

Unparalleled 1231

Chapter 1231: Xuanyuan Sword Qi, Only Emperors Who Die In Battles And Never One Who Surrenders

Chu Kuangren did not bother to explain himself to Xuanyuan's successor.

He looked at the man and continued, "As the Human Emperor's successor, not only did you enslave the Tengu Bachelor Sage, you even left a sliver of your Immortal Consciousness in him so that you could get into this Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. I believe there must be some Opportunities of Fortune here that capture your attention."

Unlike Chu Kuangren, who altered his physique to enter the cave, the Xuanyuan successor was just a clone of his Immortal Consciousness. He hitch-hiked on the Tengu Bachelor Sage to get past the restriction seals set up by an Arch Gilded so that he could enter without hindrance.

It might sound easy, but it was actually difficult to execute.

The restriction seals were of Arch Gilded level, and it was not easy to fool.

It was unimaginable how much effort the Xuanyuan successor put into crafting that unique clone of his Immortal Consciousness.

There were many other Opportunities of Fortune across the Immortal World, yet he chose here despite the fact it would demand a huge amount of effort from him. Hence, there must be something tempting here in the Yokai Tribes' territory.

The Xuanyuan successor stared at Chu Kuangren in silence.

"King Zhou!" Chu Kuangren mentioned another name.

The mention of the name changed the expression on the Xuanyuan successor's face, and he could no longer remain calm.

"It seems like I am right."

Chu Kuangren chuckled and continued, "As the Heavenly Champion of the Human Emperor Sect and the Xuanyuan Human Emperor's successor, the only thing that is worth all your effort must be the inheritance of an ancient Human Emperor.

"This Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave might house the Opportunities of Fortune left behind by the Human Emperor, and it is likely that the beloved concubine of King Zhou, Daji, is the key to what you seek."

"Chu Kuangren, you are really sharp," Xuanyuan's successor said. In other words, he acknowledged Chu Kuangren's speculation because he did come into the cave for King Zhou's Opportunities of Fortune.

"Thank you."

"But even so..." Before Xuanyuan's successor completed his sentence, a golden sword appeared in his hand.

The sword had the sun, the moon, and the stars carved on one side of the blade, and the other had mountains, rivers, and jungles etched on it. One side of the hilt showed humanity and geography, while the other showed strategies to rule over the four seas.

An endless sword might emanated from the sword, shaking the sun, moon, and stars, as well as the void.

The sword was none other than the Human Emperor Treasure, the Xuanyuan Sword!

The moment the sword appeared, its aura locked on to Chu Kuangren.

As the Xuanyuan successor unleashed a slash forward with the sword, a golden sword ray with a majestic and rampant aura enveloped the land. Its might was boundless.

“Ha! A clone plus an apparition of the Xuanyuan sword, and you wish to compete with me? Foolish!” Chu Kuangren scoffed.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward and drew an arc in the void.

The brilliant green light gleamed in his eyes, and the Green Leaf Sword Vision was activated. The sword grass behind him swayed, releasing a powerful sword qi that was as thick as a river, and its might could tremble the stars in the sky.

It was the Green Leaf Sword Vision’s Grass Sword Art versus the Xuanyuan Sword’s sword qi!

A top-tier Sword Dao divine ability versus the zenith of Sword Dao cultivation technique!

The moment both sword qi clashed, the shockwaves shook the land and leveled mountain peaks. Even pitch-black cracks tore open in the void.

The Tengu Bachelor Sage bore the brunt of the blast from the collision. Under the barrage of the endless sword qi, he was torn to shreds and burst into a cloud of blood mist before he could react.

The Xuanyuan Sword’s sword qi might be powerful, but the Xuanyuan successor remained a clone, and he was not powerful enough to withstand even the most casual of slashes from Chu Kuangren.

With Xuanyuan Sword’s sword qi destroyed, the sword qi continued to tear the Xuanyuan successor’s clone into pieces.

Before the clone disintegrated into dust, he shot a deep gaze at Chu Kuangren and warned him, “Chu Kuangren, when we meet again, I will show you the real Xuanyuan sword qi!”

“When we meet again, I will let you know why you should revere me like you were to a king,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

“Hmph. Boastful!” The Xuanyuan successor grunted before his clone disintegrated into dust.

Chu Kuangren’s figure flashed and appeared in front of the palace. He pointed his sword hand sign ahead and released the rampant sword qi to eliminate the rest of the Tengu Tribe.

As for the remaining Dark Fox Tribe, they had fled the scene when the situation turned against them.

Then, Chu Kuangren glanced at the palace before he headed inside.

When he stepped into the restriction seals at the outer palace, the restriction seals did not react to his presence even when his Celestial Fox Physique was not activated.

In other words, the restriction seals were not set up to target humans.

“It seems like this place really holds King Zhou’s inheritance. Perhaps it was because King Zhou was a human, so Daji did not limit the access of humans.

“Interesting. Rumor has it Daji indirectly caused the decline of the Yin Shang Dynasty, yet King Zhou’s inheritance was left together with hers. I think there’s more to it than meets the eye here,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

1

The interior of the palace was grand and glamorous. All kinds of Immortal chalcedony and Immortal Herbs were scattered over the place.

Deeper inside the palace was a statue carved with white jade.

The statue looked lively with the delicate facial features, the soft expression on the face, and the voluptuous body. There was an indescribable beauty to it.

It combined both the softness of a lady and the femininity of a woman perfectly. Its beauty was jaw-dropping.

“So this is the legendary Yokai Concubine, Daji? Interesting,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

Daji was indeed beautiful. She was more feminine than Dark Fox Maiden Sage and more elegant than Tushan Fei Yu.

However, no matter how beautiful she was, Chu Kuangren’s Daoist core was not moved.

There were two balls of light in front of the statue, formed by countless intertwining Daoist patterns, resembling two hatching eggs.

At a closer look, Chu Kuangren could spot two figures in each of the balls of light.

They were the Dark Fox Maiden Sage and Tushan Fei Yu.

“Oh? Are the two of them receiving the test from Daji together? Interesting. I wonder where the thing I’m looking for is.”

Chu Kuangren observed the palace.

He was looking for King Zhou’s Opportunity of Fortune as he was not really interested in Daji’s inheritance.

“I didn’t expect a human to make it into the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.” A soft and feminine voice suddenly sounded.

Chu Kuangren turned his attention to the statue and felt as if it was looking at him.

“Greetings, senior.” Chu Kuangren made a fist salute.

A white light projection of a person came out from the statue. It was the strand of Immortal Consciousness left behind by Daji.

Compared to the statue, Daji's strand of Immortal Consciousness looked even livelier.

"Human, are you here to search for King Zhou's inheritance?"

"I am." Chu Kuangren nodded.

"The inheritance you are looking for is somewhere here, but it's up to you to prove your worthiness to it."

Daji swung her sleeve, and a dark red armor and a crimson greatsword appeared before Chu Kuangren.

Both the armor and greatsword were covered in mystical Daoist patterns and emanated a vast energy presence.

It was the Arch Gilded intent! The Arch Gilded intent with unmatched power!

King Zhou was an Arch Gilded Immortal with a terrifying cultivation base.

The moment Chu Kuangren looked at the armor and the greatsword, he felt his heart begin to pound as though he resonated with them.

Then, faint energy emanated from him.

It was the Humanity Fortune energy!

Suddenly, Chu Kuangren saw the image of a person in dark red armor wielding a crimson sword.

He stood among a sea of dead bodies.

Before him was an army of cultivators, and above him were Immortals and Celestial Demons.

He was surrounded by enemies in every direction!

"King Zhou, surrender!"

"Surrender and submit to the Immortal Hall, and I will leave an honorable place for you on the Deification Tablet!"

"Surrender, and you will be spared!"

The armored figure presented unyielding arrogance before everyone's persuasion to surrender.

His black hair fluttered in the wind as he shouted at the cultivators and Immortals alike, "Mankind only has emperors who die in battle and never one who surrenders to invaders!"

Chapter 1232: The Great Battle, Blade of Zhou, the Last Human Emperor

"Mankind only has emperors who die in battle and never one who surrenders to invaders!"

King Zhou stood proudly in the sky as he uttered those mighty words loudly and clearly. His vast Immortal's Core energy poured out like a flood, causing the surrounding terrain to quake!

From his body, nine golden strands of dragon qi rose into the skies, each a thousand kilometers long. Every swing from a single dragon's tail killed countless Immortal gods!

"Impudent fool!"

"From this day onward, the Human Emperor shall cease to exist from this world. Only the Child of Heaven shall remain!"

Seeing the unyielding King Zhou, the surrounding Immortal gods attacked by launching a myriad of Immortal Techniques toward him.

King Zhou was not afraid in the slightest. However, he suddenly felt something and turned his gaze toward Chu Kuangren's direction. It was as if he was looking at Chu Kuangren across time and space.

With a smile on his face, he said proudly, "Now, take a good look, cultivator of the future. This is how you unleash the Blade of Zhou!"

Grasping his great crimson sword, he immediately unleashed a powerful slash!

His devastating sword qi tore through the void as countless mysterious Daoist patterns appeared. At the same time, an incredibly violent and merciless aura burst forth, disrupting the battlefield around him!

"Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!"

His sword qi raged forward like an endless hurricane, engulfing all of the surrounding Immortal gods within it and mincing them into clouds of blood mist. It nearly wiped out half of his enemy's million-strong army!

At that moment, the Immortal Buddha in the heavens could no longer sit still.

A red-haired Fire God attacked. He summoned an endless stream of flames, turned them into eight fire dragons, and sent them all toward King Zhou.

At the same time, another Lightning God attacked, causing countless lightning pillars to rain down from the Nine Heavens.

The Wind God summoned forth turbulent storms, and the Water God brought forth torrents of water...

