Chapter 2061: He Knows Me Like I Knows Him, Chu Kuangren's Ascension

Armament Destruction went through the Primordial Tribulation, but at the end of it, Chu Kuangren appeared.

He appeared with an overwhelming aura that locked onto Armament Destruction immediately.

The scene shocked everyone.

"What is happening? Why is the Immortal King here?"

"I'm confused."

The Three Charities and other great ones spotted something strange.

Li Jun smiled. "The Primordial Tribulation is not over. This is the last test from the Primordial Tribulation and also the hardest. It's the Heart Demon Tribulation."

Not every Primordial Tribulation had the Heart Demon Tribulation, but one thing was for sure — the Heart Tribulation was a difficult one.

It was much more difficult than the lightning.

"Armament Destruction's heart demon is Chu Kuangren? How surprising."

"What's with the two of them?"

"Hmph. Interesting."

"We the audience can see clearly that the Chu Kuangren is just a copy created by the Great Dao's energy, but Armament Destruction, who is undergoing the Primordial Tribulation, might not know because he's so focused on the battle. He's in trouble now."

The few ancient beings were chatting with each other.

When Armament Destruction saw Chu Kuangren, he frowned. He could instinctively feel that something was not right, but he could not pinpoint the feeling.

"Chu Kuangren, why are you here?"

"To kill you," Chu Kuangren said coldly.

The terrifying killing intent locked onto Armament Destruction. There was nowhere for him to escape.

"Kill me?"

Armament Destruction was stunned for a moment before he cackled. The rage qi on him surged once more.

"Hahaha! You want to kill me? Is it because I'll surpass you when I ascend to Primordial?"

"You are just a clone of mine. How dare you speak to me like that?" Chu Kuangren said. His hand was already on the hilt of the Descendant Self Sword.

An overpowering sword aura together with killing intent erupted.

Armament Destruction, however, did not try to escape. "Very well, Chu Kuangren. I have always wanted to fight you to see who is stronger."

With that, his figure flashed, vanishing on the spot. He brandished the Broke Arm and clashed with the Descendant Self Sword.

"Clank!"

Both of them were pushed back.

They continued to exchange blows.

The longer they fought, the stronger they got.

Each clash destroyed tens of thousands of planets.

"Armament Destruction Eight Barrens, Blazing Chaos Earth!"

"Green Lotus Art, Divine Universal Supremacy!"

The clash between two powerful attacks crushed the realm.

Chu Kuangren and Armament Destruction were both blasted away by the shockwave.

Then, they clashed once more as if two meteors crashed together.

The battle lasted for three days and three nights.

The shockwaves from their clash crushed the entire galaxy.

"Bang!"

Armament Destruction swung the Broken Arm at Chu Kuangren, blasting him away.

After a tough fight, he finally gained the upper hand.

A strange rush of excitement washed over him.

He surpassed Chu Kuangren!

"I lost..."

In the end, Chu Kuangren lay down on a planet, exhausted. He looked at Armament Destruction and said, "You win. Kill me now."

Armament Destruction frowned. Something was not right.

"What are you waiting for? Kill me and you can replace me. Then, you can take everything I have. My power, my status, my fame..."

Before he could finish, Armament Destruction shouted, "Shut up!"

He finally knew what was wrong.

He stared at the so-called Chu Kuangren. "You are not him. You are just a copy created by the Great Dao."

Chu Kuangren was stunned. "What did you say?"

"Trying to play dumb, huh? Cheap copy. Your acting is poor. The real Chu Kuangren would never give up this easily. Even if the odds are against him, he will never compromise and let me replace him because he knows I am me and he is him. We're not the same.

"I might have a sliver of his Immortal Consciousness, but there's no one in this universe who acknowledges me more than him. You are not him. He knows me just like I know him."

Armament Destruction gripped the Broke Arm tightly and stared coldly at the fake Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren said, "You don't want to defeat him?"

"I want to, but I want to defeat the real him and not you, some cheap copy Heart Demon," Armament Destruction said coldly as he swung his weapon at the Heart Demon.

"Bang!"

The Heart Demon was destroyed.

When Armament Destruction opened his eyes again, the Primordial Tribulation was no more.

There were no signs of his battle with Chu Kuangren's copy as well.

Everything was just an illusion.

To the audience, when Chu Kuangren's copy appeared, the two of them did not fight either. The copy simply stared at Armament Destruction before it disappeared with the rest of the Primordial Tribulation.

"Hmph. He has overcome the Primordial Tribulation," Li Ju said with a smile.

After the Primordial Tribulation faded, Armament Destruction's power skyrocketed and soon reached a new height.

Strictly speaking, he was not exactly in the Primordial Realm yet because he only had one Dao, a very powerful Dao.

"Infinity! My Dao has surpassed the Ultimate and reached Infinity! If I continue to boost this Dao of mine, I won't have to care about the Primordial Realm or the Great Dao! With the Broken Arm, I can be powerful enough to wipe out everything in my way!"

Armament Destruction was enlightened.

He stared at the Immortal World and muttered, "Chu Kuangren, while you're going to fuse three thousand Dao, I'm going to improve my Dao infinitely. Let's see who is stronger."

Back in the Immortal World, Chu Kuangren sensed something while cultivating. He looked into the distant sky and smiled. "Congratulations, Armament Destruction."

Armament Destruction finally found his own path, and Chu Kuangren was happy for him.

After all, Chu Kuangren needed a rival in his path to immortality.

Armament Destruction was a decent rival.

They knew each other well, making them both rivals and friends.

"If you can ascend, why can't I?" Chu Kuangren smiled.

Then, a terrifying aura erupted from his body.

The aura swept across the universe and trembled the world he was in.

Dark clouds gathered above the empire, and it shocked all the ancient beings once again.

"Another Primordial Tribulation?"

"Damn! The clone has just finished his Primordial Tribulation, and the real self is going to challenge it now? Why does it seem like the Primordial Tribulation is like a toy that everyone can get?"

Everyone was rendered speechless.

However, Nuwa, the Three Clarities, and the others found something amiss.

"Brother Chu once said that he wanted to fuse three thousand Daos. There's no way he has completed that goal in such a short time."

"It's not time yet, so why is he challenging the tribulation?"

"Is it because Armament Destruction's success triggered him? Is that why he wants to ascend to the Primordial Realm now?"

"No. He isn't someone this reckless."

Armament Destruction came back to the Immortal World in a flash.

He looked at the Primordial Tribulation in the sky and frowned. "Chu Kuangren, what are you doing?"

He, too, did not believe Chu Kuangren would give up his goal of fusing three thousand Daos.

It was not like him.

While the audience was confused, a red pillar of light burst from the Imperial Palace and shot up into the sky.

On a closer look, the red pillar of light was actually the manifestation of intense vitality qi[1] energy.

A figure in white emerged from the red pillar of light.

It was Chu Kuangren!

His physical body gleamed like porcelain and was as strong as Immortal Metal. Some mystical patterns were flowing around his body, releasing an intense aura.

Li Jun and Yang Mei, both the oldest beings in this universe with the most experience and knowledge, were shocked when they saw Chu Kuangren's condition.

Their eyes widened in disbelief.

"This is..."

[1] We'll use "vitality qi" to replace "qi and blood" from now on.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2062: Absorbing the Primordial Tribulation, Pan Gu Avatar, Strength Great Dao

Inside the Imperial Palace, Chu Kuangren stepped out and looked up at the sky.

He had energy swirling around him, and the aura he released shocked many of the elites in the Immortal World.

He did not release any aura about his cultivation but only the natural energy from his breathing. Yet, it was enough to shock the others.

Yang Mei and Li Jun immediately thought of something.

"Is this... the Ultimate Physical Body?"

Many years ago, Li Jun heard from Hong Jun about the concept of the Ultimate Physical Body, meaning one would ascend to the Primordial Realm with just the physical body.

However, it was extremely difficult. Not even Hong Jun could do it.

Throughout the entire history of the Pan Gu Universe, only one person succeeded in achieving it — Pan Gu himself!

Yang Mei had also heard of the concept because when there was still Chaos, he fought Pan Gu before and saw it with his own eyes.

Pan Gu's power left a strong impression on him.

He knew better than anyone what it meant to have the Ultimate Physical Body.

He thought Pan Gu would be the one and only person to achieve that, but now, Chu Kuangren was trying to achieve the same thing.

"The Ultimate Physical Body? Chu Kuangren, you really amaze me," Yang Mei muttered.

He knew it must be because of Pan Gu's Heart.

However, it was impossible to achieve the Ultimate Physical Body with Pan Gu's Heart alone, so the key would still be Chu Kuangren himself.

Back at the Imperial Palace, the Primordial Tribulation rumbled above the Imperial Palace, and a bolt of lightning struck. The power it contained could kill most Embodiers.

However, Chu Kuangren was unfazed, allowing the bolt of lightning to strike his body.

"Bang!"

Seeing the lightning striking his body shocked everyone who witnessed the scene.

Taking the Lightning Tribulation with one's physical body was definitely suicidal.

