Chapter 891: Using an Immortal Tendon as a Bowstring, Chu Kuangren's Four Mystical Art Solar Shot

A great bow appeared above the Li clan mansion!

Its powerful Daoist Weapon fluctuation poured out in all directions, causing most of the elite cultivators on Planet Sirius to notice it.

At that moment, several rays of light immediately flew towards the Li clan mansion.

"With such powerful Daoist Weapon fluctuations, this is surely a top-notch Heavenly Daoist Weapon. No, this might even be something that's close to the level of an Immortal Weapon."

"I must not miss this chance to get it."

"Even if I can't obtain it, I want to see it with my own eyes at least."

Soon after, many elite cultivators arrived outside the Li clan mansion.

When they saw the large group of Black Blood Tower assassins outside, everyone immediately froze and dared not get too close.

"I can't believe the Black Blood Tower assassins got here so quickly."

"No, wait a minute. The Li clan's members are here too. If I'm not mistaken, the Black Blood Tower assassins have come here to wipe out the remaining Li clan survivors."

"Hold on. That weapon is a... bow! It's inside the area of the Li clan mansion too. Could it be a hidden treasure guarded by the Li clan?!"

"That can't be. The Li clan's most powerful bow, the Sirius Bow, has been taken by the Black Blood Tower Master. If there's another precious weapon like it, the Li clan would have used it long ago. It doesn't make sense for them to take it out and use it now."

"If that's the case, then where did this bow come from?"

"Wait a minute. Guys, check out the string of that bow..."

Suddenly, one of the keen-eyed cultivators seemingly noticed something about the bowstring. Upon taking a closer look at the string of the Purple Metal bow, he could not help but gulp in shock.

That bowstring was gleaming brilliantly like clear jade while emanating swirls of Immortal Sparks around it.

'That's... a f*cking Immortal Tendon!'

"An Immortal Tendon. That weaponsmith must be incredibly skilled if they can use an Immortal Tendon as a bowstring. This is just too unbelievable!"

A weaponsmith exclaimed.

From what he knew, the most skilled weaponsmith in the Violet Gold Galaxy must be no other than the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal. However, even if the Dusty Sky Pseudo Immortal was the one who made this, there was no news or rumors about him using anything related to Immortals to make weapons.

That was most likely the first case in the Violet Gold Galaxy!

“This bow belongs to the Black Blood Tower.”

The Dark Fox Daoist Celestial grinned.

He immediately dashed towards that purple-red bow.

However, a terrifying surge of Emperor qi erupted from that bow at that moment, forcing the Dark Fox Daoist Celestial back hundreds of meters.

Everyone turned their gazes towards it.

“Who’s there?”

A creaking sound was then heard.

One of the room doors in the mansion opened.

A figure was walking out. It was a handsome young man dressed in gorgeous robes with a white-jade sword hanging from his waist. There was an otherworldly air about him.

Everyone’s pupils shrank a little upon seeing him.

“It really is him.”

“The Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren...”

“I’ve heard too many rumors about him. But seeing him in person for the first time today, I can say he truly does possess an extraordinary aura.”

Everyone discussed.

The three purple-masked assassins glared at Chu Kuangren with a stern look. Even they sensed a great threat coming from him.

It was a threat so terrifying that they had never felt before.

“The Toxic Hunched Daoist Celestial died because of him.”

“He deserves to die that way. He’s the one to blame for being so greedy for success and fame. I can’t believe he dared to set out to kill Chu Kuangren alone without even considering his abilities.”

“However, with the three of us purple-masked assassins here today, I believe we can still take the Sword Poet Immortal no matter how strong he is. According to our intel, this guy is only a late-stage Great Daoist Celestial.”

“We must still be careful.”

Under everyone's stern and curious gazes, Chu Kuangren walked out of the room, slowly rose into the air, and arrived before that bow.

"Finally, it's done."

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

That bow was the result of his hard work during the closed-door meditation.

"This is bad. We can't let him get that bow."

The Mental Chaos Daoist Celestial's expression became stern. The limits of Chu Kuangren's abilities were unfathomable. If he were to get that top-tier Heavenly Daoist Weapon, god knows how powerful he would become then?

"Attack!"

The Merciless Swordsman grunted coldly.

Suddenly, the surrounding assassins gave up attacking Li Xueying and immediately charged toward Chu Kuangren. All sorts of powerful attacks were unleashed one after another.

Chu Kuangren remained calm despite all of this.

He reached out and grabbed that bow.

At that instant, his aura immediately resonated with the Daoist Weapon's aura.

Suddenly, a powerful surge of Emperor qi erupted from Chu Kuangren's body, bursting forth in every direction like a raging tide. All of the incoming attacks were instantly destroyed.

"I shall test this bow on you guys."

Chu Kuangren said.

He quickly drew his bow and aimed it towards the sky.

Everyone was astonished.

'Does the Sword Poet Immortal know archery?'

'Nothing was written about this from the intel.'

'And this stance of aiming the bow into the sky... What kind of attack is this?!'

"Can it be..." Only Li Xueying had a vague idea of what was happening. Her pupils shrank slightly while her body trembled, as if something unbelievable had happened.

An arrow created from Emperor qi and Phoenix's Flames appeared on the bow.

A powerful and mysterious Immortal Technique fluctuation soon followed.

The Li clan members opened their eyes wide.

"Is that..."

Boom!

The bowstring was let loose!

As the arrow shot across the air and into the sky, a clear and loud cry was heard. Then, that arrow turned into a phoenix with gorgeous flames all over it. That was one of the Four Mystical Beasts... The scarlet phoenix!

“This is bad!”

The Li clan members and Black Blood Tower assassins were shocked by that.

The scarlet phoenix rose into the air and started spinning its wings at high speeds. Thousands of flaming feathers were unleashed in all directions, with every one of them in the form of a flaming arrow raining from the skies!

Thousands of flaming arrows were soon formed from the flaming feathers!

Boom, boom, boom...

The Black Blood Tower assassins were all hit by that attack.

All of them were soon burned to ashes under the fiery rain of arrows!

“How could it be? How does he know the Li clan’s Four Mystical Art Solar Shot!”

“Is he somehow related to the Li clan?”

Everyone was dumbfounded.

It was especially true for the Li clan members. Despite being the Li clan’s Immortal Technique, only a few of them knew how to use the Four Mystical Art Solar Shot archery technique.

However, Chu Kuangren had mastered it.

Moreover, the power of that attack far exceeded theirs. If the Li Clan leader were to be alive now, even his attack might pale in comparison to Chu Kuangren’s.

The most important fact was...

“I only gave that Immortal Technique to him a few days ago, and he has mastered it fully. How did he even do it?!”

Li Xueying uttered in disbelief.

In the history of the Li clan, the cultivator who mastered this Immortal Technique the fastest still spent dozens of years doing it!

However, it only took Chu Kuangren a few days to do the same!

“It looks like the rumors about this person creating new Immortal Techniques are true. Otherwise, there is no way he would have mastered the Four Mystical Art Solar Shot that quickly.”

Li Xueying said in a slightly trembling tone.

‘The Sword Poet Immortal...’

‘What kind of powerful person is he!’

“Alright, you guys are next.”

Having killed a large number of assassins with a single arrow, Chu Kuangren turned his gaze toward the three purple-masked assassins. All three of whom were Heavenly Daoist Celestials.

“We must attack first!”

“We must not let him fire his bow anymore!”

The three of them instantly attacked.

Waves of sword qi, guqin music, and yokai qi erupted continuously.

However, Chu Kuangren disappeared the next instant and reappeared on a mountain peak thousands of kilometers away after using his Spatial Conveyor Skill.

An archer was always best at long-range attacks.

Chu Kuangren had the Spatial Conveyor Skill.

With that, he could decide the distance between himself and his opponent. From that fact alone, it could be said that he was born to be a natural archer.

“Four Mystical Art Solar Shot, Azure Dragon!”

Chu Kuangren gripped his bow and drew from it. His Emperor qi surged forth, forming an arrow on his bow before it was released, turning into a ferocious Azure Dragon the next instant!

Its terrifying draconic might instantly lock onto the Merciless Swordsman!

“Four Mystical Art Solar Shot, White Dragon!”

“Four Mystical Art Solar Shot, Black Warrior!”

Chu Kuangren continued firing two more arrows.. The other two mystical beasts soon appeared in the void, charging toward the two other purple-masked assassins ferociously.

Chapter 892: Killing the Three Purple-Masked Assassins, the Li Clan Forefather’s Place of Slumber

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

The Four Mystical Art Solar Shot was an archery technique that the Li clan founder obtained from an ancient ruin. It was a technique that imitated the peerless might of the four divine beasts famed throughout the galaxy. Because of its power, it was known as the strongest offensive technique on Planet Sirius.

At this time, that technique was utilized by Chu Kuangren to the fullest extent possible.

Not to mention the great bow he had in his grasp.

It was a bow made with an Immortal Tendon!

The three divine beasts charged across the skies, ramming into the three purple-masked assassins respectively.

Channeling the might of his Emperor qi to the max, the Merciless Swordsman roared as he slashed forth from his sword, releasing a magnificent sword beam that covered the sky.

That slash was cold, ruthless, and froze through the void!

On the other side, sensing an unprecedented threat coming toward them, both the Mental Chaos Daoist Celestial and Dark Fox Daoist Celestial unleashed their most powerful techniques respectively.

The Mental Chaos Daoist Celestial placed her fingers on the guqin and plucked, launching waves upon waves of guqin fluctuations in all directions towards the black warrior divine beast.

Meanwhile, surges of yokai qi emanated from the Dark Fox Daoist Celestial and turned into a gigantic dark fox avatar. The dark fox avatar waved its claws, unleashing terrifying storms towards the incoming attack.

