Chapter 1271: Breaking The Five Ways Energy With One Sword Attack, Slaying Evil Immortals, Something Good In The Terraspirit Planet

In the Five-Fury Formation, Lan Yu, who was nearly depleted of her Immortal's Core while facing the power of the Five Ways, found it difficult to resist such energy.

At that moment, a cold grunt sounded from the void.

"You're courting death!"

In an instant, thousands of kilometers of clouds exploded.

A tyrannical sword qi burst out of the air and dashed into the Five-Fury Formation, breaking through it!

Slowly, the tyrannical sword qi wore down the Five Ways energy.

After seeing the sword qi, Fei Long and others looked at the clouds in the distance in fear.

A figure in a white robe and black hair glided across the air. The aura he released had destroyed countless mountains, rivers, and earth.

The colors in the clouds changed, while the sun and moon lost their brilliance.

The person's arrival shocked everything and everyone in that particular space.

"It's him, Chu Kuangren!" Someone recognized Chu Kuangren and could not help but exclaim.

A smile appeared on Lan Yu's face as she felt a sense of security.

She knew that she would be safe with Chu Kuangren's arrival and that she would be able to overcome any difficulties.

"Chu Kuangren..."

Fei Long looked at him with a solemn expression.

The aura Chu Kuangren exuded was so powerful that he felt a lot more intimidated.

"Evil Immortal Valley, are you declaring war on me?!"

Chu Kuangren's icy voice echoed in the realm.

Then, he took a step forward and came to the sky above the Five-Fury Formation.

The formation, which was broken through by the Blade of Zhou, shook because of his powerful aura. At the same time, countless Daoist patterns broke and were on the brink of collapsing.

Upon seeing that, Fei Long immediately stabilized the formation with other Evil Immortal Valley cultivators.

"Chu Kuangren, I didn't expect you to be here."

"Answer my question. Evil Immortal Valley, are you declaring war on me?!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes glowed like lightning as he stared ahead of him. His eyes were filled with coldness.

"Chu Kuangren, this is the Interstellar Arena. All sky-prides are competing for the Opportunities of Fortunes, and I don't think there's anything wrong with what I did," said Fei Long.

He said it well. The killing was going on every second in the Interstellar Arena.

Even friends, who usually seemed close, could turn against each other and kill each other in the next second just for an Opportunity of Fortune or treasure!

"Indeed. You have done the right thing, but unfortunately, you've found the wrong person!"

"Whoever dares to hurt my people will have to die!"

Without saying another word, Chu Kuangren pointed out his sword hand sign, forming a surge of tyrannical sword qi at his fingertips.

The sword qi was extremely frightening!

At that moment, seemingly affected by tyrannical intent, the particular space fell into chaos.

"That energy... He's a True Immortal!"

"Chu Kuangren has broken through to the True Immortal Realm!"

A sky-pride gasped.

Even Fei Long's pupils shrank in horror.

"He is indeed True Immortal!"

"Quick! Mobilize the Five-Fury Formation!"

Fei Long knew that he could not stop Chu Kuangren's sword attack by himself.

Therefore, he joined forces with other Evil Immortal Valley cultivators and immediately channeled the formation energy to its fullest potential. Five rays of different colors rose into the sky and interweaved in the void.

Countless Daoist patterns interweaved and circulated, turning into a colorful torrent.

"Five-Fury Formation, Destructive Five Ways!" Fei Long yelled, unleashing all of his Immortal's Core into the formation.

The Five Ways torrent roared.

The sharpness of gold, the vitality of wood, the surging of water, the aggression of flame, the thickness of earth...

The five energies merged and turned into a surge of extreme destructive energy that destroy everything in the universe!

"Kill them!"

Chu Kuangren's expression was indifferent, and his sword hand sign casually slashed forth in the void.

The Berserking Torment Sword swept out like an endless gust of wind and crashed into the colorful torrent. In an instant, the Five Ways energy wreaked havoc everywhere!

Bang, bang!

Successive explosions erupted in the void. The collision of the two energies shook the surrounding mountains and created a crack in the ground!

The next moment, the sword qi shattered the Five Ways torrent!

The Five-Fury Formation proceeded to collapse as the sword qi enveloped it!

Under the sword qi and endless tyrannical intent, the Evil Immortal Valley cultivators panicked.

They were like ordinary commoners facing a furious monarch!

Countless clouds of blood mist erupted in the air!

One after another, the Evil Immortal Valley fell in the hands of the sword qi.

Only Fei Long was alive, struggling to support himself with some life-saving treasures. However, he was still frightened by the tyrannical sword qi.

After the sword qi dissipated, the tyrannical intent still lingered about.

The Five-Fury Formation had been destroyed, and the Evil Immortal Valley cultivators were dead, except Fei Long.

However, his aura was at its weakest, and his life essence was like a candle in the wind that could be extinguished at any time.

Chu Kuangren broke the Five Ways energy and killed the Evil Immortal cultivators with one sword attack!

The might of the sword attack marveled the surrounding cultivators.

"I haven't seen him for two years, yet he's still as graceful as ever. That's scary."

"I thought his strength would be weaker than those Prodigies since he was in closed-door meditation for two years and had missed out on many Opportunities of Fortunes. However, I didn't expect that what took other Prodigies all that effort to break through to a True Immortal only took him two years of closed-door meditation. However, his result is even more terrifying!"

"He's truly a prodigy!"

Fei Long stared at Chu Kuangren with fear in his eyes. He knew that he would die today.

"Chu Kuangren, don't be smug. My Evil Immortal Valley's Wang Tianba will avenge me," Fei Long said in a deep voice.

Wang Tianba was the Evil Immortal Young Valley Lord and was known as a bully among the Immortals!

He was one of the Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena, and apparently, he had broken through to the True Immortal Realm.

"If he has the guts to come at me, I'll grant him... death," said Chu Kuangren.

Then, sword qi gushed out from his fingertips.

Just like that, the top-notched sky-pride, Fei Long, was dead!

Following that, Chu Kuangren's figure flashed and came to Lan Yu. The Life and Death intent was flowing around his body.

With the Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol emerging, the power of life and death surged!

After a while, Lan Yu's injury was healed.

"Master, you're here."

"Yeah." Chu Kuangren nodded and said with a smile, "I can sense the aura of a powerful Winged Human elite here. Is there a great one's inheritance here?"

"Yes."

Lan Yu nodded and told him everything about what she got.

"Oh, a Prominent-grade form of Radiant War Immortal Physique? Interesting. I'll find a way to help you improve. What about Lil Red and others?"

"They each have their Opportunities of Fortunes. Now, they should be gaining experiences somewhere in the Interstellar Arena."

"I see."

Chu Kuangren nodded slightly.

After that, he and Lan Yu traveled around the Terraspirit Planet to check if there were any other Opportunities of Fortunes on that ancient planet, which was one of the Seventy-two Hellish Planets.

However, they did not find much over the next ten days.

Most of the Opportunities of Fortunes they found did not catch Chu Kuangren's attention. After all, none were as good as the Thunder God Pearl he obtained when he first arrived at the Interstellar Arena.

As for the Thunder God Pearl, he took that period of time to refine the lightning energy, which strengthened his raw physical strength by a mile, and his Gilded Physical Body Trait had become much denser.

Half a month later, Chu Kuangren had refined most of the energy in the Thunder God Pearl, and he was about to leave with Lan Yu.

However, at that moment, a peculiar fluctuation suddenly erupted on the Terraspirit Planet. A beam of rainbow-colored light was seen rising from the ground and into the sky, shooting straight into the starry sky!

Chu Kuangren, who was about to leave but had felt the fluctuation, was surprised.

“Interesting. It seems like Terraspirit Planet does have something good after all, and it has finally appeared.”

Chapter 1272: Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source, Sovereign Yu’s Successor, Giant Stellar Beast

Blinding light shot up into the sky back at Terraspirit Planet.

A powerful energy fluctuation swept across the galaxy, and the cultivators from a dozen other planets sensed it.

“This energy... Is something precious emerging from slumber?”

“I must be so.”

“Based on the level of energy, this particular treasure must be something huge. Hurry, let’s go have a look.”

Countless sky-prides and Heavenly Champions of the nearby planets flew towards Terraspirit Planet, seeking the potential opportunity.

Two streaks of light arched across the sky of Terraspirit Planet.

One was in golden robes, emanating a noble presence, while the other was in black garbs, wearing a wickedly pale look.

“It’s them! Zhuo Donglai, the Heavenly Champion of Eastern King School, and You Ying from the Yin Underworld Tribe,” cried one of the sky-prides outside Terraspirit Planet.

There were countless sky-prides and Heavenly Champions in the Interstellar Arena, but only a few stood out from the rest.

Those who stood out were usually the Prodigy Heavenly Champions from the powerful ancient immortal orthodoxies, and the Eastern King School’s Zhuo Donglai was one of them.

