

Unparalleled 1361

Chapter 1361: A Variety of Rewards, a Thousand Dao Proclamation Seals, Is That All There Is to This?

Many sky-prides and Heavenly Champions from all over the Interstellar Arena soon arrived outside the Heavenly Dao Spire. Then, all of them entered the Heavenly Dao Spire to begin the challenge of reaching the top for the Opportunities of Fortune awaiting them.

The sky-prides with weaker cultivation levels were flying out from the Spire in no time.

They looked beaten as if they were blasted out from the Heavenly Dao Spire.

“So this is the Heavenly Dao Spire, huh? It’s extraordinary. I can’t believe I can only get to the ninth floor with my current power,” a sky-pride could not help but lament.

The Heavenly Dao Spire had a total of nine hundred and ninety-nine floors. However, he only managed to reach the ninth floor. It meant he could not even receive the first reward, which made him sad.

“Who will be the one to reach the highest floor and receive that ultimate Heavenly Dao Opportunity of Fortune, I wonder?”

“Sheesh. That’s impossible.”

Another sky-pride pouted. “I’m considered a first-class sky-pride, yet I only managed to get to the twenty-seventh floor. The higher up you go, the more difficult the challenge you face. There’s no way anyone can even reach the nine hundred and ninety-ninth floor!”

“I agree. I don’t think anyone will get the ultimate Opportunity of Fortune at the top of this spire.”

“I don’t think even the Prodigies like Heavenly Daoist Tian, the Yincao Underworld successors, or the Holy Violet Emperor Planet Prodigies are strong enough to reach the top and claim that ultimate Opportunity of Fortune.”

The sky-prides outside the spire were engaged in a discussion.

Meanwhile, a black-haired person in white robes with a peerless appearance walked out from the void. His every movement screamed of otherworldly.

The gazes of every cultivator present narrowed upon seeing that person.

“It’s him!”

“This monster has come!”

Only one person throughout the whole Interstellar Arena was known as a monster to all!

It was the one and only madman throughout eternity, who was none other than Chu Kuangren!

Behind Chu Kuangren, three unparalleled beauties were following him.

One of them was Shi Ying, a person who seemed soft and gentle but was tough-minded, like an iron hand in a velvet glove. The second was Fu Yin, who exuded a cool temperament. Lastly, there was Li Fei, a woman with purple eyes who emanated a feral and wild charm.

The three ladies were following Chu Kuangren, with him taking the lead.

Many sky-prides could not help but become overwhelmed with envy.

"Damn, that Chu Kuangren is truly a blessed man. He seems to be surrounded by gorgeous women all the time."

"Oh, why are Lan Yu and Chu Hong not with him? I heard those two ladies are quite close to him as well. Speaking of which, I don't recall seeing them anywhere on this planet either."

"Perhaps they're somewhere else."

"Chu Kuangren... If it's him, he might stand a chance to reach the highest floor and receive that ultimate Opportunity of Fortune!" said one of the sky-pride.

The others stayed silent when they heard that.

If it were other sky-prides or Prodigies, the onlookers outside were sure that those cultivators would not reach the highest floor.

However, when it came to Chu Kuangren... they immediately became uncertain.

That was because Chu Kuangren was a monster!

No one had ever witnessed his full strength before, and no one had ever seen the limits of his power too.

Reaching the highest floor might be impossible for everyone else.

However, no one was sure whether Chu Kuangren could do it or not!

Everything about him was a mystery!

"Let's go!" said Chu Kuangren as he looked at the Heavenly Dao Spire and guided the three ladies in.

The instant he stepped foot inside, the view before him changed.

Then, he arrived at a white space, where he saw a young man standing before him.

The young man was armed with a sword, and without saying a word, he charged toward Chu Kuangren, attacking with a burst of terrifying sword qi!

Chu Kuangren merely released a trace of his aura.

His brutal Immortal's Core energy fluctuations immediately blew that young man into a mist of blood!

Right after, a flight of stairs that led up to the second floor appeared before him.

Chu Kuangren pondered for a moment before looking around him and realizing that there was no one there but him alone.

Hence, he started walking, eventually coming to the second floor.

His opponent this time was also a sword cultivator but was stronger than the one on the first floor. Despite that, that sword cultivator still could not defend himself against a trace of Chu Kuangren's aura.

Just like that, Chu Kuangren went up the first nine floors with rapid speed.

After he defeated his opponent on the ninth floor, a golden bundle of light appeared. As the ball of light dispersed, it revealed a medicinal pill covered with glimmering Daoist patterns.

"Oh, is this the first reward?"

Chu Kuangren looked at his reward, a Heavenly Immortal pill that was useless to him.

"The Heavenly Dao Spire has nine hundred and ninety-nine floors. For every nine floors completed, a reward shall be given. In other words, there's going to be a total of one hundred and eleven rewards!"

"This first reward is worth nothing to me, but I wonder what kind of reward will I receive on the highest floor?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled. He had set the Heavenly Dao Spire's highest floor as his main objective!

Tenth floor, eleventh floor...

Twentieth, thirtieth, fiftieth, one hundred...

Chu Kuangren was moving up in the Heavenly Dao Spire with lightning speed. Naturally, he received several rewards along the way as well.

From the ordinary Heavenly Immortal pill he received, the subsequent rewards increased in rank and rarity the further up he went.

When he received the eleventh reward, it was already a top-tier True Immortal Weapon.

Then again, it was still of no use to Chu Kuangren, so he continued moving up the spire.

Boom!

On the Heavenly Dao Spire's one hundred and thirty-fifth floor, Chu Kuangren had killed a top-tier Heavenly Immortal yokai beast, and the fifteenth reward soon appeared before him.

Upon seeing what it was, Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up a little.

"This is a Dao Proclamation Seal!"

The fifteenth reward was a high-quality Dao Proclamation Seal!

"Nice. I can use it to strengthen my Descendant Self Sword after this."

The Descendant Self Sword could be strengthened with Dao Proclamation Seals.

With that, Chu Kuangren continued moving up the next nine floors quickly.

His next reward was still Dao Proclamation Seals. However, the number had increased to two this time.

Following that, as if seemingly messing around with him, the next ten subsequent rewards he received from the Heavenly Dao Spire were all Dao Proclamation Seals! It was just that the amount of Dao Proclamation Seals continued increasing.

Its number increased from one to two, four, six, eight, sixteen, thirty-two, and so forth, doubling every single time.

When it came to the tenth Dao Proclamation Seal reward he received in a row, he was given one thousand and twenty-four of them in one go!

“Very nice. It looks like I’ll get to increase the Descendant Self Sword’s power even more now.”

If he were to integrate more than a thousand Dao Proclamation Seals into his Descendant Self Sword in one go, the power of that sword would surely increase by a mile. If he could utilize the full power of the Dao Proclamation Seal, the strengthening effects it would have on his Immortal Techniques would be terrifying!

The next subsequent reward, however, was not Dao Proclamation Seals anymore. It disappointed Chu Kuangren a little.

As time went by, it had been ten days.

Chu Kuangren was now on the nine hundredth floor and had received a total of one hundred rewards!

Besides the Dao Proclamation Seals, he also received various Immortal Weapons, medicinal pills, Immortal Techniques, and more.

At the Eastern Heavenly Dao Spire, on the nine hundred and first floor, Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back, looking emotionless as usual.

“Although my opponents in the Heavenly Dao Spire have been getting stronger the higher up I go, there’s still no one who can make me take them seriously.”

“If that’s all there is to the Heavenly Dao Spire, I suppose the reward at the highest floor won’t be that interesting either,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

The rarity and rank of any Opportunity of Fortune would usually be proportional to the difficulty of the trial or challenge it posed.

The harder it was to get the treasure, the more valuable it would be.

Throughout the past nine hundred floors, Chu Kuangren still had not encountered anyone who posed a challenge to him.

He could not help questioning the rarity and worth of the Opportunity of Fortune in the Heavenly Dao Spire.

‘Is this all the Heavenly Dao Spire has to offer?’

At that time, he heard the roar of a dragon in the sky!

A wave of dragon aura swept out mercilessly!

Chapter 1362: Five Ways Treasures, Cherishing Each Other, A Tune That Amazes One's Life

Those who could get to the nine hundred and first floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire were Prodigies among sky-prides with extraordinary strength.

When every Prodigy came to that floor, their expressions changed upon hearing the the dragon's roar and sensing the dragon's might.

A blazing crimson True Dragon, with body millions of meters long, emerged before the spire. Each of his scales was like an indestructible shield, and his heavy breathing echoed in the air, accompanied by surges of dragon auras.

"Our opponent this time is a True Dragon!"

"It's extraordinary."

"The difficulty of Heavenly Dao Spire's trials increases gradually with every nine levels. It seems like the following trials will only be more difficult than dealing with the True Dragon!"

Although the nine hundred and first floor was slightly tricky for Prodigies, most of them could pass through it.

However, one thing worth noting was that it was only the nine hundred and first floor! There were still ninety-eight floors to go to reach the top of the Heavenly Dao Spire, and if an opponent close to a Prodigy had emerged, it was conceivable how difficult the following trials would be.

Many Prodigies' hearts sank.

"Ha! Interesting!"

Contrary to many sky-prides' heavy hearts, Chu Kuangren found it interesting.

He initially thought the trials were too simple, but now they were just right!

Chu Kuangren grinned as he took a step forward. Behind him, a golden red Godly Tree Fusang emerged, radiating with billions of Immortal Sparks, and then a powerful Yin Yang energy exploded!

With a bang, the void erupted!

