Chapter 1771: Wu Jizi, Master Of Destiny, Destiny's Authority

"I understand. There's no rush in completing the Life Contracts. How many more are there that destiny favors?"

"There are six hundred and sixty-six more Life Cards from the Divine Temple that are yet to be retrieved."

A Life Card was a token distributed by the Divine Temple, and the card holders were those that destiny favored.

When the card holders felt extreme dissatisfaction about their destiny, they could activate the Life Card to come here.

However, since the Divine Destiny Temple had been without a lord for a long time, all the Life Cards had remained inactive. Now, Chu Kuangren was here.

"Master, there is a card holder who is dissatisfied with his destiny now. Do you want to transport him to the Divine Destiny Temple?"

"Sure. Let him come." Chu Kuangren nodded.

"Yes..."

On an ancient planet in a certain universe, a white-robed elderly stared at the chaotic lightning tribulation overflowing with heaven's might. His expression spelled dissatisfaction and grievance.

"I failed. I have prepared a lot for this ascension, and I even have three clones of the same realm. Why did I fail? Is achieving Primordial Realm that difficult? I refuse to accept it!" the elderly man shouted angrily at the sky.

However, the chaotic lightning tribulation in the sky continued to rumble, and its terrifying aura made the elderly shudder.

Kakroom!

A bolt of lightning that could shatter the heavens struck down from the sky.

The power of that bolt of lightning destroyed the planet the elderly was on.

"It's over..." the elderly man said with his eyes closed.

He had accepted his cruel destiny, but then, a golden token at his waist shone brightly.

"What?"

The elderly man was surprised.

He acquired the golden tablet during his early days. It was covered with complicated patterns, and even he had no idea what the tablet could do. He found it interesting, so he carried it with him ever since.

Why would it shine at that peculiar timing?

Then, the blinding light from the token enveloped him whole.

The scenery before his eyes changed, and he found himself before a golden temple.

"W-Where am I?"

The elderly man looked around the new environment and was confused about why he was teleported there.

Everything before his eyes was astonishing.

The runes that were carved on the pillars were so profound that even he could not understand them.

On top of that, the wall has a peculiarly lit candle, and it gave him the creeps.

It felt like the ember on the candle could burn him to cinders.

Was the Divine Flame the light source of the temple?

Who would the Temple Lord be?

The elderly man gulped and looked ahead. At the highest point of the temple, a figure shrouded in mist was sitting on a golden throne.

Although he could not get a clear look at the figure's face, the figure emanated an unusual energy presence.

It gave the elderly man the urge to kneel even though he was an Embodier trying to break through to become a Primordial.

The figure must be someone who had transcended beyond the Universal Dao! He must be someone of the Heaven level!

It must be the figure who summoned him into the temple, but why?

The elderly man was intrigued.

The man on the throne was Chu Kuangren.

As he looked at the elderly man, related information appeared in his mind.

The elderly man's name was Wu Jizi, who was trying to ascend to Primordial Realm, but due to the lack of power, he failed the ascension and was on the verge of dying. Then, he was transported here.

"You who destiny favors, welcome to the Divine Destiny Temple," Chu Kuangren said.

His voice sounded powerful, and it carried a strong sense of superiority and power.

With the temple's buff, it was as if he had become the supreme ruler above all the heavens.

"Greetings, senior."

Wu Jizi had no idea what the Divine Destiny Temple was, but he dared not be disrespectful. He quickly bowed and greeted Chu Kuangren.

"You can call me the Master of Destiny."

Master of Destiny!

The name echoed in Wu Jizi's mind and was branded into the deepest part of his soul. He shuddered when he heard the name.

The senior called himself the Master of Destiny!

If he had the confidence to call himself master of something, he must be someone among the level of the Heaven.

"I'm Wu Jizi. Greetings, Master of Destiny. I would like to know why I'm here."

"You possess the Life Card that destiny distributes, meaning you're the one who destiny favors. Therefore, you have one chance to perform a trade with destiny. Tell me what you wish for," Chu Kuangren said.

"Life Card..." Wu Jizi knew he was referring to the golden tablet that he coincidentally acquired during his early days. He did not expect the golden tablet to be something of importance.

A trade with destiny?

Wu Jizi had a feeling that it might be a great opportunity for him.

"I want to be a Transcendentalist!" he said.

Everyone within the Universal Dao's cage ultimately wished to transcend beyond the Universal Dao.

Only by surpassing the Universal Dao, one could escape from its restrictions and become truly free.

"Destiny is fair. If you want to acquire something from destiny, please make an equivalent offer."

"Becoming a Transcendentalist is a good wish, but unfortunately, I cannot see any equivalent value in you that is worthy to be traded for this wish," Chu Kuangren said.

"I..." Wu Jizi was embarrassed as he realized he was over-demanding.

Fortunately, the Master of Destiny was not mad about it.

"Then, I would like to breakthrough to the Primordial Realm," Wu Jizi said after some consideration.

"What do you offer in return?"

A quick thought later, Wu Jizi offered a scripture. "This is the technique to refine the External Body Manifestation, and it's my life's work. Please take it, Master of Destiny."

Chu Kuangren lifted his hand, and the scripture flew into his hand.

It was indeed a great offer. He was in need of a clone, and the scripture would be the perfect solution to his needs.

"This offer isn't enough to support your wish."

"I..." Wu Jizi looked embarrassed. "The Immortal Weapons that I have gathered were all destroyed during my ascension, and this scripture is all I have left."

"Be my slave for ten eras," Chu Kuangren said.

The offer shifted Wu Jizi's expression.

He was an Embodier who trumped most of the cultivators. Why would he become someone's slave?

However, should he reject the offer, he would have to face the lightning tribulation and would eventually die.

One option was that he would be enslaved for ten eras, but he would ascend to Primordial.

The other was that he would be killed by the lightning tribulation.

It was obvious what he would choose.

"Wu Jizi will be at your command from now on, Master of Destiny."

"Very well," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

As he lifted his hand, golden light swirled around the temple and formed a leather scroll.

It was a Life Contract!

"In that case, sign a contract with destiny."

Wu Jizi took a glance at the content before he signed it.

Then, the scroll disappeared.

The golden light that contained unbelievable power continued to swirl and envelope Wu Jizi whole.

In just a moment, the heavily injured body due to the lightning tribulation recovered to its prime, and his energy was boosted to a terrifying level.

"So this is the authority of the Master of Destiny?" Chu Kuangren was impressed by what he could do.

The Destiny's Authority was an ability that the Divine Destiny Temple Lord possessed, and it could only be used within the temple.

The power could change one's life span and destiny.

Chapter 1772: Wu Jizi Achieved Primordial Realm, Refining External Body Manifestation

"Amazing!"

Feeling the rapid recovery of his body, Wu Jizi looked at Chu Kuangren in astonishment.

He had gone through the lightning tribulation, and even if it did not kill him, his life would be hanging on a thread.

However, the temple healed him to his prime in just a moment, and he became a lot stronger than before.

"But although the power is strong, it's not at Primordial Realm yet," Wu Jizi said as he looked at Chu Kuangren with a baffled look.

Could the mysterious Master of Destiny not directly break him through to the Primordial Realm?

"If you want to ascend to Primordial Realm, you would have to go back to your universe and experience the ascension again. Don't worry. Destiny has everything sorted out," Chu Kuangren said.

After he said that, Wu Jizi disappeared from the temple.

Back in Wu Jizi's universe, he appeared on an ancient planet.

The Universal Dao also sensed his appearance, and the lightning tribulation formed above him, targeting him.

Wu Jizi gulped as the lightning tribulation locked onto him. "Bless me, Master of Destiny."

Kaboom!

The bolt of lightning struck down.

The powerful energy destroyed the planet.

Wu Jizi released a powerful shout and channeled his energy to the limit. As his palms moved, his Immortal's Core energy circulated and was blasted at the lightning tribulation.

The two energies clashed, and the blast sent Wu Jizi sliding away.

The chaotic lightning tribulation continued relentlessly, blasting bolts of lightning at him.

Soon, more than half the lightning bolts had faded.

Wu Jizi was charred by the relentless lightning strikes, and he had consumed more than half of his energy.

"Did the Master of Destiny lie to me?"

Wu Jizi could not help but suspect the promise because the lightning tribulation was still so powerful. A feeling of despair slowly overtook him.

However, at the next moment, the terrifying lightning bolts paused for some reason, and the power of the bolts was halved.

The Universal Dao's energy was disrupted.

The scene surprised Wu Jizi.

Soon, he made it through the remaining lightning tribulation, and his Immortal's Core energy increased with a terrifying speed. In the end, he finally broke through the threshold and mastered the power of the Primordial Realm.

"I did it! My ascension is completed!"

For countless years he had worked on his goal, and he finally achieved it on that particular day. Wu Jizi was thrilled, to say the least.

As he ascended to the Primordial Realm, the Universal Dao trembled.

All the Embodiers and Primordials of the universe sensed his ascension.

