

UNIVERSAL JOB CHANGE: I CHOSE JOBLESS INDIVIDUAL

Chapter 11

"It's too presumptuous. "

"This It's just vexatious. "

"This guy shouldn't be going to work hard for the champion, is he going crazy, do you really think you have a show?".

Seeing that the figure on the screen did not rest, and walked down the door of the next level, everyone felt incredible.

"I took a break from the previous level. "

"Now it's all of a sudden. "

Maybe it's because of the concern that is chaotic, and everyone is inexplicably worried.

Some of the people who were unhappy before even rebuked each other for committing the crime of arrogance.

"After all, this is not an ordinary next copy.,As long as you clear the customs.,This is the college entrance examination.,Everyone who enters the copy not only has to face the monsters inside.,But also have to compete with other college entrance examination compatriots.。 "

"One second faster, maybe hundreds of people forward. "

"If you are slow for a second, you may not be able to enter the undergraduate admission line. "

At this time, the invigilator stood up and reminded many students.

If you don't work hard, how can you fight for a better future?

Many students in the audience slandered in their hearts, and the truth was so.

But..... If you don't have a good rest and don't recover, aren't you afraid of dying on the spot for such an aggressive adventure?

The consideration in this is undoubtedly a psychological game.

Obviously, the invigilator also appreciates this kind of hard-working, adventurous student.

Looking at these unconvinced students, he shook his head and sighed, "Human beings can resist the ravages of demonic disasters, how can it not be the death of past heroes." " about the gains and losses of one's own interests and the safety of one's life, in this college entrance examination, you will only lose your initiative.

Thinking

"The most important thing is You've all ignored the summon's time. "

When the words fell, many people were suddenly awakened.

"Yes.....

"There are still quite a few units in his summons, especially his Thunder Eagle that is a bit fierce"

Minions have a lifetime, and abilities have a very long cooldown.

If you want to make the most of the value of the only summons left, it is indeed the best way to move on to the next level.

Of course..... This is still a bit presumptuous for many students, even conservative teachers.

"Here comes

"It's up to him to perform next. "

Under the expectant gaze of everyone, the only 'male protagonist' in the audience pushed open the underground door and entered the next level.

Compared to the previous city gate that had fallen into disrepair.

Now the second door is extremely heavy, and the whole body is glowing with black iron, if it is an ordinary magician profession, it is estimated that it may feel a little difficult.

For Yunchen, it is not a little troublesome.

In fact, he has only been in possession of the system for half a month, and he has already obtained the basic attribute of 'strength' that is more powerful than the physical attack class through the ten free attribute points given by the daily mission.

A one-handed push takes no effort.

Even

After the previous high-intensity, high-intensity, and very intense assassination, sword slash, and other strengths, he only felt a little tired.

The problem has little impact.

This is obviously related to the basic attribute of one's own 'constitution'.

The profession of scattered people is naturally a comprehensive and balanced development.

[Strength: 42; Constitution: 40; Agility: 40; Intelligence: 40.] 】

Everyone has a personal information panel, which also clearly displays the personal data of Yunchen today.

Generally speaking, four-dimensional data can be regarded as an average of 10.

The relationship between the awakening of the body at the time of the transfer of the tenth level varies from person to person, and there will be different fluctuations.

But the first and second people in the most powerful rocket class in Dongyun High School, counting the extra points before level 10, the three-dimensional data detected is only about 25 on average.

Looking at Jiangnan Province, the more famous high schools naturally have many strong rivals, and there are some with an average of 30.

There's even a hidden profession in the middle of this.

Moreover, the free attribute points of the vast majority of compatriots are not evenly developed, and they need to be selective.

Mage, naturally focus on wisdom attributes.

Assassin, naturally the main ascends to agility.

Therefore, there must be very few people who are higher than themselves in a certain attribute in the examination room.

But Yunchen didn't care at all.

The number of skills he has mastered is at least several times higher than that of others.

His awakening talent is 'omnipotent', and even his innate instinct to fight, and now he has the help of a golden finger.

He doesn't care about the pride of the sky and the existence of a hidden profession.

No matter how fierce the competition is this year, he is determined to win the championship.

As for why he pushed the door without thinking, it was naturally because he wanted to maximize the remaining existence time of the summon.

Squeak.....

When the black iron gate was completely pushed open, the Thunder Eagle and the two water elemental spirits behind him, and even the only three remaining goblin warriors rushed in.

"Roar!!".

At this moment, the sound of roaring chirps had resounded throughout the underground palace.

Giant pillars seven or eight meters high were scattered on both sides, and goblins who were napping on the ground immediately woke up when they felt the intrusion of outsiders.

There are still different forms and variety.

Maybe it's because of the palace, but the ordinary goblin warriors and cavalry are gone, but there are many more goblin shamans and goblin mages who seem to be of higher rank.

"It's kind of interesting.....

Yunchen raised his eyebrows indifferently.

This means that the level is less tolerant of errors.

The enemy's damage is much higher, and once it is hit by a series of attacks, it will naturally be the end for the other candidates.

In fact, due to the excessive pursuit of efficiency, Yunchen's body naturally did not have much magic left at this time.

This is also the reason why outsiders are so worried about his recklessness.

But..... This is obviously a misunderstanding.

They didn't dissolve people too much.

1. The amount of blue consumed by scattered people, that is, the loss of magic power for each skill, is much less than that of professional skills.

Second, there is a profession that has a much lower loss of blue energy.

That's the sharpshooter.

At this moment, after Yunchen released the 'Blue Returning Technique', he put down his scepter.

Meanwhile.

His hands had already drawn the two guns he had carried on his waist on either side.

One long and one short.

One white and one silver.

With two guns in hand, you don't need too much surging magic, just rely on bullets to penetrate each other's heads.

And this will test how accurate the individual's marksmanship is.

"Coming, coming....."

".

"He's finally got the gun, still in both hands!!".

"Damn!!Oh my God!!, I don't believe this guy is still a sharpshooter..... I can't believe he plays every weapon so well!".

At the same moment, the audience outside went crazy.

Even Principal Fang felt the infection of his emotions, clenched his fists, and looked at the unemployed scattered man who raised his two guns with all his attention!
