Chapter 796: You don't know what to face!

After speaking, he lowered his head in fear and stuck it to the ground.

If you kill the Lord and anger him, it will be over.

As soon as this was said, the entire garden seemed to fall into dead silence.

"Boom!" The wicker chair under the main killer was shattered on the spot!

Not only that, but cracks appeared on the ground, and the flowers and plants he had just watered carefully shattered!

Over the years, he has never been so angry!

Because he has been king in the land of killing for so long, no one dared to touch his people!

nobody!

The goatee old man sensed something was wrong and offered a cold sword!

Han Jian placed directly on the person's neck: "Do you know what you are talking about! If you dare to lie, I will cut off your head immediately!"

The man shook his head repeatedly: "How dare I lie in front of the killer, Ye Jitian is too terrifying, not only the means to reach the sky, but also control the fierce beasts in the killing field! Ten thousand people outside surrender, no one dares to stop! "

"If you don't believe it, the law protector can go outside and grab someone to ask!"

"Also, this Ye Jitian is not a human being at all. His martial arts, alchemy, and medical skills are extremely terrifying! People outside call him the King of Slaughter!"

"If I say half a lie, the sky will thunder!"

The words fell, and a figure fell in front of him.

He raised his head and found that it was the killer!

"Kill the Lord, not only that, Ye Xitian will leave you a word before leaving!"

The killer showed a hint of interest, and suddenly smiled grimly: "Oh? Then what did he leave?"

The man hesitated for a few seconds, or said the original words: "He...he said, no matter who the person behind the Slaughter Land is, if you dare to give him another idea! Ye Sution will personally come to kill him!"

When the words fell, the killer's eyes suddenly became cold!

This cold is cold to the bone!

The speaker instantly turned into an ice sculpture.

In an instant, the ice sculpture melted and turned into a pool of blood!

shocking!

If the two Pharaohs were not for their deep strength, they would have been seriously injured.

"Ye Jitian? Haha, this is the first time someone has made me so interested!" The killer suddenly laughed.

For the first time anyone dared to challenge his authority in the Land of Killing!

One of the law protectors stood up directly: "Kill the Lord, I am willing to go to war, and immediately bring Ye Sutian back!"

The killer shook his head: "Since Ye Jitian can leave these words, it must prove that he is good at strength, and you are far from enough!"

His gaze fell on the other guardian again: "You two go together, and bring a hundred powerful men to search outside the Slaughter Land."

"I only have one condition, I want to live!"

"I want to see what kind of magical powers Ye Jitian possesses!"

"Yes! Kill the Lord!"

The two guardians nodded fiercely, and instantly turned into an afterimage, dissipating between heaven and earth.

After the two left, the killer came to the destroyed flowers and plants, reached out his hand to pick up the flowers and plants, and muttered: "Ye Jitian, my person, only I can kill. Since you moved, then from now on From now on, you will live in the nightmare of my murderer."

"I will let you know who is the king of killing!"

Outside the land of killing, in the Yucang Mountain area, in a hidden cave.

A dozen mad black tigers were guarded outside the cave.

Eyes up!

The King of Black Tiger sat firmly at the entrance of the cave, murderously awe-inspiring.

In the cave, Ye Chen finally erased Ye Xitian's face.

He looked at the scarred Duan Huaian and clenched his fists: "Master, the disciple is late, and you have suffered!"

He wanted to kneel on one knee, but he didn't expect to be stopped by Duan Huaian: "Apprentice, how can you kneel on me! Without you, I might have become a skeleton long ago!"

"Let me take a good look at you!"

Duan Huaian feels in a dream at this moment!

The most unbearable apprentice of that doctor of God was actually Ye Jitian, who was feared by countless people in Kunlun!

Who can believe it!

He even stretched out his old hand, trying to touch Ye Chen, but he took it back.

His lips trembled, as if thinking about something, but suddenly said: "Ye Chen, from now on, I am no longer your master!"

Ye Chen was startled, his eyes widened: "Master, why is this?"

Duan Huaian shook his head and sighed: "Now you, I am not qualified to teach you. Ever since I was destroyed to the pubic area, I have become a useless person. Although the medicine is still there, there is no martial art. In Kunlun where martial art is respected. How can you survive, let alone teach you."

