

Unparalleled 1321

Chapter 1321: Have You Seen The Real Celestial Demon Physique? His White Robes Left A Strong Impression

The immense aura from the room shadowed the realm as though an ancient Celestial Demon was awakening from its slumber.

The cultivators who sensed the aura were shocked, including Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi.

“This energy... It’s powerful!”

“Who is that in the room?”

“Wait. Isn’t that the person who bid against Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi earlier? Why is he intervening in the battle between the Mountain Ghoul and Pseudo Celestial Demon?”

The crowd assumed that the person in the room stopped bidding against Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi because he was afraid of the two of them. However, it seemed like their assumption was wrong.

The terrifying aura was definitely that of a Prodigy, and someone with such power should not be afraid of Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi.

“This voice...”

Huang Yuyi recognized the voice. Now, she was not just surprised but afraid.

She knew the voice well because it had haunted her in nightmares since her defeat.

When the door opened, a figure in white emerged with white robes, black hair, handsome features that rivaled a deity, and Immortal Sparks that shimmered around him, shadowing the sun and moon.

“It’s him!”

Huang Yuyi was overwhelmed by her fear for Chu Kuangren as she stared at him blankly, and her face turned pale.

“Leave!”

Fire Boy grabbed Huang Yuyi and fled the auction hall immediately.

“Is Chu Kuangren that scary? A Fire Division Heavenly Champion and a Godly Phoenix Prodigy fled as soon as they saw him,” someone lamented after noticing the two of them fleeing the scene.

However, Chu Kuangren’s presence at the auction still shocked everyone present.

“Chu Kuangren!”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist reacted grimly to his appearance.

He never had any contact with Chu Kuangren before, but he had heard of the name and his Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

Lin Qiu and her men exchanged a hopeful gaze when they saw Chu Kuangren.

“Is he the one with the Innate Chaos Celestial Demon Physique?”

“He is the one that the Lord values...”

The three of them stared at Chu Kuangren curiously.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren remained calm even when he became the center of attention. He looked at the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist and said, “These three are in my protection now. So, leave.”

His emotionless tone and nonchalance were proof that he did not take the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist seriously.

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist raised a brow and snickered. “I heard Chu Kuangren is an arrogant man, and now that I have seen you with my own eyes, I believe the rumors are right. However, don’t you think it’s a little outrageous to send me off with just one word?!”

A terrifying aura erupted from the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist, attempting to suppress Chu Kuangren.

Under his domineering aura, common sky-prides would be shaking in fear already, but not Chu Kuangren.

To him, the aura was like a cool breeze. It was not even threatening at all.

“You’re the outrageous one to think you can start a scene in front of me using a clone of yours,” Chu Kuangren said.

Then, he stepped into the air and glided toward the restriction boundary of the Immortal Weapon

Everyone else was shocked by his words, especially Lin Qiu and her men.

They could not believe that the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist, who they had been fighting for a while now, was just a clone.

If that was the clone, how powerful would his true self be?

The thought of that sent chills down their spines.

“Is this why a Prodigy is so terrifying?” someone exclaimed quietly

Even among Prodigies, there were differences. The top-notch Prodigies possessed unimaginable powers and had a higher chance to reach Embodier Realm compared to other sky-prides.

If common Prodigies had a one percent chance to achieve Embodier Realm, the top Prodigies would have as much as ten percent.

“Chu Kuangren, you have keen eyes.”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist was also surprised that Chu Kuangren could see through his clone in one glance.

Then, Chu Kuangren reached out to the restriction boundary.

“Hmph. Fool. This restriction boundary is not something you can simply remove,” said one of the Mountain Ghoul cultivators.

However, what happened next shocked everyone.

Chu Kuangren put his hand over the restriction boundary and released a terrifying Celestial Demon qi from his palm.

Once the Celestial Demon qi collided with the restriction boundary, it started to shake.

Following a series of low rumbling, a breach in the shape of Chu Kuangren’s palm appeared on the boundary without him even breaking a sweat in the process.

“Is his Celestial Demon Physique so terrifying?!”

The Mountain Ghoul Cultivators gasped and gulped in fear.

The moment the breach opened up, Chu Kuangren walked into the boundary and then looked at the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist. “You can still leave.”

“Chu Kuangren, I want to see how powerful you really are!”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist narrowed his eyes as he channeled his Immortal’s Core to the limit.

“Mountain Ghoul Art, Black Mountain Suppression!”

Daoist patterns and Immortal’s Core energy shook the void as an enormous mountain crashed onto Chu Kuangren.

“Have you seen the real Celestial Demon Physique?” Chu Kuangren said calmly, with no intention of dodging or moving.

He raised his fair hand, where Immortal Sparks shimmered and countless Daoist patterns swirled around his palm, up into the sky. Then, terrifying Celestial Demon qi gushed out like a tsunami.

As Celestial Demon qi intertwined in the void, Life and Death intent surged, prompting the white life intent and black death intent to merge.

With that, it formed the Life and Death Symbol that spread across the sky and crushed the land.

Along with a bang, it crashed into a black-colored mountain.

Even though it was just a collision, the nearby spaces shattered into pieces.

Having been caught within the Life and Death Symbol, the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist’s body was destroyed under the barrage of the Celestial Demon qi.

It only took Chu Kuangren one move to destroy the Mountain Ghoul’s Divine Daoist’s clone.

“Chu Kuangren! I will remember this!” The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist warned and glared at Chu Kuangren before his clone disintegrated.

Chu Kuangren was, in fact, not concerned. He had countless enemies waiting in line to kill him, so one more Mountain Ghoulish Divine Daoist would not affect the outcome at all.

Then, he looked at the other Mountain Ghoulish cultivators, who were horrified, scared, and wanted to flee.

However, the remaining Life and Death intent was still lingering around, and the Life and Death Symbol crushed them into blood mists.

“Chu Kuangren’s power is really scary.”

“It’s my first time seeing it with my own eyes.”

“No wonder Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy ran away as soon as they saw Chu Kuangren. I, too, would run if I was on the opposite side against him.”

The sky-princes and cultivators were awestruck by Chu Kuangren’s strength, and it deterred some of them from their ulterior agendas.

Lin Qiu and her men were stunned, to say the least.

They could barely challenge the Mountain Ghoulish Divine Daoist, yet Chu Kuangren defeated the clone in one move.

“Is this the power of the real Chaos Celestial Demon Physique?”

Lin Qiu and her men stared at Chu Kuangren’s silhouette, which gave them a sense of safety.

From then on, the white robes and his transcendental presence left a strong impression on them.

Chapter 1322: Chu Kuangren’s Scheme, Jue Wushen’s Origin, Celestial Demon King

“We are deeply grateful for your help, Brother Chu.”

Lin Qiu and her men went before Chu Kuangren and thanked him.

Chu Kuangren nodded gently. “Don’t worry about it. We’re all Celestial Demon cultivators, after all. By the way, I also have something to ask you guys.”

“Ask away, Brother Chu. We’ll try our best to answer any questions you have.” Lin Qiu said.

“Who’s the creator of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe?”

That was Chu Kuangren’s biggest curiosity.

Although Bei Ming once told him that the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe was created by one of the true Celestial Demon cultivators, he did not say much about that great one.

Since it was a clone of Bei Ming at that time, he did not have much time to tell Chu Kuangren everything.

“One of the seven Celestial Demon cultivators, Xu Wu, ”

Lin Qiu hesitated a while before revealing the creator of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe.

The two other Celestial Demon cultivators beside her looked at each other.

“Lin Qiu, is it really okay for us to tell him our Lord’s name?”

“It’s fine. Lord Xu Wu did not tell us to keep his name a secret either, and besides, Brother Chu is a true Celestial Demon cultivator. Our Lord once said that Brother Chu will become the leader of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe one day, so I don’t see any problem in telling him about this,” said Lin Qiu, whose words made Chu Kuangren slightly confused.

‘Leader of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe? What’s going on?’

“Can you elaborate more about this?”

“Sure, of course.”

“However, we should not talk about this here in public. Let’s find somewhere else.”

Chu Kuangren looked around his surroundings. The crowd had been growing bigger since the battle earlier. Seeing that it was not suitable for serious talk, he left the area with Lin Qiu and the others.

Meanwhile, somewhere else.

After seeing Chu Kuangren, Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi immediately left the auction, fleeing until they left the Heavenly Ancient Merchant Planet and reached a barren planet.

“D*mn it. I never thought Chu Kuangren would be at the auction, and to think he was the one bidding against us for the Divine Flame Map!!”

Feeling shocked and frightened, Huang Yuyi’s gorgeous face was already pale.

Even the Fire Boy was on high alert.

Although he had not clashed directly with Chu Kuangren before, he knew they were enemies. After all, he was the Immortal Hall Fire Division’s Heavenly Champion, while Chu Kuangren was the sworn enemy of Kunlun Immortal Hall. Their identities were clearly opposing ones.

Hence, there was a possibility that Chu Kuangren might kill him.

Once Chu Kuangren decided to do that, there was no way Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi would survive, given their current capabilities.

“I wonder how the Mountain Ghou Divine Daoist is doing right now.”

Huang Yuyi thought of the Mountain Ghou Divine Daoist. As a Divine Daoist from the East Sovereign Immortal Hall, he was said to be as powerful as the Kunlun Immortal Hall’s Imperial Commanders.

‘If someone like him were to fight against Chu Kuangren, what would be the outcome of their battle?’

