Chapter 1651: Killing the Infallible Sword Physique with A Sword Attack, Is He A Powerful Sky-pride and Prodigy?

1651 Killing the Infallible Sword Physique with A Sword Attack, Is He A Powerful Sky-pride and Prodigy?

The terrain cracked, the sky and the earth shook, Yin and Yang were reversed, while the sun and the moon stopped shining!

Ye Zhu and other people in Pan Gu Universe were extremely excited to see the arrival of the person dressed in white. There was a relieved smile on Ye Zhu's face.

"He's here. He's here!"

"Damn. I knew he wouldn't miss a big event like the battle between the two universes."

"My goodness. Has his aura gotten more powerful?"

"Yes. You're right. His aura is indeed more powerful than before. Is he really a Trinity Flower Realm existence?!"

The person who arrived was Chu Kuangren.

He rushed over after sensing the battling aura here. When he saw Ye Zhu and heard Chen Feihu's incomparably arrogant statement, he snickered.

"Who are you?!"

Chen Feihu's expression became solemn after sensing Chu Kuangren's surging aura.

The person before him was more powerful than Ye Zhu!

"Do you think you deserve to know who I am?" Chu Kuangren stood with hands behind his back while his Immortal's Core wreaked havoc on his surroundings.

His words provoked Chen Feihu.

A ray of light burst out from Chen Feihu's eyes, and he channeled his Infallible Sword Physique to its limit. The heavy pitch-black sword in his hand trembled insanely while countless black Immortal's Core energy gathered on the blade. Daoist patterns interweaved, and like a black hole, they devoured all radiance in the surrounding.

"Infallible Sword Physique, attack!"

Knowing that Chu Kuangren's strength should not be underestimated, Chen Feihu attacked with his best Sword Dao killing move!

With one strike forward, the pitch-black sword ray seemed to devour everything in its wake. It tore a pitch-black crack in the void and crushed Chu Kuangren with the violent spatial turbulence!

However, Chu Kuangren stood in his place calmly with his hands behind his back. Instead of dodging, he took the attack!

“Is he mad?!”

The people of the Central Heaven Universe gasped in disbelief.

One thing worth noting was that Chen Feihu’s strength left a deep impression on Central Heaven Universe’s younger generation.

There were only a few people who could defend themselves against his sword attack, let alone take the attack head-on!

“Fool!” Chen Feihu sneered.

In his opinion, Chu Kuangren was too arrogant even though he was powerful. His sword attack was mighty, and none of the younger generations could take it on unscathed.

Chu Kuangren was undoubtedly courting death for taking the attack head-on instead of dodging!

Boom!

The terrifying sword qi surged and enveloped Chu Kuangren.

They raged in the void and continuously tore Chu Kuangren’s body apart. However, Chu Kuangren remained standing there with his Immortal’s Core, which was mixed with Golden Immortal Sparks, circulating him.

Under his Immortal’s Core resistance, the stray sword qi that attacked him was destroyed by his unbelievably powerful physical body

After the sword qis dissipated, Chu Kuangren was still standing, with his body unscathed and his white robe as clean as ever!

Those from the Alternate Universe gasped with disbelief when they saw the scene.

“H-How is this possible?”

“How did he manage to bear Chen Feihu’s sword qi unscathed?!”

“T-This is impossible! How could such a monster exist in Pan Gu Universe?”

Ye Zhu and others felt an inexplicable sense of pride when they saw the inconceivable expressions of those from the Alternate Universe.

‘Look, he’s a sky-pride from Pan Gu Universe, and he’s much more powerful than yours!’

On top of that, they felt a sense of déjà vu. After all, they were once frightened by Chu Kuangren just like those people from the Alternate Universe.

However, they had already gotten used to it now.

“Peak Sword Dao? You’re the only one who is undefeated?”

Chu Kuangren looked at Chen Feihu and snickered.

Immediately afterward, he raised his hand gently, and the Descendant Self Sword at his waist unsheathed itself with a clunk!

A sharp sword intent gushed out with a surging sword aura that was many times more powerful than Chen Feihu's!

The sword aura made Chen Feihu tremble uncontrollably.

Was his Infallible Sword Physique afraid?!

Chen Feihu could hardly believe it.

Following that, an indescribable sense of shame overcame him.

He was the most popular figure among the younger generation in the Alternate Universe. Besides those top ten monsters in the Heavenly God Leaderboard, he only took a few people seriously.

He was the person that reigned supreme in the Sword Dao, but he was afraid now!

"This is impossible!"

"I, Chen Feihu, possess the Infallible Sword Physique. How can I be defeated in the Sword Dao?!"

Chen Feihu roared angrily and burned his life essence. The heavy pitch-black sword in his hand trembled insanely before he unleashed a sword attack that was much more powerful than before!

This time, Chu Kuangren moved.

His white jade-like sword released countless brilliant Immortal Sparks, and the Dao Proclamation Seals on the blade lit up one after another.

"You shall see what the real infallible sword is!"

As Chu Kuangren yelled indifferently, he slashed the Descendant Self Sword in his hand across the void!

Countless Daoist patterns and runes manifested into a huge sword shadow that stretched millions of meters. Then, the sword shadow descended from the sky and made its way toward Chen Feihu.

It was the Blade of Zhou's Infinite Void!

The two different sword qi collided!

However, the Blade of Zhou's Infinite Void gained momentum. It tore the pitch-black sword qi apart and headed toward Chen Feihu. Every living thing on the land was filled with great terror.

Chen Feihu had never looked as panic-stricken as he was now.

In the next moment, the sword qi enveloped him completely, and he exploded into a cloud of blood mist!

A Sword Dao Prodigy from the Alternate Universe could not even take a sword attack from Chu Kuangren!

The Infallible Sword Physique was defeated!

The rest of the Alternate Universe people were so shocked by the scene that they were speechless. There was a horror look in their eyes. “H-How is this possible?!”

He was Chen Feihu, the famous person who had the potential to reign supreme in the Sword Dao among the young generation of the Alternate Universe. Yet, he failed to take Chu Kuangren’s sword attack!

Good god. Were all of Pan Gu Universe’s sky-prides so powerful?!

“Run! Run now!”

“We’re not his match. I’m afraid only the top-notch Prodigy in the King Tribe can fight him.”

The people from the Alternate Universe fled in panic after Chen Feihu’s death.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren did not intend to let them go. He formed a sword hand sign and activated his Green Leaf Sword Ocean. Hundreds of millions of sword qi then turned into a boundless ocean that swept out!

Under the sword qi’s attack, many Alternate Universe cultivators fell one after another.

Soon after, Chu Kuangren approached Ye Zhu to check his injury and heal him.

Ye Zhu then said with a fist salute, “Thank you.”

“Don’t mention it.”

“Brother Chu, since you’ve come to the secret realm, it looks like the people from the Alternate Universe will have to suffer,” Ye Zhu said while smiling.

Chu Kuangren smiled and then asked about the Alternate Universe.

Ye Zhu knew about the universe more than Chu Kuangren did since he came to the secret realm earlier than him.

“The population of the Alternate Universe is huge, and there are many powerful Prodigies among them, such as Chen Feihu whom Brother Chu killed just now...”

Chu Kuangren was taken aback when he heard the statement. “Is he a powerful sky-pride and Prodigy?”

‘Uh...’

Ye Zhu and others’ mouths twitched upon hearing that statement.

Well, if Chen Feihu could be killed by one sword attack, he was indeed not that powerful compared to Chu Kuangren.

Alas, Ye Zhu and others had to struggle to survive before Chen Feihu, but Chen Feihu was nothing to Chu Kuangren. Comparisons really were the thief of joy.

Chapter 1652: Exchanging Sword Arts, Wu You, Vine Demon Crown Prince, Something Is Wrong With The Leyline

1652 Exchanging Sword Arts, Wu You, Vine Demon Crown Prince, Something Is Wrong With The Leyline

“The Alternate Universe is called the Central Heaven Universe. It is divided into countless tribes with an extremely strict hierarchy ranging from the first to the ninth tier. The ninth-tier tribe is watched over by an Arch Gilded Immortal, but the King Tribe, who is above the ninth tier and the ruler of the Alternate Universe, is the most challenging one!”

“The King Tribe is the most powerful tribe in the Alternate Universe. As the name suggests, it is a tribe with a God King in charge and often nurtures some Prodigies.”

“In the Alternate Universe, there is a Heavenly God Leaderboard among the younger generation. Those who can make the list are Prodigies, such as Chen Feihu, who was a member of the Heavenly God Leaderboard.”

Ye Zhu was explaining the situation of the Alternate Universe.

He had gotten all of that information from the Alternate Universe people, and Chu Kuangren listened with great interest.

The group moved forward to explore the secret realm, collecting treasures and killing people from the Alternate Universe when they encountered them.

However, they hardly encountered any opponents with Chu Kuangren around.

