

Unparalleled 661

Chapter 661: Treasures Everywhere, the Sycamore Divine Fruit, Have You Lost Your Mind

With the blessings of the Heavenly Dao, an endless surge of spiritual qi poured in towards the Godly Phoenix as she started to form her Emperor's Core. The rate she was absorbing the spiritual qi was as fast as when Chu Kuangren was refining the Chaotic qi in the Slumbering Emperor Coffin. Eventually, the Godly Phoenix managed to produce a Superb-grade Emperor's Core!

A Superb-grade Emperor's Core and a Prominent-quality Dao!

Her Emperor's Foundation was no inferior to Chu Kuangren's Prominent-grade Emperor's Core and Epic-quality Dao. Only a divine beast could achieve such an incredible feat.

With the Godly Phoenix becoming an Emperor, a magnificent amount of spiritual qi seethed out in the form of a mist and enveloped several thousand kilometers radius of land within the Black Heaven Sect.

Various sorts of treasures started to form within the mist.

This included Superb-grade soul emblems, spiritual marrows, gemstone veins, and many more.

"D*mn, well I'll be. The Godly Phoenix's affirmation of Dao is truly extraordinary."

"So many treasures are appearing all at once! Tsk, this is just unheard of. Quick, get the others to collect them."

"All hail the mighty Godly Phoenix!!"

Since the Godly Phoenix was a beast of prosperity that possessed a great fortune, her phoenix qi naturally affected her residence by transforming it into a place of great talent. Hence, the Heavenly Dao rejoicing the Godly Phoenix's affirmation of her Dao had sprouted countless items and treasures all over the land.

Even Chu Kuangren was amazed as he watched the scene unfold.

He knew.

He knew that the Godly Phoenix affirming her Dao was not the only reason for these conjurations and occurrences to happen. The Heavenly Dao's restoration also played a part in this.

If the Heavenly Dao was not fully restored, such conjurations and occurrences would not appear even if the Godly Phoenix affirmed her Dao dozens of times.

"Huh, that's..."

Chu Kuangren suddenly sensed the aura of powerful energy erupting within the Black Heaven Sect's territory.

It was the aura of a certain treasure.

His figure disappeared in a flash and arrived at a mountain peak, where a gigantic Sycamore tree had grown.

A flame-colored fruit the size of a fist that had a crystal-like appearance was hanging from the tree.

The bursts of fruity aroma coming from it could make anyone's mouth water.

"The Sycamore has even borne fruit? Wait, this is one of the Ten Great Spirit Fruits, the Divine Sycamore Fruit!"

The Ten Great Spirit Fruits are the ten most highly sought-after spirit fruits in the Firmament Star ever since ancient times. Each of the ten is created by nature itself and possesses tremendous effects once consumed. The White Spiritual Divine Fruit that Chu Kuangren obtained was one of them.

Now, one of the Ten Great Spirit Fruits had appeared before him for the second time, but it was the Divine Sycamore Fruit!

"I can't believe the Godly Phoenix affirming her Dao would produce a spirit fruit like this. Then again, it seems like it'll take some time before this fruit ripens."

"Well, might as well lend it a hand then."

Chu Kuangren took out a soul emblem. After placing it in a specific location, dense surges of spiritual qi started to appear and head towards the Sycamore Divine Fruit.

This was a type of Spiritual Qi Gathering Formation.

Its function was to gather spiritual qi from the surroundings rapidly.

With the help of the formation, the Sycamore Divine Fruit started to ripen quicker, and an extraordinary surge of spirit fruit fluctuation spread everywhere.

The Godly Phoenix affirming her Dao had already attracted the attention of the Emperors stationed in the Firmament Star, so the Sycamore Divine Fruit's appearance made some of them even more jealous.

"Isn't this new Emperor a little too lucky? As if being the master of a Godly Phoenix is not enough, look at all these treasures that have appeared because the divine beasts became an Emperor."

"Wherever the Godly Phoenix resides will be transformed into a land with great talents. It seems like that's a fact not to be taken lightly. The Sycamore Divine Fruit is one of the Ten Great Spirit Fruits specifically used to increase one's cultivation level. One of these is equivalent to a hundred Emperor-grade soul emblems! That's enough to turn a Novice Initial Emperor into an Expert Initial Emperor."

"Sigh. If only a treasure like this appeared in my territory."

"How can a new Emperor possess such a treasure?"

Some of the other Emperors could no longer hold back their desire for the Sycamore Divine Fruit. If that spirit fruit were to appear in someone else's territory, they would not do anything risky even if they were jealous.

However, Chu Kuangren was only just a new Emperor. In the eyes of the other older Emperors, a young new Emperor like him was basically nothing.

"This won't do. The Sycamore Divine Fruit will be of great use to me. I can't let this chance slip by." One of the Emperors gritted his teeth, turned into a ray of light, and disappeared into thin air. Soon, he arrived above the Black Heaven Sect's territory.

At the mountain peak where the Sycamore Divine Fruit was.

A touch of surprise flashed across Chu Kuangren's eyes as he sensed the presence of another Emperor. He turned to look, only to see it was an Emperor in white robes and with a fan in his hand. He looked elegant, akin to a dignified scholar.

Yet, the moment he laid his eyes upon the Sycamore Divine Fruit, there was no way he could hide that greed in his eyes from Chu Kuangren's eyes.

"I knew it. There's no way they will sit still when the Sycamore Divine Fruit appears. On the bright side, why don't I make an example out of these guys?"

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He fully understood that as a new Emperor, he was not that well-known among the older Emperors. That was why people would come to provoke him at any time.

Jian Feng, Bei Ming Xuanse, and this person standing before him...

Turning the situation around would be simple.

All he needed to do was to display his strength!

"Chu Kuangren, I'm willing to trade an Emperor-grade soul emblem with your Sycamore Divine Fruit. How about that?"

The elegant-looking Emperor took out an Emperor-grade soul emblem and chuckled.

"Have you lost your mind?"

Chu Kuangren shot him a glare and replied bluntly.

No matter how unwise he was, he knew that the Sycamore Divine Fruit was worth more than a mere Emperor-grade soul emblem.

"Brother Chu, it's fine if you don't want to trade, but why the rudeness? Do you want to sour our relationship?" The elegant-looking Emperor asked with a grim expression.

"Oh, it's nothing, I just think it's very funny that you want to trade my Sycamore Divine Fruit with a single Emperor-grade soul emblem. This is no different from thievery, yet you have the audacity to talk about souring our relationship?" Chu Kuangren sneered.

"You..."

"Haha, Brother Chu is right. This guy is really shameless." At this time, a sturdy laugh rang out.

An Emperor with a hulking figure walked towards them.

The person approaching had a wild and immensely strong aura akin to a wild beast.

Through his Eye of Revelation, Chu Kuangren learned that the Emperor before him was from a tribe of wild beasts — the Berserk Bear Tribe.

“What are you implying, Xiong Huang (TN: 熊狂 translates literally to “crazed bear”)?”

The elegant-looking Emperor’s expression darkened.

“What do you mean? Isn’t it obvious enough?”

Great Emperor Xiong Huang sneered. After that, he took out a piece of golden armor and said, “Brother Chu, here’s an Emperor Weapon I’m offering to trade for the Sycamore Divine Fruit. What do you say?”

Surges of Daoist patterns were swirling around that armor. It was a defensive Emperor Weapon.

As a Berserk Bear himself, the species of wild beast that Great Emperor Xiong Huang belonged specialized in defense, so he had no use for that Emperor Weapon.

That was why he wanted to trade it with Chu Kuangren.

Unfortunately, Chu Kuangren immediately looked away after taking a glance at it. With his Immortal Body ability, defensive Emperor Weapons would not be of much use to him.

Besides, that Emperor Weapon was not valuable enough to trade for the Sycamore Divine Fruit.

“Nope, I’m not interested.”

“Brother Chu, I’m a straightforward person, so I’ll be frank with you. I’m trading the Sycamore Divine Fruit with you today, whether you like it or not!”

Great Emperor Xiong Huang grinned.

“Well, let’s not waste any more time then. Come.”

Chu Kuangren’s Descendant Self Sword shot out from its sheath. As soon as it landed in his hand, he raised his sword and slashed forth, tearing a rift open in the void.

Then, he walked into the void.

The elegant-looking Emperor and Great Emperor Xiong Huang followed him.

Countless strands of Emperor Thought soon came from all directions and peered into the void to watch the battle that was about to start between the new Emperor and the two veteran Emperors.

Although Chu Kuangren had displayed his strength at the Great Frost Dragon Mountain, he did not use his full power against his opponent that time.

Hence, the Emperors wanted to find out. What was the limit of this new Emperor’s strength?

Chapter 662: One Against Two, the Power of the Almighty Avatar

Inside the void.

Chu Kuangren was facing two veteran Emperors in battle alone.

Both of his opponents were Expert Emperors respectively. On the other hand, Chu Kuangren was only a Rank Two Initial Emperor and was considered a Novice in the Initial Emperor Realm.

With two against one, his chances of winning were slim.

"I'll have you know, Brother Chu, we're different than that guy from the Scaled Tribe, who's only a Rank Four Initial Emperor. Both of us are at Rank Six!"

"The difference in strength in two ranks is beyond what you can imagine."

Great Emperor Xiong Huang grunted as an overpowering surge of Emperor's Aura erupted from his body, and strands of Emperor qi swirled around him.

He was the first to attack by unleashing a punch so powerful that it tore through spatial turbulence within the void. As a result, violent waves of qi spread across the land.

With that, Chu Kuangren raised his sword and slashed forth.

His sword qi instantly ripped the punch apart. Following that, he channeled his Invincible Technique and swung his sword out once more, conjuring a catastrophic scene.

Great Emperor Xiong Huang let out a low cry as several strands of Emperor qi and Daoist patterns started intertwining around him. Soon, an apparition of a gigantic golden bear manifested in the void.

"Roar!!"

Along with the roar, the gigantic golden bear apparition slammed its paw against the incoming sword ray.

With a loud bang, the gigantic golden bear apparition was forced back several hundred meters while Chu Kuangren's sword ray shattered into countless pieces of sword qi.

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up. "Oh, interesting. It seems like you have the power to block my Invincible Technique. You're stronger than that Scaled Tribe's Emperor, without a doubt. Now I wonder, how much stronger are you?!"

Then, he raised his hand and attacked again, unleashing several sword rays at Great Emperor Xiong Huang. The might of his attack was so terrifying that the Great Emperor's expression shifted.

"This guy's power has far surpassed those who are in the same cultivation realm as him."

