

Unparalleled 1221

Chapter 1221: Killing the Demonic Sky-Prides, Merging of Yin and Yang Energies, Defeating the True Immortal Level Zombie

Inside the Luo Hou Ancestral Land, the two Arch Gilded Immortal attacks collided with that single torn book page, sending terrifying shockwaves everywhere.

Even with the torn book page's defense, the powerful shockwaves caused the whole Great Earth Qi Formation to crumble.

"This is it!"

On the other side, the eyes of Shi Tianxuan, Zhuo Donglai, and the others immediately lit up.

Their Immortal's Core energy surged as they attacked with their Immortal Techniques.

"Demonic Chiyou Apparition!"

"Soul-Gathering Palm!"

"Sky Demon Macabre!"

Just as the Great Earth Qi Formation crumbled, Chu Kuangren had to face another barrage of Immortal Techniques from his opponents.

However, he did not care and remained indifferent as before. "Do you guys think I can't handle this without the formation?"

The vast Immortal's Core energy within him surged, and the life-death reincarnation intent activated.

The Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol emerged once more.

As the several attacks collided, everyone was forced back.

Then, Chu Kuangren made a sword hand sign gathering all of the residual earth qi at his fingertips before unleashing a mighty sword ray at his opponents!

As the sword ray flashed across the air, the Soul Vanquishing Tribe's Sima Han was the first to get hit. Before he could even let out a scream, he had exploded into a mist of blood.

The countless dead souls he absorbed were instantly released.

"One!"

Chu Kuangren formed a sword hand sign again, but this time, he aimed his sword qi toward Chi Zhong.

With a hiss, the sword qi tore the whole space apart!

Despite channeling his full strength and the full power of his Gilded Immortal Weapon, Chi Zhong still could not defend himself against that incoming attack!

The majestic sword ray that contained earth qi immediately engulfed him whole!

His armor cracked, and his long saber flew out of his grasp!

Chi Zhong died on the spot, with nothing of him left!

“Two!”

Chu Kuangren’s chilling voice rang out once more, like the words of the grim reaper!

“Let’s get out of here!” Shi Tianxuan roared.

In a panic, all of the demonic cultivators immediately fled like headless chickens.

“Trying to run? Where do you think you guys are going?” Chu Kuangren’s voice rang out once more.

An incredibly mysterious Immortal Technique fluctuation erupted from his body.

Countless Daoist patterns rapidly spread everywhere from him as the center, all gleaming with Immortal Sparks.

That attack also contained a surge of spacetime energy!

It was the Spacetime Sealing Technique!

With the space and time frozen, Shi Tianxuan, Zhuo Donglai, and the others felt like they had fallen into a muddy pit, rendering them immobile.

Soon, fear and terror overcame everyone present.

Having gathered all of the residual earth qi from the surroundings, Chu Kuangren formed an incredibly powerful torrential flow of sword qi!

“Slash!” Chu Kuangren uttered as he made a slash with his sword hand sign.

In that instant, the sword qi torrent burst forward like a crashing tsunami!

Everyone at the scene was immediately engulfed by that torrential flow.

Under the raging sword qi, the surrounding landscape crumbled while the heavens and earth trembled!

Boom, boom, boom!

Multiple veils of blood mists exploded in the air!

Those were the blood of the Demonic Dao’s sky-prides!

After the sword qi attack ended, only Zhuo Donglai, Shi Tianxuan, and You Ying survived.

The three of them had powerful items of protection, which saved their lives. However, they were still critically injured.

“Let’s see whether your Arch Gilded Immortals would dare to risk karmic judgment and interfere again,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

At that point, the earth qi around him had scattered completely.

Although he was not as powerful right now, he was still strong enough to defeat the three of them.

Behind him, Fu Yin was so stunned that her mouth was agape, and her beautiful eyes were wide in disbelief.

“So this is Chu Kuangren!”

“Wait, no. If this is only his clone, it’s hard to imagine how terrifying his true self really is.”

“I’m afraid no one among the sky-prides and Heavenly Champions can go against him,” Fu Yin murmured.

Just when Chu Kuangren was going to end the remaining three of them, a dark figure suddenly charged toward him from a distance.

That was a zombie!

It was not just an ordinary zombie as well. Its aura was extremely powerful and on par with some True Immortals.

“A zombie made by a True Immortal?” Chu Kuangren uttered.

He looked into the distance and saw a black-haired elderly man standing on a mountain top. There was a vague vital force connection between the elderly man and the zombie.

It was immediately made obvious that the elderly man was controlling that zombie.

That person was a True Immortal demonic cultivator nearest to the Luo Hou Ancestral Lands when Chu Kuangren activated his Great Earth Qi Formation earlier. As soon as he noticed it, he quickly ran toward the scene.

He finally arrived in time at the final moment when Chu Kuangren was wiping everyone out.

“Although I will suffer karmic repercussions, I’m only a True Immortal. The karmic repercussions I’ll face won’t be too life-threatening. Besides, I also have that zombie to share the effects of the karmic repercussion, so it won’t be a huge problem,” the demonic True Immortal mumbled.

At that time, the zombie he was controlling was already before Chu Kuangren, and it unleashed a claw attack that tore the space apart.

That attack was incredibly powerful.

Even Chu Kuangren’s clone found it hard to resist.

“Watch out!” At that moment, Fu Yin, who was behind Chu Kuangren shouted.

Her Immortal’s Core energy surged as she pushed her hand forward, unleashing palm qi that burned with a dark and chilling intent.

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren suddenly felt a throb in his heart. He subconsciously made a sword hand sign and unleashed a surge of sword qi.

Then, a warm feeling flowed out of his body and merged with his sword qi.

Paired with palm qi, both attacks were incredibly powerful, and within them contained an endless surge of Yin Yang energy.

As the Yin and Yang energies combined, the powerful force immediately sent that zombie flying!

The True Immortal controlling the zombie was shocked, and he could not believe his eyes.

“My True Immortal-level zombie was sent flying?!”

‘It was sent flying by Chu Kuangren’s clone and that little Seventh-grade Heavenly Immortal. This is shocking.’

“Just now, that was...”

Chu Kuangren was weirded out by the power inside him.

‘That’s the power of the Yang Fusang!’

“Roar!” The zombie that was blasted away came rushing toward them once more.

Chu Kuangren quickly grabbed Fu Yin by the waist and said, “Work with me.”

Fu Yin was a little confused. “How am I supposed to do that?”

“Channel your Immortal’s Core energy into my body!”

“Alright.”

Fu Yin acted quickly. With Chu Kuangren holding her by the waist, she immediately channeled her Immortal’s Core energy into his body.

Her Immortal’s Core energy was a little dark and chilling, and being in its presence could make people shudder. However, Chu Kuangren felt a sense of warmth from it instead.

Since his clone was made from the Yang Fusang Tree, he possessed the power of the Yang Fusang, which was a match made in heaven with the Yin Fusang!

As the power of the Yin Fusang was injected into Chu Kuangren’s body, he channeled the Yang Fusang energy.

The moment the power of Yin and Yang merged, a vast Immortal aura spread, causing the surroundings to quake!

Only then did Chu Kuangren unleash his Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!

Boom!

The black and white Yin Yang symbol emerged and enveloped the sky!

The color black represented Yin energy and the power of death, while the color white represented Yang energy and the power of life!

Countless Daoist patterns were flowing through it, gleaming magnificently with Immortal Sparks.

Then, the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol landed on that True Immortal Zombie and crushed him to the ground.

With the Life and Death Symbol swirling about him, the Yin Yang energy started tearing down its body.

“Roar!” The zombie roared as it attempted to break free.

However, its efforts were futile.

Moments later, most of that zombie’s body had been eroded away by the Yin Yang energy. Large amounts of undead qi dissipated from it as the zombie was reduced into a corpse.

In the distance, with the zombie taken out, the True Immortal that was connected to it via its vital force immediately suffered the backlash. On top of the karmic repercussion, his face instantly turned pale, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

“This Chu Kuangren is undoubtedly a monster!”

The demonic True Immortal was shocked beyond disbelief.

Chu Kuangren had killed a True Immortal-level zombie!

Moreover, that was only Chu Kuangren’s clone!

Chapter 1222: Truly A Great Blessing, The Annihilating Black Lotus Recognizes Its Master, Let Them Decide Themselves

Not only did Chu Kuangren kill many sky-prides and Heavenly Champions with one sword attack, but he even used Fusang energy to kill a True Immortal-level zombie. What was more, those were all done by his clone.

Such a record shocked many great ones who were secretly observing.

“That’s the Fusang energy.” Some great ones recognized the power that Chu Kuangren had used.

During the ancient Immortal times, some heaven and earth wonders, treasures, and living souls born from the source possessed unimaginable powers.

Among them was the Fusang Tree, whose energy was also well known in ancient Immortal times.

However, even if Chu Kuangren and Fu Yin did not possess complete Fusang energy and only exerted a trace of its might, its power should not be underestimated.

After all, it had killed a True Immortal-level zombie.

“Interesting. Fusang energy? What a surprise.”

Chu Kuangren looked at Fu Yin in his arms with a smirk.

In the meantime, You Ying, Shi Tianxuan, and Zhuo Donglaifled the battlefield while Chu Kuangren killed the zombie.

Chu Kuangren did not chase after them either, as killing so many Demonic Dao’s sky-prides was already a huge win for him.

