

Unparalleled 961

Chapter 961: Three-Way Siege, One Versus Four, Four Versus One

"Um..." Huang Yinghong sounded hesitant.

Beside her, Feng Shangyun said coldly, "A human who possesses the Phoenix's Fire? This has never been heard or seen before. We can't keep him alive. Besides, the Opportunity of Fortune on that girl, we shouldn't let that slip either."

"are you disobeying my order?" Qing Feng asked coldly.

"An unfavorable young clan leader who has no reputation whatsoever, why do you think you have the right to order me around?!" Feng Shangyun said coldly.

"Enough, Phoenix Bachelor. Where are your manners?"

Huang Yinghong stopped him right away.

Chu Kuangren saw the scene from the side, and he fell into deep thought. It seemed like Qing Feng was not well received in Sycamore Mountain.

"Hmph! Anyway, I won't stop."

Feng Shangyun rose to the sky while igniting his surroundings in flame, turning the air into a sea of fire.

Huang Yinghong was slightly hesitant, but she did nothing.

Chu Kuangren stood beside Lan Yu and said calmly, "Who else has their eyes on this Opportunity of Fortune? Just bring it on."

With a fling of his sleeve, vast Emperor qi spread outwards.

'The ground and the sky trembled.

"Hahaha. Chu Kuangren, I've been wanting to fight you."

A figure, engulfed in colorful flame, flew over from afar. The aura of a King Immortal Progeny swept across the land.

'The fiery figure was wearing a red Chinese robe, looking extremely majestic. He controlled all kinds of flame, and his aura was as vast as the Fire God's.

"It's him! The Holy Divine Fire Cult's first Divine Bachelor, Huoshen Huang!"

The crowd was in awe.

"Chu Kuangren, you killed the Ancient Sparrow City Lord and the Heavenly Web City Lord, who were both subordinates of Holy City. You will be held responsible for what you have done!"

A cold voice sounded.

Aman in silver armor and a dark red spear strutted over, and his vast ferocious qi swept across everything.

It was the direct disciple of the Spear Crown of Holy City, Wu Wuji!

Swoosh!

Rays of light swooped over. They were the Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens of Holy Divine Fire Cult, as well as the enforcers from Holy City. They had Chu Kuangren surrounded heavily.

Seeing the scene, the crowd was in shock.

"Holy cow! This is huge!"

"Not only are Holy Divine Fire Cult's Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens here, but even the First Divine Bachelor is here! And the direct disciple of the Spear Crown, the enforcers of the Holy City... If they teamed up, who among the younger generation could possibly hold up against them?"

"Even a King Immortal Progeny would perish before them!"

Chu Kuangren remained calm at the encirclement. He stared into the void and said, "They are all here. Are you still going to hide in the dark, Hui Fa of Golden Ridge Temple?"

Ripples suddenly appeared in the void.

A monk in white robes walked out of thin air. He looked at Chu Kuangren with a smile. "Brother Chu, your senses are really extraordinary."

"I can smell the stench of the rage qi in you from miles away," Chu Kuangren said with a pout.

Hui Fa narrowed his eyes coldly.

"Hmph! Chu Kuangren, you are now surrounded by the Holy Divine Fire Cult, Holy City, and Golden Ridge Temple! Today will be the day you die!" one of the Holy Divine Fire Cult's Divine Bachelors said.

"Words are useless against him. Kill him and seize the silver-haired woman. We will interrogate her about the secrets about the Opportunity of Fortune!"

One of the Holy City enforcers lost his patience and made the first move.

His figure flashed and disappeared from the spot like a ghost. Then, he reappeared in front of Chu Kuangren and unleashed his Pseudo Immortal energy.

Chu Kuangren reached out at the attack.

At the next moment, his fair hand went through the attack containing the power of a Pseudo Immortal and seized the enforcer at the next.

Golden crimson Phoenix Flame burst and burned the Holy City enforcer to cinders as he screamed in agony.

Chu Kuangren tossed the charred body aside. Then, his Emperor qi erupted and swept out in every direction. Several source energies flew out from his body and circled him, causing a powerful energy fluctuation that shook the void around him.

"A three-way siege, I see... Just to kill me? But are you people worthy?" Chu Kuangren said coldly.

After that, he pointed his sword hand sign at the void, where violet lotuses bloomed one after another. Their petals danced in the air and quickly transformed into sharp sword qi.

As the sword qi intertwined and shrouded the entire field, some cultivators who had lower cultivation levels were torn to shreds, turning into a cloud of bloody mist.

“Is this Thousand Lotus Sword Intent?!”

“D*mn it! Now, kill him now!”

The two Holy Divine Fire Cult Divine Bachelors made their move. Fire from all over the realm gathered upon them and transformed into two enormous fireballs before they hurled them at Chu Kuangren.

On the other hand, Chu Kuangren raised his hand to unleash the Phoenix’s Flame.

He was fighting fire with fire!

The two Divine Bachelors were burnt to ashes on the spot!

Some of the Holy City enforcers realized how powerful Chu Kuangren was, and it deterred them from going face to face with him. Instead, they went after Lan Yu, who was behind Chu Kuangren.

“You’re asking for it!”

A cold glare flashed in Chu Kuangren’s eyes.

With a step back, he reappeared at Lan Yu’s side and pointed his sword hand sign at the enforcer. The sword qi immediately ground the man into a pile of meat.

“Single Thought Series, Planetary Destruction!”

Chu Kuangren channeled his Immortal Technique. His mind power and Emperor qi swirled around him and Lan Yu in the form of purple and crimson-colored bands of light that swiftly spread outwards.

‘The cultivators who were caught by the light bands exploded on the spot.

For a moment there, neither the Divine Bachelors and Divine Maidens nor the Holy City enforcers could escape the expanding light bands.

His powerful strength left everyone speechless.

His combat strength was terrifying.

“He’s definitely on the Immortal Path now!”

“Not only that, but he’s even more terrifying than some Half-Immortals!”

The crowd was astonished.

Hui Fa, Huoshen Huang, and Wu Wuji had a grim look in their eyes. They expected Chu Kuangren to be powerful but not to that extent.

“He’s a lot stronger than he was a year ago,” Hui Fa said with a grave gaze.

“There are no signs of him going through the lightning tribulation, but his Emperor qi and source energies are ridiculously powerful. It’s bizarre.” Huoshen Huang could not wrap his head around the fact.

“No matter what it is, he definitely holds a huge secret. Kill him, and we might be in for a huge gain.” Wu Wuji’s eyes shone brightly.<sup>1</sup>

“Phoenix Bachelor, do you wish to join us to take down this person?” Hui Fa looked at Feng Shangyun.

Feng Shangyun nodded. “I thought you wouldn’t ask.”

Huoshen Huang made the first move, and divine fire erupted from his body.

“It’s the Crimson divine fire, Yin Underworld Flame, Oceanic Celestial Flame, and the Bone Spirit Flame! As expected of the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s First Divine Bachelor! He has mastered so many divine fires alone! He’s unbelievably good!” one of the cultivators who did extensive research on divine fire commented excitedly.

As soon as he said that, the divine fires had arrived before Chu Kuangren, but they were stopped by an invisible barrier two meters away from him. Then, violet lotuses bloomed in the void.

Thousand Violet Sword Intent!

“Oh? Not fighting back? Is he defending the girl behind him?” Huoshen Huo expressed his concern.

“This might be a great chance,” Hui Fa said with his eyes glimmering.

“Grand Brahmic Heavenly Palm!”

Buddhist Light around him shone and formed a golden palm.

“Phoenix Gale Perforation!”

Feng Shangyun channeled the Phoenix’s Flame around him, transforming it into a sharp sword shadow.

‘The sword shadow was hurled at Chu Kuangren’s sword qi barrier together with the golden palm. Upon collision, the ground around Chu Kuangren exploded and sank.

“Hmph! Fool.” Wu Wuji scoffed.

He gripped his spear tightly and thrust it forward.

Ablood-colored spear ray struck the sword qi barrier.

‘With multiple attacks landing on the sword qi barrier, the blooming violet lotuses finally dissolved.

A huge energy explosion went off moments after the collision and swept across the land.

Behind Chu Kuangren, Lan Yu suddenly opened her eyes. Suddenly, a powerful aura emanated from her and spread everywhere.

Her aura could rival a King Immortal Progeny!

She has completely inherited her powers.

“Master, I’ll lend you a hand!” Lan Yu said, wanting to assist Chu Kuangren.

“You don’t need to interfere. Go to the Sword Crown,” Chu Kuangren said coldly.

Lan Yu hesitated for a moment before she nodded.

“Hmph! Chu Kuangren, why are you still trying to look cool at times like this? It’s one against four. So you think you have what it takes to fight us?” Huoshen Huang grinned.

“Wrong.” Chu Kuangren shook his head. Then, an even more terrifying Emperor qi erupted from him.

“It’s not me against the four of you. It’s the four of you trying to resist me. Ready?”

With a flick of his sleeve, source energies emanated from his body and surrounded him with Immortal Sparks radiating around him. He was like a Supreme Immortal King whose aura could shake heaven and earth..

Chapter 962: Against Four King Immortal Progenies, One Strike Means One Strike

One against four?

No, it should be four trying to resist one!

‘The four King Immortal Progenies tried to contend with Chu Kuangren’s powers with all they got!

Nevertheless, Chu Kuangren stood like a monolith on the spot. The source energies continued to swirl around him, and Immortal Sparks radiated. His aura was so terrifying that it shook heaven, earth, and even the void around him.

He glared at the four King Immortal Progenies before him with an icy-cold look.

“Bring it on!”

‘The four of them gulped nervously as the terrifying aura from Chu Kuangren struck fear in them. They could not believe their eyes.

