Chapter 1281: At any price!

"This demon emperor!"

"They are descendants of the dragon race, who are by nature fornicating, and there are many enchanting concubines, almost a thousand!"

"There are thousands of offspring, they like to kill, they are very arrogant, and they will be rewarded!"

The astronomical * will narrate: "Three hundred years ago, the princess of a prince in the Kungu court was captured by an heir of the demon emperor. The prince killed the demon emperor's heir, but was beaten into blood mist by the demon emperor. Very strong, but it is obviously not done by the descendants of the Demon Queen!"

"Not only that, the Demon Sovereign has always planned to eat away at Kunlun Void, and at the same time, it has a great connection with the Blood Spirit Race!"

"It can even be said that he has a close relationship with the Blood Spirit Race!"

Ye Chen heard the blood spirit tribe, and a chill flashed in his eyes: "Okay, I probably understand this demon king!"

"Since this guy is related to the Blood Spirit Race, and even wants to swallow Kunlun Void, he doesn't need to exist anymore!"

: "The King's Court of Destiny respects my fate, and now I am the lord!"

"Change the Palace of Destiny to the Palace of Light, and order the other three dynasties to come over in three days!"

"I want to plan with them one by one."

"Lord!" The Celestial God will be slightly worried, and said: "The four kings of the royal courts, although they are all recommended by everyone, but they are the demon king's personal seal! If the demon king sends a demon, how do we respond?"

"It depends on the situation, if you are arrogant, kill!"

"If it is possible to chat, you can continue to develop, including the two hundred gods and generals of the Demon Emperor, and just kill all the Demon Emperor's line!"

Ye Chen did not intend to let go of the demon emperor's line. The demon emperor was cut off, and those demon concubines and dragons must be ruthless, and if left, they would cause harm to the rear. They simply slaughtered them and collected a pile of demon cores and blood. , You can train!

He asked, "By the way, how many monsters are there in the body training ground?"

"At the beginning, the Blood Spirit Race moved tens of millions of Monster Races into the place of refining!"

"In the past three thousand years, there have not been many major battles. Now the number of monsters is about 50 or 60 million, and most of them are low-level monsters." Astronomy God General said: "If it is a king, you need to add destiny. Army, his subordinates immediately ordered to go down!"

"Go!" Ye Chen looked at the two demons, and said: "I'm going to retreat for a few days. If there is a foreign enemy, no matter who it is, you can directly kill it. If you can't stop it, come and find me!"

"Yes!"

The Astronomy God General and the Phoenix God General were shocked and excited!

But there is a foreign enemy, kill it directly!

The king is strong and domineering!

Not even the Demon King!

Presumably the king must have great confidence and extremely powerful strength!

After the two gods left, Ye Chen found a cave in the surrounding area and asked Xiao Huang and the blood dragon to protect himself. He then took out the blood of the Destiny Demon King and the many gods killed by the aftermath, ready to start breaking through the hegemonic body Phase two!

The essence and blood of more than twenty gods were quickly absorbed by Ye Chen!

Ye Chen felt that the power of qi and blood had increased a lot, and his basic blood qi had reached 3.7 million catties, which was the level of a normal human emperor!

He took out the blood of the Destiny Demon King's blood, golden blood, violent violent, shocked layers of space to shatter, then put the blood upside down in a special wooden barrel, sit in and start to absorb it.

The golden essence and blood contains an ultimate murderous intent and extremely powerful energy!

But no matter how strong the murderous aura is, it is not as strong as the golden blood in Ye Chen's body. It just boils for a while before being absorbed by Ye Chen.

The third stage of the domineering stage!

is to start casting the golden body again, once again let the golden body get rid of, make it stronger!

From the most basic bones, skulls, bone marrow, to capillaries, meridians, skin, flesh and blood, etc., step by step to re-aggregate!

Huhuhu! !

Huhu! ! !

Ye Chen stepped into the third stage of the dominance stage in one fell swoop, and the whole body was tempered, from the inside out, there was a golden light in between, and the basic energy and blood increased to 4.2 million catties, and then cooperated with the way of killing. Destroying Sword Dao can explode twice as much combat power, and it is absolutely qualified to fight against the powerhouses in the middle and late stages of the Emperor Realm! !

Even facing the powerhouse of the blood spirit race, he will not be too embarrassed!

Ye Chen's figure was shocked, the golden body dissipated, and the physical body returned to its original shape!

He took out a demon core, began to refine, and absorbed the power of the soul to strengthen himself!

Through the technique of "A Thousand Revolving Souls", he discovered that his soul power can seal about 23 people, but he has to upgrade it to the back to transform the soul power into an attack, a sword shape, or a sword. Shape, pierce the opponent's soul!

while absorbing the demon core, while practicing "A Thousand Revolutions Soul"

Soon, after reaching the seventeenth turn, Ye Chen's soul power reached 2.6 million points. For every additional 100,000 points, one more person could be sealed. If the soul power exceeded 40 million points, the "Sword Seal" cultivates to the realm of Dzogchen, when the opponent is sealed, the soul power consumed can be ignored!

Ye Chen is still practicing, and the demon clan outside is also building palaces in full swing.

The other three king courts, but this is not the case.

.....

In the court of King Lianyuan, the Demon King Lianyuan heard the last roar of the Destiny King, his face pale.

It slumped on the throne, its eyes were absent, and it muttered to itself: "Destiny is defeated, defeated!"

"Lord, what should we do?"

"Lord, now..."

"Lord, what should we do if the court of the Destiny is destroyed?"

Some gods questioned one after another, and their faces looked scared!

Ye Jitian has the ability to destroy the Royal Court of Heaven, which means that they have the power to destroy the Royal Court of Lianyuan. Life and death are all in between. How can we calm down!

The * of flowers rushed in and reported: "The news is here, the king, the court of the destiny is defeated!"

"The Destiny Demon King uses the treasures left by the blood spirit clan adults to advance his physical body to the domineering stage, and he holds a grade of fairy artifact!"

"So, I was blown up by Ye Jitian abruptly!"

It paused for a moment and sighed: "The Destiny King God will lose more than half, and the rest of the gods will be waiting for Ye Jitian as the new lord. The Destiny Army is also in rapid recruitment. It seems that the Destiny Demon King and Ye Jitian will fight. , The aftermath shook and killed hundreds of thousands of Mandate Army, urgently need to add!"

"Also, the new messenger from the Palace of Light, come to call us!"

"what should we do!"

The hall was silent, and no demon said anything.

Everyone looked at each other and sat down helplessly, not knowing what to do.

Go out and fight?

Ye Jitian abruptly killed the Destiny Demon King who entered the dominance stage!

Go out to fight, not fight or die!

express friendship and conclude an agreement?

How do you explain to Lord Demon Emperor?

For two thousand years, the four great royal courts have been under the ten thousand demon heavenly courts, and the four great king masters are also under the demon emperor's title. Although they attacked each other, they all have a bottom line. , Otherwise I can't explain to Lord Demon Emperor!

But now, the Demon King of Destiny has killed humans alive!

The other three kings are also in a dilemma.

"Let the messenger come in!"

Lianyuan Demon King was a bit decadent, recalling everything he had just said, it was like irony at this moment, and his life was in danger in front of him, so he was talking about the future!

What is the key to Ye Xitian's path!

Why did you find this place for body training?

Why did he destroy a demon king in such a short time!

Lianyuan Demon King's pupils condensed, as if he was determined, closed his eyes, forced a drop of blood, pinched his fingers, and a golden text appeared on the top of his head!

Text rotation! As if to see the secret!

This is one of the scariest places of Lianyuan Demon King!

He is proficient in the magic of destiny, and can see a part of anyone's future at the price of blood!

He wanted to see what Ye Xitian came from! at all costs!

Chapter 1282: provocative!

The text on the head of Lianyuan Demon King suddenly stopped spinning!

Its eyes narrowed slightly, and a string of ancient inscriptions in its mouth.

"There is a way of magic, the double pupils enter the world, break everything! There is nothing to hide!"

"Ye Jitian, I want to see what your origin is!"

The words fell, and a phantom suddenly appeared in front of it.

The ghost image is getting clearer and clearer!

turned out to be Ye Chen with a mask!

"So you are Ye Jitian, I don't know what kind of face is under your mask! Break it open for me!"

Lianyuan Demon King waved his hand. He thought he could shatter the mask of the phantom, but he did not expect that at this moment, the phantom raised his head!

A pair of cold eyes stared at it like this.

is like a * of death!

It's extremely erosive.

"Puff!"

In the next second, Lianyuan Demon King couldn't bear it anymore, and directly vomited a mouthful of blood.

The whole person is extremely weak!

"The Lord!"

The many subordinates around him quickly stepped forward and helped Lianyuan Demon King up.

But the Lianyuan Demon King's expression at this moment was a bit horrified, something that everyone present had never seen before!