He searched through the battlefield and kept items he needed, such as Gilded Immortal Weapons, the Demonic Dao's ultimate techniques, Demonic Dao's physiques, and the like.

"Unfortunately, although I've gained a lot in Luo Hou Ancestral Land, nothing excites me," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Indeed, he had gained a lot of things such as the Demonic Crystal Mine, Immortal Herbs, Immortal Weapons, Demonic Dao's ultimate techniques, and many more in the Luo Hou Ancestral Land. However, those gains would not do much to improve his strength.

Even breaking through to a True Immortal would be a miracle for him.

After all, to break through from a Heavenly Immortal to a True Immortal in a short amount of time required a huge amount of resources.

Most of the True Immortals only succeeded after spending countless years trying to break through.

Although Chu Kuangren had an advantage in his talent, he still required the help of many resources to transcend other True Immortals' countless years of accumulation in a short period of time.

While Chu Kuangren felt disappointed with his trip to the Luo Hou Ancestral Land, the earth suddenly quaked.

The ground he had drained the earth qi from earlier suddenly cracked, and a black demonic ray soared into the sky, illuminating the universe.

"This is..."

Chu Kuangren was shocked, and along with Fi Yin, he flew into the air.

Looking at the earth from a high altitude, they saw an incomparably huge crack on the ground that stretched nearly millions of kilometers!

Within the crack was filled with dense demonic qi.

Chu Kuangren mobilized his Immortal Consciousness to lock onto the source of the demonic qi, which was the source of the demonic ray.

It was from a black lotus!

The black lotus had twelve petals, and each petal was surrounded by incomparably mysterious Daoist patterns, emanating an extremely terrifyingly devastating aura.

The twelve-graded black lotus was surging with demonic qi!

As if he had thought of something, Chu Kuangren's eyes suddenly lit up. "Could this be... the Annihilating Black Lotus?!"

He was well read and knew some of the records from the ancient Immortal times like the back of his hands.

Once, he had come across the Source Supreme Treasure recorded in one of the scriptures.

According to rumors, the Source Supreme Treasure was divided into the Later Source Supreme Treasure and Innate Source Supreme Treasure.

The Later Source Supreme Treasure was derived from the source after the universe was created, whereas the Innate Source Supreme Treasure was formed before the universe was created. The might of the latter was far greater than that of the former.

Both the Later Source Supreme Treasure and Innate Source Supreme Treasure were divided into four grades, namely Superb, High, Middle, and Low.

The prototype of Chu Kuangren's Cloud Nine Insignia, Fuxi's Guqin, was a Later Source Supreme Treasure, while the Annihilating Black Lotus that emerged before him was a High-grade... Innate Source Supreme Treasure!

It was truly a great blessing!

When all the great ones also noticed the existence of the Annihilating Black Lotus, their breaths became heavier.

"I can't believe the Innate Source Supreme Treasure, Annihilating Black Lotus, would show up here!"

"It's rumored that this thing is the Demonic Forefather, Luo Hou's Source Supreme Treasure. It contains annihilating energy and is one of the Four Innate Lotuses. It is extremely terrifying."

"The Innate Source Supreme Treasure is rare even in the ancient Immortal times. I'm surprised it has shown itself here."

The Demonic Dao's great ones especially were all stunned.

They could not believe that they had searched the entire Luo Hou Ancestral Land for the black lotus to no avail, only for it to show up here.

"Chu Kuangren is so fortunate!"

"It was the earth qi. Before this, the black lotus was buried deep in the ground and covered by the earth qi. That was why we couldn't find it. However, now that Chu Kuangren has taken away the earth qi... D*mn it. He's lucky to have discovered such a Source Supreme Treasure by randomly selecting a formation location!"

"Don't worry. The Annihilating Black Lotus is an Innate Source Supreme Treasure, so one must pass a challenge to obtain it. Chu Kuangren may not be able to do it," said a demon king in the Demon Palace.

By then, Chu Kuangren arrived before the Annihilating Black Lotus.

With a calm expression, he raised his hand to grab the Annihilating Black Lotus. Then, before him, several scenes of annihilation emerged.

He saw heaven and earth collapse while Immortals fell... Even Gilded Immortals could not resist in the face of such annihilating energy.

Ordinary cultivators' Daoist core would have collapsed upon seeing such an annihilating scene.

That was the challenge of the black lotus.

“Is that all?”

Chu Kuangren’s Daoist core was firm and unshakable, so he reached out and grabbed the black lotus root.

In an instant, the surrounding demonic qi dissipated and disappeared into nothingness.

On the other hand, the black lotus turned into the purest Annihilation Source energy and entered Chu Kuangren’s body.

The black lotus used to be Luo Hou’s item, hence it was full of demonic qi. However, having recognized Chu Kuangren as its masters, the demonic qi naturally dissipated.

“Has he succeeded?”

“H-How is it so easy?”

Many great ones’ eyelids twitched.

Even they could not make an Innate Source Supreme Treasure recognize them as its master so easily, yet Chu Kuangren had done it without much effort.

That shocked them more than when he killed the True Immortal.

A yell echoed in the Demon Palace. “Chu Kuangren!”

The Skeletal Demon King was so furious that his face twitched. Due to the previous karmic repercussion, his face was now covered in blood, and he looked like a ferocious ghoul.

“Not only has he killed the Demonic Dao’s sky-prides, but he has also obtained the Annihilating Black Lotus in the Luo Hou Ancestral Land? D*mn it. D*mn it!”

“He is different. Now that he has the Annihilating Black Lotus, I’m afraid none among the Heavenly Champions can compete with him!”

“No. There’s still a chance.”

The Skeletal Demon King took a deep breath. “Besides the Annihilating Black Lotus, Demon Luo Hou has another Source Supreme Treasure.”

“That thing is too dangerous.”

“This is Demonic Dao’s last chance if we want to compete with Chu Kuangren. The Heavenly Champions themselves can consider whether they want to stay under Chu Kuangren forever or grab the chance to change their fate and step on Chu Kuangren,” the Skeletal Demon King said coldly.

“Alright. They can decide for themselves.”

Chapter 1223: Fu Yin Becomes A Follower, The Poison Immunity, Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave

In the Luo Hou Ancestral Land, a black lotus was swaying in Chu Kuangren’s palm. It was none other than the Annihilating Black Lotus.

Chu Kuangren looked at the black lotus with a smile. "What I thought was a disappointing trip to Luo Hou Ancestral Land actually turned out to be good. I can't believe I would find the Annihilating Black Lotus."

The Innate Source Supreme Treasure, the Annihilating Black Lotus, had made his trip here worthwhile, and it was a huge gain for him.

"Even the complete collection of Fuxi's Guqin is far inferior to the Annihilating Black Lotus."

How could a Later Source Supreme Treasure be comparable to an Innate Source Supreme Treasure?

Fu Yin, who was beside Chu Kuangren, looked envious.

Chu Kuangren's strength was already ridiculous. Now that he had the Annihilating Black Lotus, she wondered which sky-prides and Heavenly Champions in the Immortal World could compete with him.

Chu Kuangren observed the Annihilating Black Lotus in detail. With his current strength, it was indeed impossible for him to fully utilize its power. However, even a trace of the Annihilating Black Lotus's strength was enough for him to look down on all sky-prides and Heavenly Champions, not to mention he had other trump cards.

"Let's go," said Chu Kuangren while looking at Fu Yin.

Although the Fusang energy was not as powerful as the Annihilating Black Lotus, it was still mighty, and Chu Kuangren did not want to miss it.

He already had a clue on how to master the Fusang energy.

Fu Yin pondered for a while before she asked, "Where are we going?"

"Back to the academy."

"In what name?"

"This is a good question. Are you willing to be my follower?" asked Chu Kuangren.

Fu Yin lowered her head and wondered.

She was not in any of the Immortal World forces. However, since Zhuo Donglai was targeting her, she urgently needed to find shelter.

Chu Kuangren was undoubtedly an excellent candidate. Besides, he had saved her too.

As he had the backing of the two ancient immortal forces, namely the Hundred Academy and the Celestial Demon Tribe, she would be proud to be his follower.

"Alright. I'm willing to be your follower," Fu Yin said through clenched teeth and nodded.

"You won't regret it. You may have the opportunity to master the complete Fusang energy if you follow me."

Fu Yin was shocked.

The complete Fusang energy was a well-known power in ancient immortal times. If she could master it, she would be among the best of the Heavenly Champions.

At that thought, she began to feel excited.

She might not trust others' words, but she was confident in Chu Kuangren.

...

In the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, the two Fox Tribes, Emerald Hill and Tushan had integrated their forces. Being Beast Ruler clans initially, they had now become one of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' titans.

Even the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain dared not underestimate them and suspended all their action against Tushan.

In the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain, the Golden Crow Crown Prince looked annoyed. "Do we let Tushan and Chu Kuangren go?"

Before him sat a man in a golden robe, who was handsome and with an imposing look between his eyebrows.

He was the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain Ruler, Golden Crow King!

"With the union of Tushan and Emerald Hill, even I dare not underestimate them. We can no longer defeat the Fox Tribe. As for Chu Kuangren..."

The Golden Crow King paused for a while at the mention of the name. "He's a Heavenly Champion, so I can't interfere."

