Chapter 1581: Everyone Is A Buddha Destroyer, Kill Wu Cai, Guanyin Heart Sutra

1581 Everyone Is A Buddha Destroyer, Kill Wu Cai, Guanyin Heart Sutra

Chu Kuangren remained standing as his Immortal's Core energy rumbled and dissipated the massive palm sign formed by the bloody Buddhist light in a blink of an eye.

Wu Cai's pupils shrank in disbelief. "How is your cultivation base so strong?"

He finally realized that Chu Kuangren had been toying with him. If Chu Kuangren wanted to kill him, he would probably die in a single hit.

The reason why Chu Kuangren toyed with him was to lure him to use the Papiyas' power, hence exposing his identity as the Buddha Destroyer.

"Damn it! Damn it!"

The embarrassment and insults overtook him when he finally realized he was nothing but Chu Kuangren's toy. Rage took over when his identity was exposed.

He channeled his strength to the limit and conjured a bloody four-armed Buddha avatar. "Demonic Buddha, Papiyas Avatar!"

"Oh? I know this technique as well." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Terrifying crimson Buddhist light shot up to the sky in the next moment and transformed into another Papiyas Avatar!

However, Chu Kuangren's Papiyas Avatar was a lot stronger than Wu Cia's.

Papiyas energy flooded across the land, and the difference between the two Papiyas Avatar was like a child versus a full-grown adult.

The monks of Euphoria Pure Land gulped nervously.

Who was the real Buddha Destroyer?

Had Chu Kuangren bore the Papiyas Eye, they would have assumed Chu Kuangren was the true vessel for the Buddha Destroyer's seed.

It was horrifying!

"He's not the Buddha Destroyer, but he has such a powerful Papiyas Avatar! Chu Kuangren is indeed beyond common sense!"

"He is an anomaly."

The group of monks was tumultuous.

Deep inside Euphoria Pure Land, Buddha Yun Lan opened her eyes and stared into the distant sky.

She sensed a dark and ominous energy presence flash past, and it seemed to contain a sense of anger.

“As expected, there’s something fishy about Holy Dragon Pure Land. It even houses a Buddha Destroyer.”

The rise of the Holy Dragon Pure Land was already strange enough. They seemed to have risen to power in the past few decades, but the resources they possessed and the wisdom they bore were far stronger than mere decades.

Even though Wu Cai was the Buddha Destroyer, the same thing happened to the Buddhist world when Ksitigarbha’s successor was revealed to be a Buddha Destroyer. Hence, it was entirely possible for Holy Dragon Pure Land to hide his identity.

Now that Wu Cai’s identity was exposed and he was being suppressed, someone in Holy Dragon Pure Land was furious about it.

It made Buddha Yun Lan ponder.

“It seems like I have to summon the rest of the Pure Lands,” Buddha Yun Lan muttered.

Back at Euphoria Pure Land, the two Papiyas Avatar confronted each other, but the strength difference between the two was obvious.

Wu Cai stared at Chu Kuangren’s Papiyas Avatar in fear. “How could you possess such a powerful Papiyas Avatar? How is it possible?”

“Someone asked the same question before,” Chu Kuangren said. He was referring to Ksitigarbha’s successor, whom he killed a while ago.

Then, he raised his hand, and the Papiyas Avatar behind him unleashed a powerful palm strike forward. It felt like a piece of the sky was falling on Wu Cai’s Papiyas Avatar.

“Wait! Hold on!”

That was when the Desire Flower on Chu Kuangren’s arm spoke.

“The desire of a Buddha Destroyer must be delicious. Give him to me.”

Chu Kuangren nodded. “I can give him to you, but only after I finish asking him questions.”

“Alright.”

Chu Kuangren controlled the Papiyas Avatar to apprehend Wu Cai in its hand. He asked, “Where are the other Buddha Destroyers?”

“The seed of the Buddha Destroyer is buried in everyone’s heart! Everyone can be a Buddha Destroyer!” Wu Cai released a vicious laugh as he knew his end was near.

“Trying to riddle me, are you?” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

He had no intention to continue the questioning. Since Wu Cai decided not to talk, he did not bother to ask either. He allowed the Desire Flower to devour Wu Cai whole, including the flesh and bones.

The monks of Euphoria Pure Land were shocked when they saw the Desire Flower.

The Desire Flower was a terrifying existence. To the Buddhist cultivators, the Desire Flower was as dangerous as the Papiyas as they were all the embodiment of one's desire.

"Brother Chu, how have you been?"

Compared to the others who showed nothing but fear, Shi Ying looked a lot calmer.

She went up to Chu Kuangren with a smile.

"My junior, it has been a long time," Chu Kuangren said with a nod.

He quickly sized up Shi Ying and then said, "Oh, I see you are almost breaking through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm."

Spending decades reevaluating herself did not lower Shi Ying's cultivation level.

Quite the opposite, she had improved greatly and was one step shy from manifesting her own Arch Gilded Intent.

"I'm still far behind compared to you, Brother Chu."

Shi Ying could see a thing or two about Chu Kuangren's cultivation base a while back, but she could no longer see through him now. Looking at Chu Kuangren was like looking into a bottomless pit.

She had no idea what level of cultivation he had achieved, but she was certain that even if she broke through into the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, she still was no match for him.

Especially when she saw the Green Lotus Mark on his forehead, the soft Daoist rhyme gave her a distant feeling, like it was from an energy that did not belong to this world.

"What brings you back to Euphoria Pure Land, Brother Chu?" asked one of the curious monks.

Chu Kuangren had gained a reputation for himself that rivaled some of the great ones in the Immortal World, so not even Euphoria Pure Land dared to underestimate him anymore.

In fact, Chu Kuangren could even rival some of the Embodier great ones in the universe.

He was the Ghost Emperor of the Underworld, after all.

"I'm here to visit an old friend. If it's possible, I would like to enter Lapis Lazuli Land again to verify some of my thoughts."

"Thoughts?"

"Yes."

Chu Kuangren did not reveal the details, so it was inappropriate for the monk to ask for more.

Moreover, Buddha Yun Lan had also given the order to treat Chu Kuangren like a respectable guest.

"Brother Chu is a reputable guest of the Buddhist world. Please treat him well."

Her words echoed in the monks' minds, and they all welcomed him with the utmost respect. They even prepared a place for him to stay.

As some of the monks saw him off, they clicked their tongues in awe.

"It's unbelievable. He has the Papiyas energy, yet he's a reputable guest of the Buddhist world."

"Yeah. I wouldn't even have dared to imagine it if it were a few years ago."

"Chu Kuangren cannot be measured with common sense anyway."

Euphoria Pure Land was a respectable place in the Buddhist world, so the guest room prepared for Chu Kuangren was not exactly grand and glamorous. It was just a simple wooden cottage, but he did not mind either.

His request to enter Lapis Lazuli Land was granted by Buddha Yun Lan as well, and he planned to ask Shi Ying to lead the way after settling down for a few days.

He was prepared to negotiate with Buddha Yun Lan, but it seemed like things were made easy for him.

"Congratulations, Host! You've won a God-tier prize, the Guanyin Heart Sutra."

Chu Kuangren did a gacha draw, and the prize he got was a sutra that contained the essence of Buddhist world knowledge.

He read it for a night and day, and with the insights he had gained from reading the Moral Scripture, he managed to master all kinds of Buddhist world sutras by relating the knowledge.

After one night, he gained some new insights, and it allowed him to master a brand new Arch Gilded Intent.

Chapter 1582: Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, Entering Lapis Lazuli Land Again, Verified Thoughts

1582 Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, Entering Lapis Lazuli Land Again, Verified Thoughts

"This Arch Gilded Intent..."

Chu Kuangren sat in the middle of the wooden cottage with his legs crossed, and a streak of golden light swirled above his palm.

From the light, a bright and holistic Arch Gilded Intent emanated.

"Merciful Arch Gilded Intent!" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Merciful Arch Gilded Intent was the most common Arch Gilded Intent that most of the Buddhist cultivators could manifest.

While Chu Kuangren manifested the Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, the energy fluctuation captured the attention of the monks, and it surprised them.

"That's the Arch Gilded Intent! Has someone broken through into the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm?"

"Could it be Shi Ying?"

“No. This Arch Gilded Intent is coming from Brother Chu’s cottage.”

Many of the monks communicated through Immortal Consciousness, and when they confirmed the source of the Arch Gilded Intent, they were more surprised than ever.

Chu Kuangren?

The arrogant and powerful Peerless Prodigy managed to manifest the Merciful Arch Gilded Intent unique to the Buddhist cultivators!

Could it be a mistake?

It was unbelievable! It was like someone telling the monks that Papiyas was actually Buddha.

“He is indeed an anomaly and cannot be measured using common sense,” Buddha Yun Lan muttered as she shook her head.

Then, she looked at the high monks before her and said, “How’s the investigation on the Holy Dragon Pure Land?”

“Madam, you’re right. Holy Dragon Pure Land has been acting weird in the past few years. This is the information we’ve gathered. Please have a look.”

One of the monks handed her a jade scroll.

The scroll listed down three unusual points of Holy Dragon Pure Land.

First, Holy Dragon Pure Land’s number of believers surged, or more precisely, skyrocketed.

