Chapter 1431: The Last Two of The Nine Province Cauldrons, An Old Riddler, The Luo Clan Is Facing A Catastrophe

Yu Zhi slowly walked out of the Immortal Sparks. She had porcelain skin, and her golden jade-like Immortal body was covered with dazzling and mysterious Daoist patterns.

However, another miraculous scene emerged in the next instance.

A white lotus rose from under her feet. It had twelve petals, and each petal was densely covered with Daoist patterns containing a vast might.

Upon seeing the white lotus, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. "This white lotus is one of the Four Innate Lotuses, the White Purification Lotus!"

Each of the Four Innate Lotuses was an Innate Source Supreme Treasure.

Chu Kuangren possessed the Black Annihilation Lotus while Yu Zhi possessed the White Purification Lotus!

"I didn't expect the West Ruler Matriarch to leave such a treasure behind. Interesting," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He looked at the white lotus with flickering eyes and wondered if he should grab it.

He was not very close with Yu Zhi, so he would not feel guilty for grabbing her treasure.

However, he eventually gave up the idea after pondering it for a while.

Although the White Purification Lotus was good, his Black Annihilation Lotus was not bad either. As such, there was no need for him to become enemies with Yu Zhi for it. Perhaps, like Ye Zhu and others, she would be his support in the future.

Whether it was the Void Egg or the Immortal Hall, he required allies to deal with those existences.

"It looks like she has succeeded."

The Nine Heavens Deity glanced at Yu Zhi and smiled.

After that, Chu Kuangren and Qing Feng walked into the palace. As soon as they entered the palace, Chu Kuangren noticed two bronze cauldrons in front of the statue.

Those cauldrons also seemed to have sensed him, and they were the main reason that attracted him here.

"The last two of the Nine Province Cauldrons!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. He had seven of the Nine Province Cauldrons, and the ones before him now happened to be the last two.

As if sensing Chu Kuangren's arrival, the two of the Nine Province Cauldrons trembled before turning into two streams of light and entering his body.

The Nine Heavens Deity was surprised. "Are you the Human Emperor?!"

"Yes!"

Chu Kuangren nodded.

"Interesting. I can't believe that you possess the Human Emperor's fate too." The Nine Heavens Deity lamented.

"There's more than that..." Qing Feng murmured at the side and looked at Chu Kuangren, with runes flashing in her lapis lazuli-like eyes.

She was observing Chu Kuangren with her Azure Phoenix's Eye.

She could see nine golden-yellow dragon qis circulating Chu Kuangren's body. As the dragon qis soared into the sky, Chu Kuangren looked as noble as a peerless grand emperor!

It was the Human Emperor's fate!

Under the Human Emperor's fate, she noticed something more advanced. It was a non-existent destiny.

She knew very well that although Chu Kuangren had inherited the Human Emperor's fate, he was still one with a non-existent destiny — a non-existent destiny that could not be seen without entering the long river of fate!

"Brother Chu!"

At that moment, a surprised voice sounded.

Yu Zhi approached Chu Kuangren with overwhelming joy in her eyes.

Chu Kuangren was slightly taken aback.

Since when was he so close to Yu Zhi?

She was displaying a great deal of enthusiasm and excitement to him.

"Miss Yu Zhi, long time no see."

Chu Kuangren smiled faintly.

"Without you, I couldn't have successfully refined the Jade Nectar and got the white lotus to recognize me as its master. Thank you so much."

Yu Zhi may have been busy refining the Jade Nectar, but she could still sense the incidents happening in the outside world.

"Don't mention it."

Soon after, Iceworm Ru Xue and Shi Ying entered the palace too.

"Since there are still some Opportunities of Fortune in this palace, I may as well give them to you all," the Nine Heavens Deity said with a smile.

She appreciated Chu Kuangren's help and did not mind giving him a favor as a reward.

"All of you may go ahead and get them," Chu Kuangren said while looking at the Iceworm Ru Xue and Shi Ying.

"Alright."

With that, the two women went forward to look for the Opportunities of Fortune, and the rest of the sky-prides left sadly after looking at each other.

With Chu Kuangren around, they had no chance of getting any of the Opportunities of Fortune.

In the meantime, Chu Kuangren reminisced with Qing Feng and Yu Zhi.

He learned from Qing Feng that after the Immortal World merged, the original Sycamore Mountain was integrated into the jurisdiction of the Phoenix's Nest. As the Godly Phoenix's strange Azure Phoenix, Qing Feng was treated with high respect. On top of her gradually developing Azure Phoenix bloodline, her status in the Phoenix's Nest was no lower and might be even better than all Phoenix Bachelors and Phoenix Maidens.

The Azure Phoenix's Eye could see into the delusions and peep into the long river of fate. To the Phoenix's Nest, every Azure Phoenix was equivalent to a prophet.

"How's Chu Hong doing?"

Qing Feng asked about Chu Hong.

"She's doing very well. She has gotten a lot of Opportunities of Fortune from the Heavenly Dao Spires, and she's now in a closed-door meditation," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

"That's great."

After reminiscing, Shi Ying and Iceworm Ru Xue returned joyfully. One could tell from their faces that they had found themselves huge gains.

"It's good to have you all in this era."

At that moment, the Nine Heavens Deity looked at Chu Kuangren with a sense of relief in her eyes.

Then, her figure gradually dissipated.

"Senior..." Yu Zhi looked at her and took a deep breath. "Thank you, Senior."

"This is your destiny. There's no need to thank me."

The Nine Heavens Deity smiled before looking at Chu Kuangren meaningfully. "Young Junior, you have a great mission to complete. I look forward to seeing you grow."

"Take care, Senior,"

Chu Kuangren bowed at her.

"Perhaps we may meet again."

The Nine Heavens Deity disappeared after leaving an unexplainable statement.

“Do these old antiques like talking in riddles?” Chu Kuangren shook his head and chuckled.

“Well, she said there was a calamity in the ancient Immortal times but refused to say what kind of calamity it was. She said we would know when we get to a certain realm.”

Yu Zhi was also quite helpless.

However, the statement certainly piqued some interest in Chu Kuangren.

A calamity?

He thought of the Void Egg, which Xu Wu said would have a huge impact on the universe. Could that be the calamity that the Nine Heavens Deity mentioned?

Or perhaps, did she mean something else?

Well, it was useless for Chu Kuangren to think too much about it as he would eventually figure it out one day.

Now, he had to improve himself as much as possible.

“I’ve done exploring the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm, and it’s time for me to leave,” said Chu Kuangren.

The women nodded and planned to leave together with Chu Kuangren.

Meanwhile, in the outside world, the Luo clan was facing an unprecedented catastrophe!

“Wang Clan Leader and Lin Clan Leader, do both of you really want to do this?”

The Luo Clan Leader looked at the two Gilded Immortals, whose cultivations were not lower than his, and said with a stern gaze.

“The Feng clan is currently annexing the Long clan, and one day, the rest of the Eight Golden clans will be in trouble. To resist the Feng clan, we, the Wang and Lin clans need to improve our strength as soon as possible. Since the Luo clan is also one of the Eight Golden clans, our strength will definitely increase tremendously if we annex you,” a middle-aged man in golden armor said.

He was the Wang Clan Leader.

“If you want, the Luo clan can ally with you all to fight against the Feng clan,” said the Luo Clan Leader.

“There’s no need. It will be difficult to divide interests if there are too many allies,” the Lin Clan Leader in a blue robe said.

Chapter 1432: Send Him Off Earlier, Get Rid Of In A Few Words

Back at the Luo clan’s premise, the Wang and Lin clans’ invasion put the entire clan into a desperate situation.

The Luo clan was already ranked the last of the Eight Golden clans and could barely handle another clan’s invasion, let alone two together.

It was one of the reasons why the Wang and Lin clans decided to pick on them first.

They were the easiest target out of the eight.

Swoosh!

Further away, a figure flew out from the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm's spatial crack — it was Luo Yan.

She returned home to see armies from both Wang and Lin clans marching closer to their gates, surrounding them from every direction.

Shocked, she asked, "What is going on?"

"Luo Yan?! You're back! Where's Luo Yifeng and the others?"

The Luo Clan Leader felt a little conflicted about her return because of the untimely invasion happening. She might have to face a bitter fate together with all of them.

"It's a long story. Father, what's going on?"

The expression on Luo Yan's face shifted multiple times between anxiety and worry when she saw the armies marching closer.

Even if she missed the details, her guts told her that the Luo clan was facing a never before seen crisis, and things were not looking good.

"Sigh..."

The Luo Clan Leader sighed and briefly informed his daughter what happened.

The expression on Luo Yan's face turned grim when she finally learned what happened.

The Luo clan was being forced against their will again.

Previously, the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist forced Luo Yan to become his slave, but she refused, hence a group of disciples died because of it.

Now, the Wang and Lin clans wanted the Luo clan to surrender, but they refused, hence the impending war.

Both Luo Yang and her clan were so weak that they could not, or had no right to, control their own fate.

The thought made her angry and dissatisfied.

"Let's cut the reunion short. Luo Clan Leader, are you going to surrender and let us set up the restriction seals, or die trying to uphold your dignity? Speak your choice!"

The Wang Clan Leader stood in the sky with a golden armor that shone brightly across the field, complementing his already dominating aura.

Behind him was the army from both clans, all flashing a contemptuous grin at their opponent.

People from the Luo clan were thick with grief and anger.

"Let you plan the restriction seals and enslave us? Dream on!"

“Yeah! We will never surrender!”

“Even if it costs us our lives!”

The Luo clan’s disciples furiously retorted at their enemies.

“It seems like we must do this the hard way,” the Wang Clan Leader grunted coldly.

As his hand rose into the air, his domineering Immortal’s Core energy gushed and spread across the land.

