Chapter 1171: Fashion Emperor

Elder Liang looked at Fraud Tian's disturbing back and shook his head disappointedly.

“Am I not keeping up with the trends? Or is he just taking it too far?”

Pat!

Elder Chen placed a hand on Elder Liang's shoulder. “What are you looking at?”

“I'm looking at Fraud Tian.” Elder Liang sucked his soy milk with a stunned look on his face.

Elder Chen said, “What's there to look at? Don't you see him every day?”

Elder Liang shook his head. “No, you don't understand. I have never seen Fraud Tian like that before. Go and see for yourself. I feel like I'm going blind. I can't understand that Fraud's world.”

After saying that, he immediately walked away.

Elder Chen was very curious as he wondered what on earth was going on. What was Elder Liang so surprised about? But when he went in front of Master Lin's shop, he was astonished.

He didn't even know what to say.

He could only stand there stupidly, staring at Fraud Tian, who was inside the shop.

In the shop.

Fraud Tian had his head down looking at his phone. He felt a gaze on him, so he looked over and saw Elder Chen. What is this guy doing? Is there something different about me? Why is he staring at me like that?

“Elder Chen, what are you doing? Have you all gone crazy today?” Fraud Tian couldn’t stand such an invasive stare, so he spoke out.

“F*ck. Fraud has changed.”

Suddenly!

Elder Chen let out a gasp. Then, he ran along Cloud Street as he yelled out as if he had seen a ghost.

Zhao Zhong Yang said, “Fraud, your style has already caused a disturbance. I think you’re going to defy nature.”

Fraud Tian shook his head. “Sigh. People these days have no sense of fashion at all. No one understands me. This is too lonely. But fortunately, there are still many people on the Internet who do understand me. Look. My number of followers on Weibo has increased. I actually have 200,000 followers now. I have to post a picture. Come here and help me to take a photo. Once those scallion pancakes buyers come, there won’t be any more time.”

Zhao Zhong Yang was very reluctant but he had no choice. Under the pressure of Fraud Tian’s martial arts, he had to give in and obediently take the photo.

“Fraud, you have to take it easy. There’ll be people coming to buy scallion pancakes soon. Don’t scare them.”

Wu You Lan was cleaning up the shop. She was quite supportive of Fraud Tian’s change. After all, everyone had to discover their true selves. However, Fraud Tian’s true self was just a little too weird. Most people wouldn’t be able to accept it.

Still, she believed that after some time, people would definitely accept it.

“F*ck!”

“F*ck!”

“Oh my god.”

Suddenly, a series of cries rang out.

The townsfolk had heard that Master Lin’s shop had opened and they had rushed here immediately. But when they reached and looked inside the shop, they were completely dumbfounded.

Who the hell is this flashily-dressed person?

Upon taking a closer look, they realized that it was Fraud Tian.

How could they not be shocked?

“What are you all surprised for? Line up properly.” Fraud Tian walked over with the number tags. He was completely indifferent towards the stares.

After all, he had already gotten used to it.

“Fraud, let’s take a photo together. You look way too dashing with this style,” said a young man excitedly. “Cool. This is way too cool.”

When Fraud Tian heard that, he was delighted. “Am I really cool?”

“Yeah! You’re way too cool!”

Fraud Tian was very pleased. Finally, there was someone who understood him. “Alright, then I shall fulfill your request. Let’s take a photo together.”

Snap

The photo was taken and the young man immediately posted it on Weibo to flaunt it.

“A photo with the fashionable Fraud. Too cool!”

The other people who were queuing felt that this was quite interesting, and they wanted to take photos with Fraud Tian too.

“Me too!”

In an instant, the atmosphere had become lively. Fraud Tian was elated. He had not expected that he would suddenly become so popular. This was really quite an amazing feeling.

“Alright. Be patient, everyone. If you want to take a photo, we can do it slowly,” Fraud Tian said. Then, he looked back at Zhao Zhong Yang as if to say, “Do you see this? I, Fraud Tian, am very popular!”

In the shop.

Zhao Zhong Yang didn’t know what to say anymore. He really couldn’t understand this world anymore. Fraud Tian was so flashy, but he was actually popular. Was there something wrong with the world?

Photos were taken, one after another. The townsfolk who took photos with Fraud Tian immediately posted the photos onto the Internet.

