

Unparalleled 1451

Chapter 1451: Lan Yu Enters The Interstellar Ring, Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, Are You Dare To Fight With Me?

Sudden energy blasted towards the Celestial Tablet!

It was a dazzling and incomparably sacred white light with astonishing power.

In a bang, a name was left on the Celestial Tablet... Lan Yu!

Following that, a crimson fireball flew over, streaked across like a meteor, and slammed on the Celestial Tablet!

Chu Hong!

With the appearance of these two names, everyone could not help exclaiming and looking to the end of the starry sky.

Three figures were seen gliding across the air.

As immortal brilliance circulated among the three people, peerless demeanor could be vaguely seen, which overshadowed the surrounding stars.

The young man walking at the front was extraordinary. His robe was as white as snow, with long black hair down his back while exuding an unparalleled and otherworldly demeanor!

His arrival made the pupils of countless sky-prides and prodigies shrink violently, revealing an unprecedented ashen expression.

“Chu Kuangren has come!”

“There are two types of sky-prides in the universe. One is Chu Kuangren whereas the other is the sky-prides besides Chu Kuangren. I’ve finally got to see Chu Kuangren’s real self today.”

The crowd was discussing. There were sky-prides, who came at the invitation of all forces’ prodigies, eager to fight with Chu Kuangren.

A tall man could not hold back. Soon after, his figure flashed and shot toward Chu Kuangren. “Haha. Chu Kuangren, let me taste your strength!”

Bang!

Before the tall man could get close to Chu Kuangren, a ray of white light suddenly shot out and blasted him away.

It was Lan Yu that unleashed the attack.

She then pulled her hand back with a calm expression, as if the one she had just hit was not a sky-pride but a fly.

Everyone was slightly surprised.

“It seems that the two women around Chu Kuangren are extraordinary.”

"I know there two women. One of them is Winged Human who possesses the Prominent Radiant War Immortal Physique while the other one is a Godly Phoenix whose bloodline has experienced eight awakenings. These two women are extremely powerful!"

"Not only that. I've heard that they are very loyal to Chu Kuangren. How can there be such a person in this universe? Besides having multiple Immortal Physiques, the Celestial Demon Tribe's backing, and peerless talents, he even has many beauties' admiration. He seems to have owned all wonderful things in the universe."

"Indeed. No wonder many prodigies are against him. He's causing too much jealousy."

"Don't you guys think that he is... Extremely handsome?"

Countless female cultivators stared at Chu Kuangren, his peerless image captivating their hearts.

Besides possessing a handsome look and an extraordinary aura, Chu Kuangren's fame and strength were too attractive to all female cultivators.

As long as he was willing to wave his hand, at least ninety percent of the female cultivators here were willing to throw themselves at him.

He could also have the remaining ten percent of the female cultivators if he played some tricks.

"No. He is not Chu Kuangren's real self!"

At this moment, Xuanyuan's successor said while narrowing his eyes slightly.

He had seen Chu Kuangren fighting with others, and his aura was much more powerful and unfathomable than the person in front of him!

"He's indeed not Chu Kuangren but a clone of him."

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist then said, "Chu Kuangren has the white jade Descendant Self Sword and a scroll at his waist, but this person doesn't have them."

Everyone knew that Chu Kuangren had an incomparably powerful clone.

A prodigy could judge if he observed carefully.

"What does he mean by sending his clone here? Does he want to use the clone to participate in the Interstellar Arena battle?"

"He thinks too highly of his strength."

"If this is the case, I don't have to utilize the battle of attrition, and I can defeat him alone."

A prodigy snorted coldly.

"It is said that Chu Kuangren's real self is having a closed-door meditation in the Luo Clan on the Holy Violet Emperor Planet. I think he sent his clone to investigate the situation here. Since he hasn't left his name on the Celestial Tablet, everyone please be calm and don't alert him. Our goal is Chu Kuangren's real self, not his clone," said the Hellion Temple King successor.

His words managed to calm down all prodigies a little.

All prodigies would lose their dignity if the news about them gathering here merely to fight against a clone spread.

Their target should be Chu Kuangren's real self instead.

"The two women are not clones. Since Chu Kuangren's real self isn't here yet, why not we fight with the two women first?"

A prodigy sneered while looking at Lan Yu and Chu Kuangren coldly.

As he took a step forward, gloomy and cold qi permeated his body. "Lan Yu, I want to challenge you!"

Lan Yu glanced at Chu Kuangren upon hearing the words.

"Just do whatever you wish."

Lan Yu nodded slightly. "What wonderful timing. I would like to test my current strength too."

As her figure flashed, she appeared before the prodigy on the Interstellar Ring.

He had a horn on his head and did not look like a human being but a yokai beast. The gloomy freezing qi permeated out from his body and froze everything around him.

"Battle!"

Without saying another word, Lan Yu unleashed an attack with the Heavenly Skylight Scepter in her hand!

A large amount of holy energy gushed out and shook all directions!

"Roar!"

As the single-horned yokai beast yelled, a long saber appeared in his hand.

The saber collided with the Heavenly Skylight Scepter and released energy that split the space.

With just one blow, the single-horned yokai beast was forced back a few steps!

"This woman should not be underestimated!"

The single-horned yokai beast, who was contemptuous at first, shrank his pupils and channeled his yokai qi to its limit.

Boom, boom!

The saber and scepter collided continuously!

Lan Yu's aura was rising steadily, and her Prominent Radiant War Immortal Physique was activated, gradually suppressing the single-horned yokai beast.

"D*mn. This woman is too powerful!"

The single-horned yokai beast slightly regretted taking an action recklessly.

“Radiant River!”

With a coquettish shout, countless white Daoist patterns intertwined in the sky and turned into an endless white river, which contained endless Power of Light!

It was the Prominent Radiant War Immortal Physique’s divine ability. As an Immortal Physique’s divine ability that was comparable to a Supreme Immortal Physique, it was extremely powerful. With Lan Yu’s current Seventh Grade True Immortal strength, even a prodigy of the Ninth Grade True Immortal might not be able to take her attack.

In a bang, the single-horned yokai beast was sent flying back with blood spurting out from his mouth by the blow, and the Daoist patterns on his physique were shattered one after another!

Lan Yu immediately unleashed another attack with her scepter, and the Radiant Immortal’s Core fell like a meteor!

The single-horned yokai beast was extremely frightened, and he hurriedly shouted, “I admit defeat!”

Soon after, a flash of light appeared on the Interstellar Ring. The single-horned yokai beast was teleported out of the ring and could no longer enter the ring anymore.

The Hellion Temple King’s successor and others lost one of the combat strengths that they planned to utilize to deal with Chu Kuangren.

The surrounding sky-prides looked at each other.

“Lan Yu’s strength is more terrifying than the rumors.”

“Indeed.”

As Lan Yu held her scepter, her body flashed with light, and her eyes lit up when she felt that her cultivation had improved a little. “So this is the reward from the Interstellar Arena. It’s extraordinary indeed.”

Her cultivation had improved by just winning the battle once. What if she were to win a few more battles in a row?

Thinking of this, Lan Yu stared at the rest of the sky-prides with surging battle intent. At this moment, these people had become items for her to gain experience.

“Her strength is extraordinary. We can’t let her consume our combat strength. Otherwise, we will lack combat strength to deal with Chu Kuangren in the future.”

“We must be absolutely confident in defeating her as soon as possible!”

“I’ll attack,” the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather said with a faint smile.

He was one of the most powerful prodigies that were present and fit to fight with Lan Yu.

“Lan Yu, do you dare to...”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather took a step forward. Before he could finish his words, an incomparably domineering Celestial Demon qi swept over and shattered thousands of stars in the distance.

“Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, do you dare to fight me?!”

Chapter 1452: You Are All Nothing But Bumpkins, Zhuanxu’s Successor, Shennong Hundred Herbal Pill

“Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, do you dare to fight me?”

The cold voice echoed throughout the void, followed by a domineering Celestial Demon qi erupting into a black light. The stream of black light was blasted toward the Celestial Tablet.

The whole tablet shook, even the space around trembled. A name appeared on the table — Jue Wushen.

“It’s him! The top Prodigy of the Celestial Demon Tribe! He who once rivaled the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist!”

Jue Wushen arrived proudly with his head up. His lightning-sharp eyes scanned over all the sky-prides present.

Behind him were Golden Jade Immortal Sparks, shimmering across the sky. Its brightness shadowed even the stars in the sky.

A slender figure gradually emerged from the Immortal Sparks.

Fair skin, slender physique, long silky hair that draped over her shoulder like a waterfall, her dignified presence resembled that of a supreme Immortal Queen!

It was Yu Zhi, the Jade Pool Maiden Sage!

Yu Zhi’s arrival sparked a heated discussion among the cultivators.

Hellion Temple King’s successor, Xuanyuan’s successor, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, all reacted strangely at her arrival.

“The Honorable Supreme Immortal Physique, the Golden Jade Pool Immortal Physique. She already possessed the power to reign over the Immortal World.”

“You’re right. She is not to be underestimated.”

Beside Yu Zhi was Qing Feng, and when she saw Chu Hong, she went up to say hi.