The army behind him was ready for war. All they were waiting for was an order from their leader, and they would charge into the enemy’s front line.

“Lin clan, on my mark!” The Lin Clan Leader was also ready to lead the siege.

The faces of the Luo Clan Leader and his people were grim as they worried they might not last long in the battle.

Amidst the tense situation, a figure walked out from the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm’s spatial crack, carrying a boundless and powerful aura that swept across the land.

Everyone who sensed the rampant energy presence turned their attention to the spatial crack.

A transcendental figure in white robes walked out from the crack with a few beautiful female cultivators behind him.

“Woah! What a party!” Chu Kuangren chuckled when he saw the armies from three different clans ready to fight.

He had a quick glance at the Luo clan’s situation and swiftly got a general idea of the situation.

“Chu Kuangren!”

The Wang Clan Leader’s expression changed when he saw Chu Kuangren, and so did the Lin Clan Leader’s expression.

However, the Lin Clan Leader quickly put his heavy expression away and replaced it with a casual smile. He feigned a friendly and attentive tone as he said, “I didn’t know Master Chu was inside the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm as well. What a surprise. Has Master Chu secured any spoils?”

Him calling Chu Kuangren ‘Master’ was a sign that he was willing to show respect, which shocked the people of the Lin Clan Leader.

“Not bad,” Chu Kuangren said.

Collecting the Nine Province Cauldrons alone was worth the trip.

“Oh, I see. Congratulations, Master Chu. The Wang clan and us are still in the middle of our affair. Please be safe on your way out.”

“Who said I am leaving?” Chu Kuangren said.

His words sank both the Lin and Wang Clan Leaders’ hearts.

“What do you mean by that, Master Chu?”

“My friends and I have found a number of items inside, and we need a place to refine them. The Luo clan’s premise seems to be a good place as it’s quiet and peaceful. I’m planning to stay here for a few days.”

His words left the two Clan Leaders baffled.

“So you’re saying you are protecting the Luo clan? How dare a True Immortal like you oppose us?”

A young sky-pride from the Wang clan suddenly spoke out loudly.

The moment his words traveled in the air, the Wang Clan Leader’s expression shifted.

“Oh...”

Chu Kuangren glanced at the young sky-pride with a hint of violet gleaming across his eyes.

Then, the young sky-pride started to shake before collapsing on the ground without any signs of life.

“Soul attack!” the Wang Clan Leader cried out in shock. His gaze at Chu Kuangren showed more fear than before. “Master Chu, you’re being ruthless!”

“That’s a hot-headed young man who has poor intellect. He’s going to die soon given that attitude. I’m just sending him to his maker sooner.

“Or do the two of you want to try my power, the power of a ‘True Immortal’?” Chu Kuangren said calmly as he looked at the two Clan Leaders.

“You...”

The hot-tempered Wang Clan Leader tried to argue but was stopped by the Lin Clan Leader.

“Don’t! Have you forgotten about the Dragon clan?”

The name was like a pail of cold water splashing onto the Wang Clan Leader’s face, extinguishing his impulsive anger. It even made him quiver on the spot.

The Dragon clan...

He would never forget what happened to them.

Despite being the strongest of the Eight Golden clans, the entire Dragon clan was wiped out by Chu Kuangren.

In fact, the Wang Clan Leader was still having a difficult time believing it.

“Master Chu, you and your friends are more than welcome to rest and refine at Lin clan’s premise. Our scenery and environment are ten times better than the Luo clan. What do you say?” The Lin Clan Leader tried to persuade Chu Kuangren with sincerity and the warmest smile.

“I said, I’m resting here at the Luo clan. Did you not hear me?”

“I...”

Lin Clan Leader's expression shifted. "Very well then. Since Master Chu has decided, we won't disturb you. Farewell."

Chu Kuangren had stated clearly that the Luo clan was under his protection, and it made the Lin Clan Leader helpless.

With the man there, even if the Lin and Wang clans teamed up, they would not be able to do anything against the Luo clan.

The tragedy that happened to the Dragon clan left a deep impression in their minds.

Neither of them was stronger than the Dragon clan, so no one dared to oppose Chu Kuangren.

"Retreat," the Lin Clan Leader said.

"Damn it!"

The Wang Clan Leader's face was thick with grievance. However, there was nothing he could do.

Meanwhile, the Luo clan was left stunned.

They thought a great disaster had befallen them, but things took a sharp turn when Chu Kuangren came out and got rid of the two clans with just a few words.

"Is Chu Kuangren that powerful?"

"The Wang and Lin clans had quite a number of Gilded Immortals, but they were deterred by a True Immortal. Unbelievable!"

"Oh my God..."

1

Not a single sword was drawn and not a single drop of blood was shed, yet what happened left everyone in the Luo clan speechless.

Chapter 1433: Iceworm Ru Xue Returns To Great Frost Dragon Mountain, Analyzing Golden Jade Pool Physique

"Thank you, Master Chu, for the help."

Luo Clan Leader came over to Chu Kuangren with utmost gratitude.

Chu Kuangren glanced at Luo Yan and then nodded at the Luo Clan Leader. "I believe you heard what I said, right?"

"Yes, I'll tell my men to prepare the best rooms for you."

The Luo Clan Leader acted swiftly and sent his men off to prepare the best rooms for the clan's savior.

After everything was prepared, the Luo Clan Leader turned to Luo Yan with the question that had been baffling his mind.

"Yan'er, what relationship do you have with Master Chu?"

He noticed the little glance from Chu Kuangren at Luo Yan earlier, and it must have meant something.

“Master Chu saved me once when I was inside the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm,” Luo Yan answered honestly.

“Really? Could it be that Master Chu likes you?” The Luo Clan Leader’s eyes gleamed.

Chu Kuangren was not only a talented cultivator, but he was also the Peerless Prodigy with no match in the younger generation who possessed multiple identities and substantial backgrounds.

The Fengdu Ghost Emperor, Celestial Demon King, Chief of the Hundred Academy, every one of the titles was prestigious enough on its own, but he owned all of it.

He even destroyed the Dragon clan, the leader of the Eight Golden clans, at will.

Therefore, being able to speak to him would definitely greatly benefit the Luo clan.

“I don’t think so.” Luo Yan blushed, and the hopeful gaze in her eyes died off.

She knew her own strength.

Someone as powerful as Chu Kuangren could get whatever woman he wanted, and the current female companions around him were all exquisite beauties themselves.

Moreover, there was also the other top-notch Prodigy, Yu Zhi, the Jade Pool Maiden Sage.

“I believe what he wants isn’t something this shallow,” she murmured to herself.

She made an important decision in her mind.

On the other hand, the Luo Clan Leader pondered seriously, seemingly making some sort of decision as well.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren started his cultivation in the room the Luo clan prepared for him.

He planned to refine the two Nine Province Cauldrons he got from the Arcane Deity Sect.

It should be no problem for his level of skill.

“The Nine Province Cauldron is the supreme treasure of the human race, and now that I have collected them all, the combined power will be able to match a Source Supreme Treasure. This trip is worthwhile after all,” Chu Kuangren said to himself.

The combined Nine Province Cauldron possessed immeasurable power, and its attack capabilities easily surpassed the Great Wasteland Halberd.

Aside from the Timespace Treasure, which was a gacha prize, the cauldrons were second only to the Black Annihilation Lotus.

Maybe the complete Fuxi’s Guqin or the nine Samsara Emperor Seals could rival it.

Now, the cauldrons would be Chu Kuangren’s strongest attack method other than the Black Annihilation Lotus. Even the Descendant Self was lackluster.

However, the Descendant Self had a lot of space for growth.

“As for this Celestial Demon Heart...”

Chu Kuangren held a beating heart in his hand that had powerful Celestial Demon energy overflowing from it.

It was the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist’s Celestial Demon Heart.

For common cultivators, refining it would allow them to master the Celestial Demon’s energy with a certain amount of success rate, but Chu Kuangren had no use for the heart.

The reason why he kept the heart was that it possessed an innate chaos qi, and it was a key to upgrading the Pseudo Celestial Demon Physique to the Innate Celestial Demon Physique.

“If Jue Wushen has this, he might be able to master the real Celestial Demon Physique,” Chu Kuangren murmured.

Jue Wushen had become his follower, and he would be more than happy to see the man grow stronger.

With that thought in mind, he communicated with Jue Wushen and summoned him to the Luo clan.

Then, a series of knocks came from the door.

“Come in.”

It was Yu Zhi, the Jade Pool Maiden Sage.

Her silky hair draped over her shoulder as she walked in with her long legs and fair skin. She was candy to the eye.

She came in with a small jade bottle, and inside the bottle was some golden liquid emanating a mystical Daoist Rhyme.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

He could already guess what the liquid was.

“Brother Chu, I’m here to thank you for your help inside the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm. This is a token of my gratitude.”

Yu Zhi gave the bottle to Chu Kuangren, which contained her blood essence, the blood essence of the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique!

“Miss Yu Zhi, your little token is too much for me to accept. Do you know what this means?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“Of course I do.” Yu Zhi smiled. “Brother Chu practices the Physique Dao that combines and merges all Immortal Physiques. I once heard people say that you gained insights into the Green Leaf Sword Vision by using only a drop of Ye Zhu’s blood essence. That’s why I’m giving you this. There is a high chance that you will master another Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, which is my Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique.”

"If you know, why are you still choosing to give me this?"

Blood essence was not a gift from the shop. It was closely related to one's life and potential. It was precious, to say the least.

A person could only have that much blood essence. One drop less would be one drop gone, it was almost impossible to regain it.

On top of that, the cultivation world had many strange ways to attack others using the blood essence, such as curses.

Yu Zhi giving Chu Kuangren her blood essence without any insurance was risky. If Chu Kuangren had ulterior motives and decided to abuse it, the consequences would be unthinkable.

"As I said, it's to express my gratitude."