The explosive energy blast shattered mountains and dispersed clouds for tens of thousands of kilometers.

Many cultivators were shocked, but some Embodiers frowned.

The reaction was not as strong as they expected.

The bolt of lightning just now contained enough explosive power to destroy mountains and rivers across millions of kilometers, and they would not find that surprising.

However, it only dispersed the clouds.

The Primordial Tribulation should not be that weak.

"Look!"

Someone screamed.

Countless arcs of lightning circulated Chu Kuangren's body. It was from that bolt of Lightning Tribulation, and they were zapping every inch of his body, entering his pores.

Despite that, Chu Kuangren was unscathed! It was like he was absorbing the electricity!

"Is he absorbing the Primordial Tribulation's power? What in the hell?"

The realization shocked everyone again.

Chu Kuangren's ascension was much more astonishing and outrageous than Armament Destruction's.

As though it was angered by Chu Kuangren's arrogant action, the Primordial Tribulation charged for a stronger attack.

"Bring it on."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. The key to the Nine Primordial Tribulations Physique was to go through nine Primordial Tribulations, and each must be stronger than the previous.

He had to absorb all the Primordial Tribulation to strengthen his body.

Moreover, that was only the first Primordial Tribulation. If he found it challenging at that point, he would suffer even more for the upcoming tribulations.

"Bang!"

A stronger bolt of lightning struck.

Still, Chu Kuangren remained firm as he allowed the bolt of lightning to hit him again.

The Nine Primordial Tribulations Physique was activated, and he absorbed the second bolt of lightning.

"Roar!"

Then, the terrifying lightning dragon emerged from the dark clouds and lunged toward Chu Kuangren.

It was so powerful that it rivaled that of a Primordial's attack.

That electrifying attack pushed Chu Kuangren back a few steps.

However, his body was still covered with countless arcs of electricity before they were fully absorbed.

He was one step closer to achieving the Ultimate Physical Body.

"His physical body is terrifying!"

Everyone was shocked.

Even the ancient beings who excelled at close combat and physical strength, like the Dragon Patriarch and the Jiangshi King, Jiang Chen, shuddered in shock when they saw Chu Kuangren's monstrous achievement.

They had a feeling that if they took a punch from Chu Kuangren, they might explode on the spot.

As the Primordial Tribulation's power grew stronger, it started to change its way of attack.

Other than the lightning tribulation, it attacked with wind tribulation and fire tribulation.

The endless wind felt like it could blow everything away.

The scorching flame felt like it burned the sky to cinders.

It was much stronger than Armament Destruction's Primordial Tribulation.

Chu Kuangren pursed his lips before opening his mouth to suck in the endless wind and the scorching flame like a beast with a massive mouth.

The wind and fire strengthened his organs, bones, and tendons.

As the Primordial Tribulation got stronger, Chu Kuangren's skin glimmered like a diamond. Every inch of his flesh contained endless energy, and each bone was carved with mystical runes. Even the blood that flowed in his veins felt like a torrential river that contained Immortal Marrow.

Gradually, the improvement started to slow down. Chu Kuangren knew he had hit the limit with the first Primordial Tribulation. Hence, he stood still and allowed the dark clouds to attack him with all kinds of attacks, which could not inflict even a dent on his body.

"It seems like this is the limit of the first Primordial Tribulation," Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

He then looked at the dark clouds and muttered, "In that case, why don't you have a taste of my newly acquired divine ability?"

"Bang!"

Terrifying vitality qi energy containing Daoist law gushed up into the sky.

In an instant, it transformed into a massive projection of an avatar.

The avatar felt like it had been around for as long as time itself. It contained the vital energy of Chaos, and the bronze body had a strong metallic luster. The muscles were bulging like mountains as if it was the embodiment of strength.

Yang Mei squealed in shock when he saw the avatar.

"T-That's Pan Gu!"

Indeed it was! It was the Pan Gu Avatar!

Pan Gu's Heart did not only contain strong vitality qi energy, but it also contained Pan Gu's inheritance.

After refining the heart, Chu Kuangren could summon the avatar at will and use Pan Gu's divine abilities.

Pan Gu's reappearance shocked all who lived in that universe. An instinctive urge in everyone made them kneel down and worship it.

Pan Gu started the universe, and his body transformed into all things and nourished all life. To the cultivators of the Pan Gu Universe, Pan Gu was the creation god, the father of all!

"Universe Genesis!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand, and the Pan Gu Avatar followed. Chaos vital energy erupted from its hand and transformed into a massive axe.

It was the axe that he used to start the universe.

Even though it was not the real Chaos Supreme Treasure, the Genesis Axe, it was still a manifestation of Pan Gu Avatar, and its power was astonishing.

Pan Gu Avatar raised the Genesis Axe high in the sky and slammed it at the Primordial Tribulation.

Endless divine light and Daoist laws were unleashed.

The axe strike did not contain any other energy aura; it was the purest form of Strength Great Dao.

The Strength Great Dao was the Dao that Pan Gu cultivated. There was no fancy transformation of technique, only the purest form of power!

"Kaboom!"

When the axe hit, the realm quaked, and the void had a massive crack that spanned over a million kilometers.

Even the walls of the Deep Void were torn.

Having been chopped in half, the Primordial Tribulation slowly dissipated, leaving only the figure in white and the avatar in sight.

They stood firm and proud in the realm, silencing all life in existence with their jaw-dropping achievement.

Chapter 2063: The Hongmeng Door Opens, Li Jun Enters Hongmeng While Riding The Green Cow

One axe strike dispersed the Primordial Tribulation!

Chu Kuangren's attack shocked all life in the universe. As the Pan Gu Avatar behind him gradually faded, he conserved all his energy in his body.

Everything returned to normal, except for the astonishment and awe he had left in people's hearts.

Chu Kuangren stood in the air as he savored the power in his body. His lips curled into a smile. "So this is the Ultimate Physical Body, huh? It's rather amazing."

The Nine Primordial Tribulation Physique, as its name suggests, has nine Primordial Tribulations.

Chu Kuangren had just achieved the peak of the first tribulation and was a few steps shy from the second.

Now that his body contained such terrifying power, he could use his punch alone to destroy a Primordial.

Suddenly, it reminded him of Pan Gu.

Pan Gu's heart had gone through eons, yet the vitality qi contained inside could help him achieve the Ultimate Physical Body.

The real strength of his body was self-explanatory.

On top of that, Pan Gu cultivated the Strength Great Dao, which was a pure yet terrifying Dao that rivaled Time, Space, and Samsara Dao.

It might even be slightly stronger than the others.

It was strength so powerful that it could break all techniques!

In short, refining Pan Gu's Heart benefited Chu Kuangren a lot.

"Congratulations on becoming stronger, my King."

"Congratulations!"

A group of elites went up to him, congratulating him on his success.

Chu Kuangren was the pillar of the empire.

The stronger the pillar, the better the empire would flourish and the safer it would be.

After chatting with the group, Chu Kuangren looked at Armament Destruction further away. He smiled and said, "Congratulations. You've found your own Dao."

"You too, for getting stronger," Armament Destruction said.

The two chatted and nodded tacitly at each other.

The news of Armament Destruction and Chu Kuangren conquering the Primordial Tribulation spread like wildfire, igniting the entire universe.

Even the Central Heaven Universe got news about it.

In the blink of an eye, several decades passed.

Somewhere in the empire, a massive mountain exploded.

A person emerged from the rubble. The man bore a wickedly handsome look and wore a set of black robes.

It was one of Chu Kuangren's followers, Heavenly Shadow.

He had been cultivating for decades.

Now, he was half a step shy from becoming a Primordial, but he suddenly sensed something and decided to pause his cultivation. He looked into the sky and flew toward the empire.

Soon, he found Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren was on a mountain peak with Gu Linglong in his arms, enjoying the sunrise on the horizon.

The sun shone brightly and basked the land with its warmth.

Gu Linglong was leaning on Chu Kuangren's chest quietly, enjoying the moment.

Heavenly Shadow stood behind them quietly and did not interrupt.

It was Chu Kuangren who broke the silence. "You improved quite fast."

Heavenly Shadow was actually hatched from the Demon Egg, a God-tier reward. He was so talented that less than a handful of Prodigies in both universes could rival him.

"Devil is still far behind compared to Master," Heavenly Shadow said sincerely.

He might have improved fast, but looking at Chu Kuangren made him feel like he was looking at a mountain that he could not cross.

He knew that if Chu Kuangren wished, he could kill him with a lift of his hand.

"Oh? Are you comparing yourself to me? Bold."

Chu Kuangren chuckled. He then looked into the sky and said, "You should have sensed it, right? That energy."

Heavenly Shadow's expression shifted to a more serious one. "Yes, I have."

Not only he and Chu Kuangren, but many elites had been sensing it throughout the years.

The spiritual qi of their realm was getting denser.

Such a phenomenon would only occur when a treasure had emerged, a treasure so great that it could affect the entire universe's spiritual qi flow.

As for what it was, Heavenly Shadow dared not even imagine.