In other words, the Golden Crow Crown Prince would have to rely on himself if he wanted to take revenge.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince kept silent.

To seek revenge on Chu Kuangren by himself? He must be a fool to seek trouble from that monster.

Although the Great Ten Thousand Mountains were far away from the Luo Hou Ancestral Land, the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain had received information about Chu Kuangren's clone.

It was a clone with powerful strength, not to mention that Chu Kuangren's real self was in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

"Does that mean Chu Kuangren will hold the title of the Immortal World Ruler in the future?" the Golden Crow Crown Prince asked with dissatisfaction.

"That's not necessarily the case. There will be more Opportunities of Fortune as the Battle of the Heavenly Champions gets more intense. By then, there may be even more powerful opportunities. For instance, an ancient Yokai Tribe Forest Realm will be accessible soon. Perhaps you can explore that."

"It's the Heavenly Yokai Forest Realm!"

“You’re right. The Heavenly Yokai Forest Realm is a place where Yokai Tribe elites in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains fell, so it contains their inheritances. The only Golden Crow King of the Golden Crow Tribe who had broken through to the Embodier Realm left an Opportunity of Fortune there. If you can get it, you may be able to compete with Chu Kuangren,” said the Golden Crow King.

Then, he took out a small sapling, with a red trunk and golden leaves. Each leaf was engraved with mysterious Daoist patterns containing a majestic and fiery energy.

“This is the Fusang Tree!” The Golden Crow Crown Prince’s eyes lit up.

“Yeah. This is a Fusang sapling that I’ve refined from a large number of Fusang branches I’ve collected. Not only can it assist you in your cultivation, but it can also act as an offensive Immortal Weapon. By having it, you can defend yourself against a True Immortal Realm’s existence for a while if you ever encounter one in the future,” said the Golden Crow King.

“Thank you, father.”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince took the Fusang sapling.

“Apart from me, you’re the only Golden Crow and Heavenly Champion in the Golden Crow Tribe who has undergone six bloodline awakenings. In the future, you may even have the opportunity to awaken your bloodline for the seventh time and be on the same level as our Golden Crow ancestor. The future of the Golden Crow is on you. I hope you won’t let me down.”

The Golden Crow’s ancestor was the first Golden Crow in the universe, and only a Golden Crow that had gone through the nine bloodline awakenings could reach the level of the Golden Crow ancestor.

“Rest assured, father. I’ll find the Golden Crow King’s inheritance in the Heavenly Yokai Forest Realm, and I’ll surpass Chu Kuangren.”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince revealed a resolute look on his face.

...

Meanwhile, in Tushan, Chu Kuangren awoke from his cultivation state, and he knew everything the clone did in the Luo Hou Ancestral Land.

“The Annihilating Black Lotus, Fusang energy.”

“Ha! This trip to Luo Hou Ancestral Land was worthwhile. Next, let’s see what Opportunities of Fortune I can find in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains,” mumbled Chu Kuangren.

As the base of the Yokai Tribe, some of the mountains in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains were full of rich spiritual qi, which was sufficient to produce many Opportunities of Fortune.

In the past few days, Chu Kuangren had been exploring nearby and found some treasures, such as Immortal Herbs and the like.

However, they were not very useful to Chu Kuangren.

“It’s difficult to find some Opportunities of Fortune that are of great use to my current cultivation level,” Chu Kuangren lamented.

“Let’s see if I can draw something good.”

Then, Chu Kuangren took out Fantasy Roulette for a gacha roll.

“Congratulations, Host! You’ve won a God-tier Trait, the Poison Immunity.”

Poison Immunity?

Chu Kuangren withdrew the prize.

Although it would not help his strength much, it was still a pretty good trait to have.

Suddenly, Tushan Fei Yu and a few yokai foxes approached Chu Kuangren.

He knew those yokai foxes as they were all Emerald Hill and Tushan’s talented sky-prides and Heavenly Champions.

“Sister Fei Yu, how are you doing?”

“Hi, Brother Chu. We’re here to seek your guidance on some cultivation techniques,” said Tushan Fei Yu.

“My pleasure.”

Chu Kuangren did not reject them either.

His understanding of cultivation techniques and Dao far exceeded that of Tushan Fei Yu and others, so his guidance would be good enough.

Tushan Fei Yu and others benefited a lot from Chu Kuangren’s guidance.

“Unfortunately, if I had more time, I’d be able to break through my current cultivation realm under Brother Chu’s guidance. However, the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave is about to open, and we must go over now,” Tushan Fei Yu lamented.

Chapter 1224: The Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, Battle Saint Ape, Why Is There A Human?

“The Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave?”

Chu Kuangren noticed the focus of Tushan Fei Yu’s tone and could not help but get a little curious.

“The Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave is one of the Forest Realms and Secret Realms in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains...”

Then, Tushan Fei Yu told Chu Kuangren about the ancient cave, and it piqued his interest.

“Can I go to the ancient cave too?”

“Well...”

Tushan Fei Yu was put in a difficult situation. “Brother Chu, you’re Tushan and Emerald Hill’s savior, so of course, you can go to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave if you want to. However, there are restrictions in the ancient cave, and only a yokai is allowed to enter. I’ve never heard of any human cultivators entering the cave.”

“Oh, is that so?”

Chu Kuangren pondered for a while and then chuckled. "That's not difficult."

Then, he went to the Fox King and proposed that he wanted to go to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

The Fox King agreed to let him go. However, he could not guarantee whether Chu Kuangren could enter the ancient cave, but regarding that, Chu Kuangren did not mind.

Soon, Chu Kuangren went to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave with Tushan Fei Yu and the others.

Besides the Fox Tribe, the rest of the Beast Ruler clan forces in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains also acted.

The Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, Sabertooth, and other clans sent their Heavenly Champions to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

On a mountain in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, where winds and clouds billowed, an incomparably majestic spiritual qi gathered somewhere. Then, it disappeared as if a large mouth had devoured it.

After that, a terrifying beast with a big mouth and horns strode out and opened its mouth to devour countless spiritual qi.

"Roar!"

With a roar, a terrifying might erupted from the beast, and the mountain under its feet shattered!

Immediately, the beast turned into a black-haired young man.

He looked into the distance, and a violent yokai qi flowed around his body. "Ha! I've finally broken through to the Seventh-grade Heavenly Immortal Realm. With the Great Heavenly Devouring Technique, even a Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal may not be my opponent. This time, I must get the Avarice King's inheritance in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave!"

In the meantime, a White Tiger stepped out after a closed-door meditation and dashed toward the direction of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. Its yokai qi, mixed with murderous qi, swept out and shattered several mountains. Wherever he went, his terrifying murderous qi shocked countless beasts.

Following that, a black tornado swept through.

The black wind contained an incomparably strong poison. Even with slight contact with the poison, some beasts of the Immortal Realm turned into blood. For a moment, everywhere the black wind blew past, all things withered, and all living beings perished.

Among the black storm, there was a huge centipede with thousands of legs.

"That's too scary. These Beast Ruler clan's sky-prides are simply terrifying."

"Avarice, White Tiger, Sky Centipede... None of the ordinary Heavenly Immortals can compete with these sky-prides."

"It seems like, with the opening of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, many Yokai Tribe sky-prides will be competing."

Countless Yokai Tribes were engaged in a discussion.

In the depths of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, a colored-light barrier was reflected in the void, reflecting another world.

It was the entrance to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

Tushan Fei Yu, Chu Kuangren, and others finally arrived after a few days of traveling.

Looking at the other world on the light barrier, an eager look appeared in Tushan Fei Yu's and others' eyes.

"This is the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. It would be great if we could find some inheritances of the ancient Yokai Tribe's great ones here."

"It's best to find some of the Yokai King's inheritances."

"Stop dreaming. It's impossible to find the Yokai King's inheritances so easily. That's an existence at the Arch Gilded Realm, after all."

"Even if there's no chance of getting the Yokai King's inheritances, the other Opportunities of Fortune should be good enough."

Several yokai behind Tushan Fei Yu were whispering.

While looking at the light barrier, Chu Kuangren used Lil Ai to analyze the restrictions in the ancient cave.

As Tushan Fei Yu had said, the restrictions in the ancient cave had an identification function, which only allowed a yokai to pass through.

If there were people of other races who wanted to barge in, they would be rebounded by the restrictions and killed on the spot. Most of the restrictions were set up by the Yokai Tribe's Yokai Kings, who were generations of Great Ten Thousand Mountains' Arch Gilded Immortals. There were dozens of them, at least.

Although the restrictions were set by dozens of Arch Gilded Immortals, an Arch Gilded Immortal might be stopped even if he came.

Boom!

At that moment, a terrifying murderous qi approached from the sky.

It was a gigantic White Tiger, and wherever he went, the mountains crushed under his feet. His might was extremely powerful.

In the other direction, a black wind swept over, and a thousand-legged centipede was looming within the black wind.

Some of the living beings along the road, unfortunate enough to be caught in the black wind, all turned to blood. It was terrifying.

There was also a black giant beast with his bloody mouth wide open, swallowing spiritual qi along his way, forming a torrent of spiritual qi around him. As the torrent of spiritual qi enveloped some yokai, he sucked them into his mouth, chewed, and swallowed them into his stomach.

“It’s the White Tiger, Avarice, and Sky Centipede.”

