Although Leon was using just a small amount mana between the fights against the mermaids, his skills were leveling up like crazy . Even those that were past level one hundred .

‘I wonder if it is because I’m doing something difficult . . . ‘

Despite a few setbacks, Leon didn’t feel like stopping any time soon . Although he wasn’t progressing all that much to learn a new spell, he was being rewarded more than he could ask for . Still, it looked things wouldn’t improve just as he wanted . Perhaps in a few more days, Leon would learn something incredible, but suddenly Jertien appeared, and it looked like he brought bad news .

‘We have a problem . We will have to abandon our plan to strengthen ourselves,’ Jertien declared .

‘What happened?’ Leon asked .

‘I was worried as to why we didn’t find any angels lately, so instead of resting . I decided to investigate,’ Jertien explained . ‘On the central continent, I discovered that the angels and their leader are preparing for a ritual . ‘

‘ . . . What kind of ritual?’ Leon frowned .

‘I don’t know, but it is something massive,’ Jertien said . ‘They are creating a magic circle that is half of the size of the central continent . Their leader didn’t care about the disappearance of a few angels because he was killing every single monster that tried to destroy the magic circle . ‘

‘A magic circle, huh . . . ‘ Leon rubbed his chin . ‘I wonder how they can store mana to create a magic circle of the size of a continent . ‘

‘They are not using mana to create the magic circle, the circle is made of monsters’ blood,’ Jertien explained . ‘Most likely, they are going to sacrifice mana for whatever they are planning to do . Possibly the entire world’s mana is going to be sacrificed, and we don’t know what might happen if the planet suddenly loses all its mana . ‘

‘Now that I think about it, I don’t know much about magic circles . Well, it is not like I can learn about just by thinking or defeating monsters . . . ‘

Leon and Jertien returned to their hideout, and there they found everyone in silence and showing worried expressions .

‘ . . . We will attack the central continent tonight,’ Jorhorn declared . ‘Rest while you can because this battle will be long . ‘

‘How many angels are we going to face?’ Alurelle asked .

‘That is a difficult question, I didn’t observe them for long, nor did I checked all the magic circle,’ Jertien frowned . ‘But . . . ‘

‘Just say it,’ Jorhorn said .

‘If I had to guess . . . I would say the enemies are one hundred thousand strong,’ Jertien said . ‘Perhaps a bit more . . . I’m not really worried about their numbers . I’m worried about how mad their leader will become once we destroy the thing he has been planning for decades . ‘

Facing an army of one hundred thousand humans and facing an army of one hundred thousand angels were two different things, so Leon was worried . Besides, their leader seemed far more dangerous, and if he gets mad, he will become even more dangerous .

‘Don’t worry . We didn’t have enough time to grow strong as we planned,’ Jorhorn said . ‘But we can take that bastard down if we work together . ‘

‘Aren’t we missing something here?’ Ismenria asked . ‘What if they are planning to do the same thing on the other planets?’

‘Even if they are... we can only fight them here,’ Genelosa answered . ‘This battle will be long, and we will probably use a lot of mana stored on Soul Eater . I doubt that at the end of the battle, if we survive, we will have enough to start another battle on another planet . ‘

‘Tsk . ‘ Ismenria clicked her tongue and looked away, annoyed .

‘... Perhaps we don’t have to worry about that,’ Alurette said . ‘Remember, the angels invaded all six planets... so, maybe, they need to do this in all six planets for them to succeed . ‘

‘Mmm... there is a chance that you are right,’ Jertien nodded . ‘If they needed only one world, invading a single planet would make things progress much faster . ‘

‘That is a possibility,’ Jorhorn said . ‘Anyway, like I said . Rest while you can, we will depart soon . ‘

Leon wondered why those guys weren’t curious about what the angels were planning to do, creating such a magic circle . They only wanted to destroy it, and even though it was reasonable, their lack of curiosity wasn’t .

‘Using the mana of an entire world is crazy, but using the mana of six worlds on the third stage of assimilation ? What the hell the angels are planning to do with so much power ?‘

Novel Chapter 332

Chapter 332: 332

Even at night, the angels were working non-stop . Leon had already thought that before, but they looked more like zombies or machines when they were working or fighting . They didn't consider things like a numerical disadvantage, and in most cases, the only option they could see was to fight .

Regardless, the magic circle had already been created . The angels engraved the circle on the earth and added some sort of paint that wouldn't let the land absorb the monsters' blood . At the moment, they were just adding blood to that paint on the ground .

‘So, that is how they are preventing the blood from being absorbed . . . ‘

Leon and the harvesters were flying high on the sky because they were planning to attack the points where the angels were still working . If they wanted to succeed, they had to kill as many angels as they could before their boss shows up . The best way to do that would be to attack the places the angels were in and move on using Leon’s Transfer .

‘Let’s go,’ Jorhorn said .