Yu Zhi smiled as though the blood essence was nothing important.

"In that case, thank you." Chu Kuangren smiled and accepted the gift wholeheartedly.

As a matter of fact, even if Yu Zhi did not present him with the blood essence now, he would try to get it on his own in the future because he simply could not let the chance of mastering another Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique slip.

Then, maybe Chu Kuangren would ask for more than just the blood essence.

Yu Zhi willingly presenting her blood essence to Chu Kuangren was the best outcome. That way, she also earned Chu Kuangren's friendship.

Now, he truly viewed Yu Zhi as a friend.

After getting the blood essence, Chu Kuangren wanted to start analyzing it in closed-door meditation. However, before that, Iceworm Ru Xue came to him and informed him that she had to go back to Great Frost Dragon Mountain.

"Oh? Great Frost Dragon Mountain? Do your elders know that you've become my follower?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"Yes. This might be why they're summoning me back."

"If they disagree with you being my follower, what would you do?"

"My life is yours. There's no change in that regardless."

"Very well."

Chu Kuangren was happy with her answer. "If they give you a hard time, come tell me, and I will talk to them myself."

His assurance surprised her.

Chu Kuangren at the Great Frost Dragon Mountain? It would definitely turn the place upside down!

Ru Xue was already picturing what would happen.

“I will come back as soon as I’m done there,” Ru Xue said before she left.

After that, Chu Kuangren finally started analyzing the blood essence from Yu Zhi. Being an expert in that, it would not take him long before he mastered the Immortal Physique.

A few days later, dazzling Immortal Sparks shot up into the sky from Chu Kuangren’s chambers.

Daoist chimes could be heard, and golden lotuses were everywhere.

Upon sensing the energy presence, Yu Zhi’s eyes gleamed in surprise and awe.

“It’s real. Brother Chu has analyzed the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique using only my blood essence! What he did has defied the will of heaven!”

Yu Zhi shook her head in astonishment.

Chu Kuangren’s capability defied people’s knowledge of the entire physique system.

Chapter 1434: Golden Jade Immortal Spark, Dragon-phant Fruit, Physique Body Reaching Gilded Immortal

The Immortal Sparks from the Luo clan shed its shimmering brilliance across the land.

All the cultivators of the Luo clan could see it clearly, and they were all in awe.

“It’s Master Chu!”

“What a powerful energy presence! I’m a True Immortal, but I feel like a speck of dust before this energy.”

The Immortal Sparks slowly faded amid people’s astonishment.

Back at Chu Kuangren’s chamber, he finally opened his eyes to feel his newly acquired Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique.

There was a satisfying smile on his face.

Unlike other Immortal Physique, that particular one had no extra divine ability but another extremely powerful, somewhat scary, usage — accelerate the cultivation process.

Cultivators who possessed the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique would cultivate faster than other Prodigies.

A Prodigy level cultivator would require a thousand years to reach Gilded Immortal Realm. However, with the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique, he would only need eight hundred years, which equaled a twenty percent boost in cultivation speed!

On top of that, the cultivated Immortal’s Core was purer and stronger than those cultivated from other Immortal Physique, hence named the Golden Jade Immortal’s Core.

As Chu Kuangren raised his hand, a stream of his Immortal’s Core energy swirled above his palm. That particular stream of energy had golden Immortal Sparks in it. It was a type of light similar to the Gilded Trait.

It was actually something called the Golden Jade Immortal Spark!

“Now that I have analyzed the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique, I’m one foot into the Gilded Immortal Realm already. I believe it’s only a matter of time before I fully break through it.” Chu Kuangren smiled happily.

“The Nine Province Cauldron had been refined, the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique had been analyzed... Great! Everything is progressing well!”

Chu Kuangren happily opened up the fantasy roulette for a gacha roll.

“Congratulations, host! You’ve won a God-tier prize, the Dragon-phant Fruit.”

The Dragon-phant Fruit was a top-tier Immortal Herb. It was said that it could enhance one’s physical body and grant its eater the power of the Dragon-phant.

“My physical body is already close to reaching the Gilded Immortal Realm. If I use this Dragon-phant Fruit, my body could break through it within the day!”

With that, Chu Kuangren took the Dragon-phant Fruit out.

The golden fruit had Daoist patterns on its surface, a surreal dragon’s roar, and an elephant’s trumpet. It felt mystical.

Chu Kuangren finished it in a few bites. It was crunchy, juicy, and slightly sourish-sweet.

At the next moment, a warm stream erupted from his stomach and spread across his entire body. His limbs and bones were filled with energy, tempering every muscle and cell in his body.

Kakroom!

The energy cracked every joint in his body, and each crack sounded like rumbling thunder.

“The energy is so powerful!”

Chu Kuangren could clearly feel his own raw physical power rising rapidly, and the speed shocked him.

His blood, meridians, bones, and even every single cell were being modified by the Dragon-phant energy. It was helping his body to evolve to a higher level.

Other than the bone-cracking noise, the dragon’s roar and elephant’s trumpet could still be heard.

Many other Luo clan disciples also heard the echoing dragon’s roar and elephant’s trumpet. They were scared because the sound made their body shake.

“What is this?!”

“Master Chu has a dragon and elephant as pets?!”

“I can’t believe this.”

“No. The sound feels energetic. Is Master Chu tempering his body?”

“What? If this is the sound of him tempering his body, how powerful is his body exactly?”

Yu Zhi was on her way to Chu Kuangren's chamber to congratulate him on cultivating the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique when she heard the roars and trumpets.

Some thoughts later, she swung her sleeve at his door and released her Immortal's Core energy containing Golden Jade Immortal Sparks to create a barrier around it. The barrier isolated the dragon's roar and the elephant's trumpet, preventing them from going out.

"Luo Clan Leader, Brother Chu is in closed-door mediation. Please do not let people near him."

"I understand."

The Luo Clan Leader nodded and then set up restriction seals around Chu Kuangren's chamber, preventing any intrusion.

Seven days went by, and Chu Kuangren had mostly digested the Dragon-phant Fruit's energy.

His body was covered with a large amount of Gilded Trait Daoist patterns. The Gilded Physical Body Trait made him look as though he was covered in golden paint.

However, Chu Kuangren had yet to achieve the Gilded Immortal Realm for his physical body.

"I'm short of one more push. The remaining Dragon-phant Fruit is not enough for me to continue doing this... the Immortal-Dissolving Poison Source!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes gleamed. Demonic Omnitoxin Technique was channeled to the limit and it was used to refine the Immortal-Dissolving Poison Source in his body.

The Immortal-Dissolving Poison Source, crafted using a Yokai King's poison heart, was from the late Wu Tian, the sky-pride from the Sky Centipede Tribe.

It contained terrifying poisonous traits, so it benefited and complimented his Demonic Omnitoxin Technique.

He had been refining it for some time now, so it was half-consumed already.

Now, using his enhanced body to activate the Demonic Omnitoxin Technique, Chu Kuangren made the last push to fully refine the Immortal-Dissolving Poison Source.

Kakroom!

Dragon's roar and elephant's trumpet shook the sky and trembled the land.

The energy fluctuation from the sound almost blasted Yu Zhi's barrier apart.

"The Dragon-phant's power is so strong. What level has Brother Chu achieved with his physical body? Has he achieved the Gilded Immortal realm for his physical body?" Yu Zhi was surprised by her own speculation.

The Gilded Trait on Chu Kuangren's body had been perfected, and it covered every inch of his body.

On top of that, his Gilded Physical Body Trait was still growing stronger.

Until the last bit of the Immortal-Dissolving Poison Source was refined, his physical body had fully broken through to the Gilded Immortal realm and even got a tiny upgrade.

The Gilded Physical Body Trait also had nine grades, and right now, his Gilded Physical Body Trait should be in between second and third grade, which was a lot stronger than starting with first grade.

The physical body achieving the Gilded Immortal realm was much harder than breaking through Gilded Immortal Realm as a cultivation base. Hence, achieving it granted him much more power than a common Second- or Third-grade Gilded Immortal in terms of close combat.

“This closed-door meditation is a harvest!” Chu Kuangren smiled.

Then, he deactivated his Gilded Physical Body Trait, and his body returned to normal.

He reached his hands out. Looking at his slender fingers, he clenched his fist tightly, and suddenly, a strong boom sounded in the void!

He had crushed space itself with just a clench of his fist!

Vigorous qi and blood flowed like a torrential river in his body. The power of the Dragon-phant was also contained inside, making it stronger and more rampant.

From that moment onward, Chu Kuangren’s raw physical strength had suddenly become his strongest and most violent offensive method.

“It’s time for me to go out,” he murmured.

With that, he walked out of the room and was welcomed by Yu Zhi.

She did not conceal her admiration and awe for him. “Brother Chu, your cultivation method really amazes me. You’ve opened up a new world to me.”

“I’m just embarrassing myself in front of you, Miss Yu Zhi. Thank you for your blood essence.”

Other than his attainments in his physical body, his cultivation base was also one step shy of reaching the Gilded Immortal Realm, and it was all because of Yu Zhi’s blood essence.

“You’re being too courteous, Brother Chu.”

While they chatted, the Luo Clan Leader and Luo Yan came by.

“Congratulations on reaching a higher cultivation level, Master Chu.”

“Thank you, Luo Clan Leader.”

“Master Chu, can I have a word with you?”

“Yu Zhi isn’t an outsider. We can just discuss matters here.”

His words warmed Yu Zhi’s heart. She smiled courteously and said, “Oh, please go ahead. I’ll leave you guys be. Excuse me.”

Chapter 1435: Luo Clan Submits, Holy Violet Imperial Commander’s Confidence

“Alright. Now that Yu Zhi is gone, what’s the matter?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“Master Chu, you’ve saved us from being invaded, so the Luo clan hereby pledged our loyalties to you. We are yours to command,” the Luo Clan Leader half-kneel on the ground and said respectfully.

