Chapter 41: The Way to Beat the Kidney

Seemingly sensing Liu Xu's question, Xu Bai moved closer and said, "You'll know later."

After saying that, he smelled a fragrance.

It smelled good.

It wasn't the fragrance of greasy makeup, but a faint sandalwood scent that was refreshing.

Liu Xu didn't notice Xu Bai's actions either. She was listening to Xu Bai and was still thinking about how she would die.

After that, the two of them stopped talking and waited quietly.

As the night deepened, the conversation in the room gradually became lighter.

The oil lamp was blown out, and the room fell into darkness.

Xu Bai kept waiting until he heard a soft snoring sound from inside. Then he pulled out the long knife at his waist.

"Is there a way to make them sleep even soundly?"

Liu Xu was stunned for a moment before she nodded.

She reached into her clothes and pulled out a long tube.

Then, Liu Xu inserted the long tube into the hole that Xu Bai had dug out. After hesitating for a moment, she held the tube in her mouth through the black cloth on her face.

As the hole was very low, Liu Xu was half-squatting and holding the pipe in her mouth.

During the process of squatting, there was a curve and outline at the back of his waist. Coupled with the half-squatting action of holding the tube, Xu Bai admitted that he was thinking the wrong thing.

Of course, he didn't say anything and acted very normal, but he was already thinking about the scene just now.

He said that on purpose to see what the other party was capable of.

However, the other party had used the fog and did not expose himself at all.

"How cautious." Xu Bai thought.

Liu Xu was not a rigid scholar.

She was well aware of the dangers of Jianghu, so she had prepared a lot of things at home and brought a lot with her.

An object like the smoke could only be considered a small object.

The real big guy hadn't come yet.

After the smoke was blown, the two of them waited quietly.

After a moment, Liu Xu estimated that the medicine had taken effect and nodded at Xu Bai.

“I can only deal with ordinary people.”

Xu Bai hummed in agreement. He lifted a corner of the window with his long knife and fiddled with it inside before opening the window.

There was also a faint fragrance in the room. It was the smell of smoke.

Xu Bai didn't go in. Instead, he waited for the smoke to be blown away by the wind outside the window before jumping in.

What if it wasn't just ordinary people?

He had to be careful.

Liu Xu saw Xu Bai's actions and knew that it was normal for him to be cautious.

After the two of them entered, Liu Xu closed the window.

Xu Bai lit up an oil lamp and looked at Lin Fenghua, who had passed out on the bed.

The woman next to him was still naked.

Xu Bai looked at the woman, then at Liu Xu and nodded.

Liu Xu still had a good figure.

This gaze was too obvious. Liu Xu also felt it, and anger flashed in her eyes.

Xu Bai was very magnanimous. With just a glance, he violently dragged Lin Fenghua to the ground. At the same time, he found a large piece of cloth in the room and gagged Lin Fenghua's mouth.

Not only did he find a piece of cloth, but he also found a red rope.

The red rope had been polished very carefully. Xu Bai looked at Lin Fenghua's wrist again. There were marks on it.

"You're quite fancy. It just saves me some trouble.

Following the marks on his wrists, Xu Bai tied Lin Fenghua up with a red rope.

"How do we wake him up?" Xu Bai asked.

Liu Xu was confused, but she still ran to the table, picked up the wine pot, and sprinkled it on Lin Fenghua's face.

After being stimulated by the alcohol, Lin Fenghua slowly woke up and quickly understood his situation.

He wanted to struggle, but he was tied up by the rope. He wanted to scream, but his mouth was blocked, so he could only make whimpering sounds. The two people in front of him terrified him to the extreme.

"What do you want to do?" Liu Xu asked.

Xu Bai didn't answer. He lifted Lin Fenghua's face with his saber and said with a smile, "'Young Master Lin, it seems like you like women. From your looks, you have kidney deficiency. Men should take care of their kidneys."

These words came so suddenly that Liu Xu was somewhat puzzled.

Lin Fenghua, who was lying on the ground, did not have any doubts. He only felt terror.

He was afraid.

Now, he was unarmed, tied up, and gagged. No one would respond to him.

He twisted his body forcefully and turned into a prone position. He kowtowed, and tears and snot splattered all over the ground.

“Xiao Yue is such a good girl, how could you do that?” Xu Bai added.

Lin Fenghua was stunned for a moment before he reacted and understood the other party’s intentions.

He continued to kowtow, trying to get the other party to let him go.

He had never expected that someone would come to kill him just because he had played with a woman.

He was very regretful, but he couldn’t even speak now.

“Didn’t you ask me how I want to deal with him just now?” Xu Bai raised his hand and punched Lin Fenghua’s waist. “Deal with it like this.” Kidney Hammer Technique!

This skill could not only be used on himself, but also on others.

However, the side effect was kidney deficiency.

However, if it was used on ordinary people, it would really be a forced upgrade.

Xu Bai had True Core Strength, so it was fine to use it. However, Lin Fenghua was different. His kidney was weak, and anything that was too weak would die.

A warm current flowed through Lin Fenghua's body, and his kidneys suddenly became incomparably powerful.

Then, an extremely hot feeling spread out from his body. Lin Fenghua turned to look at the unconscious woman on the bed. His eyes were red and he wanted to move over.

He stepped on Lin Fenghua.

"Enjoy it slowly." Xu Bai smiled.

The burning sensation that he couldn't vent made Lin Fenghua wish he was dead.

He looked at Xu Bai. He was so scared that he had already burst his guts.

When the duration ended, Lin Fenghua collapsed to the ground.

He looked at Xu Bai with pleading eyes, wanting to beg for mercy, but what greeted him was a punch on his waist.

The burning sensation appeared once again, and the excruciating pain made him want to die.

"Wuwuwu !"

Her mouth was gagged and she could only whimper non-stop.

Lin Fenghua felt as if he had been thrown into flames. His skin was about to melt.

This was even more unbearable than killing him directly. However, the feeling of weakness after that made his entire body powerless.

“Kill me.” Lin Fenghua wailed in his heart.

However, Xu Bai did not care about these things. He saw Lin Fenghua’s pain and the depression in his heart was easing. Xu Bai’s voice sounded in the dark room.

“Again!”

“Again!”

“Again!”

Liu Xu, who was watching by the side, felt goosebumps all over her body as she used the kidney hammering technique again and again.

Lin Fenghua was visibly weakening. Dark circles appeared under his eyes, and his legs were trembling.

Again and again, he wished he was dead.

Pain, extreme pain.

Lin Fenghua really wanted to die, but he couldn’t.

One punch after another, Lin Fenghua’s body stiffened when the last punch landed. He was dead.

Xu Bai loosened his grip, untied the red rope around Lin Fenghua’s wrist, and placed the corpse on the bed.

“Tomorrow, when someone finds the body, they will think that he died in a woman’s stomach because of his kidney deficiency.”

Liu Xu couldn’t see Xu Bai’s face, but she could see the ease in his eyes.

“You did it for Xiaoyue.” she said.

“More or less.” Xu Bai said.

“I...” Liu Xu wanted to continue.

Xu Bai suddenly interrupted her.

“I want to do one more thing..”

Chapter 42: Testing Each Other

Liu Xu originally wanted to say something, but after hearing Xu Bai’s words, she didn’t understand what he meant.

Do one more thing, do what?

She thought that Lin Fenghua had already died and avenged Xiaoyue. However, the mysterious man in front of her suddenly said something that she didn’t know what he meant.

“This is not the place to talk.” Xu Bai said.

After killing someone, they were still talking at the crime scene. Only the two of them.

Next, the two of them began to decorate the room. After arranging everything in a reasonable manner, they were ready to leave.

“The strangulation marks on his hands...” Liu Xu stared at the wrist of the corpse, pondering how to deal with it.

“The red rope is over there. There was a strangulation mark earlier.” Xu Bai walked to the window and opened it.

The two of them did not hesitate and left through the window.

The night outside the window was very dark, as if it was splashed with ink.

The street was quiet and empty. Only Xu Bai and Liu Xu’s footsteps could be heard, adding a layer of liveliness to the deserted street.

The two of them left the Lin Manor and continued on their way.

During this period, no one spoke. Both sides maintained their silence. Xu Bai only stopped when he was far away from the Lin Mansion.

“You just said that there was one more thing.” Liu Xu thought for a moment and then spoke.

Even though the two of them were both wearing masks to conceal their identities, Liu Xu still decided to break the silence.

“Clang

Xu Bai did not say anything. With a loud noise, he unsheathed his long saber from his waist and slashed at Liu Xu’s neck.