She did not know that it was the Mountain Ghou Divine Daoist’s clone at the auction and not his true self.

“Have you forgotten how powerful Chu Kuangren is? Although the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist is powerful, he’s still a little weak compared to our Imperial Commanders. I don’t think he’ll win against Chu Kuangren,” the Fire Boy said indifferently.

After that, he took out the Divine Flame Map with a frown. “I can’t believe Chu Kuangren was bidding against us for this. However, why did he give up in the end?”

‘That guy... What is he plotting?’

The Fire Boy did not have a good feeling about it.

“Alright. Now that we have the Divine Flame Map, let’s start,” Huang Yuyi said as she looked at Fire Boy’s Divine Flame Map.

She could not wait to get stronger.

As a Prodigy, she did not want to be suppressed by Chu Kuangren any longer like today, when she fled upon seeing him.

It was just too humiliating.

“Very well!”

The Fire Boy nodded before activating his Zhurong Divine Flame Art and channeling his Zhurong Flame into the Divine Flame Map.

Suddenly, the Divine Flame Map rose into the air and opened up!

Countless lines appeared with several dots of light all over the map. After counting, there were thirty-three of them!

“In the past, the first Fire God Zhurong of the Immortal Hall’s Fire Division once traveled across the universe in search of divine flames. The thirty-three locations he found were locations of flame tinders, but since the flame tinders were still being nurtured at that time and had yet reached their final form. It would be a waste if he were to take them away at that time, and that was why he left behind this Divine Flame Map.”

“After such a long time, will the divine flames still be there?” Huang Yuyi asked with a frown.

After all, Zhurong was a figure of the past epoch. Seeing that so many things had happened in the Immortal World ever since — having been fragmented and converged — it would not be a surprise if the divine flames were put out or lost.

“Even if a few of them remain, it’ll still be sufficient for us.”

The Fire Boy looked at the Divine Flame Map and said, “Among the thirty-three locations on the map, twelve of them happen to be inside the Interstellar Arena, and one of them isn’t far from here. Let’s go check it out,” Fire Boy said as he put away the Divine Flame Map.

“Alright.”

Just like that, Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi started their journey in search for the divine flames, hoping they would help them defeat Chu Kuangren in the future.

Moments after both of them left, someone walked out from the void.

That person, dressed in white robes, had handsome features and an otherworldly aura.

As he stood amongst the stars, even the light of the cosmos paled in comparison to his splendor.

It was Chu Kuangren, of course.

However, that was not the real Chu Kuangren but his clone instead.

“Interesting. I hope you two can find as many divine flames as you can. I wish you all the best.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

As he had Lil Ai analyzed the Divine Flame Map before, he knew that the Fire God Zhurong’s restrictions were present on the map, and only the Fire Division Heavenly Champions with the Godly Zhurong Flame Art could open it.

Hence, when he realized it was Fire Boy bidding against him for the Divine Flame Map during the auction, a sudden thought appeared in his mind.

‘I’ll let them have the Divine Flame Map first.’

‘After they’ve gathered all the divine flames for me, I shall be the one to reap the final and grand reward!’

Therefore, he sent his clone to follow them.

“I hope the two of you won’t disappoint.”

...

On the Heavenly Ancient Merchant Planet, Lin Qiu was explaining to Chu Kuangren the origins of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe.

According to her, the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe was created by one of the seven existing Celestial Demon cultivators, whose name was Xu Wu.

The cultivators of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe possessed a portion of the Celestial Demon Physique’s power. Although inferior to the original, cultivators like them could be mass-produced, making up for their lack of quality with quantity.

Among them was Xu Wu’s most perfect and greatest creation, a being that could rival even the hosts with the true Celestial Demon Physique!

That creation’s name was Jue Wushen!

“Jue Wushen...”

Ye Zhu furrowed his brows. “I never thought Jue Wushen, who’s so well-known throughout the Interstellar Arena, would have such an origin.”

A handful of Prodigies currently stood at the peak of power in the Interstellar Arena, and among them were people like Chu Kuangren and the Immortal Hall's Holy Violet Imperial Commander.

As for Jue Wushen, he was currently the most top-tier Prodigy in the Interstellar Arena!

1

"Brother Ye, have you met him before?"

"I've only seen him once from afar. He's truly a formidable cultivator. Even with the power of the complete Green Leaf Sword Vision, I still dare not say I'm his match," Ye Zhu said with a serious look in his eyes.

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren became curious. 'Ye Zhu is now one of the most top-tier Prodigies with his complete Green Leaf Sword Vision.'

Since Ye Zhu could admit that he was not a match for Jue Wushen, Chu Kuangren's interest was piqued.

"Although Brother Wushen is powerful, he'll never be your enemy, Brother Chu."

"That's because our Lord has once said you'll be the leader of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe. You shall be our... King!" Lin Qiu said seriously.

Chapter 1323: The Rebellious and Unruly Ming Yifeng, You Only Have One Chance to Witness This

Xu Wu was the creator of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe who once said that Chu Kuangren would be the most remarkable Celestial Demon cultivator in the future!

Hence, the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe was a gift he had prepared for Chu Kuangren.

One day, everyone in the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe would serve and obey Chu Kuangren as the Celestial Demon King!

"Xu Wu... So he created the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe and is planning to give it to me, huh? Is it because I possess the most top-tier Celestial Demon Physique in the whole Celestial Demon Tribe?" Chu Kuangren mumbled as he pondered.

He believed there was no such thing as free lunch in the universe. Normally, one would expect to put in an equivalent amount of effort to obtain anything one desires. That has been the law of nature since the dawn of time.

"Do you guys know Bei Ming?" Chu Kuangren asked.

Lin Qiu nodded. "Yes. Lord Bei Ming is one of the seven Celestial Demon Physique hosts and one of the most powerful beings in the universe."

A look of admiration shone in her eyes.

As one of the seven Celestial Demon cultivators, Bei Ming was on the same level as their creator, Xu Wu. That was why every Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivator held him with great respect.

"I see."

Chu Kuangren proceeded to ask a few more questions after that until suddenly, the jade scroll on Lin Qiu's waist vibrated.

"It's Ming Yifeng and the others. They're coming here soon."

Lin Qiu's eyes lit up.

Ming Yifeng was also a Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivator.

Second only to Jue Wushen in strength, he was many times more powerful than Lin Qiu.

"He must have received our distress call and come to help."

"However, isn't he a little too late? If it weren't for Brother Chu, we'd already be dead by now," the two other Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators said with slight dissatisfaction.

Lin Qiu, too, looked a little worried after receiving the message.

Ming Yifeng had an unruly and rebellious character, but everyone in the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe had gotten used to him. Besides Jue Wushen, he would never obey anyone else.

Even if it was Chu Kuangren, their future king, he could not care less.

"Why is he, of all people, coming to our aid? If he sees Brother Chu, there's no telling what kind of conflict will arise. Sigh. I can only hope he'll restrain himself then." At that thought, Lin Qiu could not help but feel helpless about what was to come.

Soon, they met with the Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators who had come to help.

There were a total of seven of them.

Everyone was standing in the air, emanating surges of powerful Celestial Demon qi. Some seemed injured, as if they had gone through a battle before arriving here.

The person leading them was dressed in long black robes and had a sharp gaze.

His Celestial Demon qi was more powerful than the other six combined. Any sky-pride passing by could not help but shudder in fear upon sensing it.

"This aura... He's almost at Prodigy level now."

"It looks like many more interesting people have popped up from the recently active Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe. Could it be that the slumbering Celestial Demon Tribe is starting to act?"

"Well, it's not impossible."

Everyone was engaged in discussions.

The seven cultivators of the Celestial Demon Tribe were always in hiding, rarely showing themselves to the universe.

Even most of the powerful Arch Gilded elites had only heard of them but had never seen them before.

However, the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe that recently appeared had been very active, especially Jue Wushen, who had made a big name for himself in the Interstellar Arena.

Lin Qiu and the others walked up to Ming Yifeng and his men.

“Are you guys hurt?”

Lin Qiu frowned, feeling a little surprised.

“On the way here, we encountered cultivators from the East Sovereign Immortal Hall’s Mountain Ghoul Tribe and had a battle with them,” Ming Yifeng said calmly.

“No wonder you guys are late. Why is the Mountain Ghoul Tribe repeatedly targeting us? I just can’t seem to understand their motive.”

Chu Kuangren, who was standing beside her, was stunned to hear the name Mountain Ghoul’s Divine Daoist.

‘This person has been attacking the Celestial Demon Tribe. I should keep an eye out for him.’

“Oh, it’s Chu Kuangren.”

Ming Yifeng was surprised to notice Chu Kuangren standing beside Lin Qiu.

“That’s right. It’s all thanks to Brother Chu that we managed to survive the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist’s attack.”

“The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist himself took action?”

Ming Yifeng’s eyes narrowed.

“His clone attacked.”

“So, it was only his clone, huh? In other words, he only defeated a clone.”

Ming Yifeng looked at Chu Kuangren with disappointment.

“It seems to me that he’s still far from Brother Wushen’s level.”

“Mind your manners, Ming Yifeng!” Angry, Lin Qiu shouted at Ming Yifeng.

“What’s the matter? As the future Celestial Demon King, is that all he can do?”

Ming Yifeng looked at Chu Kuangren provokingly.

However, Chu Kuangren grinned. “Is this how you treat your Celestial Demon King?”

