

Unparalleled 1371

Chapter 1371: Seven Against Chu Kuangren, Five Ways Yin Yang Fusion

Scarlet Dragon Shadow, Heavenly Dao energy, and samsara energy were all blasted toward Chu Kuangren at the same time.

Little Heavenly Ruler revealed an Immortal Sword and threw a slash that released a violet sword ray at Chu Kuangren.

Even though he had just battled the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor and had almost half his energy drained, Chu Kuangren stood firm against the attacks as the green light swirled in his eyes.

Then, an endless sword qi gushed outward.

It was the second divine ability of the Green Leaf Sword Vision, Green Leaf Sword Ocean!

A sky full of sword qi clashed with all kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities, and the consecutive collisions set off explosions across the void.

As the dust storm settled, one man stood tall in the air while maintaining his vast energy presence. Not a speck of dust had stained his white robes as Immortal Sparks shimmered brightly around him, granting him the presence of the supreme Immortal King.

“That’s all you guys got?”

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign at them and wanted to use the tyrannical Blade of Zhou.

However, before he could attack, a bright and dazzling violet light exploded in the sky.

From the bright explosion, a jade seal emerged and floated in the air.

It was surrounded by swirling violet Daoist patterns and shimmering Immortal Sparks, enveloping Chu Kuangren whole.

He immediately sensed a familiar presence — the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor!

“Oh? A cultivator from the Holy Violet Tribe?”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Little Heavenly Ruler controlling the jade seal.

“Indeed I am,” Little Heavenly Ruler responded arrogantly. “This seal here is an Arch Gilded Weapon of the Holy Violet Pavilion, the Holy Violet King Seal! It releases a sliver of the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s aura to suppress the opponent!”

“Chu Kuangren, you might be powerful, but with the Heavenly Dao Boundary around you and the pressure from Holy Violet King Seal, how much more can you possibly do?”

The Heavenly Dao Boundary was the first way they came up with to deal with Chu Kuangren, and the Holy Violet King Seal was the second.

“I wonder which is stronger, the Holy Violet King Seal or my Samsara Emperor Seal?”

Chu Kuangren unveiled the Samsara Emperor Seal!

The emperor seal rose into the sky, and the Ghost Emperor's authority released its energy to oppose the Holy Violet King Seal's suppression.

Further away, the three Underworld successors responded with delight when they saw the seal. "You've finally unveiled the Samsara Emperor Seal!"

"Gates of Hell, open!"

The three of them channeled the samsara energy together and opened the gate connecting to the Underworld in the void.

They had opened a vortex passage to the Underworld City!

The moment the vortex opened, vast Yin qi gushed out from within.

Shrieks and wails sounded and echoed in the air while countless Yin soldiers and generals came charging out, including a dozen True Immortal figures, such as the Hei Bai Wuchang and the Ox-headed and Horse-faced Demons.

They were the Yincao Underworld City's army!

"Chu Kuangren, choose which one you want to fight the Samsara Emperor Seal with. The Yincao Underworld City's army or the Holy Violet King Seal?" King Songdi's successor cackled with laughter.

"Chu Kuangren, I know you can also summon your own army. However, after the battle with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor and being suppressed by the Heavenly Dao Boundary and the Holy Violet King Seal now, what else can you summon?" King Dushi's successor mocked Chu Kuangren.

The Yincao Underworld City's army was the third way they came up with to restrain Chu Kuangren!

The Heavenly Dao Boundary and Holy Violet King Seal were to suppress Chu Kuangren's power, while the Yincao Underworld City's army was to stall and drain his energy away.

"Haha. You guys have really put in the effort."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. In the end, he chose to resist the Holy Violet King Seal with the Samsara Emperor Seal.

Following that, the Great Wasteland Halberd appeared in his hand.

With a full sweep forward, the powerful demonic qi erupted and destroyed a large number of Underworld soldiers.

"Chu Kuangren, you're really strong!"

"Even with so many restraints on you, you still possess this much power!" Heavenly Daoist Tian wore a grim look on his face.

Suddenly, the dragon's roar sounded and echoed across the realm. As five dragons of different colors appeared and flew in the sky, the vast energy of the Five Ways with a mix of a domineering aura erupted.

Everyone looked at the source of the energy.

Qin Fengyun, who summoned the five dragon shadows, had unleashed his strongest attack.

The five dragons that flew above him granted him a domineering aura that resembled an emperor.

“The Qin clan and the Five Dragons Dominion Art... Hm. Are they related to Emperor Qin?” Chu Kuangren murmured.

Emperor Qin was an emperor of the human race who wished to restore the reign of the Human Emperor in the past but failed due to multiple schemes against himself.

However, he was known as a man with great intellect and strategy, rivaling that of the Human Emperor.

The Five Dragon Dominion Art was the cultivation technique that he practiced.

“Chu Kuangren, you killed my brother. Today, you shall pay the price with your life,” Qin Fengyun said coldly.

With that, he raised his hand into the sky, and the five dragon qi intertwined, constantly releasing the dazzling Five Ways energy.

Chu Kuangren responded with a burst of mystical light radiating from his body.

The light that shot up into the sky also contained five colors, which were red, blue, green, yellow, and gold. They were strikingly similar to Qin Fengyun’s dragon qi and also contained the powerful energy of the Five Ways.

“Five Ways Ultimate, Five Colors Light Rain!”

Chu Kuangren cast the ultimate move recorded in the Five Ways Ultimate Art. He had decided to fight Five Ways with Five Ways.

That move shocked Heavenly Daoist Tian and the others.

“Isn’t this the prize from the nine-hundred ninety-ninth floor, the ultimate move of the Five Ways Ultimate Art? How did he master it so quickly?”

“How did he do it?!”

They all had the Five Ways Ultimate Art but had not started cultivating it.

No one would have thought that Chu Kuangren would master the Immortal Scripture right after he left the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Heavenly Daoist Tian and the others were deeply shaken.

“Hmph! The Five Ways Ultimate is no match for the Five Dragon Dominion Art!” Qin Fengyun grunted. Then, he channeled a much stronger surge of Five Ways energy this time and overpowered Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren might have monstrous cognizance, but he had just mastered the power of the Five Ways just a while ago.

Qing Fengyun, on the other hand, was not the same. He had cultivated the Five Dragons Dominion Art since he was young and absorbed treasures of all five elements to refine his Five Way Dragon qi. He also possessed the Five Ways Immortal Physique, so no one in the younger generation could match him in terms of the mastery of the Five Ways.

“Oh, not bad. If the Five Ways Ultimate Art is no match, what if I add the power of Yin Yang?”

With that, a reddish-golden tree appeared behind Chu Kuangren.

It was the Fusang Tree!

Upon appearing, the divine tree released endless Immortal Sparks upon appearing while the Yin Yang energy and Five Ways energy gushed out together toward Qin Fengyun.

The fusion between Five Ways and Yin Yang brought forth endless mystical energy.

Even Qin Fengyun failed to overwhelm Chu Kuangren this time.

“He really has a ton of tricks under his sleeve!”

“He’s heavily restrained, yet he can still summon the power of Fusang. He’s terrifying!”

Heavenly Daoist Tian, Little Heavenly Ruler, and King Qin’guang’s successor responded with a gloomy look on their faces.

Chu Kuangren was not even in his prime. He had just battled the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor and exhausted half of his energy, yet he could use his remaining energy to counter all seven of them together!

He was much scarier than they had imagined!

While Chu Kuangren used the Fusang’s power and Five Ways energy to counter Qin Fengyun, Heavenly Dao Tian and Little Heavenly Ruler followed up with their attacks.

All kinds of Immortal Techniques were blasted at Chu Kuangren at the same time.

“How annoying.”

Chu Kuangren retracted Fusang’s energy and the Five Ways energy. Instead, a bright light pillar shot up into the sky from his body, and the Hundred Academy’s Three Great Conjurations appeared. Celestial Demon qi intertwined in the air, and the Universal Life-Death Cycle formed above him.

Life-death energy flooded the realm like the rising tide, negating all kinds of Immortal Techniques that were shot at him.

Chu Kuangren remained unscathed before the barrage of attacks.

However, Heavenly Daoist Tian grinned.

Chapter 1372: Thirty Percent Of My Power, Seven Nations Warring Map, Can’t Hold On For Long

“Chu Kuangren, you have to conserve Fusang’s power and the Five Ways energy just to handle our attacks, which means your Immortal’s Core energy is not enough to support all your techniques!

“You are going to lose!”

Heavenly Daoist Tian saw through Chu Kuangren’s condition by analyzing it, and it put a smile on his face.

The other Prodigies also grinned as though they had already won.

“You’re right. I only have thirty percent of my Immortal’s Core energy left,” Chu Kuangren said with no intention of concealing his condition to his opponents.

The battle with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor had drained his Immortal’s Core energy greatly, leaving him with less than half of his original.

Now, with the Holy Violet King Seal and the Heavenly Dao Boundary, on top of attacking and defending multiple attacks several times, he was left with only thirty percent of his Immortal’s Core energy.

Thankfully, he cultivated the Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation, which granted him higher energy storage compared to other cultivators of the same level. If other people were restrained and attacked, their energies would already be depleted. Not even ten True Immortals could withstand such exhaustion.

However, even with only thirty percent of his Immortal’s Core energy, he was not afraid.

He conserved the Fusang’s power and the Five Ways energy and switched to the Great Wasteland Halberd. Violet demonic patterns appeared on his face, and the Battle Secret Technique was activated.