Having possessed the Supreme Immortal Physique, Primordial Sun Immortal Physique, Zhuo Donglai’s Primordial Sun Immortal’s Core energy allowed him to stand out from a bunch of Heavenly Champions. Only a few Prodigies who ranked at the top of the list could rival him.

Fortunately, it was extremely rare to see a Prodigy Heavenly Champion in the Interstellar Arena.

Countless Daoist patterns swirled underground, colorful light shot up into the sky. From there, a ball of sparkling stellar light emerged, emanating a spectacular Immortal Dao fluctuation.

“So this is the Stellar Source nurtured by Terraspirit Planet?”

Zhuo Donglai’s eyes gleamed when he saw the ball of light.

Stellar Sources were treasures that could only be nurtured by ancient planets. These so-called treasures were extremely beneficial to a cultivator as they could help one to boost his cultivation base and gain insights into Dao.

“This level of Stellar Source fluctuation... This is a top-tier level! Even a True Immortal can find it useful! As expected of one of the Seventy-two Hellish Planets, Terraspirit Planet. The Stellar Source it nurtured is something else,” You Ying said as his eyes gleamed passionately.

Buzz!

Energy fluctuation spread across the void.

A man in golden armor and dominating energy strutted closer to Terraspirit from a distant galaxy. Each step he took released an energy wave that destroyed one nameless planet after another.

“No one shall lay a finger on the Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source except me!” the man bellowed gruffly.

His voice echoed across the sky.

Some of the keen-eyed cultivators recognized the man in golden armor.

“He’s Sovereign Yu’s successor from the Human Emperor Sect!”

The Human Emperor Sect was one of the strongest forces in the Immortal World.

It was said that the sect specifically collected inheritance left by past Human Emperors, and for that, the sect produced a number of sky-prides and Heavenly Champions who named themselves the Human Emperor’s successors.

The Sovereign Yu’s successor was one of them.

“Rumor has it that the Sovereign Yu’s successor is arrogant and powerful. Now, I see he lives up to the rumors.”

“His energy states as much. He might be a Great-Perfected Ninth-grade Heavenly Immortal, but he’s on par with a True Immortal.”

“I heard he’s not even the strongest Heavenly Champions of the Human Emperor Sect. The strongest one is Xuanyuan’s successor, and he’s also one of the Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena. He is as powerful as the Immortal Hall’s Imperial Commander and the Embodier successor. I heard he has even killed a True Immortal before.”

The arrival of Sovereign Yu’s successor surprised and deterred many of the cultivators.

Even Zhuo Donglai and You Ying had to take his presence seriously.

However, the Sovereign Yu’s successor might be powerful, but the two of them never planned to give up on the Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source without a fight.

“As long as we are together, a Prodigy-level sky-pride is not an issue. Duality Rites Immortal Physique is not a child’s play,” You Ying sneered scornfully.

Zhuo Donglai nodded in adherence.

“Haha, the Sovereign Yu’s successor is indeed powerful, but if you want the Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source, you would have to defeat me first.”

Another voice sounded in the sky.

At the end of the starry sky, countless Daoist patterns swirled and approached them like a tidal wave.

The tidal wave carried soundless spiritual qi of the galaxy. It trembled the void and shattered stars along its wake.

“It’s Lil Gonggong, the strongest Heavenly Champion of the Water Division from Immortal Hall!”

“Lil Gonggong? He’s another top-tier sky-pride second only to the monstrous level, and based on his energy presence, he’s on par with the Sovereign Yu’s successor.”

“This fight for Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source is going to be fierce.”

Following Lil Gonggong’s arrival, more and more sky-prides and Heavenly Champions arrived.

Each of them looked at the Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source with the utmost eagerness.

Even though they knew there were some other Prodigy sky-prides present, it did not deter their eagerness at all. Each of them was ready to fight for it.

After all, if a massive battle broke out, things ought to be chaotic, and no one could guarantee possession of the Stellar Source.

A lot of them hoped that they could be the lucky ones.

“The crowd is growing,” said Sovereign Yu’s successor. He swiftly scanned over the sky-prides disdainfully.

There might be an increasing number of sky-prides at the field, but only a handful of them concerned him.

Other than Zhuo Donglai, You Ying, Lil Gonggong, and a few others, no one else was worthy of his attention.

“The restriction should be fading,” someone said as he stared at the Stellar Source.

The underground of Terraspirit Planet that contained the Stellar Source was blanketed with Daoist patterns that acted as restriction seals.

However, the restriction seals were fading rapidly.

“Roar!”

A fierce roar suddenly sounded further in space.

A Giant Stellar Beast that resembled a whale approached rapidly from further away.

The beast was more than a hundred thousand kilometers in length, and its body emanated a massive amount of celestial energy.

Its eyes, as big as planets, were glued to Terraspirit Planet, and it showed desire over the Stellar Source.

It seemed like this Giant Stellar Beast was attracted by the Stellar Source’s energy.

“How dare a mere Stellar Beast lay eyes on the Stellar Source?” the Sovereign Yu’s successor said.

Then, he raised his hand to release a terrifying Immortal’s Core energy wave from his palm. As the Daoist patterns intertwined, he unleashed a palm strike that carried the power of infinite planets.

The palm strike hit the Giant Stellar Beast’s head, and a deafening explosion happened upon impact.

The expanding energy wave shattered all the surrounding planets.

The Giant Stellar Beast growled in pain. Its head slowly cracked, and blood gushed from its gigantic mouth.

At the next second, an energy beam consisting of celestial energy released from the Giant Stellar Beast’s mouth toward the Sovereign Yu’s successor.

“How dare you!” the Sovereign Yu’s successor bellowed.

He unveiled a bronze cauldron and tossed it out.

The bronze cauldron had mountains and rivers carved on its surface, and it contained boundless energy.

The celestial beam hit the bronze cauldron. Upon collision, the explosion released a terrifying explosion that trembled the void.

The beam was shattered! The bronze cauldron then flew forward to hit the Giant Stellar Beast on its head.

The power contained in the impact could shatter stars in seconds.

The Giant Stellar Beast’s head bled like the ocean.

The Giant Stellar Beast endured the powerful attack with its tenacious life force. Celestial energy in its body then gushed out like a tidal wave.

“It seems like we would have to deal with this Stellar Giant Beast first before we could secure the Stellar Source of the planet,” Sovereign Yu’s successor said.

The other sky-pride heard his suggestion and decided to attack the Giant Stellar Beast together.

Chapter 1273: Battle Of The Heavenly Champions, This Energy Presence, It’s Him!

With the Giant Stellar Beast attempting to devour Terraspirit Planet’s Stellar Source, none of the sky-prides and Heavenly Champions could sit back and let it happen.

Everyone present attacked the Giant Stellar Beast with everything they had. An immense amount of Immortal Technique’s energy erupted and was blasted towards the Giant Stellar Beast.

The powerful attack shattered planet after planet.

The Giant Stellar Beast might be a powerful existence, but it was no match against a group of sky-prides and Heavenly Champions. Soon, it was killed under the barrage of attacks.

The beast’s blood floated in space, and a large amount of celestial energy dispersed from its carcass.

Its Stellar Core, surrounded by glimmers of Immortal Spark, was exposed in space.

The Stellar Core of a Giant Stellar Beast was considered a great treasure, and its value was on par with a Gilded Immortal Weapon.

It attracted many sky-prides, giving them the thought of possessing it.

It was then the restrictions in Terraspirit Planet faded.

Many sky-prides and Heavenly Champion flew towards the planet and saw the Stellar Source surrounded by countless Daoist patterns, which aroused their scorching desire to possess it.

“This Stellar Source will be mine!”

One of the sky-prides cackled in laughter as he reached out to grab the Stellar Source.

“Hmph? You? Trying to get the Stellar Source? Stop dreaming!”

A cold voice sounded, followed by dark clouds rapidly gathering in the sky.

Then, a giant palm fell from the clouds.

The palm felt like it contained the power of the entire continent. Its terrifying pressure crushed the void, and before the sky-pride could even reach, he was killed on the spot.

“What a terrifying power!”

“As expected of the Sovereign Yu’s successor.”

Some sky-prides were impressed by Sovereign Yu’s successor’s powerful attack.

The others who hoped to be lucky gasped in shock after seeing one of them get killed in a fraction of a second. No one dared to act recklessly anymore.

It required more than just luck to get something out of the conflict. It also demanded strength.

“Haha, the power of Sovereign Yu? Let me have a go,” Lil Gongong said with loud laughter.

A raise of his hand channeled countless Daoist patterns and formed a tidal wave that could flood the realm.

Sovereign Yu’s successor countered with another palm strike.

As the two destructive forces collided, it trembled half the planet.

If it were not for arena rules protecting Terraspirit Planet, the collision of both forces would have destroyed half the planet upon collision.