Those elites like Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals had been restrained by other great ones in the Immortal World.

“By the way, Brother Chu, did you defeat Chen Feihu with the Blade of Zhou?” Ye Zhu suddenly asked curiously.

“Yeah.”

“As expected of the Blade of Zhou that ranks third among the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques.”

“I can teach you if you want to learn,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

He was willing to teach the Embodier Technique, with no intentions of keeping it to himself.

Ye Zhu was shocked but tempted. After all, learning an Embodier Technique would be beneficial to him.

“Brother Chu, how about I teach you the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi in exchange for that?” asked Ye Zhu.

The Immortal Destruction Sword Qi was ranked first among the Twenty-four Sword Dao Techniques. Although it was more powerful than the Blade of Zhou, Ye Zhu did not think learning it would put him at a disadvantage.

He would only progress in the Sword Dao by not hiding his technique and exchanging it with others.

Chu Kuangren glanced at him and smiled. “Alright!”

He was not pretentious. Soon, he taught Ye Zhu the Blade of Zhou and shared his cultivation experience, while Ye Zhu presented him with the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi.

As the two were learning from each other, the news of Chu Kuangren killing Chen Feihu spread rapidly among the Alternate Universe's cultivators. Many people were astonished.

"Chen Feihu is dead?"

"It is surprising that Chen Feihu, who was ranked twenty-fourth on the Heavenly God Leaderboard, died here."

"Could it be that a great one in Pan Gu Universe made the move?"

"It can't be. I heard that it was done by someone from the younger generation, but is there such a person in Pan Gu Universe's younger generation?!"

The crowd was engaged in a discussion.

In a secret realm battlefield somewhere, a young man in black armor stood in the air. The long halberd in his hand shone with black phantom rays, revealing an eerie vibe to it.

Countless corpses of cultivators from Pan Gu Universe were lying at his feet.

The young man was Wu You, a young Prodigy who ranked twenty-second on Central Heaven Universe's Heavenly God Leaderboard!

"Ha! I can't believe Chen Feihu, who was ranked twenty-fourth on the Heavenly God Leaderboard, died here. What a loser."

"Is it true that Chen Feihu was killed with a sword attack?"

Wu You rubbed the communication jade scroll in his hand with phantom rays shining in his eyes.

Crack!

The communication jade scroll shattered and crushed into dust.

Wu You sneered. "I will know whether it is true if I try it myself."

...

Meanwhile, on the secret realm battlefield, a woman was walking on a battlefield that looked like the Ashura Underworld. Her long white dress was white as snow and was not stained by blood at all.

She had smooth skin, long green hair down her back, bright eyes, and white teeth. Her long white dress wrapped around her curvy figure and her voluptuous chest.

Her body was sexy, but her expression was ice-cold

However, some Pan Gu Universe cultivators were terrified upon noticing the woman. They looked at her as if she was an Ashuran Ghoul.

"Run!"

Some Pan Gu Universe cultivators wanted to escape.

Suddenly, the woman waved her sleeve, and a ray of light flew out from it in the shape of a cone-shaped shuttle!

Everywhere the shuttle went, countless Pan Gu Universe cultivators were killed.

Soon, only the woman remained standing at the scene.

At that moment, the jade scroll at her waist trembled, signaling that she had a message.

“Oh, Chen Feihu is dead. Interesting.”

The woman grinned and then looked at the huge spatial vortex connecting to the Pan Gu Universe’s Immortal World. “I wonder how the plan is going. It’s almost time to reel them into my trap since the Prodigy who easily killed Chen Feihu is here.”

...

Countless vines stretched and covered the land, crushing many cultivators into blood and piles of meat.

An Alternate Universe’s sky-pride laughed out loud. Those vines were released from his sleeves.

After killing a group of cultivators, the Alternate Universe’s sky-pride received the news of Chen Feihu’s fall. He was surprised for a moment, but after that, he laughed out loud. “Serves Chen Feihu right for dying here.”

He did not have a good relationship with Chen Feihu. Both of them had fought before, and it took him quite a while to recover after Chen Feihu injured him with an attack.

Of course, Chen Feihu suffered some injuries too.

“Haha, the Prodigy that killed Chen Feihu, I, Vine Demon Crown Prince, shall meet you soon!”

The Vine Demon Crown Prince laughed and flew away into the distance.

...

At that moment, Chu Kuangren was oblivious to the fact that many cultivators from the Alternate Universe were targeting him as he was cultivating the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi.

“Immortal Destruction Sword, fall!”

As Chu Kuangren put up a sword hand sign and slashed forward with it, countless sword qi enveloped a mountain peak from all directions.

Soon after, the mountain peak was torn apart by the countless sword qi and turned into dust!

Ye Zhu watched from the side in awe and shock.

“Brother Chu’s learning ability is truly terrifying.”

It took him many years to slowly master the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, but Chu Kuangren fully mastered it after a few days. Besides, Chu Kuangren seemed to surpass him in using the technique.

Chu Kuangren could be regarded as a monster instead of extraordinary for having such a learning ability!

“Heh, thank you for your guidance, Brother Ye.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled and made fun of Ye Zhu.

In the past few days, he had learned the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi while Ye Zhu had learned the Blade of Zhou technique. On top of that, both of them possessed the Green Leaf Sword Vision, so they exchanged many topics on the Sword Dao.

After a few days, Ye Zhu benefited a lot from that exchange, and Chu Kuangren also gained something.

“By the way, Brother Ye, have you noticed the leylines in the secret realm?”

Chu Kuangren looked at a leyline that faintly appeared from the ground where he crushed the mountain peak earlier. Inside the leyline was surging with spiritual qi, and it revealed a faint but treacherous rune.

“Although the leyline is a little strange, this is a secret realm in the Deep Void. It’s normal for it to be strange,” said Ye Zhu.

“Is it so? I think something is wrong with the leyline.”

Chu Kuangren’s intuition had always been accurate.

As he walked past the leylines and learned more about them, that feeling that bugged him grew

Chapter 1653: The Kunlun Mirror Emerges, Prodigies of The Two Universes, A Piece of Rotten Log

1653 The Kunlun Mirror Emerges, Prodigies of The Two Universes, A Piece of Rotten Log

“Lil Ai, how is the analysis of the leylines going?”

“I need a little more time,” said Lil Ai.

As an Omniscient Spirit, Lil Ai analyzed things by connecting to the Universal Dao. She could analyze existing things in the universe rapidly, but she took quite some time to analyze the leylines in the secret realm because the runes contained in them were not originated from Pan Gu Universe. Therefore, Lil Ai, who was connected to Pan Gu’s Universal Dao, could not analyze them.

That was the reason why Chu Kuangren was feeling uneasy.

It seemed like the secret realm belonged to Pan Gu Universe, but why were there runes that did not belong to Pan Gu Universe? Someone from the Alternate Universe must be playing tricks.

“I will face everything that comes my way!”

“Come on Alternate Universe! Show me what tricks you’re up to?”

Chu Kuangren wished that Lil Ai could speed up the analyzing process.

Just then, a powerful energy fluctuation approached from the void in the distance.

Following that, hundreds of millions of Immortal Sparks appeared above the sky, where an ancient mirror was suspended in mid-air, lighting up the land!

However, Chu Kuangren could feel something in him move when the ancient mirror emerged.

“This is...”

Chu Kuangren sensed which part of his body was reacting to it and noticed that it came from the Transcendent-tier prize, the Timespace Treasure!

It had been quite some time since he last utilized the treasure as he had not had the chance to use it.

That Transcendent-tier prize was no worse than the Chaos Green Lotus and contained extremely powerful space-time energy.

However, why did it resonate with the ancient mirror?

Could the mirror also be a spacetime-attribute treasure?

Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

The spacetime-attribute treasure reminded him of the Kunlun Mirror, a legendary treasure in ancient Immortal times!

“Kunlun Mirror?” Ye Zhu, who was next to Chu Kuangren, speculated at first, but he confirmed that his speculation was right after hearing Chu Kuangren.

“Brother Chu, should we go check out together?”

“Yeah.”

Soon after, both of them turned into a stream of light and flew toward the direction of the Kunlun Mirror.

The emergence of the Kunlun Mirror attracted the attention of many sky-prides and Prodigies. For a while, people from the Alternate Universe and Pan Gu Universe flew to the location of the Kunlun Mirror.

“The Kunlun Mirror is an Innate Source Supreme Treasure. Although it is not of superb grade, it’s extraordinary.”

Meanwhile, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was looking at the Kunlun Mirror elsewhere with his eyes burning with desire.

He was confident that his current cultivation was no worse than anyone else, but he was constantly defeated by Chu Kuangren. After numerous lessons learned, he finally found the reason.

It was because of his equipment!

Chu Kuangren’s cultivation level was not much better than his, but why was he so powerful?

It was because he owned many treasures, such as the Great Wasteland Halberd, Samsara Emperor Seals, Chaos Green Lotus, and many more!