The Elite Buddhist cultivators also started chanting Buddhist mantras to summon a golden Buddhist palm that crashed down from the Nine Heavens with full momentum!

Nevertheless, King Zhou maintained his pride in the face of the attacks from all the Immortal gods.

With his crimson greatsword in hand, the nine golden dragon qi behind him roared out at once, causing the Nine Heavens to tremble!

"Blade of Zhou, Tyrannical Ascension!"

Unleashing yet another slash, his tyrannical aura immediately filled the whole area.

At that very moment, it felt as if King Zhou was the only supreme being that existed in the world, and the millions of living beings everywhere could only submit before his might!

His tyrannical sword ray containing countless Daoist patterns swept out with an incredibly unstoppable might. Soon, it collided with an energy torrent formed by the Immortal gods' combined attacks.

When the two indestructible forces collided, the ground shattered, the void tore open...

Caught in the shockwave from that collision, countless cultivators were reduced into clouds of blood mist.

"Such power!"

Chu Kuangren silently observed all of that while gaining insights into the Blade of Zhou's mystery.

At that moment, high in the skies, a gigantic black palm came crashing down, containing unlimited Daoist patterns and power.

Under the power of that palm attack, the void shattered while the terrain was reduced to ruins!

Upon seeing that, the Immortal Buddha's expression changed.

"The Jade Emperor has taken action!"

"Amitabha. To think that even the Immortal Hall's leader has taken action! The Human Emperor is truly a hero."

The gigantic palm sign descended from the heavens, as if the sky was falling. It was so powerful that even an Arch Gilded Immortal would cower before it!

At that moment, King Zhou also started to feel a level of pressure that he had never felt before.

"The Jade Emperor is the main culprit for all the chaos that has been happening among mankind. Haha, I finally got to meet you."

King Zhou let out a great laugh, and the nine golden dragons behind him roared.

"Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!"

For his final attack, King Zhou channeled all of his Immortal's Core energy and unleashed a crimson sword ray from his sword.

An absolutely terrifying aura of destruction was contained within that crimson sword ray.

As the sword ray collided with the palm sign, the sword ray gradually eroded the Daoist patterns in the palm sign and tore a huge hole in it.

Meanwhile, the nine golden dragons behind King Zhou rose into the air and crashed into the gigantic palm sign altogether.

Upon collision, an inexplicable shockwave erupted across the whole area and even into the heavens. Everything in the surroundings was either destroyed or reduced to nothing!

Under that terrifying shockwave, Chu Kuangren's consciousness arrived at a white, empty space.

Inside that space, a man in royal robes was observing him.

That man was none other than King Zhou!

The scene of battle earlier was something that King Zhou wanted Chu Kuangren to see.

Instead of greeting him, Chu Kuangren remained silent. His consciousness was still deeply immersed in the process of comprehending the three slashes that King Zhou unleashed earlier.

Those three slashes were definitely the most powerful Sword Dao technique he had ever seen.

It was many times stronger compared to the Xuanyuan Sword qi earlier.

King Zhou did not disturb Chu Kuangren as the latter comprehended the Blade of Zhou technique. He merely stood there and watched silently.

Three days later, Chu Kuangren woke up from his state of comprehension.

He made a sword hand sign and unleashed a slash into the void, where a violent qi appeared. That was the Blade of Zhou's First Form, Berserking Torment!

King Zhou was amazed.

"This person's level of cognizance is truly inhuman. I can't believe he only took three days to learn the Blade of Zhou's First Form. This level of understanding is certainly among the best in history, and only a handful of people could ever compare to that."

Even when King Zhou's best descendant, under King Zhou's guidance, took several years and barely grasped the Blade of Zhou's First Form.

Just when King Zhou was about to praise Chu Kuangren, the latter did something again.

After unleashing the violent slash, Chu Kuangren unleashed another slash with his sword hand sign into the void.

His sword qi shot across the air while emanating an endless tyrannical aura, seemingly forcing all beings in the world to submit to its power.

That was the Blade of Zhou's Second Form, Tyrannical Ascension!

However, that was not the end of it.

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up with determination. His sword hand sign moved as he unleashed another slash again. This time, a crimson sword ray was unleashed into the void, destroying everything and everyone's Dao in its path.

That was the Blade of Zhou's Third Form, Infinite Void!

Berserking Torment, Tyrannical Ascension, and Infinite Void were all three forms in the Blade of Zhou technique!

Chu Kuangren had mastered all three of them in a matter of three days. Although he still could not unleash the full power of those techniques due to his cultivation, his level of mastery was already almost on par with King Zhou's.

King Zhou could not believe his eyes as he watched the scene unfold.

‘What kind of monster is he?’

‘Is he really human?’

After all, the Blade of Zhou technique he created was not some cheap parlor trick. It was the ultimate implementation and proof of his sovereignty, an Embodier Technique!

The Embodier Technique was dozens of times stronger than an Arch Gilded Technique!

‘Mastering an Embodier Technique in three days... Is that really possible?’

“Greetings, King Zhou of the past.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled as he looked at King Zhou.

“Cultivator of the future, you’re a very remarkable person.”

King Zhou had just barely recovered from his shock.

“Honorable King Zhou, am I worthy to inherit your legacy?”

“You are the first human ever to step foot into the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. You, are worthy.”

“It will be my honor. However, I have a question. Everyone in this world said that Yokai Concubine, Daji, sowed chaos throughout the Yin Shang Dynasty and that she caused the decline of the dynasty in the end. If that’s the case, why is your inheritance here?”

“Ha! Daji plunging my kingdom into chaos? Ha, do I really look like a fool who’s blinded by lust? That story about the Yokai Concubine ruining my kingdom is only but a narrative created by the victors of that war. Daji is not to blame for the downfall of my dynasty. Instead... it was something on a greater scale!” King Zhou shook his head helplessly.

“During that time, the Immortal Hall had just been established. Seeking new blood to fill their ranks, they instigated what was later known as the Great Deification Calamity, with the kingdoms of Yin Shang and Zhou as the main battlefield. Cultivators and orthodoxies from all over the world were caught in that great battle. All the cultivators who fell in battle were all absorbed into the Deification Tablet and turned into the Immortal Hall’s True Gods. Once that happened, they were removed from the cycle of reincarnation to serve the Immortal Hall forever.”

“Besides that, the Great Deification Calamity also sparked the end of the Human Emperors’ line of succession. It was the reason why later generations of humanity rulers were no longer called Human Emperors, but Heavenly Child, the child of the heavens instead. Heavenly Child Zou was the first to become the Heavenly Child after that great war. However, this meant that the Human Emperor had lost its equal status with the heavens. That battle ended up establishing Immortal Hall’s prestige and allowing them to recruit more manpower to serve them, hence reducing the population of humans to ensure that the Human Emperor’s title would not return to its former glory. This resulted in a never-ending cycle of the Immortal Hall increasing its influence and ranks all over the world. It was a tremendous victory for the Immortal Hall.”

“As for me, I’m King Zhou, the last Human Emperor!”

Chapter 1233: The Ultimate Human Emperor Technique, the Blooded Crimson Armor and Sword

The Human Emperors had the same equal level of standing with the heavens!

The heavens referred in this context meant the ancient will of the Immortal World!

During ancient Immortal times, as long as someone was a Human Emperor, regardless of their cultivation level, he or she would stand on the same level of existence with the heavens themselves!

However, ever since the two Immortal Halls instigated the Great Deification War, there were no more Human Emperors in the world after King Zhou!

It was said that later, after that great calamity, someone known as King Qin tried to restore the Human Emperor’s name to its former glory. Alas, he failed in the end.

That made King Zhou the final Human Emperor in the world.

“Although I fell in that battle, some remnants of my Immortal Consciousness remained. Daji managed to recover my remnant Immortal Consciousness from the battlefield, and because she was the daughter of Emerald Hill’s Fox King, the Immortal Hall dared not to seek trouble with her. In the end, she came to the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave and left her inheritance alongside mine here.”

“I can’t reverse what happened to the Human Emperor. However, my high priest once had a premonition that one day, someone worthy of my name would appear, take up my title, and return the Human Emperor’s name to its former glory!”

“I now have a reason to believe you are the one.”

King Zhou looked at Chu Kuangren with brightly lit eyes.

Being skilled enough to fully master his Blade of Zhou technique in just three days, describing that level of cognizance as monstrous would still be an understatement.

He had a reason to believe that Chu Kuangren was the one he was waiting for — the one who could restore the glory of the Human Emperor.

Besides, he also sensed the presence of humanity’s fortune on Chu Kuangren.

“Restore the glory of the Human Emperor?” Chu Kuangren mumbled. Then, he took a deep breath and said, “No matter how powerful the Human Emperor is, they are only on an equal level with the heavens. As for me, my goal is to reach beyond the heavens!”

Becoming the emperor of humanity on a level of existence beyond the heavens?

“Beyond the heavens...”

“Haha, interesting! Very interesting! You’re more ambitious than I thought. Alright, are you prepared to inherit my inheritance?” King Zhou said with a serious gaze.

“I am,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

After that, King Zhou's figure dispersed into countless sparks of light that entered Chu Kuangren's body.

Suddenly, an incredibly mysterious cultivation technique appeared in his mind — the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique!

It was a cultivation technique related to fortune.

The chosen cultivator could never use the technique to increase his or her cultivation level. However, they could use it to solidify humanity's fortune and construct the True Emperor Dragons!

That was the most important cultivation technique for Human Emperors, and only the Human Emperors throughout history could cultivate that technique.

Now that the final Human Emperor, King Zhou, had passed this cultivation technique to Chu Kuangren, Chu Kuangren was the only one in the current world who knew that technique.

He had accepted the mission of being a Human Emperor!

"Back on the Firmament Star, I was their Human King. And now, I've become the Human Emperor in the Immortal World. The cycle of karma is truly fascinating."