"Wu Jizi has succeeded in ascending into the Primordial Realm!"

"How lucky. I thought he would fail, but the Universal Dao was disrupted at the very last moment, causing its power to weaken rapidly."

"What happened? How could the Universal Dao be disrupted?"

"I don't know. Maybe someone helped him."

"Impossible. Not even a Primordial could interfere with the ascension. Could it be... someone who transcended beyond the Universal Dao's laws?"

"It's possible."

"Why would someone like that assist Wu Jizi in becoming a Primordial?"

Many of the cultivators were baffled by the successful ascension.

Wu Jizi, on the other hand, was carried away by his joy. Then, he recalled what Chu Kuangren said to him earlier.

Destiny had everything sorted out for him.

He knew the Master of Destiny helped him.

However, he did not expect the Master of Destiny to be powerful enough to interfere with the Universal Dao's operation and allowed him to ascend smoothly.

Such power was astonishing.

"Maybe working under his command isn't a bad thing after all. It might be an Opportunity of Fortune for me." Wu Jizi somehow started to accept the fact that he had to be a slave to the Master of Destiny.

Back at the Divine Destiny Temple, Chu Kuangren looked at the stack of life contracts in his hand with a profound grin.

"The Primordial great one of Wind King Universe, Master Daoist Lightning borrowed ten eras of lifespan from the Divine Destiny Temple to break through the Primordial Realm and promised to repay the temple with a Primordial Supreme Treasure.

"Yun Yue, an Embodier of the Heavenly Heart Universe, offered his soul to save her love one."

"The Grand Dao Daoist of Sky Emperor Universe promised to offer his entire universe in order to be free from the Great Dao's restriction."

"Tsk. All of them have yet to meet their contract requirements. The gifts from destiny aren't something they can take for granted," Chu Kuangren said with a grin.

However, they were all scattered across different universes and possessed unimaginable power. He was not in a hurry to find them and retrieve what they owed the temple. He had the time to play with them in the future.

"Hmm? This contract is a little interesting."

A contract caught Chu Kuangren's eye.

"Di Feitian, a great one of the Emperor Tribe in the Central Heaven Universe borrowed a Boundary Primordial Supreme Treasure from the temple to win over the God King of the Overlord Tribe and promised to offer his soul and serve the Master of Destiny after he succeeds."

He looked at the contract with an intriguing grin.

Someone from the Central Heaven Universe had made a deal with the Divine Destiny Temple.

He could maybe use that particular contract to his advantage.

Chu Kuangren kept the contract away.

At the next moment, he disappeared from the throne with a single thought.

When he reappeared, he was in the Spiritual Sword Tribe in the Central Heaven Universe.

The Divine Destiny Temple traversed across different universes and worlds, and it was impossible for him to bring it along with him. However, he could go there whenever he wanted, and the Temple's Spirit would inform him if anything happened.

"Now, let's have a look at this scripture."

Chu Kuangren took the scripture he got from Wu Jizi. It was a cultivation technique named the External Body Manifestation.

The cultivation technique was mystical and much more astounding than the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique.

With his outstanding cognizance, he soon comprehended the entire scripture.

"Refine a Supreme Treasure into my External Body Manifestation?" Chu Kuangren muttered.

He decided to name it the Treasure Refining Technique.

He could refine some of the Innate Supreme Treasure into his clone. The higher the grade of the treasure, the stronger the clone would be, and it would have more potential to grow stronger.

He had many treasures that he could refine, but which should he refine?

Actually, he had an abundance of Supreme Treasures.

For example, he had the Fuxi's Guqin, Blooded Crimson Sword and Armor, Life-Death Note, the Void Sword, Chaos Green Lotus, Timespace Treasure, and more.

He could barely remember them all.

"The clone has to be as strong as possible since he has to traverse between the walls of two universes. If he makes it back to Pan Gu Universe, he would also need a certain level of strength to handle problems. With that, there's only one candidate..."

Without pondering for too long, Chu Kuangren had decided which treasure to refine into his clone — the Chaos Green Lotus!

He wanted to refine a Chaos Supreme Treasure into his clone!

First of all, he could not reveal the Chaos Green Lotus in Central Heaven Universe; secondly, the Chaos Green Lotus was powerful enough.

"Hmph. Refining a Chaos Supreme Treasure into one's clone? I bet not even Wu Jizi has done it or thought of it before." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

A Chaos Supreme Treasure was extremely rare in whichever universe, and some did not even have it.

With that, he converted his thoughts into action.

He was in no rush to return to the Central Heaven Temple, so he stayed in the Spiritual Sword Tribe to refine the Chaos Green Lotus into his clone.

The process took him two years.

On the other hand, the situation at Central Heaven Temple had changed.

Chapter 1773: Divine Temple Sequence, Chi Longying Challenges Long Shuijing

It had been two years since Chu Kuangren left Central Heaven Temple.

In the past two years, the Central Heaven Temple had produced many resources for the sky-prides and Prodigies who cultivated under their roof, and they were all raised beautifully.

In just two short years, a couple of Prodigies managed to break through to the Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm.

On top of that, the Central Heaven Temple came up with a Temple Sequence, made up of a total of ten Prodigies selected as the Outliers whose strengths were immeasurable.

Di Qianqiu was one of them. He was ranked the eighth Outlier in the Temple Sequence.

Inside the golden mountain peak, Di Qianqiu was cultivating when he, too, broke through to the Great Perfected realm.

"Eighth on the sequence..." Di Qianqiu toyed with the token in his hand with a strange expression on his face.

With his Fully Realized Emperor Physique and the Supreme God King's previous life's cultivation experience, he was only ranked eighth. It was unimaginable how powerful the other Outliers who ranked higher than him were.

"This era is much more dramatic than I thought," Di Qianqiu muttered.

He put the sequence token away. "I wonder how many of the Nine Kings the temple has found. Where has the Heavenly Sword been in the past few years?"

He was concerned about Chu Kuangren's whereabouts as well.

He viewed the Heavenly Sword as his arch nemesis, considering he had lost multiple times to him.

Now, he had finally reached the Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm and might have a chance to take revenge on the Heavenly Sword, yet the Heavenly Sword had been missing for years. It irritated him.

"Heavenly Sword, when are you coming back?"

Other than him, several more Prodigies also wished to see Chu Kuangren again.

Luo Xue, Long Shuijing, Ling Fei, and the others closer to him were all missing him.

Wu Tianming, Chi Longyin, and some of his enemies also missed him.

On top of a mountain peak, Wu Tianming was cultivating with strange and ominous runes surrounding him. Each rune represented the unique curse technique of the Nether King Tribe.

"Cursed Venom, Cursed Slaughter, Cursed Spirit, Cursed Grudge, Cursed Life, Cursed Heaven... I have completed the cultivation of the Nether King Tribe's Six Cursed Seals. With it, I can even kill the Outliers on the Temple Sequence.

"Heavenly Sword, I will soon take my revenge and regain everything you took from me!" Wu Tianming said coldly.

The ominous runes around his body were absorbed into his body.

Kakroom!

Somewhere in the temple, a battle broke out.

Two figures were fighting fiercely under the Daoist law's starry sky.

Powerful dragon qi clashed and unleashed terrifyingly blazing light into the sky.

"It's the tenth of the Temple Sequence, Chi Longying, and Long Shuijing! They're fighting again..."

Wu Tianming simply glanced at them and was not overly bothered.

Chi Longying had improved magnificently in the past two years. He was not on the Heavenly God Ranking, but now, he was ranked tenth on the Temple Sequence.

No one knew what kind of Opportunities of Fortune he had acquired.

Other than Chi Longying, Long Shuijing had improved a lot as well. With her Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline, she even held more potential for growth than Chi Longying.

However, for some reason, the tenth place was given to Chi Longying and not Long Shuijing.

The two of them were in a fierce and terrifying fight.

The whole Daoist law's starry sky was shaking.

"Dragon King Claw!"

"Dragon King Claw!"

The two Prodigies used the same divine ability.

Two massive dragon claws burst out from the void and attempted to tear each other into shreds.

One of the dragon claws was covered in ominous-looking blood, while the other dragon claw was bathed in colorful lights.

Bang!

The clash between the two dragon claws released a terrifying energy blast in the sky, forcing Long Shuijing backward.

She looked at Chi Longying with a frown.

"It seems like you've absorbed many of our kind's blood again," Long Shuijing said.

Others might not know, but she did.

Chi Longying possessed the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon Art, and the cultivation technique allowed him to absorb other dragons' bloodlines to enhance his own strength.

It was indeed a wicked technique.

She fell for it once and lost her Crystal Dragon bloodline to him.

His rapid improvement must be related to the strange cultivation technique.

"This has nothing to do with you, traitor!" Chi Longying scoffed.

He looked at Long Shuijing coldly and greedily.

She used to be the Dragon Maiden of the tribe and held an extremely high status among her peers. Now, with the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline, once she made it back to the Dragon Tribe, it would only impact his status and influence.

That was why he was determined to get the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline.

