Novel Chapter 451

Chapter 451: 451

‘I guess that is a good way to gain status points,’ Leon said . ‘I’m fine with that . ‘

‘Good, just focus and use Full-Recover fast . . . or the pain will traumatize you,’ Ilyana nodded .

Ilyana didn’t even stop creating her new minions, and, with a single thought, she made a pillar of fire erupt from the ground and engulf Leon . His health decreased to dangerous levels in an instant . . . the pain had been so terrifying that he even didn’t have time to scream or moan in pain . Leon felt on his knees, and the pain decreased because all the skin and good parts of all his body had been burned to a crisp . In the end, Ilyana was the one who used Full-Recover on him .

‘Geez . . . I told you to get ready,’ Ilyana said after a long sigh .

Although the pain disappeared, it took Leon a few seconds to recover from the shock . His body was back to normal, and much to his surprise, his hair was also back to normal, and clothes didn’t even get burned . Even though that wasn’t that surprising given that Ilyana was extremely powerful, Leon didn’t expect that a single spell cast by her could cause more damage than magma .

‘Are you ready?’ Ilyana asked . ‘Don’t worry . We won’t do this for long . We will have to stop soon because your body won’t have the nutrients to recover that fast .’

That was true, and it was also a relief, but Leon's body wasn't listening to him . . . he didn't even manage to get up . Leon was training, but he didn't remember being so close to death while he trained in the past .

‘Shit . . . do it again,’ Leon slowly got up .

‘Okay, but this time I will change things a little bit,’ Ilyana said . ‘I can't risk traumatizing your psych doing that over and over again . ‘

Leon was engulfed by a pillar of flames again, but soon after, he got covered in a thick layer of ice . Then, Leon got engulfed by flames and then covered in ice again . Ilyana stopped there because she had already depleted most of Leon's health .

This time, Leon managed to use Full-Recover . Still, he was feeling like crap . In just a few seconds, Leon obtained status points that he would usually obtain by training low-level spells for a day . However, that kind of training was far less convenient than he had imagined .

‘ . . . This should be enough for today,’ Ilyana said . ‘Although we don’t have much time, we are not desperate to do that every day . Eat well for a few days and then come here again . ‘

Leon felt on his knees . Even though he already expected the pain, his body didn’t endure the heat and cold as much as his mind did . Regardless, at least Ilyana wasn’t unreasonable as he had expected . In fact, she looked a bit worried, which was very surprising, given her usual behavior .

Leon left Ilyana’s castle only to let his body fall on the ground when he returned to his plantation . It was a bit too early to sleep, and it had been a long time since Leon felt like that, but he wanted to close his eyes and rest for a week .

‘Don’t be a drama queen, Leon,’ Undine said, and Leon imagined her smirking . ‘You just got close to death two times in a row by someone who you considered to be an ally . There is no need to make such a fuss by acting like that . ‘

Leon ignored Undine and then got up . He didn’t have time to waste because he things he needed to do weren’t few . . . Leon had to increase his mana in order to make the spirits feel comfortable . He also had to increase intelligence and control in order to learn many things . Although in that world, he would have almost four hundred years to obtain the power he needed, he wouldn’t get strong on time if he let events like that bother him for long .

‘I guess I will increase the size of my plantation since I will increase my control again from now on . Sorry, guys . But just hang in there for a while longer . . . once this plantation gets big enough, I will be able to train more and increase my mana exponentially . To make things more convenient for everyone, I guess I will summon Gnome . His powers will help me with that . ‘

‘Aye, Aye, Sir!’ Gnome said after he materialized .

Using his powers, Gnome raised several, and small pieces of earth, and Leon planted the blue angel leaves using Telekinesis . They did that for five days straight until Leon’s plantation became five times bigger . . . that growth rate was scary, but Leon wasn’t satisfied . He would only be if he manages to create an automatic process of harvesting and planting the leave . But asking for that was a little bit too much .

I guess that is a good way to gain status points, Leon said . Im fine with that .

Novel Chapter 452

Chapter 452: 452

‘You really came after one week,’ Ilyana said, visibly impressed . ‘Just keep your mind focused, and the pain will decrease . . . However, don’t start appreciating the pain . ‘

‘I won’t . . . become a masochist,’ Leon said .

‘That is the least of your worries . Things would get complicated if you start to feel something else aside from sexual pleasure from pain,’ Ilyana frowned .

‘ In fact, it would be convenient if you become just a masochist . ‘

Leon started to wonder if it was convenient for training or if it was because that suited Ilyana’s tastes, but soon he shook those thoughts out of his head . Ilyana could read his mind, after all . Besides, all his spirits could hear his thoughts .

Just like before, Ilyana burned and froze Leon, since he endured that two times, she decided to use it a third time . Leon was getting stronger at least mentally, but even though the pain was becoming bearable, the feeling after training was annoying and persistent . To make things worse, his healing spells couldn’t help him in that regard .

‘We can always help you level up your resistances, Leon,’ Sylph said .

‘It is alright,’ Leon forced a smile . ‘It isn’t that efficient, and I know that you guys would rather get strong fighting real enemies than just obtaining power like that . ‘

Leon just had to endure that for a while until he learns how to summon golems . After that, things would really start to move because he would use them to create his mana liquid . Since Ilyana’s monsters obeyed all her thoughts, Leon was certain that that was possible . . . but Leon couldn’t understand why Ilyana wasn’t doing the same thing .