“They’re not the only ones.”

A large number of yokai sky-prides came after the three beasts’ arrival.

They were the Sabertooth, Manticore, Nine-Headed Snakelet, Dark Water Mystical Snake, and many more.

“Roar!” A long howl echoed in the sky.

Then, the earth and mountain trembled, followed by a giant black ape running over with boundless domineering qi.

The hair on the giant ape was like steel needles, his angular muscles were like molten iron, and his tendons were like dormant horned dragons, containing incredible power.

“It’s the Battle Saint Ape Tribe’s sky-pride, Yuan Feng!”

Fear was in the eyes of many yokai.

The Battle Saint Ape was a titan force in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains that could compete with the Golden Crow Tribe.

According to rumors, the Battle Saint Ape’s ancestor was a terrifying and heroic existence who had once fought the Ancient Immortal Hall with a golden staff in his hand.

1

After the Battle Saint Ape’s appearance, a firelight soared into the sky in the distance.

A giant pitch-black bird with three legs on its belly and a golden flame burning all over his body flew in from afar like a huge sun.

It was the Golden Crow Crown Prince!

“Hey, he’s here too.”

Yuan Feng, the Battle Saint Ape, grinned with a hint of battle intent in his eyes.

The Battle Saint Apes fought against heaven, earth, yokai, and humans. They were born to fight their entire lives.

Therefore, they would be excited if they met their opponents.

In Yuan Feng’s opinion, not many young people were qualified to fight against him in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, and the Golden Crow Crown Prince was one of the qualified ones.

“I shall enter since I’m here,” said the Golden Crow Crown Prince.

He looked at the light barrier and was about to enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave when a voice sounded. "Wait!"

The thousand-legged centipede stared at Chu Kuangren and said coldly, "Why is there a human here?"

Immediately, all the yokai looked at Chu Kuangren.

There was a hint of fear and solemnity in some of the yokai who knew Chu Kuangren.

However, most of them were dissatisfied.

The Ancient Heavenly Yokai Caven was a place where the yokai trained and gained experiences. What was a human doing here?

Chapter 1225: Entering The Ancient Cave, The Yokai Great Ones Are Stunned, A More Genuine Yokai

At the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, in the depths of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, all the yokai looked at Chu Kuangren, questioning his presence there.

Only yokai were allowed into the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave to gain experience, so how could they accept it when a human was here?

They would have acted to kill such a person long ago if he was not Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren looked at the yokai before him with an indifferent expression.

At that moment, countless Immortal Consciousnesses were intersecting in the void.

They were the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' great ones.

"What is the Fox Tribe trying to imply by bringing a human here?" asked the Golden Crow King.

"Brother Chu wants to see the beauty of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, so I told someone to bring him here and have a look. Is there a problem with that?" the Fox King questioned calmly.

The Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave was a special place as it did not belong to any of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' forces. Logically speaking, as long as one was a yokai, they could enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave when it was accessible. However, under some Beast Ruler clans' control over the years, a low-level yokai was rarely allowed to enter.

No matter what, those who came were all yokai.

It was the first time a human had shown up here, and that made some Yokai Tribes slightly dissatisfied with the Fox Tribe.

"Forget it. It's just a human, after all. What's there to be afraid of if he can't enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave?" said a Yokai Tribe's great ones.

The rest of the yokai thought for a while and ignored the matter upon agreeing with the great ones.

"Well, the Golden Crow Crown Prince and others should enter first," said a great one.

The yokai were no longer against Chu Kuangren, and they entered the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave one by one.

"A human eyeing the Opportunities of Fortune in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave? Hmph. He thinks too highly of himself," the Sky Centipede Tribe's sky-pride said with a cold smile before entering the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

"Brother Chu, we'll make our move."

"Alright," said Chu Kuangren.

Tushan Fei Yu stepped into the cave with the Fox Tribe.

Once all the yokai had left, Chu Kuangren looked at the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave and pondered.

"Let's give it a try."

In fact, he was not completely sure that he could enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, but it did not deter him from trying.

So what if there were Arch Gilded restrictions?

He would not die as he possessed the Indestructible Physique.

Soon after, he walked toward the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. At that sight, some Yokai Tribes' great ones could not help but laugh aloud.

"That's funny. He really is courting death."

"He's too arrogant. These restrictions were set by Arch Gilded Immortals. Just how bold he is to covet the Opportunities of Fortune in the ancient cave?"

"He really is arrogant."

"Sure enough, he is all arrogant and smug from being at the top for so long. It's hilarious that a little Heavenly Immortal dares challenge the Arch Gilded Immortals."

"Chu Kuangren is going to die here today."

Some Yokai Tribes' great ones were amused and excited upon seeing Chu Kuangren walking toward the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

They were interested in seeing Chu Kuangren die.

After all, he was a freak. As long as he remained alive, no other Heavenly Champions would stand a chance to shine, and their Heavenly Champions were no exception.

It would be a good thing for them and all the Heavenly Champions in the Immortal World if Chu Kuangren died here!

"Come on. Go in! The Arch Gilded restrictions will smash you to sc*m!"

All Yokai Tribes' great ones thought to themselves while looking at Chu Kuangren.

As they had expected, Chu Kuangren stepped into the outer barrier of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave's light barrier, and it trembled for a while.

"It's coming!"

All the yokai's eyes lit up, knowing that the countless Arch Gilded restrictions would kill Chu Kuangren in the next instant.

However, to their surprise, the light barrier merely trembled for a while before it stopped.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren continued walking and entered the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

That scene utterly stunned all Yokai Tribes' great ones.

"W-What's going on?"

"Why aren't the Arch Gilded restrictions activated?"

"What did he do to escape the Arch Gilded restrictions?"

"Impossible. There have not been any flaws in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave's Arch Gilded restrictions for many years. How could it have failed on Chu Kuangren? This is impossible!"

"Fox King, what's going on here?"

Some Yokai Tribes' great ones pointed their fingers at the two Yokai Kings of Emerald Hill and Tushan, but even they were confused.

However, in the face of the Yokai Kings' confrontation, they were not afraid. Instead, they said indifferently, "Since Brother Chu can enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, doesn't it prove that he has been recognized by the generations of Yokai Kings and that he can compete for the Opportunities of Fortune? Instead of asking me, why don't all of you ask all those Yokai Kings?!"

Upon hearing that, all the Yokai Tribe Kings almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

To ask the generations of Yokai Kings?

How could they possibly ask the generations of Yokai Kings when they were all dead?

Nevertheless, what the Fox King said was reasonable. If the generations of Yokai Kings did not approve, how could Chu Kuangren have entered the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave?!

"Could it be that Chu Kuangren is a yokai?" Suddenly, a Yokai Tribe's great one guessed.

His statement immediately shocked all Yokai Tribes' great ones.

"How is that possible?"

"Something is wrong. He does possess yokai qi."

Some of the Yokai Tribes' great ones had released their yokai qi to spy on Chu Kuangren's aura, and they discovered the existence of yokai qi in him.

However, it was an extremely complex yokai qi, which contained the aura of Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, and Godly Phoenix...

"It's very weird."

All Yokai Tribes' great ones could not bring their heads around it.

At that moment, inside the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, Chu Kuangren, who had successfully passed through the restrictions, showed a smile on his face. "I've succeeded. It looks like my idea was feasible."

He could pass through the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave's restrictions because he could freely change his Daoist Physique.

One of the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique's functions was to emulate the power of those physiques that he had merged.

He had the Godly Phoenix Physique and had also studied other wild beasts' physiques such as the Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, White Tiger, and the like.

That was why he used the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique to emulate the aura of those wild beasts, and to his surprise, he managed to cheat the Arch Gilded restrictions and enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

No. It should not be called cheating. Due to the mystery of the Tome of Physiques and Ultimate Almighty Source Physique, he was a true yokai as long as he wanted to be one!

He could be more of a yokai than a genuine yokai!

There was no doubt about that.

"Those Yokai Tribes' great ones should be stunned. Now, let's see what Opportunities of Fortune and treasures in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave are worthy of my exploration," said Chu Kuangren.

He looked into the depths of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave and activated his Immortal Consciousness to cover a radius of a thousand kilometers.

Soon, he found something. His figure flashed, disappearing in place, and came to a cave.

Many restrictions surrounded the cave, and there was a line of words at the entrance of the cave. "Only Manticore is allowed to enter. Non-Manticore that tries to enter will die!"

It was obvious that inside the cave lay a fallen Manticore elite, who had left Opportunities of Fortune for his younger generation.

"Unfortunately, I'm here."

Chu Kuangren activated his Ultimate Almighty Source Physique and successfully emulated the Manticore's physique. Then, he stepped into the cave and found some of Manticore's inheritances.

Most of them were some cultivation insights and ultimate Immortal Techniques.

Those inheritances would be a great benefit to some Manticore sky-prides for improving their cultivation level, but they were not useful to Chu Kuangren.

Cultivation insights?

There had never been anything like his path of Dao throughout history, and only he could cultivate it. Hence, the Manticore elite's cultivation insights were worthless to him.

Ultimate Immortal Techniques?

He already had many of them.

“It doesn’t matter. There are many Opportunities of Fortune in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, and there should be some that are useful to me.”

