Chapter 1791: The Intimacy, There Is Nothing To Fear About The Heavenly Dao Sect

"Chu Kuangren, you idiot!"

"I haven't received a single message from you all these years, and everyone said that you're dead. Where have you been, you idiot?!"

Gu Linglong sobbed softly while hugging Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren patted Gu Linglong's back gently and tenderly. "I'm back."

It took a while for Gu Linglong to calm herself down.

Looking at the charming, noble Queen with her red eyes, Chu Kuangren could not help but give her a kiss.

"Linglong, we haven't seen each other for a long time. Why don't we try to have a baby this time?"

"Hmph. Are you thinking of leaving us here and going away on your adventures again after the baby is born?"

"Of course, I'm not. This time, I'll take you everywhere I go. I will hold you tight, and even if you don't want me, I won't let you go," Chu Kuangren said while hugging Gu Linglong's slender waist.

It was difficult to imagine the mighty madman who shocked the two great universes, namely Central Heaven and Pan Gu, would say such shameless words.

His enemies in the Immortal World would be frightened if they witnessed such a scene.

"Ahem..."

A cough sounded when Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong were intimate.

Then, they saw Elder Ruyan walking toward them. "Um, I didn't mean to disturb both of you, but I think the Queen needs to take a look at this."

Then, Elder Ruyan handed the jade scroll she was holding to Gu Linglong.

Gu Linglong opened it to have a look while Chu Kuangren leaned over curiously. He placed his head on Gu Linglong's shoulder and smelled the fragrance of her neck while looking at the jade scroll.

"The Heavenly Dao Sect has set up millions of soldiers at the border. They want tens of billions of Immortal Crystals and three galaxies from us. Otherwise, they will send their troops over," Gu Linglong said calmly as she read the message on the jade scroll coldly.

Seeing that, Chu Kuangren asked curiously, "Has the Heavenly Dao Sect always been so arrogant?"

"They did not dare to be so impudent when the Five Ways Divine Shadow Army was around. By the way, what happened to the Five Ways Divine Shadow Army?" Gu Linglong asked curiously in Chu Kuangren's arms.

The Five Ways Divine Shadow Army was an undying army that Chu Kuangren left behind. It was connected to his cultivation base and was very powerful.

When Chu Kuangren's cultivation base reached the Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, the strength of the army was at the Gilded Immortal Realm.

The rapid rise of the Firmament Empire was closely related to the army.

"I think it's because the Five Ways Divine Shadow Army and I were separated by two universes, and since the signal was bad, it went into a deep slumber."

"Separated by two universes?"

Gu Linglong was a little puzzled.

"Don't you want to know where I've been all these years?"

Chu Kuangren then told Gu Linglong about his trip to the Central Heaven Universe and that his true form was still there.

"Will you be in danger for staying there?"

"Rest assured. I'm quite formidable over there, and the people avoid me instead of provoke me." Chu Kuangren smiled triumphantly.

He wanted to show off to his woman.

"Get over yourself." Gu Linglong rolled her eyes.

Watching them display their affection, Elder Ruyan said helplessly, "My King and Queen, shall we settle the Heavenly Dao Sect first?"

The Heavenly Dao Sect had set up millions of soldiers and were about to attack them, yet the two were still in the mood to flirt with each other.

"Elder Ruyan, you don't have to worry about it. Tell the frontline not to fight, and I'll pay a visit to the Heavenly Dao Sect." Chu Kuangren rubbed his chin and said.

He had some grievances with the Heavenly Dao Sect, so he might as well take the opportunity to settle it all together.

"My husband, do you want to bring along the blood essence that Senior Bei Ming left behind?" asked Gu Linglong.

Bei Ming once gave Chu Kuangren three drops of blood essences to summon three clones.

Chu Kuangren had used two drops and kept the last drop in the Firmament Empire as one of the empire's trump cards.

"That drop of blood essence... Heh, I don't need it."

Now, he should be more powerful than Bei Ming, who had yet to break through to the Embodier Realm. Hence, the drop of blood essence was not very useful to him.

Elder Ruyan left after receiving the order.

As she stepped out of the Imperial Palace, War Admiral Nangong, War Admiral Chaos, Luo Shui, and others greeted her.

"Is the King in there?" War Admiral Chaos asked excitedly.

"Yes."

"Great. Let's go in and greet him."

War Admiral Chaos and others said excitedly.

However, to his surprise, Elder Ruyan kicked him. "Just leave here. The King is making out with the Queen now. Are you sure you want to go in and disturb them?"

"Uh... I'll greet the King next time then."

War Admiral Chaos rubbed his head.

He was pretty sure Chu Kuangren would throw him out if he were to go in at that moment.

Chu Kuangren would not treat him as well as Elder Ruyan because she was not only the elder of the empire but also one of the closest people to Chu Kuangren in the empire.

...

In the universe's starry sky, at one of the defense lines of the Firmament Empire, a few War Admirals led ten of millions of troops to protect the empire, in case the Heavenly Dao Sect decided to attack at any time.

At that moment, countless huge warships were approaching at a rapid speed.

On one of the warships, a young man in white looked arrogantly at the Firmament Empire's warships in the distance with disdain in his eyes. "I heard that the most powerful one among the Thirteen Firmament War Admirals is merely a Gilded Immortal. How can these losers resist the Heavenly Dao Sect?"

The Heavenly Dao Sect had several Arch Gilded Immortals in its ranks, and the Heavenly Dao Sect Master was a top-notch Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal.

How could a tiny Firmament Empire be their opponent?

"Master Heavenly Daoist Tian, it's rumored that the Firmament Empire is related to the Celestial Demon Tribe. That's why the Heavenly Dao Sect hasn't taken any actions," said an elder beside Heavenly Daoist Tian.

Upon hearing that, a glint flashed in Heavenly Daoist Tian's eyes. "Celestial Demon Tribe, huh? Isn't Chu Kuangren, who killed the former Heavenly Daoist Tian, dead?"

"Although he is dead, he was the former Celestial Demon King, after all. No one knows how well connected the Firmament Empire and the Celestial Demon Tribe are. That was why the Heavenly Dao Sect did not dare to act rashly and could only probe bit by bit," said the elder.

"What is the Heavenly Dao Sect afraid of? It's not like the sect doesn't have any support." Heavenly Daoist Tian pouted.

"Of course, we do have support, but it's better to be cautious."

Soon, the warship arrived before the empire's defense line, and a magnificent voice echoed in the starry sky.

"The Firmament War Admirals, I have given you enough time. You guys must give us an answer today!"

"Otherwise, we will start the war!"

Inside the defense line, several War Admirals of the empire were like cats on a hot tin roof.

As the most powerful War Admiral at the defense line, War Admiral Murong, who was Murong Xuan in the past, was still in the mood to sip on his glass of wine calmly.

His action made a few War Admirals grit their teeth in hatred.

"Murong Xuan, what the hell are you doing? The Heavenly Dao Sect is about to attack. Why are you so relaxed?"

"That's right. Are you giving up?"

"Murong Xuan, what are you up to?"

Murong Xuan smiled calmly in reply to all War Admirals' confrontations. "Rest assured, everyone. There's nothing to fear about the Heavenly Dao Sect."

Chapter 1792: Remember The Person, He Is Forever Our King, Killing Millions of Soldiers with One Sword Attack

"There is nothing to fear about the Heavenly Dao Sect?"

Several War Admirals looked at each other and then at Murong Xuan oddly.

One thing worth noting was that although the Firmament Empire was powerful, it could not act unscrupulously as there were still many powerful forces in the universe.

The Heavenly Dao Sect was an excellent force in the universe. Without the Five Ways Divine Shadow Army, it would be difficult for the Firmament Empire to resist the Heavenly Dao Sect.

Why did Murong Xuan say that their enemy was nothing to be afraid of?

"That's not right. Murong Xuan, your cultivation level has reached the Gilded Immortal Realm. Why are you suddenly going hysterical?"

Shang Qingxue next to him muttered.

"D*mn it. You're the hysterical one," Murong Xuan said while rolling his eyes.

"Why are you spouting nonsense since you're not hysterical? The Heavenly Dao Sect is about to make a move. Why aren't you getting ready?"

"We don't have to make an attack," said Murong Xuan.

"What?! Why?"

"This is an order from Her Majesty the Queen," said Murong Xuan.

Everyone was puzzled.

Meanwhile, the Heavenly Dao Sect's army on the opposite side was ready to attack. When they that the army in the frontlines of the Firmament Empire did not make move, Heavenly Daoist Tian furrowed his brows.

"What the hell are they doing? Do they think the Heavenly Dao Sect will let go of them if they don't respond?"

"Hmph. Dream on!"

Then, Heavenly Daoist Tian took out a jade scroll and said indifferently, "Everyone, pay attention and prepare to attack!"

All warships began to mobilize their muzzles.

In the starry sky, chaotic energy swept out and gradually merged into the muzzles of the warships.

"Release!"

As Heavenly Daoist Tian yelled indifferently, countless energy light beams shot out like meteors.

He planned to teach the empire's frontline army a lesson first.

Unfortunately, just when those energy light beams were about to hit the empire's frontline, an invisible energy barrier suddenly enveloped the scene.

The countless energy light beams collapsed and disintegrated silently.

"What's going on?"

Heavenly Daoist Tian's expression darken.

At the end of the starry sky, a figure in white glided across the air while holding a long sword engraved with mysterious runes in his hand. The Immortal Sparks and transcendental intent around him made him look captivating.

"Who is he?"

The Heavenly Dao Sect's cultivators frowned with puzzled looks on their faces.

For some reason, a sense of fear emerged in their hearts when they saw the person approaching. It was as if they were facing a nemesis!

The Heavenly Dao Sect cultivated the Heavenly Dao energy. Would the Heavenly Dao have a nemesis?!