"Also, the medical gods are now completely in decline. I can't predict your future achievements. Your stage is definitely not just here. The medical gods' unbearable resume will affect you in the future."

"Ye Chen, with your current talent, it is enough to join any top sect."

"Listen to be a teacher, leave the medical gods, and seek better development."

These few words of Duan Huaian can be said to have gritted his teeth!

Ye Chen is his favorite apprentice, but he doesn't want the healing gods to restrain him!

What's more, there is a huge crisis behind the God of Medicine Daozong!

Although Ye Chen's strength is very strong now, but the Dao Sect Sect Master knows Ye Chen's true identity, and will inevitably use all the Dao Sect's power to hunt down!

He doesn't want to harm Ye Chen!

Ye Chen stepped on his feet, his eyes were firm, and he stretched out his hand and pointed directly at the sky!

"I, Ye Chen, would like to swear by Dao Xin! Life is a person of the God of Medicine, and death is a ghost of the God of Medicine! If you leave the God of Medicine, the Tao will be destroyed! The soul will be destroyed!"

Duan Huaian's expression changed drastically when he heard this heart oath. He wanted to stop it but found it impossible!

This is Daoxin's oath. Once violated, the consequences will be disastrous!

"Ye Chen, you are too confused!"

Ye Chen put down his hand and said seriously: "Master, five years ago without you, there would be no me now! Ye Chen is not a gentleman, but I also know what kindness is!"

"In the past five years, you have treated me like a child, protected me, taught me the way of medicine and practice, being a teacher for a day, and a father for life! This kindness will never be forgotten for the rest of my life! I won't be able to repay it for the rest of my life! My second home!"

Duan Huaian was deeply moved.

With such an apprentice, there will be no regrets for a lifetime.

"But Ye Chen, you don't know what the God of Medicine is facing right now..."

Ye Chen smiled and said directly: "Master, are you worried about Dao Zong?"

Hearing Dao Zong, Duan Huaian nodded: "All of my Dao Zong is ruined. I don't want you to be the second me."

"Although you have the power to reach the sky now, so many sects in Kunlun are frightened, but if Dao Sect Master makes a shot himself, you will not be able to fight back. This is a fact."

"Fortunately, your current burst of strength is all under the name Ye Sutian. Daozong should have noticed Ye Sutian but not you. In their eyes, you, a disciple of the God of Medicine, should be the most disdainful. exist."

Chapter 797: That lunatic is here again!

When Ye Chen heard these words, his eyes narrowed slightly, and he said curiously: "Master, I want to know how strong Dao Sect is?"

Duan Huaian sighed and looked into the distance, as if lost in thought.

A few seconds later, he suddenly said: "Let's put it this way, before I was destroyed to the Dantian, my cultivation was above the Void King Realm."

Ye Chen was startled. Kunlun Xu's cultivation realm was Transcendent Realm, Saint Realm, Holy King Realm, Void Return Realm, Virtual King Realm, Daoyuan Realm, Emperor Venerable Realm, etc. He never expected that the master would actually be the Virtual King Realm. !

What a terrifying existence this is!

Duan Huaian felt Ye Chen's shock, and said, "But the Dao Sect's Sect Master can seriously hurt me with one move. Do you know how terrible the other party is?"

"This is not the most important thing. As an ancient sect, Dao Sect is far from simple! There are even rumors that an ancestor of Dao Zong has lived from ancient times to the present. Although it is a legend, it is definitely not groundless."

"During this period, although I am the head of the medical gods, I have been investigating Dao Sect through various means, and I have found something wrong with Dao Sect."

"Dao Zong has always been keen to search for Kunlun Xu geniuses. Of these geniuses, some people have become disciples of Dao Zong, and some have mysteriously disappeared without whereabouts."

"The depth of the Daozong water is enough to make people feel awe. This is also the reason why the medical gods are hiding from Daozong. Now the medical gods are like an ant, but Daozong is a giant elephant. I don't want you. Entering this muddy water, if you are not careful, you will die."

"This is not a threat, it is a fact! Ye Chen, I told you all these things, and you should also make a decision. Leaving the Medical God Sect, I will declare to the outside that you have betrayed the Medical God Sect and will drive you out forever. In this way, Dao Sect will not spend any more energy to deal with you."