Boom, boom, boom!

As the three purple-masked assassins faced off against the three arrows, three devastating explosions were heard. Violent bursts of Emperor qi and Daoist patterns soon shrouded most of the sky.

When the dust settled, a broken guqin and a black yokai fox corpse could be seen falling onto the ground.

Everyone's gazes narrowed upon seeing this.

The broken guqin represented the Mental Chaos Daoist Celestial while the black yokai fox represented the Dark Fox Daoist Celestial. Both of them were instantly killed by a single arrow shot!!

Only the Merciless Swordsman survived, struggling to hold on standing in the void.

However, he was in no good condition either. Having been seriously injured by the Azure Dragon Arrow, more than half of his body has almost been blown apart. His aura has dwindled extensively.

With three arrow shots, two Heavenly Daoist Celestials were killed while another was seriously injured!

The Heavenly Daoist Celestials who were drawn to spectate this battle were in utter disbelief. All of them could not help staring at Chu Kuangren with shock.

The same thing happened to the Li clan members.

"The Four Mystical Art Solar Shot he unleashed is actually more powerful than the clan leader. I can't believe the Sword Poem Immortal is that skilled in archery!"

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myTHANKS!)

"By the heavens, the Li clan's Four Mystical Art Solar Shot has always been taught exclusively to the Li clan sky-prides. Furthermore, each of them will need to spend many years just to master that technique.

Putting aside the fact that he has mastered it in just a few days, I didn't expect him to unleash this technique to such an extent. Is he really just human?!"

"This freak..."

On a mountain peak far away.

Chu Kuangren grinned upon seeing the Merciless Swordsman that managed to survive his arrow shot.

"My apologies, I'm still fairly new in using this archery technique, that's why I couldn't kill you off in one shot just now."

The Merciless Swordsman's face turned red with rage upon hearing this.

However, he knew that he was far from being Chu Kuangren's match. Not daring to stay any longer, he quickly turned and escaped into the distance.

During that time, he soon felt a cold chill coming from his back.

"Turning your back against an archer... You must be quite a fool, huh."

Chu Kuangren's apathetic voice appeared beside him.

A loud boom was then heard. It was the sound of a bowstring being released.

The roar of a dragon appeared next.

Chu Kuangren's Azure Dragon Arrow was unleashed again!

The roaring azure dragon soared through the skies, landing ruthlessly on the Merciless Swordsman, blasting him apart into a mist of blood.

At this point, the four purple-masked assassins of the Black Blood Tower were all... Dead!!

Chu Kuangren smiled with satisfaction while looking at his bow.

"Pairing the Four Mystical Art Solar Shot with this longbow is truly excellent. Hmmm, since this bow is made from an Immortal Tendon and a Purple Metal, I might as well call it the Purple Immortal Bow then."

Following that, his figure flashed as he returned to the Li clan mansion.

Everyone looked at him admirably. As for Li Xueying, she was gazing at him with adoration too.

"Greetings, Brother Chu."

One of the Li clan elders went and greeted Chu Kuangren.

His eyes lit up upon seeing Chu Kuangren's Purple Immortal Bow. Like a sword and a swordsman, that bow was undoubtedly a great treasure to an archery cultivator like him.

However, he only wished he could have it and did not dare to think about stealing it.

He would have to face Chu Kuangren's strength, after all.

One of his arrows could have killed him ten times over.

“Hello. So, how many elite cultivators are left in the Li clan now?”

Chu Kuangren nodded gently and asked.

That Li clan elder sighed frustratingly. “There’s only less than twenty Daoist Celestials in the Li clan’s that can be dispatched right away.”

“Twenty is enough.”

The Li clan elder froze.

‘Twenty Daoist Celestials are already enough to face the Black Blood Tower?’

‘You must be joking.’

“The ones that I mentioned earlier were only Minor Daoist Celestials. We have only two of three Great Daoist Celestials left. As for Heavenly Daoist Celestials, the only one we have is our forefather who’s still deep in slumber now.”

The Li clan elder added.

Besides the one Heavenly Daoist Celestial that could still be dispatched, the remaining Daoist Celestials would be all slaughtered by the Black Blood Tower Master.

Even if the Heavenly Daoist Celestial woke up from his slumber, he would still be no match for the Black Blood Tower Master now.

Chu Kuangren said.

He did not plan to rely on the Li clan’s strength to deal with the Black Blood Tower.

Those Daoist Celestials were the manpower he needed to lead Planet Sirius once he has gotten rid of the Black Blood Tower.

His deal with the Li clan could only proceed once they managed to rule over Planet Sirius. This would make things easier if the Firmament Star would wish to build relations in the future.

“What’s our next move, Brother Chu.”

Li Xueying asked. However, the Li clan elder beside her suddenly changed his expression, having received a distress message.

“What’s the matter, elder Li?”

Li Xueying asked.

“It’s a message from the First Lady. She told me that the location where the Li clan Forefather was slumbering has been discovered by the Black Blood Tower. The Black Blood Tower Master is currently heading there now with a group of assassins to kill him.” The Li clan Elder said coldly.

Everyone started panicking upon hearing this.

“What! How can this happen?!”

“The forefather is the last pillar of support for the Li clan. If even he’s killed, the Li clan could never return to their glory anymore.”

“No, we can’t let the Black Blood Tower get away with this.”

“But what can we do? We’re no match for the Black Blood Tower Master...”

Everyone looked at Chu Kuangren.

He was the only one now who could face the Black Blood Tower Master.

“So the Black Blood Tower Master is going there too? That’s great news, there’s no need for me to go looking for him then.” Chu Kuangren said lightly.

He decided to travel to the location where the Li clan Forefather was slumbering. If he could end the Black Blood Tower Master, the Black Blood Tower would be a piece of cake to take down.

...

Heavenly Snow Mountain.

This was the location where the Li clan Forefather was slumbering. He was an incredibly powerful cultivator who was a late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

However, because he had suffered some heavy injuries in the past, he could only enter a deep slumber to slow down the effects of his injuries. Due to this, he has been suffering as he lived in this world.

Having witnessed the Black Blood Tower Master’s strength, Li Xueying and the others did not have any hopes that their forefather could defeat him.

Their greatest wish was for him to lead them, expanding their influence in other civilizations and rebuilding the Li clan as a whole.

As for revenge, they would leave it in the hands of their future generation.

Then again, as an assassination organization, the Black Blood Tower’s main creed was... To kill as fast as possible!

How could they possibly let this forefather live?

That was why the Black Blood Tower Master has sent his men to tail the Li clan’s First Lady to find out where the Li clan Forefather was slumbering. He would then personally lead a group of men to destroy the Li clan’s final pillar of support!

Deep within the Heavenly Snow Mountain, a gigantic runic boundary could be seen covering the surrounding area. Several assassins were attacking the boundary from the outside, while a pretty lady with a longbow behind her back stood inside the boundary.

She was the Li clan’s First Lady, Li Xuefei.

At this time, she was using the runic boundary surrounding the Li clan Forefather's place of slumber in a struggle to fend off the Black Blood Tower assassins.

Behind her was an ice coffin.

An elderly man was lying inside that ice coffin. He was the Li clan's Forefather.

However, when the boundary could not hold any longer, she and the Li clan Forefather's lives would soon end here.

"Oh dear heavens! Why are you so hellbent on destroying the Li clan!"

Chapter 893: Awakening of the Li Clan Forefather, No Way Back

Deep in Heavenly Snow Mountain, where the Li clan Forefather rested, Li Xuefei was barely holding up against the assassins.

She drew the string of her bow and released the arrow like a tireless machine, fending off the assassins that got too close to the runic boundary.

Unfortunately, her restless efforts could not stop the runic boundary from breaking.

Moreover, that was still not the biggest threat she had to face.

Further away, on the peak of a mountain was a middle-aged man in a robe of black, whose chilly eyes were staring at the runic boundary.

The man was none other than Black Blood Tower Master.

"Master, why don't you break the runic boundary yourself?" asked the assassin beside the man.

That particular assassin did not have a mask on, but his energy was on par with other purple-masked assassins.

Black Blood Tower Master said, "I just received news that all three purple-masked assassins, who were sent to assassinate Chu Kuangren, are all dead."

The look on the assassin's face changed when he heard the news. "The three of them were all Heavenly Daoist Celestials! Has Chu Kuangren become so powerful!?"

"Mmhm. At least stronger than I expected."

"Does it have anything to do with you not taking things into your hands?"

"Li Xuefei and the Li clan Forefather are no threat to me, but they are the best lure. We can use them to lure the rest of the Li clan's elites and Chu Kuangren over here," the tower master said nonchalantly.

Then, a sudden epiphany hit the assassin, and he said reluctantly, "If Chu Kuangren teamed up with the Li clan Forefather, they might be a difficult opponent."

"I am already invincible on Planet Sirius! What could Chu Kuangren and a crippled Heavenly Daoist Celestial possibly do to threaten me?" A hint of confidence appeared in the tower master's eyes.

An indescribable terrifying aura emanated from him as he spoke, causing the assassins beside him to quiver for a moment.

The feeling, it felt like they were facing the Heavenly Might!

“Ever since you came out of closed-door meditation and killed the Li clan Forefather, you seem a little different, Tower Master. Your energy has become even more immeasurable.”

All the other assassins were in awe.

In their eyes, there was a hint of reverence and awe.

It was the admiration towards the King of Assassins.

Meanwhile, inside the runic boundary of Heavenly Snow Mountain, Li Xuefei had used up more than half of her Emperor qi. Her slender fingers were already bleeding due to repeatedly pulling the bowstring.

She had lost count of how many arrows she fired.