"Not only the Pan Gu Universe, but even the Central Heaven Universe has noticed the changes. It seems like those double doors are opening soon," Chu Kuangren muttered.

He knew the changes in the realm must have something to do with the Hongmeng Door.

It was likely that the door was opening.

Several years went by again.

On that particular day, a violet light swept across the quiet universe.

Countless elites sensed it and looked in that direction.

Giant double doors, the size of a planet, appeared in the center of the universe. The door seemed boundless, and the surface had the sun, moon, stars, rivers, mountains, beasts, and countless mystical patterns carved onto it.

When the Immortal Consciousnesses spotted the door, they sensed a strange feeling, as if they had reached the end of Dao.

The feeling was but a flash, but it left them astonished.

"This is just a door, yet it contains such profound meaning. I wonder what world lies behind this door."

"It's hard to imagine such a door exists in the Pan Gu Universe."

Li Jun and Yang Mei were surprised as well.

"Could this be the opportunity? The opportunity to break free from the Great Dao's limits? Is it beyond this door?"

"Haha, this is the opportunity for us to improve!"

Li Jun and the others were intrigued.

In the Central Heaven Universe, the same door appeared as well.

In fact, besides the Pan Gu Universe and the Central Heaven Universe, all the universes had the same door.

After that, another few decades passed until the ancient Hongmeng Door suddenly released a mystical Daoist chime that echoed across the Infiniverse, striking a chord with all the souls it touched.

The door was opening.

It opened a tiny crack, but the torrential spiritual qi from within gushed out like a typhoon that swept across the universe.

The spiritual qi made the stars brighter and the living beings that basked in it more energetic.

Multiple figures arrived before the door.

They enjoyed the spiritual qi breeze and felt like their souls and bodies were being cleaned.

They looked into the crack in the door, but they saw nothing.

"Can we know what lies beyond only after we go in?"

"It's intriguing."

They all looked at the door but dared not act recklessly.

After all, no one knew what world lies beyond the door. However, it was certain that no matter what was behind the door, it was tempting.

"I don't care what's beyond the door. I want to go inside and have a look," Li Jun said with a chuckle.

Then, he took a jade talisman and tossed it to the Heavenly Grandmaster. He said with a smile, "This is a special jade talisman that I made myself. When I enter, I will keep in contact and tell you what world lies beyond."

The Heavenly Grandmaster nodded. "Be careful, Brother."

"Don't worry," Li Jun said with a smile.

Then, a cow's moo echoed across the universe. A green cow galloped across the starlight and arrived before Li Jun.

Li Jun tapped the cow's head and got on its back before he and the cow ventured into the unknown.

Li Jun rode his green cow and entered the Hongmeng Door.

Everyone watched him disappear from their sight.

Time flew by, and it had been weeks since Li Jun entered the door. However, the jade talisman he left behind had no response.

Everyone frowned.

"Is he lost?"

"Does this mean we contact the world beyond the Hongmeng Door?"

Everyone looked at the door with curiosity and doubt.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2064: Different Universes Start to Act, Divided For A Better Reunion

The Hongmeng Door finally opened, and Li Jun went in but lost contact with the others.

Then, the Divine Primeval Imperial stepped out. He waved his sleeves and summoned a clone that looked exactly like him before the group.

The Divine Primeval Imperial said to the Heavenly Grandmaster, "This clone is connected to me mentally. If I fall, this clone will fall as well."

Everyone knew what he meant and wanted to do.

He wanted to test the danger beyond the door.

With that, the Divine Primeval Imperial entered the Hongmeng Door.

Everyone stared intently at the clone.

However, the clone frowned and said, "I've lost contact with my true self!"

Thus, it was certain that once one entered the Hongmeng Door, one would lose contact with the Pan Gu Universe.

Now, it depended on whether something else would happen to the Divine Primeval Imperial.

However, several years went by, and the clone was still fine.

It seemed like the Divine Primeval Imperial was still alive beyond the door.

Then, on a certain day, the clone that the Divine Primeval Imperial left behind suddenly grew stronger.

His aura skyrocketed and ascended to the Embodier Realm from the common Arch Gilded Realm.

"W-What happened?"

"How did the clone improve so fast?"

Everyone was shocked.

The clone said, "Just now, I felt a massive energy entering my body, and it boosted my cultivation."

Everyone was intrigued, to say the least.

"If the clone can improve this much, the Divine Primeval Imperial must have gotten a massive boost in his cultivation. There must be massive Opportunities of Fortune beyond the door!"

"I don't care. I must go in and see for myself!"

"If we're scared of danger, we can forget about cultivation and the path to immortality."

With Li Jun and the Divine Primeval Imperial taking the lead, the others followed and entered the Hongmeng Door to search for Opportunities of Fortune.

A flash of Buddhist light appeared.

Two figures emerged from the light together.

It was the founders of Buddhism, Cundi and Receive.

They looked at the door with a strong zeal in their eyes.

"Brother, I wish to preach across different universes," Receive said.

Preaching Buddhism in the Pan Gu Universe was not as big of an achievement as preaching Buddhism across different universes. That would mean the rise of Buddhism in the Infiniverse.

"My wish is as yours, Brother," Cundi said with a smile.

"Zen."

They both smiled at each other before they stepped into the Hongmeng Door.

After that, massive demonic qi came from the end of the universe.

A man in black armor arrived before the door and entered it. It was the Demon Forefather, Luo Hou.

"Chu Kuangren, Armament Destruction, I, Luo Hou, shall never be weaker than you! Just you two wait!"

The Three Clarities, Yang Mei, Luo Hou, Cundi, Receiva, Nuwa, and all the other ancient beings entered the Hongmeng Door.

Without their presence, the lively Pan Gu Universe got quiet.

The same thing happened in the Central Heaven Universe.

The appearance of the door sent out a massive temptation to all the cultivators of the universe.

Some courageous ones entered the door, including Luo Xue, Heaven Maiden You, Long Shuijing, and other members of the Heavenly Roundtable.

Other than the two universes, the other parts of the Infiniverse acted as well.

In a certain universe, cultivators gathered before the Hongmeng Door and worshiped it as if God had descended on Earth.

"The legend is true! God Hongmeng exists!"

"This door is the sign that God Hongmeng sent us. Only by entering it can we see the truth about the Infiniverse!"

"We shall follow in the footsteps of God Hongmeng!"

The people chanted and sang loudly as they entered the door.

In another universe, several figures arrived at the door. They were the universe's top Prodigies and Outliers.

They looked at the door with a strong sense of zeal.

"It has finally appeared."

"We have been holding back our ascension for this door. This is the opportunity for us to break free from the Great Dao's limitations!"

"I must fuse more than nine Daos before I ascend to Primordial!"

The eager Prodigies entered the door and went on a journey to search for new opportunities.

In another universe, a large army gathered before the door.

"The Great Hongmeng Universe contains endless resources and inheritance left behind by the Transcendentalist. Soldiers, follow me inside, and we will conquer the place. We will build our new kingdom inside, and the treasures will be ours!" roared a man in imperial robes.

The soldiers behind him were encouraged by his words!

"We shall follow the emperor on the conquest and search of new lands!"

"We shall follow the emperor on the conquest and search of new lands!"

The Infiniverse reacted strongly to the appearance of the Hongmeng Door.

All interested parties gathered at the door and ventured within.

That started fierce competition with unpredictable outcomes.

Who shall reach the top of the Great Hongmeng Universe?

...

Other than the Infiniverse, some Transcendentalists who had transcended beyond the Great Dao looked at the Hongmeng Door as well.

"The Great Hongmeng Universe has opened."

"A new round of games has begun in the Infiniverse."

"I wonder if this round will produce a new Transcendentalist."

"The last opening produced an unmatched elite like King Tempest. I wonder if someone similar will emerge victorious this time."

"King Tempest is a special one. There might not be another one like him."

The Transcendentalists' voices echoed across the void and universes.

They were ancient. They had witnessed the changes in the universes from start to end, and the only thing that interested them was the Great Hongmeng Universe.

In the Void Battlefield that connected both the Central Heaven Universe and the Pan Gu Universe, a figure in a coffin suddenly opened his eyes.

The man was one of the Transcendentalists, the one who had made a deal with Chu Kuangren — the Dark Demonic Ruler.

"Now that the Great Hongmeng Universe has opened, let's see what you'll do, the Temple of Destiny's new ruler," the Dark Demonic Ruler muttered.

Back in the Pan Gu Universe's Imperial Palace, Chu Kuangren had received news about the Great Hongmeng Universe, but he did not head to the door right away.

Instead, he stayed behind and made the necessary preparations.

He had to prevent any possible trouble that would befall the empire once he left, such as Luo Hou's riot many years back.

Hence, he had to be fully prepared before heading to the door.

For years, Chu Kuangren had informed his closest ones, such as Elder Ruyan, that he would enter the Hongmeng Door.

No one was surprised by his decision as well.

"My King, go ahead. We are here to watch over the empire."

"We will wait for your return."

Chu Kuangren looked at Elder Ruyan.