With the two secret techniques activated, his energy surged, and Immortal Sparks began shimmering brightly around him. His aura shook heavens and earth like he was the invincible Immortal King descending from the sky.

“We shall see if all of you can do something about my thirty-percent energy level.”

The sky-prides gulped nervously upon hearing his words.

The energy he released was already terrifying, yet it was just thirty percent of his strength!

Was it a joke?

That would mean Chu Kuangren, at his prime, would be so powerful that he could defy heaven’s will.

The thought made them realize why Chu Kuangren was called a monster.

“Chu Kuangren, we shall see how long you can last!”

“Guys, let’s take him down together!” Heavenly Daoist Tian shouted.

With that, a surge of powerful Heavenly Dao energy erupted from him. “Heavenly Dao state!”

As he entered his Heavenly Dao state, his energy skyrocketed.

“Heavenly Dao Godly Talisman!”

He then drew in the air with his fingers, and a massive talisman charm formed in the void.

A terrifying Heavenly Might erupted from the talisman before it crashed down onto Chu Kuangren as though the sky was falling on him.

Heavenly Daoist Di also activated her Heavenly Dao state. As she performed a forward push with her palms, giant golden palms covered with Daoist patterns reached out at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren stepped forward with the Great Wasteland Halberd, igniting the flames of war with the first step.

With a sweep forward, countless images of planets exploding appeared in the void. "Great Wasteland Halberd, Planetary Annihilation!"

Bang! Bang!

The massive talisman charm and the Heavenly Dao Palm were crushed upon impact.

On the other hand, the three Underworld successors joined the battle.

"Samsara Pierce!"

Their finger strengths carrying samsara energy were struck toward Chu Kuangren from three different directions.

"Holy Violet Day-shadowing Palm!" The Little Heavenly Ruler joined the battle using the Arch Gilded Technique that was passed down within the Holy Violet Pavilion!

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Nine Heaven Cry!"

Chu Kuangren's Immortal's Core energy converted into demonic qi and gushed forward. With a sweep of the halbert, the demonic qi was like a violent storm, roaring through the nine heavens.

Behind him, a massive apparition of a demonic avatar formed and trembled heaven and earth with a single glance.

The three Samsara Pierces were shattered while the massive Day-shadowing Palm exploded upon impact.

"Five Dragon World Destruction!"

Qin Fengyun grunted and unleashed his strongest attack in the Five Dragon Dominion Art to counter Chu Kuangren's terrifying power.

Five dragon qi swirled in the void and siphoned energies from the Five Ways, forming a colorful and dazzling ball of light.

The dragon shadow, formed from the Five Ways energy, danced around the ball of light as they roared majestically.

The attack felt like it could destroy the entire world!

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Wasteland Subjugation!"

Chu Kuangren swung his halberd forward once again, concentrating the battle intent and murderous intent on the bronze halberd's tip, which shone brightly.

The clash of two ultimate attacks released a terrifying shockwave into the area. It leveled the mountains and lands, and even spatial cracks appeared in the void.

Other than the Heavenly Dao Spire, everything else was destroyed.

"Chu Kuangren, have a taste of this!" King Qin'guang's successor shouted.

He revealed a black brush that had thick black ink at its tip. The ink was actually the concentration of the purest Yin qi, and a stroke from the brush could sever Yin from Yang.

"The Judge's Brush!"

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

The Judge's Brush was one of the strongest Arch Gilded Immortal Weapons of Yincao Underworld City. It possessed endless energy, and when used together with King Qin'guang's successor cultivation technique, its full strength would be unmatched!

"Battle Art, Worldly Overthrow!"

Chu Kuangren wielded his halberd as a staff and swung it forward. Its powerful strike could turn heaven and flip the earth upside down!

Dazzling Daoist patterns formed a terrifying halberd ray and crashed onto the Judge's Brush.

The impact from the collision shook King Qin'guang's successor, causing him to spit out a mouthful of blood while sending him flying backward.

Chu Kuangren also staggered backward for a few meters but was unharmed.

"Holy Violet Nova Explosion!"

Bright violet light swirled in the sky and shed its light over tens of thousands of kilometers of land.

The Little Heavenly Ruler channeled his Immortal's Core. The moment he raised the Immortal sword into the air, more violet light shot up into the sky and gathered into a massive violet planet.

"Your attack reminds me of the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, but yours is a lot weaker!"

Chu Kuangren stood firm with the Great Wasteland Halberd in his hand. "Battle Art, Empyrean Smash!"

He stepped forward and released endless battle intents into the air.

As the battle intents erupted, it triggered the Ape Forefather's presence, and the image of a roaring black ape started to form behind him.

The black ape roared and glared at the violet planet.

"Roar!"

The ape pounded its chest ferociously as though he was the Yokai King that challenged heaven and ruled the earth!

It raised its fists into the violet planet!

Kaboom!

A deafening explosion later, the giant ape's figure slowly disintegrated, and the violet planet exploded into many streams of energy, leaking in every direction.

Many other sky-prides were astonished by the scene.

"My goodness. He has thirty-percent energy left, and he can take it this far battling seven Prodigies?"

"This is terrifying."

Even the arrogant Qin Fengyun had to admit that Chu Kuangren was stronger than him.

"The stronger you are, the more reason for us to eliminate you!" Qin Fengyun said.

At that moment, he pulled out another Immortal Weapon, which was a massive scroll.

Inside the scroll was a painting of a million troops riding armored horses, people farming and living a good life, and the catastrophic outcome of the war.

At the end of the painting were the names of the seven nations — Yan, Zhao, Han, Wei, Qi, Chu, and Qin!

"Emperor Qin ruled over the six nations in the past, and this painting here is forged by a master refiner from the Qin nation, based on true events that happened back then. This is the Seven Warring Nations Scroll!"

Qin Fengyun proudly introduced the scroll. As soon as it was activated, its boundless aura shook heaven and earth.

Heavenly Daoist Tian took a deep breath and unleashed a powerful grudge qi. It was the forbidden technique of the Heavenly Dao Sect, Heavenly Rage Technique!

"Chu Kuangren, you shall die here and now even if I have to ignite all my Heavenly Dao energy!" Heavenly Daoist Tian said coldly.

The other sky-prides unveiled their ultimate move as well.

Suddenly, Chu Kuangren found himself surrounded by multiple ultimate techniques from different forces.

He only had thirty percent of his Immortal's Core energy left at the start of the battle, and now after several exchanges with the few of them, people started to believe that he would not last long.

Chapter 1373: He Came, His True Self Arrived, Extremely Astounded

Qin Fengyun unveiled the Seven Warring Nations Scroll, while Heavenly Daoist Tian used the Heavenly Rage Technique.

All the successors of Underworld also channeled their Yin qi to the limit.

King Qin'guang's successor wielded the Judge's Brush and controlled the samsara energy, allowing him to judge one's life and death.

The Little Heavenly Ruler wielded the Immortal sword with violet starlight swirling around him, and the Holy Violet King Seal above him shimmered in Immortal Sparks, releasing a boundless aura into the sky.

All seven sky-prides were using their respective ultimate moves just to eliminate Chu Kuangren.

No one believed Chu Kuangren could escape this alive because it was terrifying to even think about it.

Even the great ones in space assumed Chu Kuangren would finally fall this time.

"Chu Kuangren might be an amazing young one, but this is it for him."

"Exactly. His invincible legend shall end here. I believe it's a good thing because if he continues to be undefeatable, it will only demoralize the other sky-prides."

"This isn't exactly a fair and honorable battle, but winning is winning."

Immortal Consciousnesses were communicating across the galaxy.

Further away, on a certain mountain peak, a young and petite girl in glamorous black robes watched the scene calmly.

"Things are getting tricky. I believe you should be making a move anytime now," the girl, Hua Wuai, murmured as she watched Chu Kuangren being surrounded.

Others might not know, but she knew the Chu Kuangren, who was currently surrounded by seven sky-prides, was just a clone.

However, she sensed something at that moment and looked into the distant galaxy. Suddenly, a beautiful smile appeared on her face.

"He's coming..."

Back on the battlefield, Qin Fengyun, Little Heavenly Ruler, and the others were prepared to unleash their ultimate attacks on Chu Kuangren.

In the crowd, Fu Yin could not stand watching anymore. She wanted to step in and help, but before she could, something farther away caught her attention.

In fact, not only her but all the sky-prides sensed something and looked up into the sky.

A powerful energy presence was approaching the planet rapidly.

The closer it got, the stronger it felt.

"This aura... It feels so familiar!"

"What's going on?!"

Heavenly Daoist Tian, Qin Fengyun, and the others were horrified when they sensed the aura because it felt the same as that of Chu Kuangren, the man they were trying to kill.

It shocked them more than anything.

"If you guys are trying to kill me, you better do it now, or you won't have the chance anymore."

Chu Kuangren looked up into the sky. "Because he's here."

Kakroom!

The void trembled and cracked.

Countless mountains and rivers collapsed before the powerful aura, and all life on the planet knelt in fear.

All the sky-prides outside the Heavenly Dao Spire were horrified by the aura. Some of them even collapsed to the ground unconsciously.

"Who is that?"

"That familiar aura... Could it be..."

As if someone had made the connection, the person looked at Chu Kuangren in shock.

As the aura came closer, everyone finally got a clear look at the figure.

The figure was shrouded with endless Immortal Sparks, and his magnificent aura massive shook even the stars and made the sun pale in comparison.

