

UNIVERSAL JOB CHANGE: I CHOSE JOBLESS INDIVIDUAL

Chapter 1

"Tomorrow is the college entrance examination, it's time to test the strength of our Shinonome High School!"

"I transferred to a summoner and contracted three summons, rest assured, I will definitely lead my team to take off and defend the face of Shinonome High School!"

"I successfully transferred to a noble mage at level 10 by virtue of my talent, woohoo take off, I have already planned, choose an elemental mage for the second turn of the profession, and strengthen my elemental output. "

"You're thinking too far, the second transfer will be at level 30, and we can be promoted to level 10 to get the opportunity to change jobs, thanks to the country's educational support! If you want to upgrade in the future, you have to rely on yourself!"

A few years ago, Xuanlong announced a ten-year compulsory education support plan.

Popularly known as the 'Two 10 Plan'.

This means that all children must be given free and compulsory education for a period of 10 years, so that they can be transferred to the 10th grade and at the age of 18.

Even if the talent is not enough for the student to change to a 'combat career', it is possible to smoothly transfer to the 'life occupation' of the production department and the gathering department.

Everyone is equal!

Everyone has a chance to change jobs!

Everyone has the hope of becoming a pillar of the country and becoming a giant.

Xuanlong country spends a lot of financial and material resources to support compulsory education, giving every student the opportunity to successfully change jobs, and hopes that everyone will be like a dragon, strengthen the country, and promote the prestige of our country.

"When the Xuanlong Kingdom announced this compulsory education support plan, Tianda's efforts shocked the world, and you can be regarded as the first batch of achievements, both at home and abroad attach great importance to this achievement!"

"Jiangnan Province, as a major province of education, will definitely be watched by many people in this commemorative college entrance examination, and the champion of the gold list title, and even the top 100, will definitely have a generous scholarship award!"

"Even if it's not for the scholarship, it's for our Jiangnan Province and even for the Xuanlong Kingdom, and we have to raise face!"

Jin Sheng, the head teacher on the podium, waved his fist and cheered for the college entrance examination students in the third class.

At this time.

Yunchen, who was in the penultimate row by the window, looked out of the window boredly.

It's been three years .....

If he hadn't had time to get used to it, he might not have understood the above words.

It has been more than 70 years since the world changed, and the game has completely descended into reality, and the monsters within it have become a demonic disaster.

It turned out that the cross-era god domain game was incubated by the will of the earth, in order to allow humans who came to the game world through the light brain to imperceptibly kill monsters and upgrade and grasp monster information in advance.

After that, the game completely overlapped with the entire reality, the surface area of the earth expanded tens of thousands of times, and countless secret realms and dungeons descended.

And everyone can also increase their strength by upgrading and changing jobs.

I heard that through the second and third turns in the future, the diversity of the entire career system will even be enriched to thousands of kinds.

In such a world context, the college entrance examination has naturally become the next copy assessment.

"Yunchen, what profession have you chosen, do you have confidence in tomorrow's copy?"

At this time, Lei Yun, the male classmate in front of him, turned his head and asked.

"You'll know tomorrow. "

Yunchen didn't say much.

If he chooses no profession at all, but is still a scattered person without a career, then it will definitely cause great controversy.

Everything depends on tomorrow's college entrance examination.

In fact, if he hadn't activated the system half a month ago, he wouldn't have made up his mind to take the road of being unemployed and scattered.

"By the way, don't you really need to form a team? The person who wrote the question heard that it was Lao Ge of the Education Bureau, who is known for making difficult candidates, and this college entrance examination may be difficult, and the maximum number of copies may be three. "

Out of his capacity as squad leader, Lei Yun reminded again.

It's just that this invitation to team up was still rejected.

This guy .....

Lei Yun shook his head, and when he learned that Yunchen still had to run ten kilometers before returning home after school, he couldn't help but secretly admire his self-discipline.

Dozens of minutes later, in the school playground, Yunchen, who had finished his running exercise, was prompted by the system.

【Running (10KM/10KM)】

Push-ups (100/100).

[Sit-ups (100/100)].

Squat (100/100).

【Ding!Daily quests are completed, and you can earn rewards from the following selections. 】

【Reward (1) Gain 10 free attribute points.】 】

[Reward (2) Gain 10 skill points.] 】

【Reward (3) Random Skill Book.】 】

When (1) is selected, Yunchen's personal panel suddenly has 10 more free attribute points.

Not only that, but the moment you get the reward, all the fatigue accumulated in your body disappears, and even your own state returns to its peak state.

"Not bad. "

Yunchen is very satisfied, he has the biggest shortcoming of the system to make up for the jobless scattered people, and he is confident that he will still be invincible in the world in the later stage.

After all, the free attribute points he can obtain every day are even more than the 6 attribute points that he can level up in a single career.

And he's rewarded every day, and others are rewarded only when they level up.

As it comes and goes, the gap between them will continue to widen.

Even if it is the second turn in the back, it is difficult to smooth out the third turn.

In addition, Yunchen can also obtain other rewards from the tasks issued by the system.

For example.....

[Achievement Mission: According to the host's score in the college entrance examination, you will receive a matching achievement reward.] **】

(Note: This reward is linked to the 'Unemployed Individual' you have selected.)
)

The system is produced and must be a high-quality product.

In this way, Yunchen will inevitably shine in this college entrance examination.

He wants to strive to be the TOP1 and become the champion!
