Chapter 31: What have you experienced in the past 5 years!

Sun Yi smashed a few pillows and was out of breath, only then did she notice that Ye Chen's eyes were a little strange.

She glanced at the place Ye Chen could see, and quickly reacted. She put the pillow directly on the sofa and pretended to be angry: "What are you thinking about again?"

Perhaps because of the strenuous exercise just now, Sun Yi's pure white T-shirt was stained with sweat, and a career line was faintly revealed, coupled with the red face, it was really full of charm.

Ye Chen felt that if they lived together like this, both sides would be very dangerous!

Dry wood and raging fire, the two are virgins again, do you have it?

Sun Yi took a few breaths, thinking of something, and asked: "Xia Ruoxue, you really won't go there? She is the eldest lady of the Xia family in Jiangnan Province, the country is beautiful, can you hold it back?"

Ye Chen took a sip of water, turned on the TV, and said casually: "I'm not in a hurry. If you want to see me, it's the dragon who has to give it to me, let alone the daughter of the Xia family in Jiangnan Province. The daughter of the family, I may not meet Ye Chen!"

Sun Yi has served Ye Chen. Will this guy die if he doesn't brag?

It is estimated that when he actually sees Xia Ruoxue, he will regret it.

Which man is undefeated under Xia Ruoxue's pomegranate skirt?

At this moment, the host on TV happened to broadcast an important piece of news:...The identity of the deceased has been determined. It is Chen Zhengguo, the president of the Jiangcheng Chamber of Commerce. His son was also killed by the suspect. According to the police's judgment, this is A deliberate murder, and the murderer's methods are extremely terrible. I hope that the citizens of Jiang city will pay attention to safety when traveling these days and not stay too much outside at night...

Sun Yi saw this news, and subconsciously covered her mouth.

Chen Feng and Chen Zhengguo, she just saw it a few days ago! Even if I have not been sleeping well these days, I am worried that they will retaliate!

Never thought that these two people were actually killed!

天, this is Jiangcheng Chen's family, although it is not Jiangcheng's top family, it has a deep heritage!

Who dares to kill them? The key method is extremely cruel!

Sun Yi quickly took a sip of water and was shocked, then looked at Ye Chen, she found that the other party's eyes were narrowed, full of playfulness.

For a moment, she felt that Ye Chen did it!

After all, Ye Chen has this strength, and the death of Chen Zhengguo and Chen Feng is also beneficial to him, at least there is no need to worry about being retaliated.

"Ye Cheng...Didn't you do this?" Sun Yi still couldn't help but said.

Ye Chen was startled slightly, then smiled and pretended to be very fierce: "Yeah, it's true, I'm a top killer, flying over the wall, killing countless people, you are sure to let me live in your house, ten thousand Let me be together, hehe..."

Sun Yi sighed when she heard the other party say this, because under the world, without evidence, no murderer would admit to killing.

And looking at Ye Chen like that, fighting is okay, he must not dare to kill, let alone kill Jiangcheng's face.

"Ye Cheng, we still go home early these few days. The murderer must still be in Jiangcheng. Maybe he will come at us someday. Have you heard? Don't go out tonight!"

Sun Yi said worriedly.

Then, she stood up, stretched her waist, her proud figure was exposed.

"No way, shopping today is too tired, I want to take a rest, you also rest, you guys should be more tired shopping..."

When Sun Yi walked into her room and the door was closed, Ye Chen burst into a strong hostility and said to himself: "Sun Yi, don't worry, that evil demon will be killed. People from all over the world will not move you. If anyone else dares to move you, the demon will drag them to **** with his own hands!"

The hostility disappeared.

Ye Chen stood up, because he had to treat Shen Haihua tomorrow morning, so he couldn't wait for the time agreed with Zhu Rende. Today, he must buy some extra medicinal materials to refine Shen Haihua's pill.

He didn't go to Derentang this time, but chose to buy some needed medicinal materials at the nearest Chinese medicine store.

Although there was a little medicine missing, Ye Chen also found a replacement.

Just as he was about to leave with a few packs of medicinal materials, a tall beauty stopped in front of her.

It was the Baili Bing that was tortured on him that day.

Today, Bai Libing was not wearing a uniform, and should be resting, Ye Chen almost didn't recognize it.

"Why, the body is so weak, you need to take medicine to invigorate it?" Bai Libing said with his arms around his chest in a funny way.

Ye Chen shrugged without explaining, and walked directly in the other direction.

He doesn't like to have too much involvement with this woman.

Just as Ye Chen took a dozen steps, Bai Libing's cold voice sounded: "You did the Chen family's affairs."

Ye Chen paused, and said blankly: "I saw the news today, but Miss Baili, do you rashly suspect that I have passed? Shouldn't you pay attention to evidence for anything?"

After speaking, Ye Chen was about to leave, Bai Libing's voice sounded behind him again:

"That's right. The arrest is for evidence, but this time I came here, not for the Chen family's business, but for another matter. I'm very curious about how the boy who fell from Dongqian Lake lived five years ago. Come here?"

Ye Chen's eyes condensed~www.ltnovel.com~ The cold murderous intent was over!

He never expected that Bai Libing actually knew his identity!

five years ago! Dongqian Lake! The only thing that happened was the Ye family trash, Ye Chen!

Bai Libing turned around, swaying that charming body, and came to Ye Chen: "It seems that I guessed it right. You are really the Ye Chen who died five years ago. I didn't expect that Dingding back then The well-known Ye Family Waste actually came back, and also came back with terrifying power..."

Bailibing hadn't finished speaking, a pair of big hands directly grabbed her long neck, and even lifted her up, and then an intent of death spread all over her body!

Make her like an ice cave!

"what do you want to say?"

A few seconds later, Ye Chen threw Bai Libing out, and the latter stabilized his figure with an somersault.

his face was shocked!

Bailibing's ancient martial arts, although the strength is not very strong, it is not something ordinary people can deal with!

But just now, the moment Ye Chen grabbed her, she felt a sense of death in her heart, and she felt that the power in her body didn't even have a chance to explode!

is like being covered by a terrifying coercion!

She took a step back subconsciously, because she found that Ye Chenyuan in front of her was not as simple as investigating!

Five years ago, he was a ***** mocked by countless people in Jiangcheng!

But five years later, this Ye Chen turned into an extremely terrifying existence!

What has he experienced in the past five years?

And even if this kid started practising ancient martial arts from that day, it was too late. It was clear that the best time had passed, why could he be so strong?

Countless doubts lingered in Bai Libing's mind.

Chapter 32: Refining pill!

Looking at the extremely dangerous man in front of him, Bai Libing suppressed the shock in his heart, and said: "There are some things that I won't be able to tell for a while, or else, have a meal together tonight?"

This is the first time Bai Libing invited a man to dinner.

In her opinion, her appearance has almost no resistance to boys.

Not only the police station, but many of the children in Jiangcheng lined up to invite her to dinner, but she refused mercilessly.

Because those men didn't have anything interested in Bai Libing, but Ye Chen in front of them did.

For Bai Libing, it doesn't matter whether the Chen family and his son Ye Chen did it. She just wants to know the secret of Ye Chen's disappearance in the past five years.

Five years ago, he fell from such a high Dongqian Lake, why did he survive?

In the past five years, where did he go, and where did his terrifying cultivation come from?

"No, I promised the landlord to go back for dinner at night."

After finishing speaking, Ye Chen didn't wait for Bai Libing's reaction, and passed by.

In his opinion, even though Bai Libing is a beautiful woman, what about it?

Is it possible for Ye Chen to kneel and lick like other men?

What are you kidding?

He will stand on the pinnacle of China one day, looking down at these people.

When the time comes, what does this woman do?

is nothing but a flat boat on the Yangtze River.

Bai Libing who got Ye Chen's reply was like petrification.

She never expected Ye Chen to refuse!

and refused without any discussion!

As for!

Still the landlord called him to eat?

Is she not a landlord as a police officer of the Jiangcheng Police Station?

Ye Chen, do you have eyes? Can't see my beauty?

Bai Libing almost exploded at the moment, when did she invite others to dinner in such a low voice?

If you don't go, what are you talking about the landlord!

This is like humiliating her!

"Ye Chen, stop for me!" Baili stomped his feet straight, but Ye Chen left without even looking back, as if treating her as air.

.....

half an hour later.

Dadu Apartment.

Ye Chen took the medicinal materials and came to the kitchen. Sun Yi was still sleeping, so he shut the kitchen door tightly.