Second, other than the believers, Holy Dragon Pure Land had also built Buddhist towers all over the place and claimed to use the towers to raise Sariras. The number of Buddhist towers scattered across almost half of the Far West Land.

Third, Holy Dragon Pure Land seemed to house an Embodier great one, but no one knew who he was. The only thing known about him was that he claimed to be the Sin Buddha.

The first two points remained a mystery, but the third point caught Buddha Yun Lan’s attention.

No matter what Holy Dragon Pure Land was plotting, as long as they did not have the support of an Embodier, Buddha Yun Lan was not afraid of them.

However, once the Embodier was added to the equation, the answer would be totally different.

Embodiers had unpredictable measures, and their powers rivaled that of Buddha Yun Lan. Therefore, she was forced to take his matter seriously.

“There are a lot of strange points regarding Holy Dragon Pure Land’s expansion, and Wu Cai’s visit exposed his identity as the Buddha Destroyer, so we can use this as an excuse to visit them. If they are willing to stop the expansion, we will let this go; if they refuse, I don’t mind solving this with force,” Buddha Yun Lan said.

“Yes,” the high monks answered en masse.

Meanwhile, at Holy Dragon Pure Land, a scrawny monk was meditating and had a string of blood beads in his hand. On a closer look, the beads were actually tiny skulls of human beings.

The old monk chanted a series of strange mantras as he counted the skull beads. Every aspect of him screamed of strangeness and ominousness.

Then, a monk came and knelt before him. "Abbot, Wu Cai is dead."

Upon hearing that, the old monk's hand paused and asked, "Who did it?"

"News said it was Chu Kuangren."

"Oh?"

The old monk was even more shocked. "The arrogant madman who overpowers the universe?"

"Abbot, the plan is imminent. Now that Chu Kuangren has appeared in Euphoria Pure Land, do we need to delay the launch?"

The old monk pondered. Then, his eyes gleamed red, and he said, "We've been preparing this for a long time. We have the best timing, the geographical advantage, and the overwhelming numbers. How can we let our efforts go down the drain just because of Chu Kuangren? If we give up now, we might not get the chance again."

"I understand, Abbot. I will continue the preparation, and we will carry out the plan in three days," the monk said.

"Mhm. Go."

After the monk left, the old monk with the skull beads looked at the red four-armed Buddha statue before him.

He muttered, "It's time to ring the Buddha Destroyer Bell."

...

Back at Euphoria Pure Land, Chu Kuangren woke up and cleaned himself up.

A while later, one of the monks led him to the mess hall, where he enjoyed a local vegetarian meal.

After the meal, Shi Ying brought him to the Lapis Lazuli Land.

On the way there, they ran into a fight between two forces. As Guanyin's successor, Shi Ying could not allow conflicts to happen within Euphoria Pure Land, so she went up and stopped them.

That was when she found out that both forces accused each other of worshipping a fake Buddha, hence the fight.

"This isn't the first time," Shi Ying said helplessly after settling the conflict.

With her explanation, Chu Kuangren found out that such minor conflicts rarely happened within the Pure Lands since all of them worshiped the same Buddha.

Even the Buddhist cultivators carried out their cultivation in an organized manner.

However, ever since Holy Dragon Pure Land rose to power, the harmonious scene was broken.

Forces would fight with each other due to different beliefs, and it had been occurring more frequently than ever.

Even if not because of the forces' beliefs, the forces would fight each other over some cultivation resources, and there would be casualties.

It might be a common occurrence elsewhere but unusual in the Far West Land.

"Something is wrong with Holy Dragon Pure Land," Shi Yin said.

"Aren't the other Pure Lands aren't doing about it?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"We're trying to stop it from happening, but Holy Dragon Pure Land is a force to be reckoned with, and they seem to have the support of an Embodier. It's not easy going up against them. However, exposing Wu Cai's identity as the Buddha Destroyer this time might be a chance for us, and I have to thank you for that," Shi Ying said.

"No worries."

The two of them soon arrived at the entrance of Lapis Lazuli Land.

The massive Buddhist Character Boundary was still intact with golden Buddhist Light surrounding it.

The two of them entered Lapis Lazuli Land.

The Desire World Sky was still hanging above their head, exuding a tempting aura.

"Why are you back here?" the Desire Flower on Chu Kuangren's arm asked.

"I'm here to throw you back into the Desire World Sky."

"No!"

The Desire Flower did not want to go back. The outside world was beautiful and fascinating. Moreover, she could reap all kinds of desires from different people. Why would she go back to the Desire Sky World?

There was nothing inside there other than the Sky Demons.

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Desire Flower was aware of the joke, and she knew Chu Kuangren was returning to Lapis Lazuli Land for a different purpose. With that, she immediately sighed a breath of relief.

At the same time, she was grumpy because Chu Kuangren teased her.

"You b*stard, is it that fun to play with my feelings?" she grumbled softly.

A while later, Chu Kuangren and Shi Ying arrived at the place where the great ones suppressed the Spiritual Mountain.

The Spiritual Mountain existed in a different dimension and had not fully appeared.

However, when they got close, Chu Kuangren's Green Lotus Mark flashed, seemingly reacting to something.

He sensed the movements from the Chaos Green Lotus as well.

It seemed like the Chaos Green Lotus was aware of the Golden Dharmic Lotus, which verified his thoughts.

His Chaos Green Lotus could absorb the treasures formed from the Golden Dharmic Lotus or other lotuses to strengthen itself.

Chapter 1583: Buddhist World's Disaster, Buddha Destroyer Bell Chime, Unaffected

1583 Buddhist World's Disaster, Buddha Destroyer Bell Chime, Unaffected

"I knew the Chaos Green Lotus could be strengthened this way," Chu Kuangren thought.

The discovery added another part to his plan, which would be to find and locate other Chaos Fragments and the treasures formed by the lotuses so that he could further strengthen the Chaos Green Lotus.

"Brother Chu, Buddha Yun Lan has taught me a way to open up the Spiritual Mountain. Do you need me to open it up for you?" Shi Ying said.

"That won't be necessary."

Chu Kuangren shook his head. Since he had verified his thoughts, it was not necessary to cause extra problems.

Boom!

Suddenly, the land before the two of them started to tremble and crack.

A massive crack opened up, and a Golden Dharmic Lotus covered with Buddhist Light shone from within. Under the golden Buddhist Light was the Spiritual Mountain surrounded by Dao Contamination qi.

"Why did you open it?" Chu Kuangren frowned.

"I didn't! It wasn't me." Shi Ying was similarly confused.

What happened?

The high monks who meditated on the lotus' leaves reacted with grim expressions.

The leading Buddha Jian Xing looked at the Buddhist Character Boundary and said, "A disaster is befalling the Buddhist world."

Shi Ying's expression sank upon hearing those words. "What do you mean by that, Senior?"

Buddha Jian Xing looked at the two of them, and when he saw Chu Kuangren, a hint of surprise flashed in his eyes. "Brother Chu? Is that... the Chaos Green Lotus?"

His eyes widened as if he had seen something shocking.

“Greetings, Senior,” Chu Kuangren said as he cupped his fists respectfully.

Buddha Jian Xing recovered his composure and looked pensively at Chu Kuangren. “Maybe Brother Chu will be the key in this impending disaster.”

“What do you mean by that, Senior?” Chu Kuangren asked.

“I can feel that an imminent disaster is befalling the Buddhist world, and it is inevitable. The key to all of this might be on you, Brother Chu. As for the details, I don’t have anything either. Someone has hidden the fate’s signs from me; someone as powerful or maybe even stronger than me,” Buddha Jian Xing said.

Boom!

The appearance of the Spiritual Mountain shook the entire Lapis Lazuli Land.

The Desire World Sky responded to the quake as well. Cracks started to appear around the sky, and Sky Demons flew out one after another.

“It’s the Demon Lord’s presence! Haha. Is the Demon Lord waking up?”

“The Demon Lord is calling us!”

The Sky Demons were more excited than usual as they charged toward the Buddhist Character Boundary.

“Damn it. Why are the Sky Demons here?” Shi Yin frowned.

With the Buddhist Character Boundary around, the Sky Demons and the Desire World Sky should have been under heavy suppression. What caused the cracks and released the Sky Demons?

“Unless someone is trying to destroy the Buddhist Character Boundary to trigger the Desire World Sky!”

The sudden thought in her mind shocked her.

Buddha Jian Xing sighed. “It arrived sooner than I expected. The person behind this seems to have planned this for a long time.”

Unfortunately, he had to remain at the Spiritual Mountain to suppress the Dao Contamination qi, so he could not do anything to stop it.

“It’s up to you guys to stop this disaster.”

Buddha Jian Xing shot two beams of golden light into both Shi Ying and Chu Kuangren’s heads.

A massive amount of information exploded in Chu Kuangren’s head, which included but was not limited to countless Buddhist world cultivation techniques and Buddha Jian Xing’s insights towards Buddhism.

“Can I consider this as payment?” Chu Kuangren chuckled as he shook his head.

Crack!

A large crack appeared on the Buddhist Character Boundary.

Endless Desire World Sky energy leaked through the crack and started to invade the outside world.