"Long Shuijing, you have no idea how much the Crystal Dragon misses you lately." Chi Longying laughed.

Long Shuijing's expression changed. "Chi Longying, what does that mean?"

Chi Longying licked his lips and said, "The blood of the Crystal Dragon is quite fine."

"Chi Longying, you b*stard! She's your sister!"

Long Shuijing's expression turned grim. Infuriated by what she heard, her beautiful eyes were filled with rage that was like an erupting volcano in her.

The Crystal Dragon was Long Shuijing and Chi Longying's sister.

She was not even eight hundred years old, which was equivalent to a child in mortal age.

"You're also my sister." Chi Longying chuckled before he added, "Don't worry. I didn't drain her dry. I just refined a part of her bloodline."

Long Shuijing's expression remained grim.

She had lost every hope for the bastard.

In order to achieve his goal, he could hurt his dearest kin, a child who could barely defend herself.

"Chi Longying, if you dare to lay a finger on Crystal Dragon again, I will make you suffer! Then, you will wish you were dead!" Long Shuijing bellowed.

"Hmph! I can give you a chance to end it all. Three months later, fight me to death. If you win, you can kill me, and the Crystal Dragon will be safe. If you lose, not only will you lose your Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline, but the Crystal Dragon will also die," Chi Longying said.

Long Shuijing's eyes glinted.

She had been fighting Chi Longying recently, but they were all squabbles. Not a single battle they exchanged was life-threatening.

However, now seemed to be the time to put an end to his atrocities.

If Chi Longying was bold enough to challenge her to a death match, she knew he would have something powerful under his sleeve.

However, Crystal Dragon's life was involved, and it was difficult for her to just walk away.

It seemed like Chi Longying challenged her because he knew she would save Crystal Dragon.

What a b*stard!

"I accept your challenge," Long Shuijing said.

Chi Longying was not the only one with a trump card. She, too, has a trump card of her own.

"Very well. Three months later, I'll see you at Heavenly War Peak."

After that, Chi Longying flew away.

News about the death match between the two dragons spread rapidly across the Central Heaven Temple.

Many of the cultivators looked forward to it.

"The tenth place on the Temple Sequence is going to fight Long Shuijing! It'll be a battle of two dragons! It's going to be a great battle after the brother turns on the sister!"

"Interesting."

"Long Shuijing is qualified to be ranked top ten on the Temple Sequence, but it's maybe because she serves Chu Kuangren that she's not ranked in the top ten. However, her strength is something to be reckoned with, and this battle is going to be interesting."

Chapter 1774: Almost Succeeded, Heavenly War Peak, Double Dragon Battle

Back at the Spiritual Sword Tribe, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes.

He had been cultivating for two years, and now, a green light slowly flowed out of his body.

The light formed a lotus bud, which was surrounded by countless mystical runes, and strong Chaos energy was also emanating from it.

One could spot a figure standing inside the lotus bud.

"I'm almost done," Chu Kuangren muttered as he stared at the lotus bud.

He had been refining the Chaos Green Lotus for the past two years and trying to make it into his clone. He was only a few steps shy from success.

All he had to do next was wait for the Chaos Green Lotus to absorb enough Immortal's Core energy and the process would be complete.

"This clone is based on the Chaos Green Lotus. As it has also fused with my bone, my blood, and one of my souls, it's not exaggerating to say it's another me. He would be the best candidate to venture into the passage between the two universes."

Chu Kuangren had invested a lot of effort into that clone.

Other than the Chaos Green Lotus, he also fused the Wooden Puppet Refining Technique in the process and used his blood as a resource. As such, it was also fused with a part of his power.

He smiled in satisfaction as he looked at the Chaos Green Lotus before he kept it back into his body.

Then, he left the Spiritual Sword Tribe.

"It has been years. I wonder if the folks at the Central Heaven Temple have missed me," Chu Kuangren muttered as he rubbed his chin.

...

Meanwhile, on Heavenly War Peak of the Central Heaven Temple, a lot of Prodigies gathered and were looking forward to the upcoming battle.

The mountain peak was a battleground provided for the sky-prides and Prodigies to test their strength.

Today would be the day Chi Longying fought Long Shuijing, and almost all the Prodigies in the Central Heaven Temple had come to watch.

In fact, not only them but some of the God Kings also paid extra attention to the battle.

Suddenly, it started snowing heavily, and a lady in white matched with an ancient sword at her waist arrived.

She looked beautiful even with her frosty temperament.

She bore a sense of frostiness that would distance everyone from herself as if she was a snow deity.

"It's Luo Xue."

"She's here to watch the battle as well."

Many of the Prodigies showed their admiration for Luo Xue.

Luo Xue remained a popular figure within the Central Heaven Temple. Other than her looks and temperament, she was also a powerful one.

Although she was not listed on the Temple Sequence, she was one of the strongest other than the top ten. Almost none of her peers could beat her in terms of Sword Dao.

Suddenly, a strong wind blew.

A woman in a beautiful dress emerged from the wind and arrived at the mountain peak. She was surrounded by Immortal Sparks and emanated an energy presence that rivaled Luo Xue.

"It's the Storm Queen, Feng Qiyu!"

"Damn! Another Outlier! I think she's even stronger than Luo Xue."

Other than Luo Xue and Feng Qiyu, other Peerless Prodigies and Outliers arrived one after another, such as Wu Tianming, Xiang Tianchuang, and others.

Kakroom!

The sky was suddenly painted gold by a burst of energy coming from further away.

Some of the Prodigies who had yet to reach Arch Gilded Immortal Realm felt pressured, and their legs turned weak. They almost fell to their knees as they looked at the horizon in fear.

"This aura... He's here!"

"Other than him, no one else in the Central Heaven Temple could release such a powerful aura as if an emperor was descending."

As the golden clouds descended, a handsome young man in golden robes emerged.

He was surrounded by Emperor qi and Immortal Sparks.

His sharp eyes looked down at everyone with a condescending gaze, as if he was the superior emperor.

It was Di Qianqiu.

"The battle between the dragons would be interesting," Di Qianqiu said as he glanced at Heavenly War Peak.

A while later, another terrifying rage qi spread across the mountain peak and formed boundless blood clouds in the sky.

A red dragon emerged from the blood clouds.

It was Chi Longying.

"Roar!"

His dragon roar echoed across the realm.

Upon landing, Chi Longying's massive body started shrinking down to human size, and a terrifying aura burst out.

Everyone saw the blood dragon shadows surrounding him that released mournful growls. They were the rage qi of the dragons.

"What a powerful energy presence. Who would have thought Chi Longying would improve so fast in just a few years."

"Yeah. He wasn't even on the top ten of the Heavenly God Leaderboard, but he's now on the Temple Sequence."

"How surprising."

Chatters sparked among the crowd.

Chi Longying stood on the mountain peak as he glanced at the crowd.

When he and Wu Tianming locked eyes, both of them showed a rather unusual expression as they nodded at each other. It was like they were greeting each other.

Some of them captured the little interaction between the two.

"Oh? Is Chi Longying close to Wu Tianming?"

"They barely talk to each other in public, but I guess they know each other well privately."

Roar!

Another domineering dragon's roar echoed in the sky.

Rainbow-colored light swirled in the sky as a dragon in seven colors approached from the horizon. Its wings flapped and stirred up tornadoes in its wake.

As the light faded, the massive dragon shrunk into an elegant figure and descended from the sky.

A dragon aura, which vastly differed from Chi Longying's aura, spread as she landed.

Long Shuijing had arrived.

Following her arrival, the key characters of the battle of the dragons were present.

Everyone looked forward to the battle.

"You're finally here," Chi Longying said as he looked at Long Shuijing. A blood dagger appeared in his hand and released a strange Daoist Rhyme.

It was the Evil Dragon Dagger!

Its appearance caused Long Shuijing's eyes to widen in fear.

Chi Longying once used the dagger to hurt her and snatch her Crystal Dragon bloodline.

"We shall end this once and for all," Long Shuijing said.

Then, colorful dragon scales appeared on her body and protected her like a suit of armor.

"Let's fight!"

Chi Longying cackled. He wielded the Evil Dragon Dagger and lunged toward Long Shuijing.

He swung the dagger forward and released a surge of blood-red dragon qi at her.

Long Shuijing faced the attack boldly. She clenched her fist and threw a punch at the incoming dagger strike, countering it with her even more domineering Rainbow Dragon qi.

Bam!

The two different dragon qis clashed and caused the space around them to explode.

Both of them were pushed backward, but that was not the end.

Chi Longying opened his mouth and unleashed a crimson dragon breath at her.

"Hmph! You're no match for the Ancestor of Dragons' dragon breath!"

Long Shuijing grunted and released her own dragon breath.

This time, the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's dragon breath overpowered Chi Longying and sent him flying away.

"The Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's power is indeed powerful. If I can fuse it with my Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon Art, I will be able to bring out its full potential. It's a waste on you." Chi Longying cackled and threw himself at Long Shuijing again.

