Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1981: Take The Charge, Lure Him Out, Caught A Big One

After the Embodiers met up in the Deep Mind Dimension, they all waited for Chu Kuangren to make a move.

"I'd like to see how Chu Kuangren retakes our lost land and takes down Central Heaven Universe's ten continents."

"Hmph. He's ambitious, but we'll see what he can do."

"Indeed."

Everyone looked forward to Chu Kuangren's next move.

On that particular day, Chu Kuangren finally made his move.

He turned into a stream of light and left the Third Continent, a territory under the Pan Gu Universe.

With that, many other cultivators from the Pan Gu Universe also moved out and scattered across the Void Battlefield.

At the same time, in the empty but grand palace on the Third Continent, a beautiful figure in red and golden robes entered.

It was a beautiful woman with delicate facial features. Her cultivation level was not that high, but she possessed a sense of prestige as if she was from a higher status.

She was Gu Linglong.

She sat down on a chair beside the throne.

Then, she lifted her hand and summoned multiple jade talismans.

They were all communication jade talismans.

"Black Heaven Troop Breaker Star, how's your preparation going?" Gu Linglong asked.

One of the talismans glowed, and Jue Wushen's voice sounded. "My Queen, everything is progressing as scheduled. We're waiting for your order."

"There's no rush. Be on standby."

After that, she looked at another jade talisman.

Each jade talisman represented a powerful elite that was an Embodier.

However, all of them took orders from Gu Linglong, a mere Arch Gilded Immortal.

If news of it got out, people would be shocked.

In fact, it was Chu Kuangren who had granted her the power.

The queen represented the king, after all.

"My dear, I wish everything is going well for you," Gu Linglong muttered as she stared at the horizon.

...

On the Ninth Continent of Central Heaven Universe, Heavenly Sword Chu Kuangren stepped out of his closed-door meditation today, which was rare for him.

The Heavenly Shadow welcomed him back. "Master."

"How's the Ninth Continent recently?"

"Master, there's nothing in particular except for An Zixun. The Devil spotted him meeting up and contacting someone else," Heavenly Shadow said.

Chu Kuangren nodded. "It seems like the fake news I released is working. I wonder who it will lure out."

Would it be the Thousand Flame God King, the Nine Kings, the Dao King Tribe, or Yuan Teng or An Ye from the Titan Tribe?

Chu Kuangren was curious.

Nevertheless, he swung his sleeve and summoned a chessboard before him.

"Do you know how to play?"

"A little," the Heavenly Shadow said.

"Let's play two games."

"Please enlighten me, Master."

With that, the two sat down and started playing chess.

Black and red chess pieces fought each other on the chessboard, but to Chu Kuangren, the chessboard represented the Void Battlefield and the chess pieces represented the two universes.

"The real game starts now. The first step, take the lead!"

Chu Kuangren's lips curled into a smile.

Slam!

He moved the chess piece forward.

On the other hand, after Green Lotus Chu Kuangren left the Third Continent, he headed to a Central Heaven Universe's territory and landed on a certain continent.

Kaboom!

The people on the continent instantly felt immense pressure coming from the sky. They all looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.

"Who is he?"

"His aura is so powerful!"

"He's from the Pan Gu Universe!"

"I know him. He's Chu Kuangren!"

When the name was mentioned, it reminded them that Chu Kuangren was not someone they could afford to mess with.

When the Void Battlefield first opened, he had fought the Heavenly Sword before.

Now, judging by his aura, he must have broken through to the Embodier Realm.

Chu Kuangren stood in the sky and raised his hand.

The Daoist Rhymes in his body reverberated in the sky.

As he pressed his palm down, the Daoist law energy gushed out and transformed into a massive palm seal.

Bang!

Following a deafening explosion, the defensive boundary on the continent was crushed.

The entire continent sank deeper, and boundless Daoist law energy scattered about, taking the lives of all the cultivators caught in it.

"How dare you!"

An angry voice echoed in the sky.

A God King rose to the sky, with Immortal Sparks and strong Daoist law energy swirling around him. Each move he made shook the void.

He glared at Chu Kuangren coldly. "As long as I, Di Hong, is here, you shall not do as you wish!"

Di Hong was a God King from the Central Heaven Temple.

He looked at Chu Kuangren coldly as he raised his hand, channeling Emperor qi from his body. Then, the Emperor qi transformed into a golden palm seal that was hurled at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren simply swung his sleeves, releasing his sword qi at the incoming palm seal.

In a split second, the sword qi cut the Emperor qi palm seal in half.

"He's powerful!" Di Hong's eyes widened.

His cultivation base rivaled that of a Supreme God King, and he did not hold back in the palm attack.

However, his attack was easily mitigated.

Chu Kuangren should be at least a Peak or Perfected God King, which was a standard for Multi-Embodiers.

"I'm not his match! I must call for backup!" Di Hong thought to himself.

As such, he sent messages out before he revealed a golden armor and swung his sword at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren was in no rush to kill him.

He pointed his sword hand sign forward to counter the attack.

The messages that Di Hong sent out soon reached the other God Kings, and some of them were intrigued.

"Chu Kuangren? He has appeared?"

"I heard whoever can kill him will be granted a wish by the Primordial, be it Supreme Treasure, status, or even the insights to break through to Primordial Realm. It can all be granted!"

"Yeah. Kill him, and we can get everything we want!"

"I can't miss this golden opportunity!"

The God Kings and some ancient God Kings could no longer sit tight, but some were more cautious than others.

"How many soldiers did Chu Kuangren bring with him?"

"He's alone."

"What? How arrogant!"

"He's trying to take down an entire continent by himself? But with his strength, it's not entirely possible. Tell Di Hong to hang on. We're on our way to help him."

The God Kings moved out.

After all, Chu Kuangren was a golden opportunity for them.

...

Back on the Ninth Continent of the Central Heaven Universe, Heavenly Sword Chu Kuangren looked at the chessboard with a calm look.

"The second step, lure them out."

Suddenly, he sensed something and looked up into the distant horizon.

A rainbow streak of light appeared, carrying a tremendous aura that pressured all in the General's Residence.

Chu Kuangren smiled. "It seems like not only they did, but I got myself a big one as well."

A man emerged from the rainbow light.

He had colorful emperor robes on and a pair of frosty eyes. His energy presence felt ancient, and the aura on him felt so domineering that it struck fear in people's hearts.

He was the forefather of the Dragons in the Central Heaven Universe, the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon.

Chu Kuangren squinted at him.

He had indeed lured out a big one.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1982: A Bet With Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, Three Treasures, Surrounded

"Heavenly Sword, you do know how to spend your time playing chess," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said.

Chu Kuangren remained seated and showed no intention of welcoming him. Instead, he said, "Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, are you interested in a game or two?"

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon glanced at the chessboard before saying, "I don't know how to play traditional chess, but I do know a thing or two about go."

"Of course."

Chu Kuangren told the Heavenly Shadow to bring the go chessboard over.

Then, the two of them started playing.

"What are you doing here?"

"I'm here to find some answers. First, I never left my bloodline powers behind before I went into slumber, so how did Long Shuijing get the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon bloodline?" Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said as he placed a stone on the chessboard.

"You should ask Long Shuijing about it."

"I did. She said she simply got an Opportunity of Fortune, but when I dug deeper, I realized she called you her master at the same time she acquired my bloodline. I believe you're involved in this."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon looked annoyed.

He could not believe that Long Shuijing had his bloodline powers, yet she called someone else her master.

If Long Shuijing was not one of the Nine Kings and played a vital role in the Central Heaven Universe, he would have killed her a long time ago.

"Other than that, are there any other questions?" Chu Kuangren asked without answering.

"How did you get your dragon powers?"

Chu Kuangren's Infernal Dragon power had been bothering the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon for a while now.

Ever since their last encounter, the Infernal Dragon's power revered the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon as the power belonged to something far surpassed himself, which baffled him.

"Hmm... What else?" Chu Kuangren did not answer the second question as well.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon narrowed his eyes.

"Your battle with the Nether God. Although the Nether God was good at controlling soul power, you won, but did you really escape unscathed? Or are you just looking strong but badly hurt inside?"

As soon as the words escaped his mouth, the atmosphere suddenly became tense.

A frosty intent circulated in the air

A devilish flower appeared in Heavenly Shadow's hand as he stared at Heavenly Rainbow Dragon coldly and the Devil energy swirled around him. He was prepared to attack at any moment.

"Would you like to test it for yourself?" Chu Kuangren chuckled as he narrowed his eyes.

For some reason, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's confidence faded when he looked into Chu Kuangren's eyes. On the contrary, he felt chills running down his spine.

"Heavenly Sword, why aren't you answering my questions?"

"How about this? Let's have a bet."

"What bet?"

