Chapter 171: Secret of the Imperial Family (3)

King You Sheng shook his head repeatedly." Brother, I don't have many days left. Just let me die in peace. I have to leave some descendants for you. "" "Can you hear me out first?" the Emperor said seriously.

King Sheng You thought about it carefully and decided to continue listening.

However, he had already made up his mind. He would definitely not agree to this matter anyway.

The Emperor extended three fingers and said," This is killing three birds with one stone. Moreover, it will also be of great benefit to the people of the world."

"Firstly, although the Great Chu State has been established, there are barbarians outside and the Great Yue State eyeing us covetously. The Jianghu is unstable inside, and evil spirits are running around everywhere."

"If you are alive, the Great Yue State and the barbarians will not dare to step into Great Chu. Is this a benefit?"

After saying that, the Emperor stopped talking, as if waiting for King Sheng You's reply.

After pondering for a long time, King Sheng You nodded with difficulty.

Other factors aside, the Emperor was right.

If he was here, the might of the army would be enough to intimidate them.

If he died, although the Great Yue State would not dare to attack rashly, they would still be eyeing him covetously.

“Second.” When the Emperor saw that his younger brother had agreed, he raised a second finger and said, “I won’t put the Tiger Tally in the royal treasury. While you’re faking your death, I’ll let the generals know and give them hope that I can give the Tiger Tally to them at any time, so they can work harder.”

“If they work hard, I’ll be able to stabilize the border. Isn’t this the second benefit?”

King Sheng You was speechless.

Although he did not agree, it was obvious that he had tacitly agreed.

That was right. If he really died and didn’t come back to life, he could use the Tiger Tally to do his best to stabilize the border and find a loyal person at the same time.

The Emperor smiled and extended a third finger. “Third, I want to test the loyalty of the entire imperial family.”

At this point, his gaze turned cold.

“I have nine children, each of whom is a dragon and a phoenix. However, I don’t know what their intentions are, so I’ll use this as an opportunity to test their loyalty. If they aren’t loyal, they’ll become tools for your resurrection.”

“But this has nothing to do with the people of the world.” Sheng You King seemed to have finally found a point to refute and quickly said.

With a point of rebuttal, he could argue with reason. Even in his memory, he had never won with his mouth.

“I will die, you will die, but this mountain, this water, this sky, this earth, they will not die.”The Emperor slowly said,“If I am about to die, will I pass on the throne?””

King Sheng You thought about it and nodded.

“If I were to pass on my legacy to a disloyal person, would Great Chu still be able to survive?”the Emperor continued.

King Sheng You pondered for a moment, then shook his head and nodded. “I don’t know if they can survive, but the people definitely won’t have it easy.” Why did he nod?

A person with bad moral character did not mean that he did not have power and wisdom. On the contrary, his potential and wisdom could be displayed more vividly than a person with a deep mind. This was the reason why King

Sheng You nodded.

As for why he shook his head, the reason was simple.

Perhaps the Great Chu State could be governed well, but whether the people could be stable was still another question.

Ability wasn’t everything.

“Then I can use this method to verify whether the chances of disloyalty can be lowered in the future?””This is also considered as us elders putting righteousness above family,” the Emperor said.”

“If it’s really as you say, I’ll agree. ””

Using a disloyal and unjust descendant as a sacrifice was akin to cleaning up the family and putting righteousness above family. Instead, there was no estrangement.

The Emperor smiled. He knew his younger brother's character well. He only needed to say a few words to convince him.

Next, they explained the detailed plan one by one and began to communicate on the grassland.

When Xu Bai and the others saw their so-called plan, everyone looked at Yun Zihai with an understanding expression.

By now, they had already figured everything out.

The eighth prince's book was given by the emperor.

The poor Eighth Prince still thought that he had discovered all of this on his own until his death.

As for Yun Zihai, he only made everything seem smoother.

First, he had to let the Eighth Prince find the contents of the book. Second, he had to make it difficult for the Eighth Prince.

The only surviving craftsman was arranged by the Emperor.

After the Thousand-faced Fox discovered it through the craftsman and brought it to the Eighth Prince, everything would fall into place.

Most importantly, he had to pressure the eighth prince, which was why Yun Zihai was involved.

It was the Emperor who made the Eighth Prince think that Yun Zihai had news and even made Yun Zihai investigate the Eighth Prince.

In the Emperor's opinion, there were at most two situations.

The first was that Yun Zihai could not find any clues. This would put pressure on the Eighth Prince and allow everything to happen smoothly.

The second was that Yun Zihai had found a clue, but he would definitely be obstructed in the process.

As for what the obstacle was, it was the Ghost Sculptor.

Even the Ghost Sculptor was the Emperor's man.

His goal was to stop Yun Zihai at the most critical moment. After all, in the Emperor's opinion, the Ghost Sculptor was stronger than Yun Zihai. Of course, the Ghost Sculptor had already received orders not to kill Yun Zihai..

Chapter 172: Secret of the Royal Family (4)

After all, the emperor cherished talents. He would not let Yun Zihai die.

However, there was another major mistake.

That was, Xu Bai and the others had also joined in, and they had given the Ghost Sculptor a hint of pressure.

At that time, the Ghost Sculptor could not communicate with the Emperor. After all, he was afraid of being discovered.

It was also at that time that the Ghost Sculptor had an idea. In order to complete the emperor's grand plan, he might as well kill everyone in private.

It was also at that time that a series of events happened. If it weren't for Xu Bai's powerful methods, they would have really died there.

And the Emperor's plan was already very, very deep. It was so deep that the Ghost Sculptor's family had been controlled by the Eighth Prince and had even died.

He had also planted the same kind of arrangements as the Ghost Sculptor on the other members of the royal family in various ways.

As long as any one of them showed emotions similar to the Eighth Prince, they would walk down this path.

Unfortunately, only the world where the Eighth Prince was injured was achieved.

This plan was completely terminated.

But the scene continued.

After the Emperor and King Shengyou finished talking about the plan, the two of them looked at each other and fell into a tacit silence.

"Do you think I'm very scary? I've long lost the boldness I had when we met back then. Instead, I've become a scheming villain."The Emperor suddenly sighed.