The gigantic golden bear apparition behind him roared and continuously slammed its paws towards Chu Kuangren, with each attack setting off violent currents within the void.

Boom, boom, boom...

Its huge claws collided with the sword rays, which caused successive explosions.

Great Emperor Xiong Huang was pushed back because of it.

However, Chu Kuangren continued to unleash one sword ray after another. There was no sign of him stopping!

“F*ck this. Hey, you b*st*rd, stop watching and do something!”

Great Emperor Xiong Huang yelled at the elegant-looking Emperor.

“Hmph, serve you right for badmouthing me earlier!!”

The elegant-looking Emperor sneered and then attacked right after.

He knew he would never be able to steal the Sycamore Divine Fruit alone. Hence, he could only join forces with Great Emperor Xiong Huang to do it.

A dense surge of Emperor qi and Daoist patterns erupted from his body and intertwined in the air to form a gigantic green apparition.

It was an apparition with an indistinguishable face as it was covered in a storm surrounded by a domineering surge of windstorm force.

“Heavenly Storm Avatar!”

The elegant-looking Emperor yelled as the windstorm-covered apparition behind him gradually lifted its arms to hit Chu Kuangren.

“Hmm... The power of avatars? Have a taste of mine then.”

“Almighty Avatar!”

Chu Kuangren said.

With that, the power of several Daoist Physiques erupted simultaneously!

A colorful avatar appeared in the void. Its sudden eruption of energy made the veteran Emperors so shocked that they started to shudder!

The Heavenly Storm Avatar was instantly pushed back by the Almighty Avatar’s energy.

“This is impossible!”

“Is this the Daoist Physiques’ power? Why are there so many different avatar auras within it? There’s the Crimson Sun Daoist Physique, Deep Freeze Physique, Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart, Holy Radiant Physique...”

“And even the... Chaos Physique!”

Both the Great Emperor Xiong Huang and the elegant-looking Emperor were stunned with their eyes wide open.

They had witnessed the power of several Daoist Physiques in the past.

However, this was their first time coming across an avatar with the power of so many Daoist Physiques. To them, it was completely unheard

The other Emperors who were watching the battle were dumbfounded as well.

‘How can the power of so many Daoist Physiques be in one person?!’

This was preposterous!

“How... How did he do it?!”

“Unbelievable. This is simply unbelievable...”

“By the heavens, is this guy for real?”

“This is something unheard of even in ancient times!”

Even Great Emperor Hua Xing could not help but gulp. “No wonder the Heavenly Imperials wanted me to keep an eye on him. It seems like this is the reason, but this is just incredible! How did he do it?”

The Emperors were not omnipotent beings.

Hence, they could be shocked too.

At that very moment, Chu Kuangren had shocked every single Emperor watching that battle like never before!

Zi Wuji was observing the battle too.

He could not help but sigh. “Before becoming an Emperor, this guy was already a legend that the younger generation of sky-prides could hardly catch up to. Now that he’s an Emperor, he still creates miracles and wonders like it’s nothing. How can someone like him exist in this world?”

He feared that in this lifetime, he would never catch up to Chu Kuangren.

Inside the void.

Chu Kuangren unleashed his Almighty Avatar, which had gained the power of a few new Daoist Physiques more than last year.

They were Murong Xuan’s Crimson Sun Daoist Physique, Nangong Huang’s Yinyang God-eye, and Shang Qingxue’s Deep Freeze Physique. He even took the time to travel to Emperor Road just to obtain the power of Swordsman Mei’s Dark Descent Physique.

His Almighty Avatar was another level stronger compared to before.

“Alright, let’s see how many moves you can take from my avatar!”

Chu Kuangren uttered.

The avatar behind him immediately let out a punch. That attack was packed with the power of several Daoist Physiques merged together, forming an immensely terrifying Almighty energy!

That energy was just too frightening.

The moment it came into contact with the elegant-looking Emperor’s Heavenly Storm Avatar, his avatar was mercilessly destroyed by the energy of Chu Kuangren’s avatar!

Great Emperor Xiong Huang gulped and was scared out of his wits

‘Too powerful.’

‘He’s just too horrifying.’

A mere Rank Two Emperor had overpowered them, who were both Rank Six Emperors. No, not overpowering, he was crushing them both!

Such combat strength that exceeded the bounds of one’s cultivation realm was simply traumatizing.

“Devastating Might!”

Great Emperor Xiong Huang stepped forth and roared.

Like thunder, the sound waves from his roar traveled far and wide.

Following that, his gigantic golden bear apparition rushed towards Chu Kuangren’s Almighty Avatar. Both of its paws had the power of his Devastating Might!

That attack was so strong that it could crush the planets in space!

However, Chu Kuangren’s Almighty Avatar did not take a single step back.

Boom!

A punch was directly unleashed!

As the turbulent flow within the void shattered, that punch blast containing the power of several Daoist Physiques immediately destroyed the two incoming punches before landing on the gigantic golden bear apparition!

That single punch brutally decimated the gigantic golden bear apparition!

Both veteran Emperors were sent flying by the shockwaves.

Its tremendous power greatly shocked the surrounding Emperors.

The elegant-looking Emperor and Great Emperor Xiong Huang were even more frightened. Both of them looked at Chu Kuangren as a chill ran down their spine.

“How can such a powerful Emperor exist?!”

“How is he so powerful?!”

Both Emperors were trembling in fear.

Meanwhile, Chu Kuangren took a step forward and released a domineering surge of Emperor’s Aura. The Almighty Avatar behind him followed suit.

It raised its arms and slammed downward!

The gigantic hands of his avatar were locked onto the elegant-looking Emperor.

“Now die!”

“No!!”

The elegant-looking Emperor gave it his all to resist that attack, sending forth surge after surge of windstorm energy towards the Almighty Avatar's gigantic hands.

Unfortunately, the elegant-looking Emperor's attacks were ineffective against the Almighty Avatar's incredible strength. His techniques were nothing before the might of that incoming attack. The moment it landed on him, all the Daoist patterns on him started breaking apart.

With a loud boom, the elegant-looking Emperor blew up into pieces!

Chapter 663: Killing Great Emperor Xiong Huang, Studying the Godly Phoenix Physique

"Although he was a Rank Six Emperor, he possessed only an Ordinary Dao and a Low-grade Emperor's Core. Besides, he had never cultivated an Esoteric Art, so his combat strength was just subpar."

"Alright, it's your turn now."

Chu Kuangren looked at Great Emperor Xiong Huang.

The Great Emperor, who hailed from the wild beast tribes, gulped as fear filled his eyes. He had already lost the will to fight long ago.

As such, he opened a rift through the void and escaped.

Chu Kuangren grinned upon seeing that. "Where does he think he's going?"

His figure disappeared in a flash and returned to the real world.

'Quick! I have to escape!'

That was the only thought Great Emperor Xiong Huang had at this point.

In fact, he was greatly puzzled. 'How can a mere Rank Two Emperor possess such terrifying combat strength?!'

Even a Rank Six Emperor like him could not fight back!

"Going somewhere?"

Just as the Great Emperor Xiong Huang was escaping, a clear voice suddenly rang out.

Following that, his pupils shrank as an instinctive fear kicked in. By then, a young woman in red was already in front of her.

The girl had long black hair that reached her waist, a slim figure, bright red lips, and a kind of noble aura between her brows. She had the looks of a high and mighty woman.

"You're... the Godly Phoenix!"

"That Godly Phoenix who has just affirmed its Dao and become an Emperor!"

Great Emperor Xiong Huang's expression changed. Acting cautiously this time, he summoned all of his strength and unleashed a punch at the Godly Phoenix.

"Let me introduce myself. I'm Chu Hong from the Black Heaven Sect!"

Chu Hong, the Godly Phoenix, said.

After that, she raised her hand gently and used her thin arm to receive Great Emperor Xiong Huang's incoming punch attack.

A gust of wind blew as a blast exploded.

Chu Hong stood still with her bright red dress fluttering in the air. Her golden-colored eyes were cold.

"You are very brave, little bear. How dare you come and cause trouble in the Black Heaven Sect?"

With a soft snort, a huge golden flame sparked from Chu Hong's jade-white palm and enveloped Great Emperor Xiong Huang's entire arm.

As her Emperor qi and Daoist patterns intertwined in the flames, Great Emperor Xiong Huang's arm burned into ashes in an instant.

"Argh..."

Great Emperor Xiong Huang screamed when he saw the flames spreading towards the rest of his body. Hence, he immediately took drastic action by channeling Emperor qi to blow up his own arm!

He quickly leaped backward while looking at Chu Hong fearfully. Meanwhile, Chu Hong tossed away the arm that had turned to ashes and grinned. That's all you've got for a Rank Six Emperor? You're kidding."

Great Emperor Xiong Huang was speechless when he heard that.

Indeed.

Chu Hong had only stepped into the Emperor Realm recently, yet she could already crush a Rank Six Emperor like him.

By the looks of it, a Rank Six Emperor like him was no challenge to her at all.

Then again, was it her fault?

One could only say that the Godly Phoenix was too favored by the heavens.

To say she obtained a Prominent-quality Dao and a Superb-grade Emperor's Core the moment she entered the Emperor Realm! Coupled with having the Phoenix's Flames that could burn all things in the world, the combat strength she had was no surprise.

"Chu Kuangren is already abnormally strong. With this Godly Phoenix as well... D*mn it, I'm too careless."

Great Emperor Xiong Huang was extremely annoyed at himself.

If he had known earlier, he would not have arrived even if he was forced to!

"Godly Phoenix, seeing that we're both beasts, please let me go. I shall repay you greatly in the future," Great Emperor Xiong Huang said.

"Those who intrude upon my Black Heaven Sect shall face death!"

Chu Hong was merciless.

She raised her hand and unleashed her Phoenix's Flames once more. Within her flames, the Daoist patterns formed by her Prominent-quality Dao released frightening fluctuations into the void.

"D*mn it. If that's the case, I'm taking you down with me!"

Great Emperor Xiong Huang roared in rage.

Following that, he reverted into his true form.

He was a gigantic golden bear the size of a small hill. His fur gleamed like Iron, making it seem indestructible.

As soon as the Phoenix's Flame struck him, his fur was scorched black. However, the flames did not reach his flesh.

"The members of my Berserk Bear Tribe possess strong physical bodies, and our furs are as tough as an Emperor Weapon. Although your Phoenix's Flame is terrifying and hard to block in my human form, it won't be that easy to harm me in my true form."

Great Emperor Xiong Huang roared. Despite having one arm left, he rushed towards Chu Hong, his aura still extremely terrifying.

