

Unparalleled 1061

Chapter 1061: Killing Everyone, Arch Gilded Immortal, The Celestial Demon Clan, I'm Bei Ming

"You b*stard! You plotted against me!" The white-haired Heavenly Immortal roared with reddened eyes.

He now understood that the battle had been under the opponent's control from the very beginning and that the opponent was waiting for him to use the Heavenly Rage Technique so that he could devour his Heavenly Dao energy when it was out of control.

However, he had some doubts.

How did the opponent know that he possessed the Heavenly Rage Technique?

Never would he have thought that an incredible Omniscient Spirit existed in the universe. When he appeared in front of Chu Kuangren, his cultivation techniques, cultivation base, and many more had been thoroughly analyzed by Chu Kuangren.

He did not know anything about Chu Kuangren, yet Chu Kuangren knew everything about him. Even if he was a Heavenly Immortal, how could he defeat Chu Kuangren?

"Behave yourself."

Seeing that the white-haired Heavenly Immortal was trying to struggle, Chu Kuangren stomped hard and almost crushed his chest completely.

Spit...

The white-haired Heavenly Immortal spat out a mouthful of blood again, feeling the Heavenly Dao energy in his body fading. That was when he felt a sense of fear he had never felt before.

He finally understood why the Master Daoist wanted them to capture Chu Kuangren. Even the Heavenly Dao Sect, who was good at utilizing the Heavenly Dao energy, did not have such a quick and direct way of devouring the Heavenly Dao.

If Heavenly Daoist Kun could obtain it, he might have the opportunity to suppress the other bloodline's Daoists. That was why Heavenly Daoist Kun sent him over.

However, he had underestimated Chu Kuangren.

A Heavenly Immortal was not Chu Kuangren's opponent.

'His combat strength is incredible, and he can even defeat a Heavenly Immortal. I'm afraid the first-ranking Heavenly Daoist is not his opponent,' the white-haired Heavenly Immortal thought. At that moment, he had lost all hope.

It did not take long before Chu Kuangren had absorbed all of his Heavenly Dao energy and crushed his body.

"I shall give you a quick death," said Chu Kuangren.

He unleashed a sword attack and killed the white-haired Heavenly Immortal. When he felt the skyrocketing Heavenly Dao energy in his body, he could not help but smack his lips. "Heavenly Dao Sect, huh? What a great tonic."

If a Heavenly Dao Envoy had such powerful Heavenly Dao energy, what about the Daoists that had been given more attention in their cultivation and the Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler?

How strong could the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao be if Chu Kuangren could devour their Heavenly Dao energy?

At that thought, Chu Kuangren became excited. He seemed to have found a way to make Firmament Star stronger quicker.

However, he did not intend to attack the Heavenly Dao Sect recklessly.

As far as he knew, the Heavenly Dao Sect was one of the most powerful forces in the universe, with large numbers of Immortals. It even had True Immortals and Gilded Immortals, who both were more powerful than Heavenly Immortals!

There was no way he could fight them with his current strength.

1

"Heavenly Dao Sect, the hunting game has just begun. Who's the prey and who's the hunter?" mumbled Chu Kuangren while looking into the depths of the universe.

Then, he looked at the remaining cultivators around him coldly. "None of you can be spared!"

The Firmament Star needed time to grow, and so did he.

Therefore, he must not allow those people to return to the Heavenly Dao Sect to report the news, as it was not the right time to start a war.

"Chaos Celestial Demon, Yin Yang Life and Death Seal!"

The Immortal's Core in Chu Kuangren activated, and he cast the Chaos Celestial Demon energy to its full potential. His right hand was controlling life while his left was controlling death. As soon as he pressed his hands together to form a mysterious stamp, a huge Yin Yang symbol appeared in the thin air!

Thousands of meters around were shrouded in this huge Yin Yang symbol, which incomparably terrifying life and death intent flowed through. Eventually, warships and cultivators exploded and perished in the symbol!

Shrouded within the Yin Yang symbol, even the Immortals felt an indescribable sense of vastness that made them feel insignificant, so much that they could not control their own life and death!

In an instant, the starry skies seemed to have transformed into purgatory!

After Chu Kuangren killed all the cultivators, he searched through the battlefield and found some warships in fairly good condition.

He intended to study those warships as the craftsmanship of warships could often reveal the background of civilization or force. Moreover, he intended to strengthen the Firmament Star's craftsmanship of warships by studying these warships.

Just as he was about to leave, he suddenly stopped in his tracks, and his eyes widened. After a while, he chuckled and shouted to his surroundings, "Senior, please show yourself."

"Hah." A middle-aged, black-haired man walked out from the void after he chuckled.

The middle-aged man's face looked mature, and he had star-like eyes. He was tall, and as he stood in the air, he emanated a faint aura that intimidated Chu Kuangren.

The man was an incomparably powerful being, and his strength was far above an Immortal.

No. It was an insult to compare him to a Heavenly Immortal.

Chu Kuangren secretly activated the Omniscient Spirit, and even with Lil Ai's ability, it took some time to analyze him.

The middle-aged, black-haired man could not help but frown when Lil Ai began to analyze him as he felt an incredible sense of strangeness. It was as if a supreme existence was spying on him.

It was impossible. There were only a few supreme beings stronger than him in the universe.

The black-haired man looked at Chu Kuangren and felt that the person in front of him was odd.

"That's interesting."

"Besides Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, you seem to have a lot of secrets," said the black-haired man curiously as he rubbed his chin.

Chu Kuangren smiled, appearing calm.

At that moment, Lil Ai's analysis result was out.

Although Chu Kuangren had expected it, the black-haired man's origin still surprised him. He was an Arch Gilded Immortal!

Surpassing Heavenly Immortals, True Immortals, and Gilded Immortals, he had attained the Arch Gilded Daoist Nirvana and could be considered the most powerful Arch Gilded Immortal among Immortals!

Besides his cultivation base, his identity also surprised Chu Kuangren as he came from the Celestial Demon Tribe!

The Celestial Demon cultivators were extremely rare even in the ancient immortal time, let alone the current era. They were basically extinct.

However, he had some guesses as to why the man was looking for him.

It must be related to his Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

"You don't seem to be afraid of me," said the black-haired man with a smile.

Even though he did not fully reveal his aura, his poise should be enough to tell Chu Kuangren that his cultivation base was far above a Heavenly Immortal.

“There’s no point for me to be afraid, Senior. Besides, if you want to kill me, you can do so any time. The fact I’m not dead yet means that you don’t want to kill me, so there’s no need for me to be afraid,” said Chu Kuangren.

In fact, Chu Kuangren was not afraid even if the black-haired man wanted to kill him because he had the Indestructible Body.

He could self-destruct and disperse every molecular cell in his body before recovering once the black-haired man left.

Even with such a technique, even the Arch Gilded Immortal could not kill him. None in the entire universe could beat him in terms of life-saving ability.

“Haha! How courageous!”

The black-haired man possessed powerful eyesight, and he could tell that Chu Kuangren was indeed not afraid.

He admired his Daoist’s core and courage.

“Let me introduce myself. I’m from the Celestial Demon Tribe, and my name is... Bei Ming!”

Chapter 1062: My Way of Dao, The Best Celestial Demon Physique, The Three Celestial Demon Qi

Bei Ming!

As soon as Bei Ming said his name, an incomparably arrogant aura emanated from his body, with a trace of Chaos Celestial Demon qi. Apparently, he was also a host of the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

That Daoist Physique of his revealed he was from the Celestial Demon Tribe.

“Greetings, Senior Bei Ming.”

Chu Kuangren nodded and bowed. No matter what, he still had to have proper etiquette when faced with an Arch Gilded Immortal.

“Well, let’s get straight to the point. I’ve come to you because of your Chaos Celestial Demon Physique. The Celestial Demon Tribe cultivators are close to extinction in this current era, and yours is the only Celestial Demon Physique that has shown up in these tens of thousands of years. I want to take you by my side to guide you.”

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren was stunned for a moment.

It was too good to be true.

For no reason, he now had a backer at the level of an Arch Gilded Immortal?

“You don’t have to doubt it. There aren’t a lot of us in the Celestial Demon Tribe, and every one of us is precious, especially in this era. As an Arch Gilded cultivator, I must protect you.”

“May I ask how many cultivators are there in the Celestial Demon Tribe?”

“In the known universe, there are seven Celestial Demon cultivators, including you,” said Bei Ming helplessly.

There were many living beings in the vast universe.

However, the Celestial Demon Tribe only had seven cultivators, including those from the ancient immortal times. It was clear that Celestial Demon cultivators were rare.

“Seven? That’s considered a lot.” Chu Kuangren was not surprised.

He had been drawing prizes from the Fantasy Roulette for more than ten years but had rarely gotten a top-notch God-tier physique like the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

In his opinion, having seven Celestial Demon Physiques was good enough.

“Senior, I appreciate your kindness, but my cultivation Dao is different from the Celestial Demon Dao. I’m afraid I’ll disappoint you,” said Chu Kuangren, in neither a humble nor arrogant manner.

“The Celestial Demon Dao is the supreme path of Dao. How many cultivation techniques in this world can compare to the Celestial Demon Dao?”

Somewhat displeased, Bai Ming’s mouth twitched. As one of the seven Celestial Demon Physiques, he had the right to be proud.