"If you want to be a king, you have to go through this. This is also the reason why I don't want to be a king. I don't think you're very scary. On the contrary, I'm your strongest backing."King Sheng You shook his head and said.

This answer was not beyond the Emperor's expectations. After hearing it, the Emperor revealed a very carefree smile.

"If only I had another glass of wine."The Emperor seemed to have recalled many things.

“Come back to the army with me later. We’ll get drunk.” King Sheng You said.

The Emperor nodded and took two steps forward.

He had regained his noble and condescending aura, making people not dare to approach him and could only bow their heads.

The surrounding wind blew, stirring up waves on the grassland. As the wind intensified, the waves became larger and larger, spreading to wherever one could see.

King Sheng You looked at the Emperor’s back and felt that the Emperor seemed very tired in front of him.

The Emperor placed his hands behind his back and looked up at the white clouds in the sky.

The white clouds intersected with the grassland, forming a line between heaven and earth.

Words came out of the Emperor’s mouth, and his tone was extremely deep.

“The two of us brothers started from the bottom of the world and relied on each other. We have experienced countless life and death situations.”

“You blocked 228 blades for me, and I blocked 361 blades for you. In this world, there is no deeper relationship than that of us brothers.”

“I’ve changed. I’ve become even more scheming. I don’t trust anything in the world because I have to protect the people of Great Chu.”

“You know, at that time, we couldn’t even eat. It was for this reason that we decided to resist immediately.”

King Sheng You listened to the Emperor's words and stood up silently. He walked to the Emperor's side and stood side by side with him. At the same time, he placed his hand on the Emperor's shoulder and patted it gently.

"I understand.

The two of them had walked the path together, so he knew his brother better than anyone else.

The Emperor turned his head and looked straight at King Sheng You. His eyes were filled with determination.

"In this world, I can trust anyone but you."

King You Sheng and the Emperor looked at each other.

A moment later, the two of them looked at each other and smiled.

"If I can survive, the borders of Great Chu will exist. "King Sheng You no longer had that calm and water-like aura from before. A domineering aura rose from his body, causing the world to be in chaos.

When the domineering and noble aura intertwined, the blue sky and the green grass in the world paled in comparison.

At this point, the scene disappeared and everything returned to normal.

King Sheng You turned around and looked at Xu Bai. "Is there anything else that you're not clear about?"

"That's not the case. I still have a question. Why does Your Highness still look like the Eighth Prince?" Xu Bai said.

According to the image just now, the Heaven's Secrets Poison was only introduced through the bloodline of the same race.

But why did King Sheng You's appearance change?

This wasn't a reincarnation. How could there be a change?

"I just want to see who betrayed the Great Chu royal family." King Sheng You said slowly.

After saying this, King Sheng You's appearance began to change.

The Eighth Prince's appearance disappeared and was replaced by the man in the picture.

Boundless dominance rose from the King, filling the entire space and making everyone feel shaken.

"This king lacks a brave and resourceful person. Are you willing to become this king's subordinate and be this king's deputy general?" Sheng You King suddenly reached out his hand to Xu Bai. The domineering aura on his body disappeared completely, and in its place was a thirsty look.

Xu Bai's mouth twitched. "Thank you for your favor, Your Highness. But I'm not used to being restrained. Besides, I'm just a Level Eight expert. I'm not worthy of Your Highness's attention. ""

The sudden recruitment not only shocked Xu Bai, but also shocked everyone present..

Chapter 173: Secret of the Royal Family (5)

Qing Xue nudged Xu Bai and gave him a meaningful look.

It seemed like he really wanted Xu Bai to agree.

To be able to become a subordinate of King Sheng You, that was really soaring to the sky. Moreover, he was even given the position of deputy general. He was not an ordinary soldier.

If there were people from the martial arts world here, they would definitely fight for this position. After all, this was a good thing.

Xu Bai actually directly rejected the offer. He rejected it very decisively.

In the eyes of others, this was an opportunity that could allow one to soar into the sky. However, in Xu Bai's eyes, it was not worth mentioning.

Ridiculous!

It was not just Qing Xue. The others also looked over. Their intentions were similar to Qing Xue's.

This was King Shengyou!

He was truly below one person and above ten thousand people.

This was an opportunity that he could not even dream of!

However, none of them said anything. After all, this was Xu Bai's own idea, and they couldn't interfere.

"Rank-8?" King Sheng You smiled and said meaningfully, "The one this king has his eyes on is you, a Rank-8. Your companions added together probably won't be enough for you to fight with one hand. Don't be modest first." Xu Bai wasn't being humble, but he was still unwilling.

"Whatever you want, this king can give it to you. Divine weapons, pills, secret manuals, you can take them from the treasury." Sheng You King continued.

When this condition was stated, everyone present widened their eyes.

If the previous condition could cause the players in the game to fight until their heads bled, then the current condition would probably cause a huge shock in the game.

The martial world was forever the martial world. Whether it was the strongest Confucianism, Buddhism, or Taoism in Great Chu, or the various famous families, they had to lower their noble heads in front of the royal family. The royal treasury was a sacred land that one could only dream of.

The most important thing was to casually take them.

This condition was hard to refuse, but Xu Bai still shook his head.

“There should be people stronger than me. Why don’t I use this kind of treatment to recruit stronger people?” Xu Bai slowly said, “I yearn for other lives, Your Highness, don’t force me.””

When this sentence was said, everyone present did the same thing. They touched their foreheads with their hands, looking very uncomfortable.

They all knew Xu Bai’s personality, but they never thought that he would be so jumpy.

To be honest, Xu Bai was really tempted when he heard this condition. Don’t forget that the cultivation technique manuals in the royal family’s treasure vault could very likely trigger the progress bar.

However, after thinking about it, he gave up on this idea and finally shook his head and refused.

The reason was simple.

Firstly, with his current strength, he did not want to get involved in things that were beyond his strength. Otherwise, it was very likely that he would not be able to spend his money.

Secondly, and most importantly, there were many people with special abilities in this world, and experts were like carps crossing the river.

If he grew up alone, he would be able to preserve the secret of his cheat to the greatest extent. However, if he went out and interacted with more complicated people, there was a risk that his secret would be discovered.

The golden finger was his everything, the source of his true development.

Looking at the Emperor, the plans he had seen in the video gave people the impression that he was extremely shrewd and farsighted.