He clawed out and tore several rifts open in space.

Just as Chu Hong was about to fight back, a sword ray suddenly appeared and struck the Great Emperor Xiong Huang, sending him flying.

Right after that, a gigantic colorful hand descended from the skies. Although he was the size of a small hill, Great Emperor Xiong Huang was grabbed by that hand in mid-air, rendering him immobile.

It was Chu Kuangren's Almighty Avatar!

"Let me go. Let me go this instant!"

Great Emperor Xiong Huang continued to roar.

Unfortunately, despite reverting back to his true form, he was still powerless before the strength of Chu Kuangren's Almighty Avatar, which contained the power of several Daoist Physiques.

"Just die."

Chu Kuangren said indifferently.

The Almighty Avatar suddenly tightened its grip as a burst of terrifying energy erupted. A series of consecutive explosions, akin to green peas popping, echoed.

The Daoist pattern on Great Emperor Xiong Huang's body, as well as his flesh and bones, were crushed into a bloody mess.

After that, Chu Kuangren threw what remained of Great Emperor Xiong Huang's corpse into the nearby mountains.

At that moment, the beasts living in the Black Heaven Sect's territory immediately ran towards and devoured that Emperor's corpse.

As such, many of those beasts broke through their cultivation realms and increased their strengths.

An Emperor's Corpse was tantamount to a priceless Supreme Elixir to them.

"Congratulations on becoming an Emperor, Lil Red."

Chu Kuangren looked at Chu Hong and chuckled.

"You're so awesome, brother! This little bear's body was so tough that even my Phoenix's Flame couldn't easily kill him. Yet, your avatar just went and crushed him into a pulp."

Chu Hong looked at the Almighty Avatar behind Chu Kuangren in amazement.

Chu Kuangren dispersed his Almighty Avatar and looked at Chu Hong. Suddenly, he got an idea. If his Tome of Physiques could analyze and evaluate the mysteries of every physique in this world, could he use it to obtain the Godly Phoenix's physique?

When that idea popped up in his mind, the Tome of Physiques within the depths of his soul trembled a little.

Then, he saw a red bundle of flame appearing on Chu Hong's body in his vision. Countless Daoist patterns were contained within it.

That was the true source of the Godly Phoenix's physique!

Once he refined that bundle of the true source, he would obtain the power of the Godly Phoenix's physique.

"It works!"

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up with delight.

That was when he understood something.

His Tome of Physiques could be used to analyze every physique in this world, including the physiques unique to each species and tribe. Those physiques, too, were within the bounds of analysis and refinement for the Tome of Physiques.

Besides the Daoist Physiques possessed by humans, the physiques of the other species and tribes could also be evaluated.

For instance, the types of archaic ancient wild beasts, and more.

"Looks like I have more to research on in the future."

Chu Kuangren murmured.

Following that, both Chu Kuangren and Chu Hong waited until the Sycamore Divine Fruit ripened. During this time, he began to research the Godly Phoenix's physique too.

Chu Hong was very cooperative during that process.

Without a doubt, the divine beast's physique could not be compared to any mere Daoist Physiques. Even the strongest Supreme Daoist Physique, the Chaos Physique, still paled in comparison to the Godly Phoenix Physique.

After the Sycamore Divine Fruit had ripened, it took Chu Kuangren another ten days for him to analyze only ten percent of the Godly Phoenix Physique.

However, he was not in a hurry since he could continue his research when he returned to the Black Heaven Sect.

Several months later, he managed to fully grasp the mysteries of the Godly Phoenix Physique. This meant he had mastered the ability to control the Phoenix's Flames too.

Chapter 664: The Ashura Tribe Has Fallen, the Demonic Realm Breaks Through Its Seal Once Again

"The Godly Phoenix Physique can't be merged into the Almighty Avatar?"

Chu Kuangren was in a closed-door meditation inside the Towering Heaven Palace, planning to integrate the Godly Phoenix Physique's power into his Almighty Avatar.

However, he realized that it was incompatible!

The Godly Phoenix Physique was like a high and dignified noble, whilst the other Daoist Physiques were like mere common folk.

In this case, the Godly Phoenix Physique was noble that hated to be with the common folk in the lower class.

"Is the Godly Phoenix Physique too high of a tier?"

"Similarly, the powers of my Immortal Body and Universal Cauldron Physique can't merge with the Almighty Avatar too. Well, it seems like these three God-tier physiques will have to stay this way for the time being."

Chu Kuangren said in frustration.

Although he could not merge the Godly Phoenix Physique's power into the Almighty Avatar, he still managed to gain control of it. Hence, he was still delighted about it, seeing that he had a new trump card against his enemies in the future.

The might of the Phoenix's Flame was not to be taken lightly.

It was the Essence of All Flames after all!

Besides, stronger types of uncommon flame were close to none in the Firmament Star.

"Alright, time to refine the Sycamore Divine Fruit."

Chu Kuangren said as he took out the Sycamore Divine Fruit.

As one of the Ten Great Spirit Fruits, it was commonly used to increase one's cultivation realm. Hence, it would greatly benefit Chu Kuangren at his current level.

Without delay, he gobbled it up in a few bites and swallowed it into his belly.

"It's a little less tasty compared to the White Spiritual Divine Fruit."

Chu Kuangren smacked his lips.

'I wonder what the other remaining spirit fruit tastes like?'

If he ever had the chance to taste the other eight Great Spirit Fruits, he would certainly rank them in terms of taste.

Boom!

Soon after the Sycamore Divine Fruit entered his belly, Chu Kuangren felt a surge of terrifying energy erupt inside him and spread throughout his whole body.

Then, spiritual power as vast and endless as a raging ocean erupted!

His Universal Cauldron Technique was activated!

The energy released by the Sycamore Divine Fruit was rapidly absorbed, refined...

With that, Chu Kuangren's cultivation level began to increase.

While Chu Kuangren was in his closed-door meditation refining the Sycamore Divine Fruit, something strange happened in the Purgatory Forest, one of the Ten Great Forbidden Areas.

The last time the Demonic Realm attempted to invade the Firmament Star, Chu Kuangren summoned all the swords in Firmament Star to cast the Sealing Sword Formation and seal the Demonic Realm away.

However, now that the Heavenly Dao was restored and could handle the Emperors' powers, the Seven Great Demon Emperors were starting to take action too.

Besides that, a mysterious hooded figure wearing a black cloak had arrived outside the Purgatory Forest today. With his own power, he tore his way through the whole Purgatory Forest.

"This power... Y-you're an Emperor!"

The Ashura Tribe Leader looked at the mysterious hooded figure in disbelief. Meanwhile, his fellow Ashura Tribe members around him had all been defeated, with broken limbs and heads scattered everywhere. It was a bloody sight.

"Now die."

The hooded figure casually unleashed a punch.

The surrounding void suddenly burst open with a boom. Clearly not a match against the mysterious enemy, the Ashura Tribe Leader was blown up into a mist of blood right there and then.

The Ashura Tribe... had been wiped out!

The mysterious hooded figure looked into the void. She could sense the presence of an incredibly powerful formation hidden in it.

“Back in the day, the Great Acheron Emperor was able to seal the entrance to the Demonic Realm because of his Great Emperor cultivation level. Who would have expected Chu Kuangren to achieve the same feat without even being an Emperor’s level at that time? He is quite a prodigy indeed.”

The hooded figure uttered.

Following that, she tore open a black rift in the void and walked into it, arriving in the space within the endless void.

Inside the void, countless swords with immeasurably terrifying sword qis were hovering in mid-air. It was quite a sight to behold.

At the center of the countless swords was a black dot.

It was the entrance to the Demonic Realm.

However, it was currently suppressed by the boundless sword qi around it.

“This sword formation is truly remarkable. It’s hard to imagine it was someone below the level of an Emperor who did this.”

The hooded figure looked at the sword formation before her in amazement.

Then, she took a deep breath.

Strands of Emperor qi started to surge within her body, and several Daoist patterns swirled around her, turning into surges of freezing qi that were unleashed at the sword formation.

With a boom, the freezing qi began to erode the sword formation. As more and more swords started falling off from the outer parts, the sword formation’s power gradually reduced.

Upon seeing this, the hooded figure continued attacking.

Bursts of freezing qi appeared and landed on the sword formation violently. Although the Sealing Sword Formation was powerful, it started to give way under the barrage of attacks. One by one, many swords froze before falling apart from the formation.

The sword formation’s strength was rapidly decreasing.

Hum...

As if it noticed something happening, the black dot at the center of the sword formation expanded so fast that it had turned into a huge black vortex in just a few moments.

Waves of horrifying spatial fluctuations emanated from it. Alongside the freezing qi, it attacked the sword formation from inside and out.

“Frost Heaven Art, Great Frost Dragon Punch!”

The hooded figure let out a low grunt as she unleashed her freezing qi once more. Countless Daoist patterns intertwined to form a huge white dragon with an even terrifying freezing qi that crashed onto the sword formation.

The surrounding turbulence in the void instantly shattered with a bang!

The Sealing Sword Formation had been broken!

In the Underworld Demonic Realm, the Seven Great Demon Emperors opened their eyes one by one.

“The sword formation has been destroyed!”

“Haha! Now that the troublesome sword formation is gone, start rallying the troops. Follow my lead and conquer the human world!”

“I can sense the Heavenly Dao over there has been restored, and it can now handle an Emperor’s power. Great! I shall personally descend upon the human realm and tear that kid who sealed the entrance into shreds!!”

“Just you wait, humans. We’re coming!”

The Seven Great Demon Emperors started to take action.

Inside the Purgatory Forest.

A beautiful masked figure arrived.

Looking at the Ashura Tribe’s corpses scattered everywhere, she could not help but tremble as her eyes started to water. Soon, tears streamed down her face.

“Who is it? Who is it that did this?!”

“Argh!”

That person was Zhan Hongying, who had just returned to the Ashura Tribe from the Emperor Road.

After failing to obtain an Emperor’s Throne, she stayed in the Emperor Road for a while before returning to the Ashura Tribe today.

Unfortunately, her whole tribe had been wiped out upon her return.

Her brothers, sisters, friends, seniors, teachers...

Even the young and old were not spared.

Zhan Hongying’s eyes turned red as she became more agitated. Several blood-colored, spiritual power flowers started to bloom all over her, making her appear even more seductive and devilish.

During this moment.

In the skies, a black vortex suddenly appeared.

With that, a burst of horrifying spatial fluctuations spread through the realm.

“That’s the Demonic Realm’s entrance!”

