

Unparalleled 191

Chapter 191: Basic Operation, Everyone Sit (3)

Destruction was the simplest and most direct method.

Yun Zihai explained patiently.

Otherwise, how could they say that they came from a famous family? The teaching of the Green Cloud Academy in this aspect was still very perfect. At least, it gave them a lot of knowledge.

If Yunlai Manor's manor token had these things, he wouldn't have died tragically there.

"I'm familiar with this." Xu Bai said with a smile as he gripped Ghost Head Blade.

As soon as he finished speaking, Xu Bai reached into his money pouch and threw out a handful of copper coins, which were wrapped in black light.

The copper coins were like rain, dense and airtight.

The copper coins that had been enhanced by the black light no longer had the characteristics of hidden weapons. Each of them was powerful enough to sweep through the forest in front of them, leaving only a pile of debris.

"Brother Xu, your maple leaves are like rain, much taller than the Yun family's." When Yun Zihai was chased out, he was still a member of the Yun family. Of course, he knew this unique skill. However, when he changed his profession to a scholar, he had already forgotten this unique skill.

When he saw Xu Bai make his move, the other party did not fall behind either.

Words rose into the air and swept in all directions. In an instant, the forest was moving at a speed visible to the naked eye. It was constantly being destroyed.

“It’s another day of hugging a thigh.””

He was a ninth-grade martial artist and did not have much destructive power. He could only go close combat to cut trees, but now it seemed that he did not need to go at all.

In the blink of an eye, the surroundings had become barren.

At this moment, Xu Bai also discovered something different about his surroundings.

Logically speaking, after the forest was destroyed, it should have become wider. However, the mirror world was different. There were invisible mirrors around them that shone on them.

At this moment, Xu Bai felt that something was wrong.

His strength was constantly weakening. In the blink of an eye, it had already been weakened by half.

“The characteristics of the Mirror Death are more like rules. “Xu Bai thought to himself.

As he thought of this, his surroundings changed.

In front of Xu Bai, at the end of the road, a figure was approaching them.

A cold wind blew around them. As the figure approached, the cold wind blew stronger and stronger.

When Xu Bai saw the Mirror Death, his mouth twitched.

He turned his head and stared at Yun Zihai.””You didn’t tell me about this characteristic.”

“Brother Xu, this is the first time I’m seeing this. Perhaps after so many years, it has evolved.” Yun Zihai was speechless.

Not far away, the figure gradually became clearer and revealed its true appearance.

Three heads, six arms, and six legs.

The three heads looked like Xu Bai, Yun Zihai, and Liu Er. However, each head had a smile on it. The smile was terrifying.

It was as if the Mirror Death had merged the three of them into one, and it became strange.

“Brother Xu, I’ll use the brush to kill him later.” Yun Zihai raised the brush in his hand and said.

This brush was naturally from the Green Cloud Academy. In the Green Cloud Academy, he was also considered a favored son of heaven. It was very normal for him to obtain a treasure, just like Liu Xu.

Yun Zihai knew very well that the Mirror Death’s situation was special.

The moment he walked into the mirror world, his strength had already been reduced by half.

Now, Xu Bai was probably in the same situation as him, so he could only rely on the brush in his hand to deal with him.

“Why do I feel like the Mirror Death is stronger than you?” Xu Bai stroked his chin and said.

This sentence did not have any negative meaning. Instead, it was a statement of fact.

The Mirror Death in front of him was around Rank-6, but he was much stronger than an average Rank-6.

When Xu Bai said this, the Mirror Death changed again.

The head that looked like Liu Er disappeared, and the Mirror Death's strength increased a little.

"It's fusing?" Yun Zihai saw the signs and said in surprise.

"It seems that you don't know much about the Mirror Dead." Xu Bai said, "Entering the mirror world at the same time will only make it stronger. It can even fuse with the mirror world. This is not a good sign."

The more people that came in, the stronger they would be. If a large group of people really came in, wouldn't the Mirror Death's strength increase infinitely? However, it seemed that the merging of the two meant that it would take time.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai took a step forward and used the Kidney-Strengthening Technique. The True Core Strength in his kidneys flowed backward. Then, he was enveloped in a black light and crashed into the Mirror Death.

The next moment, the Mirror Death turned into ashes.

Yun Zihai was speechless.

He lowered his head and looked at the brush in his hand. He felt particularly speechless and helpless.

"To be honest, Brother Xu, are you one of those old monsters who used a special method to reincarnate into a human?"

Although this sentence was meant to be a joke, Yun Zihai started to believe it as he spoke. He sized Xu Bai up with suspicion.

He knew that Xu Bai had a technique that was beyond his current level. However, now that he had entered this mirror world, Xu Bai's strength had been weakened by half. Would he be able to use such a technique that was beyond his level?

He had been certain that Xu Bai would not be able to do it, but now it seemed that he was wrong.

He could still use a technique that surpassed his current level even though his strength had been reduced by half. Moreover, he was not weakened at all.

Even Yun Zihai, a talented disciple of the Qingyun Academy, was envious of such an ability.

Yun Zihai looked at the brush in his hand and suddenly felt that it was not fragrant anymore.

"Mighty escort leader!" Liu Er flattered.

Xu Bai coughed and said, "It's just a basic operation. Don't be surprised."

Yun Zihai replied, "(Kou'")

Chapter 192: Basic Operation, Everyone Seats

If this could be called a basic move, then there were really not many people in the world who could do it.

It was too uncomfortable.

As they chatted, the surrounding scenery gradually changed as the Mirror Death died.

Not far away, cracks began to appear on the mirror-like barrier. Then, it was densely covered like a spider web. The surroundings quickly turned into fragments and fell to the ground.

When the mirror fell to the ground and shattered, everything around them disappeared, and they returned to the forest.

The paper money on the ground was also gone. This time, they had truly returned to reality and were no longer in the mirror world.

“Brother Xu, let’s hurry along.” Yun Zihai collected his chaotic thoughts and said, “The Mirror Death is gone. It’ll be a long time before it appears again.”

However, before he could finish his sentence, he saw Xu Bai lowering his head in deep thought. He didn’t say anything, as if he was thinking about something.

The surroundings were very quiet. Only Yun Zihai’s voice could be heard.

Liu Er stood respectfully at the side and did not disturb Xu Bai’s thoughts. He seemed very sensible.