He knew that nothing had happened so far because Chu Kuangren was still with them.

Once he left, the Wang and Lin clans would come back, and the Luo clan would have to face the same situation again.

In order to be free from all the potential invasions, the Luo clan must find protection, and there was no one better than Chu Kuangren to protect them.

According to his intelligence network, the Luo Clan Leader knew that the Feng clan, who had just absorbed the remains of the Dragon clan, pledged their loyalties to Chu Kuangren earlier and had been doing great since.

“You guys are quite smart.” Chu Kuangren nodded calmly.

Then, he turned to Luo Yan. “What about Miss Luo’s opinion?”

He did not care about the Luo clan’s loyalty at all. He only helped them was because he was interested in Luo Yan’s potential growth.

“I, Luo Yan, am willing to pledge my loyalty to you as well!” Luo Yan said solemnly as she, too, half-kneel on the ground.

Chu Kuangren had saved her multiple times inside the Nine Heavens Lapis Lazuli Realm and also saved the Luo clan from being invaded, making him countless times better than the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist.

Moreover, since her own clan had pledged their loyalty, there was no reason for her to hold on to her fragile pride anymore.

Pride should be earned using one’s strength, and it was unfortunate that she did not possess enough strength yet.

She wanted to follow Chu Kuangren to grow stronger.

“Very well.” Chu Kuangren nodded. “You guys don’t have to worry about the Wang and the Lin clans anymore. I’ll inform the Feng clan to take care of it.”

The Luo Clan Leader’s eyes widened as the sudden epiphany rushed into his mind.

‘The Feng clan has indeed pledged their loyalties to Chu Kuangren!’ he thought.

Chu Kuangren then looked at Luo Yan. “Calling me master is nothing shameful because you’re the proud follower of the future king, the supreme king of the Immortal World!”

“Yes!”

Luo Yan had goosebumps all over her body. She was already half-convinced that she made the right choice.

A while later, Jue Wushen came to the Luo clan on Chu Kuangren's call.

"My King."

Jue Wushen bowed with a fist salute when he saw Chu Kuangren.

Luo Yan looked at Jue Wushen and sensed threats that rivaled that of the Mountain Ghoulish Daoist.

She was deeply in awe. She did not expect a top-notch Prodigy would willingly call Chu Kuangren his king.

The thought strengthened her conviction and respect for Chu Kuangren.

As he said, there was no shame in becoming his follower. In fact, it should be honorable.

"Wushen, I've summoned you here because I want to give you this."

Chu Kuangren revealed the Celestial Demon Heart.

"This is..."

Jue Wushen's pupils shrank. His heart pounded fiercely when he saw the beating heart because he knew it was a huge Opportunity of Fortune for him.

If he could refine that heart, he would definitely undergo a drastic change.

"My King, have you killed the Mountain Ghoulish Daoist?"

"Is it so surprising?"

"No. The Mountain Ghoulish Daoist is nothing before my King, but this Celestial Demon Heart is a good item."

Jue Wushen put the heart away, and he had the urge to refine it immediately.

"This is the Luo clan, which has just become one of my affiliated factions. You can refine it here."

"Thank you, my King."

"How's the Celestial Demon Tribe doing lately? Are there any big movements on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet?" Chu Kuangren simply asked.

"The tribe is doing good. Everyone is active in different fields and has been acquiring various Opportunities of Fortune. As for the planet, ever since the Heavenly Dao Spires, there hasn't been anything noteworthy.

"However, we heard there's violet light appearing at Holy Violet Pavilion. It is said to be related to the Holy Violet Imperial Commander," Jue Wushen answered.

"Oh, the Holy Violet Imperial Commander? I've fought the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall's Divine Daoist and Divine Maiden. I wonder what the Imperial Commanders of the Kunlun Immortal Hall can do?" Chu Kuangren was rather intrigued.

...

At Holy Violet Pavilion, a figure in long violet robes sat in the air while surrounded by an indescribable elegance.

There was a large amount of violet starlight rings around him that vaguely formed an ancient crown above his head.

The violet crown was covered with countless Daoist patterns, and a powerful aura emanated from it, sweeping across all directions.

On top of that, as the crown's energy spread outward, countless restriction seals emerged from the void and formed some kind of domain.

The violet figure sat in the middle of the newly formed domain like a supreme Immortal King that reigned over everything.

"I have finally refined the Holy Violet Crown!"

The person was the Holy Violet Imperial Commander.

He opened his eyes with a smile on his face.

Rays of lights then flew in from all directions, and Gilded Immortals emerged from them.

"Congratulations on refining the Holy Violet Crown, Imperial Commander!"

"Congratulations, Imperial Commander!"

All the Gilded Immortals looked at the Holy Violet Imperial Commander with the utmost respect.

"Has anything big happened on the planet lately?"

The Holy Violet Imperial Commander put the crown away and added, "Especially about Chu Kuangren."

He seemed to have taken Chu Kuangren as his biggest enemy.

"Imperial Commander, the Heavenly Dao Spire appeared a while ago..."

One of the Gilded Immortals slowly updated him about the major events that happened.

The Holy Violet Imperial Commander had a strange look on his face after learning what happened. "Chu Kuangren has indeed caused a lot of trouble."

"Chu Kuangren might be strong, but now that you have refined the Holy Violet Crown, he is no match for you as long as we're on this planet, Imperial Commander," said the Gilded Immortal with absolute confidence.

"You're right."

"Chu Kuangren bears the fate of the Human Emperor and has challenged the pride of the Immortal Hall multiple times. He cannot be allowed to live! We must deal with him as soon as possible."

"Since he hasn't fully grown yet, we must murder him in the cradle!"

All the Gilded Immortals of the Holy Violet Pavilion resented Chu Kuangren.

After all, two Prodigies of the Holy Violet Pavilion, the Little Heavenly Ruler, and Zhuo Tianchang died in his hands, so they ought to be mad.

If it were not for the karmic repercussions, they would have attacked and cut Chu Kuangren into a million pieces.

“Chu Kuangren... I guess it’s time to deal with you,” the Holy Violet Imperial Commander said.

He had to be fast since Chu Kuangren was still on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet. He was confident to kill his biggest enemy, but he must be fast.

“Inform me when you get Chu Kuangren’s whereabouts.”

“Yes, sir.”

The Gilded Immortals of the Holy Violet Pavilion were excited that the Holy Violet Imperial Commander finally decided to destroy Chu Kuangren to regain their glory.

However, others might be baffled by their confidence.

Everyone knew how ridiculously powerful Chu Kuangren was, and he had killed almost an uncountable amount of Prodigies.

What fueled the Holy Violet Pavilion’s confidence to the point that they believed the Holy Violet Imperial Commander could win against Chu Kuangren?

Back at the Luo clan, Chu Kuangren was still familiarizing himself with his raw physical strength.

He held an Immortal Weapon in front of Luo Yan and broke it into several pieces using his bare hands.

His strength scared Luo Yan.

Breaking an Immortal Weapon with one’s bare hands?!

The power contained in his physical body was even more terrifying than ancient divine beasts that specialized in close combat.

“It seems like I can ignore attacks from below the Gilded Immortal Realm.”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Immortal Sword that he just broke into pieces and his palms that had no cuts whatsoever.

In addition to his Undying Body, his survivability had just risen to a new high.

“Huh?”

While Chu Kuangren was familiarizing himself with his newly acquired raw physical strength, he sensed something, and it changed his expression.

Chapter 1436: Great Frost Dragon Mountain’s Action, Iceworm Ru Xue’s Sorrow, Bone-Stripping, Marrow-Seizing

While familiarizing his newly gained raw physical strength, Chu Kuangren sensed something, and it changed his expression.

"I see you have decided to make a move on one of my people, Great Frost Dragon Mountain!"

His expression turned cold, and a hint of ruthlessness emanated from him.

Luo Yan, who was standing beside him suddenly felt the temperature plummeting, and a chilly freezing qi erupted.

Chu Kuangren was mad.

He stared in the direction of the Great Frost Dragon Mountain.

Through the restriction seals he implanted in Iceworm Ru Xue, he sensed that her vitality had suddenly turned weak, followed by a distress signal.

"Brother Chu, what happened?"

Yu Zhi sensed the ruthless aura around Chu Kuangren, and it piqued her interest.

"Nothing. It's just that someone has decided that today is their unlucky day. Yu Zhi, I have to go to Great Frost Dragon Mountain now. Please, make yourself at home."

Chu Kuangren then flashed and disappeared from the spot.

His Spatial Conveyor Technique was instantly activated.

Chu Kuangren suppressed his boiling anger as he traveled to the Great Frost Dragon Mountain. His ruthless aura left every living being in his trail trembling in fear.

"What a terrifying energy presence!"

"Who is that?"

"That's Chu Kuangren!"

"Yeah! It's him!"

It was not surprising that someone recognized him since his name had made quite the reputation on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet.

Someone noticed the anger on his face and got curious.

"Which idiot made him mad?"

"That direction seems to be the Great Frost Dragon Mountain!"

"No way! The Great Frost Dragon Mountain? Is he going there to make a scene? I don't know who's bolder now."

The Great Frost Dragon Mountain was a famous force on the planet, and its power should not be underestimated.

It was even more powerful than the Dragon clan.

It was said that the Great Frost Dragon Mountain had at least two Arch Gilded Immortals!

Chu Kuangren seemed to be heading to the Great Frost Dragon Mountain with a grudge, which many found surprising.

"This is really crazy. He destroyed the Dragon clan earlier, and now he's going after the Great Frost Dragon Mountain?"

"Too bad. The Great Frost Dragon Mountain is unlike the Dragon clan. He won't be able to escape easily."