Zhan Hongying’s expression changed. “The sword formation has been broken. Someone must’ve opened the Demonic Realm’s entrance. It must be the person who murdered all my tribe members.”

A hooded figure soon appeared from the black vortex.

“That’s the one!”

There was a deep hatred and rage in Zhan Hongying’s eyes. Just as she was about to chase after the culprit, her black demonic wolf rushed out from the black mist behind her and pinned her onto the ground while howling at her.

“What the hell are you doing, Lil Pip? I’m going to f*cking take revenge!”

“Howl...”

No matter how Zhan Hongying struggled, her demonic wolf, Lil Pip pinned her onto the ground and would not let go.

‘You can’t go!’

‘You certainly cannot go!’

From its instinct as a demonic beast, Lil Pip knew how dangerous the hooded figure was. It knew that her master, Zhan Hongying would never be able to defeat her.

Zhan Hongying would only be met with death if she went ahead.

Hence, the demonic wolf could only do this to protect its master, who was acting impulsively on rage.

“Oh, there’s one Ashura sc*m left?”

The mysterious hooded figure was a little surprised when she noticed Zhan Hongying and Lil Pip. She could not believe someone from the Ashura Tribe had survived.

Just as she was about to kill both of them, several powerful auras emerged from the Demonic Realm entrance behind her.

“The great armies of the Demonic Realm are about to arrive. I’d better leave now. As for this remaining Ashura sc*m, I’ll leave her to the Demonic Tribes,” said the mysterious hooded figure.

Following that, she turned into a ray of light and quickly disappeared from the spot.

Meanwhile, many had sensed that the Demonic Realm entrance had opened.

Chapter 665: The Seven Demon Emperors Appear Once Again, Demon Realm Domain, It’s You

“What’s going on? This demonic qi... Is it the Demonic Realm entrance?”

“D*mn it. What happened? How could the Demonic Realm entrance appear so suddenly? Didn’t Chu Kuangren seal it back then?!”

“Is there anyone nearby? We’ll need them to assess the situation...”

“There’s no Emperor watching over that area.”

The Emperors were immediately alarmed.

One by one, their Emperor Thoughts started rushing towards the Purgatory Forest.

As a place where the Demonic Realm's seal was, the Purgatory Forest's location was an incredibly sensitive one. Besides, the land there had been corroded by demonic qi in the past, making the spiritual qi presence there scarce. Hence, Purgatory Forest was excluded outside the boundaries of the three hundred prefectures.

In other words, no Emperors were in charge of that area.

That was why none of the Emperors rushed there immediately when the Demonic Realm entrance's seal was broken. However, most of them were still watching from the sidelines.

They were observing the number of forces that arrived, how many Emperors were among them...

"We must not act hastily. Let's start by preventing the spread of the demonic qi. As for the Demonic Realm's Emperors, we'll have to see how powerful they are first."

"That's right. Huh? It looks like there's a surviving Ashura Tribe member over there. Should we save her?"

"She's only a Boundary Emperor. Just leave her be."

Black Heaven Sect, inside the Towering Heaven Palace.

Chu Kuangren suddenly opened his eyes, which flashed with a horrifying glint. "The Sealing Sword Formation inside the Purgatory Forest has been broken?"

After storing the remaining Sycamore Divine Fruit energy that his Universal Cauldron Physique had yet refined, his figure disappeared.

Inside the Purgatory Forest.

Terrifying surges of energy were emitting from the Demonic Realm entrance.

Several figures soon rushed out, one by one. This included various beings from the Demonic Realm, such as hellhounds, demonic wolves, demonic dragons...

They were led by the Seven Demon Emperors.

Zhan Hongying recognized all seven of them since their clones had come to the Firmament Star during the previous Demonic Realm invasion.

However, all seven of them were here for real!

With the Seven Demon Emperors' arrival on the Firmament Star, their horrifying Emperor's Aura hit the void violently like a crashing tide. The whole firmament was shocked by their presence.

Zhan Hongying was so overwhelmed by their aura that she found it hard to move.

"That's the might of a real Emperor!"

"And judging by their strength, all of them are no ordinary Emperors too!"

Zhan Hongying had experienced an Emperor's Aura before at the Emperor Mountain. However, even the Emperor's Aura of Zi Wuji, Wang Quan, and the other new Emperors combined was nothing compared to any of the Seven Great Demon Emperors.

"It's good to finally be here in my true form. What great timing for the Heavenly Dao to be restored! Now, we can exert our full power without any considerations." Demon Emperor Pride let out a sinister laugh.

The other Demon Emperors beside him were delighted as well.

After that, the hulking Demon Emperor Wrath noticed something. He looked towards the countless Ashura corpses scattered on the ground and grinned. "Looks like someone has destroyed the sword formation for us. That's how the entrance could open."

"I wonder who's the kind soul."

"Oh, seeing that no one was here when the Demonic Realm entrance opened, it seems like whoever did this had other plans in mind."

"Whatever. Now that we're here, the Firmament Star will forever be under our rule. I don't care what they do as long as it doesn't threaten us."

The Demon Emperors were engaged in a discussion.

Meanwhile, the onlooking Emperors were astounded when they swept their Emperor Thoughts across the seven of them. The Seven Demon Emperors were too powerful.

Even the weakest among them was at least a Perfected Initial Emperor.

Upon further comparison, the Firmament Star Emperors may have gained the upper hand in numbers, but they still lacked top-notch Emperors.

"I can't believe the Seven Demon Emperors have gotten so powerful."

"Looks like it'll be a tough fight for us."

Just as the Emperors were deliberating on which action to take, the Seven Demon Emperors made their move.

"Activate the Demonic Realm Domain!"

Demon Emperor Pride commanded.

He then took out a black iron insignia that had the word "Pride" engraved on it. The other Demon Emperors nodded and took out their iron insignias respectively.

"Greed", "Envy", "Rage", "Lust", "Gluttony", "Sloth", and "Pride" — those seven words were engraved on each iron insignia.

The seven black iron insignias that had the Demon Emperors' names engraved onto them collided in the air, creating an unimaginable and mysterious energy wave that spread to a ten-thousand-kilometer radius. They had formed a frightening force field around Purgatory Forest!

In other words, it was a domain!

This was the Demonic Realm Domain!

The Emperors' expressions changed upon sensing that domain, and all of them could feel a looming threat coming from it!

"That's the Demon Realm Domain!"

Great Emperor Hua Xing frowned. "Legend has it that the Seven Demon Emperors can cast a domain by joining forces. Any beings inside the domain that are not of the Demonic Realm will be overwhelmed by a terrifying force, and they won't be able to use their full strength."

"I'm afraid this is the true reason as to why those Seven Emperors dares to invade the human world!"

The onlooking Emperors were a little hesitant to fight.

Since the Seven Demon Emperors were Perfected Initial Emperors and the Demon Realm Domain activated, even if all three hundred of them were to attack at once, the chances of victory would be slim.

"This Demon Realm Domain is just too overpowered."

"It's said that this technique is related to the Gods in the Underworld."

"Notify the Heavenly Imperial Council and request backup from them. This matter is beyond the capabilities of ordinary Emperors like us."

Several Emperor Thoughts communicated in the void.

The Emperors were here at the Firmament Star mainly to stand guard over the sealed Gods, besides collecting a few treasures and items on the side.

They would never risk their lives for this.

Otherwise, they would have gone to the Extraterritorial Battlefield long ago instead of coming to the Firmament Star to live a peaceful life here.

Inside the Purgatory Forest.

After activating the Demonic Realm Domain, the demonic qi in the realm suddenly increased rapidly. As such, countless demonic beings roared in delight.

"Huh? There are survivors of the Ashura Tribe."

Demon Emperor Wrath suddenly noticed Zhan Hongying and Lil Pip on the ground.

He grinned and slowly descended to the ground.

The moment his feet touched the ground, the ground beneath him burst into pieces. The shockwaves and demonic energy from that impact sent both Zhan Hongying and Lil Pip flying.

"How terrifying..."

Having been thrown to the ground, Zhan Hongying spat out mouthfuls of blood.

Her opponent did not even need to attack. His demonic aura was already enough to critically injure her, which made Zhan Hongying feel that she was like an ant— no. She was even smaller than an ant before the likes of Demon Emperor Wrath.

“Woman, if you kneel and kowtow to me a few times, I might consider sparing your life. What do you think?”

“I’ll never beg for mercy from a demon!”

“Oh, how bold of you.”

Demon Emperor Wrath chuckled. He then formed a huge black hand with his demonic qi and grabbed Zhan Hongying into the air.

Multiple cracking sounds were heard consecutively.

Zhan Hongying’s flesh and bones were slowly being crushed.

“Is it painful? As long as you beg for mercy, I shall let you live.”

Demon Emperor Wrath laughed. Although Zhan Hongying screamed in agony from being crushed, not a plea of mercy came out from her lips.

The onlooking Emperors shook their heads and sighed.

“Dying seems to be a better choice for her now. This Ashura Tribe member is either too stubborn for her own good or too ignorant to judge the current situation.”

“Well, whatever. She’s just a Boundary Emperor anyway. Although she’s quite talented and will likely be an Emperor in the future, I’m afraid this is as far as she’ll go.”

Just when Zhan Hongying was on the brink of death.

A flash of sword ray containing an extremely dense Daoist pattern and Emperor qi suddenly appeared from a distance and locked onto Demon Emperor Wrath.

Demon Emperor Wrath’s gaze narrowed before he unleashed a punch in return.

An explosion occurred the moment the fist and sword ray collided. Under the clash of demonic qi and Emperor qi, a gorgeous white sword flew out from the blast, returning to the hands of a young man.

Chapter 666: Sending You All Down to Pay for Your Sins, Suppression from the Demonic Realm Domain

2

Demon Emperor Wrath’s eyes narrowed when he saw who was approaching him.

That person was wearing a robe white as snow. He had waist-length black hair and was holding a gorgeous white jade sword. One step of his was like a leap across space, crossing several dozen kilometers at one go, which allowed him to hold Zhan Hongying in time.

He cast the Spring Breeze Healing Technique in an attempt to heal Zhan Hongying.

However, the man soon realized that all the spiritual qi around them were almost completely eroded by demonic qi. Therefore, the Spring Breeze Healing Technique's healing effects were hindered.

Fortunately, Chu Kuangren was a top-notch physician himself. So with the activation of his Emperor qi, a droplet of water formed at the tip of his finger.

The water droplet dripped onto Zhan Hongying's forehead, securing whatever little life force she had left. This man then looked at what was happening around them, and he let out a soft sigh.

"It's me. I'm sorry that I came late."