If one didn't have strong hardware conditions to fight with such an old fox, it was very likely that they would become someone else's chess piece and expose their own situation.

Lord Shengyou was overbearing and seemed to have spent his entire life in the army. His personality seemed very simple on the surface.

However, when he communicated with the Emperor, it was obvious that he was very meticulous.

Xu Bai felt that it was still too dangerous to come into contact with these things now.

"Sigh, one is hard to find." King You Sheng sighed. "What I value is your potential. It has nothing to do with your strength. It's a pity that you're unwilling."

As he spoke, Sheng You King didn't seem to want to talk too much about this, so he took out a jade token from his waist and threw it into Xu Bai's hand.

Xu Bai took it and looked at it carefully.

It was as smooth as jade, and there were all kinds of complicated patterns carved on it.

“If you change your mind, take this jade token and go to the capital to find the emperor. The doors of my army are open for you.” King Sheng You said boldly.

Xu Bai was slightly surprised.

This action had increased his impression of him by quite a bit.

He thought that King You Sheng would at least appear angry, but he didn't think that he didn't care at all and even gave him such generous conditions. “Do you think this king will get angry?” King Sheng You looked at what Xu Bai was thinking and laughed, ““This king is very open-minded about talents. If you can't be used by this king, as long as you don't do anything to harm Great Chu, this king won't mind at all.”

“Thank you, Your Highness.” Xu Bai put away the jade token in his hand and cupped his hands.

No matter what, the King's magnanimity was commendable.

King Sheng You stopped talking and looked up, his gaze gradually converging.

“Alright, that's enough. Now, it's time to go up and meet that old friend. She has been waiting for a long time.”

Old friend?

After saying this, everyone present was very confused.

“In a while, you can watch from the side. The battle between us will be of great benefit to you.”

King Sheng You said slowly and waved his sleeves around..

Chapter 174: Female Abbey Dean and the Shifting Stars (1)

Just as King Sheng You finished waving his sleeves, a strange change occurred in the surroundings.

The ground began to buzz and shake at an irregular frequency. Huge cracks suddenly appeared on the wall above.

After the crack appeared, it did not collapse. It just kept moving to the two sides, like a door that was opening.

They were underground, so there was a distance from the surface. However, as the crack gradually expanded, the distance did not seem to be that far.

The ground began to rise, dragging Xu Bai and the others away from this space. At the same time, King Sheng You and the 10,000 troops also gradually rose.

The cracks in front of them were like doors that gradually opened, and they were no longer an obstacle to them. With this constant rising force, in the blink of an eye, a faint ray of moonlight appeared on the wall not far away.

The moonlight was hazy, but when it shone into the dark environment, it appeared unusually gentle, infusing a trace of warmth into the darkness.

“There seems to be a strong enemy above.” Xu Bai raised his head and looked at the moonlight.

In the darkness, King You Sheng did not speak. He only looked up with the help of the moonlight.

Hearing this, Yun Zihai nodded his head cautiously.

They could feel that something was wrong with the current situation.

As the crack on the top grew bigger and bigger, their speed of rising also became faster and faster. When the crack gradually grew to a certain extent, the speed of rising led them to the ground.

The moonlight was bright and clear. Compared to the underground space just now, the ground seemed a little lively.

When Xu Bai and the others appeared on the ground and looked up at the same time, they were all stunned when they saw the figure floating in the sky.

At this moment, there was a woman in the sky covered in moonlight. This woman was wearing a Taoist robe, and her hair was slanted. Her eyes were filled with madness.

In fact, this woman was very beautiful, and her appearance could topple a country. However, that trace of madness and chaos made people not dare to approach her and fear her.

Even the moonlight that enveloped her body became blurry and distorted.

The distorted moonlight, combined with the aura of madness, and the crazy expression on the woman's face, made it seem even more terrifying.

"Female Abbey Dean?" Xu Bai was stunned.

He recognized her at a glance. Wasn't she the Abbey Dean who had left a handprint in the Yin Posthouse?

He still remembered that after the female Abbey Dean left the palm print, she stepped on the air and disappeared into the distance. Now, she suddenly appeared in front of him, which made him feel extremely surprised.

Of course, Xu Bai was not the only one who was surprised. Other than Yun Zihai and the others who showed shocked expressions, even King Sheng You frowned.

“Jade face?” “We haven’t met for many years. Why are you like this? Why is your aura so chaotic?” King Sheng You asked calmly.”

He remembered that when he faked his death, Jade Face Monastery was still the abbot of Jade Face Monastery. But now, what had happened?

As the saying goes, when a person is isolated from the world for too long, it will cause a situation where they fall behind.

At this moment, King Sheng You was the same. He was a little confused about the current situation, especially when he felt the confusion of the female Abbey Dean. He had doubts in his heart.

The female Abbey Dean was tilting her head and sizing up the crowd below.

However, when King Sheng You said those two words, she suddenly stopped.

The madness in his eyes was still there, not replaced by anything. What was closest to the madness was a look of doubt.

“Jade face?” The female Abbey Dean quickly recovered. She tilted her head again, sized up King Sheng You, and took a step forward.

The madness returned to normal. It was even more intense than before. If one got too close, they would even be affected.

“Why did she...” King Shengyou turned his head and was about to ask Xu Bai, but the moment he turned his head, the female Abbey Dean suddenly launched an attack.

The aura of madness gradually spread. The female Abbey Dean raised her jade-like left hand and gently pressed down on King Sheng You and his army.

It was such an extremely simple action, but the madness in the surroundings seemed to have eaten a panacea as it expanded at a speed visible to the naked eye.

“Not good!”

Lord Shengyou turned his head back and raised his right hand.

A jade-like sword appeared out of thin air. Immediately after, the 10,000 soldiers raised their weapons in unison.

“Kill them!”

An extremely terrifying killing intent suddenly appeared and spiraled in the air, forming an invisible barrier.

At the same time, the barrier enveloped Xu Bai and the others.

“Boom!”

He didn't see how the two of them fought, but he felt a loud bang that shook the heavens and the earth, and the ground began to collapse crazily.

The speed of the collapse was spreading to the surroundings. Wherever it passed, the trees and soil would not remain. Everything would be turned into ashes.