"You should have gotten the news about Chu Kuangren of Pan Gu Universe besieging the defense line of the Central Heaven Universe alone, and he's fighting Di Hong as we speak. Many other God Kings have decided to join the battle to have a take on his life because of the promise by the Primordial. Let's have a bet on his life," Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

He was mad enough to bet on his own life!

"Interesting. I have never met Chu Kuangren before, but based on what he did today, I believe he's just a reckless man. No matter how strong he is, with that many God Kings surrounding him, it will be difficult for him to escape alive."

"So, are you betting on his death?"

"I am."

"In that case, the Heavens shall bet on him living. If he dies, the Heavens will answer all your questions; if he lives, what will you give the Heavens?"

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon waved his sleeve, unveiling several treasures.

One of them was an Immortal Gold that glowed in rainbow colors.

The other was a withered wood the size of a newborn baby, with Yin and Yang aura flowing on its surface.

The last one was a black bead that contained dense rage qi.

"These are the three treasures — the Rainbow Dragon Metal, the Yin Yang Withered Wood, and the Vengeful Spirit Bead. You can choose one of them."

The Rainbow Dragon Metal was a top-tier Immortal Metal. When used to forge a weapon, it could easily boost the weapon's grade to the ranks of the Embodier.

With such a big chunk, it would be a great help to Chu Kuangren in refining his Great Water Nation Warring Map Formation. Furthermore, he could also shorten the refining time.

The Yin Yang Withered Wood was used to comprehend the Yin Yang Dao.

Chu Kuangren did not major in the Yin Yang Dao, but he was reaching the Multi-Embodier Realm. He could fuse with the Yin Yang Dao as his second dao, so the Yin Yang Withered Wood would be useful as well.

As for the last treasure, it was a bead that contained tremendous rage qi.

Although it was not much use to him, the Heavenly Shadow's eyes were wide when he saw the bead.

"You've asked the Heavens three questions. So, if Chu Kuangren lives, these three treasures belong to me," Chu Kuangren said.

"Heavenly Sword, you're greedy."

"Are you betting or what?"

"Of course. Like you said, if Chu Kuangren lives, you take the treasures; if he dies, you answer my questions."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was confident that he would win.

With so many Embodier God Kings teaming up, it would be easy for them to take down Chu Kuangren.

After all, Chu Kuangren was not a Primordial.

"Of course." Chu Kuangren chuckled.

To him, the three treasures were his already.

...

On the other side, the fight between Chu Kuangren and Di Hong continued.

Di Hong noticed that no matter how many times he attacked, Chu Kuangren could negate and mitigate them. Moreover, the latter looked relaxed throughout the battle.

Quite the opposite, whenever Chu Kuangren attacked, Di Hong would have to defend with all his strength, and a slight misstep would result in him suffering heavy injuries.

"He's so powerful! I heard he's as strong as the Heavenly Sword. I thought it was just rumors, but now it seems like the rumors are true."

The longer the fight, the more anxious and afraid Di Hong got.

He had a feeling that Chu Kuangren was toying with him. It felt like he was being kept alive on purpose, or he would have died ten times over.

What exactly was Chu Kuangren trying to achieve?

"Chu Kuangren, I, Palm Overlord, shall fight you!"

A loud and frosty voice sounded in the air.

Then, a violet-red palm seal, emanating a domineering aura, fell from the sky and locked onto Chu Kuangren.

Before the palm seal hit its target, the void around it had started to tremble violently. It was proof of how powerful the palm strike was.

Chu Kuangren, however, remained unfazed and pointed the sword hand sign at the sky.

The sword shadow gushed forward, crushing the palm seal into pieces.

A buffed man appeared behind the palm seal. He had Daoist Law's energy swirling around him and emanated a powerful Overlord qi.

"I, God King Molin, am here," a frosty voice said.

God King Molin flew in from the sky.

"The Nether King Tribe will not let this opportunity slip either!"

Wu Xuelong of the Nether King Tribe had arrived as well.

"He's mine!"

A powerful aura, more terrifying than that of a Supreme God King, erupted from further away, where a vicious-looking giant ape was approaching from the sky.

Everyone's eyes widened in fear when they saw the vicious-looking ape.

"It's the Demonic Ghost Ape!"

"An ancient wild beast!"

"Judging from the aura, he's a Multi-Embodier God King!"

The others clicked their tongues in awe. They did not expect to see a Demonic Ghost Ape amongst the awakened ancient God Kings.

"You speak too soon."

A ball of fire came flying in from the sky.

It was the Thousand Flame God King, another Multi-Embodier.

With more and more God Kings arriving, the continent was shrouded with terrifying Daoist law energy, which caused the void to shatter.

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren eagerly.

"Chu Kuangren, if we kill you, the Primordial will grant us a wish. You have your fate to blame for your bad luck, for today will be the day you die!"

"One man besieging one continent? Foolish! You shall repent your foolish actions in hell!"

Chu Kuangren smiled when the God Kings surrounded him. As he looked at all of them, he remembered all their faces.

Then, he delivered the information to Gu Linglong.

He drew the Descendant Self Sword from his waist, releasing a rampaging burst of sword qi.

"Third step, heavily surrounded!"

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1983: Operation Start, Who Is Surrounded, Nowhere To Run

On the Third Continent of the Pan Gu Universe, inside the palace sat Gu Linglong, waiting for information from Chu Kuangren.

As soon as she received the message, she said, "Troop Breaker Star, begin the operation."

"Yes, my Queen," said one of the talismans.

Jue Wushen grinned coldly.

Suddenly, the Pan Gu Universe's continents that were occupied by the Central Heaven Universe were flooded with a large number of cultivators.

The cultivators wreaked havoc across the land, destroying the defense lines that the Central Heaven Universe had built.

On a certain continent occupied by the Central Heaven Universe, one of the Central Heaven Universe's cultivators looked at the sudden ambush coldly.

"You people have been hiding among us!"

The Central Heaven Universe had occupied the Pan Gu Universe's lands for just a decade, and they had yet to scan through all the residences to flush out the spies.

Most of the ambushers were cultivators from Pan Gu Universe hiding amongst the Central Heaven Universe's cultivators.

They stayed hidden for ten years because they believed one day, they could retake their lost lands.

Most of them were the cultivators from the Holy Violet Imperial Planet and the Celestial Demon Tribe.

They were all under Jue Wushen's command.

"Today, we shall retake what we lost ten years ago!"

The leader of the ambushers launched their attack as soon as they were exposed.

Similar ambushes happened in other continents occupied by the Central Heaven Universe.

When the ambushes happened, the Central Heaven Universe's cultivators realized they might have occupied the continent, but their men were under attack.

"Kill them!"

A cold voice came from the sky of one of the continents.

Then, a massive astral diagram appeared. From there, a blast of sword qi surged out and destroyed the continent's defensive boundary.

A large number of cultivators charged into the continent when the path was opened.

The resistance from the Central Heaven Universe was caught off guard.

When one of the generals of the Central Heaven Universe saw the scene, his expression turned grim.

"Damn it. They've been planning this for a long time. They're attacking us from the inside and outside!"

He said to a soldier, "Inform the General now!"

"The General isn't here!"

"He isn't here? Where the f*ck is he?"

The general was furious when he learned his superior was not around.

"I have no idea. I think he mentioned something about killing Chu Kuangren."

"Damn it! We're facing a critical moment, and the General isn't here..."

Then, a sudden thought struck the general, and his eyes widened in shock. "Wait a minute. Don't tell me they launched the attack now because the General isn't around... but how did they know?"

Before he could learn why, a sword ray drowned him and took his life.

Ye Zhu slowly walked past the dead bodies. His sword qi wreaked havoc in his wake, killing the Central Heaven Universe's cultivators one after another. No one was his match.

Soon, Ye Zhu conquered the entire continent, but that was not the end.

He looked into the distant sky and muttered, "This is just the beginning."

On the other battlefield, a Godly Phoenix dashed into the sky, scorching the land with its Phoenix Flame.

The flame burned everything in its way, cleansing the land of its filth.

The aura of the Godly Phoenix shook the universe!

"Damn it! Where did the resistance come from?"

"Damn! The Godly Phoenix must be one of the Black Heaven Nine Stars!"

The cultivators from the Central Heaven Universe were easily defeated by the Phoenix Flame. Soon, the continent fell into the hands of Pan Gu Universe.

On another continent, a young girl and her luxurious black robes walked on the land barefooted. As she walked, beautiful equinox flowers bloomed in her trail.

A mystical samsara energy spread along with her presence.

As the equinox flowers bloomed, life and death were sent into reincarnation.

She took down the entire continent alone.

The girl looked into the distant sky, her ruby eyes emotionless. "Everything is as he predicted."

...

Meanwhile, in the General's Residence on the Ninth Continent, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon received news that Chu Kuangren was surrounded by many God Kings.

He grinned. "He's being surrounded."

