Chapter 19: Xia Ruoxue wants to see you!

.....

Ten p.m.

Sun Yi did not drive this time, but walked back to Dadu apartment.

She let the cold wind blow her face, she wanted to wake up.

What happened on this day made her heart really like a roller coaster.

That she has always looked down on men, but she casually gave herself a prescription worth a billion.

Ye Chen said in the morning that this prescription can feed a listed company. At that time, she sneered, thinking that Ye Chen was a braggart, which was ridiculous.

But looking back now, it's me who is ridiculous!

"Ye Cheng, are you deliberately trying to make me foolish? Why do you give me such a valuable thing, why don't you tell me it's true..."

Sun Yi still came to the door of the apartment, she took out the key, but did not dare to open the door.

She was afraid of opening the door, afraid that there was no Ye Chen on the other end of the door.

That prescription was because Su Na stepped on it and missed a medicine. Naturally, the group could not adopt it rashly, so Xia Ruoxue had already given her an order to find the person behind the prescription.

No matter what the price is.

Find Ye Chen, she is the biggest hero of Huamei Group.

But Ye Chen could not be found, she was the biggest sinner of the Huamei Group.

The key is still inserted and the door opens.

The lights inside are dim and there is no one.

"He... didn't come back."

At this moment, Sun Yi couldn't help it anymore, all grievances and regrets flooded like a tide!

She squatted directly on the ground, hugging her knees with her hands, and started crying!

"Why, why do you treat me this way! Sorry, Ye Cheng, can't I say sorry to you?"

Why are you leaving! Why don't you come back! I was wrong, I was really wrong! "

"Ye Cheng, if you are willing to come back, you can do whatever you want with me. You can even live here for a lifetime. Can't you come back?"

Sun Yi's cry is getting louder and louder, she wants to vent everything today.

Just when she was most helpless, a lazy voice sounded from behind her: "Hey, what is a big beauty hiding at the door and crying, who is bullying you? Do you need a man's warm embrace?"

Hearing this familiar voice, Sun Yi's tears stopped instantly!

turned around fiercely!

She found that Ye Chen was standing behind her like this! There is a bad smile on his mouth!

She couldn't help it anymore, she stood up directly, and opened her arms to hug Ye Cheng tightly!

"You bad guy! Why are you bullying me!"

At this moment, Ye Chen was stunned.

He obviously just came back, where is there time to bully her?

The key is you crying at the door in the middle of the night, he almost thought it was haunted here.

Ye Chen couldn't help but think about it, he had a different feeling right now.

He found a softness in his chest.

is very big and soft, like two big steamed buns on the chest.

The key is that he is just a T-shirt, a very thin T-shirt.

This feeling is like two people wearing nothing, hugging together, that's a real thing!

Although he knows that Sun Yi is a very hot girl, but now that he has experienced it for himself, he still underestimates it!

"Well... you just said that if I come back, you are willing to do anything today. Does that sentence count?"

Ye Chen swallowed, his body a little hot.

Sun Yi was still in emotion, but she soon felt a hot object against herself.

Even if she has no personnel, she knows what it is!

She quickly pushed Ye Chen away, blushing and ran into the room.

"I'll talk about this later! Humph! Who let you bully me!"

Ye Chen really wanted to cry when he heard these words.

I really didn't bully you!

Then Ye Chen changed his shoes and walked in. He found that Sun Yi was already sitting there waiting for him.

even used the peripheral light to aim at him from time to time.

"Am I getting handsome today?"

Ye Chen looked in the mirror, quite stinky.

Just then, Sun Yi bit her lip and finally spoke:

"Ye Cheng, you...you tell me honestly...that napkin you gave me today is really the prescription for the primary Zhuyan Dan?"

Ye Chen was startled, and then he realized why Sun Yi had such a big change, it turned out to be because of that Danfang.

It is estimated that this thing was seen by people in the technical department, and then she also learned the value of Danfang from it.

He took an apple from the fruit bowl on the coffee table, wiped it with his clothes, and put it directly into his mouth: "How can I give you something fake? Even if I cheat others, I can't cheat you."

Even though Sun Yi was prepared, her mind trembled when she heard that the prescription was true.

She bit her red lips and whispered: "You...why did you give me such a valuable thing? I... give it back to you."

Ye Chen stood up and waved his hand and said, "What are you doing for me? This is already yours. You forgot that you used three thousand yuan and one month's rent for this pill? If you give it to me, then I immediately went out and lived on the street!"

"But..." Just as Sun Yi wanted to speak, she was interrupted by Ye Chen:

"No, what I give you is only the lowest level in me. If you don't want it, just throw it away."

Sun Yi could not help taking a breath when she heard these words.

This guy has a big heart, right? Throwing away such a valuable thing worth more than a billion?

Also, this Zhanyan Pill is actually only the lowest level in his body?

What kind of amazing secret is hidden in this guy!

Sun Yi just remembered that until now, she didn't know the origin of this guy, he just appeared out of thin air.

If it wasn't for this guy who was like her dead old classmate, UU reading www.uukanshu.com. It is impossible for the two of them to have any intersection!

Ye Chen is most afraid of women's chirps. He doesn't plan to argue more about Zhuyan Dan. He directly said: "I'm a little tired today, so I'll go to rest first, and you too."

Sun Yi saw Ye Chen leaving, suddenly thought of something, and said: "Wait a minute!"

Ye Chen stopped.

"Something else?"

Sun Yi quickly said: "That... don't you want to see Xia Ruoxue?"

Ye Chen turned his head in surprise, waiting for Sun Yi's next words.

"Your prescription is likely to bring Huamei Group back to life. So Mr. Xia will see you in person. At 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, Huamei Group President's Office, do you have time?"

If it was the day before yesterday, Ye Chen might immediately agree.

After all, seeing Xia Ruoxue, even if he has completed the task given by the old man.

But now, he is really not so urgent anymore, he is focused on cultivation.

Only by practicing can you be qualified to set foot on the capital for revenge!

also only has cultivation, can let him unlock the secret of the black stone!

He currently has 10 million in funds, enough to purchase medicinal materials needed for cultivation. He has already planned to go to the drugstore in Jiangcheng tomorrow. As for Xia Ruoxue's invitation, he refused.

Ask him to meet this woman in the president's office?

Why?

If you want to see me, put your attitude down and come here to find me yourself!

instead of me going to see you!

"No time."

Ye Chen simply dropped two words and closed the door, leaving Sun Yi alone in a daze.