This was just a casual palm strike from the female Abbey Dean, but there was no living thing within a radius of ten miles.

Fortunately, this was the wilderness. Other than them, no one was willing to come over, so no one was killed.

“Jade Face, have you gone mad?” King Sheng You frowned.

At this moment, he could also see that the female Abbey Dean was not conscious at all.

At this moment, the female Abbey Dean was a mixture of all kinds of chaos.

“Then I’ll kill you.”

King Shengyou held the long sword in his right hand and raised it horizontally. His left hand brushed the edge of the long sword..

Chapter 175: Female Abbey Dean and the Shifting Stars (2)

As he finished speaking, the surrounding soldiers began to alternate their positions. In the blink of an eye, they formed a unique military formation.

The power of the king lies in the battle array.

Even mortal soldiers could slaughter all living beings.

Moreover, there were ten thousand elite soldiers here. It was even more impressive when gathered together.

This army formation was like a sharp spear that was flashing with a cold light. Anyone who saw it would feel their hair stand on end.

“Kill them!”

“One word long snake!”

A terrifying killing intent suddenly appeared and condensed into a huge snake, sweeping toward the female Abbey Dean.

Compared to the snake, the Abbey Dean was like a tiny ant.

The long snake carried a terrifying killing intent, as if it was going to shatter the world. The clouds in the sky were dissipating, and the moonlight was blurred by this killing intent.

The female Abbey Dean raised her right hand and slashed at the long snake below.

The surrounding air became scorching hot. A ball of flame appeared from the Abbey Dean's palm and spread along the sky.

In the blink of an eye, the area within a hundred miles had turned into a sea of fire.

The flames collided with the long snake, rolling in the air and entering a stalemate.

At this moment, King Sheng You raised his sword and pointed it at the female Abbey Dean.

“Change!”

As he finished speaking, the soldiers began to change their formation again.

A strange shape appeared on the ground, like a water droplet.

Due to the scorching heat of the flames, the surrounding air became hot. At this moment, the hot air was descending at an extremely fast speed.

Snowflakes began to fall from the originally cloudless sky.

The snowflakes were extremely cold. They fell on the female Abbey Dean's head and clothes, instantly forming layers of frost.

After the temperature of the flames dropped, the long snake got rid of the flames and engulfed the Abbey Dean again.

Fierce flames surged into the sky, and there was no life within a hundred miles.

The female Abbey Dean was swallowed by the long snake and disappeared into the sky.

However, this situation did not last for even a breath. The long snake split open and the female Abbey Dean escaped from it.

After she left, the corner of the female head's mouth was stained with blood. It was obvious that she was injured.

However, even though he was seriously injured, that madness still did not disappear.

The female Abbey Dean raised her hand again. She bent her middle finger and flicked it at the sky.

In the next moment, killing intent suddenly appeared. In the sky, a long snake that was exactly the same as before appeared.

Boundless Dao Scripture!

It could simulate everything.

After the long snake appeared, it charged towards King Sheng You's army.

King Sheng You snorted coldly, "The Boundless Dao Scripture is only a simulation.""

He raised his long sword and the same long snake appeared, but it was much stronger than the one simulated by the female Abbey Dean.

The two long snakes collided with each other and fought in the air.

"Although I don't know why you're delirious, this king will not allow a delirious expert to continue living in the human world. "King Sheng You said slowly," This king knows that you have a kind heart, but this king needs to consider the people of Great Chu. After you die, this king will personally bury you." The formation changed again.

His killing intent suddenly soared. Compared to before, it had already soared by more than ten times.

"Heaven Slaughtering Army Formation!"

King Sheng You said coldly.

"Boom!"

A loud bang echoed between heaven and earth, and all things were frightened.

In front of everyone's eyes, the world seemed to have lost its color.

The next moment, the female Abbey Dean spat out blood. Blood dyed the sky and she fell from the sky.

King Shengyou was about to continue attacking, but he did not expect a strange array to appear in midair.

The female Abbey Dean landed on the array and quickly disappeared.

“The Thousand Mile Inch Formation of Dao Sect and the Boundless Dao

Scripture are really strange cultivation techniques.”King Sheng You frowned.

He only had 10,000 elite soldiers. If he had more soldiers, he could have killed the female Abbey Dean just now and even prevented her from escaping.

What a pity...

Sheng You King shook his head.

When he returned, he had to tell his brother the emperor that he had to get rid of this unstable factor as soon as possible.

“Brother Xu! ”

Just as he was thinking this, a shout came from the side.

King Sheng You was stunned. He turned around and found that there were only Yun Zihai and the other two on the scene. Xu Bai had already disappeared.

“What’s going on?”

He quickly walked over and grabbed Yun Zihai’s collar. His eyebrows were raised and he was furious.

“Just now, when the female Abbey Dean disappeared, a similar formation appeared under Brother Xu’s feet and then disappeared.”Yun Zihai looked at the spot where Xu Bai had disappeared, his face blank.

He finally understood the current situation.

Xu Bai's sudden disappearance meant that the female Abbey Dean had taken him away.

The reason why the female Abbey Dean came here was perhaps...It wasn't for the sake of becoming King You, but for Xu Bai.

Clouds from the sea to here, sorrow comes from here.

"Originally, everything was already coming to an end, but this thing happened.

Brother Xu, I've let you down."

He felt terrible.

At the same time, he knew very well that Xu Bai...It was likely that he was already dead.

If it was a sane Abbey Dean, she would be kind, but the Abbey Dean was crazy!

No one knew what a lunatic, and a powerful one at that, could do.

"Bastard!" King Sheng You pushed Yun Zihai to the ground and said angrily,""No one has ever been able to snatch away my people, generals!"

"Yes!"

"Activate the formation! Heaven and Earth Soul Search!"

"I accept your orders!"

The military formation underwent another huge change. At the same time,

King Sheng You closed his eyes. After a breath or two, he opened them again..

Chapter 176: Female Abbey Dean and the Shifting Stars (3)

“Chase!”

He only said a simple word, but the soldiers seemed to be connected to him. Without a word, they changed the array and soon disappeared into the corner of the sky with King Sheng You.

The surroundings fell silent. Only Yun Zihai and the other two were left at the scene. Everyone’s expressions were different.