In Duan Huaian's view, this is the only way to deal with it.

Presumably Ye Chen would choose to give up if he knew the terrible Dao Sect.

This is human nature, he understands.

After all, Ye Chen's current talents, as long as they don't die, they will inevitably become the makers of Kunlun virtual rules in a hundred years.

At that time, there is still a chance for revenge.

Right now, what Ye Chen should do most is to compromise, not to be arrogant!

however.

At this moment, Ye Chen's eyes flashed with confidence, and he said directly: "Master, I said, I will not leave the medical gods!"

"The * of medicine has fallen? Then I will personally make the * of medicine the first sect in ancient times!"

"At that time, what right does Dao Sect have to shake!"

"If his Dao Sect Sect Master dares to use the Medical God Sect again, I will kill Dao Sect! He wants to kill me, it's not that easy!"

"Also, in the land of killing, I have killed more than a dozen Dao Sect disciples! Since I have offended it, I must offend it thoroughly!"

"By the way, Master, I only ask you one question, do you believe me?"

Suddenly, Ye Chen threw out these words.

Duan Huaian was a little dazed, Ye Chen actually killed the Dao Zong disciple?

Want to make the Medical God Sect become the first sect of Kunlun Xu?

What's this kidding?

The way of medicine has long since fallen, and the way of martial arts is respected, and even the * of medicine is not even considered a sect in the eyes of most people!

Not to mention the first, the general sect that can become Kunlun Xu is difficult to climb to the sky!

Zongmen can't be brilliant by one person!

He wanted to shake his head, but he nodded and said, "Master believes."

In the next second, Ye Chen threw a blockbuster: "Master, since you believe me, I will assure you."

"Within two months, I will let the God of Medicine resound through Kunlun Xu! In two years, I will let the God of Medicine become the top sect of Kunlun Xu! Within three years, I will kill the Taoist Sect, and even let the Sect Master of Taoism kneel on the God of Medicine. Outside!"

The sound seemed to come from nine days.

Excited.

Duan Huaian wanted to laugh a little, but seeing Ye Chen's serious face, he still couldn't laugh out loud.

This apprentice is really serious this time.

Suddenly, he thought of something, and said with a trembling voice: "Tui'er, you said that within two months, the God of Medicine will ring through Kunlun Xu, but because of the ratio of geniuses to the sect..."

Ye Chen nodded: "Exactly! Master, Ji Siqing has given me a place, and I will use this place to represent the medical gods! I should also let those sects who rejected me know who is Fangen. Who is the waste!"

Duan Huaian quickly denied: "No! Absolutely not! Let's not talk about the danger of that game! You definitely can't fight on behalf of the medical gods! That is the battle of the martial arts sects, what fun are you going to join the medical sects!"

"Besides, if you don't need medical treatment to deal with others, it will be very troublesome."

Naturally, what Ye Chen was sure in his heart could not be influenced by others. He looked at Duan Huaian and said word by word: "Master, don't worry, I don't need martial arts, I will use medical skills to crush those self-righteous sects and geniuses!"

...

At the same time, a spiritual report quietly spread throughout Kunlun.

In just one hour, spread to all the major sects and forces of Kunlun Xu.

Set off an uproar!

There is no other reason, just because there are three big characters in the entire length of the newspaper!

Ye Jitian!

Ye Xitian appeared in Kunlun Void for the fourth time!

Last time it appeared The blood alliance and another sect were destroyed!

The Kunlun Xu's major sects have not slowed down yet, but this time, Ye Jitian actually appeared again!

This time, Ye Jitian wasn't looking for trouble with the sect!

Instead, I went to the land of killing!

That place where many sects fear!

All the sects sighed for a long time. They thought it was not a big deal, but they did not expect that what Ye Jitian did in the Land of Slaughter was even more terrifying than destroying the sect!

Ye Jitian's crazy move: revealing his talents for alchemy against the sky, crushing the holy alchemist Hong Tao! Reject Dan Xuta's invitation on the spot!

Ye Jitian slayed four powerful people in the Void Return Realm with one sword! Defend the posture of the strong!

Ye Jitian gave orders to thousands of fierce beasts, once again beheading ten powerful people in the Void Return Realm! Ten thousand surrender!