It was another cloudy night, so even after the harvesters became gigantic and fell toward the place where the angels were working, they didn’t notice their presence . Leon imagined that the central continent would be the only place he would find some signs of civilization, in the end, he only found remains of destroyed cities buried by plants and grass . . . there was nothing to see . It looks like the angels and nature itself had destroyed everything the harvesters’ built along the last five hundred years .

Inglar fell in the middle of the enemy like usual and created a shockwave of flames, despite that, everyone fell nearby and received some damage thanks to his attack . Unfortunately, that couldn’t be helped because there was no room for mistake, and some sacrifices had to be made .

This time, Ivolaer waited for Jertien to attack, making several Ice Meteors fall, and then Genelosa froze all the ground in a five hundred meter radius . With that much ice and the fire that Inglar created, the battlefield was now full of water, and Ivolaer finally attacked . The harvesters started to float to escape that terrific combination of spells . Meanwhile, the angels got burned to a crisp .

‘I guess my job is to look for loot again . . . ‘

Leon gladly did that, but unfortunately, as soon as Jorhorn destroyed a massive part of the magic circle using his earth magic, they started to fly and joined Leon . After using Transfer and reappearing above the clouds, the harvesters returned to their standard size . . . Leon’s job was to carry their gear using Telekinesis, Gravity, and using Transfer . Again, he felt like a servant, but since he was holding Soul Eater and leveling up all of those, he decided not to complain out loud .

It didn’t take long before they could find another point where they found hundreds of angels working, but they couldn’t just avoid a few hundred and hope that the battles would get more comfortable later .

‘This is going to take forever,’ Ismenria said .

‘Yes,’ Genelosa added . ‘Even if we use Transfer to escape, I bet that bastard will be able to chase us . . . if he manages to see us . ‘

‘We can speed up things if we split our group,’ Jorhorn said . ‘However, that will also mean that we will lose our advantage against their leader . We can’t afford to do that, so just keep working fast and just shut up . ‘

Leon wondered if things wouldn’t get easier if Jertien just creates a massive Ice Meteor and then let it fall on the center of the continent . The angel boss was probably there, and it would be the easiest way to kill him . But that probably wouldn’t be possible if he obtained that skill by the spirit of ice instead of learning alone . The same thing could be applied to Jorhorn, even though he could manipulate and create the earth, and also had Soul Steal at his disposal, he wouldn’t be able to use it efficiently, since the bigger the projectile, the more mana he would have to spend to keep it under his control .

The harvesters attacked several other points, and despite the number of angels in those beings relatively small, they killed ten thousand angels in just one hour . Although Leon didn’t obtain a single coin, since his job was to use Transfer in case something happens, he got a nice reward .

Congratulations! You have learned the skill: Ice Beam .

Cost: 50 mana per second

You obtained 01 status points .

‘I guess this is the ice version of Flamethrower . . . hehe, this will be very useful . ‘

Perhaps it would be even more useful than Thunder Ray . After all, Leon could freeze his opponents and use their spirits instead of burning them to a crisp . That way, he would be able to train several skills like Magic Craft and Magic Blacksmith, he needed to train those as much as he can because he didn't have time in the last months to improve his mithril telescope .

‘To level it up faster, I will use it in combination with Thunder Ray . Although the cost of mana will be insane, that way, I will increase the power of Thunder Ray . ‘

That was Leon's plan for the future, but it looked like he would use much sooner . Leon's job was also to observe the surroundings, and thanks to that, he saw a beam of light approaching at an unbelievable speed . The creature appeared in the middle of the battlefield, and Leon only noticed moments later . . . that creature definitely used the inverse of Dark Aura . . . it used Light Aura .

Putting that aside, Leon couldn't help but frown while looking at the boss of the angels . That one was very different from the others . His wings didn't feel out of place on his back . . . that one looked like a real angel . . .

The angel looked at Leon, annoyed, and only his eyes made him feel shivers . It had been a long time since Leon felt fazed by so much bloodlust, but despite all that, the angel didn't move and then looked at Jorhorn and his friends . The angel looked at Leon even more annoyed this time . . . as Leon had expected, the creature was losing mana since it was also using Menta Armor to protect its status from being identified . As much as Leon wanted to decrease the monster's mana, he didn't want to annoy the creature to the point and make it its first target . So, he stopped .

'So, you seven escaped . . . ' The angel muttered . 'And return after a few years . . . just because a single human is helping you . '

Ivolaer swung his sword and sent a massive Thunder Wave toward the angel, but the creature turned into a sphere of light and moved toward Ivolaer . However, it stopped the very moment it got hit by Jertien's hammer . Despite suffering the full impact of his attack on his gigantic shape, the angel didn't move an inch and was holding back the hammer without breaking a sweat .

'This is really mithril . . . ' The angel frowned . 'Where did you guys find so much ? I thought we collected all the mithril this world could produce . . . '

Since the creature was busy thinking about everyone's weapons, Leon decided to use Appraisal non-stop sneakily . He needed to level up that skill faster, and the angel that could counter Appraisal was the best option for him to do that . However, that made the angel looked at Leon with vicious eyes . The creature turned into its light sphere form and flew toward Leon, but he used Transfer and hid behind Jorhorn . That wasn't a joke, that thing could kill Leon in an instant, even if his Mana Armor protects him for two or three hits, it wouldn't be enough .

