

URBAN MEDICAL GOD

Chapter 16: Is 60 million expensive for one life?

Shen Mengjia is still calm. Although she couldn't accept this fact at first, she knew it was not a dream!

At this moment, his father's eyes are full of vitality, as if he were alive after a disaster.

This is the emotion that talents have!

Father really woke up!

The back of the young man suddenly thought of her in her mind. aloof and indifferent.

"He...he actually cured...how could it be..."

Until this moment, Shen Mengjia didn't know how naive she was.

From the beginning, the man did not lie!

But she has always regarded him as a liar.

did not stand up when he needed it most!

Shen Mengjia covered her mouth and controlled herself not to scream. Her eyes were moist, and tears fell on the floor along her cheeks drop by drop.

At this moment in the ward, Shen's mother and Shen's father are already tightly hugging each other.

"Haihua, wouldn't this be a dream for me? You pinch me?"

Shen Haihua stretched out his hand and wiped Shen mother's tears:

"Yanfang, this is not a dream, I really came alive! By the way! Where is the genius doctor? Where is he? I must thank him well. If there is no him, I guess Long ago dead..."

Although Shen Haihua was unconscious, he felt the existence of Ye Chen and the whole process of Ye Chen's rescue.

can be called supernatural work!

is like a * descending to earth!

This kind of person, even if they don't have a good relationship, they must never have sex!

He can control your destiny! You can control the lives of others!

This kind of person is destined to only override power!

But no one answered Shen Haihua's question, the whole room was extremely silent, and even a pin dropped on the ground could be heard.

Father Shen realized that something was wrong, his face instantly turned black: "You guys, who can give me an explanation!"

In the end, Shen Mengjia stood up and said what had happened just now.

After listening to all this, Father Shen stood up, ignoring his injuries, exhausted all his strength, and slapped Shen Menglong's face with a slap!

"Bastard! You * thing! You...you actually took the genius doctor away! You crap! Do you want me to die? Starting today, you don't want to take a penny from Lao Tzu, you are no longer My son of Shen Haihua!"

Shen Menglong panicked, really panicked!

Father's anger is not something he can bear!

His sports car, his woman, and all his extravagant lives are in the hands of his father!

But now, because of a word from his father, he has nothing!

"No, Dad, I know I was wrong!"

Shen Haihua ignored his son and looked at the genius doctor Qiu with his head down.

"And you!"

He kicked the genius doctor Qiu directly!

"Your group of dogs dare to insult the genius doctor like this when looking at the low-level things, I tell you, if you can't find this genius doctor, I swear, you all will die!"

Shen Haihua is really angry!

Although he woke up, he knew he would not survive for three days!

If the genius doctor doesn't take action, he will definitely die!

The most important thing right now is to find the genius doctor!

"Look, find them all for me! You will find them for me when you search through Jiangcheng! Except Yanfang, get out of Shen's house for me! Don't come back if you don't find the little genius doctor!"

This sentence is not only for Shen Menglong and Qiu doctors!

also said to Shen Mengjia and Xiao Min!

If someone came forward to believe in a genius doctor, now it will be another ending!

A life, is 60 million expensive?

not expensive!

is too cheap!

Because of him, Shen Haihua can make 100 million in a month!

but now!

He, Shen Haihua, can only live for three days!

.....

At the same time, the Huamei Group meeting room.

The atmosphere is particularly solemn.

Because just a few hours ago, the stock price of Huamei Group plummeted. This is the biggest dilemma Xia Ruoxue has encountered since the establishment of Huamei.

According to the investigation by the Public Relations Department of Huamei Group, the reason for the stock price plummeting is that the competitor Lixing Beauty Group has launched a beauty oral liquid. As long as the next course of treatment is taken, both skin and appearance will have significant changes.

Although the beauty oral liquid has not yet been on the market, some reporters took the samples during the on-site press conference, and there were slight changes.

How important is this seemingly slight change to women!

The outside world predicts that Lixing Beauty Group will be enough to change the rules of the beauty industry, and it will be able to leave the Huamei Group, currently ranked first in Jiangnan Province, behind.

When Huamei Group was founded, it relied on beauty oral liquid to take the lead. In recent years, the main source of profit has been beauty oral liquid. Now the rivals in Beijing have developed a set of more powerful products, which simply pushed them to a dead end!

Sun Yi arrived early and learned about the general situation in the WeChat group on the way. She looked around and found that sitting on the left are some rare executives, and on the right is the R&D department of Huamei Group. Core members.

These core members are extraordinary. Some are professors from Capital Medical University, some come from a family of Chinese medicine practitioners, and some are medical masters!

But at this moment, these experts are all stern, because they know very well that once Xia Ruoxue comes to the conference room, they will be the first to be held accountable!

The whole meeting room was noisy, and people kept talking to Sun Yi nearby, but Sun Yi was completely uninterested. Her mind was full of Ye Cheng's back, and she didn't know if Ye Cheng would come back tonight.

Suddenly, Sun Yi thought of something and took out the napkin that Ye Chen gave him from his pocket.

There are a few lines written crookedly on it, UU reading www.uukanshu.com, she can't understand it, it seems to be medicinal materials, the only thing she can understand is the five big characters "primary Zhuyan Dan" written on the top.

When Ye Chen thought that this piece of paper was worth ten million, she wanted to laugh a little.

Ye Chen even asked her to show the paper to the R&D department. She was really speechless.

All of the R&D department is a leading figure in the medical field, so why did you see this inexplicable napkin?

Maybe, Sun Yi will become the laughing stock of the entire Huamei Group.

"Well, this guy is good everywhere, except that being a man is unrealistic." Sun Yi muttered to herself.

"Oh, Sun Yi, you are thinking of a man, look at your soullessness!"

Suddenly, a female voice rang in Sun Yi's ear, which shocked her.

Sun Yi glanced at the source of the voice, her face instantly unhappy, because it was Su Na, the PR director of Huamei Group.

She has been in Huamei for such a long time, and she has a good time with everyone, except Suna in front of her.

The two are like fire and water, and they quarrel every time they meet.

Su Na talked about a wealthy businessman a few days ago, but she showed off in front of Sun Yi all day. She even questioned Sun Yi in front of the company why she didn't fall in love, whether she was kept by someone or was a chicken. There was also a fight.

Sun Yi glanced at Su Na blankly, and snorted coldly: "I do not want a man, what does it matter to you? Just do your own thing."

Suna also replied unceremoniously: "Oh, you who are under the care of you are still qualified to say me? I don't know how many people have been * like this all day long."

"You-bastard!" Sun Yi stood up angrily, just about to start cursing, but found that the napkin she was holding was snatched by Su Na!