“No one can cultivate my way of Dao. It is the unique and transcendental Invincible Self-Empowering Dao!” Chu Kuangren said loudly. Then, Immortal Sparks radiated from his body while the aura of his Invincible Self-Empowering Dao permeated the air.

Bei Ming, who did not think much of it at first, was a little surprised. “Such a Dao... How is it possible?!”

All Dao was closely related to the universe.

Even the Dao of the Chaos Celestial Demons, who were born at the start of the universe, was inseparable from the universe.

However, he could feel the transcendental intent from Chu Kuangren’s Dao as if it did not exist in this universe.

Let alone the Celestial Demon Tribe cultivators, it was impossible to find a Dao that was similar elsewhere.

‘How could there be such a Dao?’

Even Bei Ming was puzzled.

Chu Kuangren retracted his aura and said with a calm smile, “This is my way of Dao, a completely different Dao from the Celestial Demon.”

Bei Ming pondered for a while. “I see. That’s interesting. Your Dao is indeed unprecedented. However, since you possess the Celestial Demon Physique and are considered part of the Celestial Demon Tribe, I’m still responsible for protecting you.”

“Since that’s the case, how about being my guest for a few days, Senior?” asked Chu Kuangren.

“Well... It’ll be my pleasure.” Bei Ming nodded.

With that, Chu Kuangren brought Bei Ming to the Firmament Star.

As soon as Bei Ming stepped foot on Firmament Star, he retracted his aura for fear that he would accidentally destroy the planet.

Chu Kuangren, whose raw physical strength had become stronger, was also being cautious. He dared not apply force at will until he had fully adapted.

The Little Golden Man, a manifestation of the Firmament Star’s Heavenly Dao, shivered before the two, feeling as if he would perish at any time.

Although he had devoured a lot of Heavenly Dao energy and had grown a lot, he still seemed weak before those two people.

“Although Firmament Star’s cultivation civilization isn’t too advanced, the growth potential of its Heavenly Dao is impressive. Since I’m new here, I shall present you a gift.” Bei Ming smiled while flashing a golden ray on his fingers.

The golden ray contained incomparably pure Heavenly Dao energy!

When the golden ray entered the Firmament Star’s Heavenly Dao, it grew and digested the golden ray rapidly.

“Senior, do you collect Heavenly Dao energy too?”

“No, I don’t. I obtained the Heavenly Dao energy from a Heavenly Dao Sect cultivator who offended me many years ago.”

Chu Kuangren’s expression changed.

“You and the Heavenly Dao Sect had a conflict?”

“It wasn’t really a conflict. I just killed a few of their True Immortals and Gilded Immortals,” said Bei Ming casually.

Chu Kuangren suddenly felt a surge of powerful qi rushing towards him.

He was no doubt the real boss of the universe.

“By the way, I noticed you were killing people who specialized in utilizing Heavenly Dao energy. Do you have beef with the Heavenly Dao Sect?”

“Well, I almost sucked up their Daoist’s Heavenly Dao energy,” said Chu Kuangren.

Bei Ming glanced at Chu Kuangren in surprise.

Besides the Heavenly Dao Sect’s Daoists’ strength, each of them was given special attention in their cultivation. Hence, their status in the sect was no worse than that of a Gilded Immortal.

‘To say that he almost sucked up the opponent’s Heavenly Dao? D*mn. He isn’t much inferior to me, who has killed a few of their True Immortals and Gilded Immortals.’

‘A small Earthen Immortal dares to fight the Heavenly Dao Sect? Very good. He’s powerful, and he behaves just like me back then.’

Bei Ming looked at Chu Kuangren, whom he started to like.

Under the hospitality of Chu Kuangren, Bei Ming stayed at the Firmament Star for three months.

He requested to see Chu Kuangren’s Chaos Celestial Demon Physique during his stay, and Chu Kuangren accepted it.

However, Bei Ming was taken aback when he saw it.

“Your Chaos Celestial Demon Physique involves the Life and Death Dao. From the looks of the aura, it is a top-notch Celestial Demon Physique. If one were to rank all Celestial Demon Physiques in history, you must be one of the best,” said Bei Ming solemnly.

Each Celestial Demon Physique had its strength. Some Celestial Demon Physiques were good at manipulating flame, while some were good at manipulating thunder...

However, only a few Celestial Demon Physiques in the Celestial Demon Tribe history could control life and death.

If other Celestial Demon cultivators’ Celestial Demon Physiques were a standard, Chu Kuangren’s Celestial Demon Physique would be the top of the line!

After learning that, Bei Ming was even more determined to protect Chu Kuangren as a Celestial Demon Physique like that was of great significance to the Celestial Demon Tribe.

However, he knew that Chu Kuangren’s Dao was not the Celestial Demon Dao but the unprecedented Invincible Self-Empowerment Dao.

That made him a little sad.

Despite that, he was curious how far Chu Kuangren could go by practicing such an unprecedented Dao?

Three months later, Bei Ming gave Chu Kuangren three strands of Celestial Demon qi before leaving the Firmament Star. Those three strands of Celestial Demon qi were Bei Ming’s three clones. Once activated, they could deal with three crises for Chu Kuangren.

More importantly, those three strands of Celestial Demon qi represented the fact that Chu Kuangren was part of the Celestial Demon Tribe.

That was the greatest significance of why Bei Ming left his Celestial Demon qi with him.

In the universe, and even in the countless Fragmented Immortal Worlds, only a few forces were willing to take the risk of offending the Celestial Demon Tribe to kill Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 1063: Returning To Planquilon Immortal World, Stepping Onto The Immortal Ascension Path Again, Each Sky-pride's Changes

In the vast universe, Bei Ming's figure wandered around in the form of a stream of light. Suddenly, as if he had thought of something, he stopped, looked into the distance, touched his chin, and said, "I shall go to the Heavenly Dao Sect to warn them."

The Heavenly Dao Sect was powerful, and it was not easy for Chu Kuangren to deal with them with his current strength. As a Celestial Demon Tribe cultivator, Bei Ming thought he would be responsible for visiting the Heavenly Dao Sect to warn them.

...

After three years of development, the current Firmament Star was exceptionally mighty, and it was the most powerful force in the Firmament Galaxy.

Looking at the thriving Firmament Star, Chu Kuangren was pleased.

"Firmament Star's development is on the right track. It's about time I return to Planquilon Immortal World," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Lan Yu, Lil Fox, and others were still in Planquilon Immortal World, and the Battle of Destiny was in full swing.

Moreover, some secrets were waiting for him to discover, so he could not miss them.

He stayed in the Firmament Star for another two years, carefully guiding Chaos Daoist Celestial, Transcendental Daoist Celestial, and others in their cultivation.

Chaos Daoist Celestial and others made rapid progress under plenty of resources and Chu Kuangren's guidance. Soon, they started their Immortal Path, one by one.

On this day, a surging Immortal's Core suddenly erupted on the Firmament Star.

Chu Kuangren looked at the source of the Immortal's Core energy fluctuation in the distance with a hint of surprise in his eyes. "Oh, Gu Wuqing has become an Immortal."

Gu Wuqing was initially a King Immortal Progeny, and under Chu Kuangren's guidance, it was no surprise that he would become an Immortal within a few years.

"I wonder if Lan Yu and others have become Immortals," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

A few days later, he handed over the empire's affairs to Elder Ruyan and others. After having a good time with Gu Linglong, he left behind one of Bei Ming's Celestial Demon qi and then set off to return to Planquilon Immortal World.

Shortly after, Chu Kuangren stepped onto the Immortal Ascension Path toward Planquilon Immortal World once again.

In an instant, the entire Immortal Ascension Path shook. Nine thousand, nine hundred and ninety-nine dragons and phoenixes danced, hovering in the air as if they were welcoming an Immortal King!

That scene shook the starry sky.

The accompanying Gu Wuqing could not help but look at the scene, stunned.

He, too, had been on the Immortal Ascension Path before. With his talents, he was welcomed by a hundred dragons and a hundred phoenixes, which was already highly impressive.

Yet now, Chu Kuangren was greeted by all dragons and phoenixes.

Such a scene was like the return of the Immortal King from the ancient immortal times. Even the most powerful elite among Immortals might not get the same treatment.

“How far will the Master go in the future?” mumbled Gu Wuqing.

He dared not imagine, but he was sure that as long as Chu Kuangren was standing, his achievement would be no worse than that of the most powerful elite among the Immortals.

As such, Gu Wuqing was more determined to follow Chu Kuangren.

“I haven’t been back at Planquilon Immortal World for a few years. I wonder how those Fated Ones have grown. I look forward to it,” mumbled Chu Kaungren.

With that, he stepped into the Planquilon Immortal World.

At that moment, the Battle of Destiny in the Planquilon Immortal World was in full swing. The Fated Ones had become Immortals one after another, and they had already begun to fight each other.

The seven Fated Ones all wanted to snatch the will of the Immortal World each of them possessed and merge them to become the Heavenly Champion.

Not only that, but as the Fated Ones had corresponding ancient immortal orthodoxies as their backers, it was no longer a simple battle between the Fated Ones. It was also a contest between the major ancient immortal orthodoxies.

In an area with ancient immortal ruins, major immortal orthodoxies and even ancient immortal forces gathered.

Those people were there to compete for the Opportunities of Fortune in the ancient immortal ruins. Among them, the most eye-catching ones were the Fated Ones.

Boom!