'Come to think of it . . . I don't have to worry, as long as I have Soul Eater with me, I probably won't die instantly . '

Despite that, Leon couldn't get careless . Even if it has a massive supply of mana, thanks to Soul Eater, eventually, the angel would notice and find a way to deal with it .

‘Transfer . . . I see now how you survived and escaped,’ The angel muttered .

The angel tried to use Appraisal on Leon, but he got countered and opened his eyes widely . Leon felt like smirking, but decided not to do so . . . it was better to annoy an opponent when the opponent was beatable .

‘Weapons and equipment made of mithril . . . ‘ The angel muttered . ‘ After a few years, you guys now return with the help of a single human . . . I guess
I don’t have any other choice . ‘

The angel raised his right hand and then caused an explosion of light, Leon hoped to receive some damage, but it looked like its goal was just to buy time . The creature disappeared . . . it ran away, and it took a few moments everyone to understand that .

‘Let’s chase the bastard!’ Jorhorn said, or he will call his allies!’

Everyone approached Leon, and then he used Transfer toward the center of the continent . Every second, they moved dozens of kilometers, so it took only a few minutes before they could reach the angels’ dungeon . It was in the middle of a ruined city . It made Leon recall the city he saw in the lower world of Miebos . However, instead of observing the destroyed city, Leon saw several angels running toward the dungeon .

‘The son of a bitch escaped . . . ‘ Jorhorn clicked his tongue . ‘ Kill all the angels! Don’t try to save your mana!’

That wasn't a joke, that thing could kill Leon in an instant, even if his Mana Armor protects him for two or three hits, it wouldn't be enough .

Come to think of it . . . I don't have to worry, as long as I have Soul Eater with me, I probably won't die instantly .

Despite that, Leon couldn't get careless . Even if it has a massive supply of mana, thanks to Soul Eater, eventually, the angel would notice and find a way to deal with it .

Transfer . . . I see now how you survived and escaped, The angel muttered . However, I don't think any of you could have obtained so much mana to go to Earth . . . so where did you find a human ?

The angel tried to use Appraisal on Leon, but he got countered and opened his eyes widely . Leon felt like smirking, but decided not to do so . . . it was better to annoy an opponent when the opponent was beatable .

Weapons and equipment made of mithril . . . The angel muttered . After a few years, you guys now return with the help of a single human . . . I guess I dont have any other choice .

The angel raised his right hand and then caused an explosion of light, Leon hoped to receive some damage, but it looked like its goal was just to buy time . The creature disappeared . . . it ran away, and it took a few moments everyone to understand that .

Lets chase the bastard! Jorhorn said, or he will call his allies!

Everyone approached Leon, and then he used Transfer toward the center of the continent . Every second, they moved dozens of kilometers, so it took only a few minutes before they could reach the angels dungeon . It was in the middle of a ruined city . It made Leon recall the city he saw in the lower world of Miebos . However, instead of observing the destroyed city, Leon saw several angels running toward the dungeon .

The son of a bitch escaped . . . Jorhorn clicked his tongue . Kill all the angels!
Dont try to save your mana!

After giving the order that made him sound like the evil last boss of an RPG, Jorhorn made Earth Spikes rain over the destroyed city . He didn't hold back, so dozens of angels got impaled .

'Hah! Now we are talking!' Ivolaer licked his lips and started to cut to pieces every single creature nearby .

Making good use of Soul Eater, Leon attacked using Thunder Ray and Ice Beam . Surprisingly, the combo of those skills was far more potent than Leon had imagined . Using both of them for twenty seconds was enough to kill most angels . . . at least those who didn't try to fight .

Unfortunately, without holding back . Jorhorn soon had to take Soul Eater out of Leon's hands . But he was more than satisfied with the result . He managed to level up Ice Beam up to level forty, after all .

A random angel tried to attack Leon, who was keeping a safe distance from them, but it died before it could even move a few meters . Ice Beam slowed them down, and Thunder Ray made them twist in agony . . . that could be considered torture, but Leon didn't hesitate in exterminating the things that looked at him as if he was a dirty dog .

'I'm using too much mana . . . '

Leon had an idea, instead of frying them fast, he decided to turn the angels into an ice statue and then recover his mana by killing them using the mithril spear of the devourers, he lost some time doing that . Still, at least he didn't have to leave the battlefield .

Despite the absolute power the harvesters could show, it took two days before they could eliminate all angels that were working on that magic circle . Those who weren't on the center of the continent had to join the battle later, so that was why it lasted for so long . However, since they weren't concentrated and didn't attack at the same time, Leon and the others won . Even if they have absolute power, if they couldn't keep using the skills non-stop to kill all the angels, it wouldn't grant them the victory .

‘Hehehe, and we still have to collect the loot . . .

Leon’s smile disappeared from his face when he saw Genelosa standing and looking at the remainings of what once had been a megacity . She was looking at everything as if she missed that scenery but didn’t recognize anything .

