

Unparalleled 1301

Chapter 1301: Look At Their Chief, He Masters The Duality Rites Immortal Physique And Completes The Green Leaf Sword Vision

“Is this enough, Brother Chu?”

Ye Zhu looked pale after taking out a drop of blood from his heart, but he still showed a gentle smile.

Not everyone could be like Chu Kuangren, who dug his heart out to refine and make a puppet without blinking his eyes.

Even a drop of blood from the heart was a huge loss to ordinary cultivators.

“That’s enough.”

Chu Kuangren took over the blood and immediately took out a green leaf that contained intensely pure life qi.

Just smelling it made people feel alive.

Chu Kuangren handed the leaf to Ye Zhu. After consuming it, Ye Zhu felt that his vitality, which was lost through the blood, was recovering rapidly.

“What a magical leaf. What kind of Immortal Herb is this?”

“The Undying Elixir Leaf,” said Chu Kuangren.

The leaf was a small piece that he pinched from the Undying Elixir.

Although it was merely one percent of the leaf, it was very useful to a cultivator like Ye Zhu.

“The Undying Elixir?!”

Ye Zhu and Su Yun were taken aback before coming to a realization. “I heard Brother Chu managed to obtain the West Ruler Matriarch’s Undying Elixir from the Kunlun Secret Realm’s Jade Pool. I can’t believe it’s true.”

“Don’t you want to know what I’m going to do with your blood?” Chu Kuangren laughed.

“Although I’m curious, you will tell me if you wish to. Why should I ask?”

“Aren’t you afraid I will use it for some curses? Curse you with your blood and eventually kill you without you knowing?”

Upon hearing that, Su Yun’s expression changed, and he became a little nervous.

However, Ye Zhu reacted indifferently to it. “Brother Chu, why would you want to go through all that trouble to kill me?”

Indeed. With Chu Kuangren’s strength, it was not difficult for him to kill Ye Zhu, so he had no need to use tricks like curses.

“Ha. Brother Ye, since you’re so calm about it, I won’t hide it from you.”

A green light flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes as the aura of the Green Leaf Sword Vision emanated from him. Then, he smiled faintly and said, "Brother Ye, I have an incomplete version of the Green Leaf Sword Vision like you, and the reason why I want a drop of your blood essence is to try to evolve it into the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision."

"I see."

Ye Zhu was surprised to learn that Chu Kuangren also had the Green Leaf Sword Vision, but he did not think much about it.

After all, he would never have thought that Chu Kuangren had something like the Tome of Physiques and obtained the Green Leaf Sword Vision from him.

In fact, he admired Chu Kuangren even more.

In his opinion, with Chu Kuangren's strength, Chu Kuangren could have grabbed the Green Leaf Sword Vision from him before he refined it and mastered the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision.

However, Chu Kuangren did not do so. Instead, he safeguarded him by stopping the Buddha's Sword and others.

Not everyone could resist the temptation of the Supreme Immortal Physique.

Even Ye Zhu could not do so if he and Chu Kuangren were to exchange positions. That made him respect and admire Chu Kuangren even more!

"Is a drop enough? Do you want a few more?" asked Ye Zhu.

Chu Kuangren rolled his eyes, thinking, 'Do you think you have the Indestructible Physique like me?'

How could he give away his blood like that?

"No, I don't need them, and I'm afraid I don't have enough Undying Elixir with me."

Chu Kuangren smiled, but having said that, he appreciated Ye Zhu even more.

Following that, he found a place in the Sword Immortal's Tomb and was ready to analyze the Duality Rites Immortal Physique and the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

Before analyzing, he distributed some of the treasures he obtained in the battle to Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and others. After all, some treasures were of little use to him but were more effective for Cao Yun and others.

"Sure enough, with the Chief around, we don't have to worry about treasures."

Wang Chentian lamented while wearing the golden armor of the Buddha's Sword.

The armor alone was equivalent to what he had gained in the Interstellar Arena over the last two years.

"Indeed. With the Chief around, who in the Interstellar Arena would dare to call himself a sky-pride?"

Cao Yun smiled with Gentleman Langya's iron fan in his hand.

The iron fan ribs were composed of thirty-six Immortal Swords, which could form a peerless sword formation that trapped and killed enemies. It was a very practical Immortal Weapon.

On top of that, he was proficient in Runic Dao. If runes were inlaid on it, the iron fan would be even more powerful.

The rest of the academy's Heavenly Champions also had their gains.

For a second, many sky-prides looked at the academy's Heavenly Champions enviously.

"It looks great to have a Chief like Chu Kuangren."

"D*mn it. Is it too late for me to join the academy now?"

"Boohoo... Look at their Chief, and then look at mine. I feel like crying."

"Sigh. Let alone treasures, my senior brother hasn't even given me half a medicinal pill so far. Their difference is drastic."

Somewhere in the Sword Immortal's Tomb, Chu Kuangren took out Zhuo Donglai's heart and began to analyze it.

About a month later, a black and white Immortal's Core suddenly flowed out from his body, which was filled with interweaving Daoist patterns, and an incomparably powerful Yin Yang intent emanated outward.

It was the Duality Rites Immortal Physique!

The next moment, as Chu Kuangren opened his eyes, a gigantic Yin Yang Symbol emerged above his head and covered the sky. It was so powerful that just a trace was enough to shatter planets.

It was the Duality Rites Immortal Physique's divine ability, Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

The Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol was similar to his Yin Yang Life and Death Symbol, but the former concentrated on Yin and Yang while the latter concentrated on life and death.

Soon after, the Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol dissipated.

The black and white Immortal Sparks circulated Chu Kuangren, turning into dazzling black and white beams of light that seemed like they could pierce through the chaos and the void!

As the divine light shot out, it pierced through dozens of stars in the sky!

A series of firelight erupted in the sky like fireworks!

The power of that attack was much stronger than Zhuo Donglai's.

It was another Duality Rites Immortal Physique's divine ability, Divine Yinyang Rejuvenation Light!

"Is this the Duality Rites Immortal Physique? Its power is indeed extraordinary."

Chu Kuangren smiled with satisfaction.

However, he already had several physiques that were no weaker than the Duality Rites Immortal Physique, so another one would not be obvious for his improvement.

“Sure enough, it is better to increase the quality of physiques than to increase the quantity!”

“But very few physiques in the Immortal World can match the Supreme Immortal Physique, let alone surpass it. My Ultimate Almighty Source Physique is still the best among all!”

The Ultimate Almighty Source Physique was a powerful physique that Chu Kuangren formed based on the Tome of Physiques and from the merging of thousands of physiques.

Although it had unlimited potential, its recent development had fallen into a bottleneck, and it was not easy to break through it.

“In short, before breaking through the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique’s bottleneck, I shall master as many powerful physiques as possible,” mumbled Chu Kuangren.

Following that, he took out Ye Zhu’s blood and analyzed the Green Leaf Sword Vision with it.

Another few days later, an incomparably powerful sword intent shot up into the sky and shook the starry sky!

A peerless sword grass emerged in the void. As its leaf swayed, sword qi swept across the universe like an endless gust of wind!

Ye Zhu, who was adapting to the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision energy, suddenly opened his eyes and looked into the distance in shock.

“This is the Green Leaf Sword Vision’s energy, the complete one!”

“Brother Chu has succeeded!”

Chapter 1302: Physique Clash, Ultimate Almighty Source Physique Overpowered An Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, Chu Hong’s Whereabouts

“Brother Chu did it!” Ye Zhu gasped in shock.

The other cultivators from the Three Clarity Daoist Sect were also shocked by the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision’s power.

Originally, they did not believe Chu Kuangren could deduce the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision using only one drop of Ye Zhu’s blood.

After all, the Green Leaf Sword Vision should not be that easily deduced, even if it was the incomplete version.

If it were that easy, the Green Leaf Sword Vision would not be so rare.

After all, it was one of the Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques, and one might not even show up in eras.

That was why many powerful Immortal Physiques had appeared in bulk in this era of Heavenly Champions.

Chu Kuangren used a drop of blood and reverse-deduced the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision!

It was inconceivable to even think about it.

The great ones of the Immortal World who watched over the Interstellar Arena from the dark were silenced.

Chu Kuangren was a monster — a monstrosity!

All it took was a drop of blood, and he managed to deduce an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique?! It was simply unheard of!

Suddenly, they remembered Chu Kuangren had many Immortal Physiques and started to believe he acquired them through that particular method.

“What’s he doing?”

“Is he trying to acquire all the Immortal Physiques so that he could combine them all into one ultimate physique?”

The thought scared some of the great ones. Their hearts skipped a beat, and their expressions changed.

Combining all the Immortal Physiques into one was indubitably a terrifying Dao.

There were brave souls in the past who had tried it before, but the merging of Immortal Physiques was not something that could be easily achieved.

If one possessed more Immortal Physiques than one could bear, clashes between physiques were bound to happen. The more the Immortal Physiques, the fiercer the clash.

Most who walked that path would eventually perish due to the multiple clashes of Immortal Physique inside the body.

“Even for Chu Kuangren, this path is not an easy one.”

“I’m curious to find out how far he can go. Will he pave a path that no one has walked before, or will he follow the footsteps of the fallen souls?”

Some looked forward to his achievement, while some gloated at his foolish endeavor.

The Golden Crow King, a great one from the Buddhist world, and some others anticipated his failure.

However, little did they know that Chu Kuangren was not only remarkably gifted, but he also had the Tome of Physiques, an item that helped him cheat.

...

“I did it.”