“Hey, hey! The Sovereign Yu’s successor is not all that bad,” Lil Gongong said with a laugh. He was forced to take his opponent seriously after the first try.

Then, Zhuo Donglai and You Ying followed up with an attack of their own on Sovereign Yu’s successor.

The two of them teamed up and released powers that contrasted each other.

One possessed the strongest Yang energy, and the other contained the darkest Yin energy.

As Yin and Yang energies intertwined, even the Sovereign Yu's successor was blasted away by the attack.

"This power... it's Duality Rites Immortal Physique?!" said the Sovereign Yu's successor in a heavy tone.

"No, this isn't the real Duality Rites Immortal Physique. It's not even the real Supreme Immortal Physique. Why should I be scared of it?"

The Sovereign Yu's successor brought out his bronze cauldron again.

The giant cauldron grew even bigger as it was tossed into the air. It grew into the size of a mountain and was hurled toward Zhuo Donglai and You Ying.

"If I'm correct, that cauldron is one of the Nine Province Cauldron of Emperor Yu," Lil Gonggong said in surprise.

The story of Emperor Yu forging nine cauldrons was well-known among the human race.

"I wonder if your Nine Province Cauldron is stronger than my Water God Seal?" Lil Gonggong revealed a black seal.

The seal had countless Daoist patterns revolving around it, and it even released a faint sound of wuthering waves.

A dense water energy fluctuation filled the realm following its appearance.

"A mere Water God Seal, yet you dare to oppose my Human Dao Treasure?" the Sovereign Yu's successor scoffed.

"Indeed. If it's the complete Nine Province Cauldron, my Water God Seal won't stand a chance, but you only possess one of the nine," Lil Gonggong said.

He channeled the Water God Seal and unleashed boundless water energy toward the Nine Province Cauldron.

Further away, a group of sky-prides observed the battle unfold.

"Heavenly Daoist Qian, who do you think will be the victor of this battle?" asked a young man.

The man, known as Heavenly Daoist Qian, was another Heavenly Champion who was around the same age.

"Who do you think, Heavenly Daoist Ri?"

Heavenly Daoist Qian diverted the question to another person beside him.

The person held a white fan in his hand, and it complemented his gentlemanly demeanor.

The three of them were three of the eight Heavenly Daoists of the Heavenly Dao Sect, named Heavenly Daoist Qian, Heavenly Daoist Yue, and Heavenly Daoist Ri.

Tian, Di, Xuan, Hua, Ri, Yue, Qian, and Kun were the names of all eight Heavenly Daoists of the sect, and they were also top-tier sky-prides.

Since Heavenly Daoist Kun had been killed by Chu Kuangren, the other seven of them were in the Interstellar Arena, seeking the next Opportunity of Fortune.

The three of them were attracted by the energy wave of Terraspirit Planet.

“Sovereign Yu’s successor may be powerful, and Lil Gonggong is on par with all of us, but I’m more concerned about Zhuo Donglai and You Ying. If the two of them teamed up to release power similar to the Duality Rites Immortal Physique, we cannot underestimate them,” Heavenly Daoist Ri said calmly as he fanned himself with the white fan.

“Let’s observe for now and wait for the perfect timing to snatch the Stellar Source.”

“Mhmm. With the three of us combined, we will stand a chance even against a Prodigy sky-pride.”

The three of them were unusually confident.

Kakroom! Bang! Swoosh!

The void continued to tremble.

Each collision between the Water God Seal and Nine Province Cauldron released a shockwave that shattered everything in its wake.

Mountains were leveled, rivers were drained, and even the void cracked like a spiderweb. Damage and desolation shadowed the land.

The slightest energy from the collision was enough to obliterate most of the Heavenly Immortals.

“You Ying, I’ll come to your aid!”

A voice sounded before a figure joined the battle.

The person reeked of demonic qi with a hint of dominating energy. He was one of the cultivators from the Chiyou Tribe of the Demonic Dao Sect.

Following his interference, some of the other sky-prides could no longer sit back and observe. They joined the battle for the Stellar Source.

A battle royale was happening at Terraspirit Planet’s sky.

A pair of eyes watched the battle unfold in the dark. It was like the eyes of a viper, waiting patiently for the perfect timing to strike.

“Fight, fight! Fight all you can! When you are all dead, I’ll use the Immortal Dissolving Poison to turn every one of you into dust, and the Stellar Source will be mine,” the owner of the voice murmured.

He was Wu Tian, the Heavenly Champion of the Sky Centipede Tribe who lost ninety percent of his cultivation base to Chu Kuangren.

He, too, had his eyes on the Terraspirit Planet’s Opportunity of Fortune.

He planned to sit away from the conflict and reap the spoils when everyone was dead or either injured. He had the poison that he concocted ready for everyone, and once he dissolved everything in his way, he would be able to secure opportunities for himself.

While Wu Tian was scheming in the dark, light burst and shot up into the sky.

A tremendous energy presence shadowed the realm in an instant.

Every cultivator present sensed it and was horrified. The weaker ones could not help but tremble under the pressure.

“This energy presence... It’s him!”

Wu Tian’s gaze shrunk in fear despite hiding in the dark. He quickly remembered the nightmare that haunted him since his loss to Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 1273: Battle Of The Heavenly Champions, This Energy Presence, It’s Him!

Wu Tian’s gaze shrunk in fear despite hiding in the dark. He quickly remembered the nightmare that haunted him since his loss to Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 1275: Killing Lil Gonggong and Sovereign Yu’s Successor, God, Why Are You So Unfair To Me!

“Kneel!”

Following Chu Kuangren’s shout, the endless True Emperor Dragon qi further pressured Sovereign Yu’s successor.

Under such overwhelming pressure, Sovereign Yu's successor trembled uncontrollably as he cried in shock, "How is this possible?! How?"

Bang!

His knees were forced to the ground.

"True Emperor Dragon? There's someone in this world who could conjure the True Emperor Dragon? How did he do it?"

Shock and confusion were written all over Sovereign Yu's face.

The Human Emperor Sect searched through the inheritance from past emperors and still could not find the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique to conjure the True Emperor Dragon.

It was because the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique was passed down from emperors to emperors. Hence, only the current generation of Human Emperors had the right to claim and continue cultivating the technique.

The Human Emperors were not allowed to pass the technique to someone else or even an outsider.

Unfortunately, no one within the Human Emperor Sect truly possessed the fate or right to acquire the inheritance.

The last Human Emperor was King Zhou, and Chu Kuangren seemed to have proved that he had the right to receive the Human Emperor's technique and inheritance. That was why he could use the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique to conjure the True Emperor Dragon.

All the other sky-prides were shocked when they saw Sovereign Yu's successor on his knees. They were awestruck by Chu Kuangren.

"He's too powerful! It's ridiculous! The man is Sovereign Yu's successor, yet Chu Kuangren has forced him to his knees."

"True Emperor Dragon, the fate of the Human Emperor... Chu Kuangren really showed us quite the trick."

"The Human Emperor Sect reigned supreme over all humans because they had the Human Emperor's inheritance. Yet now, the true successor of the Human Emperor's True Emperor Dragon is Chu Kuangren. Such irony," someone exclaimed.

"Human Emperor... Hm, such existence isn't welcomed in any realm. Chu Kuangren, you've made yourself the greatest enemy of the Immortal Hall," said Lil Gonggong with a grunt.

In the past, the two Immortal Halls mass recruited for the Great Deification Calamity and successfully destroyed the Human Emperor's throne that rivaled heaven.

Now that Chu Kuangren inherited the Human Emperor's fate, he also inherited the grudge between Immortal Hall and the Human Emperor.

Lil Gonggong used his Water God Seal to summon a black torrential wave that crashed down on Chu Kuangren like the great river.

The torrential wave might look like it consisted of water, but in fact, it consisted of Daoist patterns that contained vast energy within. A splash from it could crush a mountain easily.

“Mark my words, Immortal Hall. One day, I will make you all kneel before me and my supreme presence!”

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward and cast Blade of Zhou again.

The sword qi’s slash shook heaven and even space.

The torrential wave consisted of countless Daoist patterns crumbled under the slash.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air with unrivaled might and presence. His energy alone shook heaven and earth.

He knew once he revealed his identity as the Human Emperor, he would stand against the Immortal Hall. However, it did not concern him.

A Human Emperor was the king of humans, so he should be on the same status as heaven!

One day, he would reign over the Immortal World with the identity and pride of the Human Emperor!

The Immortal Hall was not a deterring factor!

Once he reigned supreme, the Immortal Hall would submit.

All living beings in the Immortal World would sing songs about his name!

“Go!” Chu Kuangren bellowed.

The seven True Emperor Dragon grabbed the seven Nine Province Cauldrons and hurled them toward the strongest Heavenly Champion of the Water Division, Lil Gonggong.

With the seven dragons and seven cauldrons, immeasurable pressure drowned the realm!