"Yeah. Even if the Arch Gilded Immortals cannot do anything to him, the Gilded Immortals there can."

"This is going to be a good one. Let's go and have a look."

Those who learned Chu Kuangren's destination got intrigued and decided to follow him there for a good show.

As the most popular sky-pride on the planet, and even the entire Interstellar Area, every move he made would attract an audience.

Meanwhile, a Holy Violet Pavilion disciple brought the news home.

The elders of the pavilion were intrigued as well.

"Chu Kuangren has done it this time!"

"Great Frost Dragon Mountain? What's he going to do there?"

"Regardless, since he has appeared, we must inform the Imperial Commander and tell him to go there as well. We must eliminate this pest this time!"

...

At Great Frost Dragon Mountain's peak, where the place was covered in snow all year long, a crimson sacrificial platform stood erected.

On top of it were two figures, a man and a woman.

The two of them were the strongest sky-prides of the mountain, Iceworm Feng and Iceworm Ru Xue.

"Iceworm Ru Xue, you have failed your identity as the Prodigy of the Great Frost Dragon Mountain when you called a human your master. I shall rip your bones and transfer them to Iceworm Feng. Do you have any last words?" said one of the Great Frost Dragon Mountain elders as he looked at the blood-stained Iceworm Ru Xue.

Many others from the mountain could not bear to watch the scene, but some of them did not hide their resentment as well.

"Iceworm Ru Xue, I've misplaced my trust in you. I thought you were the hope of the Great Frost Dragon Mountain, but you went and became a slave to a human instead?"

"Yeah! You disgust me!"

"This is suicide for a proud sky-pride. Why?"

“What a waste of talent. Rip her bones out and give them to Iceworm Feng. Let him lead us to a new height.”

“Too bad, but she’s the Divine Maiden after all. It’s sad to see her end like this.”

Countless other iceworms talked about the matter as they surrounded the sacrificial platform to see what was going on.

Their words were colder than the blizzard as they pierced Iceworm Ru Xue’s heart.

She came back thinking that the elders had something to discuss with her, but it was actually a trial for her.

After Iceworm Feng and the others returned, they exposed her loyalty to Chu Kuangren, and it angered the higher-ups.

Iceworm Feng’s father, who was also the Fourth Elder of the Great Frost Dragon Mountain, suggested using the secret technique to transfer Iceworm Ru Xue’s bones to his son.

It would then create another iceworm Prodigy and minimize the damages on their investment in Iceworm Ru Xue.

The thought left Iceworm Ru Xue disappointed.

The ones who hurt her the deepest were always one of her own people. It felt sad.

“It seems like there aren’t any. In that case, I hereby announce the start of the ceremony,” said the Iceworm Fourth Elder with a hint of excitement in his eyes.

As long as his son could get the bones, the young man would definitely become a matchless Prodigy. In addition to his personal influence and authority, he could take over the entire Frost Dragon Mountain in the future.

“Iceworm Ru Xue, you should have expected this day to come when you pledged your loyalty to a human.”

Iceworm Feng’s eyes were also filled with excitement. He might also be a Prodigy, but he was not as powerful as Iceworm Ru Xue.

Once the ceremony started, he would be the next Iceworm Ru Xue!

Iceworm Ru Xue was shackled on top of a bed with no expression on her face.

“Iceworm Ru Xue, I really don’t understand why you would pledge your loyalty to a human. Plead, and then after I get your bones, I can ask my father to spare your life. How about that?” Iceworm Feng said.

He anticipated the once proud and untouchable Divine Maiden to beg himself for her life.

How great would it feel?

“You and Master are heaven and earth apart. Plead? Dream on,” Iceworm Ru Xue said calmly.

She pleaded with Chu Kuangren for the sake of staying alive and called him her master because he was worthy and capable.

On the other hand, Iceworm Feng was not even close to being compared.

“You...” Iceworm Feng was silenced, and his expression turned bitter. “Hmph! We’ll see how long more you can put up with that feisty attitude.”

The Iceworm Fourth Elder then performed several mystical hand seals and shot them into Iceworm Ru Xue.

Bone-stinging pain attacked her lips and bones, causing her to scream in pain.

Iceworm Ru Xue had suffered a lot throughout her cultivation journey, but none was as excruciating as that.

Her body convulsed violently and slowly shrank into her true form — an iceworm in the size of a thumb.

There were seven golden rings on her tiny body, representing her identity as the Seven Morph Iceworm.

Then, the seven little rings grew dimmer, and her body’s surface started to crack.

Silk-like threads were being pulled out from the cracks one by one.

Those were the bones of an iceworm!

Chapter 1437: Killing Iceworm Feng, Your Life Belongs to Me, No One Can Ever Take It Away

The bone-stripping and marrow-seizing technique was a secret technique within the Iceworm Tribe. For countless years, it had only been used a few times.

However, that gruesome technique was now being used on their most honorable and dignified Maiden Sage.

Countless iceworm cultivators could not bear to look any longer as they watched her punishment unfold before their very eyes. All of them immediately turned their heads away.

“Aren’t we too cruel by doing this?”

“That’s right. No matter what, she’s still the Frost Dragon Mountain’s Maiden Sage. Her various accomplishments and deeds are proof of her loyalty,” an iceworm cultivator blurted out.

However, some other iceworm cultivators sneered with looks of disdain.

“That’s all in the past. She’s nothing more than a human’s lowly slave now.”

“I agree. Just think of how high and mighty she used to be. I can’t believe someone like her would stoop so low to become a human’s slave. How blind of me to worship her as our Maiden Sage.”

Atop the platform, Iceworm Ru Xue endured unimaginable pain all over her body, but she relied on her strong will to resist the corrosive effects of that secret technique.

She did not want her talents and powers to be stolen that way!

She had already been deemed a traitor of Frost Dragon Mountain. If she lost her skills and talents too, she would lose every value she had as Chu Kuangren's subordinate.

At that very moment, anyone else in her place would be begging to die!

"I have sent him a message for help. He will surely come!"

"He will come for sure! I must hold on at all costs!"

With a tenacious will, Iceworm Ru Xue held on desperately to the remaining consciousness she had.

The Iceworm Fourth Elder frowned upon seeing that. "If you were to faint due to the pain, perhaps it would be a form of release for you. Why even bother resisting? Do you think by steadying your mind, you can hold off the corrosive effects of this bone-stripping, marrow-seizing technique? It'll only slow down the whole process a little and make you suffer more in return."

Then, he formed several mysterious hand signs, increasing his power in unleashing that technique.

"Feng'er, quick! Go and absorb the power within her bloodline and marrow!"

"Alright!"

Iceworm Feng dashed excitedly toward Iceworm Ru Xue.

Just when he was about to absorb her bloodline powers and make it his own, the whole area rumbled!

As the snow stopped falling and winds stopped blowing in the surroundings, a cold killing intent instantly descended upon Frost Dragon Mountain!

"How dare you lay your filthy hands on my subordinate? You people of the Frost Dragon Mountain are courting death!!"

Horrible words that carried a deep cold killing intent reverberated everywhere!

Following that, a strand of razor-sharp sword qi suddenly appeared out of nowhere. Faster than the speed of lightning, it shot through the snowfall and landed directly on Iceworm Feng!

Boom!

A mist of blood suddenly exploded into the air!

The platform was stained with blood!

Iceworm Feng had died!

As the Iceworm Fourth Elder was channeling the secret technique at that time, he could not save his son in time. His eyes reddened with anger. "Feng'er! My son!"

He glared into the distance, and hatred began to overcome him. "Who was it?"

A person in white robes was approaching them through the snow, with an incomparably terrifying aura spreading everywhere from him. Wherever he passed, the terrain beneath him crumbled!

That person was the source of the chilling killing intent!

It was none other than Chu Kuangren!

Iceworm Ru Xue had already reverted to her true form on the platform when she saw his arrival. Her eyes immediately lit up with joy and began to well up with tears of happiness.

Having been forsaken by her own clan members, she realized at that point that Chu Kuangren was the only one she could rely on.

“Chu Kuangren!”

After seeing the person who arrived, the Iceworm Fourth Elder’s pupils shrank. “Guards, take this man down at once!”

Soon after his order, several iceworm guards rushed out one after another from all corners of the Frost Dragon Mountain. They immediately channeled their Immortal’s Core energy, sending a barrage of attacks toward Chu Kuangren!

A terrifying wave of frost instantly swept and froze everything everywhere!

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren continued walking toward the platform. His Immortal’s Core energy spread forth, bursting with Celestial Demon energy and life-death intent!

Boom, boom, boom!

As the ice wave was destroyed, the iceworm cultivators exploded into mists of blood. The surrounding snowfall was instantly dyed red with blood!

“Chu Kuangren, you’ve gone overboard now!”

A Ninth-grade True Immortal, close to the Gilded Immortal Realm, from the Frost Dragon Mountain attacked boldly.

He stepped forth and charged toward Chu Kuangren. Large amounts of frost and snow gathered around his fist before he unleashed a punch that swept forward with the power of a horrifying blizzard.

“The ones who have gone overboard are you people!” Chu Kuangren said coldly.

He unleashed a punch in retaliation. This time, his Celestial Demon qi surged, forming a life-death cycle of light.

A great bang sounded, resulting in the blizzard dispersing almost immediately. The Ninth-grade True Immortal who attacked was blasted away, his Immortal body close to crumbling!

Without another moment to lose, Chu Kuangren stomped his foot toward his opponent, blowing his opponent into pieces with his terrifying Immortal’s Core energy!

Gasp!

The crowd of iceworm cultivators in Frost Dragon Mountain was startled.

‘Blowing up a Ninth-grade True Immortal with a single stomp... What kind of power is that?’

However, Chu Kuangren was not done yet.

As he approached the platform, he released all of his Immortal Core energy. Countless leaf-shaped sword qi spread everywhere from him, instantly turning the whole area into a sea of swords!