The unrivaled presence felt like the Immortal King descending from space.

He had black hair, snowy white robes, a white sword and scroll that hung over his waist, and handsome features. Each move he made felt transcendental, as though he was a deity from the paintings.

When everyone finally had a good look at the figure's face, they were awestruck.

Even the great ones in space were astonished by the jaw-dropping scene. They felt like they were watching the most unbelievable thing in their lives.

The person looked exactly like Chu Kuangren.

"W-What is going on?"

Some of the sky-prides gulped in fear as they could not comprehend what was happening before their eyes.

"You guys seem to enjoy fighting my clone," Chu Kuangren said as he looked at Qin Fengyun, Heavenly Daoist Tian, and the others.

His words were the answer everyone sought, but they also shocked them like never before.

The Chu Kuangren who had just arrived was his true self, and the one Heavenly Daoist Tian and the others were fighting was just a clone of his.

The sky-prides were rendered speechless by the inconceivable revelation.

Acquiring Chiyou's inheritance, overpowering the other sky-prides, defeating Shi Tianxuan who was Luohou's successor, getting to the last floor in the Heavenly Dao Spire, fighting the Holy Violet Emperor, and then Qin Fengyun and the six other Prodigies, they were all achieved by a clone of Chu Kuangren!

"How is this even possible?!"

Someone refused to believe it.

Even the great ones in space found it difficult to believe because it made them question their lives.

How could there be such a monstrous Prodigy?

It did not make sense for a single person to be so ridiculously powerful.

"A monster indeed!" said one of the great ones calmly, but it was hard to hide the shock on his face.

Heavenly Daoist Tian, Qin Fengyun, and the others were shocked beyond comprehension. For a moment, they did not know what to do.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored every one of them.

He simply took a step forward, and his boundless Immortal's Core, dazzling with Immortal Sparks, gushed out like a waterfall.

In a blink of an eye, all the restrictions on Chu Kuangren's clone, set up by Heavenly Daoist Tian and the others, were removed.

He went over to his clone and smiled. "Thank you for all you've done."

"You and I are one. There's no need to be courteous with me."

"I'll take it over from here."

"I'll leave it to you."

The clone nodded before transforming into a ray of light and going into Chu Kuangren's Enchanted Sleeve.

"Well then. What happens next is between us," Chu Kuangren said to Qin Fengyun and the others.

"Impossible! Impossible!"

"It's impossible for you to be so powerful!" Heavenly Daoist Tian shouted. Then, he channeled the Heavenly Dao energy to the limit and threw a palm strike at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren stood still without any intention of moving or dodging. He curled his hand into a fist and simply countered with a punch of his own. It seemed like a casual punch, but it stirred up a storm that brought forth endless lightning and Daoist patterns.

It was the Divine Thunder Fist!

Accompanied by a deafening thunderclap, Heavenly Daoist Tian's palm strike dissolved.

Swoosh!

Chu Kuangren disappeared from the spot, and no one saw how or when he moved.

Even so, Heavenly Daoist Tian could feel an indescribable pressure on him, overwhelming him with endless fear. His heart was pounding wildly.

“Heavenly Daoist Tian, behind you!” Heavenly Daoist Di shouted.

Heavenly Daoist Tian’s eyes widened in fear, and he threw another palm strike behind him without saying a word.

Chu Kuangren showed no signs of dodging. In fact, he stood still and endured the palm strike with his physical body.

Bang!

Heavenly Daoist Tian landed his palm strike precisely on Chu Kuangren, but it felt like he hit an immovable Immortal Metal. All the palm strike did was make Chu Kuangren flinch.

What a monstrous physical body!

Now, Heavenly Daoist Tian was more terrified than ever.

“There’s nothing noteworthy about your power.” Chu Kuangren scoffed and reached out to Heavenly Daoist Tian’s neck to grab it.

With the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art activated, Heavenly Daoist Tian’s Heavenly Dao energy was sucked into Chu Kuangren’s body. It was endless!

Meanwhile, Heavenly Daoist Di wanted to help, but Chu Kuangren caught her with the might of Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art using his other hand.

That particular technique was used specifically to counter the Heavenly Dao energy; it was the bane of all Heavenly Dao Sect’s cultivators.

Just like that, the two Heavenly Daoists were rendered defenseless before the technique.

“What is this technique? What’s happening?”

Both the Heavenly Daoists plunged into the abyss of fear.

As they lost more Heavenly Dao energy to Chu Kuangren, they grew weaker.

Chapter 1374: No One Shall Leave, Black Annihilation Lotus’s Power

“Damn it! Move! Now!”

Seeing that Chu Kuangren stifled both Heavenly Daoist Tian and Heavenly Daoist Di together, the rest of the sky-prides reacted immediately by continuing their attacks.

Little Heavenly Ruler continued channeling the Holy Violet King Seal to suppress Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren was not concerned as countless Immortal Sparks shimmered behind him, and a reddish-golden tree emerged.

It was the Fusang Tree!

The emergence of the Fusang Tree brought forth Yin Yang energy that shot out at the Holy Violet King Seal.

With a bang, the seal was blasted away.

Little Heavenly Ruler, having suffered the repercussions, spat out a mouthful of blood!

“Judge’s Brush! Cast your judgment on Yin and Yang!!”

King Qin’guang’s successor wielded the Judge’s Brush and pointed it at Chu Kuangren.

Instantly, the realm was shadowed by blank ink, which was the darkest and deepest Yin qi.

Immense pressure swept across the field.

“The Judge’s Brush casts its judgment on all Yin and Yang, life and death, but my life and death is not something a mere judge can control. What a joke,” Chu Kuangren said.

Then, Immortal Sparks shimmered around him, and the Celestial Demon qi swirling around his body shot up into the sky and transformed into a black and white light wheel.

It was the Life and Death Cycle!

Intense Life and Death intent gushed out, trembling the universe and crashing through the black Yin qi.

“Seven Warring Nations Scroll!”

The moment Qin Fengyun activated his scroll, endless murderous qi erupted from within the scroll, and the figures of a million calvaries appeared in the void.

That million calvaries charged forward with ferocious qi that shook cloud nine, and the realm trembled like never before. In an instant, it turned the field into a real battlefield.

“Even millions of calvaries shall enter my samsara!”

Chu Kuangren stood tall and released samsara intent into the air.

At that, an invisible energy domain emerged and shrouded the realm.

It was the Divine Samsara Overworld!

Millions of calvaries crumbled before the samsara intent without the slightest resistance.

All the other sky-prides were horrified.

They thought Chu Kuangren’s clone was already scary enough, but only now did they realize Chu Kuangren’s true self was countless times scarier than the clone.

Qin Fengyun, Little Heavenly Ruler, King Qin’guang’s successor used all of their ultimate attacks on him, but neither was effective.

He even negated all the attacks with only a raise of his hand.

“Chu Kuangren!” Heavenly Daoist Tian shouted even though he was constrained by the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art. Surprisingly, a surge of terrifying Immortal’s Core energy fluctuation gushed out from him.

He was able to increase his energy despite being under the influence of Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art!

“Alert. He’s igniting his life essence.”

Lil Ai’s voice sounded in Chu Kuangren’s head.

Chu Kuangren looked at Heavenly Daoist Tian’s flushed face and bloodshot eyes. He ridiculed, “Igniting your Heavenly Dao energy and your life essence, huh? You’re quite the hot shot, aren’t you?”

“Chu Kuangren, I want you dead!”

Having been able to break free from the influence of Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art in exchange for his ignited life essence, Heavenly Daoist Tian threw another palm strike at Chu Kuangren’s face.

“Divine Thunder Fist!”

Chu Kuangren stood still and threw a punch forward. His fist energy stirred up a storm and carried endless rumbling thunder along it.

Kakroom!

A cloud of blood mist exploded in the air.

Heavenly Daoist Tian’s arm and half his body were blasted into shreds by a single punch.

His eyes lost focus as disbelief drowned him.

He had ignited his life essence and given everything he got, yet he still could not match a single punch from Chu Kuangren.

How could Chu Kuangren be so ridiculously powerful?

The other sky-prides were even more horrified. The only word they could think of to describe Chu Kuangren was monster!

Bang!

Heavenly Daoist Di also burst into a cloud of blood after Chu Kuangren drained her dry.

“You’re next.”

Chu Kuangren grabbed what was left of Heavenly Daoist Tian and mobilized his Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art at its fullest potential, draining dry whatever was left of Heavenly Daoist Tian’s body.

Lastly, Chu Kuangren used the rumbling sword qi from his hand and killed Heavenly Daoist Tian.

Both Heavenly Dao Sect’s Prodigies had fallen.

“Damn it!” King Qin’guang’s successor’s face turned pale.

He and the other two Underworld successors, who had opened the Gates of Hell, wanted to flee back to the Underworld.

However, the Divine Samsara Overworld had somehow shadowed the realm. Before the Gates of Hell could fully open, they were forced to shut.

Chu Kuangren was the Ghost Emperor, so he had a higher authority in the Underworld compared to the three successors. In addition to his Heavenly Samsara Physique, there was no way they could open the Gates of Hell before him.

“None of you can escape today,” he said.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, and surges of tyrannical sword qi poured forward like a storm.

Blade of Zhou, Tyrannical Ascension!

The sword qi tore the void into shreds, including King Dushi and King Songdi’s successors.

They were ripped to shreds without any resistance.

“Damn it! Damn it!”