Yu Zhi nodded politely at Chu Kuangren.

“How are you?”

“I’m doing fine.”

Jue Wushen came to Chu Kuangren with a bow.

He then looked at the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather and repeated what he said earlier, "Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, dare you to fight me?"

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather's expression shifted as he fell into silence.

Jue Wushen's powerful energy presence matched even Xuanyuan's successor. In addition to the Chaos Celestial Demon Physique, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather has no confidence in winning the battle.

"I decline."

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather declined on the spot!

It shocked everyone as they assumed the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather was afraid of fighting.

"You did well." The Hellion Temple King's successor nodded. "Our target is Chu Kuangren's true self, we should not be wasting our energy here."

"We must win Chu Kuangren this time no matter what!" the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather said.

For the sake of the plan, he discarded his pride and declined the challenge from Jue Wushen. Others assumed that he was afraid of fighting Jue Wushen.

"Hmph. What about you people?" Jue Wushen sized up the Hellion Temple King's successor and Xuanyuan's successor.

However, no one answered his challenge.

"You call yourself Prodigies?" Jue Wushen scoffed.

Chu Kuangren felt strange about their decline. "They are all top Prodigies. There's no way they are this afraid. Aside from the others, Xuanyuan's successor, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, and the Hellion Temple King's successor are quite powerful. They should have a fifty percent chance to win against Jue Wushen in a fight. Why aren't they accepting the challenge?"

"Unless they are preparing something and cannot afford to be disqualified halfway... Their target is me!"

Chu Kuangren connected all the dots in his mind and finally realized what they were up to. A smile appeared on his face. "Interesting."

Since Xuanyuan's successor and the others refused to fight, Jue Wushen paused his challenge invitation.

Chu Hong, Lan Yu, and the others continued to challenge other sky-prides.

Three days went by in the blink of an eye.

On this day, after Xuanyuan's successor had just defeated a sky-pride, Jue Wushen came to him and challenged him again.

"Xuanyuan's successor, do you dare to fight me?"

"I decline!"

Xuanyuan's successor's expression turned grim before he turned around.

“You have declined my challenge for the third time now. If you decline me the next time, you will lose the right to stand on this ring!” Jue Wushen said.

“Don’t worry. If you challenge me again, I will let you know the taste of defeat.”

“Hmph! You think I wouldn’t know, but you people keep declining my challenge because you people are saving up for something against my King,” Jue Wushen scoffed.

After observing for a few days, he had a hunch that Xuanyuan’s successor and his gang were preparing something huge.

He wore a contemptuous expression and said, “Too bad. No matter how much you people prepared, when my King arrives in the ring, you people are nothing but a bunch of bumpkins! All it takes is one attack for my King to defeat all of you!”

Xuanyuan’s successor clenched his fists tightly. Killing intent overflowed in his eyes. “You speak too soon about the outcome. You really think Chu Kuangren can forever be invincible?”

“My King has never lost a battle. What else can you say about that?” Jue Wushen said. He admired Chu Kuangren from the bottom of his heart, and his eyes even had a hint of fanaticism when he mentioned his King.

Xuanyuan’s successor felt terrible upon hearing Jue Wushen.

Jue Wushen was as strong as himself, yet he respected and admired Chu Kuangren like a God.

In other words, Jue Wushen hinted that Xuanyuan’s successor was no match for Chu Kuangren.

‘No! I cannot afford to be moved! My Daoist’s core must remain stern!’

“Chu Kuangren will face defeat this time,” Xuanyuan’s successor said coldly before he left.

Buzz!

Suddenly, his communication jade scroll buzzed.

“A message from the sect?”

Surprised, Xuanyuan’s successor opened it up and was intrigued by the message. “Zhuanxu’s successor has appeared and is currently on the way to the Interstellar Arena.”

The Human Emperor Sect’s objective was to search for all Human Emperor’s legacy.

Amongst the current generation of Human Emperor’s successors, Xuanyuan’s successor remained the strongest and he announced his presence to the world. There were a few more who had yet to show themselves to the public, including Zhuanxu’s successor.

Zhuanxu’s successor could no longer sit back and watch as he wanted to fight for the final opportunity of the Interstellar Arena.

On top of that, he was on a mission to deliver something to Xuanyuan’s successor.

A while later, a black light soared across the starry sky and arrived on a nameless planet.

Xuanyuan's successor had been waiting for a while now.

"You're here."

Before Xuanyuan's successor was a young man in long black robes. He bore a frosty expression and was surrounded by black streams of water.

The black watery stream looked terrifying as each drop of it weighed a planet.

"This is the item that the sect wants me to give to you."

Zhuanxu's successor gave Xuanyuan's successor a golden pill. His frosty expression showed a hint of jealousy.

"Shennong Hundred Herbal Pill! I didn't think it would exist!"

Xuanyuan's successor's eyes gleamed in anticipation.

The Shennong Hundred Herbal Pill was a legendary pill created by the Flame Emperor, Shennong. It was said that the taker of the pill would have a chance to break through in a matter of days.

The more talented the taker, the better the effect.

"The sect discovered this from Shennong's ruins. Other than that, the sect also found an ancient inheritance of Shennong. They are choosing the one candidate to receive it."

"It's fortunate for the sect," Xuanyuan's successor said with a nod.

He then explained the situation with Chu Kuangren to Zhuanxu's successor. "Interested to join us?"

"Chu Kuangren? The sect has been watching him for a while now and according to my knowledge, the higher-ups had the intention of roping him in. I would like to meet him myself."

"Great. Then you should go to the Interstellar Arena while I refine the pill."

After leaving his instructions with Zhuanxu's successor, Xuanyuan's successor started his cultivation.

He looked at the Shennong Hundred Herbal Pill with utmost anticipation. "Chu Kuangren, when I come out from my cultivation, you and I will fight!"

Chapter 1453: Break Through Gilded Immortal, Have Them Search For It Again, Is It Really Enough?

Holy Violet Emperor Planet, the Luo clan, where Chu Kuangren had his closed-door meditation.

He floated in the air with his legs crossed, and Immortal Sparks spread outwards from his core. Daoist chimes echoed around him, producing a mystical and otherworldly melody.

Absorbing the Hundred Snowy Lotus allowed Chu Kuangren's Immortal's Core to go through a major transformation.

Cultivating the Single Qi Three Clarity Transformation already made his Immortal Core stronger than his peers. After merging it with the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks, his Immortal Core could already rival that of a Gilded Immortal.

All he lacked was the Gilded Trait.

After refining the Hundred Snowy Lotus and other items, the Gilded Trait in his Immortal's Core has finally developed into a mature stage.

A golden spark shone inside his body.

The golden spark shone like the brightest star in pure chaos.

All of a sudden, the golden spark exploded and expanded outwards rapidly. Chu Kuangren's body was gradually painted gold with his Immortal's Core enveloped by a layer of golden spark.

The golden spark merged with the Golden Jade Immortal Spark and grew into something even brighter.

"I did it!"

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes. The energy in him continued to surge rapidly until his cultivation base reached Gilded Immortal realm!

He had finally ascended to the rank of an expert in the Immortal World.

Not only among the younger generations but throughout the entire Immortal World.

Given his talents and power, although he had just achieved the Gilded Immortal realm, common Gilded Immortals were no longer his match.

Gilded Immortals were usually the pillar of strength in those ancient immortal orthodoxies or even the Overlord level factions. They were considered the true experts of the Immortal World.

As for the Arch Gilded Immortals, they were known as the great ones.

"My physical body, my soul, and my cultivation level have finally reached the Gilded Immortal Realm! I have no more weaknesses!" Chu Kuangren smiled happily.

Then, he looked into the starry sky with a grin. "The next step would be the final opportunity of the Interstellar Arena. Besides, I'm looking forward to what you guys have prepared for me."

...

Interstellar Arena.

A powerful energy presence erupted all of a sudden!

It was Chu Hong reaching Eighth Grade True Immortal realm!

"This Interstellar Arena is indeed a good place to cultivate."

Chu Hong smiled happily. She had defeated several sky-prides recently and received the reward from the arena, hence her major improvements.

Throughout the Ninth Grade of True Immortals, every single grade required a mountainous effort to achieve.

Common True Immortals might have to spend hundreds or thousands of years without any gifts or opportunities to increase a single grade.

She only spent a little more than ten days in the Interstellar Arena and she had completely transformed herself!

It was a clear sign of how massive the Interstellar Arena's opportunity was.

Almost all the sky-prides came to the Interstellar Arena for the trial.

Those who won would receive gifts; those who lost would have to leave empty-handed.

As for the final opportunity, only a handful of Peerless Prodigies were worthy to challenge it.

Common sky-prides should be more than grateful for being able to stand in the Interstellar Arena.

"I wonder what those Prodigies are doing? They have been rejecting our challenges in the past few days," Chu Hong said as she stared at the Prodigies further away with furrowed brows.

There were a number of monstrous Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena and some of them seemed to have reached an agreement to not compete with each other. They challenged others instead of the selected few so that they could continue to improve.

They rejected all the challenge invitations from Lan Yu, Chu Hong, Jue Wushen, and others.