‘The hell am I am doing . . . why getting excited about things like status points . . . they won’t mean a thing unless I return to Earth soon . ‘

Every one of them was more powerful than Leon, but what was the use of their power if they didn’t manage to protect their worlds ? That question was probably the reason none of them didn’t treat Leon like someone pathetic . Inglar and Ivolaer were pretty wild and liked to fight, but they weren’t drunk on their own power because they felt powerless like never before when they fled from their respective worlds .

After making a mental note not to fall for that false sense of confidence, Leon started to look for the spoils of war, that was something that it would be foolish to ignore . After all, the angel fled, but everyone was pretty sure he would return with his friends . . .

With a single exception, all tomes and magic items that the angels dropped were pretty much subpar, or at least Leon already knew them . However, even though he was pretty sure that tome didn't drop by an angel he killed, Leon obtained a new spell .

'That bastard probably is heading to reunite with his allies . . . ' Jorhorn said, visibly annoyed . 'Now, we will have to face them all at once . '

‘Can’t we just fill the dungeon with earth, ice, or something to prevent them from using it?’ Alurelle asked .

‘We can, but I doubt that will stop them,’ Jorhorn answered . ‘They probably can travel through outer space in that light form . Most likely, they won’t use the dungeons to reach us . If this magic circle is necessary for them and they are doing the same thing on other planets . Then, they will come in the next few days . ‘

‘I don’t think they will . . . ‘ Jertien said . ‘They know that we can use Transfer and have enough mana to reach the nearby planets . Most likely, they will prepare a trap to stop us from escaping first . ‘

That would be the easiest way to deal with Leon and the harvesters at the same time, but it looked like they would have to use one hell of a spell to stop Leon using Transfer from any point of the Celosie . . .

Novel Chapter 335

Chapter 335: 335

Leon's last option was to run away in case things turn south . Still, he couldn't let the angels prevent him from using Transfer . That would be very troublesome in many ways . . .

'That kind of thing will take a while to prepare . . . ' Leon said . 'Shouldn't we visit the world where we will find Volt ? I think that extra power can help us . '

'No,' Jorhorn said .

' . . . Why not ? ' Leon frowned .

' . . . Most likely, the angels know that we might use the spirit of thunder to help us,' Jertien explained . 'We can't obtain Volt's power, but you can, so the angels will protect the place where Volt's fragment is . Just like they will protect the places where the other magic circles are . '

'Is that so . . . ' Leon said and then looked at every one of the harvesters in the eye .

It had been the first time Leon looked at them like that at the same time . Despite that, they didn't show any emotion . Only Alurette avoided meeting Leon's eyes .

'I guess it can't be helped . . . ' Leon shrugged . 'What is the plan, then ?'

'There is nothing for us to do but keep strengthening ourselves,' Jorhorn explained . 'If they will find a way to lock us on this planet, then that will work for us because they won't have the chance to escape in case something happens . Besides, this is a big opportunity if we face them directly and defeat them, then our worlds will be ours again . ‘

All in all, Jorhorn wanted to give the angels the last battle they wanted . They wanted to face the angels directly all at once, but they didn't want to provide Leon with the opportunity to obtain a boost in power . They were hiding something . . . Jertien's words made sense, but Leon still felt that something was being kept hidden from him . Perhaps they killed Volt as well and didn't obtain any power from it, or maybe Volt wouldn't give Leon any power because he worked with the harvesters and they killed Volt's friends . . . or relatives . It was hard to be sure what kind of relationship the spirits had .

‘Well, it doesn't really matter . . . ‘

Since he didn't have much choice at the moment, he decided to follow the harvesters, but not for much longer . The angels wouldn't appear from the dungeon nearby for a while, but the number of dungeons on the central continent was even higher than on the northern continent . So, Leon and harvesters didn't have to take turns in clearing those places . However, instead of looking for a dungeon, Leon approached the point of the magic circle and used Mana-Eater . Just as he had expected . . . he felt traces of mithril there, small particles could be felt . So, he recovered some of his mana .

‘I guess this will do . . . I don't have to worry about noise, so shall I train Spinning Earth Arrow, Explosive Fire Arrow, and Fast-Conjuration, or shall I keep training Thunder Ray and Ice Beam ? Why not both ?‘

‘The angels won’t come for a while, right?’ Leon asked . ‘In that case, I’m going to look for a dungeon . ‘

Jorhorn had the tower in his miniaturized form with him, so they wouldn’t need Leon for the time being . Finally, he had some freedom, and he decided to leave without waiting for an answer . Since the magic circle was the size of half of the continent, it didn’t take long for Leon to find a dungeon that was close to some marks of the magic circle, and there he found a new type of monster . . . Hellhounds .

Hellhound

Health: 15000/15000

Mana: 13000/13000

Stamina: 16000/16000

Strength: 1450

Dexterity: 950

Passive Skills: Wind Resistance Lv 290, Fire Resistance Lv 350, Earth Resistance Lv 250, Rage Lv 310, Fire Absorption Lv 330, Pyromancy Lv 300

‘Is that a hellhound?’