Scorching dragon breath, sharp and ominous Evil Dragon Dagger, and all kinds of Dragon Tribe techniques were used non-stop.

However, Long Shuijing refused to back down. "You're not worthy of this power. Dragon King Claw!"

Bang!

The dragon claw dashed forward to face the incoming attacks.

The battle of dragons was fierce, and the rare battle captivated everyone's attention.

No one dared to even blink as they were afraid they would miss the slightest detail.

Wu Tianming was one of the viewers, and he rubbed his chin as his lips curled into a wicked smile.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1775: The Heavens' Return, Are You Brave Enough To Take One Slash From the Heavens?

The battle of two dragons was going on fiercely at Heavenly War Peak.

Dragon breath collided with dragon breath, and dragon claw clashed with dragon claw.

The clash of the dragon scales caused a fiery spark in the air and clunks that echoed across the sky.

"Rainbow Dragon Art, Heavenly Dragon Spear!"

Long Shuijing jumped into the sky.

Immortal Sparks shone around her, and the power of the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon gathered to form a colorful dragon spear engraved with countless runes.

A destructive aura spread from the tip of the spear as it was hurled forward.

Swoosh!

The dragon spear tore through the sky, and its power was locked onto Chi Longying.

Chi Longying decided to face it head-on. He released a roar, and a massive amount of Blood Dragon qi surged into the sky to form a massive blood dragon shadow.

The dragon spear clashed with the dragon shadow, causing the entire Heavenly War Peak to tremble.

"Rainbow Dragon Art, Golden Heavenly Dragon God Slash!"

Long Shuijing used the ultimate technique of the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon again.

She pointed her sword hand sign forward and drew an arch in the air, prompting a golden sword shadow surrounded by a massive golden dragon to slash forward.

Although she was not a sword cultivator, almost no swordsmen in the younger generation could take that particular slash.

"Haha! Long Shuijing, the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline on you is really powerful!"

Chi Longying cackled. Then, he swung the Evil Dragon Dagger forward to break the sword shadow, and his eyes were filled with eagerness.

To him, the stronger Long Shuijing the better because it represented the power of the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline as well.

"Rainbow Dragon Art, Fiery Ocean Rising Dragon!"

Crimson fire burst out and a vicious fire dragon carrying endless flame that could burn everything to the ground was fired at Chi Longying.

"Blood Dragon Art, Crossing Slash!"

Chi Longying swung the Evil Dragon Dagger in a cross, and its blade ray shot forward.

Another clash between two powerful attacks happened.

The weaker cultivators in the audience could not get too close, and as the battle continued, they were forced to retreat further away.

The battle of dragons soon entered its climax.

"Chi Longying, this is my strongest attack. I will use this to punish you for what you have done in the past!" Long Shuijing shouted and the rainbow-colored light around her swirled.

Metal, Wood, Water, Fire, Earth, Yin, and Yang — seven forces of nature swirled around her and formed a supreme power that could shake the heavens.

From the void, a clear dragon roar sounded.

A dragon in rainbow colors emerged from the void, bathed in unlimited divine light. Each scale on its body contained a Daoist Rhyme.

"Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, Heaven Destruction Blast!"

Long Shuijing channeled the Heavenly Rainbow energy in her to the limit. Her dragon blood boiled, and her dragon qi swirled out like a tornado.

Animals within tens of thousands of kilometers that sensed the pressure of the dragon aura were forced to their knees, trembling in fear.

However, Chi Longying refused to back down as well.

"I will show you the strongest attack of the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon Art."

"Demonic Dragon, All Blood Slaughter!"

Chi Longying shouted as his Blood Dragon qi surged. His dragon roar reverberated through the universe.

Then, a vicious blood demon dragon appeared.

Its ferocious and bloody eyes felt like they contained a sea of blood inside, and those who laid eyes on it would shudder uncontrollably.

No one would argue about it being a ferocious beast that brought calamity and disaster to the world.

It was the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon versus the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon!

One was the Ancestor of Dragons while the other was the Demon of All Dragons.

As the terrifying energy collided, the dragon aura alone was enough to strike fear into some Arch Gilded Immortals.

However, before the two extremely powerful attacks clashed, Wu Tianming from the audience seat made his move.

He performed a series of strange hand seals, and an invisible energy wave scattered. Suddenly, strange and ominous runes appeared around Long Shuijing.

"Spit!"

Long Shuijing suddenly spat a mouthful of blood, and her energy presence weakened drastically, causing her final attack to weaken as well.

"This is... the Nether King Tribe?!"

Long Shuijing's eyes widened in realization as she turned to Wu Tianming further away. She gritted her teeth furiously.

Wu Tianming, however, remained frivolous and nonchalant with his hands behind his back. He ignored Long Shuijing's glare as if he had done nothing.

"Despicable!" Xiang Tianchang said in disdain as he watched from further away.

The others were surprised as well.

"Why did Wu Tianming interfere with the battle?"

"It seems like he has a deal with Chi Longying."

Chatters sounded among the audience.

"Hahaha, Long Shuijing! Today will be the day you die!"

Chi Longying cackled loudly when he saw Long Shuijing's energy rapidly weakening.

He knew Wu Tianming would do something because he had made a deal with him.

A while back, he went to Wu Tianming and promised to give away his placement on the Temple Sequence if the latter helped to interfere with the battle.

Compared to the Temple Sequence, the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline was more attractive to Chi Longying.

"Long Shuijing, you're really strong for not dying immediately from Wu Tianming's curse. I might not be able to kill you alone, but now, you're doomed!"

Then, the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon behind Chi Longying roared at Long Shuijing.

Long Shuijing clenched her teeth and bit the bullet. She managed to unleash the ultimate attack that she prepared.

The two dragons clashed, but with Long Shuijing cursed, the attack was not strong enough to beat the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon.

Bam!

A deafening explosion later, the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon shattered into pieces, but the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon continued forward with indomitable force.

At the critical moment, clouds rumbled at the horizon.

A black sword carrying a boundless and terrifying sword qi descended from the sky.

The black sword perforated the Bloodthirsty Demonic Dragon's head and destroyed it before it plunged into the Heavenly War Peak, releasing a rampant sword qi in the area.

The entire Heavenly War Peak trembled.

The runes carved on the mountain peak were also shaking. They did not even react when Long Shuijing fought Chi Longying.

Now, a single sword had caused the entire mountain peak to tremble to the point of explosion.

"This sword..." Chi Longying's pupils shrank.

The pitch-black blade seemed plain and dull, but everyone in Central Heaven Temple recognized the sword.

"The Void Sword!"

"It's the Heavenly Sword!"

"Damn! It's him! He's back!"

All the sky-prides and Prodigies who saw the sword gasped in fear, and the terrifying scene from two years ago started to appear in their minds.

"Without the Heavens' permission, who allowed you to kill the Heavens' follower?" An indifferent voice echoed across the universe.

As the clouds rumbled, a figure in white coupled with endless Immortal Sparks slowly descended and landed on the hilt of the Void Sword.

As he swung his sleeves back, his vast Immortal's Core energy surged out and swept across the mountain.

Chi Longying was forced backward. He was utterly terrified.

On the contrary, Luo Xue, Ling Fei, Han Xingyu, and others were delighted when they got a clear look at the person.

Di Qianqiu, Wu Tianming, and the others could not help but react bitterly to his arrival.

The other sky-prides and Prodigies were stunned by the transcendental figure, and only one thought was in their minds.

The Heavens, who overpowered everyone, had returned!

Long Shuijing looked at the figure in white and breathed a sigh of relief.

She had never felt a sense of security like that before.

Chu Kuangren stood on the Void Sword and looked at Chi Longying with a condescending gaze. "Lizard, you've got some nerves, but are you brave enough to take one slash from the Heavens?"

Chapter 1776: Sending Chi Longying Flying, The Heavens' Praise, Six Cursed Seals

The return of the Heavenly Sword shocked the entire Central Heaven Temple!

Above the Daoist law's starry sky, the corner of all God Kings' mouths twitched, and they felt a slight headache coming.

"With that brat back, the Central Heaven Temple will be in a mess again."

"Hmph. It's different now than it was a few years ago. Under our training, the strength of these Prodigies is nothing like before. He can't defeat them!"

"Indeed. Not to mention, we have a few powerful ones."

"The top ten have been selected. No matter how powerful the Heavenly Sword is, he can't be invincible like he was in the past."

All God Kings were discussing with each other.

On the Heavenly War Peak, Chu Kuangren looked at Chi Longying not far away and said, "Lil Lizard, you've got some nerves, but are you brave enough to take one slash from the Heavens?"

As usual, not only was he defiant and condescending, but he even claimed himself as the Heavens!

Everyone felt even more aggrieved after seeing the scene. It was as if they had returned to the days when Chu Kuangren used to overpower them a few years ago.

Chi Longying was the most aggrieved among all.

He took a deep breath, and scenes of Chu Kuangren defeating him surfaced in his mind. The one that he remembered the most was the scene where he fled because Chu Kuangren frightened him.