“Chu Kuangren, you’re not officially crowned, so you’re not the true Celestial Demon King yet. Besides the seven Lords of the Celestial Demon Tribe, the only other person who deserves my respect is Brother Wushen. As for you, I’m sorry to say, but you’re still a nobody to me!” Ming Yifeng sneered.

“Ming Yifeng, stop this insolent behavior right now!” Lin Qiu shouted.

Chu Kuangren waved his hand and said, “It’s alright. It doesn’t matter to me whether he approves of me or not. I don’t like forcing things upon others after all.”

“Hmph. Nicely said, but no matter how you say it, you’re just weak.”

Ming Yifeng was getting increasingly out of hand.

Chu Kuangren remained expressionless as he looked at Ming Yifeng. “That is a very lousy attempt at provocation. However, I don’t mind giving you a taste of my strength.”

“Ha! Now that’s what I’m talking about!”

The corners of Ming Yifeng’s mouth curled up into a smirk as his eyes lit up. Then, his Celestial Demon qi instantly poured out, spreading in all directions.

At that scene, Li Qiu and the others were all helpless.

“Whatever. I might as well let Ming Yifeng suffer. After all, he asked for it.” Lin Qiu thought.

“My Celestial Demon Physique’s attribute is lightning! Now, watch carefully!”

Strands of Celestial Demon qi erupted from Ming Yifeng’s body, turning into countless terrifying lightning serpents in the void that charged toward Chu Kuangren.

Boom! Boom! Boom!

Countless bolts of lightning landed and erupted on Chu Kuangren’s body in succession!

The surrounding terrain was immediately leveled from the power of that lightning, and everywhere within a thousand-kilometer radius was turned into a sea of lightning!

Startled by the attack, every cultivator in the area quickly channeled their Immortal Core energy to block it while they escaped.

However, Chu Kuangren, who was standing in the center of the sea of lightning, remained still. No matter how, the thousands of lightning bolts could not force him back a single step.

Ming Yifeng’s gaze gradually turned serious.

“Chu Kuangren, even the most top-tier sky-prides can’t handle this sea of lightning. But seeing that you’re unscathed, it seems you’re not as bad as I thought.”

“I suggest you use your full power right now because you’ll only have one chance to witness the power of the Celestial Demon King.”

Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back as his white robes fluttered in the air.

Chu Kuangren’s words made Ming Yifeng narrow his eyes before a tremendous outpour of Celestial Demon qi erupted from his body. “Chaos Divine Lightning Seal!”

The Celestial Demon qi absorbed all the surrounding lightning and turned them into a huge ancient seal with countless Daoist patterns that came crashing down from the sky!

At that instant, the void crumbled while the realm split open!

In response, Celestial Demon qi also surged out from Chu Kuangren’s body. However, it was much more powerful than Ming Yifeng’s Celestial Demon qi.

The difference between them was day and night like they were comparing a king and a common subject!

Life and death intent flowed through the Celestial Demon qi, which soon turned into a Life and Death Symbol that covered the sky. With all its might, it crashed toward the lightning seal!

The moment the lightning seal collided with the Life and Death Symbol, the life and death intent clashed violently with the lightning while countless Daoist patterns intertwined and shattered!

Under the collision, the lightning seal shattered and started breaking apart into thousands of bolts of lightning!

“What?!”

Chapter 1324: The Combination of Might and Benevolence, Ming Yifeng Submits, a Very Confident Huang Yuyi

The Chaos Lightning Seal was destroyed by the mighty Life and Death Symbol!

As a result, the surrounding void crumbled in its terrifying power. Ming Yifeng’s eyes widened in fear as his expression turned into horror!

Looking at the incoming Life and Death Symbol, he felt himself swallowed by an unprecedented terror as if his life was in Chu Kuangren’s control!

“How is he so powerful?!”

“Is this the power of the true Celestial Demon Physique?!”

Ming Yifeng was horrified. He quickly channeled his Immortal Core energy to its limit, unleashing a powerful burst of Celestial Demon qi from his body no different than a raging tide. His Celestial Demon qi intertwined with the countless Daoist patterns and formed many lightning bolts that were hurled toward the Life and Death Symbol in succession. However, his attacks merely created ripples.

Soon, the seemingly unstoppable Life and Death Symbol landed on his body.

In an instant, Ming Yifeng felt a boundless aura weighing down upon him. To his surprise, his legs turned weak on the spot, and his knees fell to the ground!

Crack, crack...

Cracking sounds sounded from Ming Yifeng’s body like he was a fragile vase.

It felt like if Chu Kuangren exerted a little more force, his body would shatter into pieces.

Upon witnessing that scene, the other Celestial Demon cultivators’ expressions turned horrified.

“He’s too powerful!”

“That’s just one attack, and he has already overpowered Ming Yifeng!”

Eventually, the life and death intent dispersed.

At that moment, Ming Yifeng was certainly not in a good shape. He was kneeling on the ground with his body on the verge of breaking down. His disheveled look was a world of difference compared to what he looked like before the battle.

He looked at Chu Kuangren with fear in his eyes.

He had only witnessed such Celestial Demon power from Jue Wushen, but even Jue Wushen could not overpower him that easily!

The person standing before him was clearly stronger than Jue Wushen!

After all, that person was the host of the true Chaos Celestial Demon Physique and their future Celestial Demon King!

Ming Yifeng took a deep breath, forcing himself to walk to Chu Kuangren. Then, he knelt and bowed down with utmost respect.

“My King, I have committed a grave offense. Please conduct your punishment as you see fit!”

Just like that, a Prodigy like him was kneeling before someone else.

Some sky-prides who did not know what was happening were stunned and in disbelief, but Chu Kuangren was not surprised.

The combat strength he demonstrated already proved him worthy as the future Celestial Demon King.

Although Ming Yifeng was rebellious, the only thing he could do as a Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivator now was to surrender!

If he ever disrespected Chu Kuangren again, it might result in his death.

Even without Chu Kuangren, the other Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators would end up suppressing him first.

“Stand up,” said Chu Kuangren.

He raised his hand and activated the Life and Death Symbol, turning death into life and vice versa. With the powerful life and death energy injected into Ming Yifeng’s body, his injuries gradually healed!

The combination of might and benevolence displayed by Chu Kuangren made Ming Yifeng even more impressed and convinced.

After that, Chu Kuangren learned a few things from talking with the remaining Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators.

The Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivators were now very active, building up renown all over the Interstellar Arena.

Their strongest member, Jue Wushen, came across an Opportunity of Fortune a while ago and went into closed-door meditation. Due to that, the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist had no one to fear and dared to act recklessly.

“My King, before the official crowning ceremony, we’ll have to wait for Jue Wushen to complete his closed-door meditation. After that, with every Pseudo Celestial Demon cultivator as a witness, you shall display your strength to obtain the recognition of the Celestial Demon Crown and everyone’s acknowledgment.”

The Celestial Demon Crown was an Immortal Weapon created by Xu Wu and a symbol of the ruling King of the Pseudo Celestial Demon Tribe.

Currently, that item was in Xu Wu’s possession and care!

In other words, if Chu Kuangren wanted to be crowned the Celestial Demon King, he must first defeat Jue Wushen in front of everyone and convince them with his strength!

“Jue Wushen and the Celestial Demon Crown, huh? Interesting.”

Chu Kuangren grinned. Now, he was even more excited to meet that person.

...

Meanwhile, somewhere in space.

Ever since they obtained the Divine Flame Map, Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi started their journey in search for divine flames in Interstellar Arena.

However, they were not so lucky.

There were twelve possible divine flame locations inside the Interstellar Arena. However, they had gone to the first three locations and found nothing there.

“D*mn it. Is your Divine Flame Map the real deal or not?!” said Huang Yuyi as she looked at Fire Boy with dissatisfaction.

“There’s no need to hurry. Those places are only three of the twelve possible locations, and there are still nine more places to go. I’m sure we’ll find something.”

The Fire Boy was pretty calm.

Sure enough, upon arriving at the fourth location, they found a divine flame there. It was a divine flame ranked number forty-three on the Divine Fire List.

“This is the Lambent Soul Flame!”

Huang Yuyi looked at the silver-white flame before her and could not help but beam in delight.

The Fire Boy also had a smile on his face.

“Huang Yuyi, you should refine this divine flame first. I’ll stand guard for you,” said Fire Boy.

Huang Yuyi was a little surprised to hear him propose that. “You’re willing to give me this divine flame?”

“You and I are working with the same goal in mind, which is to defeat Chu Kuangren. It doesn’t matter which one of us refines the divine flame,” Fire Boy said sincerely, which made Huang Yuyi doubtful.

‘Is he speaking the truth?’

However, with the divine flame in sight, she could not care less anymore. Would she, a Prodigy, need to worry about the Fire Boy scheming against her?

At that thought, she walked toward the divine flame and activated the Fire Division's Flame Fusion Technique that the Fire Boy taught her with her Phoenix Flame!

A huge burst of Phoenix Flames gushed out, instantly engulfing the silver-white divine flame.

Half a month later, Huang Yuyi, having successfully refined the divine flame, felt that she had gotten much stronger!

"Nice. The Fire Division's Flame Fusion Technique really is effective!"

"As long as I continue refining a few more divine flames, I'll surely surpass Chu Kuangren!" Huang Yuyi thought, and a hint of excitement flashed in her eyes.