"They are preparing to challenge Master," Lan Yu said after some careful thought.

Chu Hong was surprised by her words. "Challenge brother? Are they out of their minds? They are preparing to challenge my brother with that?"

"One might not be his match, but what about a simultaneous fight where they all take turns to fight him?"

Chu Hong was no idiot either. After some pondering, she realized what the Hellion Temple King's successor and the others were trying to do.

"They are trying to exhaust brother's stamina by fighting him in turns. There are so many of them... I think this will be a problem."

Chu Hong then looked at the Celestial Tablet further away. Her brows furrowed.

There were names carved on the tablet, including sky-prides and Prodigies from different forces.

The Divine Daoists and Divine Maidens from the Immortal Hall, the successors of the Human Emperors, Buddhist disciples from the Buddhist world, sky-prides from the Demonic Dao Sect, Underworld City's successor, Yokai Heavenly Champion, and more.

Each and every name carved on the tablet possessed formidable strength, and some of them could rival that of a Gilded Immortal.

If all of them teamed up and fight someone in rotation, no one in the Immortal World, except for the Arch Gilded Immortals, would last long enough.

“Brother, are you not going to do anything?”

Chu Hong looked at Chu Kuangren’s clone further away.

Chu Kuangren’s clone did not join the battle at all and had been observing from the side.

The existence of the clone was the reason why the Prodigies declined the challenge invitations from Lan Yu and the others.

Lan Yu and Chu Hong were not weak by any means. To fight them, the Prodigies would have to use their trump card, but it was prepared for Chu Kuangren.

They did not want to expose their hands at this stage.

“A bunch of bumpkins. No need to worry,” Chu Kuangren said as he looked down on all of them.

The Prodigies who heard him were irritated and annoyed by the arrogance.

“Hmph! His arrogant days are limited,” Shi Tianxuan coldly grunted.

“You’re right,” the Golden Crown Pseudo-Forefather nodded.

“Chu Kuangren, I look forward to the day of fighting your true self,” Zhuanxu’s successor said to Chu Kuangren’s clone.

He was one of the newest additions to the Interstellar Arena and with his outstanding capabilities, he was able to stand out from the others.

The Nether Black Water he possessed was powerful. A drop from it could perforate a planet, even a Higher Third-grade True Immortal would not last long against it.

“I must avenge the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist!” a young man with a pale look said as he stared at Chu Kuangren with utmost killing intent.

There were faint noises of torrential current around him. It was as though he was surrounded by a great river.

Similar to Zhuanxu’s successor, he cultivated the water element cultivation technique.

He was the River God Divine Daoist of the Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall.

The River God Divine Daoist and Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist were well-known rivals in the Nine Houses. They would leave sarcastic remarks for each other upon meeting, but as a fellow Divine Daoist, the River God Divine Daoist was furious when the Mountain Ghoul Divine Daoist was killed.

Beside the River God Divine Daoist was another lady with beautiful looks and an elegant dress. Surrounded by Immortal Sparks, her presence captured attention.

She belonged to one of the Nine Houses as well, an old Goddess from the ancient time named Lady Shang.

Zhuanxu’s successor, River God Divine Daoist, Lady Shang Divine Maiden were all new additions to the Interstellar Arena’s list of sky-prides and Prodigies.

They were summoned here by the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist and Xuanyuan's successor as external help.

Other than the three of them, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather also got help from a powerful subspecies but has yet to show up.

"Speaking of which, do you guys think the few of you are enough to fight me?" Chu Kuangren looked at the Prodigies calmly.

"Is it really enough? Do you guys need more time to find more help?"

"It's enough to deal with you!" the Hellion Temple King's successor said.

"Really?"

It was then a cold voice sounded from a distance.

Then, a strong sword ray burst from the horizon and swept across the galaxy, destroying planets in its way.

The dazzling sword ray terrified even the Gods!

Chapter 1454: Terrifying Aura, Those Who Leave Their Names On The Celestial Tablet, Go Together

"Is it really enough?" A voice echoed throughout the galaxy.

A powerful sword ray shone from the horizon and its dazzling Immortal Sparks shadowed more than half of the Interstellar Arena.

The sword ray destroyed every planet in its way.

Even the messy spiritual qi streams in space scattered into nothingness under the dazzling shine.

The dazzling sword ray terrified even the Gods!

Everyone who saw the sword ray and the dazzling Daoist patterns contained within was stunned and dumbfounded.

The sword ray landed right on the Celestial Tablet.

A loud explosion went off and the tablet started to tremble as if it was going to break into two.

Terrifying energy left countless sky-prides on the Interstellar Arena pressured. Some of them even got down on their knees uncontrollably.

All the sky-prides and Prodigies inside the arena were shocked by the appearance of the sword ray.

Those outside the arena were blasted away with fear lingering in their hearts.

"What kind of monster is that?!"

"This sword ray is terrifying!"

Everyone stared at the celestial tablet in fear.

As the stardust and energy streams scattered, a name was left on the tablet, a name that scared everyone who laid eyes on it.

With strong strokes and firm writing, each stroke of the name revealed the confidence and arrogance of the writer.

It was Chu Kuangren!

Everyone in the arena turned to the horizon.

Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and the others were delighted.

The Hellion Temple King's successor, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather wore a heavy look in reaction to Chu Kuangren's appearance.

The white robes with a sword and scrolls at the waist, the transcendental presence that stood out from the mundane, the Immortal Sparks that shone and shadowed even the brightest star.

His presence alone shadowed the entire universe! It was as though he became the center of the universe!

Chu Kuangren's true self has arrived!

He took a step forward from tens of thousands of kilometers away but his vast Immortal's Core energy expanded and shattered the stars in the way and disrupted the spiritual energy of the universe.

A few steps later, he arrived above the Interstellar Arena.

The aura stronger than the sword qi from earlier flooded the space and trembled in every direction.

"Chu Kuangren has finally shown up!"

"So this is his real self? He's much more charming than the clone!"

"His aura is terrifying!"

The Prodigies looked at Chu Kuangren cautiously, and they tried to size him up using their Immortal Consciousness.

However, every single one of them saw nothing but a bottomless abyss inside him. Their Immortal Consciousnesses were unable to see through Chu Kuangren, or even determine if he was the real one.

Unpredictable!

That was the only word that appeared in everyone's mind who tried to size him up.

"Ants hoping to peek into heaven?" Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and released his Immortal Consciousness.

Countless other Immortal Consciousnesses who tried to peek into him were blasted off, leaving a pale look on their respective faces.

"Hmph!"

Chu Kuangren grunted as he slowly descended from the sky.

It felt like the entire sky had fallen on them as the pressure left everyone shaking.

Chu Kuangren tiptoed on the Interstellar Arena but his energy was enough to shake the entire ring.

Rampant Immortal's Core energy flooded the ring repeatedly like the rising tide.

Everyone else was shocked and tried to block the invasive Immortal's Core energy.

Bang! Bang Bang!

The whole Interstellar Arena fell into chaos following Chu Kuangren's arrival. The sky-prides who were still engaged in a fight were forced to stop and defend themselves against Chu Kuangren's energy presence.

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were used.

Those who knew less would assume that he was fighting everyone else alone, but in fact, they were just blocking his overflowing Immortal's Core energy.

Despite this, a number of the sky-prides were blasted away with blood gushing from their mouths. Even their Immortal bodies started to dim out.

Everyone else remained shocked.

"What situation is this? How can he be this powerful?"

"This monster! His overflowing Immortal's Core alone is too much for them to handle! If he attacks, how terrifying would it be?"

"He has surpassed all the other sky-prides single-handedly!"

"I don't think I have the confidence to even attack him."

Some of the sky-prides lost their confidence and morale as soon as they felt Chu Kuangren's overflowing Immortal's Core energy.

The Hellion Temple King's successor, Golden Crown Pseudo-Forefather, and the others were also shocked.

"He is much stronger than we thought."

"Indeed. This is going to be a tough battle."

The Hellion Temple King's successor inhaled deeply to calm himself down before he said telepathically, "Now that Chu Kuangren has arrived, we will proceed with our plan."

"Understand!"

The sky-prides and Prodigies who had formed an alliance against Chu Kuangren nodded in acknowledgment.

Then, a monk in golden red kasaya came over.

Named Xu Jing, the monk was a Prodigy from Virtuous Purity Land and possessed Seventh Grade True Immortal cultivation based.

It was said that he even received an inheritance from one of the Eight Great Bodhisattvas.

Xu Jing was actually slightly depressed being the first to face Chu Kuangren.

When the alliance was formed, all of them drew lots to determine the sequence of battle.

He got unlucky and picked the first slot.

Everyone knew that Chu Kuangren would be at his strongest at the earliest stage.

Now that Chu Kuangren had pressured everyone using his aura alone, Xu Jing felt like he was facing the most vicious demon god in history.

Chu Kuangren should not be considered one of the younger generations because no one was as scary as he was.

However, since the plan was already in motion, Xu Jing must play his part. If he dropped out at the last minute, the others would probably discriminate against him.

"I am Xu Jing and I am here to challenge you. Please enlighten me."

Xu Jing said as he put his hands together.