"Ashura Tribe, the guardians of the demonic realm, protectors of the firmament's beings for over hundreds of thousands of years, their spirits will never die. Their stories will be passed down to the future for more generations to come!"

There was a look of despair in his eyes.

Demon Emperor Wrath laughed in his face. "No, you're not late at all. You've arrived just in time to be sent down there and accompany them!"

Chu Kuangren wiped off the sadness from his face and turned around to stare at Demon Emperor Wrath. A stone-cold murderous intent seeped out from his eyes. "You're right. They are still waiting for company, for you murderers to die for your sins. I'll be the one to send you guys down there today!"

He passed Zhan Hongying to the demonic wolf beside him and ordered, "Take good care of your Master. Leave these rascals to me."

"Howl..."

The demonic wolf grabbed Zhan Hongying by the collar, swung her onto his back, and then swiftly carried her out of the scene.

"Go after them!"

Demon Emperor Wrath commanded. Suddenly, a troop of Demonic Realm soldiers pursued the direction where Zhan Hongying and the wolf had fled.

Chu Kuangren mobilized his mind power. With the lift of an arm, a crimson flame gushed out at those soldiers, disintegrating them into ashes.

"By the end of today, none of you demons who came to the human realm shall live!"

Chu Kuangren held on to the Descendant Self in one hand, and crimson phoenix fire burning in the other. His ice-cold yet fiery murderous intent shrouded the entire land they were in.

The few Demon Emperors shuddered.

"He's an Emperor now!"

"It hasn't been long since we last met him. How has he managed to become an Emperor so soon?"

“This man’s growth rate is way too unbelievable.”

A strong sense of fear and concern started to reveal in Demon Emperor Wrath’s eyes.

Counting this current encounter, he had met Chu Kuangren a total of three times. The first time, his adversary was an Honorable. The second time, he had already become a Boundary Emperor. This time, he had ascended into Emperorhood!

Not only that...

“It’s you every time!”

“Every time, you’re the one standing in the way of a Demonic Realm invasion. You truly are the biggest obstacle to our invasion!”

Demon Emperor Wrath said in a low voice, “Very well, I may as well avenge my son, Touheng today too. An eye for an eye!”

Touheng was the Demonic Tribe’s outlawed sky-pride.

He was also the most capable candidate to fight for an Emperor’s Throne. However, he was slain by Chu Kuangren while at Emperor Road. Demon Emperor Wrath had always held a grudge against him from the moment he heard the news. He had long sworn to be the man to put Chu Kuangren down.

“Kill them all!”

Demon Emperor Wrath led his troop and made the first move. In his hand, a long dark-crimson saber instantly appeared. Tremendous saber rays coursed through the weapon, turning into a huge kilometer-tall saber shadow that slashed down toward Chu Kuangren!

“Invincible Technique, Inverted Universe!”

Similarly, Chu Kuangren struck out with his sword.

Surprisingly, he experienced his first-ever pushback the moment the saber shadow met with the sword ray, and his whole body was sent several hundred meters backward.

Chu Kuangren frowned.

Indeed.

Demon Emperor Wrath’s cultivation was at Rank Nine Initiate Emperor Realm. On the other hand, his cultivation realm had reached the Rank Four Initiate Emperor Realm after having absorbed the Divine Sycamore Fruit!

This made him an Expert Emperor.

With his Esoteric Arts, Epic-quality Dao, and Prominent-grade Emperor’s Core, Chu Kuangren was confident that he would have the upper hand on that hit earlier. Nonetheless, he noticed that the sword strike he cast earlier was greatly reduced in power, as though some external force was limiting its power.

“It’s the land here!”

“This land is restricting the potential of my Dao and powers.”

Chu Kuangren muttered under his breath. He knew he sensed something amiss.

“Chu Kuangren, do you know why the other Emperors of Firmament Star did not come here? It’s because of this Demonic Realm Domain!!”

“Inside this domain, any non-demonic being would be suppressed in strength. I can’t believe you have the guts to step foot into this place.”

Demon Emperor Wrath snickered.

The other Demon Emperors watched on with amusement too.

However, they did not intervene.

To them, Chu Kuangren was no match for their true forms. On top of the Demonic Realm Domain, Demon Emperor Wrath should be able to deal with him alone.

“Heh, don’t mention me in the same sentence as those bunch of cowards.”

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Emperor qi inside his body activated to cast his Almighty Avatar.

The Emperors who were watching from the dark frowned. After hearing what Chu Kuangren had said about them, they felt extremely unhappy.

“What does this kiddo mean?”

“Hmph, I can’t believe he’s still so cocky in such a perilous situation. I was initially thinking of helping him, but after hearing those cynical words, I don’t feel like it anymore.”

“You’re right in doing so. He needs to be taught a lesson or two.”

The Emperors were conversing through their Emperor Thoughts.

Back in the Black Heaven Sect, several flashes of light were dashing rapidly toward the Purgatory Forest’s direction. It was Lan Yu, the Godly Phoenix, and a few other new Emperors.

They were headed to provide Chu Kuangren with backup.

However, before they could get close to Purgatory Forest, an invisible force barricaded them on the outside. That was the Demonic Realm Domain.

Inside Purgatory Forest.

Demon Emperor Greed smacked his lips and said, “I’ve already activated the Demonic Realm Domain’s barricade earlier. As long as it’s against our wishes, no other Emperor can come in easily. Kiddo, you’re on your own now.”

Outside of Purgatory Forest.

Murong Xuan, Lan Yu, and the rest of the group were attacking the Demonic Realm Barricade with their Emperor qi and Daoist Pattern.

Yet, no matter what, they could not get through. It would not budge at all.

After all, they were just a group of new Emperors.

“My dear Emperors, are you guys just going to watch on from the sidelines?”

“Yeah, that’s right. The Demonic Realm Invasion is ongoing, and the whole Firmament Star is in imminent danger. As Emperors, are you guys just going to sit there and do nothing?”

Murong Xuan questioned the Emperors.

He knew that the rest of the Emperors were paying close attention to the battle.

“New Emperor, you’ve no idea how powerful this Demonic Realm Domain is. Once we get in there, our combat strength would decrease by less than ten percent. This battle is out of our league, but we’ve already reported this catastrophe to the Heavenly Imperials.”

Great Emperor Hua Xing’s voice rang out.

Upon hearing that, Murong Xuan’s expression sank. “So, you’ve reported this to the Heavenly Imperials, but when are they going to arrive?”

“In one day at best. Firmament Star is the origin of the Heavenly Dao. The Heavenly Imperials are not going to stand by and watch the Demonic Realm conquer this land.”

“One day? You guys intend to have our Sect Leader fend off that million-strong Demonic Realm army, on top of those Seven Demon Emperors, for an entire day?!”

Murong Xuan was so mad that his face turned blue.

“Isn’t Chu Kuangren very powerful? I believe this little task shouldn’t be too big of a problem for him. Who knows? He might even make a comeback and slaughter everyone in the Demonic Tribe until not one remains.” A voice of mockery was heard.

That voice was from Bei Ming Xuanse.

Since he had bad blood with Chu Kuangren, he could not help but make a sarcastic jab or two seeing that his adversary was deep in trouble.

“You...” Murong Xuan has seen it all now. These Emperors only wanted to use this opportunity to let Chu Kuangren have a taste of his own medicine.

However, there was nothing he could do to stop them.

With his new Emperor powers and even help from Lan Yu, Leng Ningyu, and the Godly Phoenix, it would still be near impossible for them to break through this Demonic Realm Barricade without any additional assistance.

Chapter 667: Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern, a Restrictive Effect on the Gods

Inside Purgatory Forest.

Chu Kuangren was facing the entire Demonic Tribe army solo.

The only thing was that with the suppression from the Demonic Realm Domain, his Dao and cultivation had been significantly weakened. Even with a powerful move like the Almighty Avatar, he still could not gain the upper hand in his battle against Demon Emperor Wrath!

“If things continue down this road, I’ll be at a disadvantage.”

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

He inhaled deeply, and a silvery-white Daoist pattern coursed at the heart of his palm. “Fine, let’s give this power a try then!”

Chu Kuangren tightened his fist, and a colossal Heavenly Might erupted from his body. The Demonic Tribe members around him with weaker cultivation started to tremble.

The Almighty Avatar was now covered in a mystical Daoist pattern!

That was, in fact, the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern!

At the emergence of the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern, the Almighty Avatar threw out a forceful punch and unleashed a terrifying bout of energy that created pitch-black crack marks in the sky.

Demon Emperor Wrath did not have time to react, and his whole body was blasted into the air by this punch, crashing into the several mountains behind him.

Caught off guard, Demon Emperor Wrath was blasted into the air by this punch before crashing into several mountains behind him.

The Demonic Realm army was flabbergasted by this sight. They stared wide-eyed, a pin-drop silence pervading them.

The remaining few Demon Emperors were shocked too. They could not believe their eyes.

Even Chu Kuangren himself was rather taken aback by that punch he just pulled off.

He could feel that the unique suppression force all around him had suddenly vanished!

Now, he felt like he was bound by nothing again! He felt free!

“What just happened?”

“The Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern can negate this suppressive force?”

Chu Kuangren was quite surprised by the escalating energy on his body, and it showed in his eyes.

Demon Emperor Wrath rushed out of the mountain. The punch earlier had dealt some damage to him, but they were only minimal.

What shocked him even more was...

The Demonic Realm Domain no longer had any effect on Chu Kuangren!!

Such a thing was not supposed to happen at all!

“What the hell is going on here?!”

Demon Emperor Wrath looked a little startled. “This Demonic Realm Domain originates from the Gods of the Underworld. Not even the Heavenly Imperials can break free from its influence. How did you manage to free yourself from it?!”

“Gods of the Underworld, huh?”

Chu Kuangren muttered under his breath.

It seems like this really was where his Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern came in useful.

Back then, when he used the Heavenly Punishment Daoist Rhyme and energy for a decisive victory against the God of Light and the God of Darkness, the two gods expressed their fear toward Heavenly Punishment Daoist Rhyme.

At present, this Demonic Realm Domain’s energy that came from the Gods of the Underworld was supposed to be strong enough to suppress Heavenly Imperials. However, it inadvertently failed to affect him, the user of the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern.

This meant that the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern had a restrictive effect on the Gods!

“Interesting.”

“Does this mean that I’ll eventually face off with the Gods?”

Chu Kuangren’s lip curled into a grin.

The avatar was covered in Heavenly Punishment Daoist patterns, while the energy throughout his body was rapidly rising. His Rank Four Initial Emperor Realm cultivation fully unleashed!