Liu Xu heard the sound of the wind breaking. Her fair fingers moved, and a brush appeared in her right hand. At the same time, a book appeared in her left.

As the pages swayed, they surrounded Liu Xu.

“Clang!”

There was another sound. Xu Bai’s long saber did not touch Liu Xu. He sheathed his saber with a backhand, looking calm.

“You’re testing me.” Liu Xu stared at Xu Bai and frowned.

At that moment, she felt a sense of danger and was forced to use her best skill. At this moment, the charred yellow pages surrounded her, adding a little demonic.

The long blade did not land, but she exposed herself.

“I have to know your identity.” Xu Bai pressed his hand on the hilt of the long saber and said.

Brush, page, he already knew who this woman was.

A scholar.

Only a scholar would know how to use these things. In addition, this was a woman with a myriad of flirtatious feelings. Xu Bai didn’t need to think much to think of the woman in white.

There was a high possibility that the two were compatible.

“Then I don’t know where you come from.” Liu Xu gripped her brush tightly, eager to try.

Since you're using this method to test me, then I want to try it too.

Otherwise, I won't be able to vent my anger!

"Although this place is secluded, if we really fight and draw out others, neither of us can hide our identities." Xu Bai said slowly.

He did have the intention to silence her with that slash just now.

However, after pondering over it, he gave up on this idea.

Before he knew the other party's strength, if he rashly attacked now, the consequences would not be small.

If it was in the wilderness, he could give it a try. However, in Sheng County, if the two of them fought, it would definitely attract unnecessary trouble. Besides, this person had killed Lin Fenghua, so he was on board.

He, Xu Bai, loved pulling people onto the boat.

"This is what you said? It's very unfair." Liu Xu's words were filled with anger.

He had tested her out in one go, but she knew nothing about this person.

"This has nothing to do with me. You were the one who was so anxious and took out the weapon in your hand." Xu Bai said indifferently.

He really couldn't be blamed for this. Who knew that the other party would take out the real thing after testing him?

Of course, this was exactly what he wanted.

He was still in the dark, but this woman was already out in the open.

“You were the one who killed the Underworld Blacksmith couple, as well as the officials of the Extreme Life Cult and the Heaven Inspectorate, right?” Liu Xu suddenly changed the topic.

Xu Bai raised his eyebrows but didn't answer.

“Other than the hidden weapon wounds all over your body, you also have exquisite saber techniques. Although I didn't see your hidden weapons, the long saber at your waist and that saber technique just now have already proved your origin.” Liu Xu said cheerfully.

The Heavenly Dao was good at reincarnation. Who would the Heaven spare?

You tested me just now, and I also saw some clues from your saber technique.

Now that they had fought to a draw, it was not a loss.

Although the other party had covered his face and she did not know his true identity, at least she knew who the martial artist behind the scenes was.

“Do you know that what you said just now was very dangerous?” Xu Bai narrowed his eyes.

“You're not thinking of making a move here, are you?” The catkin refers to the street

Give him a taste of his own medicine.

Xu Bai was speechless.

“Actually, I don’t mean anything else. Today, I saw you fight for Xiao Yue, and I think you’re a man.” Liu Xu did not continue to provoke Xu Bai and the topic changed.

“What?” Xu Bai said.

“Why do you want to kill the officials of the Sky Supervision Department? Do you know that this is a major matter?” Liu Xu opened her beautiful eyes that were as bright as the stars. Her eyes were filled with doubt.

Meeting this person today was purely a coincidence.

However, it was this coincidence that made her even more confused. To be able to make a move for an ordinary little girl, this person’s intentions were definitely not bad.

Just like what she said before, she was in favor of killing the Nethersmith couple and the Extreme Life Cult.

However, she could not understand why he would attack the officials of the Heaven Inspectorate.

If it was the officer who had attacked him, he would probably have helped him instead. But why did he do the opposite and kill the officer?

Liu Xu took this opportunity to ask.

“Do you know anyone from the Heaven Inspectorate?” Xu Bai didn’t answer, but instead asked a question.

“I don’t know him.” Liu Xu shook her head.

“In the future, if you meet people from the Heaven Inspectorate, tell them that the official pocketed his own money and colluded with the Extreme Life Cult.” Xu Bai said.

At this moment, both sides were probing each other.

Xu Bai took this opportunity to tell him about Iron Calculation Immortal.

Just like what Liu Xu said, there would be trouble after killing the people of the Heaven Inspectorate.

Then he would reveal the truth of the matter and use Liu Xu's mouth to convey it to the Heaven Inspectorate.

As for how to deal with it after that, he couldn't care less.

If the Heaven Inspectorate was upright and could find out Tie Suanxian's background, he would naturally be fine.

If it didn't work, he would make other plans.

Ever since he killed Tie Suanxian, he had already thought of the consequences.

"To fill their own pockets and join forces with the Extreme Life Sect?" Liu Xu was slightly surprised.

She hadn't expected this.

"If I run into the people from the Heaven Inspectorate, I will explain to them." Liu Xu said.

She seemed to feel that this sentence was not clear, so she added another sentence.

"If it was a chivalrous act, he shouldn't have been wronged."

"To uphold justice... Let's go." Xu Bai rubbed his chin and turned to walk toward the night sky.

Liu Xu did not follow him. She was also preparing to go home.

At this moment, Xu Bai had already walked to the corner of the street. Suddenly, he poked his head out from the corner.

“Oh right, there’s one more thing..”

Chapter 43: County Magistrate Zhang Panicked

Liu Xu had originally planned to leave, but after hearing Xu Bai’s words, she stopped and looked over in confusion.

“Is there anything else?”

Xu Bai stretched out his hands and gestured.” Next time, when you hide your identity, remember to wrap a piece of cloth around your chest. Otherwise, you’ll be easily exposed.”“

As soon as he finished speaking, a page flew past and was inserted into the corner of the wall.

Xu Bai was nowhere to be seen, leaving only Liu Xu standing there, her teeth clenched.

She waved her hand, and the pages in the corner returned to the book.

“I thought he was a hero, but I didn’t expect him to be a prodigal!”

She spat lightly and left the street.

Before she left, Liu Xu lowered her head and looked at the spectacular scene before her. She thought of what she had said before.

“Perhaps what he said is right. I have to think of a way the next time I disguise myself...”

After Liu Xu left, the street finally became quiet again. Other than a few cats meowing, no one else appeared.

The next day.

Magistrate Zhang has been in a good mood recently.

Actually, he had always been in a good mood. It was just that his mood had gotten better recently.

Ever since he came out of the academy on Nanhua Road and was admitted to an official position, he felt that his future was beyond control.

Although he was assigned to Sheng County in the end and was located in a remote area, he could cover the sky with one hand.

The mountains were high and the emperor was far away. This sentence was not wrong at all to describe him.

Many people were unwilling to become officials in remote places, but he was different.

The more remote the place was, the less attention the person in the capital could get. Being the head of a chicken was better than being the tail of a phoenix.

Back then, when he came to Sheng County, all kinds of wealthy merchants in Sheng County fawned over him, which really allowed him to earn a lot.

Studying?

Read my ass.

He was very self-aware that being a Rank-8 scholar was already his limit.

There was no hope for him to go any higher.

Instead of struggling, it was better to enjoy it.

He had thought that the following days would be smooth sailing.

However, Lin Manor seemed to have some opinions about him some time ago.

To be precise, it was not that she had any objections, but that she felt that there was no benefit in interacting with him.

Among the wealthy merchants in Sheng County, the Lin Manor was considered one of the best. They had to come to his place every month to offer offerings.

However, as time passed, he felt that he would not be of much use.

In fact, the county magistrate also felt that this matter was very unjust.

No one had offended the Lin Manor in the first place, and the Lin Manor itself had nothing to ask of him. Of course, he could not do anything.

Seeing that the relationship between the two sides was becoming increasingly dull, County Magistrate Zhang had been pondering how to smooth out this relationship.

Coincidentally, the previous murder happened.

County Magistrate Zhang really did smooth things out.

“This time, the Lin Manor will understand everything I’ve done. They also know that our relationship can’t be broken.” County Magistrate Zhang thought as the corners of his mouth curled up slightly.

As for the three lives...

How could there be no deaths in this day and age?

The commoners’ memories were short-lived. In a few months, the storm of this matter would be over. They would randomly find a prisoner to be the young master of the Lin family, and everything would be calm.

Could it be that the Emperor could find him?

Thinking of this, County Magistrate Zhang became even happier. He even walked more briskly and hummed a tune.