In a flash, Chu Kuangren and Shi Ying disappeared from the spot and flew out of the boundary.

When they appeared outside the boundary, they saw an enormous crimson Papiyas Avatar.

It seemed like the Papiyas Avatar was the reason the Desire World Sky was awakened.

“Someone is destroying the boundary, but no one is here to stop it? It seems like the Pure Land is in a sticky situation!” Shi Ying said with furrowed brows.

Then, her jade scroll vibrated, and several messages came to her attention.

“Shi Ying, be careful of those from Holy Dragon Pure Land! They have ill agendas, and if you see any of them, kill them!”

“Be careful of the bell! The bell chime!”

“Shi Ying! Run, leave the Far West Land!”

The barrage of messages left Shi Ying stunned, especially the last one.

Shi Ying’s heart sank.

Leave the Far West Land? The Far West Land was house to the Five Pure Lands. How could she just leave?

What did the last message really mean?

Had the Five Pure Lands fallen?

Shi Ying tried her best to recover her thoughts, but she was at a loss as to what to do.

“Your energy presence... You’re Guanyin’s successor?”

At that moment, a voice sounded from further away.

A young man in white approached them. The young man looked handsome but wore an evil grin on his face. The violet eyes set off his ominous presence, especially the Swastika symbol in his pupils.

“Papiyas Eyes? You’re a Buddha Destroyer!” Shi Ying narrowed her eyes.

“Oh? I’m Wu Fa from Holy Dragon Pure Land,” the man in white said as he put his hands together.

More and more figures emerged from behind him, and most were monks.

“Buddha Destroyer, Buddha Destroyer!”

“Buddha Destroyer, Buddha Destroyer!”

The monks wore blank looks on their faces as they chanted ‘Buddha Destroyer’ lifelessly.

“The monks from Fatian Temple! The grandmaster from Mt. Putuo! And Master Fahang from Virtuous Purity Land!”

Shi Ying was shocked when she saw the people behind Wu Fa. Some of them were known by the world as reputable high monks, yet they chanted Buddha Destroyer like some heretics.

The high monks who devoted their lives to Buddhism wanted to destroy Buddha?

What was going on?

“What did Holy Dragon Pure Land do?” Shi Ying asked.

“Don’t be afraid. You will join them soon,” Wu Fa said with a grin.

Buzz!

A powerful bell chime sounded from afar and echoed across the land.

The moment the bell chime sounded, Shi Ying’s body shook as though she was struck by a bolt of lightning. Excruciating pain immediately tormented her head.

“Be careful of the bell chime...”

She thought of the message she received earlier.

“The bell is controlling the high monks?”

The wise Shi Ying was immediately aware of the situation and connected the dots in her mind. With that, she channeled Restful Mantra to protect her mentality from the bell.

Unfortunately, it was ineffective. The bell chimes echoed across the land, and it was relentless. It struck her mental barrier over and over again.

“Stop resisting. This is the Buddha Destroyer Bell. Not even an Arch Gilded Immortal can resist it. You might have the Restful Mantra, but it’s not enough,” Wu Fa said and then looked at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren might be an Arch Gilded Immortal, but he should be under the influence of the bell chime and suffering.

However, when he had a good look at Chu Kuangren, he was shocked.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air as the bell chime echoed in the sky, seemingly unaffected by it.

“How is this possible? Not even an Arch Gilded Immortal can be so calm under the bell’s influence. Holy Dragon Pure Land has spent countless years developing the Buddha Destroyer Bell, and it’s our strongest trump card! How is he not affected by it?”

The more Wu Fa thought about it, the more unbelievable it seemed.

Chapter 1584: Slash The Bell Tower, What If I Say No? Wu Tian's Arrival

1584 Slash The Bell Tower, What If I Say No? Wu Tian’s Arrival

The Buddha Destroyer Bell chimed across the land.

Anyone who heard the chime was brainwashed and fell into the bell’s control.

The bell was not only targeting people’s hearing, but it was also targeting people’s souls.

Therefore, covering one’s ears was useless.

That would be the secret weapon that Holy Dragon Pure Land had developed for countless years.

However, their secret weapon seemed ineffective against Chu Kuangren.

The ubiquitous chime did not affect him at all.

“Is that the Green Lotus Mark?”

Wu Fa frowned when he noticed the mark on Chu Kuangren’s forehead that had a faint Daoist rhyme circulating it.

He was indeed correct.

The Chaos Green Lotus was immune to all techniques, and it would protect the bearer’s soul from all kinds of attacks.

Back at Chaos Fragment, the Prodigy from Soul Restricted Area, Ziyu Changkong, attacked Chu Kuangren using the soul method, but it was ineffective as well.

As such, a bell with similar properties would not work on Chu Kuangren.

“He is indeed the biggest uncontrollable variable in the plan,” Wu Fa muttered.

Holy Dragon Pure Land’s plan omitted Chu Kuangren’s existence altogether.

His appearance at the Far West Land forced Wu Cai to expose his identity and caught Holy Dragon Pure Land off guard, which forced them to bring the schedule forward.

They had planned it for years, yet the outcome deviated from expectations because of Chu Kuangren.

In addition to the rumors surrounding Chu Kuangren and the fact that he was unaffected by the bell, Wu Fa was shaken.

“I see,” Chu Kuangren said.

He used his Immortal Consciousness to scan across billions of kilometers and managed to lock on to the source of the bell chime.

He leaped into the air with the Descendant Self Sword in his hand. Then, he narrowed his eyes sharply as he locked onto a golden tower further away.

The bell was in that tower!

“No! He’s going to destroy the tower!” Wu Fa’s expression turned grim.

“Oh, no. You’re not!”

The crimson Papiyas Avatar destroying the Buddhist Character Boundary was also aware of Chu Kuangren’s intention. Hence, it switched direction and threw a palm strike at Chu Kuangren.

The indomitable palm energy dyed the sky red!

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and activated his newly mastered Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, throwing a golden palm strike at the Papiyas Avatar.

A merciful intent then filled the realm.

That would be one of the cultivation techniques he just got from Buddha Jian Xing. Given his cognizance and Buddha Jian Xing's direct transfer of knowledge, his first time using the technique already showed an unbelievable level of mastery.

With a bang, the golden and crimson palms crashed into each other!

The realm trembled terribly.

Following that, the Papiyas Avatar started to crack and revealed a young monk in a golden red Kasaya.

Similar to Wu Fa, the young monk had a Swastika symbol in his eyes. He, too, was one of the Buddha Destroyers and a successor from Holy Dragon Pure Land, named Wu De.

"That's the Merciful Palm from Lapis Lazuli Land! Lapis Lazuli Land has fallen for so many years. How did he master the cultivation technique?" Wu De said in shock.

Chu Kuangren's sword aura had already reached its limit. As he narrowed his eyes, the runes on Descendant Self Sword lit up, and a limitless and vast surge of energy exploded.

The energy transformed into a massive sword shadow containing countless Daoist patterns, and it was swung toward the distance.

"Blade of Zhou, Infinite Void!"

"What a terrifying sword aura!"

Both Wu Fa and Wu De were shocked.

They could sense death in the sword qi, and if they were to stop it, they would be killed in an instant.

Bang!

The sword qi left a trail of destruction in its wake.

The massive sword shadow traversed across tens of thousands of kilometers and landed on the golden tower.

As though the golden tower had sensed the imminent danger, it started to tremble and automatically formed a defensive barrier around it.

Eighteen layers of barriers appeared from thin air.

Unfortunately, the sword shadow was too powerful. In just a split second, twelve of the eighteen barriers were crushed upon collision.

The remaining six layers managed to hold on for a little while before they were shattered by sheer force.

When the sword shadow landed on the golden tower, it released a deafening blast into the air. The shockwave stirred up a dust storm and shook the mountains and rivers in the area.

The golden tower was destroyed!

The echoing bell chime finally stopped!

However, Chu Kuangren knew it would not be that easy.

His Immortal Consciousness located many more golden towers across the Far West Land, and he had just destroyed one of them.

The bell chime would sound again after a while.

"Building that many golden towers across the Far West Land, it seems like Holy Dragon Pure Land has been plotting this for a long time. No wonder Buddha Jian Xing said it's a disaster for the Buddhist world," Chu Kuangren muttered.

His interest in Holy Dragon Pure Land grew stronger.

"Peerless Prodigy Chu Kuangren, his name really does precede him."

"Not only that, but the Buddha Destroyer Bell doesn't affect him. It's strange."

Both Wu Fa and Wu De were astonished to see Chu Kuangren destroy one of the golden towers with a single slash.

Then, Wu Fa put his hands together and said, "Brother Chu, this is between Holy Dragon Pure Land and the Buddhist world. Please leave here and don't interfere."

"What if I refuse?" Chu Kuangren said.

"In that case, you'll be one of the dead bodies on this path of Buddha destruction," a cold voice said.

Crimson demonic qi shot up to the sky further away and manifested into dark clouds.

A figure equipped with crimson armor rose from the dark clouds, carrying ominous demonic qi with him.

"It's Brother Wu Tian!"

"He's here!"

Both Wu Fa and Wu De were delighted to see the man in armor, and his arrival boosted their confidence.

