Chapter 11: Fuck, 100 mighty?

In a daze, he seemed to come to a vast place, to be precise, a cemetery.

Around, it was extremely gloomy and cold, as if it had come to the land of Jiuyou.

At a glance, there are densely packed, almost a hundred black tombstones!

Thousands of swords are inserted around the more terrifying tombstone, which seems to form an extremely large formation!

And those black tombstones are the eyes!

"What the **** is this..."

Ye Chen just wanted to talk, and the entire earthquake trembled. The hundred tombstones were all trembling. Then, thousands of swords rose from the ground and flew for nine days!

This picture is extremely spectacular and dumbfounded!

Before Ye Chen could react, a yelling sounded from above the sky: "In a small realm, dare to step into the reincarnation cemetery! Looking for death! You can't move the weakest tombstone obsessively! Get out!"

After the words fell, Ye Chen was kicked out of the cemetery and woke up in the outside world.

Ye Chen looked at the black stone in surprise: "Is this the ancient magic weapon that the old man talked about? According to that person's words, does it mean that as long as his strength reaches a certain threshold, he can arouse the powerful obsession in the tombstone? ...What's the joke? These are a hundred tombstones. Is it possible that there are a hundred great abilities in it?"

Just then, there was a knock on the door.

Sun Yi's voice came from outside the door: "Ye Cheng, have you ever gotten up, and if you get up again, the old lady can come in. I heard that you men all have morning erections, and I won't care when that happens."

Hearing this familiar voice, Ye Chen felt warm. He suppressed the shock in his heart and hid the black stone.

Right now, his strength is far from enough. Let's look for the secret of this stone slowly.

He opened the door and saw Sun Yi in professional attire at a glance. It may be because of yesterday's embarrassment. Sun Yi's eyes were a little dodge, and her cheeks were flushed, very cute.

"Sun Yi, you are so good to me and I suddenly don't want to leave. What should I do? If you don't provide permanent residence service, I can wash the dishes for you every day. Winter is coming soon, so I can warm your bed..."
Ye Chen grinned Tao.

Sun Yi came to the dining table, took a sip of porridge, and gave Ye Chen a blank glance, and said, "Do you want to be a gangster and warm your bed? My old lady is sleeping warm, and you don't need to warm the bed..."

Ye Chen's eyes lit up, and he quickly changed his words: "Then you can warm my bed. If I can sleep with your long legs, I guess I will wake up in dreams."

After getting along all day, Sun Yi also roughly knew Ye Chen's character, and ran the train with his mouth full, but his heart was not bad.

She thought about it and said seriously: "If you really want to live, it is not impossible. First, you have to pay the rent in advance. Second, in any case, I use the bathroom first. Third, the kitchen. You wash the dishes and clothes. Boy, you can think about it for a few hours..."

Before he finished speaking, Ye Chen said directly: "No problem. But I don't have much money with me right now. Can you ask me to mortgage something..."

Sun Yi is considered to have taken it, doesn't this guy have a penny on him?

Is it possible that in the end, I have to keep this guy?

She took a look at Ye Chen's appearance, hey, he looks a little handsome.

As for the figure, she had a clear view last night. This guy actually has eight pack abs.

This is simply the standard "little wolf dog" mentioned on the Internet.

Just when Sun Yi wanted to get into trouble, Ye Chen had found a napkin and wrote a few lines on it with a pen.

is the recipe for the primary Zhan Yan Dan!

Although the grade is not high, but if you sell it, you can at least feed a listed company!

After Ye Chen finished writing, he stuffed the napkin directly into Sun Yi's hand: "Well, this is the formula of the primary Zhuyan Dan. I changed it a bit. You are not the director of the beauty group, you just need to put this Show the recipe to the people in the technical department, they know the goods."

Sun Yi was taken, she looked at the napkin in her hand with disgust, and said curiously: "You don't want to use this napkin to cover one month's rent, do you?"

Ye Chen shook his head and stretched out a finger: "I want to use this prescription for one month's rent and add 3,000 yuan! If it weren't for me to have no money, I would definitely not do this, and it would be a reward for you. Take me in, let's talk about it, this prescription is worth at least 10 million.

If it is less than 10 million, you must not sell it! "

"Puff!"

Sun Yi almost choked to death by drooling!

She stared at the youth in front of her, trying to see that the other person was joking!

But the other party is very serious!

I go!

I have taken in a strange thing!

A napkin with casual braille is worth ten million, which he thought of.

is like a lion's big mouth!

At this moment, Sun Yi's affection for Ye Chen dropped to the extreme, and she even had a slight disgust.

If it weren't for this man who looked like her old classmate, she would have gone out long ago.

A minute later, Sun Yi sighed, put the napkin in his hand into his jacket pocket, and then took out three thousand yuan and handed it to Ye Chen.

"Ye Cheng, Ye Cheng, I know you want face, but there is no need to do that. I can give you three thousand yuan, but I hope you can put away your lofty and unrealistic heart.

You spend this money to find a job, and I can only let you live here for a month. One month later, you can go wherever you want. It has nothing to do with me.

That's it, I'm tired, I'm going to work, and the spare key is on the table. "

Sun Yi picked up the bag and walked directly outside, her eyes were disappointed.

This kind of man may be eliminated by society soon.

Ye Chen looked at Sun Yi's back and shook his head helplessly.

"Sun Yi, Sun Yi, you see me too small. You don't even know how heavy the paper in your pocket is."

.....

Ye Chen quickly left the matter behind, and he took out the black stone again. UU reading www.uukanshu.com held it in the palm of his hand, he could feel the world in a daze.

But no matter what, he can't get inside.

"It seems that the strength is still not enough, and I must cultivate quickly! I will refine that thing in a few days."

Right now, the most important thing for Ye Chen is to earn some money. These three thousand yuan is undoubtedly a drop in the bucket for the medicinal materials he needs for cultivation.

Go out to work for others?

It is impossible to work part-time. Ye Chen will never work for someone in his life.

Then what can he do?

Start a business? It is indeed possible to build an empire with the prescriptions in his hands, but the time cost is too high.

He must come to make quick money now, the sooner the better.

Selling prescriptions?

also doesn't work, even Sun Yi doesn't believe in things, and still expect others to believe?

Treat illness and save people?

Ye Chen thought of this, clapped his hands and decided.

But now he needs a medical qualification certificate and academic qualifications for treatment. Going to the hospital is definitely impractical. Right now, he can only set up a stall.

Ye Chen did it as soon as he thought of it. First, he went downstairs and found a shop to make a few pennants, and he wanted to rebirth and rejuvenate Hua Tuo, and then he bought a few sets of silver needles and healing things.

Finally, I went around a few times and determined the best place to set up a stall.

Chengbei Park!

Chengbei Park is one of the three major parks in Jiangcheng. It also has a characteristic commercial street. The commercial street has a good flow of people. The most important thing is that there are many people who set up stalls there to tell fortune-telling and sell antiques. It is estimated that people who visit will also believe it. Chinese medicine, when the time comes to be famous, he is still afraid that there will be no clients?

All day, Ye Chen was preparing for the stall.

(recommendation ticket! Reward! Collection ~ various requests!)