"Come, let's head somewhere else." Fire Boy said to Huang Yuyi after noticing that she had refined the divine flame.

"Alright!"

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren, who was hiding in the void, touched his chin with intrigue. "I shall see how far the both of you can go."

Following that, the Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi set out for the six remaining divine flame locations.

Although they found nothing in two of those locations, the four other locations all contained divine flames, with each being powerful divine flames that were ranked top fifty in the Divine Fire List.

One of the divine flames among the four was even ranked number seventeen.

All of those divine flames were absorbed by Huang Yuyi, who, in turn, became much more powerful.

"I can feel the power coursing within my veins!"

"If I were to fight myself back then, I can surely defeat her within ten moves!"

"I bet I'm close to Chu Kuangren's level now!" Huang Yuyi said happily.

At that moment, a powerful energy fluctuation suddenly erupted from afar. Some people were battling on an ancient planet far away!

"The eleventh possible divine flame location is on that ancient planet!" said Fire Boy.

With that, the both of them quickly headed toward that ancient planet.

However, they arrived to find a fight breaking out on the possible divine flame location.

In the fight, a female cultivator was battling three male cultivators.

The female cultivator, who was dressed in long black robes, unleashed terrifying bursts of yin qi with every attack, and her strength was no weaker than that of a Prodigy.

Nevertheless, the three male cultivators were quite formidable as well. Each of them was a top-tier sky-pride close to a Prodigy's level.

Chapter 1325: Fu Yin in Danger, the True Fusang Tree's Power, Who Gave You People the Courage to Lay Your Filthy Fingers on My Subordinate

On an ancient planet, three male cultivators had joined forces against a female cultivator dressed in long black robes. The four of them were pretty formidable cultivators, whose battle created shockwaves that destroyed the surrounding mountains.

The whole continent was rumbling violently due to their battle.

When Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy arrived, they were shocked to see the scale of battle that broke out.

"It's them."

Fire Boy looked at the three cultivators who were attacking the female cultivator. "The Underworld City's King Chujiang Tribe Successor, Sky Demon Tribe's Yun Ye, and Heavenly Daoist Xuan of the Heavenly Dao Sect!"

The three of them were pretty well-known sky-prides in the Interstellar Arena.

That was especially the case for Heavenly Dao Sect's Heavenly Daoist Xuan. He was more powerful than Heavenly Daoist Huang and was approaching the level of the Prodigies.

However, the three of them were ganging up on a female cultivator instead.

'Who's that female cultivator?'

Chu Kuangren, who was hiding in the void, was stunned when he saw that female cultivator. "It's her."

Dressed in long black robes, the female cultivator possessed a graceful figure and chilling demeanor.

She was like a Datura¹ that bloomed in hell.

That person was none other than Fu Yin, Chu Kuangren's follower!

"Yin Fusang Spirit, hand over the Mystical Nether Flame now, and we shall spare your life!" King Chujiang's Successor said coldly.

Then, he raised his arm, releasing a burst of Yin qi that swept across the whole area and formed countless Daoist patterns, turning the surroundings into a hellish landscape!

It was some sort of sealing technique.

Fu Yin's face turned cold, and she replied with a sneer, "You want me to hand over the Mystical Nether Flame? I'd like to see you try!"

The Mystical Nether Flame was a divine flame ranked number fourteen on the Divine Fire List. Although Fu Yin was the first to discover it, the Heavenly Daoist Xuan and others saw her before she could refine it.

“You have the Mystical Nether Flame?”

At that time, an indifferent voice rang out.

Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi walked out from the void, looking at Fu Yin coldly.

Their boundlessly terrifying aura instantly covered the whole area.

Especially Huang Yuyi, her frightening aura was akin to an endless sea of flames. Just by standing next to her, King Chujiang Tribe’s Successor and others felt as if they were about to be burned to ashes.

“This aura... She’s a Prodigy!”

“Phoenix Flames is burning around her. She’s Huang Yuyi from Phoenix’s Nest.”

“That person beside her... is Fire Boy!”

Both Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy were famous in Interstellar Arena, so Heavenly Daoist Xuan and the others recognized them in no time.

After all, Fire Boy’s signature characteristic was his appearance as a twelve-year-old child.

Fu Yin’s heart sank upon seeing Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi.

She already had trouble dealing with Heavenly Daoist Xuan and the two other male cultivators. Now that Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy had shown up, her chances of escaping were close to none!

“Give me the Mystical Nether Flame, and I shall grant you a painless death!” Huang Yuyi looked at Fu Yin and said coldly.

In her opinion, the divine flame of this planet belonged to her, and no one was allowed to even touch it.

“Hm. I can hand over the divine flame, but there are so many of you. Who should I give it to?” Fu Yin said calmly as she scanned her gaze across everyone.

Upon hearing that, everyone quickly looked at each other before a vigilant look appeared in their eyes.

Fu Yin was right.

There was only one Mystical Nether Flame here, but there were four of them and also a Godly Phoenix who wanted it!

Who should Fu Yin give the Mystical Nether Flame to?

“Obviously, the divine flame should belong to me!” Huang Yuyi said arrogantly.

As the most powerful cultivator among everyone, she believed the divine flame should be hers.

The moment she said those words, everyone else besides the Fire Boy furrowed their eyes.

“You’re wrong, Godly Phoenix. This divine flame is an item produced by nature, and it doesn’t belong to anyone. Although you’re powerful, you must honor the ‘first come first serve’ principle at the very least. Since the three of us discovered it first, the divine flame should belong to us,” said Heavenly Daoist Xuan.

He had already disregarded Fu Yin, the person who discovered the divine flame before them.

“Oh, so the three of you want to fight me for it?” Huang Yuyi warned them.

“There’s the three of us and only one of you. If we fight you for it, the outcome of the battle might not end in your favor,” said Heavenly Daoist Xuan.

King Chujiang’s Successor and the Sky Demon Tribe’s Yun Ye stared at Huang Yuyi, looking like they would attack at any moment.

“Alright. Cut it out, everyone. You’ll just be falling for this woman’s scheme if you turn us against each other.”

At that time, Fire Boy reminded everyone before saying indifferently, “We’ll discuss who among us will get the Mystical Nether Flame later. The most important thing is to get it from her first.”

“Hmph. Your little tricks are nothing in the face of my power!” Huang Yuyi said coldly while unleashing a palm attack on Fu Yin.

That was a powerful attack that contained her Phoenix Flames.

Channeling the Yin qi within her, the Yin Fusang power within Fu Yin’s body erupted. However, it was still not strong enough to hold back the Phoenix Flames. That palm attack sent Fu Yin flying, causing vague cracks to appear on her Immortal body.

Compared to a Prodigy like Huang Yuyi, Fu Yin still had a long way to go before reaching her level.

Besides, having absorbed many divine flames, Huang Yuyi’s power was no longer what it was back then.

“One last chance. Hand over the Mystical Nether Flame, and I shall grant you a swift and painless death.”

“You want the divine flame? Bring it on then!” Fu Yin grunted.

Huang Yuyi had already made herself clear. No matter whether Fu Yin handed her the divine flame or not, she would still kill Fu Yin in the end.

In that case, Fu Yin had no reason to yield to her opponent so easily.

She might as well fight for her life!

Even if she ended up dead, she would drag her opponents down with her!

In the face of such a desperate situation, Chu Kuangren’s figure somehow appeared in Fu Yin’s mind.

It was a shame that she could see him one last time.

After all, he had promised to help her master the complete power of Fusang.

Fu Yin felt slightly regretful.

However, she was not sure whether she was feeling that way because she had not mastered the complete Fusang power or because she could not see Chu Kuangren one last time.

“Insolent fool, I shall gladly send you to your death!” Huang Yuyi snorted, and her Phoenix Flames surged forth to turn into a Godly Phoenix apparition!

Just when the Godly Phoenix apparition was about to be unleashed, a mysterious aura suddenly erupted in the void!

Bands of mysterious Daoist patterns that contained terrifying Yin Yang energy swirled in the air, instantly shattering King Chujiang Successor’s seal!

“What’s happening?”

Huang Yuyi, Fire Boy, and the others were shocked.

The countless Daoist patterns continued circling in the void. As Yin Yang energy transformed, it formed a towering ancient golden-red tree!

That ancient tree consisted of two gigantic Fusang trees — with one Yin and the other Yang — intertwining around each other. Its branches were red, while its leaves were golden in color.

Endless Immortal Sparks radiated from the ancient tree as its domineering aura spread everywhere. Instantly, everyone present felt a devastating pressure weighing down on them.

Upon seeing that ancient tree, Fu Yin’s heart throbbed. An overwhelming feeling of joy overcame her, and her eyes watered.

“This is... the Fusang tree!”

“The real Fusang Tree!”

To her knowledge, only one person in this world wielded the power of the complete Fusang Tree, and that person was here now!

“Who gave you people the courage to lay your filthy fingers on my subordinate?”

An apathetic voice rang out.

The sound of that voice struck fear in Fire Boy’s and Huang Yuyi’s hearts. They were so afraid that fear started to show in their eyes.

“Why is he here?”

Chapter 1326: The Complete Fusang Tree’s Power, Now Is Not the Right Time to Fight

The appearance of the ancient Fusang Tree caused the surroundings to quake!

Billions of Immortal Sparks radiated around its golden leaves and red branches, which flowed with powerful Yin Yang energy.

Huang Yuyi, Fire Boy, and the others were shocked.