Buddhist light gradually shone from his back, granting him a holistic presence.

"Maser, they are going to use a rotation tactic against you!"

"My King, let me fight on your behalf and clear some of the hurdles for you!"

Lan Yu and Jue Wushen wanted to help, but Chu Kuangren simply waved and told them to stand down.

He looked at Xu Jing. "I decline your challenge."

Everyone else was shocked by his answer.

Chu Kuangren declined the challenge invitation?!

Was he afraid of the rotation tactic that the Hellion Temple King's successor and his alliance came up with?

Even the Hellion Temple King's successor himself was shocked. He did not expect Chu Kuangren to decline the challenge invitation.

Everyone assumed that Chu Kuangren would never turn down a challenge invitation due to his arrogance.

"Am I overestimating him?"

"So this is Chu Kuangren? What a joker!"

"Chu Kuangren, you can't decline all our invitations! Everyone only has three chances to decline a challenge invitation. You can decline the challenge invitation from Xu Jing, but you can't reject us all!"

The Prodigies scoffed.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered at all. He continued, "I decline fighting one on one. It's a waste of time. Those who left their names on the tablet can all come at me together!"

Chapter 1455: You Guys Can Win, I'll Kill Myself On The Spot, A Rampant Posture, Left A Deep Impression

"Those who left their names on the tablet can all come at me, together!"

Chu Kuangren remained nonchalant and expressionless when he made the announcement.

He spoke the most terrifying words using the calmest tone.

Everyone who heard him was astonished, stunned, and petrified. They looked at him as if he was out of his mind.

There were more than a thousand names on the Celestial Tablets!

Each and every name was one of the best sky-prides and Prodigies out there, and Chu Kuangren wanted to challenge all of them, not one by one, but all of them together?

Arrogance could no longer be used to describe his attitude!

He's crazy!

Only a monster could do something this crazy!

Even the Hellion Temple King's successor was baffled by this announcement. He originally planned to use the rotation tactic to wear down Chu Kuangren's strength and slowly grind him down.

Who would have thought that Chu Kuangren did not even give him the chance to execute the plan. He appeared and instantly challenged everyone in the arena!

The rotation tactic was forcefully changed into a group fight!

One man against all the participants in the arena!

Things had developed far beyond his expectation.

He suddenly realized his rotation tactic would work against a common enemy, but not Chu Kuangren because he had gone beyond the realm of common sense.

"Crazy! He's a maniac! Why would I speculate the actions of a crazy man using the logic of the common? It's wrong! Everything is wrong!" the Hellion Temple King's successor mumbled.

He looked at Chu Kuangren with a complex gaze, containing resentment, admiration, and even anger.

Most of the sky-prides and Prodigies were furious upon hearing Chu Kuangren. They felt like they were insulted by his arrogance.

"Who does he think he is? Challenging all of us alone?"

"Is he really out of his mind?"

“He is. He’s a crazy man!”

“I thought he’s afraid to fight, but Chu Kuangren is still Chu Kuangren, a crazy man indeed.”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather wore a heavy look at Chu Kuangren. “Chu Kuangren, stop fooling around. One man challenging all the names on the Celestial Tablet? It’s impossible! You’re being too arrogant!”

“If you guys can win me, I’ll kill myself on the spot,” Chu Kuangren said using the calmest tone.

He was tough on the others, but he was tougher on himself!

Everyone shook in disbelief when they heard Chu Kuangren.

“Geez, he’s going out of line!”

“He’s going to kill himself on the spot? For real?”

“Holy sh*t! What is in his mind? He really thinks he can win all of us?”

The Hellion King Temple’s successor, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, and the others were intrigued by Chu Kuangren’s suggestion.

They barely had any hope in killing Chu Kuangren. All they sought to do was stop him from acquiring the final opportunity from the Interstellar Arena.

Who would have thought that Chu Kuangren would take things up a notch?

He was gambling with his own life!

“Let’s fight him together! We have better odds compared to the rotation tactic! Chu Kuangren can’t win us all!”

“If we win, he’ll kill himself! That will be the end of our problems!”

“With that attitude of his, if he’s bold enough to make such a statement, he’ll never go back on his words; if he chickened out in the end, he’ll ruin his reputation with his own hands!”

The Hellion Temple King’s successor and the others were moved by the suggestion, but one problem remained.

“Though is there such a rule in the Interstellar Arena?” the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather asked.

It was at that moment, the Interstellar Arena trembled, and a barrier of light shot up into the sky to blanket the entire ring.

The names on the tablet started to change as well.

Chu Kuangren’s name moved to the side while all the other names moved to his opposite, as though he was placed opposite against all the participants by the Interstellar Arena itself.

The Interstellar Arena acknowledged Chu Kuangren’s challenge!

It shocked almost everyone on the ring.

“The Interstellar Arena changed the rules because of Chu Kuangren?”

“It seems like the Interstellar Arena acknowledged Chu Kuangren’s strength as well, and going one-on-one against him would make him unbeatable, that’s why the rules changed.”

“Hmph. He’s so strong that the rules changed because of him. This is definitely a first.”

Since the Interstellar Arena made the changes for Chu Kuangren, the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather and the others no longer hesitated.

They all stared at Chu Kuangren with overflowing battle intent.

Lan Yu, Chu Hong, Jue Wushen, and the others exchanged a quick glance before saying en masse, “We surrender.”

Light flashed around them and teleported them out of the Interstellar Arena.

After they were teleported outside, Lan Yu and the others stared at Chu Kuangren with the heaviest look.

“Is Brother Chu going to be alright?” Yu Zhi asked out of concern.

It was worth noting that Chu Kuangren was not going up against one or two top Prodigies or sky-prides, he was going up against a thousand! The strongest sky-prides and Prodigies in the Interstellar Arena!”

“Those people shall know despair when they face master,” Lan Yu said.

She was also worried but she has absolute confidence in Chu Kuangren.

She was one of the earliest followers, and she knew Chu Kuangren’s personality better than the others. He would never do something that he has no confidence in.

“The king is invincible.” Jue Wushen took a deep breath to strengthen his conviction.

Back inside the Interstellar Arena, Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back. His white robes fluttered like snow as he stood against the strongest sky-prides and Prodigies.

The battle became the center of attention in the entire universe.

Even the great ones in the Immortal World placed their attention on the battle.

“Chu Kuangren! We will destroy your arrogance and pride today!”

“That’s right! We shall let you know how far your pride and arrogance has taken you and how badly it will destroy you!”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather, the Hellion Temple King’s successor, the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, and the others’ expressions turned frosty.

Chu Kuangren remained calm. He put his hand on Descendant Self’s hilt. The jade white blade started to buzz excitingly.

“If you guys can survive this, the name Chu Kuangren will haunt you for the rest of your lives.”

His words ignited the anger of everyone who heard him.

“Chu Kuangren! We shall see what is fueling that ignorant confidence and arrogance of yours!”

One of the sky-prides stepped forward with a hammer in hand. A swing from his hammer could destroy planets and even the void, but Chu Kuangren stood firm against the hammer strike.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward, and a dazzling sword ray pierced the sky and landed on the hammer, crushing it into bits.

The sky-pride felt chills down his spine, and the next thing that happened was his consciousness fading.

A head fell on the ground, followed by a fountain of blood gushing out from the headless body.

A sky-pride has fallen just like that.

Chu Kuangren remained firm on the spot. “There’s no need to test the waters or anything, just give everything you got and try your best in surviving.”

The moment his words subsided, a chilly killing intent erupted and veiled the entire arena.

The killing intent was so intense that it felt like it has manifested into icy spikes that would freeze one’s spine.

“Everyone! Together! Remember, we are facing Chu Kuangren!” the Hellion Temple King’s successor said grimly.

The others channeled their Immortal’s Core energy to the limit.

Even if they had the overwhelming advantage of numbers, they dared not be careless.

The figure in white before them had never lost a fight ever since he appeared. He was invincible!

His rampant posture and arrogant personality left a deep impression on people.

It was not exaggerating to say that they were facing an invincible war god!

Chapter 1456: Fighting A Monstrous Sky-Pride, That’s All You People Have For Teaming Up?

Chu Kuangren faced off against a thousand sky-prides and Prodigies on the Interstellar Arena!

His white robes fluttered in the wind, expressing his unmatched and invincible charms.

“We fight!”

The Hellion Temple King’s successor started the fight with a forward palm strike.

Massive Yin qi formed a vortex in the void and attempted to devour Chu Kuangren.

Heavy Death intent filled the arena.

It was the ultimate technique of the Underworld City, Samsara Palm!

The powerful palm strike felt like it could devour the galaxy whole!

The strongest palm strike of a Ninth Grade True Immortal was indeed terrifying!

“Underworld City’s Samsara energy? You’re still not strong enough.”

Chu Kuangren remained still on the spot. Multiple streams of gray Tribulation Light started to swirl around him.

It was the Reincarnation Tribulation Light from the Heavenly Samsara Physique!

A stream of the Tribulation Light was shot forward, containing a massive amount of Daoist patterns and Samsara energy. A deafening explosion went off when the Tribulation Light hit the vortex created by the Samsara palm, causing an influx of energy streams to scatter outward.