Although the True Dragon wanted to resist, he was far from being Chu Kuangren's opponent and was blasted into a mist of blood!

Soon after, a golden staircase emerged.

Chu Kuangren stepped forward and came to nine hundred and second floor!

His opponent was a pure-blooded avarice this time!

The avarice may be more powerful than a True Dragon, but he was not Chu Kuangren's opponent. Soon, Chu Kuangren smashed him dead in his head!

In the following levels, Chu Kuangren and other Prodigies' opponents were either pure-blooded divine beasts, wild beasts, or sky-prides of the same realms with top-notched Immortal Physiques.

On the nine hundred and forty-fifth floor, King Songdi's successor of the Yincao Underworld was fighting against a sky-pride with top-notched Supreme Immortal Physique.

The sky-pride, who was part of the Heavenly Dao Spire, had powerful strength. Even though King Songdi's successor was a Prodigy, the battle was a challenge for him.

Bang, bang, bang!

King Songdi's successor blasted various Underworld Immortal Techniques and divine abilities at the opponent opposite him while the opponent also mobilized ultimate moves to deal with it.

Raging energies filled the void.

"It seems like defeating this guy won't be an easy task."

Boom!

A mist of blood exploded!

The opponent at the nine hundred forty-fifth floor, a sky-pride possessing a top-notched Supreme Immortal Physique, was blasted apart by Chu Kuangren's punch!

Then, a cloud of golden light hovered in the air.

It was the one hundred and fifth reward.

A divine flame swayed in the golden light, and its scorching temperature almost distorted the void.

"It's the Raging Sun Flame, which is ranked twenty-three on the Divine Fire List. Well, not bad." Chu Kuangren nodded.

Although he already had more than a dozen types of divine flames, he did not mind having more as his true self's Phoenix Flame would be able to devour them and become more powerful.

After that, Chu Kuangren walked to a higher floor, the nine hundred fifty-fourth floor.

The torrential force filled the void while an incomparably domineering aura spread from all directions.

All Prodigies that came to that floor instantly felt like they were at the bottom of an ocean.

They had to resist the pressure of the deep ocean crushing them with all their strength.

Following that, a figure emerged from the deep ocean.

It was a figure composed of water currents whose face could not be seen clearly. The figure was like a woman with a voluptuous body, and as she waved her arms, the majestic torrential force rushed toward the spire invaders!

On top of facing the endless pressure of being in the deep ocean, the spire invaders were now overwhelmed by the spire guardian's attack.

“Block it!”

As King Songdi’s successor roared, Yin qi gushed out from his body, combined with the power of samsara, and then turned into a whirlpool!

Unfortunately, his attack failed.

With just one blow, the pitch-black whirlpool erupted!

King Songdi’s successor was blasted out of the Heavenly Dao Spire and lost his qualification to invade the spire.

“Damn it. Damn it!”

Outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, King Songdi’s successor wore a grim look on his face. “That level was too difficult to get past.”

On the nine hundred fifty-fourth floor.

“Reincarnation Tribulation Light!”

Under the pressure of the deep ocean, samsara energy erupted from Chu Kuangren’s body. Soon, a tribulation light burst out, completely shattering the figure formed by the water currents!

Following that, the surrounding water currents collapsed!

A ray of golden light flickered in the air, and the one hundred and sixth reward appeared before Chu Kuangren.

It was an azure blue gem containing a surging torrential force. It was a water-attribute treasure!

“Not bad. My clone is made of spiritual wood, and I need a treasure like that to nourish myself.”

Chu Kuangren smiled with satisfaction and put the gem away.

On the nine hundred and sixty-third floor, Chu Kuangren defeated a tree yokai that was cultivated from a divine tree and obtained a Divine Tree’s Heart.

The Divine Tree’s Heart was more useful to his clone than the previous water-attribute treasure.

“First, it was a divine flame. Then, it was a water-attribute treasure, and now it’s a Divine Tree’s Heart? Could the following rewards relate to the five elements?” Chu Kuangren secretly guessed.

His speculation was proved right as in the following trials, he obtained a high-grade Immortal Metal and colorful living soil containing the rich life essence.

At the nine hundred and ninetieth floor, all Prodigies were excited because after that floor, they only had nine floors left to go. Once they got through the last floor, they could obtain the last Opportunity of Fortune!

This time, the opponent was holding a guqin. As someone skilled at guqin, he placed his ten fingers on the guqin and plucked the strings, releasing bursts of unparalleled guqin music that impacted everything around.

All Prodigies were forced back in the face of the guqin music.

Even the Underworld's King Dushi's successor and Buddhist world's Monk Wujie were blasted out of the Heavenly Dao Spire and disqualified after failing to resist a few of the attacks.

The remaining Prodigies were also challenged in the battle like never before.

"Guqin music? Interesting."

Chu Kuangren also met the opponent who was skilled at playing the guqin.

Hence, he took out the Cloud Nine Insignia and intended to fight guqin with guqin!

In an instant, two completely different guqin music reverberated through and shook the surrounding void.

Surprisingly, both guqin music resonated as they met.

As if they had sensed something, Chu Kuangren and the spire guardian looked at each other before changing their tunes at the same time. The confrontational tunes turned into an ensemble like the mountain and flowing water.

While everyone else was fighting fiercely with the spire guardian, Chu Kuangren and he cherished each other and composed a piece of divine music together!

The beautiful and elusive guqin music reached far and wide, beyond the clouds in the sky. It sounded like it was never going to end!

For a moment, it seemed like guqin music filled the heavens and earth.

The tune crossed time and space, as well as time.

When Chu Kuangren and the spire guardian stopped playing the guqin at the same time, guqin music was still echoing in the void for a long time!

Chu Kuangren and the spire guardian looked at each other with a hint of admiration.

Finally, the spire guardian stood up and bowed to Chu Kuangren while Chu Kuangren responded with a salute.

Following that, the spire guardian no longer sought trouble with Chu Kuangren. His figure turned into a cloud of green smoke and disappeared, leaving Chu Kuangren with the one hundred and tenth reward.

Chapter 1363: Daybreak Lightning, Five Ways Ultimate Art, Green-Eyed Bull Demon

There were two items in the golden light, which were a guqin and an ancient Immortal Scripture!

The guqin had an azure-colored and crystal-like body engraved with countless mysterious Daoist patterns.

The familiar energy made Chu Kuangren's eyes light up. "This aura comes from the same source as the Cloud Nine Insignia. It's another part of Fuxi's Guqin's energy!"

Yu Zhi, the Jade Pool Maiden Sage, told Chu Kuangren before that Fuxi's Guqin, the Pseudo Source Supreme Treasure, was once divided into four. Besides Chu Kuangren's Cloud Nine Insignia and Yu Zhi's Immemorial Echoes, the other two were the Daybreak Lightning and Thundering Rumble!

The one in front of Chu Kuangren should be one of the two guqins. After sensing it a little, he noticed it was of extraordinary grade. It was an Arch Gilded Immortal Weapon much better than the Cloud Nine Insignia.

As Chu Kuangren stretched out his hand to hold the guqin, a message emerged in his mind.

He immediately learned about the origin of the guqin.

It was the Daybreak Lightning, one of the four of Fuxi's Guqin!

The Immortal Scripture had an origin too. It was especially used to cultivate Five Ways energy and was called the Five Ways Ultimate Art, which was a top-notch Arch Gilded Immortal Scripture.

Those two Arch Gilded items were extraordinary, especially the latter. Although Chu Kuangren was not specialized in cultivating the Five Ways Dao, the Immortal Scripture was a great reference for him.

According to the records of the Five Ways Ultimate Art, if one could gather the five types of Five Ways Treasures and combine them with Five Ways Ultimate Art, he could even create a top-notch Immortal Physique, the Five Ways Immortal Physique!

If such an Immortal Physique could evolve further, it could become one of the Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques, Five Ways Undying Body!

Even Prodigies would die for that Supreme Immortal Physique.

"Weren't the few rewards before this the Five Ways Treasures? The divine flame, water-attribute Immortal Crystal, Divine Tree's Heart, Immortal Metal, and living soil corresponding to the Five Ways... And now with the addition of Five Ways Ultimate Art, it seems that the Heavenly Dao Spire has made a wise arrangement. How interesting," Chu Kuangren said with a faint smile.

He fell into deep thought as he looked at the stairs leading to the next level in front of him.

There were nine levels left before he could get through to the top of the Heavenly Dao Spire!

However, based on the previous trials, the difficulties of the remaining nine levels were comparable to the spire guardian on the nine hundred and ninetieth floor.

The last level would be even more terrifying.

"If I want to get through the last nine floors, I'm afraid there are certain risks with my clone's strength, and I'm not fully confident in getting through."

While looking at the Immortal Scripture in his hand, he thought about the Five Ways Treasures he had obtained, and an idea suddenly popped up in his mind.

'Why don't I strengthen my clone's energy?'

It was difficult to strengthen a clone's energy, let alone a clone that had been around for so long.

However, Chu Kuangren's clone was a unique one.

It was produced through the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique and made out of wood-attribute material that had high growth potential. Moreover, it was the Fusang Tree, a wood-attributed divine tree<sup>1</sup>, which enabled the clone to have extraordinary growth potential.

"Before this, I used a water-attributed Immortal Crystal to strengthen my clone's energy. Now, I have a more precious water-attributed Immortal Crystal and a Divine Tree's Heart that can strengthen my clone's strength. In addition, if I can comprehend the Five Ways Ultimate Art thoroughly, I may be able to integrate the Five Ways Treasures into my clone!"