However, they became terrified upon hearing that familiar voice.

“Now, who gave you people the courage to lay your filthy fingers on my subordinate?”

An apathetic voice echoed throughout the whole area.

Above that towering Fusang Tree, a white figure slowly walked out.

That person had long black hair and was dressed in white robes, looking ever so glorious!

Under the radiance of the Fusang Tree’s Immortal Sparks, he approached them through the air using Yin Yang energy as steps. His menacing aura surged as if an Immortal King had descended, shocking the whole world with his presence!

Both Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy stepped back as they trembled with fear.

“Why is he here?!”

“Chu Kuangren. It’s him again. Why is he everywhere?!”

The Fire Boy was frightened and dumbfounded at the same time.

‘Isn’t Chu Kuangren on the Heavenly Ancient Merchant Planet?’

‘Why is he suddenly here?’

‘Even if he has left the Heavenly Ancient Merchant Planet, encountering him here is quite a coincidence. I can’t believe I have such bad luck!’

‘Besides, Fu Yin, whom we’re attacking, is Chu Kuangren’s subordinate?!’

‘Who am I kidding?!’

“It’s you again, Chu Kuangren! You’re everywhere, huh?”

Having recovered from her initial shock, Huang Yuyi soon calmed down quickly.

She was no longer who she used to be. Even if she was not a match for Chu Kuangren, she believed she could still survive at the very least.

At that thought, she felt a bit more confident.

“Your incessant provocations have displeased me. Since that’s the case, there’s no need for you people to stay alive any longer,” Chu Kuangren said apathetically while looking at Huang Yuyi and the others.

All the sky-prides present had some sort of grudge or conflict with him.

Other than Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy for obvious reasons, the Underworld Palace’s King Chujiang successor, the Demonic Dao’s Sky Demon Tribe, and a Daoist of the Heavenly Dao Sect...

Those three forces all had huge grudges against him.

Yincao Underworld’s Ten Tribes sought to compete against him for the title of Yin Underworld Daoist, while he turned the Demonic Dao upside down back then. Meanwhile, five of the eight Daoists from the Heavenly Dao Sect died in his hand...

“It’s Chu Kuangren. Attack!”

The moment he saw Chu Kuangren appear, Heavenly Daoist Xuan immediately attacked without hesitation. He channeled his Heavenly Dao energy to its limit and unleashed a palm attack!

Instantly, a majestic Heavenly Might erupted!

King Chujiang's successor also attacked. He channeled his Yin qi and transformed it into samsara energy. Then, he pointed out a finger, and a gigantic black vortex appeared. "Samsara Pierce!"

"Sky Demon Macabre!"

Yun Ye immediately attacked with the Sky Demon Tribe's most powerful technique. Bursts of demonic qi rose into the air and turned into countless ghouls in the void.

Endless shrieks, cries, howls, and screams echoed in the surroundings.

It was akin to an ensemble of demons wreaking havoc across the land!

The Heavenly Dao palm attack, the samsara pierce attack, and the power of countless demons resulted in a terrifying energy torrent that swept mercilessly toward Chu Kuangren.

"Divine Godly Phoenix Howl!"

"Divine Flaming Fist!"

Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi also attacked.

Waves of Zhurong Flame and Phoenix Flame — two of the most powerful flames in the known universe — unleashed, transforming almost the whole surrounding area into a sea of flames!

Within that instant, Chu Kuangren was met with an attack from all sides.

A boundless and domineering aura enveloped him. In the face of such power, even Fu Yin beside him could not help but narrow her gaze and trembled in fear.

If she were to face that barrage of attack, she had a feeling she would be reduced to nothing in an instant!

"You, who are mere fireflies at night, dare to compare with the full moon's light?" Chu Kuangren scoffed.

As he stepped forth, the towering Fusang Tree behind him trembled, and billions of Immortal Sparks poured out, turning into a torrent of Yin Yang energy!

The moment the energies from several attacks collided with each other, the whole area quaked violently. Even the void itself collapsed!

The continent that everyone was on broke apart into dozens of pieces!

The commotion drew the attention of countless sky-prides in space.

Everyone looked at the source of the energy with a serious expression.

"What a terrifying energy fluctuation, and this aura too. Which Prodigies are battling each other?"

“Quick. Let’s go check it out.”

Many sky-prides hurried to the location.

Upon seeing the continent broken into pieces, everyone gasped.

“By the heavens, this power is just too terrifying.”

“What kind of people are fighting there?”

The cultivators who arrived noticed the energy fluctuations that resulted from the battle and knew it was strong enough to kill any sky-pride caught in it.

“Hey, everyone! Take a look over there. What is that?”

One of the sky-prides suddenly noticed something and pointed it out.

Amidst the endless smoke and dust within the energy torrents, a gigantic tree was standing upright. A golden-red light radiated everywhere from its gigantic trunk, which looked like it could support the heavens!

“That’s...That’s the legendary Fusang Tree!”

“The Fusang Tree... Why is it here? Didn’t disappear during the past epoch?”

“Wait a minute. This is not the real Fusang Tree, but the manifestation of some sort of energy. It’s the Fusang Tree’s power! Someone has gained control of the complete Fusang Tree’s power!”

Some of the more knowledgeable sky-prides immediately identified the Fusang Tree.

Although it was not the real Fusang Tree, the appearance of the Fusang Tree’s power still shocked everyone.

The Fusang Tree was one of the ten Great Ancient Immortal Spiritual Plants. It possessed Yin Yang energy and was known for its strength during ancient Immortal times.

If one could harness that power to the maximum potential, he or she would surely become one of the most top-tier beings in the world.

The Fusang Tree’s power was on par with, or if not stronger than, the abilities of the Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques!

“Who could it be?”

Everyone could not help but wonder who possessed the complete Fusang Tree’s power.

However, when they saw the white figure standing underneath the tree, they were dumbfounded.

“It’s... It’s the Hundred Academy’s Chief, Chu Kuangren!”

“He’s the one who possesses the complete Fusang Tree power!”

Everyone was stunned.

The Hundred Academy's Chief, Chu Kuangren, was the name of a person well-known throughout the Interstellar Arena.

Besides, the most well-known characteristic about Chu Kuangren was the fact that he possessed several top-tier Immortal Physiques like the Green Leaf Sword Vision, Heavenly Samsara Physique, Chaos Celestial Physique...

Anyone with one of those Immortal Physiques would surely become a top-tier Prodigy. However, Chu Kuangren were hosts to all of them, causing him to be known to many as... a monster!

Now, that monster has displayed another new and rare power, the complete Fusang Tree's power!

"As expected of a monster, I suppose?"

"How many hidden trump cards does he still have?"

The Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi looked at Chu Kuangren with grim expressions.

"Let's get out of here!"

Without any hesitation, the Fire Boy dragged Huang Yuyi away to escape.

"Why are we running? How are you sure I'll lose to him with my current strength?!" Huang Yuyi questioned.

"No, there's no telling what else Chu Kuangren has hidden under his sleeves. Now is not the right time to fight. We must escape and continue searching for more divine flames!"

"Tsk. D*mn it..."

Huang Yuyi felt extremely displeased. However, she had no choice but to leave because of Fire Boy's insistence.

With that, the two of them turned into a flaming light and fled the scene.

Chu Kuangren did not stop them despite seeing that.

He had secretly left a tracking mark on them earlier, so he did not need to worry about losing track of them later.

"Continue searching for divine flames, you two. Now, it's time to deal with you three."

Chu Kuangren looked at Heavenly Daoist Xuan and the others.

Compared to Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi, the three of them were of no value to him. Hence, it should be fine to kill them.

"This is bad. We must leave now!"

Seeing Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy escape, Heavenly Daoist Xuan immediately had a bad feeling about it all and wanted to escape.

However, countless mysterious silver-white Daoist patterns rapidly spread outward from Chu Kuangren and surrounded the whole battlefield in no time.

It was the Spacetime Sealing Technique!

“Where else can you guys run off to now?”

Chapter 1327: Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame, The Infighting of Huang Yuyi And Fire Boy

“Where else can you guys run off to now?”

Chu Kuangren’s expression was indifferent, and endless silver-white Daoist patterns were spreading from him.

In an instant, time and space were sealed by terrifying spacetime energy.

Even though Chu Kuangren was just a clone at that moment, he was powerful. After all, his clone was made out of Yang Fusang Tree and refined with his blood, so it possessed thirty to forty percent of his true form’s strength. Such strength was enough to overpower top-notch sky prides like King Chujiang’s successor and Yun Ye.

The spacetime energy sealed everything in the realm!

King Chujiang’s successor and the other two were shocked, and they tried their best to resist the force.

However, as soon as the Fusang Tree waved its branches, the surging Yin Yang energy erupted and enshrouded the three of them.

Under the impact of the force, their Immortal bodies shattered.

“Chu Kuangren, just you wait. My Sky Demon Tribe’s most powerful sky-pride will definitely avenge me!” Knowing that he would die, Yun Ye roared angrily.

“My Underworld will not give up! The title of Yin Underworld Daoist will belong to the Yincao City!”

King Chujiang’s successor stared at Chu Kuangren with resentment. “Other successors in my Underworld will end your path to Immortality one day!”

“That sounds harsh, but unfortunately, none of you can achieve it,” said Chu Kuangren.

As the Fusang Tree shook behind him, a surge of much more terrifying Yin Yang energy erupted, instantly killing the three people!