Chu Kuangren smiled as he savored the pure Green Leaf Sword Vision energy in his body.

A moment later, the enhanced Green Leaf Sword Vision’s energy started to clash with the Heavenly Samsara Physique, Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, and the Duality Rites Immortal Physique’s energies.

The sword qi, Samara energy, Chaos Celestial Demon energy, and Yin Yang energy — all four different energies clashed violently in his body.

The clash made Chu Kuangren frown.

“Oh, so the four Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques are finally clashing?”

Chu Kuangren was not surprised about the clash at all as he knew about it.

If he had not mastered all the physiques he possessed, the clash would have happened a long time ago with so many Immortal Physiques in him.

Fortunately, with the Tome of Physiques in his possession, there was a way to solve the clash.

Just as he was about to deal with the problem, a transcendental Immortal Physique’s energy fluctuation erupted in his body.

The fluctuation overpowered the other Immortal Physiques with its transcendent presence.

Then, all four of the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques started to calm down as though they submitted to the energy fluctuation.

“This... It’s the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique!”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes gleamed.

The Ultimate Almighty Source Physique was suppressing the other Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques’ energy fluctuation like a king ordering its subjects around.

It had the power to rule over the other Immortal Physiques!

Chu Kuangren pondered the situation and soon reached a conclusion.

He giggled. “As expected of the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique. It’s so powerful that it can suppress an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique.”

With the Ultimate Almighty Source Physique in his body, the clash between physiques solved itself.

If the great ones knew about that, what would they think about it? Would they be dumbstruck?

After all, to think an Immortal Physique could rule over and dominate an Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique! The Immortal Physique must be a terrifying one.

“My closed-door cultivation this time has enabled me to analyze the two Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques. Now, let’s move on to the other spoils,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

After that, he retrieved the treasures glimmering in Immortal Sparks, which he got from Buddha’s Sword and other sky-prides.

The treasures included all kinds of Immortal Weapons and Immortal Techniques.

The one that caught his attention was a dark green pearl emanating a terrifying poison qi, which a sliver of it could kill a thousand lives.

The pearl was the source of the Immortal Dissolving Poison.

“This Immortal Dissolving Poison Source was crafted using the Yokai King’s poison heart. It will benefit my Demonic Omnitoxin Technique greatly if I can completely absorb it. Then, my physical body will achieve the complete Gilded Traits, and I can break through to the Gilded Immortal Realm,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

However, the process required time, so he absorbed it into his body first and waited for the perfect timing to refine and absorb it.

Since there were plenty more Opportunities of Fortune in the Interstellar Arena, he did not need to focus on that particular pearl while he could get more.

Other than the Immortal Dissolving Poison Source, there were also other Immortal Techniques, such as the Three Affirming Bodhi from the Buddhist world, Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation from the Demonic Dao Sects, the Langya Sword Art, and more.

He also kept Linghu Zun’s Demon Sword.

“This Demon Sword has a bloodthirsty property, and it’s a rather strange one. According to the books, three ultimate demon swords used to exist in the history of the Sword Demon Tribe. Each of them had different properties, such as bloodthirst, God-fearing, and soul-snatching.

“All three demon swords are ridiculously powerful. They are all related to the founder, Sword Demon, who is also the strongest in the Sword Demon Tribe. Maybe I can keep an eye out for this,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

That was the reason why he kept the demon sword.

The Sword Demon, an ancient but powerful cultivator from the Demonic Sect, was an Embodier that could rival the Heavenly Yokai King.

The Dugu Sword Art he cultivated was ranked fourth on the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques, which Chu Kuangren deemed worthy of his attention.

Then, he absorbed all the treasures one by one. He comprehended what he could and refined what was left.

He spent a few days gaining insights into the Immortal Techniques, and although he could not complete the refining in a few days, he had time to spare. Hence, he spent another half a month upgrading his Demonic Omnitoxin Technique and strengthening his physical body.

The Immortal Dissolving Poison Source was probably the biggest spoil from the bunch.

Meanwhile, on a certain ancient planet within the Interstellar Arena, a fiery red figure soared across the sky.

“This ancient planet is resonating with my Godly Phoenix Bloodline. There must be an inheritance left behind by a Godly Phoenix great one.”

It was Chu Hong. She had spent the last two years training in the Interstellar Arena and acquired quite the number of Opportunities of Fortune. Since then, her strength has improved by leaps and bounds.

Her bloodline had also been awoken six times in the past two years, and she was one step shy from achieving the seventh awakening.

She had a hunch that her seventh awakening would be on the ancient planet before her eyes.

Chapter 1303: Chu Hong's Opportunity of Fortune, The Godly Phoenix's Trials, Huang Jinghuang

Chu Hong's figure flashed and flew into the planet like a meteor.

The ancient planet housed a plethora of Opportunities of Fortune.

Chu Hong searched the planet and found some that boosted her strength, but they were not major improvements.

She was one step shy of reaching the level of a Prodigy.

"I must awaken my bloodline for the seventh time. Only then I can rival the Prodigies, and only then I can catch up to my brother," Chu Hong murmured.

She had heard of Chu Kuangren's arrival at the Interstellar Arena.

The news of him killing a bunch of sky-prides, including several Prodigies, spread like wildfire, and it made her anxious.

Since her brother was getting stronger, she, too, must get stronger, or she would not be fit as a follower.

She did not want to fall behind too much. At least, she should be strong enough to be by his side.

With that in mind, Chu Hong continued searching for Opportunities of Fortune on the planet.

She followed the resonance she felt from her bloodline and headed in a certain direction.

The resonance guided her to a mountain valley.

Over there, her Godly Phoenix's bloodline reacted like never before as though it was yearning for something it had long desired.

"There must be a huge Opportunity of Fortune here waiting for me," Chu Hong murmured.

The mountain valley was blanketed with restriction seals, and the energy that aroused her bloodline lay deep in the valley.

"You're up."

Chu Hong took a golden bell out of her sleeve.

The bell was one of the treasures she acquired during her training in the Interstellar Arena — the Seal-Breaking Bell.

As its name suggested, it was used especially to break restriction seals. Little it might look, but it was actually an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon that one could only dream of.

Chu Hong channeled her Immortal's Core and infused it into the bell.

The bell moved, releasing a pleasant chime and a surge of mystical energy fluctuation into the air that crashed on the restriction seals like a tidal wave.

Bang! Bang!

The entire mountain valley rumbled.

Countless restriction seals in the void broke one after another under the bell's energy fluctuation.

Then, a tower built using countless Immortal Crystals started to emerge in the deepest part of the valley.

The palace was surrounded by intertwining Daoist patterns, glowing treasures, and Immortal Herbs everywhere.

As though the palace had sensed Chu Hong's arrival, a pillar of golden-red fire shot up into the sky and transformed into a beautiful Godly Phoenix.

The Godly Phoenix danced along the appearance of the Daoist patterns. Its fiery brilliance shrouded the sky, and its cry trembled heaven and earth.

"It really is the great one from the Divine Phoenix Tribe! This energy presence... The great one must have gone through at least eight times of bloodline awakening!"

Excited, Chu Hong's figure flashed and flew toward the palace. However, she was attacked by a blast of Phoenix Flame as she approached.

The Phoenix Flame resisted her presence as if it was keeping her away from the palace.

"Oh? Is this the trial left behind by the great one? Great. Let me have a go!"

A strong determination lit up in her eyes, and a set of reddish gold armor appeared on her body.

The armor was also a rare Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon — the treasure Chu Kuangren acquired from the Jade Pool.

He had multiple pieces of female-styled armor, so he gave one each to the Jade Pool Maiden Sage, Lan Yu, and Chu Hong.

With the aid of the armor, Chu Hong charged into the Phoenix Flame.

However, as she approached the palace, the Phoenix Flame grew stronger. Even with the help of the Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon, she was still pressured by the flame.

"No! If this continues, I won't be able to get the Opportunity of Fortune."

Chu Hong got anxious as she tried to break through the Phoenix Flame.

Still, she forced herself to calm down and pondered the situation for a solution.

Suddenly, she thought of a possible solution.

"This is the Phoenix Flame, and I'm a Godly Phoenix. Can I try to control it instead?"

She executed her thought immediately and mobilized her Immortal's Core. She took in a sliver of Phoenix Flame, suppressed it, and tried to control it.

The Phoenix Flame was left behind by an Embodier Godly Phoenix, so its power was a lot stronger than her own.

Even though it was just a sliver of it, Chu Hong had a difficult time trying to control it. As such, she had to muster all her strength.

"I did it!"

After successfully controlling the sliver of flame, the immense Phoenix Flame that tried to devour her looked less scary.

Now, the flame even felt familiar.

A quick thought later, she decided to absorb more flame and control it.

She got better after a few tries and even started to gain insights into the flame. With that, she decided to withdraw her armor and transform it into her true form to tackle the flame.

Again, the Phoenix Flame tried to devour her alive, but she stood brave.

Following a powerful phoenix cry, her own Phoenix Flame started to merge with the Phoenix Flame in the area.

"You've finally understood it."

A voice sounded in the void.

An exotic Godly Phoenix emerged from the sea of flames and presented its glorious, elegant self in front of Chu Hong.

It was like looking at a noble phoenix, and Chu Hong was like a child before it.

"Greetings, senior." Chu Hong bowed and greeted the phoenix respectfully.

"Us phoenixes are divine beasts that can come back to life from the flames, so you don't need to be afraid of it. Controlling flame is an instinct for us.

"However, you tried to resist it using an Immortal Weapon. If you didn't understand the situation in time and continued to rely on the armor, the Phoenix Flame that I left behind would've burned you to ashes," said the Godly Phoenix.