In an instant, Fraud Tian’s photos had flooded Weibo and WeChat. Things were brewing online. Fraud Tian was gradually becoming viral.

The surrounding shop owners gathered together and started chattering.

“D*mn. What happened to Fraud Tian? Why did he change so much?”

“Yeah! Didn’t he use to dress normally? Why did he suddenly change so much?”

“Who knows? When I first saw him, I was shocked.”

“Wow, this is incredible. I wouldn’t wear those clothes even if I were beaten to death.”

When Fraud Tian reached the shop and saw the situation, he was stupefied as well. The townsfolk were crowded around Fraud Tian as they competed to take a photo with him.

“Fraud, what are you doing?”

“Hehe, I, Fraud Tian, am way too popular. Everyone wants a photo with me,” said Fraud Tian excitedly.

Lin Fan shook his head. What a strange situation. This Fraud suddenly became popular for no reason. This is really mystical.

Lin Fan couldn’t quite understand Fraud Tian’s fashion. But this was good too. He wanted to see what Fraud Tian would make of this.

In the end, Fraud Tian finished taking photos with the townsfolk and waved his hand. “Everyone, line up properly. I’m going to give out the number tags. If anyone else still wants to take photos, please wait until I’ve finished giving out the number tags.”

The townsfolk still really yearned for the scallion pancakes, so they all lined up properly.

After the number tags were given out.

As Lin Fan made the scallion pancakes, he looked over at Fraud Tian. “Your clothes today are even more incredible than yesterday’s. How many sets of clothes did you buy?”

Fraud Tian chuckled. “Not too many. Just several tens of sets. And I’m going to keep buying more. Right now, I can’t stop anymore.”

“Incredible.” Lin Fan was speechless. Fraud Tian had gone onto the path of clothes-shopping and there was no turning back.

But since Fraud Tian could be so popular, there was definitely something good about this. Lin Fan felt that perhaps he was really getting old and could no longer understand the young generation.

In the end, that was the only reason he could think of to make sense of why Fraud Tian had suddenly become so popular.

Those clothes were definitely something Lin Fan would never wear.

The scallion pancakes were all sold.

The townsfolk rushed to get their photos taken again. In the end, all the photos were finally taken, and Fraud Tian went back into the shop cheerily.

“Did you see that? I’m super popular now. People call me ‘Fashion Emperor Fraud Tian’.”

Clap clap clap

Lin Fan immediately applauded.

“Clap for him!”

Zhao Zhong Yang immediately responded and clapped as well.

“You’re awesome, Emperor. You’re incredible, Emperor.”

Chapter 1172: I’m not going

Everyone was chit-chatting in the shop, and Fraud Tian was overjoyed.

Zhao Zhong Yang said with a laugh, “From now on, we have a fashion influencer in our shop.”

Fraud Tian raised his head high. “Yep. I like the sound of that, kid.”

“Fraud, who taught you to dress like this? Don’t tell me you chose these clothes yourself,” said Lin Fan.

Fraud Tian said, “Trust me. I really chose them myself. What’s wrong? Do you feel that I’m really amazing? Let me tell you this. I didn’t think that I had such a talent too. But it’s pretty good, isn’t it? Look at what I’m wearing now? I only spent ten minutes picking it. If I were serious, it would be even better.”

Lin Fan felt helpless. “Hey, don’t take it too far. I was just saying.”

In a certain fashion model company.

A middle-aged man was looking through photos with his brows furrowed. He looked very displeased.

“What the heck are they all wearing?”

After looking for a long time, the middle-aged man muttered those words.

“Sigh. Are there really no eye-catching ones?” The middle-aged man was cleanly groomed, with not a single hair out of place. Then, he took out his phone and looked at the latest news.

“Huh?”

At that moment, the middle-aged man was stunned as he saw the photo on his phone.

“This... this...”

The person in the photo was none other than Fraud Tian. It was a photo of him with other people.

“Brilliant. This is really brilliant! This man has such individuality!”

The man was delighted. He immediately stood up and rushed out of the room. He had been mesmerized by the photo. However, those other people who were wearing boring old clothes in the photo affected its beauty. If it had been a solo photo, it would’ve been perfect.

The people in the office saw the Director walking past excitedly, and they started whispering amongst themselves.

“What’s up with the Director? Why does it feel as if something big just happened?”