After mastering the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique, Chu Kuangren grinned.

Meanwhile, inside the palace, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage was the first to come out from the ball of light.

She was frowning and a little angry. "I still can't get Daji's inheritance in the end."

Then, she looked at Tushan Fei Yu, who was still accepting the inheritance. A killing intent revealed in her eyes. 'Should I kill her right now?'

"I suggest you better not mess around." A soft and gentle voice rang out.

She turned around only to see Daji standing behind her with a calm expression.

"Why didn't you choose me as your successor?"

"Dark Foxes aren't fit to inherit my legacy," Daji said calmly.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage's expression changed. "So you've seen through my true form."

"It's not really that hard."

"Hmph, one day, my Dark Fox Tribe will replace the Emerald Hill and Tushan as the true yokai fox orthodoxy."

"It doesn't matter which tribe becomes the true orthodoxy. The most important thing is this. If the Dark Foxes can't get rid of their weaknesses, they shall meet their end one day."

"That is none of your concern," the Dark Fox Maiden Sage said coldly before she left.

However, that was when she saw Chu Kuangren and shuddered uncontrollably. "Why is he here?"

"He's inheriting an inheritance."

"Is it the Human Emperor's inheritance?"

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage soon recalled what the Tengu Bachelor Sage told her about the Human Emperor's inheritance.

She looked at that crimson armor and greatsword with a coveting gaze. However, she soon held back her greed.

Those two items were unrelated to her, no matter how she thought about it.

Putting aside Chu Kuangren and Daji's threat, just the fact that those were the Human Emperor's items meant that no yokai should not get involved with it.

"Chu Kuangren is already so overpowered. With the Human Emperor's inheritance, it looks like he'll be even more powerful after this."

"How are you so sure he's going to obtain the Human Emperor's inheritance?" Daji said curiously.

She did not know Chu Kuangren much and had not heard much about him.

"Well, I don't know about everyone else, but if it's Chu Kuangren we're talking about, he's certainly going to succeed. He's a monster who could not be understood by common logic after all," said the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

Although that was the first time she met Chu Kuangren, she had heard a lot of rumors about him.

He was undoubtedly a being that could not be understood by normal means.

If most inheritances were given based on the criteria of the person's talent, and Chu Kuangren was more than talented, who else could be more worthy of receiving the Human Emperor's inheritance than him?

Besides, the fact that a human could even step foot into the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave was already a miracle.

'Who else could the Human Emperor even give it to? His Immortal Consciousness would've dispersed by the time the next human comes here.'

"Is that so? If he really succeeds, King Zhou's last dying wish will finally be fulfilled," Daji said happily.

Without saying anything else, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage looked at Chu Kuangren and frowned.

'Should I take this chance to end him?'

1

Upon further thought, she gave up on that intention.

"For such a good-looking guy, it'll be such a shame if he dies."

Moreover, she could not be sure whether Chu Kuangren or Daji would have any measures taken against her if she did kill him.

'Attacking him here would be too risky.'

Worst-case scenario, she might even lose her life.

As such, she turned around and left the palace.

“The Dark Fox Tribe is truly a pitiful tribe.” Daji shook her head and lamented.

At that time, Chu Kuangren slowly opened his eyes.

As his consciousness returned to his body, he looked at the crimson armor and the greatsword with his thoughts mobilized.

The armor and greatsword automatically entered his body.

It was obvious that those two Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons had taken him as their master.

Both armor and sword were known as the Blooded Crimson.

The Blooded Crimson Sword and the Blooded Crimson Armor were the Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons that King Zhou wielded in battle. Although not as powerful as the Humanity Fortune Treasures like the Nine Province Cauldrons or the Xuanyuan Sword, the Blooded Crimson was still an extraordinary weapon.

On top of King Zhou’s cultivation level, he was no weaker than the Human Emperors before him.

“It looks like you’ve obtained his inheritance.”

Daji looked at Chu Kuangren with a smile.

“Yeah, I did.”

“Wonderful. It looks like our final wishes have been fulfilled,” said Daji while looking at Tushan Fei Yu beside her. “This girl is quite talented as well. She’s almost done accepting my inheritance.”

Sure enough, the moment she said those words, Tushan Fei Yu opened her eyes with a spark of light flashing across them.

The ball of light surrounding her gradually dispersed.

She smiled. “I did it. I’ve finally inherited Daji’s inheritance.”

Many yokai foxes throughout the history of Emerald Hill and Tushan had tried to obtain Daji’s inheritance. However, all of them returned empty-handed. Only Tushan Fei Yu succeeded in the end.

Chu Kuangren, too, had noticed that her aura was more dignified and glamorous than before.

“Brother Chu, I didn’t expect you to be here. Oh, right. Where has the Dark Fox Maiden Sage gone?” Tushan Fei Yu said with a puzzled look.

She and the Dark Fox Maiden Sage accepted the trial at the same time. However, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage was nowhere to be found now.

“She must’ve left,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

What surprised him was that the Dark Fox Maiden Sage did not attack him while he was accepting the inheritance.

Then again, he would be fine even if she did take action.

‘She made a wise choice indeed.’

Chapter 1234: The Golden Crow Crown Prince’s Opportunity of Fortune, the Heavenly Yokai King’s Inheritance Appears

Chu Kuangren received King Zhou’s inheritance while Tushan Fei Yu got Daji’s inheritance, both gaining considerable benefits.

It was especially true for Chu Kuangren, who already possessed human fortune for being the Firmament Star’s Human King.

On top of that, he had now inherited King Zhou’s inheritance, as well we learned the Blade of Zhou technique and the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique in the process.

“Next up is to find somewhere to cultivate the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique to manifest my True Emperor Dragons.”

“With my current level of human fortune, I might not be able to manifest powerful True Emperor Dragons. However, it’ll still increase my combat strength, and my control over the Nine Province Cauldrons would increase after cultivating the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique,” Chu Kuangren thought.

Then, he left the palace with Tushan Fei Yu.

After leaving, countless restrictions and seals inside the palace started to appear again to seal it away.

In the palace, two figures were vaguely visible. One was dressed in royal robes striking the bell while another was dressed in feminine long-sleeved robes, dancing gracefully with an elegant poise!

They were King Zhou and Daji — a tyrant and a yokai concubine.

Their Immortal Consciousness remained in the palace, leaving everything behind and only living for the sake of each other.

The chiming of the bell gradually dissipated along with the mesmerizing dancing figure.

...

After leaving the mountain range, Chu Kuangren did not immediately cultivate the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique. He only planned to do that after leaving the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

After all, the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave would only be open for a limited time, and he could already overpower everyone with his current strength. There was no rush to become stronger for now.

He wanted to find as many treasures and items here as he could.

While Chu Kuangren continued his search for treasures or Opportunities of Fortune, the other yokai sky-prides obtained inheritances.

Somewhere in a mountain range, atop an ancient golden tree, a three-legged golden crow within a flaming ball of light emanated an extremely powerful aura.

That aura released was scorching hot, so hot that it could seemingly set the whole world on fire.

That person was the Heavenly Golden Crow Mountain's Crown Prince.

Suddenly, the Golden Crow Crown Prince opened his eyes, where a flaming light flashed. The Golden Crow Flame surrounding him rapidly receded until it was all absorbed into his body.

"I've done it. I finally succeeded in integrating the Golden Crow King's flame into my Golden Crow Flame. This also includes the Golden Crow King's cultivation experience and various Golden Crow Tribe techniques. Ha! With this power, how can I possibly lose against Chu Kuangren now?" The Golden Crow Crown Prince laughed happily.

Somewhere else, an avarice with a head full of horns opened his mouth and burped.

Following that, an incomparably violent yokai qi gushed out from his body. Within the yokai qi contained a gluttonous intent, as if it was seeking to devour everything in the world.

"This is great. After consuming that great yokai's body, my cultivation level has finally reached the Great Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal."

Great yokai were usually beings on, at least, the Gilded Immortal level.

Moreover, finding a Gilded Immortal's corpse inside the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave was certainly not an easy task. However, a Gilded Immortal's body contained the Gilded Trait. If that Gilded Trait was still present, the corpse's body would not rot away.

Once a Gilded Immortal was dead, their corpse could be preserved for a very long time, as long as no damage came to it.

Although that was a very rare occurrence, it was still possible to find the remains of a Gilded Immortal with some luck, just like that lucky avarice.

He just so happened to come across a Gilded Immortal's body.

Although most of that corpse's power had been lost, it was still a Gilded Immortal's body, and he benefited a lot from it.

"With my current strength, even if I face Chu Kuangren, I'm certain I can be a match for him at least."

The avarice was very excited.

Just then, he suddenly sensed something and looked into the distance, where an incredibly powerful battle intent had erupted.

That battle intent was so intense that it spread into the skies, causing the winds to change and the sun to rumble.

"This fighting intent... It's the Battle Saint Ape."

The avarice looked surprised.

"Roar!"

With a ferocious roar, a giant black ape leaped into the sky while holding a long golden staff. His powerful yokai aura immediately swept out.

The giant ape looked at the avarice with a hint of fighting intent. "Oh? The aura of a formidable cultivator. Come, let's battle right now!"

The giant ape immediately swung his golden staff down at the avarice!

Following a loud crash, the void burst open, and the surrounding terrain trembled.

The avarice's body flashed as he quickly dodged that attack.

The moment the golden staff landed on the ground, the powerful impact cracked the earth open, and countless cracks spread from the location of impact. As a result, the surrounding terrain crumbled, forming many canyons everywhere.

"Battle Saint Ape, Yuan Feng, I do not want to fight you now."

"Oh, you don't want to, or you don't dare to?"

Yuen Feng laughed as he continued attacking the avarice with his golden staff.

Boom, boom!

Explosions constantly erupted in space, and ripples of spatial energy shook the surroundings.