“Sir, bad news!”

At this moment, the bailiff outside the door suddenly ran in. There was panic in his eyes that could not be concealed. When he passed by the threshold, he was knocked down and fell to the ground.

“How can you be so flustered!” County Magistrate Zhang immediately put away the joy on his face and reprimanded him in a serious tone.

The bailiff was shocked by Magistrate Zhang's expression. He quickly got up from the ground, tidied his clothes, and pretended to be calm.

"What is it?" County Magistrate Zhang picked up the tea on the table and took a sip.

Good tea!

If he hadn't been promoted to a county and become an official in other places, how could he have enjoyed such good tea?

"Young Master Lin...Lin Fenghua is dead!" The bailiff hurriedly said, "Sir, you said that if there were any cases, you would let us investigate first. We didn't want to disturb your sleep, so we sent a coroner over first. After investigation, we found out that it was..."

"What is it?" County Magistrate Zhang raised his eyelids. He had yet to react to who it was.

"It's because Lin Fenghua and the courtesan of the Spring Rain Pavilion are playing red rope...Too excited...He's dead..." The bailiff stuttered as he talked about this.

He had seen so many bailiffs for so many years, but this was the first time he had seen someone die like this.

"So that's how it is..." County Magistrate Zhang took another sip of tea. Suddenly, the teacup in his hand stopped. He finally reacted. "Who did you say died?"

"Lin... Lin Fenghua..." The bailiff lowered his head and stammered.

"Pa da!"

The teacup fell to the ground with a crisp sound.

“Let’s go! Go to the Lin Manor!” County Magistrate Zhang quickly got up and headed to the Lin Manor.

This was one of his stable meal tickets. He could not mess it up.

The Lin Manor was filled with wails.

A middle-aged woman in gorgeous clothes knelt on the ground and cried.

There was a table beside him, and on it lay Lin Fenghua’s corpse, covered with a white cloth.

Beside the table, the gorgeous woman from the Spring Rain Pavilion was tied up with a rope.

“Sir, you have to stand up for us. It’s all this woman’s fault for killing my child.” Father Lin pointed at Spring Rain Pavilion’s Courtesan Belle and said through gritted teeth.

“Milord, he died from overexcitement. This has nothing to do with me.” Hua Kui was already scared to death. When he heard Father Lin’s accusation, he quickly explained.

County Magistrate Zhang’s expression was extremely ugly. He turned around to look at the surrounding commoners and said to the bailiffs beside him, “Disperse the people first. Don’t let them watch.”

When the bailiffs heard this, they quickly did as he said and coaxed the surrounding onlookers away.

After the onlookers were coaxed away, County Magistrate Zhang waved his hand and said, “Put Hua Kui in prison and deal with him on another day.” Two bailiffs stepped forward and escorted the dejected Hua Kui away.

“Sir, you say... Pick a day to deal with it?” Although Lin Fu was sad, he understood the meaning behind it.

“Your son died from overexcitement, but it wasn’t Hua Kui’s doing. I’ll lock her up for a few days.
“County Magistrate Zhang said indifferently. Lin Fu was stunned, and a surprised expression appeared on his face.

“Spring Rain Pavilion is owned by the ninth princess of the capital and is spread all over the country. You should know that without concrete evidence, I can’t convict you.”County Magistrate Zhang said. Lin Fu was stunned and could only nod subconsciously.

He knew about the Ninth Princess.

It was said that the ninth princess was not very powerful in the capital, so she opened a place of romance, and the emperor did not care.

But... Wasn’t she a frustrated princess?

Lin Fu could not understand, and his eyes turned red.

“Don’t mention this matter again. I’ll leave first.”County Magistrate Zhang waved his sleeves, interrupted Lin Fu, and turned to leave.

He left very decisively, like a completely different person from before.

Now that Lin Fenghua was dead, County Magistrate Zhang reckoned that Lin Fu would no longer fawn over him. Moreover, he even wanted him to convict the Courtesan Belle. He felt that there was no need to befriend him anymore.

To avoid getting into trouble.

A frustrated princess?

Hehehe...

Only they knew that the Ninth Princess was a frustrated princess on the surface, but she was actually the Emperor's right-hand man.

As for why he was his right-hand man.

This matter had to start from the current situation of Great Chu..

Chapter 44: Up (1)

From the establishment of Great Chu until now, it could be said to be extremely bumpy. It was only now that it was slightly stable.

However, the situation was not very good.

There were demons and strange people in the palace, as well as those Jianghu people who had entered the evil path.

Outside, there were Great Yue and the barbarians eyeing them covetously. If they were not careful, they would have to worry about the country being destroyed.

The Emperor of the Great Chu Country was a man of great talent, with great strategy and courage.

All the generals were guarding the border.

The literati stabilized the internal affairs and managed to balance the internal and external affairs.

What was even more courageous was to set up the Heaven Inspectorate and use the martial artists to control the martial artists.

With the three parties working together, Great Chu was heading towards a good place.

However, there was one word that could not be separated from this-money.

Do you need money to maintain the army?

Do you need money for your salary?

Do you need money to build all kinds of facilities?

They all wanted money, and they wanted a lot of money.

However, the Emperor also understood that he could not raise the tax standard because of money. Otherwise, it would cause even more internal trouble.

Then what if he didn't have money?

Doing business!

Doing business with all his might!

However, as a member of the royal family, doing business was a disgrace.

At this time, the Ninth Princess was born.

On the surface, the Ninth Princess was not favored by the royal family.

However, in secret, the Ninth Princess' business involved a wide range of businesses and earned a lot of money for the royal family of Great Chu.

Moreover, the people from the royal family also had their own opinions.

She's no longer in power. She can do whatever she wants. Anyway, we're not the ones who asked her to do it.

It had to be said that this move was brilliant.

Any official who had some eyes understood the meaning behind it.

Therefore, Magistrate Zhang knew that he could not offend the Ninth Princess.

If it wasn't for the fact that the Lin family had given him a lot of money, he would have left them alone long ago.

Now, he was asking him to offend the Ninth Princess. Wasn't that asking for a beating?

At that time, His Majesty the Emperor had said that if one broke the law, they could be arrested. However, this was not illegal.

He had no choice. If he was caught, it would cut off the royal family's source of income. He knew very well what the outcome would be if the source of income was cut off.

"We'll find an excuse to release that courtesan later and this matter will end here." County Magistrate Zhang thought about it and quickly left the Lin Manor.

The sudden death of the young master of the Lin family had spread like wildfire in Sheng County.

Some of the people who had been bullied clapped and cheered when they heard the news. They ran back and forth in the streets and alleys to pass on the joyous news to those they knew.

In addition to Xiaoyue's previous incident, the commoners felt carefree and felt that the anger in their chests had eased.

At this moment, in the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency, Xu Bai was sitting on a small stool as usual, looking at the locust tree in front of him.

The golden progress bar was very close to completion. He estimated that he would succeed tonight, so he did not take a step out of the backyard.

"Brother Xu, Brother Xu, have you heard the news?"

In the front yard, Liu Er kept waving his hands.

Until now, the escorts still did not dare to step into the backyard. After all, this locust tree was too strange.

Xu Bai stood up from the stool and walked to the front yard to ask what was going on.

"The young master of the Lin family died in a woman's stomach. I'm so happy." Liu Er waved his hand excitedly.

He thought that since Xu Bai hadn't gone out all day, he might not have heard the news, so he brought the news over. It was also a good opportunity to chat and get closer.

He, Liu Er, had specially fawned over Escort Leader Xu.

"What did County Magistrate Zhang say?" Xu Bai pretended to be surprised and asked.

"The Lin Manor wanted to punish the courtesan, but Magistrate Zhang chased him out and took the courtesan away. The butcher who sold meat next to him had a relative who worked there. After that, I heard from the old butler that Magistrate Zhang was unwilling to punish the courtesan." Liu Er said.

Unwilling?

Xu Bai rubbed his chin.

This situation was beyond his expectations.

However...There seemed to be room for manipulation.

“Alright, I got it. Tell the brothers to hurry up and practice. If there are any darts, their skills won’t be rusty.”Xu Bai said, pretending not to care.

Liu Er was a sensible person. He knew that Xu Bai didn’t want to say anything more, so he didn’t stay any longer. He said goodbye and left.

After Liu Er left, Xu Bai returned to the small stool and sat in the backyard, staring at the locust tree.

As he stared, he fell into deep thought.

To be honest, County Magistrate Zhang was not a good person.

He was also involved in Xiaoyue’s matter.