A colorful flame swept over. It was so majestic and powerful that it could melt the entire void. Everyone was impressed.

Among the flames, a young man in a red robe appeared. His aura was as hot as the sun, which burned and cracked the earth.

“It’s the Lin clan’s Fated One, Lin Yan!”

A sky-pride recognized him.

Lin Yan, one of the Fated Ones, was originally the Holy Divine Fire Cult's Fated One. However, Chu Kuangren later destroyed the Holy Divine Fire Cult, and Lin Yan escaped by luck and joined the Ancient Immortal Lin clan.

He had a great Opportunity of Fortune with him. After the Holy Divine Fire Cult was destroyed, not only did he not lose hope, but he also relied on a certain treasure and took advantage of the situation to master a brilliant alchemy technique.

Lin Yan's alchemy was unmatched in the entire Planquilon Immortal World. With such a skill, not many people dared to offend him.

Not to mention, he also had the Lin clan's support.

Further away, a warship approached. Many cultivators were standing on the warship, among which three young cultivators caught people's attention.

Those three cultivators were Lan Yu, Yin Honghua, and Gu Liufang.

They were Immortals now.

"They're from the Hundred Academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect. Lan Yu, Yin Honghua, and Gu Liufang are all Immortals of the new generation."

"Besides the Fated One, Yin Honghua, Lan Yu, and Gu Liufang should not be underestimated, especially Lan Yu. I heard that although she isn't a Fated One, her strength is not much weaker than a Fated One."

"Where's Chu Kuangren? Why isn't he here?"

"Don't you know? Chu Kuangren disappeared a long time ago. Someone saw him entering the Storm Belt, and we have never seen him since."

"Storm Belt? Why did he go there? The Storm Belt has become more dangerous over the years. Even Earthen Immortals dare not go there."

"Who knows? Since then, none has seen him. I heard he had died in the Storm Belt."

The crowd was engaged in a heated discussion, but most of the rumors about Chu Kuangren were only mentioned briefly.

No matter how amazing Chu Kuangren was in the past, the Battle of Destiny was currently the highlight in the Immortal World.

Everyone was more interested as to who would become the Heavenly Champion.

"If Chu Kuangren isn't here, is it true that he died in the Storm Belt as rumored?"

At that moment, an indifferent voice sounded.

Few dragons and phoenixes approached from a distance. The loud dragon roar and the crisp phoenix chirp reverberated through the sky, shocking everyone.

The moment the dragons and phoenixes arrived, they turned into young men and women. The most notable among them was a young man in a golden robe. There was an air of nobility in his every movement, and he was the Divine Dragon Island's Fated One, Golden Dragon Young Master.

There was a hint of hatred in his eyes at the mention of Chu Kuangren's name. He looked around the crowd in the academy but did not find Chu Kuangren.

"Would you dare to speak like this if Master was here?" Lan Yu asked indifferently while glancing at the Golden Dragon Young Master.

At that, the Golden Dragon Young Master recalled how Chu Kuangren's stare instantly killed him back then, and he felt extremely annoyed.

He would have died if he was not lucky that time.

Then, he took a deep breath to suppress his anger and said indifferently, "I'm not what I used to be, and I'm not afraid of Chu Kuangren!"

Indeed, his current cultivation was much stronger than it was back then. Not only that, but he had succeeded in cultivating the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique!

1

Now, he was not afraid of anyone from the younger generation!

"Heh. You can only say that because the Master isn't here." Lan Yu shook her head and sneered.

"Why isn't Feng Hong here?"

The Golden Dragon Young Master did not want to linger on the topic of Chu Kuangren anymore, so he mentioned another person who had once embarrassed him.

"Oh, are you looking for me?" A crisp voice sounded.

A beautiful Godly Phoenix swooped down from the distance, with Phoenix's Flame burning and dyeing most of the sky red.

Chapter 1064: The Opportunities of Fortune Have Emerge, Battle of Sky-Prides, It's Tacit

"Oh, are you looking for me?" An indifferent voice sounded.

Following that, an absolutely beautiful Godly Phoenix swooped down from the distance. The Godly Phoenix Physique was burning with an incomparably pure crimson-colored Phoenix's Flame. As the flames filled the air, it dyed most of the sky red and impressed everyone.

The few Phoenix Bachelors and Phoenix Maidens next to the Golden Dragon Young Master were shocked as they could feel that their bloodline was being suppressed.

'Is this the power of the pure-blooded Godly Phoenix?'

'How terrifying!'

There was resentment and dissatisfaction in the Golden Dragon Young Master's eyes.

If Chu Kuangren did not come and cause trouble, he would have cultivated a stronger Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique by using the pure-blooded Godly Phoenix.

How annoying!

The Godly Phoenix came to the warship and turned into a young lady in red. She was Chu Hong. She glanced at the Golden Dragon Young Master and said indifferently, "I heard you married Huang Yan, so the union between the dragon and the phoenix is successful."

"Hmph. The union between the dragon and the phoenix is inevitable. Now that the Divine Dragon Island and Sycamore Mountain are an alliance, I'll definitely become the Heavenly Champion. Huang Hong, you'll regret what you did." The Golden Dragon Young Master snorted.

After Chu Hong left that year, the Divine Dragon Island and the Sycamore Mountain put away their grievances and continued the union to stop the Honorable Yokai Hall that was eyeing them.

However, the marriage partner was Huang Yan instead of Chu Hong.

"Why isn't Huang Yan here?" Chu Hong asked, ignoring the Golden Dragon Young Master.

The Golden Dragon Young Master looked at Chu Hong strangely and said indifferently, "Yan'er is unwell, so she didn't come. Moreover, I alone am needed to get the Opportunities of Fortune in this ancient immortal ruin. All of you are just here for show," he spoke with great confidence as if he was bound to get the Opportunities of Fortune in the ruins.

"Oh, you're very confident, but I wonder if your strength is enough to support your confidence."

Suddenly, a domineering aura swept out from the horizon, and for a moment, the surrounding void seemed to have frozen.

Everyone looked over and saw a golden warship, on which a young man dressed in a black robe and a jade crown stared at the Golden Dragon Young Master with fighting intent flowing in his eyes. At the same time, he released his domineering aura fearlessly.

"It's Holy Judgement Sect's Fated One, Yuan Xu!"

"Tsk tsk, what a powerful aura. Apparently, his combat strength is comparable to that of the older generation Immortals, and it seems to be true."

The crowd began to discuss.

They were all shocked by Yuan Xu's aura.

The emergence of Fated Ones made the scene more exciting. To the crowd, their visit would not be in vain if those Fated Ones broke into a fight.

"Hmph. Yuan Xu, I don't mind making you withdraw from the Battle of Destiny now." The Golden Dragon Young Master snorted.

"Would you like to try?"

Yuan Xu was not frightened at all.

His Holy Judgement Tome had upgraded to a higher level, so he could even compete with Earthen Immortals.

Boom!

Just as the Fated Ones unleashed their swords arrogantly, the entire ancient immortal ruins trembled, and a beam of light shot straight into the sky.

Few treasures emerged in the beam of light.

“The Opportunities of Fortune have shown themselves!”

The crowd exclaimed in surprise.

Among the treasures in the beam of light, there was a large cloud of golden liquid with light patterns flowing around.

“That’s the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap!”

“It is rumored that a drop of the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap can enhance the energy of an Immortal’s soul. Such a large amount is of great use even to the Heavenly Immortals.”

“We made the right decision to come here.”

Everyone looked at the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap with desire burning in their eyes.

Although they did not cultivate the Soul Dao, having a strong soul would be helpful to them, especially in their Dao enlightenment.

“The Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap is mine. No one can fight me for it!”

A glint burst out from the Golden Dragon Young Master’s eyes.

As he raised his hand to grab the Jade Sap, his Immortal’s Core activated and turned into a golden dragon claw.

“Hmph. You have to get my permission first.”

With a light hum, Yuan Xu took action. He raised his hand to channel his Immortal’s Core and then released a punch with his domineering aura.

A loud noise erupted when the fist attack and dragon claw slammed together.

The turbulence sent some sky-prides flying away.

When Yuan Xu intercepted the Golden Dragon Young Master, Lin Yan also took action. Several kinds of divine fire circulated and gathered to form a giant flaming hand that covered the sky and reached for the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap.

“Thinking of taking advantage of the situation? No way!”

A cold glint shot out from Yin Honghua’s eyes. As she stabbed the pike in her hand forward, a pike ray shot out and turned into a rainbow ray that smashed into the giant flaming hand.

Having been forced back by the attack, Lin Yan sneered, "Yin Honghua, you're such a nuisance. I shall settle you first!"

"Give it a try!"

Yin Honghua laughed and dashed out with her pike. Without another word, she fought with Lin Yan, valiantly waving her pike.

However, Lan Yu did not make a move.

It was Yin Honghua's Battle of Destiny.

Of course, she would not sit back and watch if Yin Honghua was in danger.

Further away, the battle between Yuan Xu and the Golden Dragon Young Master was also in full swing. As a result, their tyrannical Immortal's Core energy swept out continuously.

"A great chance."

Chu Hong secretly smiled when she saw that all the sky-prides were fighting. Then, her figure turned into a red stream of light and dashed towards the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap.

Unfortunately, few figures suddenly stood before her.

They were the Divine Dragon Island's Dragon Bachelors, as well as Sycamore Mountain's Phoenix Bachelors and Phoenix Maidens.