When the frontline noticed the figure in white, some veterans could not help but cry and laugh out loud.

"It's him. He's back!"

"Those b*stards said he was dead. They just couldn't say something nice, could they? But the trust is he won't die even if everyone does!"

Some recruits looked at each other, confused.

They wondered why the veterans they respected were crying and laughing at the same time.

"Seniors, what's wrong with you?" a cultivator asked curiously.

A veteran said solemnly to the recruits while looking at the figure in white, "All recruits, you must remember and never forget this man. Without him, the current Firmament Star and Firmament Empire would not exist. He is our King and forever will be!"

"The King..."

The recruits were shocked.

They grew up listening to the rumors of that King in the Firmament Empire.

Moreover, everyone had seen his statue in the capital.

On the other hand, Murong Xuan, Shang Qingxue, and others were extremely excited to see the figure in white.

Shang Qingxue slapped Murong Xuan on his head. "Good God! Murong Xuan, did you know that the King is back? No wonder you were so calm."

Murong Xuan rubbed his head and smiled. "I just received the news a while ago."

"Why didn't you tell us earlier? How could you keep the secret and make us worry for so long?"

"Indeed. You're horrible."

Those who were Chu Kuangren's followers knew that as long as he returned, he could lift the sky with one sword even if it fell!

In the starry sky, Chu Kuangren flew past the frontline and arrived before the Heavenly Dao Sect's army. He said, "Heavenly Dao Sect, you have ten seconds to escape."

Upon hearing that, Heavenly Daoist Tian furrowed his brows. "What an arrogant man!"

The elder next to him was trembling as he yelled, "Everyone, leave now!"

"Elder, are you insane?!"

Heavenly Daoist Tian's face darkened. He grabbed the elder by the collar and ordered, "Don't leave. Kill him!"

The elder said in horror, "Heavenly Daoist Tian, you must not do so. Otherwise, you will get everyone killed. Do you know who he is? He's Chu Kuangren!"

The elder was Heavenly Dao Sect's elite, and he had seen Chu Kuangren's achievements decades ago.

Chu Kuangren was already an Arch Gilded Immortal elite who could easily kill a Five Qi Arch Gilded Immortal decades ago, and they could never hope to compete against him.

Although he had no idea why Chu Kuangren was still alive decades later, Chu Kuangren's name and power were absolutely beyond doubt!

"Oh, Chu Kuangren? Interesting. I'm interested to see just how terrifying the Prodigy who has been overpowering the Immortal World since decades ago!"

He snorted and got everyone ready to attack.

In an instant, countless energy light beams gushed out and enveloped Chu Kuangren.

Instead of dodging, Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was.

"Hmph. Even an Arch Gilded Immortal will die under such an attack. He's simply courting death!"
Heavenly Daoist Tian scowled.

As the loud rumbling noise echoed in the starry sky, surges of turbulent energy swept across the sky.

Everyone looked at the center of the energy explosion.

"Five... Four..." Someone counted indifferently.

Once the turbulent energy dissipated, it revealed a figure in white, standing in the air with Immortal Sparks flowing around him, surrounded by countless Great Dao runes.

Chu Kuangren was unscathed.

"How is this possible?"

Heavenly Daoist Tian's expression sank.

The elder next to him had long fallen into despair. "You guys have no idea just how terrifying he is..."

"I don't believe it. Keep attacking!"

Heavenly Daoist Tian roared angrily. He took the lead by dashing toward Chu Kuangren and slashing the long sword in his hand forward.

The moment the sword attack was unleashed, the mighty Heavenly Dao energy tore the void apart.

However, Chu Kuangren remained standing where he was. He simply stretched out two fingers and clamped the sword that slashed toward him, breaking the Heavenly Dao energy!

With a clang, the long sword shattered!

Heavenly Daoist Tian, who was hit by a huge and horrifying force, was sent flying backward while blood spurted out from his mouth!

"Three..."

The counting was still going on.

The elder could no longer suppress the fear in his heart and fled toward the distance.

"Two... One..."

With the Heavenl Stabalizer Sword in hand, Chu Kuangren said, "Unfortunately, you guys didn't seize the opportunity to escape!"

He then raised his hand to release a sword attack, and a vast sword ray spread across tens of millions of meters of space!

The range sword attack was wide!

Having taken the brunt of the impact, Heavenly Daoist Tian's physical body disintegrated into countless particles before he could even scream.

Wherever the sword ray struck, warships shattered while cultivators fell.

In the blink of an eye, tens of millions of meters of space turned into a void. Stars, space, warships, cultivators, and everything perished silently!

Millions of soldiers were killed with one sword attack!

Chapter 1793: Unwilling To Believe It, I Can Prove That The Heavenly Dao Sect Will No Longer Exist In The Universe

Silence filled the starry sky!

Even the veterans, Murong Xuan, and others, who had great confidence in Chu Kuangren, were astonished when they saw Chu Kuangren's sword attack.

Not only did he kill millions of soldiers with one sword attack, but he also slashed tens of millions of meters of the starry sky into nothing!

One thing worth noting was that many Gilded Immortals were among those millions of soldiers, but they were all vulnerable in the face of Chu Kuangren's sword attack.

On top of that, there were many stars in space, but they disintegrated into nothing. It was as if they had never existed before.

Murong Xuan and others were so amazed by the sword attack that they were rendered speechless.

After a moment of silence, everyone cheered.

"King! King!"

"Long live the King. Long live the King!"

Chu Kuangren glanced at them. Then, his figure flashed and arrived before Murong Xuan and a few others. A hint of nostalgia appeared in his eyes as he looked at those familiar faces.

Murong Xuan, Shang Qingxue...

They were once the Black Heaven Sect's disciples.

"Greetings, my King."

Murong Xuan, Shang Qingxue, and others knelt on the ground with sincere respect for Chu Kuangren.

"Don't worry about it. I must thank you guys for protecting the empire all these years," Chu Kuangren said with a faint smile.

"It's our duty."

"I have to go to the Heavenly Dao Sect next, so the empire will still be under your protection."

"My King, do you want to bring more people with you to the Heavenly Dao Sect?" asked Murong Xuan.

Chu Kuangren smiled. "No need. I can handle the tiny Heavenly Dao Sect alone."

Then, his figure flashed and disappeared in place.

"The King is still the same as before," Murong Xuan lamented.

"Indeed. He is still as handsome as ever." Shang Qingxue said beside him as she was enchanted by Chu Kuangren's looks.

"Well, the King has left, so stop obsessing over him."

"I'm admiring him."

In the Heavenly Dao Sect, the elder who followed Heavenly Daoist Tian to the battle returned after escaping by using several treasures.

"Sect Master, something bad has happened!" the elder said in a panic.

"Why are you panicking? Did something happen in the battle with the Firmament Empire?"

In the Heavenly Dao Sect, the eight sects' elders and masters, namely Tian, Di, Xuan, Huang, Ri, Yue, Qian, and Kun, emerged one after another.

The Heavenly Dao Sect Master frowned while looking at the elder because he was dissatisfied with the elder's flustered reaction. After all, the Heavenly Dao Sect was a leading force in Pan Gu Universe, and they did not fear anyone besides a few overlords and the Restricted Areas.

'The Firmament Empire?'

'What a joke.'

'Even if something bad happens, one should remain calm. The elder is just hopeless.'

'It looks like I should give his position to someone else.'

The Heavenly Dao Sect Master thought to himself.

"The army that went to the Firmament Empire has been wiped out! Heavenly Daoist Tian is dead!"

The two pieces of news made everyone's faces sink.

However, the elder's next statement made their bodies tremble and their eyes widen in shock.

"Chu Kuangren did it!"

As soon as Chu Kuangren's name was mentioned, countless powerful auras burst out and locked onto the elder.

"Are you joking? Isn't he already dead?!"

"Indeed. If he's still alive, why hasn't there been news about him for decades? Stop talking nonsense here!"

"Chu Kuangren... It can't be him!"

Even the calm Heavenly Dao Sect Master reacted to the news, and he was starting to panic.

The Heavenly Dao Sect and Chu Kuangren could be regarded as old acquaintances.

After all, Chu Kuangren killed all the eight Daoists of the Heavenly Dao Sect who competed for the position of Heavenly Champion.

Later, when they heard that Chu Kuangren had fallen, they were ecstatic. Yet now, the elder told them that he was not dead!

How could they believe that?!

Or rather, they refused to believe it!

"I'm not lying. I saw with my own eyes that it was Chu Kuangren! I swear to God!" The elder raised his hand and said.

"It was him. What the elder said is true, and I can prove it!"

An indifferent voice sounded suddenly.

The elder was stunned for a moment and could sense something was wrong. Other than him, who else survived?

Moreover, why did the voice sound familiar?'

The elder suddenly thought of something, and his body shook. Then, he turned to look behind him.

All he saw were clouds covering the sky while the ancient star, where the Heavenly Dao Sect was located, trembled crazily as if it had sensed a great pressure!

A figure in white slowly descended from the clouds.

He was covered in Immortal Sparks and surrounded by runes. With a long sword in his hand, his aura covered the land in all directions like he was a Supreme Immortal King!

He was Chu Kuangren!

"How did he manage to get here?!"

Questions started popping up in the elder's mind, but he soon understood that it was he who brought Chu Kuangren here!

He survived not because he managed to escape in time but because Chu Kuangren needed him to lead the way to the Heavenly Dao Sect!

Boom!

When Chu Kuangren landed, the majestic sword qi swept out in all directions while an explosion erupted on the ancient star, almost splitting it into two halves.

As everyone in the Heavenly Dao Sect stared at him, they could feel the Heavenly Dao energy in their bodies vibrating uncontrollably, as if they had encountered a nemesis.

"Thank you for leading the way."

Chu Kuangren glanced at the elder and smiled faintly.