Alchemy, if Sun Yi knows about it, I really don't know how to explain it. I guess the other person will have to talk about it again, saying something down to earth.

He glanced at the surrounding equipment, and got a headache.

It is a pity that the old man's alchemy furnace was not brought over, otherwise everything would have been labor-saving, and now I can only use these pots and pans.

Although the effect is a little worse, it should be more than enough to treat Shen Haihua.

"Big cities also have their shortcomings." Ye Chen said with emotion.

Not much to say, he directly turned on the induction cooker, turned it on to the maximum, and then put the medicinal materials in it in order.

The induction cooker is only auxiliary heating, the real refining still needs the true energy from the depths of Ye Chen's Dantian.

Soon, the pot boiled, but Ye Chen knew very well that at least these medicinal materials had to be refined into a thin and thick form to be considered successful.

One hour passed.

The medicinal materials in the pot have almost melted, and Ye Chen's forehead is already dripping with drops of sweat.

The rate of loss of Zhen Qi is also getting faster and faster.

"carry on....."

After another hour, the pot was about to burn through, and the medicinal materials gradually gathered from the sticky substance, and finally dispersed into five irregularly shaped pills.

"It's only five, alas, but it's not bad... Mainly this alchemy furnace doesn't work... You must find a way to get an alchemy furnace near here, otherwise, even if Zhu Rende's batch of medicine arrives, it will be difficult for him to refine it. You can't use the induction cooker in the kitchen every time."

Ye Chen looked at the burnt pot and the almost scrapped induction cooker, and sighed.

I must buy a pot and an induction cooker quickly, otherwise I will have trouble when Sun Yi wakes up.

Ye Chen casually found an empty mineral water bottle and put five pills in it. Just about to open the door, he actually found that Sun Yi was already standing at the door, and he was eavesdropping with his ears sideways.

Sun Yi saw Ye Chen come out, coughed awkwardly, and secretly glanced inside.

"Ye Cheng, what are you doing alone in the kitchen during the daytime? Hitting a plane? There is such a big movement? Huh, what is it like?"

Ye Chen smiled, blocked the door, and explained: "It's okay, just cook the medicine and drink..."

Sun Yi glanced at Ye Chen from head to toe, and said concerned: "Are you injured? When did it happen?"

After speaking, she tilted slightly and went straight into the kitchen.

When she saw everything in the kitchen, she was stunned.

Is this cooking medicine?

This kitchen is like a war!

The key to the bottom of the pot is all through!

Although she hasn't cooked medicine before, she won't make the bottom of the pot like this.

"Ye Cheng, what the **** are you doing?" Sun Yi just asked, and she noticed a small brown pill in the corner.

Ye Chen didn't even notice because he was too young.

Sun Yi picked up the pill, sniffed it, and a strong medicinal scent hits, really like the medicine on TV.

She glanced at Ye Chen and said, "This is what you did in the kitchen all afternoon? It's not a poison, right?"

Suddenly, UU reading www. uukanshu.com She thought of what the prescription for the primary Zhanyan Pill Ye Chen had in his hands. Although he didn't know how he got it, according to those in the technical department, the prescription was true.

She subconsciously thought of something, and her eyes widened and said: "You are not doing alchemy in my kitchen...I think you are really sick, is this some elementary Yan Yan Dan?"

Ye Chen shook his head. Since he was found out, he can only say truthfully: "This is an ordinary pill, it can't beautify your face, but it doesn't matter if you eat it. Some diseases are even removed immediately. As for serious diseases, you may have to take a few more pills I plan to find a good alchemy furnace in a few days, and then I will refine a few pills for you. This medicine is too weak, so you can just throw it away."

Sun Yi completely took it.

As expected, this kid is still immersed in some martial arts world.

A few days ago, I said that I was a genius doctor, and now I have another alchemist.

Can't you be more realistic?

is too naive!

My God, Sun Yi is really going crazy, there is no magic bullet in this world, it is all blowing!

Ye Chen's prescription is true. After all, it is a treasure left by his ancestors, and there is still some scientific basis in it.

But alchemy is a bit flamboyant.

As for this pill that can cure some diseases, Sun Yi doesn't believe it at all. Why do you need a hospital if you have such an awesome thing?

"Ye Cheng, are you free tomorrow? I will make an appointment for you a psychiatrist later. If you continue like this, it won't work, it's very dangerous." Sun Yi said worriedly.

Ye Chen didn't want to go with Sun Yi anymore. No one would believe this thing.

He turned around and went out: "I'm going to buy a pot. As for this pill, you can keep it if you want, and throw it away if you don't want it."

Chapter 33: Come come, open your mouth

After Ye Chen's figure disappeared, Sun Yi glanced at the so-called pill on the palm of his hand again, and just about to throw it away, for some reason, his hand retracted again.

"This guy won't use this kind of thing to continue to deceive people, no, I will get it to the company for a test next Monday. It is best if it is not poisonous. If it is poisonous, you must persuade Ye Chen not to make this thing again."

Then, Sun Yi tidied the kitchen a bit, then sat on the sofa and started reading today's Jiangcheng Commercial News.

This is a habit she has cultivated for many years.

Suddenly, she glanced at the date in today's newspaper, remembering something, and murmured: "It will be the death day of the Ye Family Sanguo soon. It is estimated that I will go to worship by myself this year. Although I have nothing to do with the Ye family. It's a relationship, but there are some things that someone has to do. If those guys in Jiangcheng don't do it, let me do it."

In fact, after the incident at Yunhu Villa five years ago, she had contacted many people just to find out why the Ye family was destroyed.

But no one was willing to tell her that everyone's reaction seemed to be very afraid of getting involved with the Ye family.

She even found Ye Chen's uncle, but instead of telling her the truth, that person directly blasted her out!

After five years, she probably got some news through investigation.

Back then, it seemed that Ye Chen's father had offended a big man from the capital because of one incident, and then the big man became angry and directly killed Ye Chen's parents.

As for Ye Chen, he fell into Dongqian Lake because of a misstep.

She went to see the place where Ye Chen fell. The water there was so turbulent that it was impossible to survive the fall.

"What kind of evil did the Ye family have done? A good family has ended up like this, alas!" Sun Yi sighed.

.....

Early the next morning, Ye Chen had just left the Dadu apartment and found a Mercedes-Benz G parked at the gate of the community.

is exactly the same as the one in Chengbei Park.

There is a young girl leaning against the big G, it is Shen Mengjia, she is looking anxiously at something.

Today's Shen Mengjia didn't wear a hat, her black hair fell straight down her waist, and she was wearing a simple white dress, like a fairy.

Luxury cars and beautiful women are put together, enough to catch everyone's attention!

A group of boys were squeezed in the community, constantly whispering.

"You said, is that beauty waiting for men or women?"

"Of course it's waiting for a girlfriend. People are big Gs, at least several million, and according to research and investigations, girls usually buy big Gs because they have stronger personalities and have money at home. This kind of wealthy people Miss, how could it be possible to wait for a man here?" A fat man with glasses said mysteriously: "Brother, I will reveal to you that if beautiful women are nurtured, most of them will only use the BMW brand. Both Pretending to be coercive and beautiful, right?"

The fat man analyzed very well, and instantly attracted a large number of fans.

The fat guy has seen so many fans, and continued, the more he talked about it, the more ridiculous he was, and he even analyzed whether the girl was a virgin from the standing posture, and the audible animals screamed behind him.

At this moment, Ye Chen walked over, frowned, and said to the fat man: "I feel your analysis is wrong."

"Swipe!" Everyone looked at Ye Chen in unison.

The fat man pushed his glasses and said hostilely: "Who are you kid? You know what my nickname is, the little prince of the prince! I have played with more women than you have eaten... You have I know women?"

Ye Chen shook his head: "I don't understand women, but I know the girl in the dress is waiting for me, so all your inferences are wrong."

As soon as he said this, not only the fat man laughed, but everyone laughed.

"Waiting for you? Haha, you don't take a **** and look like your bear!"

"Will someone big G beauty wait for you a scumbag? It laughs me to death."

"With your kind of cock, if that beauty is waiting for you, I will live broadcast!" The fat man stretched out his hand and said swearingly.

Facing the ridicule around, Ye Chen didn't bother to pay attention to it, and walked directly to Shen Mengjia.

Everyone saw that Ye Chen walked by really shamelessly, and suddenly looked good at the show.

This kind of woman usually has a background. If you strike up a conversation and molested yourself, you don't know how to die!