Lil Gonggong’s expression changed. He channeled the Water God Seal’s power to the limit and unleashed a stronger tidal wave.

However, his power was nothing in front of the seven dragons and cauldrons.

Following a deafening explosion, the seven dragons and cauldrons obliterated the torrential wave.

The Water God Seal, which was a Gilded Immortal Weapon, shattered as well. Its light died out as it flew and crashed into a mountain peak.

Lil Gonggong was horrified.

“No!”

A terrifying shout later, Lil Gonggong was crushed to smithereens by the cauldrons, and not even his soul was spared.

The other sky-prides and Heavenly Champions were horrified by the scene.

“Now, you’re next.”

Chu Kuangren channeled the power of the Nine Province Cauldrons and hurled them at Sovereign Yu's successor.

Sovereign Yu's successor immediately used one of his life-saving items.

Golden light enveloped him, and surprisingly, the Nine Province Cauldron failed to crush him with a single hit.

Chu Kuangren looked slightly disheartened. However, he continued to thrash the Sovereign Yu's successor with the Nine Province Cauldron.

Seven cauldrons lined up neatly and rammed the ball of golden light repeatedly.

If one hit did not work, he could perform a second or a third.

Bang! Bang!

The continuous banging echoed and trembled heaven and earth.

Finally, the golden light that protected Sovereign Yu's successor shattered.

Without any other resistance, Sovereign Yu's successor was crushed to smithereens like Lil Gonggong.

He was killed by the Nine Province Cauldron that he once took pride in.

"And you people."

Chu Kuangren's voice was like the whisper of death. It sent chills down one's spine.

He looked at Zhuo Donglai and You Ying.

The two of them trembled before him. They were overwhelmed by Chu Kuangren's display of strength.

They were suffocated by fear and horror.

Both Sovereign Yu's successor and Lil Gonggong rivaled the two of them, but Chu Kuangren killed them within a blink of an eye.

The two of them were no match for Chu Kuangren.

"No! I did so much to reach this level, and I still can't rival him?!" Zhuo Donglai uttered in fear. His lips and eyes were shaking.

"How is he this powerful?"

You Ying said with gnashing teeth, "It's either him or me!"

He channeled Primordial Yin Demonic Physique to the limit and summoned a gigantic Sky Demon apparition that had terrifying demonic qi revolving around it.

Zhuo Donglai did the same as he, too, refused to concede without a fight.

"Divine Primordial Sun Beam!!"

He channeled his Immortal Physique's Divine technique and summoned a blinding light in the palm of his hand.

The light exploded upon formation.

The summoned Sky Demon apparition also attacked with a palm strike.

The demonic apparition and divine light merged and resonated.

The power of Yin and Yang tore the void into shreds as it was blasted toward Chu Kuangren.

"Speaking of Yin and Yang power, yours is a lot weaker than the Fusang's power," Chu Kuangren said.

Behind him, a hazy image of a rose gold tree formed. It was the divine tree, Fusang!

The branches moved and unleashed a tremendous Yin and Yang energy.

It was the Yin and Yang energy from Immortal Physiques versus the Yin and Yang energy from Fusang, one of the Ten Great Ancient Immortal Spiritual Plants.

Upon collision, Fusang's Yin and Yang energy secured the advantage and destroyed its counterpart.

"Damn it! Yin Yang Shield!"

Zhuo Donglai and You Ying channeled their Yin and Yang energy to form a shield consisting of Daoist patterns before them.

Fusang's Yin and Yang energy crashed on the Yin Yang Shield.

A loud bang later, the shield shattered, and both Zhuo Donglai and You Ying were blasted away.

Blood gushed from their mouths, and the Daoist patterns on their Immortal Bodies suffered multiple cracks.

"Damn it! Damn it!"

'We are no match for him! Before we achieve the real Duality Rites Immortal Physique, we are not Chu Kuangren's match!' Zhuo Donglai thought.

He looked at Chu Kuangren with envy and jealousy.

Why?

He spent countless efforts and suffered multiple consequences, yet he could not achieve the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique.

Chu Kuangren, on the other hand, possessed Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, Leaf Green Sword Vision, Heavenly Samsara Physique, and Fusang's power.

How could he possess so many powers that were as powerful as an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique?

'Why is it so unfair!?'

Chapter 1276: Heavenly Dao Sect's Heavenly Daoist, Immortal Dissolving Poison, The More The Better

Jealousy and envy almost drove Zhuo Donglai mad as he stared at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren ignored the envious gaze and pointed his sword hand sign forward. Tyrannical sword qi gathered at the tip of his finger and was ready to be unleashed.

However, at that moment, he sensed something and turned to the Stellar Source.

He detected several energy presences approaching the Stellar Source rapidly and secretly.

“Trying to fish in troubled waters?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He then pointed his tyrannical sword qi at the energy presence he detected.

Bang!

The void suddenly exploded, and several figures were blasted out of hiding.

The three people, who were forced out of hiding, carried a massive Heavenly Dao energy with them as though they were heaven’s agents.

However, the Heavenly Dao energy was not the will of the Immortal World. It was the Heavenly Dao from the Living Planets outside the Immortal World.

Chu Kuangren recognized them at first glance. “Folks from the Heavenly Dao Sect?”

The three of them were the Heavenly Daoists from before.

“Fight!”

As soon as they were exposed, the three immediately channeled their secret techniques and engaged Chu Kuangren in battle.

The three of them formed a triangular formation to surround Chu Kuangren.

Then, they each revealed a massive flag covered in Daoist patterns and glimmering light.

They waved it in the air, releasing a mystical energy wave to form an enchanted barrier.

Being trapped inside the enchanted barrier, Chu Kuangren could feel his Immortal’s Core suppressed by some unknown force.

“Chu Kuangren, these Trinity Core Flags can seal one’s Immortal’s Core. You’re done for!” Heavenly Daoist Ri bellowed.

The Trinity Core Flag was one of the treasures they possessed. It was ridiculously powerful and could also be considered one of their final resorts.

They dared not hold back against Chu Kuangren, hence the decision to use their strongest attack at the start of the battle.

The Trinity Core Flag formed an enchanted barrier that could instantly seal one’s Immortal’s Core energy!

Heavenly Daoist Qian and Heavenly Daoist Yue dashed toward Chu Kuangren, releasing waves of Heavenly Dao energy in their wake.

“Heaven Shaking Palm!”

Two of them released a powerful palm strike containing an immense Heavenly Dao energy fluctuation

Chu Kuangren stood still and simply countered with a punch. The terrifying fist energy blasted the palm strike and mitigated the attack.

“How is this possible?!”

At that scene, the two Heavenly Daoists were horrified.

Chu Kuangren’s Immortal’s Core energy was sealed, yet he had so much power left!

What kind of monster was he?

“His raw physical body! His raw physical body is also immensely powerful!” Heavenly Daoist Ri said.

“Hmph! A powerful raw physical body? If you can’t use your Immortal’s Core energy, how can you still withstand the pervasive Immortal Dissolving Poison?”

At that moment, a cold voice sounded.

A cloud of black gas was injected into the enchanted barrier formed by the Trinity Core Flags and exploded once it was inside.

The black gas exploded into poisonous qi that rapidly filled the enchanted barrier.

Even a sliver of the poisonous qi was enough to scare the three Heavenly Daoists.

“Such a terrifying poison. Whose is this?”

“There’s yokai qi in it. It must be from some yokai!”

The three Heavenly Daoists then looked further away and spotted Wu Tian.

Wu Tian came gliding down from the sky. He stared at Chu Kuangren trapped within the Trinity Core enchanted barrier with resentment.

The three Heavenly Daoists exchanged a quick look and let him be.

Since Wu Tian was also Chu Kuangren’s enemy, they would be able to form a temporary alliance with him to take down their common enemy.

As the saying went, ‘The enemy’s enemy is my friend.’

Inside the enchanted barrier, the poisonous qi assaulted Chu Kuangren from every direction.

Chu Kuangren swung his sleeve and sucked Lan Yu into his Enchanted Sleeve’s space.

Now, he was left alone in the cloud of poisonous qi.

The poisonous qi started to attack his body. If it were other cultivators, or even a True Immortal, with their Immortal's Core energy sealed, they would be corroded into a puddle of blood by the poisonous qi within seconds.

The poisonous qi was a terrifying one to deal with, but Chu Kuangren somehow felt that it was not yet at its fullest potential. There was space to improve the poison.

"So this is the poison Wu Tian crafted using the Yokai King's poisonous heart? Interesting."

Chu Kuangren stood still and allowed the poisonous qi to attack his body. Unfortunately, the poisonous qi did not affect him at all.

The Poison Immunity Trait was not a joke. It was real, and it allowed its user to be immune to any kind of corrosive poison.

"Heavenly Dao Sect and Sky Centipede Tribe, it's getting crowded in here," Chu Kuangren said as if he was not bothered by the poisonous qi.