Time was the only concern as no one knew how long the Heavenly Dao Spire would be here.

"It looks like I'll need to bet."

Chu Kuangren smiled. He was confident with his cognizance, so it would not be a problem for him to comprehend an Arch Gilded Immortal Scripture thoroughly in a short time.

Moreover, he possessed a cultivation technique like the Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation, which seemed to be the source of countless Dao techniques. It could allow him to deduce all kinds of Dao techniques in the universe.

That would even accelerate his cultivation of Dao techniques.

However, not only Chu Kuangren wanted to strengthen his energy before going to the next floor.

The rest of the Prodigies, who had gone through all that effort to defeat the spire guardian at the nine hundred and ninetieth floor, also wanted to strengthen themselves before they got onto the next floor.

On the nine hundred and ninetieth floor, Heavenly Daoist Tian sat down with his legs crossed. He was exhausted, and his face was pale from battling with the spire guardian.

After consuming a few pills in a row, his aura finally recovered a little.

Soon after, he took out a white light wisp flowing with countless mysterious Daoist patterns, and a surge of pure Heavenly Dao energy permeated.

It was one of the rewards he obtained.

"Heavenly Dao Source!"

"If I can refine this Heavenly Dao Source, my strength will improve by leaps and bounds, and I'll be more confident in getting through the remaining floors!"

At that thought, he took a deep breath and began to refine the Heavenly Dao Source.

In the same venue but in a different space, a young man in a black dragon robe with bursts of dragon roars surrounding him was sitting down with his legs crossed, recovering his strength.

As soon as he opened his eyes, a majestic and domineering aura permeated.

“The spire guardian on the nine hundred and ninetieth floor was indeed extraordinary. It was a tough battle, and I’m afraid the remaining nine floors will only be more challenging. I must improve my strength!”

The young man was Qin Fengyun, Qin clan’s Eldest Young Master!

He took out the Five Ways Treasures while grinning with a gleam in his eyes. “The Five Dragons Dominion Art I’ve cultivated is of the Five Ways. As I possess the top-notch Five Ways Immortal Physique, I can rapidly refine these Five Ways Treasures to improve my strength without having to comprehend the Five Ways Ultimate Art!”

“Who will be able to compete with me then?”

With that, Qin Fengyun began to activate the Five Dragons Dominion Art to refine the treasures.

In another space, the Holy Violet Pavilion’s Little Heavenly Ruler and one of the two Yincao Underworld’s Prodigies, King Qin’guang’s successor, were refining the treasures they had obtained from the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Besides Chu Kuangren, those four people were the Prodigies who had successfully defeated the spire guardian on the nine hundred and ninetieth floor.

Boom!

On this day, King Qin’guang’s successor suddenly opened his eyes.

Bursts of tyrannical samsara power spread from him like a tide and madly impacted the void.

An explosion erupted in the surroundings.

“Nine hundred and ninety-first floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, here I come!”

King Qin’guang’s successor took a step forward onto the stairs and arrived on the nine hundred and ninety-first floor.

The next moment, a giant ferocious beast emerged before him.

It had bull horns and a sturdy body like a hill. Its every move carried surges of terrifying innate ferocious qi, especially its pair of green eyes that revealed an extremely frightening vicious qi.

“It’s the Green-Eyed Bull Demon!”

The Green-Eyed Bull Demon was a terrifying strange species in ancient immortal times and was extremely rare in the current Immortal World.

It was said that such a strange species had the most horrifying body strengthening ability and could even tear an Immortal Metal apart with its hands!

“Fight!”

King Qin’guang’s successor grunted and dashed out, with all kinds of powerful Underworld Immortal Techniques erupted one after another!

However, instead of dodging, the Green-Eyed Bull Demon resisted the attacks of King Qin'guang's successor with its raw physical strength.

"What a monster!"

"If such a strange species exists in the current Immortal World, it is definitely a top-notched Prodigy!"

King Qin'guang's successor could not help but marvel secretly.

"Roar!"

At that moment, the Green-Eyed Bull Demon roared and threw a punch. Its pure raw physical qi and blood erupted and smashed a large part of the void!

King Qin'guang's successor failed to resist the attack and was blasted out of the Heavenly Dao Spire by the punch.

Chapter 1364: Four Prodigies Eliminated One After Another, I Must Kill Him

Many sky-prides gathered outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, and many of them were disqualified by the Heavenly Dao Spire.

At that moment, they were gathering and discussing the situation in the Heavenly Dao Spire, and everyone was expressing their admiration.

The Heavenly Dao Spire had nine hundred and ninety-nine floors, and even the spire guardians of each level were of different standard and had different cultivation techniques.

Water-attribute, fire-attribute, lightning-attribute...

Demonic Dao, Buddhist Dao, Murderous Dao...

With sabers, with swords, with spears, with guqins...

Even the spire guardians were of different races, such as yokai beast, human, and puppet.

Going into the spire this time had almost allowed all sky-prides to see existences in various fields. Even if they did not obtain the final Opportunity of Fortune, the experience enriched their knowledge.

That alone was a worthwhile trip.

Bang!

At that moment, a figure was blasted out from one of the higher floors in the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Judging from the floor, it was the nine hundred and ninety-first floor, and many people exclaimed upon seeing it.

"Damn it. That's so high up!"

"For someone to get through that floor, he must be a Prodigy!"

“Nine hundred and ninety-first floor, huh? Except for the last reward, he must have obtained all other rewards...”

Everyone looked at the wretched figure that fell from the sky without the slightest ridicule but full of envy.

The person had obtained all rewards except the last Opportunity of Fortune. Such a gain was enough to crush ninety-nine percent of the sky-prides present.

Everyone stared at the figure curiously and wanted to see who the Prodigy was.

However, the successors of the Underworld’s King Songdi and King Dushi dashed toward the figure and helped him up as soon as they saw him.

“Are you alright, King Qin’guang’s successor?”

“I’m fine.”

The Prodigy, who was blasted out, was the Underworld’s King Qin’guang’s successor. He looked at the nine hundred and ninety-first floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire with a hint of dissatisfaction in his eyes. “What a powerful Green-Eyed Bull Demon. If there was such a terrifying spire guardian on the nine hundred and ninety-first floor, just how terrifying would the rest be?”

“Especially the last floor. What kind of existence would it be?”

King Qin’guang’s successor took a deep breath. He felt no one could obtain the reward of the Heavenly Dao Spire’s last level.

In the Heavenly Dao Spire, Heavenly Daoist Tian opened his eyes, which gleamed. Then, he took a step forward and arrived on the nine hundred and ninety-first floor to face the Green-Eyed Bull Demon.

He was fairly surprised to see the Green-Eyed Bull Demon.

“I didn’t expect such a strange species to exist in the Heavenly Dao Spire. Well, I shall let you taste my strength after transformation!”

After that, he raised his hand and attacked the Green-Eyed Bull Demon!

The majestic Heavenly Dao energy erupted and turned into a glittering golden giant hand made out of Immortal’s Core with interweaving Daoist patterns!

“Majestic Heavenly Dao Palm!”

Boom!

The palmed attack forced back the Green-Eyed Bull Demon!

“Roar!”

Following that, the Green-Eyed Bull Demon roared and swung both of its fists. Its violent raw physical qi and blood surged out like a storm, disrupting the void!

Heavenly Daoist Tian’s face was solemn, and he did not dare to be careless.

After a fierce battle, Heavenly Daoist Tian finally defeated the Green-Eyed Bull Demon and came to the nine hundred and ninety-second floor.

There was also a powerful strange species on that floor.

Its strength was slightly stronger than the Green-Eyed Bull Demon, but Heavenly Daoist Tian still managed to defeat it.

On the nine hundred and ninety-third floor, Heavenly Daoist Tian was caught in a hard battle.

“Heavenly Dao state!”

At that moment, the Heavenly Dao energy in his body suddenly erupted. The energy was so powerful that his aura began to increase.

With the blessing of the Heavenly Dao state, Heavenly Daoist Tian managed to pass through three floors in a row!

On the nine hundred and ninety-sixth floor, an explosion erupted.

Heavenly Daoist Tian was fighting against an existence that possessed a Supreme Immortal Physique and Five Ways Undying Body.

The Heavenly Dao energy and Five Ways energy collided one after another.

Eventually, Heavenly Daoist Tian was defeated and blasted out of the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, Heavenly Daoist Di was shocked and hurriedly stepped forward to support Heavenly Daoist Tian. “Heavenly Daoist Tian, are you okay?”

“I failed at the nine hundred and ninety-sixth floor. The Supreme Immortal Physique was too powerful, and I presume its strength was no weaker than Chu Kuangren. No, it’s even more powerful than him,” Heavenly Daoist Tian said in a deep voice.

2

Upon hearing that, Heavenly Daoist Di took a deep breath, looked at Heavenly Daoist Tian, and said sternly, “Chu Kuangren is here too!”

Heavenly Daoist Di’s expression sank. “Is he here too? Has he come out yet?”

“Not yet.”

“Well, with his strength, he should be able to get past the nine hundred and ninetieth floor, but there’s no way he can obtain the final Opportunity of Fortune.”

Inside the Heavenly Dao Spire, Little Heavenly Ruler and Qin Fengyun also started to move up the spire.

Both were extremely powerful and even more terrifying than Heavenly Daoist Tian!

Unfortunately, they still could not get past all the floors.

One of them was defeated at the nine hundred and ninety-seventh floor while the other was defeated at the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor. They had no chance to meet the spire guardian at the final level.