Not only that, but Lianyuan Demon King kept murmured: "This son's fate is not restricted by heaven. Who is this son, Ye Jitian? Is he really qualified to kill the sky!"

The more he thought about it, the more frightened he became. Suddenly, he thought of something again. He suddenly raised his head, looked at the messenger who was walking slowly, and asked: "Now, is the Palace of Heaven's Mandate changed to the Palace of Light?"

"Yes, Lianyuan Demon King!"

The messenger is not afraid, nor bows, staring straight at the Lianyuan Demon King, the backer can harden himself for a while, don't need to be the same as before, come as a messenger, but also have to worship Lianyuan Demon King three times and nine knocks. "Your new lord!"

"Ye Jitian, right, he sent an envoy, what can I do with this king?"

Lianyuan Demon King was so calm that he couldn't get confused in front of everyone.

"The king commanded when he left his subordinates!"

"The demon emperor's line, all the descendants, and all the demon that is close to the demon concubine, all be killed, and the evil species of the demon emperor must not be allowed to live!"

The messenger is calm and breezy, directly defining the extinction pattern of the Demon Emperor!

Huhu! !

Hoo!

, the sound of solemn breathing lingered around.

Many gods looked at the messenger in surprise, wondering if they had heard it wrong!

Demon Prince Heir!

Usually, those are the favored sons of heaven. Although they are miscellaneous dragons and are by nature fornication, once they come here, they are all offerings of delicious banshees.

Now, the new lord has sent orders to all the kings to destroy these guys?

Aren't you afraid of the demon king going crazy?

"Emissary!"

"What do you mean by this!" Lianyuan Demon King's eyes were piercing, and he had to pay attention to his life and death. He said: "The demon prince has many heirs. You want this king to kill the demon emperor in my royal court. Descendants?"

"Your lord, aren't you afraid of the demon emperor's coming, do you want to trouble him?"

"I warn you, the demon king must not provoke!"

"Hahaha!" The messenger looked up to the sky and screamed, and the flames of his body lingered in flames, as if it had been burned by magma. "What is the demon emperor, the original words of our lord are: completely exterminate the demon emperor! "Starting

"An old dragon with a group of small dragons, why not be afraid!"

"Besides, what kind of person the Demon Emperor is, you should know that our lord will never let it go!"

"Bold!" Lianyuan Demon King slapped the table and stood up. The majestic coercion overwhelmed the world and terribly fell on the messenger, as if a mountain covered halfway through, and shouted angrily: "You dare to speak like this Demon King, Are you looking for death?"

The messenger was not afraid, clasped his fists in both hands to indicate to the north of the Palace of Light, staring sharply at the Palace of Lianyuan, and said coldly: "I am under the Lord Ye Killing of the Palace of Light, you dare to kill me, Your royal court of Lianyuan must be prepared for destruction!"

The lord of my house is Ye Jitian!

If you dare to move me, you have to weigh the consequences and see if you can bear it!

is the demon emperor, there is a king, I am not afraid!

"you!"

"Okay, okay, the messenger is so arrogant!"

"I haven't seen it before!" Lord Lianyuan accepted the pressure and continued to sit on the throne, examining the messenger, as if he was making a choice between the Demon Emperor and Ye Jitian, or neither.

The messenger spoke plainly, and said slowly: "It used to be the Destiny Demon King who led the royal court. The Destiny was not strong enough and arrogant. Naturally, I would not dare to be too arrogant!"

"But, now my master is Ye Jitian!"

"If I wait for the gods to be arrogant and domineering, wouldn't it be the face of my lord!"

It suddenly pointed at Lianyuan Demon King and shouted: "Lianyuan Demon King, my lord has ordered you to go to the king's court to discuss matters three days later, remember!"

It conveyed Ye Chen and gave the order, then turned around and wanted to leave!

"Do you dare to show no respect to my lord!"

"Apologize to my lord!"

On the side of _____, the two monsters stood up directly, drew their swords and pointed at the messenger!

"Are you deceiving me in the royal court of Lianyuan?"

"Lord Ye Jitian, slaughter my Lianyuan army five thousand!"

"If you don't give me an explanation, even you dare to provoke my lord, don't you want to live anymore!"

too deceiving!

Ye Jitian hasn't arrived yet!

His subordinates dare to be so presumptuous, do they treat me like nothing?

"Emissary!"

"The fate of my Five Thousand Lianyuan Army has not yet been counted by your new king!"

Another * general is also indignant. It seems that he comes from the line of the Lianyuan king, and he works very hard!

"enough!"

"Let it go!" Lord Lianyuan slapped the table and shook the two gods back, staring at the messenger with bitter eyes, and said: "Go back and tell your lord, this king will be three days later. He will definitely go! Let him be careful of the Demon Emperor, lest he will fall under the Demon Emperor before three days arrive!"

"Lord, the messenger provokes you, it's time to kill!"

"Lord, it can't be like this!"

"The Lord!"

Many gods speak, and they can't bear this breath!

"I'll say it again!"

"Please leave the messenger!" Lord Lianyuan was really angry, and shocked at his own * general, and immediately injured many * generals!

It stared at the messenger's far away back, and said: "Wait, you think, I want to hold back this tone?"

"The Destiny Demon King and I have the same strength!"

"The blood spirit treasures obtained are not much different!"

"The destiny was beaten to death by Ye Jitian alive! Do you think this king was also beaten to death by Ye Jitian?"

As soon as these words came out, all the gods in the temple were honest!

The strength is not good, but I can't do it!

really persuaded!

If you don't counsel, you will die!

Lord Lianyuan snorted coldly, and said: "I, Lianyuan and Destiny, are the second tier of the four demon kings. On the contrary, I am the King of Hundred Wars, the old guy of the Hundred Wars Demon King, who is very powerful, and he still wanted to Take the position of the Demon King!"

"If it weren't for the blood spirit race to support that old dragon, today's Demon King might be the Demon King of Hundred Wars!"

Chapter 1283: Gave you a chance

"Although I don't have the strength to resist, the Demon King of Hundred Battles is not easy to provoke!"

"Does he Ye Xitian think he is the Demon Emperor?"

"The three demon kings were also sent to order, simply, let him go and fight the old guy Baizhan!"

"This king waits to sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight, why not do it!"

To become the demon king, he must also have the ability to calculate.

Especially Lianyuan Demon King, with great ambitions, although the combat power is not high, but they know how to avoid the heavy and light, how can they face Ye Jitian!

Here in the Royal Court of Lianyuan, the messenger is successfully completed!

Kungu King Court, located in the third tier of the four great king courts, the weakest one, the prince was killed by the Demon King, but the Kun Gu Demon King did not dare to say a word. He heard that Ye Qi Tianzhen killed the Mandate of Heaven. The Demon King was even more shocked. Facing the imposing messenger, he didn't even say a word, so he quickly agreed!

For the envoys sent by Ye Chen, the biggest problem is to face the King's Court!

The King of Hundred Wars is an elite division up and down, the man of Hundred Wars, the last one is the Demon King of Hundred Wars, the seventh-tier heavenly realm of the emperor, the third-tier hegemonic stage, when you see Ye Chen sent The messenger personally hit the messenger without the strength to fight back, breaking every inch, breaking the prototype of the avenue, and ruining most of the soul.

In the end, the Hundred Wars Demon King became interested in Ye Chen, and then he put the messenger back.

The envoy of the wind and cloud who was hit hard, staggered back to the new hall of light, and happened to see Ye Chen leaving.

"The Lord!"

"The Hundred Wars Demon King provoked you and severely wounded me. The prototype of the Origin Avenue was almost wiped out!"

"Please avenge the king's subordinates!"

The Wind and Cloud Envoy half knelt down, and at the moment he was bathed in blood, full of wounds, and more than a hundred wounds. The wounds were so heavy that they were almost killing!

In an instant, such a move attracted most of the gods.

These gods looked at the envoy of the wind and clouds, and they were furious, and they knelt down one after another, holding their fists together, and said: "Please remove the envoy of the wind and clouds and kill the old beast!"

"Get up!" Ye Chen waved his hand and shot out a burst of vitality and blood, and at the same time shot a dozen silver needles from his five fingers, covering the Envoy of Wind and Cloud, temporarily stopping his injuries. New 81 Chinese network update the fastest computer terminal: <https://>

He asked with a cold expression: "Hundred Battles Demon King, really desperate to take action? Or can you provoke and be hit hard?"

Ye Chen thought, shaking and killing the Destiny Demon King by himself!

The other three demon kings should feel dangerous, even if they don't bow their heads, they dare not provoke their subordinates!

Unexpectedly, the Wind and Cloud Envoy was almost killed!

If the Demon King of Hundred Wars is really doing it deliberately, then before conquering the old beast, we must take a lesson!

"The Lord!"