All she knew was to repeat the action like a mindless machine.

Clunk!

A strong and heavy clunk sounded all of a sudden. The string of the bow in her hands broke, causing the Emperor qi to lose its dependency and dissipate.

She even suffered a backlash from it.

“The string... broke?!”

Li Xuefei stared at the broken string in her hands blankly.

Only then did she remember that the bow had suffered some blows and was already damaged when she was being chased by the assassins. In addition to her repeated and frequent usage, the bow of the Great Daoist Weapon finally gave way.

“It seems like this is it,” Li Xuefei said with a sigh.

After all, the combat strength of an archer without a bow would be halved or more.

Then, a strange sound came from behind. The elderly in that icy coffin suddenly opened his eyes.

With a bang, the coffin lid burst into pieces, and the elderly inside sat up.

He looked around his surroundings, and his vast Emperor Thought flowed out in every direction. Soon enough, he was able to understand what was happening in Planet Sirius recently.

“Who would have thought that my Li clan would end up like this?”

The Li clan Forefather said with a sigh.

“Forefather!” Li Xuefei was delighted by his awakening.

The Li clan Forefather nodded at her. “Child, you have suffered enough. Leave the rest to me.”

He got out of the coffin and struck it with a powerful palm strike, smashing it to smithereens. As the icy crystals scattered in the air, the freezing qi intertwined with the Daoist patterns formed a sky blue bow in the air.

Li Xuefei's eyes shone when she saw the bow. "Frost Godly Bow!"

According to her knowledge, the forefather's bow was forged by Ethereal Ice of a million years. It was extremely powerful.

To the Li clan, it could even rival the Sirius Bow.

"Rebels who dare infiltrate the Li clan shall taste the wrath of the Frost Godly Bow!" The Li clan Forefather said coldly.

He then pulled the string back, and the freezing qi around it formed an ice arrow in the center.

With a swoosh, the string was released and the arrow soared across the air, leaving an icy trail behind wherever it went.

It was flying directly towards Black Blood Tower Master further at the mountain peak.

Facing the soaring arrow, the Black Blood Tower Master curled his lips into a grin. After that, he dished out a palm strike and easily shattered the icy arrow into pieces.

The icy shards of the shattered arrow rained down in all directions, killing some of the assassins who failed to evade were caught in the crossfire.

"Oh? As expected of the slumbering Li clan Forefather. There seems to be more than meets the eye with your powers," Black Blood Tower Master said in disdain.

Li clan Forefather stared at Black Blood Tower Master coldly before drawing the string of his bow again. "Today, I shall shoot you to death to avenge the fallen members of the Li clan!"

As soon as the forefather's Emperor qi surged, the icy air throughout the realm converged furiously at his bow and formed another ice arrow. At the same time, the powerful ripples of the Immortal Technique spread across all directions.

"Four Mystical Arts Solar Shot, White Tiger!"

As the icy arrow soared across the sky, its torrential icy energy formed an enormous White Tiger with surging murderous intent. The appearance of the technique alone deterred quite a number of assassins.

However, Black Blood Tower Master remained calm. He simply raised his hand, and a dark blood saber appeared in his hand.

A single swing of the bloody saber released a ghastly strike that contained an ice-cold killing intent that could freeze one's heart at sight.

The White Tiger was shattered with a single slash!

"Carnage Dao!"

"As expected of the King of Assassins!"

The look on Li clan Forefather's face turned serious.

Cultivators that cultivated the Carnage Dao were elites at carnage, and they were considered the best among their peers of the same realm.

"Li clan Forefather, I heard you went into slumber due to a heavy injury. I wonder how much have you recovered and how many more arrows can you release with that bow of yours?" Black Blood Tower Master said nonchalantly.

He swung the bloody saber again and released another thousand feet slash, shattering the runic boundary into pieces.

"Hmph! Nice try."

Li clan Forefather pulled Li Xuefei behind him and then released a barrage of shots with his Frost Godly Bow.

Each arrow released from the bow formed the avatar of a divine beast. However, Black Blood Tower Master was so powerful that he shattered all the arrows just by brandishing his saber in the air without using any cultivation techniques.

"Child, leave us. I will hold him back," Li clan Forefather said to Li Xuefei.

There was a hint of resolution in his eyes.

The Black Blood Tower Master's power had exceeded his expectations. In order to win this battle, he would have to give the forbidden technique of the Li clan a try.

Unfortunately, he had yet to recover to his prime, and once he used the forbidden technique, it would mark his demise.

Thankfully, Li Xuefei had high potential. Should she grow stronger, she would eventually surpass him in terms of power. To protect the future of the clan, the forefather was prepared to fight to his death.

"Run? Where could you two possibly run to?" the Black Blood Tower Master scoffed.

The assassins had surrounded Li Xuefei and Li clan Forefather completely, leaving no path of escape for the two of them.

Chapter 894: It's Normal for an Archer to Excel in Melee Combat, The Vision of Carnage

The awakened Li clan Forefather and Li Xuefei found themselves in a pinch at Heavenly Snow Mountain as they were surrounded by the assassins.

"Four Mystical Art Solar Shot, Scarlet Phoenix!"

The Li clan Forefather released an arrow from his bow.

The divine beast, Scarlet Phoenix, appeared as the arrow flew out. However, that technique was a fire-attribute technique, so it did not match the Frost Dao that he cultivated.

Although he could cast it out of force, the power was a lot weaker than his other arrow techniques.

Even so, the fiery arrow was more than enough to deal with the assassins as blazing feathers spread across all directions.

He was trying to carve a path for Li Xuefei to escape.

The Black Blood Tower Master saw through his intention as well. Hence, he swung the saber in his hand and unleashed another saber ray that stirred up a raging wind, which grew in a matter of seconds and blocked all the fiery arrows.

“Blood Carnage Slash!”

Once again, he made a move, and this time, he finally used his cultivation technique. The technique was an Immortal Technique that he had cultivated.

A dark red saber ray was unleashed with a single swing from his saber.

The look on Li clan Forefather’s face turned bitter, and he quickly pulled the string of his bow again.

“Four Mystical Art Solar Shot, Azure Dragon!”

The qi from the unleashed arrow formed the avatar of a furious Azure Dragon.

Unfortunately, the furious Azure Dragon was no match against the bloodthirsty carnage qi from that terrifying saber ray. Just like that, it was shattered into pieces.

On top of that, the saber ray managed to hit Li clan Forefather, sending him flying backward.

“The Four Mystical Art Solar Shot is nothing impressive.” Black Blood Tower Master scoffed.

“Oh really? How about giving mine a try?”

A cold voice echoed in the sky all of a sudden, followed by two arrows drawing an arch across the horizon.

One of the arrows transformed into the Scarlet Phoenix.

The Scarlet Phoenix expanded its wings, and its feathers turned into tens of thousands of mystifying fiery arrows. When the arrows struck the assassins, they burnt more than half of them alive.

In the meantime, the other arrow transformed into the White Tiger.

The White Tiger’s roar was as loud as rumbling thunder that shook heaven and earth.

The Black Blood Tower Master’s pupils shrank all of a sudden as he swiftly unleashed the dark red saber ray at the incoming White Tiger. The vast Emperor qi and Daoist pattern crashed at the arrow, like the torrential tide.

When the two powerful forces clashed in the air, a tremendous explosion erupted and spread throughout the whole of Heavenly Snow Mountain.

Black Blood Tower Master was pushed back more than a hundred yards. Then, he stared at the space in front of him.

Ahead of him was a figure in white robes, traversing through the air. The look on the figure's face was cold, his gaze was calm, and he was armed with a purple bow. The energy around him was otherworldly.

The figure was none other than Chu Kuangren, and behind him were the members from the Li clan.

"Elder sister!"

The moment Li Xueying saw Li Xuefei, she dashed over instantly.

Li clan Forefather looked at Chu Kuangren in awe and disbelief. The Four Mystical Art Solar Shot that Chu Kuangren cast was a lot stronger than his own.

On top of that, the purple bow was definitely something powerful. It might be even stronger than his own Frost Godly Bow.

'Wait a minute.'

'He has a sword at his waist?'

'Does it mean he is skilled at Sword Dao as well? Since when did the Li clan have such an archer?'

"Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren, you are finally here."

The look on the Black Blood Tower Master looked a little different upon Chu Kuangren's arrival.

However, his words left the Li clan Foremaster baffled and confused.

'His family name is Chu?'

'In that case, he's not one of the Li clan. He's really an audacious one to bear the title of Immortal.'

Chu Kuangren looked at the Black Blood Tower Master. Two entirely different yet powerful qi clashed in an instant.

"It seems like you are expecting me."

"Indeed I am," Black Blood Tower Master said with a grin. "I am waiting to... kill you!"

As soon as he said that, the aura he emanated got stronger. With a cold killing intent mixed in the blizzard around him, the temperature plummeted further.

The members of the Li clan who arrived were shocked to see the Black Blood Tower Master's presence. All there was in their eyes was fear.

"Kill me? Many have said the same, but now every one of them is having a party in the other world," Chu Kuangren said with a chuckle. The disdain in his eyes was obvious.

At the same time, Lil Ai, the Omniscient Spirit, was activated.

He was able to analyze the Black Blood Tower Master thoroughly from top to bottom, and to his surprise, the Black Blood Tower Master before him was just a clone.

Not only that, but he seemed to have the Heavenly Dao energy within him.

He was a Planet Ruler!

Intrigued, Chu Kuangren said, "A clone with the Heavenly Dao energy? You have given me quite the surprise."

Black Blood Tower Master's pupils shrank upon hearing his words. "How? How do you know?!"

One thing worth noting was that the clone was a very powerful one. It was even the exact copy of his true form. He had spent countless effort and ingredients to forge this clone. He practically forged another exact copy of himself.