‘Most likely, she is already absorbing mana from the ambient, and that is way more efficient . ‘

Leon didn’t know the downsides of such skill, but if he could use alongside Fast Conjuration, the amount of mana he would be able to recover would be insane . Leon knew that because Mana-Eater and Mana Absorption were very useful when used with that passive skill .

Considering his past experiences, Leon was quite surprised that he managed to keep training like that without having any disturbances . However, that was expected since time on Earth passed ten times slower .

After training for a few days, Leon noticed that he didn't have to waste time thinking about new spells unless they are combined spells . He could actually ask for his spirits about the ones that didn't consume a lot of mana . Those were the best spells that could quickly and easily give him status points, after all .

‘If you want to obtain status points faster, I would recommend Hail and Ice Arrow Shower,’ Celsius said . ‘If you ask that woman, you can easily level them up to level one hundred if you use them on her monsters . ‘

‘For the time being, I want to level up my spells only up to the level fifty,’ Leon said . ‘So, I guess practicing without hitting anything will be enough . Besides, Ilyana has her own goals . So, I don’t want to bother her all that much . I don’t know if I will be able to obtain the power to fight against harvesters or even if I live a long life, after all . ‘

‘Your lack of confidence depresses me deeply,’ Celsius said .

Despite her words, Celsius taught Leon the spells . It wasn’t as convenient and learning from a tome, but he learned them much faster than he would by trying alone and failing again and again .

‘Mmm ? I’m pretty sure Hail consumed a lot less mana when I had the sword that granted me the spell . ‘ Leon frowned .

‘That is probably because the weapon had been enchanted to be like that,’ Celsius explained . ‘If you use the spirit of the right monsters, you can create weapons with that kind of effect . ‘

‘What about Ice Arrow Shower ? The arrows are much smaller than the ones I can create,’ Leon protested .

‘Why don’t you try to use that spell and create an Area of Effect spell ?’ Celsius frowned . ‘I doubted that you would spend only fifty mana points per second to do something like that . ‘

It was evident that Leon was hoping a little too much for his spells . It was probably because he recalled the same skill being used by some monsters , and the arrows were way bigger . . . but it made sense the level of those skills wasn’t one . Regardless, like usual, Leon practiced both spells until they reached level fifty . It took him a few days, but he was more than satisfied with the result . Although Leon wanted to learn a few other spells from other spirits, unfortunately, it was time for his weekly dose of torment .

‘We have a problem,’ Ilyana said, using Telepathy . ‘It looks like something is going to happen on Earth .’

‘What is going to happen?’ Leon asked .

‘The humans that followed your friends, Gisela, Lennard, and Tom returned to Earth,’ Ilyana hesitated for a while . ‘ . . . and they are heading to Japan .’

‘That doesn’t change the fact that they didn’t even stop to rest on their previous camp,’ Ilyana said . ‘Besides, they only sent powerful soldiers . . . I would say that they want to cause massive damage to Japan in order to make think twice before they try to banish them from the planet again .’

‘Shit . . . How didn’t I notice that Gisela had such a goal?’ Leon bit his lips . ‘It was evident that was the case . . . she was training a lot at the top of that tower . I just hope that my words didn’t cause this . . .’

‘What are you going to do?’ Ilyana asked .

‘ . . . Just let them do whatever they want until they are tired of it,’ Leon smirked when he had an idea .

‘It looks like you have a plan,’ Ilyana studied Leon . ‘I hope you won’t cause more problems than solve them . ‘

Leon used Transfer and then reached the purple crystal that would lead him back to Earth . Fortunately, Leon already knew the route Gisela, Lennart, and Tom would take since he knew the place they came from . So, he found them after a few hours in the middle of the previous Russian territory .

‘It looks like they have more or less fifty thousand soldiers . . . Now that I can see them, it is evident that they want to fight . Still, I have to talk with them . ‘

No one noticed Leon’s approach while he was flying high in the sky, so Gisela, Lennart, Tom, and the soldiers got startled when Leon suddenly landed in front of them . Even though a few of them recognized Leon, they didn’t drop their guard .

‘You?’ Gisela frowned . ‘What are you doing here?’

‘It has been a while, everyone,’ Leon said . ‘It looks like you guys are going to a party? Are you sure that this is a good idea?’

‘Are you working for the Immortal Empress?’ Lennart readied himself .

‘Nope, even though I talk with her now and then, we aren’t allies, at least for the time being,’ Leon answered . ‘Gisela, if you are commanding this attack, I would like you to stop . ‘

‘ . . . Why do you use my name as if you know me?’ Gisela frowned . ‘I don’t feel any ill intentions coming from you . But I won’t back off even from someone like you who defeated us . We were allies before, but that woman didn’t hesitate to chase us out of the planet just because we weren’t as radicals as her . ‘

‘Considering the current you, I don’t think it would be a good idea to explain why I talk like that,’ Leon explained . ‘Let’s forget the past and focus on the future . . . Nor you or Yuki will have a good future if you guys headbutt each other . ‘

‘ . . . We will fight and obtain our right to live on this world again,’ Gisela said . ‘If you get on our way, we destroy you too . ‘

‘No, I won’t get on your way,’ Leon smiled . ‘I will just get on the way of those who try to destroy this planet . ‘

Leon didn't have much mana left since he had to fly, but he leveled up that skill a lot while he followed Gisela's army . His goal was to find someone who looked more powerful than her . However, even after several hours, Leon didn't find anyone who was as powerful as Tom, Lennart, or Gisela .