However, he ignored the elder's furious expression and scanned his gaze over everyone present with a smile. "This is my first time here in the Heavenly Dao Sect, but I believe this will be my last time here too. After today, there will be no more Heavenly Dao Sect in this universe!"

"Impudent fool!"

"How arrogant!"

"Chu Kuangren, you think too highly of yourself. If you want to destroy my long-established Heavenly Dao Sect, dream on!"

The Heavenly Dao Sect's people were furious.

Among them, a man in a golden robe instantly made a move. He was the Heavenly Kun Tribe Leader, Heavenly Daoist Kun.

With a push of his palm, the mighty Heavenly Dao energy turned into a huge palm and charged forth!

Chu Kuangren merely stood where he was. Then, he put up a sword hand sign and slashed it in the sky.

Just like that, the huge palm tore open and disappeared.

"What?!"

The expression of the man who made the attack turned grim.

After all, he was Heavenly Dao Sect's Arch Gilded Immortal. He did not hold back with his attack, yet he was defeated so easily!

Swish!

At that moment, Chu Kuangren disappeared in place.

"Where is he?"

The man mobilized his Immortal Consciousness to search for Chu Kuangren.

However, the next moment, a huge power locked onto his neck, and his whole body was lifted in mid-air!

He could not believe Chu Kuangren had caught him before he could react!

Chu Kuangren's strength was far above his!

"You're too weak."

Chu Kuangren shook his head and said as he looked at the man whom he lifted in mid-air.

In the past, he found the Heavenly Dao Sect a tough opponent because it had Arch Gilded Immortals. However, it was nothing to him now.

As his Immortal's Core surged, he activated something in him and cast the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art!

Boom!

The Heavenly Dao energy in the man's body gushed out like a flood and was sucked into Chu Kuangren's body. At that, the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao energy was jumping with joy after a long absence.

Chu Kuangren smiled faintly. "If your Heavenly Dao energy can strengthen the Firmament's Heavenly Dao, you guys are not completely useless."

"Damn it. What has he done?"

"What a creepy technique. No wonder my Heavenly Dao energy trembled. It was because of this weird technique."

Chapter 1794: Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation, Even the Heavenly Dao Is Helpless

In the Heavenly Dao Sect, Chu Kuangren sucked the Heavenly Dao energy of the man he grabbed.

The rest of the Heavenly Dao Sect people could not possibly sit back, so they took action by releasing various Heavenly Dao energy-transformed cultivation techniques.

"In my opinion, your strength is nothing!"

As he formed a sword hand sign, his Immortal's Core soared through the skies!

Bang!

Countless cultivation techniques collapsed one after another and could not hurt him at all.

"Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal!"

An Arch Gilded Immortal gasped when he realized Chu Kuangren's cultivation, and his face was filled with shock!

Not many in the Heavenly Dao Sect possessed the cultivation level of a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal.

Moreover, only a handful of people among the current younger generation of Pan Gu Universe had that cultivation.

"Set up the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation!" the Heavenly Dao Sect Master said coldly.

All the Arch Gilded Immortals in the Heavenly Dao Sect immediately moved, occupying all the directions and surrounding Chu Kuangren.

Following that, the Heavenly Dao energy transformed into nine bright stars in the starry sky, and each star contained an intense Heavenly Dao energy!

"Attack!"

"Nine Heavens Divine Dao, Troop Breaker!"

A ray of starlight shot toward Chu Kuangren, and the Heavenly Dao energy transformed into an attack of a thousand troops!

Upon seeing that, Chu Kuangren unleashed a slash with the Heaven Stabilizer in his hand instead of dodging!

A domineering sword shadow slashed forward, and visions of countless fallen gods emerged in its trail. It was the... Immortal Destruction Sword Qi!

Since he was back in Pan Gu Universe, Chu Kuangren could finally cast all kinds of ultimate techniques that belonged to him.

As for the Heavenly Sword, the unique technique of Central Heaven Universe, he had a plan and did not want to use it for the time being.

The sword shadow shook the heavens, and an explosion erupted in the void!

The surrounding stars swayed while the energy storm swept out in all directions and shook the entire Heavenly Dao Sect.

"Immortal Destruction Sword Qi!"

"The cultivation technique that ranks first in the Twenty-Four Sword Dao Techniques is truly frightening!"

"Hmph. My Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation is not to be messed with too!"

Several Arch Gilded Immortals channeled their Heavenly Dao energy to its limit, while the nine huge stars formed from the Heavenly Dao energy shone with dazzling brilliance.

"Troop Breaker, Greedy Wolf, Huge Gate, Fortune Saver, Martial Movement, Graceful Movement, Integrity and Loyalty, Left Support, Right Support!"

The Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation was a formation formed by the Heavenly Dao energy to mimic the evolution of the ancient Nine Big Dipper Stars. Not only was it powerful and horrifying, but it was even more astonishing when cast by nine Arch Gilded Immortals!

In their opinion, no matter how powerful Chu Kuangren was, he would be defeated by the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation!

"Chu Kuangren, I don't care how you managed to survive, but since you've disappeared for decades, you should stay that way!" Heavenly Dao Sect Master snorted coldly.

He possessed Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm cultivation, so he was the main lead of the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation.

Nine huge stars containing infinite mysteries surrounded his body.

As he raised his hand, brilliance flowed around the nine stars, and the Heavenly Dao energy gathered. Then, a huge palm pushed forward, shattering heaven and earth wherever it went!

That was the energy of the nine stars!

However, Chu Kuangren was not afraid of that energy.

"You think you can kill me, huh?"

Chu Kuangren held the Heaven Stabilizer in his hand while his Immortal's Core surged to its limit.

He might have found it difficult to deal with the nine stars' energy before he refined the Innate Five Elemental Flags but not anymore now!

"Immortal Destruction!"

He raised his hand and slashed forward with the Heaven Stabilizer!

The Immortal Destruction Sword Qi's final form erupted with infinite power that shook the universe!

There was even a vast amount of Arch Gilded Intent contained in that attack.

Boom!

When the two energies collided, the Heavenly Dao Sect, which was already on the verge of collapse, finally exploded. As a result, countless buildings collapsed, and many Heavenly Dao Sect's disciples perished.

Even the huge ancient star formed by the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation trembled as if it was about to collapse too!

After the ultimate moves collided, Chu Kuangren's figure flashed and appeared on a huge ancient star. "If this formation is your final support, I'll have to disappoint you."

He then mobilized his Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art. In an instant, the stars formed by the Heavenly Dao energy were continuously sucked into his body!

The nine stars were connected, and if one of them prospered or declined, the same thing would happen to the others!

Therefore, when one star was affected, the Heavenly Dao energy of the rest of the eight stars would be absorbed into Chu Kuangren.

"This is bad. He's absorbing the Heavenly Dao energy!"

"This brat's technique is really weird!"

"We can't let him go on any longer."

The Heavenly Dao Sect Master yelled and took out a golden pearl that he threw out!

"Heavenly Dao Pearl, rip him apart!"

The Heavenly Dao Pearl was an Innate Source Supreme Treasure!

It contained the Heavenly Dao energy, which was several times that of the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation, and its power was frightening when used by the Heavenly Dao Sect Master.

It did not look like a pearl as it smashed toward Chu Kuangren but a universe composed of billions of stars and a Heavenly Dao!

"This treasure is great, but you still can't hurt me!"

As Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes, a Green Lotus Mark surrounded by a mysterious Daoist Rhyme emerged on his forehead!

"Within the Chaos lies a green lotus, the master of creation and destruction!"

"Green Lotus, Light of Destruction!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand, and a burst of green light flowed outward with a destructive power!

Suddenly, the Heavenly Dao energy collapsed!

The Heavenly Dao Pearl shattered after exploding with a bang, and the Heavenly Dao energy in it spread like a tide before it erupted like billions of stars. Soon, the terrifying impact caused the Nine Heavens Divine Dao Formation to collapse, sending the Heavenly Dao Sect Master and other Arch Gilded Immortals flying backward.

"How is this possible? The Heavenly Dao Pearl is smashed!"

"What is that green light?!"

"It's the Chaos Supreme Treasure!"

Seemingly having figured it out, the Heavenly Dao Sect Master had a grim look on his face. "So, what I heard about Chu Kuangren having the Chaos Green Lotus is true."

The Chaos Green Lotus was something that even the Great Dao was extremely afraid of. How could the Heavenly Dao Pearl compare to it?

In addition, Chu Kuangren's cultivation was no weaker than that of the Heavenly Dao Sect Master, so it was no doubt that he could smash a treasure easily.

"Can Chu Kuangren's physical body withstand such an impact?"

"I have no idea."

At that moment, the Heavenly Dao energy that filled the sky turned into a huge whirlpool as if something was devouring it.

In the whirlpool, a figure loomed vaguely. It was Chu Kuangren!

He was absorbing the Heavenly Dao energy!

"How could he absorb the Heavenly Dao energy of such scale into his body!"

"Isn't he afraid that his physical body would explode?"

The Heavenly Dao Sect Master and others were shocked.

They did not know that Chu Kuangren's physical body was formed by the Chaos Green Lotus and that it could not be damaged no matter how powerful the Heavenly Dao energy was.

"Oh, you can't take it anymore?"

Chu Kuangren absorbed the Heavenly Dao energy into his body until the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao could not take it anymore. Then, he stored the remaining Heavenly Dao energy in his body.

Following that, he looked at the Heavenly Dao Sect Master and others, to whom he said indifferently, "Do you guys have any other tricks?"

"Chu Kuangren..."

The Heavenly Dao Sect Master and others did not know how to react to the situation.

Chu Kuangren's strength was much more frightening than they had imagined, and they were not his opponents!

"It looks like even the Heavenly Dao is helpless!"

