

Unparalleled 1101

Chapter 1101: The Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram, the Immortals Have Gone Crazy, Dao Cannot Be Spread Simply

“A Dao that can be comprehended is not a permanent Dao—”

The moment that sentence was spoken...

Kaboom!

The heavens suddenly boomed as if the Great Dao itself was trembling!

The surrounding spiritual qi surged and gathered around Chu Kuangren.

Every student and teacher was in disbelief by the sudden occurrence. All of their mouths were wide open as they saw the scene unfold before their eyes.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored whatever was happening.

He continued his lecture. “A name that can be named is not a permanent name...”

As Chu Kuangren lectured, more conjurations and weird occurrences appeared around him. Golden lotuses bloomed as silhouettes of auspicious divine beasts appeared from the void. Dragons and phoenixes could be seen dancing in the air, qilins were seen trodding across the sea, and Xuanwus¹ appeared carrying a monument on their backs...

The Dean was shocked when he saw all the conjurations happening before him.

Everyone else also could not believe their eyes.

“These are the Enlightening Words! The Enlightening Words!”

“Only the Enlightening Words, which have the wisdom of the Great Dao, can trigger such conjurations. By the heavens...”

The Dean found it hard to recover from his amazement.

After all, it was the Enlightening Words! Even the Arch Gilded Immortals, known for being the strongest beings amongst Immortals with impressive cultivation, might not be able to recite those words.

Yet, the Enlightening Words were now coming out from Chu Kuangren’s mouth, sentence by sentence, triggering conjurations to appear all around him.

Even someone as knowledgeable as the Dean had never heard of it, let alone experienced something like that. It truly exceeded the bounds of his comprehension.

Boom!

At that moment, the heavenly and earthly spiritual qi surged once more.

One by one, several apparitions appeared in the void. Some of them were either holding scrolls of scriptures, holding teaching rulers, or even armed with weapons...

However, all of them had one thing in common. They were all sitting cross-legged behind Chu Kuangren, brimming with Immortal Sparks while emanating brilliant Daoist patterns.

“This is the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram!” The Dean gasped.

He was so shocked that he was now gasping for air.

The Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram was an incredibly terrifying conjuration.

Countless conjurations existed throughout the world, each unique and mysterious in its own way. As for the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram, it was undoubtedly one of the best among all of them. Even in the history of the Hundred Academy, only a handful had managed to master it.

Even the Holy Late Teachers might not be able to cultivate it.

However, as of now, the conjuration appeared during Chu Kuangren’s Dao lecture!

“What an Opportunity of Fortune this is! A great one!”

The Dean immediately put away his feelings and listened to Chu Kuangren’s teachings. The remaining students were listening attentively too.

The longer and deeper Chu Kuangren delved into his lecture topic, the further the power of his conjurations spread. The whole academy was soon enveloped in pure and divine light.

The energy fluctuations from Chu Kuangren’s lecture soon spread throughout most of the Planquilon Immortal World, attracting the attention of many.

One by one, several Immortal Consciousness arrived to find out what was happening.

The moment everyone saw those myriads of conjurations hovering around Chu Kuangren as he gave the lecture, they were shocked.

“What the hell is happening here?!”

“He’s giving a lecture about Dao. Wait, those words... They are all Enlightening Words! By the heavens, I can’t believe an Earthen Immortal like him possesses such profound knowledge and understanding!”

“Dear heavens. Quick, quick! I must listen to it.”

The Immortals went crazy.

The lecture of a being who could speak Enlightening Words would be highly sought after even by the Immortals.

Somewhere far away, inside the Honorable Yokai Hall, the Yokai Hall Ruler abruptly opened his eyes, revealing a look of disbelief.

“Those are definitely Enlightening Words coming from his mouth. How many surprises does that guy still have in store?!”

“What realm is he in right now?!”

“Although he has obtained five strands of Immortal Will, can Diyi win against someone like him?”

The Yokai Ruler's confidence began to falter.

He even suspected that even if Jin Diyi managed to become the Heavenly Champion, he would still be far below Chu Kuangren's level.

Someone who could easily spout Enlightening Words like that was nothing less than a terrifying and incomprehensible being to the world.

"He can't possibly be a reincarnation of those old fellows who were once an Embodier¹, right?" The Yokai Ruler mumbled, thinking that the possibility of it was very likely.

'Why would he have such a deep understanding of the Dao otherwise?'

At that thought, the Yokai Hall Ruler became a little hesitant.

'Should I listen in?'

After all, Chu Kuangren was his enemy. If the Yokai Ruler were to listen to that lecture, would he not lose his dignity?

However, his Immortal Consciousness soon traveled towards the Hundred Academy without a second thought.

'Before the likes of the Great Dao itself, does losing my dignity matter?'

When he heard those Enlightening Words, the Yokai Hall Ruler felt a thump within his mind. It was as if something inside him had been unclogged.

'So that's the true meaning of Dao...'

'Chu Kuangren is undoubtedly a Holy Late Teacher!'

Even the Yokai Hall Ruler could not help but be amazed by Chu Kuangren. He even began to admire Chu Kuangren.

However, he shook off that feeling the next instant.

'I must not be clouded by this feeling of admiration.'

'Those who get in the Yokai Hall's way must die!'

'I can't keep Chu Kuangren alive much longer.'

A killing intent shot out from the Yokai Hall Ruler's eyes. Then, he continued listening to Chu Kuangren's lectures with an enthralled look.

Inside the Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren finally finished reciting the thousands of words from the Moral Scripture.

However, the surrounding conjurations remained for a long time. The golden lotuses were still blooming brilliantly like an ocean of flowers. As Chu Kuangren sat in the center of the ocean of flowers with Immortal Sparks gleaming and Daoist patterns intertwining around him, it looked as though a great Daoist Forefather had appeared!

Everyone soon recovered from their daze, their faces full of amazement.

“So that’s the true meaning of Dao.”

“It’s too profound and deep.”

“So this is the Dao that Master Chu teaches, the most basic and primordial form of Dao. Every type of cultivation Dao has branched out from this one fundamental Dao...”

“Do you guys still remember what Master Chu said?”

Suddenly, someone asked in confusion.

Then, everyone started panicking. That was because the contents of Chu Kuangren’s lecture had started to disappear from their minds.

Despite how hard they tried to remember them, it was futile.

With their memory, they could remember tens of thousands of words easily and quickly if they wished, let alone a mere thousand words.

However, everyone found themselves failing to remember the Moral Scripture, which only contained a thousand words.

Soon, the contents of the Moral Scripture gradually disappeared from their minds. Even the Dean could not hold on to them.

The strange thing about it was that their insights and understanding from listening to the Moral Scripture had not disappeared. It was still deeply ingrained within their minds.

“Being able to listen to those Enlightened Words once is already a blessing of a lifetime, and I have benefited greatly from this. Yet, has it ever been so simple to memorize words as profound as those?” the Dean lamented.

“Hehe. Luckily, I had a Vision Recording Rock prepared earlier. I recorded Master Chu’s whole lecture just now.” One of the students happily took out a Vision Recording Rock.

Everyone’s eyes lit up.

That student switched on the Vision Recording Rock, which revealed a video of Chu Kuangren giving his lecture earlier. However...

“Why is there no sound?”

“What is Master Chu talking about? Where has the sound gone?”

“Your Vision Recording Rock is too low-quality, it seems.”

That student was also dumbfounded. “It can’t be. This is the best Vision Recording Rock I have. Why is nothing recorded at all?”

The Eldest Master, who was standing beside them, chuckled. "You guys are too naïve. The words of Dao cannot be spread simply, let alone recorded by ordinary means like this Vision Recording Rock. Besides Master Chu alone, I'm afraid no one can remember anything more than a few words from that lecture."

He explained while looking at Chu Kuangren on the podium. There was respect, admiration, and gratefulness in his eyes.

At that moment, his respect for Chu Kuangren was like a surging river, flowing endlessly.

He believed that everyone felt the same way as well.

Chapter 1102: Mastering the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram, Jin Diyi's Confidence, the Divine Nine Wind Fury Scripture

On the podium, Chu Kuangren was sitting with his legs crossed. Although that Dao lecture earlier was aimed at the crowd, he had also gained something from it as well.

He looked at the conjurations around him, secretly amazed.

"It looks like I've caused quite the commotion this time."

Then, he looked at the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram before him quietly.

Unlike the other conjurations, Chu Kuangren had a hunch that he could control the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram and channel its power.

With a thought from his mind, the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram gradually dispersed.

The remaining conjurations slowly disappeared too.

However, Chu Kuangren had a strange feeling that he could make the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram appear whenever he wished for his own use.

"Interesting. It looks like I've gained a lot from giving this lecture." Chu Kuangren smiled happily.

After that, he announced to the crowd. "This marks the end of my lecture. I'll give the same lecture three months from now."

He got up and left after saying that.

Everyone quickly got up and bowed to him.

"Thank you for this lecture, Master Chu!"

"Master Chu, it's a pleasure to learn from you!"

The other Masters from the academy had also stood up and bowed to Chu Kuangren. Even the Dean bowed to Chu Kuangren in his heart.

He mumbled while looking at Chu Kuangren leaving. "It seems like my academy is going to have another Holy Late Teacher in this era."

Somewhere far away, the Immortals who listened to Chu Kuangren's lecture with their Immortal Consciousness fell silent. Then, they bowed in the direction of the academy.

They, too, had benefited greatly from Chu Kuangren's lecture this time.