'Did I just imagine things ? Maybe Gisela just suppressed her feelings for long and now decided to make them explode . . . '

Regardless, Leon was running out of time, so he decided to enter in position . . . One hour later, Leon arrived on the west gate of Japan's territory . As expected, soldiers were moving around and preparing themselves because they already knew about the approach of Gisela and her army . Much to Leon's surprise, Yuki and Ren were already there and quickly approached him .

'Your time is impeccable as always,' Yuki frowned . ' . . . May I ask what your goal is this time ?'

‘I’m going just to observe this battle and make things interesting,’ Leon said and then started to create a massive arena of earth . ‘You guys can do whatever you want . I won’t stop you or Gisela . ‘

Yuki and Ren looked at Leon with dubious eyes, they were starting to relax a little more around him, but now they couldn’t help but be wary of him once again . Leon wondered if he was doing the right thing, it was hard to be sure, but at least he would do his best to avoid meaningless deaths .

It didn’t take long before Gisela and her army to arrive on the west gate . They came ready to fight, and they were even shouting while they were flying to raise their spirits . However, they couldn’t help but stop when they saw the massive arena Leon created . The arena was in front of the west gate, and the Japanese soldiers were inside their barrier and above the wall hoping for something to happen . The soldiers didn’t land, but Gisela, Lennard, and Tom landed on the arena where Leon was .

‘... What is this?’ Lennard frowned .

‘Bahahaha! You are a really funny kid!’ Tom laughed loudly . ‘This is a fascinating idea... but tell me why we should follow your rules?’

‘Why do you think the Japanese soldiers didn’t do anything to stop me from creating this?’ Leon asked .

‘No idea... maybe it is because you are their ally,’ Tom frowned .

‘If I were their ally, I would kill you guys, instead of trying to prevent both sides from suffering losses,’ Leon said . ‘Do you want to see the real reason ?’

‘See ?’ Tom frowned again and got confused when Leon pointed to the sky .

‘... What the hell is that ?’ Lennart turned white when he saw the shadow of Leon’s zombie snake .

‘That is my pet,’ Leon answered . ‘Yuki and her soldiers didn’t attack me because of that . ‘

‘Ha-ha, that is very funny,’ Lennart looked viciously at Leon . ‘There is no way that would...‘

That trick was useful as ever after Leon made the zombie snake turn around the earth following the opposite direction .

‘That is just an illusion . . . ‘ Tom said .

‘Really ? I guess you guys discovered how I tricked Yuki and Ren for several months . . . ‘ Leon sighed . ‘We can confirm that, who wants to go with me see that snake up close ?’

‘What is your goal?’ Gisela interrupted Leon,

‘My goal for the next few hours is to prevent the death of you and your soldiers,’ Leon answered . ‘The same thing applies to Yuki and her army . I’m pretty sure you guys will be able to get rid of your grudges after punching each other for a few hours because I’m pretty sure she didn’t cause the death of any of your friends . Did she kill any of you when she chased you guys out of the planet?’

‘ . . . No,’ Gisela answered after a few seconds .

‘I get it . You guys can’t forgive them . In fact, you don’t have to,’ Leon said . ‘However, I won’t let any of you die here . I have my own personal reasons for that . . . Besides, you guys and everyone else will have to protect this world from the hands of the true enemies . ‘

‘Who are the true enemies?’ Gisela frowned .

‘I will answer that after I confirm that neither side has too many idiots,’ Leon said . ‘Now, who is going to fight first?’

Putting matters of life and death aside, Leon was really looking forward to the battle of Gisela versus Yuki . It would be epic, and everyone nearby agreed with him .

It is impossible that someone might infiltrate Japan our Hectors camp, but there is a chance that someone might have infiltrated Giselas city . They created that strange tradition for visitors to climb the tower . . . so someone might have arrived before I fought her and even convinced Gisela to start a war against Yuki and her country .

Chapter 455: 455

Yuki accepted the challenge, and she did the same, threw away her equipment and even her gauntlets before she approached the arena alongside several soldiers . Gisela's underlings also understood that the two leaders would fight, and they would only watch . Some of them were ready to fight, but soldiers of both sides didn't dare to interrupt the battle of their leaders .

‘Now that I think about it, I should have made the arena using only steel . . .

Leon made the arena to be pretty sturdy, but he already knew how both Yuki and Gisela got strong . . . The arena wouldn't last long, so he would have to repair it every time it got destroyed . Both warriors jumped on the arena, and they didn't even wait for Leon to give the sign of the start of the battle . Yuki and Gisela charged forward and only stopped when they hit other faces in the middle of the ring .

Gisela was stronger physically and caused more damage, Leon noticed that when he saw Yuki bleeding from her nose . However, Yuki recovered faster and was already aiming upper at Gisela's solar plexus . Gisela blocked it using her left elbow, soon after she retreated a little and then headbutted Yuki . That caught her by surprise, and Yuki took a few steps back because the attack made her feel dizzy .

‘Heal,‘ Yuki said and then healed her wounds and recovered from that state .