Leon couldn't help but frown while looking at the creature, instead of flesh, it looked like the creature was made of shadows . . . its eyes were basically a red glow amidst the darkness . Regardless, probably because Leon leveled up a lot Appraisal, but now he could see some extra skills and some status of the opponent . As a mage, it couldn't be helped that he would have some low status like strength and speed, but the fact that such a monster had so much speed was insane . . . it could have even more if the beast weren't absurdly so strong .

‘It is a fire type monster . . . let's see how well can handle Thunder Ray and Ice Beam . ‘

Since it worked against the angel, Leon thought it would be a piece of cake defeat the hellhounds . . . he couldn't be more wrong . The very moment Leon used both spells, the creature jumped to the side and avoided the spells . Leon tried to follow them, but his attacks never hit the mark . The beast was fifty meters away from Leon, his magic projectiles could fly that distance in 0 . 1 seconds, but the creature was fast enough to dodge them . The hellhound could run around Leon indefinitely and would never get hit . . .

‘ . . . I guess this is the true power of monsters of a world that is on the third stage of assimilation has . . . ‘

Attacking like that was a waste of time, so Leon stopped Thunder Ray and Ice Beam . The very moment Leon did that, the hellhound charged . However, that was within Leon's expectations . So, he used Thunder Ray and Ice Beam again, freezing and electrocuting the creature at the same time .

'I'm not the right person to say this, but . . . you are just a bit smarter than the angels,' Leon said .

Leons last option was to run away in case things turn south . Still, he couldnt let the angels prevent him from using Transfer . That would be very troublesome in many ways . . .

‘Hello, Leon,’ Jertien said . ‘I came to ask why the angel looked annoyed at you so many times . It is because you obtained a skill to counter Appraisal ?‘

‘I don't remember learning such a skill,’ Leon frowned . ‘I only recently learned a spell that can counter some illusionary spells and mental attacks . ‘

‘Is that so?’ Jertien asked . ‘It seems to me such skill also can counter Appraisal . Can you give a few pointers, I think such a skill will be handy against the angels . ‘

‘Sure, but how about you teach me something useful first?’ Leon asked .
‘That way, we will be able to help each other . ‘

‘I guess you are quite angry because we didn’t fulfill our end of the bargain,’ Jertien rubbed his chin . ‘Well, that is easy . . . how about I teach you some spells that may help you defeat Jorhorn? Truth to be told, he gets on my nerves too . ‘

‘Nah, I don’t need something like that,’ Leon said . ‘It doesn’t have to be something powerful . If it is useful, I’m fine with it . ‘

‘I’m pretty sure a spell that can help you defeat Jorhorn would be very useful . . . ‘ Jertien frowned . ‘Well, it is your choice then . How about I teach you a spell that I developed after I obtained the power of Celsius . The name of the spell is Ice Trap, you pour your mana into a place, and then a spike of ice will pierce the opponent the moment he steps on it . ‘

‘So, the name of the spirit of ice really is Celsius . . . ‘ Leon said . ‘Well, I’m fine with Ice Trap . How can I learn?’

‘It is very simple, just pour your mana into any place on the ground and try to create the runes,’ Jertien created two small sculptures of ice that had the shape of a Z and upside down R . ‘Put those above each other while your pour your mana and you will learn it . ‘

Leon couldn't help but frown . Although those were supposed to be runes and were very different from the ones Leon had to create in order to create a Checkpoint, he did so, anyway .

Congratulations! You have learned the skill: Ice Trap .

'How did you discover that you could use Ice Trap like this ?' Leon asked .

I dont remember learning such a skill, Leon frowned . I only recently learned a spell that can counter some illusionary spells and mental attacks .

Is that so ? Jertien asked . It seems to me such skill also can counter Appraisal . Can you give a few pointers, I think such a skill will be handy against the angels .

Sure, but how about you teach me something useful first ? Leon asked . That way, we will be able to help each other .

I guess you are quite angry because we didnt fulfill our end of the bargain, Jertien rubbed his chin . Well, that is easy . . . how about I teach you some spells that may help you defeat Jorhorn ? Truth to be told, he gets on my nerves too .

Nah, I dont need something like that, Leon said . It doesnt have to be something powerful . If it is useful, Im fine with it .

Im pretty sure a spell that can help you defeat Jorhorn would be very useful . . . Jertien frowned . Well, it is your choice then . How about I teach you a spell that I developed after I obtained the power of Celsius . The name of the spell is Ice Trap, you pour your mana into a place, and then a spike of ice will pierce the opponent the moment he steps on it .

So, the name of the spirit of ice really is Celsius . . . Leon said . Well, Im fine with Ice Trap . How can I learn ?

It is very simple, just pour your mana into any place on the ground and try to create the runes, Jertien created two small sculptures of ice that had the shape of a Z and upside down R . Put those above each other while your pour your mana and you will learn it .