She sighed helplessly and said, "Since the day I took over Black Heaven Sect, I know I'll be living a busy life. Just go. It's not the first time I've watched over our home for you."

"Thank you," Chu Kuangren said with a laugh.

A while later, Chu Kuangren left for the door.

Lan Yu, Shang Honghua, Chu Hong, and the others saw him off in silence.

Elder Ruyan asked curiously, "Are you guys not going?"

"If we follow, Master would definitely be distracted because he has to protect us. We don't want to become Master's burden," Lan Yu said.

"We will enter the Hongmeng Door but not together. We have to make a name for ourselves first," Chu Hong said.

They knew they were still too far behind and that following Chu Kuangren into the door would only drag him down.

In order to grow stronger, they had to train harder, even if it meant separation. They had accepted the cruel fate.

They knew separation was for a better reunion.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2065: Great Hongmeng Universe, Radiant Sect's Yan Xu, Acquire Information

Since the appearance of the Hongmeng Door, cultivators had been entering to seek better opportunities.

Today in the Pan Gu Universe, another figure arrived before the door. As he looked up at the door, his powerful presence flooded the galaxy.

It was Chu Kuangren.

He looked at the door calmly.

"Great Hongmeng Universe, I look forward to seeing you."

With that, his figure flashed and entered the door.

The moment he entered the door, the door sensed his presence and responded with a subtle tremble.

In another universe, a pair of sharp eyes opened up.

"This presence... It's the Honorable Teacher! The Honorable Teacher has entered the Great Hongmeng Universe! It seems like the present I've prepared for him should arrive any time soon."

...

The Great Hongmeng Universe was a much bigger universe than any of the other universes.

When Chu Kuangren entered, he sensed an unprecedented amount of lively spiritual qi surrounding him, making him feel extremely comfortable.

On top of that, he noticed the difference between this universe and the others.

The other universes had limits from the Great Dao, and all life had to live under the limits.

However, the Great Hongmeng Universe had no limits, and it was easier to gain insights into one's Dao.

Chu Kuangren finally understood what Nuwa and the others sensed when the door opened. It was the Great Hongmeng Universe itself!

In her, there was a possibility to break the limits of the Great Dao!

"I'm still new here, so I guess I should adapt to the laws of this universe first."

Even though this universe had an abundance of spiritual qi, it was unlike other universes.

It was rather difficult for one to channel one's Daoist law, and it required time to adapt to the situation.

At that moment, a figure came to Chu Kuangren like a bolt of lightning.

It was a man in white robes. He possessed a powerful Daoist law presence and emanated a bright, radiant aura.

When he saw Chu Kuangren, his eyes gleamed.

"A decent temperament and presence. Judging from his age, he should be less than ten thousand years old," the man thought to himself.

He then cupped his fists and introduced himself, "Friend, I am Yan Xu, a priest from the Radiant Church. You are new here in Hongmen, am I right?"

Chu Kuangren pondered. The man must have been attracted by the subtle energy wave when Chu Kuangren passed through the door.

The man did not speak the common language of the Pan Gu Universe either, but due to the effects of some rule in this universe, Chu Kuangren could understand him.

It must be one of the wonders of the Great Hongmeng Universe.

Radiant Church...

Many years ago, Chu Kuangren encountered a cult that called themselves the light and destroyed it with his own hands.

He even obliterated the being they called God.

"I am new here. I wonder why you are here?"

"It's nothing in particular. It's just that I found your temperament decent and would like to invite you to join the Radiant Church," Yan Xue said.

"I'm sorry. I'm not interested," Chu Kuangren said.

However, Yan Xu did not give up. "Why don't you come to visit our place? When you see our God's divine might, I believe you will be convinced, and you will want to join us."

"Thank you for the invitation, but no thanks."

Chu Kuangren then took a step forward, traversing across millions of kilometers.

He was so fast that even Yan Xu was surprised. "He is new here and still hasn't adapted to this world's rules, but he already possesses such power. He's indeed a good candidate. I must bring him in!"

He liked Chu Kuangren even more now. Once he successfully brought someone into the cult, he would be rewarded.

"Swoosh!"

Yan Xu transformed into a streak of light and went after Chu Kuangren.

"How annoying."

Chu Kuangren frowned.

He had not adapted to the local rules and knew nothing about the forces here, so he did not want to simply attack anyone.

However, he had bumped into a clingy person.

"He's not weak. If I can completely adapt to the local rules, it's not hard to ditch him, but I have to use a little trick for now," Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

He then took out the Timespace Treasure and infused his Immortal's Core energy into it.

Suddenly, the treasure shone brightly.

A spacetime light enveloped Chu Kuangren and teleported him away, leaving Yan Xu shocked.

"That energy... It's the Chaos Supreme Treasure! And a Spacetime Dao Chaos Supreme Treasure!"

A glint appeared in Yan Xu's eyes.

Chaos Supreme Treasure was scarce in all universes.

Even in the Great Hongmeng Universe, only a handful of people possessed it. Most of the Primordials did not have one themselves either.

Yet, Chu Kuangren, an Embodier, had a Chaos Supreme Treasure!

It gave Yan Xu a different thought, an ill-thought.

"Since he's new here, he must want to acquire information about the world first. In the Ming Domain, there are only a few spots where cultivators can gather information. The closest one would be... Thousand Suns City!" Yan Xu came to a realization.

Millions of kilometers away, a flash of spacetime light shone, and a figure emerged from within.

It was Chu Kuangren, who had just ditched Yan Xu.

"I exposed the Timespace Treasure because I have to. If the man has ill intentions, he will definitely come for me. I have to get used to the rules here and recover my strength to its peak," Chu Kuangren thought out loud.

After that, he looked at the city further away.

The city looked ancient. It emanated an aged feeling, and many spots of the city looked desolate.

Three large words were carved at the entrance, and a mystical Daoist Rhyme echoed around it.

Those who entered the city would pause and stare, hoping to understand something.

"Thousand Suns City..." Chu Kuangren muttered when he saw the words.

This city was the closest one he could find, and it was the place where cultivators gathered. He planned to adapt to the local rules and acquire more information first.

After he entered the city, he started looking around.

There were many buildings, but most of them were old and damaged.

However, one could still see the former glory of the city.

After a quick search, Chu Kuangren finally understood his current situation.

The Great Hongmeng Universe's origin was unknown. However, after multiple resets, the current universe was from the latest reset, and Thousand Suns City was one of the reset cities.

Before the previous reset, the people in this city left the Great Hongmeng Universe, hence the old and broken city.

Most of the resources had been taken away.

The Great Hongmeng Universe would produce many Opportunities of Fortune and treasures after the reset. There might even be inheritance left behind by the previous transcendentalists.

Other than that, the Great Hongmeng Universe was divided into many areas and domains due to the resets.

The major domains had more chances but were usually occupied by powerful forces from the Infiniverse.

It was not easy trying to make a stand there.

In other words, it was a massive world accompanied by risk and opportunities alike.

In this world, transcending was not an outrageous idea. With enough Opportunities of Fortune and power, becoming the strongest transcendentalist was not impossible.

Chapter 2066

"The place where I am now is known as the Ming Domain. It can be considered an ordinary domain compared to the many other great domains in the Great Hongmeng Universe.

"Meanwhile, the greatest and most influential force here would be the Radiant Church that tried to recruit me earlier. It's one of the most top-tiered and powerful forces throughout the Great Hongmeng Universe. Rumor has it that it's backed by a Transcendentalist.

"The Radiant Church here in the Ming Domain seems to be one of their church factions."

"To think I've found myself in such trouble after just arriving. Oh well, I can only blame my luck," Chu Kuangren thought out loud.

Suddenly, he sensed a familiar aura approaching the Thousand Suns City at rapid speed.

He looked into the distance, and it was none other than Yan Xu, the person pestering him not long ago.

"Is he here specifically for me?" Chu Kuangren thought.

Meanwhile, upon arriving, Yan Xu went to one of the places for information exchange. He immediately took out an insignia, stating his identity and position in the church.

When the members of the church saw that insignia, they were stunned.

"Greetings, Priest Yan."

Members of the Radiant Church were ranked according to a hierarchy.

From ordinary congregants, followed by senior congregants, to Novice Priests, Intermediate Priests, Expert Priests, Grand Priests, and then Bishops...

For context, the administrator of Thousand Suns City was only an ordinary Novice Priest.

Yan Xu, however, was an Expert Priest.

The difference between the two was great.

"Activate the Enchanted Radiant Boundary and seal off the Thousand Suns City," Yan Xu quickly ordered.

Right after receiving the instruction, the Thousand Suns City's Priest nodded and ordered his men to activate the enchanted boundary.

Within the church, divine light burst from the white Radiant Goddess statue, along with a massive wave of Radiant Daoist law.

The Radiant Church worshiped the Holy Light Ruler as their religion.

She was also known as the Radiant Goddess.

A statue of her could be found in every church of the Radiant Church.

Those were no ordinary statues. When imbued with large amounts of power of belief, it could unleash powerful radiant energy, which would enable the church members to do many things.