There was even a cruel word left, asking for the killer who once resounded through Kunlun Xu!

madman!

A complete lunatic!

Countless sects sent people to the land of killing to investigate the reality. When the matter was confirmed, an emergency meeting was held overnight!

There is only one theme for this conference, and that is Ye Jitian!

Ye Xitian's existence almost shook Kunlun's 80% sect, which was a complete nightmare for them.

Although I haven't figured out why Ye Jitian made a big fuss in the Land of Killing, one thing is certain, Ye Jitian's existence is a time bomb!

He doesn't know when to show up!

I don't know who will do it next time!

I don't even know what kind of cultivation Ye Jitian is!

It's as if Ye Jitian's cultivation has been erratic and unfathomable!

Judging from the present, the Void Returning Realm is not enough to measure Ye Jitian! "

Very likely to be in the Void King Realm or above!

Besides, this guy doesn't even pay attention to the killer of Slaughter Land and Dan Xu Tower. Who else would dare not move this kind of person!

Chapter 798: Go in person!

Kunlun Xu, Ji family.

A female boudoir with a hint of fragrance.

The girl leaned against the window, under the light, her face was crystal clear as jade, she looked like a crescent moon, and she was tender and charming.

Ji Siqing put down the spiritual report in his hand and fell into a long period of contemplation.

This was the first time she felt a sense of crisis since she was born.

From small to large, she has been around the stars.

The word genius seemed to belong to her only.

Her talent and spiritual roots are extremely against the sky.

She is even used to enjoying others' looking up, which has also cultivated her cold heart.

No one can see her.

Except for Ye Chen from the God of Medicine.

But now, when the name Ye Xitian appeared in her time, she realized that everything was wrong.

Raid: Shadow Legends! Play Now!

Even many times, she would ask herself: Am I really a genius?

Now Ye Jitian is not just martial arts, but also the techniques of alchemy and animal training are enough to make most young people in Kunlun Xu look up!

Even let her look up!

When she came to the window, the breeze hit her, her hair fluttered like a fairy.

But above the beautiful face, there are slightly frowning eyebrows.

As if falling into infinite thinking.

She suddenly wanted to meet this man named Ye Sutian.

She is too curious.

This feeling is getting stronger.

Not only because of the feeling of sympathy between the geniuses, but also because Ye Jitian may have the Primordial Void Pill in his hands. This is the only key to treating his father.

My sister Ji Lin went to China to look for Ye Jitian a few days ago, and now it seems that the direction has been wrong.

Ye Xitian was not in China at all.

Should also let this girl come back.

As for right now, those in Ji's family may not find Ye Sutian.

Only she was dispatched in person.

She has been to the killing land of Yucang Mountain many times, and she knows there.

Know more about the style of killer.

Ye Jitian made a big fight in the land of killing, and even killed the people around him. The killer would definitely find Ye Jitian at all costs.

If Ye Xitian had an accident, then his father's life would end here.

Ji Siqing didn't hesitate anymore, put on a piece of clothing, gripped with five fingers, and a thin sword appeared directly in her white and slender palm.

After that, the long sword was placed on the waist like a water snake.

The waist, chest, buttocks, and the perfect ratio of measurements are enough to make most of the Kunlun Xu women feel ashamed.

"Xiao Qing, let Ji He come to see me right away!"

Ji Siqing instructed a servant.

Ji He is the only person who has seen Ye Xitian, she must take it with her.

"Yes, miss."

Ten minutes later, Ji He, wearing a Tsing Yi, hurriedly appeared in the Ji family hall.

"Sister Siqing, you let me come here so late because..."

Ji Siqing said straight to the point: "Follow me to the Land of Killing."

Ji He was startled: "Sister Siqing, are you going to find Ye Jitian?"

Ji Siqing nodded: "Yes, this person is very important to my Ji family."

"But Ye Xitian has left the land of killing? Will we be too late in the past?" Ji He doubted.

Ji Siqing shook his head: "Since Ye Xitian controls the army of beasts, he must have a foothold in Yucang Mountain. No matter what, I have to check it out."

Ji He nodded: "Sister Siqing, when shall we leave?"

"Right now!"

At this moment, in the cave.

Ye Chen and Duan Huaian took the pills one after another and began to move their work to heal their injuries.