The energy streams cracked the space in the arena and showered it with Immortal Sparks.

The Hellion Temple King’s successor was blasted away by the Tribulation light.

Next, King Biancheng’s successor, Sword Demon’s successor Chang Zhijing, Xu Jing of the Buddhist world, and the others attacked with their strongest techniques.

“Samsara Pierce!” King Biancheng’s successor pointed forward, shooting Samsara Pierce’s energy across the void.

“Grand Brahmic Seal!”

Xu Jing performed a series of mystical hand seals and endless Buddhist light erupted from his body, shooting up into the sky. The Buddhist light intertwined and formed a massive Sauvastika symbol in the air, filled with holistic intent.

Chang Zhijing’s pitch-black demonic sword shone in violet light. He threw a slash forward, containing massive Demonic qi that could shred the void.

The other sky-prides cast their respective ultimate techniques.

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were blasted forward with peerless might and a terrifying aura.

The dazzling light from the different attacks outshone the sky and brightened up the entire Interstellar Arena.

The stray energy streams from the attacks were enough to shatter the void itself.

The combined attacks could destroy the universe, and every single attack was aimed at Chu Kuangren. No one knew how much pressure he was facing at that very moment.

However, those who watched the battle from afar clearly knew that if they were in Chu Kuangren’s position, they would be dead a hundred times over.

“Black Hole Massive Distortion!”

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and formed a black hole in his palm.

The black hole emanated a terrifying energy domain and distorted everything it touches.

The black hole's energy domain collided with the combined attacks.

The space around Chu Kuangren collapsed into nothingness due to the explosion, leaving behind a catastrophic and desolate scene in the void.

However, it was not pure nothingness in the cracked void but countless colorful lights shimmering with Daoist patterns intertwining.

They were the attacks from the sky-prides and Prodigies!

The terrifying black hole energy domain captured and grinded all the Immortal Techniques and divine abilities into nothingness.

Though before the Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were completely negated, a figure dashed across the void and attacked Chu Kuangren.

It was Chang Zhijing!

He wielded the pitch-black demonic sword and swung it in a flurry, forming a concentrated web of slashes that tried to capture Chu Kuangren.

"Dugu Sword Art, Lifeless!"

The web of slashes shadowed heaven and earth and blocked every possible escape route.

It was indeed the sword that slashes all life!

Chu Kuangren grinned. "Dugu Sword Art, the fourth of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques. Interesting."

He did not move or dodge as the web of slashes closed onto him, he did not need to move at all.

While he controlled the black hole to negate all combined attacks with one hand, he formed the sword hand sign with his other hand and cast the Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void Sword.

Countless Daoist patterns intertwined and formed a rampant sword intent that swept across the universe.

The Infinite Void Sword was indeed the blade of a tyrant!

Lifeless versus Infinite Void!

As the two great Sword Dao Techniques clashed, the Infinite Void Sword obliterated the Lifeless attacks with absolute power. The web of slashes was torn into shreds, and the Infinite Void Sword landed a clean slash on Chang Zhijing.

Splash!

Blood spurted into clouds of bloody mist in the air.

However, Chu Kuangren clearly felt that his slash landed on something similar to a barrier, and it mitigated half of the damage for Chang Zhijing.

It seemed like he equipped himself with some kind of high-level internal armor.

After Chang Zhijing's attack, more followed.

Xu Jing continued to perform his mystical hand seals and manifested the Buddhist light in the air. A Buddha's avatar took form above him and immediately threw a palm downward at Chu Kuangren.

King Biancheng's successor released a massive amount of Yin qi to form a vicious skeletal specter's avatar in the air.

The Buddha's avatar and the vicious specter avatar teamed up against a common enemy!

"Can you guys face the Papiyas Avatar then?"

Bloody Buddhist light erupted from Chu Kuangren and formed a massive four-armed avatar with three different faces, representing the three poisons of humans — delusion, attachment, and aversion.

It was the arch nemesis of Buddha, Papiyas!

Following the appearance of the Papiyas Avatar, a vast bloody Buddhist light erupted and swept across all directions, clashing with the Buddha's avatar and the vicious specter's avatar.

Both the good and evil avatars crumbled and collapsed upon clashing.

Xu Jing and King Biancheng's successor were blasted away with blood gushing.

That was not the end though.

The Papiyas' energy continued forward at King Biancheng's successor with indomitable force.

"I su—"

King Biancheng's successor realized the severity of the situation and wanted to surrender immediately, but a violet flash appeared in Chu Kuangren's eyes.

The Violet Eye was activated!

It was no secret that Chu Kuangren possessed soul-attacking techniques, hence they had been cautious against it.

Though being cautious was not the same as blocking the soul-attacking technique.

King Biancheng's successor was affected by the Violet Eye. Before he could finish saying the word 'surrender', the Papiyas' energy drowned him.

He burst into a cloud of blood before he could even surrender!

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren's black hole has successfully negated the combined attacks.

"God Killer Spear Technique, Daybreaking!"

The top Prodigy Shi Tianxuan attacked!

The spear ray perforated the sky and trembled heaven and earth.

Compared to their previous confrontation, Shi Tianxuan was a lot stronger than before and was a few steps shy of achieving the Gilded Immortal Realm.

Hellion Temple King's successor followed up by channeling his Yin qi to the limit.

"Samsara Crossing!"

The palm's Samsara energy transformed into an endless river with waves reflecting the destruction of reincarnation in it.

"Grand Solar Art, Seven Suns Divine Flame!"

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist unleashed the Grand Solar Force and fired boundless Divine Flame at Chu Kuangren.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden channeled the life-death Immortal Sparks. "Arbitrary Art, Life-death Heavenly God Finger!"

The God Killer Spear, the Samsara River, the Grand Solar's flame, the Life-Death finger force, all four different energies were blasted at Chu Kuangren from every direction.

"Fusang!" Chu Kuangren bellowed and summoned the golden-red divine tree behind him.

The branches extended and released millions of Immortal Sparks into the air.

The ancient divine tree, Fusang, was summoned!

Fusang's Yin-Yang energy was blasted outwards, causing black and white Immortal Sparks to fill the sky and transform into a massive Yin-Yang symbol!

The divine ability of Duality Rites Immortal Physique, Duality Rites Yin Yang Symbol!

The Yin-Yang energy from Duality Rites and Fusang converged and expanded outwards rapidly.

The clash between multiple energy streams caused a tremendous explosion!

The divine tree Fusang remained rooted firmly amidst the turbulent energy streams in the air.

A white figure remained still under the tree. He did not budge or flinch during the multiple clashes and he continued to peer down at his opponents in the most arrogant manner.

"So many of you teamed up, and that's all you guys got?"

Chapter 1457: This Formation Again? Daoist's Core Trauma, Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique Creating Purgatory

The fierce fight continued at Interstellar Arena and showed no signs of stopping anytime soon.

Outside Interstellar Arena, the viewers concentrated on the battle of the century and were more aroused than ever.

The use of all kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities, the powerful fights from the sky-prides and Prodigies, they were like a massive firework show blinding their eyes.

"This is amazing! It's not every day that we can see the top sky-prides and Prodigies fight like that!"

"It's not just rare! The rarest thing is that all of them are fighting one person! It has never been done or heard of before! Chu Kuangren is crazy!"

"I believe since ancient times, he is the only one who can make a whole generation of sky-prides and Prodigies this anxious and nervous."

"I agree..."

The heated discussion continued while they glued their eyes at the fight. Despite the multiple surprises, they concentrated on watching the fight and were afraid of losing the slightest details.

Back at the arena, the Fusang tree stood tall behind Chu Kuangren. He stood proudly under it with a condescending gaze. He said, "That's all you guys can do after teaming up?"

The sky-prides and Prodigies stared back with the heaviest look.

"Our attacks aren't hurting him! He's really a freak!"

"Hurt him? Hmph! Our attacks didn't even make him budge! We can't even make him move from his spot!"

Some of the sky-prides were already in despair when they realized the difference in strength.

Were they even powerful enough to stand before such a monster?

"Hmph! Stop acting like a coward!"

It was then a red-haired young man stepped up from the crowd. Behind him were a dozen more sky-prides, who were considered some of the strongest. They emerged from the crowd with rampant energy.

"It's them! The sky-prides from the Four Divisions of the Immortal Hall!"

Their appearance surprised some of the sky-prides.

"Chu Kuangren! Stop looking down at all of us!" the red-haired young man bellowed.

His figure flashed and appeared above Chu Kuangren and shouted, "Formation!"

The sky-prides from all Four Divisions scattered about. They channeled their Immortal's Core energy to the limit, releasing four contrasting energies that somehow resonated with each other.

Wind, fire, thunder, and water!

All four different energies intertwined in the air and formed a massive formation that trapped Chu Kuangren in the center.

"Four Phenomena Immortal Destruction Formation, activate!"

As the red-haired man shouted, the four contrasting energies intertwined faster in the air and shone brightly, forming four terrifying images of the mythical beast!

The Wind White Tiger, the Fire Scarlet Phoenix, the Thunder Azure Dragon, and the Water Black Warrior!