At that moment, only Chu Kuangren was still in the Heavenly Dao Spire and on a floor above the nine hundred and ninetieth floor.

Some sky-prides from the Interstellar Arena were all looking forward to whether Chu Kuangren could pass all levels and obtain the final Opportunity of Fortune!

“Chu Kuangren?”

Holy Violet Pavilion’s Little Heavenly Ruler was surprised to hear the name. “Is this the name of the person that the Imperial Commander wants me to keep an eye on?”

The Holy Violet Pavilion was a management organization established by the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor on the Holy Violet Planet.

Strictly speaking, it also belonged to the Kunlun Immortal Hall’s Holy Violet Tribe.

As Holy Violet Tribe’s most powerful Prodigy, Holy Violet Imperial Commander’s status was even higher than the Holy Violet Pavilion’s Little Heavenly Ruler.

After the Holy Violet Imperial Commander came to the Holy Violet Planet, he immediately sought the Holy Violet Pavilion’s help to find the Embodier Immortal Weapon left behind by Holy Violet Immortal Emperor. In addition, he also asked them to pay attention to some sky-prides from the Interstellar Arena. Among them, the most noteworthy person was Chu Kuangren!

Little Heavenly Ruler could still remember the solemn look on the Holy Violet Imperial Commander’s face when he mentioned the name.

“However, no matter how extraordinary this person is, it’s impossible for him to obtain the Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune.”

Little Heavenly Ruler was defeated at the nine hundred and ninety-seventh level. The spire guardian was a Kylin that had gone through eight bloodline awakenings. Its cultivation base was higher than his, and its combat strength was even more terrifying!

Not to mention the last two floors, which must be even much more terrifying.

“Qin Fengyun, what kind of spire guardian exists at the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor?”

Little Heavenly Ruler looked at Qin Fengyun beside him and asked curiously, for the latter managed to get to the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor that no one else got to.

“A Battle Saint Ape!”

“How many times of bloodline awakening has it gone through?”

The Battle Saint Ape was an extremely horrifying ancient Immortal wild beast, and its talent and potential were no worse than a True Dragon and Godly Phoenix.

"I failed to resist an attack while facing the Battle Saint Ape. It was an Ape Forefather!"

Little Heavenly Ruler gasped upon hearing that.

An Ape Forefather?!

In the Immortal Hall's records, it was a terrifying existence as it once made a scene in the Immortal Hall and turned it upside down.

It was surprising that it existed in the Heavenly Dao Spire!

"Although it wasn't its real self and merely a remaining wisp of its Immortal Consciousness, it was extremely scary. No one in the younger generation can pass that level," said Qin Fengyun.

He was highly confident in himself. Therefore, if he could not get through it, no sky-pride in the universe could as well.

"They say Chu Kuangren might get through it." Little Heavenly Ruler smiled faintly.

"Chu Kuangren..."

There was a hint of coldness in Qin Fengyun's eyes. "He killed Qin Fei, my clan's younger brother in Jiuli. I must kill him once he leaves the spire!"

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes on the nine hundred and ninetieth floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Chapter 1365: Five Ways Energy, I'm the Ape Forefather

On the nine hundred and ninetieth floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, Chu Kuangren was sitting with his legs crossed with five-colored brilliance and five different mysterious auras circulating his body.

They were Five Ways qi!

At that moment, Chu Kuangren had comprehended the Five Ways Ultimate Art to a very high level.

As he opened his eyes, a five-colored light flashed in his eyes. Then, he took out the Five Ways Treasures and mobilized the Five Ways Ultimate Art to absorb all the treasures into his body and refine them.

He wanted to integrate the Five Ways Treasures into his clone!

It was an extremely dangerous action because besides Divine Tree's Heart, the water-attribute treasure, and the living soil, the other two treasures could impact the Fusang Tree negatively. Whether it was the divine flame or the Immortal Metal, they would counter with the Fusang Tree, and its body would be damaged should anything go wrong.

"I wouldn't have rashly absorbed the divine flame and Immortal Metal into my clone if it were the past. However, it's a different case now since I have the Five Ways Ultimate Art as a reference."

"The Five Ways counter and benefit each other. As long as I follow the rules, I can integrate the Five Ways Treasures into my body," mumbled Chu Kuangren.

With a faint smile, he first integrated the Divine Tree's Heart into his body to strengthen the Fusang Tree's body.

After the Fusang Tree's foundation was strengthened, he integrated the remaining four attribute treasures into its body.

"As wood counters soil, I'll absorb the living soil first and then restrain the living soil with the Fusang Tree's body to absorb and refine it!"

Chu Kuangren held the colorful living soil in his hands.

The living soil was filled with colorful and mysterious Immortal Sparks. It was a soil-attributed treasure that possessed rejuvenating power.

It was said that the highest level of living soil could even give birth to innate lives with infinite rejuvenation.

In the Immortal World, there was a story about Empress Wa using the Nine Heavens Living Soil to create humans, making her the human's Mother Goddess and the first Human Emperor.

As Chu Kuangren mobilized the Five Ways Ultimate Art, the living soil suddenly turned into countless bright orbs that entered his body.

After he absorbed the living soil, his Immortal Spark lit up brighter, and some brand-new mysterious Daoist patterns emerged on his Immortal body.

"Soil counters water, so next, I'll absorb the water-attribute Immortal Crystal."

"Since water counters fire, the divine flame will be next!"

The divine flame had a restraining effect on the Fusang Tree's body. However, it could not harm the Fusang Tree under the restraint of the strong water-attributed aura, so it could be easily absorbed and refined.

"Fire counters metal, so the Immortal Metal will be the last."

Chu Kuangren absorbed the Immortal Metal, which was the last attribute treasure, into his body and refined it.

Accompanied by a dazzling five-colored Immortal Spark radiating around him, his aura rose steadily. Although his aura was getting more powerful, there was a risk it could lose control.

As the Five Ways restrained each other, they were in constant conflict in Chu Kuangren's body.

However, Chu Kuangren was not panicking because he had expected it.

"Although the Five Ways counter each other, they also benefit from each other. Since I've absorbed and refined the Five Ways Treasures based on the principle of Five Ways restraint, I'll have to regulate the Five Ways energy based on the principle of Five Ways synergy," murmured Chu Kuangren.

He then mobilized the Five Ways Ultimate Art.

“Metal produces water, water produces wood, wood produces fire, fire produces soil, and soil produces water. That way, the Five Ways will benefit each other instead of conflict with each other!”

1

As Immortal Sparks circulated Chu Kuangren, the Five Ways energy that had been out of control slowly calmed down.

After that, Chu Kuangren stored the Five Ways energy in his five body organs based on the mysteries of medical skills.

He stored the wood qi in his liver, fire qi in his heart, soil qi in his spleen, metal qi in his lungs, and water qi in his kidneys!

As the Five Ways benefited and countered each other, he stored them in his five organs.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren had cultivated the Five Ways Ultimate Art to perfection.

His Fusang body also received a huge improvement.

As the endless Immortal Sparks spread from Chu Kuangren’s body, the Five Ways energy contained in them appeared to be extremely mysterious.

“My control of the Five Ways energy now is no weaker than the Five Ways Immortal Physique!”

“This is merely one of the techniques my clone body has.”

Chu Kuangren smiled.

The Five Ways energy was just a technique he used to strengthen this clone of his, and it did not mean his clone would be dominated by the Five Ways in the future.

In addition to being refined with the Fusang Tree, his clone had his heart and could mobilize the rest of his various divine abilities.

“Now, it’s time for me to see the scenes above the nine hundred and nineteenth floor.”

Chu Kuangren grinned.

Then, he slowly stood up, took a step forward, and arrived on the nine hundred and ninety-first floor.

The Green-Eyed Bull Demon emerged before him, looking fiercely at him with a pair of green eyes.

“Roar!”

After letting out a roar, the Green-Eyed Bull Demon dashed toward Chu Kuangren with its fists raised high. A terrifying raw physical qi and blood erupted and slammed down on him!

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up at the scene. As he put up a sword hand sign, sword qi gushed out and turned into a nine-layer sword qi barrier!

Bang, bang, bang...

Seven layers of the sword qi barricade were smashed in one go.

“What great raw physical strength. If my real self were here, I would surely compete with you with my raw physical strength.”

Chu Kuangren had a strong physical body too. His real self was still absorbing the Immortal Dissolving Poison Source, and his raw physical strength was increasing day by day.

“Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!”

As Chu Kuangren formed a sword hand sign, the violent sword qi blasted out, containing the Five Ways energy.

Boom!

The Green-Eyed Bull Demon was blasted backward!

Following that, Chu Kuangren easily defeated the Green-Eyed Bull Demon with several sword attacks!

With that, Chu Kuangren passed through the next four floors and arrived on the nine hundred and ninety-sixth floor.

The spire guardian on that floor was a sky-pride with Supreme Immortal Physique and Five Ways Undying Body. His strength was terrifying.

His mobilization of the Five Ways energy was much better than that of Chu Kuangren, who had just mastered the Five Ways energy.

After a few moves, Chu Kuangren managed to gain a lot of experience in utilizing the Five Ways energy.

“Unfortunately, you’re not your real self. Otherwise, I can take your blood essence and analyze your Supreme Immortal Physique,” Chu Kuangren said regretfully.

Following that, he stopped messing about, and a surge of mighty samsara energy erupted from his body, turning into an invisible energy field!

“Divine Samsara Overworld!”

Once the Divine Samsara Overworld was cast, the surrounding energy began suppressing his opponent’s Supreme Immortal Physique.