He truly deserved it.

Everyone also got more excited about the coming lecture that would be held three months later.

Inside the Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren began to research the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram as soon as he returned to his quarters.

Conjurations were a form of Dao manifestation.

However, they could sometimes serve as the source of a cultivator's strength. A long time ago, Chu Kuangren gained quite a few of them during his cultivation journey.

As of now, the conjurations he possessed have increased.

Most of them came along with the various Immortal Physiques that he acquired.

However, those conjurations were not the same level as the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram. They could not even compare to it.

To put it simply, one was like coal while the other was like a polished diamond.

Both of them were essentially similar, yet the latter was many times more valuable.

"The Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram only appears when I'm giving a Dao lecture. If I want to fully master it, it seems I'll have to study it further," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

Before the next lecture, Chu Kuangren was busy researching the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram. He would also go through the Moral Scripture a few times.

Three months later, inside Chu Kuangren's residence, a burst of white light emerged as a mysterious Daoist Rhyme manifested. Several humanoid apparitions soon appeared in the void.

Some were holding scripture scrolls and teaching rulers, and some were even armed with weapons...

Those apparitions were the Hundred Scholars Assemblage.

Each apparition represented a path of cultivation for the human race.

"I can finally fully control it."

Chu Kuangren smiled with satisfaction. After three months of research, he has finally gained full control over the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram.

The conjuration would benefit him tremendously, and it could be regarded as one of his trump cards.

"It's time for the lecture." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

After three months, he stood on the podium once more.

This time, not a single seat in the crowd was empty. Chu Kuangren even noticed several Immortal Consciousnesses peeking in from the distance, but he simply ignored them.

"Greetings, Master Chu."

Everyone quickly stood up and greeted Chu Kuangren with a bow.

“Let’s begin.”

Chu Kuangren nodded before he started to give his Dao lecture.

Following a roaring boom in the sky, his lecture began. Daoist chimes reverberated in the air as golden lotuses bloomed everywhere. The surrounding conjurations were just as magnificent as before.

Although that was not the first time everyone saw them, they were still amazed and shocked by it.

This time, Chu Kuangren’s lecture lasted a little longer.

Chu Kuangren repeated his lecture several times.

Nevertheless, everyone was still fascinated as they listened, having benefited a lot from it.

After the lecture ended, Chu Kuangren left.

...

Boom!

Somewhere inside the Honorable Yokai Hall, a powerful burst of aura suddenly erupted. Inside a towering ancient tree, a young man in golden robes suddenly opened his eyes.

That man was the Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, Jin Diyi!

“I’ve finally become a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal!” Jin Diyi murmured.

A golden fiery light flashed across his eyes as a golden flame appeared in the palm of his hand.

The temperature of the flame was so high that the surrounding void started to distort and crumble due to its heat.

“I’ve fully mastered this Divine Golden Crow Flame, and with the five Wills of Immortal World, I’m now stronger than ever!”

“As of now, I’m finally strong enough to fight Chu Kuangren. No, I can even surpass him!” Jin Diyi took a deep breath as his eyes lit up with arrogant battle intent.

After a while, he calmed down. “Although I’m confident now, Chu Kuangren’s strength is not to be taken lightly. If I want to defeat him, I have to prepare as best as I can.”

He then took out a few jade scrolls.

All sorts of information relating to Chu Kuangren were recorded in those jade scrolls. Most of them contained his cultivation techniques and battle recordings.

Jin Diyi has been studying them all these years.

“Know yourself and know your enemy, and you will never be defeated.”

“Chu Kuangren, I’m almost done studying all your techniques. The next time we meet, it’ll be your defeat!”

...

Inside the Hundred Academy, a few months have passed since Chu Kuangren's second lecture.

During that time, he did not give any lectures. Instead, he was focused on guiding Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and Lil Fox in their cultivation.

They had made tremendous progress under his tutelage.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Two figures were sparring in the air.

It was Lan Yu and Shang Honghua.

The two of them were sparring intensely.

If anyone were to see those two women, they would surely be shocked. That was because both of them had reached the Earthen Immortal Realm.

"Lan Yu, your Radiant War Immortal Physique is just too powerful. If I don't go full out, I won't be able to fight against it."

Shang Honghua put away her spear and said with admiration.

"You're not too bad yourself either."

"I still have a long way to go compared to you. I can sense that I'm almost done fully comprehending the will of the Immortal World inside me, and it'll be hard for me to progress after this," Shang Honghua said frustratingly. She knew full well that she could improve that much because of the will of the Immortal World Will inside her.

If she did not possess that, it would be hard for her to improve that quickly.

"Even without the will of the Immortal World, you're a very talented person. The only reason you can reach this point is mostly contributed by your hard work, you know," Lan Yu said.

After that, the two of them returned to Chu Kuangren's residence.

Lil Fox and Chu Hong were playing around inside the courtyard. Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren and He Yun were preparing a few ingredients on the side, seemingly to refine a pill.

Now that he had nothing to do, Chu Kuangren had been researching the Four Supportive Dao. Since he had reached a bottleneck on formations, his knowledge and skills in runes, alchemy, and weaponsmithing still had a long way to go.

"Oh, hello, Honghua. I just happen to have something for you," said Chu Kuangren as he took out a jade scroll.

"What is this?"

Shang Honghua was a little surprised.

She took the jade scroll. The moment she mobilized her thoughts, countless mysterious words immediately appeared in her mind, turning into an Immortal Scripture.

‘The Divine Nine Wind Fury Scripture!’

Chapter 1103: The Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture, Secrets of the Three Great Immortal Scriptures

“The Divine Nine Wind Fury Scripture?!”

Shang Honghua could not help but feel amazed as she looked at the Immortal Scripture. Although she had only glanced at it, she could already tell how extraordinary that Immortal Scripture was due to her Earthen Immortal cultivation level.

This Immortal Scripture far exceeded the one she had been using in her cultivation.

“My King, is this Immortal Scripture for me?”

“That’s right,” said Chu Kuangren while nodding. “This Immortal Scripture is suitable for you.”

That was a God-tier Immortal Scripture he obtained from the Fantasy Roulette. Based on cultivation level, the Immortal Scripture was at least a top-tier Arch Gilded Immortal Scripture.

It was even comparable to the likes of the Embodier Scriptures too.

Chu Kuangren had studied it for a while. Although it contained many useful points, he already had quite a few Immortal Scriptures in his possession, so the Divine Nine Wind Fury Scripture did not seem too much of a use to him. However, it just so happened that Shang Honghua was cultivating the Ferocious Dao, meaning that the Nine Wind Fury Scripture would compliment her perfectly. Hence, Chu Kuangren gave it to her.

“This is too valuable of a gift. Thank you, my King,” Shang Honghua said while putting the Immortal Scripture away.

She understood that it was futile to reject this gift since Chu Kuangren had already decided to give it to her. Besides, she also needed a better Immortal Scripture.

She kept those words of gratitude in her heart.

“Focus and work hard in your cultivation. If there’s anything you don’t understand, feel free to ask me. By the way, has the will of the Immortal World inside you been behaving strangely recently?” Chu Kuangren asked.

Shang Honghua thought for a while before saying, “A little, I think. Sometimes, it feels like it’s trying to escape my body as if something is summoning it.”

“Is that so?” Chu Kuangren pondered. “It looks like this Battle of Destiny is nearing an end.”

He, too, also had the same feeling that Shang Honghua described.

The will of the Immortal World inside him seemed to be behaving strangely too.

However, he did not think too much about it.

Several days later.

“Congratulations, Host! You’ve obtained a God-tier reward, the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture!”

Chu Kuangren was stunned for a moment.

‘The Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture?’

‘Does it have something to do with the Moral Scripture I got previously?’

He read the item’s description and had a sudden realization.

Although their names were similar, those were two different Immortal Scriptures.

The Moral Scripture he obtained previously was a compilation of the understandings of the most fundamental Dao. Meanwhile, the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture was an Immortal Scripture used for cultivation.

He soon felt a vague connection with this Immortal Scripture.

“Receive.”

Within that instant, a huge amount of knowledge flooded his mind.

His understanding of the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture immediately peaked.

At the same time, another Immortal Scripture he once studied started to react. It was the Prime Clarity Spiritual Scripture left behind by the Jie Sect Ruler. That Immortal Scripture had automatically flipped itself open.

The two Immortal Scriptures were resonating with each other!

“Interesting.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

It turned out to be the vague connection he was sensing.

The Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture was created by the rumored Divine Supreme Clarity Imperial, who was a powerful elite among the Immortals. Since the Divine Supreme Clarity Imperial and the Jie Sect Leader originated from the same era, it made sense that their Immortal Scriptures could sense each other’s presence.

The Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture and Prime Clarity Spiritual Scripture started to activate inside Chu Kuangren’s body at the same time, enveloping him in brilliant Immortal Sparks. Then, a mysterious surge of Daoist Rhyme emerged from his body, intertwining into Daoist patterns...

At the same time, his cultivation level was rising rapidly, pushing him all the way to the Fifth Grade Earthen Immortal Realm.

His cultivation level stopped after reaching the Perfected Fifth Grade Earthen Immortal Realm. Chu Kuangren grinned. “Interesting. Although the Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal is nothing worth mentioning, I can’t believe that these two Immortal Scriptures can be cultivated in tandem with each other. They also seem to be interacting as if complimenting each other...”

“Could it be that these two Immortal Scriptures were once from the same Immortal Scripture?”