They were all treasures, especially the Chaos Green Lotus, which was a Chaos Supreme Treasure!

He might not have the chance to compete with Chu Kuangren for the rest of his life if he does not find treasures with the same tier as Chu Kuangren's.

The Kunlun Mirror was a top-notch top-tier Source Supreme Treasure. Even though he was the Immortal Hall Divine Daoist, he was very tempted to get his hands on it as he would be more confident in fighting Chu Kuangren in the future if he obtained it.

The Kunlun Mirror contained spacetime energy and was the most mysterious treasure.

...

At the same time, a woman, who was dressed in a long golden-yellow robe with stunning facial features and a noble aura, looked strangely in the direction of the Kunlun Mirror.

"I didn't expect to encounter a treasure like the Kunlun Mirror here."

The woman was Hua Xi, Wahuang's successor of the Human Emperor Sect.

She looked at the Kunlun Mirror in the distance, and a strange brilliance faintly emerged at her heart.

"Among the Ten Great Godly Weapons, Fuxi's Guqin, Xuanyuan Sword, and Nuwa Stone have emerged. Now that the Kunlun Mirror has emerged too, I must not miss it," mumbled Hua Xi.

Then, her figure flashed and flew toward the distance.

The Ten Great Godly Weapons was a rumor circulated in ancient Immortal times, but only a few people knew precisely what the rumor was.

...

Many sky-prides and Prodigies arrived at the location of the Kunlun Mirror.

However, one of the Prodigies could not hold back. His figure flashed and flew toward the Kunlun Mirror.

However, before he could get close to it, the Kunlun Mirror flashed, and a powerful space-time energy reflected from the mirror. The Prodigy was sent flying away by the force.

Moreover, a spacetime enchanted boundary had appeared around the Kunlun Mirror, and one must break the boundary in order to obtain the treasure.

"Does the treasure have a spirit? Is it challenging us?" the Prodigy who was blasted away asked in surprise.

"Haha. The Kunlun Mirror doesn't like you," someone said with disdain.

His words provoked the Prodigy, and the two started to fight against each other.

The rest of the people were also wary of others.

"This Pan Gu Universe treasure is mine!"

At that moment, a laugh sounded.

A pitch-black halberd ray shot across the sky, and in it was a large number of runes. An incomparably terrifying force erupted, and the void shattered in its wake!

The halberd ray was aimed at the Kunlun Mirror!

Boom!

The halberd ray crashed into the spacetime enchanted boundary, sending the entire enchanted boundary into turmoil before countless cracks emerged on it.

Everyone could not help but exclaim upon seeing such a scene.

Who could break through the space-time enchanted boundary set by the Supreme Treasure, the Kunlun Mirror?!

Soon, a young man in black armor strode forward, and his domineering aura was suffocating to others!

There was a vague but indescribable eeriness in his domineering aura.

“He’s Wu You, an Alternate Universe Prodigy!”

A cultivator who knew about the Alternate Universe was shocked when he noticed the person who was approaching.

Wu You took a step forward and dashed toward the Kunlun Mirror. As he stretched his hands, a terrifying Immortal’s Core emerged between them, and he made a grab forward!

However, an aura as mighty as an emperor erupted at that moment. A huge golden avatar emerged and sent Wu You flying outward with a palm attack!

“Oh, interesting.”

There was a strange look in Wu You’s eyes.

Ever since he entered the secret realm, it was the first time he encountered a Prodigy who could push him back.

“This Supreme Treasure belongs to Pan Gu Universe. How could someone from the Alternate Universe get his hands on it?” The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist looked at Wu You coldly and said.

“Haha. We will annex Pan Gu Universe sooner or later. What can you do even if we grab your Supreme Treasure?”

Then, a loud laugh sounded.

Shortly after, countless vines that contained terrifying power made their way toward the crowd. Wherever they went, all sky-prides were defeated and whipped into blood mists.

The Alternate Universe Prodigy, the Vine Demon Crown Prince, had emerged.

He was extremely insolent. He regarded the Kunlun Mirror as if it was his already and started killing people as soon as he arrived!

As the Vine Demon Crown Prince was on a killing spree, a flame swept across from a distance. The scorching heat distorted the void, and burned half of the vines to ashes!

Following a sharp phoenix cry, a woman in red armor flew in from afar!

“It’s Chu Hong, the Phoenix Maiden from the Phoenix’s Nest!”

The person who arrived was currently the most attention-grabbing Prodigy in the Phoenix’s Nest. She was Chu Hong, Chu Kuangren’s younger sister.

When she arrived, another scorching aura spread from not far away. Soon, the earth turned dry while rivers dried up.

A stunning blue-haired woman approached. As she raised her hands, blue flames surged and burned the remaining vines of the Vine Demon Crown Prince to ashes. This woman was Jiangshi Restricted Area’s female demon!

“What a piece of sh*t. Beware that I will burn you into nothing!”

1654 The Battle of The Prodigies Between Two Universes, What A Powerful Aura

“What a piece of sh*t. Beware that I will burn you into nothing!” the female demon said indifferently.

The Vine Demon Crown Prince’s expression changed upon hearing her words. “You’re quite arrogant for a Prodigy!”

“Hmph. There is someone even more arrogant!” Chu Hong sneered.

She was holding a crimson spear in her hand while Phoenix Flames lingered around her. Her domineering aura was peerless!

“Prodigies of Pan Gu Universe, do you think we’re afraid of you?” Wu You sneered.

Then, an incomparably powerful aura erupted from his body, and his aura became even more domineering. As he swung the long halberd in his hand, a domineering halberd ray shot out!

In just a split second, the Emperor Avatar behind Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist shattered!

In another direction, many sky-prides and cultivators from the Alternate Universe confronted the cultivators from Pan Gu Universe.

Some people among them possessed energy presences that were no less than that of a top-notch Prodigy.

“We will get our hands on the supreme treasure today!” Wu You said indifferently.

“Then, show us that you have the ability to do so!”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist stopped saying more and immediately made a move. Brilliant Immortal Sparks burst out, and majestic Immortal's Core gushed out from his body to form the Emperor Avatar again.

The rest of the cultivators abandoned their prejudices at that moment and joined forces to fight against the people from the Alternate Universe!

As the sky-prides and Prodigies from two universes were fighting against each other, powerful energy fluctuations spread. All kinds of gorgeous Immortal Sparks intertwined in the void and formed a colorful sky!

Countless Immortal's Core energies and runes filled the sky like a galaxy.

Occasionally, some dissipated energy fell to the ground like a meteor and made loud noises.

The huge movement shook most of the secret realm.

"Haha. This is my first time fighting with the top-notch Prodigies from Pan Gu Universe. Let me have a taste of your strength!"

As Vine Demon Crown Prince laughed, countless green rays burst out from his body.

There were vines interweaved in those green rays, and they formed countless puppet soldiers, with each of them possessing an extremely powerful aura.

The worst ones among them were close to the cultivation level of a Gilded Immortal.

Most importantly, there were hundreds or even thousands of those puppets, which was enough to bury a top-notch or even a Peerless Prodigy to death.

"What a troublesome ability."

The female demon furrowed her brows. Then, the Drought Demon True Flame on her body burned continuously to kill the attacking puppets.

Meanwhile, Chu Hong, who had been promoted to become an Arch Gilded Immortal, was holding a spear. As she shot her spear toward Vine Demon Crown Prince, powerful Phoenix Flames accompanied by spear rays smashed out like fire meteors.

"Well done!"

Instead of dodging, the Vine Demon Crown Prince waved his hands, and vines flew out like tentacles to smash the fire meteors one by one.

"I've heard that a Prodigy among you guys managed to kill Chen Feihu. I wonder who he is. I would like to fight with him!" Vine Demon Crown Prince said loudly.

What he said made some of the well-informed cultivators laugh and say, "If he comes, none of you will be alive!"

"Indeed. How can you guys compete with the maddest man in the universe?"

"You guys are too weak compared to him!"

These cultivators' words were unpleasant to Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist's ears, but he did not deny anything.

However, the Vine Demon Crown Prince, Wu You, and others were slightly surprised.

They did not expect the person who killed Chen Feihu to have such a great reputation in Pan Gu Universe, and many people highly respected him.

What ability did that person possess?

Therefore, they became even more curious.

"I would really like to meet him."

As Wu You swung his spear, a powerful energy erupted. Then, it turned into a black spear ray, in which an ancient deity apparition emerged vaguely, and it was filled with infinite power.

The deity apparition made the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist feel pressured. It was as if he was facing the ancient Immortal Halls' Eastern Sovereign.

It seemed like that was the supreme existence of the Alternate Universe.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist mobilized the Emperor Avatar behind him to its limit and unleashed a palm attack to smash the spear ray.

The Emperor Avatar and the deity apparition competed with each other.

"Who killed my elder brother?!"