No one had ever found out that he was a clone, yet Chu Kuangren was able to do it with a single glance.

Chu Kuangren's sharp insight deterred him a little.

"Rumor has it that the Sword Poet Immortal possesses unusual methods and has a countless number of ace cards. It seems like the powerful perception is one of them," Black Blood Tower Master said after he calmed himself down.

"There is more to me than meets the eye," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

He raised the Violet Immortal Bow, pulled the string, and the arrow formed above his hand. In a single breath, the Four Mystical Art Solar Shot was unleashed.

All four apparitions of the divine beasts manifested and went after the Black Blood Tower Master.

Unparalleled power tore even the void around the man together with the assassins beside him.

The power of the arrows caused the members of the Li clan to gulp in awe, including Li clan Forefather.

"To think an outsider can cast such a strong Li clan Immortal Technique! He's stronger than any of us!"

"This is unbelievable!"

Amidst the awes, a bloody saber ray was unleashed.

"Blood Carnage Slash!" Black Blood Tower Master swung his saber, and the vast saber ray shattered every single one of the divine beasts into pieces.

Then, his figure flashed with an inconceivable speed, so fast that no one present was able to capture his movement with their eyes.

In the next second, he appeared in front of Chu Kuangren.

"No!" Li clan Forefather cried in shock.

Melee combat was dangerous for an archer.

"Die!" Black Blood Tower Master struck out with his saber.

It was at that moment, the Descendant Self Sword at Chu Kuangren's waist unsheathed itself. The sword ray shone, and the energy waves of the Imperial Monarch Sword Art burst instantly.

The sword and saber collided.

The Black Blood Tower Master was blasted off a few hundred yards backward before crashing into the mountain range of the Heavenly Snow Mountain.

A loud bang later, the mountain range crumbled, and a huge crater formed. The Black Blood Tower Master was found on his knee in the center of the crater with a serious expression.

"Say, did I give you the wrong impression? Other than my bow, I still have my Descendant Self Sword here," Chu Kuangren said plainly.

An archer who could not fight up close would not be a good archer.

Compared to his newly learned archery, Chu Kuangren's sword technique and melee combat were a lot more powerful.

"Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren, I wouldn't miss out on your sword," Black Blood Tower Master said with a scoff.

Then, a layer of armor appeared around him. As the Emperor qi around him surged, countless ghouls in his company wailed.

However, at the next moment, his surroundings were transformed into purgatory hell.

Terrifying carnage qi wreaked havoc across the realm. Even Li clan Forefather had a serious look on his face.

"What a terrifying Carnage Dao! The King of Assassins, the Black Blood Tower Master, he sure lives up to his name!"

With the ghouls around him, Black Blood Tower Master gripped his blood saber and stared at Chu Kuangren.. He scoffed and said, "Chu Kuangren, I shall show you the power of my Immortal Technique, Carnage Vision!"

Chapter 895: I'm Awaiting Your Attack, Devouring Heavenly Dao

"What a rare Carnage Vision on earth."

Chu Kuangren looked at the scene of thousands of ghouls howling in front of him with an indifferent expression. He put away the Violet Immortal Bow, held Descendant Self Sword in his hand, and slowly descended.

Ghouls around him dissipated automatically the moment he landed.

Although he was in the Ashura Underworld, he still looked extremely aloof in his gorgeous, immaculate white robe.

"Attack!"

The Black Blood Tower Master sneered and waved the long saber in his hand. Then, a few ferocious ghouls roared towards Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren stood still and slowly spread his palm out, where a golden-red flame lotus bloomed in the void.

Boom!

The flame lotus exploded with a terrifying flame current suddenly swept out. Thousands of ghouls that were about to attack Chu Kuangren turned into ashes on the spot under the impact of the flame currents.

“That’s all there is to the Carnage Vision?”

Chu Kuangren said.

“You haven’t experienced the true power of my Carnage Vision!”

The Black Blood Tower Master sneered. Ghouls that were previously burnt into ashes by the flame lotus reappeared on the spot.

“Oh? It doesn’t die, huh?”

“As long as I’m alive, endless amounts of ghouls will be transformed by my Carnage Dao,” said the Black Blood Tower Master while he, holding a dark red saber, rushed towards Chu Kuangren along with the ghouls.

The ghouls whistled, trying to distract Chu Kuangren.

The Black Blood Tower Master waved the long saber in his hand. Then, several blood-colored saber rays interweaved into a dense murderous net that shrouded Chu Kuangren completely.

“Single Thought Series, Endless Subzero Decimation!”

Chu Kuangren mobilized his Emperor qi and mind power together.

His Moon Frost Immortal Physique was also activated.

As the terrifying freezing qi was released, countless ghouls were frozen. Even the saber rays cast by Black Blood Tower Master were stagnant for a moment.

That moment was enough for Chu Kuangren to seize the flaw.

He took a step forward and thrust his Descendant Self Sword forward.

The sword ray swirled and stabbed the black armor of Black Blood Tower Master. Chu Kuangren’s raw physical strength and sword qi erupted almost simultaneously.

As a result, the Black Blood Tower Master was sent flying backward like a comet. However, the armor was hard and could not be broken by the sword.

Chu Kuangren mobilized his mind power upon seeing this.

A huge colorful rune appeared, and a nine-headed colorful dragon flew in the sky before merging with Chu Kuangren’s body. It was the Nine Heavenly Dragons Rune!

In a bang, Chu Kuangren’s energy surged, nearly reaching the threshold of the Heavenly Daoist Celestial Realm.

However, his combat strength was many times stronger than an ordinary Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

“Imperial Monarch Sword Art!”

Chu Kuangren swung his sword forward.

The Grand Emperor Avatar manifested with sword qi swirling in his palm. After that, it turned into a huge sword shadow that fell toward the Black Blood Tower Master.

The entire Carnage Vision quaked with a loud bang.

“Oh?”

Chu Kuangren eeked.

Under the golden sword shadow, a huge, dark-red hand appeared on Black Blood Tower Master, who defended himself from the attack.

“Carnage Vision, Ghoul King Avatar!”

Black Blood Tower Master grunted, and countless ghouls gathered towards him. The huge, dark-red hand pressed onto the ground as if a terrifying existence was crawling out from the ground.

Very soon, a figure appeared.

It was a terrifying three-headed and six-armed avatar with a ferocious look roaring in boundless murderous and rage qi.

“Is this the true power of your Immortal Technique?”

Chu Kuangren asked.

Then, Emperor qi began swirling behind him. Waves of completely different Daoist Physique energy waves swept out, revealing a huge colorful avatar.

The Almighty Avatar manifested in the void!

Chu Kuangren was fighting avatar with avatar.

He cast Almighty Avatar once again with his current cultivation base, and its terrifying might hit the entire Carnage Vision.

In a bang, the Almighty Avatar and Ghoul King Avatar collided, causing the entire Heavenly Snow Mountain to collapse!

Mountains within a hundred thousand miles radius were razed to the ground.

The horrifying impact made the remaining assassins and everyone in the Li clan retreat for dozens of miles while mobilizing their Emperor qi to resist with all their strength.

As the two great avatars fought, shockwaves swept in all directions frantically like a natural disaster.

Bam, bam, bam...

The avatars collided one after another and were evenly matched for a while.

The Black Blood Tower Master was a little shocked. "I can't believe he has such a technique. This avatar is strange and eerie."

After fighting for a while, the Black Blood Tower Master still could not suppress Chu Kuangren. On the contrary, he seemed pretty relaxed.

He looked calm and composed.

"Assassin King, is this all you have?"

Chu Kuangren unleashed the Heavenly Dao energy within him.

The Almighty Avatar's power rose again under the Dao Convergence state.

"Do you think you're the only one who has the Heavenly Dao energy?"

"Heavenly Dao, converge!"

The Black Blood Tower Master felt the pressure and let out a long roar. Amidst the void, there was a force helping him.

It was Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao energy.

Not far away, the Li clan Forefather's expression turned serious.

"The Heavenly Dao energy!"

"The Black Blood Tower Master is the Ruler of Planet Sirius!"

He took a deep breath, with a look of surprise in his eyes.

No wonder the Li clan lost.

It turned out that the Black Blood Tower Master was a Planet Ruler!

Since Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao energy was on his side, how could the Li clan possibly win?!

"Heh, you've finally pulled out this technique."

Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

Following that, his figure flashed and disappeared in place. By the time he reappeared, he was in front of Black Blood Tower Master.

"Blood Carnage Slash!"

The Black Blood Tower Master swung his saber towards Chu Kuangren.

A blood-colored saber ray appeared.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren did not evade his attack. Instead, he removed most of the impact with his Descendant Self Sword and bore the rest of it on himself. Even the remaining power was enough to kill a Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

The attack, however, was nothing to Chu Kuangren's Stellar Undying Body, not to mention that he had a defensive Heavenly Daoist Weapon.

All it did was shake his body.

Next, Chu Kuangren raised his hand to grab the hand of the Black Blood Tower Master, and an extremely mysterious energy wave erupted from his body.

The energy wave trembled the Heavenly Dao energy in Black Blood Tower Master, which began to surge uncontrollably.

"What!"

Black Blood Tower Master trembled in shock.

He had never encountered such a thing before

As the Heavenly Dao in the Black Blood Tower Master was being devoured, Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao quaked.

Having felt it, countless elites' expressions changed.

"There's a change in the Heavenly Dao?!"

"What's going on?!"

"W-Why do I suddenly feel scared? No, it's not my emotion. It's Heaven!"

The Heavenly Dao, an order in which a planet operates, represents an assemblage of a planet's and all beings' wills. It seldom had significant movements.

