Noelle had spent most of her life as a hitman , spy , and mercenary , all under the thumb of the man in the necklace Her upbringing had kept her in the dark about anything remotely related to feelings , and she had no concept of the social or moral rules that governed relationships .

So , do you get it now ? Nicolass voice sharpened slightly .

I wont mess around with other guys Nicolas sighed , seeing her still a little dazed .

His hand moved up to gently massage her forehead .

Good .

You said were engaged , so Im not supposed to mess around with other guys .

Fine .

But that means you cant mess around either .

Fairs fair ? Nicolas chuckled , unable to stop himself .

He didnt know why he felt so compelled to make these promises .

Logically , they didnt need to lock each other down like this .

But hearing her speak so seriously about it made him want to commit something he didnt expect .

He smirked , rulong her hair as he spoke , his voice softening with a mix of affection and amusement .

Dont worry , I wont mess around .

Oscar , who had been walking ahead , turned around and waved at them .

Nicolas raised a hand in acknowledgement and turned back to Noelle .

Lets go .

Well play the game first Time Noelle let out a sigh , her eather enthusiasm about the hunt now completely deflated .

everyone made their way to the designated spot .

The sound of a gunshot would mark the official start of the Under the guidance of the club staff , eve humi Theard there was this insanely strong team in the last round , Oscar said .

They wiped out all the other teams in under an hour No way ! Thats crazy ? Ophelia gasped , her eyes wide in disbelief .

She shifted closer to Celeste and whispered , Celeste , we need to be careful .

We dont want to get knocked out too quickly .

Of course Celeste nodded , her eyes scanning the group Her gaze fell on Noelle and Nicolas .

She noticed Noelles small hand still resting on Nicolass arm .

What have they been talking about earlier she wondered Noelle now looked utterly deflated , her energy completely gone .

Celeste figured it was probably just a case of a brief burst of enthusiasm .

And of course .

Nicolas was indulging her .

Come on , snap out of it Nicolas said , giving Noelle a little tug to pull her upright .

Noelle pouted , clearly upset that she couldnt do adult things for at least two more years .

Im not feeling it , she muttered , sinking even further into her slump .

Then at least try standing up properly ! I cant stand properly .

Then stop hanging on to mei Hmph , but I want to .

Nicolas suddenly realized how incredibly spoiled Noelle was .

Oscar overheard their conversation and couldnt resist teasing .

Nicolas , what did you two talk about back there ? Why is she suddenly so ... lifeles ? Its none of your business , Nicolas replied with a pointed look .

He didnt want Oscar poking around where he shouldnt .

Okay , fine .

Oscar raised his hands in mock surrender and took a few steps back At that moment , Declan , who had been quiet up to now , spoke up , noticing that the groups attention was starting to drift .

Alright , lets get focused here .

We need a plan are we going on the offensive , or are we selling up an ambush ! Obviously , we should go on the offensive ! Oscar said , eager for action .

The hunts no fun unless were actively going after the other teams ? But before he could finish , Nicolass voice cut in .

We should ambush .

Why ? Oscar asked , clearly confused .

2/3 Chapter 12 We missed the last round ? Nicolas explained calmly , so were not as familiar with the terrain as the other teams .

If we rush in blindly , we might get ambushed ourselves .

Its better to play it safe for now and hall our groundd Nicolays right , Declan said in agreement Ophicha raised her hand .

Tagree with Nicolaos plan ! Celeste quickly nodded .

Yeah , I think Niclas is right .

Ambushing seems like the safer het ? Oscar was taken aback .

Are you serious ? Four against one? Not giving up , he turned to Noelle , trying to get her on his side .

Noelle , what do you think ? Should we charge ahead , or should we set up an ambush ? Since Nicolas seemed to spoil her , if Noelle sided with him , he thought maybe Nicolas would be convinced to go on the offensive .

Noelle , still clinging to Nicolas , noticed the others were all staring at her .

She blinked lazily , then asked , What ? You guys didnt notice ? Notice what ? Oscar asked , still confused .

Noelle yawned , stretching a bit before casually saying , Weve already been ambushed .

She glanced around quickly , then added , There are seven ... no , wait , actually right .

Thats how many people are hiding around us right now .
