Chapter 941: Killing The Pseudo Immortal With Thousand Lotus Sword Intent, Immortal Ancient Battlefield

"Losers are always in the wrong. No matter what you say now, it can't change the fact that you've lost to the Saber Crown. I never thought there would be an unexpected gain for killing a foreigner. If this were in the past, I would never dare to think of killing the Sword Crown." The elder enforcer grinned.

"If [were in my prime, I could kill thousands of you in one strike!"

The Sword Crown snorted.

He felt extremely humiliated.

Back in the past, he was a magnificent Sword Crown who could kill thousands of dragons with a sword attack, break through hundreds of cities, and stand at the peak of Sword Dao. Yet now, he was insulted by an enforcer who was not an Immortal. How despicable.

"Haha! Sword Crown, hand me your life!"

The elder laughed and was about to attack.

However, not far away, a cold sword aura erupted from a room and turned into a horrifying purple sword shadow that hovered in the sky.

'The horrifying sword aura caused several enforcers' eyes to widen in horror as they stared at the dwelling below the sword shadow as if they were facing a big enemy.

"Whose life do you all want?!"

A voice sounded, and the sword shadow dissipated.

A figure dressed in a white wide-sleeved robe walked out when the door opened with a creak. He was handsome, his white robe was peerless, and there was a sense of transcendence in his movements.

He walked out step by step. With each step, a purple lotus flower bloomed with pure sword qi under his feet.

A lotus bloomed with each step!

Such a scene shocked many cultivators who were keeping an eye on the City Hall.

"Sword qi turns into lotuses? Could it be... the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent!"

"The Sword Crown's past famous technique?!"

"Could he be the Sword Crown's inheritor?"

"Possible. Otherwise, why would the Sword Crown protect him?"

The crowd was stunned.

The Sword Crown was even more astonished.

'Thousand Lotus Sword Intent was his creation, and he was the one who gave it to Chu Kuangren. However, in his opinion, Chu Kuangren would take at least ten years to master the Immortal Technique and even a hundred years if he wanted to control it extensively.

However, he could see that Chu Kuangren had fully gained control of it. Regardless of his cultivation base, Chu Kuangren was no worse than him.

'He took only a few days!"

'Such learning ability and cognizance is ridiculous!"

'Is he even a human?!"

"Whose life did you all said wanted to take just now?"

Chu Kuangren questioned again.

"We want to take your life!"

'The elder enforcer snorted before his figure dashed towards Chu Kuangren in a flash. A sharp sword ray surged out as he struck out with his longsword.

Chu Kuangren's eyes were calm, and he slowly raised his hand.

Following that, Emperor qi in his body surged out like a raging wave, transforming into a purple sword ray. Wherever the sword ray passed, purple lotuses bloomed.

The Thousand Lotus Sword Intent!

Boom!

Both sword rays collided!

'Thousand Lotus Sword Intent was spreading with an unstoppable force.

'The sword ray cast by the elder was easily torn like a thin paper, and he was torn in half when the sword ray of the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent fell on him.

Killing a Pseudo Immortal with one sword strike!

'The other two enforcers' eyes widened in horror upon seeing the scene.

"How is this possible?!"

"His strength is much stronger than the reports!"

Not only the enforcers but the rest of the Ancient Sparrow City cultivators were also stunned. It only took him a few days to achieve further improvement.

Moreover, it was not a small improvement.

He was too scary!

"He's far too scary even if he's King Immortal Progeny."

Some cultivators gulped.

‘The Sword Crown was speechless.

Although his cultivation was useless now, his sense was still present. He could sense source energy from Chu Kuangren’s Thousand Lotus Sword Intent.

“Not only did he completely master the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent in a few days, but he also mastered a Sword Source?!”

“Master’s cognizance is simply terrifying!”

The Sword Crown exclaimed.

“Retreat!”

‘The other two enforcers knew that they were not Chu Kuangren’s opponents and wanted to escape.

Before they could take any more steps, purple lotus flowers floated in the void, and a terrifying sword intent locked onto them!

“Where do you think you’re going?”

“You only have a dead end!”

Chu Kuangren’s icy voice sounded.

Purple lotus flowers, which were floating around, shot towards the two Pseudo Immortals. Each lotus flower was a strand of terrifying sword qi.

After a while, the two Pseudo Immortals were strangled to death by the sword qi!

It was so easy for Chu Kuangren to kill Pseudo Immortals!

His combat strength silenced everyone present.

Chu Kuangren raised his hand to grab the few Pseudo Immortals’ Yin and Yang Rings, in which found a lot of spiritual marrows and some Immortal crystals by channeling his Emperor Thought.

“Is this how poor the Holy City’s enforcers are? Can’t Holy City wages?” Chu Kuangren pursed his lips, somewhat disgusted.

Beside him, the Sword Crown’s mouth twitched.

“The enforcers are poor?”

‘What are those ten of billions of spiritual marrows in the Yin and Yang Rings?

Chu Kuangren was extremely rich now as he had obtained most of Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm’s treasures, the wealth of the city lord’s mansion, and the Bai clan. In addition, he had benefited from Planet Zi’s battle too.

Although most of the treasures and wealth he gained were meant for Firmament Star’s development, his current net worth was incomparable to Immortals.

“Alright. I’m bored staying in Ancient Sparrow City. Let’s leave.”

Chu Kuangren uttered.

However, the turmoil he created did not stop after he left, and his name was soon well known across the Planquilon Immortal World.

After all, every King Immortal Progeny was highly regarded, not to mention a foreign King Immortal Progeny.

Moreover, besides offending the two great forces, Holy Divine Fire Cult and Holy City, Chu Kuangren had also killed one Pseudo Immortal after another.

The Immortal World’s forces could not disregard him.

“He’s only a foreign King Immortal Progeny but made such big chaos. This brat is too unscrupulous, and he won’t live long.”

“Perhaps he should join an immortal orthodoxy.”

“[heard that he knows Thousand Lotus Sword Intent, and the Sword Crown was beside him. What’s the relationship between them?”

“Anyway, he’s worth noting.”

Another major incident occurred when Chu Kuangren’s reputation started spreading in Planquilon Immortal World.

In Planquilon Immortal World, somewhere in an unremarkable mountain range.

Just today, a large amount of gray mist spewed out from the depths of the mountain range, and it spread to thousands of meters in a short time.

There was a terrible dilapidated scene with broken weapons and scattered corpses at where the mist was. The whistling wind seemed to be mixed with the howling of resentful spirits. It was like a land where Immortals fell!

At the moment when this strange place appeared, the entire Planquilon Immortal World’s great ones sensed something, and they all looked into the distance.

“Such aura... It’s the Immortal Ancient Battlefield!”

“D*mn it! The Immortal Ancient Battlefield has appeared. Now, all Planquilon Immortal World’s orthodoxies won’t be able to sit still.”

“Tm afraid those Immortals will take action too.”

“The Immortal Ancient Revolt led to the great battle that shattered the ancient Immortal World. Now that a battlefield’s corner of this great battle has emerged, it must contain huge Opportunities of Fortunes which no one can resist.”

“If it’s possible, one can even discover the reason for the Immortal Ancient Revolt’s outbreak and gain access to the most ancient secrets of the Immortal World!”

The entire Planquilon Immortal World could no longer sit still with the Immortal Ancient Battlefield's appearance.

All immortal orthodoxies reacted while cultivators from all over rushed to the Immortal Ancient Battlefield...

Chapter 942: All Parties' Reactions, Immortal World's Twelve Kings, Yokai Tribe's Aura

All orthodoxies reacted at the Immortal Ancient Battlefield's appearance.

The Immortal World, Holy Divine Fire Cult.

In one of the Forest Realms, three different colors of flames — red, blue, and black — were burning.

Each flame color represented a divine fire in the Divine Fire List.

The entire Holy Divine Fire Cult was in shock.

"They are the Crimson Divine Flame, Oceanic Celestial Flame, and Yin Underworld Flame! It's Master Divine Bachelor! He has come out from his closed-door meditation!"

1

"Master Divine Bachelor has been in the closed-door meditation for ten years, and he is finally out."

All the Holy Divine Fire Cult's followers were overjoyed at the sight. A hint of frenzy revealed in their eyes as they looked at the source of the flame.

In Holy Divine Fire Cult, only a person had three types of divine fires in the Divine Fire List. He was Holy Divine Fire Cult's First Divine Bachelor, Huoshen Huang, and one of Planquilon Immortal World's King Immortal Progenies!

A sturdy man walked out from Flame Forest Realm. He was surrounded by divine fire, and his momentum was so powerful that it disrupted the heavenly and earthly spiritual qi.

His torch-like eyes looked into the distance. "This strange aura... It's the rumored Ancient Battlefield. Has the Immortal Ancient Battlefield appeared?"

"Interesting."

A strange look flashed in his eyes.

Several figures shrouded in golden and red firelight were communicating in a mysterious place covered with huge sycamore trees. These figures, with gorgeous wings seen vaguely on them, did not look like human cultivators.

"The Immortal Ancient Battlefield has appeared. What do you thin!

"since such place has appeared, we shan't hide from the world. The Phoenix Bachelor and Phoenix Maiden should gain some experience."

“That’s great. As for the new Phoenix Maiden, her body contains the pure blood of a Godly Phoenix, and she’s awakening. We shan’t disturb her for the time being.”

“Plus, I heard that there’s a foreigner out there who can utilize the Phoenix’s Flame. We must investigate this and have Phoenix Bachelor come into contact with him. If this person is harmful to Phoenix Tribe, kill him!”