"Hmph. Do you think you can mess with me just because I'm holding back?"

The avarice snorted coldly. Then, he opened his mouth wide and started gathering the surrounding spiritual qi toward him. From there, he formed a gigantic black ball of light containing tremendous energy.

"Haha! Bring it on then!" Yuen Feng laughed.

Just when the two were about to clash again, a mysterious energy fluctuation suddenly appeared from a distance.

The next moment, the whole Ancient Heavenly Yokai Hall started to quake.

Every yokai inside could feel that mysterious energy fluctuation, and they felt a throbbing sensation within their blood.

It was as if the source of the mysterious fluctuation had an inexplicable allure for them.

"What is this feeling?"

"What's happening? Why is this mysterious fluctuation affecting every yokai being inside here?"

"Wait a minute, I think it might be... The Heavenly Yokai King!"

Some of the yokai thought of something, and their expressions changed drastically.

The Heavenly Yokai King was the creator of this Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. He was the most legendary Yokai King in the history of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains!

Apparently, the Heavenly Yokai King was once a normal yokai who did not possess any noble Beast Ruler bloodline, and he was not a subspecies of yokai either.

However, that Yokai King rose to power on his own a long time ago by spreading his dominance over countless yokai within the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

The Yokai have always respected the strong, and the strong would prey on the weak. That was their way of life.

Due to his strength, the Heavenly Yokai King ended up being the unified ruler of all the Great Ten Thousand Mountains!

It was said that the Heavenly Yokai King collected the blood of countless yokai during his reign and created a Myriad Yokai Seal!

The moment that seal was used, every yokai bloodline would immediately be suppressed and overpowered. In other words, the seal was a great treasure specially used to deal with yokai.

With that item around, the Heavenly Yokai King's rule was unchallenged.

Later, the Heavenly Yokai King created the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, where every tribe's elites who were on the brink of death would enter that cave to leave behind their inheritances. That was how the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave came to be.

The Heavenly Yokai King also left behind his inheritance inside that location.

However, for countless years, no one had ever seen a sign of that inheritance, let alone obtain it.

Yet now, every yokai suddenly had a gut feeling that the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance had appeared!

It was all because of that mysterious fluctuation that made every yokai feel a throbbing sensation in their blood. Only the legendary Myriad Yokai Seal created by the Heavenly Yokai King could do such a thing!

At that thought, every yokai immediately got excited and overjoyed.

"By the heavens. How many years has it been since countless yokai spent searching for it only to return with nothing? Now, it has finally appeared."

"The Heavenly Yokai King is the first unified ruler in the history of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. Ever since his passing, no one has been able to unify the Great Ten Thousand Mountains like him. If anyone manages to obtain his inheritance, they'll surely become the second Great Ten Thousand Mountains' Ruler!"

Chapter 1235: The Heavenly Yokai King's Inheritance, Everyone's Arrival, Is There Anything Impossible About That

With the appearance of the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance, a great commotion immediately ensued among every yokai cultivator inside the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

Suddenly, countless yokai cultivators rushed toward the source of the mysterious energy fluctuation.

“The Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, huh? I must get my hands on it!”

“If I can get the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, I’ll certainly become the Great Ten Thousand Mountains’ Ruler!”

“This is an unimaginably huge Opportunity of Fortune.”

Every yokai cultivator was very excited about it.

Even the top-notch yokai sky-prides like the Battle Saint Ape, Avarice, and Golden Crow Crown Prince were beyond excited.

“I’ve already obtained the Golden Crow King’s inheritance recently. If I can also get my hands on the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, I shall surely surpass Chu Kuangren in terms of strength.”

“Just you wait, Chu Kuangren!”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince immediately dashed toward the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance.

Somewhere else, the Avarice and Yuen Feng, who were going to continue their battle, also stopped.

They looked in the direction of the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance and glared at each other before they both retracted their yokai qi.

“Hmph. I’ll deal with you once I get the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance!”

“Haha! The Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, huh? I bet tons of yokai sky-prides must be heading toward it right now. This means there’s going to be more formidable opponents there!”

With that, the Avarice and Yuen Feng immediately dashed toward the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance.

Meanwhile, somewhere else, Chu Kuangren, Tushan Fei Yu, and the others had also sensed the powerful energy fluctuation emitted by the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance.

“Alright. Let’s go check it out,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

‘The Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance? Perhaps I might end up getting it.’

‘Since I’m here in the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, I can’t miss out on the opportunity to obtain such a powerful inheritance.’

With regards to him being a human, he did not even consider whether the Heavenly Yokai King would allow him to inherit his inheritance.

After all, he could fool the Heavenly Yokai King by changing his physique at will.

If that method failed, he would snatch it by force!

Inside the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, he was completely capable of overpowering everyone else, and because of that, he had no worries at all.

...

A gigantic grey ball of light was levitating in mid-air, emanating waves of mysterious energy fluctuations.

Whoosh, whoosh!

Suddenly, countless figures arrived.

Those people were the yokai cultivators who had been attracted by the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance.

"So this is the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance? I wonder what kind of trial he has prepared for us," one of the yokai sky-prides asked curiously.

They all knew they could not obtain the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance effortlessly. There must be some trial or test for those seeking to obtain it.

It was clear that the trial was located inside the grey ball of light.

Boom!

A golden firelight rose into the skies in the distance.

From within the firelight, the Golden Crow Crown Prince flew out, and his terrifying yokai qi spread everywhere.

"It's the Golden Crow Crown Prince. What a powerful aura he has."

"He has gotten much stronger than before. From the looks of it, he's close to being a True Immortal now."

"Breaking through to the True Immortal Realm is never easy. However, among all the Heavenly Immortals here, I bet only a handful of them could be the Golden Crow Crown Prince's opponent."

"I think the Golden Crow Crown Prince can even go head to head with a True Immortal in battle."

When the Golden Crow Crown Prince arrived, he looked at the grey ball of light with a burning gaze.

Suddenly, his gaze narrowed while looking into the distance.

An avarice beast and a Battle Saint Ape, Yuen Feng, were approaching him at lightning speed.

Wherever they passed, the ground cracked open while the spiritual qi surged.

Their yokai qi and domineering aura were almost on par with his.

"It's them."

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was not too surprised.

With the energy fluctuation of the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance spread all over the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, there was no way Yuen Feng and the avarice would not notice it.

He would suspect that something had happened if they did not show up.

Besides the Battle Saint Ape, Yuen Feng, and the Avarice, the other powerful Heavenly Champions from the other tribes soon arrived, such as the White Tiger Tribe.

The White Tiger Tribe was a very well-known tribe in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains. The Heavenly Champion of that tribe was also quite powerful, having made a name for himself among the younger generation.

The moment he appeared, the terrifyingly murderous aura contained within his yokai qi immediately spread across the land, shocking everyone.

Compared to when he first entered the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave, his aura had increased tremendously.

“The White Tiger, Avarice, Battle Saint Ape, Golden Crow, Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, and other Beast Ruler Heavenly Champions have arrived. It looks like their fight will be an interesting one this time.”

“Well, it’s the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance we’re talking about, after all. Is that even a surprise?”

“That’s right. If any of them manages to get the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, they might become the second Great Ten Thousand Mountains’ Ruler. That title is just too promising and attractive to give up.”

“Hm. Where are the Five Poisons? Are they not coming?”

At that moment, the White Tiger Heavenly Champion said indifferently as his tiger eyes swept across everyone present.

“Why are you asking about them?”

Although the Five Poisons were very famous in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, the fame they gained was ill-earned.

Especially the leader of the Five Poisons, Wu Tian was notorious for poisoning other yokai cultivators whenever he pleased. Everywhere he went would always be filled with poisonous qi and toxins in the air.

“He has killed one of the White Tiger Tribe’s sky-prides. I want to seek him out for revenge!” the White Tiger Heavenly Champion said coldly.

“If that’s the case, there’s no need for you to take revenge anymore,” one of the Manticore sky-prides said.

“What do you mean?”

“The Five Poisons are dead, and not even their bodies are left.”

“Who killed them?”

The White Tiger Heavenly Champion was a little surprised.

The others were also surprised by that.

After all, the Five Poisons were no ordinary sky-prides. If the five of them joined forces, even the Golden Crow Crown Prince would have to take them seriously. Who could possibly be strong enough to kill all five of them?

“It’s Chu Kuangren!” said the Manticore sky-pride, and at the mention of that name, a look of awe appeared in his eyes, unbeknownst to himself.

“What did you just say?!”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince’s gaze instantly turned cold.

“Chu Kuangren!”

“That’s impossible. This is the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave. How can he enter?”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince could not believe it. Some of the other sky-prides who just learned of that also looked horrified.

“What’s impossible about that?”

An indifferent voice resounded in the skies.

Soon, a peerless white figure approached from the air.

As he took one step forward, his domineering Immortal’s Core energy surged, declaring his presence to the whole world.

At that moment, the white-robed figure stood out the most in that entire area!

Shocked, every yokai sky-pride began to tremble.

“It really is him! I can’t believe he managed to get in. How... How did he do it?”

“I-Impossible!”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince, White Tiger Heavenly Champion, Avarice, Battle Saint Ape’s Yuen Feng, and other yokai sky-prides were shocked.

Only some of the yokai sky-prides who had seen Chu Kuangren before were mentally prepared for his arrival. Hence, they were not as shocked.

Behind Chu Kuangren, Tushan Fei Yu and the others arrived as well.

“Chu Kuangren, how did you even enter the Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave?” the Golden Crow Crown Prince could not help but ask.

“What does that have to do with you?”

“Hmph. I don’t care how you managed to enter here, but the Heavenly Yokai King will never give his inheritance to a human like you,” the Golden Crow Crown Prince said as he dashed into the grey ball of light.