Little Heavenly Ruler was more anxious than ever.

His stomach started to hurt as anxiety flooded his mind. He should not have listened to Qin Fengyun and the others and joined them to kill Chu Kuangren.

They already had a hard time killing a mere clone, and now the true self was ripping Prodigies apart like they were papers.

His powers sent everyone into despair.

“Holy Violet Nova Explosion!”

The Little Heavenly Ruler channeled his energy to the limit and hurled a violet planet at Chu Kuangren.

“Do you really think the same technique will work on me twice?”

Chu Kuangren pointed his sword hand sign upward, casting the Tyrannical Ascension technique, which easily cut the violet planet into two. Little Heavenly Ruler was blasted by the sword qi and sent flying away.

“This should end now.”

Chu Kuangren stood in the air and unveiled a black lotus.

The black lotus had twelve petals that were covered with mystical Daoist patterns. As soon as it appeared, terrifying destructive energy spread.

It felt like the lotus was the source of all destruction, the catastrophic end of all things!

“It’s the Innate Source Treasure, Black Annihilation Lotus!”

Those who recognized the lotus trembled in fear.

The Innate Source Treasure, Black Annihilation Lotus, was one of the two great treasures of the Demonic Forefather Luo Hou. It shared the same status as the Godkiller Spear!

“You people are lucky enough to see this lotus, so I’ll use it to end your lives,” Chu Kuangren said.

Ever since he refined the Black Annihilation Lotus, he had never had the chance to use it.

As such, this would be a great opportunity for him to test its strength.

His Immortal’s Core energy swirled and was infused into the lotus. Then, Countless Daoist patterns intertwined and formed images of catastrophic disasters.

Suddenly, the Black Annihilation Lotus radiated with a black light.

The light contained endless destructive energy, and everywhere the light reached, destruction followed.

Even the void could not escape the light.

“No!”

“Stop this at once!”

The great ones watching in the dark were shocked, especially the ones from the Qin clan, Holy Violet Pavillion, and the Underworld. They cried out loud and tried to stop Chu Kuangren from eliminating the sky-prides.

However, Chu Kuangren would never listen to them.

The black light shone and enveloped Qin Fengyun, Little Heavenly Ruler, and King Qin’guang’s successor.

Before the destructive energy, the three of them were more terrified than ever.

Even a proud person like Qin Fengyun was nothing but a normal person that feared death before the black light.

He tried to channel the power of the five dragons to resist, but the dragons disintegrated into dust as soon as they were summoned.

All three of their bodies disintegrated into dust without any resistance and scattered across the sky.

Chapter 1375: Projection Of The Arch Gilded Will, Beat Him Into Submission

The destructive light from the Black Annihilation Lotus eliminated Qin Fengyun, Little Heavenly Ruler, and King Qin’guang’s successor altogether.

The vast and mighty aura from the light shocked every single sky-pride.

At the same time, a terrifying energy fluctuation erupted in space and shrouded the land whole.

Endless Daoist patterns shadowed the horizon in the blink of an eye, and several powerful wills descended on the land.

Following the arrival of the powerful wills emerged several figures, each terrifyingly powerful on their own. As their respective will flooded the realm, it forced most sky-prides down to their knees.

They were the wills of the Arch Gilded!

The figures that appeared were undoubtedly Arch Gilded Immortals.

"The Interstellar Arena forbids the existence of any Arch Gilded presence. What are they doing here?"

"No. This is the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, so there are restriction seals from the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor here. It's strong enough to match the powers of the Interstellar Arena's rules, and that's why the Arch Gilded Immortals can display a portion of their powers here. Are they going to do it here? Are they not afraid of the karmic consequences?"

"It seems they're extremely pissed because Chu Kuangren eliminated the other Heavenly Champions."

The appearance of the Arch Immortal figures sparked a heated discussion among the crowd.

Chu Kuangren killing Qin Fengyun, Little Heavenly Ruler, and the Underworld successors caught the Arch Gilded Immortals' attention and brought them here.

He stood firm and stared at the figures calmly while Lil Ai analyzed them.

"Alert. These few figures are not the real Arch Gilded Immortal. They are just a projection of their wills."

"Oh, a projection?"

Chu Kuangren was not entirely surprised.

All the Arch Gilded Immortals were in their respective territories, defending their own land. It would definitely take them longer to arrive in person.

It made sense for them to just send a projection of their wills.

Since Arch Gilded Immortals were not allowed to interfere with the Heavenly Champions' battle, and on top of the Interstellar Arena's rules, they could project only their wills.

"That way, they can bypass the Interstellar Arena's rules and display such powerful will projection. I believe they're quite strong even among the Arch Gilded Realm, at least stronger than the Chimei Tribe Leader I've fought before," Chu Kuangren thought.

He was not afraid of the arrival of the Arch Gilded will projection.

They were just projections of their wills. What could they possibly do?

He, on the other hand, could summon the Skeletal Yin General, a real Arch Gilded Immortal, from Fengdu City at will.

Although the Skeletal Yin General could not use his full strength on this planet, he was definitely stronger than a few will projections.

"Chu Kuangren, how dare you!" a middle-aged man in golden robes shouted from the air.

He bore the strongest energy, and his Arch Gilded will rivaled that of heaven, making him a terrifying existence.

He was the Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler, a famous Arch Gilded Immortal in the universe.

“What now? Are you guys going to attack?”

Before Chu Kuangren could speak, another terrifying Arch Gilded will projection erupted.

That particular will felt dark and deep as the ocean. Its depth was almost unpredictable.

Countless Daoist patterns intertwined in the void and formed another will projection.

The will projection with the wavy black hair was none other than Bei Ming of the Celestial Demon Tribe.

Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler and the others feared Bei Ming as soon as he appeared.

“Bei Ming!”

“Hmph. The Celestial Demon Tribe really knows how to make an entrance.”

Bei Ming stood in the air as his energy surrounded him. “What? First, you ignore the consequences, and now you want to attack one of the Celestial Demon Tribe? I need not remind you of the last time the two idiots who did the same thing are bedridden now. You guys want to have a try at that too?”

The two Arch Gilded Immortals he mentioned were from the Eastern King School and Demon Palace, who interfered with the Battle of the Heavenly Champions.

They suffered the karmic repercussion of intervening, hence severely wounding them. Even until this day, they had not recovered.

The thought easily discouraged the Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler and the others.

They projected their wills here because they were angry at Chu Kuangren for killing their Prodigies, especially the Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler who lost eight of his Heavenly Daoists.

He could not sit back and do nothing anymore.

“Chu Kuangren, you have made too many enemies for being arrogant and ridiculously powerful. Even if you eventually become the Immortal World’s ruler, who would submit to you wholeheartedly?” the Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler said.

“I’ll just beat them into submission!” Chu Kuangren said with his hands behind his back.

The reason why he got to where he was today was that he killed everyone who tried to defy him.

Submitting or not was not what he could control. The only thing he could do was eliminate those who refused to submit, leaving only those who obeyed him.

It was simple and brutal but also effective.

“The power of men will eventually exhaust. I want to see how far you can reach and how long you can keep that arrogance up,” Heavenly Dao Sect Ruler grunted before disappearing.

The other Arch Gilded will projections also glared at Chu Kuangren before they went off.

“Chu Kuangren, there is still the Imperial Commander in the Holy Violet Tribe, and he will eventually find you,” said the Holy Violet Pavilion’s Arch Gilded will projection.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. "If he comes to me, the Holy Violet Tribe shall elect a new Imperial Commander."

"Hmph! The battle between you and the Imperial Commander has yet to begin!" After that, the Arch Gilded Immortal disappeared.

Chu Kuangren pondered on those words.

Even after seeing his true self's strength, the Holy Violet Pavilion's Arch Gilded Immortal remained confident in the Holy Violet Imperial Commander. It seemed like the Imperial Commander had something interesting that he could rely on.

"Interesting. I'll look forward to it." Chu Kuangren smiled.

Then, he looked at Bei Ming. "Senior, we meet again."

"Mhm. You're stronger than when we last met. I'm glad."

Due to the rules of the Interstellar Arena, Bei Ming's will projection could not stay long. Hence, he left after a quick chat with Chu Kuangren.

After the little interference with the Arch Gilded will projections, Chu Kuangren looked at the Heavenly Dao Spire behind him and stared at it coldly.

Everyone else was shocked by his reaction.

"Is Chu Kuangren going to challenge the Heavenly Dao Spire again?"

"I bet. Just think about it. If his clone can get to the last floor, his true self would have no problem clearing the spire."

"I guess you're right."

"Don't forget that the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor is guarding the last floor, and he has gathered all his other clones. He's a lot more powerful than before, and he'll never let the Human Emperor get the Opportunity of Fortune from the spire."

Some remained skeptical about the upcoming battle between Chu Kuangren and the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

It sparked a heated discussion among the others.

However, Chu Kuangren was not in a hurry to go into the spire.

Several figures came out behind him.

They were Cao Yun, Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and the others.

"This Heavenly Dao Spire is a good place to get some Opportunities of Fortune. Go in and test yourselves. Maybe you can get something for yourself," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

The Heavenly Dao Spire would disappear once he cleared it, so he planned to let Lan Yu and the others train inside it first.

“Alright.”

Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and the others nodded before they went inside.

“Master.”

After all the others went inside, Fu Yin, Shi Ying, and Li Fei came to him.

Chapter 1376: Shi Ying’s Secret, The First Equinox Of The Realm

“Chief, you’re awesome! I didn’t know it was your clone that had been with us the entire time.”