“Understood.”

Soon after, gorgeous Godly Phoenixes flew out of Sycamore Abyss.

On an island in the Immortal World Ocean, the sound of a dragon roar echoed in the sky.

Then, two mighty divine dragons flew swiftly across the sky and left the island.

On that day, phoenixes emerged from sycamore trees, while divine dragons left the ocean!

It simply meant that the divine beasts had descended into the world!

In a magnificent city, a light shone in a young man’s eyes. He was wearing silver-white armor and holding a spear. “The appearance of Immortal Ancient Battlefield means that Immortal Progenies have gathered. Perhaps I can find an opponent for my Bloodlust Spear!”

The blood-colored spear in the young man’s hand trembled slightly, and a boundless, vicious aura gushed out.

“Wuji, although you’ve inherited my skills, there are more powerful people out there. You must not be arrogant and complacent.” Next to the silver-armored man, a man stood with both hands behind his back. He was surrounded with Immortal Spark, and his aura was extraordinary.

He was the Holy City Ruler and one of the Seven Crowns, the Spear Crown!

“Tunderstand, Honorable Teacher.”

The young man uttered, but there was a hint of disagreement in his eyes. “By the way, I heard that the Ancient Sparrow City Ruler, who was under Holy City, was killed by a foreign sky-pride. Is that true?”

“Great. I hope I get to meet him in the Immortal Ancient Battlefield. Then, I’ll behead him and show him how powerful the Holy City is!”

“In today’s Planquilon Immortal World, there are supposedly twelve kings among the younger generation, which refers to the twelve King Immortal Progenies!”

In a vast and empty mountain range, Chu Kuangren held the Emerald Sac Scriptures in his left hand, while his right gathered water qi into needles to heal the Sword Crown according to the scriptures’ instructions.

‘The Sword Crown was talking about some incidents in Planquilon Immortal World.

“They include Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Huoshen Huang, Holy City Rulers direct disciple, Wu Wuji, Young Master of Slumbering Sword Ocean, the Saber King...”

A cold look flashed across the Sword Crown's eyes when he mentioned Slumbering Sword Ocean.

Chu Kuangren frowned slightly. "You're healing. Please calm down."

"Alright, Master."

Sword Crown nodded and gradually returned to calm.

"slumbering Sword Ocean? It sounds like a Sword Dao force, but why is the Young Master called the Saber King?" Chu Kuangren asked curiously.

"slumbering Sword Ocean's cultivators aren't sword cultivators, but saber cultivators. The term slumbering sword means burying a sword with a saber! Their cultivation is to prove to the saber's power is above the sword's!"

"The Slumbering Sword Ocean Ruler is the most powerful cultivator in Planquilon Immortal World. He's an Immortal... the Saber Crown!"

Upon hearing that, Chu Kuangren shook his head and said, "All weapons in the world are mostly made to hurt and kill people. There aren't any differences in levels. The purpose of the Slumbering Sword Ocean's cultivation is simply ridiculous."

"You're right, Master."

"Immortal World's Twelve Kings... Are there only twelve King Immortal Progenies in this Immortal World?" Chu Kuangren asked again.

"There are more than that. These twelve kings are just twelve famous King Immortal Progenies. Some King Immortal Progenies are, more or less, hidden by various great orthodoxies, such as Sycamore Mountain, who has been avoiding the world, and the Divine Dragon Island. There must be more than one King Immortal Progeny in these Divine Beast Tribe."

"Oh, there are divine beast races in Planquilon Immortal World?"

"Yes. Although they are divine beasts, it's rumored that their divine beast bloodline is considered thin among the divine beasts. Even so, they are divine beasts that shouldn't be underestimated. They're one of the most powerful forces in Planquilon Immortal World," said the Sword Crown.

"Are there any King Immortal Progenies among the foreigners?"

Chu Kuangren questioned.

"There used to be some, but the natives have been suppressing the foreigners and have made it difficult for them to improve. Most of them were attached to various orthodoxies. However, they were pretty much excluded due to their identity. Among the twelve kings, only Du Guyu is a foreigner and is now attached to the Spiritual Empyrean Mountain."

Sword Crown thought for a while and then said, "These are the information from the past few years. Planquilon Immortal World's recent appearance has attracted a group of foreigners, so I have no idea if there are any new King Immortal Progenies among these foreigners besides you, Master."

“Understood.”

Chu Kuangren retracted the water qi in the Sword Crown’s body. “It looks like the Immortal Ancient Battlefield’s appearance will be more interesting than Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm.”

Beside him, the Sword Crown was sensing his injury.

His injury was definitely much better before, and he could use some strength now. That fact made him even more loyal to Chu Kuangren.

“After a few more courses of treatment, your injury will be healed,” said Chu Kuangren while glancing at him.

“Thank you, Master.”

“Boss, boss, I found a seal upfront. Do you think there’ll be treasures in there?”

Lil Fox uttered as she ran towards Chu Kuangren.

Chu Kuangren’s interest was piqued. “Let’s go and have a look.”

Lil Fox then led Chu Kuangren and the Sword Crown to a cave. The cave seemed ordinary, but it was densely filled with powerful seals, and one would be severely attacked once stepped into it.

“These seals aren’t natural but manmade. Someone is in this cave. No, this aura is... Someone from the Yokai Tribe.”

“Such disordered aura... He seems injured. Well, it has nothing to do with us. Let’s leave,” said Chu Kuangren.

As they were about to leave, a few rays of golden light approached from a distance and landed around the cave. A tyrannical killing intent enveloped Chu Kuangren, Lil Fox, and the Sword Crown.

Chapter 943: A Strange Azure Phoenix, Neither Existed In The Three Thousand Worlds Nor Had Entered Dharma Reincarnation

Rays of golden light landed above Chu Kuangren and the rest. Each of these people was wearing armor and a cape. The cape was embroidered with a huge golden three-legged bird and was extremely majestic.

“The Sword Crown’s expression changed when he saw those people.

“They’re Honorable Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians!”

“Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians?”

Chu Kuangren frowned. These days, he had already learned some of the forces in Planquilon Immortal World.

He heard about Honorable Yokai Hall, which was a top-notch orthodoxy in Yokai Tribe.

It was the most powerful Yokai Tribe force apart from Sycamore Mountain and Divine Dragon Island, the hidden divine beast races.

“That’s right. Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians, the most significant battalion in Yokai Hall. It is said that it only obeys the orders of Yokai Hall Ruler and Yokai Hall Prince. Other Yokai Tribe can’t command them.”

‘The Sword Crown’s eyes were solemn. In other words, the Golden Crow Guardians’ appearance was implicating Yokai Hall Royalty.

“Interesting. Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians came here to capture a Yokai Tribe. Is there something special about this Yokai Tribe?”

A strange look emerged in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

At that moment, Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians noticed Chu Kuangren and the rest.

“Ahuman?”

“The yokai’s aura disappeared here, and he should be hiding in the cave, but why is there a human here?”

A Golden Crow Guardian frowned. “The yokai is important, and we can’t let others know about it. Let’s kill these humans.”

“alright. Judging from their aura, the young man is a Heavenly Daoist Celestial, but there’s nothing to be afraid of the little yokai and elder.”

Several Golden Crow Guardians exchanged a few words.

‘Their domineering aura had been shrouding all round, not giving Chu Kuangren and the rest the slightest chance to leave.

Their conversation decided the fate of Chu Kuangren and the rest.

“Human, you’re unlucky for appearing here. Go to hell!” A Golden Crow Guardian attacked suddenly.

‘A powerful yokai qi erupted as he grabbed with his huge palm, turning into a giant golden palm and smashing towards Chu Kuangren and the rest.

“Such arrogant.”

Chu Kuangren snorted and unleashed a punch.

His raw physical strength and Emperor qi erupted simultaneously, smashing the giant golden palm to pieces. Then, the majestic energy rolled backward, falling on the Golden Crow Guardian and breaking his armor. He spitted blood due to the impact.

“What?!”

“Such strength is by no means an ordinary Heavenly Daoist Celestial, and he’s young. Could he be a King Immortal Progeny?”

“Not good. We were careless.”

Several Golden Crow Guardians’ expressions changed.

“Let’s attack together!”

The leader of Golden Crow Guardians roared before he turned into a huge black goshawk and dashed towards Chu Kuangren.

His claws were mighty as if they could tear the void and destroy a planet.

“You must be seeking death!”

Chu Kuangren’s expression turned cold.

He did not want to interfere with Yokai Hall’s affairs, but they were such a bully. Yokai Hall tried to kill them merely because they passed by. In that case, he had no choice but to kill them!

Facing the goshawk’s attack, Chu Kuangren raised his hand and unleashed a punch. His raw physical strength and Emperor qi erupted simultaneously, smashing the goshawk’s claws into pieces. The powerful force almost shattered half of the goshawk’s body.

The rest of the Golden Crow Guardians dashed to the front of Chu Kuangren.

All kinds of Immortal Techniques and Esoteric Arts were unleashed.

Chu Kuangren remained where he was, his figure as still as a mountain. However, the golden-red Phoenix’s Flame between his hands turned into flame waves and spread outwards.

In a bang, several Golden Crow Guardians were blasted away by the flame waves!

“Phoenix’s Flame... It’s the Phoenix’s Flame!”

“How could he control Phoenix’s Flame? Could he be a Divine Beast Phoenix? No, that aura belongs to a human.”

Several Golden Crow Guardians stared at Chu Kuangren in shock.