In the blink of an eye, the Golden Crow Crown Prince was inside the ball of light.

Following that, a surge of yokai qi soon appeared on the ball of light's surface.

That yokai qi was as hot as a ray of fire, representing the Golden Crow Crown Prince.

As the other yokai cultivators entered the grey ball of light, several surges of yokai qi appeared on its surface too.

Every surge or strand of yokai qi represented a yokai cultivator that had undertaken the Heavenly Yokai King's trial.

Chapter 1236: The Heavenly Yokai King's Trial, Wave After Wave

As the yokai cultivators entered the grey ball of light to undergo the Heavenly Yokai King's trial, several strands of yokai qi soon appeared on its surface.

Each yokai qi represented a single yokai cultivator.

Not only that, but the various yokai qi also varied in strength.

For example, the yokai qi representing the Golden Crow Crown Prince was like a scorching flame, and his was the strongest among the rest as it gleamed with Immortal Sparks.

However, yokai qi of other top-notch yokai sky-prides was also quite powerful, such as the White Tiger Heavenly Champion, Battle Saint Ape's Yuen Feng, and others.

The yokai qi that represented them was far more potent than any ordinary yokai cultivator.

"Oh, so this is the power of the top-tier yokai Heavenly Champions, huh? Their yokai qi is way more powerful than the others."

"The Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance is truly fascinating, seeing that it can distinguish the power level of these yokai sky-prides."

The yokai cultivators outside were engaged in a discussion.

Just by looking at the yokai qi displayed on the grey ball of light, it was obvious which one among them was stronger.

Although that was not absolute, the stronger sky-prides would naturally have a higher chance of getting the inheritance.

"Brother Chu, let's go in," Tushan Fei Yu said.

"Alright."

With that, they flew into the ball of light.

The moment Chu Kuangren entered the ball of light, a bright pillar of light immediately shot into the skies, and the ball of light lit up with Immortal Sparks!

The Immortal Sparks were blinding.

Even the strongest yokai qi was more than ten times weaker than it. On top of that, it contained a transcendental intent.

“Is that the qi that’s representing Chu Kuangren?”

“What a powerful qi he has. The others simply pale in comparison to him. I can’t believe Chu Kuangren is so much stronger than them!”

“That monster!”

The yokai cultivators looked at the blinding Immortal Sparks and could not help but gasp. There was a horrified look in their eyes.

...

Inside the ball of light, Chu Kuangren arrived at an empty desert.

There was no one but him alone in that desert. Even Tushan Fei Yu, who came in with him, was nowhere to be found.

“So we’re tested individually, huh?” Chu Kuangren murmured.

He was not surprised.

“Alright. Let’s see what kind of trial the Heavenly Yokai King has prepared.”

A hint of excitement flashed in his eyes.

At that moment, several figures appeared at the end of the desert.

Those were a bunch of normal yokai beasts! Among them were snakes, rats, wolves, and many other yokai beasts. Each of them was emanating yokai qi.

However, those beasts were below an Immortal’s level. Chu Kuangren could kill the strongest among them a thousand times over with just his aura alone.

“The trial has started.”

Chu Kuangren waved his sleeves, and his vast Immortal’s Core energy swept out like a raging tide.

With a boom, heaven and earth shook!

It was as if the whole desert was on the brink of being torn apart by his Immortal’s Core energy.

Soon, his Immortal’s Core energy enveloped the countless yokai. All of them were killed until nothing remained!

In that instant, the surrounding yokai beasts were all wiped out. Not even a single corpse remained.

In fact, those yokai beasts were not living entities.

They were beings created by the Heavenly Yokai King’s yokai qi.

“Although these yokai beasts are not so strong, the fact that he can mimic their auras so vividly says it all about the Heavenly Yokai King. He is indeed extraordinary.”

Chu Kuangren knew that the trial had only just started.

Sure enough, another wave of yokai beasts soon appeared at the end of the desert after a while. Those yokai beasts were stronger overall compared to the previous ones, and some were already Immortals.

Besides that, the types of yokai species also increased.

There were the Azure Moon Wolves, Flame Tigers, Lightning Falcons, and more.

However, those beasts were nothing in the face of someone like Chu Kuangren.

He simply waved his sleeves. A burst of golden-red Phoenix's Flames immediately gushed forward and enveloped those yokai beasts, burning them all to ash.

"That's the second wave."

Not long after, the third wave of yokai beasts arrived, and they were stronger than the second wave of beasts.

Now, there were Earthen Immortal beasts among them.

Chu Kuangren made a sword hand sign and unleashed an attack.

Boom!

Upon casting his Sword-like Heavenly Intent, thousands of sword intent rained down upon the beasts.

All the yokai beasts in the third, fourth, and fifth waves were all wiped out.

The yokai beasts appeared in waves, getting stronger and stronger as the trial went on. Currently, Heavenly Immortal yokai beasts were already appearing.

Not only that, but the Beast Ruler clan's yokai and ancient Immortal beasts like the Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, and Sabertooth had also appeared.

At the seventh wave, several yokai figures walked out from the end of the desert, each emanating a powerful Heavenly Immortal aura.

Moreover, all of these yokai beasts were from ancient Immortal times!

Manticore, Sabertooth, White Tiger, Golden Crow, Kui Bull... A total of ten beasts appeared!

They were ten ancient Immortal beasts that were all Higher Third-grade Heavenly Immortals!

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren did not panic at all. He remained calm as ever and formed a sword hand sign, gathering surges of sword qi at his fingertips.

Without another word, a flash of green light swirled within his eyes, and a stem of sword grass appeared behind him.

As the grass swayed, his sword qi shot forward into the air, tearing the skies apart!

That was the Green Leaf Sword Vision's Grass Sword Art!

"Roar!"

The Kui Bull let out a mighty roar as blood qi around it surged, releasing terrifying sound waves that spread everywhere and caused the space to rumble.

However, that was not enough to stop the incoming sword qi.

The sword qi went through it like it was nothing!

By then, the Golden Crow, Manticore, White Tiger, and others had also attacked.

Various Immortal Techniques unleashed one after another.

Golden Crow Flame, murderous qi, and many more attacks erupted. As they collided with the green sword qi, shockwaves spread throughout the whole desert.

With a bang, the sword qi was destroyed!

However, the ten ancient Immortal yokai beasts were sent flying away.

“Try this on for size.”

Chu Kuangren formed his sword hand sign, and his Immortal Core energy surged.

This time, an incredibly powerful tyrannical aura erupted from his body. It was as if a tyrant ruler had descended upon the world!

He swiped his sword hand sign in the air.

An endless surge of sword qi containing a tyrannical intent gushed out at the ten yokai beasts like a storm.

That attack was...

“Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!”

The Berserking Torment attack shook the realm!

When the barrage of sword qi engulfed the ten yokai beasts, their Immortal bodies began to break as they could not resist the power of that attack.

In just a single attack, Chu Kuangren had killed the ten Immortal ancient beasts!

Even so, he stood in the air with an indifferent expression, as if that attack earlier did not use up much of his strength.

He patiently waited for the next wave of the trial to begin.

Meanwhile, similarly in the Heavenly Yokai King’s trial, on another battlefield, a devastating burst of yokai qi rose into the air as several energies collided inside a mountain range.

Every single clash contained enough power to shatter mountains.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was wielding an unparalleled Golden Crow Flame against a Manticore beast. With a single punch, he unleashed a wave of Golden Crow Flame that burned the Manticore, turning it to ash.

At the same time, a Battle Saint Ape came charging toward him, sending him flying with a punch.

Boom!

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was blasted into a nearby mountain.

He looked at the remaining nine Immortal ancient beasts, his face ashen. “The Heavenly Yokai King’s technique is truly extraordinary. To think he can mimic the auras and divine abilities of so many ancient Immortal beasts to such an extent. It’s going to be a challenge to defeat the seventh wave of yokai beasts.”

Then, he took a deep breath and rushed toward them again.

This time, he unleashed his trump card — a golden sapling.

With a wave from that sapling, an incredibly fiery surge of Fusang energy erupted, sending a Sabertooth flying.

He controlled the Fusang sapling with Immortal Sparks brimming all around him.

Several hours later, he lay on the ground, panting.

“I’ve finally passed the seventh wave. I wonder what kind of trial awaits me after this, but it looks like getting the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance is no easy task at all.”

“Even so, I bet my performance must be the best among the many sky-prides and Heavenly Champions. I’m getting the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance no matter what.”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince let out a determined look.

After that, he took out a pill and consumed it to recover his strength.

Meanwhile, somewhere else, Chu Kuangren sensed an inexplicably terrifying yokai qi coming from the distance. He could see a gigantic Battle Saint Ape approaching him.

“The eighth wave is here!”

Chapter 1237: Fighting The Ape Forefather, The Battle Secret Technique, Fighting With Full Strength

In the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, the eighth wave of the yokai attacked.

An incomparably powerful aura gushed out from the end of the desert, and a domineering aura enveloped everyone and everything.

It was a Battle Saint Ape!

The Battle Saint Ape was holding a long golden staff in his hand and dressed in chainmail. His yokai qi soared into the sky like he was an unparalleled Yokai King!

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes slightly.

“With that aura, he should be a Great Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal. However, it’s definitely not the aura of an ordinary Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal.”

“He can compete with a True Immortal with that combat strength!”

All in all, the Battle Saint Ape was mighty!

In the meantime, the Golden Crow Crown Prince was also encountering a Battle Saint Ape, the same as the one Chu Kuangren was facing.

He sensed the Battle Saint Ape’s aura and gulped. “What a scary aura!”

Could he defeat the Battle Saint Ape?

Feeling a little uneasy, the Golden Crow Crown Prince said while gritting his teeth, “No matter what, I must give it a try. If I can’t do it, no one else can either.”

After that, he swept the Fusang sapling in his hand, releasing a surge of mighty Fusang energy.