At that moment, a roar echoed across the sky!

Terrifying sword qi erupted in the sky from a distance before turning into a storm of sword qi, killing a large number of sky-prides and Prodigies.

The person that activated the storm of sword qi was a tall young man holding a heavy sword.

Upon seeing him, the people of Alternate Universe were delighted.

"It's Chen Feilong who ranks thirty-ninth on the Heavenly God Leaderboard!"

"He is a Prodigy of the Spiritual Sword Tribe like Chen Feihu, and he's not much different from Chen Feihu."

"Ha. The people of Pan Gu Universe will have to suffer."

The sword qi on Chen Feihu's body surged, and the heavy sword in his hand contained an unparalleled Arch Gilded Killing Intent!

However, it was more like a sword intent than an Arch Gilded Intent.

He locked his gaze on a sky-pride before dashing forward and striking down with his heavy sword. "Did you kill my elder brother?!"

Before the sky-pride could say anything, he was slashed into pieces by a sword attack.

“You’re weak. It looks like you’re not the one.”

Chen Feilong wore a grim look on his face.

The Spiritual Sword Tribe was the Alternate Universe’s King Tribe, but there had been a shortage of talent in the recent years. The younger generation of the tribe had two Prodigies, who were him and Chen Feihu. Chen Feihu possessed Infallible Sword Physique and was the hope of the tribe’s future!

Yet, Chen Feihu was dead. How could Chen Feilong hold back his anger?!

He swore that he would make the person who killed Chen Feihu pay for his actions!

“First of all, I’ll get some interest from you guys!”

Chen Feilong stared at other sky-prides coldly. His murderous intent was so strong that looking at him sent chills down some of the sky-prides’ back. They did not wish to face him.

At that moment, a white ray containing a vast Holy Radiant Intent shone, and Chen Feilong’s expression turned solemn.

Lan Yu, who was wearing silver armor, stood before him with battle intent. She was like an awe-inspiring and inviolable Valkyrie whom everyone feared!

“Do you really think no one in Pan Gu Universe is good enough for you?!” asked Lan Yu indifferently.

“Oh, a woman? I would like to see just how powerful you are!”

After that, Chen Feilong attacked with his heavy sword.

Lan Yu’s scepter was not to be outdone, and it collided with the heavy sword. The moment the heavy sword and scepter collided, a large amount of Immortal’s Core energy burst out to tear the mountains, rivers, and earth apart.

“What an overbearing power!”

Lan Yu was forced back dozens of meters, and her arm holding the scepter trembled slightly.

Shortly after, she smiled coldly and made a move again.

The battle continued.

All sky-prides and Prodigies of the Alternate Universe and Pan Gu Universe surrounded the Kunlun Mirror and fought together, making it hard to separate the two groups.

On a mountain peak in the distance, an aloof-looking woman dressed in white stood there and looked at the battle with an indifferent look. “Many sky-prides and Prodigies have come to Pan Gu Universe. It’s almost time to reel them into my trap.”

When she was about to make a move, her expression changed as if she had sensed something. Then, she looked toward the sky in the distance. “What a powerful aura! I didn’t expect to reel a Prodigy with such an aura this time. Is he the one who killed Chen Feihu?!”

The aloof-looking woman was astonished. The aura gave her an extremely unfathomable feeling as if she was facing a vast ocean.

After all, even the top ten monsters on the Heavenly God Leaderboard did not make her feel that way.

1655 Whom Do You Want Dead? A Real Carnage Sword, Killing The Black Dragon With A Sword Attack, Destroying Prodigies

The battle between the Alternate Universe and Central Heaven Universe was ongoing in full swing with the Kunlun Mirror at the center.

Lan Yu, the female demon, Chu Hong, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist, Wahuang's successor, Hua Xi, and other Prodigies from Pan Gu Universe were all involved in the battle and fought with their respective opponents.

"Even though you're powerful, you're still not my opponent!"

"Die!"

As Chen Feilong unleashed a sword attack, pitch-black sword qi gushed out like a boundless tide. Then, a huge dragon manifested in the void and gnawed toward Lan Yu!

Lan Yu did not hold back either. She waved her scepter and activated the Radiant War Immortal Physique's divine ability!

Soon, an incomparably vast river filled with endless Holy Radiant Intent reflected in the void and gushed toward the huge pitch-black dragon!

As the two forces collided, sword qi and Holy Radiant Intent dissipated in all directions, causing the land to shake. Countless cracks began to emerge one after another like canyons, which changed the landscape drastically.

Lan Yu was sent flying backward in the gorgeous energy storm. She was half kneeling on the ground with her face pale and her hand holding the scepter.

"Go to hell!"

Chen Feilong roared furiously while slashing the heavy sword across the air!

However, a boundless aura descended from the sky at that moment. Following the brilliance of billions of Immortal Sparks, a voice as indifferent as an Immortal King suddenly resounded across the sky.

"Whom do you want dead?"

Boom!

The domineering aura flooded out like it was billions of ancient stars, crushing down on every cultivator in the Alternate Universe.

Some of them with a poor cultivation level knelt on the ground in shock.

The Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You stopped their fight and looked at the sky with solemn expressions. The clouds rolled away to pave a way for a figure dressed in white to descend from the sky!

His robe was as white as snow, and his gestures were transcendent. He exuded an otherworldly demeanor, as if he was the Immortal King reincarnated. Every inch of him was covered in Immortal Sparks that graced the land in all directions!

His footsteps were light, but the moment his toes landed on the ground, the earth roared while Immortal's Core energy swept all directions like a raging wave!

Countless Arch Gilded Intent, which were all different, manifested ancient runes that surrounded him like a galaxy. The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead contained an astonishing Daoist Rhyme, and it seemed to be unrestricted transcendental energy that was no weaker than the Great Dao!

"Chu Kuangren!"

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist had a stern yet complicated look in his eyes.

He hated Chu Kuangren, but he could not deny that Chu Kuangren's arrival was uplifting under such circumstances.

"Chu Kuangren!"

Some people gritted their teeth while looking at Chu Kuangren's back. Those people were from the Soul Restricted Area, such as the Azure Heaven Young Master and Greenlands Young Master.

They still vividly remembered what Chu Kuangren did in the Soul Restricted Area, but the situation was exceptional this time. Moreover, their strength was far inferior to his, so they must not act rashly.

On the other hand, the rest of the sky-prides, like Lan Yu, the female demon, and others, were overjoyed. Their morale increased greatly while looking at the extraordinary figure in white!

"Haha. Chu Kuangren is here. These people from the Alternate Universe are doomed!"

"I'm afraid these brats haven't experienced despair."

The people from the Alternate Universe looked at Chu Kuangren with solemn gazes. His aura was overwhelming and powerful, but what surprised them more was that as soon as he appeared, the auras of all Pan Gun Universe cultivators suddenly changed, and they were beaming with confidence.

It seemed that any problem could be solved with his existence.

He was extremely charming, and very few Prodigies could lead one's heart like him in the Alternate Universe.

Unfortunately, they found one, but he was their enemy.

"Whom did you say you wanted dead just now?!" Chu Kuangren asked indifferently as he stared at Chen Feilong.

“Are you the Chu Kuangren they mentioned? The one who killed my elder brother, Chen Feihu?!” Chen Feilong questioned in a solemn tone.

“Answer my question. Whom do you want dead?” Chu Kuangren asked indifferently again. His aura surged like a flood and crushed Chen Feilong.

As soon as he put up a sword hand sign, a small amount of sword qi circulated at his fingertips.

Chen Feilong’s hand holding the sword trembled slightly under Chu Kuangren’s domineering aura.

On top of that, Chu Kuangren’s indifferent gaze made him feel like he was regarded as an ant, making him fearful yet furious. He firmed his Daoist Core and roared, “I want you dead!”

Soon, a large amount of sword qi appeared above the sky, while the majestic Carnage Sword Intent spread everywhere!

The sword qi manifested into a ferocious Black Dragon. It stared at Chu Kuangren with a pair of icy eyes that revealed an endless tyranny and brutal intent.

“Dragon Slaughter Four Cardinal Directions, Premium Carnage Sword!”

Chen Feilong waved his heavy sword, and the ferocious sword qi black dragon roared as it gnawed toward Chu Kuangren!

Mountains and rivers collapsed while explosions erupted in the void everywhere the attack struck!

Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was, but the sword qi at his fingertips grew more powerful.

“Carnage? Let me show you what a real Carnage Sword is!”

Chu Kuangren pointed a sword hand sign to the sky, and a large amount of sword qi gushed out to form a shocking sword shadow. Soon, endless carnage intent permeated.

Everyone could vaguely see the horrifying scene of countless Immortals and Buddhas falling like rain.

That sword attack was released for the carnage — for killing Immortals, Buddhas, and ghouls!

“Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, Immortal Slaughter!”

With a low grunt, Chu Kuangren slashed forward with his sword hand sign. The terrifying sword shadow tore the sky and headed toward the black dragon with endless murderous intent.