He glanced at all three of the Trinity Core Flags and said, "You really think you can stop me using a few pieces of cloth on a stick? You can dream on."

Chu Kuangren took a step forward and unleashed his Immortal's Core energy.

The boundless Immortal's Core energy crashed into the void like a tidal wave. Under that attack, all three flags started to tremble and lose their light.

Then, the three flags were blasted away, thus breaking the enchanted barrier altogether.

The Immortal's Core energy also dissipated the poisonous qi.

"How can you withstand my Immortal Dissolving Poison?!"

Wu Tian was shocked. He could not believe there would be someone in the world who could be immune to all poison.

Swoosh!

Chu Kuangren disappeared from his spot.

Wu Tian's gaze shrunk in fear. "D*mn it!"

If his Immortal Dissolving Poison was useless against Chu Kuangren, he dared not linger for another second. However, just as he wanted to leave, Chu Kuangren appeared before him.

Chu Kuangren threw a casual punch, and the terrifying fist energy blasted Wu Tian into pieces.

To his surprise, after he landed the punch on Wu Tian, the Sky Centipede Heavenly Champion burst into a cloud of poisonous qi.

"Oh, just a poisonous qi clone?" Chu Kuangren chuckled. "It seems like you've gotten smarter and more careful after I killed you once."

Killing only the clone and not the real Wu Tian did not bother Chu Kuangren. Instead, he turned to the three Heavenly Daoists next.

He raised his hand at them, and they started to lose control of their Heavenly Dao energy as it drew to him.

The Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art, Heaven Devourer Technique enabled Chu Kuangren to take away their Heavenly Dao energy!

The three Heavenly Daoists were so horrified that they started to panic. They tried to control their Immortal's Core energy, but their efforts were futile.

In the end, they lost all their Heavenly Dao energy to Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren then pointed his sword hand sign forward and unleashed his tyrannical sword qi at them.

The sword qi enveloped them whole like a strong gale, slowly chipping off their flesh and bones.

"Chu Kuangren, don't think this is over! Heavenly Daoist Tian will avenge us one day," Heavenly Daoist Ri shouted.

Heavenly Daoist Tian was the strongest sky-pride of the Heavenly Dao Sect.

He was ranked first out of the eight Heavenly Daoists.

Chu Kuangren could not care less about Heavenly Daoist Ri's warning.

If that Heavenly Daoist Tian wanted to avenge his fallen comrades, he would have to get in the long line of vengeful enemies.

Countless others wanted to seek revenge on Chu Kuangren, so one more or one less did not really bother him.

Moreover, he and the Heavenly Dao Sect were enemies, to begin with.

After killing all three Heavenly Daoists, Chu Kuangren looked around and realized Zhuo Donglai and You Ying had escaped while he was busy killing the three.

"The Duality Rites Immortal Physique seems valuable," he said with a smile.

The Primordial Sun Immortal Physique and Primordial Yin Demonic Physique were nothing to him if separated.

Only the Duality Rites Immortal Physique, which was the Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, caught his attention.

"Zhuo Donglai, I really hope you can achieve the Duality Rites Immortal Physique."

He knew Zhuo Donglai would come back to seek revenge once the man achieved Duality Rites Immortal Physique.

By then, he would be able to snatch the Duality Rites Immortal Physique for himself.

The more Immortal Physiques, the better.

After that, Chu Kuangren turned to the Stellar Source of Terraspirit Planet. His figure flashed, and he flew underground.

As he approached the Stellar Source, an immensely powerful celestial energy gushed out from within.

Chapter 1277: Zhuo Donglai's Madness, the Blooded Heart Melting Technique

Within the depths of Terraspirit Planet, inside the planet's Stellar Source, Chu Kuangren was surprised when he noticed the vast celestial energy everywhere.

"Interesting. With this much celestial energy, I can use it to improve my Stellar Undying Body."

He chuckled and then released Lan Yu from his Enchanted Sleeve.

Lan Yu was shocked upon noticing the celestial energy in her surroundings.

"Is this the planet's Stellar Source? If I can cultivate here, I believe my progress will be dozens of times better compared to doing it outside."

"This area is brimming with celestial energy. Let's cultivate here," said Chu Kuangren as he waved his sleeves. Then, a golden ray of light shot out from his sleeve.

It was his clone.

With his clone standing guard, both he and Lan Yu could now focus on their cultivation inside the Stellar Source.

When they arrived at the depths of the Stellar Source, Chu Kuangren activated his Stellar Undying Body, absorbing the surrounding celestial energy into his body. Slowly and steadily, his Stellar Undying Body began to strengthen.

Meanwhile, Lan Yu found somewhere and sat down.

As time went by, the cultivators who had their eyes on Terraspirit Planet's Stellar Source eventually left one after another.

They could not do anything with Chu Kuangren's clone standing guard anyway.

"Sigh. Chu Kuangren is just too powerful. We have no chance at getting what he has his eyes on." A sky-pride could not help but lament.

Killing top-notch sky-prides was a piece of cake to Chu Kuangren. His strength was undoubtedly unattainable.

"Besides the few Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena, I'm afraid no one else can stand against Chu Kuangren."

"I don't think even those Prodigies have a chance of defeating him either."

...

Somewhere else, two disheveled figures stumbled out from the void.

It was Zhuo Donglai and You Ying.

“D*mn it. D*mn it all!”

As Zhuo Donglai roared, he released his Primordial Sun Immortal’s Core energy everywhere in a fit of rage. Immediately, dozens of nearby mountains were reduced into ruins!

The surrounding terrain was turned into a piece of charred land due to his scorching hot Immortal’s Core energy.

“Why, Chu Kuangren? Why?!”

“Oh heavens, what is the reason for this unjust act! Why is Chu Kuangren the favored one? The Green Leaf Sword Vision, Heavenly Samsara Physique, Fusang’s power, the Human Emperor Inheritance, Chaos Celestial Demon Physique... Why were all these wonderful gifts given to Chu Kuangren alone! What about me?! What about the rest of us?!”

“Godd*mnit!”

Zhuo Donglai’s eyes were red with rage, and his expression was as ferocious as a wild beast.

A strong and terrifying hatred emanated from him, and even You Ying shuddered at the sight of it.

However, a hint of despair appeared in his eyes as he thought of Chu Kuangren.

Could they really stand on equal ground against someone like him? Could they reach such a seemingly unattainable level?

“The Duality Rites Immortal Physique!

“I must have the Duality Rites Immortal Physique. Only with that, I can finally stand a chance of defeating Chu Kuangren!” said Zhuo Donglai as he lifted his head and looked at You Ying.

You Ying frowned a little. “We’ve tried many ways but still failed to upgrade our respective physiques to the Duality Rites Immortal Physique. I’m afraid it’ll still be impossible for the time being.”

“No, there’s a way!” Zhuo Donglai said. “There’s still one last resort!”

“What method is it?!”

“We’ll use the Blooded Heart Melting Technique!”

“How do we begin?”

Zhuo Donglai slowly walked toward You Ying, who suddenly felt a chill running down his spine.

The next instant, Zhuo Donglai suddenly reached out and grabbed, with his hand in the form of a claw. His terrifying Primordial Sun Immortal Core energy erupted as his hand went through You Ying’s chest and grabbed his heart out.

“Zhuo Donglai, you...”

You Ying's face was full of horror, fear, and confusion.

"The Blooded Heart Melting Technique. Once I combine your heart with mine and imbue your blood essence with mine, I'll certainly have a chance to upgrade my Primordial Sun Immortal Physique to the Duality Rites Physique!" said Zhuo Donglai as his arm trembled.

His brutal Immortal's Core energy instantly ended You Ying's life.

Just like that, a demonic sky-pride fell.

Holding You Ying's still beating and warm demon heart, a look of madness appeared on Zhuo Donglai's face.

The Blooded Heart Melting Technique was an extremely dangerous cultivation technique.

If he were not careful, he would lose control of the two different bloodlines, resulting in them clashing with each other. Then, he would die and have his Immortal Soul shattered.

Hence, Zhuo Donglai had never dared to attempt it recklessly.

However, he could not care so much anymore.

Chu Kuangren's existence had made him restless and pushed him to the brink of madness!

Even if he had to risk his life, he would be willing to try to defeat Chu Kuangren. Besides, if he did not do anything now, he would surely die in his next encounter with Chu Kuangren.

In that case, he might as well take a gamble now!

"Just you wait, Chu Kuangren. I'll surely come and seek you out one day!"

...

Somewhere else, on a mountain range, Wu Tian of the Sky Centipede Tribe pondered as he looked at a pool of blood before him.

That was what remained of a top-notch sky-pride whose his Immortal Dissolving Poison had killed.

That sky-pride did not stand a chance before Wu Tian's Immortal Dissolving Poison.

"Why?"