Chu Hong felt embarrassed. "Sorry, senior. I was being stupid."

"You're not too slow as you could understand the point and discard the protection of the armor. You are worthy to receive my inheritance."

"Thank you, senior."

Chu Hong was delighted.

“Young Godly Phoenix, I hope you can take my inheritance and carry it forward. Do not shame the name Huang Jinghuang!”

The sea of Phoenix Flame gushed toward Chu Hong in an instant.

Chu Hong accepted all of it without fear. The Phoenix Flame gushed into her body rapidly, and she could clearly feel that her bloodline was undergoing a drastic change.

At the same time, she also received a part of Huang Jinghuang’s memories.

Huang Jinghuang was the most exotic Godly Phoenix in her nest back in ancient times. She was reputed to be the one to awaken the Godly Phoenix bloodline the ninth time and rival the Phoenix Forefathers!

However, the calamity that put the entire Immortal World, and even the whole universe, forced her to leave its nest.

While she was going to the frontline to protect the world, she had a feeling that that might be a trip of no return. Hence, she left her inheritance in the Interstellar Arena.

Huang Jinghuang’s life was nothing short of a wonder. She was born with the fifth awakened bloodline, and through cultivation, she achieved his eighth awakening. She was only one step shy of reaching the ninth time, which would allow her to rival the Phoenix Forefathers, and she barely met any rivals throughout his life.

If it were not for that universe-threatening calamity, she would have reached the Phoenix Forefathers level and become a powerhouse, second only to the Primordials.

“I shall carry forward senior’s wishes with my life. I will complete what you started and achieve the ninth awakening!”

Chu Hong understood that Huang Jinghuang’s biggest wish was to be as strong as the Phoenix Forefathers.

As its successor, she ought to finish what she could not.

Chapter 1304: Think Of A Way To Balance It, Huang Yuyi, Chu Kuangren Out Of Closed-door Meditation

The news of Chu Kuangren defeating all the sky-prides and Prodigies had spread across the Interstellar Arena, shocking countless sky-prides.

An Immortal Hall’s Imperial Commander in violet robes was watching the replay of Chu Kuangren’s battle with Buddha’s Sword and the others through the Vision Recording Rock.

The Holy Violet Imperial Commander’s expression turned bitter as he watched Chu Kuangren slaughter his opponents.

“I didn’t expect Chu Kuangren to be this powerful. With my current strength, I might not have the confidence in winning even if I run into him.”

He actually planned to ambush Chu Kuangren during the battle because the latter had killed a few of the Immortal Hall’s Heavenly Champion sky-prides. Yet now, it seemed like he had underestimated his opponent.

Based on what the replay showed him, if he could be Chu Kuangren's opponent, he might not even be able to match his strength, let alone ambush and kill him.

Perhaps he should thank the Buddha's Sword and the others for testing out Chu Kuangren's strength for him. If he ambushed Chu Kuangren foolishly, he would have found himself at a disadvantage, and he might even have died in the battle with Chu Kuangren.

"It seems like I have to plan this meticulously," the Holy Violet Imperial Commander murmured.

1

All of a sudden, he sensed something and looked into the distant galaxy.

He saw a pillar of fire bursting out from a certain planet, followed by a phoenix's cry that shook the universe.

"This energy... It's great! There must be some powerful Opportunity of Fortune there. Could it be the Phoenix's Nest?"

The Phoenix's Nest was an ancient force in the Immortal World, and its influence and the resources it possessed were only one step shy of that of the Immortal Hall.

The Holy Violet Imperial Commander had always paid close attention to the sky-prides and Prodigies of that force.

"I should probably go and have a look," he said.

With that, his figure flashed and disappeared from the spot.

In fact, not only the Holy Violet Imperial Commander, but the emergence of the Godly Phoenix's inheritance caused quite the commotion and attracted all the sky-prides nearby.

In a certain corner of the Interstellar Arena, a figure was enveloped in Buddhist Light. It was a lady in white, surrounded by holy and pure Buddhist light. She was as beautiful as a Bodhisattva.

The lady Bodhisattva had a Vision Recording Rock, which was also playing the battle with Chu Kuangren. She frowned when she saw Chu Kuangren slaughter the Buddha's Sword and the others.

"This person is so powerful that he might not meet his match in this Interstellar Arena. Even I might face difficulties in trying to match him. However, he has killed two Buddhist disciples from the Buddhist world, and I heard he also possesses the Papiyas Might, making him an enemy of Buddha... I have to come up with a solution to deal with him."

Firelight suddenly shot up into the sky.

The lady Bodhisattva stared at the burst of light and murmured, "The inheritance of the Godly Phoenix? Let's go have a look."

On the other hand, a man in crimson armor was refining an Immortal Herb on a certain ancient planet.

The man with the domineering energy presence wielded a red spear, and every move he made released scorching heat that could burn heaven and earth.

More importantly, the man had red hair and a pair of dragon horns.

He was from the Dragon Tribe!

Judging from his crimson hair, he should be from the Crimson Dragon Tribe that wielded the power of fire.

The crimson dragon opened his eyes and stared in the direction of the burst of light. Surprised, he said, "Oh? The emergence of the Godly Phoenix's inheritance? I didn't expect the Phoenix's Nest to beat the Dragon Tribe's great ones in revealing its inheritance. I wonder which sky-pride is lucky enough to acquire the Phoenix's Nest inheritance?"

He pondered as he flew toward the source of the phoenix cry.

"Who? Who is it? How is someone faster than me in acquiring the inheritance of the Phoenix great one?!"

On another ancient planet, a beautiful lady cultivator reacted coldly to the burst of light.

The lady's name was Huang Yuyi, one of the Prodigies of Phoenix's Nest. She came to the Interstellar Arena to train and also search for the inheritance of the Phoenix's Nest great ones.

However, she did not expect that someone else had beaten her at finding the inheritance.

"Phoenix Maiden, we've contacted the rest of the sky-prides and confirmed that none of them have acquired the inheritance," said one of the Phoenix Maidens who came with the status update.

"It's not one of ours who got the inheritance? In that case, who could it be? Someone from another tribe?" A cold gleam flashed across Huang Yuyi's eyes.

She could not allow someone other than the Phoenix's Nest to stain the inheritance of the Phoenix Tribe's great ones.

"Go! I want to know who has the nerve to snatch my inheritance!"

Huang Yuyi believed she was the only one in the whole Interstellar Arena worthy enough to acquire the inheritance.

Even if she did not get it directly from the great one, she could snatch it.

Back at Heavenly Celeste Star, Chu Kuangren had just come out of closed-door meditation.

His cultivation level remained the same, but his aura had become even more unpredictable.

Even Ye Zhu, a Prodigy, was scared of him. "Brother Chu, what state have you achieved?"

Ye Zhu was curious.

At that thought, the battle intent in his bones was growing restless.

Moreover, Chu Kuangren also possessed the Green Leaf Sword Vision, so he was curious to know the difference between them.

"Brother Ye, can't hold back anymore, huh?"

Chu Kuangren sensed his battle intent and curled his lips into a smile.

“Indeed. May I have the chance to spar with you?”

“If Brother Ye is in the mood for it, of course, I’ll spar with you.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and the others from the Three Clarity Daoist Sect were intrigued.

Both Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu possessed the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

With them both having one of the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, everyone wanted to know what would happen if the two of them fought.

On a spacious ground at the Sword Immortal’s Tomb were two giant swords erected from the ground — one black and one white.

The two swords trembled violently as two figures descended above the hilt respectively, emanating a vast sword qi.

They were Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu.

The sword qi they released affected more than half of the Sword Immortal’s Tomb.

Countless other sword cultivators were excited when they sensed the battle between the two of them.

“Oh my gosh! Two hosts of the Green Leaf Sword Vision are going to fight? This has never happened before!”

“Yeah! The Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique is rare even in the old times. It’s even rarer to have two of the same Immortal Physique exist in our times!”

“The battle between the two Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques will be a battle worthy to be written in history books!”

With that, all the sword cultivators gathered to watch the battle.

Chu Kuangren and Ye Chu stared at each other on top of the giant swords.

One of them looked calm, while the other looked motivated.

That was not their first spar.

When Shang Honghua was bullied by the Three Clarity Daoist Sect, Chu Kuangren challenged the Heavenly Champions of the sect and was paired with Ye Zhu.

However, the two of them were not as strong back then as they were now.

Considering that, this battle would be greater and more earth-shattering than the previous one.

Chapter 1305: Battle Of Green Leaf Sword Vision, Clash Between Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques

The battle between two Green Leaf Sword Vision hosts at the Sword Immortal’s Tomb came under the spotlight.

Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu stood on a giant sword tomb respectively. Boundless sword qi gushed out from them and clashed in the air.

They had not started the fight, yet the terrifying sword aura already blanketed the realm, reaching every corner of the planet.

Every other sword cultivator who came to watch the battle felt the aura, which put a serious look on their faces.

As the sword aura grew stronger, the air felt like it had countless sharp blades floating around.

“What a terrifying energy presence,” Su Yun exclaimed in awe.

Despite being further away, he could sense the sharpness in the air. His skin even felt like it was being cut.

At that exact moment, everyone felt like they were in a world of swords.

“It’s here!”

When the sword aura reached its peak, everyone’s gaze shrunk in shock.

Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu disappeared from the hilts of the giant swords, followed by a deafening explosion.

Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu clashed in the air, with one pointing his sword hand sign forward while the other wielded his bamboo stick.