His Epic Dao and Prominent-grade Emperor’s Core were fully unleashed as well!

Boom, boom...

Incredibly terrifying Emperor’s Aura spread out in all four directions with Chu Kuangren as the origin. Every meter of land within a ten thousand kilometers radius started to tremble!

Those Emperors who were watching from the dark were all astonished.

“No way, how can he have such great power?! He was only at a Rank Two realm before this. How did he manage to climb to the Rank Four Realm in such a short time? Even with the Divine Sycamore Fruit, how did he refine it so quickly?!”

“He’s not affected by the Demonic Realm Domain?!”

“How did he achieve that?”

“Also, what is this Daoist pattern? It’s so mystical, like nothing I’ve seen before. With my cultivation realm, I’m surprised to find that I can’t even gain one bit of insight from it.”

The Emperors were all stunned as they watched Chu Kuangren.

In a brief period of time, he had broken through from Rank Two Initial Emperor Realm to Rank Four. On top of that, he had unleashed a combat strength far superior to his own realm's limit and managed to evade any effect from the Demonic Realm Domain!

None of the Emperors could wrap their heads around it.

This new Emperor was full of surprises!

"That Daoist pattern... Is it..."

Great Emperor Hua Xing had great wisdom, as he should be as the leader of this big group of Emperors. As if he had thought of something when he saw the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern on Chu Kuangren's body, his eyes widened in disbelief.

Meanwhile, on top of another mountain.

The mysterious cloak man, who had just opened the Demonic Realm's seal and was about to leave Purgatory Forest, was also watching Chu Kuangren's fight with the Demonic Realm.

After seeing the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern on Chu Kuangren, she was equally stunned. "That's Heavenly Punishment energy. He's a Heavenly Tormentor! Impossible. This is impossible. How can Chu Kuangren be a Heavenly Tormentor?!"

"There are only so few Heavenly Tormentors in the world. It doesn't make any sense for a new one to pop up all of a sudden. Besides, those Heavenly Tormentors were all the Human King's most trusted personnel. How did Chu Kuangren gain this sort of power when the Human King is already dead?"

The mysterious cloaked man felt incredibly shocked.

Heavenly Tormentor.

These beings were incredibly scary to her and the organization behind her. They were beings even the Gods feared!

"Chu Kuangren... This matter is extremely alarming. I must quickly report this to the Religion Leaders and the others. It's crazy to see a new Heavenly Tormentor from unknown origins. This is unbelievable."

The mysterious cloaked man mumbled.

Inside Purgatory Forest.

Chu Kuangren cast the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern, with his Prominent-grade Emperor's Core and Epic Dao were fully unleashed. His Almighty Avatar was primed, and its might shocked all the Demonic Realm beings.

Even Demon Emperor Wrath, a Rank Nine Initial Emperor Realm, could feel a little suppressed. The other Demon Emperors started to feel concerned as well.

"This guy is truly very scary. The last time I saw him, he wasn't even an Emperor yet. Now, he's already so powerful."

"He's always standing in our way. B*stard!!"

“Let’s go at him together. Today, we mustn’t leave until we make he’s dead. This guy can’t be controlled by the Demonic Realm Domain. There’s no way we can let this freak live through the end of the day!”

The few Demon Emperors glanced at each other, coming to a unanimous decision. Seven completely distinct Emperors’ Auras erupted, locking down on Chu Kuangren at the same time.

“Kill him!!”

Seven Demon Emperors attacked Chu Kuangren simultaneously.

“Come at me!”

It was the first time Chu Kuangren had to use his full strength, but he was not afraid at all. With his Almighty Avatar activated, he struck out and clashed with the seven Demon Emperors.

“Heart Storm of Wrath!”

Violent bouts of demonic qi surged out as Demon Emperor Wrath growled in fury. A black torrent manifested and swept in Chu Kuangren’s direction with great momentum.

Meanwhile, the Almighty Avatar managed a punch that landed on the black torrent.

With an abrupt explosion, cracks burst open in the sky.

Demon Emperor Wrath was hurled off his feet by that energy generated from the combination of many different Daoist Physiques and landed crudely on top of his own Demonic Realm army.

Some of the Demonic Realm beings whom he smashed into were instantly disintegrated.

Chu Kuangren was already capable of beating two Rank Six elites with this Almighty Avatar back when he was at Rank Two Initial Emperor Realm.

Now that he had advanced to Rank Four Initial Emperor Realm and had the full potential of his Prominent-grade Emperor’s Core, not even a Rank Nine Emperor Realm would be able to overturn this.

The exception would be a Rank Nine Emperor with an extremely powerful foundation.

Nevertheless, Demon Emperor Wrath’s foundation was not that strong. He only had Flawed-quality Dao and a Middle-grade Emperor’s Core. It was the reason why he was blasted off his feet by the punch.

The other Demon Emperors had started attacking Chu Kuangren too.

“Chomp of Gluttony!”

“Strike of Pride!”

“Leer of Envy!”

“Engulfing Torrent of Darkness!!”

Multiple distinct Emperors’ Auras erupted, containing countless mystical Daoist patterns, which swept across the land and lambasted toward Chu Kuangren.

This assault came from all eight directions!

Even with the Almighty Avatar, there was no way one could block this off.

“Phoenix’s Flames!”

Chu Kuangren growled, and horrifying crimson flames gushed out from his surroundings. The Almighty Avatar also roared out as both its fists began swinging wildly.

The might of the Phoenix’s Flames and the Avatar were unleashed at the same time!

With the buff from the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern, both powers were tremendously increased!

In an instant, the dreadful energy blasted the space open, creating spatial cracks that spread across the sky. The whole Purgatory Forest was completely shattered!

Chapter 668: Celestial Demonic Chords, Godly Phoenix Versus Demonic Dragon, Power of Seven Sins

Inside Purgatory Forest, amidst the sea of flames.

Chu Kuangren was controlling the Almighty Avatar and facing off against seven Demon Emperors on his own!

The Emperors who were observing them from the dark felt their breathing getting heavier. They found it hard to believe that besides his numerous Daoist Physiques, this guy could even manipulate Phoenix’s Flames.

This energy was unique to the Godly Phoenix!

They even began to speculate if Chu Kuangren was capable of Nirvana.

In truth...

Chu Kuangren did, in fact, know that!

The Godly Phoenix Physique had granted him the ability to be reborn through Nirvana.

However, he had the Indestructible Physique, so effectively, he would not need the Nirvana powers!

“Attack!”

Demon Emperor Wrath roared in anger.

In the blink of an eye, millions of demonic soldiers behind him charged frenziedly at Chu Kuangren, their demonic qi filling the sky and the earth, shaking the entire land.

These demonic soldiers were composed of many different types of beings, such as demons, demonic dragons, three-headed hounds, demonic wolves, and so on. Their numbers were immeasurable.

Besides their myriad of species, their cultivation levels were generally above the Honorable Realm.

However, a good portion of them were Sages and Boundary Emperors. Facing such a huge army, even Emperors would be wetting their pants by now.

The seven Demon Emperors wanted to overwhelm Chu Kuangren with their strength in numbers!

Unfortunately for them, Chu Kuangren was least afraid of an army surrounding him!

His specialty was going up against a whole army by himself!

“You Demonic Realm sc*ms, I’ll wipe off every one of you from the surface of this earth!”

Chu Kuangren grinned as a lightning ray shot out from his body. The lightning ray flew into the very center of the Demonic Realm army. Wherever it passed, any demonic soldier would be pulverized by the dreadful lightning energy.

The lightning ray eventually returned to Chu Kuangren and transformed into an azure guqin.

It was the Emperor Weapon, Springtime Lightning!

Chu Kuangren pressed all ten of his fingers onto the guqin, playing the Celestial Demonic Chords!

The Celestial Demonic Chords erupted with devastating force.

The terrifying musical waves spread far and wide along with its surreal Daoist patterns, dancing in the air and shattering countless demonic soldiers!

Demonic hound’s brains, demonic dragon’s arms, tattered weapons, blood-stained armor, and bloodied organs splattered into the sky. It was chaos...

The otherworldly tunes of the human realm illustrated a phenomenon that resembled Ashuran hell!

Boundless Overworld, Endless Torrential Gale, Profound Carillon Resonance...

Chu Kuangren’s guqin music amplified and reached a climax. The guqin tunes and Daoist patterns enveloped his surroundings. Not one demonic soldier was able to get within ten meters to where he was.

“D*mn it. D*mn this guy!”

“This guy has way too many tricks up his sleeves. Attacking in groups won’t be very effective against him. If we want to defeat him, we can only single out our most powerful forces and concentrate our attack through them!”

“Demonic soldiers, assemble the Demonic Dragon Formation!!”

Demon Emperor Wrath commanded out loud.

Upon hearing the order, the demonic soldiers started to gather and arrange themselves into a formation.

Soon, a gigantic formation was formed. Mystical Daoist patterns flowed amongst them and turned into an enormous, vicious, pitch-black demonic dragon!

“Roar!”

With a loud roar, the demonic dragon released horrific sound waves that overlaid the guqin tunes. As such, Chu Kuangren’s Eight Celestial Demonic Chords were forced to an abrupt halt.

“Oh, the Demonic Realm Formation energy, the Demonic Dragon?”

“Try and take this then!”

He then lifted his arm, and massive amounts of Phoenix’s Flames soared into the sky!

The Phoenix’s Flames amassed at the top of the sky with countless Daoist patterns, turning into a crimson Godly Phoenix. A deafening loud screech resounded over every corner of the land, and the countless demonic beasts there felt a bone-piercing chill.

That was a Divine Beast’s might!

That crimson Godly Phoenix formed from the Phoenix’s Flames clashed with the Demonic Dragon formed from demonic qi. The repercussions generated from that impact swept outward.

“Roar!”

“Screech...”

The battle of the Godly Phoenix versus the Demonic Dragon dyed the entire sky into a black and red hue.

The mountains and rivers surrounding the scene quaked madly.

The Emperors watching from the dark were all astonished by this immense energy.

“This energy already far surpasses what a Rank Nine Initial Emperor Realm is capable of. Where on earth is this guy’s power limit, really?”

“Or in other words, does he even have a limit?”

Even Chu Hong secretly exclaimed, “Brother is so much better at controlling these Phoenix’s Flames than I could. That is so impressive.”

This was even though she was a Godly Phoenix herself.

After Chu Kuangren mastered the Godly Phoenix Physique, his powers were almost equal to the Godly Phoenix’s. Since they had a huge gap in terms of cultivation realm, the Phoenix’s Flames that Chu Kuangren cast at this moment were so much more powerful than the one Chu Hong could manage.