Everyone saw the sword qi fall on the black dragon and tear its head apart before it locked onto Chen Feilong and devoured him whole!

Before he could scream, he exploded into a mist of blood!

Chu Kuangren managed to kill the black dragon, which was a Prodigy, with one sword attack!

The sword attack amazed the universe, shocked all living beings, and made all sky-prides and Prodigies in the Alternate Universe gasp. They looked at Chu Kuangren as if he was a monster!

“Is Chen Feilong dead? Was he killed in one strike?!”

“D-Did he kill Chen Feihu with that sword attack too? I can’t believe a monster like him exists in Pan Gu Universe!”

“My goodness!”

Prodigies like the Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You looked grave.

Chu Kuangren stared at them and formed a sword hand sign with sword qi surging at that fingertip. “It’s your turn next!”

As an azure ray flashed in his eye, sword qi exploded!

Wherever the sword qi struck, many sky-prides and Prodigies from the Alternate Universe fell one after another as they could not resist the attack.

Even a Prodigy like Chen Feilong could not resist Chu Kuangren’s sword attack, let alone them!

“Vine Demon Crown Prince!” Wu You roared.

Understanding what he meant, the Vine Demon Crown Prince joined forces with him to resist Chu Kuangren’s sword attack!

Spear rays and vines swept out together with a strength much more powerful than Chen Feilong’s. Their joint forces managed to block Chu Kuangren’s sword attack, but their expressions remained solemn because it was merely one sword attack from Chu Kuangren!

They had no idea Chu Kuangren possessed what techniques, but judging from his calm appearance, they knew that was not his full strength.

“Holy moly, I didn’t believe it when I heard he killed Chen Feilong with a sword attack. Now, it looks like he really is a monster.”

“I’m afraid his strength is no weaker than the top ten on the Heavenly God Leaderboard.”

Chapter 1656: A Bunch Of Trash, Wu You Teamed Up With Vine Demon Crown Prince, Nether King Godly Shadow

1656 A Bunch Of Trash, Wu You Teamed Up With Vine Demon Crown Prince, Nether King Godly Shadow

Chu Kuangren came and killed Chen Feilong in a slash, electrifying the group of sky-prides and Prodigies from Pan Gu Universe.

On the other hand, those from the other universe were in shock.

“You took my attack head-on? I guess you people are rather capable,” Chu Kuangren said indifferently to Wu You and Vine Demon Crown Prince.

His words made the two of them raise a brow in displeasure. They were Peerless Prodigies in Central Heaven Universe who possessed almost matchless power that many feared and admired.

Now, taking one slash from Chu Kuangren was only deemed ‘rather capable’.

"I've never seen someone so arrogant!"

"Even the top ten Prodigies on the Heavenly God Leaderboard would have to face us in caution. You are full of yourself!"

Chu Kuangren smiled in reply. "In that case, it seems like the top ten Prodigies of the so-called Heavenly God Leaderboard is a bunch of trash."

His words angered the cultivators from the other universe.

"Arrogant! Such arrogance!"

"Does he really think he's so powerful that he can say whatever he wants?"

"Damn it! What are the Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You doing? Show him what Central Heaven Universe can do!"

The Heavenly God Leaderboard ranked the younger generations of the other universe based on their strength, and it held a high amount of credibility.

Every name on the leaderboard had the potential to be the God King!

The younger generations of that universe took pride in being on the ranking, but Chu Kuangren called them a bunch of trash.

He was not just insulting the names on the leaderboard; he was insulting the entire Central Heaven Universe!

There was no way they could tolerate his arrogance!

"Kill him!"

Both the Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You attacked together.

The Vine Demon Crown Prince performed several mystical hand seals and summoned puppets from underground.

The army of puppets threw themselves at Chu Kuangren, attempting to overwhelm him with numbers.

"What can a bunch of wooden puppets do?" Chu Kuangren asked coldly.

He opened his fist, and a crimson ball of fire appeared above his palm. As he shot it out, it burned the puppets into cinders.

His flame was much stronger than Chu Hong's Phoenix Flame and the Drought Maiden's Drought Demon True Flame.

However, after the puppets were burnt to cinders, countless vines sprung out from the ground, forming a massive cage around Chu Kuangren.

"Useless."

Chu Kuangren remained standing as he pointed his sword hand sign forward, shooting out countless sword qi.

The dancing sword qi easily sliced the cage into a bunch of wooden splinters. It did not even manage to stop him!

Then, a pitch-black halberd ray crashed upon him from the sky.

With it, the image of an ancient God appeared.

The vine cage was just a diversion for Wu You's halberd ray.

Chu Kuangren remained unfazed. He pointed his sword hand sign again and mobilized the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi again.

The vast and endless murderous intent struck fear in people's hearts.

As the sword qi and halberd ray collided, Wu You was blasted several hundred meters away.

Chu Kuangren did not even flinch, let alone budge.

"I can't believe he has mastered the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi to this extent!"

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist's eyes narrowed as he stood with the crowd.

Even he had to be cautious against Wu You's attack, yet Chu Kuangren fended it off with a casual sword qi that carried terrifying power.

"It's even more difficult to fight him now," the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist muttered.

Although Chu Kuangren was on the side of Pan Gu Universe, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was not delighted at all.

Quite the opposite, the stronger Chu Kuangren was, the heavier his heart became.

His jealousy surged as he looked at the other cultivators from his universe cheering Chu Kuangren on.

"Kunlun Mirror."

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist looked at the mirror with a determined gaze.

"Sky-Shadowing Dark Clouds!"

Wu You was not discouraged by the loss and continued his furious attack at Chu Kuangren.

He swung his halberd forward, with dark qi swirling at its tip, and summoned a large area of dark clouds that shadowed the sky.

The dark clouds contained vast and sharp halberd rays within.

"Go!"

The dark clouds flew toward Chu Kuangren and attempted to shroud him whole.

At the same time, the Vine Demon Crown Prince summoned countless more vines and formed a massive puppet that was a hundred times bigger than the previous one.

The powerful energy presence that the puppet emanated could make one's heart tremble in fear.

“Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, Immortal Collapse!”

Chu Kuangren unleashed a different Immortal Destruction Sword Qi.

Countless sword qi gathered in the air, surrounded the massive puppet, and grinded into its body ruthlessly.

The puppet was shredded to countless pieces.

There were four different forms of the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi: the Immortal Slaughter, Immortal Collapse, Immortal Desolation, and the strongest, Immortal Annihilation.

Chu Kuangren had fully mastered the first three. As for the last and the strongest one, he was still lacking but could put it to good use as well.

“Immortal Desolation!”

The Immortal Collapse was offensive skill that relied on the sword qi to grind down the opponent, and it worked on a large-scale.

After shredding the massive puppet to pieces, Chu Kuangren switched to a sharper form of the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, Immortal Desolation.

A silver sword qi streaked across the sky, slicing the dark clouds like a hot knife cutting butter.

The silver sword qi’s indomitable power continued forward and headed straight for Wu You.

“No!”

Wu You’s eyes shrank in fear, and he cried as fear enveloped him whole.

He tried his best to dodge it, but his effort fell short. The silver sword qi claimed one of his arms.

“Argh! Damn it!” Aggrieved, Wu You shouted.

His eyes then shimmered in a ghastly light, followed by a surge of powerful soul energy gathering above him and forming a pitch-black avatar in the void.

The size of the towering figure pierced the clouds. It had a jade crown above its head while surrounded by massive talismans, releasing an endless aura into the realm.

“It’s the Nether King!”

People from the other universe cried in awe when they saw the massive figure.

Wu You came from the Nether King Tribe, which was one of the King Tribes in Central Heaven Universe.

It was also one of the oldest and strongest tribes there.

Legend had it that the tribe’s Prodigy could develop a divine ability that summoned the divine images of the ancient Nether King that contained terrifying power.

Kakroom!

Vast Nether King energy expanded outward, shaking the universe.

The energy not only affected the physical body but also the soul.

Many cultivators started to hear strange whispers in their heads. The strange beat and rhythm gave them an excruciating headache.

It felt like their souls were breaking and wailing due to the pain.

“Chu Kuangren! This is my strongest attack, the Nether King Godly Shadow! Can you take this?” Wu You shouted as he held his broken arm.

As usual, Chu Kuangren remained unfazed even before the ancient Nether King Godly Shadow. “A soul technique? What a coincidence. I know a thing or two about the soul as well.”

Then, nine-colored divine light shone from his body.

The Nine-Colored Celestial Physique was activated!

Soul energy intertwined in the void, forming an ancient violet bell that had countless old runes carved on it.

Chapter 1657: Immortal Destruction Final Sword, You Want This Mirror? She Gave Up

1657 Immortal Destruction Final Sword, You Want This Mirror? She Gave Up

“It’s the Nine-colored Celestial Soul Physique!” someone cried in shock.