In this battle, both internal organs were seriously injured.

Because the master Duan Huaian had no dantian, the speed of absorbing the aura of heaven and earth was twice as fast as normal. Fortunately, Ye Chen continued to refine the pill for him to take.

Ye Chen opened his eyes for a whole day.

He has returned to his peak state, and his cultivation base has broken a lot, and he is still one step away from entering the Holy Realm.

Just a chance.

Once he crossed this realm and faced some initial Void Return Realm, Ye Chen might be able to kill without resorting to the cards.

But facing some powerhouses at the peak of Void Return Realm, he still struggled.

He looked at the pale-faced master, and felt the spirit of heaven and earth converge in the master's dantian, and disappeared in a blink of an eye. He felt a little distressed.

The experience of the master is too sad.

The beast-like Dao Sect master must never stay!

He wants to help the master.

However, the fragmentation of the master's dantian is not a normal fragmentation, otherwise the master will not be able to keep repairing.

Suddenly, he thought of something!

No one in Kunlun Xu can solve the problem of Master Dantian!

But one person can do it!

That is Lin Qingxuan!

No longer hesitating, Ye Chen held the small black stone in his hand and instantly entered the reincarnation cemetery.

At this moment, Lin Qingxuan is playing chess. The strange thing is that he is actually playing chess with his left and right hands!

"Apprentice, sit down."

An old voice sounded, Ye Chen could only sit down obediently.

He wanted to talk several times, but was interrupted by Lin Qingxuan.

It seemed that Lin Qingxuan was teaching him something intentionally or unintentionally.

The game of chess finally ended, Lin Qingxuan stood up, looked at it interestingly, and asked, "Disciple, what did you find just now?"

Ye Chen shook his head: "Tui'er doesn't know."

Lin Qingxuan smiled: "It's normal if you don't know it. After all, you haven't experienced the ancient times, let alone witnessed the rise and dominance of medicine."

"Then I ask you another question Do you know why I was able to suppress countless martial arts sects back then?"

After a moment of deep thought, Ye Chen replied: "The master's medical skills are great, and a silver needle can destroy a mountain and a river, and the martial arts sect is naturally invincible."

Lin Qingxuan shook his head: "Disciple, in fact, you still know too little about medicine. I will tell you today that the reason why medicine is above martial art is because of the magic of medicine! Transcendence! Give blood! Zhenshanhe!"

"The magical power you learned at Qingxuanfeng is just a little bit of the magical power. If you control the real magical power, then what is the Dao Sect?"

Ye Chen was startled, just about to say something, Lin Qingxuan said: "I don't have much time to exist, and I don't know how much I can teach you, so I may not do anything for you in the future. Everything depends on you."

"But I will hand over the most important things to you, just because you once said that you will use the path of medicine to turn the * of medicine into the first sect in the ages."

"The God of Medicine was originally created by Lin Qingxuan, you and I are also considered fate, in this matter, I will help you at all costs,"

"Also, I know the purpose of your coming here. One of the most important reasons why Duan Huaian's dantian cannot be repaired is that someone used ancient sorcery to break the dantian forcibly! At the same time, the spirit of the pill was sealed."

"If the sorcery seal is not lifted, no means in the world can be repaired!"

Ye Chen heard these words, breathing a little short!

He knew Lin Qingxuan had a way!

"Master, can you crack it?"

Lin Qingxuan waved his sleeves: "The ancient sorcery is just a sidekick in front of Lin Qingxuan's medical skills. If I want to break it, it will only take a few minutes!"

"It's just that I can't waste a little more state now! Therefore, if you want to break the ancient sorcery, you can only use your hand!"

Chapter 799: Only 1 chance!

"With my hand?"

Ye Chen had some doubts, it was impossible for this ancient sorcery to break open with his own ability!

"Master, my realm and cultivation base should be impossible in theory."

Lin Qingxuan nodded: "You are still a little self-aware. It is naturally impossible for your current cultivation level to crack the ancient sorcery. If I guess right, the people who wounded and sealed Duan Huai'an would be extraordinary. The gap between your strength and yours is as great as the sky. ."

"He didn't rush to kill them all at first, just conceit that no one in the world will crack this ancient sorcery."

"It is true that without me, there are really few people in Kunlun Xu that can break open."