“Such a terrifying energy!”

“Guys, don’t hold back anymore! Give him all you got!” Hui Fa said seriously.

He exhaled deeply. Then, the Buddhist Light around him was painted red by the scalp-numbing rage qi from his body.

“The Golden Ridge Temple’s Holy Monk resolves in such a wicked technique?”

“Isn’t this the Wicked Buddha Sect’s long-lost technique?”

‘The crowd’s pupils shrank in fear at the scene.

Huoshen Huang’s expression was grim as the four divine fires swirled vigorously around him. All four flames were well-known divine fires on the Immortal Realm Divine Fire List.

As the divine fires intertwined, they started to fuse into a rampant Flame Source, of which its aura erupted like a live volcano.

“Let’s fight!” Wu Wuji grunted. Horrifying ferocious qi exploded from his Bloodlust Spear. With a single thrust, the destructive and dominating aura of the blood-colored spear was fired at Chu Kuangren.

“That’s it? Not quite enough.”

The Descendant Self Sword at Chu Kuangren’s waist unsheathed itself with a clunk.

With a single strike with his sword, violet lotuses bloomed in the air.

Sword qi broke the blood-colored spear ray like the wave. At that, Wu Wuji’s pupils shrank in shock as he was blasted away.

“Fire Dragon Blaze!”

Huoshen Huang raised his hand to gather the divine fires around him. The divine fires whistled and intertwined with his Emperor qi and Daoist patterns before transforming into a ferocious fire dragon that rose into the sky.

“Phoenix Gale Perforation!”

Feng Shangyun followed up with a fiery red sword shadow formed by a huge amount of Phoenix’s Flame.

“Trying to fight fire with fire, huh? You guys are no match for me!” Chu Kuangren scoffed. Then, he raised his hand and channeled a more powerful Phoenix’s Flame than Feng Shangyun.

As the two different sources of flame clashed, the two King Immortal Progenies were blasted away.

“Grand Brahmic Heavenly Palm!”

Hui Fa channeled the Resentful Buddha energy on him. The bloody palm, formed by the bloody Buddhist Light, fell from the sky with rumbling rage qi. It was enough to devour heaven and earth.

However, with a single sword strike, Chu Kuangren slashed the palm in half.

Swoosh!

Chu Kuangren’s figure disappeared from the spot.

By the time he reappeared, he was in front of Feng Shangyun, to whom he raised his hand. A huge amount of Phoenix’s Flame ignited in his palm.

“sh*t!”

Feng Shangyun was terrified. Immediately, he channeled all his strength to its fullest potential.

Phoenix’s Flame whistled and tried to engulf Chu Kuangren.

Unfortunately, Feng Shangyun’s strength was far too weak compared to Chu Kuangren. Just one move, and he was engulfed in the Phoenix’s Flame, tortured by the merciless fire.

He fell to the ground, crying in pain as the fire burned him alive. A Godly Phoenix was burned alive by the exact element he mastered? How ironic.

After that, Chu Kuangren glanced at Wu Wuji beside him. He swung his Descendant Self Sword at Wu Wuji, casting the Thousand Lotus Sword Intent, and a flash of sword ray shot out.

‘That particular strike contained not only the Sword Source but also many other source energies, hence granting it unparalleled powers.

“Bloodlust Spear, Thousand Troop Pierce!”

Slightly shocked, Wu Wuji cast his own Immortal Technique.

‘The source energy was fused into the spear before it was thrust forward. The blood-colored spear perforated the void and collided violently with the sword ray.

However, due to the difference in strength, the sword qi’s momentum was unstoppable. A miserable cry later, Wu Wuji was sent flying backward. If it were not for the silver armor on him, the sword attack would have taken his life on the spot.

“Impossible!”

Huoshen Huang looked astonished as he watched Chu Kuangren defeat two King Immortal Progenies in succession. The numbness on his scalp made him feel like his head was going to explode.

Chu Kuangren’s combat strength was far beyond his imagination.

“That’s all you’ve got?” Chu Kuangren said nonchalantly.

He looked at Huoshen Huang with cold killing intent. He did not forget that the Holy Divine Fire Cult almost killed Lan Yu.

D*mn you, Chu Kuangren! I refuse to believe that you are invincible!”

Huoshen Huang calmed the fear in his heart. He shouted and channeled his divine fires to the maximum. After that, all four divine fires around him started to fuse.

It was the Divine Fire Recombination Technique!

The divine fires on Huoshen Huang fused into a colorful fireball. The black Yin Underworld Flame, the white Bone Spirit Flame, the red Crimson divine fire, and the blue Oceanic Celestial Flame shone brightly and colorfully. Its powers were terrifying.

Aglance at it from afar was enough to numb one’s scalp.

Chu Kuangren took a glance at it. However, instead of being surprised, he was intrigued. He said, “Four divine fires? Well, you’re going to be great fodder.”

If he fed the Phoenix’s Flame with four more types of divine fires, it would definitely push the Phoenix’s Flame to the next level, making it more powerful.

“You want to consume my divine fires? Take this first!”

Huoshen Huang saw through Chu Kuangren's thoughts. Irritated, his aura surged, and the Flame Source was combined with the divine fire.

"Divine Fire, Heaven's Blast!"

With the power that could burn everything, the colorful fireball was hurled at Chu Kuangren. As it traveled across the air, the sheer heat alone even distorted the void.

"It's only one fireball. How hard is it to take that?"

Chu Kuangren stood there as a free target for the fireball.

Following a tremendous explosion, the colorful flame wreaked havoc across the land and spread in every direction, turning the ground into a sea of flames.

Wherever the flame reached, all things were burned to crisps, and even the ground melted.

'The crowd stared blankly at the fiery sea.

"Did he do it?"

"Did he really kill Chu Kuangren?"

"This is a terrifying strike, yet he didn't even try to defend. He took it head-on! I think he's either dead or severely injured."

"He's too arrogant!"

A heated discussion arose as the crowd watched the flame burn.

'While the crowd was still wondering, a surge of boundless Emperor qi rose and swept over every inch of flame on the ground, revealing an out-of-the-world figure who looked like he looked down upon all life in the universe.

Chu Kuangren, in his white robes free of a speck of dust, had violet lotuses blooming and sword qi swirling around him. The divine fire that charred the place did not even touch him.

"Now, it's my turn." Chu Kuangren pointed at Huoshen Huang and said proudly, "One strike, and I can cut you in half."

'The moment he said that, the violet lotuses disintegrated into the purest sword qi and fused into the Descendant Self Sword. Rampant and unmatched pressure from the sword made the air feel like it was being ripped apart. Even seeing it from afar could make one feel the pain.

Chu Kuangren raised his hand. Along with a surge of violet sword qi, the blooming lotuses dashed towards Huoshen Huang with an unstoppable force.

Huoshen Huang gave everything he got to defend, but his flame was torn apart upon collision with the sword qi. It did not even slow down the sword qi.

In the next second, the sword qi hit him.

"Divine fire clone!"

Huoshen Huang cast his clone technique in a pinch. His figure was divided into two, leaving the clone to withstand the sword qi while he fled backward, trying to leave the effective range of the sword qi.

However, the divine fire clone exploded when the sword qi hit.

Violet lotuses bloomed in every direction, and each petal on the lotuses contained a fine yet sharp sword qi.

The divine fire clone was the first to explode, but Huoshen Huang also did not escape the sword qi as he was caught by the expanding sword qi. Before he could react, he was perforated by a myriad of sword qi and exploded into a cloud of blood mist.

"I said it before. One strike means one strike.."

Chapter 963: Phoenix Reborn, The Ace of a King Immortal Progeny, Sword Crown Versus Three Immortals

Violet sword ray erupted, and petals from the lotuses scattered, spreading the sword qi in all directions.

Huoshen Huang died on the spot.

Despite being further away, Hui Fa and Wu Wuji did not escape unscathed. They were struck by the sword qi and were forced backward, looking miserable.

After Huoshen Huang died, a piece of Yin and Yang Ring and tinders of all four Divine Flames floated in the void.

Chu Kuangren grinned at the spoils. He went up to the tinders and engulfed them with his Phoenix's Flame, absorbing all of them into his body.

It was then a powerful energy wave exploded beside him.

Phoenix's Flame burst out of Feng Shangyun's charred body and engulfed him. It also canceled out Chu Kuangren's Phoenix Flame. The visible wounds on his body were rapidly healing.

"Oh, so this is... nirvana?" Chu Kuangren's eyes glimmered.

Aside from the special trait of devouring all fire, one of the other reasons the Phoenix's Flame was ranked third on the Divine Flame List was because of its ability to undergo nirvana.

'Whenever a phoenix is reborn, its powers improve by a lot.

Chu Kuangren had undergone nirvana once before.

"Chu Kuangren! I bet you didn't expect this. I am a Phoenix, so I used your Phoenix's Flame to be reborn! Now, I am stronger than before!"

'As Feng Shangyun cackled at Chu Kuangren, the Phoenix's Flame around him swirled violently around him, shedding an orange light on his handsome and rigid face. He glared at Chu Kuangren with visibly frantic killing intents.

"TIL Kill you!"

He then transformed into a ray of fiery light and flew towards Chu Kuangren. It was but a few moments after he was reborn, but the powers he displayed had surpassed a common Pseudo Immortal.

That sight surprised Hui Fa and Wu Wuji.

“Three against one. We still have a chance to win this!”

‘The two exchanged a quick yet determined look.

‘They were prepared to unveil their strongest ace card.

‘Wu Wuji took out a golden-red pill and consumed it. With that, his Emperor qi surged greatly, and the Ferocious Qi Source that he had comprehended got a huge boost as well.