It was the Green Leaf Sword Ocean!

That sword ocean swept across all corners of Frost Dragon Mountain, bringing merciless destruction everywhere!

Caught in the sword qi massacre, the iceworm cultivators fell one after another, and their bodies were torn to shreds. Within that instant, the silver-peaked Frost Dragon Mountain turned into a hellish landscape!

Screams and cries echoed as rivers of blood flowed down the mountain!

What was once the land of ice and snow was now the land of ice and blood!

“Insolent human!”

“Chu Kuangren, to think you would dare to do such a thing to the Frost Dragon Mountain! You must have a death wish!”

The True Immortal and Gilded Immortal elites soon rushed out from every part of Frost Dragon Mountain, staring daggers at Chu Kuangren with their rage-filled eyes!

Their combined chilling intent soon froze every terrain that was kilometers away!

“Now die!”

The first to attack was an elder of Frost Dragon Mountain, and he was a Gilded Immortal.

He knew Chu Kuangren was much stronger than before, so even if he were to attack alone, he would not suffer much from the karmic repercussions.

He unleashed a punch that turned his frost power into a crushing ice mountain that descended upon Chu Kuangren!

Chu Kuangren’s countless sword qi soon collided with his opponent’s ice mountain.

Shards of ice flew everywhere as bursts of sword qi were dispelled.

The white snow and green sword qi soon intertwined, forming a magnificent spectacle of pure white and green in the air!

As the sword qi gradually tore apart the ice mountain, that iceworm Gilded Immortal quickly took the opportunity and leaped through the Green Leaf Sword Ocean. Then, he raised his hand and sent a palm attack directly toward Chu Kuangren!

He was not holding back with that attack.

There was a dense and terrifying Gilded Trait within his white-icy snow.

“Hmph!”

Chu Kuangren snorted and made a sword hand sign while activating his Battle Secret Technique. His aura powered up rapidly!

Out came a sword attack. It was the Blade of Zhou's final form, Infinite Void!

Countless Daoist patterns intertwined, forming a gigantic sword shadow. This time, it was brimming with Golden Immortal Sparks!

That attack shot across the void, seemingly decimating thousands of paths of Dao!

A terrifying scream came from the Gilded Immortal who attacked. He was sent flying immediately with blood gushing out from his palm.

He was filled with disbelief. "Golden Immortal Sparks... That's the Holy Golden Jade Pool Physique!"

Although Chu Kuangren's cultivation remained at the Ninth-grade True Immortal Realm, his Immortal Core energy now contained Golden Immortal Sparks, which made him even scarier and more deadly than before. That was the only trait possessed by those who have the Holy Golden Jade Pool Physique!

Ever since he started cultivating the Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation technique, his Immortal Core energy had far surpassed those of his peers. Now, with the Golden Immortal Sparks, his Immortal Core energy was on par with Gilded Immortals!

Countless iceworm cultivators could not stop Chu Kuangren, no matter how hard they tried. Soon, he arrived at the platform.

Using his sword hand sign, he cut off the chains binding Iceworm Ru Xue.

He reached out and held Iceworm Ru Xue, who had reverted back to her true form, in his hand and said indifferently, "I already told you. Your life belongs to me. No one can ever take it away!"

'So warm...'

Iceworm Ru Xue felt nothing but warmth as she was held in his hand.

At that moment, she could finally allow herself to faint without any worry.

Chu Kuangren kept her inside his Enchanted Sleeve and then waved his sleeve, blowing up the platform beneath him with his domineering sword qi.

His sharp gaze swept across everyone in the surroundings.

"For harming my subordinate, is the Frost Dragon Mountain prepared to face my wrath?!"

Chapter 1438: Three Gilded Immortals Attacked, One Dead Two Critically Injured

"For harming my subordinate, is the Frost Dragon Mountain prepared to face my wrath?!"

With a wave of his sleeve, the platform beneath Chu Kuangren immediately crumbled!

Incomparably terrifying energy swept out, causing the Frost Dragon Mountain to quake.

Meanwhile, the crowd of elite iceworm cultivators consisting of True Immortals and Gilded Immortals glared at Chu Kuangren.

At the same time, the many cultivators rushing over to the scene soon saw Chu Kuangren barging into the place and saving Iceworm Ru Xue from the platform. All of them gasped upon seeing the scene.

“Holy sh*t, what the hell is going on?”

“This is just too crazy! I can’t believe he sent a Gilded Immortal flying! What kind of level has Chu Kuangren’s strength reached now?”

“He’s a monster!”

“I have a bad feeling about this. It looks like the Frost Dragon Mountain is going to suffer major casualties.”

“It seems so...”

Inside the Frost Dragon Mountain, the Iceworm Fourth Elder stared at Chu Kuangren coldly, with waves of Gilded Trait emanating from his body. He could not wait to attack already.

However, due to the karmic repercussions, he did not dare to act rashly.

Unlike the Gilded Immortal who fought Chu Kuangren earlier, he was a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal. Hence, the karmic repercussions limiting him were greater.

“If you guys continue doing nothing, don’t mind if I do,” said Chu Kuangren indifferently. With a swipe of his sword hand sign, overarching surges of sword qi filled with his rage unleashed everywhere as if a violent hurricane had struck!

As the sword qi attack swept out, large numbers of iceworm cultivators were killed.

“How dare you!”

The iceworm Gilded Immortal attacked once more. Having experienced Chu Kuangren’s powers earlier, he was not going to make the same mistake.

He immediately attacked with his most lethal technique!

“Blizzard Overworld!”

Unimaginable freezing intents containing Gilded Traits swept out and immediately froze Chu Kuangren’s surroundings!

Endless waves of frost in the air were seemingly hellbent on turning him into an icy sculpture!

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

Chu Kuangren’s Celestial Demon qi surged and turned into a cycle of light brimming with endless life-death intent before colliding with the incoming freezing qi.

When the two energies clashed, the surrounding area was shattered into countless shards of ice.

“Ice Gale Slash!”

The iceworm Gilded Immortal made a sword hand sign, gathering ice energy at his fingertips to form an ice sword. Following that, he slashed forward with the sword containing the power of wind and snow.

“Fighting me with a sword? What a fool!”

A green light swirled in Chu Kuangren’s eyes as he channeled the Green Leaf Sword Vision’s power to the maximum.

His Descendant Self Sword unsheathed itself from his waist, unleashing the Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!

Now glimmering with Golden Immortal Sparks and further strengthened by the Green Leaf Sword Vision, the Infinite Void Sword shot forward with the power that could seemingly destroy the Dao itself!

The sword of ice shattered!

The iceworm Gilded Immortal was sent flying by the sword attack again!

Chu Kuangren’s combat strength terrified him.

However, that was not the end of it.

The Celestial Demon Crown soon appeared on Chu Kuangren’s head. His domineering Celestial Demon aura instantly spread everywhere. It was as if an ancient Celestial Demon had awakened within the chaos and descended upon mankind.

He raised his hand and channeled his Celestial Demon qi. Strands of black qi spread in all directions, forming a frightening black hole that enveloped the iceworm Gilded Immortal within it.

That was the Black Hole Celestial Demon Physique’s divine ability, the Great Black Hole Distortion!

As the black hole, strengthened by the Celestial Demon Crown, consumed everything in its path, the iceworm Gilded Immortal screamed. Then, the golden Daoist patterns shielding his Immortal body began to crumble!

“D*mn it! Somebody! Somebody help me! Quick!”

That iceworm Gilded Immortal could not help but shout for help.

To think that a Gilded Immortal like him had to ask for help to defeat a True Immortal. If news about it spread, anyone’s jaw would drop in disbelief and shock.

“Hold on, Old Man Ninth!”

“I’m coming!”

Two more iceworm Gilded Immortals joined the battle.

Using their Gilded Immortal Sparks, Chu Kuangren’s black hole was soon destroyed, and Old Man Ninth, the iceworm Gilded Immortal, was saved.

The three of them looked at Chu Kuangren with cautious expressions.

“The rumors about this guy are true. He truly is a monster.”

“With that combat strength, I can’t believe he’s just a True Immortal. It’s no wonder he could surpass the younger generation.”

“It truly is shocking.”

The three iceworm Gilded Immortals felt a sense of intimidation as they stood before Chu Kuangren.

Three iceworm Gilded Immortals were intimidated by a mere True Immortal?

That was simply unbelievable.

“We must not underestimate him. Let’s attack together.”

The three Gilded Immortals glanced at each other before deciding to attack at the same time.

The three of them instantly charged toward Chu Kuangren from three different directions. Large amounts of ice energy spread across the surroundings, freezing anything in its path.

The freezing qi could freeze even a Ninth-grade True Immortal, let alone the attacks that came after it!

Anyone below a Gilded Immortal’s level would surely perish if they faced such an attack, and the outcome would be the same even for top-tier Prodigies!

“Very well!”

“I shall slay a few more Gilded Immortals today!” Chu Kuangren uttered coldly. Golden

Immortal Sparks then erupted from his body and rose into the sky, causing his surroundings to rumble!

Apparitions of a hundred scholars, towering mountains of ice, and a table of regulations and precepts... The Three Great Hundred Academy Conjurations appeared at once!

Battle Secret Technique, activate!

Chiyou’s Demonic Patterns, activate!

With the help of various techniques, Chu Kuangren’s Immortal Core energy ascended into the Gilded Immortal Realm!

“Divine Samsara Overworld!”

The Heavenly Samsara Physique’s divine ability was activated. Six rays of light intertwined in the air, forming a samsara energy domain that nullified the freezing qi coming from all directions.

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

The Life-Death Cycle could destroy all worlds!

With life-death energy paired with samsara energy, a mysterious effect formed between the two. The Samsara Overworld and Universal Life-Death Cycle ended up reinforcing and strengthening each other!

