

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 241

Chloe Regens

"Oh my gosh, I'm so happy that you're here!" Angel squealed.

"Me too!" I hugged her.

"So.. Chloe." Angel showed me pictures on her laptop.

"I designed it myself and I love simple design especially on dresses. So Chloe, can you design dresses and tops?" She asked.

"Of course.. I'll try to draw and give it to you so you can see if you like it or not."

"Oh my gosh this is exciting, I'm so happy that you work here." She squealed and I chuckled.

"Thankyou for giving me this opportunity."

"It's fine and I love how you throw water and food to Marissa, damn!" She said and I smiled.

"She's a b* and she deserves it." I said.

"Of course.. so after you left, Ken left too. Did something happen? Did you two kiss again?" She asked and I shook my head.

"Nah.. he just trying to cheer me up."

"Cheer you up? Wow that's the first time I heard Ken treating a girl nicely."

"Huh? Really?" He just made me want to know about him more.

"Seriously Chloe.. So tell me when did you meet them?" She asked as she sat across me.

"Sebastian was my neighbor in LA and since Jack and Sebastian have the same age so they get along well. They knew each other since they were 4, after Sebastian's parents died, his aunt take him to New York."

"5 years after that, me and Jack wanted a vacation and decided to go to New York. That's where I met the boys, the 7 Gold Lifes already settle down back then and they're nice but 8 years gap between me and them made them like to tease me and play with me a lot." I chuckled

"A* that's so cute, you're all grown up now." She said.

"Yeah, we stayed in New York quite long and I play with them all the time since my friends are all back in LA. The only one girl that I played with is Rose.. but Rose sometimes ditch me with Max."

"No wonder they're so happy to see you, Alex even told me a little story about you. That when you're a kid you were so cute and chubby." She said and I smiled.

"Aren't you jealous? When I talked to Alex?"

"Jealous?" She laughed.

"Chloe , I know when I have to be jealous when I don't. You're basically their sister, there's nothing to be jealous about. Don't worry" She smiled.

"So let's talk about work.. should I come here everyday and make a design?" I asked.

"Ah.. yes, you'll be working with me starting tomorrow at 10 and end at 5, we will be collecting designs."

"Okay then.. I'm so happy. Thankyou Angel, I'm really thankful to find you."

"Me too! I'm so happy." She squealed.

"Thankyou so much for giving me this big opportunity."

"You're welcome, Chloe. Tomorrow will be your first day so prepare." She winked and I nodded.

"Okay then.. I'll see you tomorrow, Angel."

"Okay."

"Hey Alex" I greeted as he entered the room.

"Oh hey Chloe" Alex smiled, he walked to his wife and kissed her.

"How's the meeting?" Angel asked.

"Great."

"Bye guys, see you tomorrow Angel." I waved and they waved back. I walked out from Angel's office, I decided to go back to my apartment. It's 7 minutes walking from Angel's office so it's really easy for me.

Suddenly I thought something about Kenneth. Alissa, Angel and even Ken himself said thing that I don't even understand.

Why is his life so hard and puzzle? Who is the real Kenneth Domanco? Why he has so many secret?

There's so many question in my head. It's all about Kenneth. The Kenneth that I know 10 years ago were so happy, free and just caring but why suddenly he change? The day when I met him, he's a really easy going person. He was the one who approach me first and tease me.

I want to reach him.. There's something within me that makes me want to reach him. I don't know if I can or not or how and why.

The day that he took me to Top of The Rock Observation Deck makes me realize that he's lonely. The fact that he doesn't believe in love, hate dates, he's caring, he's not ordinary and things that makes want to know all the answer.

How? How am I going to do that? I can't ask the boys, it will be so stupid and they will tell Ken. But it's his life, I shouldn't interrupt that or caring about his life. It's private and he de-.

Oh I know how.. Jack asked him to be my baby sitter so let be it. I can dig it from there and trying to be close with him slowly. That's right Chloe.. I can do that.

I smiled widely and made my way back to Kenneth Domanco's office. I can just tell him that I change my mind, he will understand right? I'm so going to dig you Kenneth Domanco and I'm going to see every detail of it.