Chapter 1795: Destroying Heavenly Dao Sect, Turning Your Restricted Area Into Hell, The Yin and Yang Cauldron

In the Heavenly Dao Sect, Chu Kuangren suppressed the entire Heavenly Dao Sect alone!

His powerful strength made everyone afraid. Even the Heavenly Dao Sect Master was terrified.

Chu Kuangren was much more powerful than he was decades ago!

"Chu Kuangren, the Heavenly Dao Sect has the protection of the Heavenly Dao King, who is the Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area's Embodier great one. Are you sure you want to have a fallout with the Heavenly Dao Sect?" the Heavenly Dao Sect Master asked.

The Heavenly Dao King was an Embodier and the Heavenly Dao Sect's greatest reliance!

However, Chu Kuangren sneered upon hearing the statement. "So what if it's the Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area and an Embodier? He can come to me!"

After that, Chu Kuangren soared into the sky, and the Green Lotus energy in his body slowly surged.

An incomparable surge of power was ready to be released!

An Embodier?

He had three Embodiers in the Underworld, and all of them were at his disposal. He even had the support of the Seven Celestial Demons.

Therefore, he was not afraid of an Embodier, let alone the entire Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area!

Boom!

At that moment, a large amount of Immortal Sparks lit up the sky while countless Daoist laws manifested into a huge face in mid-air.

An indifferent gaze landed on Chu Kuangren.

"Chu Kuangren, if you dare destroy my Heavenly Dao Sect, I will destroy your Firmament Empire!" said the huge face in the sky.

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren's eyes turned cold. Without saying another word, he channeled the Green Lotus' destruction energy to its limit!

As the green radiance radiated and spread out, the entire Heavenly Dao Sect was enveloped in the destruction energy. Then, the earth cracked, the void shattered, and everything turned into nothing!

Boom!

The huge Heavenly Dao Sect was destroyed in a second!

"How dare you!"

The huge face that was the Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area's Heavenly Dao King grunted, and countless Daoist laws occupied the void to attack Chu Kuangren!

Space and time were frozen everywhere the attack struck!

At that moment, a green storm containing Daoist law energy flowed out and blocked the Heavenly Dao King's Daoist law energy!

When the two Daoist laws collided in the void, an explosion erupted!

A slim figure in green emerged above Chu Kuangren. She was a stunning woman and a powerful Celestial Demon!

She was Ling Hua, one of the Seven Celestial Demons!

"Ling Hua, are you planning to intervene in the restricted area's matter?"

"You, the old and unashamed, have made a move to bully my Celestial Demon Tribe's member, so why can't I intervene?"

Ling Hua sneered and said indifferently, "Come and fight with me as your real self if you dare, and we shall see who's the winner!"

"You..."

The Heavenly Dao King was speechless.

Since the most powerful and honorable Heavenly Spirit in the Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area dared not act presumptuously before Ling Hua, neither did he.

However, the Heavenly Dao King felt miserable seeing the Heavenly Dao Sect that he supported destroyed.

"Chu Kuangren, I will definitely destroy your Firmament Empire!" the Heavenly Dao King said coldly.

At that moment, Chu Kuangren, who had been silent, had a green lotus slowly blooming from his body, and a terrifying cold murderous intent spread everywhere.

His chilly voice echoed in the sky as if the God of Death had spoken.

"If you dare hurt one of my empire's soldiers, I will lead hundreds of millions of Underworld Soldiers and Embodiers in the name of the Ghost Emperor to turn your Restricted Area into hell!"

"If you don't believe that, you can try me."

As soon as Chu Kuangren said that, he waved his sleeves.

Immediately after, the Ghost Emperor's authority was fully activated, and the Hell's Gate appeared in the void between heaven and earth, with ghoulish qi spreading out from it.

The Heavenly Dao Sect, which had been turned into ruins, looked like hell on earth at that moment.

Chu Kuangren's words put a grim look on the Heavenly Dao King's face, while the clouds in the sky rumbled as if mimicking his unstable emotion.

The Heavenly Dao King had never felt so angry before.

Ever since he became an Embodier, no one had said such words to him over the years.

'Nice one, Chu Kuangren, the Underworld Ghost Emperor and Celestial Demon King!'

The Heavenly God King snorted. As his power dissipated, the Heavenly Dao aura also gradually dissipated.

With a scowl, Ling Hua said to Chu Kuangren, "Rest assured. I know this brat. Although he talks impressively, he's actually a coward. I've challenged him several times for a fight, but he has never accepted it. He won't dare to harm your empire as long as I'm around."

"Thank you, Senior Ling Hua."

Chu Kuangren closed the Hell's Gate and smiled faintly.

"By the way, I've shown your jade scroll to my eldest brother. He appreciates you very much and has asked me to pass you this thing, saying that it might be helpful to you."

Ling Hua took out a large antique cauldron engraved with many runes depicting ancient patterns such as human sacrifices, mountains, rivers, and beasts.

When Chu Kuangren saw that cauldron, his body trembled slightly.

He felt the same familiar feeling as when he came across the Innate Five Elemental Flags.

Could that cauldron be made from the Chaos Green Lotus fragments?

"This is the Yin and Yang Cauldron!"

Ling Hua smiled. "After the Chaos Green Lotus shattered, it turned into thirty-six lotus leaves. The two largest ones were made into the River Chart Inscription, another five were made into the Pseudo Five Lanterns and Innate Five Elemental Flags, while the rest of the small twenty-four lotus leaves were made into twenty-four Oceanic Soothing Pearls. Lastly, the lotus pod was made into this Yin and Yang Cauldron!"

"It's both offensive and defensive top-notch Innate Supreme Treasure. I don't think you're lacking in Innate Supreme Treasures, but I think my eldest brother told me to pass it to you because you possess the Chaos Green Lotus. Can you absorb it?"

As expected of the Seven Celestial Demons, Ling Hua could tell the relationship between Chu Kuangren and the treasures made from the Chaos Green Lotus fragment in a short period.

"I can."

Chu Kuangren did not intend to hide the fact.

"Hah! Interesting." Ling Hua smiled. Then, she tossed the Yin and Yang Cauldron to Chu Kuangren.

This treasure was more precious than the Innate Five Elemental Flags that he obtained earlier.

It was impossible for Chu Kuangren to completely absorb and refine the treasure anytime soon because he needed to refine the Heavenly Dao energy in his body first. Hence, he temporarily put the treasure away.

"There's one more thing. The Immortal World's Battle of the Heavenly Champions has come to the final moment. Don't you want the position of the Immortal World Ruler?"

"The Immortal World Ruler... It's already in my bag!" Chu Kuangren said while standing with hands behind his back.

Shortly after, he returned to the empire and released the news about the downfall of the Heavenly Dao Sect.

The news made Nangong Huang and others jump with joy.

Chu Kuangren then returned to the Imperial Palace, intending to have closed-door meditation to refine the Heavenly Dao energy in his body.

Meanwhile, Gu Linglong started to eliminate the scouts placed by the Heavenly Dao Sect and other forces on the Firmament Star.

On that day, Gu Linglong was looking at a scroll in her hand.

It stated that all scouts in the Capital had been eliminated.

However, the Capital was greatly affected after the battle and would probably need a lot of time to recover.

Inside the Imperial Palace, a golden pillar of light suddenly shot into the sky!

Bursts of mysterious Daoist chimes reverberated in all directions, and golden lotuses sprung from the ground. In the sky, auspicious dragons and phoenixes, thousand saints, and other conjurations manifested one after another.

From the center of the pillar of light, a wave of spiritual power spread out!

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1796: Destroying Heavenly Dao Sect, Turning Your Restricted Area Into Hell, The Yin and Yang Cauldron

The gigantic pillar of light rose into the sky, followed by a terrifying aura that spread out everywhere and eventually enveloped the entire Capital.

At the same time, a surging wave of spiritual qi also swept out from within the pillar of light. Wherever it went, everything revived!

The aura was so dense that it could almost condense into liquid form and flow throughout the void.

In the Capital, War Admiral Chaos, Nangong Huang, Luo Shui, and the others were extremely shocked when they saw that phenomenon.

"W-What is happening?"

"Such pure and potent spiritual qi! Did something happen?"

"It's not only the spiritual qi..."

War Admiral Chaos uttered as he sensed something. He noticed that the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao had grown much stronger, making it easier for everyone to gain insights into and understand the Dao.

Compared to the change in spiritual qi, everyone was more shocked to find out about the change in the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao.

"What are you guys waiting for? Quick! Begin your cultivation now!"

Nangong Huang's eyes lit up. He immediately sat down with his legs crossed and started to absorb the surrounding spiritual qi to comprehend his Source.

The others also quickly started their cultivation.

On that very day, the entire Capital was enveloped in some liquid-like spiritual qi. Overjoyed, countless cultivators quickly grabbed the opportunity to cultivate, and any managed to gain significant improvement in their Immortal's Core.

With the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao prospering like never before, Daoist Rhymes reverberated in the skies. Many cultivators instantly gained insights during their cultivation and broke through to a higher cultivation realm.

That was the greatest change the Firmament Star had had in decades.

Due to that prosperous event, the Capital's damaged vitality gradually recovered, and its potential was much greater than before.

No... Not only the Capital but the whole Firmament Star also benefited tremendously from that event.

Everyone looked at the pillar of light with utmost reverence and admiration.

All of them knew that no one other than Chu Kuangren could bring about such a great change.

Sitting with his legs crossed inside the Imperial Palace, Chu Kuangren was focusing on refining the Heavenly Dao energy inside his body.

The Little Golden Man, a manifestation of the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao, was also sitting beside him. It was imitating Chu Kuangren, sitting crossed-legged, and refining Heavenly Dao energy.

It was because the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao had grown stronger that the planet itself was experiencing such beneficial changes.