"Heavenly Sword, I won't run away again this time! I'm no longer who I used to be! Do you know how much I've gone through these past years in order to defeat you? I'm now one of the Temple Sequence!" Chi Longying said loudly as if cheering to himself, and his dragon qi was surging insanely.

Soon, countless ferocious dragon shadows appeared.

They were formed by the rage qi of the Dragon Tribe whose blood was absorbed by Chi Longying.

"Heh. Did that include killing your tribe members? If that's the case, the Heavens are indeed inferior to you." Chu Kuangren sneered.

"B*stard!"

Chi Longying became enraged from the embarrassment he was feeling.

After all, he killed his tribe members and hurt his younger sister because he wanted to take revenge against Chu Kuangren!

However, knowing that his enemy despised his behavior made his heart burn with anger, and he was so furious that his face was contorted.

"Heavenly Sword, take this!"

Chi Longying grunted, and his dragon qi soared into the skies. Two blood rays burst out and crossed each other in the air as he swung the Evil Dragon Dagger in the sky. "Blood Dragon Art, Crossing Slash!"

Chu Kuangren remained standing in his spot.

He pointed out a sword hand sign, and sword qi gushed out from his fingertips to destroy the blood rays.

"You're still weak!"

Chu Kuangren chuckled. Following that, he moved, and as he soared into the air, the Void Sword trembled and flew into his hand.

"Now, it's your turn to take the Heavens' sword!"

"Sword, Thousand Terrain!"

As he slashed the sword forward, with the power of the natural phenomenon within it, a surge of sword qi representing heaven and earth was released.

The domineering aura shook the universe and blasted the world!

Chi Longying's eyes widened as he let out a battle cry and channeled his dragon qi to its limit. "Demonic Dragon, Worldwide Blood Carnage!"

The ferocious blood-colored dragon shadows emerged once again!

Then, the anger from the dragon merged into the dragon's shadow and collided with the Thousand Terrain's sword qi.

The next moment, a figure was seen flying backward. It was Chi Longying.

By then, pieces of blood-colored dragon scales had fallen off his body, and his body was dripping with blood. A large amount of dragon blood was splattering out from all parts of his body.

He had never been so seriously injured before!

It only took one sword attack to severely injure Chi Longying who was ranked tenth on the list!

The powerful strength made everyone's eyes tremble in fear.

"He is still as powerful and as scary as ever. It's difficult to imagine how he's been cultivating."

"Over the past few years, we have undergone various pieces of training and obtained countless Opportunities of Fortune in the Central Heaven Temple, but it's still difficult to close the gap between us and him!"

"Indeed..."

Many sky-prides and Prodigies felt that Chu Kuangren's sword did not only strike Chi Longying's body, but it also struck down their desire to compete with the Heavenly Sword!

Since they could not defend just one sword attack, what did they have to compete with their opponent?

"To be able to take my sword attack, your strength has indeed grown." Chu Kuangren smiled while holding the Void Sword in hand.

He was praising Chi Longying, and for some reason, it gave Chi Longying a sense of relief as if his efforts had been seen.

'Is the Heavenly Sword praising me? Damn. What am I thinking?!'

He had sacrificed so much to get revenge on him, not his praise!

Chi Longying was so furious that his face was flushed.

"Blood Dragon Art, Heavenly Dragon Blood!"

Then, Chi Longying thrust the Evil Dragon Dagger in his hand toward himself and stabbed it hard into his chest.

That self-inflicted injury shocked everyone.

However, the Evil Dragon Dagger released dazzling blood rays that merged into Chi Longying's body and caused his aura to increase rapidly.

"Heavenly Sword, have a taste of my ultimate trump card!"

Following that, Chi Longying's body began to expand into a half-human and half-dragon blood-colored monster.

Boom!

In the next moment, his entire body shot out!

The powerful force created two huge holes in the ground behind him.

He appeared before Chu Kuangren in almost a second. With a ferocious expression on his face, he stretched his huge claw forward to grab Chu Kuangren's head.

Instead of dodging and using the Void Sword in his hand, Chu Kuangren unleashed a fist attack.

He was fighting force with force!

The moment the punch and dragon claw collided, an unimaginable force erupted from Chu Kuangren's thin body and sent Chi Longying flying into the air. After that, he crashed into more than a dozen mountain peaks before he landed on one of the mountain peaks and was buried in earth and rocks.

"Is this your ultimate trump card? That's hilarious."

At that moment, a strange energy fluctuation emanated.

Chu Kuangren was surprised when he felt that strange rune on his body.

Soon, countless black qi gushed out from the rune and insanely eroded his body. However, he was familiar with the energy.

"It's a curse."

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and looked at Wu Tianming not far away.

He was also looking at Chu Kuangren with a cold gaze, but he did not look not as fearful as he was a few years ago.

"It looks like your strength has grown too."

"Heavenly Sword, in order to deal with you, I went out of my way to cultivate the forbidden technique of my tribe, the Six Cursed Seals. Now, it's time to settle the grudge between you and me." Wu Tianming said coldly.

Then, he formed a mysterious hand seal.

"Six Cursed Seals, Cursed Poison, explode!"

Bang!

The Cursed Seal on Chu Kuangren's body exploded, and a large amount of Cursed Poison wreaked havoc inside his body.

Ordinary cultivators would have turned into a puddle of blood after being eroded by the Cursed Poison, but Chu Kuangren was different. His physical body was so terrifyingly strong that he could send Chi Longying flying with a punch.

Hence, the Cursed Poison could not harm him.

Soon, qi and blood, which were mixed with a domineering qi unique to the Overlord Physique, circulated in his body. In the blink of an eye, he had expelled the Cursed Poison from his body.

"Heh. Do you have any other tricks up your sleeve?"

"Taste this! Cursed Carnage, Cursed Grudge, Cursed Spirit, Cursed Life!"

Wu Tianming mobilized his cultivation to its limit and cast four of the Six Cursed Seals at once!

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1777: Three Prodigies Make Their Moves, Are You Confident In Your Curse?

On the Heavenly War Peak, Wu Tianming made a move by activating four of the Six Cursed Seals!

Soon, several treacherous energies attached to Chu Kuangren's body and turned into four strange runes.

A large amount of black qi gushed out from the four Cursed Seals while treacherous whispers and mismatched syllables rang in Chu Kuangren's ears. They were attacking Chu Kuangren's mind and soul.

If an ordinary cultivator heard the whispers, he would probably go mad on the spot from the unbearable pain.

Yet, Chu Kuangren turned a blind eye to the curses.

"Do you think this is all I have?!"

Wu Tianming sneered, and the four strange runes shone brightly. The black qi started circulating, and an even more terrifying curse energy erupted!

The Cursed Grade Seal was activated, and a large amount of rage qi manifested into ferocious evil ghouls that crawled toward Chu Kuangren.

Following that, the Cursed Spirit Seal was activated, and the curse energy turned into countless fine needles that pierced his soul through his physical body!

Finally, the Cursed Life Seal was activated, and the purest curse energy corroded his physical body.

The most mysterious Cursed Life Seal was an energy that did not target one's soul and physical body but the most mysterious fate, fundamentally erasing a person's existence!

The Six Cursed Seals was extremely eerie and frightening.

Many people gulped upon seeing the scene, and they looked at Wu Tianming in fear.

The Nether King Tribe's curse techniques were indeed frightening!

Those few kinds of Cursed Seals were enough to kill an Arch Gilded Immortal.

"Heavenly Sword, what do you think of the power of my Cursed Seal?"

Wu Tianming glanced at Chu Kuangren triumphantly. He believed his curse would severely injure the Heavenly Sword no matter how powerful the latter was.

"Roar!"

At that moment, a dragon roar sounded in the distance.

Shortly after, Chi Longying, whom Chu Kuangren blasted away, dashed out from the ruins while releasing his dragon aura at Chu Kuangren.

"Break!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand and slashed forward with the Void Sword to destroy the domineering dragon's aura.

"What?!"

Wu Tianming's expression darkened.

'How could he display such powerful strength while being targeted by the Four Cursed Seals?'

"Both of you, get out of my way!"

An indifferent voice sounded.

That was when Di Qianqiu stepped forward and raised his hand to activate the incomparably domineering Emperor Physique's divine ability and Emperor Seal.

The golden Emperor Seal was surrounded by hundreds of millions of Immortal Sparks and countless runes.

As the attack crashed down from the sky, the impact crushed one part of the sky!

Instead of dodging, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and activated the Overlord Physique to release boundless domineering qi, even though he was affected by the Four Cursed Seals!

Boom!

With the sword attack unleashed, the domineering qi merged with the sword intent, which turned into a huge sword shadow.

Following a deafening explosion, the sky shattered!

The huge Emperor Seal exploded with a crack!

On the Heavenly War Peak, countless huge cracks also began to appear under Chu Kuangren's feet.

"This is impossible!"

"How could you still retain such an energy level under the suppression of my Four Cursed Seals?"

