Chapter 2091: Doomsday Darkness, This Is An Order, I Will Wait For You To Be Back

It had been months since Chu Kuangren fought Jiu Yin.

The past few months had been quiet, and Yu Yan did not attempt anything else.

The Radiant Church would attack once in a while, but that was it.

It was peaceful and quiet at the Black Flame City.

"Congratulations, Host! You've won a Transcendent-tier treasure, Radiant Seed."

Chu Kuangren was slightly surprised by the newly acquired prize.

The name Radiant Seed alone made him think it was related to the Radiant Church.

He opened it up, but it barely had any introduction. It simply explained that it came from the brightest light and could grant the user the use of its bright power.

Chu Kuangren took it out.

It was a white ball that was the size of a fist, and it emanated a faint Radiant energy presence. Its surface was also carved with mystical runes.

"Lil Ai, analyze this."

"Right away."

Lil Ai immediately analyzed it with her mystical powers.

Given Lil Ai's current capabilities, she could quickly analyze a Primordial or even Grand Dao cultivator, but it took her some time to analyze the Radiant Seed.

It was proof that the seed was something else.

It must be more valuable than the Transcendent-tier Chaos Green Lotus and Vitality Qi Divine Celestial.

"Master, this item seems to be related to the source."

The source was a mystical and strange topic.

It was said that the Great Hongmeng Universe was the start — the source of all things, and the Dao in this universe contained the origin of all Daos across the Infiniverse.

No one knew where the source came from or when it ended, and anything that was involved with the source must be unusual, just like how the oldest being in the Infiniverse must be somewhat related to the source.

"Can the Radiant Seed be related to the source of the Radiant Dao?"

Chu Kuangren was curious.

Before he got an answer, the Radiant Seed entered his body in light form.

"Interesting."

Chu Kuangren studied the Radiant Seed for a while but realized he did not have the power to utilize the energy contained inside.

On second thought, he decided to put it aside.

He then told Lil Ai to study it and see if it could be useful to him.

"Chu Kuangren, Yu Yan wants to see us." Hei Xuan came up to Chu Kuangren and said.

Chu Kuangren was intrigued. Did Yu Yan finally want to act?

The two of them arrived at a palace.

They saw Yu Yan, but the man looked worried and concerned.

When they got closer, he said, "I have something to discuss with you two."

"What is it?" Hei Xuan said.

Knowing that Yu Yan might have an ill agenda toward the Dark Demonic Ruler, Hei Xuan treated the man with less friendliness.

"The Radiant Church's attack is getting fiercer. In the previous battle, two Bishop levels and more than a hundred Grand Priests attacked. I'm afraid the Black Flame City isn't going to last," he said.

Hei Xuan frowned. "With you and I here, even if they send ten more Bishops, there's nothing for us to worry about."

"Hei Xuan, you have no idea. The Radiant Church's background is unpredictable, and they have been growing rapidly throughout the years. Ever since we lost the Dark Demonic Ruler, the Darkness Tribe has been declining. I hate to admit it, but I'm afraid we will lose this war."

"Let's cut to the chase. What do you want us to do?" Chu Kuangren asked.

He was not interested in Yu Yan's complaints.

"Since Brother Chu has asked, I'll skip the chase. I want the Ruler Amulet."

The atmosphere turned serious when Yu Yan voiced his request.

Hei Xuan reacted grimly to his request. "Yu Yan, are you trying to usurp Chu Kuangren?"

"I didn't mean that. I just need the Ruler Amulet to do something."

"Go on."

Compared to Hei Xuan, Chu Kuangren was much calmer.

"To be honest, Black Flame City houses an extreme Darkness energy underground, and this is the reason why the Radiant Church has been attacking us here. Once this energy is ready, it will threaten the Radiant Church as much as the Ruler himself."

"Nonsense! No Darkness energy in this world is stronger than the Ruler's!" Hei Xuan grumbled.

"The Doomsday Darkness!" Yu Yan said.

The words made Hei Xuan's eyes widen in shock. "The Doomsday Darkness? Impossible! It's just a myth! A legend!"

The Doomsday Darkness was something born from the source of Darkness.

Once it appeared, it would mean doomsday for the Infiniverse as it could cast eternal darkness across universes.

They had heard of the legend of Doomsday Darkness from the Dark Demonic Ruler, but Hei Xuan simply took it as a myth.

He believed the Dark Demonic Ruler was the strongest Darkness being.

Now, Yu Yan was saying that the Doomsday Darkness was hiding underground in the Black Flame City.

How could it be?

"Impossible. If the Black Flame City housed the Doomsday Darkness, that Radiant B*tch would have attacked this place ages ago."

"It's because the Doomsday Darkness hidden underground is incomplete. It's just a portion of the original, but if we absorb the energy, we will have the power to rival the Radiant Church. And to do that, I need the Darkness Ruler Amulet."

Yu Yan looked at Chu Kuangren. "It's not easy trying to absorb the Doomsday Darkness's energy. It requires a vessel and must be refined from the Ruler Amulet, which is the darkest item in the world. It's the most suitable vessel to hold the Doomsday Darkness energy."

"I see."

"Please lend me the Ruler Amulet. After that, I will return it to you," Yu Yan said sincerely.

"Master, the palace is surrounded by a dozen Primordial presences and three Grand Dao presences."

Lil Ai suddenly spoke in Chu Kuangren's mind.

Chu Kuangren smirked. He knew that if he rejected Yu Yan's request, the elites would jump on him immediately.

It seemed like Yu Yan had perfect control over the Darkness Tribe.

If the elites from the Darkness Tribe were willing to take orders from him and attack the one who possessed the Darkness Ruler Amulet, it meant that Yu Yan had defied the Dark Demonic Ruler.

It was understandable. After all, the Dark Demonic Ruler had been gone for so long, and his reputation was no longer helpful.

"Please hold on. I'm analyzing their stats and plotting the best retreat route."

Lil Ai believed escaping would be the best option since fighting them would be disastrous.

However, Chu Kuangren chuckled to himself and said, "No need to plot any escape route. I know what I'm going to do."

He took the Ruler Amulet out and said, "I can give you the Ruler Amulet, but I'd like to retrieve the Doomsday Darkness with you."

"Uh..."

Yu Yan was hesitant. "We need people defending the city, and I planned for you two to stay here."

"You can have Hei Xuan stay back."

"Are you coming with me alone?" Yu Yan was intrigued by Chu Kuangren's suggestion.

"Yes."

"Very well."

Yu Yan swiftly agreed.

Hei Xuan, however, was worried. "No. I'm coming along as well."

If Yu Yan had a hidden agenda, Chu Kuangren would be in danger.

"You stay here and defend the city. This is an order!" Chu Kuangren said firmly.

Deterred, Hei Xuan took a deep breath and said, "In that case, I'll wait for you to come back."

Chapter 2092: Radiant Church's Helping Hand, Destiny's Gate Overpowers Yu Yan

Outside Black Flame City, an army of Radiant Church cultivators gathered.

From common believers to Grand Priests and Bishops, all of them gathered in front of the city, with their vast Radiant energy lighting up the entire area.

The leader of the army was a Bishop named Liu Hu, a Grand Dao cultivator.

He was one of the strongest Bishops from the Radiant Church.

He stood high on the mountain and gazed deeply upon the city.

"Bishop Liu, it's been a while. Why aren't we sieging the city? If we drag this out, we will have to answer to the church leader," said a Grand Priest.

Liu Hu chuckled. "Don't worry. The church leader has contacted me. Help is coming, and this person is going to help us take down Black Flame City."

The army doubted his words.

They failed to take down Black Flame City even with multiple Bishops teaming up, so who was so powerful for the church leader to send to help them?

"Judging from the time, help should be arriving soon," Liu Hu said.

Then, a grand Radiant aura came from the clouds and formed a long path of light in the sky.

At the end of the path of light was a vague slender figure.

Equipped with silver armor and a spear, the figure rode a white pegasus, and her wavy blonde hair danced in the wind.

The army knelt sincerely on the ground when they saw the person, including Liu Hu and the other Bishops.

Zest shone in their eyes.

"I didn't think it would be her! We're going to win this!"

"Yeah! No matter how sturdy Black Flame City is, they won't be able to withstand her power!"

...

Back in the city, Chu Kuangren followed Yu Yan deep underground.

A massive underground space appeared before him.

The underground space was covered with restriction runes, and terrifying Darkness energy filled the air.

Chu Kuangren felt the amulet he carried reacting strongly as if resonating with the Darkness energy.

In the center of the boundless darkness was a floating white cube.

The cube had mystical runes carved on it, and the surrounding Darkness energy was just a sliver of energy that the cube released.

Strangely, Chu Kuangren could sense a mystical surge of Radiant energy from the cube.

Darkness and Radiant, both energies seemed to coexist in the cube.

"So, is this the Doomsday Darkness?"

"Yes. A part of it." Yu Yan looked at the cube fervently.

He had been studying the Doomsday Darkness for years.