"How can Chu Kuangren resist the Immortal Dissolving Poison?!"

"Even if he has a very high poison resistance, there's no way he's completely unaffected by it," Wu Tian murmured.

He took out a dark green orb, which contained an incredibly terrifying poison within. Just a glance at it was enough to send shivers down anyone's spine.

"Sure enough, it's because I still haven't completely refined this Poison Heart. That's why I still can't unleash the full power of the Immortal Dissolving Poison."

“Once I’ve attained Expert proficiency in using the Immortal Dissolving Poison, just a single strand of poison qi will be enough to reduce a whole planet’s worth of living beings into a pool of blood. It’s going to be very powerful.”

Wu Tian held the dark green orb with a determined look on his face. “I must completely refine this Poison Heart and poison Chu Kuangren to death!”

He even had a hunch that if he could poison Chu Kuangren to death with his poison, nothing in the world would stand a chance against him.

...

News of Terraspirit Planet’s battle spread rapidly throughout the whole Interstellar Arena.

A name who was once close to being forgotten had now appeared once more in a remarkable manner.

“Chu Kuangren. He’s finally here in the Interstellar Arena.”

“Two years. It has been two years since he was in closed-door meditation. During that time, many of the sky-prides and Heavenly Champions have been growing stronger in the Interstellar Arena. I can’t believe they still can’t catch up to that person.”

“His combat strength is truly outstanding.”

“He could already kill True Immortals two years ago. As of now, he has become even harder to read than ever.”

Somewhere inside a palace on an ancient planet, an Imperial Commander of the Immortal Hall dressed in purple long robes was refining an ancient Immortal Hall Great One’s item.

“Chu Kuangren, you’ve killed so many Heavenly Champions of the Immortal Hall’s four divisions. Do you really think the Immortal Hall has no one who can stand up against you?”

“The moment we meet, I’ll surely defeat and kill you!” said the Holy Violet Imperial Commander coldly.

How many Heavenly Champions of the Immortal Hall had died in Chu Kuangren’s hand?

He was not sure how many there were.

However, Chu Kuangren had now made the Immortal Hall his enemy, and the Holy Violet Imperial Commander could no longer allow him to become stronger.

Somewhere else, atop a mountain peak filled with ancient swords struck into the ground, a young man was holding a bamboo staff with closed eyes and traces of sword qi were emanating from his body.

Then, the jade scroll at his waist vibrated.

He had just received news about Chu Kuangren’s arrival.

“Oh, it seems that Brother Chu has arrived.”

The young man with his eyes closed was Ye Zhu, the strongest Heavenly Champion of the Three Clarity Daoist Sect.

He was also the host of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique.

However, his Sword Vision was an incomplete version.

“Compared to Brother Chu, I believe there’s still a big gap in our strengths. The most urgent thing I have to do is to search for the Sword Immortal Catacombs. My only chance to complete my Green Leaf Sword Vision’s power lies somewhere within there. If I want to stand a chance against Brother Chu, I must find it at once!”

Chapter 1278: The Demonic Omnitoxin Technique, Lan Yu Becomes a True Immortal, Terraglyph Planet’s Sarira

Deep within the Terraspirit Planet, inside the planet’s Stellar Source, a person could be seen hovering in mid-air with swirls of starlight flowing all over his body. His skin was as clear as crystal, with Daoist patterns intertwining everywhere as if his body was made of indestructible glass.

Suddenly, that person opened his eyes, and a light flashed in them.

“Is this the full potential of the Stellar Undying Body?!” Chu Kuangren said while feeling the power coursing through his strengthened physical body, noticing that his cultivation had resulted in the Stellar Undying Body reaching the Ultimate state.

With his raw physical strength alone, he could now overwhelm any of the top-notch sky-prides like Zhuo Donglai, Sovereign Yu’s successor, and many more Prodigies.

That was the power of the Stellar Undying Body’s fullest potential.

If he wanted to strengthen his body using celestial energy, he could still do so. However, it would now be less efficient than before.

Considering the amount of time doing that, any results he obtained would not be worth the effort.

“The fact that I can strengthen my Stellar Undying Body to such an extent is already a challenging feat. When it comes to strengthening my body next time, I guess I should rely on the Divine Thunder Fist instead,” Chu Kuangren thought.

Despite his Stellar Undying Body reaching the peak cultivated state, Chu Kuangren did not wish to stop cultivating his physical strength.

Ever since he embarked on his journey of cultivation, he had always sought to improve his raw physical strength, soul, and cultivation level altogether. That was the main reason why he was undefeated among his peers.

There were not many cultivators like him.

However, only a handful had ever reached his level throughout history.

Besides, Chu Kuangren would continue walking down that path.

His aim was to catch up to the limits of his predecessors and then... surpass them!

“Lan Yu should be done with her cultivation soon,” said Chu Kuangren while looking at Lan Yu, who was still absorbing the celestial energy and gaining insights into the Dao.

Then, his figure disappeared in a flash, arriving outside the Stellar Source in the next instant.

Upon seeing his main body, Chu Kuangren’s clone nodded before he was kept back inside the Enchanted Sleeve.

Chu Kuangren took his clone’s place and stood guard for Lan Yu after that. At the same time, he thought about what to do next.

Although the Interstellar Arena was filled with countless treasures, it would not benefit him to collect them all mindlessly. Some normal treasures were not even worth his effort, after all.

“Intel. I need much more intel.”

Chu Kuangren’s Immortal Consciousness immediately spread from Terraspirit Planet and into the vastness of space, steadily picking up all sorts of intel everywhere.

Having ascended into the True Immortal Realm, his soul energy had gained a massive increase while his soul’s cultivation realm had gotten one huge step closer to a Gilded Soul level. Due to that, the range of his Immortal Consciousness had increased tremendously.

As his Immortal Consciousness traveled far and wide, millions of kilometers into space, countless different information poured into him like a raging river.

If any ordinary cultivators – even if they were True Immortals – were exposed to so much information right away, their heads would certainly explode.

However, since Chu Kuangren had an extremely powerful soul cultivation realm, which was a result of him cultivating the Eighteen-Cycle Trinity Soul Refinement, he could sort through all that information without trouble.

“The yokai cultivator, Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather has killed three top-notch sky-prides on Welkinquire Planet, revealing his True Immortal cultivation level...”

“The Divine Warrior Empire’s Crown Prince killed two top-tier Heavenly Champions, an Avarice beast and a Nine-Headed Snakelet with a single punch...”

“A huge number of treasures have appeared on the Terraglyph Planet. Many Heavenly Champions and sky-prides have gone there in search of them...”

“The Holy Violet Imperial Commander of the Kunlun Immortal Hall engaged the East Sovereign Immortal Hall’s Great Arbiter successor in battle. Both were equally matched...”

Much information came flooding in.

Chu Kuangren’s Heaven, Hell, and Earth Souls quickly tidied all that information. Upon doing so, he realized there were a few that caught his eye.

Besides those Prodigy Heavenly Champions who piqued his interest a little, he only sorted through the rest of them without much care.

Suddenly, a piece of information appeared in his mind.

“A Buddhist Sarira has appeared on Terraglyph Planet!”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up when he saw that information.

The Buddhist Sarira was a treasured item left behind when a Buddhist Great One passed on. It contained the Buddhist cultivator’s experience and the Immortal’s Core energy.

“Most of the Buddhist cultivator’s Buddhist qi mainly have the attribute of Light. If Lan Yu wants to upgrade her Radiant War Immortal Physique to the Prominent level, she’ll require a huge amount of Light-attribute energy.”

“This Buddhist Sarira might be a good help for her. The Terraglyph Planet of the Seventy-two Hellish Planets, huh? Let’s go there,” Chu Kuangren mumbled.

After confirming his next destination, he started gathering some information about the Terraglyph Planet while waiting for Lan Yu to be done.

During that time, he also obtained a very surprising reward from the Fantasy Roulette.

“Congratulations, Host! You have obtained a God-tier item, the Demonic Omnitoxin Technique!”

The Demonic Omnitoxin Technique was an Arch Gilded Technique mainly for strengthening one’s raw physical strength. It was not much different compared to the Divine Thunder Fist.

The only difference was that the latter used lightning to strengthen one’s body, while the former used poison to strengthen one’s body instead!

That was right.

The Demonic Omnitoxin Technique was not an offensive poison technique but a cultivation technique used to strengthen one’s body.

The more powerful the poison, the more effective the strengthening effect would be.

Due to that, it could be said that that technique was more dangerous compared to the Divine Thunder Fist.

The technique allowed the user to absorb poisonous substances into their body and strengthen their organs. If any mishaps were to occur during that process, the user would be faced with death.

However, unlike other cultivators, Chu Kuangren did not need to worry about that.

He did possess the Poison Immunity Trait, after all.