"Huang Hong, you've committed a heinous crime by betraying Sycamore Mountain. Today, I shall settle you once and for all for Sycamore Mountain!" A Phoenix Maiden snorted and raised her hand to channel the Phoenix's Flame.

Chu Hong also cast her Phoenix's Flame. Since her Phoenix's Flame was much mightier, it blasted the Phoenix Maiden away, burning several holes in her gorgeous feather clothing.

"You..." The Phoenix Maiden was shocked.

Both of them were Phoenix Maidens, but the gap in their strength was huge!

Could it be the difference between the pure-blooded Godly Phoenix and them?

At that thought, the Phoenix Maiden became displeased.

"For the sake of our past relationship, all of you, please step aside, and I won't hurt you," said Chu Hong. Golden-red Phoenix's Flames were burning all over her body, with her pure-blooded domineering aura emanating everywhere.

The Dragon Bachelors, Phoenix Bachelors, and Phoenix Maidens felt the pressure.

"Hmph. Want us to get out of the way? In your dreams!"

"That's right. Let's attack!"

With that, the Dragon Bachelors and Phoenix Maidens attacked together to fight Chu Hong. The might of divine beasts erupted and shook their surroundings.

The sky-prides were in a heated battle, their fighting spirits high. In the void, elites from several great orthodoxies were also holding each other in check.

At that moment, the academy's Eldest Master, Jade Clarity Immortal Sect's Elder, Ancient Immortal Lin clan's Forefather, Divine Dragon Island's Ruler, Holy Judgement Sect's Elder, and others — who would all be well-known elites in the outside world — were watching the sky-prides battle below them. However, none dared to take any actions.

Once they made a move, others would take action too, and then it would become a battle between orthodoxies.

Therefore, when it came to the battles between the Fated Ones and the young sky-prides, everyone tacitly refrained from intervening until it was deemed necessary.

Chapter 1065: Three Women Surrounded, The Sky-Prides' Trump Cards

On the battlefield, the sky-prides were fighting in full swing.

Leaving aside the sky-prides, everyone was amazed by a few of the Fated Ones' formidable combat strength.

In recent years, a lot of Opportunities of Fortune have emerged in Planquilon Immortal World, enabling many Immortal Progenies to become Immortals. Fated Ones were undoubtedly the most dazzling ones, and their combat strength had also caught many's attention.

The Fated Ones were attacking each other on the battlefield, and their Immortal's Core energies were so powerful that they almost shattered the void.

In Lin Yan's hands, there were several types of divine fires blazing, and the power of each type of flame was terrifying. Under his control, the divine fires merged, and their power skyrocketed.

A casual blow would have burned the Firmament.

Yin Honghua, who was fighting against him, was no weaker either. She swung the Immortal Pike in her hand like it was a dragon and cast a few pike techniques, smashing the incoming divine fires one after another.

On top of that, she carried an incomparably tyrannical combat ferocious qi that was terrifying.

Meanwhile, the battle between Yuan Xu and the Golden Dragon Young Master was exciting.

They were both domineering sky-prides with similar combat styles that suppressed their opponents with strength!

Yuan Xu held a huge golden sword in his hand. Every strike with his sword contained golden sword qi that carried fierce battle intent as if an archaic ancient Wargod had reappeared!

The Golden Dragon Young Master's dragon qi surged while his gold Immortal's Core interweaved on his body, forming a golden armor to resist the attack.

At the same time, he waved his hands, and the dragon qi transformed into dragon claws that collided with the golden sword qi.

The battle between the two cracked the ground and trembled the void.

Not far away, after confirming that Yin Honghua and Chu Hong were safe for the time being, Lan Yu's figure flashed and dashed towards the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap.

"Thinking of taking the treasure? Dream on!" A cold grunt sounded.

A young Immortal emerged before Lan Yu. He was the Lin clan's Immortal Progeny, and his cultivation was second only to Lin Yan.

"Get out of here!" Lan Yu yelled indifferently and raised her hand to throw out a punch. The energy of her Radiant War Immortal Physique erupted, and the white fist ray filled the air, sending the Lin clan's sky-pride standing in Lan Yu's way flying with blood spitting out from his mouth.

"Such powerful combat strength!"

"Lan Yu is so powerful!"

Everyone's pupils widened in horror.

In their opinion, the seven Fated Ones were highly respected among the younger generation of the current Planquilon Immortal World. However, Lan Yu's strength was no weaker than any of the Fated Ones.

"It's impossible for you to grab the treasure!"

Noticing that Lan Yu was about to grab the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap, the Golden Dragon Young Master and Yan Xu, who were initially fighting, stopped attacking each other. Instead, they dashed toward Lan Yu with their claw and sword out.

"Hmph!"

Lan Yu frowned when she became aware of the attack from behind. She spread her white wings and activated her Radiant War Immortal Physique to its full potential. Then, with the Scepter of Light in her hand, she smashed it towards the incoming claw and sword.

With a bang, Lan Yu was forced back several kilometers. Her eyes were as cold as ice.

The Golden Dragon Young Master and Yan Xu were a little surprised.

"She could resist the attack!"

"Although Golden Dragon Young Master and I didn't use all our strength, the power of a joined attack was no small matter. Yet, she could resist it!"

Their eyes turned solemn.

Boom!

The spear ray swept away the divine fire. Yin Honghua forced Lin Yan back before her figure flashed and approached Lan Yu. "Lan Yu, are you alright?"

"I'm fine." Lan Yu shook her head.

Chu Hong had also forced back the Dragon Bachelors and Phoenix Bachelors that joined forces to attack her. She stared at the Golden Dragon Young Master and said coldly, "A sneak attack, huh? What a good tactic both of you have."

"This is a battlefield. Any technique is acceptable."

Yuan Xu could not care less.

"Tsk. A pure-blooded Godly Phoenix, a Fated One, and a Winged Human with the inheritance of the most powerful elite among Immortals. All of you are worth more than the Nourishing Spiritual Jade Sap." Just then, Lin Yan approached the ladies and tutted impressively.

Upon hearing what he said, the rest of the people's eyes lit up.

"These three women and Gu Liufang are a group, and they have the strongest strength. I suggest kicking them out first."

"Isn't it a little too much to gang up on a few women?"

"Don't underestimate them. Besides, so what if they're women? They're from our family anyway. How can you compare them to the Opportunities of Fortune?"

Everyone looked at the three women with hostility in their eyes.

The strength of young Immortals from all forces was supposed to be similar. However, the academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect had a good relationship, and the power of each of the three women was no weaker than a Fated One.

No one else would be their opponent if the three women joined forces.

Therefore, they planned to kick the three women out first.

"Hey, you'll be the first to leave the Battle of Destiny." Lin Yan sneered while looking at Yin Honghua. With the divine fire on his body burning, he took the lead in attacking.

"That's not necessarily true."

Yin Honghua attacked again with her pike!

At the same time, Yuan Xu and the Golden Dragon Young Master were fighting against Lan Yu and Chu Hong.

"Winged Human, let's see how powerful your inheritance is." Yuan Xu held his giant golden sword and struck it down, releasing surges of sword qi.

"Attack!"

Lan Yu's battle intent was high.

As the two fought, their battle intent filled the land.

“Huang Hong, I can give you a chance. Return to Divine Dragon Island with me now, and I will let go of the past. You can be my Daoist companion like Huang Yan. What do you think?” asked the Golden Dragon Young Master.

He still yearned for the pure-blooded Godly Phoenix.

“Bullsh*t!” Chu Hong grunted as her Phoenix’s Flame roared out.

“How unrepentant!” The Golden Dragon Young Master’s face turned grim, and he attacked with all his strength.

The battle was on again!

However, a group of sky-prides had besieged the three women.

High above the sky, the faces of the Eldest Master and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect’s Elder sank while elites from the rest of the forces stared at them.

If they took action, others would take action to resist them.

The Eldest Master and others were helpless.

They knew it would be in vain even if they made a move because it was a battle between the young sky-prides. It was the Battle of Destiny!

“As long as the light doesn’t dim, the battle intent will never cease!” At that moment, Lan Yu roared.

Ten thousand sparks of Immortal Brilliance shot out from her body. Then, her battle intent rose to the sky while her Radiant War Immortal Physique was activated to its full potential.

As soon as she spread her wings, her body revealed an awe-inspiring divine might, and each swing of her sword blasted the sky-prides away.

“Hmph. Do you think only you have trump cards?” Yuan Xu snorted and raised the giant golden sword in his hand. Behind him, a headless apparition that stood in the sky suddenly emerged.

A terrifying battle intent erupted!

Two completely different battle intents collided in the void. Once again, Lan Yu and Yuan Xu fought, and their powers were even stronger than before.

On the other hand, Yin Honghua and Chu Hong also cast their trump cards.

“Thousand Tormented Confluence!”

A blood-colored light ray emerged in Yin Honghua’s eyes.

Countless ferocious qi from the heavens and earth dashed towards her in a frenzy, and sounds of a war breaking out echoed faintly in the void.

The surroundings seemed to have turned into a battlefield with ferocious qi.

Then, a burst of red light radiated from Chu Hong’s body, enabling the power of her Phoenix’s Flame to soar and adding a sense of nobility to her.

The pure-blooded bloodline exploded!

Golden-red flames shone in the sky, dyeing the clouds red.