He managed to get a hold of a particular secret revealing that the Dark Demonic Ruler's power was related to the Doomsday Darkness.

It was not too exaggerated to say that the Doomsday Darkness created the Dark Demonic Ruler, which explained Yu Yan's zeal.

If the Doomsday Darkness could create someone like the Dark Demonic Ruler, it could do the same to him!

"If I can get the power, I will be the next Dark Demonic Ruler and rule the Darkness Tribe!" Yu Yan thought to himself.

He then looked at Chu Kuangren with similar zest. "Now, please give me the Ruler Amulet and allow me to retrieve the energy."

"If I hand you the amulet, you will use it as a vessel to absorb the Doomsday Darkness energy, and then what? How are you going to use the power?"

"I have my own plans for that."

"Why don't I spell it out for you? You're going to use the amulet to absorb the Doomsday Darkness energy and then kill me. After that, you can use the amulet that contains the energy for refinement. Am I right?" Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

Yu Yan was silenced for a moment before he cackled. "Chu Kuangren, you are smart. If you know what I'm going to do, why follow me down here?"

"Because I'm interested in this power as well," Chu Kuangren said as he stared at the Doomsday Darkness.

The Great Hongmeng Universe was flooding with elites, and he was in dire need of rapid growth. He had to secure as many resources as he could and as fast as possible.

The Doomsday Darkness was a decent source. If he could absorb it, it might be useful.

"An Embodier eyeing over the grand power of the Doomsday Darkness? How bold of you, Chu Kuangren!" Yu Yan scoffed.

With that, he attacked.

He pointed at Chu Kuangren, firing a domineering blast of black flame from his finger.

His attack sealed the entire underground space.

The Grand Dao energy was strong enough to suffocate a Primordial.

Chu Kuangren drew the Descendant Self Sword and used the power of three thousand Daoist laws.

"Bang!"

A huge explosion went off in the underground space.

As the dust storm whirled, Chu Kuangren was blasted away.

Yu Yan stood proudly and coldly. "Chu Kuangren, you're not even Jiu Yin's match, and I'm stronger than him. How are you going to fight me?"

"Jiu Yin? He's lucky. If I didn't plan to take you on first, he would already be a dead snake."

"You're really arrogant," Yu Yan said with a scoff. He simply assumed Chu Kuangren was bluffing.

Before he could attack, he sensed a mystical and strange energy from Chu Kuangren.

Suddenly, a divine ray shot out at him.

The ray somehow made Yu Yan's heart race.

"This is... Destiny Dao?!"

Yu Yan's expression shifted. Destiny Dao was one of the most mystical Daos in existence. Its power was unpredictable and profound.

Only less than a handful of cultivators could use the Destiny Dao as an offensive technique.

Yet, Chu Kuangren had that particular technique hidden under his sleeve!

"Bang!"

The Destiny Dao light ray struck Yu Yan, who could do nothing to resist, and started to affect his fate.

However, Yu Yan was rather calm about it. "Chu Kuangren, I didn't expect you to have such a technique, but too bad. You have underestimated the power of the Grand Dao Realm. The first realm of the Grand Dao is Life Mastery, which means I'm the master of my life! I control my own fate! I have freed myself from the structure of the Universal Dao. How are you going to affect my fate?"

"Bang!"

Vast Grand Dao energy exploded from Yu Yan.

The Divine Destiny light ray was shattered.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. "You're the master of your fate? Do you think fate is that simple?"

After that, he performed a set of mystical hand seals and unleashed an even stronger and more mystical Destiny energy.

The energy swirled in the void and triggered the existence in it. Following that, a massive gate descended from above.

It was the ultimate attack of the Great Destiny Technique, Destiny's Gate!

The Destiny's Gate unleashed vigorous Destiny energy that attacked Yu Yan. When the gate fell on him, it started to overpower his fate.

It even seemed like it was going to crush him.

The Great Destiny Technique was a Great Dao-level technique.

Chu Kuangren had used it to kill the Primordial, Shen Tian, many years ago.

Back then, he had only fused less than a hundred Daos.

Now, he had fused three thousand Daos and mastered the energy of three thousand Daoist laws. Hence, the power from Destiny's Gate was unbelievably stronger this time.

"You tricked me!"

Yu Yan roared and channeled his energy to withstand the suppression from Destiny's Gate.

He looked at Chu Kuangren in horror.

He finally knew why Chu Kuangren called Jiu Yin lucky.

Chu Kuangren did not use his full power in the fight with Jiu Yin and never used any of his ace cards.

Chu Kuangren was after Yu Yan, not Jiu Yin!

Yu Yan was foolish enough to think his trick worked and that he had grasped Chu Kuangren's true power.

He did not once think that what he saw was what Chu Kuangren wanted him to see.

On the contrary, he fell into Chu Kuangren's trap without realizing it.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2093: Radiant Right Sky King, Three Thousand Grand Worlds, You Are Pitiful

Soldiers were stationed around the walls of Black Flame City.

Suddenly, a surge of Radiant energy came from further away.

Shocked, the soldiers immediately rang the alarm.

"The Radiant Church is here!"

The shout alarmed everyone.

A massive boundary was put up to protect all of Black Flame City.

Then, white spears carrying powerful Radiant energy rained down on the boundary, shaking it violently.

Everyone within the city got serious.

"Swoosh!"

Hei Xuan arrived at the city walls.

"Lord Evil Dragon!"

Hei Xuan's appearance boosted everyone's morale.

Further away, the army of Radiant Church cultivators had arrived. Each of them was surrounded by Radiant energy that crashed onto the city like white tidal waves.

"By the Goddess' command, we are here to eliminate the heretics!"

"Darkness will be expelled by Radiance!"

The Radiant Church cultivators chanted loudly.

The leading Bishop, Liu Hu, took the lead by releasing a blast of Radiant Great Dao energy that shook the realm.

Upon noticing the fierce attack, Hei Xuan ordered the men, "Charge!"

The Darkness Tribe cultivators rushed onto the battlefield, carrying bursts of Darkness energy.

As Darkness and Radiance clashed fiercely, the realm was painted in a monochromatic tone.

"Radiant Divine Arrow!"

Liu Hu channeled the Radiant Great Dao energy to form a white longbow.

An arrow shot out across the air.

"Roar!"

A loud dragon's roar echoed across the battlefield.

Hei Xuan attacked with a domineering dragon's breath.

The clash formed a black-and-white energy that spread in the air, crushing lands and mountains.

"Oh? One of the Eight Great Heretics, Dark Evil Dragon." Liu Hui narrowed his eyes at the dragon who countered his attack.

"Radiant dog, taste my draconic fury!" Hei Xuan cackled.

He rose to the sky, releasing a domineering draconic aura at the field. Compared to when he was at the Tempest Palace, he had recovered a lot of his power.

Hei Xuan had not been feasting like a tornado for no reason.

Although Liu Hu was also a Grand Dao cultivator, there was a significant difference between him and Hei Xuan. He could feel the draconic pressure on him immediately.

It was at that moment that the clouds at the horizon rumbled, and a terrifying pressure descended.

A path of light appeared from the clouds, and at the end of the path was a figure riding a pegasus.

It was a woman in silver armor and blonde, wavy hair. Her slender figure complimented her delicate face that bore frosty killing intent.

Endless Radiant energy erupted from her, and it shook the realm.

It was as if a Valkyrie had arrived!

Hei Xuan was shocked to see the woman on the pegasus.

"Damn it! It's her! The Radiant Right Sky King!"

Serving the Radiant Goddess was the Radiant Right Sky King and Radiant Left Sky King.

The Right Sky King was stronger than the Left Sky King.

During the ancient holy war, she was second only to the Radiant Goddess and one of the most formidable opponents to the Darkness Tribe. Even the Dark Demonic Ruler praised her powers.

Hei Xuan did not expect her to be on the battlefield herself.

"This is going to be tough."

Hei Xuan gulped nervously.

Even if he teamed up with Yu Yan, they might not gain an upper hand against the Radiant Right Sky King.

What was worst was that Yu Yan was not around, so Hei Xuan had no chance.

"All heretics shall be eliminated!"

The Radiant Right Sky King looked at Hei Xuan as she channeled her Radiant Great Dao.

A white spear was launched forward.

"Bang!"

The spear easily crushed the land beneath the city.

It could even perforate the void, and the Darkness Tribe cultivators in its way were torn to shreds.

"She's still as scary as ever," Hei Xuan shrieked in surprise and channeled all his energy to block the incoming attack.

"Kaboom!"

His defense shattered instantly, and he was blasted away.

"Is that the power of the Radiant Right Sky King?"

"She's so powerful!"

"No wonder the Right Sky King is the most powerful subordinate to the Radiant Goddess. She's too powerful!"

The Radiant Church cultivators were thrilled.

With Destiny's Gate overpowering Yu Yan, pressure fell on his shoulder. He was especially infuriated when he learned that Chu Kuangren had tricked him.

He roared, "Chu Kuangren, no matter how much you have planned, the difference in realms is something you cannot compensate for!"