“Brother Xu, what’s wrong?” Yun Zihai was slightly puzzled as he asked.

Now that the Mirror Death had been dealt with, he could set off for Yunlai Mansion. He did not understand why Xu Bai was thinking about something here.

Xu Bai slowly came back to his senses from his deep thoughts. He raised his head and glanced at Yun Zihai before sweeping his gaze towards the surrounding forest. “Don’t you think that this is a premeditated ambush?”

He had been thinking about this question just now. Why did they encounter the strangeness of killing the former prefecture master on their way to Yunlai Prefecture?

Under the moonlight, the glistening mirrors reflected a weak glow.

This path was filled with mirrors, and there were dozens of them. Each mirror was more than three meters tall.

Due to the dense forest and the fact that they were not discovered in the carriage, they basically walked along this path with mirrors.

Now that things had come to this, Yun Zihai finally understood why they had inexplicably met the Mirror Death.

"I think... We must continue to speed up the progress." Yun Zihai waved his brush and shattered all the mirrors before saying.

There was no way to control the strangeness, but it could increase the probability of the strangeness appearing and the probability of its location. This was a little tricky.

From all the known clues, there seemed to be a net that had caught them.

"Brother Yun, it seems that you have offended many people in the past." Xu Bai teased.

Yun Zihai was the first to board the carriage and said, "If you want to stop me from going to the Yunlai Mansion, then I will definitely be the Mansion Token. I want to see who dares to stir up trouble in my place."

Xu Bai also got on the carriage and sat in the corner of the carriage. He stroked the earthen jar he had obtained in the Yin Posthouse. "Liu Er, drive the carriage."

"Yes, sir!"

Liu Er sat in the carriage and drove the horse towards Yunlai Mansion. The carriage sped up, kicking up a cloud of dust as it drove further and further away.

The next day.

Yunlai Manor.

A carriage sped past and arrived at the government office.

There were two bailiffs guarding the entrance of the government office. When they saw the carriage, they looked at each other. Then, one of them walked up and was about to speak.

But before he could say anything, Liu Er glared at him.

“The new residence order has arrived, retreat!”

This sentence was spoken so abruptly that the bailiffs who had rushed over were also shocked. They recalled the contents of the sentence and quickly retreated.

New Prefecture Order?

The bailiff was very respectful.

After all, he was a police officer in the government office. Who didn't know?

It was said that the new magistrate was highly regarded by the Emperor and was the first magistrate to implement autonomy.

This was incredible. They did not dare to offend the person who had set the precedent.

However, he was still very curious. One of the bailiffs secretly raised his head and sized him up.

Not long after, a scholarly-looking person alighted from the carriage. His face was pale and he coughed when he alighted.

“Greetings, Lord Prefect!” The bailiffs hurriedly bowed their heads.

Yun Zihai waved his hand and got them to stand up.

The bailiffs were getting more and more curious about the country.

This new major looked very weak, and his scholarly aura grew stronger with the addition of his weak body..

Chapter 193: Basic Operation, Everyone Seats

However, judging a book by its cover wasn't a good thing these days, so everyone knew that some people looked gentle, but they were actually very fierce on the inside.

The bailiff thought that he could bring the new lord in immediately, but he did not expect the new lord to turn around and shout at the carriage.

“Brother Xu, I've never seen you like pottery so much. I don't see anything good about it. If you like it, I'll give you a lot.”

There was someone else?

The two bailiffs were stunned.

Not long after, a handsome young man carrying a clay pot alighted from the carriage.

This young man was extremely handsome. He had a Ghost Head Blade at his waist, and there was an inexplicable murderous aura about him.

The two bailiffs shivered and did not dare to raise their heads to look at the young man.

Xu Bai held the earthen jar and sized up the two bailiffs. The corners of his mouth curled up slightly. "As expected of Yunlai Manor. The two bailiffs guarding the door are both ranked."

This government office was much more brilliant than the county office.

Just the two bailiffs guarding the door were already ranked.

"I wouldn't dare. Daren is the true expert." A bailiff rolled his eyes and said.

Things in officialdom naturally had to be done with some skill. This bootlicking was very smooth.

Liu Er's eyes widened as he felt the impact.

In this day and age, even flattery had to be snatched from him?

Indeed, every industry was very competitive.

Look, even in the industry of flattery, one had to show some competitiveness. Otherwise, who knew when others would take the lead.

Thinking of this, Liu Er quickly took a learning attitude and memorized the scene just now.

Yun Zihai waved his hand and said, "No need to be so polite. Bring me in to see Lord Wu's situation."

The bailiffs looked at each other. They knew that this new lord had come to do something practical, so they did not dare to say anything more. They quickly opened the door and led Yun Zihai and the others in.

There were many more government offices than the county offices. When Xu Bai walked in, he didn't see many people.

After the explanation of the bailiffs along the way, he finally understood that this time, it wasn't just a magistrate who died.

Including the family members of the magistrate, as well as the people who were on duty at the government office that night, they were all dead.

This matter was quite sensational, and it was also widely spread in Yunlai Manor. The commoners were also aware of it.

As they were in the carriage, they didn't have time to observe the unusual behavior of the people.

The bailiff brought Yun Zihai to the side of the prison cell and said, "The corpses from that day are here. Fortunately, the weather has turned cold, so we have used a special method to preserve the corpses."

In front of them was a relatively large house. The door was tightly shut, and when they approached the house, there was a cold aura.

Yun Zihai came to the door and pushed it open. A voice came from inside.

"Didn't I tell you? Don't disturb me when I come here to do things every day." This voice carried a hint of dissatisfaction.

Xu Bai looked in the direction of the voice and saw a young man in ordinary clothes sitting in the middle.

Around them were more than a dozen corpses.

The young man's body was covered in a layer of white frost. The cold aura was transmitted to the corpse through the white frost, allowing the corpse to maintain a low temperature and not rot.

"Sir, this is the coroner." The bailiff explained.

Xu Bai didn't understand what a coroner was, but the word "coroner" at the end of the sentence indicated that it was a special profession.

Yun Zihai knew this very well. He did not answer and walked towards the pile or corpses.

When the young man heard that the bailiff had called him Lord, he understood what was going on. He quickly stood up and bowed. "Zheng Jin greets Lord Prefect."

Yun Zihai nodded and was about to say something.