Xu Bai had wanted to mess with him for a long time, but this was different from messing with Lin Fenghua. This was an official of the imperial court and a scholar.

If he really did it directly, it would be troublesome.

But thinking about it carefully, Liu Er’s words just now seemed to indicate that County Magistrate Zhang did not care about the Lin Manor’s matters anymore.

If he didn't care about the Lin Manor, there would be room for him to operate.

As for how to do it, it was urgent.

The progress bar of the locust tree was about to be filled up. When it was full, County Magistrate Zhang would not be able to escape.

The most important thing now was the progress bar.

"It'll be fine at night. I don't know what it is after spending so much effort." Xu Bai thought.

Time slowly passed. The sun set and night fell.

All the bodyguards left the agency and returned to their own homes. Only Xu Bai was still in the backyard, sitting on his unique small stool.

To be honest, this small stool was very comfortable to sit on. It was not uncomfortable at all.

The only drawback was that his legs would go numb after sitting for a long time.

The sound of the night beats in the street not far away, and the night watchman begins his daily life every night.

In the pitch-black night, only the sound of the night watch could bring warmth.

The night was a little cold. Xu Bai put on a coat and still stared at the locust tree.

The progress bar slowly increased. Finally, when the last bit of the progress bar was full, light blue words appeared in front of him

[You observed the locust tree in the backyard and comprehended the reversal of Yin and Yang.]

When the words appeared, Xu Bai's expression did not change.

He had been in a daze for a long time and was numb to it.

After the light blue text appeared, it did not last long before it turned into smoke in an instant.

A moment later, new words appeared.

[Fusion option detected. Fusion in progress.]

[Four Slaughtering Heart Technique + Reversal of Yin and Yang = Reversal of the Four Directions.]

[Fusion successful!]

As the last line of text appeared, the text disappeared and a huge amount of information fused into it.

With the influx of information, Xu Bai realized that the golden airflow in his body had also changed.

The color was still light gold, and there was nothing unusual about it, but there seemed to be something extra. Xu Bai understood the reason.

Divine Essence!

This was the divine essence unique to Confucianism, Buddhism, and Taoism!

The Reversal of Yin and Yang was not only a cultivation method of the One Gate, but also a cultivation method of the Divine Element!

In the past, when he named his Refined Qi, it was derived from True Qi, Divine Essence, and Spiritual Energy. Now, it finally lived up to its name and completely matched the name of Refined Qi.

Cured OCD.

Xu Bai silently mulled over the information in his mind. A moment later, he smiled.

“As expected of the ‘Under’.”

The mental cultivation method after this fusion, apart from the group battle ability of the Four Sides Massacre, also had the effect of reversing Yin and Yang.

The so-called reversal of Yin and Yang could be summed up in two words..

Chapter 45: What a Good Start!

Reverse!

These two words were the quintessence of reversing Yin and Yang, vividly displaying this divine essence type mental cultivation method.

Based on Xu Bai’s current knowledge, reversing Yin and Yang should be a mental cultivation method of Taoism.

Using the divine essence as a guide, it affected the aura of the entire body to confuse the enemy.

After fusing with the Four Slaughtering Heart Technique, it became a chaotic mess, and its power was even stronger.

From god essence to true essence, using true essence as a guide, when used, it could be used to confuse the real with the fake.

To put it simply, when Xu Bai slashed with his saber, under the guidance of his True Core Strength, the enemy would feel that it was illusory.

This slash would become both real and fake, making it difficult for people to figure it out. He could even make people think that this slash was fake, but it was actually real.

On the other hand, when the enemy attacked him, his True Core Strength would guide his Qi, and the flaws in his body would become perfect, and perfection would become flaws.

Of course, a flaw was still a flaw. In front of the enemy, a flaw was perfect, and a place without a flaw was full of flaws.

If the enemy attacked his weakness, it would be his most perfect spot.

Confusion was the root, and reversal was the manifestation.

Xu Bai sat on a small stool and revealed a satisfied expression.

It was worth it to work hard during this period of time!

A light blue panel appeared. Xu Bai glanced at the contents of the panel.

[Name: Xu Bai]

Realm: Eighth Stage unspecialized.”

[Breaking One Style, Level 2: Maximum level.] [Reversal Heart Technique (Level 2.5):[Maximum level.] [Kidney Hammering Technique (Level 1): Maximum level.] [Maple Leaves Like Rain (Tier 2): Maximum level.] [Four-Xun Movement Technique (Level 1): Maximum level.] [Four Xun Formation (Level 1): Maximum level.]

[Comprehension (max level)]

“If only I could get another heart technique.” Xu Bai rubbed his chin and thought to himself.

If he could get another mental cultivation technique, he would be able to raise it to level three, and he would also be able to reach level seven.

Unfortunately, there was no new progress bar.

“It’s almost time for the new book exchange at the bookstore. When the time comes, I’ll go over and take a look. Oh, and I have to deal with County

Magistrate Zhang as soon as possible.”

Sitting on the stool, Xu Bai silently thought about his next plan.

The night gradually deepened.

At this moment, in a remote forest outside Sheng County.

The small forest was dark, and a series of roars came from inside, making one’s heart tremble.

Fortunately, there was no one here. Otherwise, he would probably be scared to death.

At night, the inhuman roars mixed with the occasional wind caused goosebumps to rise.

After the time for half an incense stick to burn, the roars gradually stopped. A monk in green walked out of the forest. There were nine scars on his shiny bald head.

The green-robed monk looked to be in his twenties. The scar on his head was very conspicuous.

He looked elegant and easy-going. If anyone saw him at any time, they would mistake him for a kind little monk.

But at this moment, if someone was here, they would not think so.

This was because there was a huge tiger in each of the little monk's hands.

Although it was called a tiger, it was actually more like a monster. It had a tiger's head, but its body was human.

The tiger demon was covered in injuries, and blood was flowing out of its fur. It looked like it would not survive.

In this world, not only were there strange things, but there were also demons.

Demons were not unfamiliar to the people of Jianghu.

The monsters in this world were not like those in the TV shows in Xu Bail's previous life.

The nine-tailed fox beauty and the cat-eared girl did not exist in this world.

Repay?

It was impossible.

It was already merciful of him not to bite off both of your heads.

In this world, demons were demons. They were born to oppose humans. As for whether there were any good demons, at least so far, they had not found one.

Therefore, Great Chu had always advocated eliminating these demons by the roots.

“It’s your misfortune to meet this little monk today.”the green-robed monk said slowly.

His kind face, coupled with the two terrifyingly shaped demons, created a strong contrast, making people shudder.

After saying this, the monk in green exerted strength in his hands.

The two tiger demons were lifted into the air by him and collided in mid-air with a loud bang.

A huge force pierced through the tiger demon. The tiger demon did not even have the chance to scream before it turned into a rain of blood that filled the sky.

A ray of green light shot out from the monk’s body, and the rain of blood did not touch his white robe at all.

In the dark night, the green light was filled with a solemn and sacred feeling.

After killing the two tiger demons, the green-robed monk did not stop. He walked towards the location of the county upgrade.

There was a wooden plaque hanging on his waist, and on it were written the words ‘Titanium Monastery.’

As the night grew darker, the green-robed monk's figure gradually faded into the darkness.

The next day.

Xu Bai woke up early. When he came to the front yard, he saw the bodyguards training.

"Good morning, Brother Xu."

When the escorts saw Xu Bai, they greeted him one after another.

As usual, Xu Bai replied and went out to eat breakfast alone.

The matter at the Lin Manor was still brewing. The commoners on the streets would discuss it from time to time, and their words were filled with joy. He casually found a stall and ordered a bowl of noodles. He started eating.

As he ate, he looked around.

If there was no new progress bar, he would have to look for it again. He planned to finish visiting the parts of the county that he had not visited after eating to see if there were any new discoveries.

Not long after, he finished a bowl of noodles. The feeling of fullness made him very satisfied.

After paying the bill, Xu Bai began to stroll around Sheng County again. Most of the places he was shopping at now were places he had never visited before.

The streets were noisy.

Xu Bai stopped and walked along the way. When he reached a place, he suddenly stopped.

Not far away was a slightly luxurious house.

There were two stone lions standing at the entrance. Lanterns were hung on both sides of the door. Due to the daytime, they were not lit up. There were two words written on the plaque at the top of the door-Liu

Residence.

“That woman’s house.” Xu Bai looked at the plaque and pondered.

Unknowingly, they had already arrived at the Liu residence.

Xu Bai thought of the masked woman that night and decided to leave.