On the other hand, Hui Fa put his hands together. Blood-colored Buddhist light containing dense rage qi intertwined with the Daoist patterns, and a ferocious-looking Resentful Buddha Avatar appeared from the void.

It was none other than the avatar of the Wicked Buddha Sect’s Resentful Buddha.

On top of that, two blood-colored rays of light flew out from Hui Fa’s body.

It was the remaining two Resentful Buddha sculptures!

The moment the two sculptures combined with the avatar, it gained an extra head and a pair of extra arms, making it look even more terrifying.

Chu Kuangren was intrigued. “Great. You really have collected the rest of the Resentful Buddha sculptures for me.”

“Die!”

Hui Fa bellowed coldly with a bewitching look on his face.

He was no longer the Golden Ridge Temple’s little Holy Monk.

The three King Immortal Progenies went after Chu Kuangren in stronger forms. However, all Chu Kuangren did was swing his sword around casually.

He performed only one strike at each of them, yet all three of them felt contended. They could not see the hope of victory anymore.

Were they ganging up against Chu Kuangren?

It might look so, but it surely did not feel like it.

They felt like it was Chu Kuangren who was slaughtering them.

“It’s time to end this boring fight,” Chu Kuangren bellowed coldly. At that, all thirteen source energies on him erupted one after another.

‘That particular scene shocked everyone present.

Some of the cultivators had not even seen so many source energies in his or her life, let alone see all the source energies come out from one person.

“A monster!”

“His Dao, what is it exactly? How does he possess so many source energies? He’s really terrifying!”

Everyone was left in awe and baffled by what happened. It was beyond their comprehension.

Usually, a single cultivator would possess only one Dao.

Therefore, one would usually gain insights into a single Dao, and if they were lucky, they might be able to cultivate one or two other Daos to enhance their strength.

However, thirteen source energies all in one person?!

No matter how they looked at it, it was inconceivable.

All thirteen source energies surrounded Chu Kuangren, and every move he made felt like it could shake the realm. All three King Immortal Progenies had never felt so intimidated before, albeit being Half-Immortal themselves.

“He hasn’t gone through the Three Disasters and Nine Dooms, and he already possesses such terrifying powers. Master is really an uncontrollable outlier in this realm!” the Sword Crown mumbled among the crowd.

Then, he looked into the distance. “This battle is gaining attention. I believe those old bastards are getting restless.”

His eyes suddenly glinted.

He should no longer remain an audience.

“D*mn it! We’ve underestimated him!”

“How can he be so powerful?!”

Hui Fa and company were baffled and in disbelief.

Even though they had unleashed everything they got, they felt helpless against Chu Kuangren, who possessed thirteen source energies.

“You guys are no match for me even if you outnumbered four to one,” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

Then, he raised his sword. Violet lotuses bloomed in the air and condensed sword qi that shrouded every direction.

All three King Immortal Progenies had nowhere else to run.

“Die!”

Chu Kuangren bellowed.

Countless sword qi danced around the air.

'The Resentful Buddha, despite having two sculptures forming the avatar, was slashed countless times by the endless sword qi. It looked like it would crumble any moment.

On the other hand, Wu Wuji swung his spear in a flurry, attempting to fend off the sword qi. Alas, it was a futile effort against the powerful attack.

"Stop it at once!"

Just when all three King Immortal Progenies were in a pinch, a furious voice sounded from the distance.

A boundless aura of an Immortal blanketed the land.

The Immortal was finally joining the fray.

Everyone gasped and looked at Chu Kuangren in shock.

To them, no matter how arrogant Chu Kuangren was to the King Immortal Progenies, he should start to tone his attitude down when the Immortals were involved.

"It is I, the Holy City's Great Elder!"

"and I, the Golden Ridge Temple's Holy Monk!"

'Wu Wuji and Hui Fa were delighted.

However, they soon realized that even after the Immortals made their voices heard, Chu Kuangren did not show any signs of slowing down or any intentions to stop.

In fact, all three of them were hurt badly because they were distracted.

The crowd was astonished.

Chu Kuangren had ignored the warnings from the Immortals!

Further away, three rays of light flew out from the deepest part of the Ancient Immortal Battlefield and headed towards the ruins of ancient orthodoxy. They wanted to stop, or better, kill Chu Kuangren.

All three rays of light were Immortals.

'They were the Immortals of Holy Divine Fire Cult, Golden Ridge Temple, and the Holy City.

'They were furious. After all, all Supreme Immortal Progenies were sky-prides carefully nurtured by the orthodoxies, let alone a King Immortal Progeny.

Yet, Chu Kuangren wanted to kill their King Immortal Progenies, and that was equivalent to killing Immortals in the making.

'They just could not sit back and turn their eyes away.

"We must kill this foreigner!"

"Only his death can calm my wrath!"

At that moment, a figure in green robes appeared before them. It was an elderly man with white hair and a beard, who looked like a commoner.

However, all three Immortals stopped at once and looked at the green-robed elderly. Their pupils shrunk in shock.

“You’re... the Sword Crown?!”

“Why are you here?!”

The Sword Crown was one of the Seven Crowns of Planquilon Immortal World.

He was once the strongest Sword Immortal in this part of the Immortal World!

“It doesn’t matter why I am here. The thing is, this is as far as you guys can go,” the Sword Crown said.

“You are protecting Chu Kuangren?” the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Immortal bellowed.

“Yes, I am.”

Chapter 964: Defeating Three Immortals, Killing King Immortal Progenies, Farewell Qing Feng

A single word from the Sword Crown and sword intents rose to the sky, ready to kill its enemies.

Green lotuses bloomed outward from the Sword Crown as the center. In the blink of an eye, he turned a few thousand miles of land into a sea of green lotuses.

The scene shocked the three Immortals.

“This is one of the Seven Crowns, the Sword Crown’s power?”

“Impossible. I heard the Saber Crown crippled him a long time ago. How is it possible for him to possess so much strength?”

“What is going on?”

The three of them exchanged a confused look.

‘An unusual look flashed across the Holy Divine Fire Cult’s Immortal’s eyes. With the flame burning on his palm, he said, “I’ll go first.”

His Immortal’s Core activated, and what followed was a palm strike.

He threw a dominating fiery palm at the Sword Crown.

Despite that, the Sword Crown stood on the spot with a calm look.

Without pulling out his Immortal Sword, his sword qi automatically concentrated at the tip of his finger. Then, he swung his finger in the air, and a tremendous sword qi slashed outwards, stirring the lotuses along its trail.

The sword qi slashed the fiery palm strike in half and went straight toward the Immortal.

Just one move and the Immortals pupils shrank in fear. A never-before-seen horrified look appeared on his face.

He shouted and channeled all his strength to withstand this slash, but it was useless.

With a swish, the sword qi cut off his arm. The Immortal's blood gushed out violently and spurted all over the land.

The boiling Immortal blood ignited the land upon landing, turning it into a sea of fire.

"He cut off my arm in one strike! He has recovered!"

"The Sword Crown is a Ninth-grade Common Immortal, but we are just a Lower Third-grade Common Immortal. We are not his match. Fall back at once!" the Holy City's Immortal said coldly.

Back at the ruins of the ancient orthodoxy, Wu Wuji, Hui Fa, and the others sensed that the Immortals had left in a rush.

Astonished, they all looked at Chu Kuangren in disbelief.

"The Immortals are running away?!"

"Chu Kuangren has some powerful forces behind him?"

"Isn't he a foreigner? How does he have such powerful forces supporting him? Even the Immortals have been forced to retreat!"

"Holy cow. He's definitely from a powerful force!"

A heated discussion sounded.

On the other hand, Hui Fa and Wu Wuji fell into despair.

If the Immortals had retreated, who would come to their rescue?

The sword qi shuttled around in the air, and the Resentful Buddha's avatar started to crumble before it exploded.

The two Resentful Buddha sculptures also fell out and landed on the ground.

Hui Fa was slashed into a cloud of blood mist by the sword qi.

'Wu Wyji shared the same fate as well.

"Chu Kuangren! You can't kill me! I'm from Sycamore Mountain's Divine Beast Tribe! Our powers are unfathomable! Killing me means making the entire Sycamore Mountain your enemy..." Feng Shangyun pleaded nervously.

"If I could kill the Immortal Progeny from Holy Divine Fire Cult, Holy City, and even Golden Ridge Temple, do you really think I'm afraid of Sycamore Mountain's Divine Beast Tribe?" Chu Kuangren said with a cold look on his face.

Violet lotus sword ray shuttled in the air and struck Feng Shangyun down.

"Now, do you think your Phoenix's Flame can save you?" Chu Kuangren grinned.

Everyone else stared at Chu Kuangren, horrified.

All four King Immortal Progenies teamed up against him, and it was useless. Chu Kuangren defeated and killed them one after another. The strength he displayed was beyond anyone's imagination.

"According to the Immortal Path's categorization on the Three Disasters and Nine Dooms, Chu Kuangren's strength should be at the seventh trial, or even the eighth."

"But why aren't there any signs of the lightning tribulation on him?"

"That's what's confusing."

The battle sparked heated discussion among the audience. After this battle, Chu Kuangren's name would go down in the history of Planquilon Immortal World.

One man against four King Immortal Progenies!

No native Immortal Progeny was able to achieve it before, let alone one from the outside world.

The source energies went back into Chu Kuangren's body. After that, he picked up the spoils on the ground together with the two Resentful Buddha sculptures.

Then, he returned to Lan Yu and the others.

However, Huang Yinghong, who stood beside Qing Feng, stared at him cautiously. He had just killed a Phoenix Bachelor after all.

Chu Kuangren was not bothered by the glare.

