

UNIVERSAL JOB CHANGE: I CHOSE JOBLESS INDIVIDUAL

Chapter 14

Soon

The hearts of the crowd became more and more immersed.

"His blue amount is estimated to have recovered a lot, and the amount of blue consumed by small skills is much smaller.....

As a teacher said, two or three minutes of gunfight baptism does not consume any physical magic, and purely relies on one's own movement and bullets to cause damage.

Now that so much time has passed since the Blue Technique, it will inevitably restore the magic power in his body.

The voice just fell.....

"Here, I'm familiar with this move, it's a martial artist's primary skill 'rolling'. "

The man on the screen easily dodged a one-hit area attack.

Next, there is the 'sliding step' of the marksman, and even a 'shot in the air', which does not forget to counterattack and shoot back between dodges, and hit the enemy to the ground.

"There are just too many small displacement skills. "

"That's the advantage of being a jobless person!"

The advantages of unemployed people are vividly demonstrated at this moment.

Hundreds of primary abilities are simply emerging in an endless stream across the profession.

"Noticed? This Senior Yun prefers small displacement skills, and he doesn't want some elementary skills of sharpshooters, such as gunpowder sputtering, which has never appeared until now. "

"Gunpowder splashing is a splash range ability, one shot can deal a wide area of damage, and most sharpshooters will spend skill points. "But maybe it's because the splash is not lethal enough, so this Yunchen doesn't like it. "

"He clearly likes the feeling of being in control, and the constant blue consumption of gunpowder sputters is a serious conflict with his playstyle. "

"Ah, the domineering man who controls everything..... It's my favorite man!".

The students were communicating below, but they were soon completely deviated by a sentence from a female classmate.

Although many people don't want to admit it, a man with a slender and tall figure and a handsome and resolute appearance is indeed attractive.

Especially the extreme slaughter feast where the blade danced just now brought out a cold, ruthless, domineering and sharp temperament.

And the next scene in front of him caused a bunch of to shout loudly.

I saw that the man who was the focus of the audience gave the attacking goblin guard a 'sliding shovel' at the moment of reloading, shoveling it into the air.

When the new magazine is reloaded, in less than half a second, it will make up for a precise headshot to the monster figure that fell from the sky.

"Wow!!".

"Too handsome, so handsome.....

".

"Help, let me die under his gun!".

"I announced that he was my new husband. "

I have to say, this is really handsome.

The male classmates could only smile bitterly, but they silently remembered this set of moves in their hearts, why didn't I expect such a cool cooperation?

The students in the audience seemed a little lively.

But the teachers were talking about Yunchen's backpack space.

"He didn't have any medicine with him, either a bullet or a mechanic's device.

"It seems that yes, he has the priest's 'healing technique' and 'blue return technique', and he has never drunk a bottle of medicine from beginning to end. "

"That's not right..... In fact, he hadn't even used healing. "

Anyway.

The teachers were somewhat silent.

Even if they were under the same level of dungeons, few of them dared not bring a bottle of potion, and even cleared the dungeon without receiving the priest's treatment.

The movement and movement of this cloud are very exquisite.

"There are a bunch of small displacement skills, and when I beat the Goblin Centurion, I saw that he still has a lot of small control skills..... From beginning to end, I wasn't hurt by a monster. "

In addition, Yunchen's backpack space is also another focus of the teachers.

In this world, as long as you reach level 10, you can get 5 backpack spaces. It's just that each space can only hold the same type of items, and there is a specified capacity, so it's not okay to put too much.

And the contents of Yunchen's backpack are also thorough.

The capacity of one block of space can hold up to 15 magazines, and looking at the amount of bullets on the ground, he estimated that all three blocks of space had magazines, and the other two contained traps and dangerous devices that the mechanic would use. "

"Looking at it this way, Yunchen is indeed very confident, and he will go to the copy without medicine. "

It is worth mentioning that since it is the college entrance examination, some illegal drugs are not allowed in the backpack space.

For example, drugs that can instantly restore vitality and magic power are prohibited.

The potions taken can only be strictly limited to two normal potions.

In addition, there are many prohibited contents in the college entrance examination, ranging from bullet specification restrictions to weapon grade quality.

"The rest is garbage time. "

The

act of dancing on the blade alone has ended, and there are sparse goblin mobs left in the palace, which are just normal sweeps for Yunchen.

Simple, effortless, and risk-free.

But the atmosphere that suddenly relaxed made Principal Fang, who was in the middle of the audience, inexplicably nervous.

"Huh?".

Jin Sheng, who was sitting on the side, only felt strange.

Principal Fang, what's wrong?

"Come on, come on! Yunchen

."

What's even more surprising is that Principal Fang, who was still calm and light-skinned before, began to mumble quietly, and his eyes kept focusing on Yunchen on the screen, without slacking his attention at all.

"There is only one last level left, and there is a to impact the champion".

After a little bit from the teaching director next to him, Jin Sheng immediately realized.

He had been worrying about Yunchen just now whether he would be too risky and whether his body would be injured.

For a while, I didn't expect that my love would rush through the level faster than I imagined.

This is what I gave up rest and worked hard before!!

"Impact Champion

."

This is a fact that Jin Sheng did not dare to imagine in the past.

Because it's so hard.

The best result in the history of Dongyun High School since its establishment is only the eighth place in the province, but there is a gap between it and the champion of the year, and the same difficulty is a full 2 minutes and 05 seconds.

Now Yunchen's performance has refreshed the cognition of all teachers, which is indeed a very stable demeanor!

It's no wonder that Principal Fang, who has always been calm and deep-skinned, finally couldn't stabilize his emotions at this moment.

Not many people remember who the second is?

But if it is the first and takes off the champion, it is definitely a person who has attained the Tao, and the chicken dog ascends to heaven!!

Especially this year's college entrance examination is such a special year, testing the first batch of achievements of ten years of compulsory education, which is a milestone in an absolute sense.

If he wins the champion, the principal of the other party will have to eat a piece of the pie with the least to say, and he will leave his name in history.

But at the moment when the principal was extremely excited, the invigilator made the holographic screen cut one and a half screens.

Just when all the teachers and students didn't know why, everyone stared, and many people were shocked and broke out in a cold sweat, but it was a student who was killed by a goblin!