"The subordinates know that the Hundred Wars Demon King is grumpy, and the subordinates just follow the king's words to convey your verbal past!"

"Unexpectedly, the Hundred Wars Demon King didn't even look at his subordinates, and his subordinates' words would be beaten like this!"

The Envoy of the Wind and Cloud was originally not out of the ordinary, and he was arrogant without an envoy. After saying a few words based on the facts, I did not expect that he would be beaten like this for the Demon King of Hundred Battles.

Ye Chen shook his head helplessly, he didn't want to make enemies.

But now, since the Hundred Wars Demon King already has a threat, it is not something that should be obliterated.

but must be resolved.

Otherwise, his relatives and friends in Kunlun Xu will be in danger.

His eyes condensed, his evil spirit burst out, and the ground under his feet shattered a bit!

"Since some people don't want to, then I can't help it. Today I will bring the Destiny Army, and I will meet this so-called Hundred Wars Demon King for a while!"

.....

At the same time, a hundred battle kings!

"Huh, a little human, dare to come and order me!"

"If he dares to come over, I will blow him up on the spot!"

A burly figure is sitting on the huge throne, his body is also wrapped in thick scales, the dark blue scales seem to be impermeable to light, yet there is a terrifying coercion!

It wears a blood-colored crown and a blood-colored dragon robe!

It is the lord of the Hundred Battle Royal Court, the Hundred Battle Demon King, the seventh-tier emperor, the terrifying existence of the third-order hegemonic stage, and the dragon king who almost won the position of the demon king. Deliberately release, but it is extremely uncomfortable.

"King!"

"Ye Jitian, you dare to send an envoy to find death, why not kill the envoy directly?"

A demon plant clasped his fists and narrated.

It has terrifying blood flowing around it.

"Ye Jitian killed the Destiny Demon King, so it's not to be afraid!"

"Why didn't the king directly enter this newly-established palace of light and directly killed Ye Jitian?"

Ye Suotian provokes my royal court of a hundred wars, this is tantamount to seeking a dead end!

"The Lord!"

"The subordinates are willing to lead the strong, directly into the palace of light, kill Ye Jitian, and remove all obstacles!"

At the side, a white phoenix * general stood up and clasped his fists and said: "The subordinate has advanced to the sixth-tier emperor realm, and the golden body is the third-tier. He is about to kill the demon king and seize the court of destiny. The sky broke out, and he simply let his subordinates destroy him!"

It secretly said in its heart: Originally, the demon emperor established the structure of four king courts, and the king master could be changed. Starting

I still think about destroying the Demon King of Heaven and becoming the new Demon King!

But since you Ye Xitian is going to come out, I will kill you first!

"Two gods, don't worry!"

"The king let go of the messenger because he wanted to attract this human being who knows nothing about the heights of the earth!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King contains disdain laughed and said: "This human being will definitely attack my Hundred Wars King's Court. In this way, we have killed Ye Jitian and put together a new Palace of Light. It's not easier!"

It looked towards the sky slightly, and said lightly: "The Demon Emperor should still be in retreat. If something like this happens, you kill Ye Jitian directly, accept the new royal court, and declare yourself to be the king. Just let the Demon Emperor know! "

Fortunately!

The old demon king is retreating!

Otherwise, if the Demon King personally came out and killed Ye Jitian, and then appointed someone else to take over the Palace of Heavenly Mandate, then its plan would be ruined!

Now that the Demon King is not there, he killed Ye Jitian and sent it to take over the Palace of Heavenly Mandate, which is equivalent to the power of the king who controls the two palaces!

The blood spirit tribe once issued an order that although the four great royal courts are standing under the ten thousand demon heaven and under the demon emperor, they must not collude with each other, because they are afraid that the four great royal courts will collude with each other and become stronger and stronger. Management is not easy to schedule, and it is easy to cause civil war.

Nowadays, the Demon King of Hundred Wars wants to grab food from his mouth, and he has planned for a long time.

But he did not expect that his plan had not been implemented yet, Ye Chen had already killed the Destiny Demon King first and became the new master.

This is the only accident.

Ye Chen's move of grabbing food from the tiger's mouth, the Hundred Wars Demon King Yan could allow, so he deliberately destroyed the foundation of the Wind and Cloud Envoy to attract Ye Chen to kill, so as to kill Ye Chen!

"Report!"

"The king, Ye Jitian led the powerhouse of Guangming Hall, has stepped into the realm of my palace, and is rushing towards the hall!"

Chapter 1284: The evil * from hell!

"Is it necessary to dispatch the Hundred War Demon Army?"

A message-transmitting * will rush in to report, and even ready to move, Xiang and Ye Jitian fought against each other and tried.

"The Palace of Light?"

"The original Destiny Army, has its name changed?"

"Forget it, I have to change it again anyway, to my Hundred Battles Demon Army!" A * general sneered again and again, then clasped his fists at the Hundred Battles Demon King: "Lord, please let your subordinates take action and kill Ye Kill the sky!"

"Don't worry!"

"Let Ye Xitian lead the army in, let everyone watch!"

The Demon King of Hundred Battles ate the fruit and smiled: "In this way, two * generals, any one of them will kill Ye Jitian, so that they can take the throne and become the new king!"

Collect hundreds of warriors! Play free!

It stared at the youth from afar, and couldn't sneer in its heart! Starting

Ye Jitian, Ye Jitian!

You actually helped this king, so anxious to die.

Besides, you still took the initiative to invade the royal court of my hundred battles, giving us a reason to fight!

Kill you, my subordinate is the superior, but it's the Demon King's side, it's better to explain!

Outside the palace!

Ye Chen stopped, his gaze was magnificent, and he swung his sword straight at the court of the Hundred Wars Kings, and he reprimanded: "The Hundred Wars Demon King, it depends on the owner to fight the dog. I gave it a chance. Now, speed roll out and die !"

This voice contained tyrannical Taoism, spread all over the world, and even shocked a lot of monster ears!

"You dare to threaten me!"

"Ye Jitian, you are here to die!"

The Hundred Battles Demon King led the generals to fly out, staring at Ye Chen, and said: "You are not qualified to be the opponent of this king. There are left and right lieutenants under this king. You have to fight with them first. You defeat them before you have Qualified as the opponent of this king!"

"If you were defeated by them!"

"Sorry, you have to use your life as compensation, and at the same time, it will become the new king!"

"how is it?"

If you accept the challenge, then you will fight, and you will be eligible to fight against this king if you win the two of my masters!

If you don't accept it, then the king will go up with you and kill you!

If you accept, if you lose, you will die, and the king's court will be accepted by my god!

The Hundred Wars Demon King played this abacus.

Even after killing Ye Chen, he thought clearly about how to explain to the Demon Emperor and how to explain to the Blood Spirit Clan, and even acted so that the Demon Emperor could not find its fault.

Of course, if the Demon King of Hundred Wars killed the Envoy of Wind and Cloud and Ye Chen came to trouble him, it would not be easy to explain. If Ye Chen was killed, it would be harder to explain to the Demon King. All calculations were extremely clever.

"Challenge?"

"Beat?"

"The new lord?"

Ye Chen smiled coldly, looked down at the two great generals not far away, and sneered: "You dare to challenge me when you wait for trash?"

He waved his sword and pointed at the Demon King of Hundred Wars, and said with a smile: "You old beast come forward, I still need to sacrifice my cards to win you, but your two ants come up to fight me, not seeking death. What is it?"

"Hundred Wars Demon King!"

"I, Ye Jitian, also gambled with you, dare you?"

"I can accept the challenge of your subordinates, even your challenge!"

"I will kill you one by one on the spot, and after the event, everything in the royal court of your hundred battles will belong to me!" First issue <https://https://>

He paused for a moment, and smiled: "If I lose, the Palace of Light is yours, how about it?"

"Really?" The Hundred Wars Demon King looked deep, and his mottled face showed a sinister smile. As soon as this gambling battle came out, he killed Ye Chen, and it was even more legitimate. The Demon King had to do it well. Without the slightest curse!

"Naturally take it seriously!"

"Because you three are too weak!"

"Also, my bright palace will not belong to you, you are just here to die!"

Ye Chen waved his sword, the sword aura shook the sky, tearing the formation in front of him to be comfortable, and he scolded: "Guangming Palace, step back!"

"Yes, Lord!"

"Yes, Lord!"

The envoys of the wind and clouds, the astronomical gods and all the monsters all retreat, ready to watch the battle and congratulate their lord, and kill the Quartet!

"Arrogant!"

"Ye Jitian, today the * will take your life!"

The gods around the Demon King of Hundred Battles jumped out, and endless flower clusters grew under his feet, condensing into a bridge of flowers, the brilliance of the sky was dazzling. It stepped on the air, the rhizome turned into an arm, holding a double-edged long sword, and a simple and quiet atmosphere circulated around it.