Chapter 1226: Five Poisons Siege Fox Tribe, Reptiles, You’re Courting Death

Countless Yokai Tribes’ sky-prides were searching for Opportunities of Fortune in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

As a fallen place for generations of yokai elites, there were many Opportunities of Fortune.

Moreover, there were a lot of fallen elites, so Opportunities of Fortune would increase in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave every once in a while.

Following each sky-pride’s outstanding performance, many Opportunities of Fortune emerged in the Forest Realm, one after another. Many top-notch Yokai Tribes’ sky-prides gained something.

In the meantime, a golden Immortal Herb appeared somewhere. Its emergence caused a scorching light to soar into the sky, Daoist patterns to interweave, and a scorching intent to envelope that particular space. The ground was dried up, and the earth spanning several thousand kilometers was red!

The Immortal Herb was like a sun, filled with infinite light and heat.

Many yokai that cultivated the Flame Dao approached and looked at the golden Immortal Herb with desire in their eyes.

“This is the Golden Sun Immortal Herb!”

“It is rumored that this herb can create a mighty Pure-Yang Physique.”

“I want this Immortal Herb.”

Many yokai were eager to get their hands on it.

At that time, a golden firelight surged in the clouds in the distance, and a golden figure approached.

The person was covered in golden flames, and his vast might swept across the land as if he was a god who possessed infinite flame energy. The aura permeating his body was no weaker than the Immortal Herb’s.

“What a powerful aura. I heard the Golden Crow Crown Prince has been obtaining many Opportunities of Fortune so far, and his strength is even better than before. On top of that, he can use Fusang energy as he has a Fusang Tree, which makes him super mighty. Someone reckoned his combat strength is not much weaker than a True Immortal.”

All Yokai Tribes’ sky-prides look at the Golden Crow Crown Prince with fear.

Sky-prides in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains were classified into different grades. The Golden Crow Crown Prince was undoubtedly from a small group of Yokai Tribe that stood at the top.

"I want the Golden Sun Immortal Herb, and I hope everyone here will allow me to do so," the Golden Crow Crown Prince said indifferently.

Although all Yokai were unhappy with that, not many dared to step forward and compete with him.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was too mighty, and no ordinary sky-pride was his match.

"Since none of you wants it, I'll take it as your acquiescence. Thank you."

The Golden Crow Crown Prince grabbed the Golden Sun Immortal Herb and looked at it with his eyes burning. "Once I consume this Immortal Herb, my Golden Crow Flame will be greatly enhanced. Then, I'll be on my way to awakening my bloodline for the seventh time!"

Seven bloodline awakenings were extremely rare, even among countless ancient Immortal wild beasts and divine beasts. One that possessed it was a rare existence.

As far as the Golden Crow Crown Prince knew, among the Yokai Tribes, only the monstrous Heavenly Champions of the three major Yokai Tribes' titans, namely the Dragon Palace, Phoenix Nest, and Kylin Cave, had gone through seven bloodline awakenings.

These three existences seldom showed themselves. They remained silent, accumulating energy while awaiting the arrival of the Battle of the Heavenly Champions' critical moment.

Meanwhile, there was a killing sound from a mountain range somewhere.

A black giant ape was holding a huge golden staff in his hand. Every time he swung the staff, it would blast a beast into a blood mist and smash a mountain into powder.

As the divine ape rose in the air with his staff, everything in the surroundings was cleared for a thousand kilometers.

"Haha, come again! Come again!"

The black giant ape's battle intent soared, and he laughed loudly. His might made the surrounding beasts terrified.

"Quick. Let's leave immediately. We are not his opponents!"

"D*mn it. The Battle Saint Ape is too powerful."

All the yokai's hearts were pounding, shocked by the giant black ape's might. Soon, they fled into the distance.

"Sheesh! What a bunch of cowards."

The black giant ape sneered and looked into the depths of the mountain range, where a blood-colored heart was pounding and interweaving with Daoist patterns. Each time it beat, the void would shake. That was the heart of a yokai elite!

It contained lifelong cultivation insights and ultimate Immortal Techniques of the yokai elite.

"I can sense that this heart was left behind by the Battle Saint Ape Tribe's elite. Judging from the might contained in this heart, the elite was at least a top-notch Gilded Immortal and possibly only one step away from being an Arch Gilded Immortal."

"If I can get, absorb, and refine his inheritance, I'll get past the bottleneck in my cultivation and break through to the Gilded Immortal Realm!"

A look of joy appeared in the giant black ape, Yuan Feng's eyes.

...

Boom!

An explosion erupted, and two Yokai Tribes were fighting.

One of them was the Fox Tribe, with Tushan Fei Yu leading.

The other was a group of Yokai Tribe with strange toxic qi emanating from their bodies. Their leader was a young man in black who had transformed from a thousand-legged centipede.

"Wu Tian, how dare you attack us? Are you thinking of starting a war with the Fox Tribe?" Tushan Fei Yu asked the young man in black, Wu Tian, with a gloomy expression.

"Hah! So what if I attack you? We are all Heavenly Champions, and this is the Battle of the Heavenly Champions. If you die, it simply means that your strength is inferior to others. The Tushan Queen can't possibly find trouble with a junior like me. Besides, both your Tushan Queen and Emerald Hill Fox King have just returned, so they must have a lot of matters to deal with. Who will care about me?" the young man in black said fearlessly.

At that moment, a poisonous toad approached Wu Tian and said, "Boss, it's such a pity to let them die just like this. Look how beautiful these yokai fox ladies are."

The poisonous toad yokai's eyes looked at the yokai foxes pervertedly, and a lustful smile appeared on his face.

"I'd like to have a taste of a yokai foxe too," a triangular-headed snake said while flicking its tongue and hovering in mid-air.

"Two perverts," a golden scorpion yokai pouted and said with contempt.

"They're just a bunch of fox b*tches. Seeing how seductive they are makes me feel like tearing their faces to pieces."

A female spider yokai with a sexy figure looked at Tushan Fei Yu and other Yokai Foxes with jealousy in her eyes.

She may be stunning in the appearance that she transformed into, but she was still inferior to Tushan Fei Yu, especially in temperament.

She was like a hellcat with a beautiful look but a vicious heart, whereas Tushan Fei Yu was a noble lady with an elegant and glamorous temperament. Between the two, the latter was more attractive.

"I'll save a few for you guys later," said Wu Tian.

He was not interested in beauty. All he wanted were the Opportunities of Fortunes and treasures in the hands of Tushan Fei Yu and others.

"Haha! Very well. I want the Yokai Tribe Maiden Sage," the snake yokai sneered.

The Five Poisons attacked again, unleashing venom, toxic qi, and other techniques. The scene was extremely terrifying.

Although Tushan Fei Yu's strength was impressive, Wu Tian was no weaker than her. With the help of the other four poisons, the poison eroded them after a while, and their combat strength decreased rapidly.

Not far away, a crowd of yokai was amazed.

"The Five Poisons shouldn't be underestimated."

"Yeah. These Five Poisons are led by the thousand-legged centipede, Wu Tian, and their combined strength is enough to surpass the Great Ten Thousand Mountains' younger generation."

"I think this will be the end for Tushan Fei Yu and others."

"It's unfortunate that such beautiful yokai foxes are about to die at the hands of these Five Poisons. Who knows if they may be tortured before they die?"

Some felt sympathy and pitied the beautiful yokai foxes, but no one dared to step forward to help.

After all, those were Five Poisons.

Boom!

Hit by Wu Tian's palm attack, Tushan Fei Yu was sent flying backward.

Due to the toxic poisons eroding her body, her face was pale, her lips were purple, and the Immortal's Core in her body was like a pool of stagnant water that she could not activate.

"Hehe! Big Brother, leave the rest to me."

Then, the poisonous toad yokai turned into a human and walked toward Tushan Fei Yu with a lustful smile.

Despair was written all over Tushan Fei Yu's face. At the thought of what she might face next, she even wanted to end her life.

However, at that moment, a bright Immortal Spark flickered in the distance, and a figure in white flew in from afar with majestic Immortal qi surging around him.

With each step he took, the void trembled, and the mountains under his feet shattered.

For a moment, mountains trembled while the clouds rumbled.

"You pest are courting death."

Chapter 1227: Five Poison Formation, Fated Poison Blood, Have A Taste Of My Power

"You pests are courting death!" A cold voice sounded from the void.

A peerless figure in white approached from a distance. As he trod across the air, step by step, mountains trembled, and clouds rumbled.

Around his waist hung a white-jaded sword and scroll, and he looked handsome with his pronounced facial features. His transcendental Immortal presence shadowed even the sun and moon, and he emanated a powerful aura that shook the void in all directions.

The person was none other than Chu Kuangren.

All the yokai were awestruck by his arrival. They stared at him with their mouths agape and could not believe their eyes.

"What is going on? Am I dreaming?"

"Chu Kuangren... Why is he here? He's just a human. How could he have entered the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave?!"

Even Tushan Fei Yu was baffled by his arrival, but it also brought her surprise and hope.

Chu Kuangren's arrival relit their embers of hope.

"D*mn it. Why is he here?" Wu Tian's face sank.

Despite his confidence, the rumors surrounding Chu Kuangren deterred his unbridled attitude.

The person before his eyes was definitely one of the Heavenly Champions he would not want to offend.

"Toad, Gold Scorpion, prepare the Five Poison Formation," Wu Tian said coldly.