“Hmph. It looks like we have to cast our trump cards too.”

A strange look flashed in Lin Yan’s and the Golden Dragon Young Master’s eyes before a more powerful aura erupted from their bodies.

Chapter 1066: Three Girls In Danger, Never Give Up, I Will Give You A Chance Now

The three girls pulled out their respective trump cards, which boosted their combat strengths.

In response, Gu Liufang pulled out her Immortal Weapon. However, their opponent, the Golden Dragon Young Master and the others, also activated their respective trump cards.

Yuan Xu unveiled the apparition of an ancient war god behind him. It had an aura strong enough to shake heaven and earth.

Lin Yan shouted and took out a three-legged bronze furnace. The furnace had mystical Daoist patterns revolving around it, and there was also a black ember inside emanating a destructive aura that shook even the void.

“Let me give you a taste of the Scorching Silent Flame,” Lin Yan said with a giggle.

Scorching Silent Flame was ranked forty on the Divine Fire List. Its power was not something that the previous divine fire he controlled could compare.

“Roar!” A dragon’s roar shook the sky.

It was from Golden Dragon Young Master as he jumped into the sky with dragon qi swirling around him. Then, a small, red ember appeared from the golden dragon qi, and it transformed into a Godly Phoenix that cried out a pleasant tune.

With the dragon and phoenix circling him, the Golden Dragon Young Master was basking in Immortal Spark. Every move he made contained destructive energy that could wipe out the world.

His aura alone shocked every elite who came to watch.

“This is the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique!”

“How is it possible? The Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique? Even the most common one is an Emperor-grade Immortal Physique!”

“The Golden Dragon Young Master has cultivated this Immortal Physique? How did he do it? It’s unbelievable!”

Only the elites from Divine Dragon Island reacted with pride.

It seemed like they were no stranger to the Immortal Physique.

The Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique, an Emperor-grade Immortal Physique, was a powerful Immortal Physique that combined the Godly Phoenix Physique and True Dragon Physique together.

Even the most common Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique would easily allow a cultivator to break through to the Heavenly Immortal Realm.

It was also possible for him to push through the level of a Gilded Immortal!

Apparently, during the ancient immortal times, a host of the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique reached the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm.

He was only one step shy from achieving Dao Fusion!

“Are you seeing this, Huang Hong? This is the power I get from uniting with Huang Yan! If you did not say no to the union back then, you might have been able to enjoy such power now. Are you starting to regret it?” Golden Dragon Young Master said with a condescending tone.

He stared at Chu Hong, anticipating regret on her face, but unfortunately, Chu Hong did not show any expression except contempt.

She said, “I, Chu Hong, have never understood the word regret. Stop blabbering. If you want to fight, make it quick!”

“In that case, I shall let you taste the power of my Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique!” Golden Dragon Young Master said proudly.

It would be his first time showing off his Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique in public. Every move he made was accompanied by the phoenix’s pleasant cry. His vast might shook the universe and the hearts of those who felt his powerful presence.

Even as a pure-blooded Godly Phoenix, Chu Hong was suppressed by his aura.

“Has the pure-blooded Godly Phoenix been suppressed?!”

Few of the Phoenix Maidens and Phoenix Bachelors gasped in awe.

“Damn it! My Godly Phoenix bloodline has only been awakened once, and it’s not completely activated yet. Otherwise, he would not be able to suppress me!” Chu Hong grumbled.

Further away, the two girls were also facing challenges of their own. They tried to rush to Chu Hong’s aid, but they had too much on their plates as well.

“Shang Honghua, you three shall die here today! I wonder how Chu Kuangren would react when he finds out about this? Hahaha...” Lin Yan cackled in laughter.

The Scorching Silent Flame in his hand burnt endlessly, slowly transforming into spears that were thrust toward Shang Honghua.

Shang Honghua wielded her own spear in a flurry and deflected the incoming projectiles.

However, her opponent was not just Lin Yan as she was also surrounded by other sky-prides. She could barely handle Lin Yan alone, and now with other sky-prides ganging up on her, she quickly found herself in a sticky and dangerous situation.

On the other hand, Lan Yu was facing a similar situation as well.

Other than Yuan Xu from Holy Judgement Sect, many other sky-prides from the same sect barely revealed themselves during normal times. However, in this Battle of Destiny, they had all decided to step out and assist Yuan Xu to seize the spot of Heavenly Champion.

With all the sky-prides assisting Yuan Xu, their combined effort could even kill an Earthen Immortal. No matter how strong Lan Yu was, she could not stand against them alone.

Bang!

Lan Yu was struck by Yuan Xu's sword qi. As she was blasted away, blood gushed out from her mouth. The hit did not deter her will to continue the battle, but it severely exhausted her Immortal's Core.

"Huang Hong, die!"

At the same time, the Golden Dragon Young Master channeled his dragon-phoenix energy to release a punch containing dragon qi and Phoenix's Flame. It instantly rippled Chu Hong's Phoenix's Flame into shreds and blasted her away.

Shang Honghua and Gu Liufang both were falling to a disadvantage.

"Tsk tsk. No one can survive the attack from the sky-prides, even if you are a Fated One or pure-blooded Godly Phoenix.

"That's right! Even if Chu Kuangren made it out of the Storm Belt, he would have to live with regret."

"What a shame. Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and Shang Honghua are all beautiful women. It's too bad they have to fall like this."

The crowd lamented and thought it was a pity.

In the void, the elites were watching the scene.

The crimson-haired Dragon Immortal from Divine Dragon Island took pleasure in the misfortune by saying, "It seems like Shang Honghua is retiring from this Battle of Destiny now. Jade Clarity Immortal Sect should start finding their next heir."

"Yeah, and the academy too."

The Eldest Master and the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect's elder reacted to those words bitterly.

They were on the verge of making a move to stop the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal, but someone else had their eyes on them, deterring them from acting.

When they did make a move, a dozen auras locked onto them before the two of them could do anything. The sudden explosion of Immortal's Core energy instantly suppressed the two of them.

"Don't waste your energy. You can't save them."

"Hundred Academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, don't mess around. This is the battle between the young ones. You are not allowed to interfere."

"Agreed. Unless a full-out war is what you wish."

Both the elites of the academy and Jade Clarity Immortal Sect were stopped.

Back at the Ancient Immortal Ruins, Shang Honghua, Lan Yu, and the others were hanging on a thread.

With apparitions of a dragon and phoenix surrounding him, the Golden Dragon Young Master raised his hand, and an immense surge of dragon-phoenix energy gathered at his fist, ready to be fired.

Yuan Xu wielded the golden greatsword with the apparition of the war god behind him ravaging every direction with its ancient and endless aura.

Lin Yan held the Scorching Silent Flame in his palms, with flame currents all around him.

As all of them channeled their Immortal's Core energy, all it would take was another round of attack for Lan Yu and the other girls to fall.

Gu Liufang forced a bitter smile on her face. "It seems like this is the end for us."

"Even if we are going down, we have to fight till our last breath."

Lan Yu wielded the Scepter of Light and channeled her Radiant War Immortal Physique to the limit to force out all her Immortal's Core energy.

"That's a nice speech."

Shang Honghua held her spear and straightened her body.

Beside them, Chu Hong also channeled her Phoenix's Flame, looking determined despite facing imminent defeat.

Even their attackers were moved by their unyielding spirit, but none had the intention to hold back or spare them. Since they were destined to be opponents, no mercy should be shown.

"Too bad Chu Kuangren isn't here. Otherwise, I could have taken him out altogether and avenged my Holy Divine Fire Cult." Lin Yan grinned.

The moment he said that, a sword ray containing terrifying sword qi came flying from a distance. It shot down from high above and plunged precisely into the center of both sides.

Rampant sword qi overflowed and wreaked havoc in all directions, blasting all sky-prides away.

Even the Golden Dragon Young Master, Yuan Xu, and the others were surprised.

"You don't need to feel too bad. I'll give you a chance right now."

A clear voice echoed in the air.

The crowd then saw a figure in white slowly descending from the sky. On his tiptoes, he landed on the sword's hilt, henceforth releasing another even more rampant sword qi from the blade of the sword, which shook even the void!

All the sky-prides failed to dodge the second wave, and before they could even scream a word, they were cut in half by the sword qi.

"Chu Kuangren!"

The Golden Dragon Young Master glared at the person and called out his name through gritted teeth.

Chapter 1067: Killing The Golden Dragon Young Master With A Palm Strike, Aren't You Here For Revenge?

"Chu Kuangren!" the Golden Dragon Young Master muttered the name with a hint of grimness that had never been seen on his face. The scenes of the past flashed in his mind before it paused at the scene where he was killed by a glare from the terrifying figure.

The thought invoked such embarrassment and anger in him that a feeling of dissatisfaction immediately took over his sanity.

"Chu Kuangren, it seems like you survived the Storm Belt. Great. Now, I have the chance to kill you with my own hands and clear the humiliation you gave me. Die!"

Following a loud shout, the Golden Dragon Young Master attacked.

The dragon and phoenix around him roared and cried as Immortal Sparks shone. A boundless Immortal's Core energy gushed out and shook the void in all directions.

He was channeling the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique to its limit.

In the face of such boundless energy, Chu Kuangren did not even budge. His Omniscient Spirit was already up and running, analyzing the Golden Dragon Young Master.

The last time they met, the Golden Dragon Young Master did not possess any Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique.