On the other hand, a thoughtful look appeared in one of their eyes. “It’s rumored that a human with the mastery of the Phoenix’s Flame has shown up recently. His name is Chu Kuangren, and he has killed several Holy City’s enforcers. It seems like that person is you.”

“Hey, it looks like my reputation has spread to the Yokai Hall.”

Chu Kuangren grinned.

‘A Golden Crow Guardian snorted upon hearing his words. “Although you’re a King Immortal Progeny, you’re still a foreigner who has offended Holy City. Are you thinking of offending Yokai Hall too?”

“Why not?”

Chu Kuangren acted indifferently.

“What an arrogant foreigner!”

Several Golden Crow Guardians transformed into their yokai true form. They were all kinds of flying beasts, such as eagles, falcons, and garuda birds.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. "Is having wings a prerequisite for being selected as a Golden Crow Guardian? If so, you guys should be called Bird Guardians instead of Golden Crow Guardians."

"You must have a death wish!"

'The Golden Crow Guardians were furious, and yokai qi instantly encased the whole area.

"alright, play time's over."

Chu Kuangren shook his head.

Tyrannical Emperor qi and mind power began circulating his body. Then, they turned into purple and crimson-colored bands of light that spread out in all directions.

'single Thought Series, Planetary Destruction!'

At that instant, each Golden Crow Guardians turned powdery in panic.

"I was careless. I should have reserved a few for roasting chicken wings."

Chu Kuangren uttered with some annoyance.

Next to him, Lil Fox hunched her shoulders.

'Boss is cruel!'

The Sword Crown was a little worried.

'Master has offended Holy City, and now, he has also offended the Honorable Yokai Hall...'

At the thought of that, the Sword Crown's head began to hurt.

Chu Kuangren must be the most arrogant foreigner in Planquilon Immortal World's history, as he had offended many immortal orthodoxies.

"No way. I have to restore my strength as soon as possible. Only the Sword Crown in his heyday can protect Master."

Deep in his heart, the Sword Crown made a decision.

This time, it was not only for himself but also for Chu Kuangren!

"You've been watching for very long now. It's time to show yourself."

Chu Kuangren uttered.

A beautiful figure walked out of the cave.

She was a woman in a long azure dress, curvy figure, and waist-length hair. Her skin was smooth, and her facial features were delicate.

Her eyes were of lapis lazuli color and crystal clear like a jade. A tear mole under her eyebrow did not affect her overall beauty but added a charm.

However, Chu Kuangren was not attracted to her beauty.

The Omniscient Spirit activated and took a glance to begin analyzing.

“Oh, a strange Azure Phoenix.”

Chu Kuangren was surprised.

Based on rumors, Azure Phoenix was a variant of a phoenix and a very rare one at that. She was like Moonlight Fox, who was a variant of the Divine Beast Nine-tailed Celestial Fox. They possessed an extraordinary divine ability.

The Azure Phoenix’s divine ability was Azure Phoenix’s Eye.

Such divine ability could pierce a falsehood and see the real thing. It was so powerful that it could even see a person’s past and future.

‘The Azure Phoenix was stunned as she did not expect Chu Kuangren could see her true form with a glance. She was also utilizing her divine ability to analyze Chu Kuangren.

However, she felt as if she was struck by lightning while analyzing!

Nothingness!

‘There was nothingness before her!

‘There was nothing about Chu Kuangren’s fate, past, and future

There was also nothing about his present!

It looked like the man in front of her was beyond everything!

He neither existed in the Three Thousand Worlds nor had entered Dharma reincarnation!

Chapter 944: Azure Phoenix’s Origin, Azure Phoenix Mirror, A Terrifying Origin

The Azure Phoenix was stunned.

There was nothing about Chu Kuangren’s destiny!

He transcended everything, and neither existed in the Three Thousand Worlds nor had he entered Dharma reincarnation?!

‘What the hell is he?

‘Even an Immortals fate can’t possibly be as such.’

‘What’s his origin?!’

Azure Phoenix was utterly stunned.

“Are you done observing? What did you see?”

Chu Kuangren asked curiously.

“It’s my fault for being offensive.”

Azure Phoenix hurriedly lowered her head and uttered with sincerity. She was absolutely sure that she could not provoke the man in front of her.

He was definitely one of the taboos in this universe!

Azure Phoenix had the divine ability and could sense some terrifying beings in the universe.

Even the strongest Immortals were afraid of these beings.

The being without any destiny in front of her was one of the taboos. Even he was not one of them now, he was likely to become one in the future.

Azure Phoenix was thinking about something in her heart.

“Should I kill you?”

At this moment, Chu Kuangren’s voice sounded in her ears.

Azure Phoenix’s pupils shrank upon hearing this. There was a hint of horror in her jade-like eyes.

‘Kill her?!’

“Master, what have I done wrong?”

“Look. I killed a few Honorable Yokai Hall’s Golden Crow Guardians just now, and you witnessed everything. Should I kill you?”

There was murderous intent circulating Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

It seemed that he was considering killing Azure Phoenix.

“Please rest assured, Master. I’ll keep the secret. Moreover, I have a grudge against Honorable Yokai Hall, so I can’t find them.”

Azure Phoenix uttered.

“Oh, you have a grudge against them. That’s even better. I’ll arrest you and send you to Honorable Yokai Hall. I wonder if they’ll forgive my offense.” Chu Kuangren seemed to ponder.

1

Beside him, Sword Crown rolled his eyes.

Based on Chu Kuangren’s temperament, would he apologize to Yokai Hall?

Sword Crown did not believe that Chu Kuangren would apologize.

Chu Kuangren’s purpose in saying such was to get some information from Azure Phoenix.

Such as.

Why did Honorable Yokai Hall send Golden Crow Guardians to arrest her?

“Master, please send me back to Sycamore Mountain. I’m willing to give you a treasure,” Azure Phoenix said through gritted teeth.

“Tell me more.”

“Master, to be honest, this treasure is why Honorable Yokai Hall chased me.” Azure Phoenix took out a quaint bronze mirror.

Chu Kuangren glanced at the bronze mirror while Omniscient Spirit activated.

However, it failed to be analyzed for a while.

Chu Kuangren’s interest was piqued.

Treasures that could make the Omniscient Spirit take time to analyze were rare. The quaint bronze mirror was of high level.

It must be above a Daoist weapon level!

An Immortal Weapon!

It might not be an ordinary Immortal Weapon.

“Go ahead and tell me more.”

“Twas originally a nameless Godly Phoenix of Sycamore Mountain. I left Sycamore Mountain many years ago to travel abroad, and I met Honorable Yokai Hall’s Crown Prince, Jin Diyi. Due to my identity as Sycamore Mountain’s Godly Phoenix, he arrested me and imprisoned me in the Yokai Hall. It has been a few years now.”

“Not long ago, the Azure Phoenix bloodline in my body was awakened, and it triggered the Azure Phoenix Mirror, which was being kept in the Honorable Yokai Hall. The Azure Phoenix Mirror helped me escape by breaking through Yokai Hall’s restrictions, However, it ran out of energy, and Golden Crow Guardians were chasing me. That was when I met you, Master.”

The Azure Phoenix uttered.

Upon hearing the Azure Phoenix’s statement, a strange color flashed in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

The Azure Phoenix used to be a Godly Phoenix, but there were many Godly Phoenixes in Sycamore Mountain. Why did Honorable Yokai Hall take a fancy to the Azure Phoenix?

The Honorable Yokai Hall knew in advance that she had the Azure Phoenix bloodline?

However, that was unlikely.

There must be a matter of identity.

The Azure Phoenix’s identity was extraordinary and not like what she mentioned, just a nameless Godly Phoenix.

Chu Kuangren pondered and knew that Azure Phoenix did not reveal all information, but he was not bothered.

"Aren't you afraid not only that I won't promise you, but will kill you and run away with Azure Phoenix Mirror?" Chu Kuangren asked mischievously.

"I'm not afraid, Master. If you kill me and grab Azure Phoenix Mirror, you'll offend Honorable Yokai Hall and Sycamore Mountain. None in Planquilon Immortal World can offend these two forces and remain safe."

"There's no one else here. How would Sycamore Mountain know if I kill you? Worst comes to worst, I can fake it and blame Honorable Yokai Hall for killing you."

Chu Kuangren said while rubbing his chin as if he was wondering the feasibility of this matter. Azure Phoenix beside him was frightened.

'Is he a devil?!

"No way. Azure Phoenix Mirror has restrictions, and only Azure Phoenix can utilize it. If you kill me, you won't be able to activate this Immortal Weapon."

"Are you fooling me?! Since only Azure Phoenix can activate the mirror, then why do I need it after you return to Sycamore Mountain? I use it to see myself?!" Chu Kuangren said in a cold tone.

He was offended.

"Master, Azure Phoenix Mirror contains an Immortal's Scripture. I'll offer you the Immortal's Scripture as long as you take me back to Sycamore Mountain!"

Azure Phoenix uttered with cold sweat on her forehead.

Chu Kuangren's anger released murderous intent, which made her heart tremble as if she was facing a mass murderer.

She felt precarious being with someone like him.

He was good-looking, but why was he such terrifying?

"There's an Immortal's Scripture."

Chu Kuangren restrained his murderous intent, and his eyes lit up.

His ploy turned out to be fruitful.

Yokai Hall's Crown Prince, Sycamore Mountain's Azure Phoenix, Immortal Weapon Azure Phoenix Mirror, and an Immortal's Scripture. Tsk tsk. Perhaps he could have a significant gain.