Leon couldnt help but frown . Although those were supposed to be runes and were very different from the ones Leon had to create in order to create a Checkpoint, he did so, anyway .

Congratulations! You have learned the skill: Ice Trap .

Cost: 30 mana

You obtained 01 status points .

You actually learned on the first try . . . Jertien frowned .

How did you discover that you could use Ice Trap like this? Leon asked .

I just saw those runes in a temple on another world, Jertien explained . I saw some gravures that made me think of Celsius, so I decided to try .

Novel Chapter 337

Chapter 337: 337

Would someone try to replicate a rune they just found? The answer was yes, if that someone was pretty insane . Jertien passed the image of a wise old man, but it looked like that wasn't one hundred percent true . Regardless, Leon taught Jertien how to learn Mind Armor, too .

'Are you sure is that how you learned?' Jertien frowned .

'Yep, did you try that before?' Leon asked . 'Maybe you should put more mana in your brain . '

Leon imagined that Jertien and the others would quickly learn, even if that was the case, that only help Leon in the future . However, it looked like they tried before, but didn't succeed .

'Now that I think about it, perhaps skills have certain requirements . . . for example, to learn Ghost Punch someone would have to have at least fifty points of stamina since that was the cost of the skill . Considering that Jertien has a lot of mana, perhaps to activate the trigger and learn Mind Armor, he also would have to learn Mana Armor, or have Mana Armor at a certain level . . . '

That was a possibility, but that kind of thing he didn't have to answer or explain because no one asked .

'I will give it a try later,' Jertien said . 'Well, I'm going . I also need to work hard and get stronger while I can . '

After Jertien left, Leon started to wonder if those guys' brains had rotted after so many years . Their intentions were clear; most likely, they didn't intend to help Leon after they deal with angels . If they succeed, they won't have time to help a creature of another planet, even though that same creature was pivotal for them . Jorhorn was the leader of the group, but he was stupid to the point where he couldn't hide his hatred and bloodlust . He hated beings of other worlds since one of the many destroyed his world, family, and friends, but he hated Leon even more because he almost killed Alurelle .

'I gave them plenty of chances and helped them without receiving anything in exchange . . . if that is the path they want to follow, then so be it . I'm tired of this crap . . . I don't mind if they plan to get rid of me after solving this problem, but treat me like a dead brain for so long is annoying beyond reason . '

Leon knew from the very first moment he saw Jorhorn that he would never become an ally . Despite that, they had things that could help Leon in the long run . Knowledge and technology were one of them, and that was why Leon did his part and made himself useful, but it was time to stop the acting .

If Plasma Bullet was much smaller but consumed one-third of the mana Magma Spear consumed, then the potential of the skill was there . However, since that was the case, Leon couldn't afford to learn other forms of attacks by combining elements . To maximize the potential of that skill, Leon had to learn different spells that consumed less mana and level up them to obtain status points, and he felt quite satisfied after doing that for a month .

Although some spells, he learned with more ease thanks to Pyromancy and Geomancy, Leon leveled them up until the level twenty just for the status points . He wasn't in a world where such skills could be useful, after all .

‘Well, not bad considering that I also leveled up other skills while I was fighting against the hellhounds . . . but seriously, not a single tome? Again? I'm wearing a ring that increases my luck, damn it! I can't believe even that is useless on my hands . . . ‘

‘ . . . Again, huh . ‘

Such a thing happened a few times in the last month . It was clear that one of the harvesters was trying to use Appraisal on Leon from a place he couldn't see . It was so evident that it was stupid . Still, Leon had to act as if nothing had happened . He couldn't reveal that countering Appraisal required quite a lot of mana .

Considering that they spent twenty years creating a magic circle on that planet, it was hard to be sure when the angels would prepare the method to lock Leon and the harvesters on that world . In Leon's head, one month was more than enough . But it was hard to be sure of that . . . angels were sentient beings that were even older than the harvesters, after all . However, even if they know the method, they couldn't prepare such large scale spell so fast .

‘I guess my current arsenal can handle most of the enemies I will face . . . the problem is how to keep myself alive . I’m, without a doubt, the easiest target of this group . So, the angels will try to get rid of me first . . . to increase my chances of survival; I will have to keep Haste active at all times . So, I guess from now on, I will only practice Haste and Plasma Bullet . ‘

It was apparent that Soul Eater wouldn’t stay on his hands on the battle against the angels, so Leon would have to use Haste to save some mana and keep himself alive . Transfer was useful, but it wasn’t something Leon could use for an undetermined amount of time against six enemies that could move faster than his eyes can see .

‘Some points in speed will help me with that, and since Haste will multiply those by two hundred percent, then I don’t have to put so many . It will also be complicated if my speed suddenly increased, but I’m not used to it . ‘

Leon had several sets of mithril rings that he could increase his status according to the situation, but since they could only duplicate his current status, he had no choice but to do that .

In the blink of an eye, another month passed . Haste reached level two hundred, and Plasma Bullet reached level one hundred . That was good, and all, but Leon was getting impatient again . Getting stronger was good, but that wasn't his goal . Besides, waiting for such a blatant attack was wearing his nerves .