"Apprentice, no matter what, you still have to be wary of the surgeon who hurt Duan Huaian. This kind of person is not as simple as the surface."

"Fortunately, the path of medicine always straddles the path of martial arts, and there is no way to hide all the magic methods."

Seeing that Lin Qingxuan hadn't said the method for a long time, Ye Chen said: "Master, what do I need to do?"

Lin Qingxuan did not continue to talk empty words, and directly said: "You need to prepare a hundred and twenty-seven kinds of medicinal materials, a Danding that can encounter extremely high temperatures. This Danding is much larger than the ordinary Danding, enough to put down Duan Huaian's body lying horizontally. ."

Hearing these words, Ye Chen was stunned.

How did he feel that Lin Qingxuan wanted to refine his master Duan Huaian into a pill?

If this sentence were spoken from Na Hong Tao's mouth, he might still trust him a little bit.

After all, Hong Tao's best thing is to use people as a salve.

Besides, he doesn't have such a grand Danding now.

The one hundred and twenty-seven kinds of medicinal materials far exceed the existence of his circulating graveyard.

Unless a pharmacy, it is impossible to get so many kinds of medicinal materials.

Lin Qingxuan saw Ye Chen's embarrassment, and said: "You can solve the medicinal material thing yourself. I think you guide the maze. Just now in the building of Hong Tao, my spiritual sense felt this kind of pill ding and hid it. A pill room of Yu Hongtao.

When you have all these things together, come find me again. "

After finishing speaking, Lin Qingxuan waved his arm lightly, and a pill full of medicinal materials fell on Ye Chen's palm.

Then Lin Qingxuan dissipated in the circular cemetery.

Ye Chen looked at the Pill Fang in his hand and sighed, and the medicinal stores around him had only a place to kill.

He must go.

Not only that, but he has to break into the red building.

As soon as Hong Tao passed away, presumably the place where he was killed was a mess.

At this time, he was undoubtedly hitting the gun.

Fortunately, everyone's attention was on Ye Sutian's body, and he entered with a real face without any major problems.

What's more, the sisters were still waiting in the hotel, and Wen Lifeng let himself guard, he couldn't leave just like that.

But if he leaves the cave, who will cover Duan Huaian's safety?

When Ye Chen returned to reality, Duan Huaian had opened his eyes and looked at Ye Chen curiously.

Ye Chen stood up and said to the master: "Master, I have some tails that have not been dealt with. I may have to go to the place of killing. On this day, you must remember not to leave this cave."

Duan Huaian heard that Ye Chen actually wanted to go back, his pupils dilated, and he refused to say: "No! The danger of the killing place now far exceeds everything. If you go now, it is very likely to be created!"

He really didn't understand why Ye Chen would have thought of going to the place of murder at this time. Although his strength is very strong, if a group of people come to deal with him, there is no chance of winning at all!

"Master, please rest assured, the killer is looking for Ye Jitian, what does it have to do with me, Ye Chen? Also, most people think that I have left the place where I was killed. The most dangerous place is undoubtedly the safest place. There will be no danger."

Duan Huaian heard this, and after thinking about it for a moment, he was a little moved: "Since you have important matters, but you only have one request as a teacher, I must come here before tomorrow evening, otherwise I will find you in the killing place!"

"it is good!"

Ye Chen didn't hesitate anymore, turned and left. When he came to the entrance of the cave, he said coldly: "Xiao Hei!"

The King of Black Tiger came to Ye Chen's eyes instantly.

"Hold this hole! Don't let the master make any mistakes, otherwise, I will ask you for it!"

Hearing this command, the Black Tiger King nodded, killing air radiated, and his eyes were staring at everything around him.

ready.

With the assurance of the King of Black Tiger, Ye Chen's stone can be considered let go, after all, this guy's place is here.

Even if the killer finds this place, it won't be easy to capture it.

Duan Huaian looked at Ye Chen's dissipated figure and thoughts, hoping to see him come back safely.

After half an hour.

Ye Chen came to the gate of the killing land.

The fire shines!

There are more than a dozen powerhouses guarding the gate of Guangcheng!

Two more Void Returning Realm masters scanned everything on it.

Fortunately, the emergence of Ye Chen did not make them aware of it. In their eyes, Ye Chen's realm was too low, and he didn't bother to look at all the killings.

