

UNEXPECTED TEMPTATION: BILLIONAIRE LOVE STORIES CHAPTER 265

Chloe Regens

"Why are you smiling like that?" Ken asked me.

"I'm just happy that you're here." I said truthfully and he sighed. I held his hand tightly afraid that he will go away from me.

"Kenneth." I called and he turned to me raising his eyebrows.

"What's your real name?" I asked slowly.

"Nicholas."

"Nicholas Lemiere, that's sound sexy" I smiled to him and he shook his head.

"Tomorrow go home to LA, I've prepare a jet for you." He suddenly said and I looked at his hand.

"If I do what you say, will you comeback to me when the time is right?" I asked.

"Chloe.. I've told you-"

"Then I'm not going to LA." I said simply and he sighed.

"Why are you so stubborn?" He looked at me and I rolled my eyes.

"I've always been one, it's not a shocking thing."

"What did you see in me? Until you got so crazy and do stupid things?" Ken asked and I smiled. I chuckled and I looked into his eyes.

"Love.. as simple as that." I said and he looked away.

"I'm going to come out as a Lemiere, Chloe. Do you know how dangerous that is?" He asked.

"Are you going to kill all the people who killed your family?" I asked.

"That's the plan."

"Don't." I said and he turned to me disbelief.

"What? Are you telling me not to kill them? They kill my fucking family Chloe!" He bursted angrily.

"If you kill their family, you're not different than them Ken. Teach them a lesson, throwing them to jail. Expose everything. They have kids, they don't even know about their father doing. If you kill them, one day one of their family will do the same.. just like you right now." I said and he stayed silent.

"You're a great guy Ken, don't let revenge take over you. I know you're angry and wanting that so much but you will be the same as them if you do this." I added and kissed the back of his hand.

"I'm not ordinary Chloe, it's a curse." He said and I kissed his cheek.

"Not ordinary is not a curse Kenneth, it means you're special. You're a strong guy in and out." I smiled and he turned to me.

"If Conard got you, it means they found it." He stated and I looked at him with questioning eyes.

"What do you mean?"

"Nothing.. I'll send you back to LA first thing in the morning. Stay there and don't even think going out alone Chloe , I send my Team Beta and Team Omega to protect you. His name is Cody and Alfred." He said standing up. He released my hand and I looked up to him.

"You'll come to me again right?" I asked but he stayed silent.

"I love you, do you know that?" I said and still no answer from him.

"Take care Chloe." He said and with that he walked to the door. I sat on the chair again and looked out the window.

Suddenly I heard someone walk in to the room, I turned to see Sebastian. He walked to me and sat beside me.

"He told you, didn't he?" Sebastian asked.

"He's a Lemiere."

"Living his life is really hard Chloe." I turned to Sebastian and raised my eyebrows.

"Lemiere is a really big empire in business world. They were ruled 4 people named Jordan, Adam, Bill and Justin. Adam is Kenneth's dad."

"They do business in a good way and they gained so many enemies because they don't want to play dirty. They have connections with the government and they can play dirty if they want but they didn't do that."

"Why did they have to train since they were a kid?" I asked.

"Kenneth's grandfather was a mafia so it makes them have a lot of enemies even Ken's dad and his siblings didn't join it. Add their enemies in the business world, they have so many enemies Chloe until they all train to protect themselves." Sebastian answered.

"He and Alissa have the same experience, changing names and running away." He added.

"So he has so many enemies now?" I asked.

"Not as much as Adam Lemiere and his siblings." I turned to Sebastian and he ruffled my hair.

"That's only a glimpse of his dark past Chloe, if he decided to share it with you it means you already break him even it's just a little bit." He smiled.

"Can I be with him?" I asked.

"To be honest, it's up to Ken and you Chloe. Being with him will be dangerous and full of up and downs but if you love him. It will be worth it in the end."

"Where did you find that quote?" I joked.

"I went through like this with Alissa, her dad was the one who killed my family Chloe." My eyes widen.

"What happen?"

"She keep pushing me away but I never stop showering her with love and care. She's hard to crack too but I get her at last."

"Are you happy?" I asked.

"More than happy.. add Axel in it, my family is perfect." He smiled.

"Can you help me?" I asked.

"Depends."

"Kenneth is sending me back to LA tomorrow, can you please text me about how he's doing and things like that?" I asked and he looked at me disbelief.

"So you asked me to be his stalker?" I nodded happily.

"Oh damn it."

"Help me okay? I'm going to miss him." I said and he nodded. I squealed happily and hugged him.

"He deserve you Chloe and you deserve him." I smiled widely as Sebastian said that.

I deserve him.. and he deserves me.