Boom, boom!

The incoming ice energy shattered continuously!

At that time, the three Gilded Immortals attacking from three different directions were getting nearer to Chu Kuangren. Although their ice energy had been destroyed, they showed no signs of stopping their attacks!

Everyone focused on the battle before them, not daring to even move their gazes away for fear of missing anything.

“Great Black Hole Distortion!”

Celestial Demon qi intertwined around Chu Kuangren, forming a black hole.

As the three Gilded Immortals’ attack entered the black hole, the distortive force shifted their attack paths. Just when they were realigning themselves, their weak spots were already wide open.

Chu Kuangren made a sword hand sign with his left hand, unleashing a tyrannical piercing sword attack toward one of the Gilded Immortals. Meanwhile, his right arm clenched into a fist, channeling the Divine Thunder Fist’s Blood Lightning!

At the same moment, the Descendant Self Sword trembled beside him before automatically turning into a sword ray and aiming at the remaining Gilded Immortal!

Three different attacks were unleashed toward the three Gilded Immortals, all coming from the same person!

Incomparably tyrannical sword qi, merciless Blood Lightning, and the Descendant Self’s sword ray that glimmered with light that stunned the gods themselves...

The three different attacks erupted at the same time

All the spectating crowd saw was endless bursts of Immortal Sparks and energy fluctuations that enveloped the sky!

What followed was three figures blasted away while they screamed in pain!

One of them had a huge cut running from his shoulder to his waist, with blood flowing from his wound non-stop!

Another had a huge gaping hole chest left behind by the sword ray.

The last one had the worst injury. His whole Immortal body was enveloped by the Blood Lightning formed from endless qi and blood that blasted that Gilded Immortal into pieces, killing him on the spot!

Three Gilded Immortals attacked at once, but two ended up critically injured and one was dead!

Chu Kuangren stood proudly amidst the endless smoke and dust. His robes were as white as before with the Descendant Self Sword hovering around him, glimmering amidst endless Immortal Sparks!

He was unscathed!

At that, the Frost Dragon Mountain fell into a deep silence. Only the sound of winds and snow was whistling in the air.

Chapter 1439: The Iceworm Fourth Elder Attacks, Battling a Seventh-Grade Gilded Immortal Using Raw Physical Strength

Winds howled amidst the snowfall on Frost Dragon Mountain. A crowd was out in the open, yet not a single voice could be heard.

A dead silence had befallen everyone.

Looking at the white figure standing in the snow, they were in disbelief at what just happened.

Three Gilded Immortals were attacking that figure in white. With their combined powers, there was no way anyone among the younger generation could survive their attacks. Even a Lower Third Grade Gilded Immortal would find it hard to stay alive.

Yet, despite facing such a lineup of opponents, Chu Kuangren managed to counter them!

Furthermore, of the three Gilded Immortals, he even managed to kill one and critically injure the other two!

As for him, he emerged unscathed after their battle!

“He’s a real monster!”

A figure could not help but gasp as he watched from the sky.

That person was a Gilded Immortal from the Holy Violet Pavilion. At that moment, he was looking at Chu Kuangren with horror.

‘If Chu Kuangren already possesses such terrifying power as a True Immortal, when he becomes a Gilded Immortal, how frightening will he become?’

“He must not be allowed to exist any longer! We must not let him become any stronger! Otherwise, the Immortal Hall shall face an unprecedented threat!” that Gilded Immortal thought and mumbled to himself.

As of now, he could only place every hope he had on the Holy Violet Imperial Commander.

On the battlefield, the two surviving Gilded Immortals swallowed with fear as they looked at Chu Kuangren. Both of them were overcome by horror.

“Blade of Zhou, Tyrannical Ascension!”

Chu Kuangren held his Descendant Self Sword, and the Dao Proclamation Seals integrated with his sword soon lit up one after another. Then, his sword qi locked onto one of the Gilded Immortals!

However, just when that Gilded Immortal became even more horrified, someone appeared in front of him and blocked that sword ray from attacking him!

That person was the Iceworm Fourth Elder!

His cultivation level had reached the Seventh-Grade Gilded Immortal Realm!

As such, he was considered an elite even among the Gilded Immortals.

“Oh, it’s about time you join in!”

Chu Kuangren’s apathetic gaze landed on the Iceworm Fourth Elder. There was not a single sign of fear or caution on him despite facing a much more powerful foe.

“Your combat strength is much more terrifying than I imagined. Even as a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal, I suppose I won’t suffer much of a karmic repercussion.”

The Iceworm Fourth Elder said coldly, “You’ve killed my son! Now, I’m going to take revenge for him! I’ll skin you alive and break your bones one by one!”

His initial plan was going very well before this.

He just had to wait for Iceworm Feng to gain Iceworm Ru Xue’s talents and skills. Once that was done, both he and his son would surely be the most influential people in the tribe!

However, Chu Kuangren’s appearance shattered all his plans.

“Oh, in that case, I don’t mind helping you out either! I’ll send you right down to hell to be reunited with your son!” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

“There’s no way you can survive in a fight with a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal!” the Iceworm Fourth Elder said glumly.

Then, he stepped forth, and a dense Gilded Trait erupted from his body.

As he unleashed a punch attack, a surge of freezing qi much more powerful than the previous Gilded Immortals swept forward.

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

Chu Kuangren channeled the Life-Death Cycle to fend off the freezing qi.

“The Celestial Demon Physique’s divine ability, huh? It’s truly extraordinary. However, your cultivation level isn’t high enough!”

The Iceworm Fourth Elder raised his hand, suddenly increasing the power of his freezing qi and overpowering the Immortal Sparks from the Life-Death Cycle.

“Heavenly Frost Dragon Calamity!”

The freezing qi surrounding the whole area became denser.

Countless Daoist patterns were conjured in the air, gathering the surrounding winds and snow toward them to form a gigantic, ferocious, and berserk frost dragon!

Not only did the berserk dragon have an incomparably terrifying ice energy, but it was also poisonous. Wherever it went, every living being had withered and wilted away!

That was the Iceworm Poison!

“Chu Kuangren, this attack shall mark the end of your Immortal journey!” the Iceworm Fourth Elder said indifferently as his berserk frost dragon charged forward.

“Universal Life-Death Cycle!”

“Great Black Hole Distortion!”

“Green Leaf Sword Ocean!”

Chu Kuangren unleashed each of his Immortal Physiques' divine abilities in quick succession. However, his attacks were all futile as they shattered before the likes of that berserk frost dragon!

Finally, he was swallowed whole by that berserk dragon!

At that sight, everyone could not help but rub their eyes.

"Is this the end of Chu Kuangren?"

"I can't believe the maddest person of this generation still failed to escape death."

"What a shame."

"Then again, it's fine. If he doesn't die, how can we possibly step into the limelight?"

The crowd of onlooking sky-prides was in disbelief. Some sighed in disappointment while some were overjoyed. They were already planning on how to display their strength in a new era without Chu Kuangren.

The great ones watching from space also felt relieved.

Although Chu Kuangren's cultivation level was still not a threat to them, his achievements and feats had brought huge pressure on them.

With his death, it was as if a huge weight had been lifted off their shoulders.

"Wonderful. It looks like the other Prodigies can finally show what they're made of."

"That's right. You have no idea how worried I am for the current Prodigies. I hope Chu Kuangren hasn't traumatized them too much and affected their cultivation progress."

"Great. Now that Chu Kuangren is dead—"

"Wait, something is not right!"

When one of the great ones used his Immortal Consciousness to verify Chu Kuangren's death, he was shocked.

The eyelids of other great ones twitched when they heard that.

At Frost Dragon Mountain, the Iceworm Fourth Elder let out a cold grin. "No matter how much of a Prodigy you are, you're nothing before the likes of a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal!"

Just when he was proud that he had killed Chu Kuangren and put an end to that legend...

A golden beam of light suddenly shot into the sky from within the berserk frost dragon!

That was the light of the Gilded Trait — an incomparably dense Gilded Trait!

"What's happening?!"

The Iceworm Fourth Elder's expression shifted.

Boom!

Following that, an explosion erupted!

The berserk frost dragon immediately exploded under a surge of terrifying energy!

A figure walked out proudly amidst the endless snowfall. His dense Gilded Trait and tyrannical qi blood spread everywhere from his body. Instantly, the surrounding snow and frost evaporated.

“A Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal, huh? Is that all you’ve got?”

An apathetic voice sounded.

Seeing Chu Kuangren, who was now radiating brilliantly with golden light and countless Immortal Sparks, everyone’s jaw dropped in shock.

“The Gilded Physical Body Trait!”

“This is the complete Gilded Physical Body Trait exhibited all over his body! He’s a Gilded Immortal! He has broken through to the Gilded Immortal Realm with his raw physical strength! He’s a Physical Gilded Immortal!”

A Physical Gilded Immortal was rare compared to those who became a Gilded Immortal by increasing their cultivation level.

Unbeknownst to everyone, Chu Kuangren’s physical body had broken through to the Gilded Immortal Realm before his cultivation level!

The eyelids of the great ones in space immediately twitched.

“I knew it. There’s no way he’d die so easily.”

“A Physical Gilded Immortal, huh? He truly has kept this hidden well. No wonder the other Gilded Immortals didn’t suffer any karmic repercussions when they attacked him. It’s because he’s already a Gilded Immortal!”

“He must be the first person to break through to the Gilded Immortal Realm among the younger generation.”

“And doing so with his raw physical strength as well...”

Many great ones were lamenting that fact when the crushing pressure weighing upon them appeared again. However, it had gotten even heavier this time.

They were worried about their respective Prodigies.

How well could their Prodigies handle themselves before the likes of Chu Kuangren?

How were they going to fight against someone like him?

Unfortunately, those Prodigies were going to be traumatized in one way or the other.