If she did anything to him, he would just kill her.

It was not difficult anyway.

Awhile later, the Sword Crown returned.

"Is it settled?" Chu Kuangren simply asked.

"They've retreated." The Sword Crown nodded.

"Retreated? Forget it. You just recovered, so the fact that you can fend them off is good enough. I didn't expect you to bring back the bodies of the Immortals either," Chu Kuangren said.

The Sword Crown was rendered speechless, and his face twitched helplessly.

The Immortals' bodies?

Immortals were not an easy target.

"I'll try next time," the Sword Crown said.

Chu Kuangren did not dwell on the topic.

Compared to asking the Sword Crown to kill an Immortal, he would prefer to kill one himself.

However, he knew that given his current strength, killing an Immortal was a little out of the question.

He might stand a chance if he gained more insights into the source energies.

"There's nothing left in these ruins for us. Let's go," Chu Kuangren said.

"Um, Master..." It was then Qing Feng opened up reluctantly. "I wish to return to Sycamore Mountain with Yinghong."

Chu Kuangren was not surprised at all.

"Sure."

"In that case, may fate allow us to meet again one day."

Qing Feng stared at Chu Kuangren with mixed feelings. They might not have spent a lot of time together, and neither of them shared anything memorable, but she could never forget him.

Perhaps it was the natural charm of Chu Kuangren's personality.

Some people just had the ability to leave a strong impression on others.

"Mhm." Chu Kuangren nodded and parted ways with Qing Feng.

He had already mastered the Azure Phoenix Physique and the Jade Pool Immortal's Scriptures, so Qing Feng was no longer valuable to him.

"Sycamore Mountain? Maybe I'll visit if I have the chance. Lil Hong has also made her way to Planquilon Immortal World, but there's no news on her. Maybe there's something about her there."

Besides Chu Hong, there was also Yin Honghua.

He should really take some time to find out about their whereabouts.

Right before he left, Chu Kuangren turned to Gu Wuqing and Gu Liufang. Gu Wuqing cupped his fists and said, "Brother, I am forever in your debt. I will make sure to pay you back the favor in the future."

He was a little embarrassed to say that.

Chu Kuangren saved him, but he could not repay the debt. Judging from Chu Kuangren's strength and gifts, he would only grow stronger in the future, and until then, Gu Wuqing might not be of use to him.

"I know Immortal Gu from way back. You don't have to repay me." A slight hesitancy later, Chu Kuangren added, "I'm sorry about Immortal Gu's passing. If you need any help, please come to me. I'll do whatever I can within my capabilities."

The Sword Crown was a little surprised by Chu Kuangren's promise. As far as he knew, his master was not someone who would make a promise to others so easily.

It seemed like Immortal Gu meant a lot to him.

As a matter of fact, Immortal Gu meant a lot not to him but Firmament Star. It was because Immortal Gu preached the way of cultivation in Firmament Star that the planet's cultivation culture could advance swiftly.

Chu Kuangren did not mind making a promise based on that point alone. As for Immortal Gu's death, he would want to get to the bottom of it if he could.

Gu Wuqing was moved by the promise.

Ever since what happened to the Gu clan, the family's allies and friends had left them. No one was willing to offer a helping hand at their darkest times.

Never did he think that he would run into Chu Kuangren in the unfamiliar Planquilon Immortal World. Chu Kuangren alone was a hundred times better than those allies and friends of the Gu clan..

Chapter 965: Immortal Ascension Pool, Three-headed Six-Armed Resentful Buddha, Myriad Divine Lotus Seed

"Brother Chu, I guess this is goodbye for now. If you have the time, please visit Hundred Academy, and I will welcome you with open arms." Gu Liufang smiled at Chu Kuangren.

He was no idiot. He knew he should seize the chance to win Chu Kuangren's favor because the man before him was an unrivaled Immortal Progeny.

Even if he could not win favors, he should try to stay away from Chu Kuangren's bad side.

"Hundred Academy? I'll take note of that," Chu Kuangren said with a slight nod.

Rumor had it that Hundred Academy had a long history. As such, they kept all kinds of cultivation scriptures, codices, and ancient secrets there.

He would pay a visit if he had the time.

After all, he was on the path of creating his own source energy —a path that no one had ever walked before.

That uncharted path required not only determination but also a strong foundation of knowledge. The Hundred Academy would be the best place to absorb more knowledge.

Chu Kuangren left after bidding the two of them farewell.

Gu Wuaing then looked at Gu Liufang and said, "You are one of Hundred Academy's pupils?"

"Indeed I am. The name is Gu Liufang of Hundred Academy."

Gu Wuaing's eyes shone brightly. "I heard Hundred Academy is open to people of all statuses. I wonder if you accept foreigners?"

"Of course. The academy houses quite a number of foreigners as well," Gu Liufang said with a smile.

"May I ask what I should do to get accepted?"

Gu Wuging was determined to avenge his clan, but first, he had to make it in Planquilon Immortal World. Since foreigners were not welcomed, he should first find a powerful force as backing.

"The Hundred Academy would be a great choice.

"Follow me, Daoist Brother. I will recommend you to the person in charge."

"You have my thanks."

Chu Kuangren and company left the ruins and arrived at an empty mountain ridge.

He asked Lan Yu about the winged girl's inheritance.

"The girl is the strongest among the Immortal World's Winged Human Tribe. She fell during the previous era but somehow managed to keep her Immortal Physique and Immortal Consciousness intact through some methods. She stayed behind and waited patiently for the inheritance, which was of the Winged Human Tribe..." Lan Yu explained.

Chu Kuangren used Omniscient Spirit to scan her status.

Lan Yu's Holy Radiant Physique has now transformed into something called the Radiant War Immortal Physique. It was created by the powerful Winged Human using the Immortal Physique and Immortal Consciousness for Lan Yu. It was the strongest Immortal Physique of the Winged Human Tribe!

"It didn't disappear. It changed."

"That means a Daoist Physique can transform into an Immortal Physique?" Chu Kuangren's eyes lit up.

If the Holy Radiant Physique could do it, what about the other physiques?

He possessed the Exquisite Nine Orifices Sword Heart, Chaos Physique, Heavenly Golden Imperial Physique, and many others. It made him start to wonder if they could evolve into Immortal Physiques.

Then, a thought came into his mind.

Although Lan Yu's powerful Immortal Physique was granted to her by that powerful Winged Human's Immortal Physique and Immortal Consciousness, which he had no chance of getting, he had the Tome of Physique.

He could simply analyze Lan Yu's Radiant War Immortal Physique and figure out how a Daoist Physique could evolve into an Immortal Physique.

If he could grasp the clues or patterns, he might be able to use them on himself and evolve all his physiques to Immortal Physiques.

"A physique upgrade? Perhaps this is the next breakthrough in my study of the Tome of Physiques." Chu Kuangren's lips curled into a grin.

While Lan Yu had acquired the inheritance from the strongest of the Winged Human Tribe, which was a huge gain to her, Chu Kuangren could get some crucial hints out of it as well.

To him, the hints were as valuable as Lan Yu gaining the Immortal Physique.

"Lan Yu, you just got the Immortal Physique, so you should spend some time getting used to it. Since I have to refine the fire tinders I got from Huoshen Huang, let's have a closed-door meditation here for a few days.

"Sword Crown, please keep an eye out while we are cultivating," Chu Kuangren said.

The Sword Crown nodded. "Of course."

While Chu Kuangren and Lan Yu were in closed-door cultivation, the outside world did not enjoy a peaceful moment.

The battle at the ruins spread Chu Kuangren's reputation far and wide, allowing everyone to learn about him.

He became the hottest topic everyone discussed, and the attention he gained surpassed even the other King Immortal Progenies.

A month after the battle at the ruins, something huge happened at the Ancient Immortal Battlefield. It came from the deepest part of the place.

This time, not only the Immortal Progenies, but even the Immortals joined the expedition into the Ancient Immortal Battlefield. They actively took point at the center of the battlefield and fought the strongest vengeful souls.

The Immortal Progenies always had difficulties getting to the center before this.

Today, shocking news came out from the Ancient Immortal Battlefield. The legendary Immortal Ascension Pool had appeared!

It shook the entire Ancient Immortal Battlefield for quite some time.

"Legend says that the water in the Immortal Ascension Pool can purify the impurities of the body. If someone who is not an Immortal goes inside, there is a certain chance that he will become an Immortal! Its benefits are huge!"

"It's a great chance for the Immortal Progenies!"

"That's right! The powerful vengeful souls in the center of the battlefield have been almost cleared out by the Immortals. I have to go see the pool for myself. I would be happy enough to get a pail of the water for a bath!"

Countless Immortal Progenies were eager to visit the pool because it was such a huge temptation.

Meanwhile, in a cave somewhere in the Ancient Immortal Battlefield, Chu Kuangren sat with his legs crossed with three red Resentful Buddha sculptures in front of him.

A hint of rage qi was swirling around him.

A moment later, he suddenly opened his eyes and bellowed, "Combine!"

As he mobilized his mind power, all three Resentful Buddha sculptures mashed together violently. Following the flash of the blood-colored Buddhist Light, the three blood-colored sculptures combined into one with three heads and six arms.

The Buddha sculpture was crimson, but it was only the size of a palm. All three of its heads wore a different look.

One looked ferocious as it glared.

One looked merciful as it looked down.

One looked terrified as its eyes widened.

They represent the emotions of anger, compassion, and fear respectively.

The Resentful Buddha floated in the air. Blood-colored Buddhist light shone, and terrifying energy fluctuations emanated from it non-stop.

“Great. The Three-Headed Six-Armed Resentful Buddha has quite the power.” Chu Kuangren was intrigued by the sculpture.