Chu Kuangren stretched out his hand. "Hand me Azure Phoenix Mirror."

Azure Phoenix handed it over reluctantly. Chu Kuangren wanted to take it, but she was holding on to a look of reluctance to let go. Then, he frowned and pulled the mirror over with a slight force.

Ten Azure Phoenixes could not beat him in terms of brute force.

After taking the mirror, Chu Kuangren tried to channel Emperor qi into it, but he found that the mirror was motionless and did not respond at all.

It seemed that only Azure Phoenix could activate it.

“Interesting,” Chu Kuangren fiddled with the mirror, then said to Azure Phoenix, “You’ll be with me. It depends on my mood when to bring you back to Sycamore Mountain.”

It was considered as his promise to Azure Phoenix.

“Thank you, Master.”

Azure Phoenix’s eyes lit up.

“By the way, what’s your name?”

“Qing Feng, Azure Phoenix Qing Feng.”

At this point, Chu Kuangren had another strange divine beast beside him.

He had been studying Azure Phoenix Mirror while on the way to the Immortal Ancient Battlefield. The Omniscient Spirit had already analyzed it, and he was stunned with its origin.

Azure Phoenix Mirror originated from... the Kunlun Jade Pool!

It was the rumored Sacred Land of the Immortal Realm, Kunlun Jade Pool!

It was not Planquilon Immortal World but the complete Immortal World. It was said that the female Immortals’ leader, West Ruler Matriarch, lived in Kunlun Jade Pool.

She was a terrifying being and the most powerful elite among Immortals!

“Azure Phoenix Mirror’s origin is terrifying, and it’s related to such a being, Wait, so the Immortal’s Scripture in Azure Phoenix Mirror must be...”

Chu Kuangren seemed to have thought of something, and his heart trembled slightly.

“Master, your guess is correct. The Immortal’s Scripture in Azure Phoenix Mirror is exactly what the West Ruler Matriarch cultivated... the Jade Pool Immortal’s Scripture.”

The Omniscient Spirit, Lil Ai, uttered.

Chapter 945: Do You Want Me To Pat You Too? Heavenly Web City, Lan Yu Appeared

“Is Jade Pool Immortal’s Scripture the Immortal’s Scripture cultivated by the ancient immortal, West Ruler Matriarch? My goodness, I’ve found a precious treasure.”

Chu Kuangren’s breathing became heavier.

‘An Immortals Scripture was already a peerless treasure in Planquilon Immortal World. Jade Pool Immortals Scripture was the top-notched Immortal’s Scripture as West Ruler Matriarch cultivated it. It was also a supreme treasure in a complete Immortal World!

“There is a rumor in the ancient Immortal World that Azura Phoenix often accompanied Jade Pool West Ruler Matriarch. Perhaps West Ruler Matriarch gave Azura Phoenix Mirror, which contained Jade Pool Immortal’s Scripture, to Azura Phoenix. I wonder why she ended up here.”

"I got it, and it's of great use to me!"

"It's a sin for not accepting God's gift. I shall kindly accept it." Chu Kuangren's lips curled up into a grin, and he was in a good mood.

"Master, don't be overjoyed. According to the analysis, Jade Pool Immortal's Scripture is only a fragment and incomplete."

"That's sufficient. Giving someone like West Ruler Matriarch, even an incomplete Immortal's Scripture is enough for my cultivation at the current stage."

Chu Kuangren was not lamented.

After all, Immortal's Scripture was other people's cultivation path. Jade Pool Immortal's Scripture was not his cultivation but West Ruler Matriarch's.

He would only use it for reference.

A full version was better, but an incomplete one was good enough.

"Right now, the only way is to extract Immortal's Scripture, but only Azure Phoenix can activate Azure Phoenix Mirror. It isn't easy to let Qing Feng show me Immortal's Scripture. After all, I've just dealt with her. She won't give me Immortal's Scripture before sending her back to Sycamore Mountain."

Chu Kuangren thought to himself.

'Wait.'

'Only Azure Phoenix can activate Azure Phoenix Mirror...'

'What if I become Azure Phoenix?'

Chu Kuangren had a flash of inspiration.

He had Tome of Physiques which could thoroughly analyze Azure Phoenix Physique. Next, he can then use the physique to activate Azure Phoenix Mirror.

"Lil Ai, is this method feasible?"

Chu Kuangren told Lil Ai his thought.

"The feasibility is ninety-percent based on the analysis."

"So it's feasible."

Chu Kuangren grinned while looking at himself in Azure Phoenix Mirror, then chuckled, "You're such a smartass."

Not far away, Azure Phoenix looked puzzled.

'Even though he's good-looking and narcissistic, does he have to flirt with himself in the mirror?'

'Besides, that's my mirror!'

Then, she noticed Chu Kuangren turned and looked at her with a mischievous smile on his face, which made her shiver uncontrollably.

‘What does he have in mind?’

In the next few days, Chu Kuangren approached the Azure Phoenix intentionally or unintentionally to analyze her physique by using the Tome of Physiques.

The Azure Phoenix noticed his actions and was a little uncomfortable at first. However, later... she unconsciously got used to it.

He was way too handsome.

“What’s wrong with the boss these few days?”

Lil Fox was unhappy. “That bird is just a little taller than me and has bigger breasts and *ss than mine. So what?”

‘The Sword Crown was drinking beside her and chuckled upon hearing her mutter. “These aspects are sufficient for men.”

Chu Kuangren approached and glimpsed at him. “What a disrespectful old man.”

‘The Sword Crown laughed dryly.

“Boss.” Lil Fox immediately greeted Chu Kuangren and looked at him with anticipation, which made him confused.

“What’s the matter?”

“Boss, you haven’t done that today.”

“Done what?”

“That one.”

Lil Fox pointed to her head.

Chu Kuangren regained his senses, then raised his hand and touched Lil Fox’s head. “You mean this?”

Lil Fox nodded with enjoyment, then gave Qing Feng a demonstrative look, whereas Qing Feng smirked and could not care less.

‘Isn’t that just a pat? What’s so amazing? A dignified divine beast is being treated as a pet, yet she’s proud about it. What a shame.’

Although Qing Feng thought so, there was a trace of envy and expectation in her eyes when looking at Chu Kuangren’s hand.

“What’s the matter? Do you want me to pat you too?”

Chu Kuangren asked curiously while raising another hand.

“N-No. I don’t want it.”

Qing Feng shook her head.

She wanted to protect her dignity.

However, looking at the unscrupulous and proud look on Lil Fox's face, she could not help but feel jealous and hope to be pat too!

'When she was thinking wildly, a warm palm was already on her head and lightly rubbed twice.

"Is this alright?"

Chu Kuangren uttered.

Azura Phoenix's face was blushed. She felt that she was almost smoking. Then, she nodded lightly, indicating that it was alright.

Sword Crown felt amazed.

'What is a master animal trainer"

'Here's the master animal trainer!"

Azura Phoenix and Moonlight Fox were being tamed well.

Awesome!

Chu Kuangren used Tome of Physiques to analyze Azure Phoenix Physique while patting her, guessing that it would take a few more days to complete the analysis.

Three days later, Chu Kuangren and the rest were already very close to Immortal Ancient Battlefield. Besides, he also encountered some Immortal Progenies.

"Heavenly Web City is not far upfront. It was one of the one hundred and eight cities, also the fort closest to Immortal Ancient Battlefield. People who want to explore Immortal Ancient Battlefield will live there temporarily."

Sword Crown uttered.

They looked around and saw a magnificent fort rising from the ground. It was bustling with people, and countless guards were patrolling.

"Boss, you killed Ancient Sparrow City Lord and Holy City's enforcers. Is everything going to be fine if we enter?"

Lil Fox asked.

Qing Feng was stunned for a moment upon hearing her words. She knew about Holy City.

"How could he offend such a force?

"Rest assured, there are many Immortal Progenies in Heavenly Web City, and it's a mixed bag. They probably won't have the state of mind to bother me."

Chu Kuangren chuckled.

“Well, that’s right. Everyone is focussing on exploring Immortal Ancient Battlefield now. As long as we don’t do something out of the ordinary, none will notice Master.” Sword Crown agreed with Chu Kuangren.

Following that, Chu Kuangren and the rest walked towards Heavenly Web City.

As Chu Kuangren expected, everyone was planning ways to explore Immortal Ancient Battlefield, and none paid any attention to him.

Moreover, not many people had seen him. He became famous in Planquilon Immortal World just a few days ago.

After entering Heavenly Web City, they found an inn to rest, intending to seek some information before taking any actions.

Not long after Chu Kuangren entered Heavenly Web City, a silver-haired figure in silver-white armor approached at the city gate. While looking at Heavenly Web City, she mumbled, “Master, will you come here?”

“All foreigners must pay a city entrance fee upon entering the city.”

A guard shouted at the silver-haired figure.

The other few people looked at her curiously. Although the silver-haired figure covered her face with a spiritual veil, they could vaguely see her peerless appearance, and her Holy Radiant aura was eye-catching.

“Tsk tsk, perhaps she’s a peerless beauty.”

One of the guards gasped in admiration.

“Hmph!”

Lan Yu grunted coldly with Daoist Celestial energy erupted.

A Daoist Celestial was already an elite.

A few guards were shocked and retracted their gaze.

“Take it.”

Lan Yu threw out a Yin and Yang Ring to pay the city entrance fee.

Not long after she left, several people approached. Their leader was a young man riding a fiery red lion.

“Hey, it’s the woman’s radiant aura.”

The fiery red lion wrinkled his nose and uttered.