Unexpectedly, Zheng Jin reacted very quickly. He took out a notebook from his bag and handed it to Yun Zihai.

"Sir, this is the autopsy report that I have done recently. Please take a look." When Yun Zihai saw what he wanted, he didn't say much and took it.

"You guys go down first. I want to take a look."

"Yes, sir!"

Zheng Jin and the other two bailiffs knew what was going on. They quickly said that and prepared to leave.

Before he left, Zheng Jin glanced at Xu Bai. When he saw the Ghost Head Blade at Xu Bai's waist, he quickly turned his head and left.

Xu Bai winked at Liu Er.

Liu Er was very sensible. He also turned around and left.

When everyone had left, Xu Bai walked over and sized up Yun Zihai.

"Brother Yun, it seems like this matter is quite troublesome."

The surrounding corpses were emitting cold air. As Xu Bai spoke, he closed the door.

After the door was closed, the light dimmed slightly, and the room looked very gloomy.

Yun Zihai came to a corpse and casually threw the autopsy report in his hand on it. He said, "The biggest problem is that there are no clues."

With the aptitude of a scholar, he finished reading the autopsy report in a short period of time. After reading it, he felt that it was boring.

It was useless. It was just some ordinary records. Other than knowing that he died in the mirror, there were no other clues.

These were not the most important things. The most important thing was that after Yun Zihai came to Yunlai Mansion, he encountered a very troublesome matter that was extremely difficult to deal with..

Chapter 194: Yunlai Manor Is Ours (1)

The most important thing for him right now, and also the thing he lacked the most, was people.

Other things were also lacking, but it was not that serious. Only people were the most important.

When they first arrived at Yunlai Mansion, there were only two or three of them left in the entire government office. There were less than ten people in total. There was no way to use them at ease.

Is there a plan?" Xu Bai said.

Yun Zihai shook his head and said," Brother Xu, the two of us will keep in close contact. You should go to the Yin Posthouse first. We can't both lose our composure. Once I find any useful clues, I'll inform you in time."" "Looks like you really want to drag me down with you." Xu Bai laughed."

"If it was before, I definitely wouldn't do this. But now, I don't have anyone I can trust. "Yun Zihai turned his head and said,"Brother Xu, you will help me, right?""

"Helping you is helping me," Xu Bai continued to smile."

There was no free lunch in this world, and there was no free help.

Yun Zihai naturally understood this logic and nodded repeatedly in agreement."In the future, if Brother Xu needs anything in Yunlai Prefecture, I will do my best."

Xu Bai nodded." Alright, I'll help you with this.""

The person in charge of Yunlai Manor was Yun Zihai, so it was necessary to have a good relationship with him.

Xu Bai still hoped to have more progress bars here, so he naturally needed them.

In the future, he was in charge of the Yin Posthouse and the Yun Zihai. He was in charge of the Yun Lai Mansion. The traffic and the mansion were all occupied.

This meant that in the future, the two of them would have the final say in Yunlai Manor.

“If that’s the case, I’ll go to the Yin Posthouse first. Inform me if you make any movements, and I’ll come over to help you.” Xu Bai said.

The Yin Posthouse was his main goal. He had to rush over and take a look.

“Wait, Brother Xu.” Yun Zihai raised his hand to stop Xu Bai and said, “Before you go, I still have something to ask of you. It’s an especially important matter.”

Xu Bai waved his hand and put on a forthright look. “Bring it up, just don’t go too far.”

Yun Zihai was speechless.

When he saw Xu Bai’s particularly forthright action, he thought that he was asking him to mention it casually. In the end, he said that it was fine as long as he didn’t go too far. He felt helpless.

Of course, he had been with Xu Bai for a long time, so he naturally knew what kind of personality Xu Bai had, so he didn’t take it seriously.

“I want to borrow Liu Er from Brother Xu.” Yun Zihai pointed at Liu Er. “I’m indeed short of manpower here, and I don’t trust these people. Just take this autopsy report as an example. There are many things that are worth pondering. For example, many details have been omitted. It’s obvious that he’s just waiting to die.”

Borrowing people was also a helpless move. Yun Zihai only suggested this idea because he really had no other choice. After all, he really did not have anyone he could trust right now.

Xu Bai raised his eyebrows and looked at Liu Er. "Sure."

Of course, Liu Er did not object at all. He bent down and said, "I'll listen to your orders."

In his opinion, the escort master and Lord Yun had a good relationship. As a sensible person, he naturally knew what he should and should not do.

"Thank you, Brother Xu." Liu Yun thanked him by sea.

Xu Bai waved his hand and said, "Alright, since that's the case, let's do as we discussed. When the time comes, give me a message. I'll return to the Yin Posthouse first."

Yun Zihai nodded, indicating that there was no problem.

After the matter here was settled, Xu Bai did not stay any longer. He left Liu Er in the government office and left for the Yin Posthouse.

The Yin Posthouse of Yunlai Prefecture was also located in a remote wilderness. After all, it was a posthouse that could only be used by special people. It was easy to expose the open side of the place.

Before he left, Yun Zihai gave him his appointment letter and the map to the Yin Posthouse. Xu Bai followed the map and hurried along the way. Nothing strange happened along the way, which made Xu Bai a little disappointed.

The more he attacked, the more flaws he had. He was now hoping that the other party would casually attack a few times so that he could find the flaws and find out the true culprit behind it.

Unfortunately, the enemy hiding in the dark was obviously not easy to deal with. They knew that if they attacked casually, they might leave behind clues that would expose them. so they did not choose to ambush Xu Bai in the dark.

The journey was indeed very long. He did not ride a horse and only relied on his legs to travel. It took him nearly two hours to arrive at the Yin Posthouse. This Yin Posthouse was the largest Yin Posthouse Xu Bai had ever seen. Standing at the entrance, he could see the vast area and the many people who were waiting in front of the stalls.

Not only were there many stalls, but there were also many residences.

These houses were built very simply, but from the structure, they looked unusually sturdy. It was obvious that they could accommodate people who came and went.

Among them, the most eye-catching house had a slightly better appearance and was easier to recognize.

Xu Bai's arrival attracted the attention of many posthouse workers. Some of them exchanged glances with each other before lowering their heads to look after their stalls. They were clearly not very interested.