After last night, they didn’t have much interaction. Xu Bai didn’t plan to cause trouble here.

However, sometimes, the more he didn’t want to do something, the more he wanted to do something for him.

Xu Bai’s gaze followed the street. There were light footsteps.

Accompanied by the footsteps was a young monk in green.

He was dressed in an ethereal green robe. The green monk robe matched the young monk’s and the noisy streets, making him look particularly outstanding.

The green-robed monk walked along the street. He seemed to have sensed Xu Bai’s gaze and looked in Xu Bai’s direction.

The place where Xu Bai was standing just now was empty.

“No one?”

The green-robed monk frowned.

He clearly felt someone staring at him just now. Why was there no one there all of a sudden?

With that thought in mind, the green-robed monk looked around. After searching for a long time, he could not find the owner of the gaze. Only then did he temporarily give up the idea of searching.

Arriving at the Liu residence, he knocked on the door gently.

After a while, the servants of the Liu family opened the door. The two of them seemed to have talked for a while before bringing the monk in green in.

After the door closed, Xu Bai stood in the alley at the corner of the street and rubbed his chin.

That bald head was really not bad, a good head...

Chapter 46: The Plan Unfolds

Xu Bai had been staring at the monk's head since he appeared.

There were nine scars on the shiny bald head. Of course, Xu Bai didn't mean anything else. He just thought that this head was really a good one.

It was for nothing but the golden progress bar above his head.

When the monk appeared, he was prepared to leave. However, when he glanced at the monk, he noticed a golden progress bar above the monk's head.

I've worn out my iron shoes and searched everywhere, but it didn't take me much effort to find it.

Xu Bai was very excited. He finally saw a new progress bar.

However, he was also thinking about how he could get his hands on the progress bar.

First of all, the identity of this monk was unknown.

Secondly, the situation here was different from Yun Xiang's. Yun Xiang ran an inn and could go over at any time, but the Liu residence could not be entered at any time.

"Something's wrong!"

Xu Bai thought for a moment and suddenly slapped his head.

He realized that he was getting more and more fond of the progress bar. Today, he happened to encounter a new progress bar and couldn't help but stand there and think about it for a while.

"Go back and think about it slowly." After Xu Bai understood, he turned around and left.

While he was thinking about how to get the head, the monk in green had already entered the Liu residence.

Under the butler's lead, they arrived at the reception area. Liu Xu was sitting on a chair with a veil over her face.

"Miss, I've brought him here." The butler bowed.

Liu Xu nodded and let the butler leave first.

The butler did not ask for the reason and turned around to leave. The living room was quiet, leaving only Liu Xu and the green-robed monk.

“Greetings, Almsgiver Liu. I have heard of your great name. It is my honor to meet you today.” The monk in green put his hands together and bowed.

Liu Xu did not answer, but pointed to the chair on the right.

The green-robed monk did not hold back. He bent down, tidied his monk robe, and slowly walked to his seat.

“May I know your name?” Liu Xu’s voice was calm. Even though she was covered with a white veil, one could tell that she had an inexplicable sense of alienation.

“My Buddhist name is Wu Hua.” The monk in green replied hurriedly.

In terms of attitude, there was no neglect or fault.

“I came here for one thing. I heard that Almsgiver Liu has been in Sheng County recently, so I came to ask.” No Flower put his palms together, his face kind.

Liu Xu raised her eyebrows. “After the official was killed, I returned to Sheng County from the Qingyun Academy. However, I did hear about the official. He seems to have pocketed the money and colluded with the Extreme Life Sect.”

Speaking of this, Liu Xu thought of what that mysterious person had said that night and repeated it word for word.

In her opinion, if it was really a chivalrous act, she would definitely help.

It just so happened that No Flower had revealed the news to the crowd.

“Almsgiver Liu, you’ve misunderstood. We already know that Tie Suanxian pocketed the money. The person who killed him didn’t do anything evil, so we won’t pursue the matter.” No Flower laughed.

When Liu Xu heard this, she was slightly taken aback.” You guys haven’t even arrived yet. How did you investigate?”“

“Ever since this incident, the people in the department quickly searched for clues and figured out the cause and effect.” No Flower explained.

“Then why are you here this time?” Liu Xu was puzzled.

Since it wasn’t about the officials, then it must be something else. However, she couldn’t figure out what she needed to ask.

Of course, she was also relieved.

This proved that the mysterious man was right. It was indeed the official who had pocketed the money.

“Almsgiver Liu, can you help me find that expert?” No Flower asked.

Liu Xu shook her head, indicating that she wasn’t sure. Then, she seemed to have thought of something and asked,” Didn’t the department already investigate? Can’t they find out?”“

“If everything can be investigated as I wish, there will be no evil people in this world.” No Flower smiled bitterly.

Liu Xu placed her elbow on the table and carefully recalled what had happened that night. She shook her head again, indicating that she could not find that person.

“Sigh.” No Flower sighed.

This action made Liu Xu pay attention.

“Why are you looking for him?” Liu Xu asked.

“This is what I need to do. I need help. Oh right, Almsgiver Liu, take a look at this letter. It’s from your teacher. “No Flower patted his bald head. As if he had thought of something, he took out a letter from his pocket and handed it over.

Liu Xu took the letter and opened it. After she finished reading the letter, she placed it on the table.

The content of the letter was very simple. He asked Liu Xu to continue staying in Sheng County and not return to the Qingyun Academy.

As for the reason why she stayed here, it was to help No Flower.

“What’s so important that you want to find that person?”Liu Xu asked doubtfully.

“Almsgiver Liu, it’s very important, so I need your help. I can’t tell you yet because I’m not sure. “No Flower apologized.

Since No Flower didn’t say anything, Liu Xu couldn’t be bothered to ask.

It was hard to disobey his master’s orders, so it was fine to stay here.

Coincidentally, she really wanted to find a chance to find out the identity of that mysterious person.

That night, Liu Xu understood that she had suffered a great loss.

He had revealed all his secrets, but in the end, he knew nothing about that mysterious person.

How could he bear to suffer losses?

With Liu Xu's personality, she naturally couldn't endure it. At the very least, she had to figure out the other party's identity.

He could use this opportunity to find an excuse.

"Oh right, Almsgiver Liu, I'll be staying in the Liu residence during this period of time to avoid attracting attention." No Flower added.

This was a small matter, so Liu Xu agreed.

After the two of them exchanged a few more words, Liu Xu asked the butler to take No Flower away.

On the other side, Xu Bai had finished strolling around the remaining spots and returned to the Bodyguard Agency.

He was speechless at the fact that he still found nothing.

It was like he was used to eating big fish and meat before. Now that he was suddenly a vegetarian, who could stand it?

"That bald head...I have to find a way." Xu Bai thought as he walked.

In his eyes, the bald head was too eye-catching, especially the golden progress bar. He was even more envious.

“No, I can’t give up. If there’s a chance, I’ll fill up the progress bar.”

With this thought in mind, Xu Bai had already walked to the entrance of the Bodyguard Agency.

The sun was about to set. At this time, the escorts had already left.

When he got home, Xu Bai didn’t rest. Instead, he waited until the sun had set. He took out the clothes he had worn that night from the cupboard and covered his face with a cloth.

When it was late at night, Xu Bai changed into an ordinary long saber and went out alone.

Lin Manor.

The Lin family’s master, Lin Fu, had been in a bad mood recently. Everyone knew that no one in the Lin residence dared to approach that courtyard. Even the maidservants who were usually favored had become cautious.

There was no other reason. The only child of the Lin family had died, and Lin Fu was no longer able to give birth.

Therefore, in the current situation, the Lin family could be said to have no successor.

A huge family fortune. Lin Fu, who did not inherit the title, was so worried that his hair was turning white.

In the luxurious room, Lin Fu slammed the table with anger..

Chapter 47: Sweet Tongue (1)

He hated it!

The Lin family had already lost their heir, but the person who had caused it was not punished. Lin Fu felt depressed.

If that Courtesan Belle had been severely punished, he wouldn't have felt so bad.

Unexpectedly, at the critical moment, County Magistrate Zhang cowered. Not only did he cower, but he also cowered completely. He even drew a clear line with him.

This situation made his heart turn ashen. When he remembered that his family was already dead, his heart became even more complicated.

"I give you money every month, but you treat me like this."

"Other people take money to do things, but you forget about it after taking money!"

Lin Fu gritted his teeth. His eyes were red, and his old face was filled with endless anger.

The more he thought about it, the more uncomfortable he felt.