“I harmed Brother Xu,” Yun Zihai said dejectedly.”

This was the second time he had said such words. The first time was when he met the Ghost Sculptor.

But could a Ghost Sculptor compare to the female Abbey Dean?

Not even a finger.

If Xu Bai fell into the hands of the crazy female Abbey Dean, he would probably be doomed.

“Lord Lord Yun, you are truly worried.” Qing Xue’s brows were filled with worry as she said, “The female Abbey Dean is obviously just taking him away. If she really wanted to kill him, she would have done so long ago.”

Qing Xue did not have much confidence when she said this, but at least it was a hope.

“We... Are we still waiting here?” Zhou Qing asked.

Among them, Yun Zihai had the deepest relationship with Xu Bai, followed by Qing Xue. Zhou Qing did not have much interaction with Xu Bai, so he did not suffer much.

“Huisheng County.” Yun Zihai said, “Let’s go back first. If Brother Xu is fine, he will return to the Bodyguard Agency. After all, it’s his property.”

They were still in the wilderness, and there would be no news if they stayed in the same place. It was better to return to the county first. That way, at least there would be a place to receive news.

Yun Zihai practically forced himself to be spirited, bringing Qing Xue and the other two out of the wilderness.

On the other side.

Xu Bai looked at the people below with a dumbfounded expression.

That’s right, it was below.

He was riding on the back of the female Abbey Dean and was running with her. To be more precise. the female Abbey dean was carrying the black cloth on her back.

At that moment, he only felt a blur in front of his eyes, and then it became like this.

Was there a mistake?

I'm just a bystander. I'm just here to eat melons!

How did he end up eating melons?

Xu Bai was speechless.

And most importantly, couldn't he change to a more special running posture?

He felt weird being carried by a beautiful woman.

Xu Bai felt the surrounding scenery and quickly moved backward. His entire body followed the female abbey dean's running, up and down.

Very... Uncomfortable.

"Wait!" Xu Bai couldn't take it anymore and shouted.

The female Abbey Dean turned around, still maintaining her running posture. She tilted her head and looked at him. The madness in her eyes did not change at all.

Then, Xu Bai felt his vision shake. When it returned to normal, he was in a position where the female Abbey Dean was hugging him.

Xu Bai was speechless.

I said wait, not change positions!

Besides, I'm a grown man, isn't it a little inappropriate for a beautiful woman like you to carry me like a princess?

Xu Bai wrapped his arms around the Abbey Dean's neck and sighed.

Forget it, I'll just treat it as a mount.

He wanted to resist, but he temporarily suppressed his thoughts.

After all, with the Abbey Dean's abilities, resistance was useless.

And looking at his current state, it seemed that the female Abbey Dean had no intention of killing him. Instead, she wanted to take him somewhere.

Riding on his "mount" all the way, he was already very far from the county.

Xu Bai heard the sound of the wind in his ears gradually weakening. Then, the surrounding scenery gradually stopped. He realized that he had arrived in a hidden cave.

"That... Senior, can you put me down first?" Xu Bai thought for a moment and tried to communicate with the female Abbey Dean.

Due to the close distance between the two of them, when he raised his head, he saw a pair of crazy eyes.

The female Abbey Dean was still in a state of madness. Even though she was holding Xu Bai, she had not regained her senses.

Xu Bai only felt his body relax. He realized that the female Abbey Dean had placed him on the ground. He immediately turned over and grabbed Ghost Head Blade by his waist.

"Are you here?"

Since he had been put down, this was his destination. He did not know what would happen next.

However, he needed to be on guard.

The Abbey Dean suddenly reached out her hand and slapped Xu Bai's chest.

His speed wasn't fast, and his strength wasn't great either. However, Xu Bai didn't relax. A black light rose from his body.

Then, he used Stellar Transposition.

The palm strike was completely neutralized and attacked the female Abbey Dean at the same time.

The female Abbey Dean tilted her head and withstood the palm strike. Her body did not waver at all.

Xu Bai raised his eyebrows.

The palm strike just now was not the Abbey Dean's strength at all. It was only about the strength of the Seventh Stage. But why would he use the power of a Rank-7?

Xu Bai was confused.

However, he seemed to have found an unusual clue.

The female Abbey Dean seemed to have gone mad, but she felt that something was guiding her, making her act according to some rules in her madness.

For example, how could a crazy person suddenly weaken his strength to attack?

Also, she took him away for no reason, as if she had a purpose.

He now seriously suspected that the female Abbey Dean was not here to find King Sheng You at all, but specifically to find him. It was only because King Sheng You was there that the two of them fought.

Of course, this was just a guess. As for how to verify it, there was no way yet.

As Xu Bai was thinking, the female Abbey Dean made her move.

The female Abbey Dean casually took two steps forward. Then, the power in her body began to circulate with an unusual rule..

Chapter 177: Female Abbey Dean and the Shifting Stars (4)

Xu Bai was stunned for a moment before he reacted.

When the female Abbey Dean had circulated her power, he had felt that it was quite familiar. Now, he realized that it was actually his Shifting Stars. The Boundless Dao Scripture simulated his Stellar Transposition.

But... What was the Abbey Dean moving?

Xu Bai was very familiar with the way it worked.

They were indeed using Shifting Stars, but no one attacked the female Abbey Dean. She was fighting herself.

That's right, he was fighting himself.

In front of Xu Bai, the female Abbey Dean's expression was gradually becoming clear, but compared to the madness, it was like a drop in the ocean.

That was all. There was only a trace of clarity.

Xu Bai touched his chin. He seemed to know who the female Abbey Dean was using the Shifting Stars on just now.

If he was not wrong, he was trying to move all of the crazy consciousness out, but it was obvious that he did not succeed.

Perhaps it was because the grade of Star Transposition was not good enough.

Soon, the trace of clarity on the female Abbey Dean's body disappeared. She also stopped using Stellar Transposition. She tilted her head and looked at Xu Bai with a crazy expression on her face.

Xu Bai held the Ghost Head Blade in his hand and looked at each other intently.

It didn't take long before the female Abbey Dean turned around and left the cave without any hesitation.

Xu Bai was speechless.

This was something he had not expected.

He thought that something bad would happen next, but he didn't expect it to be over just like that.