Shen Mengjia next to Big G naturally also discovered Ye Chen, and her nervous heart couldn't help falling!

If Ye Chen does not show up, or if he shows up a few hours later, her father will definitely die!

Father even confessed to her that when asking Ye Chen, be sure to keep her posture to the lowest level!

Stop thinking about it, she greeted him with small steps, and even bowed to Ye Chen, respectfully saying: "Mr. Ye, hello, I..."

As soon as she was about to say some polite remarks, Ye Chen waved her hand and said, "Take me to Shen's house. I guess Shen Haihua must be anxious to death."

Shen Mengjia flushed, and hurriedly took the initiative to open the door to Ye Chen, and whispered: "Mr. Ye, please."

She said every word carefully, this was something she had never had in so many years, for fear that she might offend Ye Chen.

Although Ye Chen didn't have any aura on her body, she always felt an invisible pressure covering herself.

After Ye Chen sat down, Shen Mengjia got into the car, feeling relieved.

Big G slowly left the community...

At this moment, the group of people who were just discussing is completely petrified.

They were waiting to see that kid make a fool of himself, but they didn't expect that kid really got in the car! The key is that the beauty of the big G was still humbly in the whole process, just like an ancient slave and maid serving an adult!

Hold the grass, what the hell!

These beautiful women are so good these days?

"This...I'm not dreaming..." a boy said weakly.

"I remember just now who said it was going to be hanging...Where did that brother go?"

"That's right, where is that prince's countless brother?"

Fatty's face flushed, and no matter what the group's reaction was, he left dingly.

.....

After half an hour, Jiangcheng Shen's house.

Ye Chen got out of the car~www.ltnovel.com~ He found that almost everyone in the Shen family had come to greet him, and he was quite excited.

Shen Haihua stepped forward and said excitedly: "Mr. Ye, you finally came. I didn't sleep last night. I'm afraid these are my last few hours! If you are a few hours late, I might have to be ready for funeral..."

Shen Mengjia's mother also said respectfully: "Mr. Ye, have you had breakfast? I just asked the servant to prepare it early."

Ye Chen really couldn't stand so many people being so enthusiastic, and said directly: "Go to the second floor, I will treat you, just a few seconds."

Hearing for a few seconds, the corners of everyone's mouth twitched.

How can there be such a quick treatment?

Shouldn't the genius doctors look around?

If it hadn't been for the horror of Ye Chen that day, the Shen family would have blasted Ye Chen out as a neurosis.

Shen Haihua said uncertainly: "Mr. Ye, are you sure, a few seconds? Acupuncture and moxibustion are not that fast, right..."

Ye Chen said disapprovingly: "Nothing is necessary. Forget it, there is no need to go to the second floor. Let's do the second stage treatment directly here.

Everyone is even more confused, this treatment is too trivial.

"Mr. Ye, don't you want to lie down?" Shen Haihua's heart really couldn't stand it, and his voice trembled.

"No need."

"Mr. Ye, what do you want me to do?" Shen Haihua said.

"Just open your mouth."

Even though Shen Haihua was puzzled, he could only obediently open his mouth.

In the next second, Ye Chen took out a crumpled plastic bottle from his pocket, then opened the bottle cap, and poured out five dark things from inside.

"Come, come, eat it all..."

Chapter 34: The monstrous power also knelt down!

Everyone in the Shen family should see the crumpled mineral water bottle and the black pill whose origin is unknown.

Is this food really edible?

It is a problem whether it is clean or not!

Even if you are not sick, you will get sick after eating this thing!

But no one dared to stop Ye Chen, because they knew that looking at the entire Huaxia, only the teenager in front of him could save Shen Haihua.

Shen Haihua looked at the five pills, swallowed, trying to say something, but still couldn't say it.

He is not afraid of this pill.

He was afraid to offend Ye Chen in front of him!

This man who can control his life!

"Whether you want to eat or not, I will take it away..." Ye Chen said when the other party was still hesitating.

As soon as he was about to take away the pill, Shen Haihua said excitedly: "Mr. Ye, I eat... I eat! Don't take it away!"

After finishing speaking, regardless of whether there was any problem with the pill, he took it over, closed his eyes, and swallowed it.

The moment        swallowed, a strong medicinal effect overflowed.

Shen Haihua seemed to feel that his whole body was wrapped in a warm current, and his whole body felt unprecedentedly comfortable.

"This....."

This feeling, he has never enjoyed it!

He can't describe it in words!

is even stronger than the feeling of love between men and women!

"Hmm~"

Shen Haihua, a man in his fifties, couldn't help groaning. At this moment, he doesn't care how many people are watching!

He just wanted to express it!

Gradually, he even found that the pain that had been going on in his body over the years had disappeared!

all eliminated!

He opened his eyes and found that the whole world was extremely bright, like a new life!

"This...this is..."

Shen Haihua's eyes are red! No one knows the monstrous meaning in his heart at this moment!

He stretched out his hand without thinking, and clenched Ye Chen tightly!

Although he didn't know what Ye Chen served him!

But such a miraculous effect, even if it is an elixir!

"Pump!" With a sound, Shen Haihua knelt directly in front of Ye Chen.

"Mr. Ye, please be respected by my Shen Haihua. From today, you will be my second parent of Shen Haihua!"

Shen Haihua's arrogance, his majesty, all shattered in front of Ye Chen at this moment!

This scene shocked everyone's sight!

Shen mother stayed!

Shen Mengjia subconsciously covered her mouth.

The expressions of the Shen family are all like hell!

Who is Shen Haihua? This is the president of Beiming Group, the representative of Jiangcheng People's Congress. There are countless titles on his head!

For so many years, they have never seen Shen Haihua shed a single tear.

has never seen Shen Haihua kneeling in front of others!

But all these things can't happen before their eyes.

Everyone looked at that somewhat grim man, what kind of magic power does this man have that made such a powerful man willing to kneel down!

Ye Chen glanced condescendingly at Shen Haihua, then nodded: "Get up, you don't need to thank me, I save people with money, you give money, we are just a business relationship."

Shen Haihua found that he was a little gaffe, and quickly wiped away the tears with his sleeve, stood up, and then took out a bank card and a key from his pocket.

"Mr. Ye, this is your consultation fee. The code is six 6, and this key is a property I bought by Shen next to Dadu apartment. This property has been idle all the time. Waste is also a waste. Please also Mr. Ye smiled, the address is behind the key."

Ye Chen thought for a while, and still took them all.

He really needs a house now, and he will go to Derentang to get some medicinal materials later. It is estimated that the quantity is not small, so he can't transport it back to most apartments.

And the refining materials should not be kept in Sun Yi's kitchen all the time.

The key sent by Shen Haihua just happened to solve his urgent need.

Why don't you pick up something like this?

A house can cost a few million at most, which is only a drop in the price compared to the consultation fee.

Shen Haihua couldn't help sighing when Ye Chen accepted it.

He is a businessman, he pays attention to profit, and he has a long-term vision. He knows what a strange person like Ye Chen means.

He can cure his own terminal illness, and naturally he can cure other people's diseases!

The meaning of this other person is even broader.

From a small government leader to a big country leader!

If this kind of person doesn't make friends at this time, when will they want it!

Of course, he doesn't think that a key can gain the trust of the other party. This is a long road.

He suddenly looked at his daughter, Shen Mengjia, as the jewel in the hands of the Shen family, ranks in the forefront of Jiangcheng regardless of her beauty and body.

The hero is sad for the beauty off! If necessary, he Shen Haihua will give his daughter to the man in front of him without hesitation!

It's just that he didn't know that Ye Chen couldn't see his daughter, and it all depended on her daughter's blessing.

"Mr. Ye, I don't know if I can treat you to a meal at noon. I want to thank you very much. There is no other meaning." Shen Haihua said.

Ye Chen hates this kind of dinner the most, and naturally refuses: "I still have things to deal with, so I don't need to eat. You remember to eat lightly these days. It will take a few days for the pill to completely blend into your body. As for your illness, There shouldn't be much problem, we will stop here."

Ye Chen finished speaking, and just about to leave, something suddenly occurred to him.

This time he came to Jiangcheng. In addition to revenge, UU also wanted to regain the Tianzheng Group that his father had created in the past. This is after all his father's efforts.

He vaguely remembered that the Tianzheng Group had been declining at that time, and after the accident in the Ye family, it was invaded by countless companies.

In the past few days, he has also tried to learn about the whereabouts of Tianzheng Group from the Internet, but he has not obtained any substantive information. At present, as the founder of Jiangcheng Beiming Group, Shen Haihua must know the business environment of Jiangcheng better than anyone.