Immediately afterward, Chu Kuangren mobilized the Universal Life-Death Cycle!

He managed to defeat the spire guardian, who possessed the Supreme Immortal Physique, by casting the two Supreme Immortal Physiques’ divine abilities!

“Interesting. There are three floors left. I wonder what kind of existence they are!”

Chu Kuangren was intrigued at the thought of it.

He took a step forward and arrived on the nine hundred and ninety-seventh floor. In front of him was a powerful Kylin that had gone through eight bloodline awakenings.

It was the first time Chu Kuangren fought against a Kylin. After unleashing a few moves, he defeated the Kylin, who unleashed various divine abilities and Immortal Techniques at him. Yet, he was still unscathed.

On the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor, an incomparably tall giant ape caught Chu Kuangren's eyes when he arrived.

The giant ape was as tall as a mountain and held a long golden staff. Moreover, his surging yokai qi was mixed with a rebellious battle intent!

"There is endless fun battling with the heavens, earth, and Immortals!"

"I'm the Ape Forefather. I live and die for battles!"

Chapter 1366: Fighting Against The Ape Forefather Again, The Prodigies Join Forces, Shrew Women

"I'm the Ape Forefather. I live and die for battles!"

The fierce battling sound resounded throughout heaven and earth. Chu Kuangren could sense a huge pressure as an incomparably terrifying battle intent soared into the sky.

"It's the Ape Forefather!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed.

He had once seen the Ape Forefather's energy manifestation on the grounds of the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance at the Great Ten Thousand Mountains.

However, the Ape Forefather that emerged before him now was more powerful than the energy manifestation of the Heavenly Yokai King's inheritance back then.

"Great. It looks like we will have a good fight."

Chu Kuangren took a deep breath, his eyes bursting with battle intent.

As he took out the Great Wasteland Halberd, countless purple demonic patterns circulated on his body. Then, his Immortal's Core transformed into demonic qi that rose into the sky!

After sensing Chu Kuangren's intense battle intent, the Ape Forefather's eyes lit up. He looked at Chu Kuangren and grinned. "Very well. It looks like you'll be a great opponent!"

The Ape Forefather was unlike other spire guardians in the Heavenly Dao Spire as he had great self-awareness, which surprised Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren smiled and said, "I'm eager to see the demeanor of the Ape Forefather who used to fight the heavens!"

"Young Junior, take this!"

The Ape Forefather laughed, and as he took a step forward, he threw the long golden staff in his hand at Chu Kuangren!

The blow shattered a large part of the void.

Chu Kuangren felt that the blow could even kill the Kylin on the nine hundred and ninety-seventh floor!

The gap between the two was huge.

Would the spire guardian on the last floor be more powerful than the Ape Forefather?

Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed while he thought to himself.

Soon, he unleashed an attack with his halberd!

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Planetary Annihilation!"

As the halberd was hurled forward, the void shattered, and countless stars turned to ashes under the halberd's attack!

When the halberd and staff collided, the earth shook while countless cracks appeared in the surrounding space like it was a terrifying giant beast's mouth.

The Great Wasteland Halberd and Ape Forefather's staff was the ultimate clash of power!

"Haha, for being able to take my attack, you're much stronger than the previous spire invader!" the Ape Forefather said while laughing.

Chu Kuangren was a little shocked when he heard that.

Did someone else besides him get to this floor?

Although he was surprised, he did not think much about it and tried his best to deal with the Ape Forefather in front of him.

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Nine Heaven Cry!"

As Chu Kuangren yelled, the surging demonic qi wrapped around the halberd in his hand soared and shook the sky in all directions!

"A good one!"

"Battle Art, Overturn Rivers and Oceans!"

The Ape Forefather waved the halberd in his hand that contained surging yokai qi.

The moment he unleashed an attack with the staff, it was as if the waters of all lakes and oceans were hovering in the sky, creating countless tsunamis!

Boom!

Boom!

A commotion ensued in that particular space as the halberd and staff collided again and again.

Meanwhile, outside the spire, everyone could see the Heavenly Dao Spire in front of them shaking, as if some kind of terrifying existence were fighting.

The turbulence was even greater on the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire. As that floor was close to collapsing, the Daoist patterns shone even brighter to stabilize the Heavenly Dao Spire.

“Someone is fighting with the Ape Forefather!”

Qin Fengyun’s expression changed to disbelief.

The Ape Forefather defeated him with one move, yet someone else was now fighting him so fiercely!

‘H-How is this possible?!’

“It must be Master!”

Fu Yin and Shi Ying looked at each other, knowing that it must have something to do with Chu Kuangren.

Besides him, no one could do it.

“Chu Kuangren’s strength is indeed extraordinary!”

Heavenly Daoist Tian looked at the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor with an extremely solemn gaze.

“Is he the person that the Imperial Commander wants me to keep an eye on? He really is frightening. I’m afraid only the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Embodier Immortal Weapon, which the Imperial Commander has refined, can be his match,” Little Heavenly Ruler lamented.

He finally understood why the Holy Violet Imperial Commander was so concerned about Chu Kuangren.

He was now really curious about Chu Kuangren.

Meanwhile, Qin Fengyun, who was next to him, looked grim. He clenched his fists so hard that his veins were popping.

Chu Kuangren’s performance was a blow to his high self-esteem.

“Do you still want to kill him?”

The Little Heavenly Ruler looked at Qin Fengyun and smiled sarcastically.

Qin Fengyun took a deep breath and then looked at the Little Heavenly Ruler. He said solemnly, “You and I, let’s join forces!”

“What’s in it for me?”

“Among the rewards that I’ve obtained from the Heavenly Dao Spire, there’s a Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s cultivation codex. I can give it to you!”

Little Heavenly Ruler’s eyes lit up upon hearing Qin Fengyun.

Most of Heavenly Dao Spire’s rewards were the same, but some rewards were different, and he did not have the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s cultivation codex.

As the Holy Violet Pavilion's prodigy, he possessed part of the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's inheritance, so it would be of great help to him if he could get the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's cultivation codex.

"Besides the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's cultivation codex, we can share his Opportunities of Fortune equally after we defeat him. I heard he has Chiyu's inheritance." Qin Fengyun added.

"Heh, deal!"

Little Heavenly Ruler chuckled. "For being a person whom the Holy Violet Imperial Commander treats so seriously, I want to see just how capable Chu Kuangren is."

"Both of you want to fight with Chu Kuangren? Count me in."

At that moment, an indifferent voice sounded.

King Qin'guang's successor came forward with King Dushi's successor and King Songdi's successor.

"My request is simple. I want his Samsara Emperor Seals."

The Yincao Underworld City had always wanted to own Fengdu's power of samsara. As such, the Samsara Emperor Seals were the most critical items for him to do that, and Chu Kuangren had three Emperor Seals!

"Sure!"

Qin Fengyun nodded before glancing at King Qin'guang's successor. "Since you know he has Samsara Emperor Seals, you must know a lot about him. Tell us the details."

"I think I can help with this."

Heavenly Daoist Tian and Heavenly Daoist Di slowly walked toward the few people. "My Heavenly Dao Sect has collected some information about Chu Kuangren too."

"What do you want from him?"

"Getting something from him is another thing. The most important thing is that Chu Kuangren has killed six of my Heavenly Dao Sect's Daoists!"

At the mention of that, Heavenly Daoist Tian's expression turned ferocious while he gritted his teeth.

The corner of the rest's mouths twitched.

"Oh, poor Heavenly Dao Sect."

Not far away, Fu Yin, Shi Ying, and Le Fei looked at Heavenly Daoist Tian and others, who were plotting something, and then at each other worriedly.

"Are they discussing how to deal with the Chief?" Shi Ying asked worriedly.

"Possibly."

Fu Yin nodded. Then, she took out a black cloak to cover herself, Shi Ying, and Li Fei.

Their aura disappeared without a trace.

The cloak was one of the rewards that Fu Yin obtained from the Heavenly Dao Spire.

“Fu Yin, what’s wrong?”

“We must leave first. Otherwise, they might attack us if they want to deal with Master,” said Fu Yin.

She did not think Heavenly Daoist Tian and others as virtuous.

However, especially with those who wanted to deal with Chu Kuangren, she did not mind thinking the worst of them.

“As far as I know, Chu Kuangren is now accompanied by a few women. If we can subdue them, perhaps they may be our bargaining chips against Chu Kuangren.” King Qin’guang’s successor sneered.

Qin Fengyun furrowed his brows upon hearing that. “What a shitty technique to threaten him with women.”

“Chu Kuangren isn’t an ordinary person, so we must use an extraordinary technique to deal with him!” King Qin’guang’s successor said calmly.

After that, he mobilized his Immortal Consciousness to find Fu Yin and the other two women but failed.

“They’re gone? They were here just now. Why are they gone now? Did they notice our intention and leave? Hmph. Shrewd women.”

King Qin’guang’s successor snorted and could only discuss other ways of dealing with Chu Kuangren.

Chapter 1367: Holy Violet Immortal Emperor Thought Form, You’re The Human Emperor, Holy Violet’s Killing Intent

On the nine-hundred ninety-eighth floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, the battle between Chu Kuangren and the Ape Forefather continued fiercely, with neither side stepping down.

The halberd and staff clashed violently, causing countless sparks and Daoist patterns to erupt. Dazzling and rampant energy swept across the field as the battle went on.

“Great Wasteland Halberd, Great Wasteland Subjugation!”

The purple demonic patterns on Chu Kuangren shone brightly while he channeled its energy to the limit.