Their swords remained unsheathed, yet the sword qi already stirred up a strong gale that swept across thousands of kilometers.

The destructive sword qi wreaked havoc in its trail, tearing the void into pieces.

The giant swords in the area trembled. The black and white ones, which were nearest to the epicenter, suffered multiple cracks on their bodies.

Clunk! Clank!

A series of the most awe-inspiring sword techniques followed after the initial clash.

As two of the strongest swordsmen among the younger generations, each attack and technique they performed felt smooth and skilled. Their peak performance made all the other cultivators awestruck.

“Lemna Sword Art!”

Ye Zhu wielded the bamboo stick in his hand skillfully. Countless Daoist patterns intertwined in the air and formed green lemna leaves that danced in the wind.

“Sword-like Heavenly Intent!”

Chu Kuangren moved his sword hand sign to transform the Heavenly intent into sword intent and then into sword qi.

The clash between the two sword techniques shook the realm, yet neither was at their full strength.

“Sword Technique, Gale!”

Ye Zhu swung his bamboo stick in a flurry and unleashed countless sword qi that formed an endless gale sweeping across every corner of the land.

The sword qi contained in the gale was shimmering in Immortal Sparks and enveloped in Daoist patterns.

“Oh, so this is the Four Elements Prime-Spirit Dao Sword from the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques.”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up. Given Ye Zhu’s talents, he was not surprised that the man mastered one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques.

“In that case, I shall answer with one of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques as well.”

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign upward. Then, a shimmering sword shadow shot up into the sky before it swung down at its target. On its way down, the sword shadow trembled heaven and earth.

It was the Langya Sword Art!

The usage of Langya Sword Art shocked a lot of the sky-prides.

“How did Chu Kuangren get his hands on Langya Sword Art? I thought it was a secret technique of the Langya Sword Sect only passed down among themselves?” asked one of the sword cultivators.

“It must be Gentleman Langya! He killed Gentleman Langya and got it from him!”

“No way! Even if it’s true, it has just been days since he’s been killed. Yet, Chu Kuangren has already mastered the Langya Sword Art to this extent? What kind of monster is he?”

Some of the sword cultivators were shocked at the thought.

The sword shadow clashed with the endless sword qi gale. Upon collision, the sword shadow tore the gale apart and forced Ye Zhu back.

However, Ye Zhu seized the opportunity and jumped higher into the air while mobilizing his sword intent to its fullest potential.

He shouted, “Sword Technique, Gale and Flame!”

Sword qi and Daoist patterns intertwined around him. Suddenly, the sword qi in the gale was granted an extra layer of scorching sword intent.

A great amount of sword qi containing the power of flame burst from the raging gale.

The gale boosted the flame’s power, and the flame aided the gale to grow stronger.

The combination of gale and flame, containing endless sword qi, was blasted toward Chu Kuangren again.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign forward and cast the Langya Sword Art again. The terrifying sword shadow shot up into the sky and divided the flame and gale attack.

“I knew this attack won’t be able to hold you down, Brother Chu. What about this?”

Ye Zhu took a deep breath before the power of all four elements, earth, wind, water, and fire, started to emerge from his sword intent.

The flame blazed, the gale whirled, and the water crashed.

All three powers were then carried and enveloped by the power of the land, forming an astonishing strike that trembled heaven and earth.

“Four elements combined, Four Elements Prime-Spirit Dao Sword!”

A sword shadow containing the combination of all four elements shot up into the sky, dying the sky above the Sword Immortal’s Tomb in rainbow colors.

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren’s eyes glimmered in surprise.

The mystical Four Elements Prime-Spirit Dao Sword’s power had overpowered the Langya Sword Art.

Both techniques were of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques, but there were also differences between them.

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign, and a silvery-white sword qi started to gather at the tip of his fingers. The sword qi contained countless mystical Daoist patterns, and each Daoist pattern had the power to break the void.

With his sword hand sign pointed out, sword qi shot forward like a comet. Its speed and dazzling shine feared even the Gods.

It was the other technique within the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques, Godfearing Daoist Sword Technique!

Godfearing versus Four Elements!

The two different surges of sword qi clashed violently. The collision released a terrifying sword qi blast that shook almost half the Sword Immortal’s Tomb.

Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu were caught in the collision.

However, Chu Kuangren remained still while Ye Zhu was forced back a hundred meters.

“Being able to battle with Brother Chu really excites me! Again, Brother Chu!”

The outer layer of Ye Zhu’s bamboo stick crumbled into pieces, revealing the azure sword within. Then, a stronger surge of sword qi was released from the blade.

At that, Chu Kuangren drew his Descendant Self from his waist as an act of respect.

Countless mystical runes swirled on Descendant Self’s blade.

Immortal Sparks shimmered, and a bright sword ray shot out. Countless other sword cultivators could sense the intense sword qi from the sword.

“Brother Chu’s sword seems to have gone through a drastic change.”

The changes to Descendant Self surprised Ye Zhu.

He then chuckled, and a green light swirled in his eyes, activating his Green Leaf Sword Vision.

“Sword Technique, Galaxy!”

Countless Daoist patterns intertwined in the void and formed the image of a billion stars.

That strike used a billion stars as its blade, which grew broader and stronger like the vast and boundless galaxy.

The technique was known as the Galaxy Prime Sword, which was also one of the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques.

With the boost from Green Leaf Sword Vision, its power was stronger than the Four Elements Prime-Spirit Dao Sword Technique.

Chu Kuangren also activated his Green Leaf Sword Vision in reaction to Ye Zhu’s.

The icon of a leaf appeared in his eyes.

Following that, a terrifying surge of demonic qi erupted from his body and was infused into his sword.

“Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation!”

It was the secret technique of the Sword Demon Tribe.

“Not only the Langya Sword Art, but he even mastered the Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation! Chu Kuangren’s cognizance is inhuman!”

“D*mn. You can’t really measure his strength using common sense. To think he can master two top-tier Arch Gilded Techniques in such a short time! Even an Arch Gilded Immortal might not be able to do it within a limited time.”

The other sword cultivators were in awe of Chu Kuangren’s achievements and deemed him a monster.

Both Galaxy Prime Sword and Demonic Nine Heavens Annihilation were boosted by their respective Green Leaf Sword Vision. Terrifying energy erupted while endless sword qi filled the realm and started to disrupt space.

Some of the sword cultivators could not even get near the battle. On the contrary, they were forced backward in order to dodge the sword qi’s energy wave.

As both sources of energy were pushed to their fullest potential, two green lights shot up into the sky and clashed in the void. Two stems of sword grasses with countless sword qi appeared within the light.

“This is it! The divine skill of Green Leaf Sword Vision, Grass Sword Art!”

Chapter 1306: I Should Be Written into History, Green Leaf Sword Ocean, You Are Not Worthy of the Godly Phoenix Name

The two stems of swordgrasses penetrated heaven and earth, and endless sword qi surrounded the air.

It was the Green Leaf Sword Vision’s divine skill, Grass Sword Art!

Grass Sword Art's appearance marked the start of the battle between two Green Leaf Sword Vision hosts.

"It's rare to come across one Green Leaf Sword Vision in this era. Our battle, the battle between two Green Leaf Sword Vision hosts, is unheard of even in ancient times. Brother Chu, this battle will be recorded into history books and praised by many generations to come," Ye Zhu said.

"I can reach the sun and moon with my hand and pluck stars from the sky. There is no one like me, and my name should already be written into history," Chu Kuangren said as the sword qi around him grew stronger.

His voice echoed across a million kilometers.

Everyone in the Sword Immortal's Tomb who heard his voice reacted with a mix of emotions.

There was jealousy, envy, admiration, and all kinds of mixed emotions on their faces.

Chu Kuangren had reached the peak of sky-pride without a doubt. As he said it himself, his name should be written into history.

"Hahaha! I admire your boldness, Brother Chu. Now, let us continue our spar!"

Ye Zhu cackled in laughter.

After that, the leaves of the swordgrass behind him moved and unleashed sword qi as vast as mountains that felt like they could destroy the moon and stars.

In reaction to Ye Zhu's attack, Chu Kuangren also activated his Grass Sword Art.

Robust sword qi clashed in the sky and ripped the space into shreds. Eventually, dark spatial cracks started to appear in the air like it was about to collapse.

A few exchanges later, the space around Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu collapsed into nothingness.

Only the two stems of swordgrass remained in the collapsed space, and each time the leaves moved, it unleashed endless sword qi at its opponent.

The power from the clash between two Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques shook the heavens.

At the same time, the sword cultivators who witnessed the astonishing battle were awe-struck.

"The Green Leaf Sword Vision is really scary!"

"The clash between two Green Leaf Sword Vision is really a spectacle!"

The robust sword qi that filled the sky made them feel like they were drowned in an ocean of sword qi powerful enough to destroy them thousand times over.

Bang! Clank! Kaboom!

The Grass Sword Art continued to crash into each other.

With the complete version of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, the Grass Sword Art was far stronger than before.

In addition to Chu Kuangren and Ye Zhu both at the True Immortal Realm, the power they released easily surpassed those of the Second- to Third-grade True Immortals.

“Brother Chu, let’s end this with the next move!” Ye Zhu smiled.

Then, a great amount of azure sword qi erupted from his body and shot up into the sky, where they transformed into tree leaves in the air and shadowed the land.

Each leaf was the purest of sword qi.

The swordgrass behind him shone brightly in Immortal Sparks, and the sword qi it released enveloped the realm.

“Green Leaf Sword Vision, Green Leaf Sword Ocean!”