Shi Ying did not conceal her admiration for Chu Kuangren.

In fact, she respected him even more now that she had witnessed what he could do.

Chu Kuangren simply smiled at Shi Ying, but something felt strange.

He shared a link with his clone, so he knew of Shi Ying. He had asked Cao Yun and the others about her, but none of them had heard of her name before.

However, it was not enough to prove that Shi Ying was not from the academy.

After all, as she claimed, she was just a nobody in the academy.

“Lil Ai, analyze Shi Ying.”

“Analyzing...”

The Omniscient Spirit, Lil Ai, never disappointed Chu Kuangren before.

“Alert. The subject’s name is Shi Ying. Her body contains Buddhist Light, which is extremely pure compared to those from the Buddhist world you have met. Due to a certain kind of cultivation technique, the pure Buddhist Light is sealed inside her. There are also traces of her memories having been scrambled, seemingly altered by an outside source...”

As soon as Lil Ai’s voice sounded in Chu Kuangren’s head, everything about Shi Ying appeared before him, including her cultivation technique, cultivation base, and original look.

Shi Ying’s current look was not her original look. She had used an extremely smart disguise to conceal her true identity from the others, and it was so good that she managed to fool Chu Kuangren.

Her disguise not only changed her face, but it even changed her original cultivation base, her talent, and her energy level. It changed her from an outstanding Prodigy to a nobody.

It was even safe to say she was a totally different person.

“Interesting. Her memories, her body, her face, her cultivation base, and everything about her has changed from a matchless Prodigy to a nobody. You spent that much effort just to get close to me, huh? What is it that you seek?”

Chu Kuangren stared at Shi Ying with a smile.

"Chief, why are you looking at me like that?" Shi Ying was confused by his gaze, which was not as warm as before. It even felt cold.

The coldness stung her heart, and her chest felt heavy.

She wondered whether she had done something that made the Chief mad.

At that, Shi Ying grew anxious.

Chu Kuangren averted her gaze and smiled. "Nothing."

The Shi Ying before him was just a normal academy student who admired him. Even her own memories told her as such.

Therefore, why not play along? He wanted to see how long it would take her to reveal her true identity and why all the effort.

While Lan Yu and the others challenged the Heavenly Dao Spire, Chu Kuangren used the time to sort out the spoils he got from killing Qin Fengyhun and the others.

There were quite a lot of treasures among the spoils.

After all, they were all top-notch sky-prides and Prodigies who got to more than nine hundred floors in the Heavenly Dao Spire, so it was not surprising for them to have more treasures than others.

"Five Ways Treasure? Not bad. I can use it to enhance my clone again.

"Proclamation Seals? Great. I've got a few thousand here to upgrade Descendant Self.

"And these Immortal Weapons, Immortal Pills, and all the great stuff. I don't need any of them now, and I have enough Immortal Crystals, so I guess I'll keep them and bring them back to Firmament Star."

Chu Kuangren carefully went through his spoils.

Soon, a figure flew out from the Heavenly Dao Spire. It was Zhao Fangfei.

She might be a top-notch sky-pride, but there was still some gap between her and a Prodigy. Her challenge ended at nine-hundred and ninth floor.

Besides her, more of Hundred Academy's Heavenly Champions also came out from the spire, and they all stopped around the nine hundredth floor.

Now, only Lan Yu, Chu Hong, Cao Yun, and Wang Chentian were left inside.

Two days later, another person came out.

"Damn it! That bull demon sent me out with just one punch!" Wang Chentian clicked his tongue in awe.

He used everything he got to beat the nine-hundred and nineteenth spire guardian, but the green-eyed bull demon on the nine-hundred and ninety-first floor defeated him.

The strange and terrifying bull demon was a rare one. Other than a monster like Chu Kuangren, who could probably defeat it with ease, the other Prodigies might not stand a chance against it.

Soon, Cao Yun came out. He lost on the nine-hundred and ninety-fifth floor, where the spire guardian was a powerful and strange yokai.

That left only Chu Hong and Lan Yu.

It was then that a fiery pillar shot up in the sky, and a figure came out. It was Chu Hong.

She stared at the nine-hundred ninety-seventh floor and said, "A Kylin that has awakened its bloodline eight times is really extraordinary."

Although she lost, she refused to accept defeat.

She had the inheritance of Huang Jinghuang, the great one of Phoenix's Nest, so awakening her bloodline for the eighth time was just a matter of time. She would eventually grow stronger than the Kylin.

Wang Chentian, Cao Yu, and Chu Hong came out one after another, leaving only Lan Yu in the spire.

Chu Kuangren waited outside for her to come out before he would enter.

He was preparing himself for the rematch with the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

He might look like he was standing there without releasing any energy, but once anyone got near to him, they would be caught within his tremendous pressure.

Even the space around him looked distorted.

The other sky-prides were awestruck. They knew that anyone, even a top sky-pride, would be easily immobilized by the intense pressure if they were caught inside.

It was then that a petite figure walked up to him.

It was a girl of twelve or thirteen years of age. She looked as adorable as a doll and wore a glamorous long black robe with equinox flowers sewn on it.

Equinox flowers grew along her trail, carving a path of bloody flowers in her wake.

"Equinox Maiden Sage!"

Someone recognized her and cried out in shock.

No one knew why she would suddenly show up on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

The Equinox Maiden Sage barely showed herself in public. Even though she was also in the Interstellar Arena, no one knew her true intention.

However, she came here just to meet Chu Kuangren, who looked at her curiously.

"It's nice to finally meet you, Chu Kuangren."

Hua Wu Ai stared expressionlessly at Chu Kuangren, and her bloody eyes gleamed. They were deep and enchanting as though they bore the mysterious beauty of death.

Her eyes were terrifying, but one would easily be enchanted by her gaze.

“Hua Wu Ai.”

While Chu Kuangren called her name, Lil Ai was already analyzing her.

When he saw the analysis result, he was shocked.

“The first Equinox flower in the universe, undead and indestructible...”

Chapter 1377: A Chat With Hua Wu Ai, I’ll Help You Become King, Climbing the Spire Once More

“The first ever Equinox Flower in the universe, undead and indestructible. It reincarnates every three thousand years...”

Chu Kuangren was shocked as he read Hua Wu Ai’s information.

‘The first ever Equinox Flower...’

That information was no joke. After all, it meant that she was an ancient being who was the very source of her entire species’ lineage.

Normally, those ancient beings would be incredibly terrifying in terms of power, just like the first Golden Crow, the first True Dragon, the first Godly Phoenix, and so on. Without exception, they were all top-tier Embodiers.

Each of them represented the pinnacle of a certain path of Dao within the universe!

Hence, he could not believe that the Hua Wu Ai before him was one of those beings. If that was the case, how could she be here in the Interstellar Arena? Was that even allowed?

Chu Kuangren was a little in disbelief.

Having recovered from his shock, his questions were soon answered as Lil Ai’s analysis was conducted in more detail.

Currently, Hua Wu Ai was not yet an Embodier Realm cultivator. On the contrary, she was only a True Immortal, just like him.

However, the fact that she was the very first Equinox Flower in the universe was still true.

“Is it reincarnation then?” Chu Kuangren murmured.

The only known reincarnation mechanisms could be found in the three great Underworld cities, which were Fengdu, Yincao, and Taishan.

Before Chu Kuangren’s arrival, Fengdu City’s reincarnation mechanism was severely damaged to the point that it could not operate. In that case, did she reincarnate via Yincao or Taishan City’s reincarnation mechanism instead?

That was not possible either.

She was the very first Equinox Flower in the universe, after all. Perhaps she possessed some unknown method of reincarnation.

As the undying and indestructible Equinox Flower, did she possess samsara energy that transcended even the three great Underworld cities?

Chu Kuangren's interest grew the more he learned about Hua Wu Ai.

"So, you've seen through my true identity. As expected of the one with a non-existent fate, you truly are an impressive cultivator," Hua Wu Ai said while looking at Chu Kuangren.

She could not help but feel surprised when hearing him mumble the word "reincarnation".

Everyone in the world knew her as the Equinox Tribe's Maiden Sage. However, Chu Kuangren was the second person to know her true identity at first glance.

As for the first person... It was the ancient Divine Underworld Daoist.

Remembering that Chu Kuangren also possessed the same Heavenly Samsara Physique as the Divine Underworld Daoist, Hua Wu Ai's curiosity was piqued. Did the Heavenly Samsara Physique hosts have a special connection with her?

However, she stopped thinking about it right after and looked at Chu Kuangren. She said, "I've come to see you and confirm something."

"What is it?"

"Whether you are a person with a non-existent fate."

"How do you plan to do that?"

"You'll have to follow me to somewhere known as the River Wangchuan!"

The River Wangchuan was an ancient river that had been around forever in the Underworld.

It was said that a Three-Lives Stone could be found on its riverside. By standing near that stone, one could see their past, present, and future lives reflected on the river water's surface.

Even the Arch Gilded elites would shudder at the thought of the River Wangchuan.

"I know the River Wangchuan is located in the Underworld. However, there are still quite a few things I still have to do in the world of living. Hence, I can't follow you there right away. However, as Fengdu's Ghost Emperor, I've promised Shenshu I'll rebuild the Underworld city again. One day, I shall return to the Underworld and bring law and order there. When that day comes, I'll gladly visit you in the Underworld," said Chu Kuangren.