The young men’s eyes lit up upon hearing this.

“Ha, I didn’t expect the woman to come here too.”

“can’t believe I’ve looked everywhere only to find her here. That woman has killed many of my beasts. I’ll make her pay for it.”

Chapter 946: Lan Yu’s Desperate Situation, Chu Kuangren’s Killing Intent

Chu Kuangren and company simply found an inn in Heavenly Web City to rest and, at the same time, seized the chance to gather more information before they headed to the Immortal Ancient Battlefield.

“The vengeful souls in the Immortal Ancient Battlefield are scary. I heard another Supreme Immortal Progeny died today.”

“These vengeful souls are the combination of grudges from those fragmented Immortal souls. They are quite frightening. I heard that in the Immortal Ancient Battlefield, there are some vengeful souls stronger than a real Immortal. The thought of it gives me chills.”

“The Immortal Ancient Battlefield is dangerous, but what comes along are Opportunities of Fortunes and treasures. There might even be Immortal pills and Immortal Weapons. Although most of them had lost their might, it should not be underestimated.”

The cultivators who explored the Immortal Ancient Battlefield were having a discussion.

At the side, Chu Kuangren was listening to them all.

“This part of the Immortal Ancient Battlefield is just the tip of the iceberg of the whole battlefield, yet it’s already so scary. I can’t imagine how grand the scale of that war was to shatter the entire Immortal World.”

Someone lamented.

Some of the cultivators fell into deep thoughts upon herding those words.

The caliber of such battle was beyond their comprehension.

Boom!

Suddenly, a surge of powerful energy erupted further away. A battle seemed to be happening in Heavenly Web City.

The loud bang attracted the attention of the cultivators.

“What’s going on? Who dares to cause trouble in Heavenly Web City? Are they not afraid of startling the city guards?”

“Let’s go have a look.”

Lil Fox and Qing Feng stared in the same direction.

“Boss, do you want to go have a look?”

“Mind your own business,” Chu Kuangren said.

Meanwhile, on the other end of Heavenly Web City, a white figure with a pair of wings was soaring across the sky with several other figures chasing her.

“What’s that? Some kind of Yokai Tribe?”

“Doesn’t look like one. She doesn’t have yokai qi. I guess it’s some kind of mutant. The universe is vast. It’s not surprising to see an entirely new species.”

“Daoist Celestial Realm...”

The people on the streets were engaged in a heated discussion as they watched the lights flying around.

Moments later, several powerful flying yokai appeared in front of the white light and blocked her way.

“D*mn it!”

Lan Yu’s face turned cold.

She channeled the Emperor qi in her body. The moment the Power of Light erupted, white spears formed in the void and were fired at the yokais.

“Winged girl, you are just a Minor Daoist Celestial. Where do you think you can run to?” scoffed one of the pursuers.

“Thave no beef with Beasthunter Planet. Why are you people chasing me?” Lan Yu said coldly.

She was just a Minor Daoist Celestial and was no match against the Supreme Immortal Progenies, especially the young master of Beasthunter Planet. There was no way she could fight back.

If it were not for the life-saving items from Planet Zi and Black Blood Tower that Chu Kuangren gave her, she would have fallen captive a while ago.

However, she had used up all her items and was beginning to feel a little hopeless.

“You’ve killed a lot of yokai. Shouldn’t you make it up for what you have done? Tsk tsk, Winged Human? What a strange tribe indeed. It’s rare to see one on Beasthunter Planet. I’ll make you my personal collection,” the Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master said as he clicked his tongue.

‘The Winged Human Tribe was not native to Firmament Star. There were traces of them in other Life Planets as well, but all of them were considered deviants among humans.

‘There was a Winged Human Tribe in Beasthunter Planet before too, but due to their outstanding combat talents and exquisite looks, they were mostly hunted in the past and had now been forced to the brink of extinction. Even the Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master had only seen a handful of them.

On top of that, Lan Yu was an extraordinary Winged Human, and with her Holy Radiant energy, she was considered one-of-a-kind even among her own species.

It was the reason why the Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master was after Lan Yu in the first place.

“Foreigners, what are you people doing here?”

At that moment, the city guards came.

The leader of the group was a middle-aged general. He sized up Lan Yu and her pursuers with a cold gaze.

'The Beasthunter Planet's Young Master did not seem surprised at the city guards' arrival at all. He took out a red insignia with fiery patterns carved on it for the guards.

"I am the Holy Divine Fire Cult's reserved Divine Bachelor. I am here to capture the foreigner. Please forgive our commotion. We will be done soon enough."

Lan Yu frowned at the scene.

She had been here in Planquilon Immortal World long enough to know that foreigners were not welcomed.

However, it was surprising to find out that the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master had joined the Holy Divine Fire Cult so soon and had even become a reserved Divine Bachelor.

'The middle-aged general thought about it as he stared at the insignia. The Holy Divine Fire Cult was as influential as the Holy City, and Heavenly Web City was only one of the hundred and eight cities

After some serious consideration, the middle-aged general said, "Since it's the Holy Divine Fire Cult's affair, we won't interfere. Oh right, since the few of you Holy Divine Fire Cult Divine Bachelors are visiting the City Hall as guests, it is only manners to consider you and your group guests of Heavenly

'Web City as well. Do you need help to capture this person?"

"Haha, that would be great. General, please cut off this Winged Human's escape. I'll do the capturing myself," the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master said with a smile.

"Very well." The general nodded and sealed all possible escape routes.

"Even if I have to die fighting, I won't give it!"

Lan Yu then took a deep breath.

A hint of resolution appeared in her eyes. Then, white flames ignited all over her body, and her energy rose sharply.

Substantial light energy spread outwards like the rising tide flooding the land.

"Oh, Life Essence Ignition Technique? But this technique will only bring you up a realm. You are still no match for me," the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master said in disdain.

He was a peak Great Daoist Celestial and had even comprehended a source energy. Moreover, he was also a Supreme Immortal Progeny, or the Holy Divine Fire Cult would not have been selected him as their Divine Bachelor.

As for Lan Yu, she was just a Minor Daoist Celestial. Even if she resolved to the Life Essence Ignition Technique, the gap of strength between the two of them was still too big.

"I don't care if you die. I'll make a specimen out of your dead body and keep it nightly."

'The Beasthunter Planet's Young Master made his move. He launched a palm strike, unleashing his vast Emperor qi, and blasted Lan Yu, with her Life Essence Ignition Technique on, away.

“Oh my, I should hold back a little. I wouldn’t want to destroy your body. If I do, it would definitely ruin the aesthetic later,” the Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master said with a menacing grin.

“Hmph!”

Lan Yu grunted. With all her escape routes sealed off and a powerful enemy pressuring her head on, her only option was to fight to her death.

On the other hand, while Chu Kuangren was drinking at the inn, the light energy that came from afar surprised him.

“This energy... No way...” He bolted up and stared into the distance.

Next, he disappeared from his spot.

Lil Fox and the Sword Crown looked at each other in confusion.

Confused as they were, it was the first time they had seen Chu Kuangren so nervous. What exactly was happening?

“Let’s go have a look.”

“Maybe it has something to do with the ongoing battle.”

On the street, the city guards had sealed off all the possible escape routes.

The Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master easily overpowered Lan Yu. After all, the strength of a Supreme Immortal Progeny was not something Lan Yu could rival at her current stage.

“My next move will surely take your life.”

The young master grinned at the weakening Lan Yu and raised his hand. Emperor qi and Daoist patterns intertwined to form the image of a ferocious beast.

Just as he was about to inflict the final blow, a freezing killing intent rained down from above and enveloped heaven and earth.

Lan Yu, however, smiled at the presence of the killing intent.

She knew that the light energy she released was not for naught.

“Master...”

Chapter 947: Death By A Thousand Cuts, Carnage Vision, Killing The Divine Bachelor

“Master...”

Lan Yu stared into the sky.

She saw the man of her dreams descending from the sky in his white robes. The familiar figure with the cold look and sharp face, as well as the gaze that could freeze everything before him.

However, his freezing gaze showed a hint of tenderness when he looked at Lan Yu.

That tenderness melted Lan Yu’s heart.

She suddenly believed that all the suffering she had endured in the past was worth it.

Chu Kuangren went up to Lan Yu. He stared at the injuries on her and felt sorry for her. As such, he channeled his Emperor qi and converged it water qi, which was infused into her body to heal her injuries.

He did not know why Lan Yu was here, and he did not ask why.

"I'm here. Leave the rest to me," Chu Kuangren said after a deep breath.

"Okay." Lan Yu nodded. She had countless things to tell him, but it was not the time for a reunion.

"Who are you? How dare you interfere with the affairs of the Holy Divine Fire Cult?" the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master said.

The man had assumed himself as one of the Holy Divine Fire Cult.

Upon hearing his words, Chu Kuangren's eyes turned cold, and killing intents seeped out from them. "Bast*rd, do you have a death wish?!"

The Beasthunter Planet's Young Master's face darkened. "How dare you ignore the presence of the Holy Divine Fire Cult! You are asking for it! Get him!"

He ordered the yokai under his control to attack so that he could test Chu Kuangren's strength.

"Oh? Beasthunter Planet and Holy Divine Fire Cult? The world is really small." The killing intent in Chu Kuangren's eyes intensified.

He simply raised his hand, and violet lotuses started to bloom around him. The blooming lotuses rose into the air brilliantly and landed on the charging yokai.

However, the violet lotuses then transformed into sword qi and exploded in the next moment.