Yet now, countless elites had sensed the movement of the Heavenly Dao.

They felt a vague panic, which was not theirs.

However...

It was the Heavenly Dao's panic!

Heavenly Dao was feeling afraid!

All elites looked up at the sky which had changed significantly. Torrential rain was pouring with unceasing lightning and thunder!

Unprecedented changes enveloped the entire Planet Sirius.

"Something is going to change..."

An elite who was good at Deduction Dao predicted something. He looked in the direction of Heavenly Show Mountain and said with a trembling tone..

Chapter 896: Heavenly Punishment Eye, That's All The Sky Can Take

On the Heavenly Snow Mountain.

Chu Kuangren seized the Black Blood Tower Master by casting Heaven Devourer Techniques and the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art. He was absorbing Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao through Black Blood Tower Master!

He could feel that the power of Heavenly Dao in his body was growing, and so was the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao.

"Success!"

"Ha! Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao has absorbed part of Planet Bei's Heavenly Dao Source and Blood Origin Star's Heavenly Dao, which both are no worse than Planet Sirius' Heavenly Dao. Since I'm the mediator, it's considered a success."

A look of joy flashed across Chu Kuangren's eyes.

At this moment, Black Blood Tower Master, who was under Chu Kuangren's capture, panicked as he felt the Heavenly Dao energy flowing out from his body.

He frantically struggled to escape from Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren's raw physical strength was terrifyingly strong. On top of the significant impact the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art had on a Planet Ruler under the Dao Convergence state, it was not easy for Black Blood Tower Master to escape.

Chu Kuangren even punched him a few times and smashed his armor to a crumb in his attempt to escape.

Then, Chu Kuangren broke his limbs. He could only lie on the ground and let Chu Kuangren devour his Heavenly Dao energy.

The crowd watching the battle was stunned.

They had no idea what the Black Blood Tower Master was facing, but they could tell that the battle had suddenly gotten worse. They initially thought that Black Blood Tower Master could suppress Chu Kuangren with his Heavenly Dao energy.

Unfortunately, instead of suppressing Chu Kuangren, he was defeated in just a few moves and was no longer as assertive as he was before.

"W-What are you doing exactly?"

The Black Blood Tower Master asked Chu Kuangren with a horrified expression.

Being the King of Assassins, he rarely felt fear. In fact, he watched others fear him most of the time.

Nevertheless, he was extremely terrified now!

He was overwhelmed by an unprecedented fear!

Chu Kuangren did not answer Black Blood Tower Master.

Suddenly, a large number of clouds gathered in the sky above him. Lightning was flashing, and thunder was rumbling. As the majestic lightning energy surged frantically, the Heavenly Might almost enveloped the entire Planet Sirius.

Following that, a huge blood-colored eye with murderous intent appeared in the whirlpool of dark clouds.

"It... It's Heavenly Punishment Eye!"

Li clan Forefather gulped.

Although he was a Heavenly Daoist Celestial and his destiny was no longer under Heavenly Dao's jurisdiction, he trembled upon seeing the horrifying Heavenly Punishment Eye.

"What did he do to provoke Heavenly Dao and enable the Heavenly Punishment Eye? This is the most terrifying Heavenly Punishment in history! This power will only appear when the Heavenly Dao wants to kill a certain existence with all its strength!" Li clan Forefather uttered with his voice trembling.

All elites in Planet Sirius noticed the Heavenly Punishment Eye as well.

Everyone was shocked. For some younger Daoist Celestials, the Heavenly Punishment Eye only existed in rumors.

Chu Kuangren devoured Heavenly Dao while looking at the Heavenly Punishment Eye in the sky. Then, he chuckled. "Finally. You can no longer stand by and watch."

He was not surprised by the appearance of Heavenly Punishment Eye. After all, even a fish on the chopping board would struggle to escape, let alone the Heavenly Dao.

However, Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao had failed to escape and could only be devoured by Chu Kuangren!

"Go to hell!"

An icy voice sounded from Heavenly Punishment Eye.

An unprecedented Heavenly Dao's murderous intent shrouded Chu Kuangren before a blood-colored thunder dozens of meters thick fell from the sky.

Chu Kuangren stood on the spot, neither evading nor retreating.

His mind power flowed, blasting out thousands of spiritual weapons in the sky.

A large piece of the void collapsed as the thunder and army of spiritual weapons collided.

The Heavenly Punishment Eye was extremely powerful, while the army of spiritual weapons was inferior. As a result, many blood-colored flashes of lightning fell onto Chu Kuangren.

However, Chu Kuangren was unscathed as his Heavenly Daoist Weapon and Stellar Undying Body stopped the lightning.

"Heavenly Dao, is this all you've got?" Chu Kuangren stood proudly while looking at Heavenly Punishment Eye with a wild grin.

The pupils of the elites in Planet Sirius trembled at the sight of that.

‘He’s fighting against the Heavenly Dao!’

Seemingly provoked, the murderous intent of the Heavenly Punishment Eye became more intense. The blood-colored flashes of lightning continued crashing down.

The power of each flash of lightning was sufficient to kill an ordinary Heavenly Daoist Celestial as dozens of lightning rained down non-stop!

The might of the power terrified countless people.

However, Chu Kuangren was still standing with his white clothes fluttering in the wind. With his flowing Emperor qi and radiating Daoist patterns, he looked like an inviolable immortal!

“Remarkable!”

Chu Kuangren yelled as he channeled his mind power and Emperor qi to their fullest potential.

“Single Thought Series, Absolute Silence, Planetary Destruction!”

Phoenix’s Flames, Immortal Physique’s freezing qi, Prominent-grade Emperor qi, mind power, and Daoist patterns interweaved into purple and crimson-colored bands of light that spread outward.

The bands of light and blood-colored lightning hit each other, one after another.

The surrounding earth cracked.

Countless creatures died amidst the quaking of the entire Planet Sirius. The sky was furious, and billions of corpses were lying on the ground.

Everyone was concerned about the battle between a human and the sky.

Then, both bands of light and lightning dissipated.

The result shocked everyone.

Chu Kuangren was standing at the same spot, with his shirt still white. The attack, which was sufficient to kill dozens of Heavenly Daoist Celestial, could do nothing to him.

Boom, boom...

Blood-colored lightning energy swirling around Heavenly Punishment Eye in the sky turned into a huge blood-colored lightning sword that struck down violently!

Chu Kuangren still did not evade nor retreat.

Almighty Avatar manifested and unleashed a punch!

The fist strength disintegrated part of the lightning sword’s power, and another was disintegrated with Chu Kuangren’s Invincible Technique, Inverted Universe.

With that, less than half of the remaining lightning energy slammed towards him. Chu Kuangren’s eyes shone brightly. “Single Thought Series, Ultimate Chasm of Convergence!”

The invisible whirlpool of mind power swirled.

The remaining half of lightning energy was reduced by half again.

Chu Kuangren endured the remaining half of lightning energy. As a result, the Daoist patterns of his Heavenly Daoist Weapons gradually disintegrated and found it hard to resist the impact.

The power of lightning energy hit his Stellar Undying Body madly, causing his flesh and bones to make a crackling sound.

“It feels... alright!”

Chu Kuangren twisted his neck.

His defensive power was extremely terrifying. Coupled with his Immortal Body, even the most robust Heavenly Punishment Eye in the Heavenly Dao could not harm him.

“You’ve made enough moves. It’s my turn now!”

Chu Kuangren took a step forward, and two Dao Proclamation Seals rose above his head. In a split second, the Heavenly Dao energy that had grown in his body erupted.

“Imperial Monarch Sword Art!”

The Grand Emperor Avatar suddenly manifested. Chu Kuangren swung Descendant Self Sword forward while laughing wildly. Then, a golden sword shadow flew into the sky and slashed towards Heavenly Punishment Eye!

Crack, crack...

The sky... cracked!

The Heavenly Punishment Eye shattered and turned into a rain of blood.

All elites froze upon witnessing the scene.

“Heavenly Dao... lost!”

“My goodness! How can the Sword Poet Immortal be so strong?”

“He defeated Heavenly Dao...”

Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind him and Dao Proclamation Seals above him glowing brightly. He sneered while looking at the rain of blood in the sky.

“That’s all the sky can take!”

Chapter 897: Does Anyone Else Have An Opinion? Heading to Chaotic Starfield

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

Chu Kuangren succeeded in battling the sky with his strength!

His powerful strength had convinced everyone present, and the Sword Poet Immortal’s name would be forever imprinted in their minds.

After destroying Heavenly Punishment Eye, Planet Sirius' Heavenly Dao energy was absorbed rapidly by the Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao under the activation of the Heavenly Devouring Daoist Art.

All of Planet Sirius's elites felt something, and they were horrified.

"Heavenly Dao... has disappeared!"

"Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao has disappeared!"

"There's no more Heavenly Dao in Planet Sirius from now on, and Countless cultivators will have greater difficulty in affirming their Daos. The Sword Poet Immortal has ruined the future of Planet Sirius's cultivators. How can he do that?"

Swish, swish...

Several figures rushed to Chu Kuangren.

They were Planet Sirius's top elites. At that moment, they could not watch any longer as Planet Sirius' Heavenly Dao had been devoured.

"Sword Poet Immortal, how could you devour Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao?"

An old man confronted him.

Chu Kuangren did not say a word. Instead, he raised the Descendant Self Sword in his hand, and Emperor qi surged his body, filling the Dao Proclamation Seals above his head with mysterious brilliance.

Endless Daoist patterns spread, and a powerful energy wave swept through.

A sword attack had been unleashed!

A golden sword shadow formed, and the old man who confronted had his pupils shrank. Without any strength to resist, he was slashed in half.