He opened his palm and revealed a surge of swirling red energy. The energy resonated with the Resentful Buddha and created a resonance between them.

“With this Resentful Buddha, I’ve now mastered the Rage Qi Source. This would be my fourteenth source energy,” Chu Kuangren said with a smile.

This time, the closed-door cultivation did not last long, but his gains were huge.

He had consumed all four divine fire tinders. Although he did not gain any new insights to form a new source energy, the power of his Phoenix’s Flame had grown tremendously.

The other thing would be the Resentful Buddha.

He followed the Resentful Buddha and managed to gain insights into a Rage Qi Source. On top of that, all three Resentful Buddha sculptures had been refined and combined into one complete sculpture, the Three-Headed Six-Armed Resentful Buddha.

The item was once the treasure of the Wicked Buddha Sect.

“With this Immortal Weapon, I now have another trick up my sleeves.

“Hehe! Let’s roll the gacha.”

Chu Kuangren opened the Fantasy Roulette as he muttered.

“Congratulations, Host! You have acquired a God-tier item, Myriad Divine Lotus Seed!”

His eyes shone brightly.

He tapped open his inventory and saw the description for the Myriad Divine Lotus Seed.

‘Myriad Divine Lotus was an Immortal plant, and it was not any common Immortal plant. It was a plant that could evolve into an Immortal Technique according to the source energy.

One blossomed petal represented one grade, and one petal was enough to allow one to gain insights into one Immortal Technique. Two blossomed petals represented two grades, allowing one to evolve that one Immortal Technique into two.

The Divine Lotus could potentially reach twelve grades!

Theoretically, it could evolve into twelve Immortal Techniques, but it would depend on the user’s capabilities. If the cultivator had less cognizance to nourish the lotus, the petals might not bloom twelve times. Having evolved two to three Immortal Techniques would be the average achievement of a common cultivator..1

Chapter 966: Immortal Ascension Pool, Immortal Progenies Fighting For The Spot, Do I Need To Fight For It?

“Withdraw.”

Chu Kuangren withdrew the Divine Lotus Seed. It was at that moment, a golden lotus seed, shrouded with concentrated Daoist patterns appeared inside his body.

“An Immortal item that can evolve Immortal Techniques? Not bad.” Chu Kuangren smiled.

He had not finished refining the Godly Awakening Wine, so he thought he would have to delay evolving his Immortal Technique to a later date. Yet now, with the Myriad Divine Lotus Seed, he could move his schedule up.

He could evolve his own Immortal Techniques and master the Proclamation Seal.

It was his goal before he even entered the Immortal World.

Prior to creating his own source energy, it would be important to gain insights into as many source energies as possible. Those were his two major cultivation goals — the source energy and Proclamation Seals.

Both could help him to increase his strength.

“Since the Myriad Divine Lotus Seed has been planted inside me, all that’s left is to collect Water and Wood Essence to nourish it,” Chu Kuangren muttered.

In order to grow the seed, using Emperor qi alone would not be enough. It required a huge amount of Water and Wood Essence, similar to how plants required water to grow.

The Immortal Plant was not much different from a common plant.

‘Lan Yu should be more familiar with her new Immortal Physique by now. I should go out and analyze the Radiant War Immortal Physique on her so I can figure out a way to upgrade my Daoist Physiques,’ Chu Kuangren thought.

With that, he walked out of the cave.

The sky outside was still gloomy. After all, he was in the Ancient Immortal Battlefield, a place filled with rage qi. It would be strange if he walked out to a sunny day.

He shook his head. “I’ll stay for a little longer. If I can’t find an Opportunity of Fortune, I’ll leave to the next place.”

Lan Yu had ended her closed-door meditation earlier than him.

She was standing under the tree in her silver armor. Her slender figure and long legs complemented her silver hair that draped over her shoulder; her delicate facial features looked more pronounced with her bright sapphire eyes.

She looked valiant and pure like an inviolable valkyrie.

“Master, you’re out!”

Lan Yu turned around to Chu Kuangren with a smile.

Her sapphire eyes blinked with utmost tenderness.

“Mmhm. How’s your War Immortal Physique? Have you gotten used to it?” he asked.

“I’ve gotten more familiar with it, and I have broken through to a Great Daoist Celestial. I’ve also mastered the Radiant War Source energy.

“Radiant is my Dao, and War is my duty. Radiant War Source is the most fitting source energy for me,” she said with a smile.

“Master, congratulations on coming out. Judging from your look, you must have gained something again,” the Sword Crown said as he walked over with a smile.

“Okay, I guess.”

Chu Kuangren then asked, “Did anything happen while I was inside?”

“There is actually.”

Before the Sword Crown could elaborate, Lil Fox jumped into the conversation. “Boss, an Immortal Ascension Pool appeared here in the Ancient Immortal Battlefield a few days ago. A lot of people went over. Let’s go have some fun!”

“Oh, Immortal Ascension Pool?” Chu Kuangren looked interested.

“Yes! This is a treasured natural resource that bore the blessing of heaven and earth. It’s very beneficial to an Immortal Progeny,” the Sword Crown said.

“If that’s the case, let’s go have a look.”

Chu Kuangren did not say no to Lil Fox.

Soon, the group headed towards the Immortal Ascension Pool.

Further away at the Immortal Ascension Pool, the Immortal Progenies were still fighting over a spot to enter the pool. However, little did they know that something terrifying was coming for them.

On a mountain peak at the deepest part of Ancient Immortal Battlefield, Immortal Sparks shone brightly, making the mountain peak stand out from the bleak and vengeful battlefield.

The rage qi in the area could not get close to the mountain peak at all, which made it look special.

At the center of the mountain peak was a lake with a ten kilometers radius.

The lake’s surface was shrouded by mist and Immortal Sparks.

The lake was none other than the Immortal Ascension Pool that all Immortal Progenies dreamt of.

‘The water in the lake was formed by the purest of spiritual powers. One drop of it equaled millions of spiritual marrow.

As such, the amount of water in the lake made its value immeasurable.

The other valuable thing was the Immortal Sparks around the lake. The Immortal Sparks formed a strange connection around the lake, and it was the Immortal Sparks that could purify one's impurities and possess the powerful effect of loosening one's body. It was more than enough to allow one to tread smoothly on the Immortal Path.

Outside the lake was countless seals set up by the Immortals who ventured into the Ancient Immortal Battlefield this time.

Their aim was to prevent others from getting close.

The Immortals had discussed it among themselves and agreed to only allow the Immortal Progenies of the immortal orthodoxies to enter the lake for purification.

However, in order to avoid criticism, the Immortals decided to release ten extra spots for those who did not belong to any immortal orthodoxies.

As for which ten lucky souls would get the chance, it would depend on their strength.

A large number of Immortal Progenies were fighting outside for the ten spots to enter the lake.

More precisely, they were fighting over the token that would grant them entry.

The token switched owners swiftly among the Immortal Progenies. It was not that difficult for one to get the token, but it was difficult to hold on to it because others might gang up on that particular person upon possession of the token.

"Haha! What a rare scene."

An Immortal Progeny watched from high above and grinned at the chaotic scene. The man was an Immortal Progeny from the Holy City. The disdain in his eyes was visible as he watched the others fighting for the token.

The other Immortal Progenies from other immortal orthodoxies shared a similar expression.

Compared to the others who had to risk their lives for the spot, they had secured a guaranteed one at the start.

It was probably the best interpretation of leaning under a big tree for its shades.

"Who do you think will get the ten spots?"

"[ don't know, and I don't care."

"Let's just draw lots ourselves and see who goes in first," said a man in golden robes.

The man had a buff physique and a strict look on his face. His standing posture set him off as a natural king, and it gave one the urge to kneel before him. The man was none other than one of the Twelve Kings, the Great Yuan Dynasty's crown prince, Yuan Wu.

As for the lots he mentioned, it was the rule set by the Immortals to determine the sequence for the purification.

The Immortal Ascension Pool contained vast energy, so it was enough for every Immortal Progeny from the immortal orthodoxies to complete their purification. However, in order to secure a quiet and peaceful process and prevent any kind of interruption or accidents, the rule was set up so that the Immortal Progenies would take turns.

“Let’s begin,” a delicate lady in a white robe said.

The lady was also an Immortal Progeny and one of the Twelve Kings.

Fourteen balls of light appeared before them, each representing an immortal orthodoxy that had come to the Ancient Immortal Battlefield this time.

“From one to fourteen, we will follow the sequence, and the one who gets one can go in first,” Yuan Wu said.

Then, he was first to draw.

“Look!”

All of a sudden, the Immortal Progenies squealed in shock.

The rest of the Immortal Progenies suddenly stopped fighting over the token and stared in a particular direction.

They felt a rampant and dominating energy coming closer to them, and they were no match for it.

As far as they could see, an out-of-this-world figure in white robes was walking over with three followers — two ladies and an elderly with white hair and beard — behind him.

It was Chu Kuangren and company.

Chu Kuangren did not hold back his aura. Instead, he released it to deter all the Immortal Progenies at the scene.

He looked at the Immortal Ascension Pool and said with a smile, “I guess this Immortal Ascension Pool is really tempting. Look at all the people here.”

“It’s him! It’s Chu Kuangren!”

“The monster who killed all the King Immortal Progenies? He’s here!”

A heated discussion started among the crowd, and they stared at him with reverence in their eyes.

The Immortal Progenies from the immortal orthodoxies also noticed his arrival from high up, and he intrigued them.

One of them said coldly, “Even if it’s you, Chu Kuangren, you have to follow the rules to enter the Immortal Ascension Pool! You must fight the others to get the spot for entry!”