Asking him is undoubtedly the best choice.

Just as Shen Haihua was immersed in the disappointment of being rejected, Ye Chen stopped again, turned to Shen Haihua and said, "You are also the first patient that Ye Chen opened for treatment, so let me invite you to dinner. I'll fix the time, it's tomorrow night, do you have time?"

As soon as he said this, Shen Haihua's excited tongue was knotted, and finally reacted, and quickly agreed: "If you have time, you have time, it's all about Mr. Ye."

"Then give me a call and I will inform you." Ye Chen said.

Shen Haihua knew that his time came to work, and quickly told Shen Mengjia: "Mengjia, don't give your call to Mr. Ye!"

"Why is my phone..."

As soon as Shen Mengjia wanted to speak, she found her father glared at herself. She could only find paper and pen, write down her phone number and hand it to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen glanced at the phone and walked towards the gate.

"Mengjia, don't go send Mr. Ye..." Shen Haihua ordered.

"Why me again..." Shen Mengjia was a little unhappy, how did she feel like she was a servant.

"No need to send it, I'll go out to take a taxi."

Ye Chen left a sentence and disappeared from everyone's sight.

Chapter 35: He is not an ant, let alone dust!

After Ye Chen left, Shen Mengjia came directly to Shen Haihua's side, pulled her clothes, and pouted:

"Dad, how do I feel that you are deliberately matching me and Ye Chen? Why do you want to keep my phone number, and why do you want me to send it, hum! Even if he cures you, you don't need to push me out, but we are I paid for it."

Shen Mengjia thought he could escape the clichés of family marriage. Shen Haihua once promised her that she would not interfere with her marriage contract. Now the appearance of Ye Chen has completely disrupted her position!

How could she not understand what father meant!

Shen Haihua put his hands behind him, still staring at Ye Chen's direction.

After a long time, he looked at Shen Mengjia and said softly: "Mengjia, what do you think of Mr. Ye?"

Shen Mengjia was blushing because of this sudden problem.

Ye Chen said he was handsome, he was really good in length, and he had an inexplicable temperament.

As for ability, even my father's illness can be cured, so naturally it is not bad.

"It's okay, that's it, I know more outstanding young talents than him..."

Shen Haihua almost reached out his hand and slapped Shen Mengjia when he heard these words.

"Young talents? I tell you that those **** young talents you know don't even deserve to carry shoes in front of Mr. Ye!"

Shen Mengjia was a little dazed when she heard these words, it was the first time she heard her father speak in this tone.

Those people you know don't even hold shoes in front of Ye Chen?

What are you kidding?

Ye Chen is only good at medical skills. In terms of life experience and speaking, he can compare to those who have been well-educated since childhood?

Totally impossible!

Shen Mengjia suddenly thought of something, and retorted: "Couldn't Brother Lu Kai be better than Ye Chen?"

Lu Kai has been a legendary existence in the circle since he was a child, elementary school, junior high school, jumped directly, and won the college entrance examination champion in Jiangnan Province at the age of 16! He went directly to Peking University for further studies. At that time, he was also known as a Chinese child prodigy. At the age of 19, he directly studied for a master's degree at Stanford University, with a piano tenth level and a go professional eight-dan.

As for the family background is stronger, the Lu family is one of the four big families in Jiangcheng! Still a family of Chinese medicine!

Lu Kai is almost like a proud child of heaven in Jiangcheng, and countless people look up.

Since childhood, my father would praise this person every time he eats! More often than not, the term dragon and phoenix is used as a metaphor among people!

Shen Mengjia still doesn't believe it, this kind of person is not as good as Ye Chen!

Sure enough, Shen Haihua didn't speak anymore. He pondered for a few seconds, and then said: "Lu Kai is indeed one of the best in Jiangcheng, but if it really is, it is compared to—"

He paused for a second, and continued, "In his life, he has only the right to look up to Ye Chen."

"Mengjia, you have been well protected by me, so you don't know what the world looks like after peeling off that gorgeous coat. It is dark, it is dirty, and it is bloody.

In such a world, there is only one kind of person who can live well, and that is the strong. They control 80% of the world's resources! They can destroy our Shen family with a wave! They stand at the highest point in the world and look at us like ants! Like dust! "

"But! Ye Chen is different from us! He is not an ant, let alone dust! He is the existence that can determine the life and death of these strong men!"

"If the strong are unattainable mountains! And Ye Chen is the sky above the countless mountains!"

Shen Haihua's words sounded like thunder in Shen Mengjia's ears, her scalp was numb, her whole brain was blank, her worldview began to collapse, and only Ye Chen was in her mind.

.....

Derentang.

Ye Chen got out of the taxi, and Zhu Rende had been waiting at the door.

"Mr. Ye, you finally came. You didn't leave the phone when you left. I'm afraid you forgot. Some of the medicinal materials were just shipped from Yunnan. They are fresh and very effective..."

Zhu Rende walked up quickly, he was a little surprised to find that Ye Chen did not have a car.

According to Ye Chen's martial arts strength, he can completely own a luxury car to travel, but this is the other party's private matter, and he doesn't need to ask more.

Ye Chen glanced at Zhu Rende, nodded and said: "Where are the medicinal materials, take me to see."

"Mr. Ye, please follow me."

Zhu Rende took Ye Chen directly through the hall and into the backyard.

The backyard is densely packed with medicinal materials. If calculated by weight, it should be about 200 kg.

Ye Chen checked these medicinal materials. Whether they were of age or freshness, they were far beyond what he thought in his heart. He couldn't help but look at Zhu Rende a little bit high.

"Lao Zhu, I'm interested." Ye Chen arched his hands, and then handed out a card, "Also, Lao Zhu will help me settle the price. The market price will do."

Although Zhu Rende wanted to give this medicine to Ye Chen, he knew that the other party would not agree, so he directly offered a low price: "Mr. Ye, just give us Derentang 5 million."

He actually came in for this medicine, including nearly 10 million manpower.

there are a few medicinal materials that are rare in the depths of Changbai Mountain and are of great value.

Ye Chen also guessed that Zhu Rende would sell to himself at a loss. He didn't say much, and he would naturally return the favor at that time.

After swiping the card, Ye Chen gave Zhu Rende an address and asked him to send a car to arrive on time at three in the afternoon.

"By the way, Mr. Zhu, I have something to consult with you." Ye Chen suddenly said.

"Mr. Ye, please speak. UU Reading www.uukanshu.com"

"Old Zhu, do you know where there are alchemy furnaces in Jiangcheng to buy?"

Ye Chen really didn't want to use the induction cooker to make alchemy, the effect was really bad.

Zhu Rende's eyes suddenly shrank when he heard "Alchemy Furnace", his expression became a bit surprised.

"Mr. Ye...you...do you know how to make alchemy?"

His voice was trembling, as if he had heard something weird.

Zhu Rende was so surprised for a reason.

Because the Chinese alchemist has disappeared for thousands of years! "Alchemist" is a word that only appears in legends!

Although there are some elixirs on the market, most of those elixirs were handed down thousands of years ago and are extremely precious!

Some pills can even be auctioned for hundreds of millions!

This is completely priceless.

Zhu Rende contacted Ye Chen to purchase so many medicines, it was really possible that it was alchemy!

There was a stormy sea in his heart, and it was futile to find that he wanted to suppress the shock forcibly.

He stared at Ye Chen, waiting for his reply.

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes, and after a few seconds, he smiled and said: "Old Zhu, what are you kidding about, how can I make alchemy? I just have this hobby of collecting."

From Zhu Rende's reaction, he could see that alchemy must not be discovered by anyone, so naturally he would not admit it stupidly.

Mr. Zhu was more or less disappointed when he heard this sentence.

If Ye Chen in front of him is really an alchemist, he might immediately rush to the Zhu Family in Jiangnan Province to report the matter, and let the Zhu Family Patriarch personally fight for Ye Chen!

Because alchemists are too precious to the Chinese martial arts family!

Which family can control the alchemist, within three years, it will definitely become the top family in China!

Chapter 36: From who's hand!

Seeing that Mr. Zhu was a little lost, Ye Chen waved his hand and reminded: "Old Zhu, are you still listening?"

Mr. Zhu eased his mind and smiled: "Mr. Ye, if you are just a collection, you can go to the antique market to catch the limelight. The largest antique market in Jiangcheng is at No. 2 Qianjiang Road, but if Mr. Ye is really alchemy if you are interested, you can participate in the auction.