Darkness energy erupted despite the suppression from Destiny's Gate. He channeled the Darkness Great Dao in him and locked onto Chu Kuangren.

"I will eliminate you with this. Darkness End, Scorching Six Dao!"

Black flames burned as if they could burn everything in existence, including the Six Realms of Samsara.

Chu Kuangren, engulfed by the black flame, started to get hot. It felt like the heat was tearing his body apart.

"It's time to test how strong this technique is."

Chu Kuangren's eyes gleamed with interest.

Following that, three thousand Daoist law energies erupted and projected all things in the universe into the void, shining brightly as it dispersed the darkness in the underground space.

Daoist laws surrounded Chu Kuangren like planets surrounding the sun.

The Daoist laws were resonating with each other, and the power they released scared Yu Yan.

"What technique is this?" he instinctively asked.

"Three Thousand Grand Worlds!" Chu Kuangren's cold voice echoed in the underground.

Three Thousand Grand Worlds was the technique he and Lil Ai developed.

One Dao equaled one world, so three thousand Daos equaled three thousand worlds!

The power of Three Thousand Grand Worlds erupted.

"Bang!"

The entire underground space trembled to the point of collapse.

At the same time, the endless black flame was being extinguished.

Having received a powerful hit, Yu Yan's face paled, and he was sent flying away. His fate was also struck by Destiny's Gate.

He was severely injured.

"How powerful!"

Yu Yan glared at Chu Kuangren grimly.

He was not only shocked by the Destiny Dao but also by the Three Thousand Grand Worlds.

How many more ace cards did Chu Kuangren have?

"I still can't kill you, huh?" Chu Kuangren looked at Yu Yan, and his eyes flickered.

Yu Yan was in the Supreme God Grand Dao Realm, which was one realm higher than Jiu Yin.

Even though Chu Kuangren had used two of his ace cards, he could not kill Yu Yan right away.

Must he use the last one?

He still had the manifestation of the Tempest King, which was his strongest offensive technique at the current stage.

He believed the Tempest King's manifestation could easily kill Yu Yan.

While he was considering his options, the underground space started to tremble violently. The restriction seals were starting to break.

"This is bad! It's going down!"

Yu Yan's expression shifted. He looked at the Doomsday Darkness and clenched his teeth.

"I have to take it by force!"

It was dangerous to absorb the Doomsday Darkness without the Ruler Amulet, but he had to take the risk.

He performed the required hand seals and formed a massive vortex with his Darkness energy, attempting to consume the Doomsday Darkness.

However, the Doomsday Darkness shook and transformed into a streak of light.

The light broke free from Yu Yan's vortex and flew toward Chu Kuangren, entering his body.

Yu Yan was stunned by the scene.

Chu Kuangren was similarly stunned. He then looked at Yu Yan and said grimly, "You did all that planning, only to end up with nothing. How sad."

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2094: Doomsday Darkness Clash With Radiant Seed, Radiant Right Sky King Suppressed Two Great Heretics

"How sad."

Chu Kuangren's words infuriated Yu Yan.

Yu Yan had spent a lot of effort searching for the Doomsday Darkness and had everything prepared. Yet, right before he could absorb it and become the next Dark Demonic Ruler, everything went down the drain.

Did the Doomsday Darkness choose Chu Kuangren?

Why?

It made him look like a joke.

"Damn it! Damn it! Chu Kuangren, give me back the Doomsday Darkness!" Yu Yan roared.

Darkness Great Dao rumbled as endless black flames burned Chu Kuangren.

However, the underground space's restriction seals had started to collapse.

Yu Yan's expression shifted. The underground space was used to suppress the Doomsday Darkness, yet it started to collapse due to their fight and the Doomsday Darkness being absorbed.

Once the underground space collapsed, the destruction would be unimaginable. Not even a Grand Dao cultivator could survive it.

"Damn it! I have to escape first!"

Yu Yan glared at Chu Kuangren. He made up his mind to kill Chu Kuangren at all costs once he got out of the collapsing underground space to take back the Ruler Amulet and the Doomsday Darkness.

Even if he had to stand against Hei Xuan, he must do it.

As a matter of fact, he did not care about his relationship with Hei Xuan.

Yu Yan darted out of the underground space.

Chu Kuangren wanted to leave as well, but his chest suddenly hurt, and he started to lose control of the power inside him.

What was happening?

Chu Kuangren released his Immortal Consciousness to check his body.

He realized the Doomsday Darkness that went into his body conflicted with the Radiant Seed.

'What the f*ck?'

Chu Kuangren secretly cursed.

It was the clash between the two items that made him lose control of his power.

The Doomsday Darkness was releasing Darkness energy to attack the Radiant Seed, attempting to expel it from Chu Kuangren's body.

The Radiant Seed refused to exit the body as well.

White light swirled and unleashed Radiant energy to defend against the corrosion from the Darkness energy.

Then, the Darkness Ruler Amulet buzzed and released another stream of Darkness energy. It fused with the energy released by the Doomsday Darkness.

It seemed like the amulet was the reason why the Doomsday Darkness chose him.

As the two similar energies resonated, Chu Kuangren felt like his body became a black hole that could devour all light.

Anyone who saw Chu Kuangren in his current state would be shocked.

Black smoke was coming out from his pores, and the terrifying Darkness energy shook the collapsing space.

He was like a demonic god who had emerged from the darkness, looking terrifying.

Having been attacked by the Darkness energy, the Radiant Seed was infuriated. It trembled and released endless light to counter the attack.

Bright radiance instantly suppressed the Darkness energy in Chu Kuangren's body.

As a result, the Darkness energy in his body shrunk rapidly and returned to the white cube, which then started to release similar Radiant energy.

Chu Kuangren knew the cube contained the Darkness energy from the Doomsday Darkness and the Darkness Ruler Amulet.

The cube itself was actually a form of restriction seal forged by Radiant energy.

Although Chu Kuangren knew, the Radiant Seed did not.

It unleashed surging Radiant energy, so strong that it was at least ten times or a hundred times stronger than the combined Darkness energy.

The energy spread across Chu Kuangren's body, reaching every inch of his muscles and bones.

It seemed to be modifying his body.

Chu Kuangren frowned and told Lil Ai to analyze the situation.

"The Radiant Seed is modifying your body to adapt to the Radiant Dao better. It's a beneficial modification. You don't need to worry..."

Chu Kuangren chuckled bitterly. "It's not the Radiant Seed I'm worried about. It's the collapsing space."

The Radiant Seed's energy was so vast that it enveloped him whole.

More importantly, the energy was controlled by the Radiant Seed itself, not Chu Kuangren. Hence, he was placed in a passive position.

He was pinned on the spot, and it became difficult for him to move.

However, as if the Radiant Seed had read Chu Kuangren's mind, it released a domineering Radiant energy, forming a light cocoon to protect him.

Chu Kuangren breathed a sigh of relief.

On the other hand, Yu Yan had darted out of the underground space, but what he saw shocked him.

The entire Black Flame City was engulfed by the flames of war. Countless were dead, and even Hei Xuan was badly injured, lying under the rubble.

Above him was a woman in silver armor and wavy blonde hair.

Surging energy was gushing out from her body.

Even Yu Yan was scared of it.

"It's her. The Radiant Right Sky King!"

Yu Yan was shocked to see her.

His expression turned bitter. "The church sent her here and seized the opportunity while I was away to absorb the Doomsday Darkness. Damn it..."

Before he could finish his sentence, the ground behind him collapsed.

Terrifying energy surged from the ground and shook the entire city.

The ground collapsed into a massive crater.

Cracks spread across the ground like spider webs and drastically changed the terrain of the city.

With the underground space collapsed, it attracted quite the attention.

"What's going on?"

"This energy is from the underground!"

Everyone was shocked.

Hei Xuan looked at the crater, worried.

Yu Yan also looked at the crater and the rubbles with furrowed brows. "Where is Chu Kuangren? Is he buried alive down there?"

That was unlikely.

Chu Kuangren should not be so weak.

The Radiant Right Sky King, on the other hand, noticed the collapse of the ground and sensed the Darkness energy coming out from the crater.

"Is that where you kept the Doomsday Darkness? That's Yu Yan, one of the Eight Great Heretics!"

Her eyes narrowed as she gathered endless Radiant energy at her hand. It formed a spear, and she lunged it toward Yu Yan.

"She's still as powerful as ever."

Yu Yan reacted with a solemn gaze. He threw a punch forward, unleashing domineering black flames to counter the Radiant spear.

However, he was the one sent flying away by the blast instead.

His chest tightened, blood gushed from his mouth, and his face paled instantly.

"Damn it! I can't take it with the injuries from the battle with Chu Kuangren."

He looked at Hei Xuan and yelled, "Hei Xuan, team up with me, and we'll break free from this together! We must shake her off first!"

He planned to abandon the city.

"What about Chu Kuangren?" Hei Xuan asked.

"It's a long story. Let's just get out of here first!"