In an instant, a white pillar of light rose into the sky with massive waves of Daoist laws spreading everywhere. A great enchanted boundary enveloped all of the Thousand Suns City.

"What's going on?"

"It's an enchanted boundary made from radiant energy."

"Why are they doing this?"

Many of the cultivators in the Thousand Suns City were puzzled.

Knowing the Radiant Church's massive influence, most were enraged but dared to speak out.

A glint flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes when he saw the enchanted boundary.

"Oh, did they do that just for me?"

Meanwhile, several black-robed cultivators gathered somewhere became weary when the enchanted boundary enveloped all of the Thousand Suns City.

"Why has the church suddenly activated the enchanted boundary?"

"Have we been discovered?"

"Our movements have been stealthy so far. There's no way they've discovered us."

"Tell our guys to stay alert."

The cultivators grew solemn.

It seemed like they were afraid of the church members discovering them.

Inside the church, the Radiant Enchanted Boundary put a smile on Yan Xu's face. "Now that the enchanted boundary has been activated, no one is allowed to leave with the church's permission. All that's left is to find you now, mysterious newcomer..."

Yan Xu's Immortal Consciousness flowed, spreading everywhere like a tidal wave.

His Immortal Consciousness, which was vast and powerful, was now close to a Primordial's level.

That was why he was qualified to become an Expert Priest.

"Found you."

Once Yan Xu locked onto Chu Kuangren's aura, he opened his eyes.

In a tavern in Thousand Suns City, Chu Kuangren was enjoying a drink. Just as he was about to take another drink, his hand paused, and an indifferent smile stretched across his face. "Already here, huh?"

Soon, a figure walked into the tavern. It was Yan Xu.

"Haha, it took me a hard time finding you, little fellow."

Yan Xu laughed as he sat in front of Chu Kuangren. Then, he pointed to the Radiant Enchanted Boundary outside and asked, "Do you know what that is?"

"An enchanted boundary."

"That's right. This is the Radiant Enchanted Boundary, created by the power of our Goddess. Even a Primordial would find it hard to break through it. Besides, this is not even a thousandth of the Goddess's full power. If you're willing to join our church, you'll receive our Goddess's blessing. By then, you might even become a Transcendentalist..."

Yan Xu continued pitching to Chu Kuangren incessantly, trying very hard to paint him a good picture of the Radiant Church.

He was no different than a salesman for a pyramid scheme.

Chu Kuangren remained unmoved as he sat there. He said, "I'm not interested in your Goddess. Please leave."

"Sigh. Are you really not going to join us, little fellow?"

"Yup."

"In that case, what a shame." Yan Xu shook his head.

Then, he said, "By the way, I noticed you using a Chaos Supreme Treasure earlier. That was an extremely mysterious item. Can I take a look at it again?"

"I don't usually allow strangers to see my belongings just because they want to."

"Come on, little fellow. You're no fun. I just want to take a look. It's not like I won't return it to you." As Yan Xu said that, he was preparing to unleash a technique

Suddenly, many cultivators dressed in long white robes surrounded the tavern outside.

The crowd quickly moved away from that place.

"It's the cultivators from the Radiant Church. What are they doing here?"

"It looks like someone has provoked them."

"Tsk, who's so foolish to do something like that?"

Among the crowd, the cultivators dressed in black robes looked at each other and breathed a sigh of relief.

"It looks like they're not here for us."

"Let's carry on as planned."

Inside the tavern, Chu Kuangren was aware of Yan Xu's subtle actions, so he warned them indifferently, "Let me give you a piece of advice: don't mess around with me."

"You're overthinking it, little fellow. The Radiant Church has always believed in winning over the people's hearts with virtue and honor. Even if you don't join us, we won't harm you. However..."

Yan Xu chuckled before the tone of his voice shifted, and his gaze turned cold. "Our church has recently lost a precious treasure, and it happens to bear a striking resemblance to the Chaos Supreme Treasure in your possession. Can you please take it out so I can verify whether it's the same one we've lost?"

"What if I say no?"

"Then, I'll have to resort to some harsher measures." Yan Xu immediately reached out to grab Chu Kuangren. An extremely powerful Daoist law was swirling in the palm of his hand, seemingly intent on incapacitating Chu Kuangren and rendering him unable to fight.

From his perspective, Chu Kuangren had just arrived in the Great Hongmeng Universe and had not fully acclimated to the laws of the universe here. Hence, dealing with him was easy.

He originally intended to trick Chu Kuangren into joining the church and slowly lure him to hand out the precious treasure. However, it seemed that only a more aggressive approach would work now.

"Boom!"

A palm attack landed on Chu Kuangren's shoulder.

However, his body only shook a little.

Yan Xu's face fell.

'This impact... doesn't feel right.'

Before he could react, Chu Kuangren had put down his wine glass and revealed a menacing gaze.

After that, Chu Kuangren raised his hand and gave him a brutal slap. All Yan Xu could feel was the intense pain on his cheek, followed by his body sent flying away involuntarily.

"Boom!"

It made a huge hole in the tavern wall.

Yan Xu was sent flying for quite some distance before landing on the Radiant Enchanted Boundary. The church members waiting for his command to act were stunned.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren slowly walked out from the tavern, looked at the flying Yan Xu, and said coldly. "How dare you take advantage of my politeness? Do you think I'm going to sit there and take your attack like that?"

Although he had just arrived and did not wish to cause a commotion, he was not afraid to deal with trouble.

If he backed down when his opponent was pressing on harder, he would no longer be the Chu Kuangren everyone knew. For those who dared provoke him, be it from the radiant to the dark side, he would ensure that they suffer regardless.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2067: Ultimate Physical Body, Radiant Judgement, Killing Yan Xu

Yan Xu was dumbfounded.

'Was I just slapped by a newcomer? Am I getting this right? Why? Why is that newcomer not affected by my palm attack? How did he do it?'

'Is he shielding himself with Daoist law? No, that's not right. I didn't sense any Daoist law aura at all.'

'Besides, he hasn't even acclimated himself to the Great Hongmeng Universe's laws. There's no way he can exert such powerful Daoist law energy. What the hell is going on?'

With a hand cupping his swollen cheek and blood in his mouth, Yan Xu said, "He's a heretic! Everyone, attack! Kill him at once!"

He was furious, but the moment he opened his mouth and spoke, his teeth began falling one after another. It was quite a funny sight for everyone else.

However, since he was the church's Expert Priest, the Radiant Church congregators of the Thousand Suns City dared not defy his order. Everyone immediately attacked.

"It looks like things are getting interesting."

"We should stay away from this. Otherwise, we'll be caught up in their fight."

"Tsk, it seems like this young man has just entered the Great Hongmeng Universe. Just look at his Daoist law aura. It hasn't even acclimated to the laws of this universe yet."

"He's in trouble."

A heated discussion ensued in the crowd.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren stepped forward when he saw the cultivators charging toward him. A powerful aura immediately erupted from his body.

It was not Daoist law but the purest form of physical vitality qi he could ever muster!

His crimson vitality qi was like streaks of blood-colored rivers, gushing out in every direction from every pore and orifice of his body.

The congregators charging toward him were all sent flying by that sudden eruption of energy. All of them landed on the ground, howling in pain.

Chu Kuangren channeled his physical vitality qi and slammed the void with it.

If he were in the Pan Gu Universe now, he could have shattered the void with the power of his vitality qi. However, he could not even make the void tremble here.

That was proof of how powerful the Great Hongmeng Universe's spatial barrier was.

However, it did not affect his combat ability.

"Physical vitality qi?"

"My gosh, so he's a body-strengthening cultivator. And judging by the level of his vitality qi, could that be the legendary Ultimate Physical Body that rivals a Primordial's power?"

"What a domineering vitality qi he has."

Everyone was terrified.

The Ultimate Physical Body was a legend known throughout the Infiniverse.

"Impossible! How do you have the Ultimate Physical Body?"

Yan Xu's face fell.

He had misjudged severely!

The fact that Chu Kuangren was a newcomer was still true, so his Daoist laws would be limited and suppressed by the Great Hongmeng Universe's laws. Before acclimating to this new universe, he would not be able to unleash his full power.

However, his physical strength was different because it was not restrained by the law of this universe.

"No wonder he can take my attack without being affected."

"Damn it!"

Seeing that the Thousand Suns City's congregators could not deal with Chu Kuangren, Yan Xu had no choice but to take matters into his own hands. He raised his arms, unleashing large amounts of Daoist laws.

A vast, powerful radiant aura instantly filled the surroundings.

"Have a taste of the Radiant Church's divine techniques!" Yan Xu bellowed.

His Daoist laws intertwined into a long spear in his hand that he launched the next instant.

"Whoosh!"

The white spear carried an intense razor-sharp aura as it headed toward Chu Kuangren at lightning speed, cracking open a long rift in the ground.

Chu Kuangren let out a low grunt and unleashed a punch.

Standing his ground, he took on the full force of the Radiant Church's divine technique.

"Bam!"