‘Mmm . . . maybe this battle will be more difficult for Gisela than I thought . . . ‘

However, when Leon looked at Gisela's face, he noticed that the wound that Yuki caused was healing . Although her healing skills weren't as good as Yuki's, Gisela could heal herself too . In the end, Leon confirmed that the battle would only end after a few hours when neither of them could stand anymore after spending the nutrients of their bodies to heal themselves .

Yuki activated Haste for a second and suddenly appeared behind Gisela, she learned that trick from Leon, but Gisela also activated Stone Skin the very moment Yuki disappeared from her sight . Yuki frowned when she received more damage than she caused, but still managed to dodge the roundhouse kick Gisela prepared .

'Hey . . . I said no kicks,' Leon frowned . 'Don't use headbutts as well . '

Both Yuki and Gisela ignored Leon's words and just punched each other fists . Although Yuki could become much faster, she decided not to use Haste, or she would be spending a lot more mana than she wanted . Yuki decided to save her mana to heal her wounds . Gisela did the same, to protect her from surprise attacks, she would only Stone Skin only now and then .

'So violent . . . ' Leon sighed and then started to repair the arena .

While Gisela was still on her landing position, Yuki readied her body and pointed her left elbow toward Gisela before activating Haste for a moment . Her charge almost caught Gisela by surprise, but she activated Stone Skin again . Although she still suffered some damage since she used her arms to block the attack, didn't escape unscathed either .

Using tricks, spells, or anything wouldn't help either of them to win the battle . So, both Yuki and Gisela decided to fight without relying on that . Gisela recovered from the impact and charged forward while she raised her right knee . Yuki took a step backward to escape her attack range, and at the same time, she prepared a roundhouse kick . The very moment Gisela noticed that she relaxed her left and lowered her stance before her attack could even end . After hitting the air and escaping Yuki's roundhouse kick, she charged forward almost running like a dog and tried to headbutt Yuki's stomach, but the immortal empress decreased the power of the impact by using both arms to stop her attack .

That attack pushed Yuki back a few meters, but at least that gave her the chance to attack Gisela's back or head . However, before she could do that, Gisela grabbed her legs and then jumped upward, Yuki got caught by surprise and started to punch Gisela's back, but since she was in mid-air, the power of her attacks decreased a lot . Eventually, both girls fell on the arena again, but Gisela landed while sitting over Yuki . Gisela had the advantage in that position, but Yuki wouldn't let her do as she wanted . Gisela prepared a punch, but Yuki did the same even though her position was terrible, Yuki managed to cause a lot of damage even when Gisela attacked because she activated Iron Fists . However, Gisela knew she would do something like that, so she also activated Rage . . . in the end, both girls just punched each other and made the other side lose a few teeth .

Gisela punched Yuki a few times on that advantageous position . Still, eventually Yuki counterattacked and took the position over Gisela and attacked with consecutive punches . . . from that point onward, the same thing repeated itself several times . Little by little, Yuki and Gisela's face were receiving more and more wounds, and the arena was getting redder by the minute . Although the fight had been very impressive even though not much mana had been used, Leon was already sick of watching . . . it wasn't a good thing to see his friends hurting each other like that .

Chapter 456: 456

Although Leon wanted to see that until they collapse of exhaustion, Leon felt something weird . Everyone's mana was calm until now, but Leon felt two presences getting agitated . . . much to his surprise, each side had one of those presences .

‘I guess I wasn't totally wrong . . . ‘

Leon used Transfer and appeared behind a Japanese soldier that was concentrating his mana in his right hand . Leon grabbed him by the neck and sucked his mana using Mana Absorption . Several soldiers panicked when they one of them losing control over his body when Leon appeared, but he ignored them and used Transfer to grab one of Gisela's soldiers by the neck and did the same thing . Yuki and Gisela only stopped fighting when Leon appeared in the middle of the arena and started to hit the soldiers like hammers against the arena . In the end, Leon only stopped when the place was totally destroyed, and he was striking the soldiers against the ground .

‘Phew . . . that was refreshing . ‘ Leon left the half-dead soldiers on the floor and then stretched his body only to find everyone, even Yuki and Gisela, pointing their weapons at him . ‘Calm down guys, let's not do anything hasty . ‘

Why did you do that ?‘ Ren asked .

‘Those guys were planning to attack Yuki or Gisela, maybe both,’ Leon answered . ‘They are powerful fighters, after all . Their deaths also would cause instability in both groups . Do any of you guys remember when they joined your armies ? ‘

Gisela looked at Lennart, and he just shook his head, the same thing happened to Yuki and Ren . However, some soldiers stepped forward and mentioned that they joined their sides, just after the battle when the terrorist camps had been destroyed .

‘What were their positions in your cities ?’ Leon asked . ‘Where they close to any of you ?‘

‘ . . . That soldier was one of my advisors,’ Yuki said . ‘Are you sure he was preparing to kill me ?‘

‘I felt a massive amount of mana being concentrated in his right hand,’ Leon answered . ‘What about the other guy ?‘

‘ . . . He was just an ordinary soldier that protected our walls,’ Gisela answered . ‘However, he talked to me many times about returning to Earth, and he was also the number one person who wanted to reconquest our lands back using brute strength . ‘

‘There you have it, it is evident that they worked for the terrorists,’ Leon said . ‘They were quite the patient bastards . . . a bunch of assholes that had the patience to wait for three hundred years to kill the human leaders . . . crap . ‘

‘I guess you guys can understand that until now, someone has been working behind the scenes to put the humans in a bad spot,’ Leon said . ‘I know that you won’t be able to forget your grudges soon, but it isn’t time for that . In forty years, powerful beings will come to Earth and kill every single human to get stronger . Don’t waste your time fighting against each other; save your strength to fight against them . ‘

Leon didn’t wait to see Yuki and Gisela’s reactions; he just left and headed toward the hippogryphs’ world . If they still decided to fight after hearing that, then humans were doomed, and Leon could only give up .