“Hoho? This formation again? You guys don’t seem to learn from your mistakes,” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

He had faced the Four Phenomena Immortal Destruction Formation before. It was indeed a mystical formation as it was the strongest combined formation from all Four Divisions of the Immortal Hall.

Though he successfully destroyed it as many times as they used it against him.

“Chu Kuangren! This formation isn’t what you have faced before in the past. The formation’s strength depends on its caster. The stronger the caster, the stronger the formation!

“Look at the four mystical beasts around you! They could kill a Prodigy with ease!” the red-haired man said coldly.

He then controlled all four of the mystical beasts to attack Chu Kuangren.

The Azure Dragon’s roar, the White Tiger’s crunch, the Scarlet Phoenix’s cry, and the Black Warrior’s shout!

All four mythical beasts unleashed boundless energy at Chu Kuangren, attempting to drown him with sheer force. The combined energies left a trail of torn space in its wake.

The others quickly retreated to avoid being caught in the crossfire.

“I don’t know where you people got the confidence to think that this formation could kill me. The four mythical beasts? Why don’t I show you my version?”

Chu Kuangren smiled as he raised his hand.

Countless Daoist patterns formed and circulated around him. Innate Ferocious qi overflowed and transformed into another four mythical beasts!

They were the four mythical beasts from the Divine Myriad Yokai Mimicry Technique!

Mythical beasts from two different factions clashed and attacked each other ferociously. The sheer scale of the fight shook the entire formation.

The red-haired man’s pupils shrank in fear. “What kind of cultivation technique is this? He manifested his energies into mythical beasts?!”

They had to combine the strength of a dozen sky-prides to summon their own mythical beasts, but Chu Kuangren did it with just a raise of his hand.

Summoning the four mythical beasts was not the end though.

“Ten Wild Beasts!”

Massive Innate Ferocious qi rumbled behind Chu Kuangren and manifested into different wild beasts.

The Avarice, the Lamia, the Manticore, and more. All kinds of wild beasts were being summoned into the battlefield.

“Hundred Beast!”

Other than the Ten Wild Beasts, a hundred more yokai beasts were summoned to the field.

Each beast that was summoned looks vivid and ferocious. They even carried a source of Innate Ferocious qi.

“Myriad Yokai!”

Countless more yokai beasts were summoned around Chu Kuangren. He single-handedly turned the battlefield into a paradise for yokai!

He became the lord of the beasts, the supreme king of a myriad of yokai!

The red-haired man stared at the Myriad Yokai Mimicry. His body uncontrollably trembled as he drowned in his own fear.

Outside the formations, the other sky-prides had a bad feeling watching the yokai being summoned

“Destroy all the enemies within sight,” Chu Kuangren said with a raise of his hand.

The countless yokai mimicries rushed outwards, carrying the most terrifying Innate Ferocious qi and the loudest roars.

The formation cast by the red-haired man and his fellow sky-prides was nothing in the face of the army of yokai mimicries.

Following painful wails and screams, the four mythical beasts from the Four Phenomena Immortal Destruction Formation were torn to shreds, and the formation crumbled in an instant.

The red-haired man and his fellow sky-prides were like a speck of dust before the wave of yokai mimicries. All of them lost the intent of fighting back.

The Four Division’s sky-prides could not even resist the attacks from the yokai mimicries and were torn to shreds in an instant.

The other sky-prides were paled by the scene.

“Defend!” the Hellion Temple King’s successor shouted.

The yokai mimicries then went after the hundreds and thousands of sky-prides in the arena.

“Damn it! Damn it! How did it become like this?!”

“He’s too strong! He’s not someone that we can fight!”

The sky-prides were being torn apart one after another.

The arena was painted with blood and decorated with torn limbs and bodies, as though the place had turned into purgatory!

The entire arena was filled with the ferocious roars from the yokai mimicries and the excruciating screams of the dying sky-prides and Prodigies.

“I surrender!” one of the sky-prides shouted before the yokai mimicry could bite him.

He was immediately teleported out of the arena, thus saving his own life.

Following the first surrender, more and more sky-prides gave up the battle and succumbed to the overwhelming fear. All of them started to surrender in succession.

When the sky-prides were teleported outside the arena, they watched the yokai mimics wreak havoc inside the arena with fear and disbelief.

“Monster!”

“This era shouldn’t have such a monster!”

“Yeah! There shouldn’t be anyone as strong as him! Unless he’s no longer human... He’s the devil himself!”

The words silenced the rest of the audience.

They remembered Chu Kuangren’s words that he spoke before the fight and now their Daoist cores were traumatized by what he said.

Looking at the sky-prides who surrendered and escaped the slaughter-fest, yet their shaking bodies could not recover from the trauma, the others realized Chu Kuangren was being serious from the start.

Starting from the moment Chu Kuangren appeared, the sky-prides were already doomed.

Those who escaped death suffered an unfathomable impact on their Daoist core.

Back at the arena, the yokai mimics slowly faded as time went by. The whole arena was filled with broken limbs and bodies, the air was filled with the pungent stench of blood.

The purgatory-esque scenery impacted everyone’s mind.

This would be the exact definition of purgatory on earth!

Chapter 1458: I Haven’t Use My Full Strength, Divine Abilities Merging, Life-Death And Samsara

Broken limbs and the sea of blood in the Interstellar Arena turned it into living purgatory.

However, amidst the gory scene stood a transcendental figure in white, free of every drop of blood and dirt. It was as though he was the purest lotus that grew out of the bloody pond.

The scene struck every audience’s heart cold.

He killed hundreds of sky-prides yet not a drop of blood stained his robes. He remained clean and transcendental after the slaughter-fest!

The people who had seen Chu Kuangren before suddenly felt like they were not living in the same world as him.

No matter how much they tried to catch up, they could never get close to him.

“He still did not move from his spot.”

Those who survived the yokai mimicry attack were either the strongest sky-prides or the monstrous Prodigies.

The Hellion Temple King's successor stared at Chu Kuangren heavily while chills ran down his spine.

Chu Kuangren had not moved an inch from the spot. Their attacks were like a breeze blowing at a rock, they were unable to move him, let alone hurt him.

On the contrary, Chu Kuangren's attack was like a catastrophic storm that brought death.

"Well then. Now that I've cleared out all the weaker ones, it's time for me to deal with you elites," Chu Kuangren said to the Hellion Temple King's successor and the surviving sky-prides.

Some of them had not even used their final trump card because they were waiting for the perfect opportunity.

They were waiting for the others to create a window for them to use their trump cards so that they could deliver the killing blow to Chu Kuangren. Unfortunately, the said window had not been created by either of them.

They could no longer afford to keep waiting for the chance.

"Everyone, please put in your best effort!" the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather said.

He then flew up into the sky with endless golden sparkles in his trail. He shone like the brightest sun in the sky.

Kaboom!

A massive golden claw that shadowed heaven appeared. Covered in concentrated Daoist patterns, it locked onto Chu Kuangren with its tremendous aura energy.

The Golden Crow Third Leg!

The strength of the massively powerful phenomenon was determined by the density of the Golden Crow Bloodline. The denser the bloodline, the stronger the third leg.

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather had awoken his bloodline eight times, thus the Golden Crow Third Leg he cast possessed unrivaled power.

"Hundred Ghost Festival!"

The Hellion Temple King's successor channeled his Immortal Technique once more and unleashed vicious ghosts and specters at Chu Kuangren.

"Nether Black Water!"

Zhuanxu's successor attacked as well. The black water around him floated up and merged into a ball of water the size of his fist.

The ball of black water might look dull, but it emanated a terrifying surge of energy, and it felt like it contained limitless gravitational force inside as the space around it was distorted.

“River God Art, Oceanic River Convergence!”

Water rumbled around the River God Divine Daoist. Multiple streams of massive rivers appeared in the void.

Each river’s torrential force could crush an entire continent.

“Aquatic Shang Art, Thirty-Thousand Suppression!”

Lady Shang Divine Maiden performed a series of mystical hand seals and summoned sparkling Immortals Sparks around her. Water started to gather above her head drop by drop, eventually forming a massive lake that shadowed the sky. Countless aquatic plants and beings could be seen in the water as if she summoned an entire marine ecosystem above her.

The Nether Black Water, Oceanic River Convergence, and Aquatic Shang Art each possessed different characteristics of the water element.

Though it was without a doubt that all three of them were tremendously powerful.

Following their lead, the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, Great Arbiter Divine Maiden, and other Prodigies joined the combined attack using their strongest trump card.

“Dugu Sword Art, Lifebreaker!”

“Amitabha, Thousand Buddha Mahamudra Mantra!”

Chang Zhijing used the ultimate technique of the Sword Demon while Xu Jing channeled the Buddha’s Avatar.

Nine scorching suns appeared behind the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist’s back, with each burning hotter than the others.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden channeled her damage-reversing technique and infused the energy into several sky-prides to boost their ultimate technique’s power.

She was indeed a capable one as she was able to deceive some of the top sky-prides to devote their lives to her and accept her damage-reversing technique for power-up.

“Godkiller Spear Technique, Burial of Gods!”