Many in the starry sky looked at Chu Kuangren with fear on their faces.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored them and left the place with Fu Yin.

Fu Yin looked at Chu Kuangren with excitement shining in her beautiful eyes. “Thank you for saving me, Master.”

She had fallen to despair, but Chu Kuangren’s arrival brought her hope.

“Don’t mention it. Tell me what you’ve gone through during this time,” said Chu Kuangren.

Fu Yin nodded and then briefly recounted her experiences during that time.

Following that, she took out a grey flame.

The flame was not scorching hot. On the contrary, its Yin qi could seem to freeze the surrounding spaces.

“Master, this is the Mystical Nether Flame that ranks fourteenth on the Divine Fire List,” Fu Yin said, intending to give it to Chu Kuangren.

“Well, it isn’t a bad divine flame. Your strength will definitely improve if you can refine it. I’ll also teach you how to master the complete Fusang energy, which will enable you to enter the ranks of a Prodigy,” said Chu Kuangren as he did not plan to refine the Mystical Nether Flame.

“Thank you, Master.”

Fu Yin nodded and looked at Chu Kuangren with surprise. “Master, is this your clone?”

Chu Kuangren before her gave her a sense of familiarity, which she had only experienced on Chu Kuangren’s clone.

It was the resonance between Yin Fusang and Yang Fusang.

“Yes.”

Chu Kuangren nodded and did not hide the fact.

At that, Fu Yin was even more amazed. To think a mere clone could kill three top-notched sky-prides whose powers were close to Prodigies.

In that case, just how powerful was Chu Kuangren’s real self?

She could not imagine.

“I’ll pass you the cultivation technique for mastering the Fusang energy now.”

Fu Yin was the spiritual body transformed by Yin Fusang. Hence, if she wanted to master the complete Fusang energy, she would only have to master the Yang Fusang energy.

Chu Kuangren’s clone, on the other hand, happened to have been refined by Yang Fusang.

According to Lil Ai’s analysis, there were several ways for Fu Yin to master the Yang Fusang energy.

One of them was for Chu Kuangren’s clone and Fu Yin to have a paired cultivation technique.

However, he did not use that method.

Instead, he chose to transplant a part of Yang Fusang in his body into Fu Yin’s body and then pass on his experience of mastering the Fusang energy to her.

With that, once Fu Yin gained insights into the Yang Fusang energy and balanced out the Yin and Yang with the help of Chu Kuangren’s experience, she could master the complete Fusang energy.

Chu Kuangren nodded while looking at Fu Yin, who had accepted his transplant and was gaining insight into the complete Fusang energy.

“According to my estimate, Fu Yin will take at least a month to master the complete Fusang energy. It should give Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi enough time to discover the last location where the divine flame is hidden in the Interstellar Arena. It’s almost time to reel them into my trap.” A faint smile appeared on Chu Kuangren’s face.

...

Huang Yuyi and Fire Boy arrived at a valley on an ancient star. The valley was extremely hot, and there was no moisture in the air, let alone any plants.

“This is the twelfth and the last location of the divine flame in Interstellar Arena.”

“I wonder what kind of divine flame is hidden here,” Huang Yuyi said with anticipation.

The two went to explore the valley, and as they reached the depths of the valley, lots of flames spewed out from somewhere as if they had touched some kind of restriction!

The flames were purple in color and domineering!

Even Huang Yuyi’s Phoenix Flame and Fire Boy’s Zhurong Flame were almost suppressed.

“This is the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame!” Huang Yuyi exclaimed with joy.

The Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame was ranked eighth on the Divine Fire List and was known for being ferocious and domineering. It was said that when one had fully cultivated it, a spark of it could turn an ancient star into ashes!

In terms of attacking power, that flame was no inferior to the Phoenix Flame or the Golden Crow Flame.

“That’s great. If I can refine the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame with my Phoenix Flame, I can compete with a Godly Phoenix with eight bloodline awakenings!”

Huang Yuyi was beyond excited.

Although the Phoenix’s Flame was ranked third on the Divine Fire List, its power varied according to its user.

The more time a Godly Phoenix had awakened its bloodline, the more powerful their Phoenix Flame would be.

Huang Yuyi looked at the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame and cast her Phoenix Flame to resist it from burning them.

When she and Fire Boy arrived at the depths of the valley, they noticed a ball of purple flame swaying in the void. It was the flame tinder of the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame!

However, the flames had shattered the void, so the space around was nothing but pitch black.

That went to show how domineering the flame was.

“Fire Boy, protect me while I refine the flame,” said Huang Yuyi.

“I’m sorry. You should be the one to protect me this time,” said Fire Boy.

Upon hearing that, Huang Yuyi's expression changed. "You want to fight me for this divine flame?"

"Huang Yuyi, you've absorbed so many divine flames before this. Now, it's my turn," Fire Boy said calmly.

"And that is why you've been allowing me to have the other divine flames. What a joke. All divine flames I've absorbed and refined are far inferior to the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame. How could I let you have it?"

"Huang Yuyi, don't be greedy. As a Godly Phoenix, you must learn to be content. Without me, you wouldn't have been able to absorb so many divine flames."

"Hah! I do have to thank you, but I want this divine flame too!" Huang Yuyi sneered.

She could not wait to own all divine flames, especially the eighth-ranked Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame. If she absorbed and refined it, her strength would increase to a whole new level.

Perhaps she would be able to compete with Chu Kuangren then too.

In that case, how could she possibly give up the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame?

"I advise you to think twice. After all, you'll have to listen to me if you don't wish to die."

Fire Boy's words made Huang Yuyi's expression sank.

1

Chapter 1328: Fire Boy's Scheme, Kumadhi Divine Flame, Why Don't You Try?

Fire Boy's words made Huang Yuyi's expression sank.

Then, she sneered. "Are you threatening me?"

She thought it was ridiculous.

How dare Fire Boy threaten her, a mighty Prodigy much stronger than him?

"Well, forget it. Thank you for taking care of me all this while. In order to repay you, I'll let you die a quick death."

Huang Yuyi had decided to deal with Fire Boy there and then.

As for the rest of the divine flames, she would grab the Divine Flame Map and proceed from there.

It was just the Zhurong Divine Flame Art anyway.

She could cooperate with other Fire Division's Heavenly Champion anyway since Fire Boy was not the only one in the Fire Division to know the Divine Flame Art.

In her opinion, be it Fire Boy or other Fire Division's Heavenly Champion, they were merely her tools.

"Fool!"

Fire Boy sneered and formed a mysterious Daoist Art with his hand.

In an instant, under the Daoist Art's influence, Huang Yuyi could feel the divine flames that she had refined madly clashing in her body like they were about to burst out of her body.

"What's going on?"

Stunned, Huang Yuyi quickly suppressed the rest of the flames with her Phoenix Flame.

However, most of her combat strength was affected by it.

"D*mn it. What the hell is going on?"

Huang Yuyi was confused.

Then, she stared at Fire Boy as she knew it must have something to do with him.

"Do you think my Fire Division's Flame Fusion Technique can be controlled so easily?" asked Fire Boy.

"What do you mean?"

"The Flame Fusion Technique you've cultivated isn't exactly incomplete, but it's a weakened version that I've modified. Although it can help you refine divine flames, the divine flames will become unstable when drawn by my Daoist Art. They will clash against each other, and I can even make you explode and die with a single thought," said Fire Boy.

As he said that, he had a cruel expression that was inconsistent with his seemingly childlike face.

"How dare you scheme against me?!"

Huang Yuyi was furious as she stared at Fire Boy with her beautiful face twisting in anger. How she wished he could slash him into pieces.

However, Fire Boy turned a blind eye to her. He mobilized his thoughts, and the conflict of the divine flames in Huang Yuyi's body intensified, making her suffer in pain.

"The reason why I allowed you to refine those divine flames is that, for one, I didn't need them. Secondly, I wanted to increase the number of divine flames in your body, so once a conflict breaks out between the divine flames, it will be difficult for you to bear with it. Then, it will be easier for me to control you." Fire Boy stood with hands behind his back while looking at Huang Yuyi like she was a slave.

Indeed. From the very beginning, he did not intend to cooperate with Huang Yuyi.

On the contrary, his true motive was to control her and make her his tool!

Controlling a Prodigy?

Just thinking about it thrilled him.

"Speaking of that, I should thank Chu Kuangren. If you didn't hate him so much, my plan wouldn't have gone so smoothly."

“Obey and protect me if you want to obtain the complete Flame Fusion Technique and resolve the conflict of the divine flames in your body. After I’m done refining the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame and defeating Chu Kuangren, I’ll consider giving it to you.”

After that, Fire Boy walked toward the flame tinder while Huang Yuyi stood there, feeling conflicted, as she could do nothing to stop Fire Boy.

At that moment, she felt extremely humiliated.

First, she was defeated by Chu Kuangren and then fooled by Fire Boy. None of the Prodigies would probably end up like her.

“The Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame is the eighth-ranked divine flame. If I can refine it, my Zhurong Flame will be able to evolve into the Kumadhi Divine Flame. Then, not only can I increase my cultivation but also solve my physical flaws and step into the ranks of a Prodigy!”

Fire Boy looked at the flame tinder of the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame with desire in his eyes and immediately began to refine it.

Time flew, and half a month had passed.

During this time, Fire Boy’s body underwent astonishing changes as he constantly refined the Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame.

His body gradually grew.