Boom, boom, boom...

The battle between the Demonic Dragon was becoming increasingly intense.

When the seven Demon Emperors saw that Chu Kuangren was busy controlling the Godly Phoenix to battle the Demonic Dragon, they signaled to each other and jumped at him.

“Oh, such opportunists. It’s just a shame that you’ve underestimated me.” Chu Kuangren mobilized his mind power, and the Almighty Avatar behind him leaped into his defense, blocking off all the attacking blows that the Demon Emperors had unleashed at him.

Even by splitting his concentration, Chu Kuangren was still able to take the situation under control.

Not only that, but he now began to play the Eight Celestial Demonic Chords once again!

Terrifying musical waves instantly erupted!

This time, he skipped straight to the eighth movement of the Celestial Demonic Chord, the Grand Melodic Void!

In a split second, the soundless guqin music mixed with concrete Daoist patterns crashed toward the demonic soldiers in the formation!

The group of Demon Emperors' expressions immediately changed upon seeing that. "Oh no!"

The guqin music landed upon the group of demonic soldiers, and an eruption instantly erupted!

Countless demonic soldiers' flesh and blood were blasted apart, their broken limbs flying across the sky. Meanwhile, the Demonic Dragon produced from the great formation sustained heavy destruction. The power of the Demonic Dragon high up in the sky sharply declined, and it was immediately beaten down by the Godly Phoenix.

In just a matter of seconds, the Phoenix's Flames exhumed the demonic qi and burned the entire Demonic Dragon into ashes. Then, the Godly Phoenix let out a sharp screech and lunged into the Demonic Realm army, exploding within them and releasing boundless Phoenix's Flames in all directions.

Amidst the loud wails of agony, the millions of Demonic Realm soldiers were all scorched to death!

"D*mn it!"

The seven Demon Emperors did not look delighted at all.

Any ordinary demonic soldier would almost be guaranteed death upon contact with the guqin music or the Phoenix's Flames.

Almost half of the million-strength demonic army was already annihilated under such ferocious attacks from Chu Kuangren. On the contrary, he himself still remained unscathed!

"This man really is an archenemy to us Demonic Realm beings!"

"Can't the Demonic Realm do anything to take down this fella?"

The Demon Emperors gritted their teeth in anger.

Terror reigned over the demonic soldiers!

"My soldiers, I hope you remember the Power of Seven Sins!"

At this moment, Demon Emperor Pride said after taking a deep breath.

The rest of the Demon Emperors were stunned to hear what he said.

"You're crazy!" Demon Emperor Wrath growled at him.

"I'm not crazy. If we want any chance of defeating this man now, we have to pull out this last move. I know it's quite dangerous, but it's worth a try!"

Demon Emperor Pride said resolutely.

The few other Demon Emperors looked perturbed by that statement, seemingly hesitating.

“We’ve never tried this move before!”

“Then today shall be the perfect opportunity to do so!”

“Try it!”

Demon Emperor Wrath gritted on his teeth and said.

“Let’s do it then.”

Demon Emperor Envy, Demon Emperor Greed, and a few others had a look of resoluteness in their eyes too. Immediately following that, the seven of them huddled up together.

Chu Kuangren watched on from the side, and the Almighty Avatar behind him followed up with another punch. However, at this moment, a bizarre energy wave emanated from the seven Demon Emperor’s bodies. To his surprise, this energy forced the Almighty Avatar to retreat.

The seven Demon Emperors turned into seven rays of black light, which interweaved amongst the sky and transformed into a gigantic black light cocoon with Daoist patterns flowing on it. From time to time, one could vaguely see the apparition of a person floating within it.

“T-this is... the Power of Seven Sins!”

An elderly demon gulped as he exclaimed.

The rest of the demons gasped in shock too.

“Legend has it that the seven Demon Emperors’ powers originate from the Gods. Their powers could be combined, and as a result of that, a brand-new power known as the Power of Seven Sins would be produced!! I can’t believe it’s true!”

“The Power of Seven Sins is a power close to the Gods’!”

Chu Kuangren was now intrigued by that. He stared at the black light cocoon. “A power close to the Gods? Fascinating. Let’s see what kind of magic you guys can stir up.”

Chapter 669: Battling Seven Sins, Forcing Demonic Qi into the Body, Perfected Emperor

A figure hovered inside the black light cocoon.

Incredibly ruthless energy, one that was way stronger than a Rank Nine Initial Emperor Realm, cascaded out from it, causing every inch of space around it to shake.

Everything within a hundred kilometers of it could feel the tremor!

Immediately after that, a hand stretched out from the black light cocoon. The whole light cocoon then shrank into a tiny light spot and rapidly dissipated, revealing a slender figure.

It was an extremely charming man with purple hair and tightly-fitted black armor. He was holding a long saber, and surges of Emperor’s Aura emanated from his body like the tide.

Every Demonic Realm being was overwhelmed with a feeling of submission as they all felt compelled to kneel down and worship this power.

“Seven Sins... Is this the Power of Seven Sins?”

“Wow, it really is powerful!”

The charming man stood in mid-air. Feeling that immense demonic qi coursing inside his body, a satisfied smile etched across his face.

Chu Kuangren’s Eye of Revelation activated as he looked on from the side. “The fusion entity of the seven Demon Emperors’ powers, primed by the energy from their Gods...”

“Now, what should I call you? Pride, Greed, or Wrath?” Chu Kuangren asked playfully.

“Seven Sins! Call me by Seven Sins!”

The charming man, Seven Sins, said arrogantly.

He stared at Chu Kuangren with an ice-cold, emotionless gaze, like he was looking at a dead man.

He leaped forward and immediately arrived in front of Chu Kuangren. The long saber in his hand turned into a black arc of light, and he abruptly struck it out at his enemy.

Similarly, Chu Kuangren struck out with the longsword in his grip.

A loud clang was heard.

Strength qi and Daoist patterns pranced wildly across the entire scene as the saber and sword clashed.

Shockingly, Chu Kuangren was pushed backward by that hit.

At the same time, the Almighty Avatar behind him threw out a punch. Tremendous Avatar’s might amassed and locked down on Seven Sins like an apocalyptic storm.

“Do you really think that this Avatar’s might of yours will work on me?”

Seven Sins burst out into laughter and drew out his saber to strike once again.

The black saber light lambasted across the sky, ripping the storm apart, and pushing the avatar back with brute force. Yet immediately after that, an extremely mysterious Daoist pattern glided across the void and landed on his body. This sent him flying into the air, and in a backward motion, blood splattered out of his mouth.

“This energy again?!”

“What the hell is this?!” Seven Sins looked at the Heavenly Punishment Daoist patterns that swirled around Chu Kuangren’s body with fear in his eyes.

Even after manifesting in the form of Seven Sins, the entity still felt a threat from that Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern. In fact, the effects those Daoist patterns had on him had amplified instead of diminishing!

Chu Kuangren noticed this too. “The Power of Seven Sins is the manifestation of the Gods’ powers, while the Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern that I have is specifically targeted at the Gods. Therefore, Seven Sins is exactly the target that will be most affected by it.”

Deep down, he made a mental note to study this Heavenly Punishment Daoist pattern in detail once he gets back. He could sense that this would be of tremendous use to him in the future.

It was especially when using it against the Gods.

“Even with those strange Daoist patterns of yours, there is still a huge gap between you and me. You’re definitely not going to live to see another sunrise!” Seven Sins warned Chu Kuangren, the murderous intent he had for the latter growing even more intense.

“You mean, a huge gap in terms of cultivation level? How can you be so sure about that?”

Chu Kuangren suddenly mobilized his mind power, and great amounts of mysterious Daoist patterns suddenly emerged, amalgamating into a gigantic multicolored rune.

“Everchanging Nine Dragon Rune!”

Boundless demonic qis surged frenziedly toward the rune as soon as it appeared, which in turn, manifested into nine vicious demonic dragons!

Seven Sins’ expression abruptly changed. “What are you trying to do?”

Chu Kuangren did not answer, but those nine vicious dragons were already swooping in his direction, rapidly fusing into his body.

“You’re crazy! You’re forcing demonic qi into your body!”

Seven Sins exclaimed in disbelief.

It was not just him. Even the rest of the Emperors were shocked as well.

Demonic qi was different from the spiritual qi in Firmament Star. For non-demonic beings, demonic qi was like toxic qi, and it would be harmful to absorb it.

Yet now, Chu Kuangren was bold enough to force demonic qi into his body!

In the eyes of the crowd, this act was no different than suicide!

“I know this rune. This rune enables this man to convert heavenly and earthly spiritual qi into dragon qi, then forcibly use it to increase his own cultivation!”

“So what if that’s the case? The stuff he’s forcing his body to absorb now is demonic qi! For us humans, this qi has no benefit at all.”

“Demonic qi is everywhere in this Demonic Realm Domain, so how much spiritual qi can he forcibly absorb here? He’s as good as dead.”

What happened next completely flabbergasted everyone.

Chu Kuangren, who was absorbing demonic qi by force, did not end up like what the crowd imagined. He did not look like he was not adapted to it at all.

Conversely, his energy kept on scaling!

Rank Five Initial Emperor Realm, Rank Six Initial Emperor Realm...

Rank Seven Initial Emperor Realm!

With the help of the Everchanging Nine Dragon Rune, Chu Kuangren's cultivation level broke through three ranks consecutively, reaching the Rank Nine Initiate Emperor Realm in one go!

This meant that he was now a Perfected Emperor!

This sight dumbfounded everyone at the scene.

"What the hell is that rune? How can it harness such power?!"

"How did he manage to survive absorbing demonic qi?"

The Emperors were shocked, puzzled as to how Chu Kuangren did that.

Seven Sins, on the other hand, felt a surge of immense pressure.

When Chu Kuangren sensed that sharply-increased power inside him, he smiled in satisfaction. "Not bad."

This Everchanging Nine Dragon Rune was a Legendary-grade rune.

As his cultivation level goes up, the power of this rune would increase as well.

With his current cultivation level, casting the rune could bring him past three whole ranks in one breath, advancing him into a Perfected Emperor!

As for how he absorbed demonic qi into his body...

For Chu Kuangren, this was never a problem, to begin with.

Demonic qi was, after all, just another type of energy from a different species.

Since he possessed the Universal Cauldron Physique, he was capable of absorbing any kind of energy. Hence, demonic qi and spiritual qi for him were no different at all!

"Come, let's carry on!"

Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly as he glanced at Seven Sins.