Then, the halbert was thrust forward with utmost battle intent and ferocious qi. The destructive and murderous energy instantly shattered the void in the area.

Nevertheless, the Ape Forefather was not deterred. He released a long cry as his aura rose, becoming more frenzied.

Chu Kuangren had seen such a scene before. It was the secret technique of the Battle Saint Ape Tribe, Battle Secret Technique!

The Ape Forefather's mastery over the Battle Secret Technique was far superior than other Battle Saint Apes.

"Battle Art, Worldly Overthrow!"

The Ape Forefather swung his staff forward, and countless Daoist patterns shrouded the realm. Its terrifying energy felt like it could overthrow the world in an instant.

Upon collision, Chu Kuangren and the Ape Forefather were both pushed backward.

The whole nine-hundred and ninety-eighth floor trembled violently as if it was going to collapse.

"Good. Good. You're strong," the Ape Forefather expressed his praise and admiration for Chu Kuangren as he regained his composure and balance by gripping onto his staff.

As the Ape Forefather's body started to fade and flicker, Chu Kuangren knew that the energy manifestation would not last long.

Following that, a beam of golden light flew out of the Ape Forefather's body and shot into Chu Kuangren, where it transformed into countless mystical runic characters.

It was the Battle Secret Technique and Battle Art, the two cultivation techniques that the Ape Forefather relied on to reign supreme.

"Kid, go up there and beat that bastard to the ground!" the Ape Forefather said with a grin before his body faded into nothingness.

Chu Kuangren lamented the Ape Forefather's disappearance. "I didn't expect to find the Ape Forefather's inheritance on this floor. The bastard he referred to must be the one on the last floor. Interesting."

He tried his best to refine and digest the Ape Forefather's inheritance and recover his own Immortal's Core energy so that he could challenge the last spire guardian in his peak form.

Sometime later, Chu Kuangren mastered the Battle Secret Technique and Battle Art with his monstrous cognizance.

He then made his way to the nine-hundred ninety-ninth floor.

Anyone who made it to the last floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire could acquire the final Opportunity of Fortune.

"Oh, I didn't expect someone to beat the Ape Forefather and make it up here," said a calm voice.

Before Chu Kuangren was a man in violet robes, bearing rigid facial features. He hovered in the air with his legs crossed, and there were Immortal Sparks and Daoist patterns around him, granting him a dignified presence.

"Holy Violet Immortal Emperor?" Chu Kuangren asked.

He once ran into cultivators from the Holy Violet Tribe, and the man before him emanated a similar presence to the cultivators but was a lot more dignified.

On top of his appearance on the last floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, his true identity was almost self-explanatory.

"I am." The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor nodded and added, "The last floor of all four Heavenly Dao Spire has a thought form of my Immortal Consciousness, but this East Heavenly Dao Spire is a little different because other than myself, the Ape Forefather is also here. He is no weaker than me and is only exclusive to this particular tower."

"Oh? I guess I was lucky to pick this tower out of the other four," Chu Kuangren said.

Had he chosen another Heavenly Dao Spire, he would not have gotten the Ape Forefather's inheritance.

The Battle Secret Technique and Battle Art were no weaker than Chiyou's Demonic Patterns and the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique. They were equally powerful.

Chu Kuangren looked at the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor and said, "If you're the last spire guardian, that means I can get the final Opportunity of Fortune once I defeat you."

"That's right," the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said with a nod.

"Let's do it then."

Chu Kuangren skipped the chit-chats and wielded the Great Wasteland Halberd in his hand. As he thrust the halberd forward, images of galaxy shattering appeared in the void.

It was the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Planetary Annihilation!

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was surprised by the attack. "Chiyou's inheritance? Not bad!"

With a raise of his hand, an immense amount of violet starlight gathered on his palm, containing countless Daoist patterns.

When it clashed with the halberd, a heavy clunk sounded.

Chu Kuangren was pushed more than ten meters away while the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor merely flinched.

"He's a lot stronger than the Ape Forefather!" Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

He had no idea about the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's true self, but in terms of Immortal Consciousness manifestation, it was a lot stronger than the Ape Forefather.

"Chiyou's Demonic Patterns!"

Demonic patterns started to appear on Chu Kuangren's face.

Then, with the Ashura Mask put on, the mask and the demonic patterns boosted his strength to a new height.

On top of that, the Hundred Academy's Three Great Conjurations appeared behind him.

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Nine Heaven Cry!"

Chu Kuangren took a deep breath before he thrust the halberd forward. As the immense demonic qi gathered at the tip of the halbert, a terrifying image of a demon appeared in the void.

“Not bad.” The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor expressed his praise.

Violet starlight gathered above his palm again, and a surge of dignified energy started to manifest. “Holy Violet Day-shadowing Palm!”

The violet starlight shone intensely, bright enough to shadow the day.

A violet palm with boundless qi rushed forward, crushing everything in its way.

The clash of two immensely powerful attacks felt like two planets crashing into each other.

Excessive energy overflowed and flooded the field.

As a result, both Chu Kuangren and the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor were pushed backward.

“Fusang’s power!”

The reddish-golden ancient tree appeared behind Chu Kuangren. While releasing countless Immortal Sparks, its Yin Yang energy blasted toward the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

“Oh? Fusang’s power?”

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor looked surprised, but with another raise of his hand, a field of violet starlight shot out and crushed the Yin Yang energy.

However, it did not stop Chu Kuangren’s attacks.

“Divine Samsara Overworld!”

The invisible energy domain expanded. Colorful samsara energy instantly flooded the field and attempted to overpower the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

Life-death intent swirled into a wheel of light that released overwhelming life-death energy.

The two divine abilities were activated all at once.

“Two Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique? You really are something else.

“Holy Violet Stardust Gale!”

Immortal Sparks erupted from the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor while vast Immortal’s Core energy spurred and swirled into a starry gale!

After that, the gale turned into a storm that destroyed the life-death energy and the samsara energy domain.

“What tricks do you have left in your clone?” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor asked curiously.

He could tell that the Chu Kuangren before him was just a clone, but it was enough for him to acknowledge the Prodigy status.

"I have more tricks than you can imagine," Chu Kuangren said.

Nine dragon qi suddenly erupted into the sky. Each True Emperor Dragon was over ten thousand meters long as they circled above Chu Kuangren.

The dragon's roars echoed throughout the void.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's eyes widened when he saw the nine True Emperor Dragons, and a hint of frostiness appeared in his eyes. "You're a Human Emperor!"

The Holy Violet Immortal's Core energy gushed like the rising tide and released an even more terrifying aura into the realm.

From the moment the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor bore killing intent, it was no longer just a trial against Chu Kuangren.

There could only be one between the Immortal Hall and the Human Emperor!

Chapter 1368: What Tricks Do You Have Left, Gathering The Power Of Four Directions

"You're a Human Emperor!"

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor glared at Chu Kuangren, and his Core energy swirled in the air, trembling the void as he spoke.

The Human Emperor and the Immortal Hall were mortal enemies.

Back in ancient times, the two great Immortal Halls teamed up to cause the Great Deification Calamity, erasing the Human Emperor from history.

Hence, the reappearance of the Human Emperor reignited the killing intents in the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

Chu Kuangren could sense his opponent's immense killing intents from the gaze as well, but he was not bothered. "A mere Immortal Consciousness thought form of yours wants to kill me?"

"Even if I can't, I won't let you get the Opportunity of Fortune in this spire!"

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor grunted. "Anyone else who can get to the last floor and challenge me is bound to acquire the inheritance but not you. You're the Human Emperor, and I cannot let you have it."

He could not just sit back and watch the Human Emperor regain his former glory.

"Holy Violet Day-shadowing Palm!"

The violet palm strike contained stronger and more terrifying energy that easily shadowed the day.

Chu Kuangren gripped the Great Wasteland Halberd tightly with no intentions of dodging. With the help of the nine True Emperor Dragons, he thrust his halberd forward.

The glaring ray from the halberd shone brightly. Its murderous qi and destructive qi combined into an immensely powerful energy that could subjugate the wasteland.

It was the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Great Wasteland Subjugation!

As soon as both attacks collided, the thrusting halberd overpowered the violet palm and blasted the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor a hundred meters backward.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor grunted, but the halberd attack did not weaken his aura at all. Quite the opposite, his energy rose, and the dazzling violet Immortal Sparks around him almost blinded the entire realm.

At that, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes, and the nine True Emperor Dragons above him roared to counter the dazzling Immortal Sparks.

“Human Emperors shouldn’t be allowed to exist in this world. Your only fate is death,” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said coldly.

Violet Immortal Sparks started to gather in his hand and transformed into a massive ball of a violet galaxy.

“Holy Violet Nova Explosion!”

Chu Kuangren immediately performed several profound and mystical hand seals that granted him an extra layer of battle intent.

It was the Battle Secret Technique from the Battle Saint Ape Tribe!

As the Battle Secret Technique strengthened Chu Kuangren’s energy, he used the halberd in his hand as a staff and swung it forward. “Battle Secret Art, Worldly Overthrow!”

Using that attack, it was as though Chu Kuangren had become the Ape Forefather himself. The immense power from the swing almost pierced the heavens.

The massive halberd shadow rose to the sky and crashed into the violet galaxy.

The collision of the two attacks sent both of them sliding backward once again.

“I can’t believe the Ape Forefather passed you his inheritance. That damn monkey really did it this time,” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor grunted.

The Ape Forefather once caused troubles for the Immortal Hall, hence the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s resentment.