“If that’s the case, does Jade Clarity, one of the Three Clarities, possess an Immortal Scripture that can resonate with these two? What will happen after I gather all three of them?”

Chu Kuangren started to become interested.

It seemed like he would need to visit the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect in the future.

Rumor had it that the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect originated from ancient immortal times. It was related to the Divine Primeval Jade Clarity Imperial, the Chan Sect Master who was one of the Three Clarities.

Chu Kuangren did not hesitate and began studying the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture. After that, he left the academy alone and traveled toward the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect.

The Jade Clarity Immortal Sect was located within a mountain range. The spiritual qi was dense and abundant there, where leylines meet. It was a very rare and valuable cultivation hotspot.

In Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, Gong Yue was sitting with her legs crossed.

Then, she suddenly opened her eyes and looked beyond the gates of her sect. “Oh, why is Brother Chu here?”

Although she was surprised, Chu Kuangren’s arrival was undoubtedly a huge occasion.

Putting aside his strength, just the two Dao lectures he gave back at the Hundred Academy was enough to gain the respect and acknowledgment of any orthodoxy.

Gong Yue personally went out to welcome him.

“Greeting, Sister Gong Yue.”

Chu Kuangren bowed when he saw Gong Yue. Besides being Shang Honghua’s teacher, she had also helped him out on many occasions, so Chu Kuangren was quite fond of her.

“Brother Chu, please come in.”

After entering the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, Chu Kuangren immediately stated the purpose of his visit, which was to browse through their cultivation scriptures.

Since orthodoxy’s cultivation scriptures were usually related to its foundation and strength, they could not be distributed or given to outsiders. Gong Yue could not help but hesitate.

“I’m willing to offer this Immortal Scripture as an exchange.” Chu Kuangren took out a jade scroll that recorded some parts of the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture.

Gong Yue took a look at it and was shocked. “T-This is Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture from the Supreme Clarity Branch! How did you get this, Brother Chu?!”

“The Supreme Clarity Branch?”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up. ‘It looks like that besides me, there are also people who cultivate the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture.’

“Yes, during the ancient immortal times, there was once an orthodoxy known as the Three Clarity Daoist Sect. They worship the Three Clarities as their forefathers and can be separated into the Prime Clarity branch, Jade Clarity branch, and the Supreme Clarity branch. The Jade Clarity Immortal Sect was established by the cultivators of the Jade Clarity branch back then,” Gong Yue explained.

‘The Three Clarity Daoist Sect...’

Chu Kuangren secretly remembered that name.

“I happened to obtain this Immortal Scripture by chance...”

As he could not reveal anything about the Fantasy Roulette, Chu Kuangren simply made up an excuse. Gong Yue did not doubt him either.

“Since you’ve offered the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture as an exchange, the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect can’t be stingy either. All of the scriptures we have are collectively known as the Primeval Jade Clarity Scripture. However, the original version contained nine volumes, but we only have the first six volumes available. As for the later three volumes, we don’t have them...”

The cultivator that established the Jade Clarity Immortal Sect back then in Planquilon Immortal World was only a Heavenly Immortal of the Jade Clarity branch. He was not really a top-notch disciple of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect back then in the complete Immortal World, but he only mastered the first six volumes of the Primeval Jade Clarity Scripture.

“I understand.”

Chu Kuangren nodded as he exchanged that Immortal Scripture.

After that, he returned to the academy and started studying it.

Inside the Hundred Academy, Chu Kuangren sat with his legs crossed. The contents of the three Immortal Scriptures soon appeared in his mind one after another, and mysterious Daoist chimes seemed to echo in his ears.

The Prime Clarity Spiritual Scripture, Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture, and Primeval Jade Clarity Scripture — those three Immortal Scriptures started to activate inside Chu Kuangren’s body.

The resonation between them grew stronger.

As Chu Kuangren continued cultivating them, the countless characters inside the three great Immortal Scriptures started to float into the air and merged together. A new cultivation technique could vaguely be seen within it.

However, that cultivation technique was still very unclear as it only appeared for a while before it reverted back into the contents of the three Immortal Scriptures and dispersed.

“Sure enough, I still lack the last three volumes of the Primeval Jade Clarity Scripture. That’s why I can’t fully combine them,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He could now confirm that the three great Immortal Scriptures used to be one single scripture and that they were divided into three by the Three Clarities.

Chu Kuangren was very curious. After all, a single Immortal Scripture was already so profound. If the three Immortal Scriptures were fully combined, how mysterious and extraordinary would it be?

Chapter 1104: Sword-Like Heavenly Intent, the Yokai Hall's Messenger, Jin Diyi's Challenge

"The complete Primeval Jade Clarity Scripture must be in the hands of those from the Jade Clarity branch. Perhaps I might have a chance of getting it when the countless Fragmented Immortal Worlds merge together."

"I'm in no hurry to combine the three Immortal Scriptures."

"I'm cultivating the Invincible Self-empowering Dao, so the Immortal Scriptures of others are only a reference to me. It'll be best if I can combine those three, but it's fine if I can't as well," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

His goal was to set forth on a path of cultivation that no one had ever seen before. It also meant that his cultivation techniques should also be unprecedented, which was the Invincible Technique unique only to him!

The same thing could be said for Immortal Scriptures.

He had gone through many Immortal Scriptures to lay the foundation for making his own, and it was an incredibly challenging task.

However, he did not hesitate to do it.

"Although I can't combine the three great Immortal Scriptures, I still managed to gain something in the end. At the very least, I've broken through to a Sixth-grade Earthen Immortal now."

The resonance of the three great Immortal Scriptures has increased his cultivation level.

Previously, the resonance between the Prime Clarity Spiritual Scripture and the Supreme Clarity Moral Scripture had pushed him into the Perfected Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal Realm. Now, he has reached the sixth.

"Fantasy Roulette."

"Congratulations, Host! You have obtained a God-tier technique — the Sword-like Heavenly Intent!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

'Sword-like Heavenly Intent!'

It was a top-notch offensive Sword Dao Immortal Technique!

Based on the Immortal Technique level, the technique would be a Gilded Immortal Technique, and it was dozens of times more powerful than his Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

With this Immortal Technique, his attack power would increase tremendously.

"Very well.

"The Thousand Lotus Sword Intent has started to lose out as I become stronger, and the Invincible Techniques require some time for me to research anyway. Although the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol is powerful, I shouldn't use a powerful technique like this every time at the start of a battle."

"This Sword-like Heavenly Intent came at just the right time." Chu Kuangren smiled.

"Chu Kuangren!"

At that moment, a cold voice sounded from outside the academy.

"Oh, it seems that an unfriendly visitor has come," Chu Kuangren mumbled while touching his chin.

Above the academy, a man in golden armor was standing in the air while emanating an incredibly razor-sharp aura. He was an Earthen Immortal.

He was relentlessly releasing his aura everywhere, overwhelming most of the students in the academy with that immense pressure.

"This is an Earthen Immortal-level Golden Crow Guardian!"

"He's here to look for Master Chu."

"F*ck, he's too arrogant. How dare a Golden Crow Guardian from Yokai Hall behave with such insolence in the academy! Is he looking to die?!"

The Golden Crow Guardian continued releasing his aura without regard.

He had the gall to do so because he was representing the Honorable Yokai Hall. Killing him would mean war against the Yokai Hall.

He believed that the academy would not dare to do that.

Creak.

Someone pushed open his door and slowly walked out.

The Golden Crow Guardian immediately saw that person dressed in pure white robes, with an ancient white jade-like sword strapped to his waist on the left and an ancient scroll placed on the right.

That handsome and otherworldly man was none other than Chu Kuangren.

The Golden Crow Guardian could not help but frown upon seeing him.

Although Chu Kuangren had an otherworldly aura, his aura was ordinary at most, as if he had no cultivation at all.

'Is this guy really Chu Kuangren?'

'The Chu Kuangren, whose name is known throughout the Planquilon Immortal World?'

Unfortunately, that Earthen Immortal did not understand a simple concept called... back to basics.

As Chu Kuangren's understanding of the Dao increased, his aura also started to change. The most obvious sign was when he did not reveal his cultivation level, he would appear no different from an ordinary man.

Only Immortals with powerful cultivation levels could see through it.

"Chu Kuangren, you've finally shown yourself."

That Golden Crow Guardian looked at Chu Kuangren and sneered. "Today, I've come to deliver a challenge from his highness the Crown Prince. Ten..."

Before he could finish, he heard a humming sound.

Then, the void trembled.

A terrifyingly powerful aura landed on him, and his expression immediately changed. At the next instant, he quickly lost control of his body and fell from the sky, creating a huge crater with his impact.

"I don't like people who act high and mighty in front of me."

Chu Kuangren slowly walked toward him with a condescending glare. "Also, you're scaring my students."

The surrounding students secretly cheered when they heard him.

'Serves you right for that arrogant behavior.'

'Before the likes of Master Chu, you'll still end up lying on the ground.'

"Alright. You can tell me whatever message you're delivering now," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

"Chu Kuangren, how dare you treat me like this! I'll have you know that I'm a messenger from the Honorable Yokai Hall!" That Golden Crow Guardian was red with rage, and he frantically channeled his yokai qi to try to stand up.

However, Chu Kuangren shot him another glare. This time, he formed a sword hand sign, causing the surrounding spacetime energy to become more intense, rendering the Golden Crow Guardian immobilized.