"Open your hands and search!"

A man in armor said coldly.

Ye Chen certainly has the ability to kill these gatekeepers, but he obviously wouldn't do it.

Because once the master is alarmed, things are too much trouble.

Ye Chen looked at the few people in front of him interestingly, took out some high-level spirit stones and handed them out.

"I came here with my father a few years ago. At that time, it didn't seem to be so strict. Why is the killing place now like this?"

Several people searched Ye Chen's body and compared the portrait of Ye Jitian on the wall. They accepted Ye Chen's spirit stone and said impatiently: "Boy, you came to the killing place this time at the wrong time. These days, it will be very strict, so don't go out if you don't have to!"

Ye Chen pretended to yield and nodded, and directly mixed into the crowd.

When they came inside, the streets were full of powerful men from the Saint King Realm and Void Return Realm. It was obvious that this group of people searched the past room by room.

The efficiency is extremely low.

Anyone wearing a mask was forcibly revealed!

If you don't give in, kill directly!

The streets were full of blood and corpses.

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes, and headed towards the largest medicinal store in the land of killing.

Although most of the stores were closed due to the Ye Jitian storm, the medicinal store was obviously still open.

After all, Ye Sitian fought in the square and too many people were injured.

This is undoubtedly the best time for the pharmacy's business, and the person in charge of the pharmacy smiled from ear to ear, wishing Ye Sitian would come a few more times.

Entering the drugstore, Ye Chen walked directly to the old man in the center, and he directly took out the pill filled with medicinal materials.

"Hello, prepare these medicinal materials for me."

"okay!"

The old man took the pill and just planned to grab the medicine. When he saw the above, his body seemed to be petrified.

He had never seen anyone ask for so many herbs!

What is this going to do?

Chapter 800: Forced!

The old man glanced at Ye Chen interestingly, and curiously said, "This sir, are you sure you are not mistaken? There are more than a hundred kinds of medicinal materials on it, some of which are rare medicinal materials, and there is no need to have them in the store. Up?"

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes and shook his head: "There is nothing wrong with copying. I have been studying medicinal materials recently and have failed many times. This time I plan to buy more, and the province will always run here."

"Catch as many as you have here."

The old man glanced at Ye Chen again, not knowing why, he always felt that the other party was a little weird.

But this kind of feeling couldn't be said, no longer thinking about it, he turned and headed towards the backyard.

"Sir, wait a minute."

Before long, the old man knocked on a door in the backyard.

"Miss, it's me, I have something to report."

"Come in!"

A cold voice suddenly sounded, the voice of a woman.

The door suddenly opened, and the house overflowed with a strong fragrance of medicine.

The old man walked in vigilantly.

I saw the house is extremely simple.

A Danding and a girl.

The girl has a beautiful face and a fiery figure, wearing a black vest.

The magnificent things almost got rid of the waves.

The full semicircle is enough to make countless practitioners rampant.

Maybe it was because of alchemy for too long, some fragrance on his body, and long silky hair tied with a pink ribbon.

The whole body seems to be fluttering with a trace of fairy air, not a human being.

The skin wins the snow, making people afraid to look directly.

"Old Qiu, what happened to the pharmacy?" The woman opened her eyes, her palms shook, and a pill was suspended in her palms.

The rank is extremely high, it turned out to be a pill that is infinitely close to the seventh rank! Even surpassed Hong Tao!

No one would have thought that the only place to be killed was a pharmacy behind such a young top alchemist!

Old Qiu obviously didn't dare to look at the woman and said to his side: "Miss, you asked me to pay attention to all those who buy special medicinal materials, but one came today."

The woman stood up, took a towel next to her and wiped off her sweat, curiously said: "Where is weird?"

Old Qiu stepped sideways and handed Ye Chen the medicine that Ye Chen had given him. "Look, miss, there is a very young man outside who wants to buy more than 100 kinds of medicinal materials. I have never seen such a big medicine in a pharmacy in a year. An order."

"Oh?" She squeezed the woman's slender fingers, and Dan Fang appeared in the palm of her hand.

"Purchasing so many medicinal materials is either to refine a rare pill or a waste of nothing."

Her pretty eyes glanced at the contents of the pill.

The disdainful smile suddenly stiffened.