"Alright, I'm more or less done with refining this."

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes.

The Little Golden Man also stood up and bowed to Chu Kuangren, seemingly expressing his gratitude, before it disappeared.

"The Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao is now dozens of times stronger than before. This means that becoming Immortals will become easier for many cultivators in the Firmament Star... Perhaps I can even start to think about relocating the Firmament Empire into the Immortal World," Chu Kuangren murmured while rubbing his chin.

The Immortal World was an important strategic location of the Pan Gu Universe. After all, almost every prestigious orthodoxy or force had settled inside there.

For example, the two great Immortal Halls, the Human Emperor Sect, the Eastern King School, Hundred Academy, and more were located in the Immortal World.

Moving his empire into the Immortal World would not be too hard for Chu Kuangren. After all, once he became the Immortal World Ruler, all he needed to do was to give that order, and it would be done.

"Next up would be the Battle of Heavenly Champions. It's time for this great battle to come to an end," Chu Kuangren murmured.

He stared into the depths of Pan Gu Universe, looking at the ancient Immortal World, and grinned.

After he completed his closed-door meditation, he told Gu Linglong about his plans to return to the Immortal World.

"Now, my future queen of the Immortal World, would you like to accompany me and witness the greatest event in the history of this universe?"

Gu Linglong chuckled. "Of course. I'd be glad to, my King."

Having been Queen for so long, Gu Linglong felt it was time to let go of her burdens and spend more time with her lover.

If he wanted to travel and see the world, she would be by his side and accompany him everywhere.

If he wanted to relax and indulge in music and art, she would dance for him and prepare the tools for drawing.

If he wanted to climb to the pinnacle of supreme power, she would accompany him... and rule by his side!

"My Queen, are you going to leave with the King?"

Elder Ruyan, who was next to her, was stunned. "If you're gone, who's going to manage this empire?!"

Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong exchanged gazes and then looked at Elder Ruyan together. They clearly had an answer already.

Elder Ruyan looked around her for a while before coming to a realization. She pointed to herself and said in horror, "You can't possibly be planning to hand over this great empire to me?"

"I'll be counting on you, Elder Ruyan," Chu Kuangren said seriously.

Elder Ruyan had known Chu Kuangren for a very long time. Back when he was still a Sect Leader, Elder Ruyan was by his side, assisting in handling various matters. When he became the Human King, she was elected as humanity's chief governor to aid him. After he left and Gu Linglong took over as Queen, she was the one who had been helping her the entire time.

No one other than Elder Ruyan was more qualified for that task.

"My King, you seem to be getting better at passing the buck, huh?"

Elder Ruyan felt helpless.

Why could she not have an easier life?

For all the years, from the Black Heaven Sect to the current Firmament Empire, had she not contributed enough?

Now that Chu Kuangren and his wife were about to leave, she could not believe that they had decided to toss such a tremendous responsibility over to her. She felt incredibly helpless just at the mere thought of it.

'Quick, everyone. Quickly come and look!'

'The heartless Human King and his pretty wife are going to work the humanity's elder to the bone!'

"Elder Ruyan, I believe you can pull this off without trouble."

Chu Kuangren walked to her and patted her shoulder.

At the same time, a surge of Green Lotus's Creation energy was injected into her body. With that energy in her body, some of Elder Ruyan's internal injuries healed rapidly.

Besides that, her cultivation progress would become smoother in the future.

That surge of energy was a manifestation of the Chaos Green Lotus's purest form of Creation energy and could not be used however pleased.

However, Chu Kuangren felt that Elder Ruyan was qualified to receive that power.

Upon noticing the Green Lotus's Creation energy inside her body, Elder Ruyan did not realize how priceless it was. Instead, she merely let out a bitter smile. "Do I even have a choice?"

"Hehe." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Then, he gathered War General Chaos, Nangong Huang, and the others and briefly told them about bringing Gu Linglong with him to the Immortal World.

Although everyone was surprised that Chu Kuangren was leaving so soon, they understood that the matter at the Immortal World was more important.

"As for the empire, Linglong and I have decided to let Elder Ruyan handle everything in our absence," Chu Kuangren said.

No one was surprised to hear that as they, too, felt that it made sense.

Some of them even looked at Elder Ruyan and teased.

"Elder Ruyan has become an unparalleled pillar of support for humanity."

"That's right. Elder Ruyan has made significant contributions to the development of the empire since the very beginning. Our achievements could only pale in comparison to hers."

Elder Ruyan rolled her eyes. "Why don't you guys do it instead?"

"No, no, no. There's no way we can do that. We're all brutes who only know how to fight and kill. It's better that we leave the management of the empire to you."

Everyone quickly waved their hands.

After some small talk, Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong left.

While on the way to the Immortal World, Gu Linglong asked curiously, "By the way, my husband, you mentioned that an individual known as Heavenly Dao King is backing the Heavenly Dao Sect. Won't he come to our empire looking for trouble?"

"Don't worry. Senior Ling Hua is helping me keep watch." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

That was the reason he felt rest assured to leave the empire.

Soon after, Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong arrived at one of the Immortal World's Four Heavenly Gates, the Southern Heavenly Gate.

Looking at the nine hundred ninety-nine white jade pillars with dragons and phoenixes carved into them, Chu Kuangren could not help but recall the first time he came here. There was a slight grin on his face.

"So, this is the Immortal World? It's quite spectacular," Gu Linglong exclaimed in amazement.

"It'll be even more spectacular in a bit. Come, Linglong, hold my hand."

"What's the matter?"

Gu Linglong was a little confused. However, she still extended her hand.

"I just want to give you an early taste of what it feels like to become the Immortal World's Queen."

He led Gu Linglong and entered the Southern Heavenly Gate. Within an instant, boundless light shone everywhere, lighting up the dark and silent universe.

Then, the nine hundred ninety-nine white jade dragon and phoenix pillars shook. Countless dragons and phoenixes manifested, their roars and cries reverberating throughout the area, and auspicious conjurations appeared. It was as if they were welcoming the Immortal World Ruler himself!

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1797

Outside the Immortal World, at the Southern Heavenly Gate, the nine hundred and ninety-nine white jade dragon and phoenix pillars had never trembled at once for dozens of years.

However, on that very day, nine hundred and ninety-nine dragons and phoenixes soared into the skies altogether. The auspicious Immortal Sparks from that conjuration spread in all directions, illuminating the dark universe!

Besides the Southern Heavenly Gate, the Eastern, Western, and Northern Heavenly Gates lit up with Immortal Sparks like never before the moment Chu Kuangren stepped foot into the Southern Heavenly Gate. The light emitted was seemingly endless, and it eventually attracted the attention of the great ones in the universe.

"Something is happening at the Immortal World's Four Heavenly Gates!"

"What's going on?"

"There hasn't been a commotion like this for many years. The last time it happened was because of Chu Kuangren—"

"Wait a minute... Chu Kuangren, huh? I'm starting to have a bad feeling about this."

Some of the great ones seemed to have thought of something.

Recently, rumors about Chu Kuangren's return had suddenly spread all over the universe.

Now, even the Immortal World's Four Heavenly Gates were acting strangely.

The Immortal Consciousnesses of the great ones flowed out toward the Four Heavenly Gates, where they saw Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong at the Southern Heavenly Gate.

They did not recognize who Gu Linglong was.

However, they could not be more familiar when it came to Chu Kuangren.

"He's back!"

"F*ck. To think he came back just when the Battle of Heavenly Champions is reaching its end. What a surprise indeed."

His return startled many people.

Meanwhile, inside the Immortal World, thousands of divine light beams swirled in a magnificent palace, and a pillar of light shot straight up into the sky.

Many were attracted by the commotion.

"What's the matter? Why is the Heavenly Will Pavilion suddenly reacting like that?"

"Could something have changed in the Battle of Heavenly Champions?"

The Heavenly Will Temple was a mysterious location that appeared in recent years and was closely related to the Battle of Heavenly Champions. One could even say that it served a role akin to the will of the Immortal World's spokesperson.

Inside that temple, a leaderboard ranking was displayed.

That leaderboard was known as the Heavenly Will Leaderboard.

Those listed on the leaderboard were all Heavenly Champions who possessed the wills of the Immortal World.

These Heavenly Champions were Prodigies and sky-prides who managed to reach the final stage of the Battle of Heavenly Champions. In total, seventy-two cultivators made it.

They were known as the seventy-two Immortal Prides!

If nothing went wrong, the Immortal World's Ruler would appear from those seven-two individuals.

On that very day, a strange commotion occurred at the Heavenly Will Temple.

As the pillar of light rose into the sky, a gigantic leaderboard appeared.

Following that, the names of the seventy-two Immortal Prides appeared one after another without a ranking.

However, what surprised everyone was something else.

It was the addition of a new name to that leaderboard today!

It was a name that shocked everyone and horrified some of them — Chu Kuangren!

"W-What's going on here?!"

A sky-pride could not help but stutter with shock.

The others were also stunned and speechless by the sudden appearance of that name.

"Chu Kuangren. Isn't he dead?"

"How can he still be alive? What's going on?"

"We all saw him die in the Void Annihilation Formation in the universe-connecting portal back then. Even an Embodier might not survive under that tremendous amount of energy. How did he do it?"

The entire Immortal World was in a great uproar because of that name.

The impression left by the name "Chu Kuangren" was simply that tremendous!

Even though dozens of years had passed, when the name appeared, everyone could not help but recall the man's legendary feats and accomplishments...

That white-robed cultivator was the nightmare of both sky-prides and Prodigies!

Inside the Human Emperor Sect, Xuanyuan's Successor opened his eyes and stared at the Heavenly Will Leaderboard in the sky. Disbelief was written all over his face.

"Chu Kuangren. He's still alive!"