"What is his purpose?" Xu Bai frowned and pondered.

After thinking for a long time, he still could not understand what the other party was thinking.

Could it be that it was just for the sake of Shifting Stars?

There seemed to be some clues.

The idea of using the Stellar Transposition Technique to transfer the madness out of her body seemed to be feasible.

However, there were too few clues in front of him. No matter how he thought about it, he could not guess more.

Xu Bai shook his head to get rid of these thoughts.

“Let’s go back first.”

He had received too much information about the situation, and he was in such a dire situation. It was best to return to a safe place first.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai didn’t dwell on it anymore. He got up and left the cave.

As soon as he walked out, he happened to meet King Shengyou and his troops.

When more than 10,000 soldiers rushed over, the scene was very grand. The surrounding trees were instantly flattened.

“Xu Bai, where is Jade Face?” As soon as King Sheng You appeared, he looked around as if he wanted to beat the female Abbey Dean to death.

“Let’s go.” Xu Bai shrugged. He didn’t speak nonsense and told her the reason.

“Simulation ability?” King You Sheng frowned, as if he was carefully thinking about the cause and effect.

“Any clues?” Xu Bai asked.

“I want to return to the capital as soon as possible and think of a way to kill her directly.” King Sheng You shook his head.”

Good heavens.

Xu Bai called him an expert.

This solution to the problem, he actually greatly agreed.

Finding clues was a very troublesome matter. It was better to find the person directly and kill him. Then, all the consequences would be gone.

“Alright, since you are fine, this king will leave.”

Logically speaking, King Sheng You still wanted to talk to Xu Bai. After all, it was rare to meet such a talent. However, now that such a thing had happened, he had to hurry up and go back.

However, before he left, King You Sheng reminded him.

“This king’s words are worth a thousand gold. No matter when and where, as long as you are willing, this king’s door will always be open for you.” After saying this, King You Sheng left with his army.

Xu Bai rubbed the space between his eyebrows and looked up at the moon in the sky.

The moonlight was like silver, shining down on the ground that had been razed to the ground.

“So there is someone as interesting as King Sheng You in the Imperial Family.” Xu Bai thought to himself.

From the moment he met King Sheng You until now, the impression he gave him was that he was a very bold person.

No wonder he had been in the army for half his life.

If such a person were to become a prince in the officialdom, he would probably chop off the heads of many of those rotten officials in a few days.

“Let’s pick up the county.”

Everything was coming to an end. Xu Bai didn’t want to stay here any longer. He took advantage of the moonlight and rushed to Sheng County.

Sheng County, outside the Escort Agency.

Yun Zihai, Qing Xue, and the others had been standing on the street outside, waiting for Xu Bai to return.

“I... I might have to go.” Zhou Qing looked at the sky and braced himself to say this.

With such a big matter happening, he had to go back and report to Prince Six. Otherwise, if he delayed the opportunity, he would lose the upper hand.

Yun Zihai did not speak, and neither did Qing Xue.

The two of them seemed to have tacitly agreed and allowed Zhou Qing to leave.

Zhou Qing thought about it, gritted his teeth, and left in the dark.

At this moment, only Yun Zihai and Qing Xue were left on this street.

"I'm not leaving because I want to wait." Yun Zihai's voice was hoarse. "Brother Xu and I hit it off at first sight. If he really can't come back, I'll build a cenotaph for him. But why don't you leave?"

Qing Xue stared at the entrance of the agency and said, "He saved me twice. I must wait for his news here. This is the first reason. Second, he is valued by King Sheng You. For the sake of the Ninth Princess, it is worth it for me to wait here."

Unlike other people, she was straightforward and didn't speak vaguely.

This was her true thoughts. Firstly, Xu Bai had saved her twice. Secondly, Xu Bai's identity was different now..

Chapter 178: Female Abbey Dean and the Shifting Stars (5)

He didn't know how to hide it, and there was no need to hide it. Sometimes, those little schemes were disdainful to smart people.

"Ha..." Yun Zihai smiled bitterly. "You're really direct. It's a pity for Zhou Qing. If Brother Xu really comes back, he will lose a good impression of Brother Xu."

"Everyone has their own choices. If they make a choice, they have to pay the price for the consequences of this choice." Qing Xue said.

Yun Zihai did not say anything else. He stared at the Bodyguard Agency without blinking. His eyes were filled with guilt and sadness.

The street was so quiet that it was terrifying. At this time, even the night watchmen did not pass by the bodyguard agency.

As time passed, the night sky grew darker. Every time the night sky grew darker, Yun Zihai's mood would become heavier.

He knew that the longer he waited, the more insecure Xu Bai would be.

Time slowly passed, and a faint light appeared in the sky.

The streets became lively. At this moment, the commoners who had been preparing to work since morning saw the parents of the county magistrate and a woman standing in front of the bodyguard agency.

"Let's go." Yun Zihai stood up and looked at the increasing number of people around him as well as the sun that was gradually rising in the sky.

His face was full of disappointment. Clearly, he had reached the limit of despair.

Qing Xue didn't say a word and just sighed silently.

Was that man really dead?

What a pity.

If he was given time, he would definitely be able to take the lead. The accident was really too sudden.

The two of them looked at each other and prepared to part ways.

However, at this moment, they heard a voice and hurriedly turned their heads. Then, their expressions froze.

"Eh? Why are you two guarding my house? Why don't you go back to the yamen, go to the yamen, wait for you all night, go to your room to sleep all night."

Xu Bai was holding a paper bag in his hand. He was using his other hand to take out a white steamed bun from the paper bag. He put it into his mouth, and his mouth was filled with the fragrance of the steamed bun.

Yun Zihai was speechless.

Qing Xue was speechless.

“Do you want to eat?” Xu Bai handed it over.

The two of them looked at each other speechlessly.

They were so scared that after guarding the place for the whole night, Xu Bai directly fell asleep in the yamen. When he woke up in the morning, he even had a considerate breakfast.

Qing Xue gritted her teeth and said, “I knew he wouldn’t die.””

Yun Zihai returned to normal. He was about to walk up and give Xu Bai a warm hug, but Xu Bai stopped him.

“Stop it. Don’t say goodbye. Sister Qingxue can hug me. You’re a man.” Xu Bai walked towards Qing Xue.