Fully revealing his Gilded Physical Body Trait, Chu Kuangren allowed his Gilded Immortal aura to erupt. “I shall use a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal like you to test my raw physical strength!” he said apathetically.

Then, he stepped forth and let out a great punch!

His terrifying qi and blood surged forth, accompanied by the roar of dragons and wild beasts.

Even a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal like him was startled.

The Iceworm Fourth Elder channeled his Immortal Core energy to its fullest potential to resist that attack!

Boom!

As the two energies collided, the Iceworm Fourth Elder was sent flying hundreds of meters away, with his Immortal body trembling!

Chapter 1440: Killing the Seventh-Grade Gilded Immortal, the Arch Gilded Immortals Appear, the Feng Clan Forefather

“What terrifying raw physical strength he has!”

The Iceworm Fourth Elder’s pupils trembled as he looked at Chu Kuangren.

Even a Seventh-grade Gilded Immortal like him was sent flying with a single punch. Chu Kuangren’s power as a Physical Gilded Immortal was much more terrifying than he imagined!

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren attacked immediately right after, not even giving him the chance to react.

With his surging Immortal Core energy, he unleashed various divine abilities and Immortal Techniques continuously!

However, those techniques were just only to distract the Iceworm Fourth Elder. Chu Kuangren’s real weapon was actually his indestructible physical body!

Using a barrage of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities as a shield, Chu Kuangren steadily approached his opponent!

“Sh*t!”

By the time the Iceworm Fourth Elder could react, Chu Kuangren had already appeared in front of him.

His lethal close-combat techniques erupted at once!

Using his fists, elbows, fingers, palms, knees, feet...

Chu Kuangren had seemingly turned his body into the most violent murder weapon in the world. He unleashed all sorts of refined combat techniques without restraint!

The roars of a dragon reverberated through the surroundings.

As Chu Kuangren’s fists and palms landed on the Iceworm Fourth Elder’s body, cracking and crumbling sounds were heard. His opponent’s body was on the brink of shattering.

“D*mn it!”

“Blizzard Overworld!”

Huge amounts of freezing qi spread out from the Iceworm Fourth Elder's body, freezing everything in the surroundings. Soon, Chu Kuangren's body was covered with a layer of frost. However, his body trembled once and instantly shattered the ice!

"Very well. If it's a close combat you want, I shall entertain you!"

A ferocious look appeared in the Iceworm Fourth Elder's eyes. He shielded his body with a layer of Immortal Core energy and immediately engaged Chu Kuangren in battle. Their fight was like a battle between two ancient wild beasts. Just the mere shockwaves produced from their battle had caused the surrounding terrain to crumble into pieces!

Boom!

As their fists collided once more, Chu Kuangren and the Iceworm Fourth Elder were both forced back hundreds of meters.

"Haha, Chu Kuangren! I bet the poison must have seeped into your bones by now! Time is running out for you!"

Everyone else was a little confused by that.

However, only the iceworm cultivators from Frost Dragon Mountain knew what was happening, so they sneered.

"The Fourth Elder's Iceworm Poison is among the most lethal in the Frost Dragon Mountain. Even an Arch Gilded Immortal would feel his limbs going numb after getting poisoned, let alone someone like Chu Kuangren."

"That's right. During the closed-combat fight with Chu Kuangren, I bet the Fourth Elder must've secretly injected some of his Iceworm Poison into his body."

"So what if he's a Physical Gilded Immortal? Once he's inflicted by the Fourth Elder's Iceworm Poison, his death is certain. He'd only live longer than other Gilded Immortals at most."

The iceworms of Frost Dragon Mountain were engaged in a discussion.

Upon hearing their discussion, everyone else understood the situation.

"I see. It turns out that the Fourth Elder already had something prepared. That's why he was willing to engage with Chu Kuangren in a closed-combat fight."

"I thought he was out of his mind for picking a close-combat fight with a Physical Gilded Immortal. Well, it looks like experience trumps all in the end."

The Iceworm Fourth Elder looked at Chu Kuangren with a sneer, as if victory was already his.

However, Chu Kuangren merely chuckled. "You idiot!"

The qi and blood within Chu Kuangren's body that contained dense Gilded Trait suddenly erupted. The roars of a dragon sounded again, followed by countless bolts of Blood Lightning in the air!

That attack was incredibly terrifying!

The Iceworm Fourth Elder was blown away uncontrollably with blood trickling from the corner of his mouth. "This... This is impossible! How are you not affected at all?"

"Did you think I wouldn't notice that Iceworm Poison you injected in me earlier? Shame on you for using petty tricks!" said Chu Kuangren indifferently.

With the Demonic Omnitoxin Technique, every poison was no different than a supplement for him to strengthen his body.

The same thing could be said for the Iceworm Poison.

"D*mn you!"

The Iceworm Fourth Elder's expression was extremely grim. He looked at the other Gilded Immortals from the Frost Dragon Mountain, seeking to ask their help to defeat Chu Kuangren.

However, a mysterious energy fluctuation that made his scalp tingle suddenly appeared.

He looked at Chu Kuangren and saw a pair of purple eyes.

'That's the Violet Eye!'

Chu Kuangren activated his Violet Eye Technique!

His extremely powerful soul energy immediately struck the Iceworm Fourth Elder's soul.

That soul energy was not enough to destroy the Iceworm Fourth Elder's soul, but it was enough to stun the Iceworm Fourth Elder for a brief instant!

That brief instant was enough for Chu Kuangren to make his kill!

Whoosh!

Having activated the Violet Eye Technique to stun the Iceworm Fourth Elder, Chu Kuangren immediately charged toward his opponent. A bronze halberd appeared in his grasp!

"Great Wasteland Halberd, Great Wasteland Subjugation!"

The Great Wasteland Halberd's final technique erupted!

A terrifying surge of Immortal's Core energy containing Golden Immortal Sparks and qi blood was released in quick succession!

That attack directly landed on the Iceworm Fourth Elder's chest. Sounds of bones cracking sounded, followed by a mist of blood that spewed out!

The Iceworm Fourth Elder was immediately sent flying and crashing into several frost mountains.

Snow continued to fall as winds blew, and smoke and dust rose into the air.

The Iceworm Fourth Elder was seen lying deep beneath the ground. The Daoist patterns on his body had crumbled, and he was bleeding non-stop.

The next instant, he immediately reverted to his true form. However, every sign of life gradually exited his body, leaving only a stiff corpse behind!

The Fourth Elder, a Seventh-Grade Gilded Immortal, was dead!

When the members of the Frost Dragon Mountain saw that, their faces immediately turned pale with horror, and their pupils trembled!

That was the Frost Dragon Mountain's Fourth Elder!

He was the only elite second to an Arch Gilded Immortal's power in the Frost Dragon Mountain!

However, Chu Kuangren killed him with a halberd strike just like that!

Chu Kuangren's power was simply shocking!

"Alright. Who's next?" said Chu Kuangren indifferently, his menacing gaze sweeping across everyone present.

Anyone who met his gaze trembled and shuddered uncontrollably. All of them were horrified.

At that moment, two incomparably powerful auras appeared within the depths of the Frost Dragon Mountain.

An overarching Arch Gilded intent appeared and enveloped the whole of Frost Dragon Mountain.

"It's the Mountain Ruler!"

"And the Senior Elder!"

The iceworm cultivators were overjoyed upon sensing those two Arch Gilded intents. It was as if they had found their pillars of support.

Two white-robed figures were rushing toward the area. It was an elderly white-haired man and a hulking middle-aged man. They both looked at the severely ruined Frost Dragon Mountain with grim expressions.

"Chu Kuangren, you've gone overboard!" the elderly white-haired man said coldly. He was the Frost Dragon Mountain's Senior Elder.

"Oh, you want to fight me as well?" Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

He was calm and fearless despite facing two Arch Gilded Immortals. With a wave of his sleeve, the Gates of Hell appeared, with its vast Yin qi spreading everywhere!

The Underworld Skeleton General walked out, his Arch Gilded intent causing the surroundings to quake!

"Chu Kuangren, I know you have an Arch Gilded Immortal at your side. However, there's only one of him, and there are two of us from Frost Dragon Mountain. If you don't stand down and surrender now, I'd rather risk facing karmic repercussions just to kill you on the spot!" the Iceworm Senior Elder said coldly.

"If anyone dares lay their hands on the Ghost Emperor, I shall lay waste to this whole terrain!" the Underworld Skeleton General said coldly. With a wave from his sickle, vast surges of Yin qi were sent everywhere.

Soon, the surrounding winds and snow were filled with a creepy intent.

"You only have one Arch Gilded Immortal, yet we have two. All we need is for one of us to keep you occupied while the other kills Chu Kuangren! It won't be a problem for us!" the Frost Dragon Mountain Ruler said indifferently.

"Ha! What if I join them?"

At that moment, an apathetic voice sounded.

Another Arch Gilded intent approached from a distance as an elderly white-robed man walked proudly toward them. His Immortal Sparks radiated brilliantly while his aura caused the area to tremble!

"He's... The Feng Clan Forefather!"

"The Feng clan... One of the Eight Golden clans. Why has their forefather come to interfere in this?"

The Feng Clan Forefather came to Chu Kuangren's side and said indifferently, "If you want to harm my Master, you'll have to go through me!"

"Old Man Feng, have you pledged your allegiance to Chu Kuangren!"

The Frost Dragon Mountain Ruler was in disbelief.

'The Feng Clan Forefather is an Arch Gilded Immortal. How did someone like him end up serving Chu Kuangren?!'

"In this Era of Great Battles, I believe my Master shall be the one to stand at the peak of power in the Immortal Dao. What's wrong with serving him?" the Feng Clan Forefather said calmly

"You people of the Feng clan are quite bold. To think you'd dare to place your bets on him!"