Chu Kuangren barely reacted. "Yeah, he is."

Then, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon received an update on the situation, and his expression sank.

"The continents we conquered from Pan Gu Universe are being taken back. We're losing the land at an unbelievable speed!"

It was not Green Lotus Chu Kuangren that was surrounded but them!

"Wait! How? Is this part of his plan?"

The Heavenly Rainbow Dragon immediately thought of something. "Chu Kuangren used himself as bait to lure the God Kings out so that his people could retake the continents we conquered.

"He has nerves, I'll give him that. However, he's in a sticky situation, and it will only be more dangerous for him than ever."

Chu Kuangren put a stone on the chessboard.

"I wouldn't be so sure if I were you."

...

"Chu Kuangren! He used himself as bait!"

Thousand Flame God King and the others looked at Chu Kuangren with grim looks.

They received the emergency update from their respective continents and knew it was Chu Kuangren's plan to distract them, which infuriated them.

A bunch of God King toyed with by a young man?

How infuriating!

"No matter how far and how deep your plan is, we've surrounded you, and you're going to die! You're exchanging your life for the thirty continents in the Void Battlefield. I think we can call it a bargain."

"Yeah. With that many of us here, killing you will be a piece of cake. Now, we just need to kill you quickly and return to our continents to foil your grand plan!"

"Kill him!"

The God Kings unleashed their explosive aura at Chu Kuangren.

Di Hong, who had been fighting Chu Kuangren for a day and night, took the lead. He threw a palm attack forward, and his vast Emperor qi shrouded Chu Kuangren whole.

Chu Kuangren simply slashed the Descendant Self Sword at the sky.

The vast sword qi was sharp and indomitable.

Its strength was ten times stronger than before.

That was when Di Hong realized that Chu Kuangren had been playing with him in their battle and was waiting for the others to arrive.

Now that all the God Kings had appeared, there was no need for him to keep the act.

However, it was too late for Di Hong.

The sword qi crushed the Emperor qi and slashed his body into two.

The God King's blood spilled on the land.

The other God Kings were shocked by the power of the slash.

Chu Kuangren wielded the Descendant Self Sword and stood in the air. His sword qi swirled around him as he said, "The first step, take the lead. The second step, lure them out. The third step, surround them. Do you guys know what the fourth step is?"

Chu Kuangren's voice echoed across the sky.

The others felt chills running down their spines.

"The fourth step is we foil your plan! We will kill you here and crush your plans!" Thousand Flame God King said coldly.

"Wrong. The fourth step is you have nowhere to run because I have you where I need!"

The moment he said that, ten light pillars burst out from the ground.

Each pillar held a Godly Weapon.

The weapons formed a massive boundary that trapped the God Kings together. All the God Kings immediately felt pressured.

"In other words, lock the dock and release the dogs!"

Chu Kuangren activated the Universal Godly Weapons' Ten Directions Formation, trapping the God Kings and himself in a sealed space.

The Thousand Flame God King and the others were shocked.

"Since when did he set this formation up?"

"Kill him now!"

They dared not hesitate anymore and decided to end the battle quickly.

All kinds of Immortal Techniques, divine abilities, and Daoist law energy were fired at Chu Kuangren.

The combined attack was like a tidal wave, attempting to crush and drown Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren was unfazed. He simply swung his sword at the incoming attack.

"Green Lotus Art, Heaven Reckoning!"

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1984: Break One By One, Return The Favor, The Heavens Win This Round

"Green Lotus Art, Heaven Reckoning!"

The Green Lotus' Destructive Energy merged with the Daoist law energy, releasing a blinding sword ray with a powerful aura. It was so powerful that it felt like it could break the universe.

The sword ray destroyed the incoming divine abilities and Immortal Techniques easily.

Multiple God Kings were caught. Their bodies were crushed, and their Daos were damaged, causing them to tremble violently.

It was unbelievable that one slash from Chu Kuangren contained such power.

"A Perfected Dao?"

"No, not just the Perfected Dao, but the destructive energy he possesses is the most difficult thing to deal with."

"Damn it!"

God King Molin unveiled a Supreme Treasure.

It was a long black staff, and he infused it with his Daoist law energy to activate its power. Then, he swung it at Chu Kuangren.

"Die!"

Chu Kuangren did not even try to dodge.

He countered with a slash from the Descendant Self Sword.

When the sword and staff clashed, the destructive energy was blasted forward. Its rampant power easily destroyed the black staff.

The sword qi cut God King Molin in half, and his dao buzzed violently.

He tried to recover using his Daoist law, but the Green Lotus' Destructive Energy corroded his body, preventing him from recovering.

God King Moling was dead!

"Damn it!"

Wu Xuelong followed up with his attack.

He used the Nether King Tribe's strongest curse attack, but unfortunately, Chu Kuangren was the manifestation of the Chaos Green Lotus.

Wu Xuelong was not powerful enough to curse the Chaos Supreme Treasure, and Chu Kuangren also had the Cursebreaker Sword with him.

Hence, Wu Xuelong's attack was ineffective against Chu Kuangren.

"Die."

Chu Kuangren swung his sword forward, casting the Heaven Reckoning technique again.

Just like that, Wu Xuelong was killed as well.

One slash was all it took for Chu Kuangren to kill one God King.

The absurd power shocked the others.

Then, the Demonic Ghost Ape and Thousand Flame God King, both Multi-Embodiers, attacked. They were obviously stronger than the others.

Unlike God King Molin and the others, they attacked with powers from multiple Dao.

The attack carried a vast and boundless energy.

"Bring it on!"

Chu Kuangren smiled excitedly.

Ever since he came out from closed-door meditation, he had never fought with his full strength before. Hence, even he had no idea how strong he was.

Now, he could test his strength with the God Kings.

...

Back in the palace, Gu Linglong sat on the throne as she oversaw the battlefield.

Jade talismans floated before her, and messages from different parties came to her.

"My Queen, the mission is completed."

"Sister Linglong, I'm done here as well."

After Gu Linglong received the update, a massive map appeared in her mind.

It was actually the defensive blueprint of the Central Heaven Universe.

"Troop Breaker, you're closest to Justice. She's engaged with a troublesome God King. Go help her."

"Colossal Gate and Greedy Wolf, you two head to the Seventy-first Continent of the Central Heaven Universe. The God Kings there are absent. It's a great chance for you two to take the place."

"Senior Bei Ming, please head to Sixty-first Continent. There are multiple Absolute Arch Gilded Immortals there without a God King."

"Arsenal Star, go to the Thirty-Fourth Continent. There's a God King there, but with your strength, you should be able to take it down."

"Yun Zhongyue, Senior Zi Jinlun, the Heavenly Xing Tribe, and the Celestial Demon Tribe, please stay where you are and continue to remove the remaining enemies."

Orders were given rapidly.

Other than retaking the continents they lost to the Central Heaven Universe, they were also launching a grand attack on them.

Gu Linglong sat on the throne with her legs crossed. Her expression looked solemn, as if she was a real empress.

"The fifth step, take them down one by one and retaliate!"

...

"Heaven Reckoning!"

Chu Kuangren hurled a slash forward. The terrifying sword qi blasted the Demonic Ghost Ape away.

Then, the Thousand Flame God King followed up with an attack.

Scorching flames were fired at Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren threw a palm strike at the flames, activating the Green Lotus' destructive power.

The scorching flames were extinguished immediately.

Thousand Flames God King were blasted a dozen meters away.

"Overlord Spear!"

Palm Overlord channeled his Overlord Physique's divine ability, and the Overlord Daoist law energy swirled around the spear.

When he hurled the spear forward, the void around it cracked and shattered.

Chu Kuangren did not dodge or move. He simply took the spear strike head-on.

At the same time, he countered with a similarly powerful attack.

As the sword qi gushed out, it penetrated Palm Overlord's body.

His Dao was deeply shaken.

On the contrary, Chu Kuangren was struck by the spear but was unharmed.

The body manifested from a Chaos Supreme Treasure was so durable that even some of the strongest attacks could not destroy it.

"This guy is really terrifying! No wonder he can kill a Primordial!" Thousand Flame God King's expression turned gloomy.

Suddenly, they received an update from their respective continents about the situation back there.

"The Thirty-Sixth Continent is under attack?"

"Mine, too."

Then all looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

"Not only did you plan to retake the conquered continents, but you're trying to conquer ours as well?"

"Wait, how did you know which continent we're in charge of? How did you know our troops' deployment?"

They were surprised, and astonished even, by Chu Kuangren's tactic.

Chu Kuangren had no intention of explaining himself

He raised his hand and channeled the Green Lotus' Destructive Energy to the limit.

A massive green lotus bloomed above his head, looking lively and vivid.

The petals had mystical Daoist Rhymes ringing around them.

The patterns on each stern emanated a strong aura, so strong that the God Kings were alarmed.