‘Shit . . . I hope that is the last time those bastards will cause me so much trouble . ‘

If Hector convinced the other survivors to return to Earth, Leon would have a hard time finding the possible spy infiltrated . Besides, his presence had already been revealed by every single person there . So, at any moment, something might happen .

A few hours later, Leon arrived at the entrance of the hippogryph’s dungeon . He arrived in time to see hundreds of people leaving the place . Since it was dark, Leon didn’t notice, but it looked like Hector, and other soldiers cleaned the area of monsters, and now the general population of his city was finally returning to Earth .

‘Shit, I won’t be able to use Appraisal in every single person like this . . . now that I think about it since those guys infiltrated Gisela and Yuki’s camp, it will be impossible to identify them because they probably don’t have those spells to make other humans explode . ‘

Fortunately, Leon found the new camp pretty close to the dungeon . It was a bit reckless, but given that the soldiers fought against that kind of creatures for hundreds of years, they would handle . Their problem was the lack of fighting spirit, not real power .

Leon knew that trying to find a possible infiltrated agent would be close to impossible, but he had no other choice but to try, at least for a while . Novel Chapter 457

Chapter 457: 457

‘Leon?’ Hector frowned . ‘It is good to meet you, but . . . what are you doing here, and why did you appear so suddenly?’

‘Lower your voice,’ Leon said . ‘I came here to tell that there is a chance that some allies of the terrorists might have infiltrated your camp, don’t spread this information and be careful . ‘

‘What? That is impossible . ‘ Hector said, looking skeptical of such a possibility . ‘Not a single human joined our side in three hundred years . ‘

‘I just recently learned that magic could do a lot of things . . . ‘ Leon said . ‘Anyway, spies infiltrated Yuki and Gisela’s camps three hundred years ago and stayed quiet until now . So, I advise that you should act carefully because I can’t keep coming every single time you guys face a problem . Also, Gisela’s camp also returned to Earth . I already told them what I told you . . . if both sides have brains, then everyone will save their energy to protect Earth when the time comes . Make good use of the time dilation until then . ‘

Without waiting to hear their opinions about such matters, Leon used Transfer and left the temporary center of operations . In the end, Leon couldn’t help but sigh . . . he wanted to make his friends and every single human strong, but he couldn’t be over-protective again . Even his family and friends forgot about him . It was already an instinct to try to protect them .

‘I know what I can do to make them cooperate more . . . ‘

Leon returned to the center of operations and surprised everyone again, but this time he didn’t say anything . Leon just offered a handshake to drain their mana and asked Efreed to pass a part of his powers to them . Once again, Leon left the place while everyone else was confused .

‘Leon . . . My powers aren’t something you can give people like that,’ Efreet said, visibly annoyed .

‘Sorry . . . We will fight three times this week since you gave your powers to three of my friends,’ Leon said . ‘If you do the same to the others, we will fight every day for the entire week . Is that fine with you ?’

‘Bahahaha! Of course! Of course!’ Efreet laughed maniacally . ‘If you fight me every day, then it doesn’t matter if you decide to give my power to every single person on this planet!’

A few hours later, Leon returned to Japan only to see that the place where Yuki and Gisela fought was empty . That being said, Leon found Ren and Yuki above the wall, as if they had been waiting for him .

‘Where are Gisela and the others ?’ Leon asked .

‘They decided to retreat and start building their base on German territory,’ Yuki answered .

‘Hector and the others also returned to Earth,’ Leon said . ‘What are you going to do about them ?’

‘ . . . As long as they don’t cause problems, I will ignore them . ‘ Yuki answered .

Leon offered a handshake and Yuki accepted, once she realized that her mana was being drained, she tried to pull back her arm . However, when she received the notifications of Efreet’s power, she stopped struggling . Leon did the same thing to Ren before he left .

‘If you guys don’t cause me any more problems, maybe I will give you other gifts,’ Leon said .

Leon headed toward the direction Gisela and the others went, and upon finding them, Leon did the same and told them the same words before he vanished . That day had been a bit tiring, but Leon was quite sure that he did a good job . In the end, all the humans were back on Earth . Although they weren’t allies anymore, they weren’t enemies either, and that was a good start . Besides, it wasn’t like they would have to stick in the same place for them to protect Earth, the harvesters were incredibly powerful beings . Knowing that they wouldn’t fight at the same time and in the same place since their powers could collide and disturb each other . The primary preparations had been completed, now Leon had to increase his power as much as he can and hope that his friends would do the same without him babysitting them .

Leon? Hector frowned . It is good to meet you, but . . . what are you doing here, and why did you appear so suddenly?

Lower your voice, Leon said . I came here to tell that there is a chance that some allies of the terrorists might have infiltrated your camp, dont spread this information and be careful .