In front of the largest house, a middle-aged man dressed in gray stood at the door. He held an account book in his hand as if he was recording something.

Xu Bai walked over and his gaze stopped at the middle-aged man's waist.

There was a sign hanging there, a sign that belonged to the station chief.

Presumably, this was the chief of the Yin Posthouse in Yunlai Prefecture, the person he was going to take over.

The middle-aged man seemed to have sensed someone approaching. He stopped his bookkeeping and looked up at the direction of the footsteps.

When he saw Xu Bai, he was clearly stunned. However, when he turned his gaze and saw the Ghost Head Blade at Xu Bai's waist, he quickly reacted..

Chapter 195: Yunlai Mansion Is Ours (2)

These people were very well-informed. Just by identifying the Ghost Head Blade on Xu Bai's waist, they already knew who he was.

"So Lord Xu is here." The middle-aged man put away the account book in his hand. When Xu Bai approached, he cupped his hands and greeted him with a smile on his face.

Lord xu?

This was the first time someone called him that.

Needless to say, it sounded pretty good.

Xu Bai rubbed his chin and sized up the middle-aged man,""May I ask how I should address you?"

"Ou." Ou Yizhang smiled and said his name. He looked around and quickly brought Xu Bai into the house,"This isn't the place for the handover. Let's talk inside."

When he walked, his footsteps were steady, his movements were crisp, and he had an imposing aura.

"A master of the flow." Xu Bai thought to himself.

The door at the back was pushed open by the postmaster. The facilities inside were very simple, but they were all perfect. Whether it was tables, chairs, or tea sets, everything was inside.

There was everything there should be, even the kitchen.

“This book has already recorded the various rules of the Yin Posthouse, as well as the approximate location of the layout and the surrounding buildings.” Posthouse Chief Ou handed over the account book and placed it on the table.

Xu Bai had thought that this was an account book, but he didn’t expect it to be a book. Obviously, Posthouse Chief Ou planned to use the simplest method to hand it over.

The simplest method was to give you a book and let you read it yourself.

Xu Bai shifted his gaze to the table and stared at the book on it. He smiled. “Posthouse Chief Ou, I feel that there are some things that I need you to explain to me. Otherwise, I won’t be able to understand them.”

Posthouse Chief Ou was originally prepared to turn around and pack his things.

He didn’t expect that after hearing Xu Bai’s words, his brows slightly furrowed.

He walked closer and flipped open one of the pages, pointing at the words on it.

“Lord Xu, every line is written clearly. You only need to read it. I also need to leave immediately to take up my post at the next relay station. There’s no other way.”

His words were reasonable and did not offend Xu Bai in any way.

Xu Bai’s lips curled up. He took out a small porcelain bottle from the bag at his waist and poured out a pill from the porcelain bottle, putting it into his mouth. After doing this, he picked up the book on the table and flipped to the first page.

“Not bad, not bad. It’s written in great detail.”

“You didn’t even miss a single detail. It seems like Lord Ou spent a lot of time on this book.”

“In my opinion, what is written on it is true. After all, to find a way to let me read it, the slow poison will take a long time to activate.”

There was no problem with the first two sentences, but when he said the last sentence, the expression in his eyes changed.

“Lord Xu, what do you mean? I really don’t understand. I painstakingly wrote this book so that you can take over. You’re simply slandering me.” Esteemed Outs face and neck turned red as he made an extremely angry expression. He pointed at Xu Bai and berated him.

Xu Bai didn’t move. He lifted the book and turned the page down. Then, he shook it hard.

As he shook, a lot of powder floated out of the book, which was especially obvious in the air.

“The Yin Food Poison is a seventh grade poison, but its power is comparable to that of a sixth grade poison. The reason is that this poison is slow. It will gradually corrode a person’s blood over time and eventually die of unknown causes. “Xu Bai said lightly,” I can see that your complexion is ruddy. It’s obviously not your original skin color. It’s the result of the poison entering your body and the antidote relieving it.”

Poison?

Sorry, he was also an expert in using poison. The Hundred Poisons Sutra was a seventh-grade poison scripture, and there were many poison techniques recorded on it.

Moreover, there was also the Hundred Violent Poison, a poison that could even even poison a Rank-6 expert.

Using poison techniques in front of him was simply showing off in front of an expert.

“Why don’t you try this?” Xu Bai pulled out the Ghost Head Blade and placed it on the table. The blade was covered in Hundred Violent Poison, and a dangerous light flickered on it.

The expression of the postmaster Ou turned from red to black, becoming extremely ugly.

He knew that the other party had already discovered him, but there was no time to think about the current situation. He hurriedly turned around, wanting to break through the window and escape.

Xu Bai took a step forward and used the Four Movement Technique. He took the lead and blocked the middle. “If you tell me, I’ll give you a quick death. If you don’t tell me, I guarantee you’ll tell me.”

“You’re courting death!” Posthouse Chief Ou roared in rage. He then crossed his palms and slapped them towards Xu Bai’s head.

A faint green light appeared on his palm, giving off a strange feeling.

Xu Bai circulated his True Core Strength and used the Vajra Heart Devil Body. A faint layer of black light rose from his body. When Posthouse Chief Ou’s hand landed on the black light, Xu Bai immediately used Stellar Transposition.

The hand that was covered in green light suddenly turned around and slapped on the chest of Posthouse Chief Ou, sending him flying.

“Puff!”

Posthouse Chief Ou fell to the ground and spat out a mouthful of blood. He stared at Xu Bai with a face full of anger.

“You actually dared to attack an official of the Imperial Court and openly oppose the Great Chu Country. Once others find out, they will definitely punish you with the death penalty.”

This sentence was said in a very serious manner, as if it had really happened.

Xu Bai stroked his chin and said, "It seems like you've already thought of a backup plan. Once your plan of using poison fails, you'll attack me forcefully. If your attack fails, you'll use this trick to frame me. That's very good.."

Chapter 196: Yunlai Manor Is Ours (3)

"Then, do you dare to kill me?" "Under the watchful eyes of the public, the posthouse guards are outside. If I can't get out alive, think about what the rumors will spread about you. Will His Majesty let you off?"

When he said this, besides mockery, there was also a trace of pride in his tone.

It was as if he felt very comfortable watching Xu Bai suffer.

He was certain that Xu Bai wouldn't dare to kill him.