Chu Kuangren grinned mischievously. "Not only a Buddha Destroyer but also a Peerless Prodigy? Interesting."

The man in crimson armor was indeed a Peerless Prodigy!

He was an Arch Gilded Immortal, and his power rivaled that of Xue Kunpeng.

"No one can stop the Buddha Destruction, not even you, Chu Kuangren!"

Wu Tian unveiled a dark crimson saber and pointed it at Chu Kuangren. Rumbling demonic qi swept across the land as if he was a Demon King reincarnate.

The demonic qi alone further damaged the weakening Buddhist Character Boundary.

"I'm curious. If I insist on stopping you, what would you do to stop me?"

“I will kill you!”

Wu Tian swung his crimson saber at Chu Kuangren without any hesitation.

A massive crimson saber shadow appeared and split the sky in half.

Chu Kuangren countered it by swinging the Descendant Self Sword forward.

The moment the vast sword ray and the substantial saber ray clashed, the space around them collapsed.

The collision also stirred up a violent energy storm that swept in every direction.

Shi Ying had just recovered her consciousness from the bell’s attack and was struck by the shockwave from the energy storm.

“Die, Guanyin’s successor!”

Wu De and Wu Fa attacked Shi Ying.

“Hmph!” Shi Ying grunted coldly.

Buddhist Light manifested from her as she cast multiple Buddhist techniques to fend them off.

“Go!”

Wu De pointed at Shi Ying, and the monks behind him attacked Shi Ying while chanting ‘Buddha Destroyer’.

Chapter 1585: Shi Ying Broke Through Into the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, How Many Slashes Can You Take?

1585 Shi Ying Broke Through Into the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, How Many Slashes Can You Take?

Many of the monks attacked Shi Ying.

A number of them were powerful Gilded Immortals, including Wu De and Wu Fa, who were only one step shy from breaking through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm.

The most unfortunate thing was that many of Shi Ying’s peers were among them.

“Holy Dragon Pure Land, you b*stards!”

Even though Shi Ying was the successor of Guanyin, the embodiment of mercy, the despicable act aroused her killing intent.

A beam of Buddhist Light was shot at her by a nun. It caught her off guard and blasted her a dozen meters backward.

Shi Ying looked at the nun who attacked her with a conflicted gaze. “Nun Nanzhu?! Can’t you recognize me? I’m Shi Ying from Euphoria Pure Land!”

She used to spar with Nun Nanzhu, but now the latter had become an enemy who attacked her mercilessly.

"It's useless! They're under the bell's control. You're never going to wake them from the trance!" Wu Du cackled.

Shi Ying felt extremely helpless. She was forced to fight, but due to the overwhelming numbers, she swiftly fell into a disadvantageous position.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren confronted Wu Tian in the sky.

The rampant demonic qi and the Immortal's Core energy collided in the air, releasing a terrifying pressure into the area that distorted space.

"Hmph. Your friend is going to die in her peers' hands soon!" Wu Tian said indifferently, attempting to disrupt Chu Kuangren's attention to force him to reveal his flaws.

However, Chu Kuangren was not bothered about it at all. He said, "Don't worry. She won't die. You should take care of yourself first."

As soon as he said that, his Immortal's Core energy surged.

The Immortal's Core energy containing the Golden Jade Immortal Sparks overpowered Wu Tian and attempted to crush him.

Surprised by the sudden attack, Wu Tian swung his saber forward to release a saber ray to tear the Immortal's Core energy apart. Then, the saber ray continued forward to Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren countered with a punch that easily shattered the saber ray.

"Chu Kuangren, you really do live up to your name," Wu Tian bellowed, and the crimson demonic qi on his body continued to surge. "Demonic Buddha Carnage, Heavenly Transcendental Burial!"

A terrifying surge of demonic qi shot up into the sky. It was so powerful that it felt like it could crush the world in an instant.

Wu Cai had used a similar cultivation technique before, but Wu Tian's technique was countless times stronger. They were not on the same level.

"Great."

The Proclamation Seals on the Descendant Self Sword's blade lit up, and Chu Kuangren released a dazzling sword ray at Wu Tian.

The sword ray clashed with the saber ray, while the crimson Demonic qi clashed with the golden Immortal Sparks.

The collision stirred up an endless storm that swept everything away.

"Chu Kuangren, show me what you've got!"

Wu Tian dashed out from the energy storm and swung his saber at Chu Kuangren, who lifted his sword for a casual block.

The clunking sound of the swords was endless. Moreover, each clash between the sword and saber released terrifying rays.

The rays were powerful enough to destroy mountains and rivers and burn the sky.

“Chu Kuangren, is that all you’ve got?”

Wu Tian’s attacks grew even more terrifying as he continued slashing at Chu Kuangren. With the crimson saber in his hand, he was like an unmatched Demon King with the fiercest attacks.

His eyes with the crimson Swastika symbol even exuded a strange energy fluctuation.

Similar to the bell chime, it affected one’s mentality.

Chu Kuangren simply used the Descendant Self Sword to block his attacks. It was like he could not find a window to counterattack.

Wu De captured the scene, and it put a grin on his face.

“Hmph. Wu Tian is really powerful. He can even suppress the infamous Chu Kuangren!”

“Yeah. Among all the Buddha Destroyers, he’s the only one who got the true inheritance from Papiyas. He’s a lot stronger than us. Even the Abbot said that if Wu Tian continues to grow stronger, he would gain power that rivals Papiyas himself and might even be the new lord of the Desire World,” Wu Fa said, expressing his jealousy of Wu Tian.

“That’s enough. Let’s deal with Guanyin’s successor first, and then we should go help Wu Tian. We still have to destroy the Buddhist Character Boundary to release the Desire World Sky,” Wu De said.

Shi Ying was heavily surrounded, and the ceaseless and furious attacks left several wounds on her already.

However, even when she was forced into a desperate situation, she felt nothing but calm. It was as though some huge inspiration or insights were about to fill her mind.

“Die! End Strike!”

Wu Fa channeled his crimson Buddhist Light and shot it at Shi Ying. The comet-like strike blasted Shi Ying a hundred meters away.

The others followed up with their respective attacks to deliver the final blow.

Then, a powerful Buddhist Light burst out and shot up into the sky. The shockwave from the light blasted all the monks away from Shi Ying.

“What’s going on?”

Both Wu Fa and Wu De were shocked.

However, the Buddhist Light grew stronger by the second, and a powerful and unique Arch Gilded Intent emerged from within.

It horrified both Wu Fa and Wu De.

“Arch Gilded Intent? Has she broken through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm? How is this possible?”

“Did she break through in the middle of the battle? How?”

Breaking through the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm amid a battle was not entirely impossible, but it was extremely rare.

“So this is the Arch Gilded Intent.”

Shi Ying reached a sudden epiphany as she savored her newly gained power. “I have to really thank Buddha Jian Xing for this.”

The reason why she could break through mid-battle was because of the golden light Buddha Jian Xing shot into her earlier.

The light contained Buddha Jian Xing’s insights into Buddhism.

He could tell that Shi Ying was one step shy from achieving Arch Gilded Intent. All she needed was a chance, and she could break through on herself.

The insights he injected into her became the last piece of the puzzle!

Shi Ying rapidly digested the insights, and with it, she comprehended the Arch Gilded Intent and broke through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm.

“Damn it! Attack her!”

Wu De controlled the monks to attack Shi Ying once more.

Shi Ying revealed a suet white jade vase in her hands. Water flowed from the vase and transformed into multiple water balls that trapped all the attacking monks.

The water balls floated into the sky like massive bubbles. The trapped monks struggled as hard as they could but could not break free.

“This is the Phantasmal Bubbles, and no one below the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm can break free. Please stay inside for a while, my fellow monks and nuns,” Shi Ying said.

She then looked at Wu Fa and Wu De. “As for you two, you shall die!”

Gulp!

Wu Fa and Wu De gulped nervously.

On the other hand, Wu Tian brandished his crimson saber furiously as if he had gained complete control of the battle.

“Chu Kuangren, fight back! Is that all you’ve got? You are a disappointment!” Wu Tian bellowed as he continued his attacks.

“Fine! I will end you with this last attack! Demonic Buddha Carnage, Continuous Sin!”

Wu Tian bellowed and channeled his demonic qi to the limit. The crimson saber ray started growing stronger before it crashed toward Chu Kuangren like an endless tide.

It was at that moment that Shi Ying broke through the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, and her Buddhist Light shot up into the sky.

Chu Kuangren's lips curled into a smile. "She did it."

Then, he simply threw a slash forward, releasing a stronger sword ray than before. The sword ray crushed the saber ray easily.

He glanced at the horrified Wu Tian. His Immortal Sparks shimmered, and his Immortal's Core energy grew to the size of the ocean, sending shockwaves sweeping across all directions.

"You want me to attack? How many slashes can you take?"

Chapter 1586: Weituo Sword Art, Buddha Character Boundary Shatter, All Wants To Destroy Buddha

1586 Weituo Sword Art, Buddha Character Boundary Shatter, All Wants To Destroy Buddha

"You want me to attack? How many slashes can you take?"

Chu Kuangren looked at Wu Tian indifferently. His Immortal's Core energy surged higher by the second, and the terrifying aura suffocated even the monks from further away.