“I don’t know. When I was walking past, I kept hearing Director Wang cursing from his room, saying that the photos we took were terrible.”

“Then what’s going on now? Where is he going?”

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was talking to Wang Ming Yang on the phone.

“Brother, things are going good. We can start manufacturing now.”

Lin Fan said, “Ming Yang, this is too quick, isn’t it?”

Wang Ming Yang said, “Of course it’s quick. The people in the government are all working overtime to rush things. You don’t know this but the government has been flooded with calls. Tens of thousands of people have been calling to ask when those perfect artificial limbs will be released. They’re all getting impatient.”

Lin Fan said, “Wow. There must be a lot of people waiting.”

“There are even more. Even I’ve been flooded with calls. My customer service staff can’t take it anymore. In any case, these perfect artificial limbs have gone viral. However, we still haven’t resolved the issue regarding those artificial limb companies. Those guys have really gone out of their minds. They want to have a share in this. Of course that's impossible! If they each get a share, things would get messed up."

Lin Fan had not expected this. "What does the government say?"

"They haven't said much. They're still discussing it. Maybe we'll let those companies manufacture the components. However, we have to fix the prices. We can't let them set whatever prices they want. If it wasn't for all those employees who would lose their jobs, the government would have ignored them."

Lin Fan said, "Alright then. I'll leave this matter to you guys. I only come up with the technology. Anything else has nothing to do with me."

"Hahaha. You have to be there when we open for business. You're a huge attraction. If you don't come, we won't even be able to hold the opening ceremony."

Lin Fan said, "Got it. I didn't expect that you guys would do things so quickly."

Then, the two of them chatted for a while more before hanging up.

He really hadn't expected things to get done so quickly. But this was good. The faster they could start manufacturing, the faster those perfect artificial limbs could be released.

After all, there were many people waiting for those artificial limbs.

At that moment.

A middle-aged man came into the shop hurriedly. His eyes swept the room before finally landing on Fraud Tian, who was sitting there, smoking and playing with his phone.

With one look, he couldn't turn away anymore.

As the smoke came out of Fraud Tian's mouth, the middle-aged man was shaken. He felt that this position looked exceptional.

Head tilted. Eyelids drooping. Looking at his phone.

Moreover, that beard made the middle-aged man feel that Fraud Tian's individuality was too intense.

Snap!

At that moment, the middle-aged man took out his phone and quickly snapped a photo. Then, as he looked closely, a smile gradually blossomed on his face as if he had discovered something amazing.

Fraud Tian raised his head curiously and looked at him. "Don't you have any manners? How can you just take a photo of me without asking?"

The middle-aged man replied, "I couldn't help myself. I really couldn't!"

Lin Fan looked at the scene before him and was a little confused. He couldn't understand what was going on. What was this middle-aged man doing?

Zhao Zhong Yang inquired curiously as well. He was astonished. It can't be. What's wrong with people these days? Is Fraud Tian really so attractive?

The middle-aged man said, "I'm sorry for disturbing everyone. I'm here to look for him."

Fraud Tian immediately said happily, "You must be here ask for a photo with me. That's not a problem at all. After all, you're someone who understand me."

"Of course, I completely understand you. I really do!" said the middle-aged man excitedly as he grabbed Fraud Tian's hand.

Fraud Tian instantly felt that something wasn't right. Why the heck is this grown man holding my hand?

The middle-aged man sensed Fraud Tian's alarm as well. Then, he immediately took out a name card.

“Nice to meet you. My name is Wang Yun Fei. I’m the Director of a fashion model company. I saw your photo on Weibo and was instantly blown away. You were born to be in the modelling world!” Wang Yun Fei declared excitedly as if he had found a hidden treasure.

Fraud Tian said, “What does modelling have to do with me?”

Wang Yun Fei said, “I want to invite you to be a model for our company. We will definitely put all our resources into promoting you in order to put you at the top of the world’s trends. These clothes you’re wearing as well as your poise are really too extraordinary. This is the feeling that I have been looking for!”

“Model? Will I be paid?” asked Fraud Tian excitedly.

“You will. You will be paid a lot. Millions or even tens of millions a year is possible. As long as you keep this up and become the top model in the world, you can become the ambassador for many top brands. Then, you would really be rich,” said Wang Yun Fei.

When Fraud Tian heard this, he nearly jumped. It seemed like too much money. He felt as if he wouldn’t be able to earn that much in his lifetime.