"Alright, it's time to deal with you people," Chu Kuangren said.

With that, the massive lotus above his head crashed downward.

It was the second form of the Green Lotus Art, Eternal Green Lotus Dominion!

Kaboom!

The void was crushed by the sheer pressure.

Drowned by the pressure and energy, Thousand Flame God King, Demonic Ghost Ape, and the others could not escape in time. All they could do was switch to a defensive stance and endure the attack.

Dao energies erupted one after another, but none could rival the destructive energy of the green lotus.

All the cultivators down on the continent saw the most terrifying scene in their lives — a massive lotus, as big as the sky, crashing down on them.

The Dao in the God Kings buzzed violently before they exploded, shattered, and scattered into the air as life left their bodies.

A while later, the lotus disappeared, leaving a figure in white standing in the air, with the Ten Great Godly Weapons surrounding him.

"Now, it's time to clean up the place."

Chu Kuangren looked down at the continent and channeled the weapons' powers.

The divine light from the weapons shone and shed their brilliance on the land.

A large group of cultivators on the land were instantly killed.

Similar massacres happened in multiple places across the battlefield, and the astral diagram appeared one after another.

As the Nine Stars descended on the battlefield, the continents under the Central Heaven Universe fell one after another.

Soon, more than ten continents had fallen under the control of the Black Heaven Nine Stars.

Without the God Kings in their ways, the entire process happened rapidly and smoothly.

Before the Central Heaven Universe's higher-ups could respond, they had lost more than ten continents.

From this time alone, Chu Kuangren had moved five steps in his plan.

Take the lead, lure them out, surround them, catch them in place, and take them down one by one.

Pan Gu Universe had won the biggest victory against the Central Heaven Universe since the war started.

However, it was a nightmare for the Central Heaven Universe as it was an unprecedented defeat.

In just a few days, they had lost a total of forty-eight continents, including the continents they conquered earlier.

How long would it take them to regain everything?

In fact, with Chu Kuangren around, they might not be able to take back what they lost.

Slam!

The stone was placed on the chessboard.

Chu Kuangren looked at Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, whose expression looked gloomy.

"The Heavens win this round."

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1985: Heavenly Rainbow Dragon Attacks, You're Okay

"The Heavens win this round," Chu Kuangren said as he looked at Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, whose expression looked gloomy.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon narrowed his eyes at Chu Kuangren as if he was thinking about something, and the dragon qi in him was rumbling.

He seemed eager for a fight.

Chu Kuangren, who was delighted, looked at the man and smiled.

When Heavenly Rainbow Dragon saw the smile on Chu Kuangren's face, it baffled him.

Was the Heavenly Sword truly fine after the battle with Nether God?

No.

The Heavenly Sword was an unpredictable person, and he could not act recklessly.

With that, he got up to leave, feeling bummed.

He was just trying to test the Heavenly Sword, but he did not get any answers to his questions. On top of that, he even lost three treasures.

How depressing!

"Chu Kuangren..." Heavenly Rainbow Dragon muttered.

It was the second name that intrigued him after the Heavenly Sword.

"He is definitely something else. To be able to take down that many continents in just a short time, his tactics are astonishing. If that's the case, why don't I meet him?" Heavenly Rainbow Dragon chuckled.

Then, his figure flashed and disappeared.

Back in the General's Residence, Chu Kuangren looked in the direction Heavenly Rainbow Dragon disappeared in and thought it was a pity. "Too bad he managed to hold his urges back. It seems like the fake intel isn't that effective."

If the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon attacked, he had fifty percent confidence to take him down.

Unfortunately, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon did not attack, and Chu Kuangren was in no position to launch an attack.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was someone special. He was not only an ancient existence in the Central Heaven Universe but also a Peerless Warlord from the previous universal war.

He was important to the Central Heaven Universe, second only to the Primordials. The Central Heaven Temple would never allow Chu Kuangren to kill him easily.

Besides, fifty percent confidence was not enough.

"Fine. I got three treasures I can use anyway," Chu Kuangren said as he looked at the treasures in his possession.

Then, he tossed the bead to the Heavenly Shadow.

"Take it and refine it."

"Thank you, Master."

Heavenly Shadow accepted it humbly.

"After this battle, the higher-ups of the Central Heaven Universe will only fear Chu Kuangren even more." Chu Kuangren giggled.

"He's definitely not an easy target. Out of everyone in the Central Heaven Universe, the Devil believes only Master can right him."

"Hmph. Maybe."

...

"My dear, everything went well."

On the desolate battlefield, Chu Kuangren was surrounded by the Ten Great Godly Weapons while the land was blanketed with dead bodies.

It was not too exaggerating to say that he was standing in a sea of dead bodies.

Chu Kuangren, in his signature white robes, stood transcendently, and no one would be able to relate him to the bloody massacre that just happened. However, in reality, he was the one who caused all that.

"I understand. Thank you for your hard work."

Chu Kuangren's expression grew softer.

"I'm fine. I don't have a high cultivation base, so all I can do is become your support. It's the soldiers on the frontline who did the hard work."

"Good job, everyone. It was a nice battle."

"My dear, Lan Yu and Lil Red have won their battles and are heading to you," Gu Linglong said.

"Tell them to stay away. No, tell everyone to stay as far away as possible from this continent."

Chu Kuangren's tone suddenly turned stern.

Gu Linglong was startled and worried about her husband. "My dear, what happened?"

"Don't worry. I can handle it."

Chu Kuangren then hung up on the communication.

Gu Linglong immediately contacted the others to tell them not to approach the continent Chu Kuangren was on.

The others, who were still savoring the joy of victory, were alarmed and shocked.

They were all worried about Chu Kuangren.

...

Back in the General's Residence on the Ninth Continent, Chu Kuangren was shocked when he sensed something.

However, he then chuckled and muttered, "Interesting. It seems like we are going to fight after all."

Back at the desolate battlefield, where the air was filled with a bloody stench, a figure stood firm with the sword in his hand.

He stood in the center of the sea of dead bodies.

Opposite him was a man shrouded in rainbow Immortal Sparks. The man had a stern look, but his eyes were as colorful as rainbows.

From top to bottom, he was enveloped in a rainbow glow, and an unimaginably powerful aura came from him. It was so strong that it felt like everything in the realm would bow down to him.

"I have never thought that other than the Heavenly Sword, I would be able to meet another Outlier Prodigy like him. No, people like you should be called an anomaly," said the man glowing in rainbow color.

"Peerless Warlord Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, how have you been?" Chu Kuangren said as he looked at the man.

It was Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, the man who had been crowned a Peerless Warlord from the previous universal war.

"This is going to be a good one."

"You used yourself as bait, lured the God Kings out, and took them out. Ten years of our effort are gone just like that, and you even turned the odds against us. I'm impressed," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. "This war is going to be a long one, and this is just the start."

"You're right. The last universal war lasted for one hundred thousand years, and now it's just the beginning," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said, agreeing to Chu Kuangren's words.

Then, he channeled his Daoist law energy, and his gaze turned cold. "Too bad you'll die at the start of the war."

As soon as his words subsided, he pointed his fingers at Chu Kuangren.

Terrifying Daoist law energy gathered at his fingertip and transformed into a beam of rainbow-colored light.

It was even more powerful than the slash Chu Kuangren used against Thousand Flame King, Demonic Ghost Ape, and others.

"Heaven Reckoning!" Chu Kuangren struck forward with his sword.

The Green Lotus' Destructive Energy erupted and clashed with the finger energy.

A deafening explosion later, the continent sank.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. The Ten Great Godly Weapons behind him shone brightly, releasing their powers and fusing into a massive energy stream.

"Ten Directions Godly Weapons, Overworld Tremor!"

The power of the Great Godly Weapons was blasted at the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon.

Bang!

An earth-shattering explosion happened.

As the dust storm settled, the rainbow Immortal Sparks continued to shine, and the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was unscathed.

"Your Supreme Treasures are pretty decent, but they're not enough to break through my Rainbow Dragon Scales," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said.

Chu Kuangren squinted as information about Heavenly Rainbow Dragon appeared in his mind.

The Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was the forefather of the Central Heaven Universe's Dragon Tribe.

He had fused a total of seven Dao, and each was at the Perfected level.

He was terrifyingly powerful, a lot more powerful than An Ye and Yuan Teng, who had only fused two Dao.

The man was definitely one of a handful of people whose strength was second to a Primordial.

"I didn't have enough fun just now, but I think you're going to be a decent opponent," Chu Kuangren said.

Then, he swung his sleeve and released his Immortal's Core energy.

The Immortal King Robe, Immortal King Seal, and the Immortal King Crown were all equipped on his body.

Following that, nine True Dragon qi, as long as a million meters, rose into the sky.

The Green Lotus Mark on his forehead glowed and released a mystical Daoist Rhyme.