Upon hearing that, Hua Wu Ai nodded and then turned around to leave.

Chu Kuangren was surprised. 'That's it? She's leaving?'

"Answer me this. Why have you come to see me? Is it because I'm the one with a non-existent fate, just as you mentioned earlier?"

"Hm... Perhaps. But it's partly because you possess the same Immortal Physique as him."

"The Divine Underworld Daoist?"

“That’s right. He was my one true friend in the Underworld and the only person who can help me break free from this never-ending cycle of reincarnation,” Hua Wu Ai said calmly.

However, Chu Kuangren could feel a hint of loneliness through her words.

She was the first-ever Equinox Flower in the universe that would reincarnate every three thousand years. Regardless of what level of cultivation she had, she still could not break free from the cycle of reincarnation.

People said she was immortal, but in reality, she was trapped in a cycle of reincarnation. Every time she reincarnated, she had to start over at the very beginning again.

Hua Wu Ai paused for a moment before saying, “When you come to the River Wangchuan and have proved yourself to be a person with non-existing fate, I shall pledge my allegiance and... help you become king!”

The other sky-prides did not react when they heard that.

That was because they were all in the dark when it came to Chu Kuangren and Hua Wu Ai’s conversation. None of them understood a thing.

Besides, none of them knew of Hua Wu Ai’s true identity. They only knew her as the Equinox Tribe’s Maiden Sage.

As for the great ones, especially those from the Underworld, everyone who heard it was immediately taken aback and frightened.

None of the sky-prides, Chu Kuangren included, understood the weight and meaning behind Hua Wu Ai’s words.

However, how could the great ones from the Underworld not understand her?

She was the first Equinox Flower in the universe. One could only imagine the things she could do in her prime.

Even if she was only a True Immortal now, she resided in the Underworld’s River Wangchuan, where even Arch Gilded Immortals and Embodiers would think twice before going.

If Chu Kuangren were to gain her support, it would undoubtedly secure his chances of becoming the Divine Underworld Daoist!

“What has Chu Kuangren done that Hua Wu Ai would make him such an offer?!”

“Is it because he has the same physique as the Divine Underworld Daoist?”

“Damn it. If Chu Kuangren becomes stronger, he will surely become the next Divine Underworld Daoist. And with Hua Wu Ai’s support, it’s even more likely for him to succeed.”

“This is bad. We must do something about this now.”

The great ones of the Underworld were engaged in a heated discussion.

“Well, I’ll remember your promise. But that said, even without your support, I’ll become the King of the Underworld!” Chu Kuangren said proudly and with utmost confidence as he stood with his hands behind his back.

“I shall wait for that day to come then,” Hua Wu Ai replied with a grin.

At that very instant, the Equinox flowers on the ground paled in comparison to her beauty.

However, that smile went away as fast as it appeared, and Hua Wu Ai’s expression reverted to its usual emotionless.

Right after, a Yin qi vortex appeared before her. She stepped into it and disappeared on the spot, along with the Equinox flowers on the ground.

Only one flower remained, which flew before Chu Kuangren. He grabbed it and kept it inside his Enchanted Sleeve.

Soon, a figure flew out from the Heavenly Dao Spire.

It was Lan Yu.

“The Great Ape Forefather on the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor is an incredibly terrifying being. I can’t even take a single attack from him.” Lan Yu shook her head and said.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. “The Great Ape Forefather is not an ordinary opponent, so the fact that you made it that far is already an impressive feat.”

Some of the top-tier Prodigies should be around that level too.

“Alright. It’s time I take back the treasure that’s rightfully mine!”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Heavenly Dao Spire with a cold expression.

Everyone immediately became excited.

“Is he finally going to enter the spire?!”

“How exciting. Now that the real Chu Kuangren has arrived, will he succeed and obtain the Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune?”

“The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s consciousness has gathered the power from all four Heavenly Dao Spires to stop Chu Kuangren. Regardless of whether Chu Kuangren can overcome that challenge or not, it’s still a shame we can’t witness the battle firsthand.”

Some were excited, while some felt sorry for him.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren took a deep breath and released the full power of his aura!

At that instant, the heavens and earth paled in comparison as the surroundings rumbled!!

As if a supreme Immortal King had appeared, Chu Kuangren stepped forth and entered the Heavenly Dao Spire!

A familiar view appeared before him again.

On the first floor, it was the same young swordsman.

However, he was defeated just from Chu Kuangren's aura!

Chu Kuangren did not even bother to stop. He was merciless and brutal with his attacks. No matter what opponent he faced, they were all blown up with a single move. Chu Kuangren was heading toward the final floor faster than before!

Outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, everyone could only see the Heavenly Dao Spire trembling violently after Chu Kuangren entered. It was as if a terrifying being had entered the spire, with continuous loud noises sounding non-stop from within. Everyone gulped, feeling as if the Heavenly Dao Spire would crumble at any moment.

"Damn. He really is a freaking monster!"

Chapter 1378: Battling the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor Once Again, the Heavenly Dao Spire Cracks Open

The Heavenly Dao Spire started rumbling moments after Chu Kuangren entered as if an unstoppable beast had been released inside!

Every sky-pride gasped, their faces filled with shock.

The great ones observing from space also saw Chu Kuangren enter the spire, and their eyelids immediately twitched when the spire started rumbling violently.

"How powerful has he gotten?"

"The True Immortal Realm is divided into nine grades. His current cultivation level should be around the Second or Third Grade... But take a look at his combat strength. It has far surpassed what a Third-grade True Immortal should have."

"I can see that. Why do you think he's known as a monster?"

Everyone sighed.

Meanwhile, inside the Heavenly Dao Spire, Chu Kuangren was unstoppable in his tracks as he rapidly climbed his way up to the final floor.

He was brushing past every floor with such speed that none of the spire guardians could stop him.

Since he had already passed through those floors earlier, he did not receive any rewards during the second attempt. Even so, that did not bother Chu Kuangren.

His target now was the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor on the final floor!

Boom!

Chu Kuangren unleashed his full raw physical strength, blowing up the Green-Eyed Bull Demon on the nine hundred and ninetieth floor with a single punch. That attack sent shockwaves throughout the Heavenly Dao Spire, causing it to tremble terrifyingly. It felt like the spire was going to collapse at any time.

At that point, his raw physical strength had surpassed that of the Green-Eyed Bull Demon!

He continued climbing up the spire, never once stopping along the way!

Boom! Boom! Boom!

The Heavenly Dao Spire rumbled continuously as loud explosions erupted inside.

The subspecies yokai, Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique host, the eight-bloodline awakened Kylin — none of them could even stop him!

On the final floor, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor opened his eyes. They lit up with a chilling glint. “That person has returned again, and this time, it’s the real him!”

On the nine hundred and ninety-eighth floor, Chu Kuangren faced off with the Ape Forefather again.

Noticing that it was the real Chu Kuangren who came this time, the Ape Forefather laughed. “So, the real you has finally come and challenged this spire, huh? What a spectacular aura you have. I could already sense it from up here.”

“Honorable Ape Forefather, I’m going to beat the sh*t out of that *sshole on the next floor above you, so I’m afraid our battle will have to be a quick one,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

He might be the only one in the universe with the guts to call the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor an *sshole.

“Ha! That’s what I’m thinking about too!”

The Ape Forefather laughed while holding his golden staff. “With that said, I’m still a spire guardian, so you’ll have to go through me.”

“I understand.”

Chu Kuangren nodded gently, and a bronze halberd appeared in his hand!

“Come, show me how powerful you truly are!”

The Ape Forefather held his golden staff tightly and unleashed the full power of his Immortal Consciousness form. His terrifying battle intent rose into the air and spread in all directions!

He attacked with his ultimate technique straight away!

Strengthened by his Battle Secret Technique, countless Daoist patterns filled the void as he landed a devastating blow with his staff. That was the Battle Secret Technique’s final form, Empyrean Smash!

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren retaliated with the same Battle Secret Technique!

Armed with the Great Wasteland Halberd, he unleashed the same Empyrean Smash technique!

Boom!

The moment the halberd and staff collided, sparks exploded into the air, filling the surroundings with countless Daoist patterns!

The space immediately collapsed under the might of the Daoist patterns, Immortal's Core, and yokai qi! Meanwhile, the Ape Forefather's body started cracking, and his Immortal Consciousness form began to disappear.

"What a guy! To think you have honed my Battle Secret Technique to this extent in such a short time. This is truly unbelievable!" the Ape Forefather said, surprised that one attack had defeated his Immortal Consciousness manifestation.

A terrifying grin appeared on his face. "Go, you can now go and beat the living sh*t out of that g*ddamn nuisance of an Immortal Emperor for me!"

"I shall do as you wish!"

...

On the final floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was sitting cross-legged on his throne. His body radiated with Immortal Sparks and purple starlight, and he emanated a high and mighty aura, as expected from the one known as an Immortal Emperor.

He had also sensed the terrifying energy fluctuations coming from the floors below.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor knew that the real Chu Kuangren, who was several times stronger than his clone, was coming for him.

Boom! Boom!

At that moment, the void around the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor started shaking madly.

As a golden flight of stairs appeared, a person with long black hair and wearing white robes walked into the room while shrouded in endless Immortal Sparks. His otherworldly demeanor and presence were on par with, or if not stronger than, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

If the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was a dignified noble, Chu Kuangren would be a transcendental being that was above everyone and everything else!

"We meet again!" said Chu Kuangren calmly. There was not a single hint of resentment in his tone.