It smashed a sword in the air, the blade pierced everything, spreading the power of golden blood and blood, and even sneered: "A sword is enough to destroy you!"

"It's just a mere human being, this * will not know how many slaughtered thousands of years ago, what can you do!"

A human being less than a hundred years old?

thought that killing the Destiny Demon King and stepping into the hegemonic stage would be enough to fight the * general?

ridiculous, ridiculous, big joke!

"This battle is almost over!"

"Yeah, look at that Ye Xitian, he didn't mean to dodge at all."

"Presumably, it's a space sealed off by the power of the spirit of the gods, you can't move!"

The two emperor-level five-tier gods in the Royal Court of Hundred Battles were chatting with each other, their dismissive expressions made the Hundred Battles Demon Army rejoice!

Wow! !

Ling Yun Shen used this sword with infinite power, like a sword to open the sky, and fell down onto Ye Chen's head!

This sword, at least contains more than endless energy and blood, and the human beings in the sixth-tier emperor realm who do not cultivate their flesh are absolutely unstoppable!

But Ye Chen is the third-order in the domineering stage, and his basic vitality is not low!

See you!

Ye Chen's figure shook slightly, and his pupils exuded that self-respectful spirit, as if piercing the Nine Heavens of Void!

He suddenly raised his right hand, and his casual clothes burst, and his limbs burst into blood, and the power of tyrannical blood burst out, lingering around his right arm, invisibly tearing the billowing waves of air, as if A star rose into the sky, bursting into a dazzling luster!

boom! ! !

There was a violent explosion!

That sword was steadily blocked by Ye Chen's right hand, and a shock wave blasted out, destroying trees in a radius of thousands of meters, and shook all the gods back several steps, like two extreme weapons colliding, and the surrounding space appeared. Concussion, rolling dust rolling!

"I even greet the fairy with bare hands!"

"What's more, you * weapon!"

"Broken!" Ye Chen yelled softly, five pure fingers grabbed the sword body along the way, huge power burst out, and violently pulled upwards, exerting the opposite force with the sword body, only to hear a clear sword sound. , Accompanied by fragments spread around.

Spirit Tool Long Sword!

broken!

was abruptly broken by Ye Chen!

Ye Chen threw half the tip of the sword backhand, and the power burst out, the tip of the sword flew out like a meteor, leaving a fiery red mark on the spot, and went straight to the Lingyun God General!

At this moment, he is like an evil * from hell!

Chapter 1285: Be bold!

"Do not!"

"The golden body shows up!"

Ling Yun Shen will shout violently, but was hit by the tip of the sword, causing an extreme explosion.

Its body fell down, and a mouthful of blood was spit out. If it hadn't been for him to step into the domineering body, it would have been pierced by the sword.

Of course, there were cracks in its body. I am afraid that it will suffer another blow, and the golden body will inevitably shatter!

"impossible!"

"You and I are both in the domineering stage, your basic vitality is not as high as mine, how can you break my sword!"

Ling Yun Shen was weak to the extreme, collapsed on the ground, surrounded by golden power, and was repairing his body.

It stared at Ye Chen and asked, "Answer me, why?"

The sixth heaven of my emperor realm!

Basic vitality is higher than you!

The golden body is the same level as you, why did I lose?

was so terribly defeated!

"Because I am Ye Jitian!" New 81 Chinese net update the fastest mobile terminal: <https://>

"Your skills are too bad, you can't break out when you are in battle, or you have too many weapons!"

Ye Chen wears the First Grade Immortal Tool Heaven Killing Sword at his waist, and his strength has increased by 30%. The energy of the blood that burst out just now is far stronger than that of the Lingyun God General, plus he has obtained so many powerful techniques, how is the strength? Will be sent to a demon plant in the emperor state!

"The old dragon of all battles!"

"I want the life of your gods and generals!"

Ye Chen stands on the ground, but it gives people a feeling of standing between the heavens and the earth. Those eyes that are so solemn are like endless stars and endless seas separated from the monsters. No one can approach it, and no one can. Comparable!

This kind of feeling is more like the Demon King of Heaven and the Demon King of Hundred Wars!

to be more terrifying and stronger!

The so-called Xeon!

is the spirit of Ye Chen, not moving like a mountain, moving like a thunderstorm, and when calm is like a fairy god, once a war begins, it will reveal a look like an angel and a demon from hell!

He waved his right hand, and the force of the tyrannical golden blood exploded, with endless pressure, and the cover was pressed down, as if the world was destroyed!

"Do not!"

"No, the Demon King, help me!"

"I don't want to die!"

Ling Yun Shen will scream desperately, only to see its body quickly cracked again, the position just repaired, directly exploded, the lower body completely became golden fragments, the golden body is considered to be half-waste, it will not take a hundred years to come restore!

"Lead Lord!"

"It's almost enough, Lao Tzu's god, you can't kill it yet!"

The Demon King of Hundred Battles uttered a word leisurely, five fingers and one palm print, colliding with Ye Chen's coercion!

boom! !

The two forces repeatedly collided several times, and the aftermath of the shaking made the world shake.

The small world opened up by a powerful person in the Combination Realm is not particularly stable. It is also very normal to be trembling when encountering extremely strong powers. If the power behind Ye Chen can burst out of power that exceeds the emperor's realm, this place of body refining is broken. It is not surprising that it is cracked!

boom! !

Ye Chen shot, the power of golden vitality and blood exploded again, pressing the Lingyun God General into golden powder bursting all over the sky, a generation of * generals, the third-order monster plant of the hegemony stage, officially fell! In Ye Chen's hands!

There are not even more than three moves!

The second move is to block the Demon King of Hundred Wars, otherwise the second move will be enough to blow Ling Yun Shen's body and destroy his soul!

"Woohoo!!"

Ye Chen withdrew the pressure, breathing slightly dignified, staring at the Hundred Wars Demon King with cold eyes.

The Hundred Wars Demon King remained silent, his eyes grew deeper and deeper, like two dark caves, filled with killing and darkness.

However, the * behind is not angry!

"Master, kill Ye Jitian!"

"Master, Ye Jitian is so rampant, kill Ye Jitian!"

"Lord, take revenge for Lingyun God General..."

The monsters of the third and fourth levels of the Emperor Zun realm clamored constantly.

They have not yet come into contact with the Overlord Body Stage and the Late Emperor Stage, and they can't see the power of Ye Chen at all.

At this time, God White Phoenix swallowed secretly and whispered: "So strong, what is the origin of this Ye Jitian? When did Kunlun Xu's genius be so terrifying!"

It secretly looked at the Demon King of Hundred Battles, and said in his heart: With the character of this old guy, I won't let me not fight!

Fortunately, three hundred years ago, the adults of the blood spirit race came to Kunlun Xu when they came to my body-building place to inspect!

I think my talent and combat power are good, give me some treasures!

Using these treasures is enough to kill Ye Jitian, but it is a pity that it was originally intended to be used against the Demon Emperor, but now it is cheap this kid.

"Come out!"

"White Phoenix God General!" 新ヤ~⑧~1~中文网ωωω.χ~8.~1zщ.còm

Ye Chen said with a smile on his face: "The Phoenix vein, Kunlun disappeared, but I didn't expect that it still exists in the body training ground! It's a pity that your blood is not pure."

He caressed Xiao Huang in his arms and said, "My Xiao Huang has eaten a lot of monster meat, but I have never eaten phoenix meat. I will kill you later. I will not break you into pieces, but will keep your blood. Come to refine your body. As for your body, I am going to use it for barbecue. It should taste pretty good!"

BBQ?

When the word came out, both sides were confused!

Is this Ye Xitian looking for death?

"Ye Chen!"

"You still want to eat me, you are so bold!"

The white phoenix * general did not care, condensed a phantom, a snow-white phoenix soared into the sky, erupting a terrifying aura, and transformed into a 9th-grade spiritual weapon. After the two phoenix claws were caught, a sword was cut in the air. , Sword Qi is falling down with Phoenix's own Nirvana Fire, like the horror of stars falling into the world!

The white flames burned the sky and fell all the way down!

is that the many powerful people behind the palace of light feel that it is difficult to breathe, and they feel burnt all over, and they dare not look directly at the sword energy.

Astronomical God General hurriedly shouted: "Be careful, the lord, this is the phoenix industry fire, the temperature is extremely high, it can incinerate everything under the immortal artifact, you must be careful!"

"It's just a little flame!"

"Why do you fear it!" Ye Chen stared at the flames, then shot!

Ye Chen slapped a palm sharply, and golden lightning broke out from the palm lines, which rushed to all directions, turning into a golden thunder net, completely covering the flames and sword energy!

He moved, and flew out suddenly, his body shaped like lightning, and he blinked his eyes and reached the front of the white phoenix * general. He clapped a palm with his left hand, the sound burst, and the infinite power was like a huge rock, hitting the phoenix. General!

boom! !