Wu Tianming was confused.

Did his Cursed Seals not work?

"Are you confident in your curses?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled, and a pitch-black iron sword appeared in his hand. Soon, a mysterious and unpredictable energy spread from the sword.

When he slashed the iron sword on his body, the Four Cursed Seals dissipated into nothingness.

Wu Tianming's eyes widened in horror.

He could not believe that Chu Kuangren managed to break the Cursed Seal that he had spent a lot of effort cultivating.

"What the hell is that sword?!" Wu Tianming asked loudly, unwilling to believe what had just happened before his eyes.

He had spent a lot of effort and taken a great risk to cultivate the Six Cursed Seals. If he were careless during the cultivating process, the Cursed Seal energy would backfire and kill him.

However, the Cursed Seal he cultivated at such a price did not affect Chu Kuangren at all!

That almost crushed his soul!

"This is impossible. Cursed Heaven!"

As Wu Tianming yelled, the last rank of the Cursed Seal erupted and fell on him instead of Chu Kuangren.

Strange runes started flickering on his body while the Immortal's Core in his body suddenly surged!

He utilized the method of cursing himself in exchange for the ultimate increase in strength!

Although he had to pay a considerable price, he had no choice but to do so when the rest of the Cursed Seals did not affect Chu Kuangren!

Meanwhile, Chi Longying and Di Qianqiu also channeled their Immortal's Cores.

"Heavenly Sword, let's see whether the Fully Realized Overlord Physique or the Fully Realized Emperor Physique is more powerful!" Di Qianqiu said coldly.

Then, his Great Perfected aura erupted.

As the one who started the battle, a golden Emperor qi surrounded him and formed a canopy above him. It was the Emperor Physique's divine ability, the Emperor Dome Canopy!

With the help of the Emperor Dome Canopy, he launched a piercing technique.

Boom!

The Emperor Arch Gilded Intent locked onto Chu Kuangren, and a huge finger descended from the sky, sealing the entire universe!

It was the Heaven Restraining Emperor Pierce!

"Roar!"

Chi Longying's dragon qi erupted, and the dragon aura that had been accumulating for a long time swept out!

"Nether King Shadow!"

The moment Wu Tianming activated the Nether King Shadow, a huge avatar emerged behind him and blasted a palm attack forward. The attack was like a large black cloud that contained monstrous rage qi!

The three great Prodigies were not what they used to be. They attacked at the same time and intended to break free of the past nightmare that haunted them!

"Seven Star Heavenly God Transformation!"

Chu Kuangren formed a sword hand sign and activated the Amplification Secret Technique.

Shortly after, endless starlight surrounded him and manifested into seven huge stars that dashed into his body.

In an instant, he put up a sword hand sign and cast the Sword of Invincibility!

The sword qi spread outward and collided with the attacks of the three great Prodigies. Soon, the entire Heavenly War Peak exploded and disintegrated in the air.

The three great Prodigies escaped and looked solemnly at the center of the dust storm.

They did not expect their moves to kill Chu Kuangren, but they thought they would severely injure him at least.

However, as the dust storm dissipated, Chu Kuangren's white robe remained free of a single speck of dust.

"He is unscathed!"

"Our strength isn't what it used to be, but why does the gap in strength between us still exist?!"

Chi Longying and Wu Tianming were dissatisfied.

With that, Wu Tianming raised his hands to activate the Cursed Seal again, and a large amount of cursing energy enveloped Chu Kuangren.

"Do you like playing with Curse Techniques that much?" Chu Kuangren smiled.

Then, a glint flashed in his eyes, and he raised his hands to release a surge of eerie energy fluctuation that Wu Tianming was familiar with.

"How is this possible?!"

Wu Tianming was astonished.

The energy fluctuation, which was released from Chu Kuangren's body, spread to him and turned into several familiar creepy runes!

They were the Cursed Seals, namely the Cursed Spirit, Cursed Life, Cursed Poison, Cursed Carnage, and Cursed Grudge!

The five Cursed Seals imprinted themselves on his body one after another, and an even more terrifying curse energy enveloped him!

"How do you know the Six Cursed Seals?!" Wu Tianming asked in horror.

"What do you think?"

"It's the Nether Spirit Forest Realm, the Nether Spirit God King's inheritance!"

Wu Tianming reacted immediately and thought of the incident in the Nether Spirit Forest Realm.

"Congratulations! You guessed it!" Chu Kuangren reacted with a grin.

The Nether Spirit God King's inheritance that he obtained included the Six Cursed Seals. With his talent, learning the cultivation technique was extremely easy.

Wu Tianming had spent a lot of effort learning the cultivation technique, yet Chu Kuangren got it so easily.

When Wu Tianming learned of that fact, his Daoist core collapsed!

Chapter 1778: The Temple's Left Guardian, Di Feitian's Fear

"Explode!" Chu Kuangren yelled at Wu Tianming indifferently.

In an instant, the five Cursed Seals exploded, and the terrifying cursed energy eroded him.

The agonizing scream echoed in the air, making everyone present shudder uncontrollably.

"It's too scary. I can't believe he knows the Curse Technique."

"How did he do it?"

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren with fearful gazes.

On the other hand, Chi Longying had the urge to retreat. He looked at Chu Kuangren in fear before turning around and flying toward the distance.

"I must be alive in order to get revenge on him!" Chi Longying thought to himself.

However, a glint flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes as he slashed his sword forward. In an instant, the magical energy contained in the sword ray froze the entire spacetime!

Chi Longying could not escape as his body was affected by the energy!

At the next moment, he turned into a mist of blood and exploded!

Chi Longying, the tenth on the Temple Sequence, had fallen!

"You're the only one left."

Chu Kuangren looked at Di Qianqiu calmly and said, "Since the Overlord Physique and the Emperor Physique will meet again one day, we should decide who will be the survivor now."

With that, he slashed the Void Sword in his hand forward!

Bang!

The surge of sword qi that gushed out made Di Qianqiu's eyes widen in horror, and he used all his strength to resist the attack.

He also activated the Nine Dragon Emperor Seal to attack the sword ray.

With a bang, the Emperor Seal was blasted away, and Chu Kuangren arrived before Di Qianqiu in an instant. Then, he unleashed the Void Sword, whose sharp sword ray shrouded the sky and sun!

Following the sound of a tear, blood spurted out everywhere!

One of Di Qianqiu's arms was slashed off!

Amidst the shrill scream, Di Qianqiu's eyes turned red, and he channeled his Emperor qi to its limit. As the Emperor Physique's third divine ability erupted, the Emperor Decree fell from the sky!

Boom!

Countless runes crushed Chu Kuangren like they were huge stars.

Along with the ferocious and domineering qi, the Overlord Physique was activated, and real-like battle cries sounded in the void.

With a punch, the Overlord Physique's divine ability, the Heaven-Piercing Overlord, was activated!

The purple-red divine ray wrapped in domineering qi spread out in waves, smashing the Emperor Decree to pieces.

The Fully Realized Emperor Physique and the Fully Realized Overlord Physique were supposed to be equally powerful physiques, but when both of them collided, the Emperor Physique performed worse!

With the Void Sword in his hand and domineering qi circulating him, Chu Kuangren looked like a peerless despot that could flatten the universe!

At that sight, everyone knew it was not that the Fully Realized Emperor Physique was too weak but that Di Qianqiu's opponent was too powerful!

"If this is the improvement you meant, it's laughable."

Then, Chu Kuangren released a few more sword rays.

Di Qianqiu was beaten up so badly that he immediately retreated. Since his Emperor qi was almost used up, he only had the strength to resist but could not fight back!

They were both Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals, and the Fully Realized Emperor Physique was not weaker than the Fully Realized Overlord Physique. However, why there was such a huge gap in strength?!

Di Qianqiu was puzzled!

Boom!

At that time, an incomparably powerful Emperor qi surged above the sky and turned into a huge palm that crushed down toward Chu Kuangren!

It was the Emperor Tribe's God King who made the move!

In the meantime, another huge purple-red palm attack was released. This time, it was from the Overlord Liu of the Conqueror Tribe!

Bang!

Two God Kings' attacks collided, causing the Heavenly War Peak, which was already shattered into pieces, to turn into dust.

The powerful energy storm swept across and blew away many sky-prides and Prodigies as it spread.

A glint flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes. "It's you again, God King Di Hong!"

"Hmph. Heavenly Sword, don't go too far. This is the Central Heaven Temple, and you have committed a serious crime by killing Prodigies indiscriminately!"

The voice of God King Di Hong echoed in the sky.

Following that, Overlord Liu's voice sounded. "It was Di Qianqiu and others of the Emperor Tribe who made the move first."

The two God Kings seemed to be accusing each other.

Seeing that scene, the heads of some God Kings in the starry sky started to hurt.

Why did the Heavenly Sword come back?

This time, he had killed two Prodigies, including Chi Longying who was tenth in the Temple Sequence.

If Di Hong had not acted in time, Di Qianqiu, who was ranked eighth, would have died.

