

Next day

Chapter 10

I get myself washed and dressed and head for breakfast, everyone is already at the table Dean is avoiding looking at me and is quiet, so much for not making things obvious if he keeps this up they will catch on pretty quickly that something has gone on.

Luckily Jayden and James haven't gotten dressed yet so I will have a chance to grab him for a chat when they are not around before one of them notices his strange behaviour.

'You can use my bathroom to shower if you want Jayden so none of you have to wait around to get ready'

'Thanks Tails I think I will do that'

They head off and Dean goes to try and escape off with them 'wait a minute you, I want a quick word'

'What's up' he replies awkwardly still not looking in my eye

'Look do you regret last night, because I don't, also there is no need to be acting weird around me we have known each other for years just because we fooled around a bit doesn't have to change anything. We are friends who just happened to add a few extra benefits on to it, it's not a big deal, it's not like there are feelings involved it's just a bit of fun. If you don't want to do it again fair enough if you do we have a bit of fun until you head home then it's back to our normal relationship no hard feelings either way. But you really need to stop acting like this unless you really want them to know something happened you are making it really obvious'

He looks at me with his mouth open and takes a minute before he can reply at least he's looking me in the eye 'fu.ck no, I don't regret it, I had an amazing time last night. I just felt so guilty when I saw Jayden this morning I didn't know how to react'

'It's really none of his business I'm sure he's not a saint himself, but you don't see me inserting myself into his s*x life. As far as I am concerned it's between us and he doesn't have to know anything it is easier that way'

'Me and Jayden have been friends all our life, but I don't think I can resist you, you are a walking temptation. I know I am probably going to regret this but I would like us to continue while I'm here too, I don't think I would be able to stay away from you after last night anyway'

'Good now stop acting weird, and be your normal i****t self so my cousin doesn't kick your a.ss' I say laughing. He laughs back thankfully that's the tension eased for now.

It been 2 fun weeks since the first time I ended up in bed with Dean, he's been sneaking into my bed every night, I can tell you I have enjoyed every minute of it. I think he might be getting a bit too confident in no one catching us, he been more touchy and dirty as the days have went on.

James is definitely getting suspicious and has taken to trying to sit beside me more often, put his arm around me, hug me and things like that, I'm sure he's doing it to try and wind him up.

Jayden has went out to the shops and I walk into the den to hear James and Dean having a serious talk 'and why should I stop hugging her she's my friend' James says in a mocking tone

'Fu.ck off James stop touching her it's not appropriate and you know it' Dean shouts angrily at him

'Oh yeah, says you who keeps touching her everyday and sneaking off every night to her room do you really think I didn't notice you i****t' James laughs

'What I don't know what you are on about' Dean tries to backtrack not looking in his eyes

'Yeah of course I'm not a fool you can't even look me in the eyes. Jayden is gonna kill you for taking advantage of her'

'Look man' he starts but I don't give him a chance to finish it's time I let them know I'm here

'Just wait a minute, who said anyone took advantage of me. In case it escaped your notice I'm not a child anymore and I am able to look out for myself. Not that it is any of your or Jayden's business it was me that made the first move and suggested this arrangement. I don't really care if you have a problem with it but I would appreciate it if you wouldn't mention it to Jayden, I don't want this to affect his and Dean's friendship' they are looking at me surprised I'm not sure if it's because of what I said or because I caught them arguing about me

'Look Talia I'm only worried about you, and how Jayden is going to react. I don't want anyone getting hurt, or you getting your heart broken' I laugh at this point, I mean seriously do all boys think women fall madly in love that easily.

'I appreciate your concern, I really do but you don't have to worry about me. It's a bit of fun that's all me and Dean are friends and we will remain friends after this. This is just blowing off some steam I'm not the type to get all mushy and fall for a guy that easily we both went in with our eyes fully open knowing what we were wanting out of it' James' jaw looks like it is going to hit the ground before he manages to gather himself finally he says 'Why did you have to pick him, I would have been a much better choice. I mean look at this how could you have resisted' he winks while pointing at himself, Dean's looking smug at this point I'm glad I have my joker back.

'I have no idea Mr irresistible' I roll my eyes and laugh

'Being serious guys if I have noticed, you need to cool it a bit, we only have another week here just don't get caught. I won't say anything, and if he finds out I know nothing. You're a fu.cking lucky bastard' he says looking at Dean we burst out laughing.

Four nights later we still haven't been found out, Jayden doesn't have any idea. Dean creeps into my bed I'm naked and waiting on him as he peels back the covers he groans 'fu.ck your body is perfect' while palming my breasts and kissing my neck.

'I feel you may have too many clothes on let me help you with that' I say as I tug his t-shirt over his head and then he removes his boxers. I nip him round and kiss him passionately while grinding his hard cock between my folds he feels amazing.

I make my way down his body so I can suck on his shaft as I get down he grabs me and turn my body so I'm facing the opposite way 'I want you to ride my face as I'm fu.cking your mouth' he huskily says into my core before taking a lick, I swear I almost cum just from that I'm dripping at this point.

I waste no time taking him in my mouth and sucking hard while taking him deep into my throat coming up and swirling my tongue around the tip occasionally before swallowing it all the way down. He's got 2 fingers in me now while his tongue is working wonders on my clit he sucks on it hard I let out a moan causing him to pant and moan more with the vibrations it sent to his cock.

I start massaging his balls as I feel myself getting close he's thrusting his fingers in and out of me relentlessly next thing I know I feel another finger in my ass this is new I inch a bit at the foreign sensation. Then I start to feel so full with fingers in both my holes, I never thought it would feel like this I'm so close I'm moaning like hell, trying to suck the life out of him so he can finish soon too. My legs start shaking and my eyes are rolling in my head when my orgasm hits I squirt with a loud, fu.ck I can't believe I actually squirted that's all it takes Dean cums with a roar and I swallow and collapse.

Just as I am about to say something my door bursts open and Jayden storms in oh shit.

'what the fu.ck do you think you are doing' he roars. I quickly cover myself and Dean with the sheets and pass Dean his clothes fu.ck the looks pissed.