In the blink of an eye, the group of yokai was dismembered into a pile of broken arms and legs.

The Beasthunter Planet's Young Master's eyes shrunk in fear at the scene. "This sword qi... This isn't something a common Supreme Immortal Progeny can master. Who are you?!"

"I've decided." Chu Kuangren did not answer the question. Instead, he carried on and said, "You will die... by a thousand cuts!"

As soon as he said that, the violet lotuses rose and circled the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master.

When the violet lotuses bloomed, the petals scattered.

Each petal carried with it a strand of a sword qi

The sword qi danced in the air, ravaging the Young Master brutally. Each strand of sword qi was able to cut off a portion of his body.

"D*mn it! D*mn it! Go away!" The Beasthunter Planet's Young Master was horrified.

He anxiously channeled his Emperor qi and intertwined them with his Daoist patterns to form ferocious beasts that threw themselves at the furious sword qi.

However, it was useless.

The Thousand Lotus Sword Intent was indestructible. Cast with Chu Kuangren's power, not even ten Supreme Immortal Progenies could withstand the attack.

The violet lotuses bloomed continuously, and their petals scattered in the air like it was raining petals.

It was an exquisite scene to look at.

The petals continued to transform into sword qi and slash the frenzied Beasthunter Planet's Young Master mercilessly. Chunk after chunk of flesh was cut off from his body, turning it into a gory scene.

It was bloody and gory, but the violet lotus petals were everywhere.

The cultivators in the area were stunned by the scene.

"Foreigner, you are not allowed to make a ruckus here!"

The general of the city guards then added loudly, "This man here is the reserved Divine Bachelor of the Holy Divine Fire Cult! He's a guest of Heavenly Web City! If you don't stop now, you will not walk out of this city alive!"

"Oh, I almost forgot about you guys."

Chu Kuangren looked at the city guards. He could tell since he arrived that the city guards had helped the young master to seal off Lan Yu's escape routes.

"What are you trying to do?" The general's eye widened.

Fear devoured him whole.

"Die."

Chu Kuangren flicked his sleeves, and violet lotuses enveloped all the city guards. For a moment there, it was a bloody yet beautiful painting.

As sword qi danced, blood and flesh flew around

"This is the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent! This man is... the guy who's been gaining attention lately! King Immortal Progeny, Chu Kuangren!"

Someone finally recognized Chu Kuangren.

Anative King Immortal Progeny was already rare, let alone a foreigner like Chu Kuangren.

When the Sword Crown, Lil Fox, and Qing Feng arrived at the scene, most of the city guards had been killed. All that was left were puddles of blood and broken limbs on the ground.

As for the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master, what was left of him was a pile of bones. Yet strangely, he was not completely dead!

Dying by a thousand cuts was considered one of the most brutal ways of killing. Even the Sword Crown could not help but gulp nervously at the scene.

"I didn't even think the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent could be used this way?!"

Lil Fox was also stunned. "This is the first time I've seen the boss so mad."

"Is it because of that girl?"

Qing Feng looked at Lan Yu beside Chu Kuangren.

Even though she was a beautiful woman, she could not help but be bedazzled by Lan Yue's Holy Radiant presence. It was really attractive.

"The girl must be important to the boss," Lil Fox mumbled.

Chu Kuangren's palm attack struck the Beasthunter Planet's Young Master, turning the latter's pile of bones into powder.

Then, he looked in the direction of the City Hall.

Several rays of light flew out from there and were approaching him. Terrifying aura enshrouded the land and the sky, locked onto Chu Kuangren.

The several rays of light consisted of several young men and an elderly in a traditional outfit.

"It's the Supreme Immortal Progenies from the Holy Divine Fire Cult and the Heavenly Web City Lord! As expected, Chu Kuangren's appearance has aroused them."

"Hehe, we are in for a show now."

The Sword Crown walked closer to Chu Kuangren with a bitter smile and a shaking head.

He should have guessed. Although he believed no one would notice them as long as they kept a low profile, it was impossible given Chu Kuangren's attitude.

He had a feeling that Chu Kuangren was a problem magnet. No matter where he went, a chain of problems would surely follow.

"Chu Kuangren. How bold of you to show up in Heavenly Web City in the open! You've even killed the reserved Divine Bachelor of the Holy Divine Fire Cult!" Heavenly Web City Lord bellowed.

"This world is huge, and I can go anywhere I want. Why should I hide in a tiny city like Heavenly Web? As for the Holy Divine Fire Cult's reserved Divine Bachelor, he's nothing. He's dead anyway," Chu Kuangren said calmly.

"You! Ridiculous!" One of the Divine Bachelor of the Holy Divine Fire Cult beside the City Lord grunted coldly. Killing intents were overflowing from his icy gaze.

As he raised his hands, a crimson flame appeared. Flame currents from heaven and earth gathered and converged into an enormous blazing punch.

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren stood there firmly, allowing the powerful flame to invade closer. At the next moment, scarlet gold glimmers shone around his body.

Phoenix's Flame, ignite!

Ferocious Phoenix's Flame wreaked havoc and easily devoured the Divine Bachelor's flame, which fueled its rampant behavior and engulfed the man whole.

All the Divine Bachelor could do was scream one last time before his body was burnt to cinders. He did not have a chance to retaliate at all.

"A human who uses Phoenix's Flame?!"

Qing Feng was in awe at the scene.

"What?!"

"His Phoenix's Flame is terrifying!"

"I think only Huoshen Huang can rival him!"

The other Divine Bachelors were also surprised.

The look on the City Lord's face turned grim as well. "Chu Kuangren, I suppose you are here for the Immortal Ancient Battlefield. Behave yourself and don't cause any more trouble."

The crowd was amazed.

After witnessing Chu Kuangren's power, the City Lord and the Divine Bachelors had turned into cowards.

Chapter 948: Eliminate The Divine Bachelor, Kill The City Lord, The Boss' Close Friend

"Cause trouble?" Chu Kuangren chuckled.

"I have no plans to cause any trouble. Picking fights with you peasants is getting boring. It is you people who don't want to leave me alone. You guys keep picking fights with me, so don't blame me for what happened."

He made sure to enunciate his words coldly. It was so biting that freezing killing intents shrouded the area, and everyone could not help but shiver.

He was really mad.

Any second later and Lan Yu might have been killed.

"What are you trying to do?" bellowed the Heavenly Web City Lord.

At the same time, he sent out a secret order to call upon his troops and have them gather at his location. Upon sensing Chu Kuangren's suffocating killing intent, he knew a fierce fight was ahead of him.

"Kill!"

Chu Kuangren skipped to the point and channeled his Phoenix's Flame. The terrifying flame went straight after the Holy Divine Fire Cult's Divine Bachelors.

The Divine Bachelors swiftly evaded them as the Phoenix's Flame terrified them to the core.

"You asked for it!" Heavenly Web City Lord bellowed coldly.

Then, he drew a long saber that was a top-notched Heavenly Daoist Weapon. With a single strike, the saber unleashed a rampant and ferocious sword ray that blanketed heaven and earth. Its power was not to be underestimated.

The Divine Bachelors did not sit around, waiting to get killed either. They channeled their flames and all kinds of Immortal Techniques to attack Chu Kuangren.

For example, the Pseudo Immortal's power, the Supreme Immortal Progenies' Immortal Techniques.

All kinds of powerful forces shook the void.

With a cold look on his face, Chu Kuangren raised his hand, and several source energies erupted. The Phoenix's Flame in his palm rose sharply and shed its majestic light on the void.

"Die!"

The Phoenix's Flame devoured every kind of energy. Its blazing waves sent the Divine Bachelors and the City Lord flying backward.

"Thousand Lotus Sword Intent!"

Chu Kuangren raised his hand again.

This time, the Sword Source erupted.

Violet lotuses started to appear in the void.

The beautiful lotuses bloomed into the purest of sword qi and wreaked havoc across the void as though a tornado of sword qi was sweeping across the battlefield.

As the sword qi rampaged, two of the Divine Bachelors were killed on the spot.

Moments later, a large number of city guards came from all directions and surrounded Chu Kuangren and company.

"Put them down right now!" Heavenly Web City Lord bellowed.

As for the other cultivators on the street, they had run away a long time ago.

Chu Kuangren stood like a monolith, watching the charging soldiers, and said coldly, "Are you sending soldiers to their death?"

After that, he flicked his sleeve, and the Phoenix's Fire spurt out.

In the blink of an eye, hundreds of thousands of soldiers had burned to cinders.

Violet lotuses continued to hover in the air and transform into sword qi to ravage the battlefield. Wherever the tornado of sword qi passed, blood gushed everywhere, and broken limbs were left in its trail.

Chu Kuangren cast the Phoenix's Flame and his sword qi to their fullest potential.

The cultivators at the scene could not even get close to him.

Those who stayed to watch were left astonished.

“This is horrifying! His power definitely belongs to a King Immortal Progeny! I think he’s already on his way to becoming an Immortal”

The noise of slaughter continued.

After a while, the street was filled with countless broken lips and charred bodies.

All the Holy Divine Fire Cults Divine Bachelors were killed, including the Heavenly Web City Lord.

In the end, the entire Heavenly Web City was silenced because no one dared to challenge Chu Kuangren anymore. Hence, the fight slowly died off.

Amidst the sea of bodies and blood, Chu Kuangren stood firm in his white robes. He remained free from the splashing blood, making him stand out from the bloody scene.

However, all who witnessed the gory scene could not help but feel the chills running down their spine.

“Let’s go,” Chu Kuangren said to Lan Yu and the others.