‘Why are they taking their sweet time ? Don't those idiots understand that they are giving us time to get stronger ?‘

It was insane to give time to the enemy to get stronger and prepare themselves, Leon knew that they were making a spell or relic that would prevent them from leaving the world, but that was insane . They were that were most likely one thousand years old, perhaps even more . . . and they even had the numbers . While Leon was waiting anxiously . . . several months passed and before he could notice, he was thirty years old .

Chapter 339: 339

‘Thirty years old, huh . . . ‘ Leon sighed . ‘Oh boy . . . should I feel old ? My lifespan probably increased thanks to mana, but it doesn’t change the fact the weight of those words . . . ‘

Six months passed since the last time Leon saw an angel, it was clear that eventually, they would return, but he couldn’t wait anymore . So, he headed back to the harvesters to give his farewell . For a change, the harvesters were eating together .

‘Hey, I came to say goodbye,’ Leon declared . ‘Until now, I haven’t received all that much from helping you guys, and I can’t waste time waiting for you guys enemies . So, I guess it is time to go our separate ways . ‘

The harvesters looked at each other and talked using their own eyes . Leon didn't have time to waste, waiting for their answer . So, he just turned around and prepared himself to leave . However, he felt shivers when he heard the familiar sound of the harvesters getting bigger and heavier .

‘So, it is going to be like that . . . ‘

Leon prepared himself, but he was forced to stop and turned around again when he heard the sound of wings flapping . The harvesters also turned around and saw the angels . . . they were back, and the final battle was about to begin .

‘Ah, come on . . . Really ? Now of all times ?‘

That had to be a bad joke, Leon spent the last week making preparations to go to Celosie alone using Transfer and everything, but now that he looked at the sky, he saw it turning into red . He had no choice but to fight .

Without care, everyone started to attack the numerous angels that were leaving the dungeon, it looked like a dungeon break, but it was weird since the angels themselves couldn't cause that . . . Most likely, the generals of the angels' army also found a way to control the connection between worlds .

Regardless, since Leon didn't need to help the harvesters since their massive attacks were powerful enough to kill most angels, he decided to kill those that managed to survive . Combining Haste, Gravity, and Fly, Leon could fly even faster than the angels, and he used that to approach one of them by behind and stab the creature with the Mithril Spear of the Devourers . After recovering the mana spent and finishing a random wounded angel, Leon flew to attack the next target .

‘Be careful with the small one,’ The sword-wielding angel said . ‘He has more than a few tricks up his sleeve . ‘

‘I can see that,’ The angel wielding a staff said .

‘Ismenria, kill the angels who leave the dungeon,’ Jorhorn declared . ‘The others will work with me to kill those bastards . ‘

‘Why me again . . . ‘ Ismenria said, annoyed . ‘I want to kill them too . ‘

Leon wondered if he should give Ismenria a hand . In the end, even if Ismenria can kill hundreds of those every second, eventually, she would have to retrieve her arrows, and they would become a nuisance for the big battle . Keep attacking the entrance of the dungeon wasn’t an option, so Leon decided to create several layers of Magma Wall in front of it . The angels barely felt the power of the walls, but it slowed down a little bit .

It was hard to keep his eyes on all six angels at the same time, so Leon decided to fly upward in order to see the entire battlefield . Fortunately, the impatient Ivolaer helped him with that, the moment Leon started to move, he pointed his sword to the skies, and several thunderclouds appeared . . . it didn't take long before lightning bolts began to fall . The six angels managed to fly and avoid those, but the same couldn't be said to the ordinary angels, or the harvesters and Leon .

'You idiot!' Jertien shouted . 'Control your power more! What is the point of damaging your friends?'

Luckily, Ivolaer wasn't a mage, and Leon was with his Mana Armor activated, so he didn't suffer any damage . As for the others, they only suffered some scratches, their helmets made of mithril protected them .

I can see that, The angel wielding a staff said .

Ismenria, kill the angels who leave the dungeon, Jorhorn declared . The others will work with me to kill those bastards .

Why me again . . . Ismenria said, annoyed . I want to kill them too .

Leon wondered if he should give Ismenria a hand . In the end, even if Ismenria can kill hundreds of those every second, eventually, she would have to retrieve her arrows, and they would become a nuisance for the big battle . Keep attacking the entrance of the dungeon wasnt an option, so Leon decided to create several layers of Magma Wall in front of it . The angels barely felt the power of the walls, but it slowed down a little bit .

It was hard to keep his eyes on all six angels at the same time, so Leon decided to fly upward in order to see the entire battlefield . Fortunately, the impatient Ivolaer helped him with that, the moment Leon started to move, he pointed his sword to the skies, and several thunderclouds appeared . . . it didnt take long before lightning bolts began to fall . The six angels managed to fly and avoid those, but the same couldnt be said to the ordinary angels, or the harvesters and Leon .

You idiot! Jertien shouted . Control your power more! What is the point of damaging your friends?