The white spear shattered.

However, Chu Kuangren's fist remained unscathed, keeping its white jade-like appearance.

As he stepped forward, vitality qi erupted and surged all over his body.

It was as if he had turned into a war god walking through an ocean of blood!

"What?"

Yan Xu was shocked that his attack was ineffective.

However, his Radiant Daoist laws surged again, forming several long white spears in the air. All of them were launched at Chu Kuangren in rapid succession.

"I refuse to believe I can't kill you!"

"Boom, boom, boom..."

The white spears landed on Chu Kuangren's body non-stop.

Large amounts of radiant aura filled the land, wrecking the surrounding terrain and bringing up smoke and dust everywhere when the radiant energy collided with the crimson vitality qi.

"Argh!"

Yan Xu channeled his power to the maximum, unleashing several barrages of the same attack without restraint for as long as he could.

After a while, he stopped to gasp for air.

The structures before him had been reduced to nothing, with several huge craters seen on the ground. Smoke and dust were everywhere.

A huge amount of radiant aura emanated through the air, illuminating the scene.

Even a Primordial might not survive after being dealt with such an attack.

Everyone focused their attention on the clouds of dust...

"Is he dead?"

"Even if he survives, he must be critically injured by this point, right?"

"That's right."

However, at that moment, they heard a patter of footsteps.

Everyone could see a person walking out slowly amidst the smoke and dust. His white robes were untainted while surges of vitality qi surrounded his body like crimson armor.

Those attacks were all blocked by that armor, and not a single hair on his body was missing.

Chu Kuangren dispersed his armor as he slowly walked toward Yan Xu.

Then, he released a punch.

"Bam!"

His vitality qi surged violently and landed brutally on Yan Xu's body. Despite channeling his Daoist law to defend it, the single punch still sent Yan Xu flying.

Once again, he smashed into the Radiant Enchanted Boundary.

"Spit!"

Yan Xu coughed up mouthfuls of blood as a look of horror crept up his face.

"H-How can this be?"

"No, there's no way I'll lose! I'm the great Expert Priest of the Radiant Church who receives the protection of the Goddess! How can I lose to someone like you?" Yan Xu yelled.

He then made a few mysterious hand signs.

A powerful energy fluctuation emerged from the church in the distance, followed by a gigantic apparition of the Radiant Goddess appearing in the air.

Yan Xu leaped into the air. "Now, you shall face the judgment of radiance, heretic!"

The surrounding Radiant Enchanted Boundary dispersed into pure radiant energy that flowed into his body, causing his aura to grow more powerful.

Chu Kuangren gazed at the church in the distance.

He looked deep in thought as he stared at the Goddess's statue.

'Oh, so that's the Radiant Goddess?'

He remembered the Dark Demonic Ruler telling him that the latter was heavily injured by the Holy Light Ruler, who was also known as the Radiant Goddess.

'Is the Radiant Goddess in the Great Hongmeng Universe now, I wonder?'

If she were to appear and personally take action, he would not stand a chance in his current state.

Several possibilities flashed through Chu Kuangren's mind.

Seeing that Chu Kuangren was so bold as to get distracted, Yan Xu blew up in rage. He channeled his Radiant Daoist law to the limit and turned it into a giant white-golden sword.

"Judgement Sword!"

"Boom!"

The great sword swung down with terrifying power.

It caused the whole Thousand Sun City to tremble violently. However, a wicked glint flashed in Chu Kuangren's eyes, and he channeled his vitality qi to the limit.

"Let's see how powerful this Ultimate Physical Body of mine can be."

As his vitality qi surged, the sound of a tsunami echoed in the realm.

Blinding Immortal Sparks was released from every bone inside his body.

The moment he unleashed a powerful punch, a crimson light beam containing powerful vitality qi shot out.

The two energies, one red and the other gold, erupted in a horrifying display of power as they collided in the air, causing everything in the realm to rumble incessantly.

At that moment, the golden Judgement Sword attack began breaking down before Chu Kuangren's vitality qi. Seeing his attack getting destroyed made Yan Xu shudder in fear.

"No!"

Following a miserable scream, the violent punch hit Yan Xu, and he exploded into a cloud of blood mist, falling down from the sky like rain.

His aura gradually dispersed.

Everyone could feel a chill running down their spine when they saw that.

"This vitality qi... Its power is certainly on par with a Primordial!"

"The Ultimate Physical Body is truly extraordinary."

Everyone could not help but comment.

Chapter 2068: The Eight Great Heretics, the Dark Evil Dragon, Do You Recognize This?

After killing Yan Xu, Chu Kuangren looked toward the other surviving cultivators of the Radiant Church. His gaze was cold and filled with killing intent.

'I might as well get rid of everyone!'

However, the grounds of the Thousand Suns City suddenly erupted at that moment.

A gigantic crack appeared in the ground. Within the depths of the crack, brilliant Immortal Sparks burst out, followed by the illuminating glimmers from the treasures.

Many of the cultivators were stunned as they looked over.

A gigantic golden-yellow palace could be seen hidden underground from the crack's opening, and inside was filled with treasures brimming with Immortal Sparks.

Everyone's eyes lit up like a cat picking up the scent of fish.

"Could those be the treasures left behind before the Thousand Suns City reopened?"

"It's possible. I heard that before the Great Hongmeng Universe reopened, Thousand Suns City was known to be a reputable force. They possessed such a wealth of treasure that it could not be relocated in one go. Those are likely the treasures left behind by those who came before us, hoping that they could come and take it back one day."

"Quick, let's enter and see what treasure awaits us."

Just as everyone was prepared to head in, a few figures suddenly appeared from within the palace. Each of them was dressed in long black robes.

Upon sensing their auras, the congregations were stunned. "This aura... They're members of the Darkness Tribe!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up in surprise.

'The Darkness Tribe...'

'Well, isn't this a coincidence?'

After the cultivators in black robes appeared, a dark aura suddenly emanated from the palace behind them.

The cultivators who wanted to explore the palace were all swallowed by that deep darkness, and their screams and howls echoed in the surrounding.

"No. No, what is this?"

"No..."

"Monster... It's a monster!"

As a faint roar came from deep within the darkness, everyone could not help but tremble from being drowned by fear of the unknown.

It was as if an unknown and unfathomable monster was hidden within the darkness.

However, that was not the end of it.

The darkness spread forward, eventually eroding everything in all directions.

By then, no one could care less about looking for treasures, and they quickly fled. However, a black bundle of light had appeared above the Thousand Suns City. It immediately expanded and rained down around the city like a waterfall.

The entire Thousand Suns City was soon enshrouded in darkness.

"What's happening?"

"Damn it. We're all trapped inside."

"This is the Darkness Enchanted Boundary!"

The Radiant Church cultivators were shocked to see the black veil of light.

For countless years, the Radiant Church had been at odds with its only arch-enemy, the Darkness Tribe led by the Dark Demonic Ruler. Both orthodoxies had been at war incessantly for countless years.

During the previous Hongmeng Era, a time before the Great Hongment Universe reopened, the Holy Light Goddess critically injured the Dark Demonic Ruler, causing the Darkness Tribe's downfall. Since then, the Darkness Tribe had not wreaked havoc for many years.

Now that the Great Hongment Universe had reopened, those cultivators had appeared to cause trouble.

"Damn it. The Darkness Tribe cultivators are really no different than pests. I can't believe they haven't died out yet. Send word to the nearest church for reinforcements immediately and request for them to come right away."

"We mustn't allow the Darkness Tribe to return to their former glory."

"There must be a reason for their appearance here..."

After the congregators sent word for reinforcements, the darkness had swallowed all of the Thousand Suns City.

Faint roaring sounds could be heard from everywhere within the darkness.

"Such repulsive radiant aura..."

A roar rang out.

Then, something dragged one of the church cultivators into the darkness. After a horrifying scream, everything went quiet.

"Everyone, regroup now," one of the other church cultivators said.

Everyone quickly huddled with their backs against one another and channeled their radiant aura, lighting the darkness like light bulbs.

That was when they finally saw what the monster within the darkness was.

It was a black dragon.

Its thick, huge body was covered in gigantic dragon scales swirling with strands of darkness aura; its head was like a mountain peak; its yellow eyes were staring at the Radiant Church cultivators with the intent to attack.

Its vast and dense dragon aura surged, instantly filling the surroundings.

Everyone started shuddering with fear.

"That's one of the Eight Great Heretics, the Dark Evil Dragon!" one of the church cultivators yelled, his eyes filled with fear.

"The records of Divine Radiant Scriptures are all true. The Eight Great Heretics truly exist. Known as the Dark Evil Dragon, its body is wrapped in dark flames, bringing disaster and destruction wherever it goes. When it appears, he will bring darkness to the world," another church cultivator mumbled.

Eventually, he fell to the ground as his legs became soft due to the fear.

It was just as the contents recorded in the Divine Radiant Scriptures stated.

"Roar..."

The black dragon looked at the congregators and roared.

Pitch-black flames shot out from its nostrils with every breath it took.