To them, Chu Kuangren was like the peerless Immortal King that overpowered all.

"Impossible! You weren't using your full strength?!" Wu Tian looked at Chu Kuangren and said in disbelief.

While engaged with a Peerless Prodigy like Wu Tian, Chu Kuangren was able to spare his attention to keeping his eye on Shi Ying while casually blocking all the incoming attacks.

Wu Tian was furious. He felt like he was insulted, and the thought fueled his anger.

"Demonic Technique Carnage, Heavenly Transcendental Burial!" Wu Tian bellowed.

Endless demonic qi surged and was infused into the crimson saber in his hands. The massive saber shadow appeared once more and was slashed down at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren wielded Descendant Self Sword and countered with a slash.

This time, he did not use the Blade of Zhou, but he released a sword shadow that contained substantial Buddhist Light and a vast Merciful Arch Gilded Intent.

The sword shadow and saber ray clashed once more.

The saber ray was defeated instantly, and Wu Tian was blasted to the ground with a pale look on his face.

"That's Wei Tuo Sword Art from Lapis Lazuli Land!"

Wu Tian recognized the technique Chu Kuangren used.

Wei Tuo Sword Art belonged to the Buddhist world and was also one of the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques. Although inferior than the Blade of Zhou, when used with Chu Kuangren's Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, it could still deliver a massive blow.

“You’re quite sharp. There are three styles in Wei Tuo Sword Art. Can you withstand the next two?” Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

Buddhist Light swirled around him and shot up into the sky, where it transformed into an avatar of a warrior in golden armor behind him.

The warrior was Wei Tuo, the Guardian God of the Buddhist world!

Wei Tuo’s avatar wielded the Gold Demon Slaying Sword and mimicked Chu Kuangren’s every move. It performed a downward slash at Wu Tian, hurling a domineering sword shadow at him.

“Demonic Buddha Carnage, Surging Blood Ocean!” Wu Tian bellowed as he channeled his energy to the limit.

A blood-colored Papiyas Avatar appeared behind him, and inside the avatar contained a boundless blood ocean.

It was Wei Tuo’s avatar versus Papiyas Avatar!

When the Buddhist Light sword and boundless blood ocean clashed, a deafening blast was released.

The heaven-shaking energy blast shook the space around the area. Mountains and rivers were crushed.

Shortly after the collision, the Buddhist Light sword pressed forward with indomitable force, slashing the blood ocean in half and, with it, the Papiyas Avatar.

Wu Tian was the first to be hit by the energy. The armor on his body cracked, and the Buddhist Light dispersed his demonic qi, causing him to wail in pain as he was blasted away like a ragdoll.

“You wanted me to attack, and I attacked, but you can’t even take two of my slashes.”

Chu Kuangren wore a scornful expression on his face.

Wu Tian had never felt so insulted before. As a Peerless Prodigy, he had never been forced into such a wretched state before.

However, Chu Kuangren was inconceivably powerful.

Bang!

The Buddhist Character Boundary suddenly exploded, and the Desire World Sky was revealed to the outside world.

The vast Desire World Sky energy scattered outward and shook half of the Far West Land.

Further away, Buddha Yun Lan was fighting the old monk from Holy Dragon Pure Land.

The old monk had a string of crimson skull beads in his hand. He was just a perfected Arch Gilded Immortal, but he managed to stall Buddha Yun Lan single-handedly.

Behind the old monk were other monks meditating with their legs crossed. Buddhist Light shone and rose to the sky as they chanted, but the should-be holistic scene felt oddly terrifying when they chanted to destroy Buddha.

As the combined Buddhist Light infused into the old monk's body, it boosted his energy and granted him the power to rival Buddha Yun Lan.

"The Power of Faith. You used the Buddha Destroyer Bell to forcefully distort their beliefs and turn them into your own worshipers!"

Buddha Yun Lan looked at the old monk with a serious gaze.

The old monk was none other than Holy Dragon Abbot.

"Amitabha. Buddha Yun Lan, you have a sharp perception. You're able to spot the true usage of the Buddha Destroyer Bell," Holy Dragon Abbot said with a smile.

"Even if you can convert their faith to your use, you're still just a perfected Arch Gilded Immortal. How long can you hold up against me?" Buddha Yun Lan said coldly.

Despite saying so, Buddha Yun Lan understood the severity of the situation.

It was said that there was an Embodier behind Holy Dragon Pure Land named Sin Buddha. He was nowhere to be seen, and no one knew what he was up to.

The absence of Sin Buddha fueled Buddha Yun Lan's anxiety.

"Hmm. I don't need to hold for long either." Holy Dragon Abbot chuckled.

At that moment, a powerful Buddhist Light shot up into the sky. However, it contained a terrifying demonic qi within and the Desire World Sky energy!

"The Buddhist Character Boundary has been broken!"

Buddha Yun Lan looked disheartened. A sudden thought rose in her mind, and she asked, "Your target is the Desire World Sky? By releasing the Desire World Sky, you can use it and the Buddha Destroyer Bell to wipe out the Buddhist world of the Far West Land."

Her gaze turned frosty. Buddhist Light swirled around her, and Daoist law's energy started to appear.

Right when she was about to attack, the Holy Dragon Abbot revealed three demonic-looking hooks and shot them at her.

The demonic hooks surrounded Buddha Yun Lan and created a powerful illusory realm to disrupt her mental state.

"Are these Papiyas' Six Guna Demonic hooks?! But there are only three of them. Do you think they can stop me?" Buddha Yun Lan grunted.

She released her Buddhist Light to resist the illusory realm.

However, an energy ripple expanded further away, and when it came in contact with the Six Guna Demonic Hooks, it made the illusory realm stronger!

The energy ripple came from the Desire World Sky!

The combination of the Six Guna Demonic Hooks and the Desire World Sky energy started to pressure Buddha Yun Lan, who was an Embodier.

“Damn it! You Buddha Destroyers should be killed on the spot!”

The merciful aura around Buddha Yun Lan was replaced by her grim and grave look.

As her merciful heart wavered, the illusory realm created by the Six Guna Demonic Hooks and boosted by the Desire World Sky energy grew stronger. Her Buddhist core was being challenged.

“We have prepared for this for many years. Searching for materials to build the towers and accepting more worshippers have all led to this — the grand scheme to destroy Buddha! After today, every soul in the world will be a seed of the Buddha Destroyer!” Holy Dragon Abbot said with an evil scoff.

The monks behind him continued to chant.

In fact, not only the monks but all the people in the Far West Land, including the common humans and respectable high monks were controlled by the Buddha Destroyer Bell; they all chanted the same thing.

All of them became one with the Buddhist world, but all of them wanted to destroy Buddha.

Despite her being an Embodier, the strange and outrageous scene struck fear in Buddha Yun Lan’s heart.

An unprecedented disaster had befallen the Far West Land.

Many of the Immortal World’s great ones sensed the occurrence in the Far West Land, but no one offered a helping hand.

After all, they were in no position to interfere with the Buddhist world’s matters.

“It seems like the Buddha Destroyer Seeds left behind by Papiyas are really going to erase the entire Buddhist world!”

Chapter 1587: Get the Hell Back, Slash Wu De and Wu Fa, Do You Really Think I Don’t Dare to Kill You?

1587 Get the Hell Back, Slash Wu De and Wu Fa, Do You Really Think I Don’t Dare to Kill You?

The Buddhist Character Boundary outside Lapis Lazuli Land broke, and the Desire World Sky managed to extend outward.

As the Desire World Sky energy fluctuation expanded, Wu Tian, Wu Fa, and Wu De could feel a huge surge in the Papiyas energy in their bodies, and it boosted their strengths beyond their current limits.

“It’s so powerful! It’s so powerful!”

“I’m overflowing with power! Hahaha!”

The three of them cackled with excitement, especially Wu Tian.

His demonic qi gushed out like a geyser and further strengthened the Papiyas Avatar behind him. It was so real that it felt like the true Papiyas had descended on earth.

“Chu Kuangren, you shall have a taste of my newly gained strength!” Wu Tian shouted.

The explosive demonic qi rapidly healed his injuries.

Then, a massive crimson saber shadow was slashed down at Chu Kuangren.

Kaboom!

The slash was so powerful that it shattered the space around him. Spatial cracks appeared and spread out like a spider web.

“Wei Tuo Sword Art, Third Style.”

Chu Kuangren swung the Descendant Self Sword in his hands. A bright sword shadow shot up into the sky as the massive Wei Tuo’s avatar confronted the Papiyas Avatar.

It was the strongest power in the Buddhist world versus the wicked power of Papiyas!

The collision of the two energies caused a burst of energy in the area. The stray energy streams wrecked mountains and ruined rivers, destroying even Lapis Lazuli Land.

The massive clash sent both Chu Kuangren and Wu Tian sliding backward.

After the clash, the crack in the Desire World Sky widened, and countless Sky Demons flew out. Terrifying demonic qi flooded the realm, covering tens of thousands of kilometers.

Almost half of the Far West Land was turned into a paradise for the Sky Demons.

The monks, who were already under the influence of the Buddha Destroyer Bell, were further affected by the Desire World Sky’s energy, and their minds slowly slipped into desolation.