"We must not allow the Heavenly Sword to act recklessly. I propose we expel him from the Central Heaven Temple!" Di Hong said aloud.

"Bullsh*t!" Overlord Liu refuted.

Just as the two God Kings were in dispute, a more domineering Emperor qi swept over from the sky. Amidst the golden auspicious clouds, a figure with an imposing voice approached them!

He was a middle-aged man in a golden robe, and his Emperor qi was almost as powerful as that of Di Hong.

Some God Kings were shocked to see him.

"He's Di Feitian, the Temple's Left Guardian!"

Someone gasped when he recognized the man.

There were positions of Left and Right Guardians in the Central Heaven Temple, all of whom were held by the Supreme God Kings. They possessed powers that far exceeded that of ordinary God Kings, and they had the most right to speak in the Temple as they were second only to the Temple Lord.

"Why is he out from the closed-door meditation?"

Overlord Liu furrowed his brows.

He was not afraid to fight with Di Feitian, but he possessed great power for being the Temple's Left Guardian.

"Heavenly Sword, in the name of the Temple's Left Guardian, I declare that you will be expelled from the Central Heaven Temple from now on!" Di Feitian said.

'As expected!' everyone said silently to themselves.

Di Feitian, who originated from the Emperor Tribe, was indeed biased toward the Emperor Tribe.

"Left Guardian, this is unfair. It's obvious that Di Qianqiu and others attacked first," said Overlord Liu.

"Even so, it's a heinous crime that the Heavenly Sword killed those on the Temple Sequence who were carefully selected by the temple, and he should be punished. I'm being magnanimous for just expelling him," said Di Feitian.

"Heh..."

At that moment, Chu Kuangren chuckled. "Are you, a person who broke your promise and violated the contract, qualified to expel the Heavens?"

Di Feitian's expression changed when he heard what Chu Kuangren said!

Some memories of the past appeared in his mind as soon as the word 'contract' was mentioned. He looked at Chu Kuangren in surprise. "Who are you?!"

The rest of the God Kings were shocked too.

What was going on?

As one of the few people with the highest status in the temple, Di Feitian had never shown his emotion. Yet, his expression changed after hearing Chu Kuangren's statement!

Violated the contract?

What contract was it?

Except for Di Feitian and Chu Kuangren, who knew the contract well, all the people present were puzzled.

Chu Kuangren grinned when he saw Di Feitian's expression. He, too, could not help but sigh at the coincidence!

In the Divine Destiny Temple, many people made Life Contracts with the Master of Destiny, but some violated the contracts, just like Di Feitian.

"Fate has got everything arranged. Di Feitian, you should be clear about the consequences of violating the contract!"

"Who are you exactly?!"

Soon, a large amount of Emperor qi gushed out from Di Feitian's body and tried to suppress Chu Kuangren.

That was when all the God Kings noticed the fear in Di Feitian's eyes.

The high and mighty Temple's Left Guardian was afraid!

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1779: The Emperor's Double Pupils, Di Baishi Challenges Chu Kuangren

Nobody knew that Di Feitian, the Emperor Tribe's Supreme God King, had been hiding a secret that terrified him!

That secret was the Divine Destiny Temple!

Countless years ago, he and the rest of the Emperor Tribe's God Kings acted together to besiege and kill a God King from the Conqueror Tribe, the Heavenly Overlord God King.

However, he was too powerful, and they were severely beaten and almost perished.

Later, Di Feitian activated a Life Card. He went to a mysterious place and met an existence who claimed to be the Master of Destiny. The Master of Destiny was extremely mysterious, and his techniques made a God King tremble in fear.

He was definitely a terrifying existence that surpassed this universe!

Di Feitian obtained a Half-step Primordial Treasure from the Master of Destiny and managed to defeat the Heavenly Overlord God King from the Conqueror Tribe with it.

He promised that from that day onward, he would be a slave of the Master of Destiny and be used by him, but he regretted it shortly after.

Not only did he possess a Half-step Primordial Treasure, but he was the Supreme God King who was only half a step away from becoming a Primordial. Why would he want to be a slave?

He was dissatisfied and unwilling to do so!

Therefore, he remained in the Central Heaven Universe and did not fulfill the terms of the contract.

For countless years, the Master of Destiny did not look for him, so Di Feitian thought that he was not as powerful as he had imagined.

However, Chu Kuangren appeared. He had no idea how Chu Kuangren knew about the Life Contract and his relationship with the Divine Destiny Temple...

Di Feitian was starting to get afraid now.

"To the person that violated the contract, fate has its eyes on you. Good luck!" Chu Kuangren said.

"Make yourself clear!"

"Heh, the Heavens have made it clear enough."

"If you don't make it clear, don't blame me for making a move and expelling you from the temple." Di Feitian threatened Chu Kuangren.

However, at that moment, a middle-aged man in a green shirt with a refined demeanor walked over slowly. "Left Guardian, you're too hot-tempered."

"God King Sikong, this is none of your business."

"Heh, you're the Left Guardian, and I'm the Right Guardian. How can it be none of my business?"

The person who came was God King Sikong.

He admired the Heavenly Sword very much because, for countless years, the latter was the only young man who could pass his Heart-Asking Path and make the path collapse on its own.

God King Sikong was humbled by Chu Kuangren's Daoist core.

Moreover, Di Feitian was an Emperor Tribe member. If the power of the Emperor Tribe continued to grow in the Central Heaven Temple, he, the Right Guardian, might have much less power to speak than Di Feitian. Therefore, he needed Chu Kuangren to counterbalance the Emperor Tribe.

"What do you mean?"

"The Heavenly Sword is innocent and can stay in the Central Heaven Temple," said God King Sikong.

The two guardians confronted each other, neither wanting to give in, and the God Kings above the Daoist law's starry sky were watching them.

Just when there was a stalemate, a voice suddenly sounded.

"Let me fight with the Heavenly Sword. If he wins, he can stay in the Central Heaven Temple. Otherwise, the Fully Realized Overlord Physique will no longer exist!"

The voice contained sounded domineering, and its arrogance shocked many sky-prides and Prodigies.

Who dared to fight with the Heavenly Sword even after knowing his power?

Soon, a pair of giant golden eyes opened above the sky, releasing an incomparably horrifying Emperor qi that shocked many in the Central Heaven Temple.

Everyone's body trembled as they were shocked to see the person with the giant golden eyes because each of the eyes had two pupils!

"This is the... the Emperor's Double Pupils!"

Di Qianqiu thought of something and gasped in disbelief.

The Emperor's Double Pupils was a legendary existence and a physique transformed from a mutated Emperor Physique. In addition, it had the potential that was comparable or even more powerful than the Fully Realized Emperor Physique!

Historically, that physique emerged even less frequently than the Fully Realized Emperor Physique!

"Oh, it's the Fourth Seat, the fourth on the Temple Sequence, Di Baishi!"

A glint flashed in God King Sikong's eyes, and he looked at the person approaching with surprise.

Everyone was just as shocked when they heard his statement.

'The Fourth-Seat!'

There were ten seats in Central Heaven Temple, and Di Qianqiu was the Eighth Seat while Chi Longying was the Tenth Seat.

As for the Ninth Seat and the rest of the seats, they were mysterious, and no one knew who they were.

Now, the Fourth Seat emerged, and he was an Emperor Tribe member with the Emperor's Double Pupils!

"Interesting. Besides possessing the Emperor's Double Pupils, you're also one of the Nine Kings, am I right?"

Chu Kuangren smiled faintly.

He could sense the King's Mark in his body vibrating slightly and reacting to the person's emergence.

It was obvious that he was one of the Nine Kings too!

"Heh, you're quite sharp. Could you be one of the Nine Kings too?"

Di Baishi was a little surprised, but he did not sense the nine king's aura from Chu Kuangren's body. Obviously, Chu Kuangren was not one of the Nine Kings.

In that case, how did Chu Kuangren notice that he was one of the Nine Kings?

"The Heavens are above the Nine Kings!"

Chu Kuangren stood with hands behind his back. "Since you want to challenge the Heavens, are you aware of the consequences after you fail?!"

"I won't fail!" Di Baishi said indifferently.

"The Heavens appreciate confident people, and he approves your challenge!"

"I'll see you on the Heavenly War peak ten days later!" Di Baishi said indifferently.

Following that, the huge pupils in the sky disappeared, and only the remnant of Di Baishi's Emperor qi was left.

Di Feitian glanced at Chu Kuangren. "Heavenly Sword, I hope you can pass Di Baishi's trial."

He was very confident in Di Baishi's power.

Shortly after, he waved his hand and left the scene with Di Qianqiu.

"Heh, the Heavens don't mind granting you guys another failure!"

Chu Kuangren glanced at Di Qianqiu's broken arm not far away and then raised his hand to keep it.

As soon as he returned to the Heavenly Sword Peak, Luo Xue, Long Shuijing, and others visited him.