In fact, he did not resent the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

As one of the Immortal Hall's Six Royals, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor naturally stood on the Immortal Hall's side and against Chu Kuangren, the Human Emperor's successor.

Chu Kuangren did not resent the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor. However, seeing that the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was in his way, the only outcome of it would be his destruction!

"Indeed. Now, how powerful is your true self compared to your clone, I wonder?"

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor slowly stood up and hovered in the air.

Purple starlight merged with Daoist patterns circled him, adding a sense of nobility and magnificence to his presence.

“You are most welcome to find that out yourself!” Chu Kuangren said indifferently. Already armed with his Great Wasteland Halberd, his gaze narrowed before he released a burst of battle intent into the surroundings!

“What a shame. If only you were a cultivator from the Immortal Hall!” The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor still could not help but lament that fact.

Then, he stepped forward with a purple Immortal Sword already in his grasp.

As soon as he slashed downward with his sword, huge amounts of starlight shot out toward Chu Kuangren in waves!

“Great Wasteland Halberd, Planetary Annihilation!”

Chu Kuangren attacked with his halberd. His demonic qi surged, and the image of planets erupting manifested within the attack.

When both sword and halberd collided, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was pushed back dozens of meters.

“Your true self’s power is extraordinary!”

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said with a grim expression. However, his aura steadily increased after that, and the starlight around him became denser as if it was going to solidify.

“Oh, using the power of your four Immortal Consciousnesses already?” Chu Kuangren sneered.

His grip on the Great Wasteland Halberd tightened as Chi You’s Demonic Patterns appeared on his face, activating the Battle Secret Technique.

“This time, I shall let the high and mighty Immortal Emperor taste what it’s like to fall!”

Chu Kuangren stepped forth while swinging his Great Wasteland Halberd in the air with domineering poise!

Every swing made it feel like the very world would split apart. Even the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor sensed a looming pressure from Chu Kuangren’s power.

“Holy Violet Sword Art!”

A sword ray intertwined and radiated in the void, carrying the presence of celestial energy within it.

The Holy Violet Planet was akin to the leader of all planets, and as the ruler of the Holy Violet Emperor Planet, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor could naturally channel its respective celestial energy. Furthermore, the celestial energy he could channel from the Holy Violet Planet was more powerful than anyone else could!

Boom! Boom!

The halberd and sword continued to clash, and every collision rumbled the surrounding space.

The Heavenly Dao Spire was experiencing an unprecedented tremor due to the sheer might of that battle.

Boom!

Following an ear-shattering explosion from the impact of the collision between two energies, a crack appeared on the Heavenly Dao Spire's nine hundred and ninety-ninth floor!

Outside the Heavenly Dao Spire, the sky-prides were shocked when they felt the Heavenly Dao Spire's rumbling even from afar.

Ever since Chu Kuangren entered, the Heavenly Dao Spire had not stopped rumbling. It gave everyone a feeling that it was going to topple at any second.

Soon, a great explosion sounded from the Heavenly Dao Spire's final floor.

Everyone knew then that Chu Kuangren was on the final floor.

"What incredible speed!"

"How long has it been since he entered? He's already reached the final floor! This guy is just too horrifying!"

"It looks like he didn't even use his full strength when battling Qin Fengyun and the others earlier!"

"What a monster!"

While everyone was still in shock, the final floor of the Heavenly Dao Spire, which was created by the Holy Violet Planet's Heavenly Dao, was cracked open!

Chapter 1379: Blasting the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor Into Nothing, They Will Still Surrender Beneath My Feet in the End

When the Heavenly Dao Spire cracked open, everyone gasped.

After all, the Heavenly Dao Spire was a manifestation of the Holy Violet Planet's Heavenly Dao energy, which made it indestructible.

Countless sky-prides had entered the spire, seeking to obtain the treasures within. However, no matter how intense they fought, the spire had never been cracked open!

However, there was a crack this time!

"The final Opportunity of Fortune from the other three Heavenly Dao Spires has been taken away, yet I've never heard of the Heavenly Dao Spire cracking open before!"

"This is just too terrifying!"

"Look, that crack is growing as we speak!"

On the final floor of the spire, a crack was growing and spreading further. Faint horrifying bursts of energy were seeping out from within, frightening many sky-prides.

At that moment, the Heavenly Dao Spire started to shine brightly, and a huge number of Daoist patterns appeared to stop the crack from expanding.

The Heavenly Dao Spire had been strengthened, but that crack was still there.

Everyone mobilized their Immortal Consciousness toward that crack in the spire's final floor, trying to peek inside.

From the gap between the overlapping layers and structures of the Heavenly Dao Spire, they could vaguely see two figures engaged in a fierce battle.

"It's Chu Kuangren and the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor!"

"Is that how they've been battling all this time? This is simply unbelievable. No wonder they can damage even the Heavenly Dao Spire!"

The scene stunned everyone.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren and the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's battle continued.

Having gathered the power of his four Immortal Consciousnesses, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was undoubtedly powerful. However, the opponent he was facing now was none other than the real Chu Kuangren and not his clone!

On top of that, both the Chi You's Demonic Patterns and the Battle Secret Technique strengthened Chu Kuangren's power.

By then, the Hundred Scholar Assemblage Diagram, Golden Rule Order, and Scholarly Snowpeak Heart — the three great Hundred Academy Conjurations had also appeared.

There was a towering reddish-golden ancient tree overflowing with Yin Yang energy as well!

As Chu Kuangren unleashed a variety of attacks, divine abilities, and cultivation techniques in quick succession, colorful bursts of energy fluctuations erupted. Those devastating attacks could be mistaken as an Immortal King attacking at full strength!

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Nine Heaven Cry!"

Chu Kuangren attacked by swinging his halberd at the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, who held his sword up to block that attack!

Suddenly, a loud boom sounded!

As the shockwaves spread everywhere, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was brutally blasted backward.

Not even giving his opponent time to recover, Chu Kuangren immediately dashed before the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, who was sent flying backward. He lifted his halberd again. "Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Great Wasteland Subjugation!"

Another halberd attack was released!

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was blasted into the ground, and his Immortal Consciousness's form was starting to dissipate.

"Oh, the great Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, is that all you've got?"

Chu Kuangren came up to him once more. This time, he channeled all of his raw physical strength with the Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, launching a barrage of attacks with unprecedented power.

Every blow he dealt seemed to contain the power to destroy the planet itself.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor soon fell to a disadvantage and was overwhelmed by the immense power. He could barely hold on at that point.

Boom!

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was sent flying again. His hair was everywhere, and he looked like a mess.

Many who witnessed the scene were secretly shocked.

Although it was the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's Immortal Consciousness manifestation, he was still known as one of the most powerful beings in the universe. Yet, he was now reduced to such a sorry state. It was truly an unbelievable sight.

"Chu Kuangren, you have finally ignited my rage!"

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's expression was horribly grim.

The Daoist patterns on his body glimmered, and an endless purple light rose into the sky, followed by an incredible energy eruption. He had directly summoned the whole planet's spiritual qi outside the Heavenly Dao Spire!

A familiar scene happened again outside the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Purple lights glimmered all over the planet as countless Daoist patterns lit up in the void.

It was the restriction left behind by the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor!

Countless spiritual qi flowed toward the Heavenly Dao Spire and entered the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's body, allowing his aura to skyrocket!

"I'm the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, the ruler of the Holy Violet Planet!"

"Even if I'm only in the form of a remnant Immortal Consciousness, I'm still here on the Holy Violet Planet. I can use it to strengthen myself!"

"Chu Kuangren, no matter how powerful you are, you're still no match for me!" the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor said coldly.

Judging by his terrifying aura, he was dozens of times more powerful than before!

Despite that, Chu Kuangren did not panic at all. Instead, he replied indifferently, "So what if you're strengthened by the Holy Violet Planet? You're still a mere Immortal Consciousness-taken form. How powerful can you possibly become?"

"Powerful enough to defeat you!"

"Oh, is that so?"

Divine light suddenly burst out from Chu Kuangren's body!

Then, nine golden strands of dragon qi erupted and circled him, filling the surroundings with clear, domineering draconic roars and a dignified aura.

The True Emperor Dragons had manifested!

Strengthened by the True Emperor Dragons, Chu Kuangren's aura increased rapidly. "Battle Art, Empyrean Smash!"

He then struck out with his halberd and unleashed the Battle Secret Technique.

Endless fighting intent gathered to form a terrifying halberd ray that was launched toward the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor, and the void collapsed in its trail.

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor yelled, "Holy Violet Nova Explosion!"

He channeled his Immortal's Core energy and celestial energy, turning it into a gigantic purple planet that came crashing down from the sky!

With that, the halberd collided with the planet!

Amidst the endless Immortal Sparks, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was sent flying hundreds of meters away!

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren did not even move an inch!

"Holy Violet Universal Flare!"

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor launched an ultimate technique again.

This time, endless purple starlight condensed into a dazzling planet covered with countless Daoist patterns and runes.

The planet was dazzling so brightly that it could seemingly reach every corner of the universe like it was the ruler of all celestial bodies!

That attack was unimaginably frightening!

It was the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor's ultimate technique, an Embodier Realm technique!

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren did not move in the face of that attack. The nine dragons behind him roared, holding their stance with a noble and dignified aura!

He gently raised his hand, putting away the Great Wasteland Halberd!

Several rays of light then emerged from his body. Those were seven of the Nine Province Cauldrons!