Shi Tianxuan released a powerful warcry to boost his energy level. He channeled his secret technique to raise his power closer to the realm of a Gilded Immortal.

He then channeled the ultimate technique of the Godkiller Spear Technique.

The murderous intent that could bury Gods scattered alongside demonic qi. He was much stronger than Chang Zhijing’s technique.

Some of the strongest Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were being cast by some of the strongest Prodigies and sky-prides. The plethora of attacks shook the entire arena.

Demonic qi, Buddhist light, yokai qi, water current, and more. All kinds of energies and all kinds of dazzling Daoist patterns left the audience in awe and silence. No one dared to even blink as they were afraid they would miss the grand spectacle of a battle.

“This would be the deciding act!”

“Maybe! Some of the sky-prides and Prodigies had already used all of their power.”

“No one dares to hold back in front of Chu Kuangren.”

Each and every Prodigy was strong on their own and was considered rare, and the trump cards they possessed were definitely awe-inspiring.

“Go!”

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather unleashed his energy.

Chu Kuangren remained calm and nonchalant against some of the strongest attacks in the universe. The overwhelming energy current did not even make him flinch. “You people have used up all you have, but I haven’t.”

As soon as his words subsided, a terrifying Immortal’s Core energy spread outwards from him.

The Immortal’s Core energy contained the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks.

An even more terrifying fact was that the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks contained intense Gilded Traits of a Gilded Immortal.

The Gilded Traits and the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks shone brightly, complementing each other as they fused with the terrifying Immortal’s Core energy.

As soon as the Immortal’s Core energy expanded, it clashed with all the incoming attacks and a universe-shaking explosion went off.

The Interstellar Arena started to crack under overwhelming pressure!

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were stopped a hundred meters away from Chu Kuangren by his Immortal’s Core energy.

“Gilded Immortal!? He has achieved Gilded Immortal Realm?!”

“He’s not just any Gilded Immortal!”

“The merge of the Gilded Traits and Golden Jade Immortal Sparks made him a lot stronger than common Gilded Immortals!”

The sky-prides and Prodigies were horrified.

They tried to scan Chu Kuangren’s cultivation base but were fruitless earlier. They only knew they were not strong enough to see through Chu Kuangren.

Now that Chu Kuangren revealed his cultivation level to all of them, their questions finally got answers.

Gilded Immortal! His cultivation level far surpassed all the sky-prides and Prodigies on the field.

“One move. If you people can survive this, you’re capable enough,” Chu Kuangren said.

He channeled his Immortal’s Core energy and unleashed Immortal Sparks that shot into the universe and shook the stars.

“Divine Samsara Overworld, Universal Life-Death Cycle, divine abilities, merge!”

Chu Kuangren channeled both his Heavenly Samsara Immortal Physique and Chaos Celestial Demon Physique and merged their divine abilities together!

In addition to the already astonishing achievement, the two divine abilities started to resonate with each other. Life-death energy merged with samsara energy to produce a much more powerful surge of energy!

The Life-Death Cycle appeared. Following the endless Life-Death energy, worlds were destroyed and sent into the Samsara Overworld, forming a destructive and cataclysmic energy stream that could absorb the universe and all life within into infinite samsara.

It was at that moment, the Interstellar Arena exploded.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1459: 1459 Xuanyuan's Successor Achieving Gilded Immortal, Xuanyuan Sword Qi Versus Blade Of Zhou

1459 Xuanyuan’s Successor Achieving Gilded Immortal, Xuanyuan Sword Qi Versus Blade Of Zhou

Universal Life-Death Cycle and Divine Samsara Overworld!

The combination of the two divine abilities created a boundless life-death and samsara intent, scattering into the realm and dragging every life that it touches into an infinite samsara loop.

Life-death and samsara intent gushed forward like a tidal wave.

It was but a moment but the sword qi shattered, Buddhist light faded and even the Grand Solar Flame was extinguished. All kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities crumbled like brittle leaves before absolute power!

Chang Zhijing and Xu Jing were caught by the combined energy first as they were the closest to him.

They did not even have the time to surrender and their bodies burst into a cloud of bloody mist.

Two top sky-prides had fallen!

In addition to that, the massive energy current continued to sweep over the field, terrorizing the other sky-prides and Prodigies!

Lady Shang Divine Maiden’s face turned pale. She channeled her energy to the limit to block the incoming energy wave but was negated by the Life-Death energy, and her body’s Daoist pattern started to fade. She became the third to fall after Chang Zhijing and Xu Jing.

The River God Divine Daoist, the Eastern Sky Divine Daoist, and Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather channeled their energies to the limit and attempted to block the incoming energy wave.

“I surrender!”

The Eastern Sky Divine Daoist and the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden shouted their surrender in horror and were instantly teleported out of the arena.

“Nether Black Water, block it!”

Zhuanxu’s successor bellowed as he converged all the black water around him into a ball of water and enveloped himself within to block the energy wave.

Despite his effort, his body felt like it had fallen into a massive grinder and was being ground brutally. It was as though he would fall any moment.

Multiple explosions happened as the energy wave expanded.

The terrifying energy current shook the entire Interstellar Arena with its absolute force.

When the energy finally faded, all the Prodigies were either dead or tripled.

The weaker Prodigies and sky-prides, such as Lady Shang Divine Maiden, Chang Zhijing, and Xu Jing, fell as soon as they were caught by the energy wave. Not a single part of their bodies was left.

Those who managed to survive were either top Prodigies like the Golden Crown Pseudo-Forefather, Shi Tianxuan, and others, or those who possessed life-saving items.

Those who surrendered in time also escaped death.

In short, Chu Kuangren’s combined attack obliterated the Prodigies.

The entire space fell into dead silence.

Those who witnessed the horrifying scene were either petrified or trembled uncontrollably.

All of them were at a loss for words.

Surrender?

The thought rushed into the minds of Zhuanxu’s successor, the River God Divine Daoist, and the other Prodigies.

Chu Kuangren’s absolute power robbed every bit of their hope of winning.

Kaboom!

While the Interstellar Arena was left in a wretched state after the attack, a powerful energy erupted further away.

The energy shot up into space and transformed into a golden sword ray that released overwhelming sword pressure outwards.

Everyone else was surprised by the sudden burst of sword rays.

Some of them were astonished.

“That’s one powerful sword ray!”

"It's the Gilded Trait!"

Someone noticed the dense Gilded Trait contained in the sword ray.

In other words, the one who unleashed the sword ray must be a Gilded Immortal.

"It's him! He did it!" Zhuanxu's successor suddenly thought of someone and was delighted.

The sword ray slowly faded and a figure flew in with amazing speed. As the figure approached, the massively pressuring sword aura got stronger.

The swords of many swordsmen started to buzz as if they wanted to submit to the sword pressure.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. "This energy presence... Interesting. It seems like the game is still one."

"Chu Kuanren!"

A mighty shout echoed throughout space.

Amidst the endless golden sword ray, a man in golden robes came bearing a proud demeanor. The golden sword that he wielded had the sun, moon, river, and mountains carved onto it, together with countless Daoist runes.

It was Xuanyuan's successor wielding the supreme Xuanyuan Sword!

Xuanyuan's successor set foot in the arena. He glared at Chu Kuangren fiercely and attempted to overpower Chu Kuangren with his Sword Dao aura.

Chu Kuangren remained still.

His body shook and released an even more terrifying Immortal's Core aura outwards, overpowering the sword aura easily.

"Achieving Gilded Immortal gives you the confidence to raise your voice against me?" Chu Kuangren said coldly.

"You and I will fight today and the winner shall be the Human Emperor. If I win, you will surrender the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique!" Xuanyuan's successor said strongly and eagerly.

"I said if you people can win me, I'll kill myself on the spot. You can also have the Ultimate Human Emperor Technique."

"It's a deal then."

Xuanyuan's successor skipped the chatter and threw a slash forward with the golden sword.

The slash released a vast sword qi that shook stars and shadowed the sun and moon.

It was the Xuanyuan Sword Qi!

The sword qi released by the Xuanyuan Sword contained nearly unmatched power, even a Gilded Immortal could not contend with it.

“Very well. I’ll fight you Xuanyuan Sword Qi with my Blade of Zhou!”

Chu Kuangren drew his Descendant Self. Countless runes on the blade were lit as he released his own sword qi.

Blade of Zhou, Berserking Torment!

The two sword qi clashed. The massive explosion ripped the void apart and shook the realm.

Sword qi containing Gilded Traits scattered in all directions and the sparks outshined the stars in the sky.

“Hmph! Xuanyuan Sword Qi ranks higher than the Blade of Zhou in the Sword Dao Twenty-Four Technique! How are you my match?!”

The Xuanyuan Sword released a sky-shadowing aura before it unleashed another slash. It was much more rampant and domineering than the first sword qi.

“There are rankings and there are differences between cultivators. A high ranking doesn’t mean you are stronger than me. Idiot.” Chu Kuangren threw another slash forward.

The sword shadow formed from the void, carrying a boundless domineering intent that shook the field.

The sword shadow struck the sword qi, astonishing all who witnessed the clash, especially the swordsmen.

“This is the clash between two of the strongest Sword Dao techniques! This is astonishing! It’s like a feast for Sword Dao!”