Yu Yan then gathered his men for a counterattack.

The Radiant Right Sky King chuckled.

She was beautiful, and so was her smile. However, her smile somehow felt scary.

"Run? How naive."

The Radiant Dao on her erupted and overpowered the entire city. The domineering energy presence sent chills down the spine of every cultivator of the Darkness Tribe.

Hei Xuan and Yu Yan reacted bitterly. They were ready to take the risk to break free from that situation.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2095: The Powerful Right Sky King, Two More Great Heretics Appeared

The Radiant Right Sky King single-handedly suppressed Hei Xuan and Yu Yan, two of the Eight Great Heretics.

Her indomitable strength was admired by all the cultivators from the Radiant Church as they looked at her with reverence and admiration.

On the contrary, Yu Yan and Hei Xuan, plus several other Grand Dao elites from Black Flame City, stared at the Radiant Right Sky King sternly.

"This b*tch is stronger than before," Hei Xuan said with a bitter grin.

He was badly injured and was no match for the Radiant Right Sky King.

"The Radiant Right Sky King may be on the same rank as the Radiant Left Sky King, but she's stronger and the most loyal subordinate of the Radiant Goddess. She's always by the Goddess's side, but here she is now. It seems like the Goddess is still worried about the Doomsday Darkness."

The thought fueled Yu Yan's resentment toward Chu Kuangren even more.

The power that the Radiant Goddess revered the most belonged to him, yet Chu Kuangren snatched it before his eyes. How infuriating!

"How's the Doomsday Darkness?" Hei Xuan asked. He was worried about Chu Kuangren's safety.

"It's a long story. Let's just focus on this first," Yu Yan said.

He had not thought of any excuses to answer Hei Xuan's question.

Besides, he had no idea about Chu Kuangren's life and death.

"The best right-hand man of the Dark Demonic Ruler and the ride, you two will die here together," the Radiant Right Sky King said.

As she stepped forward to them, she revealed a silvery white greatsword.

The sword shot out a silver streak in the air in the shape of a crescent moon. It contained a surging and vast Radiant Great Dao's energy.

Yu Yan and Hei Xuan teamed up to block the attack but were blasted away.

How were they going to stop the Right Sky King when they were both injured?

The other Darkness Tribe's Grand Dao elites attacked with their Darkness energies.

There was Darkness energy that tried to swallow everything like a tidal wave.

There was Darkness energy that could burn the sky with the hottest flame.

There was Darkness energy that transformed into the sharpest weapons that could shred the sky.

However, the Radiant Right Sky King was unfazed by the powerful attacks. On the contrary, the greatsword in her hand shone brighter.

"Radiant Judgment, Silver Light Overflow!"

The Radiant Right Sky King bellowed, and her sword qi transformed into silvery-white light gushing forward, defeating multiple Grand Dao elites.

On top of that, the silvery light broke through the Grand Dao elites' encirclement with indomitable force.

The powerful blast sent them flying away

"Whoosh!"

The Radiant Right Sky King locked onto someone. Then, her figure vanished and appeared before the man. She swung the greatsword in her hand, releasing a white streak across the man, and blood was spilled.

A cloud of blood mist splatted everywhere.

The Grand Dao elite was chopped in half.

The other Grand Dao elites faced the same bleak ending as well.

The rest of the Darkness Tribe cultivators were shocked.

"Damn it! How is she so strong?"

"Based on her strength, she seems to be a Supreme Honorable!"

"Even if she's not, she's close."

The Darkness Tribe cultivators were scared, but the Radiant Right Sky King showed no mercy.

After killing the last Grand Dao elite, she flew to another person.

She wielded the greatsword, and with a strong warcry, the silvery white light left a streak across the sky.

The powerful energy was feared by many.

Another Grand Dao elite was struck. Blood spewed from his mouth, and the Dao in him buzzed so violently that it could explode at any moment.

Before he could recover his Great Dao, the Radiant Right Sky King manifested a light spear and lunged it at him.

"Bang!"

The spear soared through the sky and struck the Grand Dao elite.

A massive explosion erupted, blasting a massive crater on the ground.

After the explosion faded, there was nothing left of the elite.

"Right Sky King is awesome!"

"She's too strong! So powerful!"

"The Goddess trusts her the most!"

The Radiant Church cultivators were thrilled.

Having seen his comrade killed in front of him, one of the Darkness Tribe's Grand Dao elites roared and unleashed the full power of the Great Dao inside him.

It became so strong that it somehow surpassed Yu Yan and Hei Xuan.

The Radiant Right Sky King looked at the man. Her beautiful face was emotionless. "Oh, you reversed the Great Dao in your body? A bold move."

Reversing the Great Dao was a forceful answer to boost one's strength temporarily.

Once the effect faded, the cultivation realm of the cultivator would plummet.

It was a heavy cost to pay for a boost of power.

However, the Darkness Tribe's Grand Dao cultivator was willing to take the risk to challenge the Radiant Right Sky King.

As his Great Dao was reversed, his power surged.

The Darkness Great Dao inside transformed into scorching flames, burning the sky to cinders.

Then, a vicious beast, formed by the flame he summoned, appeared.

The domineering aura pressured some of the Bishops.

Amid the endless darkness, only the Radiant Right Sky King remained standing. She released a burst of light, assuring her people that they were safe under her protection.

"So what if you reversed your Great Dao? The difference between you and me is too big!"

The Radiant Right Sky King's greatsword shone brightly in white.

"Slash!"

The greatsword swung down with a dazzling sword qi shooting out from it.

"Bang!"

The void exploded.

The burst of Radiant energy dispelled the black-flaming vicious beast instantly, and the dark sky lit up again.

The cultivator who reversed his Great Dao was blasted away. His Great Dao was crushed to pieces.

"Damn it!"

Yu Yan cursed. He felt bad for his men.

He had spent countless efforts to raise them into his best men, yet the Radiant Right Sky King killed all of them.

He could not accept it.

He transformed the Darkness Great Dao in him into a massive fireball so strong that it felt like it could burn away all the light in existence.

It was hurled at the Radiant Right Sky King.

Yu Yan had used his strongest attack.

Due to that, the Radiant Right Sky King was forced to face the fireball seriously.

"Radiant Judgment, Sinbreaker!"

She raised the greatsword into the sky, and Holy Radiant energy erupted from her.

As she swung the greatsword forward, an endless sword ray gushed forward as if it was trying to cleanse the sins of the world.

The slash cut the fireball in half.

Both Yu Yan and Hei Xuan were blasted away.

"Die!"

The Radiant Right Sky King's aura continued to surge instead of drop.

However, right before she could deliver the final blow to the heretics, two streams of Darkness energies came from the horizon and flanked her from right and left.

"Oh? Two more heretics?"

The Radiant Right Sky King raised a brow in surprise.

She swung the sword in the other direction to block the two attacks, but the blast pushed her more than a dozen kilometers away.

Those two streams of Darkness energies were uncommon.

"Hei Xuan, Yu Yan, leave!"

A cold voice echoed from the sky.

With that, the two of them flew away without further ado.

The Radiant Right Sky King did not pursue them as she knew the heretics that appeared were powerful.

She had just been through a battle with Yu Yan and Hei Xuan. If the other two heretics wanted to stop her, she might not be able to kill Yu Yan and Hei Xuan.

More importantly, she had other concerns right now.

"Radiant Right Sky King, we will see you soon," said the voice in the sky.

Then, the two Darkness auras disappeared.

"There are more and more heretics appearing in the world. One day, I will kill all of you with my sword!"
The Radiant Right Sky King grunted coldly.

Chapter 2096: The Radiant Seed, The Embodiment of Radiance, The Radiant Goddess

"Right Sky King, could those two heretics be..." Bishop Liu Hu of the Radiant Church went up and asked curiously.

The Radiant Right Sky King nodded. "You're right. They are two of the Eight Great Heretics, Ghost Shadow and Black Skull."

Ghost Shadow and Black Skull were listed among the Eight Great Heretics. Similar to Yu Yan and Hei Xuan, they were the best subordinates of the Dark Demonic Ruler.

"The Eight Great Heretics seem to be popping up one after another. Is the holy war between light and darkness about to break out?" Liu Hu asked anxiously.

"The light shall guide us to victory."

The Radiant Right Sky King held her silvery greatsword to her chest and said solemnly.

Liu Hu also uttered in a serious tone, "My duty is to forever follow the light, for everything we do is justice!"

"Very well."

The Radiant Right Sky King nodded and looked at the huge pit formed from an underground space nearby. "Let's search for the Doomsday Darkness."

Everyone worked together.

A group of them continued hunting down the remnant forces of the Darkness Tribe, while another group started their search for the Doomsday Darkness inside the pit.

The Doomsday Darkness was an inexplicably evil and ominous power of Darkness.

Everyone present was a Radiant Church cultivator, so they were perceptive to anything dark.

Logically speaking, there was no way such an extreme darkness could hide itself before their presence. However, after searching for a long time, they could not find anything resembling the Doomsday Darkness.