It was as if the fire was about to rush out of his body, and he could not control it at all.

He was old and his body was not in good condition. Lin Fu was angry and felt weak all over.

At this moment, there was a knock on the door.

"Don't come in! Do you treat my words as farts?" Lin Fu shouted.

No one dared to approach his courtyard, but at this moment, the door was pushed open and a masked man walked in.

“Who are you?”

No matter how angry he was, Lin Fu felt that something was wrong. Why would a masked stranger come in?

He returned to normal, his eyes filled with caution.

“Old Master Lin is very angry...” Other than his hands, only his eyes could be seen. He lowered his voice and pretended to be hoarse.

“What do you mean? This is the Lin Manor.” Lin Fu was experienced in the business world. He had encountered this situation before, so he managed to maintain his composure.

“I came to see if you have any thoughts of avenging your son.” Xu Bai said indifferently.

Revenge?

Lin Fu stood up instantly.

Did he want revenge?

Yes!

Even in his dreams, he thought,

Hearing this word, no matter how well he pretended, he could not help but react.

“If you have something to say, just say it. What do you mean? What revenge?” Lin Fu forced himself to remain calm, but he still couldn’t hide his emotions.

“Your only son is dead, but you can’t avenge him. Do you feel aggrieved?” Xu Bai said slowly.

Lin Fu did not say anything.

He looked straight at Xu Bai. No one knew what he was thinking.

“In the end, the problem lies with County Magistrate Zhang. If he had helped you, how could you have ended up like this?” Xu Bai said.

Lin Fu still didn’t say anything, but from Xu Bai’s perspective, Lin Fu’s hands were clenched tightly.

“There is no heir in the family. So what if you have a huge family fortune? His son was dead, and as a father, he couldn’t avenge him. What kind of father was this?” Xu Bai continued.

At this moment, Lin Fu finally reacted.

“Do you think I don’t want revenge? Sheng County was the county town of County Magistrate Zhang alone. The mountains were high and the emperor was far away. No one could deal with him.”

Of course, he wanted to take revenge, but he was held back by County Magistrate Zhang. How could he take revenge?

“People think of ways. As long as you want to do it, there will be a way.” Xu Bai said with a smile.

‘What is it?’ Lin Fu asked.

At this point, he had already fallen into Xu Bai's trap.

"As long as you can take down Zhang, with your Lin family's power, it's easy to kill a prostitute before the next county magistrate arrives." Xu Bai said slowly. Lin Fu was stunned for a moment, and then his heart was in turmoil.

If County Magistrate Zhang heard this, he would be finished.

He had never even thought of this method because in his inherent thinking, the people would not fight with the officials.

However, after Xu Bai's reminder, it was like a seed planted in the soil that gradually sprouted after being watered by rain.

It can't go away, and it can't be scattered.

Lin Fu swallowed hard and asked subconsciously, "How can I..." Take him down?"

The moment he asked, he immediately shut up.

"You must know the amount of money you've bribed better than anyone else. If this amount is made public, then no matter how capable he is, he won't be able to reverse the situation." Xu Bai placed his hand on the long saber and said slowly.

"You're harming the Lin family. If something happens to the person who took the bribe, the person who bribed won't have a good time either." Lin Fu said.

Although he said that, the feasibility of this plan had already appeared in his mind.

Sheng County was located in a remote area. It was a small county town. In Sheng County, County Magistrate Zhang could indeed cover the sky with one hand.

This plan was indeed good. Once the matter of County Magistrate Zhang taking bribes was exposed, the Great Chu State would definitely punish him severely.

A small county magistrate was gone.

Great Chu just develop period if this thing is exposed, will lead to the people's hearts not stable, is to the emperor will never be soft.

Even without this small county magistrate, the emperor could still have the effect of killing the chicken to warn the monkeys.

But... There was an important premise to this, and that was that the person who bribed him would also be severely punished.

Otherwise, why was County Magistrate Zhang so fearless?

Because everyone was tied to the same rope, if something happened, everyone would get into trouble together.

Lin Fu had to worry about the Lin family. If he really did this, it would definitely affect him.

"Do you still not understand what I mean? Everything has a reason. If you use your son's death as an excuse to do this, you will definitely be finished." Xu Bai shook his head.

Change the method?

Lin Fu felt that his brain wasn't enough.

No matter what method he used, he was bribing them.

Could he escape?

“Think about it carefully. If a person who has been bullied and forced to bribe really can’t take it anymore and then sue County Magistrate Zhang, you will instead become a person who doesn’t fear power.” Xu Bai said straightforwardly.

As soon as he said this, the room fell silent.

Lin Fu seemed to be thinking about the feasibility of the matter. After a while, he asked, “Who are you?”

Now, he finally brought up the most important question.

“I have a grudge with County Magistrate Zhang. As for what it is, you don’t have to ask. If I wanted to deal with you, I would have done it long ago.” Xu Bai said.

He gave himself a reason. Otherwise, he would not be able to persuade this old fellow.

“Good!” Lin Fu finally made a decision. “I have an account book at home. I remember it clearly. When the time comes, I’ll bring it to the capital and make him suffer.”

He had already made up his mind. When he thought about how he could not even take revenge after his son died, and how he had no descendants, he could not help but feel angry.

In this day and age, those who were arrogant were afraid of death.

Lin Fu thought.

Xu Bai thought that Lin Fu could only write it down, but he didn’t expect there to be a ledger.

A debt?

Even better!

“Just say that your son’s death stirred up your thoughts of resistance, so you decided to announce this matter. That way, you’ll be fine. Of course, there’s still a process in between.” Xu Bai extended his index finger.

“What process?” Lin Fu asked..

Chapter 48: Heading to the Liu Family

And what was the process?

The plan had already come to this point, so Lin Fu let the other party continue.

“You can’t make a move, and you can’t leave Sheng County. Sheng County only has such a small area. If you go out, Magistrate Zhang will be suspicious.” Xu Bai paced back and forth and said.

“I can’t make a move, and I have to send the news out. You mean you want me to send someone to send the news?” Lin Fu pondered.

“Isn’t there a Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency in Sheng County? You can ask them to deliver the goods and let your butler deliver the goods. Even if something happens, you will only blame the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency and your butler, right?” Xu Bai said.

The Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency was now his property.

The most important thing now was to make Lin Fu feel safe, so escorting was one way.

At the same time, if he wanted to scheme against the Lin family and County Magistrate Zhang, he had to first clean himself up.

Such a sentence was equivalent to listing the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency as not involved in this matter and only as a transportation tool.

It could dispel Lin Fu's suspicions about the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency and pave the way for his subsequent plans. "This is a good idea." "Then I'll go and prepare it now.""

"Yes." Xu Bai didn't say anything more and turned to leave.

After Xu Bai left, the Lin family's old master sat back down on the chair and looked at the oil lamp on the table with a gloomy expression.

"County Magistrate Zhang, since you are unkind, then don't blame me for being unrighteous. There is no successor, so what use do I have for this money?"

After Xu Bai left the Lin Mansion, he did not return to the Bodyguard Agency. Instead, he went to the Liu Mansion.

At this time, the red lanterns outside the Liu residence had been hung up, illuminating the two stone lions at the door red.

After arriving at the corner, Xu Bai climbed over the wall with ease.

Since the matter over there had already been settled, he needed to settle the matter here. Only by combining both sides could he achieve perfection.

The courtyard of the Liu residence was quiet, but at this time, there was still a room that was brightly lit.

Xu Bai had come to look for Liu Xu, but he did not know where Liu Xu's room was.

Seeing a brightly lit room, he subconsciously walked over.

From time to time, there would be servants walking around in the courtyard, doing patrol work.

After the servants left, Xu Bai finally approached the brightly lit room.

The window was tightly shut, so she couldn't see what was inside, but she could hear the sound.

"Duo duo duo..."

The rhythmic sound of the wooden fish rang out, making it seem a little lively in the cold night.

"Wooden fish?" Xu Bai was stunned for a moment, then he remembered the young monk.

"Could it be that this monk lives in the Liu Residence?"

He couldn't see the situation inside from the window, but if it was Liu Xu's room, there would definitely not be the sound of the wooden fish.

Xu Bai thought of the progress bar he saw during the day. He resisted the urge to stay here and left.

Now, it was more important to get down to business.

As for the progress bar, he would figure it out later.

Anyway, this monk had no intention of leaving the Liu residence. There would be plenty of opportunities in the future.

Thinking of this, Xu Bai started searching the other rooms again.

That night, he smelled the scent of sandalwood on Liu Xu.