"He's still alive... Still alive, huh?" Xuanyuan's Successor tightened his grip on his Xuanyuan Sword and started trembling uncontrollably.

He then let out a long roar, releasing a chilling burst of sword qi into the skies!

His sword shadow swung downward and slashed open a huge mountain.

The mountain crumbled and split in half. After venting his anger, Xuanyuan's Successor smiled. "So, you're still alive, huh? This is wonderful news indeed! The Human Emperor is still alive! This time, I'll take the Human Emperor's fate from you no matter the cost!"

Although dozens of years had passed, he still had not given up on becoming the Human Emperor.

It had almost become an obsession at that point.

Meanwhile, somewhere in the Human Emperor Sect, Nuwa's Successor, Hua Xi, was at the top of a mountain, looking at the leaderboard in the sky and pondering.

"Chu Kuangren... He's not dead."

"If he's still alive, there will surely be a change in the Battle of Heavenly Champions' outcome. Not only will it be an unprecedented change, but it will also be big."

Chu Kuangren's reputation was just too great.

Dozens of years ago, he single-handedly overshadowed every sky-pride in the Immortal World with his peerless feats, forcing them to live in his shadow.

Now that he had appeared again, everyone was most eager to find out how powerful he had become.

"It looks like we'll have to speed up collecting the Ten Great Godly Weapons. Out of the ten, the Human Emperor Sect possesses three, namely the Xuanyuan Sword, Nuwa Stone, and Shennong Cauldron. The Eastern Sovereign Bell is now in the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist's possession, while the Ji clan is guarding the Kongtong Seal. The Kunlun Mirror used to be in Lan Yu's possession but was stolen later by the Heavenly Spirit Restricted Area's Shi Jiuqiao... "

No matter how Hua Xi thought about it, she felt that the item that was the trickiest to obtain would be Chu Kuangren's Fuxi's Guqin.

"Should we deal with Chu Kuangren first?" Hua Xi mumbled.

Meanwhile, somewhere inside the Soul Restricted Area, a woman in long blue robes opened her eyes. She was surrounded by countless ferocious ghouls shrieking and howling into the sky.

That woman was Lan Haifang.

She looked into the sky with extreme hatred. "Chu Kuangren, I can't believe you're still alive. It looks like the Heavens are on my side this time, creating a chance for me to slice you into pieces myself!"

She was once fooled by Chu Kuangren, and it allowed him to cause great chaos in the Soul Restricted Area.

She was almost made the worst criminal in the history of the Soul Restricted Area.

However, she converted her hatred for Chu Kuangren into strength. It enabled her to withstand countless trials and tribulations, and her cultivation progressed by leaps and bounds.

She even sought to quench her soul with countless ghouls!

Since then, she had become the Restricted Area's Young Overlord. Her strengths were now beyond comparison to the old her back in the day!

She would certainly find Chu Kuangren to get revenge for the humiliation he brought upon her!

Inside the Immortal Hall, the Eastern Sovereign Divine Daoist did not know how to react to the news. Chu Kuangren's reappearance had dug up many unbearable memories of the past that he had buried inside him.

The humiliation and disgrace he suffered at Chu Kuangren's hands were now fresh in his mind again!

"Chu Kuangren... You're still alive!"

"Perhaps this is the will of the Heavens itself! It's Heaven's will that you die at my hand! Besides, I'm now far stronger than ever before!"

His cultivation was not only in the Five Qi Arch Gilded Immortal Realm, but he was also close to becoming a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal.

He even obtained a great item like the Eastern Sovereign's Bell!

He believed that the next time he encountered Chu Kuangren in battle, he would not be humiliated as he did the last time.

At that moment, the Great Arbiter Divine Maiden beside him was also looking at Chu Kuangren's name in the sky. She felt a dull pain from the Spirit Expulsion Cursing Seal inside her mind.

'He's really back...'

'Just as I thought.'

'He's not dead.'

The Great Arbiter Divine Maiden sighed helplessly.

Everyone thought that Chu Kuangren was dead. However, she noticed that the Spirit Expulsion Cursing Seal inside her mind had not disappeared throughout the years, so she suspected he was still alive.

On that very day, the entire Immortal World was plunged into great unrest due to the appearance of one man's name.

Those who hated and adored Chu Kuangren were emotionally shaken to their core. Everyone understood the same thing: since that person had returned, there was no way he would stand by and do nothing.

He would certainly ignite a firestorm with his return.

As for what kind of storm he was about to cause, only time could tell. However, everyone would definitely be paying attention to it.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1798: The Great Deification Tablet Appears Once More, I'm the Hundred Academy's Chief Disciple

In the Immortal World, inside a country somewhere, Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong were strolling on the streets.

His return to the Immortal World had attracted the attention of many, and everyone was busy speculating about what he would do next.

However, no one would ever expect him to be browsing the stores by the street with Gu Linglong.

For someone who came to the Immortal World for the first time, Gu Linglong was very curious about the new location. However, after traveling around for a few days, she realized that the Immortal World did not differ much to the Firmament Empire. The only difference was that the people here were much stronger and held a firmer belief in the survival of the fittest.

Then again, because Chu Kuangren was with her, she was in a splendid mood wherever she went. After all, she was spending precious time with her loved one right now.

"Have you guys heard? The Immortal Hall's Great Deification Tablet has appeared again."

"What? The Great Deification Tablet?"

"That's right. I wonder who's going to be chosen this time too."

"Tsk tsk. I heard the Immortal Hall's Great Deification Tablet is an extremely mysterious tool. Those chosen can join the Immortal Hall and become the high and mighty Immortal Hall officials."

A few cultivators were discussing the recent news inside a tavern.

Among them, one of the cultivators looked excited.

However, one of the Gilded Immortals beside him sneered upon seeing his expression. "You fool!"

"You..."

That cultivator's expression changed. He was going to attack but could not help but gulp after noticing that person's Gilded Trait.

'Damn, that's a Gilded Immortal...'

'I can't afford to provoke someone like that.'

"May I know why you said that, Senior Brother? Isn't it good if we're chosen to join the Immortal Hall? After all, they're two of the most powerful ruling forces in the universe."

When the Gilded Immortal heard that, he sneered again. "I suppose only you people will believe in nonsense like the Great Deification Tablet. I'll let you in on a secret. The true form of the Great Deification Tablet is nothing but a prison!"

"What do you mean? Please elaborate further."

The few other cultivators exchanged glances and quickly asked for more explanation.

"Well, what you guys talked about earlier is true. If your name is listed on the tablet, you'll be eligible to join the Immortal Hall and become one of their officials. However, what you need to know is this. After a person who is listed on the tablet joins them, their soul will be held captive by the Great Deification Tablet, and they can never escape. It may seem like you'll become an Immortal Hall official, but the truth is, you're just becoming a slave of the Immortal Hall!

"If you make good contributions, the Immortal Hall will reward you with some luxurious items. If you mess up or fail, all it takes is a swipe of the brush, and your name will be removed from the tablet. Your life will end on the spot."

"Are you still eager to be listed on the Great Deification Tablet now?"

The Gilded Immortal asked the younger cultivators, whose faces had turned pale from fear.

Everyone quickly shook their heads after hearing that.

Never would they expect the Great Deification Tablet to be something so malicious!

Those listed on the tablet would lose control of their lives and be reduced to mere slaves.

That was simply terrifying.

"I thought the Great Deification Tablet was an awesome opportunity, but I can't believe it's so messed up. Now, I don't want to join even if I happen to be listed."

"No. If you're targeted by the Great Deification Tablet, I advise you to join them obediently," the Gilded Immortal said.

"Why?"

'Why must I become a slave of the Immortal Hall? Why must I join them?'

"That's because if you don't join them, the Immortal Hall will take action by ending your life. They will then forcefully restrain your soul and seal you within the Great Deification Tablet!"

"What? What a bully! The Immortal Hall is simply just too inhumane."

"Hmph. How do you think the Immortal Hall became the ruling force of the Immortal World in the first place? It's all because they're inhumane!"

The Gilded Immortal lamented, and a look of sorrow appeared in his eyes.

Everyone looked at each other after noticing the change in his expression.

"Senior Brother, may I know your name?"

"Pan Yunlong."

"Pan Yunlong... Why is this name so familiar... Oh, I remember now. The Ji clan previously released a list of names chosen to join the Great Deification Tablet, and I recall seeing your name on that list. You're one of the chosen cultivators!"

One of the cultivators looked at Pan Yunlong with shock.

The Ji clan was designated as the Great Deification Tablet's executor this time. Hence, a few days ago, they released a list of names of cultivators chosen to join the Great Deification process.

Pan Yunlong was one of them.

As everyone put the facts together, they soon understood why Pan Yunlong was so sad.

At that thought, they pitied him a little.

Somewhere nearby, Chu Kuangren and Gu Linglong overheard everything the cultivators were talking about. Both of them could not help but frown.

As Queen of the Firmament Star, Gu Linglong knew about the Age of Gods in the history of the planet.

During that era, humans were treated as livestock by the Gods to gather their Power of Faith to become stronger.

In her opinion, what the Immortal Hall was doing now was not much different from those Gods back then.

Both parties sought to enslave the humans, forcing them to serve and work for them.

"My dear, is this matter about the Great Deification true?"

"Yeah."

Chu Kuangren nodded gently, and his gaze was cold.

During the previous Great Deification Calamity, the two Immortal Halls brought about an end to the lineage of Human Emperors; right now, they were planning to do the same thing to humanity again.

It seemed like it was the perfect time for the Human Emperor to return now.

"It's not bad for me since I have no choice but to surrender and join the Great Deification Tablet. However, some refused to join and had their names listed in a hit list. The Immortal Hall will be taking action to kill them and then trap their souls inside the Great Deification Tablet. According to what I know, most people in that hit list are cultivators from the Hundred Academy."