Green Leaf Sword Ocean was the second divine skill of the Green Leaf Sword Vision.

Ye Zhu’s incomplete Green Leaf Sword Vision originally did not have that divine skill, but the complete version allowed him to master the skill.

Seeing that, Chu Kuangren channeled his sword vision as well.

As he, too, channeled the Green Leaf Sword Ocean, an even more powerful surge of energy erupted.

The two sword oceans, formed by countless leaves, collided. One by one, the leaves transformed into sword rays and continued to clash in the void. The dazzling sword rays shone through the past and present, shadowing even the brightest star in the universe!

At the same time, the land was torn apart by the immensely powerful sword qi.

After countless collisions of sword qi, Chu Kuangren’s sword ocean slowly gained the upper hand and overpowered Ye Zhu’s.

Ye Zhu’s leaves were crushed and replaced by Chu Kuangren’s. Soon, he was surrounded by the ocean of leaves.

One thought from Chu Kuangren and the leaves could transform into the sharpest sword ray, obliterating Ye Zu completely.

“I lost.” Ye Zhu smiled. He looked rather calm after conceding as he was not surprised by the outcome.

Buddha’s Sword, Huijue, and Wang Tianba tried to gang up on Chu Kuangren, yet they were countered and killed despite being Prodigies themselves.

Ye Zhu losing to Chu Kuangren was only normal. The only thing that crushed him was that Chu Kuangren fought him using the Green Leaf Sword Vision from the start, and the outcome proved that Chu Kuangren had mastered the Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique better than him.

Defeating him using the second divine skill, Green Leaf Sword Ocean, further proved it.

It was unbelievable that Chu Kuangren deduced the complete version of Green Leaf Sword Vision using one drop of Ye Zhu’s blood, yet he was far stronger than its original host.

“You seem to hold endless secrets, Brother Chu,” Ye Zhu exclaimed.

After this battle, he no longer wanted to compete against Chu Kuangren to become the ruler of the Immortal World.

It would be suicidal if he continued.

The other sword cultivators also reacted calmly to Ye Zhu’s loss because they anticipated it before the battle started.

Everyone knew Chu Kuangren’s strength and believed it was impossible to defeat the man.

Now, the only thing that intrigued them was how powerful Chu Kuangren was exactly or how powerful could he get.

“He definitely held back when he fought the Buddha’s Sword and the others. Moreover, he only used the sword vision in the spar against Ye Zhu. He didn’t even use his other techniques.”

“How many more tricks he had under his sleeves?”

“A powerful enemy is not as scary as an enemy with an unknown number of trump cards. No one can ever know how powerful he really is,” said one of the sword cultivators.

After the spar ended, a blast of firelight shone in the distant galaxy, and its unique energy wave scattered across the galaxy.

Everyone thought they heard a phoenix’s cry, which surprised many cultivators.

“What is this aura? Could it be the appearance of some rare Opportunity of Fortune?”

“The phoenix’s cry... Could it be related to Phoenix’s Nest?”

Chu Kuangren also sensed the energy fluctuation from afar. His eyes gleamed out of interest. “A Godly Phoenix’s Opportunity of Fortune? Maybe Lil Red will be there.”

...

Phoenix Flame scorched the land of an ancient planet.

Amidst the sea of flame was the figure of a Godly Phoenix absorbing the surrounding Phoenix Flame to strengthen her aura.

Swoosh!

A person suddenly arrived from outer space. The person was wearing a set of beautiful crimson armor with Phoenix Flame surrounding her, and the Daoist patterns on her armor complemented her remarkable noble presence.

It was the Phoenix Maiden of Phoenix’s Nest, Huang Yuyi.

She frowned when she saw Chu Hong accepting the inheritance. “She’s of a Godly Phoenix bloodline, but I’ve never seen her before. Is she a Godly Phoenix outside of the nest?”

Then, she noticed Chu Hong's bloodline presence growing stronger, so much that it had started to overpower her own. It irritated her.

"A wild Godly Phoenix trying to overpower me? You're dreaming!"

Although both of them were Godly Phoenixes, Huang Yuyi was an unreasonable person. She could not allow some Godly Phoenix she had never seen before to snatch her spotlight.

With that thought in mind, she unleashed a punch.

Her Phoenix Flame gushed toward its target, but it was shielded off by an invisible barrier, revealing the restriction seals in the void.

"You're also a Godly Phoenix, yet you attack your own? You're not worthy to be a Godly Phoenix!"

A cold voice sounded in Huang Yuyi's head.

Then, a more powerful Phoenix Flame blasted Huang Yuyi away.

"This power... Who are you, senior?!" Huang Yuyi was shocked.

"My name is Huang Jinghuang!"

Chapter 1307: The Arrogant Huang Yuyi, Prodigies From All Corners of the Universe Arrive, Loong Zhen of the Crimson Dragon Tribe

"I am Huang Jinghuang!"

An indifferent voice containing a domineering aura sounded.

The moment she heard that name, Huang Yuyi's expression immediately turned into disbelief. "Huang Jinghuang! Is that really you?!"

Huang Jinghuang was a sky-pride that possessed unparalleled talent. Notable for being one of the Godly Phoenixes who was almost on par with the Phoenix Forefather, records of her feats and achievements could be found in the Phoenix's Nest scriptures.

"Why? Why have you given your inheritance to a wild Godly Phoenix who isn't from the Phoenix's Nest?!"

Huang Yuyi questioned, "I'm clearly the best candidate to receive your inheritance, so why have you chosen her instead?!"

"Simple. It's because she passed my trial. Besides, as a young generation cultivator of the Phoenix's Nest, do you think you have the right to question my decision?!"

The tone of Huang Jinghuang's voice became more apathetic.

Despite being only a strand of Immortal Consciousness, her terrifying aura could still bring about an uncontrollable sense of submission in Huang Yuyi's bloodline.

It was just too powerful, and that was the power of an Embodier Godly Phoenix!

Even with the aura of one strand of his Immortal Consciousness, Huang Yuyi still could not handle it.

“Because you’re a younger generation sky-pride from the Phoenix’s Nest, I shall temporarily overlook your insolence. Now, leave,” Huang Jinghuang said indifferently.

Huang Yuyi looked conflicted, and there was a sense of unwillingness in her eyes.

However, because Huang Jinghuang’s Immortal Consciousness was here, she could not do anything to Chu Hong but leave. Still, she did not leave far from the place.

“Huang Jinghuang might be powerful, but that’s only her Immortal Consciousness. How long can she possibly retain that form?”

“Once that Godly Phoenix obtains her inheritance, that Immortal Consciousness will surely dissipate. When that time comes, I’ll go and snatch it from her. What can you do about it, huh, Huang Jinghuang?!” Huang Yuyi thought.

She was arrogant and domineering by nature. Whatever she had her eyes on, she must get it at all costs!

Within the Phoenix Flames, Huang Jinghuang’s Immortal Consciousness sighed.

“A wild Godly Phoenix who’s not from the Phoenix’s Nest, huh? Oh well, she’s still a Godly Phoenix anyway.”

She did not regret giving her inheritance to Chu Hong.

Besides, she sensed a vague karmic effect inside Chu Hong, and that karmic effect might perhaps lead to a tremendous impact on the Phoenix’s Nest in the future.

That was one of the reasons she chose to give Chu Hong her inheritance.

“It seems like the young one from the Phoenix’s Nest will not give up that easily. My Immortal Consciousness can’t keep you safe for long, so you’ll have to keep an eye out for yourself once we’re done here,” Huang Jinghuang murmured.

After Huang Yuyi left, the sky-prides that sensed the Godly Phoenix’s inheritance from outer space soon arrived one after another.

A few Prodigies were among them as well.

“That Godly Phoenix isn’t a Prodigy from the Phoenix’s Nest. Has a new Prodigy appeared from their ranks?” the Immortal Hall’s Holy Violet Imperial Commander said with a frown.

“She’s not a Prodigy from the Phoenix’s Nest,” Huang Yuyi said coldly while looking at Chu Hong with a hint of jealousy in her eyes.

Huang Jinghuang was one of the most powerful Godly Phoenixes in the history of the Phoenix’s Nest. It would be a dream come true for all Godly Phoenix sky-prides to receive her inheritance.

However, she did not even have an opportunity to receive it. In fact, the opportunity had now presented itself to a wild Godly Phoenix instead.

That made Huang Yuyi jealous and angry.

“Oh, a sky-pride who’s not from the Phoenix’s Nest, huh? Interesting.”

A young man in white robes chuckled.

A Heavenly Dao aura was faintly emanating around him. That man was Heavenly Daoist Huang, one of the Daoists from the Heavenly Dao Sect, one of the greatest forces throughout the universe!

He was almost as powerful as a Prodigy.

He looked at Chu Hong, who was engulfed within the Phoenix Flames, and felt that she looked very familiar the more he looked at her. "Is she the Godly Phoenix who's been following Chu Kuangren?" he asked.

The other cultivators' expressions changed a little at the mention of that name.

Chu Kuangren's name had become a sensation throughout the Interstellar Arena, so anything related to him would surely draw the attention of everyone.

"I've heard that one of his followers is a Godly Phoenix. Could she be the one?"

"At a closer look, she does look like the one."

"I remember her name. It's Chu Hong, right? She's quite well-known in the Interstellar Arena as well."

Everyone was engaged in a discussion about Chu Hong.

"Chu Hong?"

Huang Yuyi frowned, thinking that the name sounded familiar. She recalled that some Phoenix's Nest cultivators had once sought Chu Hong out, hoping she would join them, but they were rejected in the end.