There was dead silence after the blood mist exploded.

"Does anyone else have an opinion?"

Chu Kuangren's torch-like eyes swept across the crowd.

Everyone shuddered.

He was too terrifying. To think he killed a Heavenly Daoist Celestial within seconds. With that strength, was he really just a Great Daoist Celestial? It was simply unbelievable.

(If you have problems with this website, please continue reading your novel on our new website myTHANKS!)

Nobody dared to speak up.

Seeing that no one dared to speak, Chu Kuangren looked at Black Blood Tower Master not far away and casually slashed his sword forward to kill him.

However, that was only a clone of the Black Blood Tower Master.

His actual body was hiding somewhere at Planet Sirius.

However, since Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao had been devoured, the Black Blood Tower Master had lost his Heavenly Dao energy. As such, he was no longer a threat to Chu Kuangren.

Of course, he did not intend to let his opponent flee.

"Bring me to the Black Blood Tower's headquarters!"

Chu Kuangren looked at a surviving golden-masked assassin and said.

These people could only obey.

Soon, Chu Kuangren was at the hidden mountains in Planet Sirius, which were equipped with countless restrictions and formations. At first glance, they were just ordinary mountains. None would have thought they were the notable Black Blood Tower's headquarters with numerous assassins lurking around.

Upon Chu Kuangren's arrival, a domineering aura swept across the entire mountains like a raging wave. As he channeled his Emperor qi, the entire mountains quaked wildly, destroying all restrictions and formations.

Countless assassins rushed out.

As if they expected Chu Kuangren's arrival, a group of cultivators in black attacked him from all directions.

Chu Kuangren's eyes flashed. "Oh? Interesting. I didn't expect someone would dare to attack me still. You're... assassins!"

He knew the identity of these cultivators.

Assassins were not afraid of death, and they were worse than killers.

Killers were afraid of death and would prioritize their interests. However, assassins obeyed their masters and had no complaints even if they were sent to death.

These cultivators in black were assassins trained by Black Blood Tower Master.

"What a bunch of pathetic guys."

Chu Kuangren uttered.

He was dressed in white, with Daoist patterns and Emperor qi swirling around him.

As soon as the Single Thought Series were cast, bands of lights spread in circles, killing all assassins with a majestic force and turning them into a rain of blood.

Just then, deep in the mountains, a beam of light rose into the sky.

Chu Kuangren's figure flashed and entered deeply into the mountains. Then, he saw a platform with a Daoist pattern flowing on it, and its light was gradually dissipating.

"Oh, this is a... the teleportation camp."

Chu Kuangren made the correct judgment on the platform's usage at first glance.

The Black Blood Tower Master had fled by using the teleportation camp, and the group of assassins was just delaying Chu Kuangren's arrival.

There were a few assassins beside the platform.

Chu Kuangren grabbed a killer, held his neck, and asked, "Where does this teleportation camp lead to?"

The assassins did not dare to hold anything back. "It leads to Chaotic Starfield."

"Chaotic Starfield?"

Chu Kuangren had a pondering look in his eyes.

He had heard about the Chaotic Starfield when he was in the Ancient Godly City. As the name suggested, it was the most chaotic place in the Violet Gold Galaxy where bandits were rampant.

"What does the Black Blood Tower Master plan to do over there? Why is there a teleportation camp that transports to Chaotic Starfield?"

Chu Kuangren asked.

"The Tower Master and Chaotic Starfield's Heavenly Gale Bandit are good friends, so they set up a teleportation camp here for them to gather more conveniently."

"Oh."

Heavenly Gale Bandit was the Chaotic Starfield's Bandit King.

It was said that he was a hegemon in Chaotic Starfield. He even dared to rob Immortal civilizations like Planet Zi and Planet Jin.

"Bandit King and Assassin King, huh? Violet Gold Galaxy's two great underworld leaders sure make a good match."

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

Following that, he killed all the assassins present and then went rampant in the Black Blood Tower.

Since the Black Blood Tower Master fled in a hurry and did not bring any belongings, Chu Kuangren had a chance to take all treasures away.

"After sorting out Planet Sirius's affairs, I'll go to Chaotic Starfield to settle Black Blood Tower Master next."

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

...

Heavenly Snow Mountain.

Li clan Forefather and the rest had dealt with the aftermath.

He found out about Chu Kuangren from Li Xueying and felt a mix of feelings upon seeing Chu Kuangren return.

On one hand, he had helped the Li clan, and on the other, he had devoured Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao.

"Thank you for helping, Brother Chu," said Li clan Forefather eventually.

Since Chu Kuangren could even devour Heavenly Dao, the Li clan could only rely on him to restore their former glory.

"I'll heal your injury when we're back."

Chu Kuangren said while glancing at Li clan Forefather.

He needed the Li clan to manage Planet Sirius, while the Li clan needed an elite to take charge. Once he had healed from his injury, the Li clan Forefather was undoubtedly the most suitable person.

"Thank you, Daoist Brother." Li clan Forefather was delighted.

Everyone returned to the Li clan.

Not long after, members of the Li clan scattered all over the planet returned as well.

In the Li clan courtyard.

"It was Brother Chu who helped the Li clan survive."

Li Xueying formed a fist salute and said to Chu Kuangren.

"Remember our deal."

Chu Kuangren said.

"Of course." Li Xueying nodded.

In fact, it did not matter whether she agreed with the deal or not. Chu Kuangren, if he wanted to, could destroy the Li clan and then support another force in Planet Sirius, which made little difference.

No one on Planet Sirius could stop him now.

"I'll stay in Planet Sirius for a while, and during my stay, I want only one voice on this planet," said Chu Kuangren.

He spoke calmly and indifferently.

The two sisters, Li Xueying and Li Xuefei, beside him were stunned.

'Chu Kuangren is planning to unify Planet Sirius!'

'Li clan is the puppet that is supported by Chu Kuangren.'

"We understand."

Both the Li clan sisters nodded.

They felt a little hopeful and did not mind the Li clan being a puppet. After all, the clan would have a brighter future once Planet Sirius was unified.

Not all forces were qualified to be Chu Kuangren's puppet.

After the Black Blood Tower was taken down, the Li clan expanded rapidly while Li clan Forefather's injury recovered under Chu Kuangren's treatment.

With a late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial elite and the help of Chu Kuangren, who devoured Planet Sirius' Heavenly Dao, the Li clan did not encounter any resistance. Soon, forces of emperor orthodoxies and equivalent in Planet Sirius were under the Li clan's control.

When everything was in its place, Chu Kuangren left Planet Sirius for Chaotic Starfield, the legendary chaotic place!

Chapter 898: Chu Kuangren's Demonic Blockade, Stepping Into An Extreme Domain

In the starry sky, Chu Kuangren was heading towards Chaotic Starfield.

At the same time, he was also taking stock of various gains he had obtained from Chaotic Starfield. Besides Immortal Techniques, Li clan's Forbidden Technique, and Black Blood Tower's treasures, Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao was the most significant gain.

Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao had been constantly 'digesting' Planet Sirius's Heavenly Dao. In the meantime, Chu Kuangren's Heavenly Dao energy had also been growing. In the future, he would be stronger under the Dao Convergence state.

Of course, those were not the most significant benefits.

The growth of Firmament Star's Heavenly Dao would most benefit the billions of beings on the planet as it would make their cultivation easier than before.

It was a blessing for the entire civilization.

"The trip to Planet Sirius was full of rewards."

"I wonder what kind of surprises Chaotic Starfield would offer." Chu Kuangren looked into the distance and said with some anticipation.

According to the voyage, it would take time to reach Chaotic Starfield.

Hence, Chu Kuangren utilized the time to cultivate.

He was gaining insights from various Immortal Techniques he had learned.

An Immortal Technique was a technique created by an Immortal.

Only an Immortal's Core could fully display its power. Others, even a Pseudo Immortal, could not fully display the power of an Immortal Technique.

"An Immortal's Core is the power of an Immortal, and those below Immortal level can't master it."

“However, one can understand the source through Immortal Techniques. Once they can control the complete source energy, an Immortal’s Core will become an Immortal!”

Chu Kuangren’s three souls were gaining insights from Immortal Techniques.

Countless mysterious Daoist patterns were circulating around him.

Chu Kuangren opened his eyes slowly.

It was not easy to master source energy through Immortal Techniques. Even an Immortal Progeny like The First Seat could not do it.

Even Chu Kuangren could not do it all at once with his talent.

“If I can’t rely solely on Immortal Techniques, what about including the Immortal Physique as help?”

Chu Kuangren thought of something, and his eyes lit up.

He channeled the Moon Frost Immortal Physique and gained insight into source energy through Immortal Technique. Soon, his consciousness gradually separated from his body.

Once again, he had entered the bizarre Source Realm!

In the Source Realm, Chu Kuangren’s consciousness was wandering.

Soon, he came to an iceberg. Unlike other rapidly changing scenes, the image of the iceberg was clear and stable.

“Is it because of the Immortal Physique?”

“Indeed. Immortal Physiques help in gaining insight from the source!”

Chu Kuangren’s eyes lit up.

He observed the iceberg and gained insights from the source contained in it.

Not long after, Chu Kuangren opened his eyes, his consciousness detached from the Source Realm. He spread out his palm, and there was a freezing qi swirling in his palm.

It was not an ordinary freezing qi but the Freezing Dao’s source energy!

Chu Kuangren mobilized his thoughts, and the Moonlight’s source energy revealed itself. Two source energies were swirling around him with dazzling brilliance, reflecting the vast world and making him look like an Immortal.

Unfortunately, no one saw this scene.

Otherwise, people would exclaim in awe.

“Two source energies...”

“But this weird feeling... What is it?”