“The Divine Thunder Fist, Demonic Omnitoxin Technique, Poison Immunity Trait, and Indestructible Physique... Hah! It’ll be unacceptable if I still can’t achieve any progress in strengthening my physical body with these.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Speaking of poison, he thought of Wu Tian, the Sky Centipede cultivator who might be plotting how to defeat him.

Wu Tian was an expert in poison.

Besides, he also had a deadly poison known as the Immortal Dissolving Poison on him.

“Perhaps I can try out this Demonic Omnitoxin Technique when we meet next time,” Chu Kuangren thought.

He even started to pity Wu Tian, who would never expect that the deadly poison he obtained from harsh cultivation would end up helping Chu Kuangren.

Boom!

At that time, a pillar of white light rose into the sky from the depths of Terraspirit Planet.

An incomparably powerful aura emerged following that, and a heroic silver-haired woman in silver armor slowly walked out.

It was Lan Yu.

Chu Kuangren looked at Lan Yu. He could sense that her aura had improved tremendously, for she had already broken through to the True Immortal Realm!

That meant she was already on par with those Prodigies.

“Ha! Well done.”

Chu Kuangren was sincerely happy for Lan Yu.

“Master.”

Lan Yu walked up to Chu Kuangren with a smile on her face.

“Good job.”

Chu Kuangren then told her about his plans to go to Terraglyph Planet and the Buddhist Sarira there.

Lan Yu’s eyes lit up upon hearing that. “If I can use that Sarira in my cultivation, there’s a huge chance my Radiant War Immortal Physique will reach a Prominent state.”

“Very well. Time is of the essence. Let’s head to Terraglyph Planet now.”

“Alright!”

Chu Kuangren was very familiar with the location of the planets, so he came up with a travel route in no time.

He kept Lan Yu in his Enchanted Sleeve, activated the Spatial Conveyor Technique, and rapidly traveled to Terraglyph Planet.

He moved so fast that he could cover millions of kilometers in a blink of an eye.

Soon after, a planet covered with the glint of treasure and countless intertwining Daoist patterns came into his view.

That was Terraglyph Planet!

“We’re finally here.”

Chu Kuangren looked at Terraglyph Planet and mumbled. He could sense the presence of many sky-prides on the planet.

Some of them were quite familiar to him as well.

Chapter 1279: You’ve Made a Wise Decision, His Presence Alone Strikes Fear Into People’s Hearts

High in the air above Terraglyph Planet, Chu Kuangren’s Immortal Consciousness spread throughout the whole planet upon his arrival in search of the Buddhist Sarira’s energy fluctuation.

He did not find any signs of the Buddhist Sarira. However, he sensed some familiar auras first instead.

Besides the Buddhist Sarira, many treasures were still waiting to be found on Terraglyph Planet.

Although those treasures were not as valuable as the Buddhist Sarira, many people were still attracted to them. As a result, there were battles to fight over the treasures everywhere.

At that time, somewhere on Terraglyph Planet, the Hundred Academy Heavenly Champions were fighting a bunch of yokai sky-prides over a Yin and Yang ring that was left behind by an Arch Gilded Immortal.

That ring contained items that once belonged to the Arch Gilded Immortal when he was still alive.

“Hand over the Yin and Yang ring, and we’ll spare your lives!” a few yokai cultivators standing opposite Cao Yun said coldly.

Their powerful yokai auras instantly surged everywhere, trapping Cao Yun and the others within it.

“If it’s a fight you want, bring it on! What’s all that nonsense for?” Wang Chentian snorted coldly.

Armed with a spear in hand, his tyrannical aura, which was on par with their enemy, burst forth.

The leader of the yokai cultivators was a White Tiger wild beast.

He compared their strength against their opponents and reckoned they stood a chance of winning. Then, he shot a glance towards the yokai cultivators beside him.

Fight!

Without another word, both sides immediately clashed in battle.

Several Immortal Techniques were unleashed everywhere.

As Cao Yun activated his Golden Rule Order conjuration, his eyes immediately lit up with runic power, which in turn enhanced the power of every single attack he made right after.

Wang Chentian hurled his spear in all directions, his brutal aura filling the air.

“Is that all you got?”

Wang Chentian laughed as he pushed back a yokai cultivator in battle, while the other Hundred Academy Heavenly Champions were also overwhelming their opponents.

“D*mn it. I made the wrong judgment!” The White Tiger sky-pride gritted his teeth.

After that, he looked at a black-robed woman nearby. That woman had a seductive figure and an alluring appearance.

It was as if her every movement was meant to lure and distract her foes.

“Dark Fox Maiden Sage, aren’t you going to help?!” the White Tiger sky-pride yelled.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage was a top-notch sky-pride. If she took action right then, the yokai cultivators might be able to turn the tide of battle.

However, she only stood there and hesitated a little.

“They’re from the Hundred Academy...”

“If Chu Kuangren learns that I was a part of this battle, I’ll surely meet an awful end.”

The Arch Gilded Immortal’s Yin and Yang ring was indeed a valuable treasure to her.

However, she did not dare to take drastic action.

Chu Kuangren’s impact on her was just too great.

Even if he was not here, she still could not help but tremble at the thought of what he did back then.

‘No. I must not take action.’

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage gritted her teeth and decided to give up on the Arch Gilded Immortal’s Yin and Yang ring, so she quickly stepped back several meters.

Wang Chentian, Cao Yun, and the others were shocked, to say the least.

“It looks like the Dark Fox Maiden Sage has some unknown reason for not fighting.”

“This is fine for us. If she makes a move, it’ll certainly spark more trouble for us. It’s best if she can stay like this.”

The Hundred Academy Heavenly Champions immediately increased their combat strength as they planned to defeat the White Tiger sky-pride and his yokai cultivators in one go.

“D*mn it!”

“Is that d*mn fox really so afraid of Chu Kuangren? Is she so frightened that she doesn’t dare to make a move?!”

The White Tiger sky-pride had an idea why the Dark Fox Maiden Sage was behaving that way.

He never expected Chu Kuangren would have such a great impact on the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

Even in his absence, she was already afraid to fight.

However, the White Tiger was wrong. He did not understand what Chu Kuangren meant to the Dark Fox Maiden Sage and the Dark Fox Tribe as a whole.

Chu Kuangren might be the key to the Dark Fox Tribe's future!

"You've made a wise choice."

An indifferent voice suddenly sounded beside the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage shuddered uncontrollably with a look of disbelief on her face. She quickly turned around.

Unbeknownst to her, a white figure was beside her.

That person dressed in white and had long black hair, with an otherworldly temperament.

Although he was just standing there quietly, it seemed like he had become the center of the whole universe as everyone could not help but gaze at him. His presence was so domineering that it scared everyone!

How could she, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage, not sense someone with such a menacing presence?

It meant that he purposely concealed his aura.

"To think that he can creep up on me like this. If he wanted to kill me, I'd be dead by now!"

"He has gotten even more terrifying than two years ago. I'm afraid the rumors that he's now at the True Immortal Realm are true!"

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage was shocked that beside her was Chu Kuangren and that he had been here for a while now.

However, he just did not show himself.

"You've made a wise decision by not joining that bunch. Otherwise, you'll have turned into a corpse by now," Chu Kuangren said lightly.

Upon hearing that, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage felt a chill run down her spine, and cold sweat trickled down her forehead.

She did not doubt Chu Kuangren's words.

If she made the wrong choice just now, she would have been dead by now.

"It's Chu Kuangren!"

The White Tiger sky-prides, who were fighting Cao Yun and the others, shuddered when they noticed Chu Kuangren.

To most of the yokai cultivators in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains, Chu Kuangren's name was all too familiar to them.

His name was nothing short of a nightmare!

The moment he appeared, every yokai cultivator present immediately started trembling uncontrollably. Chu Kuangren did not even need to do a thing to them.

Even the White Tiger sky-pride could not help but lose his focus.

“Chu Kuangren is here. Is he really here?!”

“This feeling... Is it fear?!”

The White Tiger sky-pride felt embarrassed.

‘How is this possible?!’

‘He’s just standing there doing nothing, yet why am I feeling so afraid?’

He thought he had improved greatly over the past two years, so he could at least survive in battle against Chu Kuangren, even if he ended up losing in the end.

However, he never expected to be trembling in fear before he could even fight Chu Kuangren.

Many scenes began to unfold inside his mind — scenes of Chu Kuangren at the Great Ten Thousand Mountains and Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave.

That person’s power alone overwhelmed every single yokai sky-pride in the Great Ten Thousand Mountains until they could not even do anything about it. He had single-handedly humiliated the whole yokai species.

The trauma inflicted by Chu Kuangren upon the younger generation of yokai of the Great Ten Thousand Mountains was just too great!

Meanwhile, Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and the others soon noticed Chu Kuangren’s presence and the yokai cultivator’s strange behavior following that.

They were surprised

‘What has the Chief done?’

‘Why are the yokai cultivators so afraid of him?’