The destructive power was also filling the realm.

As a result, the void around him shattered like a broken mirror.

"Oh? Impressive powers you have there."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon narrowed his eyes, and his expression turned solemn.

Chapter 1986: Fight Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, Celestial Demon Tribe Hong Yang

Chu Kuangren fought Heavenly Rainbow Dragon on a certain continent.

Their aura clashed fiercely, and the impact was so powerful that the entire continent shook.

The Destructive Energy in Chu Kuangren's body was channeled to the limit.

He swung the Descendant Self Sword forward, hurling a slash at Heavenly Rainbow Dragon.

It was the Green Lotus Art, Heaven Reckoning!

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon did not hesitate a bit. The seven Perfected Dao in his body buzzed in union, releasing a terrifying energy.

"Golden Dragon God Slasher!"

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon pointed his sword hand sign forward to unleash a slash.

The sword qi he released contained the energies of seven Dao.

Neither of them tried to test each other's strength. Their first attacks were their strongest attacks — a full demonstration of their power and cultivation.

The moment the sword qi clashed, the entire continent collapsed with a deafening explosion. The land cracked and broke into two.

As the sword qi wreaked havoc in the void, black cracks started to spread in the air like a spiderweb. Stray air currents rumbled within before they combined into a massive suction force. It was like a beast opening its wide mouth, devouring everything in its way.

Chu Kuangren fell into a disadvantage as he was pushed back more than ten steps away by the clash, whereas Heavenly Rainbow Dragon remained standing like a monolith.

However, Chu Kuangren was not surprised at all. The power of seven Perfected Dao was indeed powerful.

The Green Lotus' Destructive Energy in his body was released into the void, and a dazzling green lotus bloomed.

"Eternal Green Lotus Dominion!"

The green lotus crashed down onto Heavenly Rainbow Dragon.

Each petal on the lotus contained astonishing vitality.

As the green lotus crashed down, it destroyed the void in its way inch by inch. Countless shattered pieces of space danced in the air, forming a kaleidoscope-ish scenery that reflected both Chu Kuangren and Heavenly Rainbow Dragon in them.

"This is interesting."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's Dao buzzed.

The rainbow light swirled and gathered in his palm before it was shot upward. Then, the rainbow light transformed into a vicious and domineering dragon shadow behind him.

The dragon opened its wings. On its colorful scales, multiple drastically different Daoist Rhymes were swirling around them.

Metal, wood, water, fire, earth, Yin, and Yang were the seven Dao that the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon had fused.

Now, they had converged in the dragon shadow behind him.

"Dragon Breath Void Destruction!" Heavenly Rainbow Dragon roared.

The dragon shadow behind him roared as well. After that, it opened its mouth and spat out a gorgeous torrent of colorful energy that destroyed the void in its way.

The energy stream contained fire, a storm, a torrential tide, and all kinds of natural phenomena, and it looked stunning.

When it clashed with the green lotus, the Destructive Energy and the Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's energy caused a massive explosion. A ripple of energy fluctuations spread outward in the air like a stone tossed into the surface of the quiet lake.

The expanding energy ripple destroyed everything in its path and scorched even the sky.

The void was destroyed and started to collapse, slowly turning into nothingness.

The energy destroyed everything like it was the end of the world.

The continent had collapsed due to their fight, and countless pieces of the land floated in space.

In the void, many other elites sensed the powerful energy.

Somewhere on a continent, a lady in silver-white armor looked in the direction of the terrifying energy and was worried.

"This energy... It's Master. Is this why Master doesn't want us to be near him? He's fighting someone powerful," Lan Yu muttered.

The others were similarly shocked.

"This power is definitely from someone second only to a Primordial. How scary!"

"No, it's a Pseudo-Primordial."

"It's really powerful."

"Can Chu Kuangren handle it?"

As the collapsed continent crumbled into pieces, the impact from the collision died down.

Both Chu Kuangren and Heavenly Rainbow Dragon stood on a crumbled land, looking at each other.

They stared at each other coldly.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was secretly in awe of Chu Kuangren's strength. It was his first time fighting someone as young and powerful as Chu Kuangren.

However, it also reminded him of the Heavenly Sword.

If Chu Kuangren and the Heavenly Sword fought, who would win?

"The seven Perfected Dao is indeed troublesome." Chu Kuangren thought out loud.

He still had one more trick up his sleeve, which was the third form of the Green Lotus Art.

He never had the chance to use it since he created it, and now would be a good chance to test its power.

"I can put it to the test," he said to himself.

He believed he would not lose to Heavenly Rainbow Dragon since his body was the manifestation of the Chaos Green Lotus, which provided him with many powerful life-saving abilities.

Not even a Primordial could easily kill this version of him.

"He's a big threat to our universe. I must kill him as quickly as possible," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon muttered as he stared at Chu Kuangren coldly.

While he was channeling his energy to prepare for his strongest attack, he sensed something. He looked into the distant sky with narrowed eyes.

"This aura..."

A woman in red came walking toward them.

She was beautiful and leggy, her skin was as fair as snow, and her red hair was as smooth as silk, which complemented her fiery red robes.

She carried a domineering and scorching aura with her.

All she did was stand there, and the space around her started to distort and collapse. The scorching temperature made her look like the sun.

"A powerful aura."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon squinted as he sensed a threat from the woman. Although it was not strong, it was real.

The woman might be as powerful as him.

"Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, leave. If I team up with Chu Kuangren, you won't be able to beat us," the red-haired woman said.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon pondered at her words.

Before he could come up with a decision, the astral diagram appeared.

Nine bright stars shone in the void.

Sword qi burst out, cries of the Godly Phoenix echoed in the sky, Buddhist light shone, and evil qi rose.

The nine stars carried nine different energies, and each was a force to be reckoned with.

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon chuckled. "It seems like Pan Gu Universe has produced many interesting people over the years."

It was over.

Since he had tested Chu Kuangren's strength, there was no point in continuing the fight since he was outnumbered.

He glared at Chu Kuangren. "Chu Kuangren, we will continue this some other time, and it won't be as easy as this."

"Hmph. Next time, I will chop off your dragon head," Chu Kuangren said with his hands behind his back.

"Interesting." With that, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's figure flashed and disappeared.

Chu Kuangren and the woman in red did not stop him.

After all, killing him would not be easy.

It was extremely difficult to kill someone with seven Perfected Daos unless he could destroy all seven at once.

Other than a Primordial, not even a Pseudo-Primordial had the ability to do it.

"Immortal King, are you alright?"

Ye Zhu and the others arrived.

Chu Kuangren looked at them helplessly. "I thought I told you guys not to come here. Why are all of you here?"

"We saw what happened and got worried, so we came. Who were you fighting?" Ye Zhu asked.

"The Peerless Warlord, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon," Chu Kuangren said.

He ignored the Nine Stars' astonishment and looked at the woman in red. "Thank you for your help."

The woman in red waved at him. "Even without me, I believe you would've been able to escape in one piece."

Chu Kuangren smiled without accepting or denying that comment.

Then, he asked, "Are you from the Celestial Demon Tribe?"

"I'm Hong Yang from the Celestial Demon Tribe."

The woman in red laughed boldly and tapped Chu Kuangren's shoulder. She said, "Why? Are you expecting me to call you Celestial Demon King?"

"You can call me whatever you want, Senior."

The Celestial Demon King was just a playful title Xu Wu created to allow Chu Kuangren to command the Pseudo-Celestial Demon Tribe.

Hence, the title was not that important when he was talking to one of the Seven Celestial Demons who possessed the Innate Chaos Celestial Demon Physique.

Bei Ming, Zi Jinlun, and the others followed him not because of the title but because of his charms.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1987: Peerless Warlord Lu Jun, God King Sikong Noticed Something Weird

Hong Yang was the last of the Seven Celestial Demons.

She had been tasked with a certain mission in the Void Battlefield, and now, she suddenly appeared before Chu Kuangren due to the changes to her mission.

"The demonic tides in the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands have receded. It's time for us to go in and awaken the Peerless Warlords. I'm here because of that," Hong Yang said.

The Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands was a dangerous place within the Void Battlefield.

It was said that during the last universal war, the battle between the two universes got so fierce that multiple Peerless Warlords were heavily injured and sent into slumber.

The Forbidden Lands was shrouded by a large amount of strange demonic mist, which prevented entry for the common cultivators. In addition to the slumbering Peerless Warlords, the two universes stopped fighting, hence the closure of the Void Battlefield.

It was not until the recent opening of the Void Battlefield that Hong Yang was sent there to investigate the place, finding a way to awaken the Peerless Warlords.

After many years of slumber, their injuries should have more or less recovered.

Now, with the demonic tides receding, it would be a great chance to awaken them.

"Let's go back and discuss," Chu Kuangren said.

With that, they all returned to the defense line of Pan Gu Universe and entered the Deep Mind Dimension.