Chu Kuangren then looked at the other Immortal Progenies and spotted the tokens in their hands. He immediately knew what was going on.

He scoffed and looked at the Immortal Progenies high above. "Fight? Do I need to fight for it?"

Chapter 967: The Way of Using An Immortal Progeny, One Man Defeated All Immortal Progenies

"Fight? Do I have to fight for it?" Chu Kuangren stood on the spot as he stared further away.

He could sense a dozen unmatched presences lingering there, and they all possessed energies above a Pseudo Immortal.

They were... the Immortals!

The moment Chu Kuangren said that, the Sword Crown behind him released a surge of domineering Immortal's Core energy fluctuation.

An overwhelming sword intent erupted from the spot and pierced the clouds.

"Did you not hear what my master said?" the Sword Crown said coldly.

As his words echoed, the crowd gulped nervously.

Master?

The Sword Crown was a follower of Chu Kuangren?

D*mn! The terrifying energy must be from an Immortal, and it seemed like Chu Kuangren had an Immortal as his follower!

'What horrifying background indeed!

"Who the hell told me he's just a foreigner with no background? He has a freaking Immortal as his follower! Are you kidding me? He must have some ridiculously powerful background!"

"an Immortal as his follower? Oh my gosh..."

Not only the Immortal Progenies were shocked, but the Immortals hiding in the void had the same reaction.

They looked at the Sword Crown in disbelief. They could not believe what they heard and saw. It must be a dream, a bizarre dream! Otherwise, that would never have happened!

The almighty Sword Crown, the man who reigned over his time with unparalleled powers, was now a follower of an Immortal Progeny?

That might be the biggest joke in the Immortal World.

"What is this about?" asked one of the Immortals.

However, no one could provide an answer as the others shared the same confusion and astonishment.

"Chu Kuangren. You can skip the fight for the spot, but you still have to draw lots to go into the Immortal Ascension Pool."

A cold voice came from the void. The Immortals had spoken.

They obviously wanted to avoid direct conflict with the Sword Crown, and Chu Kuangren taking the Sword Crown as his follower was shocking enough.

Without fully understanding the situation, they dared not stop Chu Kuangren as they liked.

“Oh? Draw lots? That’s so tedious. Since we are all Immortal Progenies, let’s settle this using the most straightforward way.”

Chu Kuangren stood with his hands behind his back. “I will be the first to go in. Anyone who disagrees can try to persuade me with any means necessary. If all of you want to come at me together, I don’t mind either.”

His words sent the crowd into an uproar.

“What did he just say? Is he challenging all the Immortal Progenies from the immortal orthodoxies? Is he out of his mind?!”

“I don’t believe it. Does he have the guts to do that?”

“Even if he’s the Chu Kuangren, even if he’s really powerful, challenging all the Immortal Progenies at once is a little too much, even for him.”

The common Immortal Progenies gasped in disbelief, while the Immortal Progenies from the immortal orthodoxies were both astonished and furious.

They were the most outstanding Immortal Progenies of this part of the Immortal World. No one had ever said such bizarre things before them.

Especially the few King Immortal Progenies, their rage almost erupted from their glare at Chu Kuangren.

“Very well. You are probably the most arrogant foreign Immortal Progenies that I have met in many years. I am really interested to see if you are as powerful as they say,” Yuan Wu, the King Immortal Progeny, said coldly.

As he took the first step forward, boundless Emperor qi gushed out like torrential waves, and a strong source energy fluctuation erupted, crushing the void in every direction.

“If you can win against me, I have no problem with you entering first.”

The Immortals did not say anything either, seemingly tacitly agreeing to the challenge. They, too, were curious about Chu Kuangren’s strength.

Chu Kuangren taunted Wu Yuan with his finger. “Bring it on.”

Wu Yuan made his first move by throwing a punch. The boundless Emperor qi and source energy fluctuation combined to form a golden fist ray.

Chu Kuangren remained at his spot and raised his hand. As his Emperor qi and the source energy fluctuation erupted, they crushed the fist ray into nothing.

“That’s it? This is the strength of the Great Yuan Divine Dynasty’s crown prince?” Chu Kuangren said calmly.

The collision did not even make him budge.

“Coil Divine Art, Heaven Shattering Thunder!” Yuan Wu bellowed.

His Emperor qi and Daoist pattern intertwined into a sky blue lightning. With a single punch buffed by his source energy, the lightning bolt, as robust as a pillar, was shot towards Chu Kuangren like a rising dragon.

“Imperial Monarch Sword Art!”

The Emperor qi behind Chu Kuangren rumbled and transformed into a golden Grand Emperor Avatar. Next, sword qi gathered at the avatar’s palm and formed a golden sword shadow from the void. Its power could tear the void apart.

When the sword shadow and the lightning bolt clashed, a tremendous explosion went off.

The lightning bolt was shattered by the unstoppable sword qi that continued towards Yuan Wu and sent him flying backward.

The sheer strength of the strike shocked everyone.

One strike, and he defeated a King Immortal Progeny?

“He’s as powerful as rumors say!”

“No, he’s even more powerful than that!”

Chu Kuangren’s hands remained behind his back. He looked at the other King Immortal Progenies and said, “I said all of you are allowed to team up against me. Why don’t all of you take the chance?”

His words put a sour look on all the Immortal Progenies’ faces.

“Come on!”

“I refuse to believe that he’s powerful enough to defeat all of us!”

All the Immortal Progenies came from different immortal orthodoxies and were originally rivals to each other.

Now, they came together because of Chu Kuangren. It seemed like Chu Kuangren had achieved something that no one had ever done.

“Thousand Wind Fingers!”

“Voidless Sword Slash!”

“Flame Dragon Raging Thousand Mountains!”

All kinds of powerful Immortal Techniques were unleashed, painting the sky with a colorful palette as they were cast.

Chu Kuangren, despite being the center of all the Immortal Techniques, stood still like a monolith. With his hands behind his back, he stood strong against the attacks.

Violet lotuses bloomed around him and then transformed into a thousand lotus sword qi that blocked all the incoming attacks.

Boom!

Several loud and consecutive explosions later, the land trembled, and cracks spread outwards like a spider web.

Clouds of dust blanketed the battlefield and even shrouded the sun.

Everyone stared into the cloud of dust. They could still sense the lingering energy fluctuations of all the Immortal Techniques. Everyone strongly believed that no Immortal Progeny could survive such terrifying attacks.

“We did it?”

“Is he defeated?”

‘A few Immortal Progenies within the crowd did not join the attack, including Gu Wuqing and Gu Liufang.

Instead, they stared into the dust and grinned. Gu Liufang then said with a smile, “He won’t be so easily defeated.”

As the crowd’s anticipation rose, Emperor qi swept across the field and blasted the dust away.

A figure in white emerged from within.

Chu Kuangren remained standing proudly. He looked at the others in disdain and said, “Now, it’s your turn to have a taste of my powers.”

At that, the spiritual qi around the area paused, and the wind stopped. The world felt like it was put on pause at that moment.

No technique was cast, but everyone present on the field could feel tremendous pressure like nothing before. It was almost enough to suffocate them alive.

“Single Thought Series, Planetary Destruction!”

The voice echoed the heavens.

Then, bands of purple-crimson light spread out toward the crowd. Those who were caught by the light bands were sent flying with blood spurting out of their mouths. Even the King Immortal Progenies turned pale at the attack.

In two seconds, the Immortal Progenies were already on the ground, crying in pain.

Only the figure in white robes stood among the fallen like a king who looked down on the entire universe..

Chapter 968 Entering The Immortal Ascension Pool, Prefers A Matured One, Chu Kuangren's Plan

Shocking! Absolutely shocking!

Everyone at the scene was overwhelmed with shock.

A single move and he defeated all the Immortal Progenies.

That display of power left those who did not join the battle in awe, and they stared at the proud white figure blankly.

Chu Kuangren retracted his Emperor qi and mind power. Then, he stared at the rest of the Immortal Progenies and said, "I'm going in first. Does anyone have anything else to say about that?"

As he glanced over them, all the Immortal Progenies lower their heads awkwardly.

The fact that he defeated so many Immortal Progenies overwhelmed them tremendously. They were so scared that they could not lift their heads up. What could they possibly deny Chu Kuangren's entry?

"As an Immortal Progeny, he has definitely achieved zenith," Gu Wuqing wore an impressed look as he looked at Chu Kuangren, admiring Chu Kuangren and his achievements.

"I agree. No Immortal Progeny can achieve what he did. He has yet started the Immortal Path, and he has defeated the other King Immortal Progenies so easily," Gu Liufang lamented.

"He really hasn't started the Immortal Path? He is ridiculously powerful," Gu Wuqing voiced his question.

"I'm afraid this is something beyond me. An outlier, if you may," Gu Liufang muttered.

Back in the void, energy fluctuations from Immortal's Core erupted.

The Immortals were also so shocked by Chu Kuangren's display of strength that they instinctively released their Immortal's Core energy fluctuations.

"His powers... He really hasn't started on the Immortal Path?"

"Such powers... I believe even the oldest immortal orthodoxy might not produce such an Immortal Progeny, let alone a foreigner."

"What is his background?"

Upon sensing the Immortal's Core energy fluctuations from the Immortals, Chu Kuangren looked into the void and said, "What's wrong? Don't any of you have anything to say about it?"

The Sword Crown also stepped forward and released his sword intent.

"Permission granted."

The Immortals went silent for a moment before voicing their agreement.

After all, the Immortal Ascension Pool was big enough to allow every Immortal Progeny from the immortal orthodoxies to complete their purification.

“Let’s go,” Chu Kuangren said to Lan Yu and the others.

With that, the few of them then entered the Immortal Ascension Pool.