"Could it be that our intel was wrong? Was the Doomsday Darkness never in the Black Flame City?"

The Radiant Right Sky King frowned.

Suddenly, someone exclaimed in shock, "Honorable Right Sky King, look over there. What is that?"

They had dug out a huge white cube of light from inside the pit.

The Radiant aura exuded by the white cube was so intense that even the Bishop, someone who researched Radiant Dao, could not help but marvel at it.

"What intense Radiant energy. What is this white cube here?"

"I'm not sure. However, I sense signs of life inside it. Could it be carrying something?"

"Such majestic and pure Radiant energy! What kind of being has been growing inside that thing? Could it be the Child of Light mentioned in the Divine Scriptures?" someone said piously.

The Child of Light was a long-standing legend passed down from generations in the Radiant Church.

Back when darkness used to loom over and devour everything in the realm, a being conceived from the light would appear and turn the tide, saving the Infiniverse from darkness.

That being was known as the Child of Light.

However, that legend was as ancient as the Doomsday Darkness. Hence, no one knew whether it was true or false.

Yet, if the Doomsday Darkness truly existed, the Child of Light's existence should be true too.

The Radiant Right Sky King looked at the white cube and pondered. "Keep watch on this thing. I plan to bring it back to the church and personally hand it to the Goddess."

"Very well."

After more searching, there was no sign of the Doomsday Darkness.

Despite her frustration, the Radiant Right Sky King had no choice but to give up. She brought that unknown white cube back to the Holy Radiant Church.

...

Inside a magnificent silvery-white holy church amidst the stars, the holy Radiant Goddess, who had long golden hair and was donned in long white robes, was looking at the white cube with a curious gaze.

"I have never seen such dense and pure Radiant energy. The living being growing inside will surely be extraordinary," the Radiant Goddess mumbled.

She then asked about the Doomsday Darkness, to which the Radiant Right Sky King reported everything that happened truthfully.

The Radiant Goddess could not but look worried. "The power of the Doomsday Darkness is an extremely evil one. If left uncovered, it will surely stir up chaos and trouble throughout the land. If used by someone who sought power, a second Dark Demonic Ruler might even appear."

"I've ordered my men to continue searching for the whereabouts of this object with maximum effort," the Radiant Right Sky King said.

"Good. Knowing that you're handling this relieves me."

The Radiant Goddess looked at the white cube and said, "Pay close attention to this thing and let me know of any changes that happen to it."

As time passed, several years went by.

On that very day, the white cube trembled as if something was about to hatch from it.

The women taking care of it were surprised by the sudden occurrence. One of them quickly said, "Quick, inform the Goddess about this now."

The rest of them remained and continued watching the white cube curiously.

Just then, a dazzling divine light erupted from that white cube. Following that, the strands of Radiant energy forming the cube's structure began shrinking inward.

It eventually formed the figure of a human.

When the white light dispersed and everyone could finally see the person, they were shocked.

The person standing before them had skin as smooth as jade and long silvery-white hair flowing down his shoulders elegantly.

Every strand of his hair and every inch of his skin seemed to be made from the essence of the world. The faint Immortal Sparks around him also made him look mystical and otherworldly.

Most importantly, the Radiant aura exuding from his body was pure and holy.

It was as if the person before them was the embodiment of light itself.

As the Radiant Goddess's servants, those women cultivated the Radiant Dao, so they naturally felt attracted to him.

It was as if the male counterpart of the Radiant Goddess was standing before them.

The moment Chu Kuangren opened his eyes, a divine light flashed across his light golden pupils. When he looked at his surroundings, he was slightly surprised.

However, he did not panic. Instead, he asked Lil Ai what was going on.

"Master, we're now in the Holy Radiant Church. While the Radiant Seed was modifying your body, you were..."

Lil Ai then told him what had happened.

"What's my situation now?" Chu Kuangren asked.

"Master, your body has now been modified into the most suitable form for Radiant Dao. However, your previous form has not disappeared..."

While conversing with Lil Ai, he was also familiarizing himself with the newfound power in his body.

He could sense that every single cell inside his body was brimming with Radiant energy. His affinity and comprehension of the Radiant Dao also skyrocketed, immediately reaching the Great Dao level. His current state was worlds apart compared to his previous one.

It was no different than forcefully breaking through to the Grand Dao Realm from the Embodier Realm, skipping the Primordial Realm along the way.

However, he sensed that his previous cultivation base was still there. It was the form where he had integrated three thousand types of Dao and had yet to ascend to the Primordial Realm.

Since his current state was endowed by the Radiant Seed, he believed he could also switch back to his original cultivation base and continue from where he left off.

"Tsk tsk, the power of this Radiant Seed is simply amazing."

While Chu Kuangren was amazed by the transformation, he sensed two powerful auras approaching from the distance.

They were also extremely powerful. One of them even had a power level that exceeded anyone he had met before.

Two figures soon appeared in his view.

It was two blonde-haired women.

One of them looked indifferent and was clad in silvery-white armor. She had a tall and imposing figure and exuded a cold, unapproachable aura.

The other possessed a gorgeous appearance and smooth skin. She also exuded a faint majestic aura and was illuminating a divine radiance.

'This divine radiance...'

Chu Kuangren could confirm the identity of the person standing before him now.

"Your guess is correct, Master. This person is the Radiant Goddess, one of the beings at the pinnacle of power in the Infiniverse, a Monarch-realm Transcendentalist!"

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2097

Chu Kuangren was not surprised by the Radiant Goddess's arrival.

After all, he had learned of his current situation from Lil Ai, and it was normal to encounter the Radiant Goddess inside the Holy Radiant Church.

Now, he was busy coming up with countermeasures in his mind.

If the Radiant Goddess wanted to deal with him, he had no choice but to leave.

'I wonder if I can contact the Divine Destiny Temple and leave this place.'

If he could not do that, he could only use the Tempest King's willpower manifestation to do so.

However, he did not know how long it could last.

'This willpower manifestation can kill everything below the Monarch Realm, so what about... a Monarch Realm cultivator?'

"Are you... the heretic?"

The Radiant Goddess looked at Chu Kuangren in front of her and suddenly asked.

Chu Kuangren was shocked that she knew about him being the heretic that had been going against the Radiant Church.

'Oh, right.'

He had the Darkness Ruler Amulet with him, so it was no surprise that she knew who he was.

'This is good. I was just thinking about how to conceal my identity, but it looks like I don't need to worry about that anymore.'

"What? The heretic!"

"How can he be the heretic? There's such a powerful Radiant aura coming from his body."

"That's right..."

The female servants beside them started to debate.

However, the Radiant Right Sky King did not hesitate. She immediately stepped forward with an ice-cold look on her face.

There was without a doubt that she would become the most terrifying killer weapon with just an order from the Radiant Goddess.

"There's no need to worry, Ming Fei."

The Radiant Goddess patted the Radiant Right Sky King's shoulder and looked at Chu Kuangren with immense curiosity.

He was clearly a heretic who went against the Radiant Church, yet he suddenly possessed such a dense Radiant aura as if he was the embodiment of light.

It made her interested in the secrets behind that drastic change.

"Sit," the Radiant Goddess said while pointing to a stone stool nearby.

Chu Kuangren pondered for a while before he sat down. Then, he said calmly, "So, Honorable Goddess, what are you planning to do with me now?"

"You can start by telling me where my foolish younger brother is and how you met him."

'Foolish younger brother?'

Chu Kuangren froze for a moment. When he realized who it was she was referring to, he was stunned.

'The Dark Demonic Ruler is the Radiant Goddess's younger brother?'

'Now, this is a shocking piece of news!'

"I met the Demonic Ruler purely out of coincidence, so I'm not sure where he is at the moment," Chu Kuangren lied.

"In that case, why has he given you his Ruler Amulet?"

"He wants me to find him some recovery items."

As for that, Chu Kuangren did not attempt to hide it.

'Lies should contain a mix of truth and falsehood to make it difficult for people to distinguish what's true.'

"As I thought, he still hasn't fully recovered." The Radiant Goddess seemed to have expected it. As the one responsible for his injuries, she would surely be the one to understand his condition the most.

"Where do you get your Radiant aura from?"

"This is a power that has been hidden inside my body. It only revealed itself recently."

"Why are you opposing the Radiant Church?"

"What else can I do?" Chu Kuangren shrugged his shoulders and said with an innocent expression, "You guys have been trying to kill me from the very start. Did you think I was going to stand there and let you do whatever you want?"

The Radiant Goddess pondered for a while and thought his actions were reasonable.

She then channeled a ray of white light at her fingertip and instantly shot it into Chu Kuangren's body, inspecting him thoroughly.

It might be hard to tell at first glance, but upon close inspection, she was shocked.

Every inch of his flesh, every strand of his hair, and every cell inside his body was brimming with a dense Radiant aura!

Even the Radiant Goddess did not possess such a body.

'It's as if he's the embodiment of light.'

'No, there's no as if.'