Everyone gathered for a meeting.

A bunch of ancient Embodiers looked at Chu Kuangren in embarrassing silence as they were all astonished by what Chu Kuangren had achieved.

On the battlefield, strength spoke louder than words. Hence, in terms of war achievements, Chu Kuangren had achieved a huge victory for Pan Gu Universe.

No one had achieved more than him since the reopening of the Void Battlefield.

That operation alone was more than enough to crown him a Peerless Warlord, but Chu Kuangren was not interested in that title.

He wanted to be king!

"Everyone, what's your answer?" Chu Kuangren asked calmly.

Everyone knew what he was referring to.

Grand Darkness Celestial Demon took the lead and said, "From now on, I, Grand Darkness Celestial Demon, will be at your command, Immortal King."

The others echoed. Even Buddha Lei Yin, Sin Buddha, and the others who had a grudge against Chu Kuangren decided to put their differences aside and accept his command.

They were not that ignorant to disregard the general situation of their universe.

Throughout all of Pan Gu Universe, there might still be a few who could rival Chu Kuangren in strength, but in terms of reputation, there were none.

The ancient Embodiers were old, and their reputation back in their era was useless in this era. Multiple generations had passed since then.

"What about you?" Chu Kuangren asked Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor.

Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor remained silent at first but ultimately surrendered. He said, "I will also be at your command, Immortal King."

"Very well," Chu Kuangren said with a nod.

Then, he talked about the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands. "We must awaken the Peerless Warlord as soon as possible."

The Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands was a dangerous place in the Void Battlefield, and not even an Embodier could venture inside smoothly.

Therefore, only a handful of people might be able to follow him inside to do the job.

Hong Yang must be on the team as she had investigated and studied the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands for a long time and knew her way around the place. Only she knew the exact location of the slumbering Peerless Warlords.

Other than her, who else should he bring?

"Let me tag along."

A cold voice sounded amongst the crowd.

A starry light descended in the Deep Mind Dimension and transformed into a figure. The man had green armor on, a sharp facial feature, and a massive black saber on his back. He emanated a frosty and sharp aura upon his arrival.

One look at him, and everyone could tell he was not someone they could simply mess with.

Chu Kuangren had never seen him before, but judging from the reaction of the others, the man must be someone powerful.

"Lu Jun? It's really you!"

Zi Jinlun's eyes shone when he saw the man.

Lu Jun smiled. "It's been a while, Zi Jinlun."

Then, he looked at Chu Kuangren and introduced himself. "Greetings, Immortal King. I'm Lu Jun. Please allow me to follow you to the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands."

"Of course." Chu Kuangren nodded.

A moment ago, Zi Jinlun had informed him telepathically that Lu Jun was one of the Peerless Warlords from the previous universal war and one of the seven remaining Peerless Warlords in the Pan Gu Universe.

His power was not to be underestimated, considering he had at least fused five Daos in himself.

There was no way Chu Kuangren would miss adding such powerful support to his team.

Soon, he assembled his team that would follow him to the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands.

It was a team of four consisting of himself, Hong Yang, Lu Jun, and Xu Wu.

The reason why he brought Xu Wu on the team was because the man was interested in the demonic tides at the Forbidden Lands and he wanted to learn more about them.

However, they did not leave for the Forbidden Lands immediately.

They had to prepare the necessary items to awaken the Peerless Warlords, which took them around ten days.

Only after that did the team head to the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands.

...

Meanwhile, in the Central Heaven's Temple, a meeting was being held.

All Embodier God Kings attended the meeting, and they were having a fierce argument.

"The Central Heaven Universe has lost big time this round! We lost forty-eight continents to the other side! Whose responsibility is this?"

"Are we just going to sit here and watch? Bunch of cowards! Who wants to follow me to retake our continents?"

"Calm down! Don't act recklessly!"

"Huh? We've been outsmarted by a junior, and you don't want us to take revenge? Are you out of your damn mind?"

Heavenly Sword Chu Kuangren was in the meeting as well.

Instead of using their true form to attend the meeting, all the attendees used some kind of communication method to present themselves as projections.

Otherwise, Chu Kuangren suspect the meeting would escalate into a full-out brawl.

He looked at the arguing God Kings and yawned.

How boring...

He would not have attended the meeting if he was not afraid of missing out on important information.

"Calm down!" God King Sikong grunted coldly.

He was the representative of Shen Tian, so his words still carried weight, and he successfully calmed everyone down.

"God Kings, do not act recklessly. Don't forget that we lost this battle because the God Kings were distracted fighting Chu Kuangren, which allowed our enemy to have the chance to ambush us. We cannot make the same mistake again."

God King Sikong then looked at Chu Kuangren, "Heavenly Sword, what do you think about Chu Kuangren?"

Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised.

What thoughts could he possibly have for himself? That he was handsome? Powerful?

"He's a decent opponent. The Heavens look forward to fighting him," he simply said.

His answer was not at all surprising.

To the other God Kings, the Heavenly Sword was a powerful man who sought challenges, and now with a decent opponent in sight, there was no way he would miss it.

God King Sikong did not say anything else either.

After that, he called off the meeting but kept a few attendees behind.

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes.

He looked at those who stayed behind. Heavenly Rainbow Dragon was one of them, and the others were no random God Kings.

"What's going on? Are you guys trying to start another group meeting on your own?" Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

He had speculations about the secret meeting but did not ask anything and called off his projection.

"It seems like they've noticed something," Chu Kuangren muttered while looking at his projector.

However, it was normal for them to notice something strange after such a big loss.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1988: No One Knows The Heavenly Sword, Operation God Dominance, Immortal Emperor Luo Tian

Inside the Central Heaven's Temple, God King Sikong and several other projections stayed back to discuss a certain matter.

"What are your opinions about Chu Kuangren?"

"It's strange."

Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said, "I did some close observation on the Pan Gu Universe's operation. They seemed to be familiar with our deployment, which is intriguing."

"This is also why I told the others to leave first. The deployment plan is only shared between us higher-ups of the temple, so how did the other universe know? I suspect a spy is among us," God King Sikong said as his gaze turned cold.

His assumption put a serious look on the others.

"All of you here are the oldest beings in our universe. It is simply impossible that one of us is the spy. This is also the reason why I told all of you to stay back. I want all of you to keep an eye out on the people around you," God King Sikong said.

Then, Heavenly Rainbow Dragon grunted coldly and added, "I have something that baffled me. When Chu Kuangren attacked us, I was with the Heavenly Sword, and I had a bet with him..."

He told everyone about the bet he had with Chu Kuangren.

"The Heavenly Sword reacted strangely. He was certain that Chu Kuangren would live, and he seemed familiar with Chu Kuangren's capabilities."

"Hmph. Heavenly Rainbow Dragon, you're not holding a grudge against him because you lost three treasures to him in the bet, are you?" teased a man in black armor.

"I'm not a person who cannot accept defeat," Heavenly Rainbow Dragon said.

God King Sikong pondered after listening to Heavenly Rainbow Dragon's explanation. "Heavenly Sword, how is he like exactly? Actually, do any of us know him well?"

The Heavenly Sword's name was well-known in the Central Heaven Universe. Everyone knew or at least heard of him.

He did things without scruples and was merciless.

He seemed to be acting without a clear objective, and those who offended him, be it the space pirates, Ancient King Tribes, Prodigies, or God Kings, all would end terribly.

Now that Heavenly Sword became the center topic of the discussion, they realized he had indirectly weakened the Central Heaven's Universe's combat capabilities.

With that thought in mind, God King Sikong's forehead was covered with a layer of glistening sweat.

Could it be that the Heavenly Sword was a spy from the Pan Gu Universe?

"That doesn't sound right. Heavenly Sword had fought Chu Kuangren before in the Void Battlefield and saved Luo Xue, Heavenly Maiden You, and the others."

"Besides, why would the Pan Gu Universe send him, an anomaly of a Prodigy, here just to be a spy?"

"But if he really used some inconceivable method to fool us all, he might really be the spy."

God King Sikong fell into deep thought.

He looked at a man in white robes. "Six Eyes, do you have any way to deduce the Heavenly Sword's background?"

The man in white robes kept his eyes closed. Then, he shook his head and explained, "He's unpredictable. His fate is nothing but void, and a great terror lies within."

"Not even Six Eyes can deduce his background?"

The man in white robes was Six Eyes, the oldest being of the Central Heaven Universe's Mystical Divination Tribe, and he was good in the art of deduction.

Even the Primordial said that, in terms of deduction of the future and past, Six Eyes reigned superior.

If not even Six Eyes could deduce the Heavenly Sword's background, no one in the Central Heaven Universe could.

Therefore, being a blank slate, the Heavenly Sword would be the perfect candidate for a spy.