Because he was still in the Yin Posthouse. If he couldn't get out of here alive, the posthouse people outside would definitely start to make unnecessary guesses.

If word got out, not only would Xu Bai lose his position, but it would also attract even more trouble.

After all, according to the laws of the Great Chu State, killing an official of the imperial court would definitely be severely punished.

Thinking of this, Ou Yin Posthouse couldn't help but praise her own intelligence.

"I dare." Xu Bai said indifferently.

“What did you say?” Posthouse Chief Ou was stunned.

As soon as he finished speaking, he saw Xu Bai raise his Ghost Head Blade and slash at him.

His limbs were broken and blood spurted out, quickly dirtying the floor.

Xu Bai used the medicine he got from Qing Xue to stop the bleeding on Ou Yi’s limbs. Then, he quickly raised his foot and stepped on Ou Yi’s mouth, making him unable to make a sound.

Posthouse Chief Ou’s face was filled with fear. He couldn’t understand why the other party was so decisive.

Why, why did he dare?

Aren’t you afraid of the laws of Great Chu?

Why?

“You... Are you really not afraid?”

At this moment, although his limbs were aching, he could not suppress the shock in his heart.

“I don’t have to worry about you framing me. As long as Yun Zihai believes me, it’s fine.” Xu Bai said with a smile.

What was this place? Yunlai Manor.

Who is in charge of Yunlai Mansion? Yun Zihai is in charge.

Who was in charge of the Yin Posthouse? It was Xu Bai.

Counting them one after another, it was equivalent to the two of them occupying the entire Yunlai Mansion.

Afraid?

There was nothing to be afraid of.

“Come on, tell me. I want everything you know.” Xu Bai took out the pill he got from Qing Xue and said with a smile, “Let me remind you, eating this thing is very painful.”

Posthouse Chief Ou stared at Xu Bai. When he saw the medicine bottle in Xu Bai's hand, he suddenly smiled.

Xu Bai frowned, and a bad thought appeared in his mind.

Just as this thought formed in his mind, he saw a change in Posthouse Commander Ou.

From the top of his head, layers of blood mist spread out. Within the blood mist, he turned into a puddle of blood.

“Corpse-rotting poison?” Xu Bai took two steps back and waved his sleeves to disperse the blood mist in front of him.

This was also recorded in the True Solution of the Hundred Poisons. It was an extremely painful poison. After eating it, it would turn into blood in less than a moment.

“To actually be willing to eat such a painful poison and not reveal the secret behind it, it seems that the waters of Yunlai Manor run deep.” Xu Bai thought. Since things had come to this, there was nothing more to say. Xu Bai found a broom, cleaned the house, and went out.

As soon as he left the door, his eyes sized up the surrounding posthouse attendants, wanting to see if there was anything wrong.

But regrettably, these posthumans all behaved normally, and none of them showed that there was something wrong.

Xu Bai thought for a moment and went back to his room. Then, he picked up the books on the table and began to read them one by one.

Even the Yin Posthouse was the minion of the mastermind. It seemed that this net was extremely deep. He had to figure out the function of the Yin Posthouse before making any plans.

The content of this book was very concise, and every point was just right.

Posthouse Chief Ou must have written it very seriously in order to let him read it patiently.

In less than the time for an incense stick to burn, he had finished reading all the contents. After that, Xu Bai found a cage in the cabinet in the room. There was a carrier pigeon in the cage.

This was the pigeon that contacted Yunlai Manor. It could lead directly to the government office, which was where Yun Zihai was.

After all, the Yin Posthouse belonged to the Yunlai Mansion. This was a necessary communication tool and was self-prepared.

Xu Bai thought for a moment and wrote down what had happened. Then, he tied the pigeon to its leg and set it free.

After doing all this, he did not stay idle. Instead, he directly stepped out of the door and followed the pigeon's flight path towards Yunlai Mansion.

The pigeon flew very fast, but Xu Bai's speed was not slow at all. He used the Four Steps to the fullest.

After a while, the pigeon flew into the government office and Xu Bai returned.

When he climbed over the wall and entered, he happened to see Yun Zihai take the pigeon from his hand and remove the paper from the pigeon's leg.

When Yun Zihai saw Xu Bai, he was clearly stunned for a moment before he said, "Brother Xu, weren't you the one who released the messenger pigeon?"

Xu Bai nodded. "I just wanted to see if this carrier pigeon was flying to you or somewhere else."

As he spoke, he recounted his encounter.

He had followed the messenger pigeon this time to see if it was going straight to Yunlai Mansion. If there were any abnormalities along the way or if it went somewhere else, then he would have new clues.

Unfortunately, the other party seemed to be very cautious and did not make any mistakes in these details. There was no problem with the pigeon.

Yun Zihai listened to Xu Bai's story and frowned. "Brother Xu, it seems that the other party doesn't only welcome me here, but also doesn't welcome you."

"Indeed. He even used poison. This is good. Otherwise, this life will be too boring." Xu Bai said..

Chapter 197: Yunlai Manor Is Ours (4)

He didn't provoke anyone. He just planned to develop in this place for a while. He didn't expect things to really come to him.

Could it be that every transmigrator had a special protagonist halo and was born to attract trouble?

Xu Bai was speechless.

However, since the matter had found him, he had to fight back fiercely, pressing the other party to the ground and rubbing.

If he wanted to focus on the progress bar, he first needed a stable environment, and a stable environment was created with his own hands. "Inform me immediately if you have the latest news. I must catch this person and let him see the evils of this world." Xu Bai said.

This was the first time Yun Zihai had seen Xu Bai so hot-tempered. He quickly nodded, indicating that he would inform him in time.

Xu Bai did not stay any longer. He still had to rush back to the Yin Posthouse. He still had three progress bars to work on. After that, he would make other plans.

At least before Yun Zihai found out, it would be extremely helpful to have an improvement.

By the time Xu Bai returned to the Yin Posthouse, it was already close to night. After a long morning, he finally had some free time.

There were already a lot less posthouse people. A few posthouse people were still packing up the things on the stalls and preparing to leave.

When they saw Xu Bai, they immediately walked over and greeted him.

Regarding the matter of the new station chief, they were also the local tyrants in the surrounding area. They had long known that Xu Bai's identity was self-evident since he was able to be welcomed into the house by station chief Ou this morning.