Most of the lots at the auction have been reviewed by the auctioneer. As long as you have money, you will surely be able to get your favorite things, even things that are thousands of years ago.

May I ask Mr. Ye, are you the former or the latter? "

Although Ye Chen has a secret method to identify antiques, there are many fakes in the antique market. Really looking for it, like looking for a needle in a haystack, at the moment, auctions are undoubtedly the best choice.

"Old Zhu, I care more about auctions." Ye Chen said truthfully.

Mr. Zhu nodded and continued: "Since Mr. Ye wants to go to the auction, it happens that five days later, there is a large-scale auction at the Millennium Hotel in Jiangcheng. My Zhu family was invited, or else, Mr. Ye will be with us. go with?"

"Then there will be Lao Zhu Lao." Ye Chen arched his hands, then he thought of something, and continued, "Zhu Lao, why didn't I see your granddaughter today."

Mr. Zhu did not expect that Ye Chen would ask about Zhu Zixuan. It seems that Mr. Ye is not unkind.

"Unfortunately, Zixuan just went out to climb the mountain with his master today, and will be back later. I originally planned to ask Zixuan to offer tea to Mr. Ye and apologize. Would you like Mr. Ye to have a meal here and wait?"

Ye Chen naturally couldn't wait here. He stood up directly, turned around, and found a piece of yesterday's Jiangcheng Evening News.

"Old Zhu, this newspaper is useless."

"It's useless, Mr. Ye, you want to..."

"Old Zhu, do you have a pen?"

"Yes, Mr. Ye, wait a minute."

After a short while, Mr. Zhu brought a black pen and handed it to Ye Chen. He was actually a little confused in his heart. He didn't know what kind of medicine Ye Chen sold in the gourd.

I saw Ye Chen holding a pen and writing a few lines directly above the newspaper. Then he drew a sketch of the human body and some inexplicable lines next to it.

After finishing all this, Ye Chen closed the newspaper and handed it to Zhu Rende.

"Old Zhu, when your granddaughter comes back, remember to give this newspaper to her, she will understand naturally after reading it, and don't forget to send me the medicinal materials at three o'clock in the afternoon."

After Ye Chen explained, he walked outside. It was almost noon. I don't know how Sun Yi made some dishes today.

After Ye Chen left, Zhu Rende frowned and opened the newspaper, but no matter how he read it, he couldn't understand what Ye Chen was writing in the newspaper.

He has been dealing with medicinal materials since he was a child. Although he has seen martial arts masters, he has no idea how martial arts masters practice.

"Forget it, wait until Zixuan comes back."

.....

Ten minutes later, Zhu Zixuan wearing a pink sportswear and an elderly man walked into Derentang.

The old man is wearing a set of gray clothes and a pair of brown sneakers. He is very lean, has a stiff figure, and has a pair of bright eyebrows under his faint eyebrows.

Zhu Rende greeted the old man quickly and said, "Old Qin, I took Zixuan to practice again. This girl is too playful, so she must have caused you trouble again."

Zhu Zixuan is not happy: "Grandpa, what do you mean, am I the kind of messy person in your eyes?"

Zhu Rende glared at Zhu Zixuan and cursed: "Do you still not know what you did? I offended Ye Chen last time. I asked you to stay here to make amends for Ye Chen. As a result, you and your master had been with you early in the morning. Go climbing, if it wasn't for Lao Qin's face, I would have beaten you long ago."

When Zhu Zixuan heard Ye Chen's name, her head grew big.

Since that incident happened last time, Grandpa has been talking about Ye Chen all day long, and she is so annoying.

Doesn't Ye Chen know how to play three-legged cat kung fu, as for him so respected?

What other martial arts master? Just rely on him? Ha ha!

There is only one martial arts master in her heart, and that is her master!

Today, practicing on the mountain, she even saw the master cut a giant tree in the air! This is much worse than that **** Ye Chen.

Zhu Rende mentioned Ye Chen and couldn't help thinking of the other party's explanation. He quickly fetched the newspaper from behind and handed it directly to Zhu Zixuan:

"Zixuan, Ye Chen asked me to give you this. I can't understand the above things, you study and study."

Zhu Zixuan glanced at the newspaper and snorted coldly: "That guy would give me something so kindly? What did I think it was, isn't this the Jiangcheng Evening News yesterday? Huh, what does he mean? He is saying that I have shallow knowledge. , Let me read more newspapers? This is scolding me in disguise! Bastard!"

Zhu Zixuan directly rolled up the newspaper angrily and threw it in the trash can.

"Pick it up for me! What he wrote is inside!" Zhu Rende pulled a stick from the side without saying a word and wanted to do it, obviously very angry.

In desperation, Zhu Zixuan could only reluctantly pick up the newspaper from the trash can, opened it and glanced at it. There were indeed words and patterns, but she couldn't understand the meaning at all.

"What kind of **** Ye Chen wrote, do you still have to show it to me? What a crazy!"

After finishing speaking, Zhu Zixuan planned to crumple the newspaper into a ball and throw it away, but suddenly there was a scolding sound in his ear!

"Wait a minute!"

It is Lao Qin who is uttering!

"Master~www.ltnovel.com~What do you mean?"

Before Zhu Zixuan could respond, Old Qin grabbed the newspaper and stared at the words and patterns left by Ye Chen.

His brows are sometimes frowned, sometimes stretched! At the end, his face was even more shocked!

Seeing this scene, Zhu Rende and Zhu Zixuan's expressions were a little strange.

"Master, what's wrong?"

"Old Qin, did you find something?"

Old Qin ignored them, and sat cross-legged directly, sitting on the floor, his eyes closed, as if he was practicing.

"Master, this floor is very dirty...you don't have to be in a hurry when you practice..." Zhu Zixuan reminded.

Old Qin still ignored it.

Five minutes later, Qin Lao suddenly opened his eyes and slapped his palm on the floor, and a faint wave of air overflowed from his palm!

"Boom!"

At the same time, the ground actually cracked!

A one-meter deep depression suddenly formed! Those floors became powder instantly!

This scene scared everyone directly! This movement is too loud.

Suddenly, Zhu Zixuan discovered something and exclaimed: "Master, you...you actually broke through! Congratulations, Master!"

Old Qin stood up and exhaled a sullen breath.

In the next second, his eyes opened, and his eyes were full of surprises, and his wrinkled face was flushed!

He looked at Zhu Rende and grabbed his hand: "Lao Zhu, who is this newspaper...this newspaper comes from! Bring...you must take me to see him! He is my benefactor of Qin Yuanming!"

His voice trembled extremely, and he even squeezed Zhu Rende's hand blue because of his excitement.

Chapter 37: Top luxury mansion!

Zhu Rende seemed to have guessed something, and ignored the pain in his arm. He exclaimed: "Old Qin, what do you mean...the things in this newspaper are unusual?"

Qin Yuanming realized his gaffe, quickly released his hand, coughed lightly, and explained:

"Unusual? More than unusual! It's just a stroke of magic! The exercise method that Zixuan and I practiced is called the Qiyang Heart Method. I obtained it accidentally when I was young, but it was incomplete. Later, I met a great master. After spending a lot of money to ask that master to perfect it, it became the current exercise method, but the more I practiced this exercise method, the bigger the problem will be! It even has an impact on the internal organs!"

As soon as these words came out, not only Zhu Rende was shocked, but Zhu Zixuan also paled.

She has always had an inexplicable discomfort in her practice these days, but it can't be said.

Could it be the reason for this incomplete exercise?

Qin Yuanming glanced at Zhu Zixuan and comforted: "Zixuan, don't be afraid. You are young and your cultivation level is not deep. This mental method has little influence on you, but it is troublesome for me. I only have two right now. The path is either to keep practicing until the internal organs are exhausted and die, or it is to abolish my self-cultivation."

Hearing this, Zhu Rende and Zhu Zixuan became more frightened.

Qin Yuanming's strength, they know, although not a master, it is enough to protect the safety of Jiangcheng Zhu's family.

Once Qin Yuanming has an accident, then their Zhu family will definitely be affected!

Zhu Rende was puzzled: "Does the breakthrough just now mean that your body is more dangerous?"

At this moment, Qin Yuanming laughed loudly!

"On the contrary, my body is not dangerous, but it has become stronger!"

"What!" Both grandpa and grandpa became more and more confused.