Upon seeing that, the Battle Saint Ape waved the long golden staff in his hand. Then, terrifying yokai qi wrapped around the long staff and shattered the void with one blow.

Boom!

When the Fusang energy and the long golden staff collided, an unparalleled impact burst out.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was immediately sent flying backward. His body trembled violently, and there was fear in his eyes. “This energy is comparable to a True Immortal!”

If it were not for the Fusang Tree in his hand, the blow just now would have injured or even killed him!

Boom! Boom!

The Battle Saint Ape continued waving his long staff to attack. Countless Daoist patterns and yokai qi spread in all directions with might that shook the universe.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince could barely defend himself while holding the Fusang Tree in his hand, let alone retaliate.

“What is the Battle Saint Ape’s origin? He’s terrifying! Even Yuan Feng is far inferior.”

“Could he be a Battle Saint Ape that has undergone either seven or eight bloodline awakenings?”

“Only a Battle Saint Ape at that level possess such terrifying combat strength in the Heavenly Immortal Realm.” The Golden Crow Crown Prince thought to himself.

As another attack unleashed, the Golden Crow Crown Prince was blasted out of the gray light wisp, marking the failure of his ordeal.

Meanwhile, the Battle Saint Ape, Yuan Feng, had survived the previous seven tests and met the Battle Saint Ape.

With just a glance, Yuan Feng knew he was not the Battle Saint Ape’s opponent.

“That aura... Could it be the Ape Forefather?!”

The Ape Forefather was the first Battle Saint Ape in the universe.

He was also the rumored existence that had once rioted and created chaos in the Immortal Hall.

The Battle Saint Ape before Yuan Feng was not the Ape Forefather's true form but an existence created by the Heavenly Yokai King imitating the Ape Forefather's aura, which was horrifying.

"If the Heavenly Yokai King can simulate the Ape Forefather's aura so vividly, could he have something to do with the Ape Forefather?" Yuan Feng thought to himself.

At that moment, the Ape Forefather had already raised the long golden staff in his hand and struck it at Yuan Feng!

Yuan Feng yelled, "It's my honor to be able to fight against the Ape Forefather. Battle Secret Technique, activate!"

His aura erupted from his body, and a terrifyingly mighty aura gushed out.

Then, he attacked with his staff, and the two giant golden staffs collided.

Hum...

As if it was a substance, sound waves spread everywhere, trembling the void and leveling the surrounding mountains!

The next moment, Yuan Feng felt an unparalleled force hit him from the long golden staff in his hand, and his body almost exploded into pieces!

Yuan Feng was defeated with one move!

A beam of brilliance enveloped him and sent him out of the gray light wisp.

In the desert, Chu Kuangren stood in the air with Immortal Spark flowing around him while his Immortal's Core gushed out like a flood, causing the void to rumble.

Opposite him, the Battle Saint Ape also had a monstrous battle intent that could rival him!

"Let me see how powerful the rumored Ape Forefather is."

Chu Kuangren grinned as he had already analyzed the Ape Forefather's origin with his Eye of Revelation.

His opponent was indeed an existence that the Heavenly Yokai King created to imitate the Ape Forefather.

"Roar!"

With a roar, the Ape Forefather attacked Chu Kuangren with the long staff in his hand.

Chu Kuangren did not hold back either. As he pointed out a sword hand sign, a green light flashed in his eyes, activating the Green Leaf Sword Vision's Grass Sword Art.

The sword qi, as firm as a mountain, that had the power to destroy planets shot out!

When the sword qi and long staff collided, the entire desert exploded, forming huge cracks in the ground with countless quicksand pits.

After the blow, Chu Kuangren and the Ape Forefather retreated.

“Interesting. Come again.”

There was now a trace of battle intent in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

Throughout many years, only a few people in the same realm had been able to repel him.

However, Battle Saint Ape’s performance evoked his long-absent battle intent.

“Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!”

Chu Kuangren pointed out a sword hand sign and cast the Blade of Zhou’s first form!

Like an endless gust of wind, a terrifying sword ray shot out and shadowed the realm!

Meanwhile, the Battle Saint Ape roared and waved the long staff in his hand. Instead of attacking with Immortal Techniques or Daoist Techniques, he released an unparalleled battle intent and yokai qi!

The giant golden staff swung wildly in the void, smashing the surrounding sword qi one after another. Following that, the giant ape leaped into the air and smashed the long staff down onto Chu Kuangren with a force that could split mountains.

“Ha! Bring it on!”

Chu Kuangren laughed while activating his Chaos Celestial Demon Physique and Heavenly Samsara Physique. Then, the life-death reincarnation intent swept out and turned into a huge Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!

The Life and Death Symbol filled the sky and collided with the giant golden staff in the Ape Forefather’s hand.

On the Life and Death Symbol, life-death reincarnation intents dissipated, while the Ape Forefather’s yokai qi was wiped out.

The blow still ended in a tie.

“Roar!”

The Ape Forefather roared again. This time, as his eyes widened furiously, his yokai qi soared even more, and his battle intent violently impacted the surrounding void.

“Oh? This is the Battle Saint Ape Tribe’s Battle Secret Technique!”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up.

The Battle Secret Technique was the Battle Saint Ape Tribe’s cultivation technique, which allowed one to increase their combat strength in a short period.

There were many similar secret techniques, but the Battle Secret Technique was undoubtedly one of the best among the secret techniques.

Moreover, it was a secret technique free of side effects, which made it a terrifying technique.

“Ha! Do you think you’re the only one who can increase your strength?”

As Chu Kuangren took one step forward, Immortal Spark began flowing around his body, and bright light soared into the sky, displaying the Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations!

On top of that, the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique was activated!

Altogether, he had activated the three great peerless Daoist Physiques and the Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations!

With the help of six energies, reincarnation intent flowed within Chu Kuangren’s movements, and life-death energy was in his hands. He was like a Supreme Immortal King who transcended everything!

“So what if you’re the Ape Forefather?”

“I’ll defeat you!”

Chu Kuangren’s voice resounded across the land. By controlling life on his left palm and death on his right, he mobilized the life-death reincarnation energy to its fullest potential.

In the sky, a huge Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol reappeared with power several times greater than before.

Chu Kuangren wanted to fight with his full strength!

Chapter 1238: Defeating The Ape Forefather, The Golden Crow Crown Prince’s Plan

In the desert, Chu Kuangren’s three Daoist Physiques and Three Great Conjurations were fully activated.

His movements were like a Supreme Immortal King who had descended on the earth, wanting to flatten and suppress everything!

As he controlled life on his left palm and death on his right, the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol filled the sky, suppressing everything and everyone below it!

The Ape Forefather roared while waving the long golden staff in his hand. In an instant, majestic yokai qi and battle intent that could seemingly shatter the universe surged out.

It was only moments before the Life and Death Symbol collided with the long golden staff.

A terrifying domineering aura swept across the land and crushed everything in all directions!

The long golden staff was cracking inch by inch!

As the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol fell on the Ape Forefather, his unyielding Immortal body trembled before his knees bent, struggling to resist. Then, he cried out to channel his battle intent. However, under the horrifying life-death reincarnation intent, his knees eventually hit the ground. He was utterly suppressed!

“He’s not the real Ape Forefather after all,” said Chu Kuangren.

Then, he raised his palm gently and pressed lightly in the direction of the Ape Forefather.

The Life and Death Symbol's power erupted at its fullest potential, and the terrifying energy shattered the Ape Forefather's figure.

With that, the eighth wave was over.

Chu Kuangren looked toward the end of the desert and stood with hands behind his back.

"What kind of trials can you come up with next, Heavenly Yokai King?"

...

A crowd of yokai was gathering outside the gray light wisp. They were all sent out after entering the light wisp because they could not pass the trials.

"It was frightening. The Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance was frightening."

"Indeed. Can anyone pass? I was eliminated in the third wave. I wonder how many more waves of Beast Tide there were after that."

"I was in the fifth wave, and there were already Heavenly Immortals. On top of the seemingly endless Beast Tide, passing would be very difficult."

All the yokai were currently engaged in a discussion.

At that moment, several bright figures dashed out from the ball of light.

The figures were the Golden Crow Crown Prince, Yuan Feng, and others who had been eliminated.

"D*mn it! D*mn it!"

The Golden Crow Crown Prince was displeased.

He was sent out from the ball of light, which meant he failed.

"It's clear that the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance doesn't want us to pass it. How can anyone defeat the Battle Saint Ape?" the Golden Crow Crown Prince said grimly.

Although he possessed the Golden Crow King's inheritance and had the Fusang sapling, he still lost.

Moreover, he lost because he did not have the strength to fight back!

That alone could show how terrifying the Battle Saint Ape was.

He refused to believe that anyone in the younger generation could defeat the Battle Saint Ape and obtain the inheritance.

"Alas. The Battle Saint Ape was an Ape Forefather, so it's only normal for us to lose to him," Yuan Feng lamented with a hint of yearning in his eyes.

The Ape Forefather was the person he admired the most.

Although the Ape Forefather defeated him with one move, he was happy that he could fight against the Ape Forefather.

“Did the Ape Forefather you mentioned appear in the eighth wave?” At that moment, the White Tiger Heavenly Champion asked curiously.

“Yes.”

Yuan Feng nodded.

The White Tiger Heavenly Champion fell silent upon hearing that.

He failed in the seventh wave when facing the ten ancient immortal wild beasts, so the fact that Yuan Feng and the Golden Crow Crown Prince were able to break into the eighth wave showed that they were more powerful than him.

“No matter what, no one can get the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance. Staying here is useless...”

When the Golden Crow Crown Prince looked at the gray ball of light and was about to leave, he looked at it in utter shock and disbelief.

“H-How is this possible?!”