As for why the boss didn't show up, they didn't care about that. As posthouse workers, they were only doing business. Who would care about those things in the officialdom?

Xu Bai did not put on airs. In his opinion, these people were his tools to make money.

However, before these posthouse attendants left, he still checked their things. When he didn't see the progress bar, he lost interest and returned to his room.

"Hurry up."

Xu Bai sat on a recliner in the room, swaying gently as he took out the Purple Cloud Imperial Technique.

Although the furniture in this house was simple, it was really good to lie down. Needless to say, the postmaster Ou was quite good at living. When lying on the recliner, the comfort was suitable.

"Why did you provoke me for no reason?"

Xu Bai looked at the slowly increasing progress bar and shook his head.

Time slowly passed. In the blink of an eye, it was already late at night.

Xu Bai lit the oil lamp on the table and continued to check the progress bar.

This life was quite good. He also enjoyed this kind of life where he had to work hard. As long as there were no bad things, he felt very comfortable.

The room was dark, and only the light from the oil lamp illuminated the room. As the recliner swayed, it made creaking sounds in the room.

The sound shook rhythmically. After shaking for a while, Xu Bai felt sleepy.

The more dangerous the situation, the more one had to maintain sufficient energy. Some things could not be rushed and had to be done step by step.

Moreover, this was a Tier 5 cultivation method in his hand. There was no need to rush.

Xu Bai stretched his back and put the book back into the box under the bed before lying down on the bed.

There was everything in the house, including boxes and pots and pans, which saved Xu Bai a lot of trouble.

As he thought about this, his sleepiness grew stronger.

However, just as Xu Bai was about to fall asleep, something terrible happened.

“Eh eh eh ya...”

A soft sound was heard. If it was in a lively time, this sound might not be heard, but in the silent night, it was clearly heard.

It was a woman’s voice. It sounded intermittently and disconnected from time to time.

Moreover, his voice was sometimes high and sometimes low, as if he was singing.

Xu Bai narrowed his eyes and got up from the bed, holding Ghost Head Blade in his hand.

“When the forest is big, there are birds everywhere.”

At least I can sleep for a while, I can sleep now, I can sleep tonight, I’m afraid I can’t sleep.

Although the voice was intermittent, it did not completely stop. Xu Bai came to the door and opened it, looking at the night outside.

Outside the door, there was silence.

The full moon hung in the sky, and the silver light sprinkled down, as if it had covered the earth with a layer of silver. It was very beautiful.

The moment Xu Bai opened the door, the intermittent voice became clearer.

Sometimes he would sing loudly, and sometimes he would sing softly. If the strange environment was not taken into account, this voice was quite pleasant to hear.

However, in this endless night, a voice appeared out of nowhere. No matter how pleasant the sound was, it would still make one’s hair stand on end.

Xu Bai closed his eyes and listened carefully for a while before opening his eyes again.

When he opened his eyes, the corners of his mouth curled up slightly. He had already heard the content of the voice.

Show!

This was the singing style of an opera. Although there were no words, it could be clearly distinguished just by the babbling sound.

“In the middle of the night, disturbing my dreams.” Xu Bai smacked his lips and pulled out his Ghost Head Blade. He closed his eyes and sensed for a while before chasing after the sound.

“You like to sing, right? I caught you and made you sing for me for a night.”

Under the night sky, Xu Bai had already disappeared into the distance with the Four Steps.

The closer they walked to the source of the sound, the clearer it became and the louder it became.

When Xu Bai followed the voice and walked to the end of the forest, everything in front of him suddenly became clear.

In front of them was a huge empty space. On the empty space, a stage was built with broken wood..

Chapter 198: Yunlai Manor Is Ours (5)

On the stage stood a woman with a slim figure. She was wearing a costume and putting on makeup.

Due to the heavy makeup, her face could not be seen clearly, but from her slim figure, this woman was not bad looking.

“A little worse than Liu Xu.” Xu Bai thought to himself.

In terms of figure, there was currently no one who could compare to Liu Xu.

When Xu Bai appeared, the woman on the stage stopped singing and turned around to face Xu Bai.

At this moment, Xu Bai finally saw the makeup on the other party's face.

In short, Xu Bai was a boor. He was not as literary as a scholar, nor was he like some scholars who recited poems.

Looking at the makeup on this woman's face, he only had two words.

Not bad.

He couldn't describe the so-called sinking fish and falling geese, or the moon and flowers.

It was already good enough that he didn't say anything.

There was a good saying.

Unfortunately, he was uncultured and could only say 'f * ck' and walk the world.

However, he still had to fight.

"Come, sing for me." Xu Bai saw that there was a single seat below the stage, so he walked up and sat on it. He looked at the woman on the stage with a teasing look in his eyes.

At first, he thought that there was something strange about the system. Now, it seemed that it was a real person.

She came to find him in the middle of the night and even sang for him. If there was any secret, she would know after taking a look.

"Young Master, my show is very expensive." The woman placed her hand on her chin and gently brushed her cheek, making a shy and timid expression.

“Three.” Xu Bai suddenly said.

This word was said inexplicably, and the woman was very confused.

“Two.”

Another word popped out, and the woman’s expression became even more puzzled.

“One.”

Xu Bai sat up from his seat and used the Four Steps. He had already leaped high into the air and landed on the stage.

“Since you don’t want to sing, then you can go to hell. Don’t play these roundabout games with me.”

Ghost Head Blade swung out, bringing with it a biting cold wind. Under the moonlight, it flickered with a chilling light.

Breaking Second Style!

This move was obtained from the second nameless saber scripture, and its power was even stronger when used. It had already reached the third rank.

The saber was like a shadow, and the moon was like a plate.

Under the moonlight, Xu Bai’s eyes were as cold as ice.

He was very annoyed.

If you have something to say, just say it. He had been tormented for the whole day and was already very frustrated. She even gave him some confusion.

He didn't say.

Give me death.

If the woman in the costume was a good person, then please say it. If not, then it was fine to kill her.

If he didn't say it directly and was killed again, then he couldn't blame anyone else.

After all, Xu Bai couldn't figure out if the other party was hiding some big move.

This wasn't a game where the opponent would have a chance to use his ultimate move.

The woman in the costume was obviously stunned, but she reacted quickly. She pulled out a fancy spear from the weapon rack beside her and blocked Ghost Head Blade in the middle.