Qin Yuanming cautiously raised the newspaper in his hand and explained: "Where is the grandmaster who left the newspaper? Not only did he truly perfect the Seven-Sun Mind Method, he also modified the route of the Seven-Sun Mind Method! Practice according to his method. , All the previous problems can be solved, and the speed of cultivation will be much faster! This is simply a magic touch! Grandmaster! Grandmaster must be able to do it!"

Speaking of the back, Qin Yuanming almost exclaimed.

Zhu Rende's heart was truly shocked when he heard this. He only knew a little about martial arts. Before Ye Chen dealt with Zixuan, he just looked like a martial arts master, but now, Qin Yuanming said it personally, that would be different!

What's even more terrifying is that Ye Chen just glanced at Zhu Zixuan's move that day, and could he infer the route and formula of the Qiyang Mind?

This is incredible!

Zhu Zixuan was equally astonished. The tall image of her master was completely shattered, replaced by Ye Chen's arrogant figure.

She always thought Ye Chen was a bastard! But at the moment this **** has transformed into a mountain to look up to!

how is this possible?

How could this **** be the master of martial arts!

But even if she doesn't admit it, Ye Chen's figure is destined to become a deep mark on her martial arts journey.

.....

Dadu Apartment.

Ye Chen smelled the scent of vegetables as soon as he stepped into the house, and soon he discovered that Sun Yi was busy in the kitchen. The swaying figure and the ratio of the waist to the hips were exaggerated to the extreme.

"If you want to have a figure, a face and a face, the key is to cook first-class, this kind of woman can be considered the best."

Ye Chen came to the restaurant and found that several dishes were already on the table.

couldn't help it, stole a pair of chopsticks and started to eat, but was soon discovered by Sun Yi who was walking out of the kitchen carrying the soup.

"You guy, you steal food as soon as you come back. Have you paid for your food? Also, where did you go in the morning? I can't find you in the whole community."

Ye Chen licked his chopsticks and said with a smile, "Isn't I busy with work? No, I made almost 100 million early in the morning."

Sun Yi gave Ye Chen a white glance, and had long been used to the other party's exaggerated bragging skills.

"Come on, you think you are Wang Jianlin, you set a small goal at every turn, and you earn 100 million. If you don't see you in the morning, bragging skills are great. If you can earn 1,000 yuan in the morning, I will admire it, forget it. Stop talking nonsense with you, let's eat."

Ye Chen didn't intend to explain too much, and began to sweep Sun Yi's food.

After a while, Sun Yi thought of something and said to Ye Chen: "I don't have to wait for me tomorrow night, I might have something to deal with."

Ye Chen didn't think much, and nodded.

Just when Ye Chen was almost eating, Sun Yi's cell phone rang. Ye Chen glanced around and found that Sun Yi's father was calling.

"I'll take a call."

Sun Yi took the phone and went to the balcony.

A minute later, I saw Sun Yi rushing over, grabbing the coat and car keys, and rushing out the door.

"Ye Cheng, you don't have to wait for me tonight, I will go back to my hometown if I have something to do!"

After speaking, Sun Yi disappeared from Ye Chen's sight.

Ye Chen stood up and frowned. Although he wanted to keep up, he thought that the medicinal materials would be delivered later, so he gave up.

Besides, the call came from home. It must be Sun Yi's personal business. It is not good for him to intervene by an outsider.

.....

2:50 in the afternoon.

Ye Chen directly found the house Shen Haihua gave him by following the address on the key.

He originally thought that the 100-square-meter residential house that Shen Haihua gave was the usual one, but he never thought that it was actually the first-class mansion Tomson next to the Dadu apartment!

And it's not a simple one hundred flat! It's a whole layer!

Near Chipei!

The key is the best location on the top floor!

What is this concept!

Even Ye Chen didn't know how to express.

Tomson Yipin is almost every Jiangcheng people's dream.

Ye Chen vaguely remembered, UU reading www.uukahnsu.com a few days ago, Sun Yi still expressed emotion: "It would be great if I could live here, even if I just sleep for one night, I will be content, but all this I can only think about it. With my salary, I might not be able to afford the house in this life."

Ye Chen also joked at the time that he would give her a set if he had money.

Never thought that this house would come so quickly.

Ye Chen opened the door. Although he knew that the decoration inside would be very luxurious, he was surprised when he entered it.

is a magnificent, heated small swimming pool, all-marble structure, and a kitchen alone can reach nearly 90 square meters.

"It's really wayward to have money."

Ye Chen stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, almost overlooking the entire river city.

He saw the Dadu apartment that was full of laughter with Sun Yi.

He saw the Ye Family Mansion that had gone from prosperity to decline.

He saw the Yunhu Villa that looked like a nightmare five years ago.

He saw Tiandang Mountain where the bones of his parents were buried.

He clenched his fists, and an extremely terrifying breath surged from his body.

This is the temperament he has gathered between life and death countless times in five years!

"Tomorrow is the anniversary of the death of my parents, and it is time to visit them."

"Parents, I will avenge your hatred. I am no longer the cowardly Ye Chen five years ago. I crawled out of death and bloomed in the dark night. I will hand the man's head to your grave. before.....

I, Ye Chen, one day, I will make Jiangcheng tremble and let this Chinese land surrender! "

Chapter 38: What is truly unattainable!

Five minutes later, the doorbell rang.

Ye Chen knew that the batch of medicinal materials should have been delivered.

Opening the door, Ye Chen found several people standing outside. There were no so-called porters, but two old men and a young girl.

The three of them held a large pile of medicinal materials in their hands, and there was a neat pile on the ground.

Two of them, Ye Chen, knew Zhu Rende and his granddaughter Zhu Zixuan.

As for the other old man, he doesn't know him anymore, but from the breath of the other person, he can feel that he should be the same person.

"Lao Zhu, you Derentang won't even be able to afford to hire workers, and will you deliver it yourself?" Ye Chen quipped.

Elder Zhu smiled awkwardly and explained: "Mr. Ye, we didn't intend to disturb you, but we were really afraid that the workers would ruin these medicinal materials without knowing the importance, so I personally brought Zixuan and a friend to come. ...If you bother, please Haihan."

"come in."

Ye Chen invited the three into the door.

The three of them carefully placed the medicinal materials on the round table in the living room.

Even though these three people have all seen the world, they are still slightly surprised to see such a magnificent decoration.

Tomson's top floor, the price is not affordable for ordinary people, which is even more terrifying than ordinary Jiangcheng villas.

Zhu Rende was a little surprised when he saw Ye Chen taking a taxi to Derentang today, but now he sees where Ye Chen lives and feels normal.

It seems that the young master wants to keep a low profile outside.

Zhu Zixuan was also slightly surprised when she entered. In her impression, Ye Chen was poor regardless of her dress or temperament, but now it seems that Ye Chen's wealth is far more than her, when she thinks of babbling him in her mouth that day. Redneck, Zhu Zixuan felt hot on her face, and she even wanted to find a place to get in.

If the person who lives on the top of Tomson's first product is a hillbilly, then what does Zhu Zixuan do?

The three people moved in all the medicinal materials. Ye Chen wanted to pour them a glass of water, but he didn't expect that the house had just moved in and there was no water at all, so they can't let them drink the pool water.

"That... I'm really sorry, I don't live in this place often, and there is no water... Or, I will go downstairs to buy you?"

Zhu Rende shook his head repeatedly: "Mr. Ye, we are not thirsty... we actually have one more thing..."

Ye Chen naturally knew that they had other purposes, so he sat on the sofa and said lightly: "Let's talk."

The words fell, Qin Yuanming stepped forward and knelt directly in front of Ye Chen: "My dear Qin Yuanming, thank you Grandmaster Ye for saving his life!"

Yep?

Help?

Ye Chen was a little dazed. He only saved Shen Haihua in this period of time. Where did this old man emerge from?

"You are..."

Qin Yuanming quickly explained: "Zongshi Ye, it's true that I am Zixuan's master. I taught her martial arts. You modified the Qiyang Mind Method, which not only allowed me to break through the bottleneck of martial arts, but also let me in the future. No more troubles with his cultivation! From now on, you will be my benefactor of Qin Yuanming!"

Ye Chen understood, he modified Zhu Zixuan's problematic technique, but instead saved Qin Yuanming's life.

He thought of something, and curiously said: "You just called me the Grand Master. What does this mean? Is the Grand Master very good?"

Hearing Ye Chen's words, not only Qin Yuanming was stunned, but Zhu Jiaye and Sun were also stunned!

A martial arts master doesn't know what a master is?

Is he really a martial arts expert who exudes true energy?

The division of realm is the first lesson for everyone to step into martial arts!