The land that worshiped Buddha was turned into a living purgatory!

“Hahaha! The Buddha Destroyer Bell, the Desire World Sky’s energy, no one can stop the path to Buddha’s destruction now!” Wu Tian cackled madly.

Ever since he got the Papiyas Eye and became a Buddha Destroyer, destroying Buddha and opening the Desire World Sky to the world had been his sole duty.

Now, he was close to fulfilling his duty!

How could he not be excited?

“What are we going to do now?”

Shi Ying watched as the Far West Land fell before her eyes. The monks were in a tormenting frenzy, and everything that happened before her eyes impacted her Buddhist core.

Would that be the end of Buddha in this world?

The question troubled her mind. She was at a loss as to what to do or say, and the helplessness slowly turned into a tormenting pain that drove her mad.

The Desire World Sky’s energy was affecting her as well.

She had just broken through to the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, so her mind was not yet stable.

“Wake up!”

A loud voice entered her ears and pulled her back from the trance.

Shi Ying regained her declining consciousness, and sweat broke out all over her. “That was close!”

She looked at Chu Kuangren with utmost gratitude.

Countless Sky Demons swarmed over to them, attempting to drown them alive.

“The path to Buddha’s destruction, is it?”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Sky Demons coldly. Then, he raised his left arm and shouted, “Get back to the Desire World Sky!”

As he shouted, the Desire Flower on his arm shone in bright pink color.

A massive surge of desire energy expanded and put all the Sky Demons in a trance.

“It’s the Desire Flower! How could he possess the Desire Flower?”

“How? Why did the Desire Flower choose him?”

The Sky Demons looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

The Desire Flower was an ancient existence whose status in the Desire World Sky could rival even Papiyas.

Under the influence of the Desire Flower, the Sky Demons no longer dared to approach Chu Kuangren and Shi Ying. Some of them even escaped back to Desire World Sky.

To them, the Desire Flower was a terrifying existence.

If Papiyas was their Demon Lord, the Desire Flower would be their nightmare!

Desire Flower fed on desires, and the Sky Demons were manifestations of desires. Therefore, the flower was their bane, their arch nemesis, as it had devoured countless of their kinds over the years.

No matter how strong a Sky Demon was, it was no match for the Desire Flower. Only Papiyas was strong enough to overpower it.

Unfortunately, Papiyas had been missing for countless years.

“I can’t believe he has the Desire Flower!” Wu Tian’s pupils widened in shock.

He was not only shocked by Chu Kuangren possessing the Desire Flower, but he was also shocked that the Desire Flower would listen to Chu Kuangren’s command.

If Chu Kuangren could command such an ancient existence, what else could he possibly do? What was his real background? Was he really just a member of the Celestial Demon Tribe?

“I might not like Buddha a lot, but too bad my junior is from the Buddhist world, and you guys are my enemies. So, I can’t let you do as you wish,” Chu Kuangren said to Wu Tian and the others.

He took a step forward and arrived before Wu De and Wu Fa. He slashed forward with the Descendant Self Sword, and the shimmering sword ray devoured the two of them instantly.

Even though they had absorbed Papiyas' energy, they were still no match for the sword ray.

Swoosh!

Flesh and bones were torn by the slash, and the two Buddha Destroyers fell.

Then, Chu Kuangren turned his attention to the strongest, Wu Tian. Just before he could attack, several Arch Gilded Intent exploded from further away.

A couple of monks charged forward while enveloped in Buddhist Light and attempted to attack Chu Kuangren.

"They're the Bodhisattvas of Virtue Pure Land, Triumphant Pure Land, and Joyous Pure Land!"

Shi Ying recognized them at first glance, and it put a grim look on her face.

They were all Arch Gilded Immortals who were under the bell's influence.

"Just in time!" Wu Tian was delighted.

While the Bodhisattvas held Chu Kuangren back, Wu Tian's figure flashed and disappeared in the form of a stream of light.

"Chu Kuangren and Guanyin's successor will be a huge problem if we let them live. Kill them!" said one of the Bodhisattvas.

With that, all three of them attacked with their respective Buddhist cultivation techniques.

"Holy Dragon Slash!"

"Great Scorching Heavenly Palm!"

"Invisibility, All Things Empty!"

The dazzling and holy Buddhist Light shone across the land, but it contained the densest killing intent.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes coldly. "Do you really think I don't dare to kill you just because you are under control?"

Chu Kuangren would only show mercy to himself.

Although the Bodhisattvas attacked him because they were being controlled, there was no reason for him to hold back.

Samsara Arch Gilded Intent and Yin Yang Arch Gilded Intent were activated at once.

Reincarnation Tribulation Light and Divine Yin Yang Rejuvenation Light fused and transformed into dazzling Immortal Sparks that flooded forward like the rising tide.

At that moment, the Immortal Sparks and Buddhist Light clashed.

A loud explosion later, heaven shook, and the earth trembled!

The Bodhisattvas were blasted away by the Immortal Sparks.

Chu Kuangren seized the moment and swung his Descendant Self Sword forward.

With the Green Leaf Sword Vision activated, a surge of sword qi interweaved and flooded out in the form of a sword sea.

The sword qi roamed the realm and tore apart heaven and earth.

The sword qi drew cuts on the Bodhisattvas' bodies, leaving their bodies bloody.

Despite that, the Bodhisattvas refused to back down. It was as if something was driving them forward in their heads.

Chapter 1588: Kill Away, Mountains and Rivers Dyed in Blood, Murderous Arch Gilded Intent

1588 Kill Away, Mountains and Rivers Dyed in Blood, Murderous Arch Gilded Intent

"So, the bell chime doesn't only control them, but it even enhances their beliefs and makes them unafraid of death?" Chu Kuangren pondered.

Then, he took a step forward and activated the Spacetime Sealing Technique. Countless silvery white Daoist patterns enshrouded the area.

All the monks' movements were restrained, and they slowed down.

Then, Chu Kuangren's figure disappeared from the spot and reappeared before one of the monks. He slashed forward with the Descendant Self Sword and cut off one of the monk's arms.

A hint of pain appeared in the monk's eyes, but it did not stop him from attacking Chu Kuangren.

"I knew it."

Chu Kuangren dodged the monk's attack and performed another slash, casting Wei Tuo Sword Art together with the Merciful Arch Gilded Intent.

The slash was aimed at the monk's neck.

Swoosh!

As the Bodhisattva fell, his blood spurted and rained down on the ground.

"Brother Chu..."

The scene pained Shi Ying, but she did not say anything.

"Kill them!"

"Both Chu Kuangren and Guanyin's successor must die!"

The rest of the Bodhisattvas were not deterred by their comrade's death. Quite the opposite, they grew restless and more ferocious as if the hidden killer instinct in them was awakened.

Chu Kuangren continued brandishing his Descendant Self Sword at them.

Sword qi, Immortal Sparks, divine abilities, Immortal Techniques, Buddhist Light, and all kinds of energies intertwined in the void, shaking the land.

A while later, all the Bodhisattvas were beheaded by Chu Kuangren. He stood in the air in his white robes, free of a single drop of blood.

He gazed into the distant sky sharply.

He sensed two powerful energy presences further away, and they were probably the strongest presence he had sensed since arriving at the Far West Land.

“Due to the Buddha Destroyer Bell’s influence, many places in the Far West Land have fallen. In order to stop this disaster, I must deal with the root of all causes — the Holy Dragon Pure Land!”

Chu Kuangren looked at Shi Ying. “I’ll head to the Holy Dragon Pure Land first. The key to stopping all this might be there. You—”

“You don’t need to worry about me. I’m already an Arch Gilded Immortal. I am more than capable of protecting myself. This disaster has befallen the whole of Far West Land, and you’re the only one capable enough to stop this. Just do whatever you think is right. You don’t need to hold back,” Shi Ying said.

Her words tacitly granted Chu Kuangren permission to kill in the Far West Land.

After all, the land was filled with people under the Buddha Destroyer Bell’s influence, which made them their enemies.

It would be difficult for Chu Kuangren to solve the problem if his hands were tied.

Shi Ying was too soft to kill her peers, but Chu Kuangren did not have the burden or guilt of killing them.

“Alright, then. You take care,” Chu Kuangren said.

The bell tower affecting that area had been destroyed, so it was safe for Shi Ying to stay for the time being.

With that, his figure flashed, and he flew toward the Holy Dragon Pure Land.

...

Meanwhile, in Holy Dragon Pure Land, the Holy Dragon Abbot was using the Six Guna Demonic Hooks and the Desire World Sky’s energy to create a powerful illusion to stall Buddha Yun Lan and attack her Buddhist core.

Despite being in an illusion, Buddha Yun Lan was protected by powerful Buddhist Light, so the Holy Dragon Abbot could not break through her barriers for the time being.

In addition to the stagnant situation, he sensed a powerful presence coming toward him quickly.

Based on the speed and the energy presence, that person was incredibly strong.

“It’s Chu Kuangren!”

“He’s coming to Holy Dragon Pure Land! I have to hold Buddha Yun Lan back, so I can’t deal with him. Moreover, he’s not a common cultivator. He cannot come here, or things might take a drastic turn!” Holy Dragon Abbot thought.