Luckily, Ivolaer wasnt a mage, and Leon was with his Mana Armor activated, so he didnt suffer any damage . As for the others, they only suffered some scratches, their helmets made of mithril protected them .

Novel Chapter 340

Chapter 340: 340

With much more precision, Jertien made Ice Meteors fall on the battlefield . Still, despite their speed, it wasn't enough to hit the six angels . So, Leon decided to give a hand and increase gravity around them .

‘Huh . . . this is . . . ‘ The spear-wielding angel frowned .

‘It is him,’ The bow-wielding angel said . ‘The power is weak but extremely precise . ‘

‘Malahk, you didn’t get rid of him when you have the chance,’ The whip-wielding angel said . ‘It is your job to get rid of him . Once you deal with him, we deal with the rest . . . it looks like he consumed a good part of the mana of the magic circle, he destroyed your work . So, you are the best suited to deal with him . ‘

Malahk was the angel Leon saw before, and it looked like he was even angrier after noticing that Leon consumed the mana of the magic circle . Unfortunately, it looked like no one wanted to give Leon a hand . . . if anything, they were glad that their battle would become seven against five, instead of seven against six . . .

‘Oh, boy . . . ‘ Leon sighed .

The moment Malahk became a sphere of light, Leon canceled Gravity and activated Haste, soon before he used Transfer and finished off an angel that was leaving the dungeon and consumed his mana . Although Leon did that in half a second, the sphere of light was already close by when he killed the angel .

‘Tsk . . . ‘ Leon clicked his tongue .

Leon used Transfer again and reappeared several kilometers above the battlefield . Despite that, Malahk covered that distance in just ten seconds . . .

‘That is insane, how can he move like that without suffering any damage?’

Still, despite that, Leon noticed one very interesting thing . In that form, Malahk could only move in straight lines . If he had to change directions, he had to stop . . . Although he was fast, his brain couldn’t react at the same speed .

‘This far should be enough . . . ‘

Leon shot five Plasma Bullets toward Malahk, the angel didn’t even try to dodge, so it got directly, but he regretted that choice .

‘What . . . this is . . . ‘ Malahk murmured after returning to his original form .

Leon frowned, it looked like he couldn’t keep the sphere form if he receives some damage . Regardless, Leon didn’t waste that golden chance and attacked the confused Malahk again with Plasma Bullet .

Malahk blocked Leon’s attacks, but he was forced to back down thanks to the power behind them . Since Leon used a lot of mana, he returned to the dungeon and killed a few more angels to recover his mana .

‘ . . . Why does he keep returning and killing our servants?’ The bow-wielding angel frowned . ‘What Malahk is doing?’

Leon frowned when he heard that it wasn’t obvious? One just has to use Analysis, and they would see what Leon’s spear could do .

‘Could it be they can’t use Analysis or Appraisal in anything that is directly touching my body?’

‘A Plasma Bullet is too small . . . I guess I have to hit him with something bigger . He isn’t that fast on his humanoid form . So, If I manage to break his weapon . . . ‘

Before Leon could start his preparations, he saw several beams of light being shot in his direction . He immediately took out his mithril shields from his magic box and used them to block the attacks . If Malahk didn’t intend to use his full speed, then Leon didn’t have to waste too much mana either . A few seconds later, Malahk appeared, and Leon also took out his mithril spears . If he wanted to fight in his humanoid form, Leon was confident that he could stop him using four shields and twelve spears .

Without a care in the world about the massive amount of mana he was using, Leon used Gravity with his full power on Malahk’s body, to the point where he was having a hard time keeping his altitude .

‘This is much more . . . ‘ Malahk said, surprised .

Leon didn’t wait for him . He made all his spears fly toward Malahk . He would have a hard time blocking all of them since Leon made them pierce his body from all directions . However, despite the speed of his spears and the Gravity effect . Malahk still managed to fly even faster and dodge the attacks . Only to get welcomed by Acid Sphere . Malahk blocked the projectile, but the acid splattered toward his face . It was a low-level skill, so it only annoyed him a little, but it had been enough to give Leon the chance to hit his face with several Plasma Bullets .

‘Kuh . . . ‘ Malahk said, annoyed after noticing the small scratches on his face . ‘How can this be . . . ‘

Malahk looked annoyed at Leon, but he only found a space in the place Leon was one second ago . Leon returned to the dungeon to stab a few more angles and recover his mana .

‘Little insect . . . ‘ Malahk bit his lips until it started to bleed .

Only a few seconds had passed since the last time Leon had been near the dungeon, but things got a lot more . . . noisy, in those seconds . The harvesters were using an area of effects spells as if they had infinite mana, but they were barely scratching the angels . Meanwhile, Ismenria stopped just using her bow and arrows to attack . She was just stomping on the angels that were leaving the dungeon as a means to kill them . Although she was hurting her feet since the angels used their weapons to protect themselves, she didn’t stop .

That wasn’t Leon’s problem, though . So, he just attacked any nearby angel and replenished his mana, until Malahk returned, and he did everything again . . .