Refining another source energy was something to be happy about. However, Chu Kuangren could not help but frown.

Whether it was the Moonlight's source energy or the Freezing Dao's source energy, they could bring a lot of help to his combat strength.

However, although those two sources were powerful, there was a sense of... incongruity.

Chu Kuangren looked at the source energy in his hand and fell into deep thought.

In the end, a glimpse of surprise appeared in his eyes.

"I see, I see..."

"Although the Moonlight's source energy and Freezing Dao's source energy can help me quite a lot, they are not my source!"

"Walk my path, and understand my source!"

"My Dao is the Invincible Dao!"

"What is my source then?"

Chu Kuangren mumbled before closing his eyes to gain insights from his Dao. Using the Immortal Physique, his consciousness entered the Source Realm again, searching his source using his Dao.

Unfortunately, a long time passed, and he found nothing.

In the Source Realm, he saw countless scenes transformed by the source energy flashing before him. Yet, none of the source power could resonate with his Dao, which puzzled him.

Every Dao had a corresponding source.

When his consciousness was wandering in the Source Realm, he even saw the corresponding Immortal sources of the Immortal Body, Universal Cauldron Physique, and Godly Phoenix Physique, namely the Devouring Source and Flame Source.

However, he failed to find the corresponding source for his Dao.

His Dao... Did it not have a corresponding source?

Was his cultivation path coming to an end?

Upon wondering, his Rocksteady Daoist Core, which had been trained for many years, shook a little. For the first time in his life, he felt a sense of fear.

"I-Impossible!"

"How can this happen? Do I have to give up my Dao and use other paths to continue my cultivation journey?!"

"In that case, what has been my cultivation so far?!"

Chu Kuangren fell into self-doubt.

Or in other words... A Demonic Blockade!

Chu Kuangren, who could talk and joke before his enemies, had encountered a cultivation crisis for the first time!

If one could not get over a Demonic Blockade, he would either go mad or worse... die and his Dao dissipate!

In the past, Chu Kuangren could remain calm no matter what he encountered as he had a Rocksteady Daoist Core. He had never experienced Demonic Blockade in his cultivation before.

This was the first time.

Even Rocksteady Daoist Core was useless for him.

Ten days passed.

Chu Kuangren allowed his warship to drift in the universe while he sat on the warship's deck and was having a game with Demonic Blockade in his heart.

"Heh..."

Chu Kuangren suddenly chuckled.

He stood up slowly and looked at the vast space. A terrifying aura erupted from his body that caused the planets to tremble.

"My Dao is the Invincible Dao!"

"My goal isn't to be Immortal, but to be invincible, to constantly surpass myself and surpass the limit!"

"So what if there isn't a corresponding source? I'll create a source of my own! I'm the source!"

Chu Kuangren was determined.

He had passed the Demonic Blockade!

At that moment, a change was happening to his Rocksteady Daoist Core!

His Daoist core, which was originally indestructible, had been sublimated. From now on, nothing could influence him.

A vibration came from the depths of the universe.

The will of the great Universal Dao had sensed the transformation of Chu Kuangren's Daoist core, which had reached a specific level.

In the universe, elites in countless galaxies could sense it too.

"It's the ultimate! Someone has stepped into the Ultimate Level!"

"Who is it?"

"What has entered the Ultimate Level? Is it Dao or a technique? Could it be a Daoist core?"

Chu Kuangren did not know that he had passed the Demonic Blockade and that his Daoist core had entered the Ultimate Level, which Immortals dreamt of.

Chu Kuangren continued gaining insights from the source after overcoming the Demonic Blockade.

After utilizing his Immortal Physique to gain insights from Freezing Qi Source, Chu Kuangren tried to gain insights from the source with other physiques as powerful as Immortal Physiques and found it feasible. As such, he began to gain insights from other sources.

It would be shocking if other cultivators knew about this. After all, it was not easy to gain insights from the source. Even an Immortal Progeny might obtain nothing after spending all their efforts.

However, Chu Kuangren could easily gain insights into all kinds of powerful physiques.

Chapter 899: Chaotic Starfield's Three Bandit Kings, Defeating Them With A Punch

"Flame Source, success."

Chu Kuangren spread out his palm, and a golden-red flame was burning in his hand. It was the Flame Source that he had gotten from the Godly Phoenix Physique.

Unlike the ordinary Flame Source, the source energy of this flame was wild and more aggressive. It was the Godly Phoenix Flame!

Perhaps it would be more appropriate to call it the Godly Phoenix Flame Source.

Even though it was the same source, there were subtle differences due to different cultivation techniques, people, Dao, or other conditions.

The Godly Phoenix Physique's Flame Source was stronger than the Flame Source comprehended by ordinary cultivators.

"On top of the Moonlight Source, Freezing Dao Source, Devouring Source that I've gained earlier, I now have four source energies."

Chu Kuangren mumbled and smiled with satisfaction.

"Compared to the Immortal Physique, there is still the Immortal Body. It won't take long for me to gain the Immortal Source. Unfortunately, other physiques aren't Immortal Physiques. If I want to gain insights from the source through these physiques, it'll be much more difficult than through Immortal Techniques." Chu Kuangren shook his head.

Perhaps he could comprehend the corresponding source energy by finding Immortal Techniques corresponding to these Daoist Physiques and then combine them with the power of Immortal Techniques.

However, he could not do it now.

"Comprehending source energy through physiques? Perhaps this is also the mystery of the Tome of Physiques..." Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

Leaving aside the Omniscient Spirit and Lucky Halo, the remaining two Transcendent-tier items, namely the Tome of Physiques and Timespace Treasure, still had a lot of mysteries that he had not fully understood yet. Hence, it was worth continuing his research.

Boom, boom...

At that moment, several energy light beams were approaching not far away.

When the light beams hit the warship's defensive barrier, Chu Kuangren narrowed his eyes and then looked at the source of the energy light beams.

Several warships were approaching him at a rapid speed.

On the warships, there were various cultivators of different races.

They were from the Yokai Tribe and the human race.

"Star Bandits?"

Chu Kuangren made a judgment on their identity.

It seemed like he had entered the Chaotic Starfield's perimeters.

"Boy, this is the Berserk Sand Bandits' territory. Leave your valuables behind to spare your life."

The bandit of one of the warships exclaimed.

Chu Kuangren did not respond.

He mobilized his mind power to converge an army of spiritual weapons that were suspended in the sky. Then, they flew towards the crowd with a bang.

Boom... Boom... Boom...

The army of spiritual weapons rained down, and one warship after another exploded. All the Star Bandits had no time to react to what was happening.

"D*mn! We've run into a tough one!"

"Run! Go back and inform the boss."

All the Star Bandits' expressions changed.

Following that, several warships turned around and left. Chu Kuangren did not go after them but caught a few bandits.

"Master, I beg for your mercy!"

"Master, please forgive us for being ignorant."

Several bandits knelt before Chu Kuangren, kowtowing and begging for forgiveness.

"I can spare your lives, but you have to tell me the situation in Chaotic Starfield and what forces are there."

Chu Kuangren said.

The bandits looked strangely at one another before telling Chu Kuangren everything they knew in exchange for a chance to live.

There were countless bandits in Chaotic Starfield, but there were only three who dominated. They were the Heavenly Gale Bandits, Berserk Sand Bandits, and Flame Demon Bandits.

The one who robbed Chu Kuangren was the Berserk Sand Bandits.

However, the Berserk Sand Bandits were ordinary bandits.

Among the three major bandit forces, Heavenly Gale Bandits was the strongest. The leader of Heavenly Gale Bandits, the Heavenly Gale Bandit King, was also known as the Bandit King.

The remaining two bandit forces could only compete with Heavenly Gale Bandits if they joined forces.

“Have you heard of the Black Blood Tower Master?”

Chu Kuangren asked.

“I’ve heard that he’s a famous Assassin King and a top-notch Heavenly Daoist Celestial,” said a bandit.

“Did you know that he came to Chaotic Starfield recently?”

“We’re not too sure about that.”

Chu Kuangren looked at the nervous bandits before him. There was a pondering look in his eyes as if he was planning something.

“Boy, free my people and hand over your valuables. Then, I’d let you die in peace.”

At that moment, an indifferent voice suddenly sounded.

A bandit in armor and with a pike rushed up, glaring at Chu Kuangren sternly.

“Third Captain!”

“The Third Captain’s here.”

Bandits whom Chu Kuangren had caught looked delighted.

Chu Kuangren took a glance at the Third Captain. His cultivation base was not bad, and he was a peak Great Daoist Celestial, but his combat strength was no match for Chu Kuangren.

“Third Captain, huh? Perhaps you have a say.”

Chu Kuangren mumbled.

The Third Captain frowned and had no idea what Chu Kuangren meant. Nevertheless, he snorted and rushed out with his pike.

Emperor qi and Daoist patterns swept out with a stab of the pike.

Chu Kuangren raised his hand gently.

Boom!

His opponent's Emperor qi and Daoist patterns were smashed into pieces in an instant.

Chu Kuangren grabbed the pike, and with a tug, the Third Captain lost control and flew forward.

What terrifying power!

The Third Captain's expression changed.

The next second, there was a fist before his eyes.

The punch smashed Third Captain's face in a bang. Just like that, his nose was crooked, his eyes were slanted, and his face was almost sunken.

Before he could let out a scream, he had fallen to the ground with eyes white and fainted.

The bandits beside were stunned.

He was Berserk Sand Bandits' Third Captain!

A peak Great Daoist Celestial was defeated in one punch?

Were they dreaming?

After defeating his opponent with a punch, Chu Kuangren stepped on the Third Captain's head and said to other bandits, "Go back and tell your boss to come to me if he wants to save his life."