Therefore, he sent an order to the monks under the bell’s influence to stop Chu Kuangren from getting to Holy Dragon Pure Land.

All the monks and cultivators in the Far West Land were mobilized, and they all headed toward Chu Kuangren to stop him from reaching Holy Dragon Pure Land.

Some of them were common Immortals, but some were powerful Gilded Immortals and Arch Gilded Immortals. Their combined strength alone could run the Immortal World over.

Now, they were all teaming up to take down one person.

“Chu Kuangren, they’re unafraid of death because of the bell. Can you get past them and get here?” Holy Dragon Abbot thought.

...

Ring!

The bell chime continued to echo across the land, and it struck a chord in people’s souls.

Under the sound of the bell, many cultivators and monks became Buddha Destroyers, and their chants echoed across the realm.

Chu Kuangren analyzed the bell towers and realized they were all just a broadcasting medium. In that case, there must be a source to the bell.

In order to restore peace and order to the Far West Land, he must strike the source.

The source might very well be in Holy Dragon Pure Land, but he must first reach the place before he could even investigate.

“Destroy the Buddha!”

“Destroy the Buddha!”

Vast and mighty bell chimes sounded.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes. “Here they come.”

As far as his sight could reach, cultivators and monks were charging toward him with sheer killing intent. Their energy presence and killing intent shrouded even the sky.

They were all here to kill him.

Chu Kuangren’s gaze turned cold. “If you people want a slaughter-fest, I will give you a slaughter-fest!”

Then, he stepped forward and flew toward the cultivators and monks.

He raised the Descendant Self Sword and slashed forward with it.

The mighty sword ray shone across the land. When it struck the massive crowd, a large area exploded in blood and dyed the land red.

Buddha was merciful but also ruthless when needed!

Since Chu Kuangren was not Buddha, his methods were a hundred times more ruthless.

Despite knowing the cultivators and monks were under the bell's control, he killed without any guilt.

Chu Kuangren had never gone on such a massive killing spree!

He had to kill to stop the killing and the disaster!

One step forward, and he left a trail of blood and death; one slash forward, and the countless sword qi turned into the fiercest dragons, destroying everything their way.

The cultivators and monks fell one after another, and their blood dyed the land and river red.

"Holy Dragon Slash!"

One of the monks charged forward and slashed his saber at Chu Kuangren. Then, a Holy Dragon's roar echoed in the sky.

Chu Kuangren did a reverse slash. The sharp sword ray tore the Holy Dragon and the monk who used the technique.

Seeing more cultivators and monks charging toward him, his expression turned cold. Murderous intent filled his mind. "Don't worry. When you people reach the Underworld, I will arrange for you all to reincarnate into a better life."

That would be the greatest mercy he could show to the enslaved cultivators and monks.

"Kill!"

He charged into the massive crowd and used all kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities to carve his way forward.

The monks and cultivators were unafraid of death and unaware of exhaustion, especially since their beliefs were distorted and strengthened by the bell chime.

Chu Kuangren, however, was not afraid of them.

His Indestructible Body granted him the capability to fight at a higher caliber, and he had never lost a lasting battle.

The endless killing, the ceaseless movements, the infinite sword ray that reaped lives... Chu Kuangren was on a frenzy killing spree.

His mind somehow entered a strange state, and he started to feel something blooming inside him.

Boom!

As the void trembled, the excruciating murderous intent manifested and caused the land to tremble.

It was another Arch Gilded Intent — the Murderous Arch Gilded Intent!

Chu Kuangren had comprehended the Murderous Arch Gilded Intent amidst his frenzied killing spree!

Chapter 1589: Walking On The Path to Buddha's Destruction, Holy Dragon Restriction Seals, Are You Out Of Your Mind?

1589 Walking On The Path to Buddha's Destruction, Holy Dragon Restriction Seals, Are You Out Of Your Mind?

The furious sword ray stirred up a bloody storm.

Chu Kuangren stood on the battlefield scattered with bodies and limbs as he savored his newly gained power. "Murderous Arch Gilded Intent? Interesting."

The Murderous Arch Gilded Intent was one of the most offensive Arch Gilded Intent out there.

In addition to the newly gained Murderous Arch Gilded Intent, he also possessed the Destructive Arch Gilded Intent, Merciful Arch Gilded Intent, Yin Yang Arch Gilded Intent, Samsara Arch Gilded Intent, and Thunder Gale Arch Gilded Intent.

Among the Arch Gilded Intent he possessed, only the Destructive Arch Gilded Intent possessed similar offensive capabilities to the Murderous Arch Gilded Intent.

"Since I've comprehended the Murderous Arch Gilded Intent, I shall use it to pave the way."

Chu Kuangren sheathed his Descendant Self Sword and replaced it with the Great Wasteland Halberd!

The Great Wasteland Halberd Technique he used contained the Murderous Dao, and when used together with the Murderous Arch Gilded Intent, it would be twice as effective.

"Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Great Wasteland Subjugation!"

Chu Kuangren swung the halberd forward, releasing a domineering halberd ray that reflected scenes of planetary destruction. Its might could crush planets and destroy stars!

The cultivators and monks were eliminated by the halberd ray.

However, Chu Kuangren remained emotionless and swept his halberd forward again. "Great Wasteland Halberd Technique, Nine Heaven Cry!"

The rumbling demonic qi was like an endless storm, sweeping all the enemies away and leaving a bloody trail in its way.

The storm was like a massive grinder, severing heads and cutting limbs as it moved forward.

"Battle Secret Art, activate! Chiyoun Demonic Patterns, activate!"

Chu Kuangren was overflowing with battle intent, and the Demonic patterns shone on his face. With the buffs from the two secret techniques, his energy reached a new high.

Then, the final form of the Great Wasteland Halberd erupted!

A hundred-meter-tall halberd ray crashed forward, carrying the flames of war and murderous intent that could level heaven and earth.

The halberd ray swept everything in its way. Be it people, mountains, or even space, everything was leveled to the ground.

Chu Kuangren was unstoppable!

He was like a terrifying Demon God basked in blood and flames of war, and the demonic aura he emanated was extremely intimidating.

The monks and cultivators under the bell's influence could not help but feel an instinctive fear before that absolute power. Their bodies started to tremble.

Ring!

However, the bell chime rang louder, and it strengthened their beliefs even more, making them braver and more unafraid of death.

Chu Kuangren disregarded the bell and their expressions as he paved a bloody path with his indomitable halberd, making his way to Holy Dragon Pure Land. Not even the overwhelming numbers could hold him down.

Most of the elites in the Pure Lands were under Holy Dragon Abbot's control, and they were all summoned to restrain Buddha Yun Lan.

The rest of the Arch Gilded Immortals had all died under Chu Kuangren's halberd.

Deep inside Holy Dragon Pure Land, a bunch of high monks chanted a strange mantra, and endless Buddhist Light shone from within their bodies. The light was then infused into Holy Dragon Abbot's body, and he used the energy to restrain Buddha Yun Lan.

Restraining an Embodier was no easy task.

Some of the monks ran out of Buddhist Light and could barely hold on to their lives. However, due to the influence of the Buddha Destroyer Bell, they ignited their life force to further squeeze out whatever Buddhist Light was left in them to support the Holy Dragon Abbot.

The Buddha Destroyer Bell was indeed terrifying. Not even an Arch Gilded Immortal could resist it.

The other Immortal World great ones who watched from afar were shocked.

"It's surprising that the Holy Dragon Pure Land decided to use such a strange method to overthrow the Buddha's influence."

"Their method targets the soul. Why does it look like it came from a Soul Restricted Area?"

"Hm. It's better to stay away from this mess."

"Huh? Someone is coming."

Clouds rumbled further away and shadowed the land at an unbelievable speed. The murderous intent it carried almost manifested and turned the land into purgatory. It was a shocking scene to the eyes.

The murderous intent contained in the clouds was so strong that it shook one's soul as if it was one of the soul techniques.

Some of the monks and cultivators under the bell's influence started to tremble out of instinct. It was as though they were facing a Demon God.

Under the rumbling clouds was a figure in white, wielding a bronze halberd as he approached. His transcendental presence, his cold but handsome looks, and every aspect of him screamed of murderous intent that could shake the heavens.

When the people laid eyes on the white figure, they saw a scene they would remember for life.

Bodies! Countless bodies! Bodies that piled up as tall as mountains and blood that flowed as fast as the largest river. The word 'terrifying' was an understatement.

The severed bodies of the cultivators and monks were scattered across the mountains and rivers while their blood rained down and dyed the land red.

Everyone thought they heard the horrifying wails of the dead souls.

Most of the bodies were bodies of dead monks, and a lot of them still had faint Buddhist Lights shimmering around them.

The figure in white approached with a terrifying aura. It was as though he walked on the path to Buddha's destruction!

The great ones of the Immortal Worlds were horrified by his presence.

They were even starting to suspect that Chu Kuangren was the real Buddha Destroyer and not Holy Dragon Pure Land.

How many Bodhisattvas had he killed?

It was terrifying to even think about it.

Even the Holy Dragon Abbot was stunned. He did not expect Chu Kuangren's arrival so soon and in such a horrifying manner.