Xiu eyebrow frowned.

It seemed to be in deep contemplation.

"How does this look a bit like ancient prescriptions? It's a pity that only the medicinal materials are stated, but the details are not stated."

"What kind of person needs this prescription!"

"Every medicinal material in it conflicts with each other, but once they are mixed and refined, they are all offset. This kind of method is impossible for ordinary people to have! Either the other party is a top alchemist, or the person behind this guy is a top alchemist!"

The woman was obviously shocked by Dan Fang.

"Miss, do you need to give me the medicinal materials to this person?" Qiu Lao asked.

The corner of the woman's mouth outlines an arc of interest: "I still want to meet this kind of person, why not give it?"

"Order to go down and give this person the best medicinal materials in the pharmacy! If there are a few prescriptions, I will get them from my pill."

When Old Qiu heard these words, his expression was a bit surprised.

Behind the young lady stood Dan Xu Tower, and she resolutely left the family here for three years.

Focus on alchemy.

Even if Hong Tao's fame resounded throughout the killing place, the young lady did not fight for it.

It seems to be extremely disdainful of everything in the world, only the world of alchemy that is enthusiastic.

But before this, the young lady actually wanted to take out some important medicinal materials from her pill?

Are you crazy?

"Hurry up! When everything is ready, give it to me directly."

The girl ordered again.

"Yes, miss!" Qiu didn't think much anymore, and went straight down.

After a full ten minutes, Mr. Qiu came to the girl's eyes and handed out a piece of jade pendant with caution.

"Miss, everything is inside, just as many."

"it is good."

The woman squeezed her five fingers, the storage jade pendant fell directly on the palm of her hand, and then she headed towards the pharmacy.

But at this moment, Ye Chen was waiting patiently in the rest area. If there is not enough collection here, he can only look at Hong Tao's premises.

If you really don't make up all the parts, then you will be in trouble.

"This gentleman, is this your prescription?"

A sweet voice resounded instantly, sweeping away the coldness of the woman in the backyard just now.

Ye Chen lifted his head and saw a * girl approaching.

The critical girl only wore a black vest.

The hot figure is undoubtedly revealed.

The sense of lines and the turbulent waves are just right for the benefit.

"you are?"

Ye Chen retracted his eyesight and said.

The girl smiled and handed out the unilateral prescription in her hand: "Sir, my name is Luo Yao. I am the owner of this pharmacy. It was a great pleasure to meet for the first time."

Ye Chen took the pill back, wondering if Luo Yao intentionally, his body tilted slightly, and his full chest was undoubtedly revealed.

At the same time, the fingertips swept across Ye Chen's palm.

Fluctuating heartstrings.

"Ye Chen."

Ye Chen also said.

Luo Yao nodded: "What a good name, by the way, there is also this storage jade pendant. Inside are the medicinal materials that Mr. Ye needs, all of which are complete."

Ye Chen suddenly became suspicious. The old man said just now that there was a lack of medicinal materials for the prescription, so why was it suddenly complete?

He took the jade pendant and glanced at it. Not only was the creation complete, most of the medicinal materials were of extremely high grade.

He doesn't think there is a free lunch in the world.

"Miss Luo Yao, don't know the price of these medicinal materials?"

After all, it was a deal, Ye Chen had a big deal to give some more spirit stones.

Unexpectedly, Luo Yao shook her head and smiled: "Mr. Ye, the little girl also likes alchemy. These prescriptions should be given to Mr. Ye to make friends."

Then she showed a smile and said: "But the little girl has a doubt in her heart. What kind of pill does Mr. Ye plan to refine, and how can so many medicinal materials ensure that the pill cauldron is not confused?"

"Of course, if Mr. Ye is inconvenient to say, the little girl is not embarrassed."

When Ye Chen heard these words, he became serious in an instant. This Luo Yao didn't know where he came from, so naturally he wouldn't say anything about Dan Fang.

He directly took out some extremely high-grade spirit stones and put them on the table: "I, Ye Chen, don't like to be favored by others. These spirit stones should be enough. Of course, Miss Luo Yao, a friend I am willing to make. That's it, goodbye! "

After speaking, Ye Chen left directly!

Luo Yao naturally didn't chase her out, her smart eyes sparkled with interest.