'He is the living embodiment of light!'

The Radiant Goddess was astonished.

Immediately afterward, she looked at Chu Kuangren with a fiery gaze. It was as if she was looking at a priceless treasure.

Chu Kuangren could not help but shiver under her gaze. The Radiant Goddess did not seem to want to kill him. However, that gaze of hers...

He shuddered.

"Lil Ai, the Radiant Goddess is not lusting after my body, right?"

"No, no. I'm a man with a family, for heaven's sake. I must not give in. Although the Radiant Goddess is powerful, I'll summon the Tempest King's willpower thought form and fight for my life."

Lil Ai felt speechless when she heard Chu Kuangren venting his concerns. "Master, please compose yourself."

"Your body... It's exceptional."

The Radiant Goddess looked at Chu Kuangren and said with uncontrollable excitement.

Startled, Chu Kuangren quickly said to Lil Ai, "Look, Lil Ai, what I said is true! This Goddess is really after my body!"

"Analyzing the current situation, planning optimal retreat strategy..."

"Strategy one obtained, simulating... Strategy one unsuccessful."

"Strategy two obtained, simulating... Strategy two unsuccessful."

"Strategy thirty-three obtained, simulating..."

Within an instant, Lil Ai had simulated dozens of retreat strategies.

The female servants, too, were shocked to hear what the Radiant Goddess said.

'Has her Holiness... regained the passions and vitality of her youth?'

Even the Radiant Right Sky King's gaze toward Chu Kuangren slowly turned cold.

However, the Radiant Goddess was calm. She was not the least conscious about what she said. "Your body is filled with endless Radiant energy. This energy is extremely powerful, and if its potential is fully unleashed, you can surely reach the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm within a hundred thousand years!"

The Grand Dao Realm was categorized into the Life Mastery, Supreme Spirit, Supreme God, Supreme Saint, and Supreme Honorable stages.

Cultivators in the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm were second only to the Monarch Realm cultivators, and achieving such a level was hard.

It was not achievable with time and effort alone.

Too many factors had to be considered, such as Opportunities of Fortune, level of understanding, talents, and more. Not one of those factors could be missing.

Becoming a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm in a hundred thousand years?

If word about that spread, people would think she was crazy.

However, those words were spoken by none other than the Radiant Goddess. All everyone could do was look at Chu Kuangren in shock and admiration.

"I can't believe he has such potential!"

"Becoming a Grand Dao Supreme Honorable cultivator in a hundred thousand years? This person is more talented than the Radiant Right Sky King."

"That's right. This is just inconceivable."

The Radiant Right Sky King frowned as she looked at Chu Kuangren. However, she remained silent.

Chu Kuangren shot her a glance. 'She seems to bear some hostility towards me.'

However, it was not too strong.

"Oh, you're too kind, Honorable Goddess. If there's nothing else, I'll take my leave."

Chu Kuangren smiled, stood up, and was about to leave.

However, he discovered that a Radiant Enchanted Barrier had been cast around him.

With his current level of strength, it would take him a lot of time to break through that enchanted barrier.

"A person of your talent and caliber should remain in the Holy Radiant Temple. I can personally teach you how to wield the Radiant power contained inside your body," the Radiant Goddess said.

'Personally teach me?'

As soon as he heard those words, even Chu Kuangren found the treatment too good to be true.

The Radiant Goddess was not just anyone.

She was a Monarch-class Transcendentalist and one of the most powerful beings in the Infiniverse. If she wanted to have a disciple, the line of hopeful individuals would stretch as far as most of the entire universe.

Chu Kuangren could not help but ponder.

The Radiant energy inside his body was extremely powerful, but wielding it was still a problem for him.

It was similar to his vitality qi back then.

His vitality qi was extremely powerful, but it became stronger after he obtained the Vitality Qi Divine Celestial.

The same thing could be said for his Radiant energy.

Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws

Chapter 2098: The Legend of the Child of Light and the Doomsday Darkness, It's You, the Heretic!

"I'm the strongest being who has mastered Radiant Dao and a Monarch Class Transcendentalist. As I mentioned earlier, you have the potential to reach the Grand Dao Supreme Honorable Realm within a hundred thousand years. However, that's if you can fully harness the Radiant energy within you. To achieve this, you will require proper guidance.

"As for this, I am the most suitable candidate you can find.

"Besides receiving my guidance, you can make use of the Holy Radiant Church's resources too."

Seeing Chu Kuangren's pondering look, the Radiant Goddess raised her offer.

Even the Radiant Right Sky King was a little shocked by that.

She opened her mouth, wanting to speak. However, she eventually chose to put her faith in the Goddess's judgment.

"For you to offer such favorable conditions, what is your goal?"

Chu Kuangren stared intently at the Radiant Goddess.

"My goal is to watch you improve and grow stronger," the Radiant Goddess said.

'I knew it. She really is after my body.'

Chu Kuangren pouted to himself. He believed in acts of kindness that did not require anything in return.

However, he did not believe it would happen between him and the Radiant Goddess.

After all, not long ago, he was busy fighting against the forces of the Radiant Church that she established.

"If you don't make those conditions clear, I'm afraid I won't be able to stay here in this holy church peacefully."

"Alright. Have you heard of something called... the Doomsday Darkness?"

Chu Kuangren's eyes flashed. He gently nodded. "I have."

How could he not know of it?

After all, a portion of the Doomsday Darkness's power was present inside his body. However, why could the Radiant Goddess not detect its presence?

"I've helped you to conceal it from her." Lil Ai answered.

Chu Kuangren silently gave Lil Ai a big thumbs up. 'Well done, girl.'

His instincts told him it would be better if the Radiant Goddess did not discover the Doomsday Darkness inside his body.

"The Doomsday Darkness truly does exist. If it appears, light will be consumed from the world, plunging it into a doomsday apocalypse. According to the Radiant Tribe's prophecy, the only thing that can go against the Doomsday Darkness is... the Child of Light!"

'The Radiant Tribe?'

Chu Kuangren took note and remembered that name. Then, he asked, "Where's proof of this?"

"The Radiant energy inside your body is unimaginably pure and dense. It's as if you are the light itself. This is already proof."

Chu Kuangren finally understood the situation.

The Radiant Goddess wanted to nurture him as the so-called Child of Light so that he could fend off the Doomsday Darkness in the future.

"Interesting. What about my past hostilities with the church? Does it not bother you?"

"The light will forever be willing to accept a child who wandered astray."

For the Radiant Goddess, defeating the Doomsday Darkness was her greatest calling.

As for the Child of Light, he was the key to defeating the Doomsday Darkness.

Compared to that great calling, whatever Chu Kuangren did in the past could all be overlooked.

"Since you have sincerely offered me so, Honorable Goddess, I shall stay for a few days," Chu Kuangren said.

He might as well take advantage of the Holy Radiant Church's power to further master the Radiant energy inside his body.

"You will not regret this decision."

The Radiant Goddess stood up and left. Before that, she said to the servants, "Take care of the Child of Light."

...

"Do you have any doubts, Ming Fei?"

After the Radiant Goddess left, she noticed the odd look on the Radiant Right Sky King, Ming Fei's face.

Ming Fei nodded. "Yes, Goddess. Even if Chu Kuangren is the Child of Light, his actions before clearly show that he's a heretic. How can you be so sure that he'll help you defeat the Doomsday Darkness when he becomes stronger in the future?"

"The Child of Light will forever be against the Doomsday Darkness. At the end of the day, only one will be left standing. That's all you need to know."

The Radiant Goddess has made her words very clear.

She did not care whether Chu Kuangren was a heretic, a good person, or a bad one.

She only cared about one thing, and that was whether Chu Kuangren would be strong enough when the time came for him to face off against the Doomsday Darkness and whether he could prevent that great catastrophe!

"Understood." Ming Fei nodded.

...

The Holy Radiant Church was a huge location that existed somewhere in space in the Great Hongmeng Universe.

The place where Chu Kuangren resided was known as Yalan Palace.

Here, he gradually became familiar with the Radiant energy inside his body. That energy was so powerful that it allowed him to master the Radiant Great Dao, making him a Grand Dao Realm cultivator.

The first stage of the Grand Dao Realm was Life Mastery.

At that stage, he had gained control over his destiny, transcending the control of his home universe's Great Dao.

Having been a being that exceeded the bounds of his universe's Great Dao, Chu Kuangren did not obtain much from that.

After the Radiant Goddess left, the Radiant Right Sky King, Ming Fei, brought over a bunch of cultivation scriptures about Radiant Dao.

With Lil Ai's analysis and his high level of cognizance, Chu Kuangren eventually mastered all the Radiant Dao cultivation techniques. His speed of learning was unfathomable.

On that very day, Chu Kuangren was practicing his cultivation in an open space somewhere in the Holy Radiant Church.

He raised his hand, channeling large amounts of Radiant Great Dao energy into a white spear and launching it into space.

With just one attack, a huge explosion erupted in space.