Chu Kuangren stepped forward for a follow-up attack. With the Battle Secret Technique, Chiyou’s Demonic Patterns, the True Emperor Dragons, and the Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations, he was enveloped in blinding Immortal Sparks as if he was the Immortal King that reigned supreme through time.

He swung the halberd in a flurry, using both the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique and Battle Secret Art deftly.

“Great Wasteland Halberd, Planetary Annihilation, Great Wasteland Subjugation, Nine Heaven Cry!”

As three different attacks of the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique unleashed in succession, the rumbling demonic qi and halberd ray tore the void apart.

The realm trembled incessantly. Even the manifestation of the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor felt pressured against the consecutive attacks.

“Great usage of Chiyou’s inheritance! You’re a top-notch Prodigy!”

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor wore a serious look as he stared at Chu Kuangren.

He continued to gather violet starlight to draw runes in the void. Those starlight runes would then turn into a barrier that blocked Chu Kuangren’s furious attacks.

“Rune? How much longer can you last?” Chu Kuangren grunted.

He continued the relentless attacks, using Great Wasteland Halberd Technique and Battle Secret Art in swift succession. Different Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were cast without a pause.

“Battle Secret Art, Empyrean Smash!”

The thrusting halberd carried immense battle intents that felt as though it could stomp over the land and subjugate all life on earth.

The Empyrean Smash was the final technique of the Battle Secret Art.

Finally, Chu Kuangren’s furious and endless attacks smashed through the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s runic barrier and blasted him backward. Even his figure started to fade.

With the number of techniques he possessed, Chu Kuangren’s strength became overwhelmingly powerful.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s true self was a superior being, but the one Chu Kuangren was fighting was just an Immortal Consciousness thought form. He could only do so much with limited power.

“What kinds of tricks do you have left under your sleeves?”

Chu Kuangren stood tall with the halberd in his hand, peering down at the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

He remained as arrogant as ever even though he was fighting the Immortal Emperor, someone with superior status and strength.

The Human Emperor and Immortal Hall were mortal enemies, and if the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor sought to kill him, he had no reason to respect the man.

“You’re powerful. I’ll admit that, but I stand by my word. You’re a Human Emperor, so I can never let you get the Opportunity of Fortune in this spire!”

As soon as he said that, a tremendous suction force suddenly erupted from the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

All the spiritual qi in the realm were sucked toward him.

In fact, it was not only the spiritual qi in the spire but the spiritual qi outside the spire and all over Holy Violet Emperor Planet. Everything was being sucked toward him to boost his energy.

Then, violet restriction seals started to appear all over the realm.

Many sky-prides and Prodigies saw the flickering restriction seals outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, and it astonished them.

Countless restriction seals then appeared across the sky and soon surrounded the entire planet as if the planet was put inside a cage.

Many great ones on the planet were rendered speechless when they saw the restriction seals.

The restriction seals that appeared in the sky were the restriction seals that confined them on this planet for many generations.

“Why are the restriction seals appearing now?”

“The realm’s spiritual qi is gathering toward the last floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire. What is going on?”

Many of the great ones were confused. Some even came up with their own speculation.

“Could it be that the last floor has something to do with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor? Only he could make the restriction seals appear.”

“The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor is the spire guardian on the last floor?!”

Further away in the West Heavenly Dao Spire, a battle was happening on the last floor as well.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Immortal Consciousness thought form was engaged in battle with a man in black robes.

The fierce battle had been going on for a while now. Since the young man could make it up to the nine-hundred ninety-ninth floor and engage in a fierce battle with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s thought form, it would only mean he possessed terrifying power.

He must also be a peerless Prodigy!

“Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist, you really are something else,” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said calmly to the young man before him.

It was the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist from the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall — the real figure and not the clone from Ancient Heavenly Merchant Planet.

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist stared at the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor with a grim look. He had a feeling that he would not be able to clear the last floor.

He had used every trick he got, and his Immortal’s Core was almost at its end. If the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor continued to attack, he would lose the battle in a few exchanges.

“Now, it’s time to end this.”

The Holy Violet Emperor lifted his hand, gathering starlight on his palm to deliver the finishing attack.

However, his face suddenly sank as he turned to the east. He heard a voice calling out to him.

“The Human Emperor is here. He’s currently in the East Heavenly Dao spire. I wish to gather the power of all four thought forms to stop that man at all cost!”

A quick ponder later, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor turned to the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist.

“You can have the Opportunity of Fortune.”

After that, his figure immediately faded, and the sliver of his Immortal Consciousness flew toward the East Heavenly Dao Spire in a stream of light.

Chapter 1369: We Will Meet Again, The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor Lament

“W-What is going on?” The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist was confused.

He had no idea what just happened, but it seemed like he just got the final Opportunity of Fortune in this Heavenly Dao Spire.

He tried to recall what the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said earlier, and it put a grim look on his face.

He took a deep breath to calm himself down. “The Human Emperor has reappeared in the East Heavenly Dao Spire. Hence, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor is forced to gather all of his Immortal Consciousness in the different spires to stop that person from getting the final Opportunity of Fortune and the Human Emperor from getting stronger.”

The realization surprised him.

Only the younger generation’s sky-prides were accepted into the Heavenly Dao Spire for the trials.

“Who could it be?”

He started to recall whether any monstrous existences existed among the younger generations, and a name popped up in his mind — Chu Kuangren!

“If I’m correct, he must be the one!”

The Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist’s expression darkened. “The Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, the King of the Celestial Demons, you are indeed my arch nemesis!”

Then, a ball of golden light appeared before him.

It was the final Opportunity of Fortune in the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Inside the ball of golden light was a beating heart with Celestial Demon qi swirling around it. Moreover, it emanated a terrifying and domineering aura.

Upon seeing the beating heart, the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist could not help but breathe heavily.

“This is the Celestial Demon Heart! The real Innate Celestial Demon Heart! This is great! If I can absorb it, I can fully awaken my Celestial Demon Physique!”

Not even the Celestial Demon Tribe knew about that, but the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist of the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall had not yet awakened his Chaos Celestial Demon Physique!

Meanwhile, on the last floor of the North Heavenly Dao Spire, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's Immortal Consciousness thought form glanced at the swordsman wielding a golden sword and bearing a noble demeanor.

"Even if you are the Human Emperor's successor, you're not the real Human Emperor yet. Hence, you can have the final Opportunity of Fortune here. Compared to you, the one in the East Heavenly Dao Spire must be dealt with first."

The Immortal Consciousness thought form then transformed into a stream of light and flew off.

The swordsman was left alone with his golden sword, seemingly speechless about what happened.

At the next second, golden sword qi erupted from his body and shook the void.

"The real Human Emperor? I believe that's you, Chu Kuangren!"

The swordsman was the Prodigy from Human Emperor Sect, Xuanyuan's successor.

A cold glint appeared in his eyes. "The last Human Emperor, King Zhou, is the only one worthy to pass down the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique. It should've been mine if not for you, Chu Kuangren!"

Back then, he went through great efforts to send one of his clones into the Great Ten Thousands Mountains' Ancient Heavenly Yokai Cave to search for King Zhou's inheritance.

It was to inherit the inheritance of the Human Emperor, but Chu Kuangren ruined his plans there. Therefore, he assumed Chu Kuangren was the one who snatched his fate of becoming the Human Emperor away from him.

Suddenly, Immortal Sparks lit up the inside of the spire, and an ancient book slowly appeared from the light.

The book was titled Yellow Emperor Esoteric Scriptures.

Upon seeing that, Xuanyuan's successor was delighted. "This is the cultivation technique of Xuanyuan, who is also known as the Yellow Emperor!"

Although he had Xuanyuan's inheritance, it was incomplete as he only possessed the Xuanyuan sword and Xuanyuan sword qi.

The Yellow Emperor Esoteric Scriptures recorded the cultivation techniques and experiences of Xuanyuan, so it was unimaginably helpful to him, the successor of Xuanyuan.

"Rumor has it that the final Opportunity of Fortune in the spire varies depending on the challenger, and it seems true. I cultivate the Xuanyuan sword qi, so the spire gave me the Yellow Emperor Esoteric Scripture.

"If I can fully comprehend this scripture, I won't have to worry about Chu Kuangren anymore. I will definitely seize back the Human Emperor's throne!"

“I’m the real Human Emperor! I’m the one and only Human Emperor!”

Xuanyuan’s successor’s eyes were overflowing with ambitions.

At the same time, on the last floor of the South Heavenly Dao Spire, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Immortal Consciousness thought form also left his challenger behind.

The challenger was the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather from the Golden Crow Heavenly Mountain. When he saw the final Opportunity of Fortune from the spire, he was also delighted.

The Opportunity of Fortune was a golden egg carved with countless mystical patterns.

A surge of scorching and domineering energy emanated from within, and the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather could already feel the resonance from the egg.

“This is the Daoist embryo left behind by the Golden Crow Forefather! If I hatch it, I can acquire the direct descendant of the Golden Crow Forefather, which would be the second generation!”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather could already think of several ways to use the Daoist embryo to enhance himself.

...

Back at the East Heavenly Daoist Spire, a massive amount of spiritual qi was being sucked into the last floor of the spire.

Then, three violet streams of light flew in from the west, north, and south, with all three resembling the dignified figure that was the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

The crowd gasped in shock and was baffled by the scene.

“Three Holy Violet Immortal Emperor?”

“What’s going on?!”

Some of the great ones could already guess the situation.