The group left, but everyone knew this slaughter-fest was just the start of a killing spree.

The Holy Divine Fire Cult had lost several of its Divine Bachelors, the Holy City had lost another city lord, and it was all because of Chu Kuangren.

He managed to offend both factions at the same time.

They would never let Chu Kuangren go so easily.

In an in in Heavenly Web City, Chu Kuangren was treating Lan Yu’s injuries.

Given his current medical skills, he could even heal the injuries of an Immortal, so Lan Yu’s injuries were not a problem.

The only problem would be the Life Essence Ignition Technique.

It would be hard to recover the life essence she had burnt away.

Lan Yu had consumed at least half of her life force in that battle alone.

Chu Kuangren felt sorry for her and was furious at those whom he had killed. “Holy Divine Fire Cult, I won’t let this go this so easily.”

Akilling intent flashed across his eyes.

The Beasthunter Planet’s Young Master was a Divine Bachelor of that cult, so he simply put the blame on the whole cult.

“Master, you don’t have to worry. It’s just my life essence. When my cultivation level increases in the future, I will be able to recover them,” Lan Yu said, attempting to calm him down.

"It's not that easy. Igniting your life essence means burning off your potential. No matter how high your cultivation level is, I'm afraid recovering will not be that easy," Chu Kuang said out of pity.

Not everyone possessed his Immortal Body.

Meanwhile, Lil Fox, Qing Feng, and the Sword Crown saw the pity in Chu Kuangren's eyes. That was when they realized that this silver-haired girl of Minor Daoist Celestial Realm cultivation level meant a lot to him and must hold an important position in his heart.

"Is she the master's best female friend?"

The more the Sword Crown thought about it, the stronger he believed that theory.

"Lsee, so he already has a female friend." Qing Feng looked slightly disheartened.

"D*mn! She's the boss's best female friend! I must get closer to her!" Lil Fox was thinking about how to flatter Lan Yu.

Chu Kuangren was not interested in the thoughts running through their minds.

All he wanted to know was what Lan Yu had been through all this time.

Lan Yu decided to be honest with him.

After the Fragmented Immortal World appeared, Lan Yu, Chu Hong, and Yin Honghua left Firmament Planet for an adventure.

However, they ran into the Beasthunter Planet's men before they could get in. The folks from Beasthunter Planet had their eyes on Lan Yu and Chu Hong, thinking of capturing both the girls. However, all three of them managed to escape with the help of several life-saving items.

Unfortunately, they got separated in the process.

Right after Lan Yu arrived in the Fragmented Immortal World, she heard about Chu Kuangren turning Ancient Sparrow City upside down and killing the Holy City enforces.

"I knew it was you. It had to be. I believed you would come to the Ancient Immortal Battlefield, so here I am.

"But I didn't expect to run into those jerks from Beasthunter Planet again. I'm no match for them, so I took a risky bet by igniting my life essence and releasing my aura to the maximum, in hopes that you could sense me," Lan Yu said.

"You did well. I did sense your presence."

Chu Kuangren felt a little scared though. If he was any further or if Lan Yu did not release her aura to call for help, things would have gone out of control.

"Let's rest here for a few days and then into the Ancient Immortal Battlefield later. Maybe we will find some treasures to recover your life essence there," Chu Kuangren said.

Several days later, Chu Kuangren and company left Heavenly Web City and headed to the Ancient Immortal Battlefield.

After they left, the Holy City enforces and Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens from the Holy Divine Fire Cult arrived.

Learning what Chu Kuangren did put a gloomy look on their faces, and they wanted so badly to kill Chu Kuangren.

“He has killed two city lords? Preposterous. Chu Kuangren, you’ve just become an enemy of the Holy City.”

The one who said that was the direct disciple of the Holy City’s Spear Crown, who was also one of the 12 King Immortal Progenies, Wu Wuji.

“For our fallen Divine Bachelors, we, who remain, will let this person have a taste of the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s blazing wrath!”

Chapter 949: Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord, Golden Ridge Temple Hui Fa, Huoshen Xiao Got Scared

Broken weapons, desolated scenes, dead bodies of not just humans scattered everywhere, whirling wind that sounded like the shrieks of vengeful souls... That was the place where the Immortals fall.

That was the Ancient Immortal Battlefield.

Gray mist was everywhere on the battlefield.

In fact, it was the materialization of rage qi.

Common cultivators would be easily affected by the rage qi as soon as they stepped foot in there. Without a certain level of cultivation, none could stay for a longer period of time.

Chu Kuangren and company were traversing across the battlefield.

“This is really discouraging scenery,” the Sword Crown said as he shake his head.

He raised his hand, and the rage qi in the area was dispersed easily.

After several therapy sessions, his injuries had mostly recovered, and he could use around sixty percent of his original strength. As for the rest, he could slowly recover by himself without Chu Kuangren’s healing.

Soon, he would return to his former glory, and Chu Kuangren would have an Immortal as a follower.

“Even though they were once Immortals, only bones are left on this earth when they die,” Chu Kuangren said as he gazed upon the bones on the ground.

Some of the bodies had a layer of Immortal Sparks on them, but they were way too old. Even if they were once Immortal, the slightest touch would turn them into dust.

Only a powerful Immortal could leave an indestructible body behind after death. It could even last for a century and still contain a portion of its original power.

However, such Immortals were rare.

Even in the ancient and complete Immortal World, there might only be a handful of them.

Swoosh!

Several rays of light flew above Chu Kuangren.

"It's that direction again. I wonder what's going on there."

Chu Kuangren and company decided to head over for a look.

Soon, they arrived at a gathering point. The people who gathered seemed to be having a discussion.

"There's quite a number of folks for this raid in Weeping Phantom Ridge."

"That's right. I heard there are countless vengeful souls there. hundreds of Immortals used to have a great battle there, so there must be a ton of treasures! If we can make it, we will definitely get something huge!"

"I heard the Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord and the Golden Ridge Temple's Holy Monk, Hui Fa, are leading the group. They are the two youngest elites in Planquilon Immortal World. With their help, there's a high chance that we might make it!"

Chu Kuangren thought about something upon hearing the discussion.

Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord and the Golden Ridge Temple's Holy Monk, Hui Fa.

They were two of the twelve Kings of the Immortal World.

Chu Kuangren became interested in the Weeping Phantom Valley and the King Immortal Progenies.

Kaboom!

At that moment, a huge saber shadow flew across the air. The saber shadow intercrossed with the Daoist pattern and released a surge of domineering energy.

A single strike from the saber shadow cracked the land in half.

'When the saber shadow faded, a figure appeared.

The figure was a man in his early thirties. He wore green robes on his buff body, and his keen eyes scanned over the battlefield like an eagle, which made everyone fearful of him.

The other thing that caught people's attention was the black saber at his back. It was huge, heavy, and still sheathed, but there were Immortal Sparks around it.

"It's the Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord. He's here!"

"Look at the saber on his back! That's the legendary Heavy Heaven. Apparently, it was forged with Immortal Gold Obsidian. It's one of the three famed sabers of Oceanic Sword Grave! Even a Heavenly Daoist Weapon is nothing compared to it!"

"I heard the saber has the potential to ascend into an Immortal Weapon."

The crowd was in awe at the Saber Lord's appearance.

Chu Kuangren took an extra glance at the man while activating the Omniscient Spirit. Then, he had full insight into the man, who somehow killed his interest.

‘This is the so-called Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord?’

‘A King Immortal Progeny?’

‘Uh... That’s it?’

At the same time, golden Buddhist Light shone brightly, and the rage qi around it dispersed like snow under the sun.

A monk in white robes appeared from the golden Buddhist Light.

The monk had a string of Buddhist beads in his hands. He looked neat and handsome, especially with the faint smile on his face that would make people love him.

However, upon closer sensing, the monk emanated an immeasurable feeling, and the Emperor qi on him felt as vast as the ocean.

‘The man was Hui Fa, the Golden Ridge Temple’s Holy Monk.

Chu Kuangren had also analyzed the monk and realized that Hui Fa was a lot stronger than the Saber Lord.

“According to the analysis, Hui Fa’s cultivation level has reached peak-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial and is already on the Immortal Path. He has ascended once as of now.” Omniscient Spirit, Lil Ai’s voice, sounded in his head.

Chu Kuangren’s eyes glimmered.

A King Immortal Progeny on the Immortal Path?

In order to ascend to an Immortal, one must first go through three disasters and nine dooms.

These trials were known as the... Immortal Path!

Once on the path, there would only be two outcomes: die trying on the Immortal Path, losing one’s life and cultivation, or ascend into an Immortal, living free with endless power.

‘There was no such thing as a Pseudo Immortal.

A Pseudo Immortal was a cultivator who had depleted his or her potential and could not ascend further.

To them, Immortals were something of a myth. Without a grand Opportunity of Fortune, they would never be able to get on the Immortal Path for the rest of their lives.

“Hey, little holy monk. It’s been a while,” Saber Lord said to Hui Fa.

“Saber Lord, you look well.”

“With so many people gathered, we will surely conquer Weeping Phantom Ridge.” Saber Lord’s gleamed.

“Conquering Weeping Phantom Ridge and purifying the vengeful souls is a meritorious deed, and I believe we will have the blessing from Buddha himself,” Hui Fa said with a smile.

“May Buddha be compassionate.”

The other monks behind Hui Fa chanted together.

The Saber Lord pouted in disdain. “I don’t mind if Buddha blesses me or not. I only believe in the saber in my hands!”

