

Chapter 608 Full Payment

Willard opened his briefcase and took out a stack of cash before tossing the money at Xena's face.

“You became a saleswoman for money, right? Take this cash and get lost at once. Quit being an eyesore in front of me.”

He threw at least twenty thousand at Xena, but she didn't pick up even one piece of the note.

She was about to exit the room while covering her face when Jennifer suddenly grabbed her. “Hold on. Since Bella Residences is dismissing you, why don't you come work at my company?”

Tanya's slap had already crushed Xena's confidence.

She shook her head and said, “I've never been able to do anything well since I was little. I want to go back to the countryside and leave the city.”

“I see. She came from the countryside. No wonder she's so dumb.” The contempt in Willard's eyes intensified.

The sight of Xena's demeanor tugged at Jennifer's heartstrings.

She endured similar hardships as Xena when she lived in the Wilson residence in the past.

Due to Leonard's low status in the family, Jennifer had always been scorned by her peers in the Wilson family.

At that time, Jennifer couldn't fathom what she had done wrong to cause others to hate and bully her.

She was even diagnosed with depression during that period, as she felt the world was filled with too much malevolence.

Taking in Xena's pure and innocent mien at that moment, Jennifer couldn't help but be reminded of her previous self.

She grasped Xena's hand and uttered, “If you constantly choose to run away whenever you're faced with difficulties, you'll never grow. Come work at my company. Coincidentally, there's a vacancy for the sales department manager position.”

I'll still be in the sales department, but I'll be the manager this time?

“Really? But I-I—”

“Stop hesitating. Guide us through the procedure to purchase the mansion now. After you get your commission, you can start working at my company.”

Jennifer's words struck Tanya like a joke. An inexperienced novice like Xena is being offered to become another company's sales manager?

Although Tanya didn't know the nature of the business of Jennifer's company, she reckoned it wasn't any large corporation since Jennifer could recklessly appoint Xena as a manager.

Jennifer's statement about Xena receiving a commission after selling a mansion sounded all the more laughable.

Crossing her arms in front of her chest, Tanya said, “Miss, the cheapest unit among the mansions available in Belle Residences is priced at forty thousand per square meter, and the smallest size is five hundred square meters. Therefore, if you genuinely wish to buy a mansion, you'll have to prepare a minimum of twenty million. Do you have that much money?”

Jennifer responded to Tanya's question in a simple manner.

She took out a bank card and handed it to Xena before uttering nonchalantly, “I'll buy the Type A mansion as per our discussion earlier, and I'll pay in full amount.”

“Type A?” Tanya was momentarily dazed. “The eight hundred square meters mansion with an attached mini garden?”

Among all the mansions in Belle Residences, Type A had the largest size and the best design.

However, the area was overly large, covering a land area of eight hundred and seventy square meters. Hence, even though there were only six Type A mansions available in Belle Residences, only one was sold thus far.

If Jennifer is indeed sufficiently loaded to purchase the Type A mansion in full payment, Xena will receive a commission of four hundred thousand from this transaction alone. This is impossible. How is a woman driving a Highlander so wealthy?

Willard's facial expression turned sour as well. If she's really capable of paying twenty million in full, the four hundred thousand in my card means nothing to her.

Xena went to the finance department. Unexpectedly, when she returned, the finance manager, Finley Douglas, and sales manager, Grant Dixon, trailed behind her.

“Are you Ms. Jennifer Wilson? I heard you're purchasing the Type A ultra-luxurious mansion in full payment. Is that true?”