It was but an instant that Lil Ai, the Omniscient Spirit, presented the analysis result of the Golden Dragon Young Master to Chu Kuangren.

"A post-Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique, acquired through a double cultivation method and consuming the blood essence of the Godly Phoenix, which is later shaped and supplemented using mystical methods..."

A cold glint appeared in Chu Kuangren's eyes when he read through the analysis.

'Consuming the blood essence of the Godly Phoenix...'

In other words, when the Golden Dragon Young Master proposed to marry Chu Hong, other than for the union of the two tribes, he also wanted to use the marriage to consume her blood to succeed in his Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique.

"Your crimes are punishable by death," Chu Kuangren uttered with absolute coldness and brazen killing intentions.

Kaboom!

At that moment, the Golden Dragon Young Master unleashed his powers, launching his dragon-phoenix energy at Chu Kuangren.

The dragon's roar and phoenix's cry echoed in the void.

Even an Earthen Immortal would have trouble blocking the attack but not Chu Kuangren.

He raised his hand calmly and swung it as if he was swatting a fly. Then, a terrifying shockwave unleashed from his palm.

The dragon-phoenix energy shattered it into nothing as soon as it collided with Chu Kuangren's attack.

"What?!"

The Golden Dragon Young Master was shocked. "How is this possible?!"

After all, the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique that he had devoted himself to cultivating would theoretically allow him to defeat almost anyone among the younger generations.

However, it did not even last a second before Chu Kuangren.

What exactly happened?

Confusion, doubt, and awe flooded his mind.

At the next second, Chu Kuangren, who had been on the sword's hilt, shockingly disappeared from everyone's sight.

Fear enveloped the Golden Dragon Young Master like never before.

"Is this the power that you devoted yourself to cultivating? It's pitifully weak."

A voice echoed in the Golden Dragon Young Master's ears.

It was Chu Kuangren, and he was behind the Golden Dragon Young Master!

The Golden Dragon Young Master turned around furiously for a punch.

"Die!"

Bang!

The dragon-phoenix energy erupted with the punch, and it struck Chu Kuangren precisely on the chest.

However, Chu Kuangren did not even flinch.

Quite the contrary, the Golden Dragon Young Master grunted as the powerful repulsion shattered the bones in his hand.

F*ck! Did he just punch a person or a top-tier Immortal Metal?

At that moment, the Golden Dragon Young Master became a little afraid.

Chu Kuangren then responded by lifting his hand and grabbing the Golden Dragon Young Master's head.

The Golden Dragon Young Master stared in fear as the hand came closer and shadowed his vision. He tried to flee, but he felt he was surrounded by terrifying spacetime energy that rendered him immobile.

In the end, Chu Kuangren's hand landed on the Golden Dragon Young Master's head. He clenched tightly and lifted upwards.

Crack!

Blood spurted everywhere.

Just like that, the Golden Dragon Young Master's head was ripped off by Chu Kuangren.

Everyone was silenced by the shocking scene.

It was an instant kill! Or more precisely, another instant kill!

The Golden Dragon Young Master could defeat an Earthen Immortal with his Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique, yet Chu Kuangren killed him in mere seconds.

"He's a lot more powerful than a few years back."

"Terrifying."

Everyone gulped, shock written all over their faces.

They suddenly realized a huge mistake. The Chu Kuangren they thought they knew somehow was from a few years back.

It has been several years since then, and all of them have gotten stronger. In that case, why would Chu Kuangren remain as he was a few years back?

He would only get stronger faster than anyone else.

"What a weakling."

Chu Kuangren then put the Golden Dragon Young Master's head into his Yin and Yang Ring. He wanted to take it back to do some research on the Dragon Phoenix Immortal Physique.

The method of fusing both physiques together gave him an idea.

Then, with his sword hand sign out, he unleashed his sword qi and slashed the body of the Golden Dragon Young Master, obliterating it into nothing.

Not even a fragment of his Immortal Soul was left behind.

"I didn't kill you last time. This time, I won't make the same mistake twice," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

After killing the Golden Dragon Young Master, a golden light containing mystical and profound Daoist patterns appeared on the spot.

It was the will of the Immortal World's fragment! It was one of the seven lights that represented the symbol of the Fated One!

Chu Kuangren grabbed it and absorbed it into his body.

Then, he looked at the other sky-prides. Wherever his eyes landed, all the sky-prides averted his gaze in fear or stepped backward anxiously.

"A whole bunch of guys ganging up on several girls? You people are really something else," Chu Kuangren said as a cold grin appeared on his face.

He looked at Lin Yan. "I heard you want revenge?"

Swoosh!

Chu Kuangren appeared before Lin Yan. "Now that I'm here, why aren't you attacking?"

Lin Yan's face turned pale, and his body trembled uncontrollably as if he was a little rabbit before the ferocious Cerberus from hell.

The difference in strength was too huge, and they were not on the same level, to begin with.

At that moment, he started to hate himself for being a jinx. He just had to provoke Chu Kuangren out loud when the man was not around, and now with the man right in front of his face, he could barely breathe.

"The Holy Divine Fire Cult offended Brother Chu, and they got what they deserved. Revenge is just some groundless nonsense," Lin Yan blurted anxiously, resigning to defeat.

"If you're not going to attack, I will." Chu Kuangren raised his hand.

"D*mn it!"

As terrible fear enveloped Lin Yan, the look on his face changed.

'So this was what the Golden Dragon Young Master felt just now? Fear?'

He bellowed and tossed the three-legged furnace, which contained a large amount of Scorching Silent Fire, at Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren slapped it away and deflected the furnace back to Lin Yan. As a result, it crashed on him.

Bang!

Lin Yan was squashed into a pile of meat.

Chu Kuangren grunted softly as he looked at the Scorching Silent Fire in the furnace with an unusual gaze.

"This feeling, could it be..." He took the furnace and kept it in his Yin and Yang Ring.

"Run!"

Further away, Yuan Xu tried to flee madly, with his face turned ashen. He had lost the will of battle. All he wanted to do was to draw distance from Chu Kuangren as far as possible.

"Devil! He's the devil!"

"Run!"

Having lost the will as well, everyone else scattered and fled in fear.

No amount of treasures would be worth more than their own lives.

"Where do you people think you are going?" A cold grin stretched across Chu Kuangren's face.

Then, a mystical surge of energy fluctuation spread from him, and powerful spacetime energy instantly enveloped the area.

All the fleeing folks wore fear on their face. They felt like their body was slowing down as if they had stepped into a swamp, which made it hard for them to move.

“Spacetime energy!”

“What a terrifying spacetime energy! Does it mean that Chu Kuangren has cultivated the Spacetime Dao?”

Chapter 1068: One Slash At The Sky-Prides, One Palm Strike At The Earthen Immortals, Invincible With Me

Since Chu Kuangren possessed the Timespace Treasure, he was already an expert in Spacetime Dao. He usually used it to travel across the universe like teleportation and barely used it in actual combat.

It was not because he did not know how to use it for combat. He just did not need it.

After all, amongst all the opponents he faced, those who were on the same level as him could not even withstand a single attack from him. Hence, there was no need to activate the Spacetime Dao at all.

However, using it to stop people from running proved to be effective.

When he used the spacetime energy to stop the time in the area, all the sky-prides caught within felt like the stars were weighing on them, stopping their movements.

A second after that, Chu Kuangren made his move. With his sword hand sign pointed out, his Immortal’s Core energy activated, and a myriad of sword qi transformed into violet lotuses around him.

The blooming lotuses turned the place into a sea of violet lotus, painting the scene with exquisite color.

However, in contrast to the beautiful lotuses, a terrifying scene unfolded.

Wherever the sword qi reached, nothing lived.

All the sky-prides were cut and slashed to death.

As soon as Chu Kuangren retracted his spacetime energy, a massive amount of blood and broken limbs flew into the sky, painting the whole place red.

Chu Kuangren had killed more than a hundred sky-prides with a single slash!

Those who witnessed the gory scene widened their eyes in horror.

After all, most of those sky-prides were Immortals, and yet they were killed in a single slash from Chu Kuangren.

That included Lin Yan and Yuan Xu, who were rather well-known among the sky-prides for being the Fated Ones.

“Monster!”

“He’s a monster!”

Everyone who laid eyes on Chu Kuangren trembled in fear.

“Chu Kuangren! You will die!”

A furious shout came from the void. Earthen Immortals then emerged one after another and surrounded him. They were the elders from the Lin clan, Divine Dragon Island, and Holy Judgement Sect.

All their Fated Ones and sky-prides had been murdered just like that.

It was a huge blow to their orthodoxy. In fact, it was too much. It felt like a giant sword had stabbed their hearts.

They wished they could rip Chu Kuangren apart and skin him alive.

“Ridiculous!”

“You people said that the younger generations should settle their issues among themselves, and yet here all of you are!” the Eldest Master from the academy shouted.

There was also a cold look on the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect’s elder’s face.

The Earthen Immortals reacted bitterly until the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal from Divine Dragon Island said, “This is no longer just a matter involving the younger generations. Chu Kuangren is too brutal, and it’s frightening.”

Those who heard the Immortal secretly called him shameless.

The Golden Dragon Young Master and the others tried to kill Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, and Gu Liufang, and no one said a word. Yet now, the Immortals were coming out to blame Chu Kuangren for what he did.