With a single blow, the Ninth-Rank Spirit Tool in the white Phoenix's claws was directly shaken and released.

Its main body burst out, its internal organs shattered and burned to the ground. After landing, it turned into a human form, showing a golden domineering body with blood overflowing from the corners of its lips, "So strong!"

The golden blood flowed away, and began to mend the civil war of the White Phoenix!

Its physical body is stronger than that of the Lingyun God General, even after suffering the palm of Ye Chen, it was only severely injured and did not lose its combat power!

It took out a blood-colored light ball and shouted angrily: "Ye Jitian, die!"

Chapter 1286: Identity exposure

Ye Sitian, you force me to use my hole cards!

Well, this * will kill you every inch!

Otherwise, it is not enough to solve the hatred of the godless generals!

In an instant, the white phoenix * will squeeze the light ball in his hand, and a violent qi and blood poured into its body, instantly healed its internal injuries, and turned its whole body into pure gold, allowing it to temporarily stand in the domineering stage. Tier 4-the whole body bones are red gold!

"Ye Jitian!"

"You must die!"

It flew out, like a phoenix reborn from a fire, exploding nearly six million catties of energy and blood, causing the world to shake, all kinds of thunder lights fell down, the mighty power of the gods, making countless monsters tremble!

It slammed a claw, bursting out a dazzling brilliance, like fireworks blooming, gorgeous and dazzling, with the breath of death, turning into a divine sword, coming through the layers of the void, wanting a shock Kill Ye Chen!

"court death!"

"Ten Thousand Buddha Diamond Fist!"

Ye Chen snorted, and a group of extremely exaggerated Buddha light shone all over the world, and then burst out, like a holy Buddha under the night sky, endless Buddhist texts flying out, lingering above his fist, as if there was a giant Buddha Manifestation!

At the same time, he mobilized the immortal swordsmanship, bursting out with double the combat power!

The violent power burst out!

Far beyond the power of the White Phoenix!

Boom boom boom! !

The giant Buddha smashed the divine sword every inch, and the violent punches were superimposed!

boom! !

Accompanied by another burst, the fist hit White Phoenix's chest, completely cutting off the blood explosion of the Blood Spirit Race, and also shattering the golden body of the White Phoenix!

boom! ! !

White Phoenix's red golden left claw burst, no blood spilled, but countless golden fragments floated away, like a curtain of rain!

boom! !

The right claw burst, turning into golden crystals and falling down!

boom!

Right foot burst!

boom!

Left foot burst!

Now, White Phoenix's limbs have been completely shattered!

Ye Chen directly beat the white phoenix into a handicap, grabbed the phoenix head and fell on the ground like a demon god, forcibly tore the white phoenix's head, extracted the phoenix blood, and stored the group in a special vessel. !

"Not only will there be Phoenix blood refining this time, I will also have Phoenix meat to eat!"

Xiao Huang chuckled, waving his paws, and the red and blue pupils were bursting with mysterious light, and then he shot out an ancient force that directly killed the golden domineering body in Bai Phoenix, and returned it from the dominance stage to the bone consolidation stage. , The flesh is no longer golden, you can eat it!

Ye Chen extracted Phoenix's true blood, dropped the white Phoenix's body on the ground, raised Phoenix's head, and looked at the Hundred Wars Demon King meaningfully, and said, "Now, what? You still want to kill me?"

He secretly took a few pills to restore his injuries, and he broke out twice just now, killing the two gods of the King's Court of Hundred Wars, which was not a small cost!

He looked at the White Phoenix Divine General, and thought to himself: This blood spirit race is really pervasive!

Not only control the upper demon king and the four great demon kings in the body refining land!

Even more under control, the monsters and monsters that have the potential to become the monster king!

This management method is not afraid that the Demon King and the Demon Kings will not obey orders. Once they do not obey orders, they will be removed directly, and the previously arranged demon beasts will be able to continue to control the position. I have to say that the blood spirit tribe's methods, not simple!

Just this white phoenix * general!

Although the treasures of the Blood Spirit Race do not have a first-grade immortal weapon, the qi and blood will last long enough to make Hundred Phoenix enter the fourth and fifth stages of the dominance stage. That way, even if it does not double its combat power, it is far The nine-layer heaven of the emperor realm far beyond Kunlun's virtual reality!

Based on Ye Chen's understanding of Han Yun, Han Yun's physical body is at most Tier 1 of the Domineering Stage. Kunlun's virtual body is the strongest except for himself, it should be Han Yun and the ancestor of the Huang family!

Regardless of the small number of physical training places, the top-level combat power is really no worse than Han Yun and other sects and family ancestors!

"Ye Jitian!"

"Your combat power is quite strong!"

"This king has to admit that you are a good genius!" The Hundred Wars Demon King suddenly showed a smile and said: "I remember last month, the ancestors of the Huang family were searching for a person, a person who killed most of the young geniuses of the Huang family. , His name is Ye Jitian!"

"He has not searched this person, thinking that he ran into the body training ground!"

"So I deliberately sent this king to pay more attention to this king. This king wants to come to a younger generation is not worth mentioning, but seeing what you did today is exactly the same as the Huang Family ancestor described it. You are the one who killed the blood in the blood spirit secret realm. People of the predecessors of the Spirit Race!"

"Ye Jitian!"

"It just happens to have the same name, or in other words, he was originally a person!"

At this moment, the eyes of the Hundred Wars Demon King are extremely sharp, as if they have seen Ye Chen directly, "The Golden Body Hegemony Tier 3, although the realm is in the Daoyuan realm, it has the power of the emperor realm, and there is also a grade of fairy weapon. The 30% increase in strength of the Heaven Killing Sword and 10% increase in healing!"

"Your fairy weapon should come from the idiot of Destiny!"

"At the beginning, the ancestors of the Huang family passed an order to me, and the Ye Jitian that I was looking for was the first level of the Dao Source Realm, the bone consolidation stage!"

"It looks like he killed more than a hundred geniuses of the Dao Origin Realm and Void King Realm in the Huang Family!"

"Even the excellent Huang Zhantian and Huang Wuqiang from their Huang family are taken as their own!"

It suddenly stood up, stared at Ye Chen, spoke wildly, and asked: "But, what kind of power is it that can make you so much stronger in a month or two, and your combat power has increased almost ten times. many?"

"But sometimes, I really feel that your combat power is going up and down, something is wrong!"

"The ancestors of the Huang family said that you killed the blood spirit tribe of the Seventh-tier Heaven in the Emperor Venerable Realm between the Void King Realm and the Daoyuan Realm. However, judging from the remains of the Blood Spirit Realm, you defeated Huang Zhantian and Huang Wu. When the gun is being fired, there is only one level of combat power in the Emperor Realm!"

"So, I guess, the people behind you should have a long history!"

"What kind of foreign power support do you get!"

"Maybe, we can talk!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King ignored the monsters, took out a bone cup and poured it on the refined human blood wine. When he was about to drink it, he suddenly stopped, showing a smile, and took out another bone cup. Pour the same people's blood wine and give it to the gods around him, saying: "Give it to Palace Master Ye!"

"Lord, this?"

"Lord, he killed the Lingyun supernatural general!"

"Lord Please avenge our White Phoenix clan!"

Many gods have spoken and asked.

Most of these gods have their cultivation bases in the first and second layers of the emperor, and they are very puzzled by the meaning of the Demon King of Hundred Wars.

According to the king, the ancestors of the Huang family passed an order to kill Ye Jitian.

Then the king should take action to kill Ye Sutian!

Moreover, Ye Jitian's killing of the blood spirit tribes aroused the horror of the demon of the Palace of Light and the Hundred Wars King Court, and he should kill Ye Jitian and dedicated it to the seniors of the blood spirit tribe in exchange for merit.

"Who dares to speak half a word!"

"This king will kill it!" The Hundred Wars Demon King snorted coldly, his blood exploded, causing many gods to spurt blood back. The best city doctor

Chapter 1287: What is the use!

"This!"

"The king... hey"

Many gods will bow their heads and dare not speak any more.

The * general respectfully took the bone cup, flew away, handed it to Ye Chen, and said, "Hallmaster Ye, please!"

boom! !

Ye Chen blasted the * general with a punch, and his blood burned!

This wine is brewed with human blood!

This bone cup is made from the skulls of the ancestors of the human emperor, as a human!

How could Ye Chen drink it!

There was a Destiny Demon King, I thought it was over!

Now I didn't expect the same with this Hundred Wars Demon King!

This is a provocation!

Extreme provocation.

Ye Chen ignited a burning anger in his heart!

"It's okay if you don't drink human blood wine!"

"However, this king has something to discuss with you!" The Hundred Wars Demon King did not shy away from it, not angry, and smiled: "The Demon King has been in retreat, and the place of body training respects me. You and I have to talk. Worry!"