He initially looked like an eleven or twelve-year-old boy, but now, he was a handsome young man with an incomparably terrifying aura surging around him.

“His aura is no weaker than mine. In fact, it’s even more powerful!”

“It was rumored that Fire Boy lost his place as a Prodigy due to a mistake in his cultivation in his early years. However, it seems he has gotten back his title as a Prodigy,” Huang Yuyi thought to herself.

However, the more she thought about it, the more dissatisfied she was. She felt that she had been extremely unlucky.

Not only did she fail to obtain Huang Jinghuang’s inheritance and was repeatedly attacked by Chu Kuangren, but she was also schemed and fooled by Fire Boy. Now, her dignity as a Prodigy was almost gone!

“No way. I must not give up!”

“The most important thing now is to get the complete Flame Fusion Technique from Fire Boy to resolve the divine flames’ conflict in my body. Then, I’ll take revenge on Chu Kuangren and Fire Boy. Just you wait!” Huang Yuyi decided to endure the humiliation for now.

At that moment, Fire Boy opened his eyes.

The Violet Emperor Burning Heavenly Flame around him was absorbed into his body and then released in the form of a colorful flame.

The flame was filled with colors such as green, red, yellow, blue, and many more, which was a gorgeous sight.

Nevertheless, its power frightened Huang Yuyi. “What a terrifying Zhurong Flame. No, it’s the... Kumadhi Divine Flame!”

The Kumadhi Divine Flame was the Zhurong Flame’s greatest form!

The flame was neither natural nor a divine beast’s divine ability but a divine flame cultivated through the Zhurong Divine Flame Art. Therefore, it was not on the Divine Fire List.

Still, none could deny the existence of the powerful Kumadhi Divine Flame!

“Haha...”

Fire Boy stood up slowly while letting out a long laugh. At the same time, the Kumadhi Divine Flame was released from his body, wreaking havoc and burning the entire valley!

In an instant, countless living beings were burnt into ashes by the divine flame!

Everything in a thousand-kilometer radius was burned into mud and sand, forming a huge pothole!

From a high altitude, the entire ancient star looked like it had melted.

Fire Boy stood proudly in the divine flames with a domineering aura, as if the Ancient Fire God Zhurong had been reborn in the universe!

“After all the planning, I’ve finally made up for my physical flaws and mastered the Kumadhi Divine Flame!”

“From now on, all flames in the world will be under my control!”

“I’m the new... Fire God!”

Fire Boy yelled, and his voice resounded through the starry sky!

Huang Yuyi was shocked upon seeing the scene.

“Are you sure?”

Just then, a chuckle came from the starry sky.

Immediately afterward, an overwhelming aura descended from the sky, and a golden-red flame meteor streaked through the sky and smashed into the valley!

In an instant, a gigantic golden red flame lotus bloomed and covered thousands of kilometers!

Surprisingly, the endless flame could contend with Fire Boy’s Kumadhi Divine Flame!

In the flame lotus, a figure in white slowly walked out with a peerless demeanor and extraordinary appearance.

Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi were horrified!

“You said all the flames in the world will be under your control. In that case, why don’t you try and see if you can control my Crimson Lotus Phoenix’s Flame?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Phoenix’s Flame lit up the land as Daoist patterns interweaved and flickered. The might of its power shook heaven and earth!

Chapter 1329: Kumadhi Divine Flame Battles With Godly Tree Fusang, Can I Win?

The Golden Crimson Phoenix Flame gushed down from the sky while Chu Kuangren made a triumphant entrance!

“Why are you here?!”

Fire Boy and Huang Yuyi were surprised.

After encountering Chu Kuangren repeatedly, they should realize something was up, no matter how slow they were.

“You’ve been following us since we left the Heavenly Ancient Merchant Planet,” Fire Boy said in a deep voice.

“Indeed, and I must thank you for collecting so many divine flames.” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

“I see. It seems you’ve learned about the Divine Flame Map’s uses and have been using us to find the divine flames.”

Fire Boy’s expression was grim. While he treated Huang Yuyi as his tool, Chu Kuangren was treating both of them as his tools.

Even though he was dissatisfied, Fire Boy smiled. “Chu Kuangren, your idea is brilliant. Gaining benefits from the tussle. Unfortunately, you’ve overlooked one point, which is my strength after the transformation. This time, I won’t escape as I did in the past. I’ll defeat you squarely and let you taste the power of Kumadhi Divine Flame!”

After the transformation, Fire Boy felt that he was more powerful than ever. With Huang Yuyi also by his side, he was suddenly overflowing with confidence.

He believed he might be able to defeat Chu Kuangren!

Even if he failed, protecting himself would not be a problem.

“Heh. It seems that the Kumadhi Divine Flame has given you a lot of confidence.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled, and as he raised his hand, the Golden Crimson Phoenix Flame soared through the skies before heading toward Fire Boy.

“Your Phoenix Flame doesn’t affect me anymore!” Fire Boy roared.

Splendid Kumadhi Divine Flame poured out from his body and broke the Golden Crimson Phoenix Flame into pieces. He was using his flame to defeat another flame!

As Chu Kuangren gathered his sword qi, his Phoenix Flame turned into a sword he slashed downward.

“Holy Divine Fire Art, Kumadhi Divine Flame Seal!”

Fire Boy yelled and cast the powerful ultimate move that only the Zhurong Divine Flame Art’s Kumadhi Divine Flame could activate!

When the seal and sword collided, boundless flames swept out, and an explosion erupted in the void.

The Phoenix Flame was surprisingly inferior!

With that, the colorful Divine Flame Seal charged toward Chu Kuangren.

“It seems the Phoenix Flame cast by a clone is indeed not the Kumadhi Divine Flame’s opponent.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled but was not surprised.

The Phoenix’s Flame was merely one of his many techniques, and he did not make a special effort to strengthen it.

Moreover, it was just a clone of his, so it was expected that he was not as good as Fire Boy, who specialized in flame cultivation.

The next moment, the Fusang energy in his body erupted!

Immortal Sparks radiated from the towering Fusang Tree, and the unparalleled Yin Yang energy flowed around, smashing the divine flame that came from the sky!

“Chu Kuangren, go to hell!”

Meanwhile, Huang Yuyi yelled and attacked Chu Kuangren too.

She initially wanted to make a move after Fire Boy and Chu Kuangren were lost and injured, but after thinking it through, she knew it was impossible.

Chu Kuangren’s strength was so astonishing that he had left a deep impression on her. It would be a miracle if Fire Boy wanted to fight Chu Kuangren to death. Moreover, Fire Boy would not sit by and let her watch from the sidelines.

On top of the fact that she hated Chu Kuangren, she decided to take action.

Endless Phoenix Flames soared across the skies.

Having refined several kinds of divine flames, the might of Huang Yuyi’s Phoenix Flame had increased by a mile and should not be underestimated.

“I’m your opponent!”

A grunt sounded.

Following that, a chillingly black figure stood before Chu Kuangren. Daoist patterns circulated her body, reflecting a second Godly Tree Fusang!

When the Fusang energy and Phoenix Flame collided, Huang Yuyi was pushed back a few steps. She looked at the chilling figure before her with surprise. "It's you!"

The person who came was none other than Fu Yin!

However, the current Fu Yin was different from before. Her aura was much more powerful, and she had mastered the complete Fusang energy!

"Are you that surprised?"

Fu Yin looked at Huang Yuyi coldly. "I'll settle the previous score with you once and for all today!"

"With your Fusang energy?"

"I also have this!"

A gray flame gushed out from Fu Yin's body. It was extremely chilly and frightening as if it was coming from the underworld.

"Mystical Nether Flame!"

A strange look flashed in Huang Yuyi's eyes. "I didn't think you'd refine this divine flame so quickly. Should I say you really live up to the name of the Yin Fusang Spirit?"

The Yin Fusang was the most Yin object in the universe, and the Mystical Nether Flame was the most Yin divine flame.

For the most Yin spirit, made from the most Yin object, to refine the most Yin flame, she could achieve twice the result with half the effort!

"Since you've brought the divine flame to me, I shall show no mercy."

Huang Yuyi planned to kill Fu Yin and then grab her divine flame.

"Let me taste your Phoenix Flame!"

Fu Yin had the help of the Godly Tree Fusang and the Mystical Nether Flame that was burning on her body to fight against Huang Yuyi!

In the meantime, Fire Boy looked at Chu Kuangren and glanced at Fu Yin in surprise. "Her complete Fusang energy must have something to do with you."

He was sure that Fu Yin had not mastered the Fusang energy before this, and it was after encountering Chu Kuangren that she successfully mastered the energy. Moreover, Chu Kuangren had the complete Fusang energy, so it was not hard to piece it together.

The longer he had Chu Kuangren as his enemy, the more he found the latter unfathomable.

For no reason, he lost a little of his overflowing confidence.

Could he defeat the man before him?

"No, no way!"

“Being afraid before fighting is taboo!”

Fire Boy’s eyes narrowed. Then, he stabilized his Daoist core and immediately activated the Kumadhi Divine Flame, unleashing various ultimate moves from the Zhurong Divine Flame Art.

In the face of those attacks, Chu Kuangren remained standing in his spot. The Godly Tree Fusang behind him gleamed with Immortal Sparks while the Yin Yang energy flowed through the air and smashed the Kumadhi Divine Flame!

“Is this all you’ve got? What a disappointment,” said Chu Kuangren.