No matter what their assumptions or answers were, it became necessary to start an investigation into the Heavenly Sword.

However, God King Sikong decided to put the matter aside first.

"Let's put this aside first. There's one more thing. It's the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands."

"The demonic tides are receding, and it will be a chance for us to awaken our Peerless Warlord. Pan Gu Universe will also make a move, so we must beat them to it and complete it before they do. We must also do our best to kill all their Peerless Warlords," God King Sikong said coldly.

Six Eyes chuckled and said, "I have deduced the exact location of several Peerless Warlords and delivered the coordinates to Ba Shen.

God King Sikong looked at the man in black armor. "Ba Shen, are you at the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands already?"

The man in black armor nodded. "I'm almost there."

He was in a meeting with the others while making his way to the destination.

"Great. We'll leave it to you."

"Not a problem."

Ba Shen nodded and grinned. "I will let them know what the taste of despair is."

With that, the meeting ended.

God King Sikong stood in the empty hall alone, thinking about the spy among them.

"Who would have thought that a spy from the Pan Gu Universe has secretly infiltrated the higher ranks of the Central Heaven Universe? Who could it be? Is it really you, Heavenly Sword?

"But the spy game is not only your game. We play it too."

God King Sikong thought of something, and it put a smile on his face. They, too, had a mole in Pan Gu Universe.

...

On the Fourth Continent of Pan Gu Universe was a palace.

Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor was sulking after the meeting with Chu Kuangren and the others.

"Damn it. Damn it! Chu Kuangren really became the leader of the Pan Gu Universe! How frustrating!"

He might obey Chu Kuangren's orders in the open, but inwardly, he refused to comply.

Unfortunately, due to Chu Kuangren's influence, he was forced to suppress his grievance.

"Is there no chance for the Immortal Hall to rise again?"

Then, Dragon Shadow Immortal Emperor and Immortal Emperor Wu Ming came in.

The two of them originally belonged to Eastern Sovereign Immortal Hall and Kunlun Immortal Hall respectively.

However, after the two Immortal Halls were expelled from the Immortal World, they merged into one.

The two of them had smiles on their faces.

Their irritating smiles annoyed Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor.

"What are you guys smiling about? Chu Kuangren has taken charge of everything, and you're smiling? It's also your responsibility that Immortal Hall is in this awkward situation today. How dare you call yourselves Immortal Emperors?"

The two of them were berated.

"Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor, why are you lashing out at the juniors?" A cold voice sounded all of a sudden.

A man in violet robes walked into the hall.

When Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor saw the man, he smiled brightly, brighter than Dragon Shadow Immortal Emperor and Immortal Emperor Wu Ming.

"Immortal Emperor Luo Tian, you're finally back!"

Immortal Emperor Luo Tian was the strongest Immortal Emperor since ancient times and also one of the Peerless Warlords.

"I suspected you might be back after I saw Lu Jun. Great, with you around now, I can finally catch a breath," Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor said happily.

Then, he looked at the other two with annoyance. "Why didn't you two inform me that Immortal Emperor Luo Tian is back?"

The two of them exchanged a bitter smile.

"We wanted to tell you, but you didn't give us the chance to speak." Dragon Shadow Immortal Emperor grumbled.

"It's fine. Don't be so harsh on the juniors. Tell me about the situation on the Void Battlefield," Immortal Emperor Luo Tian said.

"Very well."

Myriad Dusk Immortal Emperor then explained the situation to Immortal Emperor Luo Tian.

When he mentioned Chu Kuangren, he sounded like he was making a complaint to his superior.

"Chu Kuangren is not to be messed with. He's leading the entire Pan Gu Universe, and the Immortal Hall is so oppressed that we don't have any space to make a comeback. We're forced to obey his orders."

"He's indeed someone amazing," Immortal Emperor Luo Tian said. When he heard Chu Kuangren was heading to the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands to awaken the slumbering Peerless Warlords, he grinned strangely.

"I'm afraid that he won't succeed that easily."

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1989: Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands, Warlord Li Tu, A Massive Blow

There was a place in the Void Battlefield poisoned by a strange black mist.

Chu Kuangren and his handpicked team finally arrived at the place.

Staring at the black mist before them, the team felt chills down their spine.

The place was huge, but the black mist only blanketed less than half of the land, and they were being sucked deeper inside.

"This is the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands. These black mists are the demonic tides. They originally covered the entire place, but since it's receding now, only less than half of them is left.

"The rest are being sucked deeper inside but not for long. Soon, the demonic tides will occupy the entire Forbidden Lands again. We must seize this chance to awaken the Peerless Warlords," Hong Yang explained.

With that, the team moved out.

Even though the Forbidden Land's demonic tides were receding at the moment, the remaining tides continued to obstruct their movements.

Chu Kuangren tried to touch the demonic tides, but the moment his finger got close, terrifying chills exploded in his heart as if he had fallen into a bottomless abyss.

Fortunately, he managed to escape the dark place with his strong willpower.

"This place is strange," he muttered to himself.

Xu Wu was studying the black mist as well. "They seem to contain a sign of vitality. Are they alive?"

"I have no idea," Hong Yang said with a shake of her head. "I might have been here for a while, but no one knows where the demonic tides come from or what they really are."

Xu Wu pondered as he stared into the darkness.

"Let's make our time count."

The team continued forward.

Suddenly, further ahead in the direction that they were heading, a vast energy fluctuation erupted, followed by an excruciating scream echoing in the sky.

"Ba Shen! Argh!"

Shocked, the team quickly went forward to have a look.

They arrived in front of a mountain ridge, and the place had a lingering presence of a domineering aura. There were also many Embodier Fragments scattered around.

Hong Yang's expression turned gloomy. "These Embodier Fragments belong to the Peerless Warlord we were supposed to awaken. He has fallen..."

The unfortunate news made everyone's heart clench.

"Ba Shen is a Peerless Warlord from the Central Heaven Universe. They're here now, but how did they find this place before us?" Lu Jun said with a frown.

"Let's go. We must find the rest of the Peerless Warlords."

The Peerless Warlords were important combatants to both universes.

Losing any one of them meant a great loss to the respective universe.

Hence, the team made their way to the next location.

They arrived in front of a lake. Due to the constant corrosion by the demonic tides, the tainted water was as black as ink.

The lake was where the Peerless Warlord slumbered.

Without further ado, Hong Yan revealed her treasures in preparation to awaken the Peerless Warlord.

One of the treasures had powerful water-attribute energy, the other one was a ball of fire, and there was also a pitch-black staff.

The treasures contained energy that could resonate with the slumbering Peerless Warlord and wake him up.

Hong Yang performed a mystical hand seal.

Streaks of light swirled around the treasures before they slowly sank into the lake.

A while later, the lake's surface started to bubble.

Then, a figure burst out from the water. It was a black-haired man wielding a pitch-black staff. His eyes were as bright as the glimmering stars.

A powerful aura could be felt following his appearance.

Multiple Dao intertwined in his body, and Chu Kuangren could sense that all his Daos were at the Perfected level.

The Peerless Warlords were indeed something else.

"Hahaha! I, Li Tu, have finally returned!"

The Peerless Warlord, Li Tu, laughed loudly.

He then looked at Chu Kuangren and his little team.

"I see you were the ones who woke me up. You have my thanks."

Li Tu landed in front of them and expressed his gratitude.

"There's one more Peerless Warlord ahead. Let's move," Hong Yang said hurriedly.

Therefore, the group and Li Tu moved on to the next location.

Somewhere else in the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands, two God Kings from the Central Heaven Universe were awakening their own universe's Peerless Warlord.

One of them performed mystical hand seals, sending strange runes into a mountain.

Kaboom!

The mountain exploded all of a sudden, and a tremendous aura erupted from within.

A man with strange runes on his face emerged from the rubble.

He had a strange but domineering energy swirling around him, and he wielded a scepter in hand.

There was also a black crown on his head.

The man looked at the God Kings who woke him and asked grimly, "The Nether God is dead? Who killed him?"

The Nether God was the God that the Nether King Tribe worshiped, and the tribe was founded based on the God's ideals.

The Peerless Warlord with the strange look was the Nether King.

He was the strongest cultivator of the Nether King Tribe other than Nether God, and he was the reason why the tribe was thriving until today.

That was why the tribe named themselves after him.

The Nether King represented the entire tribe.

"It's a long story. Nether King, why don't we awaken the Titan Deity and Emperor Skylord first?" the God King said.

"Fine."

The group moved on to the next destination.

...

Chu Kuangren and his team were almost at the final destination, where the last Peerless Warlord slumbered, but they were one step too late.

When they arrived, all they saw was a destroyed mountain valley, plus some shattered Embodier fragments.

The devastating scene silenced everyone.

They only managed to wake one Peerless Warlord out of the three.

The other two had fallen.

It was a massive blow to the Pan Gu Universe.