At that time, Huang Yuyi did not really care about it.

Although the Phoenix's Nest was the most powerful among all phoenix orthodoxies, they could not hope to control the movement of every single Godly Phoenix out there.

Hence, it was no surprise that a few wild Godly Phoenixes were freely venturing outside the Phoenix's Nest.

"I see, so she's the wild Godly Phoenix who's in my way, huh?"

A chilling look flashed across Huang Yuyi's eyes. "If only you accepted the offer back then, I might just let you off the hook. However, seeing that you've made an unwise decision, you only have yourself to blame for what I'm about to do next."

At that moment, Chu Hong was absorbing a huge amount of Phoenix Flames into her body.

The purity of her bloodline immediately increased by one whole tier, making her a Godly Phoenix with a seventh-awakened bloodline!

Besides, she was now only a few steps away from an eighth-awakened bloodline as well.

By now, the purity of her bloodline had surpassed that of Huang Yuyi.

"This bloodline aura... She must be close to Feng Qingtian's level."

Feng Qingtian was the strongest Prodigy among the Phoenix's Nest's younger generation sky-prides.

He had undergone a seventh-awakened bloodline long ago, and apparently, he was making preparations to achieve an eighth-awakened bloodline!

Huang Yuyi got even more jealous at that thought.

She was already a Godly Phoenix with a seventh-awakened bloodline. If she were the one who received the inheritance today, she might have had a chance to catch up with Feng Qingtian and become the strongest Phoenix Maiden of the Phoenix's Nest!

"Hey, guys. Take a look over there. Isn't that a palace within the Phoenix Flames?"

At that time, a sky-pride noticed something.

Everyone quickly looked ahead. Sure enough, there was a magnificent palace within the sea of Phoenix Flames. It was covered in Immortal Sparks and glittering as if made of gold. Immortal Herbs surrounded the land, and treasures lit up all around.

"Huang Jinghuang must've left her treasures behind inside that palace!"

Huang Yuyi's eyes lit up in delight.

Everyone's eyes were burning with desire as well.

It was no surprise that the treasures left behind by an Embodier cultivator would make anyone excited.

"D*mn it. These annoying restrictions and barriers are in the way," Heavenly Daoist Huang cursed.

"Those are weak barriers. Just break them!"

A roar suddenly sounded in the sky.

The figure of a crimson dragon appeared in the clouds, and its incomparably tyrannical aura spread everywhere, shocking everyone present!

At the same time, the crimson dragon opened its mouth and unleashed a blast of dragon aura at the restrictions.

The void immediately exploded with a bang.

When the attack landed on the restrictions, the whole terrain rumbled. However, the seals and restrictions remained unbroken.

On the contrary, it was the dragon aura that dispersed.

"As expected of the restrictions placed by an Embodier. It's not something we can easily break apart," the crimson dragon said as it turned into a young man with red hair.

"He's the Prodigy of the Dragon Palace's Crimson Dragon Tribe."

Some were shocked upon his arrival.

Although not many yokai Prodigies were out there, most came from the three ancient orthodoxies — the Dragon Palace, Phoenix's Nest, and Kylin Cave.

As for Loong Zhen, he was the Prodigy of the Crimson Dragon Tribe, one of the Five Dragon Palace Tribes!

Chapter 1308: The Phoenix Plume, Heavenly Phoenix Standard, and Phoenix Maiden Seal, Loong Zhen's Cautiousness

The crowd of sky-prides could only stand and watch Chu Hong receive the inheritance because the restriction seals were in their way.

Even Prodigies like Loong Zhen and Huang Yuyi could not damage the restrictions, seeing they were placed there by an Embodier cultivator.

"Hmph. She'll have to come out from the restrictions one day. Once she comes out, her inheritance shall be mine!" Huang Yuyi said coldly.

"Hey! Finders' keepers. I can't just let you steal the inheritance for yourself," said Loong Zhen.

"Let's focus on getting the inheritance first. We'll think about how to split it later."

Huang Yuyi understood that there was no way she could have the inheritance all to herself with Prodigies like Loong Zhen around. Besides, she did not even have the inheritance yet.

Meanwhile, inside the Phoenix Flame, Chu Hong absorbed all of Huang Jinghuang's Phoenix Flames and awakened her bloodline for the seventh time. She was even a few steps away from an eighth-awakened bloodline.

As a result, not only had her combat strength improve a lot, but the last four chapters of the Nine Transformation Nirvana Scriptures also appeared inside her mind.

Before the Immortal World Convergence, she had obtained the Nine Transformation Nirvana Scriptures from the Sycamore Mountain. It was a cultivation scripture and technique meant only for Godly Phoenixes, which happened to be passed down every generation in the Phoenix's Nest. Back then, the scripture she obtained was incomplete, with only the first six chapters available. As of now, she finally had all the contents of the Nine Transformation Nirvana Scripture.

Furthermore, she also obtained Huang Jinghuang's cultivation experience and all the cultivation techniques she learned throughout her lifetime. That knowledge was a part of the inheritance as well.

It was no surprise that Chu Hong's cultivation progress skyrocketed after that Opportunity of Fortune. From a top-tier sky-pride, she was now a Prodigy and considered a relatively formidable cultivator among the Prodigies.

"Let's take a look inside the palace."

Chu Hong looked at the palace nearby. Having inherited Huang Jinghuang's memories, Chu Hong knew she had left behind some of her treasures and items inside there.

With the crowd of sky-prides glaring at her from outside the restrictions, waiting to strike at any moment, the treasures inside the palace might prove to be of some help to her.

Upon entering the palace, Chu Hong was greeted by the radiance of treasures. A red feathery plume, a great flag engraved with mysterious Daoist patterns, and a golden-red jade seal appeared in front of her!

“These are her favorite items, the Treasured Phoenix Plume, Heavenly Phoenix Standard, and the Phoenix Maiden Seal!”

With the inherited memories, Chu Hong instantly recognized the three items.

The Treasured Phoenix Plume was one of the three items left behind by Huang Jinghuang that could allow Chu Hong to summon a portion of Huang Jinghuang’s power during a time of need as protection!

It was an extremely powerful item as a portion of an Embodier’s power was not something even the Arch Gilded Immortals could fend off against.

“Since this is the Interstellar Arena, the laws that the will of the Immortal World has set up will apply here, and Arch Gilded power levels are not allowed to exist here. Although I can use the Phoenix Plume here, I won’t be able to utilize its maximum power because the power contained within it will surely exceed the power limits of the Interstellar Arena. However, it should be enough for me to deal with those sky-prides outside.”

“Then again, I can only use this Phoenix Plume once. It’ll be a waste if I were to use it on the sky-prides outside. In that case, I should only use it as a last resort,” Chu Hong thought before looking at the next item.

The Heavenly Phoenix Standard was an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon. Although it was not Huang Jinghuang’s Embodier Weapon, the Heavenly Phoenix Standard was something she once used during her youth.

The weapon possessed the flame attribute, which would benefit Godly Phoenixes, who were Flame-attribute divine beasts that wielded Phoenix Flames.

The final item was the Phoenix Maiden Seal!

If the Heavenly Phoenix Standard was for offense, the Phoenix Maiden Seal would be used for defense.

Every Phoenix Maiden of the Phoenix’s Nest possessed a Phoenix Maiden Seal of their own. Before she was a great one of the Phoenix’s Nest, Huang Jinghuang used to be a Phoenix Maiden. It meant that the Phoenix Maiden Seal was something she used during her youth, so the defensive capability of the item was unmatched when compared to some defense-focused Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons.

More importantly, the Phoenix Maiden Seal was a symbol of status that possessed great significance in the Phoenix’s Nest.

“Previously, some cultivators from the Phoenix’s Nest came and asked me to join them, but I turned down their offer. Now that I’ve obtained Huang Jinghuang’s inheritance, a connection with them is surely unavoidable. Seeing that the Phoenix’s Nest has a huge background and foundation, my cultivation progress will surely improve if I can get their support...”

Chu Hong pondered. Perhaps joining the Phoenix's Nest would be a good choice for her.

Then, she glanced at the sky-prides outside the restrictions who were eyeing the treasures inside.

'What a huge crowd. I can only make out their heads from over here.'

'Especially those at the front, judging by their aura, they're Prodigies for sure.'

Although she had gotten stronger, it would not end well for her if she was surrounded and attacked by so many people.

"Alright. Time is of the essence. I must refine the Heavenly Phoenix Standard and Phoenix Maiden Seal as quickly as possible. If I can use these two items against those people outside, perhaps I'll stand a chance of surviving."

"If things go south from there, I suppose I'll have to use the Treasured Phoenix Plume as my last resort." Chu Hong pondered.

Although she was unwilling to use the Phoenix Plume to deal with those sky-prides, her survival was still more important at the end of the day.

Therefore, she began to refine those items inside the palace.

Since Huang Jinghuang's restrictions were still active, she did not need to worry about people breaking in and disrupting her.

Besides the three treasure items, there were also many Immortal Herbs inside the palace. Without a second thought, she immediately consumed and absorbed them upon finding any lying about. She planned to get as strong as she could before leaving the palace.

As time went by, two months passed.

Nevertheless, the crowd outside the palace did not get smaller. In fact, it grew larger.

"When is she going to come out? Is she going to be inside there her whole life?!"

There was a trace of anger on Huang Yuyi's gorgeous face.

"Don't worry. There's no way she can stay inside there for long. I've ordered my men to attack the restrictions during this entire time. Although Huang Jinghuang's restrictions are formidable, they're still relics of the previous era, and the power of her restrictions has decreased tremendously since then. After some hacking and slashing, it'll crumble in no time."