“Hmph, of course not! Chu Kuangren, taste my Zhurong Divine Flame Art’s ultimate ability, the Kumadhi Divine Flame Zhurong Avatar!”

Fire Boy knew Chu Kuangren was powerful, so he did not hide his strength.

The Kumadhi Divine Flame shot up into the sky from his body. In the void, Countless Daoist patterns intertwined and formed an ancient Fire God Avatar, the Zhurong Avatar!

As Fire Boy controlled the Zhurong Avatar, its surging divine might stirred in the void while the surrounding space shattered!

The flame currents soared into the sky and shook the starry sky!

Under the impact of the flame currents, some planets shattered into ashes!

Many cultivators, who were gaining experience in the starry sky, rushed toward where the terrifying fluctuation upon sensing it.

“Only a few people in the entire Interstellar Arena can cast such powerful flame fluctuation.”

“What a beautiful flame, and this aura... Could it be the Kumadhi Divine Flame?”

“Isn’t Kumadhi Divine Flame rumored to be the highest level of the Zhurong Divine Flame Art? Has someone in the Immortal Hall’s Flame Division managed to cultivate it?”

Many people dashed to the ancient star and were amazed to see the gigantic Fire God Avatar and the towering Godly Tree Fusang.

“It’s Chu Kuangren and that young man... He looks quite similar to Fire Boy, but isn’t he supposed to look like an eleven or twelve-year-old boy?”

“It seems like he has successfully restored his physical flaws and cultivated the Kumadhi Divine Flame!”

Everyone was watching the battle attentively.

Whether it was the Godly Tree Fusang or the Kumadhi Divine Flame, they were rare.

Chapter 1330: The Equinox Maiden Sage, Hua Wuai, How Am I Trying To Make Myself Look Brave?

The Zhurong Avatar stood proudly while controlling the Kumadhi Divine Flame with domineering might that shook the void in all directions!

As the branches and leaves of Godly Tree Fusang stretched outward, Immortal Sparks shone while the Yin Yang energy flowed through the void, causing the universe to tremble!

The two energies confronted each other on the ancient star, and the power that escaped from the collision was causing the entire planet to break!

“Chu Kuangren, taste the power of my Zhurong Avatar!”

Fire Boy yelled and controlled the Zhurong Avatar to attack Chu Kuangren. Every move he made carried a domineering might that could burn the universe. It was as if the ancient Fire God had reappeared in the world.

However, Chu Kuangren did not dodge or evade, and the Yin Yang energy surged out from the Godly Tree Fusang.

Bang! Bang!

The first collision between the Yin Yang energy and Zhurong Avatar caused the ancient star under their feet to break into half!

The terrifying impact created a violent hurricane in the starry sky.

Upon seeing that scene, many people retreated.

“As expected of the Kumadhi Divine Flame and Godly Tree Fusang. Their powers really should not be underestimated.”

“That’s powerful!”

Many people in the crowd were amazed by the power displayed.

Just then, a black whirlpool emerged in the starry sky.

From the whirlpool, a surge of mighty samsara energy emanated outward and attracted many people’s attention.

Two figures walked out of the whirlpool following that.

They both were surrounded by Yin qi and samsara energy. Their lightning-like eyes swept across the starry sky and eventually landed on Chu Kuangren, who was fighting with Fire Boy.

“He’s Chu Kuangren, and his aura is indeed extraordinary,” one of them said with a hint of surprise in his eyes.

“It’s them, the successors of Yincao Underworld City’s King Dushi and King Songdi!”

Someone recognized them.

There were ten tribes in Yincao Underworld City, and most of the successors from those ten tribes were gaining experience in Interstellar Arena.

Among them, King Yanluo’s successor and King Qin’guang’s successor were well-known Prodigies.

Although King Dushi's successor and King Songdi's successor were not as good as those two successors, they were still top-notch sky-prides. Moreover, the Underworld's techniques were treacherous and unpredictable, so to some extent, they were comparable to Prodigies.

After the two Underworld successors emerged, an incomparably powerful aura erupted elsewhere.

In the starry sky, a woman dressed in white and gleaming with Immortal Sparks on her body covered in jade-like skin glided across the sky.

The powerful Heavenly Might that filled the sky was released from her body.

"She's Heavenly Daoist Di, the Heavenly Dao Sect's Prodigy who is second only to the Heavenly Daoist Tian!"

The Heavenly Dao Sect's eight Daoists were pretty well-known, and Heavenly Daoist Tian was the most powerful among them. His reputation in the Interstellar Arena was also comparable to the Immortal Hall's Imperial Commander!

After Heavenly Daoist Di arrived, she looked at Chu Kuangren with her beautiful yet ice-cold eyes. "My Heavenly Dao Sect has eight Daoists, namely Tian, Di, Xuan, Huang, Ri, Yue, Qian, and Kun, and you've killed the last six. Chu Kuangren, the grudge between you and the Heavenly Dao Sect can never be resolved!"

Boom!

Surging demonic qi shot up into the sky.

Several powerful sky-prides had come, and all were Demonic Dao cultivators.

There were cultivators from the Chiyou Tribe dressed in black armor and emanating battle intent, cultivators from the Yin Underworld that were like soul-retrieving messengers, and cultivators from the Corpse-Refining Tribe that controlled thousands of zombies...

Several Demonic Dao sky-prides had also come, and each one of them was a notable elite among their peers.

"Tsk tsk. I heard Chu Kuangren killed a few people from the Heavenly Dao Sect, Demonic Dao, and the Underworld not long ago. Are they here to seek revenge?"

"That's possible."

"Hehe. This is interesting. It will make a huge scene if they fight."

Many people were looking forward as they, too, wanted to watch the fun.

Just then, countless bright red and enchanting flowers bloomed, paving a flower passage from the depths of the starry sky!

Besides its enchanting quality and blood-red color, those flowers also possessed a hint of Yin qi.

They were Equinox Flowers, which did not exist in the Yang Space!

King Dushi's successor and King Songdi's successor were astonished upon seeing the beautiful Equinox Flower path. "Why is she here?"

At the end of the Equinox Flower path, a girl who appeared to be thirteen or fourteen years old was walking toward the crowd.

The girl was wearing a black robe embroidered with Equinox Flower patterns, which made her look as if she was one with the Equinox Flowers around her.

She had a pair of blood-red eyes and delicate facial features, but she had no expressions on her face. It was as if she was a delicate doll without any emotion.

However, the domineering aura emanating from her body made all sky-prides present feel intimidated. That fact alone made no one dare to take her as an ordinary girl.

"The Equinox Maiden Sage, Hua Wuai."

King Dushi's successor mentioned her name with fear in his voice.

The Equinox Maiden Sage was not well-known in the Interstellar Arena. At least compared with those Prodigies, she could be regarded as an unknown person.

However, everyone in Yin World knew her because she was a terrifying Prodigy!

Even the most outstanding sky-pride and Heavenly Champion in the Underworld probably would not have much chance of winning once facing her.

As Hua Wuai arrived above the ancient star, she looked at Chu Kuangren strangely with her blood gems-like eyes that were devoid of emotions. "I have never seen someone without any destiny. Is he the one who attracted me to come here? He also has Fengdu's authority and the fluctuation of Heavenly Samsara Physique's aura."

"But these are all very weak. He is... a clone."

Hua Wuai could tell Chu Kuangren's current state at one glance, and astonishment appeared on her expressionless face.

If a mere clone already possessed such terrifying strength, what about his real self?

Her chances of winning were slim if she made a move.

It was her first time meeting a sky-pride who was more powerful than her.

What made her even more concerned was Chu Kuangren's aura, which was closely connected with the Underworld.

Now, she was even more curious about him being someone without any destiny.

The appearance of Hua Wuai, the Equinox Maiden Sage, caught many people's attention, especially with her aura that evoked a terrifying feeling.

However, everyone ignored her shortly after and continued paying attention to the battle between Chu Kuangren and Fire Boy, which was in full swing.

As the impact between Godly Tree Fusang and Kumadhi Divine Flame erupted non-stop, countless Daoist patterns collided and shattered one after another in the void.

The fragments of the Daoist patterns that exploded caused some planets in the surrounding space to crack.

“Kumadhi Divine Flame, Annihilating Zhurong!” Fire Boy yelled and channeled the Kumadhi Divine Flame to its limit.

Soon after, the divine flame above the Zhurong Avatar skyrocketed. The moment the attack was unleashed, the divine flame gushed out like it was about to burn the entire universe to ashes!

The power burned some of the Godly Tree Fusang’s branches.

Although it was not a big thing, it was the first time the Godly Tree Fusang was damaged.

“Chu Kuangren, the Fusang Tree may be powerful, but it’s still wood. Among the five elements, fire dominates wood!”

“And my divine flame will eventually burn your Fusang Tree to ashes!”

Fire Boy sneered smugly as if victory was already in the bag.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren could not care less. “You’re quite proud for burning just a few branches and leaves.”

“Let’s see how long you can try to make yourself look brave!”

Fire Boy mobilized the divine flames and planned to cast his ultimate move. He believed he could win the battle, and for that, he was ecstatic!

Unfortunately, the next moment, an even more terrifying Yin Yang intent spread from Chu Kuangren.

The Yin Yang intent was somewhat different from that of the Fusang Tree.

Those two Yin Yang energies overlapped to form a black and white Yin Yang symbol covering the sky!

“Tell me, how am I trying to make myself look brave?”