Pan Yunlong continued speaking.

The Hundred Academy was established by the noblest humans in ancient times. Other than being a sanctuary where talented individuals of the human race were nurtured, it was also a place where the legacy of humanity was preserved.

Now, the Immortal Hall had instigated the Great Deification process again, with their sights set on the Hundred Academy this time. Their intentions were clear, and it was to oppress the human race again.

During the previous time, they ended the lineage of Human Emperors.

This time, they planned to destroy the Hundred Academy to end the legacy of humanity. By doing so, they would ensure that humanity would no longer be capable of standing up to them anymore.

Inside the tavern, everyone fell into a state of silence.

Having figured out the Immortal Hall's true intentions, everyone's heart felt heavy.

"F*ck this! Are we just going to do nothing and let the Immortal Hall commit such despicable acts?"

"What do you think we should do, huh? With the few of us here, how can we be a match for the Ji clan? Besides, the Ji clan has the support of the two Immortal Halls."

The Ji clan was already a top-tier orthodoxy among the human race, let alone the fact that the Immortal Halls were backing them.

The Immortal Halls possessed deep-rooted foundations. They even managed to defeat the Human Emperor in the past, sparking an end to the lineage of Human Emperors in the Immortal World.

What could they do?

Besides, without the Human Emperor's leadership, the human cultivators were scattered and disunited. There was no way they could gather a huge force in such a short time.

At that time, the jade scroll at Pan Yunlong's waist started trembling.

His expression darkened. "I just received news that the Ji clan's army is heading toward the Hundred Academy. It looks like they're going to carry out the Great Deification process now."

Everyone was shocked.

"How many are there? Who's leading them?"

"The Ji Clan Leader, Ji Wuming, is personally leading the army this time. His army consists of a million troops, including the Ji clan's Thirty-Six Vanguard, Eight Great Generals, and Three Thousand Heavenly Guards!"

Upon hearing that, everyone gasped.

"It's such a huge and imposing military force!"

"To think that the Clan Leader is personally leading the million-strong army, Thirty-Six Vanguard, and even the Eight Great Generals... All eight of them are Arch Gilded Immortals!"

"The Hundred Academy... will not survive this."

At that moment, a figure in white slowly stood up and walked out of the tavern.

It was none other than Chu Kuangren.

"My dear, should we head to the Hundred Academy next?" Gu Linglong asked.

"Oh, there's something that I forgot to tell you, Linglong. Your husband is actually the Hundred Academy's... Chief Disciple[1]!"

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

When one of the cultivators beside them overheard them, he immediately stood up and exclaimed in horror, "The Hundred Academy's Chief Disciple! Y-Y-You're Chu Kuangren!"

[1] Previously it was coined as Hundred Academy's Chief, but after much deliberation, Chief Disciple would fit the context much better.

Chapter 1799

"Y-You're Chu Kuangren!"

One of the cultivators looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

It was common knowledge to everyone that Chu Kuangren was the Hundred Academy's Chief Disciple.

Moreover, with Chu Kuangren's name appearing on the Heavenly Will Leaderboard recently, news about his return had already spread like wildfire throughout the Immortal World.

Chu Kuangren ignored the crowd and merely said in an indifferent tone, "The days of the Immortal Hall oppressing the humans have come to an end. Humanity must strive for self-dependence and self-improvement!"

After that, he left.

Meanwhile, Gu Linglong looked at him as he left. There was a beautiful smile on her face.

'As expected of the Firmament Star's Human King. Despite having gone to the Immortal World, he's still the unyielding and unwavering pillar of support for the human race here!'

Then, she followed him.

It did not take long for the cultivators of that tavern to return to their senses.

"It's Chu Kuangren, and he's going to the Hundred Academy!"

"By the heavens, Chu Kuangren is going to start a war against the Ji clan. This is breaking news!"

"Everyone has been wondering how powerful Chu Kuangren has gotten after returning dozens of years later. Perhaps we'll learn a thing or two from observing the battle that is about to come."

Many cultivators quickly went to spread the news.

For a moment, every force and orthodoxy in the Immortal World reacted when they heard the news.

Everyone was extremely interested in Chu Kuangren's actions.

They knew that Chu Kuangren was going to stir up the first storm since his return!

Inside the Hundred Academy, thousands upon thousands of warships approached through the air. Those were the Ji clan's troops.

The one leading them was a middle-aged man clad in armor and holding a long bronze sword. That person was the current Ji Clan Leader... Ji Wuming!

Ji Wuming looked at the Hundred Academy in the distance with cold eyes.

"The Battle of Heavenly Champions is coming to an end. No matter who becomes the Immortal World Ruler, the Immortal Hall has to prepare beforehand. This time, the Great Deification is to consolidate their strength and strengthen their foundations. As a sanctuary for the legacy of the human race, how can the Hundred Academy escape its fate of being a target for destruction?"

"Should I also mention the number of Immortal Hall successors Chu Kuangren has killed? Considering he has killed my Ji clan's successor. If I don't wipe you guys out, how will I be satisfied?"

As Ji Wuming murmured, his grip on his sword tightened.

For the Immortal Hall's Great Deification this time, they planned to elect a total of three thousand, six hundred and fifty Immortal officials!

That number was ten times the amount compared to the previous time!

It took the Ji clan a long time to select the individuals from the Immortal World who were qualified to enter that list. However, more than half of the chosen cultivators were from the Hundred Academy.

Firstly, the Ji clan and Immortal Halls were enemies of the Hundred Academy.

Secondly, as the sanctuary for humanity's legacy, the Hundred Academy had many sky-prides and Prodigies. Those individuals would certainly become an indispensable force for the Immortal Halls in the future.

"Hundred Academy, your fate has been sealed!"

...

Inside the Hundred Academy, Mister Lu and the elders had gathered to plan their resistance against the Ji clan's attack.

"Mister Lu, can Mister Zhang help us this time?" Cao Yun asked.

Before becoming an Arch Gilded Immortal, he was once one of the Hundred Academy's Prodigies. As of now, he had achieved the title of Mister in the Hundred Academy, so everyone addressed him as Mister Cao.

However, he and Mister Lu were not as powerful as Mister Zhang, who had broken through to the Embodier Realm.

"The Ji clan's Embodier has taken action and is now holding Mister Zhang back. The fate of the Hundred Academy rests on our shoulders now," Mister Lu said helplessly.

Upon hearing that, everyone started to look worried.

"This time, the Ji clan has arrived with a huge military force. Judging by their Eighty-One Vanguard, Eight Great Generals, and Three Thousand Heavenly Guard, all of them will be very troublesome to deal with!" Wang Chentian commented in a serious tone.

Dealing with the enemy was not simple. Besides Mister Zhang, Hundred Academy only had four Arch Gilded Immortals — Mister Lu, Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and Fu Yin.

However, all of the Ji clan's Eight Great Generals were Arch Gilded Immortals!

Not to mention, Ji Wuming was also a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal elite!

"Activate the Hundred Academy's Great Sacred Speech Formation and evacuate the students in batches!"

Mister Lu finally made his decision.

Everyone's expression sank when they heard that.

Mister Lu's decision was a clear sign that he was planning to abandon the Hundred Academy premises.

"We can't do this, Mister Lu."

"That's right. The roots and foundations of the Hundred Academy are here!"

However, Mister Lu replied with a determined look on his face. "If our foundations are lost, they can be rebuilt. However, our students must live. They're the ones who will inherit the legacy of the human race! We must never allow the Immortal Hall to put them into the Great Deification Tablet. Otherwise, there will be no hope for humanity anymore..."

Everyone looked at each other reluctantly.

Cao Yun took a deep breath. "Let's follow Mister Lu's orders."

...

Outside the Hundred Academy, battalions of warships had arrived.

Without another moment to lose, Ji Wuming immediately ordered his troops to attack. It was as if he wanted to destroy the human race's most supreme bastion of knowledge at all costs.

It did not matter to him anyway. As long as the ones chosen were dead, their souls would automatically be absorbed into the Great Deification Tablet.

Just then, sounds of scholarly recitations echoed from the void.

Following that, pillars of light rose into the sky and intertwined in the void.

Upon taking a closer look, the pillars of light were formed by countless characters and words.

The words and characters gathered, forming passage upon passage of splendid scripture and poem. Soon, the entire Hundred Academy was shielded within the formation of sacred texts.

That was the Hundred Academy's Great Sacred Speech Formation!

"Thoughts without knowledge are dangerous; knowledge without thought is a waste..."

"In a gathering of three, there must be one we can learn from..."

"Under the same night sky, we can share this moment despite being separated..."

"A ruler is like a boat, and common people are like water. The boat can be carried by the water, but water can also overturn it..."

As the words and characters spanned across the sky, the voices of sages were reverberating through the void.

An abundance of purity and sanctity filled the surrounding area. Every word and passage in that formation was profound and, most importantly, thought-provoking.

"The Hundred Academy's Great Sacred Speech Formation is truly as extraordinary as they say," Ji Wuming said calmly.

"Rumor has it that the Hundred Academy's Great Sacred Speech Formation is imbued with the power of the Hundred Scholars and is extremely profound. It looks like it'll be tricky to break through," one of the generals beside Ji Wuming said.

"This seems to be their strategy, I'm afraid. They plan to halt our advance using the Great Sacred Speech Formation, buying time for their students to leave. It looks like they're abandoning this academy," Ji Wuming said.

Then, he suddenly unsheathed his long bronze sword and unleashed a terrifying flashing sword ray!

That attack was filled with Immortal's Core energy, while its sword intent was akin to the might of heavenly beings!

It was the Ji clan's Heaven's Son Sword Art.

Boom!

When the sword qi landed on the Great Sacred Speech Formation, the great formation trembled violently due to the sheer power of the attack.