Several bandits looked strangely at one another.

What was happening?

Instead of fleeing, he wanted their boss to come to him?

The bandits swiftly scrambled out of the place.

...

In Berserk Sand Bandits' territory.

The Berserk Sand Bandits' boss, Berserk Sand Bandit King, was hugging a few beauties with curvy figures.

In front of him were boxes of spiritual marrow treasures that he had just robbed.

"Big Boss, Big Boss! Something happened to the Third Captain."

At that moment, a bandit rushed in and said anxiously.

The Berserk Sand Bandit King frowned. "What's going on?"

The bandit then told him about Chu Kuangren.

"Oh, he has hurt Old Third and requested me to meet him? Where the hell did he come from?" The Berserk Sand Bandit King was a little puzzled.

Beside him, a man holding a giant ax sneered. "Perhaps he's just a young sky-pride who has come here to gain more experience and wants to step on us under the slogan of eradicating harm for the people."

That man was the Berserk Sand Bandits' Second Captain.

What he said was not uncommon.

Chaotic Starfield was extremely dangerous with rampant bandits, so it often became a training ground for some newly born sky-prides.

Some arrogant sky-prides killed a few famous bandits here and made a name for themselves. Unfortunately, most of these sky-prides meant nothing to Berserk Sand Bandits and were easily defeated.

"Even Old Third isn't his match. It seems like he's not an ordinary sky-pride. I'm afraid he's an Immortal Progeny."

"That's even better. We can tie him up and exchange a lot of spiritual marrows with the force behind him." Second Captain chuckled.

They were not afraid of anyone in Chaotic Starfield. Even forces like Planet Zi and Planet Jin had to back away from them in Chaotic Starfield.

"Alright. Let's go and have a look.. I'm intrigued to see who's so bold!" The Berserk Sand Bandit King nodded.

Chapter 900: All of You Have No Option, Defeating The Berserk Sand Bandit King

In a starry sky of Chaotic Starfield, Chu Kuangren was sitting with his legs crossed while awaiting Berserk Sand Bandit King and the rest.

Beside him, the Third Captain, who was defeated by his fist, awoke and looked around him in confusion. Then, he seemed to recall something and looked at Chu Kuangren not far away.

'Who is he?'

'I didn't even get to attack him.'

'Could he be a Heavenly Daoist Celestial?'

He looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief. "Who are you?"

"Chu Kuangren," said Chu Kuangren. He did not need to hide his identity as he needed the Berserk Sand Bandits to do something.

Chu Kuangren...

Upon hearing his name, the Third Captain's eyes widened in fear. After that, he stared at Chu Kuangren with shock in his eyes.

"The Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren!"

Although he was at Chaotic Starfield, he certainly knew the Sword Poet Immortal as it was a renowned name in the galaxy.

“Indeed.”

“Why are you doing in Chaotic Starfield?”

“You’ll know soon.”

Chu Kuangren did not explain much.

Suddenly, he sensed several powerful energies rushing towards him, and there were two Heavenly Daoist Celestials among them.

“Berserk Sand Bandits have strong backing with the protection of two Heavenly Daoist Celestials,” said Chu Kuangren with his eyes bright.

A Heavenly Daoist Celestial was the top-notch elite in the Violet Gold Galaxy.

Hundreds of warships approached at a rapid speed and surrounded Chu Kuangren. The two leaders were the two Heavenly Daoist Celestials that Chu Kuangren sensed, the Berserk Sand Bandits’ Boss and Second Captain.

“Big Brother and Second Brother, he’s Sword Poet Immortal, Chu Kuangren!”

The Third Captain activated his Emperor Thought and passed the note to the Berserk Sand Bandit King. Chu Kuangren noticed his trick but was not bothered at all.

On the contrary, Berserk Sand Bandit King and Second Captain’s pupils shrank when they heard. Their expressions immediately turned grim.

“It’s him, the Sword Poet Immortal.”

“Rumor has it that this person can kill a Heavenly Daoist Celestial. He killed four Heavenly Daoist Celestials in a row during the battle in the Ancient Godly Moon Kingdom. His combat strength is extremely frightening.”

“We are in trouble.”

They had come to Chu Kuangren initially with the intention to take him down for offending them. However, they dared not act rashly upon hearing that it was Chu Kuangren.

“Sword Poet Immortal, what’s your purpose in coming to Chaotic Starfield?”

Berserk Sand Bandit King asked.

“Collaboration.”

Chu Kuangren responded.

Everyone was stunned to hear that.

‘Collaboration?’

‘What is there for the Sword Poet Immortal to collaborate with us?’

“Please make yourself clear, Sword Poet Immortal.”

“I want to unite all of the Chaotic Starfield’s bandits and have them under my service. It’s too troublesome to do it step by step, so I thought it’d be better to collaborate with the Berserk Sand Bandits,” said Chu Kuangren.

“Do you mean collaborating with us to unify Chaotic Starfield, Sword Poet Immortal?” The Berserk Sand Bandit King was a little dumbfounded.

“Yes.”

“What’s your purpose for doing so?”

“Destroy Planet Zi.”

Chu Kuangren uttered bluntly.

That was right.

He had thought about it while on the way to Chaotic Starfield. It was not an easy task to take the entire Planet Zi’s civilization down, so he needed help.

Countless bandits in Chaotic Starfield possessed strength that could not be underestimated, and Planet Zi would be in fear if they united.

“What? He wants to destroy Planet Zi?”

“I heard Chu Kuangren has a feud with Planet Zi. He once threw down the gauntlet to Planet Zi, but I didn’t expect him to be so crazy.”

“Is this possible? Planet Zi can’t possibly be destroyed as said.”

The crowd was in a heated discussion, clearly frightened.

The Berserk Sand Bandit King pondered for a while. “It’s impossible to destroy Planet Zi, so we won’t do it. Please look for other forces, Your Excellency. Now, please set my Third Brother free.”

“Heh, do you think you have other options?” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

At that, the Berserk Sand Bandit King’s expression changed. “Sword Poet Immortal, what do you mean? You can’t force us, can you?”

“Two options.”

Chu Kuangren raised two of his fingers and said, “First option, collaborate with me, and I’ll help you to be Chaotic Starfield’s master. After destroying Planet Zi, you can return with Planet Zi’s civilization wealth.”

“Second option...”

At that point, Chu Kuangren smirked. “I’ll destroy Berserk Sand Bandits and then find other forces!”

A grim look appeared on all the Berserk Sand Bandits' faces.

'Chu Kuangren calls this a collaboration?'

'How on earth is this a collaboration?'

"Chu Kuangren, don't push us too far!"

The Berserk Sand Bandit King's expression was as gloomy as a waterway.

"What if I do?" uttered Chu Kuangren indifferently.

"Alright, alright. Chu Kuangren, I'll collaborate and obey you if you can beat me into submission!"

The Berserk Sand Bandit King knew that they were doomed to battle today.

He stepped forward and took out a twelve feet spear with mysterious yellow light patterns flowing through it. It was a Heavenly Daoist Weapon.

"You should have done this earlier."

Chu Kuangren uttered.

He rose and stood in the air, saying, "It's not difficult to beat you into submission. You two, attack!"

The other person he meant was another Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

"You insolent b*stard!"

The Berserk Sand Bandits' Second Captain snorted. His figure then flashed over to Chu Kuangren with the giant ax in his hand, and he swung up.

The ax was so mighty that it could even split a planet.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren did not retreat. Instead, he slowly stretched out his hands, and his white jade-like palm grabbed the blade of the ax.

Boom!

A wave of air blew past.

Chu Kuangren's body did not move, and the ax was grasped lightly in his hand. "Is that all you have, Berserk Sand Bandits' Second Captain?"

He said with mockery in his eyes.

"D*mn it!"

The Second Captain's face darkened.

Following that, he channeled his Emperor qi to its fullest potential. Daoist patterns were flowing through the ax blade, but they could not harm Chu Kuangren at all.

At that moment, the Berserk Sand Bandit King beside him attacked too.

His strength was much stronger than the Second Captain as he was very close to a late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial. The moment he struck his spear forth, flames wrapped around the spear, turning it into a ferocious fiery python.

Chu Kuangren exerted some force with his arm and flung the Second Captain away. Then, he repositioned himself and cast his Immortal Technique. "Single Thought Series!"

Single Thought Series, Endless Subzero Decimation was cast. The Immortal Physique's freezing qi surged out and merged with the Freezing Dao's source energy.

The giant fiery python was frozen in an instant.

The freezing qi hit the Berserk Sand Bandit King. Although he avoided it with his flame, a layer of frost was still formed on his body.

"What a frightening freezing qi!"

"Is this the power of the Sword Poet Immortal?!"

The Berserk Sand Bandit King's expression changed. He let out a long whistle, and the flames on him shot up into the sky, illuminating the entire universe.

"Esoteric Arts, Heavenly God's Flame Dragon!"

The flames turned into a dancing flame dragon in mid-air. It roared and trembled the universe with its might as it swooped towards Chu Kuangren.

Not far away, the Second Captain who had been flung away stabilized himself, raised his ax high with a roar and chopped downwards.

A gigantic ax shadow crashed towards Chu Kuangren.

Two significant attacks were going to hit Chu Kuangren!

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back. His clothes were still white, and with Daoist patterns swirling around his body, he looked unbothered by the attacks.

"Single Thought Series, Absolute Silence, Planetary Destruction!"

Phoenix's Flames, freezing qi, mind power, and Emperor qi erupted all at once, turning into purple and crimson-colored bands of light that spread out in circles.

The ax shadow was broken, and the flame dragon perished!

The Berserk Sand Bandit King and Second Captain absorbed the impact and flew backward, spitting out a mouthful of blood..