"Damn it! How did they know where the Peerless Warlords were slumbering?" Hong Yang said through gritted teeth.

She spent years pinpointing the location, yet the Central Heaven Universe already knew them.

"It's Six Eyes," Li Tu said.

"The Central Heaven Universe has eight Peerless Warlords. One of them is named Six Eyes. He's a master of the art of deduction. He's the reason why we suffered terribly during the last universal war.

"I believe it is he who deduced the location where we slumber."

Chu Kuangren pondered when he heard Li Tu's explanation.

"Hahaha! You're all here."

Then, a loud laughter came from above the sky.

A man in black armor appeared before them.

His powerful aura descended from the sky and swept across the land.

"Ba Shen!"

Li Tu and Lu Jun recognized him at first glance.

They were all the Peerless Warlords from the previous universal war, so they knew each other all too well.

"You killed the Peerless Warlord who lies here!"

Raging flames surged around Hong Yang. Her fiery red hair danced along the scorching energy, but her gaze was cold.

"Oh? Judging from your aura, if you were at the previous universal war, you might be conferred a Peerless Warlord title."

Ba Shen was slightly surprised when he saw Hong Yang.

Hong Yang, however, did not respond verbally. Instead, she summoned her crimson blade and slashed it at Ba Shen.

The fiery red flames instantly distorted the void.

The flaming saber qi contained the aura of multiple Daos.

Ba Shen dared not underestimate his opponent either. He lifted his punch for a powerful counterattack.

The energy fluctuation of a certain kind of Fully Realized Overlord Physique expanded outward.

It was so powerful that it crushed the saber qi.

"I shall kill you here to avenge the fallen Peerless Warlords!" Hong Yang was overflowing with killing intent.

"Do you really think I come here alone?" Ba Shen grinned coldly.

Behind him, spiritual energy from the void suddenly swept the field, and multiple tremendously powerful auras erupted, filling the entire area.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 1990: Sky Dominion Halberd's Power, Black Tide Eruption, A Strange And Terrifying Existence

Multiple vast and boundless auras erupted within the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands.

Several figures emerged from the void.

There were five of them.

The two God Kings were the least eye-catching figures in the group because the other three surprised Lu Jun and Li Tu.

One of the three had a crown on his head and a scepter in hand.

The other had golden robes on that complemented his golden hair.

The last one was topless, which showed off his bulging muscles.

"Damn it. It's them — the Nether King, Emperor Skylord, Titan Deity. I feel like we're having a reunion here," Li Tu said as he scoffed.

The three of them were all the Central Heaven Universe's Peerless Warlords from the previous universal war.

"Li Tu, Lu Jun, long time no see."

The man with the bulging muscles, Titan Deity, looked at Li Tu and Lu Jun with a wide grin.

Multiple Daoist law energies rumbled within his body.

"None of you shall leave this place," Ba Shen said coldly.

Without further chatter, they made their attack.

Li Tu, Lu Jun, and Hong Yang also attacked to fight Titan Deity, Ba Shen, and Emperor Skylord respectively.

Meanwhile, Xu Wu took on the two Supreme God Kings.

The only one left was the Nether King, who looked at Chu Kuangren with a frosty grin.

"Kid, I heard you were quite the standout."

His figure flashed as he darted toward Chu Kuangren and swung his scepter forward. The attack was surging with curse energy.

"Nether King Tribe?" Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed.

He had killed the Nether God a while ago, and now the Nether King was standing in his way.

It seemed like the Nether King Tribe did have a strong background.

Without speaking a word, he drew his weapon.

It was not the Descendant Self Sword but the Sky Dominion Halberd, the Pseudo-Chaos Supreme Treasure that Wu Han gave him.

When the halberd was unveiled, the others present on the field were shocked.

Wu Han had left a strong impression on them during the previous universal war.

The man and his halberd dominated the entire Void Battlefield.

Hence, the sole appearance of the halberd shook them.

"Damn it. Why does he have the Sky Dominion Halberd?"

"Who is he to Wu Han?"

Their gazes shifted, and they started to panic a little.

Chu Kuangren swung the halberd toward the scepter.

The Chaos Green Lotus' Destructive Energy was infused into the Pseudo-Chaos Supreme Treasure for the attack, and the explosive power was terrifying.

When the halberd and the scepter clashed, the land quaked.

The Nether King was blasted away as a result, and his hand that wielded the scepter was shaking after he regained his balance. He looked at Chu Kuangren in fear.

Chu Kuangren pondered after the brief clash.

As a fellow Peerless Warlord, the Nether King was slightly weaker than Heavenly Rainbow Dragon.

Was it because he had just woken up?

Without much thought, Chu Kuangren stepped forward with the Sky Dominion Halberd and swung it down at the Nether King.

The strike was so powerful that it felt like the Big Bang when the Creation God started the universe.

The void immediately shattered to pieces.

The Dao in the Nether King's body was shaken.

"Nether King Destruction!"

The Nether King narrowed his eye, and a strange glint of violet flashed in them.

A powerful surge of soul energy was blasted at Chu Kuangren.

It was a soul attack!

However, with the Chaos Green Lotus' protection, the soul attack was ineffective in slowing him down.

The halberd managed to strike the Nether King's body. It almost destroyed one of the Dao of the Nether King, who had just woken up.

"What's with him?"

"He's not even a Multi-Embodier, but he wields such power! What the hell!"

The Nether King shrieked before he retreated immediately.

Chu Kuangren then channeled his soul energy in response to the Nether King's retreat.

A massive violet bell appeared above him. It was a Violet Soul Bell!

Boom!

The bell's chime reverberated throughout the area as if it was a chime from ancient times.

The powerful soul technique Chu Kuangren had with his Soul Realm was strong enough to threaten even a Multi-Embodier.

To his surprise, the Violet Soul Bell was useless against the Nether King.

The crown that the man wore glowed and negated the bell chime.

"Oh, a Soul Supreme Treasure..."

Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes in surprise.

If the soul attack would not work, he could continue with the halberd strike. With that thought, the Chaos Green Lotus' Destructive Energy swirled around the halberd as he swung it at the Nether King again.

The Nether King was failing before Chu Kuangren's relentless attacks.

The raw power was suppressing the Peerless Warlord!

"Eternal Green Lotus Dominion!"

Chu Kuangren swung his halberd forward again, and a green lotus bloomed in the halberd ray.

Kaboom!

The Nether King was blasted away again, with blood spurting from his mouth.

The impactful hit made his previous injuries, which he had almost recovered from, worse.

"Damn it! Damn it!"

The Nether King was furious.

Chu Kuangren's strength shocked Titan Deity and the others.

"Let's leave for now," Ba Shen said with a frosty look.

They had killed two out of three Peerless Warlords of Pan Gu Universe, which was considered an outstanding result.

The Nether King, Titan Deity, and Emperor Skylord had just awoken, and their Dao still needed time to fully recover.

If Chu Kuangren killed them on the spot, they would end up as a joke.

Boom!

Suddenly, deep inside the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands came a powerful aura.

A massive amount of black mist rumbled and flooded the land.

The unusual flood shifted everyone's expression.

"The recede is over? Why is it over so fast!"

Everyone was shocked, but the demonic tides were upon them.

Once caught, even a Multi-Embodier would be in danger.

Everyone started to retreat.

Chu Kuangren frowned as he and his team retreated as well.

Deep inside the demonic tides was a black coffin, and in it was a man.

The pale-looking man had countless demonic tides rumbling around him, and with his rhythmic breathing, he controlled the movement of the tides.

The demonic tides that put all the elites who dominated the Void Battlefield in fear were controlled by a man's breathing?

The man's eyelashes moved, and his eyes opened. As he looked into the distance, his handsomely pale face showed a strange smile.

"Anomaly? An unpredictable anomaly? Interesting. In that case, I shall let you go this time for disturbing my sleep," the man muttered before he returned to his black coffin.

Meanwhile, outside the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands, Chu Kuangren furrowed his brows.

He felt like he was being watched when the black mist got near, but he could not locate the source.

His gut told him it was closely related to the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands.

What lay beyond the demonic tides?

"Hey, did you guys feel like you were going to die at the next moment when we were retreating from the demonic tides?" Xu Wu suddenly asked.

The team reacted with similar heavy expressions.

"I did feel afraid."

"The Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands are freaky!"

"Let's just go back for now."

The team returned with a heavy heart.

Losing two Peerless Warlords on this trip was a massive blow to the Pan Gu Universe.

Even Chu Kuangren felt terrible about the loss, but he was more concerned about the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands.

When he returned, he told his men to gather information regarding the Dark Demonic Forbidden Lands for him, hoping to find a clue to solve his questions.

Unfortunately, there was limited information regarding that place. Not even the time of its appearance was known.

"I wonder if the Central Heaven Universe knows a thing or two about this..."