‘All he’s doing is standing there, yet the morale of the yokai cultivators has been crushed.’

They did not think that the Daoist core of their opponents was weak. Hence, they could only speculate that Chu Kuangren must have done something so terrible that it traumatized the yokai cultivators’ Daoist core.

“Oh well, let’s defeat them first.”

“Ha! Now that the Chief’s here, I must perform well and show him how much I’ve improved.”

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and the others immediately attacked.

As for the yokai cultivators, their combat morale had already dwindled because of Chu Kuangren’s arrival. By then, they could no longer put up a fight and soon fell to a disadvantage.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren looked at the Dark Fox Maiden Sage and said, "About my offer for the Dark Fox Tribe to consider last time, have they come up with an answer?"

'It's here...'

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage took a deep breath.

'The key turning point of the Dark Fox Tribe's future is here!'

Chapter 1280: The Dark Fox Tribe Submits, Another Follower Joins, the Thousand Buddha Grotto

Upon hearing Chu Kuangren's question, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage took a deep breath, and a strand of black qi emerged from her body.

The black qi then turned into a gorgeous figure.

It was the Dark Fox King.

As an Arch Gilded Immortal, the Dark Fox King would never show herself that easily in the Interstellar Arena.

Therefore, the one appearing before Chu Kuangren was just a strand of her Immortal Consciousness, which came to negotiate with him.

There was a complicated, hostile, and humiliated look on the Dark Fox King's face when she saw the young man again.

That young man was the one who single-handedly turned the tide in favor of Tushan and the Emerald Hill, foiling the plans of the Dark Fox Tribe and the other Beast Ruler Tribes.

It was the very same young man who sought to make their Dark Fox Tribe submit to him.

However, other than feelings of enmity and humiliation, there was a stronger wistful feeling of hope.

"You. Do you truly have a way to get rid of my Dark Fox Tribe's bloodline imperfection?"

The Dark Fox King immediately went straight to the point.

"Isn't the proof standing before you now?"

Chu Kuangren was referring to the Dark Fox Maiden Sage, of course.

He had restored all the imperfections of her bloodline, so the Dark Fox King only needed to check her to verify whether he was telling the truth.

"The Dark Fox Maiden Sage is a Heavenly Champion sky-pride who's different from ordinary yokai foxes."

"If I can restore her bloodline, it should be no problem for me to do the same with everyone else. This is an undeniable fact."

"What do you seek from the Dark Fox Tribe in return?" the Dark Fox King asked with a serious expression.

That was what she wanted to know the most.

There was no such thing as a free lunch, after all.

Chu Kuangren must certainly have something he wanted for helping the Dark Fox Tribe.

“Hmph.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled and shook his head. “Don’t get ahead of yourself.”

“You...” The Dark Fox King frowned, starting to get angered by that.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored her and continued. “Honestly speaking, helping restore the imperfections in your bloodline is just something I decided to do on a whim. Most importantly, I’m doing your tribe a favor by having all of you submit to me!”

“The Dark Fox Tribe has invaded Tushan and Emerald Hill before. Now that both tribes have united, the Dark Fox Tribe will have no place among the yokai foxes. The end of your tribe is just a matter of time.”

“Right now, the only person who can help you is me. I have a good standing with Tushan and Emerald Hill. If I were to put in my word this matter, the two yokai fox rulers could put aside your transgressions for now.”

“Besides, I can restore the imperfections of the Dark Fox bloodline. No matter how you see it, it’s the Dark Fox Tribe who will gain a bigger advantage than me, who only asked that you submit to me and carry out my will.”

“If that’s not doing you guys a favor, what is?” said Chu Kuangren calmly.

With every sentence he said, the Dark Fox King and the Dark Fox Maiden’s expressions turned grimmer. Soon, their hearts sank.

Both of them knew that although Chu Kuangren sounded a bit exaggerating, his analysis of the Dark Fox Tribe’s situation was almost perfect.

That was why their expressions turned grim.

In that negotiation with Chu Kuangren, they had fallen into the palm of his hand with no room for them to set any terms of their own.

“Now, make your decision, Dark Fox King,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently with his hands crossed.

The Dark Fox King hesitated.

Finally, she took a deep breath and sighed. She, too, was unsure whether that decision of hers would bring a quicker end or a better future for the Dark Fox Tribe.

However, she could only take a gamble now.

“I, representing the Dark Fox Tribe, will submit to you!” the Dark Fox King said in a serious tone.

“Very well.

“This will be the best decision you’ve made in your whole life.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Soon after, the Dark Fox King's Immortal Consciousness dispersed, leaving only the Dark Fox Maiden Sage standing in her spot.

She stared conflictedly at Chu Kuangren — a True Immortal who had just gained a Beast Ruler Tribe as his subordinates.

What the Dark Fox King said before she left soon played in her mind.

"Maiden Sage, from this day onward, you shall stay by Chu Kuangren's side. The future of the Dark Fox Tribe lies in this person, and you must build a good relationship with him, even if it means sacrificing yourself."

The Dark Fox King was implying something else when it came to the sacrificing part.

The Dark Fox Tribe was skilled in the art of seduction and charming techniques.

From the Dark Fox King's perspective, despite how remarkable Chu Kuangren was, he was still a man. There was no way he could be pure at heart.

As long as the Dark Fox Maiden Sage stayed by his side, it would only be a matter of time before feelings would arise.

However, the Dark Fox Maiden Sage could only let out a bitter smile upon recalling her past encounters with Chu Kuangren.

'It's not going to be that easy to charm a man like him. This guy's Daoist core is immovable like a mountain!'

'Forget about it.'

'I'll see how things go as time goes by then.'

At that time, a horrifying scream sounded.

The White Tiger sky-pride had been struck by a spear attack from Wang Chentian, whose vast spear energy sent him flying backward.

Blood splattered everywhere.

The remaining yokai sky-prides were soon defeated by the Hundred Academy cultivators, one by one.

"Greetings, Chief."

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and the others came before Chu Kuangren and greeted him.

"Mm."

Chu Kuangren nodded gently at everyone with a smile. "It looks like everyone has obtained Opportunities of Fortune of their own and improved quite a lot."

"Well, no matter how much we improve, we're still leagues away from you, Chief."

"That's right. We heard of what you did on Terraspirit Planet. You're awesome as ever, Chief."

Everyone chatted for a while.

Following that, Chu Kuangren asked them about the Buddhist Sarira.

“The Buddhist Sarira is located at the Thousand Buddha Grotto. Many people have gone there by now. I heard the Buddhist orthodoxies have made their move too.”

Cao Yun chuckled.

Many outstanding sky-prides and Heavenly Champions have appeared from the Buddhist orthodoxies.

There were even a few among them who were Prodigies too.

Cao Yun then told Chu Kuangren some information about the Thousand Buddha Grotto. It was true that a Sarira was found there. However, that Sarira was not easy to obtain as a Buddhist Great One had set up a trial for those who wanted it.

No one had been able to pass that trial even until now.

Even some Buddhist sky-prides could not get through either.

It was said that the Buddhist Prodigies would soon arrive.

“Is that so? How interesting.”

Chu Kuangren grinned.

“Chief, who’s this...”

Zhao Fangfei noticed the Dark Fox Maiden Sage beside Chu Kuangren and immediately put on her guard.

Being the successor of the Baimei Tribe, she too specialized in charms and distraction.

However, she realized her charming techniques were even worse than that of the Dark Fox Maiden Sage.

“No need to worry. She poses no threat to us. She’s my... follower, I suppose,” Chu Kuangren said lightly.

The Dark Fox Maiden Sage’s mouth twitched a little. However, she did not refute him. ‘Oh well, if a follower is what I am.’

Cao Yun and the others were amazed by that.

‘The Dark Fox Maiden Sage was a top-notch sky-pride who was second only to the Prodigies out there. To think that someone like her is willing to stay by Chu Kuangren’s side as his follower.’

‘What an extraordinary person he is.’

“Why is the Chief always surrounded by yokai foxes?”

There was a hint of jealousy in Zhao Fangfei’s tone.

Lil Fox and Dark Fox Maiden Sage were both yokai foxes.

“Don’t worry about it. Let’s head to the Thousand Buddha Grotto now.”

Chu Kuangren laughed.

His goal this time was to obtain the Buddhist Sarira.

As for gaining the Dark Fox Tribe's loyalty, that was only an incidental event that happened.

The Thousand Buddha Grotto was the place with the largest gathering of sky-prides on Terraglyph Planet.

Many sky-prides from all over the galaxy had come here to get that Buddhist Sarira.

Besides containing the Buddhist Great One's inheritance, the Buddhist Sarira could also increase one's cultivation level and protect their Daoist core from being affected by trauma.

With that item around, the user's rate of comprehending the Dao would increase greatly.

Hence, many non-Buddhist cultivators were also interested in getting their hands on that item.