Qing Xue naturally took out the remaining silver thorns and played with them in her hand.

Xu Bai looked up at the sky and felt that he had joked enough. It was time to get down to business.

After finishing the rest of the buns in two or three bites, Xu Bai gave Yun Zihai and Qing Xue a look and asked them to follow him. Then, he walked straight into the Bodyguard Agency.

Yun Zihai and Qingyun did not understand what was going on either, but when they saw Xu Bai's intention, they still followed behind.

It was very early at this time, and there was no one in the escort agency. After entering the agency, they followed Xu Bai to the room in the backyard.

After opening the door, Xu Bai stepped in first. He called the two of them to sit down and closed the door.

"I thought about it all night last night." Xu Bai closed the door, turned around, and looked at Yun Zihai. "This matter can be considered to have entered an end. There's basically no follow-up."

Yun Zihai nodded. "I'll write a letter today and go straight to the capital to tell

Your Majesty what happened."

No matter what happened in the middle or what the Emperor had planned, Yun Zihai knew that he had been schemed against by the Emperor. However, he had already completed his mission. The Emperor would fulfill his so-called promise.

Finally, Yun Zihai added, "I'll fulfill Brother Xu's request as soon as possible. When the time comes, Brother Xu can come and find me. We can discuss which cultivation techniques you need."

Xu Bai's contribution to this incident could not be underestimated. Yun Zihai was a person of integrity, so he would naturally honor Xu Bai's credit.

"I will also send a messenger pigeon to the ninth princess in advance today to let her prepare. Also, I will be leaving today." Qing Xue stared at Xu Bai thoughtfully and told him about her departure today.

She should have left a long time ago. She had participated in it for no reason and had not returned until now.

However, it was all worth it. At least the Ninth Princess would rise because of this incident.

As for Xu Bai...

Qing Xue sighed silently.

If it was in the past, she would have wanted to recruit talents for the princess, but now, she had given up.

How could the Ninth Princess dare to interfere with a talent that even King Sheng You dreamed of?

Even if Xu Bai really agreed, the Ninth Princess would not dare to accept it. You dare to accept the person your Imperial Uncle likes? Aren't you afraid of death?

Therefore, Qing Xue had already given up on this plan.

"Ahem." Xu Bai pretended to cough and said, "Actually, I thought about it all night last night. Although we've settled this matter, I have to think about my future. So, I have a plan that requires Brother Yun's help..""

Chapter 179: Xu Bai Pointing at Fuyin Posthouse

When Xu Bai said this, Yun Zihai was clearly stunned. Then, Yun Zihai's face was filled with confusion as he scratched his head, not knowing what Xu Bai wanted to say.

If he had a request, what else could he help with?

Qing Xue was also confused. She didn't know what was going on, but Xu Bai didn't call her or ask her to leave. This meant that she could stay here and listen.

Everyone was smart. Qing Xue knew that since Xu Bai didn't want her to leave, he must have wanted her to hear what he was going to say next.

"After this matter is over, His Majesty will receive the news. Naturally, you will be rewarded." Xu Bai stared at Yun Zihai and smiled.

Hearing this, Yun Zihai nodded, indicating that it was indeed so.

At the end, he added.

"Brother Xu, don't worry. I'll definitely help you get those two cultivation techniques. I, Yun Zihai, keep my word."

He thought that Xu Bai had hurriedly expressed that he would not go back on his word because of the two cultivation techniques. He would definitely keep his promise to Xu Bai.

Xu Bai shook his head and said, "I can still trust Brother Yun's character. I'm not asking you for help because of this matter. I just want to ask, which mansion do you plan to work for in the future?"

Previously, he had heard of the agreement between Yun Zihai and the Emperor. Once Yun Zihai completed this matter, the Emperor would give Yun Zihai a residence and let Yun Zihai be the governor. Moreover, everything in this residence would be managed by Yun Zihai himself.

It could be said to be a very great power. After all, up until now, there had never been such a precedent in Great Chu. This could be considered as the first time.

Of course, this was also what Yun Zihai dreamed of.

He could manage it himself and did not have to care about the disputes of power around him. He could do his best to give peace to the places under his jurisdiction. This was his lifelong pursuit.

“Brother Yun, I won’t say anything else. We’re straightforward people, so I’ll be straightforward. I want to go to the mansion under your jurisdiction and become the Yin Posthouse’s captain. “Xu Bai didn’t bother hiding his thoughts anymore.

His previous plan was to stay in Sheng County and become the Yin Posthouse Leader.

But last night, he had completely changed his mind. The reason was simple: it was because of the female Abbey Dean.

Last night, King Sheng You and the female Abbey Dean had fought to the point that the sky was dark and the sun and moon were dark. It could be said that there was no one else who could match them.

After that, he was brought to the cave by the female Abbey Dean. He kept thinking that this world was still too dangerous for him.

He had originally planned to develop slowly, but it seemed that it was still not possible. He had to grow up quickly.

Just as Liu Xu and No Flower had said, Sheng County was too small, especially for Xu Bai. It was so small that it made one’s hair stand on end.

Even if it was the Yin Posthouse, the group of people who did business would not bring many things that could trigger the progress bar.

However, the prefecture was different. It was even higher than the Dao Order he had obtained from killing the county magistrate. It was enough for him to trigger more progress bars.

Moreover, Yun Zihai would be the governor of that place, a parent official.

Wasn’t this a relationship between the two of them?

In this day and age, he still had to be more worldly, right?

He had a friend who was a prefecture magistrate. He was very smooth.

When Xu Bai said this, Yun Zihai's expression was dull. After a long while, he finally reacted. Immediately after, his dull expression disappeared and revealed a look of ecstasy.

"If Brother Xu is willing, I welcome you!"

This was really a pleasant surprise, at least to Yun Zihai.

Actually, before he accepted this mission, he had already started planning how to govern the area under his jurisdiction once he succeeded. The most difficult part was the Yin Posthouse.

The reason was actually very simple. The Yin Posthouse was a place in the wilderness. It was time-consuming and laborious to manage it. Moreover, the Yin Posthouse was very important and required a lot of effort.

Now, Xu Bai actually said that he wanted to go to the residence under his jurisdiction and become a station chief.