"Clang!"

His voice was clear and resounding in the dark night.

The spear and the ghost head blade met. In just a moment, the woman in the costume took two steps back, her chest heaving up and down, which was pleasing to the eye.

"Armor Break! Nameless Saber Technique?"

"No, this isn't the Nameless Saber Technique. I've seen the Nameless Saber Technique before. It's not like yours."

Her voice was pleasant to the ear, and at the same time, it carried a hint of surprise.

“Do all dead people talk so much?” Xu Bai raised his Ghost Head Blade again and prepared to continue attacking.

This woman could see through the nameless saber technique, but what she didn’t know was that the two styles of Breaking had already fused with other saber techniques and became different.

It had the shadow of the Nameless Saber Technique, but not all of them. It was even stronger.

Seeing Xu Bai’s second slash, the woman hurriedly said, ““Lord Xu, I’m a scout under the throne of the Ascending Abyss.”

A jade token appeared in the hands of the woman in the costume and was raised high by her.

Ghost Head Blade stopped beside the blissful woman’s neck.

Xu Bai took out another jade token from his waist. It was exactly the same as the one in the woman’s hand.

“Are you crazy?” he cursed as he withdrew Ghost Head Blade.”

The woman in the costume heaved a sigh of relief when she saw Xu Bai put away his knife. Just as she was about to say something, she was suddenly scolded. She was completely stunned.

“If you have something to say, just say it. You’re doing all these twists and turns. Just now, if I had slashed down, your head would have flown away.”

The woman in the costume was speechless.

To be honest, she didn’t want to either.

“This is my ability. I didn’t dare to step into the Yin Posthouse. This matter is really secretive, so I used a familiar method to trick Lord Xu out.”

When she said this, the woman in the costume looked very ashamed.

She really did not expect the other party to have such a bad temper. After all, she had never met him before.

“Then why didn’t you tell me when you saw Bai asked again.

At the mention of this, the woman in the costume blushed slightly.

“This... This... Didn’t they say that when experts meet, they have to have some temperament? That’s why I thought that only then can one have temperament.”

Xu Bai was speechless.

“Lord Xu, please don’t blame me. I was only recently recruited into the army by His Highness, so there are many things I don’t understand. “The woman in the costume became more and more confused.

Xu Bai felt that the woman in the costume was very dumb.

It couldn’t be helped. If he met someone who was a little more stupid, it was better to be simple and direct.

He was quite curious. According to the woman in the costume, King You Sheng had sent her to find him, as if he did not want anyone to know.

Then, what was the matter?

Chapter 199: The Heart Technique of Sewing More and More

As everyone knew, King Sheng You was the Emperor's younger brother, and he held a high position in the court. It could be said that he was only below one person and above ten thousand people. Even if those first-class officials came, they would only be left in the dust.

Not only the Imperial Court, Great Chu, even the Jianghu feared King Sheng You, including Great Yue State and the Barbarian Land.

These were all the results of the battle that King Sheng You had led thousands of troops in his early years.

With such a person, what was there to be sneaky about? He had to send a female scout over to tell him secretly.

Xu Bai was a little curious. At the same time, he had a vague guess in his heart. He seemed to have guessed someone.

If even King Sheng You could come here quietly, then there was only one person.

—Emperor of Great Chu.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai narrowed his eyes and continued to wait for the woman in the costume to speak.

Just as the woman in the costume had said, she was indeed a newbie. After a moment of panic, she organized her words and told him everything that had happened.

“Your Highness returned to the capital and chatted with His Majesty before heading straight to the border. “The woman in the costume straightened her long hem and said, “Before I left, the content of the conversation with His Majesty was related to you. I also specially came to inform you of this matter.”

Xu Bai didn't say anything. He was waiting for the woman in the costume to continue.

It was exactly as he had guessed. To be able to make King Sheng You secretly send someone over, it was indeed the Great Chu Emperor. He just didn't know what else was going on.

“After learning about you, even His Majesty began to cherish talents. The two of them had a big fight in the royal study at that time, and after that, His Highness left.”the woman in costume said.

“However, before leaving, His Highness made a bet with His Majesty about the matter of Yunlai Mansion.”

Yunlai Mansion?

Xu Bai raised his eyebrows and thought to himself that things were not that simple.

“So Yun Zihai and I came to Yunlai Manor because of His Majesty's plan.” He couldn't help but recall what had happened before he was in the city.

He couldn't help but recall what had happened before he was in the city.

He, Yun Zihai, and the others dealt with the eighth prince and then released King Sheng You. After King Sheng You returned to the capital, he quarreled with the emperor, and then Yun Zihai was enfeoffed to Yunlai Manor.

In other words, if Yun Zihai had not done this alone, he might have been assigned to another residence instead of the Yunlai Residence.

After coming to Yunlai Mansion, Xu Bai also saw how deep the water here was.

He had been assassinated twice as soon as he arrived. The matter inside was not something that ordinary people could settle.

Based on the information he had obtained previously, it seemed that the Emperor had arranged for the two of them to be here with a deeper meaning.

The woman in the costume nodded." That's true. The waters in Yun Nan Prefecture run deep. There are many complicated roots and many forces gathered here, so it's very difficult to deal with the things inside."

This answer confirmed Xu Bai's guess.

"What is the bet?" Xu Bai asked.

"Let's bet on the governance of Yunlai Mansion." "His Highness said that you can return Yunlai Manor to its former glory, but His Majesty thinks it's impossible," the woman in the costume replied."

At this point, the woman in the costume looked at Xu Bai curiously, her eyes darting around.

Of course, she was curious. Before she came, she had heard from His Highness that he valued Xu Bai very much. It was unique.

Although the woman in the costume was only a newbie and hadn't joined the army for long, this was the first time she had heard his highness praise her.

Therefore, she was really curious about Xu Bai. After seeing Xu Bai today, she dispelled her curiosity.

However, just because he had given up, it didn't mean that he didn't have new curiosity.

"What are their stakes?" Xu Bai placed his hand on his chin and rubbed it gently as he asked the question in his heart.

Since it was a bet, there must be a stake.

These two were the Great Chu's First and Second Heads. The bet would definitely not be simple.

"If His Highness wins, His Majesty will not interfere in your affairs. You can do whatever you want. If His Highness loses, His Majesty will have to compete with His Highness for you." the woman in costume said.