Immortal Spark was flowing around the gray ball of light. It was incomparably dazzling, but it did not carry any yokai qi.

The Golden Crow Crown Prince and others immediately knew who the Immortal Sparks represented.

“Chu Kuangren!”

“He’s still undergoing the Heavenly Yokai King’s trials!”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince found it a little unbelievable, and the rest of the yokai also looked at each other in dismay.

Many of them entered the trials together, but even the top-notched Yokai Tribe’s sky-prides, including the Golden Crow Crown Prince and Yuan Feng, failed.

Yet, the one who managed to stay in the end was a human!

Inexplicably, they felt humiliated!

“How is Chu Kuangren still in the trial?!”

“Could it be that the Golden Crow Crown Prince, Yuan Feng, Avarice, and others combined are not as powerful as Chu Kuangren?!”

“Not only them but all yokai present.”

An uproar ensued among the yokai.

Meanwhile, the expressions of the Golden Crow Crown Prince, Avarice, and other top-notched sky-prides were terribly unpleasant.

“The Battle Saint Ape in the eighth wave was too terrifying. None of the younger generations can defeat him, not even Chu Kuangren!”

“He should be in a deadlock. I’m sure he’ll be out in a short while.” The Golden Crow Crown Prince thought to himself.

However, the Immortal Spark that represented Chu Kuangren was still dazzling and did not seem to dim even after some time.

That, at least, meant that Chu Kuangren was not injured and was still in his peak condition.

How could he maintain his peak condition while facing such a terrifying Battle Saint Ape?

What a joke!

As time went by, the Golden Crow Crown Prince became even more displeased.

Not to mention the rest, even if Chu Kuangren could not pass the trial, being able to persist in the ball of light for so long was enough to prove that Chu Kuangren was more powerful than him.

“I’ve worked so hard to obtain the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance and tried every means to improve myself, but at last, I’m still nothing compared to Chu Kuangren?!”

“This is impossible!”

The Golden Crow Crown Prince’s face turned blue.

“Guys, do you think Chu Kuangren can obtain the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance?!”

Suddenly, a yokai asked.

Everyone was shocked upon hearing his words.

“I-It’s impossible.”

“Indeed. The Heavenly Yokai King is a yokai. There’s no way he’ll leave his inheritance to a human.”

However, the Golden Crow Crown Prince, Yuan Feng, and others had a vague premonition in their hearts.

It might be impossible for others, but Chu Kuangren could not be measured by common sense. Perhaps he stood a chance in obtaining the inheritance.

“If Chu Kuangren obtains the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, all of us should be ashamed,” said the Golden Crow Crown Prince.

If word about how so many Yokai Tribes’ sky-prides allowed a human to obtain the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance in yokai territory spread, they would definitely become a joke among people in the Immortal World!

“If Chu Kuangren obtains the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance, we must grab it from him no matter what!” The Golden Crow Crown Prince thought to himself.

A golden pearl, which contained incomparably intense flame energy, emerged in his hand.

“Perhaps it’s time for me to be prepared.”

He dared not underestimate how powerful Chu Kuangren was.

Getting the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance from Chu Kuangren would be difficult, and that was why he must have a foolproof strategy.

The golden pearl in his hand would be his last trump card.

Not far away, Tushan Fei Yu noticed the Golden Crow Crown Prince’s movement, and she frowned while looking at all the yokai staring intently at the ball of light.

In all yokai’s eyes, Chu Kuangren was a human, and they would definitely not be if he got the Heavenly Yokai King’s inheritance. By then, the issue would not be resolved so easily.

“I hope Brother Chu can handle it.”

Chapter 1239: Dueling The Heavenly Yokai King, Four Mystical Beasts Mimicry, Ten Wild Beasts Mimicry

In the gray ball of light, Chu Kuangren stood alone in the desert, with hands behind his back. His expression was indifferent as he looked at the end of the desert.

There was a thoughtful look in his eyes.

“Since the trial began, I’ve seen numerous wild beasts like Manticore, Nine-Headed Snakelet, Sabertooth, and even the Battle Saint Ape.”

“But, what is the Heavenly Yokai King’s true form?” Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

The Heavenly Yokai King’s true form could be regarded as the greatest mystery of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

Everyone knew that the Heavenly Yokai King’s bloodline was ordinary and nothing noble.

However, the fact that he could rise step by step with his ordinary yokai body and become the ruler of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains was incredible.

There must be a secret to that, and the secret was likely hidden in the inheritance.

While Chu Kuangren was waiting for the ninth wave, he did a gatcha roll.

“Congratulations, Host! You’ve won a God-tier item, Daybreak Shot!”

Chu Kuangren was stunned.

The Daybreak Shot was a powerful archery technique and a top-notch Arch Gilded Immortal Technique.

According to ancient rumors, there was a hero in the human race named Dayi. He used an archery technique to shoot down the great sun transformed by a nine-headed golden crow.

“Not bad.”

Chu Kuangren withdrew the technique and smiled with satisfaction.

At that moment, ripples appeared in the void, and the space was torn open by a claw. An incomparably tyrannical yokai qi erupted and enveloped a particular space.

This time, the yokai qi was even more terrifying than the Battle Saint Ape.

The ninth wave was here.

After tearing the void apart, the claw’s owner walked out. He had a chubby face, a fluffy body, and little golden lights twinkling on his orange hair.

Chu Kuangren fell silent upon seeing the beast before him.

A cat?

Indeed. The beast that appeared in front of Chu Kuangren was a cat.

To be precise, he was a cat yokai.

“Is this the Heavenly Yokai King?” mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Although the cat’s appearance was not intimidating, he did not possess a normal yokai qi. In fact, his aura was even more terrifying than the Battle Saint Ape just now.

“That aura... A human?!” the cat said with a frown.

His voice was mellow like an elder’s.

Then, he lamented, “I didn’t expect it would be a human who passed the first eight rounds of trials. Could it be fated?”

“Fated?”

Chu Kuangren was a little puzzled.

‘Why did he say it’s fated?’

“Well, forget it. Human, I have no idea how you managed to enter the Heavenly Yokai Forest Realm. However, if you want to get my inheritance, you must first defeat me,” said the cat.

His words confirmed that he was indeed the Heavenly Yokai King.

Chu Kuangren’s expression remained calm. “Please!”

The Heavenly Yokai King was the former ruler of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains and an Embodier!

Although the Heavenly Yokai King in front of Chu Kuangren was merely a silver of the strength he left behind, he should not be underestimated.

With that, Chu Kuangren dared not be careless.

As he pointed out a sword hand sign, green lights in the shape of a leaf circulated in his eyes.

The Green Leaf Sword Vision was activated!

Then, a sword grass emerged behind him, unleashing surges of sword qi.

“Oh, it’s the Supreme Immortal Physique, Green Leaf Sword Vision. Unfortunately, it’s not the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision,” said the Heavenly Yokai King.

With a lift of his claw, a white tiger apparition and a surge of horrifying murderous qi emerged.

Boom!

The white tiger and sword qi collided!

However, the two energies soon dissipated.

“Oh, what about this?”

Chu Kuangren activated the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique and cast a black and white Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!

“I can’t believe you even possess the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique!”

The Heavenly Yokai King was extremely surprised.

Following that, he lifted his claw again. A golden crow let out a long, sharp howl before attacking the Life and Death Symbol.

“The white tiger, and now the golden crow? The technique you used to transform into various yokai is unique.”

A strange look appeared in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

While speaking, Chu Kuangren activated his Heavenly Samsara Physique, and a gray Reincarnation Tribulation Light containing the samsara energy shot forward.

“What? The Heavenly Samsara Physique?!”

Now, the Heavenly Yokai King was taken aback.

Where did that monster come from?

To think he possessed the Green Leaf Sword Vision, Heavenly Samsara Physique, and Chaos Celestial Demon Physique?

In the face of the tribulation light, the Heavenly Yokai King roared, emitting sound waves of a Kui Bull’s terrifying roar.

Just like that, his frightening yokai qi shattered the tribulation light!

Chu Kuangren was not surprised. He mobilized both Chaos Celestial Demon Physique and Heavenly Samsara Physique at the same time. As the power of the two physiques merged, vast life-death reincarnation energy transformed into a Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol.

“Human, you’ve impressed me by combining the Heavenly Samsara Physique and Chaos Celestial Demon Physique so perfectly.”

The Heavenly Yokai King looked impressed by Chu Kuangren’s move.

His yokai qi soared into the sky. In an instant, an azure dragon, a scarlet phoenix, a white tiger, and a black warrior roared in the void!

The four divine beasts’ emergence shook the land in all directions!

“Four Mystical Beasts Mimicry!”

The Heavenly Yokai King struck out with his claw.

His furry claw contained unimaginable and overwhelming power, and the Four Mystical Force shattered a huge area of the void.

The blow hit the Life and Death Symbol, and with a loud bang, the entire desert began to shatter.

Countless Daoist patterns interweaved and collided in the air. The scene was splendid and dazzling.

“Ha! Your reputation really precedes you, Heavenly Yokai King. If that move can’t hurt you, what about this?!”

The Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations emerged behind Chu Kuangren.

With the blessing of the conjurations, the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique was also activated!

As Chu Kuangren unleashed a fist attack, the Life and Death Symbol reactivated. The boundless life-death reincarnation intent continued to thrash and crush every inch of the void.

The Heavenly Yokai King’s expression turned solemn not at Chu Kuangren’s strength but his talents and potential.

The physiques and conjurations he cast were rare in the universe, and any one of them could make a top-notched sky-pride.

Yet, Chu Kuangren possessed them all. Then, what heights would he reach in the future?

“You have hope of becoming an Embodier!”

“You even have a chance to affirm Primordial Dao,” the Heavenly Yokai King said after taking a deep breath.

Primordial was the highest realm known to the Immortal World, and it was frightening.