I don't even know the most basic things, how did Ye Chen cultivate to his current state?

Ye Chen saw everyone in surprise, and quickly explained: "I have just gotten off the mountain and I am not very clear about the division of Chinese martial arts. Please give me some advice."

Qin Yuanming suddenly said, "Zongshi Ye, Huaxia's martial arts system is like this. Just stepping into the martial arts, it is divided into external strength and internal strength, and internal strength is divided into three categories: Xiaocheng, Dacheng, and peak. Half a step into the realm, and after that, the realm master that countless martial masters look up to, that is, your realm, Master Ye."

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, this realm is really different from what the old man told him.

But it's normal. The exercises he cultivates are not comparable to the martial arts on Huaxia Ming.

The old man told him that the real realm of cultivation is divided into: Body Tempering, Kaiyuan, Pneumatic, Separation, True Essence, and Spiritual Ascension. Each of these six realms is divided into nine levels!

As for the realm behind the Immortal Ascension Realm, there are naturally more terrifying realms, but Ye Chen has no right to know it now.

Ye Chen's current realm should be on the fifth floor of Kaiyuan realm.

According to Qin Yuanming's statement, the Chinese martial arts master should be between the Kaiyuan realm and the pneumatic realm.

This is much better than he thought.

I don't know what kind of realm the one in Beijing is like!

Is he a master?

or a stronger existence?

"Are there many Chinese masters?" Ye Chen said solemnly.

Qin Yuanming thought for a few seconds and replied: "Zong Master Ye, there are 50 Grand Masters and ten top Grand Masters in China on the bright side, but I don't know how many there are in the dark. According to my guess, there must be more than Grand Masters. The strong existence is just hard to reach in my current situation.

And one thing is certain, most of these masters have some connections with Huaxia's family.

As long as there is a master in the family, the status will inevitably rise! Although this is the age of technology and the legal system, those who really control power are surrounded by martial artists. "

Ye Chen tapped his fingers lightly on his thighs, thinking about the situation in front of him, and then continued to ask: "What about Jiangcheng? How about Jiangcheng's martial arts situation?"

Qin Yuanming glanced at Zhu Rende: "Brother Rende should know the situation in Jiangcheng better than me."

Zhu Rende did not twist, and explained: "If you want to talk about the main forces of Jiangcheng, you must mention the four major families. If you divide them according to their strength, they should be the Chu family, the Zhao family, the Lu family, and the Chen family. The Chu family has the most background and strength. Strong ~ www.ltnovel.com ~ The Chen family is the weakest... But don't underestimate the Chen family, it would be different if the old man from the Chen family came back to sit down.

It's a pity that the Chen family didn't know who had offended him a few days ago. Both father and son died at home. At present, the Chen family has been kicked out of the four major families and replaced by the Wan family. "

Ye Chen had heard from Chen Zhengguo before that there was a master in the Chen family who practiced in Wuyi Mountain and even threatened him with this person.

Right now, the old man of the Chen family must know what happened to the Chen family, but he doesn't know when he will return.

Although he did it very cleanly and did not leave any evidence, if the other party is interested, he will definitely think of himself!

Bai Libing already suspected him, and everyone else must too!

As for the Chu family, the Zhao family, the Lu family, and the Wan family, he really has acquaintances in the four major families now!

The one who impressed most was Chu Shuran!

The woman who is high above herself and plays with herself!

If it weren't for five years ago, she insulted herself in front of the teachers and students of the school!

He won't be helpless!

will not let parents wash their faces with tears all day long!

Parents will not go to the banquet at Yunhu Villa for his dignity!

Five years have passed, and he clearly remembered everyone's face at that time!

also remembers how every family child scolded him for trash in front of his parents!

He even remembers the bloodshot eyes of his parents when they argued for reason!

In the eyes of parents, their son is never a waste! No one is qualified to insult!

"Chu Shuran, come back this time, I will let you understand what is truly unattainable!" Ye Chen said in his heart.

Chapter 39: Things are wrong!

When thinking about it, Ye Chen didn't notice at all, and he broke out a strong murderous intent.

Murderous intentions directly chilled the entire hall, and a stern air enveloped the three people on the field.

Zhu Rende's face turned blue, and his breathing was more like being held mercilessly.

Zhu Zixuan is okay, she is practicing after all, but this murderous intent still made her step back a few steps.

It is Qin Yuanming who really fears!

Stormy waves are set off in his heart, why is there such a terrible evil spirit in Master Ye!

He was sure that the blood on the hands of this young man before him was at least a thousand people!

What is this concept?

This is a **** who cannot be offended!

Why did the other party hear such anger from the four big families?

Could anyone in the four major families offend Grandmaster Ye?

If this is the case, then the situation in Jiangcheng will completely change.

The wrath of such a young master is not something the little Jiangcheng family can bear!

"Mr. Ye, you..." Zhu Rende really couldn't help it, and his hoarse voice pulled Ye Chen back from his memories.

Ye Chen noticed the few people in front of him, their expressions changed drastically, and he quickly took back the evil spirit from his body, and apologized: "Old Zhu, are you okay, just thought of something..."

Zhu Rende waved his hand and took a few breaths of fresh air before he said: "Mr. Ye, the time is almost there, and the three of us won't bother you to rest. I will send someone to invite you and leave at the auction in a few days."

He really didn't dare to stay in this place for another minute. The ghost knew whether the youth in front of him would kill them.

Budo master kills, but even the police may not even interfere!

Ye Chen little bit, watching the three people leave.

Then, he looked at the medicinal materials in front of him, and he didn't know what to do.

There is no alchemy furnace, and the refining of alchemy is still a bit troublesome. Right now, these medicinal materials can only be absorbed in the water.

The effect is much worse than the pill, but it is better than nothing.

.....

At night, Ye Chen was a little hungry, so he left Tomson Yipin and returned to Dadu apartment.

He is not very good at living in that place. Such a big house, living alone, how deserted.

Opening the door of the apartment, Ye Chen found that Sun Yi had not returned.

He used his home phone to make several calls to Sun Yi, wanting to ask something, but no one answered.

"What the **** is this girl doing without saying anything? Could something happen at home? If there is no news tomorrow, I will go to town to find her."

Ye Chen actually went to Sun Yi's house when he was at the same table. When Sun Yi was molested by a gangster at the school gate, Ye Chen didn't know if he was irritated by Chu Shuran's word waste, so he picked up the brick and rushed over.

Those hooligans are naturally afraid of ruthless people, holding their heads and fleeing, Ye Chen also suffered some injuries during the fight.

In order not to worry the family, Ye Chen stayed at Sun Yi's house for one night.

Five years have passed. Although I don't remember the specific location, I should be able to find it if I look for it carefully.

Now coming back and thinking, Sun Yi was desperate to bury his parents at the beginning, maybe it was to repay the original love.

"Forget it, if you can't eat Sun Yi's delicious food today, let's go out to eat, it's not bad for money anyway."

Ye Chen closed the door and walked out directly.

He walked around the neighborhood and saw that the so-called delicacies were a bit dull. He was not picky at first, but he has been completely nurtured by the taste of Sun Yi these days and has no interest in this kind of restaurant.

Suddenly, he thought of something and stopped a taxi directly to the south.

He vaguely remembered that he used to go to a food stall when he was in high school, the smell there, now that he can't help but swallow in retrospect!

Because of his frequent visits, he even knew Wang Yuheng, the son of the couple who opened the food stall.

Wang Yuheng was at the same school with Ye Chen, and when the whole school knew that his business was rubbish, he was the only one who was still willing to associate with Ye Chen.

He is one of Ye Chen's few friends back then.

The taxi stopped, and when Ye Chen saw the food stall, he couldn't help but sighed. He was afraid that five years later, everything is different, and even this only missed place is gone.

Ye Chen came to the food stall and found that Wang Yuheng was not there, but his parents were sitting there.

Just don't know why, there are no customers here at all. He remembers that this food stall business was extremely hot.

Ye Chen found a place and sat down. He noticed a sign that said the food stalls were relocated. Today is also the last day here.

What surprised Ye Chen was that he chose an alley in the old street.

How can the traffic of that place compare with here? It's more than ten times worse!

Ye Chen didn't think too much, and said directly: "Uncle Wang, give me some signature skewers!"

Five years ago, every time he said that, Uncle Wang and Aunt Zhang would prepare a bunch of skewers for him, plus a bottle of Sprite. This was Ye Chen's most enjoyable time.

