

UNIVERSAL JOB CHANGE: I CHOSE JOBLESS INDIVIDUAL

Chapter 6

"Seeing the blood sealing the throat, the sword is deadly, and there is not a single superfluous movement. "

"It's a pity that this person didn't turn into a demon swordsman or swordsman, and I have one less kendo genius. "

"It's a pity that he didn't become a mage, can you see how powerful his spells are?"

The layman looks at the bustle, and the insider looks at the doorway.

Only students who are proficient in the path of magic know that Yunchen is a little outrageous.

Elemental magic requires chanting and gesture guidance, communicating the elements of heaven and earth to guide the combination of tiny particles.

In the process, the slightest carelessness will be interrupted, at least fine, or at worst, the spell will backfire.

Although the fireball technique is too rudimentary, it will be able to get started, and there is no too cumbersome gesture guidance.

But this Yunchen was running, his movements slowed down by half a step, and he easily ended the ceremony and released the fireball, and landed in the middle of the monster pile very accurately.

Once a coincidence can be explained.

However, five waves of guards in succession, all of them were killed in the same way without exception, which perfectly illustrates how accurate this person's control of mana is.

Watching him fight is like watching an art show about slaughter.

"Read on. "

"Don't change the channel. "

Many people started to laugh.

The previous principal asserted that there was 'no future' and 'can't go far', which seemed to be a change of channel.

Now after seeing such a combat skill that was as accurate as a surgical scalpel, this Principal Fang also fell silent all of a sudden.

He was also a little annoyed that he had made up his mind too soon.

Who would have thought that this teenager would hide such an exaggerated battle intuition from under the literal information.

This is indeed a rare good embryo.

"The two of you in the rocket class, why did you miss such a person. "

Principal Fang is also an old Tai Chi player.

All of a sudden, the spearhead of unknown people was pushed to the heads of these two head teachers of the rocket class.

Looking at Principal Fang's cold eyes, the two head teachers of the rocket class smiled bitterly.

It's over, it looks like the performance bonus is going to be cut by this old guy.

However, they also scolded secretly, and this wave was indeed blind.

On the side, Jin Sheng secretly breathed a sigh of relief, at least there was no reason for his performance bonus to be cut.

On the contrary.....

Yunchen, this young man, shouldn't give him more surprises.

"Here I am, push the door. "

In the picture, after a few seconds of rest, the big male protagonist of the screen who was looking up in front of him pushed open the underground city gate in front of him.

Squeak.....

The

dungeon gate made a tooth-aching sound, and it was in disrepair, and a cloud of dust was falling from it.

When the two doors were opened, a vast hall was revealed.

And..... Goblins of different shapes and colors are scattered all over the hall.

"Ho .....".

Perhaps it was this movement that disturbed the monster inside.

The

goblins with red eyes and drooling saliva turned their gaze to the humans who had come to visit.

Yunchen swept his gaze, and a rough count showed that there were at least hundreds.

Moreover, the corridors connected outside the hall were full of shadows, and sounds were heard from time to time, and it was obvious that there were also enemies.

[Skills: Berserk, Shockwave, War Trampling.] ]

.....

With the general skill 'Identification' that everyone has, every monster can display information.

In addition, in Yunchen's sight, there is also a blue-skinned 'Blue Goblin' who is good at ice elemental spells.

'Goblin Cavalry' riding a foal.

A 'Goblin Warrior' wearing bone armor.

Even the gods chatter, reciting the unknown beast language of the 'Goblin Shaman'.

There are many types and different forms.

Each wave of guards ushered in by the narrow corridor before tested the output of strength, and each wave gave people a chance to rest.

But now, the vast and boundless terrain is for people to meet the bombardment of hundreds of goblins head-on.

Of course..... You can go around the terrain and pull kites in circles against stone pillars to control monsters.

It's just that the pressure on the survival of the individual is compressed to the extreme.

Either way, the death threat is hundreds of times higher than it used to be.

"It's kind of interesting. "

A smile appeared on Yunchen's angular face, and his resolute expression did not lose any momentum.

"Roar!!".

The hissing roar grew more intense.

These goblins don't give the intruder much time to think about it.

Led by the goblin centurion's roar, the goblins throughout the hall began to attack.

Click!!

Under the crisp sound of footsteps, I saw a goblin knight riding a tall horse take the lead.

They came galloping on their horses with bone spears in hand, and in the distance there were goblin shamans dancing in place, beating war drums with their hands.

Under the beating and roaring sound of the war drums, it actually has an inexplicable magic power, which has a buff effect on the Goblin Knight.

Not only that, but the red and blue goblins in the distance cooperated with the charging knights, waving the bone staff in their hands, ready to cast their own ice and fire magic.

There are front-row cavalry charges, warriors with shields to pounce forward, shamanic milk blood buffs in the back, and magic and throws in the back row.

Each performs its own duties and cooperates tacitly!

This scene is enough to pull everyone who enters into the battlefield.

Can you believe this is a brainless goblin?

..... about it

Yunchen, who responded, raised his scepter high.

'Illumination!'

In a flash.

A blazing white ball suddenly rose from the top of the scepter, and the blinding daylight blinded the eyes of all the goblins at once.

The instinctive neighing of pain from the ushered war horse directly threw the knight who was on top of it and flew it away.

The shaman dancing and beating the drums in the distance also covered his hands in pain, and his skills were interrupted by himself.

Similarly, the red and blue goblins were all stimulated by the bright light, and their eyes were temporarily blind and weeping, and their singing was interrupted.

Who would have thought that this general skill 'Illumination Technique', which basically no one would waste skill points, would be used by Yunchen to have an excellent lethal effect at this moment.