"Just now, this king did not notify the ancestors of the Huang family, but sent someone to check you secretly!" It took a spirit pigeon and said with a smile: "The Mo family's messaging and ability to do things are really fast!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King took a look at it, then looked at Ye Jitian carefully, and said: "Your whereabouts are mysterious, your cultivation base is tyrannical, you are not old, and your strength has increased extremely fast! Before, you have taken the Kunlun Xu various martial arts in Qianjue Square. Ye Chen, who is upset, is still your junior!"

"You brothers, you can advance so fast!"

"I think there must be a powerful power behind it. This power cannot come from Kunlun Xu. It must be the people of the high martial plane who are supporting you!"

"Actually, this king doesn't have much feeling for the blood spirit race. If you are interested, I can help you kill the demon king, as well as the Kungu demon king and Lianyuan demon king. You are the main body refining place, I Help you, but as a condition, you have to let me join you!"

"Your brother, it is a way to rejuvenate Kunlun Xu and fight against the blood spirit race."

It waved its claws at will, volleyed at the monster beast in the distance, and said with a smile: "I heard that the place where the blood spirit race is located is not too peaceful. The crisis they have to face is no less than the one you face. You must be the one. People supported by the Martial Plane, otherwise you can't improve so fast!"

"I want to join you too. After all, I don't like the blood spirit clan hierarchy. My room for ascendance is too small. Maybe when I reach your high martial level, I can make military exploits and be promoted to the realm of gods. territory!"

Having said so much, the Hundred Battles Demon King finally stated his purpose!

It wants to betray the Blood Spirit Race and help Ye Chen to obtain more training resources and improve its status!

It is not willing to be a demon king in a small world, it is to be the overlord!

There is no doubt that Ye Chen is the beginning of his idea. As long as he joins Ye Chen's side, it seems that there will be a big ascent ladder!

These remarks directly shocked all the monsters present.

No one thought that the Hundred Wars Demon King would dare to betray the Blood Spirit Race. It seemed that some means or trump cards were supporting its actions. Otherwise, if Ye Chen refused to agree, wouldn't it mean it would seek its own death, because the Blood Spirit Race Kunlun Xu will come to Kunlun in another year!

"What you said, I am a little moved!"

"But cooperation...You are certainly qualified and capable, but I can't find you!"

"I will not find a * who spoils the remains of my human ancestors as a partner!"

Ye Chen's murderous aura burst out, glaring at the Demon King of Hundred Wars, and said coldly:
"Behind me, there are strong people from outside the territory, but you are not a partner! I don't need to cooperate with you. I will give you a chance. Fight, if you beat me, you can consider!"

"If you lose, I will pull your dragon skin and roast your dragon meat!"

"Make a full dragon feast!"

He did find a lot of people who cooperated, and to be precise, he won many people.

For example, Han Yun, Bloody Night Gate, etc., but only did it without involving the bottom line.

As for the Demon King of Hundred Wars, such an inhumane existence that loves killing by nature, he has no interest in cooperating with it.

I just wanted to kill it!

"What about victory and defeat?"

"With your strength, among the younger generation, you can be said to be against the sky. But this is only limited to the Kunlun Void, you can still be mad one or two, besides, this king is really unwilling to destroy your foundation, lest you in the future Can't break through the nine layers of the emperor realm!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King speaks plainly, but is always full of the spirit of a superior!

With its dominance stage, coupled with the Canglong bloodline, the explosive power far exceeds all monsters!

Since ancient times, dragons have been divided into three, six or nine classes!

Although it is the most inferior Shenlong bloodline, it is also Shenlong Houyi!

The power of Shenlong far exceeds all monsters and humans!

If you use the fairy weapon to burst again, you can definitely fight against the powerhouse at the peak of the emperor realm, even if it is in the gods!

Cultivation to the highest level, the more you can understand how small the world you live in is!

It used to think that the emperor state was the pinnacle of mankind!

But when I saw the power of the blood spirit race, I understood that the emperor realm was just the beginning!

Dao source state, emperor noble state, enter the * state, * king state, mixed element state, combined Dao state, good fortune state and so on!

He is absolutely qualified to fight against everything in this body-building land!

Regardless of the other three demon kings, even if they unite, they are not its opponents!

Two thousand years ago, if it hadn't been for the intervention of the blood spirit clan's power into the gods, the position of the demon king would be its today, so it was not angry at the blood spirit clan's actions, and intended to help Ye Chen, and it was still clear.

"Your Dao Source Realm, your combat power is close to the middle and late stages of the Emperor Realm! Not only that, you are still refining your body and stepping into the domineering stage!"

"Quan and count you as an emperor!" The Demon King of Hundred Battles was idle, but sitting on the throne, slowly said: "You know what level and what level of the blood spirit people who come to Kunlun Xu every 100 years Status?"

It saw Ye Chen really have some doubts and said: "A hundred years ago, there were seven people, three peaks of the emperor realm, and four and a half steps into the * realm, seeming to be preparing to fuse the fairy. The soul has been transformed, the body is still in the future and transformed!"

"Also, every three hundred years, they are not the same batch!"

"These people are very young. Compared to our low-level planes, it's like sending juniors in the family to experience it. The big men of the blood spirit race send these juniors, teenagers and 20s. The juniors came to Kunlun Xu to kill wantonly, intending to temper themselves and let the juniors be familiar with killing, but only the juniors are stronger than you Kunlun Xu's strongest person!"

"What do you do for it?"

"I know your progress, maybe one year later, you will arrive at the emperor realm, and it will be comparable to the early stage of entering the * realm!"

Chapter 1288: Kunlun Xu Xiaoxiao

"But even if you are qualified to fight against entering the Divine Realm, what about the remaining Blood Spirit Race powerhouses? Do you think that Han Yun and the others can stop them? There are fairy artifacts in hand when entering the Divine Realm, even if it is seven or eight. The nine layers of the emperor realm are combined together, and it is difficult to be an opponent!"

The Hundred Battles Demon King paused for a moment, and then said: "If you agree, I can help you block a half-step into the divine realm. The condition is that after you succeed, I want a second-grade fairy weapon, or let me see behind you. People, let them give me resources to improve my strength!"

"I want to ascend to the second level of the God Realm!"

"This is what I can do for you. If, before the war, you can give me a third-rank immortal weapon, I can consider helping you block a blood spirit tribe who enters the gods. Since then, we have been allies!"

"how is it?"

"Agree?"

Regardless of Ye Chen's attitude just now, the Demon King of Hundred Battles still narrated.

It said that many situations are also true. Han Yun is currently the strongest person in Kunlun Xu, and at most he can block a half-step into the gods. The ancestors of other top sects, with all their strength, without the fairy weapon, blocked one and a half from stepping into the gods!

Calculated like this, there are still many blood spirit clan powerhouses who need Ye Chen to resist personally!

What is he using to block it!

A young man in his twenties, no matter how terrifying his talent, facing the blood spirit race, there is only a dead end!

And the Demon King of Hundred Battles has this confidence, because he is the blood and flesh of the dragon!

Therefore, it knew Ye Chen's flaws with keen eyes, and hitting this flaw with one blow, although it seemed that Ye Chen had a choice, was actually an order! "What you said is not unreasonable!"

"Why don't you tell me the situation of those people carefully, and I will consider one or two more!"

Ye Chen remained motionless, still preparing to get as many sets of news as possible from the Demon King of Hundred Wars!

He never intended to easily let go of the Demon King of Hundred Battles, even if he didn't have to pay much, he would never agree to cooperate!

Such a guy who drinks human blood and makes a bone cup from human skulls!

There are only two ways!

First, Ye Chen killed it directly!

Second, Ye Chen's subjugation of it is of course equivalent to the subjugation of the Huang Family and many sects. They are all traitors, powerful and useful to subdue, resist the blood spirit race, wait until the end of the war, can you survive? !

Surviving, with good luck, will definitely contribute to Kunlun in the war!

Not surviving, but also to Kunlun empty loyalty, at least to kill the enemy to die!

When the Demon King of Hundred Battles heard Ye Chen's words, a smile was drawn at the corner of his lips, as if he was in control.

In his eyes, this human youth is the most correct choice to do so!

Those who know the current affairs are handsome!

But all the monsters in the surrounding Guangming Hall and the Hundred Wars Palace were dumbfounded, and their eyes were full of indescribable meaning.

Just now, it seems that they are all ready to do it!

At this time, our two kings actually started to talk?

Want to cooperate?

"Ye Jitian!"

"Do you know what is the plane of Zhongwu, and what is the plane of high Wu? What is the plane of low Wu?"

The Hundred Wars Demon King eagerly looked at Ye Chen, his heart gradually excited, but he did not know that he had already fallen into Ye Chen's scheme.