Sounds of bones cracking rang out as blood started to flow from the Golden Crow Guardian's eyes, nose, mouth, and ears.

He felt that he was going to be crushed into pulp.

'So this is Chu Kuangren...'

'Being able to immobilize an Earthen Immortal on a whim!'

'How powerful!'

"I've already killed quite a lot of yokai Immortals, so I don't mind killing another. Choose your next words wisely. I don't like listening to nonsense," Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

The Golden Crow Guardian was sweating profusely as he started to panic. All of Chu Kuangren's past achievements started to flash through his mind one by one.

Killing sky-prides, slaying Earthen Immortals, wiping out ancient immortal orthodoxies...

All these years, numerous sky-prides, Immortals, and even orthodoxies have died in his hands. A Golden Crow Guardian like him would not matter at all!

Upon realizing that, the Golden Crow Guardian's arrogance disappeared. Despite representing the Honorable Yokai Hall, he did not feel safe at all.

"I'm representing the Crown Prince to deliver his challenge to you. Ten days from now, the Crown Prince challenges you to fight at the Void Valley, marking an end to the Battle of Destiny!" the Golden Crow Guardian quickly said.

A playful look appeared on Chu Kuangren's face. "This is interesting. So he's brave enough to challenge me, huh?"

"Chu Kuangren, the Crown Prince's strength far exceeds any of the previous Fated Ones. He shall end your undefeated reputation!"

"I'll be looking forward to that."

Chu Kuangren chuckled before he retracted his spacetime energy.

Having been freed, the Golden Crow Guardian immediately got up, turned into a ray of light, and escaped.

He was truly frightened of Chu Kuangren, and he no longer dared to mess with him.

"Sheesh, he sure is good at escaping." Chu Kuangren sneered.

He could not care less about finding that Golden Crow Guardian. After all, countries at war would not kill each other's messengers, and he was not a short-tempered person.

"The Yokai Hall's Crown Prince, Jin Diyi? Interesting." Chu Kuangren grinned.

He was eager to find out what kind of surprise Jin Diyi could bring him.

"I hope he doesn't disappoint."

After the Golden Crow Guardian left, the entire academy was in an uproar.

'What?'

'Jin Diyi, the last Fated One is challenging Master Chu?!'

'The Battle of Destiny is going to end?'

Everyone was excited by the news.

"Jin Diyi is one brave person. I can't believe he has challenged Master Chu. Haha. Let's see how Master Chu beat him up."

"Jin Diyi... The Yokai Hall's Crown Prince? This guy is really mysterious because not many know his true strength."

“He’ll never be a match for Master Chu, for sure.”

The Honorable Yokai Hall had challenged Chu Kuangren!

Such news could never be concealed, and it spread throughout the whole Planquilon Immortal World within the next few days.

During that time, the news shocked almost everyone, and it became the hottest topic in Planquilon Immortal World.

Chapter 1105: Jin Diyi’s Strength, All Preparations Are Done

The Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, Jin Diyi had declared his challenge against Chu Kuangren!

News about it spread like wildfire throughout the whole Planquilon Immortal World!

Every cultivator and orthodoxy was looking forward to the battle.

“Doesn’t he know how terrifying Chu Kuangren is? He had defeated all the previous Fated Ones effortlessly. Is Jin Diyi really strong enough to defeat Chu Kuangren?”

“I think it’ll take a miracle for that to happen.”

“That’s right. I think it’s going to be an impossible task.”

No great orthodoxy had high hopes for Jin Diyi.

It was because Chu Kuangren’s previous achievements were just so astonishing that it was becoming unbelievable.

He could even kill Heavenly Immortals!

With someone like him around, even the older generation of elite Heavenly Immortals would be wary around him, let alone the sky-prides of this generation.

However, Jin Diyi was now challenging a being like him?

No one believed that Jin Diyi could win.

After that, news soon spread from the Honorable Yokai Hall. It was the Yokai Hall Ruler’s words.

“The Crown Prince’s abilities have surpassed mine!”

Just those words alone put the whole world into a great uproar.

‘The Crown Prince’s abilities have surpassed mine?!’

‘The Yokai Hall Ruler is one of the older generation Heavenly Immortals. Although no one knows what cultivation level he is in, he’s at least a Third-grade Heavenly Immortal!’

‘He might even be in the Middle Third-grade Immortal Realm already!’

However, everyone was in disbelief to hear an older generation Heavenly Immortal saying that he was weaker than the Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince.

'He's trying to build support!'

Everyone instantly thought of that.

The Yokai Hall Ruler was building support for Jin Diyi!

After all, their battle had not even begun, yet the whole Planquilon Immortal World was already bad-mouthing them, which was not good for the Yokai Hall and their Crown Prince.

That was why the Yokai Hall Ruler was now building support for Jin Diyi!

At the very least, they could not lose support before the battle began!

"Tsk tsk, things are getting interesting now. I can't believe the Yokai Ruler actually said that he's not a match for Jin Diyi all because he wants to build support for his son."

"Ha! This is outrageous."

"That's right. Is Jin Diyi really that powerful?"

"What a joke. Even if he's going to build support for Jin Diyi, he should come up with a reason or proof of his strength at the very least, right? What do they hope to achieve by saying this? Do they expect everyone to just believe them like that?"

"Hehe. Two days from now, I shall go and test Jin Diyi's strength."

Everyone expressed their disbelief.

Some Earthen Immortals even wanted to go and verify Jin Diyi's strength.

Somewhere near the Honorable Yokai Hall, by the side of a lake, Jin Diyi was sitting with his legs crossed, busy comprehending the five wills of the Immortal World inside him. However, several pairs of eyes were staring at him from afar.

They were hiding in the void using some advanced concealment technique. Even a peak Earthen Immortal would find it hard to detect their presence.

"Hehe, so that's Jin Diyi? He does look formidable, but I wonder how powerful he can be?"

"Is he strong enough to challenge Chu Kuangren?"

"We shall attack in a while to test his strength."

A few of them were discussing.

They were very confident in their abilities. Upon further investigation, they also learned that there was still enough distance from the Honorable Yokai Hall. Hence, it would be easy for them to retreat after they carried out their plan.

"Come out."

Just then, Jin Diyi spoke.

The ones in the void looked at each other.

'Has our presence been discovered?'

"I do not wish to repeat that," Jin Diyi said indifferently, his cold gaze landing on the void nearby. It was the same direction where they were hiding.

Those cultivators finally confirmed that their presence had been exposed.

"Hehe. Strength aside, your perception is quite good." The few of them slowly walked out from the void. The one leading was a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal, who was already a very top-notch elite in Planquilon Immortal World.

"I understand that many are doubting my strength, so I don't mind. I might as well prove my abilities by killing you," Jin Diyi said indifferently.

As he slowly stood up, his aura increased. Soon, the void was trembling as his full cultivation level was revealed before everyone.

"This cultivation level... You're a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal!"

The leading Earthen Immortal's expression changed.

Jin Diyi's strength was now at the level of a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal, which was the same as theirs. Only the older generation cultivators had that level of cultivation.

"No wonder he has the guts to challenge Chu Kuangren. Even the Blood Monk Disciple and Ming Zi were far below your level."

"But how about your combat strength, I wonder?"

Although that Earthen Immortal was shocked, he did not panic. After all, he was also a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal, the same level as Jin Diyi.

His figure immediately disappeared in a flash, darting towards Jin Diyi.

The others also attacked to test Jin Diyi's strength.

"Fools," Jin Diyi said indifferently, and a dazzling golden flame soon enveloped his body.

That was the Golden Crow Flame, the divine fire ranked third on the Divine Fire List, alongside the Phoenix's Flame!

Just as those Earthen Immortals were approaching him, the Golden Crow Flame immediately spread out, landing on the nearest Earthen Immortals.

"Argh!"

Screams rang out one after another as three Earthen Immortals were burnt into a pile of charcoal. Seeing that, the remaining Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal's expression changed. He quickly retreated while unleashing an Immortal Technique toward Jin Diyi.

"Hmph." Jin Diyi grunted and stepped forth.

He did not dodge or evade but unleashed an Immortal Technique in the form of a punch that immediately shattered the incoming attack!

“Golden Crow Claw!”

Jin Diyi let out another attack.

He gestured a grab with his hand, turning his Golden Crow Flame into a gigantic claw!

“This is bad!”

The Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal became afraid. He could feel an incomparably terrifying might coming from that attack, causing even him to shudder!

“Block it!” The Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal summoned his full strength by channeling the surrounding earth qi to merge with his Immortal’s Core energy. A gigantic godly mountain then formed in front of him to block that incoming attack.

Following a loud boom, the flaming claw collided with the godly mountain.

The godly mountain burst open!

When that flaming claw landed on that Fifth Grade Earthen Immortal’s body, it blasted him into pieces, immediately ending his life!

Having seen everything unfold, the remaining Earthen Immortal was extremely horrified.

Jin Diyi had taken down those attacking Earthen Immortals one by one by Jin Diyi without an ounce of effort. His strength was far more terrifying than they thought!

“Do you know why you’re still alive?”

Jin Diyi looked at the sole surviving Earthen Immortal and said.

That Earthen Immortal suppressed his fear and shook his head. He did not escape because he knew it was pointless to do so.

“That’s because I want you to spread the news about how great I am. Go. Tell the world that I, Jin Diyi, am more powerful than Chu Kuangren!”

“U-Understood.” That Earthen Immortal nodded before he turned and left hastily.

He wanted to tell everyone that they were terribly mistaken!

