him.

The phantom of the Heavenly God behind him also made the same move.