It was considered double standard, even for a dragon!

“Hmph.”

Chu Kuangren scoffed. “It seems like I haven’t killed enough of Divine Dragon Island. Is that right?”

At that, he took a step forward, appearing right before the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal.

He threw a punch and the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal responded with a furious punch of himself.

When the two fists collided, the look on the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal’s face turned pale.

A boundless surge of energy enveloped the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal, and the terrifying punch blast ripped his dragon claw to shreds before blasting his whole body into pieces.

All the others saw was the crimson-haired Dragon Immortal bursting into a cloud of blood.

Chu Kuangren had killed an Earthen Immortal with a single punch!

“If you guys are here for my life, I don’t mind taking yours too,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

Since he was back, he ought to put his strength on display.

He wanted everyone in Planquilon Immortal World to know who the invincible one was and why they could not afford to offend him.

He wanted the whole Planquilon Immortal World to tremble in his presence!

“What?!”

“What a terrifying punch blast!”

The Earthen Immortals were shocked. Then, without further ado, they all attacked tacitly and unleashed all kinds of Immortal Techniques at Chu Kuangren.

As the Immortal Techniques unleashed, Immortal Sparks glimmered brightly.

All kinds of energy fluctuations erupted, and Daoist patterns intertwined.

The entire void was painted with a colorful palette, but despite being in the center of all those attacks, Chu Kuangren remained calm.

“It has been years since I came back, and I think it’s time to let you people remember what kind of person I, Chu Kuangren, am,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

Against the barrage of attacks, his body was like an immovable divine mountain in ancient times.

All the energy blasts and attacks struck him, but none was able to inflict any damage.

His body had become so tensile that not even an Earthen Immortal could damage it anymore.

“How is this even possible?”

“Is his body made out of Immortal Metal?!”

The Earthen Immortals were, once again, shocked, and fear overflowed from their anxious gaze. They had never heard that Chu Kuangren’s body was so strong.

Then, something even more astonishing happened.

Chu Kuangren’s energy surged.

Third-grade Immortal, Fifth-grade Immortal, Ninth-grade Immortal... Earthen Immortal!

Everyone gasped in shock.

“It’s impossible! It has only been a few years since he became an Immortal, and he has already reached the ranks of an Earthen Immortal!”

“This speed is impossible!”

After all, a common Immortal had to go through the mill to break through to one grade, let alone break through to an Earthen Immortal.

Even the Sword Crown, someone who was crowned as the genius in Sword Dao, had to spend millions of years to become an Earthen Immortal.

However, Chu Kuangren break through from a common Immortal to an Earthen Immortal in just a few years!

Chu Kuangren did not stop even after he revealed his Earthen Immortal aura. Quite the opposite, the mountains started to shake as the earth qi from a hundred million kilometers started to gather toward him.

First-grade Earthen Immortal, Second-grade Earthen Immortal, Third-grade Earthen Immortal...

Chu Kuangren's cultivation level finally stopped at the Perfected Lower Third-grade Earthen Immortal and was only a step shy of reaching the Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal.

Despite that, the earth qi he controlled was far beyond what a common Lower Third-grade Earthen Immortal could control.

All the other Earthen Immortals were stunned.

The inconceivable speed of improvement, controlling earth qi that surpassed his realm... How much further could he surprise them?

"Everyone, use your trump card now!" shouted one of the Earthen Immortals.

Chu Kuangren was so powerful that all the other Earthen Immortals had never felt so threatened before. They were forced to utilize their trump cards.

Some of them used secret techniques to raise their cultivation level, some armed themselves with Immortal Weapons, some used runes, and some resolved to pills.

However...

"Are they enough?" Chu Kuangren's voice sounded.

As soon as he raised his hand, Celestial Demon qi gushed out immediately. He had white light swirling around his left hand and black flames burning on his right, emanating a destructive presence. Then, he put his hands together and twisted them to form a mystical stamp.

Black and white, life and death — both contrasting elements converged at that moment and formed a massive, spinning Yin Yang symbol that covered heaven and earth.

"Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol."

His voice echoed, followed by boundless energy erupting from the Yin Yang symbol. The Earthen Immortals who used their trump cards exploded one after another in the face of the symbol. They could not even control their own death before absolute power.

After the Yin Yang symbol destroyed all the Earthen Immortals, all that was left was dead silence.

Everyone stared at the man standing in the air as if he was a god and demon, and it felt surreal.

One slash killed a bunch of sky-prides, and one move killed all the Earthen Immortals.

Was that the power that a young sky-pride should possess?

“His return to Planquilon Immortal World shall turn the world upside down,” mumbled one of the surviving sky-prides with fear in his eyes.

Chapter 1069: Am I That Scary? The Seed Has Been Planted, Blood Monk Disciple And His Followers

The Ancient Immortal Ruins fell silent after Chu Kuangren slashed the sky-prides and eliminated the Earthen Immortals. Everyone was still shocked by the events that had unfolded.

In the meantime, Chu Kuangren had retracted his life and death intent.

He quickly scanned over the battlefield and wanted to take the will of the Immortal World from both Lin Yan and Yuan Xu. However, he realized that the two wills of the Immortal World had disappeared when he was eliminating the Earthen Immortals.

They were nowhere to be found.

“Oh. Did someone take it without me noticing?” Chu Kuangren muttered.

Nevertheless, it was very unlikely. Given his current strength, even a Heavenly Immortal or a True Immortal could not slip away from him unnoticed.

A Gilded Immortal?

Planquilon Immortal World had no True Immortal, let alone a Gilded Immortal.

Such existence would be the absolute power not only in this Immortal World but the entire universe.

Therefore, there could only be one answer: the will of the Immortal World disappeared by itself.

Only that could explain why he did not notice the disappearance.

“Hmm. Interesting. It doesn’t want me to take it, huh? Are you trying to play hide and seek with me, will of the Immortal World?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After that, he took a glance at Lin Yan and Yuan Xu’s bodies on the ground. He shook his head and said, “Fated Ones, they say. Hmph!”

Out of seven Fated Ones, three were lead.

1

Excluding Shang Honghua, there were three left.

“I wonder what kind of surprises the other Fated Ones have for me,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

Then, he headed to the light pillar of the Ancient Immortal Ruins and grabbed all kinds of treasures and Opportunities of Fortune into his Yin and Yang Ring.

Nobody stopped him.

Even though they wanted to, they had to have the strength to do it.

After that, Chu Kuangren looked at Lan Yu and the others. On his palm, the life and death intent appeared again, followed by the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol.

The symbol enveloped Lan Yu and the girls.

The others were shocked. They thought Chu Kuangren was on a frenzy killing spree, killing even one of his own.

Lan Yu and the girls, on the other hand, did not resist at all. They trusted Chu Kuangren completely and were just slightly surprised.

Soon, their confusion was met with answers.

With the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol around them, an endless stream of energy gushed into their bodies and swiftly healed them.

The Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol could control life and death, so it could be used as a weapon and also medicine. The healing effect was much better than the Spring Breeze Healing Technique.

Once he mastered that particular skill, he could even revert death.

Then, it would be truly considered a limitless technique that could achieve almost anything.

“Master, welcome back.”

Lan Yu looked at Chu Kuangren emotionally, and so did the others.

“Yes, I’m back.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

“Oh right, Master. Where’s Gu Wuqing?” Gu Liufang asked curiously.

“He came back with me, but I sensed something going on here, so I came. He should be back at the academy by now.”

“I see.”

Chu Kuangren chatted with them for a while.

Then, he saw a girl in red further away. She was Huang Yinghong, the Phoenix Maiden of Sycamore Mountain.

Among the sky-prides from Sycamore Mountain and Divine Dragon Island, only she had decided to stay out of the conflict due to her past relationship with Chu Hong. Hence, she was alive.

Now, with Chu Kuangren staring at her, she could not help but quiver, and her face turned pale. Fear overflowed from her eyes.

Chu Kuangren touched his face. “Am I that scary?”

The mouths of those who heard him twitched.

He should know better than others how scary he was.

Look at the bodies! He should know better who did it!

Everyone rolled their eyes at him.

Other female cultivators at the scene were captivated by Chu Kuangren's transcendental looks, and their hearts started to race.

"Don't worry. I won't kill you. I just have something I would like you to pass to Qing Feng for me."

Chu Kuangren tossed a jade scroll over.

Qing Feng was the Azure Phoenix of Sycamore Mountain.

As soon as Huang Yinghong caught the scroll, she mobilized her Immortal Consciousness to sense it. However, she realized she could not see what was inside.

Chu Kuangren had placed restriction seals on the jade scroll, and only Qing Feng could open it.

"I'll bring it back to her. Farewell."

With that, Huang Yinghong left in a hurry.

Chu Kuangren grinned as he watched her leave. "The seed has been planted. Now, all I have to do is wait for it to sprout."

It would sprout into the flower of hatred.

"Okay, girls. We should leave as well," Chu Kuangren said to Lan Yu and the others.

Since he had taken all the treasures and Opportunities of Fortune of the Ancient Immortal Ruins, there was no point for him to stay any longer. As such, he and the girls went back to the academy.

Chu Kuangren might have left the scene, but the commotion did not end with his absence.

The news of Chu Kuangren's return to Planquilon Immortal World spread like wildfire and reached every corner of the world in the blink of an eye. The things he did at Ancient Immortal Ruins and the strength he displayed shocked all the cultivators.