What? That is impossible . Hector said, looking skeptical of such a possibility . Not a single human joined our side in three hundred years .

I just recently learned that magic could do a lot of things . . . Leon said . Anyway, spies infiltrated Yuki and Giselas camps three hundred years ago and stayed quiet until now . So, I advise that you should act carefully because I cant keep coming every single time you guys face a problem . Also, Giselas camp also returned to Earth . I already told them what I told you . . . if both sides have brains, then everyone will save their energy to protect Earth when the time comes . Make good use of the time dilation until then .

Without waiting to hear their opinions about such matters, Leon used Transfer and left the temporary center of operations . In the end, Leon couldnt help but sigh . . . he wanted to make his friends and every single human strong, but he couldnt be over-protective again . Even his family and friends forgot about him . It was already an instinct to try to protect them .

I know what I can do to make them cooperate more . . .

Leon returned to the center of operations and surprised everyone again, but this time he didnt say anything . Leon just offered a handshake to drain their mana and asked Efreet to pass a part of his powers to them . Once again, Leon left the place while everyone else was confused .

Leon . . . My powers arent something you can give people like that, Efreet said, visibly annoyed .

Sorry . . . We will fight three times this week since you gave your powers to three of my friends, Leon said . If you do the same to the others, we will fight every day for the entire week . Is that fine with you ?

Bahahaha! Of course! Of course! Efreet laughed maniacally . If you fight me every day, then it doesnt matter if you decide to give my power to every single person on this planet!

A few hours later, Leon returned to Japan only to see that the place where Yuki and Gisela fought was empty . That being said, Leon found Ren and Yuki above the wall, as if they had been waiting for him .

Where are Gisela and the others ? Leon asked .

They decided to retreat and start building their base on German territory, Yuki answered .

Hector and the others also returned to Earth, Leon said . What are you going to do about them ?

. . . As long as they dont cause problems, I will ignore them . Yuki answered .

Leon offered a handshake and Yuki accepted, once she realized that her mana was being drained, she tried to pull back her arm . However, when she received the notifications of Efreets power, she stopped struggling . Leon did the same thing to Ren before he left .

If you guys dont cause me any more problems, maybe I will give you other gifts, Leon said .

Leon headed toward the direction Gisela and the others went, and upon finding them, Leon did the same and told them the same words before he vanished . That day had been a bit tiring, but Leon was quite sure that he did a good job . In the end, all the humans were back on Earth . Although they werent allies anymore, they werent enemies either, and that was a good start . Besides, it wasnt like they would have to stick in the same place for them to protect Earth, the harvesters were incredibly powerful beings . Knowing that they wouldnt fight at the same time and in the same place since their powers could collide and disturb each other . The primary preparations had been completed, now Leon had to increase his power as much as he can and hope that his friends would do the same without him babysitting them .

Novel Chapter 458

‘You seem to be in a bad mood,’ Leon said .

‘Yes, I told you that you shouldn’t spoil your friends too much,’ Ilyana said .

‘Giving them power just because they act the way you want won’t help you or any of them . ‘

‘In my position, would have done something differently?’ Leon asked .

‘No,’ Ilyana answered .

‘So . . . why do you look so upset?’ Leon frowned .

‘Because I did the same thing you did, and that didn’t help the people of my world,’ Ilyana explained .

Now Leon finally understood why Ilyana was upset . . . He did the same thing that Ilyana did in the past, and it looked like that didn’t help the people of her planet . There was even a chance that she considered that such action caused the downfall of her race . . . considering that hypothesis, it wasn’t that surprising that she was irritated .

‘I won’t tell you how you should act or what you should do,’ Ilyana said .

‘I’m just trying to prevent that you suffer and see the same things that I saw . ‘

‘Thank you for your concern,’ Leon said . ‘I will be more careful from now on . . . Putting that aside, I would like to learn how to create a slime since my control is already high enough . ‘

‘All right, I will give you the tome after leveling up your resistance a bit,’ Ilyana said .

‘Instead of that, I would like just to hear the theory, and then I will replicate the process myself,’ Leon said .

Ilyana looked away and sighed, it looked like Leon’s lack of trust, and his behavior was already starting to annoy her . The future of their partnership looked quite uncertain since they only see each other once every week, and things were already getting complicated .

‘I feel like crap more than usual . . . it looks like this time Ilyana let her annoyance control her a little bit, and she decided to punish me . . . even though she said that she wouldn’t tell me how to act . What is the point of saying that if she decides to punish me on my resistance training?’

‘You should be thankful for her . If it weren’t for her, you would be making a mistake after mistake,’ Celsius said, and Leon imagined her making an angry expression like usual . ‘ It is really disgraceful to give powers to your friends just like that . ‘

‘ . . . I will keep that in mind,◆◆◆ Leon sighed . ‘Once they accomplish something, I won’t ask any of you to give your powers again . ‘

Leon felt like he was back in high school, where he heard complaints from his father every day about his behavior and choices . Although it was a bit annoying, he missed them since it was clear that Leon wasn't good at making decisions . He was too naive, and most of the time, he would choose the most obvious option, and then he would wait for the best outcome .

Regardless, at least one thing Leon was sure that he would never regret doing, and that was training . Although Ilyana looked pretty irritated, she explained to him how he should create a slime using mana .