The Ten Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques were powerful in themselves, and each of their appearance alone was enough to turn heads.

Chu Kuangren already possessed several Honorable Supreme Immortal Physiques, yet he could still unveil a new one that people had not seen before.

However, the people from the Soul Restricted Area were not at all surprised.

They knew about the Nine-colored Celestial Soul Physique, but seeing it again on Chu Kuangren reminded them of the insult he brought and the havoc he wrecked in the Soul Restricted Area.

They felt even more so when he used the Violet Soul Bell again.

The mixed feelings in their hearts were indescribable.

The Violet Soul Bell technique was lost in the river of time throughout the history of the Soul Restricted Area, and now, it was mastered by someone who insulted the Soul Restricted Area.

It was an embarrassment to the Soul Restricted Area.

However, the others did not know about the Soul Restricted Area incident. All they saw was Chu Kuangren using a brand-new technique.

When the bell carved with ancient runes rang, rich and powerful chimes reverberated in the area. The soundwave contained a massive amount of soul energy, and with that, an ancient Nether King Godly Shadow started to crack. Even the runes on its body disappeared one after another.

A loud bang later, the Nether King Godly Shadow was destroyed!

Wu You cried out in pain, and blood gushed from all seven orifices as he looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.
“Your soul energy is stronger than mine!”

Chu Kuangren did not answer. All he wanted was to end the man’s life.

At that moment, runes rose into the sky and surrounded Chu Kuangren once more.

The runes shone like the starry sky, shimmering as they formed a powerful formation around him.

Chu Kuangren was surprised. “Someone has set a formation in this area of the void without my knowledge, huh? Interesting.”

He expanded his Immortal Consciousness and scoured the area.

Soon, he located a powerful source of Immortal’s Core energy that resonated with the runic formation around him.

“Got you.”

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes sharply at a woman in white standing on a mountain peak further away.

The woman bore exquisite beauty, but her frosty eyes were expressionless. It only showed a hint of surprise when she spotted Chu Kuangren.

“He has located me?” she muttered.

Back on the battlefield, Wu You and the Vine Demon Crown Prince were surprised when they saw Chu Kuangren being held back by the runic formation.

“This formation is from the Heaven Maiden of the Mystic Divination Tribe!”

“Let’s leave at once!”

The two of them fled without a second of hesitation.

Someone else moved in conjunction with their escape. It was the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist!

However, he was not trying to flee. The moment he saw Chu Kuangren trapped by the runic formation, he turned into a streak of light and flew toward the Kunlun Mirror.

He wanted to acquire the mirror!

The crowd was in awe.

From their perspective, Chu Kuangren’s absolute power overpowered a majority of the sky-prides and Prodigies from the other universe and he was making the Pan Gu Universe proud.

Coupled with his unwavering status as the strongest, he should be the one to acquire the Kunlun Mirror.

No one had the idea to compete with him anymore, except for the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist!

He was waiting for the perfect time to strike!

“How shameless, Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.”

“Hmph. The Supreme Treasure is indeed tempting. Even the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist is moved.”

The spacetime enchanted boundary outside the Kunlun Mirror was half destroyed by Wu You, and that was why the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist made a move in such a timely manner.

He made it to the mirror without any hindrance.

However, someone else shared the same thought and went after the mirror as well.

It was Wahuang’s successor, Hua Xi!

Wahuang’s successor was a relatively young Peerless Prodigy who had emerged in recent years. Her power rewarded her with a strange strong reputation, and she could rival even the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

The two of them went for the mirror en masse, and when their gazes met, a fierce fight broke out.

Bursts of Immortal’s Core energy erupted, Immortal Sparks shimmered, and all kinds of powerful Immortal Techniques and divine abilities were launched out non-stop.

“Wahuang’s successor, are you really going to fight me for this Kunlun Mirror?!”

“I must have it!” Hua Xi said without stepping away.

“Damn it!” The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist’s expression turned grim.

Chu Kuangren was aware of the little fight going on by the mirror, but he was not overly bothered. To him, the fight was like children’s squabbles.

He looked at the woman in white further away, and his lips curled into a smile.

He pointed his sword hand sign at her and unleashed endless Immortal’s Core energy forward, forming an astonishing sword shadow.

That technique was, in fact, the final sword technique of the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi, which not even Ye Zhu had mastered.

“Immortal Annihilation!”

The astonishing sword shadow felt hyper realistic as the countless runes carved on its blade released a shocking murderous intent.

The energy alone was enough to shatter the runes that trapped Chu Kuangren.

To be able to set the runic formation up without his knowledge, the person won praise for its ability to hide from Chu Kuangren’s senses, but its true power was unknown.

After all, trapping Chu Kuangren was no easy task.

The Immortal Destruction Sword Shadow extended a few hundred meters, crossing land and rivers and leaving a trail of destruction in its wake.

The sky was cut in half, revealing the space beyond.

Amidst the shimmering sword qi, scenes of Gods and Immortals falling appeared, producing an apocalyptic scenery.

“No!”

Knowing that she had been locked on by the sword qi, the woman in white was terrified. The expression on her beautiful face spelled fear.

She swung both her arms in a flurry, releasing runes into the air.

Kaboom!

The terrifying explosion shook heaven and earth, demolishing the mountain into nothing but dust.

Even the land that the mountain was on was shattered into multiple pieces.

A large amount of stray sword qi expanded outward like a cataclysmic storm wiping out the earth.

“Oh? She escaped?” Chu Kuangren’s lips curled into a grin. He was intrigued by the other universe even more.

He was going to kill the woman with the sword shadow and did not hold back, but the fact that she could escape proved how capable she was.

She was a lot stronger than Wu You and the Vine Demon Crown Prince.

“So that’s someone on the Heavenly God Leaderboard?” Chu Kuangren stroked his chin as he pondered.

Further away, Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist’s expression changed as soon as he was aware of Chu Kuangren breaking free from the runic formation. Hence, he gave up the fight and fled without hesitation.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered as well, and he switched his attention to the mirror instead.

Hua Xi, who was fighting the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist for the mirror earlier, was stunned. Her body shook, and her fearless heart trembled.

It was fear.

“Do you want the mirror?” Chu Kuangren asked.

Hua Xi took a deep breath and forced a beautiful smile on her face. “Brother Chu, you’re mistaken. I was fending off the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist because he was trying to snatch the mirror while you were trapped. I didn’t even think of getting it for myself.”

She gave up.

The Kunlun Mirror was a great treasure, but one must be alive to use it.

Chapter 1658: Jiangshi Has Feelings? Let's See What You Can Do, What A Terrifying Man

1658 Jiangshi Has Feelings? Let's See What You Can Do, What A Terrifying Man

Hua Xi forced a smile on her face.

Those who saw the scene of her submitting to Chu Kuangren clicked their tongues in disbelief.

Wahuang's successor, Hua Xi, was a woman of prestige and dignity. No one had ever seen her smile at a man for as long as she appeared in the public's eye.

Even Xuanyuan's successor, who was said to have a close relationship with her, had never seen her smile before.

Now, she was smiling, forcefully, at Chu Kuangren.

Even though she did it to stay alive, for fear that Chu Kuangren would kill her at a change of heart, it was enough for others to make stories about it.

"Wahuang's successor was fighting the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist for the Kunlun Mirror earlier, yet she claimed that she was helping Chu Kuangren. What a twist."

"Can she even tell the truth? She's facing Chu Kuangren. If she said she wanted the mirror, Chu Kuangren would show her no mercy."

"The treasure may be good, but one must be alive to use it."

"Only Chu Kuangren could make someone as prestigious as the Wahuang's successor to smile at him in a flattering manner."

The scene sparked heated discussion.

Chu Kuangren glanced at Hua Xi. "Stop smiling. It's hideous."

It was forced and showed no sincerity at all.

Hua Xi was left speechless, and her lips twitched. Wahuang's successor was one of the most prestigious and elegant female cultivators in the Pan Gu Universe.

Moreover, her looks could be described as cold but gracefully beautiful.

There were many other beautiful female cultivators in the Immortal World, but none were as elegant and prestigious as her; likewise, those who were more elegant and prestigious than her were not as beautiful.

No man was worthy of her smile.

Now, she finally smiled at a man, yet the man showed no appreciation for it.

The man must be blind!

Hua Xi clenched her fists tightly behind her back, but she had to maintain the polite and professional smile on her face.

She had never experienced such shame in her life before.

Those who saw the scene exclaimed and thanked Chu Kuangren for showing them an almost impossible scene.

“Please move away.”

Chu Kuangren pushed Hua Xi away and went over to the Kunlun mirror.

When he held it in his hand, he sized it up carefully.

The Kunlun Mirror was a high-grade Source Supreme Treasure that contained mystical spacetime energy.

Chu Kuangren smiled as he looked at it. “Not bad.”

“Master!”