"Alright. I'm intrigued to find out if Chu Kuangren is as powerful as rumored."

"Mmhm. If the Five Poison Formation is activated, even a True Immortal might suffer, let alone Chu Kuangren."

"That's right. We will end his undefeated legend right here, right now."

The Five Poisons exchanged a quick gaze before they flashed and moved into five different positions, surrounding Chu Kuangren in the center.

Then, poisonous qi gushed from their hands and shrouded the entire place.

Five distinctively different poisons converged and merged using the formation as a catalyst to form an entirely different and more powerful poison. A single touch of it would erode and dissolve the body of a common Heavenly Immortal into a puddle of blood. It was horrifying.

When the poisonous qi gushed out from their hands, Chu Kuangren lifted his hand to activate the Enchanted Sleeve, sucking Tushan Fei Yu and the others into the safe space.

As the poisonous qi corroded him, Chu Kuangren simply stood on the spot without moving a muscle and allowed his body to be corroded.

The Five Poisons were intrigued by the scene.

“Haha! I didn’t expect Chu Kuangren to be this confident to resist the poison with his physical body!”

“Hm. We’ll wait for the poison to kill him.”

“Wait for the poison to kill him? No. If he dies just like that, how will that reflect how powerful we are?”
Wu Tian said with a sneer.

Then, he led the Five Poisons and started to activate the formation.

The poisonous qi within the formation surged and took the shape of several poisonous animals, namely the scorpion, tarantula, viper, centipede, and poisonous toad.

The five poisonous animals filled the formation and shadowed the land. Frightened, all the cultivators who saw the scene immediately felt chills down their spines.

“The Five Poisons Formation is terrifying!”

“Yeah. Looking at the poisonous animals alone is disgusting enough, let alone being shrouded in its poisonous qi.”

The horrifying scene turned countless yokai’s face pale.

Even yokai were somewhat afraid of the poisonous animals because they could never be careful enough with the sneaky and lethal attacks.

“What a disgusting scene.”

Chu Kuangren stared at the land filled with poisonous animals, shook his head, and scoffed.

Then, he pointed his sword hand sign forward, gathering sword qi at the tip of his fingers. Brilliant green light swirled in his eyes as Green Leaf Sword Vision was activated.

As he slashed forward with his finger, his sword qi spread in all directions and obliterated all the poisonous animals within the formation.

The whole Five Poisons Formation trembled.

“What?”

“How does he still possess that much power while the poison corroded him? What kind of monster is he?”

Their pupils shrunk as they stared at Chu Kuangren in horror.

“Your poisons are useless against me,” Chu Kuangren said.

He just got a Poison Immunity Trait a few days ago, so the poisonous qi from the Five Poisons was useless against him. In fact, they were like breathable air to him.

“Hmph! Impossible! Nothing in this world is completely immune to poison!” Wu Tian said coldly.

Perhaps some cultivators could resist poisonous attacks, but to be completely immune to it was impossible, or at least that was what he thought.

“Kill him!”

Wu Tian channeled the power of the Five Poisons Formation to its limit.

Countless black poisonous qi swirled within the formation, and as they converged, the poisonous qi transformed from gas to a liquid state.

After that, the poisonous liquid transformed into five black dragons.

“Poison Dragon Sky Devour!” Wu Tian bellowed.

The five poisonous dragons attacked Chu Kuangren from all directions.

Each dragon contained an immense amount of poison, which a single drop could kill millions.

The lethality of the combined poison from all five poisonous dragons was immeasurable. Even the Five Poisons had to be careful when casting it.

“A useless attack,” Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward with green light gleaming in his eyes, faintly revealing two leaf-shaped patterns.

In the next instant, a stem of sword grass formed behind him.

As the leaf of the sword grass moved, green sword qi as wide as a river gushed out and tore the void to shreds.

It was the divine ability of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, Grass Sword Art!

Bang! Bang!

As the sword qi flew around in a flurry, the poisonous dragons were beheaded one after another, and the rest of their bodies were decimated.

An immense amount of poisonous liquid splashed into the river and painted the water black. Wherever the black poisonous water flowed, it reaped life and left nothing but desolation in its wake.

Then, a ghost-like figure emerged from the poisonous liquid and dashed toward Chu Kuangren.

It was the snake yokai!

He threw a palm strike forward and unleashed terrifying yokai qi at Chu Kuangren.

“Fool.” Chu Kuangren performed a slash with his sword hand sign.

The sword qi that gushed out from his finger cut off the snake yokai’s arm and half of his torso before he burst into a cloud of blood mist.

A painful scream later, the blood that spurted from the snake yokai merged into the poisonous qi in the surrounding air and continued to erode Chu Kuangren’s body.

“Chu Kuangren, the poisonous mist has now merged with my Fated Poison Blood. Now, I’m more powerful than ever! I am intrigued to see how you’re going to withstand this,” said the snake yokai, whose body had been cut in half.

Chu Kuangren simply reached out into the poisonous mist and grabbed the poisonous qi that had fused with the snake yokai’s Fated Poison Blood. Before everyone’s eyes, he tossed it around like he was handling a toy. He was not afraid of the poison in the mist at all.

The scene shocked the snake yokai, who took the risk to release his Fated Poisonous Blood.

“How is this possible?!”

To think his Fated Poison Blood was being toyed around by someone! Was there really a person in the world immune to poison?

“Your Fated Poison Blood is nothing but a joke,” Chu Kuangren said.

After that, with the Fated Poison Blood in his hand, his figure flashed and reappeared before a gold scorpion.

The gold scorpion was horrified. He tried blocking, but Chu Kuangren’s punch contained terrifying Immortal’s Core energy and Daoist patterns. The release of the combined energy shook the void and obliterated the gold scorpion’s yokai qi.

Then, he shoved the poisonous qi that contained the snake yokai’s Fated Poison Blood into the gold scorpion’s opened mouth.

“Here. Have a taste of it.”

Chapter 1228: An Insect With A Hundred Legs Could Die But Would Not Perish, Yokai Concubine Daji’s Inheritance

“D*mn it!”

The gold scorpion’s face turned pale as the poisonous qi was shoved into his mouth.

This poisonous qi was the culmination of all Five Poisons’ toxins. They, themselves, might be able to control it, but it was difficult for them to resist it because other than their respective toxin, it contained four more types of toxins.

Not to mention, the poisonous qi that Chu Kuangren shoved into his mouth also contained the snake yokai’s Fated Poison Blood.

Moments later, the gold scorpion screamed excruciatingly on the spot. The poison was already starting to break his body and the Daoist patterns on his Immortal Body.

“This is ridiculous!” Wu Tian reacted with a grim expression, but he was also shaken by what was happening.

If Chu Kuangren had complete immunity against poison, he would be the bane of the Five Poison.

To Wu Tian, it was a terrifying fact.

"We'll attack together! I refuse to believe we can't kill him!" Wu Tian bellowed coldly.

The toad, spider woman, and snake transformed into their true form and attacked Chu Kuangren.

To their surprise, the one who ushered the attack, Wu Tian, fled the moment they attacked. He left the Five Poisons Formation and flew into the distance.

The Yokai Tribe's sky-prides were stunned by Wu Tian's cowardice.

"Geez, did Wu Tian just abandon his teammates?"

"He said to attack together, yet he ran away. Where's his pride as a sky-pride?"

"I guess the pride of a sky-pride means nothing in front of a monster like Chu Kuangren. Saving his own skin becomes the priority."

"I guess you're right."

The other yokai gloated at the situation.

On the other hand, the other three of the Five Poisons were horrified and furious when they realized Wu Tian abandoned them.

"Wu Tian, you b*stard!"

"You will die a horrible death!"

"Don't worry. He won't escape, just like the rest of you."

Chu Kuangren chuckled and then pointed his sword hand sign forward. With the help of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, his sword qi gushed out rampantly and instantly obliterated the toad, spider woman, and snake yokai.

After that, he grinned at the fleeing Wu Tian.

His Descendant Self Sword unsheathed itself, and a stem of sword grass appeared behind him. As the leaf swayed, a surge of sharp sword qi dashed across the sky as if it could cut the starry sky in half.

The sword qi flew across the sky, wrapping time and space, and caught up to Wu Tian in less than a fraction of a second.

Wu Tian fought back with all he got, but his efforts were futile.

Along with the sound of a tear, poisonous blood gushed out from his body.

The slash had cut him into two and reverted him into his true form. The massive thousand-legged centipede fell on the ground and caused a dust storm to rise.

The other yokai cultivators stared at Chu Kuangren in fear.

Every single one of the Five Poisons was a sky-pride of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, with Wu Tian being the strongest of them all.

However, even with the five of them teaming up, they could not withstand a single attack from Chu Kuangren.

"I don't think even the Golden Crow Crown Prince or the Battle Saint Ape could beat this person."

"Compared to that, I'm more curious how he, a human, came into the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. It's really strange."

The yokai were left with many unanswered questions because Chu Kuangren left as soon as he killed all the Five Poisons.

His figure flashed and disappeared from the spot.

After he left the scene, an immense amount of poisonous blood gushed from the dead centipede's body.

The blood reaped life wherever it flowed.

Amid the gushing poisonous blood, a thumb-sized black centipede crawled out.

"D*mn it! D*mn it! The slash destroyed my body! If I didn't keep one of the Fated Poison Progeny in my previous body, I would have died by now!"