“Hehe.” Hui Fa simply chuckled, not at all bothered by what the Saber Lord said.

Several Immortal Progenies joined the raiding party afterward. There were even a few Supreme Immortal Progenies.

For example, there was Huoshen Xiao, the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Divine Bachelor whom Chu Kuangren met at Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm. Compared to their last meeting, the man’s energy felt a lot stronger than before.

He might be the strongest Supreme Immortal Progeny among them.

Chu Kuangren chuckled. “Interesting. It seems like he has improved a lot in the past few days. I’m glad I spared his life.”

The weak could only hold so much value to the strong.

It is only when the weak grow stronger, the value would rise. It was the reason why Chu Kuangren spared Huoshen Xiao the other day.

He was trying to go for the long shot.

“Why do I sense a familiar energy around here...” Huoshen Xiao frowned.

He scanned the crowd and eventually spotted Chu Kuangren.

Albeit the spiritual veil covering his face, Huoshen Xiao would never mistake his presence and energy for someone else!

“[-It’s him?!” Huoshen Xiao’s heart skipped a beat.

He could not help but recall what happened at the Heavenly Blaze Forest Realm and how he was defeated with a single blow. It was enough to traumatize him for life.

‘As though he sensed the gaze on him, Chu Kuangren returned the favor by staring at Huoshen Xiao.

For a moment there, Huoshen Xiao’s body froze as if a great horror had taken over his body.

He swiftly averted his gaze.

“Brother Huoshen, what’s wrong?” Hui Fa asked.

He did not expose Chu Kuangren's presence to the group because he heard several Divine Bachelors died in Chu Kuangren's hands.

If he exposed Chu Kuangren, what should he do after that? Engage Chu Kuangren? He was no match. Flee? He would bring shame to his cult and himself.

Therefore, it was better to feign ignorance.

Baffled, Hui Fa looked in the same direction as Huoshen Xiao, and he, too, spotted Chu Kuangren.

His eyes gleamed.

"This man is... something else.."

Chapter 950: Weeping Phantom Ridge, Eroding Bone Poison Flame, Pockmarked Lady

'He's something else.'

After a quick glance at Chu Kuangren and a slight surprise, Hui Fa shifted his attention away. He had absolute confidence in himself.

Even though Chu Kuangren was a King Immortal Progeny, Hui Fa was confident enough to take him down because he was already on the Immortal Path!

That fact alone boosted his confidence. After all, he was no longer in the same ranks as the common King Immortal Progeny. Even better, he should not consider himself as an Immortal Progeny anymore.

Since he was now on his Immortal Path, he should be a.

Half-Immortal!

The group left for Weeping Phantom Ridge.

The closer they got, the heavier the mist. Its effect on the cultivators also got more severe, but fortunately, they got Hui Fa in the raiding party.

Along the way, Hui Fa and his peers channeled their Buddhist Lights and blocked out the majority of the rage qi for everyone.

It was to make sure that everyone arrived at Weeping Phantom Ridge at their peak combat strength.

"The Weeping Phantom Ridge is just ahead of us," Hui Fa said as he gazed upon a mountain ridge.

"The mountain ridge was shrouded in a thick gray mist, overflowing with rage qi.

"Be prepared."

Awhile later, the group entered the ridge. The moment they set foot inside, a vast amount of rage qi assaulted them, and they had no choice but to channel their Emperor qi to suppress its influence.

Chu Kuangren did not feel anything though.

The rage qi usually targeted one's body and mind. However, Chu Kuangren had a powerful physical body, and his soul energy was as mighty as the ocean.

'The rage qi did not affect him at all. As for Lan Yu and Qing Feng, the Sword Crown was there to secretly protect them, so they could move forward just fine.

"Hehe. Isn't it a little overkill bringing the Sword Crown here?"

Chu Kuangren chuckled to himself.

'The Sword Crown had mostly from his injuries. He might not show off his powers often, but he was still an Immortal.

He could probably take down the entire Weeping Phantom Ridge with a single slash of his sword.

It was like a maxed-level character going back to the starting village in a game.

"Look, what's that?!"

Someone in the group squealed in shock.

Everyone looked in that particular direction.

There was a saber embedded on the cliff.

It looked old and rusty, but there was a faint amount of Immortal Sparks on it.

"It's an Immortal Weapon! It might be broken, but if we can bring it back and refine it, we might be able to get a sizable amount of Immortal Metal," one of the cultivators said.

One of them dashed forward and wanted to seize the saber. However, a powerful roar sounded from afar followed by a few-feet-tall vengeful soul charging out from the woods.

The vengeful soul's face was severely disfigured, and his original face could no longer be seen. However, the rage qi that emanated from his body was terrifying.

It was as powerful as a late-stage Heavenly Daoist Celestial.

The cultivator that went for the saber failed to dodge the vengeful soul and was blasted away by its powerful ram. His face turned pale, and he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"A vengeful soul!"

"A vengeful soul is here! Be careful!"

At that, the expression on everyone's faces changed, and they all became alert.

Meanwhile, the Oceanic Sword Grave Saber Lord stepped out and, with his hand as saber, slashed forth at the void. A powerful and vast saber qi burst outwards.

The vengeful soul was sent flying backward by the saber qi, and the Saber Lord's powerful strike left everyone in awe.

"This is the strength of the Oceanic Sword Grave's Young Master? As expected of one of the Twelve Kings of the Immortal World! He's really powerful!"

"Not bad. Quite surprising indeed."

Chu Kuangren and the Sword Crown had a glance at the Saber Lord.

“This is the Oceanic Sword Grave’s Immortal Technique, Mighty Saber Art. For a kid his age to perform such a technique, he sure has cultivated well.”

“Mhmm. Compared to other Immortal Progenies, he really does stand out,” Chu Kuangren chuckled.

The Sword Crown chuckled awkwardly at Chu Kuangren’s statement. Then, he suddenly realized that no matter how great an Immortal Progeny was, they were nothing before Chu Kuangren because Chu Kuangren was not on the same level as them.

After sending the vengeful soul flying, the Saber Lord seized the opportunity for a follow-up attack. He turned his palm into a saber and brought out the full potential of the Oceanic Sword Grave’s Immortal Technique. In a few seconds, the vengeful soul that could rival a Heavenly Daoist Celestial was Killed.

It disintegrated into a cloud of rage qi upon death.

Then, Hui Fa took out a golden Buddha sculpture and tossed it into the air. The sculpture shone in golden light, and the cloud of rage qi was absorbed into the sculpture.

The scene shocked everyone.

The monk seemed to be collecting rage qi.

“Amitabha. When the rage qi of the vengeful souls returns to nature, it will form a new vengeful soul. So in order to stop the vicious cycle, I collect the rage qi using this Buddha sculpture. I will purify it once I get back,” Hui Fa said with a soft smile.

The crowd only understood the situation when they heard him.

“I see.”

“As expected of the Holy Monk. He’s compassionate and thoughtful of the world. I’m impressed.”

“Not bad. The Holy Monk lives up to his name.”

Chu Kuangren took a glance at the Buddha sculpture and had a ruminating look on his face. “Interesting. This little Holy Monk is not as simple as I thought.”

He used Lil Ai to analyze the Buddha sculpture and found something interesting.

After killing the vengeful soul, the group pressed forward. Other than more vengeful souls, the group was able to pick up quite a number of treasures along the way.

However, Chu Kuangren did not find anything attractive. He did not even make a move, except for those vengeful souls that came straight for him. He simply remained an audience throughout the expedition.

As the group pressed on deeper, they encountered a new wave of attacks from the vengeful souls. This time, they were caught in a tough battle.

“Eroding Bone Poison Flame!” Huoshen Xiao bellowed and blasted out a ball of black flame from his hand.

The flame burned the vengeful soul ferociously like cancer.

Watching from the side, Chu Kuangren smiled profoundly. “This is a divine fire from the Divine Fire List. Interesting. It seems like losing Violet Heaven Radiant Flame has allowed him to encounter another Opportunity of Fortune.”

It was good news for him because it meant fodder for the Phoenix’s Flame.

“No.”

It was then a scream came from afar.

Chu Kuangren saw a pock-face lady surrounded by several vengeful souls. She fought back with her sword by unleashing sharp sword rays, but she was forced to a disadvantage after a few rounds. It quickly got dangerous for her.

The other cultivators were engaging other vengeful souls as well, and no one offered a helping hand, even those who were more capable.

The Saber Lord was one of them. He crossed his arm, and his saber remained sheathed on his back. He stared with a cold gaze, “A swordswoman? An ugly one, I see. She’s not worth it for me to help her.”

The cultivators from Oceanic Sword Grave seemed to have prejudices against all the swordsmen and women, so he did not react well to the scene.

If the lady was a beautiful one, he might consider it. However, the lady had a pocked face that disgusted him.

Further away, Hui Fa was also fighting a vengeful soul. Given his strength, he could easily deal with the vengeful soul and help the lady, but he did not.

He did not want to expose his true strength for now.

The pock-faced lady was surrounded, yet no one offered help. The cruelty of the cultivation world was displayed to its fullest.

“No. Am I going to die here?”

The lady had a look of despair on her pock face.

It was then Chu Kuangren raised his hand from afar. Swords, spears, tridents, and other weapons formed in the air before they fired towards the vengeful souls that attacked the lady.

A few loud bangs later, all the vengeful souls were killed.

The scene caught the attention of the Saber Lord and Hui Fa, who both looked at Chu Kuangren in surprise.

“There’s an expert in the group?”

“I was right. He really is different.”