The rest of the Immortal Progenies watched them walk in with mixed feelings. An indescribable feeling of defeat tore them apart from the inside.

“D*mn it!”

Wu Yuan punched the ground in frustration.

He was proud to be a King Immortal Progeny, but today, Chu Kuangren had trampled and crushed his pride.

Not only him, but a lot of the others also shared the same feeling.

“We are just going to let him go in?”

The Immortals in the void got a little anxious.

“We should find out more about his background first and figure out why the Sword Crown has become his follower,” one of the Immortals said.

Before getting clarity on that matter, they dared not make any rash move as they were afraid of offending the wrong people.

They were all from immortal orthodoxies, but they were not invincible.

There were quite a number of threats out there as well, such as the Divine Beast Tribe and other immortal orthodoxies.

“Fine.”

“We’ll investigate his background while he’s inside the Immortal Ascension Pool, and the decision will come later.”

“Agreed.”

All fourteen immortal orthodoxies did what they could. The information network that they could utilize was unimaginably huge. It covered almost the entire Planquilon Immortal World, and it was safe to say that no one could escape their search.

Meanwhile, inside the Immortal Ascension Pool, Chu Kuangren stood in front of the lake, surprised. “Is this the Immortal Ascension Pool? It’s really something else.”

Lil Fox and Lan Yu were similarly excited.

Lil Fox transformed back into her true form, jumped into the lake swiftly, and started swimming around.

“Boss, it’s so nice here! Come down quick!” she said.

The Sword Crown smiled and said, "Master, I have almost no use for this pool. I'll stand guard here instead."

Then, he walked further away and released green lotuses in the air that acted as a line of restriction, separating the pool from the outside.

After the Sword Crown left, Lan Yu looked at Chu Kuangren.

"Master, I'll help you with your clothes."

Chu Kuangren nodded. "Okay."

Lan Yu went up to him and started to take off his clothes. She blushed as she stared at his fair and flawless body. "Master, your skin is great. It's fair and smooth."

"Ahem, are you praising me?" Chu Kuangren cleared his throat awkwardly.

Fair and smooth?

It sounded weird when she used it to describe him.

After he undressed, he went into the water. The Immortal Sparks that lingered above the surface immediately surrounded him as he entered.

He could feel the energy from the pool seeping into his body through his hair follicles. The unique energy purified the impurities in his body, loosened his meridians, and also amplified his Emperor qi.

"Meridian cleansing," Chu Kuangren muttered. It was not the first time he experienced it, but the effect from the Immortal Ascension Pool was much more obvious.

While he was experiencing the uniqueness of the water, he suddenly felt the Myriad Divine Lotus Seed in his body move.

It conveyed its desire to him.

The seed's unusual behavior caught his attention.

"I need a huge amount of Water and Wood Essence to nourish the seed. Can the water in this pool be used as well!?" Chu Kuangren's eyes glimmered.

As he pondered, he heard splashes beside him.

He turned around and saw a beautiful, fair body coming into the water toward him.

He was slightly stunned.

"Lan Yu?"

"Master, I'll scrub your back for you."

Lan Yu went up to Chu Kuangren's back. She did not feel embarrassed being naked in front of him at all.

To her, she belonged to Chu Kuangren, so appearing naked in front of her master meant nothing to her.

Chu Kuangren regained his composure after a moment.

“Okay.”

He could feel Lan Yu’s soft hands rubbing his back, and from time to time, he could feel her soft chest pressing against his skin.

‘Mm, she’s quite... big,’ Chu Kuangren thought.

“Boss, I’ll help too!”

Lil Fox swam over in her human form. Her slightly blushed face made her look cuter.

She came to Chu Kuangren and started massaging his back and legs.

However, as a fox, she was not skilled. All she did was pound blindly on his body.

Chu Kuangren used his mind power and sent her flying. “Don’t be handsy. Go take a break at the side.”

Splash!

Lil Fox emerged from the water and looked at her tiny hands and legs with a pout.

“The boss likes a mature woman, huh? I have to grow bigger faster!”

However, a Moonlight Fox had a long lifespan, and she was still an adolescent. It would take her a very long time to grow into a decent adult.

Chu Kuangren enjoyed Lan Yu’s services.

Just like that, three days had passed.

Chu Kuangren believed he had gained the most of the Immortal Ascension Pool already. Lan Yu and Lil Fox also gained a huge boost.

According to the rules, they should leave and allow the others to come in. However, he did not do so.

He was still in the water.

“Master, what are you doing?” Lan Yu asked curiously.

“I have a plan, but I’m afraid that the other orthodoxies might kill me if they know what I’m up to. But, hey, why should I be afraid of them?” He chuckled..

Chapter 969 Continuously Created Immortal Techniques. Nan Ke’s Deduction

Chu Kuangren remained in the Immortal Ascension Pool.

As the plan unfolded in his mind, he channeled his mind power and released a rampant suction force from within.

The lake suddenly turned into the roughest sea with raging tides.

Chu Kuangren absorbed all the water like a whale. He wanted to use the water to nourish the Myriad Divine Lotus Seed.

The water in the Immortal Ascension Pool was a natural source of Water and Wood Essence, the best kind to nourish the lotus seed.

The lotus seed started to sprout into a bud after absorbing a huge amount of water essence.

That was not the end. One of the petals opened up. Grade one Myriad Divine Lotus was a success!

The petal had profound Daoist patterns around it. Chu Kuangren immediately infused the Sword Source energy into it.

Right away, the source energy evolved.

He looked at the petal but his mind was invited into a Spiritual Void Realm. Countless profound Daoist patterns gushed into his head.

Those who had less cognizance might suffer a lot as the large amount of profound Daoist patterns gushed into one's mind in such a short period of time, but not Chu Kuangren.

His cognizance was incredibly high, monstrous if one may. The countless Daoist patterns did not confuse or bloat his head, instead he was able to grasp the pattern swiftly and deduced his own sword technique according to what he understood.

The water in the lake continued to be absorbed by the lotus seed. The second petal slowly took shape. Chu Kuangren channeled his mind power and infused another source energy into it for the evolution process.

Chu Kuangren utilized all three of his souls—Heaven, Hell and Earth.

All three souls comprehended the Myriad Divine Lotus together and allowed him to swiftly deduce and simulate Immortal Technique after Immortal Technique.

Back at the outside world, the Sword Crown stood guard in front of the pool to prevent anyone interrupting Chu Kuangren's baptism. All of a sudden, a strange energy ripple come from the pool and then the spiritual qi of the realm was sucked towards the restriction seals.

"What is happening?" The Sword Crown was slightly surprised.

In fact, not only him, the several Immortals also noticed the unusual commotion.

"What is this?"

"What is happening inside the Immortal Ascension Pool?"

The Immortals exchanged a confused look before they released their Immortal Consciousness to try to sense what happened inside.

However, before their Immortal Consciousness could get near, they were stopped by the restriction seals set up by the Sword Crown.

“Hmph.” Sword intent filled the space and slashed all the Immortal Consciousness. The Sword Crown then grunted and said, “My master is having a baptism inside and yet you people tried to peek inside with your Immortal Consciousness. This is rude.”

“Sword Crown, what is going on inside?” asked one of the Immortals.

“This is none of your business,” the Sword Crown said coldly.

“Let’s observe for now,” said another Immortal.

Awhile later, mystical Daoist chimes started to echo. It was the sound of the Universal Path!

All the Immortals present were shocked, their pupils shrunk.

“This... Did Chu Kuangren create his own Immortal Technique inside?!”

“Isn’t this a baptism? How did it become a creation of Immortal Technique? He’s not even an Immortal, how could he create an Immortal Technique?”

“What is going on?”

The Immortals were confused, even the Sword Crown had no idea.

What is going on with his master inside the Immortal Ascension Pool.

Inside the Immortal Ascension Pool, Chu Kuangren absorbed the lake water to nourish the divine lotus.

Soon, a Proclamation Seal formed above his head, meaning he had successfully created his own Immortal Technique.

Awhile later, another Proclamation Seal appeared—the second Immortal Technique, success!

The divine lotus leveled up from grade one to grade three.

With his powerful cognizance and the help of the divine lotus, he created Immortal Technique one after another. Should this news get out, the entire Planquilon Immortal World would be shaken to its core.

Creating an Immortal Technique required tremendous effort even for an Immortal and it might fail in the process.

Then, the fourth, the fifth, the sixth...

In less than 10 days, Chu Kuangren already had 8 Proclamation Seals above his head, meaning he had created 8 Immortal Techniques!

“Boss is defying the laws of the world!” The little fox was stunned as she watched beside the lake.

The Immortal Ascension Pool was already dry, drained to its last drop of water.

Every drop of the water was absorbed by the Myriad Divine Lotus.

Suddenly, another Proclamation Seal appeared above his head.

Nine! Nine Immortal Techniques!

Some of the Immortals outside the Immortal Ascension Pool grew restless. They could feel the rich and mystical Daoist chimes echoing inside the pool. Countless spiritual qi gathered, golden lotuses bloomed from the ground and the phenomenon with the dragon and phoenix appeared again.

The commotion was far larger than a common Immortal creating his own Immortal Technique because it lasted for a full 10 days!

“No, I can’t wait anymore! I have to find out what Chu Kuangren is doing inside! What caused such a commotion!”

“Wait. He will eventually come out.”

For some reason, the Immortals present had a bad feeling about this. Something bad might happen soon.

“Huh? Something came,” one of the Immortals said as he took out a piece of jade scroll.

“The Holy City’s investigations are all here.”

He tossed the jade scroll into the air and it projected images and a large amount of words.

Soon, everyone knew what Chu Kuangren did after he arrived at the Immortal World.