Fated Poison Progeny was a secret technique passed down by the Sky Centipede Tribe.

An insect with a hundred legs could die but not perish, more so a centipede with a thousand legs.

However, using the Fated Poison Progeny would cost him more than ninety percent of his cultivation base, and the consequences that followed would be unimaginable.

Still, no amount of sacrifice could compare to losing his life.

"Chu Kuangren, just you wait. When I recover, I will have my revenge!"

1

...

"Miss Fei Yu, I have some antidotes here. Please use some."

Once Chu Kuangren was somewhere without people, he released Tushan Fei Yu and the others from his Enchanted Sleeve. He even provided them with some antidote pills.

The toxin that the Five Poisons cultivated was unusually strong, so common antidote pills might not work.

Fortunately, Chu Kuangren had mastered a set of amazing medicinal skills other than creating antidote pills. As such, he was able to cure everyone after a short while.

"Thank you, Brother Chu."

Tushan Fei Yu and the others bowed solemnly at their savior.

In addition to the previous one, Chu Kuangren had saved her twice, and she had no idea how to repay his kindness anymore.

She was even considering marrying Chu Kuangren if he agreed.

However, she passed on the idea as it came across too cheap.

She believed Chu Kuangren was not a boorish person.

Having such an idea was already an insult to Chu Kuangren, and it was unforgivable.

“Don’t mention it.”

Chu Kuangren had no idea what Tushan Fei Yu was thinking. To him, saving her was only out of convenience, and because of Lil Fox, he had quite a friendly relationship with Tushan and Emerald Hill.

Perhaps in the future, he might be able to use Tushan and Emerald Hill to achieve some kind of objective.

If others could read his thoughts, they would probably look down on him.

After all, Emerald Hill and Tushan were no common forces.

Either one of them could rival an ancient immortal orthodoxy, and both Fox Kings were two of the strongest Arch-Gilded Immortals out there.

It was nearly impossible for them to be a tool or be used by someone else.

However, Chu Kuangren had confidence.

With his talents and power, it was only a matter of time before he broke through to become an Arch-Gilded Immortal.

His final goal was to become the supreme ruler of the entire universe. Not even being Immortal World Ruler could satisfy him anymore.

1

He had never talked about his goal to anyone before, but it was slowly materializing.

“There are a lot of Opportunities of Fortune in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, and a Fox Tribe’s great one had left behind inheritances in this land. We’re going to search for it, so why don’t you join us in the expedition, Brother Chu?” Tushan Fei Yu said.

Chu Kuangren thought about her invitation for a moment before he nodded. “Alright.”

He was not entirely familiar with the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, and being one of the oldest forces of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, Emerald Hill’s and Tushan’s people knew the cave better than him.

Tagging along with the group might bring surprising results.

With that, Chu Kuangren followed Tushan Fei Yu and the others to search for the Fox Tribe’s great one whom she mentioned.

The Fox Tribe's great one had an astounding background and a reputation among the humans.

That great one was a lot more well-known than many yokai that ever existed.

She was none other than the legendary Yokai Concubine, Daji.

During ancient immortal times, the humans elected a king to govern and rule over the kingdom.

In an ancient rumor, King Zhou was infatuated with the Yokai Concubine, Daji, and became a ruthless tyrant. He killed the innocents and the loyals, and his ruthlessness was resented by many. He indirectly caused the decline of his dynasty, the Yin Shang Dynasty.

After the Yin Shang Dynasty became history, Daji disappeared and was never to be found again.

Now, it seemed like she had left behind her inheritance in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

"Interesting."

"Rumor has it that Daji possessed beauty that could infatuate an entire kingdom, so I'm quite intrigued." Chu Kuangren smiled with a hint of anticipation.

He was not looking forward to Daji's beauty but what kind of inheritance she left behind.

Chapter 1229: Yokai Fox, Heretic Dark Fox, Tengu Bachelor Sage, I Know A Lot of Things

Chu Kuangren and Tushan Fei Yu arrived at a certain mountain ridge within the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

"According to the Queen's instruction, Daji's inheritance should be at the end of this mountain ridge. However, this particular inheritance is a rare one, and passing the test isn't easy.

"Some Fox Tribe sky-prides had entered this place in the past, but none of them could acquire the inheritance. Not even I have the confidence," Tushan Fei Yu said.

Chu Kuangren smiled upon hearing her words. "Just give it your best."

Tushan Fei Yu nodded.

All of a sudden, she sensed a certain energy presence, and the expression on her face changed. "This energy..."

Even Chu Kuangren furrowed his brows.

He had sensed an unusual yokai qi ahead of the group. It was similar to the yokai qi of Tushan Fei Yu and her people, but it felt different, like it was on the other end of the qi spectrum, containing a hint of demonic trait.

"Does this yokai qi belong to the Fox Tribe?" Chu Kuangren was baffled.

"Yes, but not entirely so too." Tushan Fei Yu clenched her teeth. "This yokai qi belonged to the heretics of the Fox Tribe, the Dark Fox Tribe!"

"Dark Fox? Interesting."

Chu Kuangren immediately accessed the sea of knowledge he had in his mind to search for information about the Dark Fox Tribe.

The Dark Fox Tribe was a branch under the Fox Tribe, but the orthodox tribes, such as Emerald Hill or Tushan, did not recognize them.

Compared to Emerald Hill and Tushan, the Dark Fox Tribe cultivated strange cultivation techniques and excelled at absorbing other living beings' life essence to increase their own powers, similar to the extraction technique that the Demonic Dao Sects practiced.

The other crucial thing about the Dark Fox Tribe was that they not only attack and absorb other species, but they also go after other Fox Tribes.

That particular act alone was condemned by many other yokai foxes, hence their isolation.

However, the Dark Fox Tribe held pride in it and attacked other yokai foxes multiple times. Eventually, they became the biggest arch enemy of Emerald Hill and Tushan.

"It seems like the Dark Fox has found out about Daji's inheritance. No, we cannot let them acquire the inheritance, or the consequences would be unfathomable!"

Tushan Fei Yu took a deep breath and headed toward the source of the unusual yokai qi.

Chu Kuangren followed her.

Other than the Dark Fox Tribe's yokai qi, Chu Kuangren and company also sensed another yokai qi in the area.

"It's the Tengu Tribe."

Tushan Fei Yu was able to swiftly identify the second yokai qi.

The Tengu Tribe was an opposing tribe of Emerald Hill and Tushan, and they had an unusually close relationship with the Dark Fox Tribe.

"Dark Fox, Tengu, they're all there..." Tushan Fei Yu felt disheartened by her discovery.

She then turned to Chu Kuangren to seek a sense of safety.

Fortunately, Brother Chu was here with them.

...

At the end of the mountain ridge was a beautiful palace erected on top of the massive mountain peak.

The palace had white-jade floorings, with gemstones embedded on the edges. The entire area was shining with Immortal Sparks and contained countless Daoist patterns, whereas inside, there were heavy layers of restriction seals.

Outside the place was a group of yokai in black who were trying to break the restriction seals.

The leader of the group was a man and a woman, who were the Heavenly Champions of the Tengu Tribe and Dark Fox Tribe respectively.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage wore a fitting black dress that complemented her voluptuous figure. Her black hair fell above her shoulder, her fair skin, delicate facial features, blazing lips, and crystal clear eyes, which gave her a strong gaze, made her a lot more alluring than Tushan Fei Yu.

The bewitching charm she possessed felt like it could bring out the deepest and rawest desires of a male being and drive him mad.

The Tengu Bachelor Sage was staring at her with infatuation.

If the Bachelor Sage had fallen for her charms, let alone the other Tengu cultivators. All of their eyes were glued on her as her presence aroused them.

Some of the Tengu Tribes already had an erection.

The other Dark Fox Tribe girls were also beautiful, but they paled in comparison to the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

“Dark Fox Maiden Sage, do you have the confidence to acquire Daji’s inheritance? I heard Daji is a great one from Emerald Hill. Would she leave the inheritance to you?” asked the Tengu Bachelor Sage.

His human form was rather handsome.

“Don’t worry about it. I’ve prepared for it.”

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage then took out a bloody-red pill. “This is the Fox Pill that my tribe secretly refined. As long as I take it, it will enable me to conceal my Dark Fox energy. Besides, Daji has been dead for many years. I don’t think she can see through my disguise with just a strand of her Immortal Consciousness.”

After that, she looked at the Tengu Bachelor Sage and said, “But you guys, you followed us here and even confirmed there are treasures left behind by a human king. Where do you guys get that information?”

“That’s a little secret of mine. Besides, with us here, we will be able to lend you a hand.”

“Just try to keep up,” the Dark Fox Maiden Sage said in contempt.

“Yes, yes, of course.” The Tengu Bachelor Sage nodded repeatedly and showed no anger toward the contempt the Dark Fox Maiden Sage showed.

On the contrary, he bellowed at his tribesmen, who were working on removing the restriction seals, “You guys, hurry up! The Maiden Sage cannot be late to receive her inheritance!”

The Tengu tribesmen were annoyed and upset by his scoldings and arrogant attitude.

No matter what, the Tengus were a well-known Beast Ruler clan. Yet, as the Tengu Bachelor Sage, he was ordered around by the Dark Fox Maiden Sage like her lapdog.