The wilderness fell silent. After the woman in the costume finished speaking, Xu Bai raised his head and said in a helpless tone.

"Am I very handsome?"

The woman in the costume was stunned. She looked at Xu Bai carefully and then nodded with certainty. "Yes!"

The word "mm" was said with emphasis, and the answer was very firm.

"Why are they all looking for me? Why would the dignified Emperor and His Highness make things difficult for a mere Rank-8 like me?" Xu Bai was speechless.

To be honest, he really didn't want to get involved. He just wanted to focus on the progress bar.

Why did these two treat him as a talent? Was he a talent? He really wasn't.

He didn't know how to march and fight, nor did he know how to rule the country and pacify the world. He only knew how to kill.

'You might not know this, but at that time, His Majesty asked an expert who was proficient in divination to calculate your matter. In the end, that expert said something directly.' The woman in the costume said quietly, "Uncommon talent."

Xu Bai was speechless.

The woman in the costume didn't see Xu Bai's expression and continued, "As for the rest, I don't know either. In any case, everyone thinks quite highly of you. It's said that the person who divined your fortune was also killed on the spot by His Majesty because he was afraid that news of you would leak out."

Xu Bai fell into deep thought..

Chapter 200: The Heart Technique of Getting Stronger and Stronger

Although he didn't know what was going on, if this matter was true, the Emperor's actions were reasonable.

If this news were to spread out, not only would Great Chu be the first to take action, but Great Yue and the Wildlands would also join in.

Therefore, temporarily sealing off the news was a good thing for Great Chu.

"Then you're the only one who knows." Xu Bai's gaze shifted to the woman in the costume.

Even the diviner was dead, so only the woman in the costume knew about this. If something went wrong midway...

The woman in the costume was shocked. She felt a boundless murderous aura enveloping her.

“Wait, I won’t leak the secret. I definitely won’t do such a thing.”

As soon as he finished speaking, Ghost Head Blade was already placed on the neck of the woman in the costume. It looked like he was about to take this beautiful head away.

“I’m Chu Yu, the daughter of King Shengyou!” The woman in the costume quickly replied, tears almost coming out.

“Sheng You King has a daughter?” Xu Bai frowned.

“Yes, yes, yes, yes, yes. I was born before His Highness passed away, and I was raised by His Majesty.” The woman in the costume nodded her head vigorously, afraid that if she answered too late, the knife would fall.

“Then why do you still call him Your Highness?” Xu Bai expressed that he couldn’t be trusted.

“Dad said that if I was in his army, I could only call him that when I was doing business. I’m also doing business now!” “If you don’t believe me, look at this.” Chu Yu raised the jade token.

As she finished speaking, the jade tablet emitted a burst of light. Immediately after, the image of King Sheng You appeared.

Xu Bai put down the knife and stared at the image.

“Xu Bai, if you’re seeing this, you should have already seen my daughter. She should have told you everything that happened. You’re in charge of what to do next.”

Chu Yu held the jade token high and looked at Xu Bai pitifully.

Xu Bai was speechless.

When he saw this image, he no longer had any thoughts. The first half of the sentence was fine, but what did the last sentence mean?

What did he mean by letting him take care of her? This made him a little dizzy.

Wait a minute!

“Don’t tell me you’re going to stay by my side?” Xu Bai stared at Chu Yu.”

Chu Yu nodded her head pitifully.” My father said that he wanted me to experience the dangers of the martial world and temper my temper. That’s why he sent me here. Besides, you’re the only one who knows that I’m his daughter.””

After King Sheng You died, everyone said that King Sheng You had no successor. After all, it was related to the resurrection plan. This was also one of them.

“After that, when Father returned to the capital, he didn’t acknowledge me. He only acknowledged me in private and asked me to hide my identity. I thought it was for something else, but I didn’t expect it to be for this.”Chu Yu’s face was filled with helplessness. She stirred her right hand, causing her hair that was draped over her chest to be messed up.

“Then you can go back. I don’t need it.”Xu Bai sheathed his saber and turned to leave.

What kind of joke was this? He wasn’t a nanny, nor was he a teacher. Why should he help King Sheng You handle these family matters?

When Chu Yu saw that Xu Bai was about to leave, she took a few steps forward and blocked his path. She then spread her arms and raised them up. “Wait, Dad said that I won’t let you take care of him for free.”

“Even if you give me mountains of gold and silver, I won’t agree.” Xu Bai walked around Chu Yu and said.

He was not a good person who did charity. It was better not to get involved in such a situation.

“Father said that if I give you this, you will agree.” Chu Yu seemed to have thought of something. She rummaged in her pocket and took out a book, handing it to Xu Bai.

The book was still warm when Chu Yu placed it on her bulging chest.

Xu Bai stopped and stared at the progress bar of the book, deep in thought.

When he casually flipped to a page, he immediately understood what book it was.

Nameless Saber Scripture.

It was another nameless saber scripture.

This was the third book that could be classified as a first-grade nameless saber scripture after collecting all twenty-four books.

“Sigh...” Xu Bai sighed and quietly put the Nameless Saber Scripture into his clothes. “You can agree, but you have to listen to me.”

Even if it was a mountain of gold and silver, he would not agree. However, the progress bar was different, and it was the progress bar of the Nameless Saber Scripture.

After the Nameless Saber Scripture became the Second Form of Breaking, it had already reached the level of Tier 3. If he comprehended it again, it was very likely to reach Tier 4.

He really had no way to reject this thing.

Smells good.

“Don’t worry, I’ll definitely be very obedient.” Chu Yu answered quickly. Then, she seemed to have thought of something. She crossed her arms and covered her chest. “If you want to do that kind of thing, I can’t.”

The corner of Xu Bai’s mouth twitched. He didn’t want to talk about this anymore, so he reminded him again, “I can’t guarantee your safety 100%. Is that okay?”

“No problem. I originally wanted to see the dangers of the martial world. It’s equivalent to training myself.” “My father said that I’ll be able to finish my apprenticeship as long as I learn half of your ruthlessness and cunningness,” said Chu Yu.

Xu Bai was speechless.

What was ruthless and what was cunning? He was a very upright person.

“Forget it, let’s go back to the Yin Posthouse.” “Right, from now on, you’re my servant girl. This way, you can hide your identity, understand?” Xu Bai said..”