Although Ye Chen didn't practice for a long time, he had gone through all kinds of battles and all kinds of calculations were not bad at all. This will take down the Demon King of Hundred Battles, and he may not know so much news. It is better to drag and wait for a hundred battles. The Demon King said all the news, and then forcefully took it down and sealed it directly!

Although this seal is improper, Ye Chen didn't want to train the Demon King of Hundred Wars for a long time. At most, he would block a half-step into the divine realm when the blood spirit tribe came. After annihilating the blood spirit tribe, It doesn't matter if it is dead.

Therefore, there is no need to follow the path of heart-relief like the many schools of Kunlun Xu.

Moreover, the monster race is a monster race after all, and there are few human beings with such rich emotions, and it may not be possible to follow the path of collecting the heart.

"I don't know!"

"Hundred Wars Demon King, tell me!" Ye Chen said flatly.

"The so-called planes are the so-called races and civilizations. In fact, they are just the planets of life in the endless starry sky!" The Hundred Wars Demon King recalled that he had been in Kunlun Xu, contacting the blood spirit race and many powerful people, and began to explain.

"Any place!"

"It also depends on whether there is aura, whether there is a living being of Taoism, whether to cultivate martial arts, etc.!"

"Kunlun Xu is in the Huaxia enchantment, and it is one of the only training places on earth."

"You seem to have reached the threshold of Kunlun Xu's martial arts! But in fact, it's just the beginning! Kunlun Xu is just a low martial plane! Even if your talent and cultivation base are against the sky, you can put it where the blood spirit race is. , Extremely small!"

"In the eyes of their high martial plane, we are all rubbish! We are all ants!"

"High martial planes, such as the blood spirit race, the lowest level of cultivation is almost in the emperor realm, after the emperor realm is, enter the * realm, * king realm, mixed element realm, combined Dao realm, good fortune Realm and so on. No matter how high the cultivation level is, I heard that there was a 'Star Aperture Realm'. As for how much higher this realm is than the Combination Realm, this king doesn't know."

"The king only knows that the person who controls this aspect of ours seems to be just one of the blood spirit clan's several great families, and that family's subordinate sect. Thousands of years ago, I had a relationship with this sect. Disciple, once talked freely."

Knowing the power of the Blood Spirit Race, the Hundred Wars Demon King not only dared to betray, but was ready to move around, hoping to gain the benefits of Ye Chen through the rebellion, and step into the realm of God, even the realm of God! It can be repaired to this extent, and it is not simple.

This discussion is not over yet.

The many gods below are already shocked. I didn't expect the Zhongwu plane to be so much stronger than Kunlun Xu and his realm!

Not to mention the Gaowu plane!

In the place of body refining, the number of monster races in the Daoyuan realm, which is the realm of the venerable, is completely counted, and it will never exceed the number of two thousand.

The Zhongwu plane is the worst city in the world. The ordinary people have the cultivation base of the Dao Origin Realm. The fundamental difference between this is not one or two realms, but the overall difference is too much.

Ye Chen also smacked his tongue secretly, and now he knew why, the six people in the blood spirit clan secret realm said that the emperor realm was the most trash cultivation base in the blood spirit clan.

Co-authored People of the Gaowu plane, starting point Gao Huaxia Kunlun is too imaginary!

Kunlun Xuren's life will stop in the emperor state. In Huaxia's words, the blood spirit tribe was born directly at the end of Kunlun Xuwu.

No wonder, so many sect leaders and elders dare not villains!

But what?

He Ye Chen has a cemetery of reincarnation, he has infinite potential, and he can advance to the Hedao realm in a few years and formally fight against the blood spirit race!

To suppress Kunlun Xu's blood spirit clan's subordinate sect, start with this sect!

Until, destroy the entire blood spirit race!

Chapter 1289: cost!

The Demon King of Hundred Battles, he is indeed an old stone demon king!

Talking with it, the benefits are great, at least this knowledge is currently unknown to Kunlun Xu.

But knowing this knowledge, it will be much easier to deal with the blood spirit race in the future.

"Hundred Battle Demon King!"

"This sect belongs to the Blood Spirit Race, and is the force responsible for controlling my Kunlun Xu?"

Ye Chen asked, he couldn't get the news from Han Yun. Han Yun didn't take part in the battle back then. He just ran back and let the blood spirit tribe clean up. How do you know this? As for the Blood Seven Nights, their minds are still unstable and their memories If there is a fault, it is difficult to ask. Once the masters are forced to think about it, it may damage their spirituality.

He asked: "What is the name of this sect! What is the specific origin of the seven young people who come every hundred years?"

"I have heard that there is a strong person in the blood spirit tribe who is domineering and will never allow the slightest sign of rebellion from his subordinates!"

This Xeon!

It was the blood spirit tribe that Ye Chen learned from Xue Qiye and the others!

Ye Chen also wanted to know what kind of powerful existence suppressed Xue Qiye and the others, and only by understanding this powerful existence could he rescue Xue Qiye, Mo Ning'er and the others!

"You said that back then, the strongest man who led the start of the battle against Kunlun Xu?"

"The strongest person is not the person who guards the sect of the Blood Spirit Race, but the person of several great families. He is said to be the pinnacle of good fortune!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King sighed and said: "Back then, he took the initiative to attack Kunlun Xu, and forced Kunlun Xu from the Central Martial Plane to become a peerless powerhouse on the lower Martial Plane! In the name taboo, it seems that there are two 'Blood Demon'. word."

"Involving the ancient war, I asked the disciple of the blood spirit sect, and that person only said that it was 'Master Blood Demon!'"

"Understood!" Ye Chen feels that he has a long way to go to rescue the masters. At least he can't save the masters until he is in the realm of harmony. However, the blood spirit clan's affairs also follow his own strength. , And know more and more.

As for the Good Fortune Realm and the Star Aperture Realm, he couldn't know what realm they were.

Is it the next two realms above the Hedao realm, or the realm far beyond the Hedao realm?

All of this, I am afraid, will have to wait until the next time Zhu Mie steps into Kunlun Xu to be able to learn.

"As for the seven who came a hundred years ago!"

"The Blood Sword Sect from the Blood Spirit Race is the most inferior outer disciple. Not surprisingly, a year later, the people who arrived in Kunlun Xu may still be the same people a hundred years ago!"

The Hundred Battles Demon King smiled and said, "Brother Ye, I'm almost done with the news. It's time to talk about yourself!"

"How powerful is behind you to support you?"

"What about me, go to that plane? Or, you brother Ye, will you send me there personally?"

"The matter of the fairy..." It revealed a hint of a fox with a smile and said: "What are you going to do? Give a first-grade fairy weapon, I can block one half from entering the divine realm, and give me a second-grade fairy weapon. It can help you block the two half-steps of the blood spirit race into the gods!"

Ye Chen moved his body and said with a smile: "What kind of fairy?"

"What plane?"

"What support?"

"Just now, but I just want to know the news!"

"As for your help? I have a better way, that is-suppress you and force you to go!"

"Are you going? I can't help you!"

Ye Chen's golden body erupted, and his blood rushed through the clouds, like a hundred-round volcanic eruption, causing the ground to shake violently. The monster beast who didn't know thought it was the place for body refining to be broken.

Ye Chen's vitality and blood contained an aura of destruction, causing the souls of many gods and generals to tremble.

He stretched out his hand slightly, accompanied by a sword sound, a sword light flickered, and the Sword of Immortality appeared in his hand!

The first-class fairy sword, the sword is mighty, rushing to the world!

The sword spirit and tool spirit of Killing the Immortal Sword have now turned into a fairy, possessing self-awareness!

With the active cooperation of the sword spirit, Ye Chen's explosive power will increase a lot!

"Humph!"

"I really thought that this king is afraid that you will not succeed!"

"Since you have no sincerity and broke the rules, this Demon King will beat you to death!"

The Demon King of Heaven was also angry, transforming his body into form, and a thousand-foot dragon appeared in the sky. It was so big that it had a thick and solid flesh body, braving the red-gold luster, from the internal bones to the bone marrow, meridians, blood vessels, internal organs, etc. , Has been completely red gold!

The power of the vigorous golden blood, like an ocean, covers the sky and the sun. Even if it is not in the realm of gods, it is enough to face the half-stepped powerhouse alone!

This is its palm!

More importantly, his physical body has reached a level of unparalleled horror!

"Long live the Demon King, long live!"

"The Demon King is invincible, kill Ye Jitian!"

"Please Demon King kill Ye Sutian!"

Many gods and generals of the Royal Court of Hundred Battles are already excited!

Just now I thought that the main king of his own and Ye Jitian joined forces, and they both had such a happy chat. I didn't expect the two of them to directly turn their faces and enter their peak state!

They all expected the Demon King of Hundred Wars to blow Ye Xitian to a blast!