After learning from everyone about the changes in the Central Heaven Temple recently, Chu Kuangren smiled faintly. "How many of the Nine Kings are in the Temple Sequence?"

...

Time flew, and ten days passed in a blink of an eye.

In ten days, Chu Kuangren managed to analyze the Fully Realized Emperor Physique from Di Qianqiu's broken arm by using the Tome of Physiques!

Throughout the ages, he was the only one who had managed to merge the Fully Realized Emperor Physique with the Fully Realized Overlord Physique!

"Di Baishi, Emperor Tribe... and the Conqueror Tribe, I wonder how you guys will react to this power."

Chu Kuangren grinned.

The golden Emperor qi and purple-red domineering qi interweaved, forming countless ancient mysterious runes.

There were nine Heavenly War Peaks in Central Heaven Temple.

As one of the peaks was smashed by Di Qianqiu and others when fighting with Chu Kuangren, only eight peaks were left.

Now that Di Baishi had challenged Chu Kuangren, the battle must be even more intense. Therefore, a God King took action to strengthen one of the Heavenly War Peaks, which would be the battleground for Di Baishi and Chu Kuangren.

"No one can smash this Heavenly War Peak except for a God King."

The God King, who was in charge of strengthening the mountain, smiled confidently. He, too, was looking forward to the battle.

However, he was not the only one as the crowd outside the Heavenly War Peak grew in size.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1780: The Three Calamities of The Emperor's Double Pupils, The Heavenly Sword Forced Backward!

It was packed outside the Heavenly War Peak, and everyone was looking forward to the ultimate battle!

Further away, several streams of light gathered.

They were top-notch sky-prides and Prodigies of Central Heaven Temple, namely Di Liufang, Xiang Tiancang, Feng Qiyu, Luo Xue, and others.

At that moment, they had gathered to watch the battle.

"Di Qianqiu, since you're from the Emperor Tribe, do you know how powerful Di Baishi is?" Xiang Tiancang asked curiously.

"Although we're both sky-prides from the Emperor Tribe, I've never met Di Baishi, so I have no idea about his strength. However, since the temple selected him as the Fourth Seat, which is above me, I think he must be extremely powerful," said Di Liufang.

"Do you know about the power of the Emperor's Double Pupils?"

"The Emperor's Double Pupils control life and death, and it's no weaker than the Fully Realized Emperor Physique."

"Heh, you were severely beaten by the Heavenly Sword even though you possessed the Fully Realized Emperor Physique. Will Di Baishi be his opponent?" Xiang Tiancang said.

The Conqueror Tribe and Emperor Tribe were enemies, so he did not wish to see Di Baishi defeat the Heavenly Sword, who possessed the Fully Realized Overlord Physique.

"Don't forget that Di Baishi is one of the Nine Kings!" Di Liufang said.

"How do you know if the Heavenly Sword isn't one of them too?"

"With the Heavenly Sword's character, do you think he will hide his identity if he's one of the Nine Kings?" asked Feng Qiyu.

Chu Kuangren once said that he was not one of the Nine Kings but ranked higher than the Nine Kings.

"The Nine Kings are the trendsetters of the current era. Although the Heavenly Sword is powerful, I'm afraid he won't have much of an advantage when facing the Nine Kings," said Di Qianqiu.

However, he would not have said so if he knew Chu Kuangren had killed one of the Nine Kings.

"He's here!"

At that moment, a large amount of golden Emperor qi emerged in the sky above the Heavenly War Peak. Among the golden auspicious clouds, a figure dressed in a long golden robe and emanating an Emperor's aura slowly descended. All sky-prides and Prodigies reacted solemnly upon sensing the horrifying aura.

Even the faces of Outliers like Xiang Tiancang, Di Qianqiu, and Feng Qiyu were grim.

The person who came was Di Baishi!

He was like an emperor with Emperor qi sweeping across the land as soon as he descended, making everyone want to surrender to him!

His golden double pupils contained astonishing Daoist Rhymes, and those who looked at him could not help but feel terrified!

"What a terrifying power," Xiang Tiancang said grimly.

Di Qianqiu furrowed his brows. He had to admit that Di Baishi's strength was above his!

Di Baishi was not only a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal, but he had also achieved at least the Fifth Step in his comprehension of the Arch Gilded Intent. On top of that, he even possessed the Emperor's Double Pupils...

"It looks like the Heavenly Sword has gotten himself an opponent this time."

Di Qianqiu looked forward to Di Baishi defeating Chu Kuangren.

With the arrival of Di Baishi, everyone was waiting anxiously for the other protagonist to appear.

After a while, a figure in white slowly approached the Heavenly War Peak.

He was dressed in snowy white robes and shrouded in mysterious Immortal Sparks. He had a handsome and flawless face, as if the Great Dao had carved it.

Each of his movements had a transcendental air to it.

He was Chu Kuangren.

He arrived at the scene and walked up to the Heavenly War Peak briskly with a relaxed expression. It was as if he was here for an outing and not to participate in a battle of life and death.

He formed an extremely strong contrast with the imposing Di Baishi.

"The Heavenly Sword has come."

"With that expression of his, it seems he doesn't take Di Baishi seriously. No matter what, Di Baishi is the Fourth Seat, after all."

"Heh, don't you guys know the Heavenly Sword's character? How many people in this universe has he taken seriously?"

"Well, that's true too."

"Ever since he emerged, I have never seen him suffer, nor have I seen him take anyone seriously."

The crowd was engaged in a discussion.

Luo Xue, Long Shuijing, Feng Qiyu, and other female cultivators stared at Chu Kuangren with sparkles in their beautiful eyes.

It was no doubt that Chu Kuangren was very arrogant, but with his arrogance coupled with his transcendental temperament and handsome looks, the female cultivators found him extremely attractive.

Although many people hated him, he still had many supporters in Central Heaven Temple, and most were female cultivators.

As Chu Kuangren arrived at the top of the Heavenly War Peak, he glanced at Di Baishi and said, "The Heavens' here, and you can attack anytime."

"Heh, Heavenly Sword, I must let you know what defeat tastes like today!"

"Many people have challenged the Heavens, but all have failed without exception. You will be one of them."

"Great. In that case, show me your strength!"

Immediately after, Di Baishi raised his hands, and a large amount of Emperor qi surged into a huge finger that descended from the sky. It was the Emperor Tribe's ultimate technique, the Heaven Restraining Emperor Pierce!

The piercing technique was better than Di Qianqiu's.

However, Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was, where he formed a sword hand sign and shot out a chilly sword ray!

The Thousand Terrain Sword was like heaven and earth, and the sword ray shattered the finger technique!

Di Baishi was not surprised because Chu Kuangren would not be the Heavenly Sword if he were defeated easily!

Soon, he hovered in the sky and cast the three great Emperor Physique's divine abilities one after another!

Unfortunately, as Chu Kuangren's domineering qi surged, the Overlord Physique's divine abilities were activated to crush the three great divine abilities.

"Show the Heavens the power of your eyes," said Chu Kuangren.

"As you wish!"

As Di Baishi hovered in the sky, his eyes released countless bright golden rays, and boundless Daoist Rhymes sounded.

Shortly after, countless mysterious runes surrounded his body like a galaxy.

Following that, Emperor qi gushed out from the double pupils.

Different from the Emperor Physique's Emperor qi, his Emperor qi was black and white. Other than being magnificent, it also contained a domineering intent that controlled life and death!

"The Emperor's Double Pupils have three calamities!"

"The first calamity, Samsara Calamity!"

The life-death Emperor qi, which Di Baishi activated, flowed out and caused the surrounding void to collapse without a sound!

Following that, a huge whirlpool formed around Chu Kuangren!

Then, the reincarnation energy erupted, tearing his body apart frantically and trying to crush him into dust!

The power of that attack was at the limit of the Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm!

Seeing that, Chu Kuangren unsheathed his Void Sword.

At the same time, he activated the Seven Star Heavenly God Transformation, and his Immortal's Core surged. With a slash of his sword, the Invincible Intent erupted!

When the sword qi collided with the reincarnation whirlpool, the entire Heavenly War Peak trembled.

Fortunately, the earth had been specially strengthened, so it would not be easily destroyed.

The impact left a dust storm behind, and an incomparably huge hole formed on the ground where Chu Kuangren stood.

"Heavenly Sword, your strength is impressive, but the next move will shock you!"

Di Baishi smiled confidently.

The moment he raised his hands, the energy of the Emperor's Double Pupils erupted again. "The second calamity of the Emperor's Double Pupils... Heaven-earth Calamity!"

Boom!

A terrifying life-death Emperor qi gushed out and turned into a torrent that swept across the land!

For a moment, the the realm shook as if the end of the world was here!

Chu Kuangren clenched the Void Sword tightly in his hand. Then, the energy of the Fully Realized Overlord Physique exploded, releasing boundless domineering qi and sword qi!

Under the impact of the ultimate moves, Chu Kuangren was forced back a few steps!

Everyone gasped at what they saw.

The Heavenly Sword had been forced backward!