Jin Diyi’s strength was far more terrifying than they expected!

Perhaps he could truly defeat Chu Kuangren!

He might defeat that undefeatable legend!

Beside the lake, the Yokai Hall Ruler, dressed in lavish golden robes, walked out from the woods nearby while looking at Jin Diyi, impressed. “My son, you truly have not disappointed me. It seems you have fully mastered the Golden Crow Flame.”

He had seen the whole fight earlier.

Although he declared that Jin Diyi was stronger than him, it was truly just an exaggeration to build support for him. However, Jin Diyi was indeed powerful. With his talents, it would only be some time before he surpassed the Yokai Hall Ruler.

“The Golden Crow Flame alone won’t be enough to defeat Chu Kuangren,” Jin Diyi said. Having been studying Chu Kuangren all that time, he knew it would be impossible to fight him using only the Golden Crow Flame.

“The preparations over at the Void Valley are completed,” said the Yokai Ruler.

“Alright. We shall proceed as planned then. All we have to do is wait for Chu Kuangren now.”

Jin Diyi nodded as he looked towards the academy with a glint in his eyes. “Chu Kuangren, I will certainly defeat you and step over your corpse to become the Heavenly Champion! I shall be the one to reach the pinnacle of strength!”

Chapter 1106: I Can Kill A Bunch Of Them With A Slap, The Void Valley, All Parties Gather

Jin Diyi had killed a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal in a second!

Out of nowhere, the news spread. It made the cultivators who thought that Jin Diyi could not defeat Chu Kuangren so uneasy that they started to investigate.

It turned out that the news was true!

Not only that, but Jin Diyi probably did not use his full strength when he killed the Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal and several other Earthen Immortals.

“A plot twist! I didn’t expect Jin Diyi to possess such terrifying strength and instantly kill a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal!”

“It can only be done by either a top-notch Ninth-grade Earthen Immortal or a Heavenly Immortal, and Jin Diyi is most likely hiding his strength. Tsk tsk, he should not be underestimated.”

“It looks like Chu Kuangren has encountered a formidable enemy this time.”

“Indeed...”

“As expected of Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince.”

“It is rumored that the Yokai Ruler’s true form is the divine beast, Golden Crow, so Jin Diyi must also have the Golden Crow bloodline. In your opinion, what divine beast bloodline do you think he has? Could he be a pure-blooded Golden Crow?!”

The outcome of the final Battle of Destiny was one-sided at first. However, now that Jin Diyi had made a powerful move to prove his strength, many people switched sides and thought that Jin Diyi would win.

“As I’ve said, Jin Diyi is Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, so how could he be so foolish as to court death himself? It turns out he’s confident.”

“Tsk. It looks like Chu Kuangren’s undefeated legend will come to an end.”

“That’s right. After all, the universe is not a stage solely for him. It’s time for someone else to perform.”

“Nothing lasts forever.”

The outside world was in chaos.

However, Chu Kuangren was relaxing in the Hundred Academy.

He did not take Jin Diyi’s challenge seriously. When the time came, he would take it as if he was killing a fly.

“Boss, I heard Jin Diyi killed a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal in a second,” said Lil Fox while rushing into the courtyard.

She was shocked upon hearing the news just now. After all, the Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal was a top-notched elite in Planquilon Immortal World.

Yet, he was killed in seconds?

Was Jin Diyi so powerful?!

Therefore, she immediately ran back to inform Chu Kuangren to see if he had any strategy.

Chu Kuangren, too, was surprised to learn about the news and know that Jin Diyi’s strength was more powerful than the other Fated Ones.

However, he did not seem to care much about it. Looking at the fearful Lil Fox, he yawned and said nonchalantly, “Noted.”

Lil Fox was stunned for a moment. ‘Is this his reaction?’

“Boss, don’t you have any opinions?”

“What do you think?”

Lil Fox was a little confused. “Boss, even though you’re very powerful, Jin Diyi doesn’t seem weaker than you. You...”

At that moment, Chu Kuangren was drinking tea while reading a book and enjoying Lan Yu’s shoulder massage.

“You don’t seem to be worried at all.”

Was that a good thing?

Lil Fox was speechless.

“All he did was kill a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal. What is there to be worried about? I can kill a bunch of them with a slap,” said Chu Kuangren calmly.

‘Uh... Kill a bunch of them with a slap?’

‘What do you think Earthen Immortals are?!’

'Aren't you an Earthen Immortal too?'

Lil Fox had no idea how to respond.

"Forget it, Boss. No matter what, you're the most powerful," said Lil Fox.

After all, having been following Chu Kuangren for many years, Lil Fox worshipped Chu Kuangren almost blindly.

...

The Void Valley was a dangerous place in Planquilon Immortal World.

It was unstable with spatial turbulence that would draw people into the void, hence its name, Void Valley. Besides explorers, very few people would visit here.

However, outside the Void Valley was crowded today.

Many people resisted the spatial turbulence in their warships and soon came to the periphery of the Void Valley. They were all eagerly waiting for something to happen.

The ten-day period was approaching!

"So many people are here."

A few young cultivators gathered on a warship. They were amazed just by looking at the densely packed warship and cultivators.

"Look, that's an Immortal!" a young lady suddenly exclaimed in surprise.

Several streams of lights shot across their heads. They were Immortals, with Immortal's Core energy fluctuations emanating from them.

They soared across the sky without the help of warships and treasures as they could ignore the surrounding spatial turbulence by relying on their strength.

That was an Immortal's ability.

The young lady was extremely excited as Immortals were rare among Planquilon Immortal World's cultivators.

"Senior Brother, is this battle that important? It has attracted so many Immortals here." Then, the young lady asked while looking at a young man beside her.

Although they came from an immortal orthodoxy, Immortals were still unapproachable beings to them.

"Of course." The young man who was called Senior Brother nodded and then said solemnly, "Junior Sister, this battle might be one for the history books! Both parties are the younger generation's sky-prides. In fact, it's inappropriate to regard them as a younger generation. Although they are of the same generation as us, they are already at the pinnacle of strength in Planquilon Immortal World!"

"I know one of them is Jin Diyi. Having been down the hill for the past few days, I've heard rumors about him killing a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal in seconds. Oh my god. That's scary."

The young lady thought it was unfathomable.

In her opinion, ordinary Immortals were already superior, let alone Earthen Immortals, who were a level stronger than ordinary ones.

“Well, Jin Diyi’s strength is surprising, but on the other side of the battle, Chu Kuangren is even more of a legend!”

Upon mentioning Chu Kuangren, there was an almost fanatical admiration in the young Senior Brother’s eyes.

Next to him, the Junior Sister could not understand him. “Is Chu Kuangren as powerful as you’ve mentioned, Senior Brother?”

“Junior Sister, you don’t know about him as you’ve been in closed-door meditation for the past few years. Chu Kuangren is truly a legend...”

The young Senior Brother immediately introduced Chu Kuangren to his Junior Sister with admiration.

The depth of the Void Valley was the most dangerous area out of all, where the space would crack from time to time, causing a lot of spatial turbulence.

Even Immortals must resist it all the time by using their Immortal’s Core.

A group of Immortals gathered in the void.

Almost all orthodoxies’ higher-ups, such as Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, Hundred Academy, Holy Judgement Sect, Sycamore Mountain, Great Yuan Divine Dynasty, and many more were here.

“I can’t believe the Honorable Yokai Hall would choose to fight in such a place,” said Gong Yue while looking at the Void Valley before her.

Next to her, Shang Honghua frowned. “It’s intentional. They knew that the King is good at Spatial Technique, and that’s why they’ve chosen to fight in this volatile space. They want to make sure that the King can’t use his spatial technique with such circumstances.”

“Their intention is more than that.”

The Dean approached and said while looking at the Void Valley, “You’ll know if you carefully observe the leylines here.”

Chapter 1107: Jin Diyi’s Debut, The Morning Sun Rises, Rides A Phoenix In The Sea of Clouds, Gradually Approaching

“The leylines?”

After hearing the Dean’s words, everyone observed the Void Valley’s leylines with strange looks on their faces.

“The leylines here have been destroyed.”

“No. Not only the Void Valley’s leylines but the leylines in tens of millions of kilometers have also been destroyed!”

“In other words, an Earthen Immortal has no way to mobilize earth qi to support himself. Tsk, tsk. They’re well prepared.”

“If I’m not mistaken, Chu Kuangren is good at formation techniques, especially the Earth Qi Formation, which is extremely powerful. But now, with the leylines here all destroyed, he can’t utilize his Formation Techniques anymore.”

“Ha! The Yokai Hall has taken great pains to choose a combat venue. It looks like they’re determined to take down Chu Kuangren this time.”

“Tsk. The Earth Qi Formation is a means of cheating too. In fact, I think this will make the battle more interesting.”

The crowd was engaged in a discussion.

Some people thought the Yokai Hall was despicable, while some thought it had been adequately considered. However, most looked like they were waiting for a show to unfold.

“Shall we persuade Brother Chu not to come to the battle?” suggested Gong Yue with a frown.

The Yokai Hall clearly had been preparing for the battle for a long time, but Chu Kuangren had been forced to respond to the battle hastily. It had been unfair from the beginning.

“Honorable Teacher, that’s impossible.”

Shang Honghua shook her head and said, “Since he has accepted the challenge, there’s absolutely no reason for him to be absent. Even if everyone in Yokai Hall shows up, he’ll still come for the battle because he is the King!”

Whether a King or cultivator, Chu Kuangren’s ego would not allow him to retreat without fighting. It was just not his style.