Even the ancient and complete Immortal World only had a few Primordials.

One was already considered a prodigy among sky-prides if he or she had a chance to become an Embodier, such as the Immortal Hall’s Imperial Commander, the Embodier successor.

However, the Heavenly Yokai King said that Chu Kuangren had a chance to affirm his Dao in the Primordial Realm, hence proving that Chu Kuangren had impressed him.

“Ten Wild Beasts Mimicry!”

In the face of Chu Kuangren’s Life and Death Symbol, the Heavenly Yokai King’s yokai qi soared again.

Then, figures of various ancient wild beasts emerged in the void.

It included the Nine-Headed Snakelet, Manticore, Sabertooth, Beastfield, Avarice, Lamia, Gu Eagle, Ravaging Hound, Hou Beast, and Scarlet Panther.

As the ten wild beasts appeared together, an extremely terrifying ferocious qi soared into the sky, shocking the universe, the nine heavens, and all the lands!

It was a showdown between the Ten Wild Beasts Mimicry and Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol!

Under the impact of the two forces, countless Daoist patterns interweaved, energies collided, and the earth-shattering roaring of the beasts resounded through heaven and earth.

Bang, bang, bang!

The powerful impact caused the surrounding void and Daoist patterns to explode, one after another!

As a result, Chu Kuangren and the Heavenly Yokai King were forced back.

“Heavenly Yokai King, you’re not bad.”

Chu Kuangren nodded.

He could tell that the Heavenly Yokai King before him was in the same cultivation realm as him, a Great Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal.

After all, the move he could previously defeat the Ape Forefather with did not work on the Heavenly Yokai King.

That alone showed how powerful the Heavenly Yokai King was, and it was as expected of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains’ ruler and an Embodier!

“Human, what’s your name?” the Heavenly Yokai King asked while looking at Chu Kuangren.

“I’m Chu Kuangren, the man who’s going to defeat you!”

Chu Kuangren waved his sleeves, and his Immortal’s Core emanated in all directions.

However, there was a more powerful energy brewing in him.

Chapter 1240: Blade of Zhou Fights Against Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry, Defeating The Heavenly Yokai King

Having cast his three great Daoist Physiques and three great conjurations in succession, Chu Kuangren was already fighting with his full strength.

However, the Heavenly Yokai King was still holding his own.

With that, an even more powerful energy began to brew in Chu Kuangren’s body.

Upon sensing Chu Kuangren's energy and feeling a dangerous aura, the Heavenly Yokai King's gaze turned solemn.

"If you can defeat me, my inheritance is yours, even if you're a human."

"However, you must first have the strength to do so."

The Heavenly Yokai King was curious as to how far Chu Kuangren could go.

"I'll prove it to you," said Chu Kuangren.

"You're good at sword techniques, right? Why don't you attack with a sword?" asked the Heavenly Yokai King.

"I can defeat you even without a sword."

Chu Kuangren pointed out a sword hand sign. With a stern look, he slashed his sword hand sign down at the void.

"Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!"

Tyrannical sword qi spread like an endless gust of wind, enveloping the Heavenly Yokai King.

In the face of such terrifying might, the Heavenly Yokai King was shocked. "It's an Embodier Technique!"

A sky-pride who could master an Arch Gilded Immortal Technique was already a top-notch sky-pride, while a sky-pride who could master an Embodier Technique was a prodigy among sky-prides.

However, upon recalling the various techniques that Chu Kuangren cast just now, he was no longer surprised that Chu Kuangren had mastered an Embodier Technique.

"Ten Wild Beasts Mimicry!"

As the Heavenly Yokai King grunted coldly, the Ten Wild Beasts Mimicry reappeared and bit madly at the sword qi.

When the two energies collided, the shockwave from the impact spread.

After releasing the sword attack just now, Chu Kuangren immediately formed a sword hand sign again. This time, he released a much more powerful energy.

It was an extremely domineering energy.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren seemed to have transformed into a tyrant who had opened up the frontier and wanted all beings in the universe to submit at his feet.

"Blade of Zhou, Tyrannical Ascension!"

The domineering sword shook the universe!

"This is King Zhou's inheritance. Ha! I didn't expect you to have the Human Emperor's inheritance. You're not an easy one."

The Heavenly Yokai King recognized the source of Chu Kuangren's move.

Although King Zhou's cultivation was as good as his, with his status as a Human Emperor, he was no weaker than any other Embodier in the ancient immortal times.

"In the face of the Human Emperor's ultimate technique, I shall return you with this move as a show of respect."

The Heavenly Yokai King's yokai qi flowed around his body, and several beast apparitions emerged. Among them were mimicry of some ancient powerful beasts.

"Hundred Beasts Mimicry!"

Over hundreds of powerful beast apparitions gathered in the void, which was now filled with monstrous ferocious qi.

Chu Kuangren's gaze turned solemn, and he unleashed the Tyrannical Ascension Sword.

It was the Hundred Beasts Mimicry against the Tyrannical Ascension Sword!

The moment the two energies crashed head-on, countless explosions erupted in the void from the yokai qi and sword qi colliding and countless Daoist patterns interweaving with one another!

After that, the sword qi and beasts mimicry dissipated.

"Ha! You're not my opponent after all!"

The Heavenly Yokai King roared and channeled his yokai qi to its limit, causing his originally petite body to begin expanding exponentially.

Endless yokai qi gushed out from his body and then merged with the countless Daoist patterns to form numerous beasts' mimics!

Every mimicry had a form and a spirit!

The Heavenly Yokai King had gathered more than tens of thousands of mimics that covered all kinds of beasts, ranging from the divine beast's true dragon, wild beast's golden crow, ordinary yokai wolf, yokai fox...

Numerous wild beasts, divine beasts, and yokai beasts hovered in the air while the boundless yokai qi soared in all directions.

For a moment, the world looked like a painting depicting countless lifelike yokai beasts, and the Heavenly Yokai King was the best painter in the universe for giving every yokai beast a form and a spirit.

"Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique, Final Form, Myriad Yokai Diagram!" As the Heavenly Yokai King grunted, terrifying yokai qi filled the land.

Behind him, the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry roared, and with a torrent of yokai qi, they lounged toward Chu Kuangren.

In the blink of an eye, Chu Kuangren was engulfed by the countless yokai.

"Being able to hold your own this far isn't easy, but unfortunately, you can't resist this move after all," said the Heavenly Yokai King.

Then, he slowly retracted his yokai qi, feeling that the victory was in his hands.

Even a True Immortal could not resist his Myriad Yokai Diagram, which was cast under the Great Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal Realm.

In his opinion, Chu Kuangren may be a prodigy, but there was no way the latter could resist his move.

No matter how powerful a prodigy was, there should be a limit to his strength.

“If a yokai came here to gain experience and could resist my Four Mystical and Ten Wild Beast Mimicries, I would give him my inheritance. However, you’re a human, and I cannot give the inheritance to you so easily,” the Heavenly Yokai King said to himself.

“Myriad Yokai energy? So what? I said I would defeat you!”

At that moment, an indifferent voice resounded through heaven and earth.

Within the Myriad Yokai Diagram, a tyrannical Immortal’s Core fluctuation surged like a raging wave and swept across all directions, tearing all the yokai beast mimicries apart!

Then, Chu Kuangren rose into the sky, bathed in Immortal Sparks. Countless Daoist patterns intertwined and circulated around his body, and an aura that seemed to transcend this universe emanated.

It was the transcendental energy from Chu Kuangren’s Mini Universe!

On top of that, the Daoist patterns surrounding Chu Kuangren’s body transformed into a peerless sword ray that contained an indescribably mighty, domineering, and tyrannical energy. It was as if it could destroy everything!

It was known as the Infinite Void Tyrant’s Emperor Dao!

As Chu Kuangren took a step forward, his Immortal’s Core shook the void in all directions, and his Immortal Spark lit up the entire realm. “The last sword attack to defeat you!”

He pointed his sword hand sign at the sky. With a green light circulating in his eyes, he channeled his Green Leaf Sword Vision to its fullest potential.

In no time, a million meter-tall sword shadow emerged.

It was...

“Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!”

With the support from the Mini Universe and Green Leaf Sword Vision, the Infinite Void Blade’s power multiplied when it was unleashed. Under the sword qi, all yokai beasts caught in the attack were smashed to bits, and the countless Daoist patterns within the Myriad Yokai Diagram were obliterated.

In the face of the Infinite Void, only the Infinite Void Tyrant’s Emperor Dao existed, and no other Dao apart from Emperor Dao would survive!

That was the essence of the Infinite Void Blade, which was the real horror of the sword attack.

“This aura... It’s transcendental energy.”

“He has mastered transcendental energy.”

Compared to the Infinite Void Blade, the Heavenly Yokai King was even more astonished by Chu Kuangren’s Mini Universe because it was an energy that did not exist in the universe.

In fact, it was an energy that transcended beyond the universe!

The Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry disintegrated in the Infinite Void Blade ray’s wake.

The void shattered, mountains and rivers collapsed, while heaven and earth lost their color.

After the sword attack, silence befell the entire desert.

The sword ray dissipated, leaving only a large fragmented space.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air proudly and said indifferently, “Heavenly Yokai King, you’ve lost.”

The Heavenly Yokai King did not argue because he was indeed defeated.

The Myriad Yokai Diagram was his most powerful technique, yet Chu Kuangren managed to break it.

Even though they were in the same cultivation realm, he was not Chu Kuangren’s opponent.

“The inheritance is yours.”

“Oh, it’s easier than I imagined. I thought you wouldn’t pass it on to me because I’m a human.”

“Since you’ve defeated me, there’s no harm in giving my inheritance to you. Besides, I got the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry from a human cultivator anyway,” said the Heavenly Yokai King.

That astonishing truth piqued Chu Kuangren’s interest. “What do you mean?”