But the other side is in another state.

"Our lord, the momentum seems to be inferior to the Demon King of Hundred Wars!"

The Astronomy God General and the Phoenix God General sighed at the same time!

The difference in momentum seems to indicate that Ye Chen will lose!

This new King's Court of Light, won't it break up on the spot, will it?

While thinking, a sound of anger resounded through the sky:

"Ye Jitian!"

"Playing with the king has a price!"

"There is a price to be paid if you don't act with rules!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King swooped down, billowing smoke and dust rose, and immediately fought with Ye Chen, the dragon claw can penetrate everything with a random strike, attracting pieces of thunder and lightning, and killing Ye Chen!

It moved its huge body quickly, a dragon swept its tail, set off a violent wave, and directly hit Fei Ye Chen.

It has given Ye Chen a chance!

I didn't expect it!

Ye Chen not only refused to agree!

How can I be patient if I have a black hand on myself!

Ye Chen must be beaten to death on the spot, and if he can't be beaten, the person hiding behind Ye Chen must be brought out, and someone else must talk about it!

This kind of unruly junior is looking for death!

Crackling! !

The endless waves of air are like a blade tearing through Ye Chen's body!

The clothes are completely shattered!

Ye Chen is certainly very strong , but facing such a violent blow by the Demon King of Hundred Wars, it is also slightly heart palpitating.

Only then did he discover that the Hundred Wars Demon King was much more terrifying than he thought!

The gap between the two is too big!

"boom!"

With a single blow, Ye Chen's body instantly fell like a meteor, slamming into the big pit, but the sword in his hand was crazy to inspire sword energy, strangling the dragon tail of the hundred wars demon king, and it was said that it was generous. The sound, accompanied by sparks splashing, there were also red golden dragon skins being cut off.

Even so, Ye Chen was still too embarrassed!

Chapter 1290: 1 power!

Ye Chen stood up with difficulty, wiped off the blood from the corner of his mouth, staring at the Dragon King of Hundred Wars with cold eyes!

"I still don't believe it, you are a beast! No matter how strong you are, so what!"

"It's not that you were sealed today, or that I, Ye Chen, fell!"

Ye Chen's eyes are red, the stronger the enemy, the stronger he is!

From Huaxia to Kunlunxu, every time!

In the face of powerful enemies, he can become stronger!

So at this moment, Ye Chen exploded with all his strength, and what followed was another blow of the dragon whip. Before it fell, he had already detonated the enchantment of many formations, and his speed was even undetectable by the naked eye!

"Slaying the Immortal Sword, give me strength!"

Check out this new online game!

"Indestructible kendo, the way of killing, turn things around, give me strength!"

Accompanied by Ye Chen's hysterical roar, his whole body was full of demons!

There seemed to be a phantom standing behind him!

The phantom from hell!

This is Ye Chen's true way!

Kill Dao!

And that phantom is the killing intent in Ye Chen's heart!

Ye Chen felt the violent power of the whole body, and no longer hesitated to punch out abruptly, the fist imprints were superimposed, as if the waves of the sea were endless, he directly smashed out!

boom!!!

A violent explosion made all the monsters present ringing in the ears!

I saw the ground burst open, accompanied by a large piece of golden dragon blood swaying, the dragon's tail was bloody, and a blood skull appeared in the center!

Who could have imagined that the dragon tail of the Hundred Wars Demon King, who was so powerful, was wounded by Ye Chen forcibly!

The intense pain instantly changed the color of the Dragon King!

"Boy!"

"You still dare to break out and die!"

The Hundred Wars Demon King was angry and burst out completely, blood covering his whole body, gathering on the dragon's tail, obliterating Ye Chen's power, and forcibly dropping the dragon's tail, the speed is extremely fast, like a meteor swarm falling!

boom!!!

There was a cracking sound again, and an afterimage escaped from it.

It's Ye Chen!

It's just that Ye Chen is already scarred!

The body is full of blood!

He underestimated the Dragon King!

Although there is a way of killing blessing, it is not enough!

The most important thing is that although this sword of the Blood Spirit Race is very strong, it is not suitable for Ye Chen!

At least Ye Chen is not used to using it now!

It is better to cut the dragon to ask the sky sword and the star sword!

"puff!"

Ye Chen spouted a few mouthfuls of blood continuously, and he was seriously injured to the extreme, and the flesh and blood were not there. If the golden body is blown up again, it will be dead if not dead!

He looked at the Demon King of Hundred Wars, consciously communicating with the reincarnation cemetery!

"You still don't make a move?"

The reason why Ye Chen dared to provoke the powerhouse of the entire body refining ground in Daoyuan Realm was the great power in the cemetery of reincarnation!

He did not want to rely on the power of the reincarnation cemetery.

But so far, this is Ye Chen's worst serious injury!

Almost all his physical bodies were blown up. Fortunately for his injuries of this level, he entered the domineering stage. If he still stayed in the bone consolidation stage, he would undoubtedly be beaten to death by the Hundred Wars Demon King.

Human beings in the bone consolidation stage have no flesh at all.

At most, it's just bones metamorphosing and bone marrow strengthening. Once the flesh and blood are blown up, then except for the soul, it is basically half dead! If the soul is also obliterated, it is completely dead!

But the dominance period is different!

Humans or monsters in the hegemonic stage are extremely powerful in their flesh.

The flesh and blood on the outside will not die even if it is blown up. After decades, flesh and hair and hair can still grow out, which is equivalent to one more life.

Of course, if even one piece of the golden body is blown, the soul will be wiped out!

That still can only die once!

"It's over, it's over!"

"It's over, the king is abolished!"

The Astronomical God will be crying, staring at the golden skeletons in the sky. His own king is wounded like this. If the Hundred Wars Demon King does it again, it will be completely over.

The gods and generals of the Royal Court of the Hundred Wars cheered directly and shouted: "Kill Ye Sutian, kill Ye Sutian!"

"Long live the king, kill Ye Xitian and avenge the two adults!"

In the eyes of Baizhan Wang, everything has become settled!

At this moment, in the cemetery of Samsara, Xue Qiye sighed, looked at a figure, and said, "Nie Baijian, let's do it!"

"The strength of Mo Ning'er and I are no longer enough to support Ye Chen against this monster!"

"Even if all the power is transferred to Ye Chen, he can only be allowed to fight against this blue dragon, and our spirit will perish, but we still have something to pass on to him!"

The spirit of Xueqiye has appeared for a while!

In the process, he helped Ye Chen a lot.

There is also a lot of power directly sent to Ye Chen, but their spiritual thoughts all have fixed power.

Once consumed, the spirit will dissipate.

But before dissipating, since Ye Chen was determined to be his disciple, he had to hand in everything he knew, at least to give Ye Chen more strength.

Right now Nie Baijian is the most suitable existence.

"Hey!"

"This kid is really going to cause trouble!"

"Fine, the old man gives him some strength!" Nie Baijian looked at the two Xue Qiye and shook his head helplessly.

He naturally didn't want Ye Chen to have an accident.

During these days, he witnessed everything that happened around him, and he knew the character of the tomb owner.

In a sense, Ye Chen had an appetite for him.

After that, Nie Baijian said in a voice transmission: "Ye Chen, this is the end of the matter, I will give you a strength!"

"Remember, when I go to the Sealed Land of the Blood Spirit Race in the future!"

"Open my shackles and seal first!"

As soon as the voice fell, a majestic force of qi and blood merged into Ye Chen's body!

This sense of power changed Ye Chen's eyes slightly!

Clenching his fists, Ye Chen seemed to control the entire world!

That's great!

"Roar!!"

"Hundred Battle Demon King!"

Accompanied by a roar of anger, the world changed color, and the endless flashes of thunder flickered, shocking the world!

Ye Chen regrown * skin and hair, and took out a set of casual clothes and put it on. The long hair drifted and urged it down, and the moving shaft was like a fairy and goddess descending through the ages.

Extremely tyrannical, he took a gentle step, and the large tracts of ground bounced to pieces, and the huge power of blood and blood caused the trees in the whole body to surrender to him!

"You almost blasted Lao Tzu's body!"

"Even if I want to subdue you today, I must first blow your body!"

He put away the Slaying Immortal Sword This kind of first-grade immortal weapon, head-to-head with the Hundred Battle Demon King, will inevitably break.

It is best to correspond with the fist.

And his qi and blood, under various increases, raged to the peak.

He knows that this power has time!

If you can't subdue the Hundred Wars Demon King within this time, your golden body will not be able to withstand the power of blood and will collapse on its own!

"Boy! Looks like this is your hole card?"

"The people behind you really value you very much. This secret method has forcibly raised you so much! Interesting! The Demon King of Destiny will not lose in your hands!" The Hundred Wars Demon King was not afraid, even eager to try. Said: "Haha, this king wanted to fight against you in peak state!"