Shang Honghua knew him well.

Boom!

At that moment, storm clouds suddenly rolled in!

A magnificent golden warship was seen gliding through the air, and a group of Golden Crow Guardians in golden armor stood on the warship.

Besides the Golden Crow Guardians, there were dozens of rare, top-notch yokai at the Earthen Immortal level.

“The Honorable Yokai Hall has come!”

“Tsk. With such intense yokai qi, that is no doubt the Honorable Yokai Hall. Apparently, the Honorable Yokai Hall has annexed Divine Dragon Island. I reckon it won’t be long before their strength rises to another level.”

“Yeah. If Jin Diyi wins this battle, the Planquilon Immortal World will be under the Honorable Yokai Hall one day.”

“Won’t humans be in danger by then?”

“It won’t. The humans have Hundred Academy, Jade Clarity Immortal Sect, and other ancient immortal orthodoxies. They’re enough to compete with the Yokai Hall if they join forces.”

As everyone discussed, they all found Yokai Hall’s current background surprising. Shortly after, a figure attracted their attention.

The great yokai were gathered on the golden warship, and in front of them was a young man.

The young man was dressed in dark golden armor covered with thorns, emanating yokai qi and ferocious qi that merged and swept across the universe.

With just a glance, everyone could feel the terrifying and domineering aura coming from the young man, crushing them like a tsunami!

“What a powerful aura. He’s Jin Diyi!”

“Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, Jin Diyi, is indeed extraordinary.”

Everyone looked at the dark golden body and knew that he was one of the protagonists of the combat, the Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, Jin Diyi.

After sensing his aura, they could not help but admire him.

Although it was rumored that he had killed a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal within an instant, it was just a rumor. However, after seeing him for themselves, they were sure that he possessed the strength to kill a Fifth-grade Earthen Immortal easily!

Among the crowd, Qing Feng looked at Jin Diyi with shock in his eyes. “He has grown much stronger!”

In the past, Jin Diyi had captured Qing Feng and brought her to the Yokai Hall. He initially intended to use her as a bargaining chip to force Sycamore Mountain to surrender in the future.

However, Qing Feng had awakened the Azure Phoenix bloodline and was motivated by the Azure Phoenix Mirror to escape. Then, Chu Kuangren rescued her, and she returned to Sycamore Mountain.

That was how she met Jin Diyi. However, under her Azure Phoenix’s Eye, the Jin Diyi in front of her was very different from the one in the past!

“Is he the last Fated One? Can Chu Kuangren handle him?” Qing Feng was a little uncertain.

Since the last time she parted with Chu Kuangren in Sycamore Mountain, she had not seen him for many years and had no idea how much his strength had grown.

However, as someone without any destiny, Chu Kuangren was not easy to deal with.

Qing Feng breathed a sigh of relief when she thought of that.

“He’s weird.”

Shang Honghua frowned as she looked at Jin Diyi.

Ever since seeing him, she felt that her body's will of the Immortal World was about to burst and fly toward him.

'Is he the Heavenly Champion chosen by the will of the Immortal World?'

Jin Diyi had also noticed Shang Honghua, but he ignored her after taking a glance.

Shang Honghua, who only had one will of the Immortal World, was not a threat to him. Right now, he was only concerned about one thing.

His eyes swept across the crowd. "Isn't Chu Kuangren here yet?"

Everyone looked at the academy's Dean as Chu Kuangren was widely known as the academy's Thirteenth Master.

"Heh. It's not time for the battle yet, so don't worry. Brother Chu is always on time." The Dean chuckled.

Indeed, it was only the ninth day, and tomorrow would be the tenth day.

"In that case, I'll wait for him all night!"

Jin Diyi glanced at the gradually darkening sky before he jumped down from the warship and onto the Void Valley.

When he landed, the entire valley trembled, causing the fragile space to shatter even more!

Everyone was stunned.

'With such ferocious momentum, how terrifying would it be when he starts fighting?'

Soon after, the night fell.

The night in Void Valley was exceptionally bright today for the cultivators.

Even the air was scorching hot.

In Void Valley, Jin Diyi stood proudly in dark golden armor with golden flames burning all over his body.

The flame was so bright that it illuminated all directions and dispelled the darkness of Void Valley. The tens of thousands of kilometers radius were as bright as day!

Not only that, but the flame contained battle intent!

Jin Diyi was excited about the upcoming battle.

"Is that the Golden Crow Flame? That's terrifying."

"Same as the Phoenix's Flame, the Golden Crow Flame ranks third in the Divine Fire List. With that aura, he's probably a pure-blooded Golden Crow."

All Immortals looked at Jin Diyi with amazement.

Soon, the night passed.

Further away, dawn came as the sun rose.

“The ten-day period is due. Isn’t Chu Kuangren here yet?”

Jin Diyi looked at the Dean.

“Please be patient, Crown Prince,” said the Dean.

“Hmph. If Chu Kuangren is absent, I don’t mind visiting the academy to turn it upside down!” Jin Diyi snorted and said in a domineering tone.

A cold look flashed across the Dean’s face. “Watch it, lad. I’ll kill you with a palm attack.”

“Dean, why get annoyed?”

The Yokai Ruler said indifferently, “The ten-day period is due, but Chu Kuangren isn’t here yet. Could he be afraid?”

“The sun hasn’t fully risen, so the ten-day period isn’t due yet,” said Shang Honghua as the corners of her lips tugged.

At that moment, a loud phoenix’s cry suddenly resounded through the sky!

Seemingly sensing something, everyone looked into the distance.

In the center of the rising sun, a stunning Godly Phoenix was flying in from afar along as it broke into dawn. Its Phoenix’s Flame surged and dyed most of the sky red.

A person in white was standing on the back of the Godly Phoenix. The morning ray shone on his face, and his appearance was extraordinary!

As the morning sun rose, Chu Kuangren rode a phoenix in the sea of clouds and gradually approached them!

Chapter 1108: You’re Not Allowed To Raise Your Self-Worth, The Golden Crow Flame And Phoenix’s Flame

On the warship, Chu Kuangren’s fan told his Junior Sister many legendary stories about Chu Kuangren.

However, the Junior Sister did not seem interested.

After all, it was just hearsay, so it was difficult for the Junior Sister to believe that there was such an outstanding person without witnessing herself.

“The Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince is a top-notch sky-pride in the universe, and not many can compare to him. Is there really someone who can be his match?”

The Junior Sister looked at Jin Diyi in the distance and thought curiously.

Next to her, the young Senior Brother was still praising Chu Kuangren. “Junior Sister, do you know what is the most interesting thing about Chu Kuangren besides his cultivation and talent?”

“What is it?” replied Junior Sister nonchalantly.

"It's his appearance! Apparently, Chu Kuangren's appearance is unparalleled in the universe. I wonder how many female cultivators think about him all day and night," the young Senior Brother lamented.

"How could such a man exist?" The Junior Sister did not believe him.

At that moment, a sudden phoenix's cry sounded in the distance. In the center of the rising sun, a stunning Godly Phoenix glided through the air. Standing on the back of the Godly Phoenix was a person in white with an extraordinary appearance.

The morning ray shone on the person's face. As he flew over the crowd, many saw his flawless side profile.

The Junior Sister saw him too, and she was stunned for a moment.

"Senior Brother, is that the Chu Kuangren you mentioned?"

Next to her, the Senior Brother was flushed with excitement. As he looked at the Godly Phoenix in the distance, he said, "That's right. He's here for the battle."

"I can't believe such a legendary man exists in the universe..." mumbled Junior Sister.

At that moment, she knew that she had fallen for Chu Kuangren. She reckoned she would probably end up like those female cultivators who think about him all day and night.

...

In the depths of Void Valley.

"Ha! I told you Brother Chu would be here on time." The Dean chuckled.

All Immortals looked at Chu Kuangren, who came by riding a Godly Phoenix, in amazement.

"He has come."

"Tsk ts. That's the only pure-blooded Godly Phoenix in Planquilon Immortal World, and he's riding it here. How remarkable."

Jin Diyi made a grand entrance by coming in a golden warship.

However, Chu Kuangren was even better to show up riding a Godly Phoenix, a divine beast.

It was the only pure-blooded Godly Phoenix in Planquilon Immortal World. In terms of talent and potential, it was way better than Jin Diyi.

Despite being no weaker than Jin Diyi, it was willing to be Chu Kuangren's mount. In other words, Chu Kuangren was already one step ahead of Jin Diyi even before they started fighting.

When Chu Kuangren arrived above the Void Valley, he dove down from a height of ten thousand kilometers like a meteor falling to the ground. The moment he landed, the entire valley trembled, and the void shattered!

Everyone complained upon seeing such a scene.

'Can't these two land a little more gently?'

However, at the thought that the battle was about to begin, the damage caused by the landing was nothing at all.

"You're finally here!" Jin Diyi looked at Chu Kuangren with eyes full of excitement, and the flames on his body burned even more fiercely.

The surrounding space burned until it collapsed and sunk, revealing a large patch of pitch-black void.

Compared with Jin Diyi's vigorous battle intent, Chu Kuangren seemed extremely calm. His eyes were as still as an ancient well.

Soon, he noticed something about the surrounding environment.

"A chaotic and unstable space with leylines that have been destroyed. You guys have chosen the venue well to prevent me from using my spatial technique and Earth Qi Formation. Your fear of me is beyond my imagination," said Chu Kuangren.

There was a hint of sarcasm in his tone.