“Brother!”

Lan Yu and Chu Hong went over to him with welcoming smiles.

Chu Kuangren smiled and patted Chu Hong’s head.

Only he had the nerves to pat the strongest Phoenix Maiden of the generation. Anyone else other than him would be burnt to cinders by the Phoenix Flame.

Those who knew or were close to Chu Kuangren went up to greet him as well.

“My, my. He’s stronger than before. This is good.”

The Drought Maiden smacked her lips as she stared at Chu Kuangren, expressing intense affection.

She realized her affection for Chu Kuangren did not decrease over time. On the contrary, it grew stronger instead.

Her feelings were screaming for her to get the man as soon as possible.

It was strange and unprecedented as she had never seen a man that could make her heart race like that.

She must have him!

The Drought Maiden secretly cheered for herself.

Chu Kuangren glanced at the Drought Maiden and was aware of her affectionate gaze.

He frowned. “You shouldn’t be fixated on things you cannot get.”

“It’s love. It’s something common between men and women.”

“You’re a Jiangshi.”

“What? Can’t a Jiangshi like someone? Who made rules about it?” The Drought Maiden was unfazed.

Chu Kuangren was left speechless, but he was a little curious. “Does Jiangshi have feelings?”

The Drought Maiden smiled. Her gaze slowly moved down from his face to his chest and then his crotch. She licked her lips and said, "That will depend on how good you are."

"Brother, what are you guys talking about?" Chu Hong asked curiously.

"Nothing... Come on, the secret realm is huge. Let's continue our exploration."

"Okay."

Chu Kuangren brought Lan Yu, Chu Hong, Ye Zhu, and others away and continued their exploration.

The Drought Maiden wanted to follow, but Chu Kuangren slapped her away. "We're not that close."

"What a heartless and rude man!" the Drought Maiden grumbled pervertedly as she watched Chu Kuangren fly off from the ground.

The others exchanged a confused gaze.

The Drought Maiden seemed to have some secret fetish for being tortured.

She looked thrilled when Chu Kuangren slapped her.

"Is the strongest Prodigy of the Drought Demon Tribe a masochist? I wonder what the elders of your tribe will think if they find out about this," Hua Xi said to the Drought Maiden.

The Drought Maiden shamelessly got up and tapped the dust off her clothes. She giggled. "If I can get Chu Kuangren, those old bastards will laugh their lungs out."

She was speaking the truth.

With Chu Kuangren's identity, power, and talent, he was the strongest existence in all of Pan Gu Universe.

If any woman had the opportunity to have sex with him or even marry him, it was beneficial to the force behind her.

"Maybe it's workable..." Hua Xi thought.

However, she was deeply terrified by the idea.

What a joke!

She was the prestigious and elegant Wahuang's successor! How could she share the shameless thought with a Jiangshi!

Hua Xi grunted coldly as she suppressed the outrageous thought and left the scene.

...

On the other hand, after losing the Kunlun Mirror, Wu You and the Vine Demon Crown Prince of the other universe fled to a mountain peak.

"He's not after us?" Wu You asked.

The Vine Demon Crown Prince closed his eyes to sense the area before shaking his head. "The seeds I left behind were not triggered. He's not chasing us."

"Phew..." Wu You sighed a breath of relief.

He was disheartened because he realized he was afraid!

It was a feeling he had never felt before!

The name Chu Kuangren could no longer be erased from his mind.

"He's really powerful. He can rival even those in the top ten of the Heavenly God Leaderboard."

"You're right. If it weren't for the Heaven Maiden of the Godly Divination Tribe, we might not have escaped alive. Chen Feihu didn't die for nothing."

The others from the other universe continued to discuss Chu Kuangren.

"One day, I will defeat him with my own hands," Wu You said.

"That won't be necessary. He's not going to leave this place alive."

Suddenly, a cold voice sounded.

A woman in white emerged from the void. Compared to her previous elegance, she looked pretty exhausted and pale, as if she was hurt.

It was the Heaven Maiden of the Godly Divination Tribe.

"Heaven Maiden You, are you hurt?"

"It's Chu Kuangren. I managed to dodge the sword qi he released, but I couldn't escape unscathed," Heaven Maiden You said with slight fear.

She was able to escape Chu Kuangren's Immortal Destruction Sword Qi using her spatial talisman, but the power from the sword qi penetrated the void and hurt her.

"What a terrifying man."

Heaven Maiden You believed Chu Kuangren could be considered the top three most terrifying cultivators she had ever met.

In fact, Chu Kuangren might have been holding back throughout the battle.

Chapter 1659: The Arrival of An Embodier? Divine Dao Spire, Give Me An Explanation

1659 The Arrival of An Embodier? Divine Dao Spire, Give Me An Explanation

"A man as terrifying as him can't be allowed to live, or it will be an obstacle for the Central Heaven Universe."

"Fortunately, he's here. It's time to reel in the net," Heaven Maiden You said.

Both the Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You did not show any rejection of her suggestion.

"I'll go contact the other sky-prides and Prodigies and tell them to retreat," the Vine Demon Crown Prince said.

"Very well."

"Too bad I can't defeat him with my own hands," Wu You said coldly.

Heaven Maiden You glanced at Wu You. She did not say anything because she knew and understood the pride of a man.

In her opinion, if Wu You could not kill Chu Kuangren this time, he would never get another chance for the rest of his life. The difference between them was too massive.

"Maybe the strongest in the Nether King Tribe, the Nether Kind Heaven Daoist, would have a chance to rival him," Heaven Maiden You thought.

Then, she looked into the distant land and saw the cultivators from her own universe, exploring and searching for the so-called Opportunities of Fortune.

"For the sake of the plan, all of you would have to sacrifice."

The 'reel in' that she referred to would not only murder all the Prodigies from Pan Gu Universe but also those from Central Heaven Universe.

It was a small price for Central Heaven Universe to pay. and both Heaven Maiden You and the great one behind her deemed it a worthy risk to take.

...

Somewhere in the secret realm, Chu Kuangren continued to explore the place with his team.

He had also refined the Kunlun Mirror during the exploitation, and albeit not completely, he was able to use it with no problem.

After traveling for more than a thousand kilometers, they ran into a company of soldiers from the other universe, slaughtering the cultivators of Pan Gu Universe.

Chu Kuangren and his team could not ignore it.

"It's Chu Kuangren!"

The leader of the soldiers was shocked by Chu Kuangren's arrival. His expression turned grim, and he got nervous.

Chu Kuangren's name had circulated among the cultivators of the other universe rapidly in the past few days. He was the man who killed Chen Feihu and Chen Feilong and easily defeated the Vine Demon Crown Prince and Wu You.

There was no way his name was unheard of after what he did.

As the sword qi swept forward, the cultivators from the other universe were all killed.

Chu Kuangren barely moved as the sword qi was fired automatically using his thought.

The cultivators from the other universe did not stand a chance.

The sword qi reaped their lives like a scythe mowing the lawn.

The scene stunned the remaining cultivators from the other universe.

“He’s a monster! A monster!”

“Even the strongest Prodigy of the Spiritual Sword Tribe doesn’t have such high Sword Dao cultivation!”

“Of course! He’s the one who killed two of the strongest Prodigy of the Spiritual Sword Tribe!”

A bloodbath stained the land and the river red.

It took a few seconds for Chu Kuangren to kill a majority of the cultivators from the other universe.

“Chu Kuangren, when our Embodier arrives, he will annihilate every single one of you!” the last soldier shouted.

Chu Kuangren frowned when he heard the dying soldier’s last word. “Embodier?”

As far as he knew, the portal was not powerful enough for an Embodier to pass through.

Could it be that the people from the other side had a way to break the limitations?

Ye Zhu was baffled as well. “If their Embodier arrives, things would be bad.”

The strongest cultivators from Pan Gu Universe that entered the secret realm were just Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals. There was no way they could fish an Embodier.

Then, a streak of light approached.

It was Hua Xi.

“I’ve finally found you,” Hua Xi said and sighed a breath of relief when she saw Chu Kuangren.

“What’s wrong?” Chu Kuangren found her arrival surprising.

Why would she come chasing after him now after he mocked her a few days ago?

“We just got orders from the great ones. We are to destroy the Divine Dao Spire,” Hua Xi said.

“Divine Dao Spire? What is that?”

“According to the information that the great ones got, the Divine Dao Spire is something that can allow the Embodier of the other universe to pass through the portal,” Hua Xi explained.

“What?”

Ye Zhu’s expression changed. “We are to destroy something that could enable passage for an Embodier? It sounds a little ridiculous, isn’t it?”

Hua Xi continued, “According to the news, there are seven Divine Dao Spires here, each with a respectable number of soldiers guarding it. Six of which have a Five Qi-realm or even a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals as the spire guardian. The last remaining one has the weakest defense, so we are to go for that one.

“Brother Chu, you’re the strongest among us, so the great ones are hoping that you can lead us.”