Uncle Wang and Aunt Zhang obviously did not expect that there would be guests coming to the door at this time. They glanced at Ye Chen, but did not recognize them.

Aunt Zhang glanced around and seemed to be afraid of something. UU Read www.uukanshu.com anxiously walked up to Ye Chen and said, "Little brother, that... today we are closed, we are ready to close the stall, or you go. Don't eat at home?"

Ye Chen frowned, and said in surprise: "Auntie Zhang, this is only 6 o'clock in the evening. The business has just started. It closes so early?"

"Yes...Yes, brother, you go to another house. If you really want to eat our craftsmanship, you can bring your friends to the new address tomorrow to join in. It will open tomorrow and the audience will be 50% off." Aunt Zhang pointed out Refer to the sign on the wall.

Ye Chen felt something wrong, he suddenly noticed that Aunt Zhang had a bruise on her face, which was obviously beaten.

He glanced at Uncle Wang who was sitting there smoking a cigarette. The two have always been very affectionate, and domestic violence should not be possible.

Uncle Wang felt Ye Chen's gaze, came over with a limping, and persuaded Ye Chen: "Little brother, the wind is tight these days, and business is hard to do. Well, if you want to eat, I will give it to you. Make some, but you have to finish it in five minutes, because we are really going to withdraw the stall. It has been five years, and to be honest, if it's not forced, I really don't want to leave here."

Uncle Wang's tone was a bit lonely.

After speaking, he turned and walked towards the mobile booth.

Not long after, Uncle Wang brought some skewers and brought the side dishes to Ye Chen, and by the way chose a bottle of drink for Ye Chen.

"You are the last customer of our husband and wife's food stall, so you won't be charged, let's eat."

Ye Chen was just about to eat. Suddenly, he felt something. He glanced at the end of the road, and a coldness appeared in the corner of his mouth.

"coming."

Chapter 40: Who dares to step forward and die!

More than ten seconds later, Uncle Wang and Aunt Zhang also noticed that seven or eight men came at the end. When they saw them, their expressions suddenly changed, and they began to close their stalls quite neatly.

"Little brother, I'll pack these things for you, you go! Go!" Aunt Zhang rushed over, her tone very hurried.

Ye Chen remained unmoved: "Why are you leaving?"

"Little brother, you are still young and don't know some rules. If you don't leave, you won't end up well... Aunt Zhang is begging... OK?"

Auntie Zhang's tone trembled even more.

Ye Chen just wanted to speak, a loud noise rang in his ears!

I saw that the men in black vests had already arrived at the booth, and the first bald head wearing a gold necklace directly lifted the table next to Ye Chen!

Scattered things fell on the ground, quite messy.

"Yo, Lao Wang, it's okay, there are customers who are willing to come." The bald head found a stool and sat down, and glanced at the shop change notice on the wall. "Yo, today is the last day, tomorrow is the change The place? How did you change to that hutong? How bad is the passenger flow in that place, how much money can you make?"

Uncle Wang's face was flickering. He glanced at his bald head and said with a smile: "Master Tiger, that... you have a large number of adults, so don't embarrass me for a small business."

After that, Uncle Wang took the initiative to withdraw all the money in the cabinet, and carefully handed it over, and said with a smile: "Master Tiger, these are the sources of all my people these days. I respect you... Look... .."

"Snapped!"

The bald tiger master glanced at the money and slapped it out.

"How about this money to pass the beggar? It's so difficult to ask you to prepare a protection fee of 50,000 yuan? Do you think I will not kill you if you change the place? Dreaming! Believe it or not I will smash your new store tomorrow! Let you open Nothing!"

As soon as I said this, Uncle Wang's face was completely pale! He thought that after changing to that place, there would be no more things in front of him! At the moment, this vampire has entangled them.

They have a small business, they can't afford to spend so much!

Aunt Zhang was trembling with fright next to her. As a woman, it was useless to stand up.

These people even threatened to threaten their lives!

Master Tiger glanced at the money on the ground, spit out, and gave an order: "I will be here at this time tomorrow. I only want to see fifty thousand, which will ensure your business is booming. If not, Believe it or not, if you dare to open a store, I dare to smash a store!"

After finishing speaking, Lord Tiger waved his hand and walked directly outside.

But he hadn't walked a few steps yet, a cold voice sounded behind him:

"Did I let you go?"

Tiger Lord stopped, his body seemed stiff. He turned his head, only then did he notice Ye Chen who was eating skewers.

He sneered, turned around, sat directly beside Ye Chen, and said, "Boy, were you talking to Lao Tzu just now?"

Ye Chen took a bite of the side dish with his chopsticks and tasted it carefully. After a few seconds, he looked at Lord Tiger and said, "I'm not talking to you, is it talking to a dog?"

As soon as these words came out, not only those little brothers were dumbfounded, but even Uncle Wang and Aunt Zhang turned pale in shock!

This young man really dare to say!

Can he not see the form in front of him?

Tiger Lord is the boss of this film. There are about a dozen younger brothers under his hand. How many people do things according to his wink. The result is that this kid is good. The other party is almost leaving, and he starts to call him a dog!

This young man is afraid that his head is not good.

Dare to be mad in front of Tiger Lord.

This is dead!

Aunt Zhang just wanted to persuade Ye Chen, but was stopped by Uncle Wang.

"What are you going to do as a bitch, this kid pierced the sky, you still can't sew him! He offended Lord Tiger, how can we help, you haven't seen so many people watching?"

Aunt Zhang glanced at the seven or eight scowling gangsters, and suddenly she didn't dare to speak.

They are ordinary people no matter how they say, how dare to confront such a rogue?

At this moment, Hu Ye's face is a little ugly, he is also the leader of this film, no one has ever dared to scold him so arrogantly, even more in front of him!

This young man is not looking for death!

"Boy, I don't care which way you are, now you stand up and kneel down ten heads to Laozi, and I will interrupt you with one hand!" Tiger's tone was threatening.

He graduated from Jiangcheng martial arts school, and no one dares to dissuade him when it comes to fighting.

Ye Chen took a sip of his drink, calm and brisk, as if he hadn't heard the other party's words.

Tiger Lord is a little angry! How could he have been so ignored for so many years!

"Your special mother..." Master Tiger slapped Ye Chen's face smoothly! He wants to use this slap to teach each other how to behave!

At the moment when the slap was about to touch Ye Chen, Ye Chen moved, he slapped a palm on the table, and a pair of chopsticks flew directly into the air!

He clasped the chopsticks in his right hand and turned around! The chopsticks stuck directly into Tiger's palm!

penetrate instantly!

The blood came out even more!

Without waiting for Master Tiger's reaction, Ye Chen pressed his elbow again, and with a "ding!" He directly nailed Master Tiger's hand on the table with his chopsticks!

"what!"

Tiger Lord shouted directly in pain!

He wanted to struggle away, but found that his chopsticks were firmly nailed to him, and it would only hurt to pull it out!

"Fuck Nima!" Hu Ye directly clenched his fist with his other hand and smashed towards Ye Chen!

Ye Chen snorted coldly, UU reading www. Uukanshu.com didn't dodge or dodge, and greeted him with a punch!

"Crack!" With a sound, his fists touched! Hu Ye's other arm was directly twisted and deformed! The bones are all broken!

Tiger's sore neck was violently bruised, and his eyes were bloodshot!

He wanted to scream in pain, and as soon as he was about to scream, Ye Chen lifted his palm slightly and made him close his mouth! Then a snap!

"Boom!"

Tiger Lord's cheek hit the table heavily, and the whole process flowed like art.

"I don't like too loud sounds."

Ye Chen's cold voice sounded.

Hearing these words, Hu Ye was completely stunned, and his scared body trembled.

He knew he had hit the iron this time.

Lianjiazi!

must be Lianjiazi!

Judging from the opponent's shot, his strength far exceeds his own, and every key move leaves him no right to fight back!

Ye Chen's such means directly frightened everyone present.

Although they don't know martial arts, but looking at this posture, they guessed that Ye Chen could not provoke.

The face-squeezed Tiger Lord saw that it was already at this time, and no one took action, and roared: "Don't come and help! Abandon this little beast!"

Those gangsters are sober, and they just pick up the empty beer bottle and prepare to go up and have a big fight, a cold voice slowly falls:

"Who dares to step forward and die."

Ye Chen's tone was very light, so light that there was no emotion at all.

Hearing these words, those **** didn't dare to move at all, they were like falling into an ice cave! That voice seems to have a kind of magic!

As long as they take a step, they will die!

That guy really dares to kill!