The implication was, 'Why did you have to pull so many tricks for the battle? Just how much do you fear me?'

Jin Diyi understood what Chu Kuangren meant, but he did not mind. On the contrary, he chuckled. "Chu Kuangren, you're no ordinary opponent, so we naturally can't deal with you with conventional techniques!"

"You're an anomaly, while I'm the Fated One. Therefore, we're destined enemies. I don't mind using any techniques as long as I can defeat you—"

"Shut up!"

Chu Kuangren suddenly yelled to stop Jin Diyi from speaking. Then, he said indifferently, "Don't you think too highly of yourself?"

Jin Diyi was stunned, not knowing what Chu Kuangren meant.

Chu Kuangren said, "The so-called nemeses refer to those with similar abilities and can bring trouble for the other party. However, do you think you can do that? I won't allow you to flatter yourself like that!"

1

Jin Diyi's expression gradually turned ashen upon hearing his words, and he clenched his fists tightly with anger surging in his eyes.

He regarded Chu Kuangren as his nemesis and had been studying his techniques over the years. Day and night, he had also been rehearsing the battle between both of them repeatedly in his mind and dared not neglect it for a moment.

In order to defeat Chu Kuangren, he devoted himself to it and pushed himself to unleash his full potential!

However, to Chu Kuangren, he was unqualified to be his enemy. All his actions were merely flattering himself!

Jin Diyi had never felt so furious before!

Although he was furious, Jin Diyi did not lose his mind as he knew he could not defeat Chu Kuangren when he was consumed by anger.

He wanted to defeat Chu Kuangren and make him pay for underestimating him!

“Chu Kuangren, your undefeated legend will end here today. I’ll make you, an anomaly, disappear from the face of this universe! I will step on your corpse to become the Heavenly Champion and rise to the top!”

Every time Jin Diyi uttered a word, the aura on his body became stronger, and the Golden Crow Flame on his body burned even more vigorously!

He unleashed an attack!

As his Immortal’s Core surged, he raised his hand to release a fist attack. A large amount of Golden Crow Flame gushed out and swept towards Chu Kuangren.

The flames wreaked havoc everywhere, and the burning space collapsed, engulfing Chu Kuangren in the blink of an eye.

However, Jin Diyi knew that such an attack could not kill Chu Kuangren.

Therefore, he did not give up the attack. Balls of Golden Crow Flame blasted out one after another at Chu Kuangren.

Soon, dozens of kilometers around Chu Kuangren had turned into a sea of golden fire. The ground was burned into sand while the surrounding space shattered, revealing a large pitch-black void.

“Is this all you’ve got?”

An indifferent voice sounded from the sea of fire, where a huge golden-red flame lotus was blooming.

Before the golden-red flame lotus, the surrounding Golden Crow Flame retreated and could not hurt the white-robed figure in the red lotus.

“Sure enough.”

Jin Diyi was not surprised. “The Phoenix Flame, also known as the Essence of All Flames, merges with Crimson Karmic Lotus Flame to form a peculiar Phoenix’s Flame. Although my Golden Crow Flame is powerful, I’m at a disadvantage in terms of flames.”

Bang!

At that moment, a golden-red flame gushed out from the golden sea of fire and swept toward Jin Diyi!

Jin Diyi raised his hand to unleash a fist attack, and the Golden Crow Flame and the Phoenix’s Flame collided with each other before they dispersed.

“Although I’m at a disadvantage in terms of flames, your Phoenix’s Flame can’t hurt me!”

Jin Diyi sneered and then took out a dark golden halberd. The halberd glowed with a cold gleam, and Daoist patterns on its surface interweaved, revealing an incomparably powerful energy fluctuation.

It was a high-level Immortal Weapon!

Chapter 1109: Is That All You’ve Got? Yokai Hall’s Set-up, Blazing Crow Formation

“This is the Heavenly Mighty Halberd! A top-notched true Immortal Weapon. In terms of attacking power, it is comparable to a Golden Immortal Weapon!”

“I got it from an Opportunity of Fortune. In the entire Planquilon Immortal World, very few Immortal Weapons are comparable to this halberd in terms of attacking power.”

Jin Diyi held the long halberd in one hand with magnificent poise that shocked everyone.

At that, the surrounding cultivator’s expression changed.

‘A top-notched true Immortal Weapon?’

‘It’s even comparable to a Golden Immortal Weapon?!’

In Planquilon Immortal World, a Heavenly Immortal Weapon was a rare treasure, but very few treasures could compare to a Golden Immortal Weapon.

Such treasures had rarely appeared since the ancient immortal era.

“I can’t believe Jin Diyi owns such a treasure.”

“Now, he is one level above Chu Kuangren in terms of weapon grade. How would Chu Kuangren deal with him?”

“Probably not. Bear in mind that Chu Kuangren has the Nine Province Cauldrons.”

In Void Valley, Chu Kuangren was not bothered by the Heavenly Mighty Halberd’s limelight, and he said calmly, “It’s just a halberd, and you think you have the right to compete with me?”

With a clunk, the Descendant Self Sword suddenly unsheathed from his waist.

Chu Kuangren’s aura grew stronger as he held the Descendant Self Sword. However, it was still much less than Jin Diyi’s.

Jin Diyi sneered. “Chu Kuangren, show us your Nine Province Cauldrons. Your Descendant Self Sword is only an Earthen Immortal Weapon. How can you compare it with mine? What a shame.”

Hum...

The Descendant Self Sword began trembling violently as if it was angry.

A surge of furious sword qi gushed out!

Jin Diyi resisted the sword qi with the Heavenly Mighty Halberd in his hand. Then, he glanced at the Descendant Self Sword with surprise as it seemed to have its own consciousness.

It was common for Immortal Weapons to have souls, but such a complete soul energy fluctuation was rare.

"It's furious now," said Chu Kuangren.

A sword qi with magnificent momentum gushed out as Chu Kuangren raised his hand to slash forward. Wherever the sword qi went, it tore large areas of the void to pieces.

Upon seeing that, Jin Diyi waved his long halberd around.

The sword qi shattered with a bang!

The next moment, he dashed toward Chu Kuangren, raised the long halberd in his hand, and slammed it down at Chu Kuangren!

That move was powerful enough to smash a planet!

However, Chu Kuangren did not care and raised the Descendant Self Sword to resist the attack.

Everyone was shocked.

"Is he insane?"

"There's a huge difference between an Earthen Immortal Weapon and a top-notch true Immortal Weapon."

"I'm afraid this sword is going to turn to scrap."

Amid the crowd's exclaim, the Descendant Self Sword and Heavenly Mighty Halberd collided. Noise as loud as thunder sounded as terrifying strength qi swept out like the sea in a storm.

The surrounding space shattered until it revealed a large patch of the pitch-black void. Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren and Jin Diyi stood in the pitch-black void, unmoved like a mountain.

"Your sword..."

Jin Diyi looked at Chu Kuangren, or rather the sword in his hand, in surprise.

He thought that his move would break the sword, but it did not.

He did not even leave a single crack on it.

"Is this really an Earthen Immortal Weapon?!"

Jin Diyi was stunned. Judging from its aura, the sword was indeed an Earthen Immortal Weapon, but how could it resist his Heavenly Mighty Halberd?

"It's the material. The material of this sword is unusual."

Jin Diyi immediately figured it out.

'How could I have missed that point?'

Jin Diyi's expression was grim. Although he was pretty surprised by a weapon with a toughness beyond his imagination, a sword was not a threat to him.

In fact, he was more concerned about not knowing that Chu Kuangren had such a sword!

It was a small thing that he had not foreseen in his plan.

‘Does this mean that Chu Kuangren has more secrets?’

Jin Diyi had no time to ponder on it. He raised the Heavenly Mighty Halberd and waved it forward, releasing attacks incessantly.

Clang! Clang! Clang!

Chu Kuangren remained still as the sound of metal clashing rang out. He simply waved his arm, his sword moved freely, smashing all attacks.

“Is this all your strength?”

“How disappointing,” said Chu Kuangren

With his majestic Immortal’s Core surging, he struck forward with his sword to fling the long halberd out of Jin Diyi’s hand and stabbed Jin Diyi in the chest.

The terrifying sword qi gushed out, and Jin Diyi was blasted away on the spot.

However, the dark golden armor on his body was extremely tough, and it resisted all of Chu Kuangren’s sword qi.

It was clearly high-grade armor.

“A top-notch defensive Heavenly Immortal Weapon, huh?”

There was a hint of mischievousness in Chu Kuangren’s eyes. “Heh. I would like to see how prepared you are to deal with me.”

“What I’ve prepared is more than you think,” said Jin Diyi coldly.

He stabbed the long halberd into the ground. Then, as he formed a mysterious hand seal, a large amount of Golden Crow Flame shot up in the sky, transforming into a giant bird!

The bird had a black and golden body, emanating a noble appearance.

“Golden Crow Avatar!” Jin Diyi grunted.

High in the sky, the Golden Crow Avatar screamed and flew toward Chu Kuangren. Its giant body shook the entire sky.

Chu Kuangren formed another mysterious hand seal when he saw that.

He pointed one of his hands to the sky and another hand to the earth!

Soon, black Buddhist Light soared into the sky. Under the interweaving of Daoist patterns, a giant Papiyas Avatar emerged and charged toward the Golden Crow.

The moment the two avatars collided, the unparalleled power caused the surrounding void to shatter and collapse!

A large amount of Golden Crow Flame intertwined with the black Buddhist Light and spread outward.