It was definitely not a body fragrance, but a genuine sandalwood fragrance.

The sandalwood that could make people smell it was definitely used a lot, so there must be a residual smell in the room.

Xu Bai walked along the courtyard while hiding from the servants.

Not long after, he stopped in front of a room in the backyard.

A refreshing fragrance wafted out of the room, and even the windows could not be blocked.

“Yes, this is the place.”

Xu Bai wanted to raise his hand and knock on the door gently, then hid to the side.

Not long after, a female voice came from inside.

“Who is it?”

The sound was crisp, like the chirping of an oriole.

This was Liu Xu’s voice.

“It’s me,” Xu Bai said through the crack in the door.” His voice was hoarse, just like that night.

The room fell into silence, followed by a puzzled voice.

“Who are you? Why did you come to my house in the middle of the night?”

Although Xu Bai had his face covered, he couldn't help but want to complain.

“At that time, I already guessed your identity. Do you think I can't find you in person? Open the door quickly, I have something to discuss.”

After a while, the door was opened.

Liu Xu was dressed in white and her face was covered with a white veil. Although her expression could not be seen, it was obvious from her eyes that she was very angry at this moment.

Really angry!

The other party had already figured out all his background, but he knew nothing about him. Other than knowing that he had killed those people from the Extreme Life Cult, he knew nothing else.

He was very angry, especially in this situation.

This was directly sticking to his face!

“What do you want?” Liu Xu had no intention of letting Xu Bai enter.

Xu Bai looked around and said, “Let's go in first.””

Liu Xu thought for a moment and said, ‘Wait a moment.’”

As she spoke, she bent down and touched the ground.

From Xu Bai's angle, he saw Liu Xu pulling out a row of iron nails from the ground.

The iron nails were tied in a row with a thumb-long iron chain. They were carried by her, and they were still shining with a cold light.

If anyone stepped in, their feet would be pierced through.

“In the martial world, there are some things that we have to be careful about. “Liu Xu didn’t seem embarrassed at all.” Wait for me for a while. I’ll remove some of the common mechanisms.”

“Wait! Let’s talk outside.” Xu Bai raised his hand to stop him.

It was a very common mechanism, which meant that there were also uncommon ones.

Wasn’t Liu Xu a scholar? Why are you doing all these fancy things?

Forget it, I’m not going in.

It wasn’t that he was afraid, but that it wasn’t necessary.

“Alright, there’s a small pavilion in the backyard. Let’s talk there.” Liu Xu walked out of the house and closed the door behind her.

The two of them went to the small pavilion in the backyard.

When they arrived at the pavilion, Xu Bai did not hide anything and told them his thoughts.

“You mean you want me to handle these matters.” Liu Xu was slightly surprised.

Xu Bai nodded.” You know that my identity can’t be exposed, so I’ll leave it to you. Will you do it?”” Liu Xu fell silent.

After a while, she nodded.

“As long as you believe me, I can do it. I’m also taking revenge for Xiao Yue.” “I still have a question. How should we deal with the Lin family?”

Liu Xu asked.

“Don’t worry about this matter. Leave the rest to me. I definitely won’t let them live an easy life.” Xu Bai said.

Seeing this situation, Liu Xu didn’t ask any further.

“Alright, then I’ll leave first. I’ll give you the things when the time comes.” Xu Bai stood up and prepared to leave.

At this moment, Liu Xu thought of something and hurriedly asked Xu Bai to stay.

“What’s wrong?” Xu Bai frowned.

“Today, a guest came to the Liu family. He is a disciple of the Titanium Temple. The matter of you killing the official has been investigated.” Liu Xu repeated Wu Hua’s words.

Xu Bai nodded. It would be best if it could be solved. He was not surprised.

“There’s one more thing.” Liu Xu organized her words..”

Chapter 49: Successful (1)

Xu Bai didn't leave.

Since he was already here, he should make everything clear.

He didn't have a new progress bar to work on, so he had a lot of time.

Of course, Xu Bai still couldn't forget that bald head.

Jin Gang Temple. It sounded like a temple of monks. He guessed that it was related to the monk in green.

Sure enough, Liu Xu first told him about No Flower's identity.

"Heaven Inspectorate..." Xu Bai touched his chin. "You said there was something else just now. It's related to this, right?"

"Something like that. He already knew about the matter of Iron Calculation Immortal. This time, he came for another matter. He wants to find help." Liu Xu said.

"Helper?" Xu Bai looked at Liu Xu with a strange expression and said, "Don't tell me there's still you?"

Liu Xu stretched out her fair fingers and rubbed the space between her eyebrows. Her tone was filled with helplessness. "I didn't want to either, but he had my teacher's letter. I had no choice but to stay here."

In Great Chu, other than those from the evil path, most of the people in the martial world were unwilling to become enemies with the Heaven Inspectorate.

After all, from the perspective of the Great Chu's level, the Heaven Inspectorate was in charge of managing the people in the martial world and the strange monsters.

Many people in the martial world even had the goal of joining the Sky Supervision Department. After all, joining the Sky Supervision Department was equivalent to being an official.

This was different from the TV series that Xu Bai had watched in his previous life. In the TV series of his previous life, this kind of person should be called the imperial court's eagle hound.

However, thinking about it carefully, being able to rely on Great Chu was something that many people in the martial world dreamed of.

"The Titanium Temple has a powerful background. It's one of the top ten temples in Great Chu. This monk called Wu Hua can be considered a favored disciple in the Titanium Temple. "Liu Xu was someone who had received much attention in the Qingyun Academy. She knew more about the ways of Jianghu than Xu Bai.

"I'll go back and think about it. Let's settle the matter with County Magistrate Zhang first." Xu Bai thought for a moment and replied.

According to his thoughts, he did not want to get involved in this matter at all.

However, not long ago, he found a progress bar on the Flowerless Bald Head.

Who could endure this?

What he lacked now was a progress bar for the legitimate liver. This reason tempted him.

However, he had to prioritize everything. He had to solve the matter of County Magistrate Zhang first. After all, the plan had gone so far. If he didn't solve it, he would feel that there was something he hadn't done.

"Do you need me to talk to him?" Liu Xu asked.

"Not for now. We'll talk about it later." Xu Bai said.

He looked at the sky. It was getting late, so he didn't plan to stay any longer and left the Liu residence.

Liu Xu tightened her white clothes and looked at the small lake in the backyard.

A gust of wind blew in the night, and it was slightly cold.

The small lake was clear and few people came.

"The way the Academy teaches scholars is not necessarily correct. This time, I will accompany you to go crazy."

As she thought about it, Liu Xu turned her head and strode back to her room.

The next day.

Ever since that night, Xu Bai hadn't made any big moves. He had been waiting.

Lin Fenghua's death left the Lin family without a successor. If it were him, he would not be able to swallow this humiliation no matter what.

When she talked to Lin Fu last night, she could see him gnashing his teeth.

Lin Fu was just worried that this matter would get him into trouble.

However, after the full exchange last night, Xu Bai said that this fire would not burn Lin Fu, and he guessed that Lin Fu had also thought about it.

What he needed to do now was to wait. If Lin Fu still gave up, he would have to use a new method.

The day passed by in a daze. In the afternoon, the front yard suddenly became bustling with excitement.

“You’re here?” Xu Bai stood up from the stool and went to the front yard.

At this moment, the escorts were making a ruckus. They surrounded someone in the middle, but because there were too many people, they could not see clearly.

“Why aren’t you guys training?” Xu Bai felt that he had to pretend that he was at the right time.

Xu Bai’s voice had long been engraved in the hearts of the escorts in the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency. Therefore, when they suddenly heard him, the escorts shuddered and made way for him.

Xu Bai stepped into the front yard. The escorts stood on both sides with their chests puffed out and their heads held high.

“What happened?” Xu Bai frowned.

Liu Er reacted the fastest. He walked forward and lowered his voice. But even if he lowered his voice, it could not change his excitement.

Liu Er spat out a sentence.

“Brother Xu, there’s a dart!”

Liu Er’s words were filled with excitement.

The bodyguards were also standing guard at the side, waiting for Xu Bai’s orders.

Only then did Xu Bai realize that there was an old man in his fifties standing in the courtyard.

The old man was dressed in silk clothes. The edges of his clothes were very smooth and there were no wrinkles at all. His hands were behind his back and his head was held high, looking very arrogant.

“What dart?” Xu Bai asked, pretending not to know.

According to the rules of the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency, when the escort master was not around, no matter how small the escort was, they could not accept it. Everything had to wait for the escort master to return before they could make a decision.