“Forget it. I’ll go in first,” the Dark Fox Maiden Sage said.

She took the pill in her hand, and her energy slowly changed.

“Dark Fox, it’s really you guys!” A feminine voice bellowed all of a sudden.

Chu Kuangren, Tushan Fei Yu, and the others arrived.

Tushan Fei Yu stared at the Dark Fox Maiden Sage with the coldest gaze. They knew each other as both of them were the Maiden Sages of the Fox Tribe.

One was the Maiden Sage of Tushan, while the other was the Maiden Sage of Dark Fox. They had fought each other before, but they were evenly matched.

“You stinking fox from Tushan, I didn’t expect you to arrive so soon, and you even brought...”

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage looked at Chu Kuangren with a solemn gaze, but it soon shifted. She said coquettishly, “What a handsome guy. I don’t know what you are doing at the stinking fox’s side, but I welcome you to join me. I know a lot more than her if you know what I mean.”

She shot a bewitching gaze at Chu Kuangren.

That made the Tengu tribesmen even more aroused than before. Some even had the urge to jump on her and ravage her.

“Pft! You shameless black vixen! You? You’re trying to hit on Brother Chu?”

“Exactly! You’re trying to hit on Brother Chu with that? You’re not even close!”

Before Chu Kuangren could even say a thing, the other yokai foxes behind him burst with rage, and they all shot a frosty gaze at her.

It was as if a shameless person was coveting their most precious treasure.

To the female yokai foxes of Emerald Hill and Tushan, Chu Kuangren was special.

Be it his handsome looks, his demeanor, or his unrivaled power, they adored and admired everything about him even though they clearly knew he was far beyond their league.

Even so, it did not stop them from being infatuated with him.

They would rather place him in Tushan or Emerald Hill as a decoration than let the Dark Fox take him.

However, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage openly hitting on Chu Kuangren had challenged their patience.

If they did not know they were not her match, they would have attacked the vixen.

“How can impudent cubs like you guys know how to please a man?” The Dark Fox Maiden Sage scoffed.

Then, she put on a bewitching smile and said, “Handsome, I know a lot more techniques than all of them combined, and I assure you that you will have the best time of your life.

“I might know more than them, but I still have my virginity, and if it’s you, I will be more than happy to give it to you.”

Chapter 1230: Did I Give You All The Permission To Move? Xuanyuan’s Successor

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage was speaking the truth.

The Dark Fox Tribe might excel at bewitching spells and techniques, but they relied on cultivation to absorb life essence. As such, they need not to mate, and they actually kept their virginity dearly. Before meeting someone they truly love, they would never actively mate or even surrender their virginity.

1

The Dark Fox Tribe shared similarities with Tushan and Emerald Hill on that particular point.

Perhaps because deep down, they considered themselves a part of the Fox Tribe.

D*mn it!

The Tengu Bachelor Sage was overwhelmed by jealousy.

He flattered and pleased the Dark Fox Maiden Sage in whatever way possible, but he did not even earn her attention.

Yet now, she was flirting with Chu Kuangren and even offered her virginity.

Was she still the Dark Fox Maiden Sage he dreamt of day and night?

D*mn it!

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage did not care about the change of emotion in the Tengu Bachelor Sage.

To her, Chu Kuangren alone was worth ten Tengu Bachelor Sages, or more precisely, both of them were incomparable as they were not on the same level.

Before that critical moment, she had to think of a way to rope Chu Kuangren to her side, or at least ensure that he would not interfere with her acquiring Daji's inheritance.

Otherwise, not even ten of her would be Chu Kuangren's match.

For that purpose, she was willing to sacrifice her body.

Moreover, Chu Kuangren was a handsome and powerful man. It was no surprise that she fell for him at first glance.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage tried to show her body as much as she could, seducing him with alluring words and provocative body language. It was a complete display of her bewitching techniques.

She believed her charms could even ensnare a True Immortal.

No one among the younger generations could turn away from her bewitching charms.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren was an exception.

He simply stared at her coldly and calmly. Neither of her provocative body language nor seductive demeanor aroused him.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage had exceptional seductive techniques, but Chu Kuangren's Daoist core was not something that could be moved easily.

Not even the legendary Daji could arouse him!

Eventually, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage realized her enchanting moves did not work on Chu Kuangren. She felt like a jester embarrassing herself in front of everyone, and the embarrassment painted a blush on her face.

‘Hmph! Chu Kuangren! You and your immovable Daoist’s core!’

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage shot a deep look at him before she turned around and flew into the palace.

“Wait, something is not right. Her energy presence is different!”

Tushan Fei Yu was slightly surprised when she realized that the restriction seals of the palace did not stop the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

The palace itself was part of Daji’s inheritance, so usually, it would deny all access except those from the Fox Tribe.

The Dark Fox Tribe may be a branch of the Fox Tribe, but they were categorized as heretics. She should be excluded, yet she was able to go in.

“Hmph! No matter what you did, I won’t let you get your hands on Daji’s inheritance!”

Tushan Fei Yu’s figure flashed and flew toward the palace.

“Hmph! No one shall interfere with the Dark Fox Maiden Sage!” The Tengu Bachelor Sage bellowed and threw a punch at Tushan Fei Yu.

The immense yokai qi transformed into a black whirlwind that could devour the land.

Just then, another sword qi soared across the sky and broke the black whirlwind, paving the way for Tushan Fei Yu into the palace.

Following that, a powerful and rampant Immortal’s Core energy erupted with a boom.

Its boundless might shrouded the sky and blanketed the land.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air and peered down on Tengu Bachelor Sage and the others. He said calmly, “Did I give you permission to move?”

‘This might... Impossible!’

The Tengu Bachelor Sage felt as if a mountain had crashed down on him. He could barely move a muscle, and fear rose in his heart.

He dared not believe the gap in strength between him and Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren’s might had alone robbed his will to battle.

“No! This is impossible!

“Tengu Eclipse!”

Following his shout, yokai qi shot up into the sky.

The yokai qi transformed into a massive conjuration of a tengu that shrouded the sky and shadowed the sun, plunging the realm into total darkness. It was as if a solar eclipse was happening.

“Chu Kuangren! You shall not pass! I will not let you interfere with the Dark Fox Maiden Sage’s plan! Take this!

“Myriad Tengu Roar!”

The tengu conjuration above Tengu Bachelor Sage fused with the boundless yokai qi in the void and evolved into a large tengu. It released a threatening howl that echoed throughout the land.

The power of that technique was unparalleled.

As ten thousand tengus shadowed the sun, terrifying yokai qi swept across the place and even leveled mountains.

“You are really loyal to the Dark Fox Maiden Sage. I guess a tengu like you is actually a... simp,” Chu Kuangren said.

2

Green light gleamed in his eyes. The moment the Green Leaf Sword Vision activated, a stem of sword grass appeared behind him. The leaves swayed and released immense sword qi into the sky.

The terrifying sword qi stopped the eclipse and destroyed the conjuration of the tengu.

While the conjuration behind the Tengu Bachelor Sage exploded, the Tengu Bachelor Sage was blasted away with blood spurting out from his mouth. His body trembled violently, and the Daoist patterns on his body crumbled to pieces.

Not only him but his tribesmen behind him were also caught by the sword qi. Right there and then, some of the weaker ones were torn to shreds.

“You’re too weak for me to be interested,” Chu Kuangren said.

“No! If this continues, he will definitely kill me!”

The Tengu Bachelor Sage then clenched his teeth, releasing a stream of golden light from his body.

“Save me, Master!”

The golden light materialized in the void and transformed into a man in golden robes with a golden dragon claw sewn on it.

The man’s eyes resembled the universe, and his features bore a mighty presence.

He was like a superior human king who reigned over and controlled millions of lives.

Chu Kuangren was not surprised by the man’s appearance because he already sensed the power inside the Tengu Bachelor Sage earlier.

If he did not allow the Tengu Bachelor Sage to use that power, the Tengu Bachelor Sage might not even have survived his attack.

“Chu Kuangren!”

The man looked surprised to see Chu Kuangren’s presence for a moment before he regained his composure. “I didn’t expect to see you here in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.”

Chu Kuangren had activated Lil Ai to analyze the man, and the result was rather surprising.

“The Human Emperor Sect’s Heavenly Champion and the Xuanyuan Tribe’s successor, how are you doing?” Chu Kuangren saw through the man’s identity with a single glance.

The yokai foxes behind him were astonished.

Xuanyuan’s successor?

That would make the man a human!

Why would he be here? Was there another human in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave other than Chu Kuangren?

Were the restriction seals placed on the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave child’s play?

For a moment, the yokai foxes deeply questioned the security of the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

Xuanyuan’s successor was also awestruck at how Chu Kuangren could see through his identity with a single glance.

However, he shot a deep gaze at Chu Kuangren and said, “I haven’t shown myself to the world, yet you can see through my identity with a single glance. It seems like you have some powerful yet secretive source for news. You really know how to conceal yourself.”

Unlike Chu Kuangren’s reputation among the Heavenly Champions, Xuanyuan’s successor laid a low profile and had never shown himself to the world.

Theoretically, only a handful of people should know about his existence, but Chu Kuangren could recognize him with a glance.

He even started to suspect that Chu Kuangren had planted a mole in the Human Emperor Sect, who had gained quite the status and position among the orthodoxies.