He drew out the Descendant Self Sword and cast an Invincible Technique!

The Daoist Transformations of sun and moon inversions and asteroids raining down conjured in the air!

Combined with the Heavenly Punishment Daoist patterns, this Invincible Technique formed a restrictive effect on Seven Sins. As such, he felt an increasing pressure weighing on him.

"Slash of Pride!"

Seven Sins drew out a sword, which then collided with the Invincible Technique head-on.

However, the colossal force blasted Seven Sins several dozen meters back in the air. His body shook violently, with the Power of Seven Sins slowly showing signs of cracking.

"I don't trust that this won't work!"

“Leer of Envy!” An appalling demonic ray jetted out from Seven Sins’ eyes, penetrating the void and shooting straight at Chu Kuangren.

“Empyrean Maelstrom!”

Some Daoist patterns began coursing in Chu Kuangren’s palm and forming into a whirlpool.

The demonic ray was sucked into the whirlpool, nullified, and then regenerated outward. Having never anticipated this outcome, Seven Sins was pecked back once again.

“Erosion of Greed! Fist of Wrath!”

Seven Sins followed up with another strike. Demonic qis gushed out in the form of a giant black snake and a giant fist shadow that punched out at Chu Kuangren from each side.

“Break!”

Chu Kuangren cried out, and the Almighty Avatar behind him punched out with its fists that were both primed by Daoist patterns. The numerous types of Daoist Physique energies shattered the demonic snake’s fists.

“D*mn you. D*mn you!”

“Saber of Lust!”

Seven Sins’ expression was glum as he pulled out his ultimate move.

With a strike with his sword, the surroundings turned into a pastel pink color. One after another, enchanting women appeared in the sky and flew toward Chu Kuangren gracefully.

These women were either laughing, furious, or resentful...

Each one of them had stunning beauty enough to enchant any man and mess with their thoughts.

Even those Emperors watching from the dark felt momentarily stunned, which left them petrified.

That was because following closely behind these women was an enormous saber shadow. Once the target was bewitched by these pretty women, this saber would seize the period when they lost concentration and dice them in half!

After all, charming beauty was the downfall of men!

Nonetheless, Chu Kuangren had seen through it clearly, so he was not affected at all. “Just a pile of pinkish skeletons, and you think that’ll confuse my Daoist core?! Break them all!”

Chapter 670: Slaughtering Demon Emperors, Hunting Them Down into the Demonic Realm, Human Catastrophe

“Just some pink skulls, and you think that’ll confuse my Daoist core?”

Chu Kuangren scoffed lightly.

He had the Rocksteady Daoist Core, so he was not that easily shaken.

He then cried out, and with the lift of an arm, the energies of his Prominent-grade Emperor's Core, Epic Dao, and Heavenly Punishment Dao patterns unleashed all at once!

The Almighty Avatar behind him let out a furious roar and punched out ferociously!

The Daoist Physique energy cascaded outward!

Boom!

The void was forcefully blasted open!

The attack instantly shattered the red and pastel pink sky. Even the giant saber shadow behind them was also smashed into smithereens, reduced into countless light spots.

Seven Sins was shocked to sustain such a brutal blow.

With a bang, Seven Sins' body exploded on the spot!

Seven rays of light shot out and turned back into the seven Demon Emperors, who landed onto the ground with a loud thud. All of them looked at Chu Kuangren with terror in their eyes.

"How did he do it? Not even the Power of Seven Sins could match his prowess!"

"His combat strength is outrageous!"

"D*mn it..."

Demon Emperor Pride and his counterparts were driven to the edges of their sanity at this point.

Two times!

Two consecutive times!

They had been defeated in the hands of the same man two times over, even with all seven of them joining forces against him. They had combined all their moves, yet they could not deal any damage to him.

At this moment, they felt like this man in front of them was the bane of their existence!

He was the sworn archenemy of the Demonic Realm!

"Die!"

Chu Kuangren stepped forward, the Almighty Avatar behind him locking down on Demon Emperor Sloth. He punched out with his fist, and his body exploded!

"Go!"

Seeing that, Demon Emperor Pride yelled out loud. The few other Demon Emperors no longer dared to linger as they turned toward the Demonic Realm portal behind them and dashed toward it.

Countless demonic soldiers gulped nervously too, as they scrambled back to the portal for safety!

"Oh, where do you guys think you're going?"

“To the Demonic Realm?!”

Chu Kuangren laughed coldly.

Massive amounts of crimson Phoenix’s Flames were burning on him.

Wherever the Phoenix’s Flame traveled, countless demonic soldiers would be burnt to crisp.

“This bastard, Strike of Pride!”

“Erosion of Greed!”

The few Demon Emperors worked together and retaliated, forcing Chu Kuangren back. Then, they leaped into the Demonic Realm, their actions unlike an Emperor at all.

They looked absolutely lame!

The demonic soldiers started to flee without looking back too.

Almost millions of demonic soldiers and seven Demon Emperors were utterly defeated by Chu Kuangren alone!

Such a spectacular battle feat astonished the Emperors who had witnessed the whole thing so much that they did not know how to react with their Emperor Thoughts.

“Too scary... This man is too scary.”

“Such combat strength... Is this guy really a new Emperor? Not even those Emperors who have lived for eons are as scary as he is!”

“This guy is... terrifying!”

“After this battle, every Emperor will know his name. I don’t think any Emperor will dare to ridicule him from here on.”

The Emperors were exchanging comments with their Emperor Thoughts, every one of them in awe.

However, Chu Kuangren then made another move that took all of them by surprise!

“Do you guys really think fleeing into the Demonic Realm will save you? I’ve told you. All the demons who invaded the human realm today shall fall! No one is spared!”

Wherever the Almighty Avatar crossed, the sky would shatter, and the earth would crumble!

Under everyone’s watchful eyes, Chu Kuangren forced his way into the Demonic Realm portal and into the old nest of the demons alone!

“This man... He’s crazy!”

All the Emperors were gobsmacked.

Chu Kuangren was killing his way into the Demonic Realm solo!

This was not a thing that they would have ever imagined doing!

How much courage would it take for someone to do such a thing?

...

In the Demonic Realm, the dark crimson-colored sky was tainted with fresh blood.

Countless demonic soldiers rushed out of the other end of the portal, scampering in various random directions as if there was some violent torrent or a ferocious beast chasing after them.

No, the man pursuing them was a thousand times scarier than torrential waters or ferocious beasts!

Boom!

As soon as a figure stepped out of the Demonic Realm portal, massive amounts of crimson flames wreaked havoc in the void and gushed out in all four directions.

Flames were blasted everywhere, and a big camp of demonic soldiers was scorched to death.

The man who came was black-haired and dressed in a white robe, with a white jade longsword in his hand. Behind him was a huge towering avatar that was surrounded by crimson Phoenix's Flames.

Chu Kuangren glanced at his surroundings and then looked at that dark crimson-colored sky of the Demonic Realm. He snickered. "This place does look quite pathetic!"

He mobilized his Emperor Thought to begin hunting down the whereabouts of the few Demon Emperors who managed to evade him. Very soon, he had tracked down the location of two of them.

It was Demon Emperor Wrath and Demon Emperor Envy.

He cast his Spatial Conveyor Skill and vanished from where he was standing.

By the time he reappeared, he was already hovering above the two Demon Emperors. His body was emanating with an overwhelming murderous intent.

"Chu Kuangren, haven't you had enough? How bold of you to hunt us down into the Demonic Realm without any backup or support!" Demon Emperor Wrath growled at him.

"Do you really want to leave us with no option?!"

Demon Emperor Envy said solemnly.

"That's funny. You were the ones who initiated this by invading our Firmament Star, and now you have the guts to say that I'm leaving you with no option? If I don't wipe out your demonic race today, you demon sc*ms will think that we humans will forever submit to your tyranny!!"

Chu Kuangren rebutted him furiously, the murderous intent on his body almost manifesting.

Without saying anything else, he formed a fist and released another barrage of attacks!

The Almighty Avatar punched out a terrifying fist storm that smashed the dozens of mountains around them to pieces, creating what seemed like an apocalyptic scene.

If seven Demon Emperors combined were no match for Chu Kuangren, Demon Emperor Wrath and Demon Emperor Envy alone stood no chance.

The two of them could only muster every ounce of strength they had left to buy themselves a little more time.

Before long, both Demon Emperors exploded into pieces!

“Four more to go!”

Chu Kuangren sneered. As his Emperor Thought swept across a good half of the Demonic Realm, countless information about everything surged to him like a tsunami.

Even so, there was no trace of the remaining four Demon Emperors.

“Ha! Let’s see how long you can hide for!”

Then, his figure flickered and vanished from the sky.

When he reappeared, he was on top of a huge fortress, where there was an infinite number of demonic beings inside.

Besides that, there was an incredibly majestic palace in the middle of the fort.

This was the Demon Emperor City, the city where the Demon Emperors reside, while that palace was an imperial palace, home to the Demon Emperors.

Atop the sky of Greed Imperial Palace gathered numerous of Demon Emperor Greed’s most trusted and loved people. They were all looking at Chu Kuangren in the sky with immense fear.

That appalling murderous intent he had was enough to scare any Emperor shitless, let alone these people who were below the Emperor Realm.

Chu Kuangren lifted his arm, and the avatar behind him punched out at the Greed Imperial Palace and ripped the whole palace apart with its mammoth punch blast.

The houses fell, and the imperial palace collapsed...

All that was left where the palace once stood was a huge crater!

There were also... countless corpses and debris!

“Argh, Chu Kuangren, I’m going to kill you!”

A figure swooped out from the huge crater.

It was none other than Demon Emperor Greed.

He had returned to his imperial palace to seek shelter, not expecting that Chu Kuangren would hunt him down all the way here. Now, even his subordinates and henchmen had been massacred.

At this moment, he was left with no means of escape, so he could only brace himself for the final battle!

“Die, you bastard. Erosion of Greed!”

“Hah, it’s you who’s going to die!”

Chu Kuangren scoffed softly. The Almighty Avatar's might behind him instantly erupted and blasted Demon Emperor Greed to pieces.

After slaughtering Demon Emperor Greed, Chu Kuangren continued his witch hunt like a madman and hunted down the remaining few Demon Emperors to their respective imperial palaces, causing massive bloodshed.

Suddenly, the entire Demonic Realm was covered in a bloodied drizzle and a repulsing stench.

A mere human had single-handedly wiped out almost all demons!

This day shall go down in history in the Demonic Realm as... the Human Catastrophe!

As the name suggests, it was a catastrophe brought upon to the Demonic Realm by a human!