Chu Kuangren finally realized why Hua Xi sighed a breath of relief when she found him.

The last remaining Divine Dao Spire was said to have the weakest defense. However, since it was something that could allow an Embodier to pass through the portal, it should be everything but weak.

Hua Xi and the other Prodigies did not have enough confidence, so they decided to go to Chu Kuangren.

“I understand.” Chu Kuangren agreed with a nod.

With that, he and his team followed Hua Xi to a mountain peak.

The sky-prides and Prodigies of Pan Gu Universe had already gathered there.

“Brother Chu, please lead us and destroy the other universe’s scheme!”

“That’s right! You’re the strongest among us!”

Everyone tried to flatter Chu Kuangren when he arrived.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was also among the crowd. He was hiding in the corner, watching as the crowd surrounded Chu Kuangren as if he was the sun!

The jealousy was eating him up.

He should be the one in that position, but whenever Chu Kuangren was involved, he would always lose the spotlight.

No one else could outshine Chu Kuangren in possibly all aspects.

“Hmph. Chu Kuangren, I will replace you one day!” The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist grunted softly.

Beside him was the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden. She shook her head exasperatedly and looked at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist with a pitiful gaze.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist was powerful. After all, he was a Peerless Prodigy.

He was also a smart person and a master at scheming. Before he appeared in the public’s eye, he used the Immortal Ranking to erase and weaken the sky-prides and Prodigies’ power while he further strengthened his foundation to make a grand entrance.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren appeared, and everything the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist did served as a foil.

Even the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden had become a pawn that Chu Kuangren controlled.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden sighed helplessly.

Chu Kuangren was the bane of the Immortal Hall as he was much more difficult to deal with than any other Human Emperor in existence.

‘Maybe he could really overthrow the Immortal Hall and regain the glory of the Human Emperor,’ she thought.

Even though it seemed impossible, Chu Kuangren was a man of many miracles.

Suddenly, the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden sensed the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist getting nervous. It was as though his greatest enemy had arrived.

Surprised, she then heard Chu Kuangren’s voice in her ears.

“Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist, how are you doing?”

Chu Kuangren looked at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden with a faint smile. The ridiculing gaze was brazen, especially when he looked at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

“What is it? Want to have a go at me?” The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist got even more nervous.

“Why would I fight you here? Now that we’re facing invaders from another universe, internal conflict should be avoided. But before we begin, I want you to give me an explanation.”

Chapter 1660: Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist Is Pissed, Siege Divine Dao Spire

1660 Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist Is Pissed, Siege Divine Dao Spire

“What explanation do you want?” the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist said with furrowed brows.

“You tried to snatch my treasure when I was fighting those two idiots from the other universe, right? Besides, the Immortal Hall has targeted me multiple times as well. Shouldn’t you give me a satisfying explanation for that?”

“This is what the Battle of the Heavenly Champions should be. I don’t need to explain myself.”

“Fine. In that case, apologize.”

“Apologize?”

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist’s expression turned grim.

Chu Kuangren did not only want to kill him, but he wanted to destroy his pride too.

Should the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist apologize, it would mean that what he had done up until now was nothing but a mistake.

“What if I refuse?”

“Simple. I don’t want someone I don’t like in my team while I’m going to war with another universe.”

As Chu Kuangren raised his hand, a vast Arch Gilded Intent surged and swirled in his palm.

The aura locked onto the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist. The chilly killing intent that it emanated presented gory images of mountains of dead bodies before his eyes.

"I'll give you one more chance," Chu Kuangren said coldly.

What should the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist do?

He tried to think of a solution. He looked at the others, but no one would dare to take his side because it would mean going against Chu Kuangren.

Should he fight Chu Kuangren?

It was impossible because he was no match for Chu Kuangren and he would certainly be killed.

If fighting was not an option, there was only one option left, and it was to apologize!

The prestigious Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist had to apologize to his enemy to not get killed!

How insulting!

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist's expression turned bitter and his body trembled, but he managed to squeeze out his apology. "I-I'm sorry."

The others could not help but shake their heads at the scene.

Being forced to apologize to his enemy in front of the public, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist must be on the brink of breaking down.

"Louder. I can't hear you," Chu Kuangren said.

"Chu Kuangren, don't push it!"

"Oh?"

Chu Kuangren's Arch Gilded Intent surged once more. The mountain-like pressure instantly enveloped the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

"What did you say?"

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist's eyes turned red as his body shook violently.

He tried his very best to hold down the urge of fighting Chu Kuangren, bit the bullet, and shouted, "I'm sorry!"

His shout echoed across ten of thousands of kilometers and even shook the clouds in the sky.

Some of the cultivators from the other universe also heard it and were baffled by the sudden apology.

Shouting his apology did not only make the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist lose his voice temporarily, but he even lost his pride as the strongest Divine Daoist from the Immortal Hall.

"You don't need to be so loud with the apology." Chu Kuangren picked his ear with slight annoyance on his face.

His arrogant attitude left everyone else speechless.

He was the one who told the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist to be louder, yet he was the one that deemed it too loud.

What a jerk!

Chu Kuangren then led the others to the Divine Dao Spire without saying anything else to the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden glanced at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

The man was still standing there with his body shaking and his eyes bloodshot and seemingly glistening.

Was he crying?

Chu Kuangren was probably the only one in both universes who could make a prestigious Divine Daoist cry in public.

"We still have time. Don't give up just yet," the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden consoled him.

As she was still the Divine Maiden, she could not stay silent at a time like that.

"Thankfully, you're still here with me. At least I know I'm not alone." The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist wiped his tears away and thanked her after a deep breath.

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden smiled awkwardly at him.

If she told him that she was already under Chu Kuangren's control, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist might go berserk instead of cry.

"Poor guy." The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden looked at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist sympathetically.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist adjusted his emotions after a while. "Let's go. Destroying the Divine Dao Spire is an important task. We can't let Chu Kuangren take all the limelight."

"Let's go."

With that, the two of them went up to catch up with the group.

...

There were seven Divine Dao Spires in the secret realm.

Six of them were handled by the great ones, while Chu Kuangren and the younger generations were to siege the last one with the weakest defense.

With several million kilometers left to the Divine Dao Spire, Chu Kuangren sensed the structure with his Immortal Consciousness.

The Divine Dao Spire was pitch-black, and it was plunged into the land like a long sword.

Restriction seals and countless soldiers were patrolling around it.

"Chu Kuangren, that's the Divine Dao Spire. I can lead a team forward as a vanguard," the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist suggested.

He was not trying to be righteous. He was just trying to regain his dignity after being insulted by Chu Kuangren earlier.

“Sure.”

Chu Kuangren permitted him to lead a team forward.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist then led a small team of people toward the Divine Dao Spire.

Meanwhile, Hua Xi, Ye Zhu, and the others approached the spire from several other directions.

The soldiers from the other universe were patrolling the exterior of the spire.

Suddenly, there was a loud bang, and a massive and towering Emperor Avatar threw a powerful palm strike at the restriction seals.

Bang!

The land shook.

The Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist and his team of vanguard led the siege on the spire.

The powerful Emperor Avatar broke through the restriction seals easily.

“Enemy attack!”

The general in charge shouted, sounding the alarm of an enemy attack.

Gilded Immortals appeared, followed by an Arch Gilded Immortal.

“How audacious of you to attack this place!” the Arch Gilded Immortal general shouted before he launched an attack at the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist.

While the two of them fought, another powerful energy presence erupted in the other direction of the tower.

Phoenix Flame surged and burned the soldiers into cinders.

The Drought Maiden led the second vanguard. Her powerful physical body was engulfed in the Drought Demon Flame, granting her an indomitable might that no one could stop.

At the same time, Ye Zhu’s sword qi went on a rampage. The Immortal Destruction Sword Qi swept the field, leaving a trail of broken limbs and severed heads behind.

Every single one of the Prodigies was powerful, and the preemptive strike caught the defense soldiers off guard.

Bang!

Hua Xi threw a palm strike forward, eliminating several Gilded Immortals ahead.

However, her brows furrowed as she clearly felt something was not right.

The siege was too easy!

The defense around the spire was a lot weaker than she had imagined. In fact, they would not even need Chu Kuangren for the siege.

“Could it be that the other universe has focused its defenses on the other six Divine Dao Spires?” Hua Xi pondered.

On the other hand, unlike the calm and wise Hua Xi, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist vented all his grievances from Chu Kuangren on the Arch Gilded Immortal general.

With all kinds of Immortal Techniques and divine abilities unleashed, Emperor Arch Gilded Intent shone brightly as if the Immortal King had unleashed his brilliance.

The soldiers from the other universe were shocked by the power he displayed.

Delighted by their terrified look, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist cackled.

“Soldiers from the other universe, remember me as I am the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist! Now, you shall know who killed you!”