“Judging from the investigation report, Chu Kuangren is indeed an foreigner, he should not have any background here in Planquilon Immortal World.”

“Then why would the Sword Crown be his follower?” asked one of the curious Immortals.

“Look at this. It says Chu Kuangren met the Sword Crown in Ancient Sparrow City and that time, the Sword Crown is just a distraught drunkard.”

One of the Immortals tapped on the images and it started to play. The drunkard shown in the images was none other than the Sword Crown’s old self.

They could not relate the drunkard in the projection to the unrivaled Sword Crown that reigned supreme for a time.

“We speculated that the Sword Crown was severely injured in that battle with Saber Crown and he ended up as a crippled. However, the Sword Crown we see here is at his prime, a true Sword Immortal. This all must have something to do with Chu Kuangren, maybe it’s him who helped the Sword Crown recover.”

“And it must be the reason the Sword Crown became his follower!” the Immortal of Holy City said confidently.

His words left the others in doubt.

"The Sword Crown is injured for many years. How did Chu Kuangren help him recover? Is he even capable of that?"

"Maybe he's a Medical Immortal?"

The Immortals were once again in disbelief.

A Medical Immortal was rare. In the current Planquilon Immortal World, they had not heard of any therapist reaching the levels of Medical Immortal.

"I know it's hard to believe but this is the only explanation why the Sword Crown follows Chu Kuangren. After discarding all the impossible speculations, this is what's left and no matter how unbelievable it sounds, it's the truth," the Immortal said.

The Immortal was from Holy City, named Nan Ke.

The rest started to believe his deduction.

"Chu Kuangren healed the Sword Crown and made him a follower. At least this is more acceptable than Chu Kuangren having some terrifying orthodoxies behind him. Anyway, since now we know why the Sword

Crown follows him, we don't need to have scruples anymore.

"He shall not be allowed to stay!" Nan Ke said coldly.

The King Immortal Progenies of Holy City were killed by Chu Kuangren and he would never let this go easily..

Chapter 970 Nine Proclamation Seals, I Drained It Dry, Five Immortals Strike

While the other Immortals were still discussing through their Immortal Consciousness, Nan Ke of Holy City had decided to deal with Chu Kuangren once and for all.

The others who shared the same thought were the Immortals of Holy Divine Fire Cult and Golden Ridge Temple.

As for the rest, no one said a word. Unlike Holy Divine Fire Cult and the other two immortal orthodoxies, the others barely had any conflict with Chu Kuangren, it was unnecessary to go up against the Sword Crown for someone they barely knew.

"I've always wanted to try your powers, Sword Crown," an Immortal with a long saber said.

He was the Immortal of Oceanic Sword Grave, the same orthodoxy as the Saber Crown.

Since the Saber Crown and the Sword Crown were nemeses, there was no way either side could walk away from this peacefully. Therefore, it was understandable that he would stand up against the Sword Crown and Chu Kuangren, who healed the Sword Crown.

“Count me in. The Great Yuan Divine Dynasty will join the battle but I have one request. After we kill Chu Kuangren, the girl behind him belongs to us,” said a middle-aged man in royal robes.

The man was the Immortal of the Great Yuan Divine Dynasty, the most respectable prince of the divine dynasty.

The girl that he was referring to was Lan Yu, who had acquired the inheritance from the strongest of the Winged Human tribe, the Radiant War Immortal Physique.

The other Immortals were intrigued when they heard it. How could they forget about this?

“The girl possesses the inheritance of the strongest Winged Human. Isn’t it a little over if you want to take the girl to yourself?”

“That’s right. We want the inheritance from the girl as well.”

Prince Yuan frowned. “If that’s the case, we can split the inheritance from the girl. As for the Moonlight Fox...”

“We want the Moonlight Fox as well.”

“Besides, Chu Kuangren holds a lot of secrets. After we kill him, we want his body back for research purposes.”

Before the Immortals even made their moves, they were already talking about how to split the spoils after killing Chu Kuangren.

To them, Chu Kuangren was like a walking treasure vault. The Moonlight Fox and Lan Yu alone were tempting enough, let alone the many source energies he possessed, the secret to the Phoenix Flame, and more.

It was tempting for the Immortals.

Inside the Immortal Ascension Pool, nine Proclamation Seals floated above Chu Kuangren’s head. He slowly opened his eyes and curled his lips into a satisfied smile.

“Grade nine lotus allowed me to master nine Immortal Techniques. The most important is not the Immortal Techniques but the nine Proclamation Seals.

“In addition to the two that I already have, I have eleven of them now. Together with the source energy, I’m even stronger than ever!”

He had a glance at the dried-up lake, or rather the giant crater, and chuckled. He got up and left.

Lan Yu attentively handed him the clothes. With a single thought, Spatial Conveyor Skill was activated and the clothes automatically wore themselves on him.

Lan Yu was slightly disappointed.

The Spatial Conveyor Skill was a convenient one but too bad it cut the chances for Lan Yu. She wanted to help wear the clothes so that she could have more chances to get close to him.

"Let's go," Chu Kuangren said.

Outside the Immortal Ascension Pool, the Immortals came to an accord.

"It has been decided," Nan Ke said.

After some serious discussion, they decided to split the spoils evenly.

Those who did not join the discussion or battle were slightly moved.

They were hesitating whether to join or not.

It was then that the restrictions outside the Immortal Ascension Pool shone.

Chu Kuangren came out with the ladies.

"He's finally here."

Killing intent was brazen in Nan Ke's eyes.

However, he frowned when he glanced behind Chu Kuangren. His pupils shrank and squealed in shock, "Where's the Immortal Ascension Pool?!"

His words shocked the other Immortals.

What was left behind Chu Kuangren was a giant crater. There was not a drop of lake water left.

The Immortal Ascension Pool was gone!

Now, not only the Immortals, everyone at the mountain peak reacted violently.

"Chu Kuangren! What happened? What happened to the Immortal Ascension Pool? Where did the water go?!"

"The pool is gone? Then what about us? We haven't started our baptism! What did Chu Kuangren do inside?"

"We should not have let him go in first!"

The Immortal Progenies were furious.

They came here for the Immortal Ascension Pool but now, not even a drop was left. No one was able to accept the disappointing fact.

They fought and waited for days and every piece of effort was thrown into the drain in the end.

"Chu Kuangren, explain yourself!" Yuan Wu of the Great Yuan Divine Dynasty bellowed.

The other Immortal Progenies glared at him.

"Pardon me. I've drained the Immortal Ascension Pool dry." Chu Kuangren did not plan to hide the fact at all. He chose to be honest with the people.

Simply taking a bath in the pool was not much of a gain to him.

The water could be used to nourish the Myriad Divine Lotus, why would he let this golden opportunity slip? Of course, he had to put the water into good use.

As for guilt or embarrassment, they were never an issue for him.

The Immortal Ascension Pool belonged to no one in the first place.

“Dry? You drained it dry?!”

His answer left everyone in utter shock.

The scale of the Immortal Ascension Pool was enough to allow all the Immortal Progenies to complete their baptism and yet Chu Kuangren drained all of it dry alone?!

What kind of sick joke was this?

“Rumors from the Ancient Immortal World talked about a titan draining a river dry but he’s no titan! How the hell did he suck all the water into his body?!”

“This is not funny! Even if he’s a titan, how much power must he possess to drain the 10 miles radius lake dry?!”

“Not even an Immortal could do it!”

Confusion, shock, and horror.

The Immortal Progenies glared at Chu Kuangren with mixed feelings. Regardless of their thoughts, the Immortal Ascension Pool dried up after Chu Kuangren came out was a fact.

Their rage almost erupted from their widened glare at Chu Kuangren.

“Chu Kuangren, you shall die today!” Yuan Wu bellowed with gnashing teeth.

Chu Kuangren had a glance. “What’s wrong? Wanna have a go?”

The Immortal Progenies were reminded of the earlier scene, how Chu Kuangren defeated all of them with a single move. Their hearts skipped a beat and the sudden discouragement killed their rage, forcing them to calm down.

No matter how furious they were, what could they possibly do about it? Fight Chu Kuangren face to face? Were they his match?

It was suicidal to go up against him.

“Chu Kuangren! You snatched other people’s Opportunities of Fortune! This is unforgivable!”

A cold voice sounded in the sky. Several figures came out from the void.

Terrifying Immortal aura swept across the mountain peak.

The Immortal Progenies were shocked but swiftly replaced by delight. They looked at Chu Kuangren with a grin, taking pleasure in his incoming misfortune.

“The Immortals are here! What Chu Kuangren did has angered them, and they are here to kill him! He’s dead for sure!”

“That’s right! He won’t escape even if he has nine lives now! Karma! It’s all karma!”

“Immortal Blazing Day from Holy Divine Fire Cult, Nan Ke of Holy City, Prince Yuan from Great Yuan Divine Dynasty and Frost Heaven Saber Immortal of Oceanic Sword Grave, the Jue Fa the Holy Monk of Golden Ridge Temples... God! There’s five of them!”

“Chu Kuangren is dead meat this time!”

The five Immortal’s Immortal’s Core released energy ripples that shook even the void. The space around the mountain peak was sealed off.

The Sword Crown wore a heavy look. He smiled coldly and said, “Five Immortals against an Immortal Progenies who hasn’t even started the Immortal Path? The few of you really bring shame to us Immortals.”

“Hmph! Not only Chu Kuangren, but we are also here for you as well, Sword Crown!” Frost Heaven Saber Immortal said coldly.

Sword Crown’s Immortal Core erupted. His sword intent skyrocketed as he confronted the five Immortals. “Oh, then let’s give it a try.”.