His Radiant Dao power immediately shattered dozens of planets, and that was not even ten percent of Chu Kuangren's full strength.

Immediately after that, he began practicing another Radiant Dao cultivation technique.

His Radiant Great Dao energy surged, causing dozens of light beams to rise into the sky, eventually forming a great light prison.

Both the Radiant Goddess and Ming Fei were watching him from afar.

"He is more talented than I imagined," the Radiant Goddess said with a hint of nostalgia. "He's even more impressive than Ming Dao back in the day."

Ming Fei stood behind her, not uttering a single word.

Ming Dao was a forbidden name in the Radiant Tribe because it was the Dark Demonic Ruler's true name!

The Dark Demonic Ruler was once a genius of the Radiant Tribe. He possessed incredible talents and abilities, which only the Radiant Goddess herself was comparable to.

However, he became too addicted to researching the Doomsday Darkness.

Eventually, the Doomsday Darkness infected him, causing him to renounce the light and embrace the darkness. That was how he became the Dark Demonic Ruler everyone knew today!

He even established the Darkness Tribe, which had been against the Radiant Tribe and the Radiant Church!

In her rage, the Radiant Goddess removed every record of the Dark Demonic Ruler from the Radiant Tribe's scriptures. She, too, had been at war with him for countless years.

"Your Holiness, the Radiant Left Sky King seeks an audience with you."

One of the servants came in and said, "Let him in."

"Speak. What's the matter?"

"Your Holiness, this is the intel the church obtained. It states that the Radiant Church, along with the Heavenly Formation Palace, Apocalypse Martial Society, and other forces, have discovered a Hongmeng Spirit World. However, the church has suffered great losses from the war with the Darkness Tribe. They wish to consult your Holiness on whether we should deploy Grand Dao elites to excavate the Spirit World."

"The Hongmeng Spirit World, huh? This can be a great opportunity to sharpen one's fangs."

Radiant Goddess looked toward Chu Kuangren nearby.

Feeling her gaze on him, Chu Kuangren stopped his cultivation and walked toward the crowd.

The Radiant Left Sky King was curious as to who the unfamiliar person in the holy church was.

At the sight of that person's face, his eyes widened in shock. "It's you, the heretic!"

**Unparalleled After Ten Consecutive Draws**

Chapter 2099: I Only Represent Myself, But I Can Make An Exception This Time

"It's you, the heretic!"

Radiant Left Sky King's eyes widened in shock when he saw Chu Kuangren.

Although his hair color and his aura had changed, the Radiant Left Sky King remembered that face well.

After all, Chu Kuangren did destroy his projection clone outside the Tempest Palace with a single slash.

How could he have forgotten it?

Moreover, he had been looking for a chance to rid himself of that humiliation.

When the Radiant Right Sky King was sent to attack the Black Flame City, he wanted the Radiant Goddess to send him there instead of her.

It was because he knew that Chu Kuangren was most likely going to be at Black Flame City.

However, the Radiant Goddess sent her more trusted Radiant Right Sky King there in the end.

He originally thought Chu Kuangren would die at the Right Sky King's hand.

However, he had no idea what was going on.

'Why is he in the Holy Radiant Church?'

"Well, who do we have here? It's the Radiant Left Sky King, I see."

Chu Kuangren looked at the Radiant Left Sky King with a sarcastic expression.

The Radiant Left Sky King was instantly angered. His Radiant Great Dao immediately surged. "How dare you, heretic! Do you think you can step foot into the holy church as you please?"

"Stand down!"

The Radiant Goddess bellowed sternly and looked at the Radiant Left Sky King with a cold gaze.

Radiant Left Sky King felt a chill run down his spine.

He had rarely seen the Goddess enraged like that. Previously, the Goddess would always reveal her anger only when dealing with the Dark Demonic Ruler.

That was the first time she had shown her rage toward her subordinates.

However, that was also the first time the Radiant Left Sky King had experienced the might of a Monarch Class Transcendentalist. From just that instant, he knelt involuntarily, shuddering.

"Please calm down, your Holiness. I merely wish to get rid of the heretic."

"How insolent! He's not a heretic but my church's Child of Light!"

"The Child of Light?"

The Radiant Left Sky King quickly raised his head and looked at Chu Kuangren with disbelief. "This... How is this possible? He's clearly a heretic."

"Open your eyes and see whether he's a heretic or not!" Ming Fei uttered indifferently.

The Radiant Left Sky King immediately observed Chu Kuangren's body.

An incredibly pure and powerful Radiant qi seemed to be emanating all over his body. That Radiant qi was even on par with the Radiant Goddess herself.

It was as if he embodied the light itself.

No one who saw him would think of the darkness or relate him to a heretic.

"Is he not Chu Kuangren?"

The Radiant Left Sky King started to suspect that he had made a mistake.

"He is indeed Chu Kuangren, the person who was once an enemy of the church. However, I have appointed him as the Child of Light," the Radiant Goddess said calmly.

"Your Holiness, allow me to explain the details to him," Ming Fei said with a bow.

"Very well. Now, follow me, Chu Kuangren."

Chu Kuangren stood up and left with the Radiant Goddess.

While they were strolling around the Holy Radiant Church, Chu Kuangren said, "I'm afraid many in the church will be hostile to me like the Radiant Left Sky King."

"It doesn't matter. With me around, no one can lay a finger on you."

"Heh, such mighty protection frightens even me, Honorable Goddess."

Chu Kuangren rubbed his nose.

Ever since he arrived at the Great Hongmeng Universe, he had been living off someone.

First, it was his disciple, the Tempest King, and now, the Radiant Goddess.

"The church and other forces have discovered a Spirit World. Seeing that many Prodigies and Outliers will be there, I'm sure this will be a great chance for you to gain experience. You have my permission to go check it out," the Radiant Goddess said.

"Is that so? How exciting."

Although that was what Chu Kuangren said, he wore a look of indifference on his face.

He had never underestimated the people in this world.

However, he had never underestimated himself too.

Prodigies?

Who would dare call themselves a Prodigy before him?

Unless they were Outliers on the same level as the Tempest King, he would never pay attention to them or take them seriously.

"You possess extraordinary talents. However, the Prodigies of the Infiniverse are not weak either. It'll be good for you to go there. It will broaden your horizons."

"Very well."

"Another thing. As the Child of Light, I want you to represent the Radiant Church and represent me to participate in the excavation of this Spirit World!"

The Radiant Goddess looked at Chu Kuangren with a burning gaze.

Chu Kuangren's eyes flickered in realization. He knew she wanted him to state his allegiance on whether he would join the Radiant Church.

"I have always only represented myself... However, I shall make an exception for you this time."

The Radiant Goddess was originally a little disappointed to hear the first half of Chu Kuangren's answer. However, her eyes lit up with delight when she heard the other half.

Although he did not make his allegiance clear, the fact that he could make an exception was already a step in the right direction for her.

She was not in a hurry. After all, it would take time to gain Chu Kuangren's loyalty, which could not be done overnight.

To think that a Monarch Class Transcendentalist was trying so hard to win over a young cultivator.

The Radiant Goddess could not help but lament.

She was only doing so because he was the Child of Light, the only being in legends that could face off against the Doomsday Darkness.

"I shall look forward to your performance in the Spirit World."

"In that case, I shall take my leave."

With that, Chu Kuangren left.

Since he had stayed in the Holy Radiant Church and made use of the Radiant Goddess's resources, he would not mind doing something for her in return.

'The path to not being a freeloader always starts from oneself, after all.'

...

The Radiant Church and the Holy Radiant Church were based in different locations.

The holy church was located in space.

Meanwhile, the Radiant Church was located on one of the Great Hongmeng Continents.

Besides the very few individuals who obtained the Radiant Goddess's permission, even the Radiant Church's leaders were not allowed to enter the holy church.

Inside the church, the Radiant Left Sky King had returned from the holy church.

He was still a little dumbfounded.

'Chu Kuangren is the Child of Light?' That fact alone shattered his worldview.

He could not bring himself to accept the fact that a heretic, who had teamed up with the Dark Evil Dragon, was now the Child of Light.

However, since Chu Kuangren was hand-picked by the Radiant Goddess, he could not defy her will.

The Radiant Church Leader came to him and said, "Honorable Radiant Left Sky King, does the Holy Goddess have anything to say about the appearance of the Hongmeng Spirit World this time?"

"Her Holiness said that the Child of Light will soon arrive here. When that time comes, he shall lead the elites of the church toward the Spirit World."

"The Child of Light?"

The Radiant Church Leader was shocked. After all, he knew about the legend too.

However, he did not expect the Child of Light to appear this time the Great Hongmeng Universe opened.

"I understand."

The Radiant Church Leader's expression was serious.

According to ancient legend, the Child of Light was the only one who could fend off the Doomsday Darkness. His position was on par or, if not, almost as high as the Radiant Goddess.

Seeing that such a being was coming to the church soon, he had to act cautiously.

It did not take long for the church to prepare to greet the arrival of the Child of Light with great fanfare.