"But compared to Chu Hong, I'm more worried about someone else," Loong Zhen said as he stood beside her.

Huang Yuyi was a bit startled. "Are you worried about Chu Kuangren, the person behind Chu Hong's back?"

"That's right."

Even a Prodigy like Loong Zhen could not help but turn serious when mentioning Chu Kuangren.

The news about what happened at the Sword Immortal Tombs especially made him even more cautious of Chu Kuangren.

No Prodigy in the Interstellar Arena was confident of winning against Chu Kuangren single-handedly, and Loong Zhen was no exception too.

“Hmph. Chu Kuangren, huh? If he dares to appear, I’ll see how strong he truly is.” Huang Yuyi snorted.

As the noble daughter of the Phoenix’s Nest, Huang Yuyi was undoubtedly an arrogant sky-pride that looked down on humans.

“Here’s some advice. Be careful when you fight him,” said Loong Zhen.

“Don’t you worry. I know what I’m doing. Besides, it has been several months, and Chu Kuangren still hasn’t shown himself. I bet he must be occupied with something and can’t come right away. Either that or he’s afraid of us. Whatever the reason is, he’s not a threat to us now,” Huang Yuyi said.

“I hope that’s the case.”

Loong Zhen nodded as he put that thought aside.

Although he was wary of Chu Kuangren, there was no need for him to be afraid. After all, he was a Prodigy of the Dragon Palace.

At that time, a powerful aura fluctuation appeared from within the palace.

Then, a phoenix cry reverberated through the skies!

Chapter 1309: Chu Hong Appears, Who Shall Be My First Opponent, Battle of Godly Phoenixes

A phoenix’s cry sounded from within the palace, followed by a burst of powerful aura!

That was the fluctuation of a True Immortal’s core energy.

“Oh, she has broken through to a True Immortal.”

Huang Yuyi was a little surprised, but her displeasure intensified.

Although she was also a True Immortal, she sensed that Chu Hong’s newly broken-through True Immortal aura was much more powerful than hers back then!

In other words, if she were to face off against Chu Hong back when she had just become a True Immortal, chances were that she would likely lose!

“D*mn it. It must be Huang Jinghuang’s inheritance!”

“Her inheritance was supposed to belong to me in the first place,” Huang Yuyi said as she gritted her teeth with dissatisfaction.

Meanwhile, on a mountain top beyond the restriction seals, a white figure was standing proudly with an otherworldly aura emanating from him.

Having sensed the True Immortal aura coming from the palace, he chuckled. “It looks like Lil Red has broken through to a True Immortal.”

That person was none other than Chu Kuangren.

He had been there for two months and merely chose not to reveal himself.

After all, with Huang Jinghuang's restrictions still active, the sky-prides eyeing Chu Hong's inheritance could not enter the palace for the time being. Hence, he decided to observe the situation from afar.

"Master, although Lil Red has become a True Immortal, the surrounding restrictions will soon be broken through. I'm afraid the other sky-prides will not let her go that easily." Lan Yu, who was beside him, said anxiously.

Although everyone knew about Chu Hong's relationship with Chu Kuangren, some would not dare to attack her for fear of Chu Kuangren.

However, Prodigies like Loong Zhen and Huang Yuyi would not give up that easily.

Whether it be their desire to obtain Huang Jinghuang's inheritance or their arrogance, they would never back down easily regardless.

"It's fine either way. I'm here." Chu Kuangren chuckled, not the slightest bit worried about the crowd of Prodigies at all.

With him around, would the Prodigies dare to kill Chu Hong?

"This is Lil Red's Opportunity of Fortune and training, so I won't interfere unless her life is at risk. Besides, I'm also eager to find out how much she has improved throughout the last few years," Chu Kuangren replied with a laugh. That was the main reason why he had not revealed himself.

Every sky-pride had to undergo hardships and training to improve, and Chu Hong was no exception.

He also believed that Chu Hong never wished to forever be a bird living under his wing for protection.

Her goal was to become a supreme Godly Phoenix that could soar through the skies unchallenged and without fear!

Inside the palace, Chu Hong suddenly opened her eyes, revealing the golden-red Phoenix Flame burning within. Her scorching and domineering aura immediately spread throughout the whole palace.

"Congratulations, you are now a True Immortal." Huang Jinghuang's voice sounded.

"It's all thanks to you and your inheritance, Senior Sister Jinghuang. I'm deeply grateful for everything you've done for me."

"Since I've chosen you as the inheritor of my legacy, my inheritance is as good as yours. There's no need to thank me. Besides, my Immortal Consciousness is going to disperse soon, including the restrictions I've placed outside. However, seeing the crowd of people outside eyeing to steal what you've obtained, are you confident you can deal with them?" said Huang Jinghuang calmly.

"Hmph. No matter how hard the path ahead lies, I will never give up or back down. After all, I have to uphold your legacy, Senior Sister Jinghuang, and become as powerful as the Phoenix Forefather one day!"

As Chu Hong laughed, a raging fighting intent erupted from her body.

“Very well. I hope you can fulfill my dying wish and reign supreme in the skies!”

Huang Jinghuang chuckled, and her Immortal Consciousness dissipated right after.

Chu Hong slowly stood up and bowed in the direction Huang Jinghuang’s Immortal Consciousness disappeared. Then, she looked outside the palace with flames seemingly burning in her eyes.

“I shall use all of you to test my newfound strength!”

...

When the restrictions outside the palace suddenly dissipated, Huang Yuyi, Loong Zhen, and the other sky-prides’ eyes immediately lit up. “We did it!”

Some of the sky-prides immediately turned into a ray of light and dashed toward the palace as they could not control their desires for the treasures any longer.

“I don’t care who you are and whether you’re related to Chu Kuangren, hand over the treasures right now!”

“That’s right. The treasures belong to people who deserve them, people like us!”

Although those sky-prides were not as powerful as the Prodigies, some of them were still formidable opponents. Otherwise, they would not have the courage to steal Chu Hong’s treasures.

Just as they were approaching the palace, a wave of golden-red Phoenix Flames and a burst of tyrannical aura swept out!

Boom!

The sky-prides who charged forth took the brunt of the attack and were blasted away by the burst of Phoenix Flame. The weaker ones among them immediately burned into ashes on the spot!

The Phoenix Flames were domineering, as if hellbent on setting the world on fire!

Amidst the scorching Phoenix Flames, a mighty red figure walked out proudly!

She had a delicate appearance, donned in bright red armor while exuding a domineering and noble aura...

It was as if a warrior queen had appeared, and her chilling aura instantly shocked all who were present!

“Now, who shall be my first opponent?!”

Chu Hong furrowed her eyebrows while her fiery-red eyes swept across every sky-pride at the scene.

For a moment, everyone present became afraid.

On the mountain peak far away, Chu Kuangren let out a proud and satisfied smile. “Did you see that, Lan Yu? Now that’s my sister!”

Lan Yu chuckled. "Master has always been unparalleled and magnificent, so I guess the apple doesn't fall far from the tree with Lil Red."

Outside the palace, Chu Hong stepped forth with golden-red Phoenix Flames swirling around her. Every move she made emanated a domineering aura.

At that moment, Chu Hong's flames had seemingly reached the pinnacle of aggression!

"How dare a wild Godly Phoenix like you act with such insolence before me?!"

Huang Yuyi glared at Chu Hong.

Then, she approached Chu Hong and raised her hand, unleashing a giant palm made out of Phoenix Flames forward!

"Oh, Phoenix Flames, huh? You're from the Phoenix's Nest."

'Judging by her aura, she's a Prodigy from the Phoenix's Nest!'

Chu Hong's eyes lit up. "Very well. I shall find out how powerful I am against the Phoenix's Nest's Prodigy then!"

She did not evade nor retreat. Instead, she unleashed a similar attack with her Phoenix Flames.

When the two Phoenix Flames collided in the void, explosions broke out in the surrounding terrain.

Everywhere was burned to nothing by the two Phoenix Flames.

"Phoenix Claw!"

Huang Yuyi raised her hand, unleashing her Phoenix Flames once more. This time, her hand turned into a gigantic claw that came crashing down from the sky!

"Phoenix Claw!"

Chu Hong immediately retaliated with the same cultivation technique, refusing to back down!

The two Phoenix Claw attacks clashed against each other, forcing the two Godly Phoenixes backward.

"That's a Phoenix's Nest cultivation technique. You've obtained Huang Jinghuang's inheritance!"

At that, Huang Yuyi's expression turned cold.

"As a younger generation among the Phoenix's Nest, you shouldn't address Senior Sister by her name but as Phoenix Queen," said Chu Hong indifferently. She was clearly displeased with Huang Yuyi's attitude.

"Hmph. To think she gave her inheritance to an unknown and wild Godly Phoenix like you instead of me? She must be blind. What kind of Phoenix Queen does that?"

"How dare you!"

Chu Hong's gaze became more chilling.

Having given Chu Hong her inheritance, Huang Jinghuang was now akin to her teacher. How could Chu Hong possibly allow others to disrespect Huang Jinghuang in such a manner?

“Come, my Heavenly Phoenix Standard!”

A golden-red standard suddenly appeared in Chu Hong’s grasp.

As she waved the flag on the standard, the surrounding Phoenix Flames strengthened and became even more terrifying. At that moment, her Phoenix Flames overpowered Huang Yuyi’s.

“That’s the Heavenly Phoenix Standard! An item that Huang Jinghuang used during her youth.”