“The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor has summoned the other three Immortal Consciousness thought forms just to stop Chu Kuangren from acquiring the final Opportunity of Fortune. The Human Emperor and Immortal Hall are really mortal enemies!”

“Tsk tsk. The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor is taking it too far.”

“Since it has come down to this, no matter how strong Chu Kuangren is, there’s no way he’ll pass the trial!”

Back in the spire, Chu Kuangren watched as all three other Immortal Consciousness thought forms merged with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor. At the same time, the massive amount of spiritual qi he absorbed from the planet had increased his energy level multiple folds.

Chu Kuangren scoffed and said, “Are you so afraid of me getting the final Opportunity of Fortune? Does it mean the Immortal Hall is terrified of the Human Emperor coming back?”

“The Human Emperor is not allowed to exist in this world. It is the will of the heavens and something that must happen,” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said.

With that, he raised his hand and gathered countless mystical Daoist patterns above his palm. Then, the Daoist patterns transformed into a ball of a dazzling violet galaxy that was hurled at Chu Kuangren.

The might of the violet galaxy was countless times more powerful than the previous one.

Chu Kuangren knew his clone was no match against the combined Holy Violet Immortal Emperors, and if the battle continued, he might risk losing his clone to the battle.

His clone was enhanced multiple times, which made it valuable, so he did not want to lose it just like that.

The thought made him thrust his Great Wasteland Halberd forward.

“Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Wasteland Subjugation!”

The giant halberd shadow ripped through the void and clashed with the ball of a violet galaxy, but the halberd shadow broke instead.

The violet galaxy continued forward at Chu Kuangren, attempting to crush him.

“Nine-layered Sword Barriers!”

Chu Kuangren was prepared for it. The sword qi gushed out from his body and formed nine layers of sword qi barrier before him.

The barriers shattered one after another as the violet galaxy pressed forward, and seizing the moment, Chu Kuangren flashed out of the spire.

“Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, we will meet again.”

“He left because he knows he’s no match for me. It seems he isn’t reluctant to leave the opportunity behind. What resolution,” the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor grunted.

After Chu Kuangren left, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor lamented. “Why does the Human Emperor have to be such a monstrous Prodigy? If he were with the Immortal Hall, it would be great.”

With the talents Chu Kuangren showed, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor believed that the young man would eventually reach the same height as himself or even surpass him as a whole.

That would be a great boost for the Immortal Hall.

“If he’s with the Immortal Hall, I will make him king even if it costs all of the Immortal Hall’s resources, but too bad. What a waste.”

Chapter 1370: Chu Kuangren Failed, Outside The Heavenly Dao Spire, Prodigies Surrounded

Chu Kuangren flew out of the Heavenly Dao Spire.

His clone's aura was weak after the battle with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, having exhausted almost half of his energy.

"Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, huh? Interesting."

Chu Kuangren grinned instead of being angry.

The fact that the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor gave up on the other three Heavenly Dao Spires just to stop him from acquiring the final Opportunity of Fortune showed how much he feared Chu Kuangren.

The more his enemies feared him, the happier he would be. Why would he be angry about it?

However, he was still determined to get the final Opportunity of Fortune in the East Heavenly Dao Spire, and the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was just a higher hurdle that he had to cross.

"Did Chu Kuangren fail? Or did he make it?"

Some of the sky-prides noticed Chu Kuangren flying away from the last floor and were baffled by the scene.

Loud rumbling noises then came from the other three Heavenly Dao Spires, followed by their disappearance.

Then, all the major forces got an update on the spires' disappearance.

The respective tower invaders had cleared the challenges and acquired the final Opportunity of Fortune, hence the disappearance.

The update awestruck many.

"I didn't think someone would be strong enough to beat the Heavenly Dao Spire! It's unbelievable! What kind of monstrous Prodigies are they?!"

"Wait. If the spire disappears once it's cleared, this one is still here. Does it mean Chu Kuangren failed?"

The thought left many in shock, and they quickly turned their attention to Chu Kuangren.

The arrogant Chu Kuangren had failed?!

Others cleared the Heavenly Dao Spire but not him?!

In other words, did he just lose to the other three sky-prides?

Many other sky-prides could not believe it, but many gloated at Chu Kuangren as well.

"I knew he can't be invincible forever. He's no god. I'm glad he's finally fallen out of his unbeatable status."

"Yeah. I guess that's all Chu Kuangren has."

"There are other Prodigies who are stronger than him!"

The sky-prides who were once pressured and oppressed by Chu Kuangren felt proud for once, and the delight carried them away.

“The chief didn’t make it?”

Hiding in the corner, Shi Ying was also drowned in disbelief.

Li Fei felt sorry as well. “The Heavenly Dao Spire is too difficult. It’s not easy for Master Chu to reach the last floor either.”

“It’s not that simple. Three streams of light came in from three different directions and entered the last floor of the spire. If I’m correct, they must come from the other three Heavenly Dao Spires,” Fu Yin said.

“People remain foolish as they fail to see the truth.” Monk Wujie of the Buddhist world shook his head and added, “If I’m correct, the three streams of light were the three other spire defenders, which were the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Immortal Consciousness thought forms. They came in from all directions just to stop Chu Kuangren from getting the Opportunity of Fortune, and it was because of that advantage that the other three Prodigies could get the final Opportunities of Fortune.

“The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor believed that stopping Chu Kuangren was much more important than the ongoing trials.

“It seems like the Immortal Hall fears the Human Emperor more than we thought. It’s unusual.”

The crowd was surprised by Monk Wujie’s explanation.

“Does it mean that the other three Prodigies got their Opportunities of Fortune because of Chu Kuangren?”

“You can put it that way.”

“What? What the hell?”

“It’s Chu Kuangren’s fate as the Human Emperor. The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s fear of him has cost him the final Opportunity of Fortune in the spire, so you can say the success and failure are all to the Human Emperor!”

“If it weren’t for his fate as the Human Emperor, Chu Kuangren might have gotten the final Opportunity of Fortune, but I can’t say the same for the other three.”

The people finally understood that it was not Chu Kuangren weaker than the other three Prodigies. It was the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor who feared him more than the others, so the former gathered his other thought forms from the other spires just to stop him from acquiring the final Opportunity of Fortune.

“What a monster Chu Kuangren is. I guess he’s the only one from the younger generations whom the Embodier Immortal Emperor dreads so badly!”

“Hmph. No matter what you say, it won’t change the fact that he didn’t get the Opportunity of Fortune. He failed, regardless of excuses.”

Some of the sky-prides kept the same attitude even after learning the facts because of their resentment for Chu Kuangren.

Their tone might not sound friendly, but it was the fact that Chu Kuangren failed this time. He lost the Opportunity of Fortune in the spire while the other three Prodigies got theirs.

With that, the three Prodigies might seize the chance to catch up to Chu Kuangren or even surpass him altogether.

“He might not have gotten the inheritance, but he failed honorably,” Monk Wujie said.

Just then, several figures appeared in the sky.

“Hahaha! I didn’t expect to see the arrogant Chu Kuangren lose this time!”

He was King Songdi’s successor of the Underworld, gloating at Chu Kuangren’s failure like the others.

Chu Kuangren looked around after hearing King Songdi’s successor and found himself surrounded by a bunch of sky-prides.

Other than the three successors from Yinciao City, Heavenly Daoist Tian and Heavenly Daoist Di from the Heavenly Dao Sect, the Eldest Young Master of the Qin clan, and the Little Heavenly Ruler from Holy Violet Pavilion were also there.

Seven Prodigies from the four great forces were there!

“Don’t play with fire. You will surely have to pay the price one day!”

Knowing what they wanted to do, Chu Kuangren shook his head, sighed, and swung his sleeve outwards, releasing a vast Immortal’s Core energy.

“If you people have a death wish, I don’t mind granting it to you.”

“Chu Kuangren, you just battled the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, and there are seven of us here! How much energy do you have left in there?” Heavenly Daoist Tian scoffed.

Then, he stepped forward and released a massive surge of Heavenly Dao energy into the air.

His Heavenly Might triggered the spiritual qi in all directions.

Countless mystical Daoist patterns flowed in the realm and formed a powerful boundary around Chu Kuangren, trapping him inside.

That was one of the ways they came up to restrain Chu Kuangren.

“Heavenly Dao Sect’s eight Heavenly Daoists shall cease to exist starting from today.”

“Chu Kuangren, I will kill you today to honor the Heavenly Dao!”

“Hmph. Even the Heavenly Dao shall bow before me.”

Chu Kuangren stepped forward and pointed out his sword hand sign while a green light glowed in his eyes.

Boundless sword qi swept over the realm like a violent tempest, destroying almost everything in its way.

The boundary formed by countless Daoist patterns trembled violently as the tempest of a sword qi rocked it.

Heavenly Daoist Tian's expression changed, and he shouted, "Now!"

He took the lead and attacked. Endless Heavenly Dao energy erupted and transformed into a golden palm that crashed onto the boundary.

After that, Heavenly Daoist Di followed. She might also be a Prodigy but was not as strong as Heavenly Daoist Tian.

"Heavenly Dao Pierce!"

As she pointed her finger, boundless Daoist patterns expanded and confined Chu Kuangren on the spot as though the Heavenly Might had befallen him.

"Samsara Palm!"

All three successors of the Underworld attacked en masse.

The power of samsara manifested into three samsara vertices, gushing forward violently with might that shadowed the sky.

"Scarlet Dragon Shadow!"

Qin Fengyun channeled the Five Dragons Dominion Art and unleashed the Scarlet Dragon Shadow at Chu Kuangren.