A few cultivators were instantly burned to ashes.

"Although I've been sealed for a long time, you Radiant Church cultivators still have such a disgusting aura. I guess some things never change. Oh well, your flesh may reek, but it can replenish a little of my strength..." the black dragon said.

Then, it opened its mouth, and a powerful suction force erupted.

The church cultivators were all sucked into his mouth without the ability to resist. Soon, a terrifying chewing sound echoed in the darkness.

The black dragon's aura increased steadily.

"Blergh..."

After eating the cultivators, the black dragon looked disgusted and retched twice. "As expected of the followers of that Radiant Goddess b*tch. They stink just as much as she does."

His draconic pair of eyes swept through the darkness before landing on the cultivators shuddering in fear. "I might as well eat the others to rinse my mouth."

Everyone had goosebumps.

"Quick, let's get out of here."

Everyone quickly turned into various animals and beasts and escaped in all directions.

However, as they could not make out the exit inside the darkness, they were running blindly like headless chickens. Eventually, the black dragon caught them and ate them all, one by one.

"Hm?"

Suddenly, the black dragon let out a soft grunt and looked excitedly in a direction. "Such a dense vitality qi... It'll be splendid nourishment."

He looked toward the direction Chu Kuangren was in.

Amidst the darkness, Chu Kuangren's vitality qi fluctuation was akin to a huge light bulb shining brightly. It was hard for the black dragon not to notice.

His figure flashed, immediately dashing toward Chu Kuangren's direction.

Soon, he arrived before Chu Kuangren and walked around him twice with greed in his eyes. "Wonderful, simply wonderful. With such a pure and dense vitality qi, you're the human form of a top-tiered Chaos Supreme Elixir!"

The black dragon was delighted.

He may not be able to return to his prime by devouring Chu Kuangren, but he could at least regain one or two percent of his full strength.

Furthermore, he could sense a peculiar aura from Chu Kuangren's body.

Chu Kuangren's aura was seemingly causing a throbbing response in his bloodline, which made him extremely curious.

While the black dragon glared at Chu Kuangren, Chu Kuangren was also observing him curiously. "You're from the Darkness Tribe?"

"Oh, you're not afraid of me, huh?" the black dragon said with amusement.

"Why must I be afraid of you?"

"Young one, you may have the Ultimate Physical Body and may be on par with the Primordials, but it won't be hard for me to kill you even though I've just broken free."

"You can't kill me," Chu Kuangren said calmly with both hands behind his back.

"What a joke. Besides his Highness, there's no one that I, the great Dark Evil Dragon can't kill." The Dark Evil Dragon snorted.

"Is that so? In that case, do you recognize this?"

Chu Kuangren took out an insignia.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2069: The Ruler Amulet, the Infernal Dragon's Suppression, Dark Dragon Gives In

"Do you recognize this?"

Chu Kuangren took out an amulet and said indifferently.

Dark Dragon snorted. "Do you think a piece of crappy amulet will protect you? You must be too full of yourself. Even if—"

Before Dark Dragon could finish speaking, he caught a glimpse of the amulet from the corner of his eye. It was apparent that he was surprised yet doubtful.

His mouth hung wide open at the amulet's aura, looking dumbfounded. His dragon eyes were bigger than Chu Kuangren as a whole.

"T-This is the... The Ruler Amulet!"

"It's His Highness's Ruler Amulet! How is this possible?"

Dark Dragon glared at Chu Kuangren and asked, "Where did you get this amulet from? You better speak the truth!"

"I got it from your master, who personally handed this to me. He told me that as long as I have this Ruler Amulet, the Darkness Tribe cultivators must listen to my command."

"Where is His Highness now?"

"No comment."

"If you don't tell me now, I'll devour you!"

Dark Dragon roared, and his domineering dragon aura swept everywhere, instantly pressing on Chu Kuangren with the weight of a whole galaxy.

However, Chu Kuangren did not back down. Instead, his gaze narrowed. A powerful dragon aura erupted from his body as he shouted, "Go on if you dare!"

Boom!

The darkness trembled.

A domineering surge of vitality qi rose into the air from Chu Kuangren's body.

It was also mixed with a surge of dragon qi.

In that instant, his vitality qi and dragon qi intertwined into a crimson dragon apparition that glared indifferently at Dark Dragon.

Dark Dragon quickly felt a terrifying threat.

His bloodline was trembling.

His soul was horrified.

"T-This is the Infernal Dragon!"

Dark Dragon could not believe his eyes.

The Great Hongmeng Universe was the source of the Infiniverse, so it was no surprise that the dragon species existed within it.

As for the Infernal Dragon, it was an Outlier, making it one of the most powerful beings among the dragons.

There were even records stating that the Infernal Dragon was the source of all the dragon tribes now.

Even the mighty Elder Dragon Tribe, one of the top-tiered tribes, would involuntarily bow its head in the presence of an Infernal Dragon.

It was no exaggeration to say that the Infernal Dragon's power possessed an effect that could suppress all dragons!

"This level of Infernal Dragon power is certainly unlike those pseudo-dragon species that only possessed a tiny part of the Infernal Dragon's bloodline. To think it can make my bloodline tremble with fear... This is definitely the purest and strongest Infernal Dragon power!"

"Is he somehow related to the Primal Infernal Dragon?"

Dark Dragon was a little puzzled.

The Primal Infernal Dragon was one of the most terrifying beings in the Infiniverse!

Even His Highness was not as powerful as those beings.

'So, this guy doesn't only have His Highness's Ruler Amulet, but there's a chance he's related to the Primal Infernal Dragon as well. What kind of background does he come from?'

Dark Dragon could not believe he had encountered someone like that just after breaking free. He was simply unlucky.

When Chu Kuangren saw the fear in Dark Dragon's eyes, he secretly breathed a sigh of relief. 'Nice, it looks like I made the right gamble.'

'The Infernal Dragon's power is certainly effective against him. Besides, its effect is far greater than I could've ever imagined.'

"Go away, little one. I won't kill you," Dark Dragon said coldly.

"It's not a matter of whether you'll kill me or not. I have your master's Ruler Amulet with me, and you must now do whatever I tell you," Chu Kuangren said confidently while fiddling with the Ruler Amulet in his hand.

Chu Kuangren's attitude enraged Dark Dragon.

'I must do whatever he asks?'

'What the hell!'

After all, he was the Dark Evil Dragon, one of the most powerful beings from the Darkness Tribe. He was even listed by the Radiant Church as one of the Eight Great Heretics!

He was a reputable being in the Infiniverse.

However, he now had to listen to orders from a puny Embodier?

Who did the man think he was talking to?

"Little one, you better not push it!"

"I have the Ruler Amulet here. Do you dare to disobey me?"

Chu Kuangren's gaze narrowed. "If I tell your master about this, how do you think he'll punish you?"

"Are you threatening me?"

"So what if I am?"

"Very well, little one. I'll give you props for your ruthlessness. What do you want me to do?"

Dark Dragon gave in.

Within the Darkness Tribe, everyone except a few individuals acknowledged the Dark Demonic Ruler as their leader and would obey his orders with unquestionable loyalty.

Dark Dragon was one of the loyal followers of the Dark Demonic Ruler.

"I'm new to the Great Hongmeng Universe, and I happen to require a mount..."

"How insolent!"

Dark Dragon roared, his eyes bloodshot with rage.

Chu Kuangren simply stared at Dark Dragon.

The dragon, on the other hand, was fuming with rage. With his teeth gnashed, he said to Chu Kuangren, "No one in my life other than His Highness is worthy of sitting on my head. Even my father, Dark Dragon King, has no chance, let alone a puny being like you!"

"Is that so?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled and did not ask any further. "If that's the case, why don't you follow me and be my subordinate?"

If he could not get a mount, he would ask for something else.

Dark Dragon started to ponder.

Chu Kuangren secretly got delighted that the dragon was considering his request. He then continued to say, "I've made a deal with your master. If anything happens to me, he'll be the one affected the most. You should think carefully about your options."

"Very well."

Dark Dragon nodded. "I'm doing all of this for His Highness alone!"

"Your loyalty is admirable."

"Of course."

Dark Dragon lifted his head delightedly.

Chu Kuangren's lips twitched. 'What are you getting happy for?'

After some prodding, he soon gained a better grasp of the limits of the Darkness Ruler Amulet and learned that its influence was pretty big.

However, it was not limitless.

He was now more confident about what to do when encountering more members of the Darkness Tribe in the future.

If he could use it wisely, he could at least obtain a considerable force at his disposal before he completed his deal with the Dark Demonic Ruler.

"Let's go," Chu Kuangren said.

He was about to leave the Thousand Suns City with Dark Dragon when the latter spoke while looking at the other cultivators trapped in darkness.

"Hold on, I just broke free from being sealed, so I need some items to regain my strength. Let me finish devouring everyone here first."

He had trapped more than half of all the Thousand Suns City's cultivators. Although all of them combined still paled in comparison to Chu Kuangren alone, he could still gain something by eating them.