Chu Kuangren was using his True Emperor Dragons to control the Humanity Fortune Treasure!

As if they were the nine heavens themselves, the Nine Province Cauldrons, brimming with endless Immortal Sparks, came crashing down.

At that, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor mobilized his planet to attack.

An earth-shattering explosion later, the Heavenly Dao Spire showed signs of cracking again.

Everyone could not even take their eyes off that battle because none of them wished to miss the final outcome.

From the intense clash between the energies, an explosion suddenly erupted on the planet. However, the Nine Province Cauldrons continued to press downward!

After being hit, the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor was sent flying backward with countless sparks escaping from his body.

His body was starting to break apart, and his Immortal Consciousness form was on the brink of disappearing!

Chu Kuangren stood in the air and looked at the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor coldly. Then, he spoke in an emotionless tone. “Even an Immortal Emperor can’t stop me from getting what I want.”

He raised his hand to channel his Immortal’s Core energy before attacking with the Nine Province Cauldrons again!

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Immortal Consciousness form immediately blew up!

“Young cultivator of the future, your battle with the Immortal Hall has only just begun, and your journey to becoming the Human Emperor is bound to end before you can finish!”

The Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s voice reverberated in the air.

However, Chu Kuangren ignored him.

“Immortal Hall, huh? One day, even the Immortal Hall shall surrender beneath my feet!” he said indifferently. With that statement, he was obviously declaring war against the Immortal Hall with that statement.

Many great ones from the Immortal Hall immediately felt their eyelids twitch.

“Chu Kuangren has truly gone mad.”

“I can’t believe the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor’s Immortal Consciousness form couldn’t stop him.”

“Chu Kuangren will surely become even more powerful after receiving the Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune. How can anyone among the younger generation even go against him?!”

Chapter 1380: Cosmic Starlight, the Universe Formation Diagram, Celestial Demon Shenchu

Inside the Heavenly Dao Spire, a golden ball of light appeared before Chu Kuangren after he defeated the Holy Violet Immortal Emperor.

“The Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune...”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up with excitement.

Everyone else who saw that scene was also holding their breaths, itching to find out what was the final Opportunity of Fortune of the East Heavenly Dao Spire.

Amidst the golden light and countless intertwining Daoist patterns, an ancient picture scroll slowly opened.

Initially, a depiction of chaos was displayed within it.

It was total nothingness, but then, a light flickered. It was the first ever celestial body, the sun.

Following that, increasingly more celestial bodies appeared, forming star systems, galaxies, and eventually the universe itself!

The whole process was incredibly profound and mysterious.

For a moment, Chu Kuangren felt a faint reaction coming from his Pocket Universe.

“This is... the formation of the universe itself!”

Chu Kuangren was a little surprised.

Apparently, the Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune would differ according to the person receiving it. Did it think the display of the universe’s formation would be useful to Chu Kuangren?

Whoosh...

The universe within the ancient picture scroll suddenly dispersed into countless colorful sparks of cosmic starlight, which entered Chu Kuangren’s body.

The sparks of cosmic starlight directly entered the part of Chu Kuangren that represented his Pocket Universe.

Chu Kuangren mobilized his thoughts, and his consciousness arrived at his Pocket Universe.

Upon the entry of the cosmic starlight, it sped up the formation of the universe inside his Pocket Universe.

Huge galaxies and star systems appeared one after another.

The Chaos Celestial Demon, who was busy creating worlds, also noticed it.

“There’s another energy that’s fueling the formation of stars and galaxies!”

A look of astonishment appeared on the Chaos Celestial Demon’s flawless face.

Following that, she ventured forth, crossing the endless chaos to arrive at where the cosmic starlight was.

Chu Kuangren was observing it all, but he did not reveal himself.

The Chaos Celestial Demon looked at the cosmic starlight curiously before reaching out and grabbing it.

At that very instant, Chu Kuangren noticed that the cosmic starlight, which came from an outside universe, was assimilated as part of this Pocket Universe’s energy.

The starlight then transformed into an ancient picture scroll.

Endless starlight flowed within the ancient picture scroll, surging with seemingly limitless energy. That energy far surpassed almost every treasure Chu Kuangren had come across.

Even Innate Supreme Source Treasures like the Black Annihilation Lotus and the Godkiller Spear paled in comparison to the ancient picture scroll.

Only the Tome of Physiques and Timespace Treasure were on par with it. In that case, the picture scroll is the same as a Transcendent-tier reward!

Chu Kuangren was shocked as he could not believe the Heavenly Dao Spire had given him something like that.

‘Wait a minute. The Heavenly Dao Spire did not do this.’

It did not take Chu Kuangren long to realize that the Heavenly Dao Spire could not provide him with such a priceless Opportunity of Fortune.

The only thing given by the spire was the cosmic starlight, which contained the power of the universe’s creation. Upon entering his Pocket Universe, that power was immediately assimilated into the existing universe’s energy, hence forming the picture scroll.

“Since it contains the Universe Formation Dao, this treasure shall be named the Universe Formation Diagram!” Chu Kuangren murmured.

The moment that thought came to him, the Chaos Celestial Demon seemingly sensed something. She looked at the picture scroll before her with great delight. “The Universe Formation Diagram! What a wonderful treasure! With this item, I can create worlds and galaxies at a much faster speed now.”

With the endless chaos filling the universe, creating universes would be a daunting task even for a powerful Chaos Celestial Demon.

However, now that she possessed the help of the Universe Formation Diagram, she could do her work faster.

Next, the Chaos Celestial Demon refined that Universe Formation Diagram.

Chu Kuangren looked at the Chaos Celestial Demon, who created worlds and galaxies without rest. Another thought then appeared in his mind. “Your name shall be... Shenchu!”

Similar to earlier, the Chaos Celestial Demon raised her head and looked above.

“Shenchu... My name is Shenchu!”

“I am the first Chaos Celestial Demon in the universe, the first living being to ever exist!”

“From this moment onward, Shenchu shall be my name!”

Chu Kuangren nodded with satisfaction. After giving a name to the Chaos Celestial Demon, his consciousness returned to his body.

Unbeknownst to Chu Kuangren, the Heavenly Dao Spire had already disappeared after rewarding him with the bundle of cosmic starlight.

He had been hovering in mid-air the entire time, with countless sky-prides looking at him curiously from below.

“Chu Kuangren has obtained the final Opportunity of Fortune, right? However, what did he just receive?”

“Beats me. I didn’t see any changes in him either.”

“That cosmic starlight seems to contain a profound Universe Formation Dao. He must’ve obtained an incredible Opportunity of Fortune.”

“As for what it does, I suppose Chu Kuangren will be the only one who knows.”

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes. He was pretty impressed by the Heavenly Dao Spire’s final Opportunity of Fortune.

Seeing that the cosmic starlight had turned into a Universe Formation Diagram inside him, that Opportunity of Fortune was now an Innate Source Supreme Treasure even more profound than the likes of his Godkiller Spear and Black Annihilation Lotus.

Although Shenchu ended up receiving it, she had been creating worlds and galaxies on his orders anyway. Hence, that supreme treasure was still considered his.

He could feel the change within him. The faster Shenchu created galaxies and worlds, the greater his Mini Universe power became.

The Mini Universe power was a powerful trump card in his possession.

In certain conditions, it could surpass the power of an Innate Source Supreme Treasure because its power was not subjected to the Great Universal Dao’s constraints. It was a power that transcended the laws of this universe!

“Alright. Now, I’ll have to refine the other items I obtained from the spire.”

He had obtained many rewards from challenging the spire.

Besides the most priceless cosmic starlight, Chu Kuangren also obtained Dao Proclamation Seals, a variety of Immortal Herbs, Immortal Pills, and more.

If he properly refined all of those items, his cultivation level would surely increase.

Besides him, Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and the others also obtained many items from their rewards, so they also needed a closed-door meditation session to refine all those items.

After that, Chu Kuangren, Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and the others found a mountain range and started their closed-door meditation.

During this time, news of Chu Kuangren’s achievements soon spread far and wide.

Many sky-prides were shocked and stunned upon learning the news.

Somewhere on a mountain top, Shi Tianxuan immediately spat out a mouthful of blood.

He was holding a jade scroll containing all sorts of news from the Demonic Dao sky-prides.

One of them was news about Chu Kuangren's clone who challenged the Heavenly Dao Spire.

Only then did he realize he was defeated by a clone of Chu Kuangren!

He was so enraged that he immediately spat out another mouthful of blood!

'If his clone can defeat me, how powerful is the real Chu Kuangren?'

Shi Tianxuan could not believe it.

"Is the difference in strength between us really that big?!"

He felt as if everything he had done so far was worth nothing.

No matter how hard he trained and fought, the gap between Chu Kuangren and him would only keep increasing!

"No, that's impossible!"

"Nothing good lasts forever, and all good things must come to an end!"

"Chu Kuangren can't stay invincible forever! The most important thing I must do now is to get stronger and wait for the opportune moment!"

Shi Tianxuan took a deep breath.

He raised his hand and looked into the sky. "It looks like my plans to build the Supreme Demon Kingdom will have to be pushed forward!"

He initially planned to create the Supreme Demon Kingdom after he became an Arch Gilded Immortal. However, it now seemed that he would have to make early preparations for that.

"Once the trials in the Interstellar Arena are over, I shall return to the Immortal World and start building the Demon Kingdom. Once it's done, I shall use the Demon Kingdom's power to complete my supreme Demon Dao!"