"I wonder what the Child of Light looks like. How exciting indeed."

"In all my years here, I have never heard of the Child of Light before. How did he appear out of nowhere?"

"Perhaps he has been cultivating in the holy church all this time."

"That's possible too."

Many Bachelor and Maiden Saints had gathered to discuss the Child of Light.

However, one of them did not seem in the mood for it.

His name was Bachelor Saint Lang, and he was an extremely talented cultivator, even among the Bachelor Saints. He was already in the Primordial Mystic Five Realm, almost on par with most Grand Priests and the Church Leader.

"Bachelor Saint Lang, are you still thinking about Bachelor Saint Tao?"

A Maiden Saint noticed Bachelor Saint Lang's somber mood and could not help but ask.

"Sigh. It's time you let it go, Bachelor Saing Lang."

"Let it go? How do you expect me to let this go? My younger brother died at the hands of a heretic. I won't stop until I take revenge for his death!" Bachelor Saing Lang said.

The Bachelor Saint Tao he mentioned was none other than the one who went to the Tempest Palace to fight for the inheritance but was killed by Chu Kuangren in the end.

That matter had weighed heavily on his mind ever since.

"We must look ahead."

"That's right. After all, that heretic has obtained the Tempest King's inheritance. He won't be defeated that easily I'm afraid."

"Exactly. Besides, the Hongmeng Spirit World that recently appeared must be filled with many Opportunities of Fortune. Perhaps that heretic might show himself there too."

While everyone discussed, Bachelor Saint Lang's eyes lit up. "That's right. He will surely be there. When that time comes, I must take revenge for my brother's death!"

"Bachelor Saint Lang, I heard that the heretic is extremely powerful and can even rival a Grand Dao cultivator. With your abilities, I'm afraid you're not strong enough."

"I don't care. No matter what, I will never let this matter slide!"

"I heard that the Child of Light will soon arrive at the church and lead us to explore the Spirit World. Perhaps you can get him to hand out justice for you!"

One of the Bachelor Saints came up with an idea.

Bachelor Saint Lang was a little moved. "The Child of Light represents the will of her Holiness. His abilities will certainly be far beyond ours. Even if the heretic has three heads and six arms or any overpowered techniques, as long as he's facing the Child of Light, there's no way he'll survive!"

Upon recalling the legend surrounding the Child of Light, Bachelor Saint Lang thought about it more and realized it could work out.

"In that case, it's decided."

...

Inside the Holy Radiant Church, Chu Kuangren was sitting with his legs crossed. He opened the Fantasy Roulette for his daily gacha roll.

"Congratulation, Host! You have obtained a Transcendent-tier reward, the Bodhi Samadhi!"

'The Bodhi Samadhi?'

Chu Kuangren was surprised.

The moment he accepted the reward, there was a look of surprise in his eyes.

The Bodhi Samadhi was a Great Dao-level cultivation technique on par with the Vitality Qi Divine Celestial.

Besides, that cultivation technique possessed a unique effect.

It could cleanse away the user's greed, hatred, and delusion[1], allowing their minds to be at peace.

"This effect... It's too peculiar."

"Bodhi? Samadhi? It seems to be a Buddhist cultivation technique," Chu Kuangren mumbled.

However, seeing that it was a Great Dao-level technique, Chu Kuangren went and learned it.

Soon, Ming Fei came to Chu Kuangren and said, "It's time."

"Got it."

Chu Kuangren nodded

After leaving Yalan Palace, Chu Kuangren came to a teleportation formation in the holy church and was instantly transported to the Radiant Church.

As Ming Fei watched Chu Kuangren disappear through the teleportation formation, she asked the Radiant Goddess. "Your Holiness, do you think those in the Radiant Church will accept him?"

"I have informed the Radiant Left Sky King about this."

"Even so, I'm afraid they'll be people who won't accept him in the Radiant Church."

"Well, it'll be up to him then. As the one who shall face the Doomsday Darkness, something as trivial as this should not be a problem for him," the Radiant Goddess said calmly.

...

At the Church, many of the church cultivators were led to gather at the plaza by the Radiant Church Leader's orders. Every single one of them had a devout look on their faces.

They were all waiting for the Child of Light's arrival.

The Radiant Left Sky King, however, was watching the scene uncomfortably from the side.

At that moment, a powerful energy fluctuation suddenly appeared and spread from the sky.

A white pillar of light descended from the sky, landing in the center of the plaza. It emanated an incredibly vast and dense Radiant aura.

The aura shocked the crowd.

It was too pure.

The Radiant aura was simply too pure.

It made them feel as though they were in the presence of the Radiant Goddess.

"Has her Holiness personally descended upon us?"

"No, her Holiness's aura is far more powerful than this. However, the purity of this aura... It's almost comparable to the Goddess."

"No wonder they call him the Child of Light."

The church congregants lowered their heads piously and knelt on the ground.

All the Bachelor Saints, Maiden Saints, Priests, Bishops, and the Church Leader did the same.

To them, the Child of Light was no less significant than the Radiant Goddess.

"We welcome thee, Child of Light!"

"We welcome thee, Child of Light!"

The pillar of light connected the skies and earth.

As the pillar of light gradually dissipated, a figure slowly walked out of it. That figure, now standing before everyone, was dressed in white robes. With his jade-like appearance and his silver-white hair dancing in the air, he looked pure and flawless.

The aura emanating from his body was vast and filled with endless radiance.

It was as if every wrongdoing and crime would be laid bare, with nowhere to hide before that man!

"Stand up, everyone."

Chu Kuangren looked at the Radiant Church congregants kneeling before him and could not help but sigh.

He could not believe that a heretic like him was now being worshiped by so many Radiant Church cultivators. If word of it spread, no one would believe it.

The Radiant Church Leader and others slowly raised their heads.

Everyone wanted to lay their eyes on the glory of the Child of Light's appearance.

The moment their eyes landed on him, they were mesmerized.

The appearance and demeanor of the person standing before them embodied the word "radiance" to its fullest extent.

However, Bishop Liu Hu, the Radiant Church Leader, and other top brass members looked at Chu Kuangren. The longer they looked at him, the more they found him familiar. It was as if they had seen that face somewhere before.

"Honorable Child of Light, I beseech you to hand out justice for me!"

Suddenly, Bachelor Saint Lang rushed out, knelt before Chu Kuangren, and said loudly, "My younger brother has been killed by a heretic. He was a Bachelor Saint of the Radiant Church, a future pillar of support for the church! Please, you must kill this heretic who has besmirched the light for the good of everyone!"

Chu Kuangren looked at the man kneeling before him and asked, "Who is the heretic you're talking about?"

"His name is Chu Kuangren."

Chu Kuangren froze.

'What?'

'Is he asking me to annihilate myself?'

"Have you seen this person before?"

"No. However, I'll remember this person's appearance forever. I have a drawing of him."

As Bachelor Saint Lang shook his head, he took out a portrait scroll and opened it.

Inside the portrait scroll was the drawing of a person in white robes.

When the crowd saw the portrait, they were dumbfounded.

"This person looks... a little familiar."

"Wait a minute, this person looks a little like the Child of Light," someone said with uncertainty.

Everyone soon noticed that too. Their gazes moved between Chu Kuangren and the man in the portrait. Suddenly, the whole plaza fell silent.

Even Bachelor Saint Lang froze as he looked at Chu Kuangren before him, confused.

Was he kneeling before his younger brother's killer all along?

The Radiant Church Leader, Bishop Liu Hu, and others were dumbstruck. 'The Child of Light turns out to be the heretic who's been opposing the Radiant Church!'

'How... How is this possible?'

"You... Who the hell are you?"

Bachelor Saint Lang looked at Chu Kuangren and asked with disbelief.

Chu Kuangren merely stared at him indifferently. "Who do you think I am?"

The Radiant Church Leader and others also looked at Chu Kuangren with grim expressions. They then looked at the Radiant Left Sky King, hoping he would give them an explanation.

"Chu Kuangren is the person the Radiant Goddess handpicked to be the Child of Light! This fact is unquestionable!"

Although the Radiant Left Sky King did not wish to speak for Chu Kuangren, it was the Radiant Goddess's orders. He had no choice but to comply.

"The Child of Light was deceived by the Darkness Tribe, but he returned to his rightful path after meeting the Radiant Goddess..."

The Radiant Left Sky King explained a lot.

As per the Radiant Goddess's request, he made up a story about the "prodigal son who repented and returned to his rightful path."

Chu Kuangren's lips curled into a smile.

He did not refute anything because it would make things easier for him.

Although the Radiant Church Leader and others still had doubts about Chu Kuangren, they could only put aside their confusion and obey the Radiant Goddess's will.

Bachelor Saint Lang, however, was still overcome with shock.

"I don't believe it. I won't believe it..."

"How can this be..."

Chu Kuangren took a look at him and ignored him. He turned around and was about to leave.

It was at that moment that Bachelor Saint Lang yelled at Chu Kuangren, "No, I will not acknowledge you as the Child of Light!"