What else was there to think about? If he agreed, it would be over. If he didn't agree, would he be a fool?

With Xu Bai around, he could rest assured.

"Brother Xu, there's absolutely no problem. We've already decided on this matter." Yun Zihai quickly agreed.

Xu Bai was speechless.

Why did he feel like he was losing out?

Was it really a loss?

Something was wrong.

Xu Bai fell into deep thought.

He felt that when he said it just now, he should have added some additional conditions, such as getting some benefits. Unfortunately, it was too late to change his mind now.

Qing Xue's expression was complicated. Her gaze stopped on Xu Bai, thinking about many things.

She understood why Xu Bai wanted her to stay here and why he wanted her to hear their conversation.

He was telling her the truth in front of everyone. What he had said before was not perfunctory, but the truth.

Xu Bai had said before that he would not help the Ninth Princess.

Now, he was using Qing Xue's eyes to tell the Ninth Princess that he was not lying. He really did not want to go.

I'd rather go to the Yin Posthouse than go to the capital.

I don't want to get involved in the fight between you two.

This was Xu Bai's answer.

This man was very thin. At the same time, it made Qingxue feel that the other side of this man was so unfathomable.

What Xu Bai had done just now was equivalent to giving the ninth princess a way out..

Chapter 180: Xu Bai Pointing at Fuyin Posthouse (2)

Not only would he not offend anyone, but he would also make the Ninth Princess feel good about him.

Sometimes, one really had to pay attention to one's emotional intelligence when doing things.

If you give others face, others will give you face. If you don't care about face, others will definitely give you face.

Of course, if he met someone who gave him enough face but didn't give him face, he could just go up and slap him.

"I'm leaving today, Xu Bai. The trip to the county has given me too much excitement, but I still have to thank you for saving me twice."Qing Xue bowed slightly to Xu Bai.

Right was right, wrong was wrong. If others were kind, they would definitely thank them.

"Give me a farewell hug." Xu Bai opened his hand and teased.

He thought that it was just a joke, but he did not expect a warm body to fall into his arms. He was gently hugged by Qing Xue.

"I'll tell the Ninth Princess that you're a person who stands aloof from worldly affairs." Qing Xue let go of her hand and said."

Xu Bai smiled." This hug actually gave me a surprise. I didn't expect that Miss Qingxue, who looked ordinary at first, had a hidden agenda.'"

Qing Xue looked straight into Xu Bai's eyes. Other than the calmness in Xu Bai's eyes, she did not see any ripples."Beauty won't be able to move you, so I can go back with peace of mind. At least you won't stand opposite us because of beauty."

Since they could become the Ninth Princess's personal maids, they were naturally a hundred times better at observing people's expressions. From the hug to the departure, the expression in Xu Bai's eyes did not change.

"Is that so? If it's Miss Qingxue, I can consider it."Xu Bai said those words, but his eyes were calm.

Qing Xue didn't say anything. She knew that Xu Bai was just teasing her.

After that, Yun Zihai and Qing Xue did not stay any longer. After discussing what to do next, the two of them left.

Qingxue set off for the capital.

Yun Zihai returned to the county office. At least before he left, he had to arrange the rest of his things so that the new county magistrate could take over smoothly.

After the two of them left, Xu Bai stretched and opened the window of the room. He looked at the sun hanging high in the sky and the white clouds in the blue sky.

"Continue, liver."

Zhou Qing took out the Nameless Saber Scripture. Looking at the progress bar on it, Xu Bai sat at the seat closest to the window and focused.

Time would not treat everyone differently. It was fair to everyone and would not stop because of someone.

During this period of time, the major events of upgrading the county happened one after another. The moment King Sheng You walked out of the tomb, major events happened everywhere.

The old antiques who had lived since the very beginning all looked at the sky above their heads in deep thought.

A unique killing intent appeared between heaven and earth. Although it was very faint, it fused with heaven and earth again.

His Majesty's thoughts are indeed something we couldn't guess."

This was what the old antiques thought in unison. After they had this thought, they all fell silent.

Back then, the ill-tempered King Sheng You was different from the emperor. He would charge straight at the emperor if there was a disagreement.

This also caused many people in the martial world to remember what King Sheng You had done. Now, they still felt a little embarrassed when they thought about it.

They restricted their disciples to be careful with their words and actions and not to offend this prince.

In the Imperial Palace.

In a spacious and magnificent hall, the door was tightly shut. At the door stood two eunuchs in eunuch uniforms.

"Hahahaha!"

A hearty laughter suddenly sounded from inside the room. Even the entire palace could hear it clearly.

“My little brother is alive. Hahaha, someone, pass on the order to the Ninth Princess. The Imperial Palace is holding a grand ceremony, regardless of expenses.”

“Yes, sir!”

The two eunuchs at the door bowed in agreement. When one of them raised his head, he had already disappeared from where he was. No one could see how he had disappeared.

There were experts everywhere in the Imperial Palace. Even a gatekeeping eunuch could not be underestimated.

Titanium Temple.

Inside the Scripture Depository.

No Flower sat cross-legged in a corner of the Sutra Depository. In front of him, there were already three layers of Buddhist scriptures piled up. There were so many that it made one’s scalp go numb.

From time to time, monks would walk in and out of the Sutra Depository. When they saw No Flower in the corner, they shook their heads in unison.

Ever since she came back last time, she had been staying in the Sutra Depository. She did not read any books related to her own strength. She just stared at the Buddhist scriptures, reading them word by word.

His Senior Brothers and Sisters didn’t understand, but they didn’t disturb him and went about their own business.

But today, No Flower seemed to be different.

In the corner of the Sutra Depository, No Flower was still sitting cross-legged. His eyes were no longer dull, but tightly shut.

After an unknown period of time, this state gradually disappeared, and his tightly shut eyes slowly opened.

“Hu...” No Flower let out a long breath. The confusion and confusion he had previously had been completely resolved.

He stood up from the ground and did not continue to sit cross-legged. Instead, he sorted out the Buddhist scriptures in front of him one by one before walking out of the Sutra Library and coming to his master’s room.

“Duo duo duo...” No Flower knocked on the door, then put down his hand and kept his palms together.

“Enter.”

His master Kong Chan’s voice rang out in the room.

No Flower pushed the door open and walked inside..