“Chang Zhijing has the Dugu Sword Art, which is also an Embodier Sword Dao Technique, but his version is incomplete. He’s incomparable to the complete version!”

“That’s right. This is what a clash between two top Sword Dao Techniques should be! It’s amazing!”

“Xuanyuan and King Zhou were both Human Emperors, and they created the Embodier Sword Dao Technique. Now their successors were fighting, wouldn’t it mean that they are fighting each other in this era?”

Everyone concentrated on the fight, including the swordsmen.

If they were able to gain some insights through the fight, it might benefit their cultivation.

“Xuanyuan Sword Qi, All Gods Subjugation!”

Xuanyuan’s successor channeled his Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and unleashed a limitless sword ray using the Xuanyuan Sword. The illusions of Gods submitting to the might of the sword even appeared behind him.

The slash trembled the realm and feared even the real Gods.

Chu Kuangren raised Descendant Self and used the final technique of Blade of Zhou. “Infinite Void!”

Countless Daoist patterns formed the sword shadow that destroyed most of the Great Daos, leaving only the Tyrannical Dao.

The ultimate techniques between swords clashed in the fiercest way possible.

The blinding sword ray outshone billions of stars in the universe.

Countless viewers of the battle were assaulted by an indescribably keen surge of energy, making them feel like they were being sliced to pieces.

It was terrifying!

After the sword ray faded, the two figures remained still and proud. The endless aura did not decrease because of the fading of the sword ray but increased higher.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1460: 1460 Xuanyuan Celestial Sword, Hellish Bird Yu Xiao, That Man

1460 Xuanyuan Celestial Sword, Hellish Bird Yu Xiao, That Man

The clash of sword rays shook heaven and earth.

After the sword rays finally faded, Xuanyuan's successor stood proud amidst the fading debris with rings of golden strength qi surrounding him, blocking the remaining sword qi.

In addition to his proud demeanor, his energy presence continued to surge at a terrifying speed.

"Oh, the Xuanyuan Sword Star?" Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised when he saw the golden strength qi around Xuanyuan's successor.

It was said that when one cultivated Xuanyuan Sword Qi to a certain height, a layer of protective Celestial qi would be produced to protect the user from all kinds of attacks and evil, and it was said to be extremely powerful.

"That's right. This is the ability that I mastered after reaching Gilded Immortal. The Xuanyuan Celestial Sword! Emperor Xuanyuan clashed with Chiyu more than a hundred times but even he had difficulties breaking the Xuanyuan Celestial Sword. It states how powerful the protective Celestial qi is.

"Chu Kuangren, do you think you can achieve what Chiyu failed?" Xuanyuan's successor scoffed.

After mastering the Xuanyuan Celestial Sword, he felt more confident in facing Chu Kuangren with his Xuanyuan Sword.

"Who gave you the idea that Chiyu failed to break through the Xuanyuan Celestial Sword?"

Chu Kuangren sheathed Descendant Self and summoned a bronze halberd in his hand. A vast Demonic qi spread outwards like the rising tide, slamming against the void itself.

"I shall break your Xuanyuan Celestial Sword with the Great Wasteland Halberd."

"You can try!"

Boom!

The two of them disappeared from their respective spots.

When they reappeared, the sword and halberd clashed.

At the first strike, Xuanyuan's successor felt a terrifying force assaulting him through the hilt of Xuanyuan Sword and was attacking his protective Celestial qi.

"A terrifying energy indeed!"

He realized Chu Kuangren did not use his full power when he fought using the Blade of Zhou. Descendant Self might be a powerful sword but it was lacklustered when compared to the Xuanyuan Sword.

The Great Wasteland Halberd was an Embodier weapon that rivaled the Xuanyuan Sword in terms of power.

"Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Planetary Annihilation!"

The powerful swing combined the technique and the halberd itself, releasing a rampant and powerful attack at Xuanyuan's successor, blasting him away.

"Xuanyuan Sword Qi, Mountainous Imperialization!"

Xuanyuan's successor hurled a slash forward. The domineering sword qi contained the massiveness of rivers and mountains and they intertwined into a glorified land.

It was not just the sword qi, it felt like an entire land was hurled at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren remained calm at the attack. He coldly raised his halberd and counterattacked. "Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Nine Heaven Cry!"

The halberd strike released powerful Demonic qi that shook even the nine heavens.

The mountains and rivers contained in the sword qi were wrecked by the demonic halberd strike.

Chu Kuangren stepped forward and appeared in front of Xuanyuan's successor to follow up with another halberd strike. "Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Great Wasteland Subjugation!"

The second strike concentrated the boundless destructive Demonic qi into one concentrated attack.

Xuanyuan's successor tried to block with his sword but was blasted away like a ragdoll.

Crack!

The Xuanyuan Celestial Sword around him suddenly cracked.

Spurt!

A mouthful of blood gushed from his mouth as the excruciating pain almost tore his body apart.

Three strikes!

Chu Kuangren did three strikes but Xuanyuan's successor had to block them with everything he got, and lost!

"You are not Xuanyuan after all, but I am stronger than Chiyu!"

With the Great Wasteland Halberd in hand, Chu Kuangren was overflowing with Demonic qi that flooded the entire arena. He was like a demonic god from ancient times whose aura alone shook the realm and hearts of those who watched.

"I didn't expect Xuanyuan's successor to lose this fast."

"I thought this would be another great battle now that he's achieved Gilded Immortal, but he couldn't even last three strikes from Chu Kuangren."

"It's too difficult to fight Chu Kuangren."

Heated discussions continued among the crowd.

Back in the arena, Chu Kuangren wanted to deliver the final blow to Xuanyuan's successor but then he was stopped by a ball of black fire.

The black fire carried ominous black qi that felt like it could scorch all life in the universe.

The ball of fire split into two.

One hit the Celestial Tablet and engraved the name 'Yu Xiao' on it.

The other ball of fire flew into the arena and went straight for Chu Kuangren.

"Oh? Another one?"

Chu Kuangren changed the swing of his halberd to stop the ominous fire.

Then, a massive bird engulfed in black fire appeared from the sky, carrying a boundless and ominous aura with it.

The massive bird left a trail of destruction with its black fire as though doomsday had arrived.

It was an ancient wild beast that brought forth an ominous aura!

The bird arrived in the arena and transformed into a man in black robes. The handsome looks, the long brows, and the black ember that surrounded him, every feature on him screamed ominously.

It was as though he was the embodiment of catastrophe from hell!

"You're finally here!"

The Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather looked at the man in black in delight.

Chu Kuangren looked at the man. Lil Ai had started analyzing him as soon as he set foot in the arena, and the result was somehow surprising.

"The Golden Crow's subspecies, the Hellish Bird!"

"Sharp eyes. The rumored Chu Kuangren, we finally met," Yu Xiao said.

"Unfortunately, this will be the first and last meeting."

"Oh, I guess so. You'll die right here, and right now," Yu Xiao scoffed.

“Being confident is a good thing, but being overconfident will cost you your life.”

Chu Kuangren released his overwhelming Demonic qi as if he was the Demonic Forefather reincarnate.

Yu Xiao released the same amount of ominous aura. The aura matched the image of the massive Hellish Bird, which was his true form.

His cultivation level had reached Gilded Immortal as well.

“So this is the subspecies that the Golden Crow Pseudo-Forefather mentioned? As expected of someone from the Restricted Area, he’s really powerful.”

“But I believe he won’t stop Chu Kuangren as well.”

Yu Xiao might be a powerful Gilded Immortal but he was only slightly stronger than Xuanyuan’s successor.

If Xuanyuan’s successor could not last three strikes, the audience believed Yu Xiao would not last either.

Some of the great ones noticed Yu Xiao’s arrival as well.

“In this era of chaos, even those from the Restricted Areas started to make a move.”

“Previously there was the Violet Eye Family Sect from the Soul Restricted Area, and now the Subspecies Restricted Area’s Prodigy has joined the fight. Their appearance really added a lot of uncertainty to the Battle of the Heavenly Champions.”

“Chu Kuangren himself is also unpredictable. He has surpassed everyone’s expectations and control. So maybe using an uncontrollable variable against another uncontrollable variable is the wiser choice.”

The great ones were in a heated discussion and they seemed to fear the Restricted Area that Yu Xiao was from.

Meanwhile, in a certain corner of the Immortal World, Mister Zhang looked at Bei Ming curiously. “If the Celestial Demon Tribe goes up against the Restricted Areas, what will be the odds of victory?”

“Self-destruction!” Bei Ming said.

Mister Zhang’s expression shifted. “The Restricted Areas are this powerful?!”

Bei Ming looked at him and added, “I’m talking about their self-destruction!”

“I see...” Mister Zhang sighed a breath of relief. He was also surprised by the reason that fueled Bei Ming’s confidence and was astonished about how powerful the Celestial Demon Tribe truly was.

“Of course, if that man is willing to do something about it,” Bei Ming muttered.

The man that he mentioned made Mister Zhang ponder.

Legend has it that among the Seven Celestial Demons was one tabooed existence that has never been rivaled before.

That man single-handedly reshaped the entire universe before.