Despite being a perfected Arch Gilded Immortal, he could not help but felt scared.

Then, he glanced at the mountains of bodies and cackled with laughter. "Great! Great! Chu Kuangren, you're truly the successor of Papiyas, the real Buddha Destroyer!"

Even all the Buddha Destroyers he raised combined could not outnumber Chu Kuangren's kill count.

"Buddha Destroyer? I don't care. I just want to kill you," Chu Kuangren said.

Lil Ai started analyzing and soon found out that Holy Dragon Abbot was holding Buddha Yun Lan back using some kind of odd methods. That was why she could not move or attack.

Only by defeating the Holy Dragon Abbot could Buddha Yun Lan be freed, and once the Embodier joined the battle, it would put a full stop to this disaster.

Without further ado, Chu Kuangren hurled the halberd ray at the Holy Dragon Abbot.

However, restriction seals appeared above Holy Dragon Pure Land and negated the halberd ray.

“Chu Kuangren, do you really think I’m unprepared? This is the Holy Dragon Restriction Seals, and not even an Arch Gilded Immortal of the Five Qi realm can destroy it easily. You are only in the Trinity Flower realm. How can you possibly break through?” the Holy Dragon Abbot cackled confidently.

Then, he raised his hand, and one of the bell towers within Holy Dragon Pure Land released a loud chime.

That particular bell tower was the source of all the Buddha Destroyer Bells!

“Chu Kuangren, you are a genius, and I really can’t bear to kill you. Why don’t you join the Holy Dragon Pure Land? I can make you the Heavenly Guardian God, second only to me,” Holy Dragon Abbot said, attempting to rope Chu Kuangren to his side.

“Are you out of your mind?”

“Hmph.”

The Holy Dragon Abbot knew Chu Kuangren would not simply agree to his terms. As he had prepared for this, he channeled the source of the Buddha Destroyer bell and attacked Chu Kuangren with the bell chimes.

1590 Breaking The Restriction Seals, Detonate The Six Guna Demonic Hooks, Wicked Buddha Shall Be Eliminated

The Buddha Destroyer Bell reverberated, attacking Chu Kuangren with its soundwave.

Even those Immortal World great ones who watched using their Immortal Consciousness were exposed to the risk of losing their consciousness.

They strongly believed if they were within the bell’s proximity themselves, they would fall under the bell’s control.

“Can Chu Kuangren withstand this?”

“Even if he’s an Arch Gilded Immortal, it would still be difficult for him to resist it.”

“The Buddha Destroyer Bell is indeed strange.”

Chu Kuangren stood firm and allowed the bell chime to echo around him.

The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead glowed, and an extraordinary Daoist Rhyme sounded from it.

“It’s so noisy.”

Chu Kuangren narrowed his gleaming eyes.

Then, the Green Lotus Mark on his forehead shone brightly, and a Chaos Green Lotus bloomed under his feet.

In fact, not only the Green Lotus' energy but even the Mini Universe energy in him was activated.

The two transcendental energies merged and caused a mystical reaction.

Billions of Immortal Sparks spread outward from him, setting him off as a God that had transcended above all.

"This energy... How is this possible?" the Holy Dragon Abbot shouted in disbelief.

"No restriction seals in this world can stop me, and you're not even close," Chu Kuangren said coldly.

The destructive energy of the Chaos Green Lotus and the Mini Universe energy exploded in his palm. The endless Immortal Sparks were like the divine light that exploded within pure chaos, eliminating everything in its way.

Bang!

The beam of light struck the Holy Dragon Restriction Seals.

The restriction seals that could stop even a Five Qi-realm Arch Gilded Immortal trembled and were shattered by Chu Kuangren's attack.

An endless amount of energy gushed out and flooded the entire Holy Dragon Pure Land.

All the monks who provided the Holy Dragon Abbot with seemingly infinite energy were either blasted away or knocked to the ground by the energy shockwave.

The great ones of the Immortal World were in awe of the scene.

"That's the power of the Chaos Green Lotus!"

"As expected of the Chaos Supreme Treasure. Its usage is indeed profound, and it seems like it was the lotus that shielded Chu Kuangren from the Buddha Destroyer Bell."

"I can't believe it can even protect one's soul."

The great ones were in a heated conversation about the Chaos Green Lotus' usage and effect.

It was then that Buddha Yun Lan opened her eyes. When she sensed the illusion from the Six Guna Demonic Hooks weakening, she seized the moment and strengthened her Buddhist core to break through the illusory realm.

"I won't let you!" Holy Dragon Abbot grunted.

Crimson Buddhist Light shone from his body and was then infused into the Six Guna Demonic Hooks.

He tried to hold Buddha Yun Lan back single-handedly, which was not entirely impossible since Buddha Yun Lan had yet to completely break free from the illusion.

However, three more pitch-black hooks flew in and intertwined with the Holy Dragon Abbot's three hooks.

The Daoist patterns on the hooks started to resonate with each other.

“That’s the other three Six Guna Demonic Hooks! It’s in your hands!” the Holy Dragon Abbot was astonished.

The Six Guna Demonic Hooks were an Embodier Weapon of Papiyas, and Holy Dragon Abbot devoted his life to finding them but only managed to get three.

He did not expect Chu Kuangren to possess the remaining three.

“Shocking?” Chu Kuangren said.

“No. I should thank you for delivering the remaining hooks to me. I don’t have a hundred percent confidence to hold Buddha Yun Lan down, but now with the complete hooks, it’s possible. Who would have expected you to be the one to deliver the hooks to me?” The Holy Dragon Abbot cackled.

He wanted to snatch the remaining hooks from Chu Kuangren.

With his level of power and the three hooks he possessed, as long as he could get the remaining three from Chu Kuangren, he would be able to master all six of the hooks easily.

Then, he would gain enough power to hold Buddha Yun Lan down.

While Holy Dragon Abbot was going through his plans in his mind, Chu Kuangren revealed a strange smile.

“You want the hooks? Here!”

He tossed the three remaining hooks out.

The Holy Dragon Abbot was shocked. He had no idea what Chu Kuangren was aiming for by simply giving him the treasure he asked for.

However, he spotted glowing Daoist patterns on the three hooks that Chu Kuangren tossed out.

Following that, a vast and terrifying energy erupted from the hooks, and it put fear on Holy Dragon Abbot’s face.

“Damn it!”

He finally realized what Chu Kuangren was doing — Chu Kuangren wanted to detonate three of the Six Guna Demonic Hooks!

Detonating an Embodier Weapon?

Even if it was an incomplete one, the explosive power from the detonation could level the entire Holy Dragon Pure Land to the ground!

In just a split second, the Holy Dragon Abbot made the swiftest decision to channel his Immortal’s Core energy to the limit and opened up a massive crack in the void.

A massive suction force came from within.

It was the opening to the Deep Void!

Holy Dragon Abbot tossed the Six Guna Demonic Hooks into the crack and closed it. He even tossed the three of his own because once the hooks resonated with each other, it would be difficult to separate them in such a short time. That was why he was forced to abandon all of them.

It was a difficult but right decision.

At the next moment, a rampant energy storm erupted from the Deep Void and burst through multiple layers of the void. With the fabric of the void torn, the energy storm's explosive energy was blasted toward the Holy Dragon Abbot.

Even though the explosive energy was a sliver of the detonation, it was enough to lay massive pressure on him.

"Demonic Buddha Carnage, Heavenly Transcendental Burial!"

He channeled his crimson Buddhist Light to block the explosive pressure from the Embodier Weapon's detonation.

Unfortunately, he was still blasted a few thousand meters away. Blood trickled from the edge of his mouth, and his face turned pale.

A sliver of the detonation power was enough to put him in a wretched state. If he had reacted any slower or hesitated for a split second, he would probably die on the spot.

"Chu Kuangren, you madman!"

Had he not opened the crack to the Deep Void, the detonation of an Embodier Weapon would have wiped away everything within its blast radius, including Chu Kuangren.

Not even a Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal like him could withstand the blast, let alone Chu Kuangren, who was a mere Trinity Flower-realm Arch Gilded Immortal.

In other words, detonating the Embodier Weapon was a suicidal act, and Chu Kuangren was planning to take him down together!

If Chu Kuangren was not a madman, who was?

The Holy Dragon Abbot looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.

Other than the Six Guna Demonic Hooks, Chu Kuangren had another Embodier Weapon — the Great Wasteland Halberd!

Holy Dragon Abbot was forced to be cautious as he was afraid that Chu Kuangren might detonate another one in his face.

"You're awake!" Chu Kuangren suddenly said.

As soon as he said that, a bright Buddhist light shot up and shadowed the sky. Half of the Far West Land basked in the strong light that contained Daoist law.

It was Buddha Yun Lan!

She had woken up from the illusion!

“No!”

The Holy Dragon Abbot’s expression turned grim. Losing the Six Guna Demonic Hooks robbed him of the capabilities to restrain an Embodier, and even more so when the blast of the detonation injured him.

“The Wicked Buddha shall be eliminated!”

Without further ado, Buddha Yun Lan raised infinite Buddhist Light from her hand and shot it at the Holy Dragon Abbot.