‘Let's see . . . create a mass of water in a random shape and then create the core of the monster by concentrating exactly nine hundred mana points in its center . How did she discover such an exact number ? Anyway . . . I also have to add instincts to the creature . . . How do I do that again ? Just by emulating hunger ? I'm already hungry, so it should be easy . ‘

‘It impresses me that you managed to become the best mage of your planet,‘ Celsius said .

Leon was also impressed, but he would never reveal that . Regardless, it took him three days to do everything correctly and fast enough, but Leon eventually learned the skill and created the first slime .

Much to Leon's surprise, things worked much better than he expected . His slime only shot a single Fireball and leveled up five times . However, the Ghost-Sword that got hit approached Leon's slime and split into two, killing the creature in an instant .

'I guess she is still mad . . . ' Leon rubbed his chin while he was allocating his status points . 'Anyway, this might work faster than I expected . '

Leon summoned several other slimes, and he noticed that all their status grew around five percent . . . it was the effect of five level-ups . Although his slimes still couldn't scratch the Ghost-Swords, their attack power was visibly increasing little by little . Now and then, Ilyana summoned monsters would attack the slimes, but it was clear that she was getting less irritated over time .

‘It is kind of impressing that she can control her monsters like that, the slimes are slow and only obey simple commands . . . I guess she also has some kind of skill to increase her control over them . ‘

Leon also noticed that his other skills weren’t leveling up . So, even though they could use elemental magic and the same offensive spells Leon could, nothing aside, the skill to summon them would level up . The slimes didn’t receive a bonus of attack of skills like Pyromancy or Fire Blessing either .

‘I guess it can’t be helped . . . I can’t always have what I want . Still, it is kind of relaxing summon monsters and let them fight for me . Unfortunately, that isn’t a feeling I should get used to it . ‘

Leon thought he would manage to level up Summon Slime pretty fast since they only needed to attack at a distance using magic . However, soon they ran out of mana . Although their recovery was increasing at a pretty good pace, it would take a while before they could fight for more than a few seconds . In fact, Leon soon understood that the slimes wouldn’t be able to fight for more than a few minutes without running out of mana . Considering that they were periodically growing stronger, one percent every time they leveled up, their recovery wouldn’t be higher than one hundred . Leon understood that when he finally noticed that their growth rate wouldn’t increase over time . . . it was only one percent of his initial status .

‘Well, it doesn’t matter . It wasn’t like I intended to use them in real combat, after all . ‘

A few hours later, Leon noticed that he had more than one thousand slimes, so he decided to leave it at that and make them train alone while he learns other spells . He wouldn’t level them up at the same speed as Ilyana’s, but hoping for that was a bit too much .

‘Gnome, it is your turn now,’ Leon materialized Gnome while he was preparing the mana liquid for the next training session .

‘Yahoo! After you learn the spells, you have to let me increase the size of my labyrinth,’ Gnome said .

Leon sighed, but it couldn’t be helped . Gnome was creating an underground labyrinth under the area where Leon’s plantation was . He was already having difficulties and wasting some time looking for Gnome in that labyrinth, and he wanted to increase its size even more . . . it looked like Leon would have to level up Electric Armor and Haste sooner than he expected .

to increase the size of the labyrinth, Leon trained his two new spells for three days until they reached level fifty .

‘The problem of using time dilation is the fact that things that don’t happen fast enough on Earth . . . it is kind of hard to focus on training while worrying about everyone . ‘

Leon was quite certain that his friends wouldn’t fight amongst themselves anymore, but he couldn’t help but worry without receiving news from Ilyana . Since just thinking about his friends always made Leon felt like just relaxing and watching the blue sky, he decided to shake those thoughts out of his head and do something else . Since he wasn’t ready for his weekly dose of suffering on Ilyana’s hands, Leon decided to level up other spells .

Novel Chapter 460

Chapter 460: 460

‘Ten thousand slimes . . . that is a pretty big number,’ Leon rubbed his chin .
‘It will take a while to create that many . . . by the way, do you have any idea when my skill will reach level max with that many slimes attacking your monsters ?’

‘Something around one hundred and fifty years,’ Ilyana answered .

Leon opened his eyes widely after hearing that . . . it was insane, after all .
Still, it kind of made sense since every skill had some drawbacks . No wonder Ilyana created elementals for months to make the skill reach the max level .

‘If I create stronger monsters, you will be able to level up your skill faster, but . . . ‘ Ilyana hesitated .

‘Nah, it is fine,’ Leon said . ‘I was just asking because I was curious . Once I learn how to summon other monsters, we can make them fight to help each other, but for the time being, I’m fine with my own pace . ‘

‘All right, then,’ Ilyana said .

Leon left Ilyana’s castle and did some math . Currently, he was obtaining around three hundred status points per day . So, if he keeps allocating his points equally into intelligence, mana, and control, it will take ten days before he can finally try how to summon golems . It was quite a good pace, but not enough .

‘If I create some steel weapons and control them using Telekinesis, I will be able to level up passive skills like Staffmanship pretty fast . . . I guess I will do that . ‘

‘Aww . . . I thought it was my turn now,’ Undine said, apparently dispirited .

‘Just wait for a bit, this shouldn’t take too much time,’ Leon said .

It was hard to know if Undine was sad or if she was just trying to mess with Leon, so he decided not to overthink it . Leon created several steel staves and started to hit the Ghost-Swords with them . He already expected that, but be able to control twenty-five objects at the same time was still shocking .