"If you want recovery items, I have many of those with me. Let's not waste our time here anymore. Who knows when the Radiant Church reinforcements will arrive," Chu Kuangren said.

When Dark Dragon broke through its seal, the church cultivators of the Thousand Suns City had sent word for reinforcements.

If they dragged on for too long, it would be hard to leave when most of the church's reinforcements arrived.

"Hmph. No matter how many of those church cultivators come, I'll eat them all." Dark Dragon snorted.

Despite saying that, he understood he had not regained his full power. Hence, he also wanted to avoid the elites from the church if possible.

...

Above the Thousand Suns City, a black enchanted boundary enveloped the whole city.

Far away, a few cultivators in black robes were a little anxious.

"Why hasn't Lord Dark Dragon come out yet?"

"That's right. If we continue waiting any longer, the church's reinforcements will arrive soon."

Those people were cultivators of the Darkness Tribe. They were the ones who set Dark Dragon free.

According to their plans, they should have left Thousand Suns City immediately after releasing Dark Dragon to avoid clashing with the church's cultivators.

However, they did not expect Dark Dragon to want to vent its anger from being sealed away for so many years. That was why they had not left yet.

"Sigh. I heard that Dark Dragon is very loyal to His Highness, but it's a pity he's too hot-tempered. I suppose this is to be expected," one of the cultivators could not help but lament.

Chapter 2070: The Radiant Left Sky King, Different Beliefs, Conflicting Ideals

Above the Thousand Suns City, thousands of warships suddenly appeared in the sky.

When the Darkness Tribe cultivators saw it from afar, they panicked. "This is bad. A massive troop from the Radiant Church has arrived."

"We should leave now."

"If we leave now, what about Lord Dark Dragon?"

"We won't be of much help to Lord Dark Dragon if we stay here. We might even end up getting in his way. At times like this, we can only believe Lord Dark Dragon will be alright."

"That's right. Let's go."

They had no choice but to leave helplessly.

Meanwhile, an elderly man in long white robes was standing on deck in one of the larger warships. He had a calm expression on his face.

He looked at the Thousand Suns City shrouded within the Dark Enchanted Barrier now, his eyes cold. He said indifferently, "Everyone, on my command, deploy the Radiant Sky King Formation!"

"The Grand Priest's order is our command!"

The Grand Priest was a high-ranked position that was only beneath the Bishop and Archbishop of the church. Every time the church wanted to deal with a great enemy, a Grand Priest would be sent.

The Grand Priest sent to the Thousand Suns City this time was called Fei Ma. He was one of the top-tiered individuals, even among the Grand Priests.

Apparently, it was only a matter of time before he became a Bishop.

"Heretics like the Dark Evil Dragon must be annihilated immediately!"

A cold glint appeared in Priest Fei Ma's eyes.

Unfortunately, the Bishops of the church assigned were situated a little far from here. By the time they arrived, the Dark Dragon would have escaped.

That was why he was sent here ahead of time.

The Radiant Church cultivators leaped into the air, forming mysterious hand signs. Then, their radiant auras started resonating, and a powerful aura emanated into the surroundings.

Soon, a gigantic radiant apparition appeared vaguely in the sky.

Meanwhile, inside Thousand Suns City, Chu Kuangren was telling the Dark Dragon to lift his Darkness Enchanted Boundary so that they could leave.

However, the moment the Dark Enchanted Boundary was lifted, what appeared in their view was a sky filled with endless radiant aura instead!

The Dark Dragon grunted softly with anger in his eyes. "This radiant aura... Is that b*stard here as well?"

Chu Kuangren's eyes narrowed.

It seemed that they were one step too late.

He looked into the sky and saw the Radiant Church cultivators hovering in the air. Their robes fluttered without any wind, emanating waves of radiant aura.

Meanwhile, at the location where large amounts of radiant aura gathered was a vague but gigantic radiant apparition, exuding suffocating waves of aura.

Those cultivators were setting up a formation.

They seemed to be summoning something.

"Dark Evil Dragon, one of the Eight Great Heretics, are you prepared to face your judgment?" Priest Fei Ma said indifferently as he looked at the Dark Dragon.

Then, he noticed Chu Kuangren. "And you. Judging by your aura, you're not from the Darkness Tribe, but why are you siding with the heretic?"

"I'm free to mingle with whoever I want," Chu Kuangren said.

Since the situation had turned out that way, he had no choice but to stand against the Radiant Church.

"If that's the case, you shall perish along with the heretic!"

As soon as he said that, the radiant aura apparition in the sky began to materialize, and a gigantic humanoid apparition appeared.

It was a handsome blonde-haired man with endless divine light beaming from his eyes like two bright suns, which was an astonishing sight.

"Dark Evil Dragon, my Goddess has severely injured the Dark Demonic Ruler. And instead of staying put obediently in your prison, you break free and wreak havoc in the world. Now, be prepared to die!" the gold-haired man said indifferently.

However, the Dark Dragon chuckled. "As I expected, it really is you, you b*stard Radiant Left Sky King. Why is your true self not here instead?"

The Radiant Goddess had two close subordinates.

They were known as the Radiant Left and Radiant Right Sky Kings.

The gold-haired man before them was the Radiant Left Sky King. During the past wars between light and darkness, the Dark Dragon had also suffered many battles with him before.

"Having just broke free, you possess only one percent of your full strength, and this radiant projection of mine is enough to kill you," the Radiant Left Sky King said calmly.

After that, he raised his hand, pointed his finger, and released an attack at the Dark Dragon.

The power of that attack was incredibly vast and domineering.

Its surging radiant aura was akin to an endlessly flowing river.

With a serious expression, the Dark Dragon let out a long roar. As he opened its mouth, he breathed out a mouthful of terrifying pitch-dark dragon flames.

Following a loud boom, the two energies collided and formed an energy torrent.

Even with his current cultivation level, Chu Kuangren unconsciously retreated several kilometers back.

"This power is considered one of the top even among Primordials. It looks like we're in trouble now."

Chu Kuangren frowned. As he had not completely acclimated to the Great Hongmeng Universe's laws yet, he could not unleash his full power. Even if he could, the chances of him escaping were slim in the face of the great Radiant Church's troops.

"Boom!"

A figure was sent flying from the energy torrent.

It was the Dark Dragon.

Meanwhile, the Radiant Left Sky King whose attack only clashed once with the Dark Dragon was unscathed. He was standing in the air mightily with Immortal Sparks flowing all around him, brimming with endless light.

"You're no match for me, Dark Evil Dragon," the Radiant Left Sky King said calmly.

He raised his hand, gathered large amounts of radiant aura, and formed a gigantic ball of light. The Immortal Sparks from it illuminated the whole surroundings.

What frightened everyone more was the terrifying energy fluctuations from that ball of light.

It was so powerful that the surrounding void was about to be distorted. Most importantly, what was being affected was the Great Hongmang Universe's spatial structure.

To be able to affect the void here to such an extent proved how powerful that attack was.

"Roar!"

"Do you think I'm afraid of you?" the Dark Dragon roared, and huge amounts of dragon aura erupted.

He was going to fight with his life on the line now.

"I can't just stand by and watch either," Chu Kuangren thought out loud.

He looked at the Radiant Church cultivators in the sky.

'The appearance of the Radiant Left Sky King surely has something to do with these Radiant Church cultivators. It's most likely the power of this formation technique.'

'If I can disrupt the formation, I can defeat the Radiant Left Sky King,' Chu Kuangren thought.

With that, his figure disappeared in a flash and arrived in the sky, where he released a powerful punch.

"Bam!"

Following a loud blast, his vitality qi surged outward.

However, before the punch could get near the Radiant Church cultivators, it was blocked by an invisible spatial barrier.

"The formation's protective barrier, huh?"

Chu Kuangren frowned and unleashed a few more punches.

Still, the results were the same.

"It's no use. With your current cultivation level, there's no way you can destroy the Radiant Sky King Formation's protective barrier." Priest Fei Ma said indifferently.

After that, he raised his arm and manifested a long spear in his hand that he launched toward Chu Kuangren. The attack contained an incomparably sharp intent.

Yan Xu had used that technique before as well.

However, his was worlds apart compared to Priest Fei Ma's power.

"Boom!"

Chu Kuangren was forced backward. However, thanks to his Ultimate Physical Body, he was not badly injured.

"The Ultimate Physical Body is truly a troublesome ability to deal with." Priest Fei Ma complimented Chu Kuangren, but his gaze immediately turned cold. He said in a cold voice, "However, those who associate themselves with heretics shall perish along with them!"

"Heretic this, heretic that. You're just calling everyone who believes differently a heretic. If that's what you people consider a heretic, everyone who doesn't join the Radiant Church is a heretic. In that case, the whole world will be full of heretics." Chu Kuangren laughed.

"Hmph, those are nothing but words. Now, die!"

Priest Fei Ma started preparing to unleash the next killer technique. A huge golden sword had formed above his head, its razor-sharp intent already locking onto Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren's gaze turned cold, and he was about to make a gamble with his next move.

However, a voice suddenly echoed in his mind at that moment.