"Three Fated Ones died in his hands?"

"Oh my gosh! Why is he so terrifying? Is he still human?"

"He's a monster! He's definitely a monster!"

The whole Planquilon Immortal World was engaged in a heated discussion.

Chu Kuangren's name became the topic of discussion again, and he was, once again, under the spotlight after many years. No one in the immortal world could turn their attention away from him.

Some of the ancient immortal orthodoxies reacted strongly to the news.

After all, three Fated Ones died in a single battle, following the fall of many sky-prides and Earthen Immortals.

It was a heavy blow to every immortal orthodoxy out there.

Was it not the Battle of Destiny?

Was this era not the stage for the Fated Ones?

Why would an anomaly like Chu Kuangren appear and compete with the younger generations? It was cheating!

It should be against the rules!

All the ancient immortal orthodoxies were furious when they learned the news.

...

Meanwhile, further away in a blood-colored cave, a young monk basking in the blood-colored Buddhist Light was meditating with his legs crossed.

Before him were hundreds and thousands of cultivators on their knees as if they were devoted disciples meeting Buddha himself. The look on their faces was frantic and devoted.

All of a sudden, a golden light flew into the cave and stopped before the young monk. Countless Daoist patterns were swirling around the ball of light.

The young monk was surprised to see it. "This is the will of the Immortal World. Why another? Could I be the destined Heavenly Champion of the Immortal World?"

The young monk's eyes shone brightly as he put his hand on the golden light. Suddenly, a massive amount of insights gushed into his mind and elevated his aura sharply.

At the same time, multiple scenes appeared in his mind.

A figure in white slashing a bunch of sky-prides, controlling their life and death, and eliminating a bunch of Earthen Immortals with an invincible poise as if he was God.

The young monk widened his eyes in shock. "That's... Chu Kuangren! He's so powerful!"

The disciples exchanged a confused look with each other when they saw the young monk's reaction. They wondered what caused the shock on the young monk's face.

"Blood Monk Disciple, what happened?"

"Amitabha. My vision just showed me an evil anomaly wreaking havoc in this world. By Buddha's order, we have to eliminate him," the Blood Monk Disciple said.

"Anomaly?"

"Chu Kuangren."

"Huh!?"

The disciple gasped in shock.

"It's him!"

The name had a reputation for itself, and they all knew what the name meant.

"Go gather another million of blood essence for me. I will go into closed-door meditation for a while, and we will eliminate this evil as soon as possible."

“Yes, Blood Monk Disciple!”

Chapter 1070: A Proverb, The Fight of The Heavenly Champions, It Has Never Changed Since The Ancient Times

Inside a certain grand and massive golden palace, on top of a massive ancient tree was a ball of ember.

The ball of ember had a pair of wings behind it, and there were shadows of three legs at its bottom. A terrifying Yokai qi emanated from within it.

Then, a golden ball of light flew into the ember.

“Huh? Another will of the Immortal World? Am I the chosen Heavenly Champion?”

The ball of ember sounded delighted.

Then, the ember died off, revealing a young man in golden emperor robes with a shocked look on his face.

“What did I just see? Did the will of the Immortal World record it? He’s so powerful. He has killed three Fated Ones in just one attack and killed so many Earthen Immortals!” the young man exclaimed.

He thought he was invincible among the younger generations. Not even the late Golden Dragon Young Master was his match.

However, Chu Kuangren’s appearance shattered his dream.

“If this man is alive, I, as a Fated One, cannot rest in peace. Before I become the Heavenly Champion, I must figure out a way to deal with this person,” the man muttered.

“Golden Crow Guardian!” he shouted.

Several Golden Crow Guardians walked out of the void.

“Your Highness.”

“I want eyes on Chu Kuangren’s every move. Inform me right away when you spot anything,” Jin Diyi said.

“Aye.”

After giving out the order, Jin Diyi looked at the will of the Immortal World in his hand. “I must first refine the will of the Immortal World. It will increase my chances against Chu Kuangren when I have to face him in the future.”

Despite saying so, when he recalled the scene where Chu Kuangren controlled the life and death of those he killed, he could not help but frown. The power Chu Kuangren possessed was ridiculous, and it had far exceeded the ranks of sky-prides.

...

Back at Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren finally brought Lan Yu and the girls back.

His return delighted the students of the academy as they surrounded him with cheers, greeting him happily.

Chu Kuangren smiled happily, which made him look warm and lively.

His lively side captivated the hearts of many female students.

There was a ranking list for the teachers in Hundred Academy ranked not by strength but by popularity among the students.

Chu Kuangren was in the first place, and his polls far exceed that of the second place.

His unique teaching methods, his all-rounded knowledge of all aspects, and his handsome and outstanding looks granted him high popularity in Hundred Academy. His records were unprecedented.

No students would ever miss his class.

"I'll arrange a lecture in a few days. Those who want to attend are welcome to do so, and I look forward to seeing you," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

The students were over the moon when they heard him.

"I'll definitely attend Master Chu's lecture!"

"Of course, I'll go!"

"Don't snatch my place at the front!"

After the overwhelming welcome from the students, Chu Kuangren arrived at his place.

At the entrance, the Dean was already waiting for him.

The Dean took a glance and sensed him with his Immortal Consciousness. The result surprised him so much that he gasped.

"You've ascended to a Third-grade or closer to a Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal so fast. An anomaly indeed."

"Sir." Chu Kuangren greeted the Dean with a fist salute.

"Brother Chu, it has been years since our last meeting, and you're still as graceful as ever," the Dean said with a smile.

"You are too kind, Dean."

The two went inside and talked. Chu Kuangren even mentioned what he saw and experienced in the Storm Belt.

"Another world, eh?"

The Dean went quiet for a moment before he remembered something. He widened his eyes in shock as he quickly searched his Yin and Yang Ring for a jade scroll.

"What is this?" Chu Kuangren was curious.

“Brother Chu, I believe you know that I specialize in Deductive Dao. I actually inherited this deduction technique from a senior who was once a well-known figure here in Planquilon World. People called him the Iron Mouth.

“However, when he was deducting something, he suffered repulsion. Before he passed, he left behind a proverb. This jade scroll contains the proverb he wrote,” the Dean said with a serious look on his face.

Curious, Chu Kuangren took the jade scroll upon hearing the story. He activated his Immortal’s Core energy, and quickly enough, several lines of words appeared on the jade scroll.

“The Battle of Destiny, when the seven light converges arrives the Heavenly Champion!”

“When the worlds converge, the Battle of the Heavenly Champions shall give birth to the Immortal World Ruler!”

The words piqued Chu Kuangren’s interest. “Interesting. The first half of the proverb happens to align with the Battle of Destiny, but the second half is even more interesting.”

Judging from its literal meaning, it was not that difficult to decipher.

The second half meant the convergence of many other worlds and that the Heavenly Champions of the respective worlds would have to compete over the position of the Immortal World Ruler.

“The Storm Belt is the boundary of Planquilon Immortal World. Should the worlds converge, the Storm Belt would be the first. Maybe this is the reason for the unusual happenings occurring in the Storm Belt over the years. The worlds are converging!” the Dean said with a deep sigh, his eyes showing a hint of shock.

“The worlds here should refer to the fragments of the original Immortal World that happened in the ancient times. Now, the Fragmented Immortal Worlds are converging to reform their complete form.

“So many years have passed, and each Fragmented Immortal World has since created its own will. However, with so many of them converging now, who will have the say?

“Converge? In other words, the stronger wills will consume the weaker ones. That is why the second part of the proverb mentions... the Battle of the Heavenly Champions!

“The Heavenly Champion from each fragmented Immortal World will have them compete against each other when the worlds converge, and the winner’s will of the Immortal World will be the new and complete Immortal World!”

Chu Kuangren’s fingers unconsciously tapped the table as thoughts flooded his head. He had a feeling that he was getting closer to the truth.

The Battle of Destiny was just the preliminaries.

The Battle of the Heavenly Champions would be the true competition between the Immortal Worlds!

“Interesting. Battle of the Heavenly Champions, huh? People of different Fragmented Immortal Worlds are all chess pieces to the will, and it seems like the will of the Immortal World is playing one big game of chess.” Chu Kuangren cackled in laughter.

Having a general idea of what would become of the Immortal World, the Dean was quite shaken by the discovery.

“The convergence of worlds, the Battle of Heavenly Champions... This would involve the entire universe, and we will see a huge and unprecedented change!”

“Only on that scale is it interesting.” Chu Kuangren was intrigued.

If he were the only one treading on the Immortal Path, it would be rather boring. He needed some entertainment and excitement along the way.

Besides, Planquilon Immortal World was no longer entertaining.

The complete Immortal World was much more exciting to him.

After chatting with the Dean, Chu Kuangren summoned Lil Fox and updated her about the Fox Tribe, Tushan Scripture, and the Jizhou Cauldron.

“Your father left these for you.”

Lil Fox looked at the two items in her hands. Then, she gave the Jizhou Cauldron to Chu Kuangren and said, “Boss, you said this item is a Humanity Fortune Treasure, right? I, as a fox, can’t use it anyway, so I’ll leave it to you. I’ll cultivate the Immortal scripture that my father gave me.”

“I’m okay with that. If you face any difficulties, feel free to ask me,” Chu Kuangren did not reject her suggestion.

After all, he was quite interested in the Jizhou Cauldron.