"Everyone, attack at once! We must break this formation in the shortest time possible!" Ji Wuming ordered.

In that instant, the Eight Great Generals, Three Thousand Heavenly Guard, and millions of soldiers attacked at once.

Terrifying bursts of Immortal's Core energy erupted, filling the surrounding area with unparalleled might!

While the formation shook violently because of the incoming attacks, the words and characters began to disintegrate and shatter.

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, Mister Lu, and Fu Yin — the four Arch Gilded Immortals stepped forward.

Hoping to buy time for the students to evacuate, the sole four Arch Gilded Immortals of the Hundred Academy were now facing off against the million-strong army!

"How ridiculous. Before the likes of Heavenly Child, everything you do will only be in vain!" said Ji Wuming emotionlessly as he held his bronze sword.

His Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal aura erupted at full power, and the power of Heavenly Child swept out mercilessly in all directions!

"Heavenly Child, you say?"

"Acting in the name of Heavenly Child yet behaving in a manner that befits a slave... You're nothing but a joke!"

At that time, an apathetic voice sounded.

Following that, an overwhelmingly domineering sword aura descended from the sky!

Endless Immortal Sparks filled the void.

Amidst the dazzling Immortal Sparks, a figure in white gradually approached. His robes were as white as snow, his brows as sharp as swords, his demeanor otherworldly, and his poise was as transcendental as ever. At the sight of that person, everyone present widened their eyes in fear.

Cao Yun, Wang Chentian, and the others immediately burst with joy.

"Chief!"

On that very day, when the Heavenly Child attacked with a million-strong army, the Hundred Academy's Chief Disciple returned!

Chapter 1800: Killing Ji Wuming, the Million Strong Army's Morale Plummet

Outside the Hundred Academy, the million-strong army led by the Heavenly Child marched forward. It was a grand and magnificent display of military might!

Meanwhile, the Hundred Academy's Great Sacred Speech Formation was destroyed, putting Mister Lu and the others in danger!

However, just when the Heavenly Child was about to annihilate the Hundred Academy, they were met with Chu Kuangren's domineering arrival. His overwhelming sword aura rose into the sky and caused the whole area to tremble. It was an announcement that the Hundred Academy's Chief Disciple had returned!

Wang Chentian and the others were overjoyed by Chu Kuangren's arrival.

For a while, the Hundred Academy's spirits were lifted!

After all, they already knew of Chu Kuangren's name appearing on the Heavenly Will Leaderboard a few days ago. Hence, although they were excited about his return, they were not that surprised.

"Chu Kuangren!"

Following Chu Kuangren's arrival, Ji Wuming's gaze gradually turned solemn.

He had heard many of Chu Kuangren's legendary feats and accomplishments.

"Chu Kuangren, since you're alive, you should've stayed hidden. Why have you come to die?" Ji Wuming said calmly.

Although his opponent was Chu Kuangren, he was just a younger-generation cultivator.

Meanwhile, Ji Wuming was a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal elite!

Not many among the young generation cultivators could pose a threat to him.

"Even a slave has the nerve to bark so arrogantly before me, huh?" Chu Kuangren said.

Ji Wuming's expression darkened. "You must have a death wish!"

He raised his long bronze sword high and imbued his Five-Step Arch Gilded Intent into his attack. Then, a menacing sword ray shot across the skies at full force!

He did not hold back in that attack!

The full extent of his Great Perfected Arch Gilded Intent was unleashed without mercy!

Even Mister Lu was not confident that he could block such an attack.

"Watch out!"

A few cultivators could not help but yell.

However, Chu Kuangren did not move an inch. Facing the incoming sky full of sword rays, he merely raised his hand and gently closed his fist in the void!

That sword ray was frozen in mid-air by his grasp!

The next instant, the sword ray shattered with a bang!

"Like I said, you're just a slave."

Upon hearing Chu Kuangren's taunting voice, a terribly grim expression immediately appeared on Ji Wuming's face.

"Kill Chu Kuangren first!" Ji Wuming commanded.

Whoosh...

Countless figures dashed out and surrounded Chu Kuangren. Every one of them was clad in standard armor, armed with bronze swords, and had cold glints in their eyes.

They were the Ji clan's Heavenly Guard!

Then, all of the Three Thousand Heavenly Guard dashed out. Each of them possessed cultivation levels close to the Gilded Immortal Realm, and some were even Gilded Immortals.

At that moment, a barrage of various Immortal Techniques was unleashed at Chu Kuangren.

"As slaves who serve a slave, I can't believe you're unaware of how insignificant you are."

Chu Kuangren chuckled and put up a sword hand sign, which he simply swung down.

In the blink of an eye, endless sword rays appeared like an endless storm. Every gust of wind inside that storm was surging with a merciless and domineering Arch Gilded Intent.

Countless clouds of blood mists exploded in the sky!

The Three Thousand Heavenly Guard's blood rained down from the sky.

Everyone else who saw the scene gasped in horror and shock.

"This power... A Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal!"

"Chu Kuangren's cultivation level has broken through to the Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal Realm! Just dozens of years ago, he was in the Arch Gilded Trinity Flower Realm. How did he become a Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortal so fast?!"

Ji Wuming's expression darkened even more.

He looked at the Eight Great Generals around him and ordered, "You guys deal with the others. Leave Chu Kuangren to me!"

"Understood!"

The Eight Great Generals exchanged gazes before they immediately attacked.

At the same time, Ji Wuming stepped forward and instantly appeared before Chu Kuangren. He lifted his long bronze sword and swung it down with overpowering might.

His Heaven's Son Sword Art was cast!

A towering grand Heaven's Son apparition appeared behind him!

"Do you think you're strong enough to stop me?" Chu Kuangren uttered indifferently.

Following that, he casually swung his sword hand sign down, and his Arch Gilded Intent gushed out. Countless sword rays shot out to manifest a conjuration of the downfall and destruction of gods!

It was the Immortal Destruction Sword Qi technique!

It was the Immortal Destruction Sword versus the Heaven's Son Sword!

As a result, Ji Wuming's long bronze sword snapped, and he was blasted away with blood spurting out from his mouth!

"How is this possible?"

"How can your strength be so terrifying?"

Ji Wuming looked at Chu Kuangren with immense shock.

Both of them were Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals, so why was there such a huge gap in power between him and Chu Kuangren?!

Ji Wuming was beyond puzzled!

Unfortunately, no one could answer him.

Without even drawing his Heaven Stabilizer, Chu Kuangren made a sword hand sign to lock onto Ji Wuming again with his horrifying Arch Gilded Intent.

"Oh no!"

Ji Wuming's expression turned ashen.

He let out a long yell as he took out a huge seal engraved with countless mysterious runes.

An ancient name was carved at the center of that seal — Kongtong!

"Oh, the Kongtong Seal!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. By then, he had unleashed a burst of sword qi from his fingertips.

Moments after the Kongtong Seal collided with the incoming sword qi, the powerful impact blasted Kongtong Seal away, and it landed somewhere on a huge mountain in the distance.

Although that seal was a powerful item, it did not provide Ji Wuming sufficient power to resist that incoming attack.

"How can this be? Chu Kuangren, how the hell did you become so powerful in such a short amount of time? This is impossible!"

Ji Wuming was filled with shock.

Then, he channeled his Immortal's Core energy, and a powerful aura burst out.

Blood-colored light swirled in the air, followed by a bloodthirsty and violent aura that permeated the surroundings.

Ji Wuming was forced to use the forbidden life-igniting technique!

"Heavenly Child Blood Sacrifice, Bloodied Divine Devastation!" Ji Wuming roared.

He raised his long bronze sword, and a blood-colored sword ray shot out toward Chu Kuangren!

The Heavenly Child was fighting for his life with that attack as his Arch Gilded Intent contained a murderous intent!

Everywhere that attack went, the surroundings were turned into a hellish landscape!

Chu Kuangren's gaze narrowed, and his aura steadily reached its peak.

"Immortal Destruction, Final Form!"

The Immortal Destruction Sword Qi technique's final form was unleashed!

Terrifying waves of energy swept out as a gigantic sword shadow shattered the starry sky. It was as if a god of destruction and war had personally descended and brought along the most horrifying form of destruction to the world!

It was the ultimate killing attack!

The blood-colored Heaven's Son Sword and the supreme Immortal Destruction final form collided!

As if millions of planets were exploding, the sky was filled with countless colorful energy blasts.

Following that, Ji Wuming fell from the sky. His clothes were torn, and the sword qi had destroyed half of his body. He was tethering on the brink of death!

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren was unscathed!

"Impossible! I can't believe I've lost!"

Ji Wuming could not believe it.

Using his forbidden life-igniting technique would gain him so much power that only the Embodiers could defeat him. How could he possibly be defeated by an Arch Gilded Immortal?

Moreover, his opponent was an Arch Gilded Immortal in the Great Perfected Realm.

"Impossible!"

Dissatisfied with the outcome, Ji Wuming set alight more of his life essence, prompting an endless blood-colored flame to engulf him. He summoned all his might and charged toward Chu Kuangren!

He was using his body as a sword, turning it into a piercing sword ray that erupted with terrifying energy!

However, Chu Kuangren did not move an inch and merely unleashed a burst of sword qi from his fingertips!

That burst of sword qi also contained a trace of the Green Lotus's destructive energy.

As that burst of sword qi was released, it dispersed the incoming sword qi. As a result, Ji Wuming's sword qi exploded along with his body, and he immediately died on the spot!

The Eight Great Generals, who were battling Mister Lu and the others, immediately turned pale with horror.

"No way... Something is not right!"

"Both of them are Great Perfected Arch Gilded Immortals. How can there be such a huge gap of power between them?"

The Eight Great Generals shuddered with fear. All because of Chu Kuangren, the Ji clan's million-strong army was so terrified that their morale plummeted!