The two avatars' might shook the heavens and earth!

Then, they shattered almost at the same time!

"It's not over yet."

With a sneer, Jin Diyi's punch suddenly landed on the Void Valley's ground, releasing a large amount of Golden Crow Flame into the ground!

Boom!

Immediately, many golden flame pillars rose into the sky from the ground, enshrouding Chu Kuangren within.

In the void, the Daoist patterns interweaved, and a giant star-like fireball formed above Chu Kuangren!

A terrifying aura enveloped the entire Void Valley.

"Oh, it's a formation technique." Chu Kuangren glanced at the surrounding flame pillars and knew its essence.

"You're right. It's a formation technique, but it's not like a formation technique that uses earth qi as energy, like yours. It is the Blazing Crow Formation powered by my Golden Crow Flame! I'll have you taste its power." Jin Diyi laughed out loud.

People watching the battle could not help but frown.

"Not only did the Yokai Hall choose the Void Valley as the battling venue and destroy the leylines here in advance, but they even set up a formation that only the Yokai Hall's Crown Prince can use!"

"Selecting the venue, destroying leylines, setting up the formation, Golden Immortal Weapon, defensive Heavenly Immortal Weapon... The Yokai Hall is taking it very seriously."

"Such powerful tactics. In the entire universe, only Chu Kuangren can make the Yokai Hall go to such lengths to defeat him."

...

"Blazing Crow, fall!"

In Void Valley, Jin Diyi roared, and the giant star-like fireball, which was suspended in the sky, smashed down on Chu Kuangren.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren remained calm.

He stretched his arms to hold a white light on his left and a black flame on his right before Celestial Demon qi emerged. Now, he could control life and death in his hands.

As he put his hands together, the Yin Yang Life and Death Intent gushed out.

"Chaos Celestial Demon, Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!"

Chapter 1110: Jin Diyi's Trump Card, The Wills Of The Immortal World Transform Into Fated Ones, Sword-like Heavenly Intent

"Chaos Celestial Demon, Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!"

As Chu Kuangren stretched his arms, the Yin Yang Life and Death Intent emanated.

A black and white Yin Yang symbol appeared out of thin air. It expanded rapidly and covered a radius of ten thousand kilometers before making its way to the falling Blazing Crow star.

The two forces collided in the air.

The Life and Death Intent and the Golden Crow Flame swept out in every direction like a raging wave!

Almost the entire Void Valley had collapsed!

Amid the dust, Chu Kuangren stood proud, with his feet rooted to the ground.

"The power of your formation isn't that great." An indifferent voice sounded.

"Hmph. Do you think that's all from the Blazing Crow Formation?" asked Jin Diyi coldly.

The Golden Crow Flame then gushed out and flowed into the ground. He was about to cast the same formation again.

However, Chu Kuangren stepped forward at that moment, and his terrifying Immortal's Core rushed out from his toes, breaking through the ground!

Bang! Bang!

Loud rumblings came from the ground, followed by the surrounding flame pillars from the ground dissipating one after another.

Jin Diyi's expression changed.

He could sense that the Blazing Crow Formation under the ground was destroyed!

"How is this possible? This formation is extremely mysterious, and the formation nodes are a secret. Yet, he has destroyed it so easily!"

"How on earth did he do it?"

Seemingly aware of the change in Jin Diyi's expression, Chu Kuangren chuckled. "If I can cast a formation with hundreds of millions of kilometers of earth qi, I can see through your Blazing Crow Formation!"

"Using formations in front of me, don't you think it's ridiculous?"

Jin Diyi took a deep breath to hide his shock. "I didn't intend to defeat you with this formation."

"What else have you prepared? Just show them all."

"Chu Kuangren, to defeat you, I've prepared a lot more than you think!" Jin Diyi sneered.

Suddenly, brilliant lights flashed around him, and four balls of golden light flew out from his body.

There were countless Daoist patterns in the golden light, with a terrifying aura. They were... the four wills of the Immortal World!

"Chu Kuangren, take a look at my real trump card, one that I've studied over the years! Fated Ones, emerge!"

Jin Diyi roared, and the Golden Crow Flame gushed out from his body to merge with the four groups of golden light around him.

Soon, four men in flames manifested.

Everyone's eyes widened in horror and gasped when they noticed the emergence of the four men in flames.

They were Lin Yan, Yuan Xu, Blood Monk Disciple, and Ming Zi!

The four Fated Ones, whom Chu Kuangren had killed, reappeared in unison with the help of Jin Diyi's Golden Crow Flame to fight against Chu Kuangren!

"H-How is this possible?"

"Oh my god. How did the Yokai Hall's Crown Prince do it?!"

"How are they still alive?"

"No. They're not alive. They're a thought form created by the Yokai Hall's Crown Prince through the merging of the will of the Immortal World and Golden Crow Flame. Those wills of the Immortal World probably belonged to the previous Fated Ones. This may be the reason why he could transform these people," said the Dean solemnly.

Although it was explainable, everyone still felt it was incredible to see the Fated Ones' reappearance.

"Chu Kuangren, are you surprised that I've developed this divine ability to deal with you?" said Jin Diyi while looking at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren glanced at him before shaking his head and mocking him. "That's funny. These losers weren't my concern when they were alive, and now, you want to defeat me with their thought forms? How foolish are you?"

Jin Diyi's face darkened. "In that case, let's give it a try!"

Swish!

As soon as he said that, the Fated Ones attacked Chu Kuangren.

Lin Yan took the lead. There was a cold look in his eyes, and divine fire circulated his body, transforming into a giant fire fist that headed for Chu Kuangren.

"Chu Kuangren, go to hell!"

On the other side, Yuan Xu rose into the sky with battle intent circulating him. Behind him, a headless Wargod manifested.

He held a golden sword in his hand, emanating a domineering aura.

“Holy Judgement Scripture, slash!”

The huge sword shadow made a slash in the air and tore the void apart!

The Blood Monk Disciple was sitting in the air while forming a mysterious seal with his hand.

“Amitabha.”

In an instant, the blood-colored Buddhist Light circulated, and the Papiyas Avatar emerged.

Ming Zi mobilized the surging demonic qi to transform into a giant fingerprint!

Not only did those thought forms look the same as the Fated Ones, but their moves were also similar.

The only difference was that their cultivation was stronger than when they were alive!

Moreover, each of them was at the level of Middle Third-grade Earthen Immortal, and it was a bonus to their combat strength!

It was the resonance of the will of the Immortal World, similar to some kind of joint formation.

The four Fated Ones attacked together.

Not many people in Planquilon Immortal World could resist such strength. Even a Heavenly Immortal might hardly be able to withstand it.

However, Chu Kuangren looked indifferent and unmoved.

As he slowly raised the long sword in his hand high up in the air, the surrounding clouds began to gather, and spiritual qi surged.

The Immortal’s Core of Chu Kuangren gathered into a pure and sharp sword qi!

The sword cultivators within hundreds of millions of kilometers were shocked. They could feel the horror of Chu Kuangren’s sword attack more than the other cultivators.

“Sword-like Heavenly Intent!” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

In an instant, the mighty Heavenly Might gushed out while the Heavenly Intent transformed into Sword Intent!

Across the sky, a violet sword shadow as long as thousands of meters slashed downward!

The giant flaming fist, blood-colored giant Buddha, demonic qi, battle intent, and other attacks vanished under the sword attack.

Upon seeing that scene, the expressions of the Fated Ones changed, and they tried their best to resist the attack. Unfortunately, they were still swept away by the terrifying power of the sword attack. As they were blasted away, the Daoist patterns on their bodies almost broke down.

Jin Diyi’s eyes narrowed. “I’ve never seen such a sword technique before! I can’t believe he has a secret cultivation technique!”

The other cultivators could not help but marvel at the sword attack.

“What a terrifying Sword Dao Immortal Technique.”

“This must be the Golden Immortal Technique. It’s so powerful, and its attack power is no weaker than his Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol.”

After the sword attack, the entire Void Valley was split into two, and a vast sword mark ran across millions of kilometers!

The remaining sword qi in the air made everyone afraid.

“This sword attack can be considered the best Sword Dao in Planquilon Immortal World.”

The Sword Crown was amazed, and none of the sword cultivators could retort that statement.

That sword attack had enabled them to witness the pinnacle of Sword Dao that they had never seen before!

Ninety-nine percent of the cultivators present understood that even if they cultivated hard in their lifetime, they probably could not reach the level of that sword attack.

The shattered space in Void Valley could not be restored for some time. Chu Kuangren stood proudly with the Descendant Self Sword in hand and looked at the Fated Ones before him indifferently. “I’m bored with this game.”

The sword’s blade deflected, and the Sword-like Heavenly Intent gushed out again!

With another sword attack unleashed, the dazzling violet sword ray shattered the sky and the earth. The remaining Fated Ones could not resist the attack, and they shattered on the spot, transforming into balls of golden light that returned to Jin Diyi’s body.

“D*mn it!”

Jin Diyi was annoyed at how he still could not defeat Chu Kuangren after so much preparation.

‘Is he really invincible?’

“Golden Crow Claw!”

Jin Diyi reached one claw out, and it turned it into a giant flame claw!

With a tearing sound, a sword ray swept across and tore the claw apart. After that, the sword ray gained momentum and hit Jin Diyi, sending him flying dozens of meters backward.

If it were not for the defensive Heavenly Immortal Weapon on his body, he would have been severely injured by the sword attack.