Huang Yuyi looked jealous.

Hence, she took out an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon, a colorful orb brimming with Immortal Sparks and emanating a powerful scorching aura.

Although both were Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons, the orb paled in comparison to the Heavenly Phoenix Standard.

“I shall prove to Huang Jinghuang in heaven that giving you her inheritance was the biggest mistake she has ever made!” Huang Yuyi said with a scowl.

Chapter 1310: Divine Godly Phoenix Howl, Forcing Back Huang Yuyi, Loong Zhen Joins the Fight

Armed with the Heavenly Phoenix Standard, Chu Hong unleashed powerful waves of Phoenix Flames with every swing.

At the same time, Huang Yuyi’s orb hovered above her, strengthening the intensity of her Phoenix Flames. Furthermore, she also took out a red-jeweled sword.

With a swing from her sword, a razor-sharp and brutal Phoenix Flame sword qi instantly swept out!

The two Godly Phoenixes clashed in battle once more, but this time with a mightier and deadlier impact.

“Heavenly Phoenix Shriek!”

Huang Yuyi unleashed another Phoenix’s Nest cultivation technique again. Following a long shriek, huge amounts of her Phoenix Flame transformed into an apparition of a Godly Phoenix that charged toward her opponent.

Chu Hong followed suit with the same technique.

Since Chu Hong possessed Huang Jinghuang’s inheritance, not only did she know every cultivation technique from the Phoenix’s Nest, but she could also use them proficiently.

However, despite having the knowledge thanks to Huang Jinghuang’s inheritance, she only learned those cultivation techniques recently. Hence, her mastery of those techniques was still lacking compared to Huang Yuyi.

Boom!

The Godly Phoenix apparition charged toward Chu Hong, smashing her attack into pieces.

Upon seeing that, Chu Hong did not evade and instead continued attacking with her Heavenly Phoenix Standard. A great wall of flames gushed out from her weapon and instantly engulfed the Godly Phoenix apparition.

“Do you think that’s the end of my attacks?”

“Meteoric Phoenix Flames!”

Huang Yuyi snorted, unleashing another attack with her Immortal Sword. Wave upon waves of Phoenix Flame sword qi released in quick succession like a flaming meteor shower!

“Phoenix Maiden Seal!”

Chu Hong took out the Phoenix Maiden Seal!

As the golden-red seal hovered in the air, it radiated brilliantly with Immortal Sparks. As Daoist patterns intertwined, they formed a barrier that blocked most of the flaming meteor shower.

“Huang Jinghuang... She even gave you her Phoenix Maiden Seal?!” Huang Yuyi said with a grim expression.

The Phoenix Maiden Seal was a symbol of the Phoenix Maiden’s status in the Phoenix’s Nest. Every Phoenix Maiden possessed a very noble and high standing in that orthodoxy, seeing that they were the ones with the highest potential to become Phoenix Queen candidates in the future.

“What right does a wild Godly Phoenix like you have to become the Phoenix’s Nest’s Phoenix Maiden? Huang Jinghuang truly is the most useless Phoenix Queen ever!”

“For ridiculing and slandering Senior Sister Jinghuang like that, you’re unworthy to be a Phoenix Maiden!” Chu Hong’s voice turned cold.

Then, she channeled her Immortal’s Core energy to its fullest potential. Ever since she awakened her bloodline for the seventh time, the bloodline power contained within her aura had increased drastically!

“Nine Transformation Nirvana Scripture, Divine Godly Phoenix Howl!”

Chu Hong let out a great howl while her Heavenly Phoenix Standard radiated with dazzling light. She had resorted to the Nine Transformation Nirvana Scripture’s finishing attack right away!

Countless Daoist patterns swirled in the void and formed an apparition of a domineering Godly Phoenix with a divine howl!

“Divine Godly Phoenix Howl!”

Huang Yuyi also unleashed the same technique.

The two Godly Phoenix apparitions soared into the sky with endless flames around them and collided with each other. As a result, the surrounding void instantly collapsed!

Huge waves of Phoenix Flames spread in all directions, burning down everything in their path!

Startled, many cultivators quickly moved back upon seeing that.

Even some cultivators who specialized in Flame-attribute Dao gasped at the sight of the terrifying Phoenix Flames.

“As expected of the divine beast that’s a master at controlling flames. The Phoenix Flame truly deserves to be ranked third on the Divine Fire List. It’s astounding!”

“Besides the Heavenly Void Flame and Godly Chaos Flame that are tied as number one on the Divine Fire List, I believe the Golden Crow Flame is the only one that can withstand the power of the Phoenix Flames among every divine fire out there.”

“That’s right...”

Some cultivators from the Immortal Hall’s Fire Division looked amazed and excited when they witnessed the might of the Phoenix Flames.

One of them had the appearance of a twelve-year-old kid and was dressed in long red robes. He looked at the Phoenix Flames and lamented in an elderly manner. “Even though I’ve been cultivating the Godly Zhurong Flame Art for a long time, my Zhurong Flame still pales in comparison to the Phoenix Flame before us now.”

“There’s no need to belittle yourself, Fire Boy. If your Zhurong Flame can absorb enough flames, you can evolve it into the Kumadhi Divine Flame, which is quite on par with the Phoenix Flame,” said the Holy Violet Imperial Commander calmly.

“Yeah.”

The Fire Boy nodded with a hint of excitement in his eyes.

‘The Kumadhi Divine Flame, huh?’

He only had to absorb one final divine fire with his Zhurong Flame to evolve it into the Kumadhi Divine Flame.

Boom, boom!

A series of explosions rang out continuously in the void, causing endless waves of fire to spread everywhere!

At that time, a figure was sent flying.

It was Huang Yuyi!

She looked at Chu Hong amidst the flames with a complicated gaze.

She could not believe that she was forced back by Chu Hong!

“D*mn it. The power of her bloodline is stronger than mine!”

“Is that all you’ve got?” said Chu Hong in an indifferent tone as she slowly walked out from the sea flames.

Armed with the Heavenly Phoenix Standard, her tyrannical and chilling aura filled the land.

“Loong Zhen!” Huang Yuyi yelled coldly at Loong Zhen in the distance, who was enjoying the show.
“How long are you going to stand there?!”

“Ha! How could I ever? I wouldn’t want to spoil your fun, would I?” Loong Zhen chuckled.

After that, he stepped forward, and an incredibly terrifying and domineering aura erupted!

Everyone’s gaze narrowed upon seeing that.

The Dragon Palace’s Prodigy was going to join the fight.

“Chu Hong, if you hand us the inheritance, I’ll spare your life,” said Loong Zhen to Chu Hong.

Huang Yuyi frowned a little. “What is the meaning of this, Loong Zhen? I’ll never let a wild b*tch like her off the hook! Are you doing this because you’re afraid of Chu Kuangren?”

Loong Zhen also frowned a little in response. ‘What’s wrong with this Phoenix Maiden? Why’s she b*sting my b*lls in front of our opponent?’

‘Can’t we just wait for her to hand us the inheritance and then attack later?’

“Haha! So you want me to give you the inheritance? In your f*cking dreams!”

Chu Hong laughed out loud, revealing a hint of rebelliousness between her brows.

“In that case, I suppose you’ll only have yourself to blame for this,” Loong Zhen said coldly.

He stepped forth and sent out a punch, sending crimson-colored Dragon Flames her way.

Chu Hong waved her standard and unleashed Phoenix Flames that engulfed the incoming Dragon Flames.

“Although the Crimson Dragons are also Flame-attribute divine beasts, how could they possibly compare with the Godly Phoenix when it comes to flame control?” asked Chu Hong apathetically.

“Oh, then what about this?”

Loong Zhen’s figure instantly disappeared. When he reappeared the next moment, he was armed with a crimson dragon lance. He unleashed a strike with his lance, whose power immediately broke apart the Phoenix Flames!

Boom!

That attack landed on the Phoenix Maiden Seal’s barrier and shattered it into pieces, blasting Chu Hong several hundred meters away!

“What power!”

Chu Hong’s gaze narrowed as she looked at her opponent’s lance with caution.

That was certainly an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon.

Otherwise, it would never break her Phoenix Maiden Seal’s barrier that easily.

If it were not for her armor, which was also an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon, she would have been wounded by that attack.

“Your armor is not bad either, seeing that it blocked an attack from my Heaven Scorching Lance. It looks like you’ve got quite some wonderful treasures there.”

Loong Zhen looked surprised.

Arch Gilded Immortals were extremely valuable items to Prodigies, and even a Prodigy like him only possessed two Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons.

However, Chu Hong’s Phoenix Maiden Seal, Heavenly Phoenix Standard, and the armor she had were all Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons.

“Want my items? Come and take them from me.”

“Divine Godly Phoenix Howl!”

Chu Hong unleashed her ultimate technique again, causing the Godly Phoenix apparition to soar forward with unyielding Phoenix Flames.

Loong Zhen’s gaze narrowed. As he wielded the Heavenly Scorching Lance, flame-like Daoist patterns intertwined on his body. In an instant, an explosive power erupted from within him!

Besides his Immortal’s Core energy, there was also an accompanying raw physical strength!

Divine beasts were beings that possessed powerful physical prowess, and Loong Zhen was said to be one of the best among them.

With a thrust from his lance, his Dragon Flames and raw physical strength were unleashed. A burst of dazzling Immortal Sparks radiated from his attack, which broke apart the Godly Phoenix apparition!

However, the next second, Chu Hong immediately turned and fled into the distance!

That Divine Godly Phoenix Howl was actually a bluff. Her main goal was to escape instead!