Therefore, when Xu Bai wasn't in the front yard, Liu Er and the others didn't dare to break this rule and had been waiting.

They didn't dare to call Xu Bai. If he still hadn't woken up, no one knew what would happen if he got angry.

“This is the old butler of the Lin Mansion. He came to ask us to send him to the capital.” Liu Er came closer and whispered.

“Oh? The butler of the Lin Manor?” Xu Bai suddenly understood, as if he had just realized it.

“You are the manager of the Dragon Conqueror Bodyguard Agency? This is what our Lin family's old master asked me to bring over. He wants you to send it to the Wu family in the capital as soon as possible.” The old butler held a wooden box in his hand, his face full of arrogance.

The capital was the capital of Great Chu.

Xu Bai rubbed his chin and looked at the wooden box in front of him, thinking about the situation inside.

The Wu family in Beijing?

What's the origin of this?

When they were chatting that night, they did not say that they were going to report it to the Wu family. Instead, they were going to report it directly to the capital.

It seemed like Lin Fu still had something up his sleeve.

Fortunately, he had held back at that time. In order to clear his name, he deliberately said that he wanted to transport it through the bodyguard agency.

The goal was simple.

Firstly, it was to convey to Lin Fu that the Bodyguard Agency had nothing to do with this matter.

After all, no one would set themselves up. If it was really related, the bodyguard agency would not be involved in this matter.

Secondly, he wanted to be closely connected to the whole thing to prevent Lin Fu from playing any tricks.

Now, it seemed that there was indeed a problem.

“Yes.” Xu Bai said without hesitation.

“This is your reward.” The old butler threw over a bag of broken silver. Xu Bai opened it and took a look. There was a lot of money inside.

He threw it to Liu Er and reached out to the old butler.”

The old butler handed the exquisite wooden box to Xu Bai without hesitation.

Xu Bai tried it out and found that it was quite heavy. He thought to himself, This dishonest thing..”

Chapter 50: Very Busy Tonight

“Remember, safety is the top priority. We don’t need to rush.”The old butler handed the wooden box to Xu Bai and said arrogantly.

Xu Bai didn’t even bother to look back. He turned around and entered the backyard.

“You!” The old butler was stunned and was about to flare up.

When had he ever suffered such humiliation?

However, when he saw the bodyguards around him and thought about how he was alone here, it would not be good if he angered them.

“Humph! Don’t delay this important matter.”

The old butler snorted coldly and left with a wave of his sleeves.

A few bodyguards escorted the old butler to the door.

“Brother Xu, when are we leaving?”Liu Er quickly followed and asked.

This escort mission looked quite easy. It was just a small gift.

They had not forgotten the purpose of opening this bodyguard agency. It was to wash away the money in their hands. Now that they had this opportunity, they would not let it go.

“I’ll inform you when the time comes. We’ll talk about it in two days.” Xu Bai walked into the backyard and said without turning his head.

“Alright!” Liu Er and the others were not in a hurry. They watched Xu Bai enter the house.

“Everyone, hurry up and practice. Don’t cause any trouble.”

The escorts dispersed and returned to the front yard to practice their skills.

Inside the room.

Xu Bai placed the wooden box on the table.

There was a lock on the wooden box. It looked very delicate and complicated. It would be difficult to open it without a key.

“Kacha!”

Xu Bai pulled out his Ghost Head Blade and gave it a light flick. The lock broke in the middle.

Then, he eagerly opened the wooden box and found a letter inside. Underneath the letter was a thick book.

“Just like what I said at the time, this letter should be the thing that cleared him of bribery.”

The Wu family had appeared out of nowhere, so the problem must be with this letter.

Xu Bai placed Ghost Head Blade on the table and picked up the envelope. After opening it, he took out the letter inside and began to read it.

Not long after, he finished reading the letter.

“I knew it, I wouldn’t send a letter to the Wu family for no reason. So it’s to deal with me.”

This letter was sent to the Wu family in the capital. The letter was filled with the complaints and grievances of the Lin family’s old master.

The general content was that his son had died, and the cause of death was also explained.

Lin Fu couldn’t take it lying down if Magistrate Zhang didn’t help his family.

Therefore, he sent the accounts to the Wu family in the capital, hoping that the Wu family would help them.

As for what the Wu family did, the letter said that they were also a prestigious family in the capital.

The reason why the Lin family had a relationship with the Wu family was because the Lin family had a small business that was related to the Wu family.

This business was small, but Lin Fu still made use of it.

According to Lin Fu’s letter, he was willing to use half of the Lin family’s assets in exchange for protection.

This was not the most important thing. The most important thing was that there was another sentence added at the end.

“There was a mysterious person who threatened me as well. He had a long saber hanging from his waist. He was probably with County Magistrate Zhang.” It was obvious that this sentence was directed at Xu Bai.

After all, this was Xu Bai's idea, and Lin Fu was worried that he might have something to use against him.

"Some people really think too highly of themselves." Xu Bai tore the letter into pieces and burned it in the brazier beside him. Then, he took out the account book.

Why would a prestigious family in the capital be interested in a wealthy businessman in a remote county?

It was impossible.

Not to mention half of his assets, he might not even sell all of his assets.

The reason was very simple. When you had 100 million yuan, no one would be willing to pay 1,000 yuan to deal with a small county official.

As for the Wu family mentioned in the letter, he was not interested.

This was because they would not be sending it out at all.

The next part of the plan was the most exciting part.

The account book recorded the amount of bribes the Lin family had bribed County Magistrate Zhang. Every account was recorded in detail.

In this day and age, everyone had to leave a backup plan for themselves.

There was a possibility that the accounts were falsified, but once it was exposed, they had to investigate. If they found out anything, County Magistrate Zhang would not be able to survive.

Even though County Magistrate Zhang was able to cover the sky with one hand in Sheng County, if these things were really exposed, the Emperor of Great Chu would not forgive him.

Even if County Magistrate Zhang had all kinds of talents, the Emperor would not be lenient.

After all, this was a good opportunity to make an example of others.

Most of the accounts book was about normal transactions, but there were a few pages in the middle that contained the amount of bribes to County Magistrate Zhang.

Moreover, the letter emphasized that County Magistrate Zhang had forced him to do all this.

However, if he really wanted to investigate, would he be able to find out if he was forced?

He couldn't find out.

Once this account was handed over to the capital, the Lin family would have the upper hand. Coupled with the Wu family, it might really be possible to wash away the suspicion of bribery.

"You really remember it in detail. However, the more detailed you remember, the faster you will die.
"Xu Bai put down the account book and tapped his fingers on the table.

County Magistrate Zhang, Lin Fenghua, and the Lin Residence were all involved in Xiao Yue's death.

Especially the Lin Mansion. Xu Bai would not believe that the Lin Mansion had not participated in this matter.

Now, Xu Bai had already come up with a comprehensive plan.

"You have planted a seed, and you have to return the fruit. Karma, karma, you have to taste the bitter fruit."

He took out a few pieces of paper from the cabinet and wrote down the contents of the bribe.

When he was done, Xu Bai put the notes into his clothes.

He closed the account book again and placed the account book and the lock in a secret place in the house.

Then, he wrote another letter and took out the few pieces of paper from his clothes. He stuffed the notes into the letter and sealed the envelope.

After doing all this, Xu Bai changed into the clothes he was wearing before. He covered his face and went out to the front yard.

At this time, the sky was already dark, and the escorts had already left.

After leaving the bodyguard agency, Xu Bai walked toward the county office.

The gate of the county office was already closed, and no one was guarding outside.

Xu Bai came to the corner of the yamen and easily climbed in.

The design of the county office was very ingenious. The front yard was used to do all kinds of things that the county office should do, and the backyard was where the county magistrate lived.

Although it was late, the oil lamp was still lit in the main room. Other than that, the other rooms were silent.

Xu Bai quietly walked to the front of the main house and knocked on the door.

“Who is it?”

County Magistrate Zhang’s surprised voice came from the room.

After Xu Bai confirmed County Magistrate Zhang’s identity, he threw the envelope in his hand on the ground and used the Four Xun Body Movements.

His figure was like a ghost as he disappeared into the corner.

The door opened, and County Magistrate Zhang poked his head out with a puzzled expression. He held a brush in his right hand, and a faint white light appeared on the brush.

It was quiet outside the house. There was no one there.

The envelope on the ground caught his attention.

County Magistrate Zhang frowned, picked up the envelope, closed the door, and walked into the house.

Not long after, the sound of a teacup shattering came from the room..