‘You can multiply your speed by almost ten times, you have six intermediate spirits under your command, and you also have a colossal snake orbiting your planet . . . ‘ Celsius frowned . ‘And you still get impressed by that?’

‘Well . . . yeah,’ Leon acknowledged that looked pretty stupid . ‘But you guys aren’t under my command . We are allies . ‘

‘That wasn’t half bad . . . What shall I train next ? Ax Mastery ? I just hope Ilyana doesn’t get mad if I kill a more of her monsters . . . ‘

‘Why do you still worry about such things . . . ‘ Celsius sighed .

In the end, after just a couple of hours, Leon managed to level up Ax Mastery, Hammer Mastery, and Whip Mastery up to the level eighty . He wanted more, but Leon didn’t manage to learn new skills after using flails, knives, or even blunt weapons . Most likely, that kind of weapon belonged to other weapon categories .

‘I didn’t use many times, but I wonder if I can learn something like Gunmanship . . . I decided not to rely on tools, but it should be fine using a magic gun to obtain status points . ‘

In the end, Leon decided not to think about it . When the time comes, if such skill becomes necessary, he was pretty sure that Ilyana would offer him a way to learn it and master much faster .

‘Well then, it is your turn now, Undine,’ Leon said .

Leon sighed, as always, it was hard to understand what Undine was genuinely feeling . Fortunately, she still taught Leon two spells . . . However, even though Leon could have complained while he was learning, he only did it after receiving the notifications .

Congratulations! You have learned the skill: Shower .

Cost: 4 mana per second

You obtained 01 status points .

Congratulations! You have learned the skill: Rain .

Cost: 40 mana per second .

You obtained 01 status points .

‘ . . . What is the meaning of this, Undine ?’ Leon asked .

‘You asked for two spells,’ Undine frowned . ‘Didn’t you like them ?’

‘I want spells to defeat the enemies who will threaten my world,’ Leon said .

‘I don’t want to clean them or wash their fields . ‘

‘Well, you should be more specific the next time,’ Undine smiled . ‘Since everyone just taught you two spells, I will only teach me after everyone’s turn . ‘

Undine disappeared and returned to the inside of Leon’s head . . . The rank of troublesome spirits changed . Undine now was by the most troublesome one, even more challenging to deal with Sylph and Gnome . However, since she wasn’t totally wrong, he couldn’t complain . So, Leon did the only thing he could really do . . . he leveled up both Shower and Rain up to the level fifty .

Congratulations! The skill Water Creation has leveled up .

Ten thousand slimes . . . that is a pretty big number, Leon rubbed his chin . It will take a while to create that many . . . by the way, do you have any idea when my skill will reach level max with that many slimes attacking your monsters ?

Something around one hundred and fifty years, Ilyana answered .

Leon opened his eyes widely after hearing that . . . it was insane, after all . Still, it kind of made sense since every skill had some drawbacks . No wonder Ilyana created elementals for months to make the skill reach the max level .

If I create stronger monsters, you will be able to level up your skill faster, but . . . Ilyana hesitated .

Nah, it is fine, Leon said . I was just asking because I was curious . Once I learn how to summon other monsters, we can make them fight to help each other, but for the time being, Im fine with my own pace .

All right, then, Ilyana said .

Leon left Ilyanas castle and did some math . Currently, he was obtaining around three hundred status points per day . So, if he keeps allocating his points equally into intelligence, mana, and control, it will take ten days before he can finally try how to summon golems . It was quite a good pace, but not enough .

If I create some steel weapons and control them using Telekinesis, I will be able to level up passive skills like Staffmanship pretty fast . . . I guess I will do that .

Aww . . . I thought it was my turn now, Undine said, apparently dispirited .

Just wait for a bit, this shouldnt take too much time, Leon said .

It was hard to know if Undine was sad or if she was just trying to mess with Leon, so he decided not to overthink it . Leon created several steel staves and started to hit the Ghost-Swords with them . He already expected that, but be able to control twenty-five objects at the same time was still shocking .

It is kind of scary that control can increase my ability to use Telekinesis so much . . .

You can multiply your speed by almost ten times, you have six intermediate spirits under your command, and you also have a colossal snake orbiting your planet . . . Celsius frowned . And you still get impressed by that?

Well . . . yeah, Leon acknowledged that looked pretty stupid . But you guys arent under my command . We are allies .

That wasnt half bad . . . What shall I train next? Ax Mastery? I just hope Ilyana doesnt get mad if I kill a more of her monsters . . .

Why do you still worry about such things . . . Celsius sighed .

In the end, after just a couple of hours, Leon managed to level up Ax Mastery, Hammer Mastery, and Whip Mastery up to the level eighty . He wanted more, but Leon didnt manage to learn new skills after using flails, knives, or even blunt weapons . Most likely, that kind of weapon belonged to other weapon categories .

I didnt use many times, but I wonder if I can learn something like Gunmanship . . . I decided not to rely on tools, but it should be fine using a magic gun to obtain status points .

In the end, Leon decided not to think about it . When the time comes, if such skill becomes necessary, he was pretty sure that Ilyana would offer him a way to learn it and master much faster .

Well then, it is your turn now, Undine, Leon said .

Hah . . . just when I was about to take a nap, Undine protested when Leon materialized her .