“Come. Come with me. There’s no need to stay any longer. I guarantee that I’ll make you famous,” Wang Yun Fei said as he pulled Fraud Tian’s arm.

“Wait. What are you doing? I’m staying here. I’m not going anywhere,” said Fraud Tian.

Wang Yun Fei was stunned. “How much do you get every month here?”

“Four to five thousand,” replied Fraud Tian.

“Four to five thousand? Come with me and we’ll sign a contract immediately. Your salary can be discussed.”

Fraud Tian immediately waved his hand. “No, I’m not going. My life here is pretty good. If you want a photo with me, let’s take one. If you want me to leave this place, that’s not possible. I won’t go no matter how much you pay me.”

Wang Yun Fei was dumbfounded. He couldn't understand at all.

Chapter 1173: The old one is better

Fraud Tian's thinking was simple. Taking a photo was fine. But asking him to leave Cloud Street was impossible.

Wang Yun Fei looked at Lin Fan with helplessness in his eyes as if asking for help.

Lin Fan blinked. What are you looking at me for? I can't help you.

"Master Lin, can't you talk to him? With his poise and his eye for fashion, it would be a complete waste to stay in this shop. He should live his life on the big stage. He can't just stay in this small shop and work for someone."

Wang Yun Fei said this very seriously.

Lin Fan said helplessly, "You shouldn't tell me all this. You should say it to him."

Fraud Tian waved his hand. "You're really annoying. I'm not going. You should hurry up and leave."

Wang Yun Fei seemed unyielding. "You'll earn a lot. Just one fashion show can earn you more than you'd earn in ten years over here."

"I don't need it." Fraud Tian's heart was slightly shaken, but it was only because of the money. As for leaving Cloud Street, it was completely impossible.

There was no need to even think about it.

Zhao Zhong Yang was stunned. He really hadn't expected someone to come to Cloud Street to invite Fraud Tian to be a fashion model. This was f*cking mystical. (.c om)

Wang Yun Fei said, "Think about it properly. There definitely will be other people who will come looking for you, but you have to choose me first. I can fulfil all your wants."

"Hurry up and leave."

Fraud Tian waved his hand. He didn't want to say more. He really hadn't expected to draw so much trouble.

Wang Yun Fei finally left with disappointment and reluctance. He hadn't expected to fail.

However, he was unyielding. It was too much of a shame for such a talent to be working in a small shop.

Since this shop was owned by Master Lin, the only one who would become famous was Master Lin. Fraud Tian would continue being a staff member without any benefits.

However, Wang Yun Fei believed that he would definitely be able to convince Fraud Tian before long and make him understand his own value.

Lin Fan looked at Fraud Tian. "Fraud, are you really not going? I think you'd earn more there than you'd ever earn here."

"Cheh." Fraud Tian smirked. "You're speaking as if I'm a greedy person. Let me tell you that I've been invited by many to be their bodyguard, but I rejected them all."

Lin Fan chuckled. "Fraud, you're bragging a bit too much. But honestly, you should really think about it. Although I don't understand your fashion, since other people have scouted you, it shows that you do have some potential. You might really become a fashion influencer in the future."

Zhao Zhong Yang nodded. "Yeah. When you become famous, I would be able to steal some of the limelight as well."

Wu You Lan laughed. "I didn't think that this would happen to Fraud Tian. This is really unexpected. Don't you think so, Dad?"

Wu Tian He's existence in the shop wasn't greatly felt. He felt pretty much non-existent. But at that moment, he was laughing as well.

"Brother Tian's fortune is pretty good. If he really goes down that path, he might have some accomplishments."

In the past, there had been countless big shots who have gotten Wu Tian He to read their fortunes, and he had always been accurate.

Right now, Fraud Tian's physiognomy showed that he could earn a shocking amount of wealth.

However, Wu Tian He hadn't been able to see this in the past. It was as if something had changed. Perhaps it was really because of Master Lin that Fraud Tian's fortune had gradually changed.

That was quite likely.

"Saying all this makes me a little sad. Do you all really want me to leave so badly? It's just money. I don't value money at all," said Fraud Tian in a slightly sad tone as if he had been hurt.

Zhao Zhong Yang didn't believe it. "You don't value money? You didn't give me any money even when I asked you."

Fraud Tian looked at him. "That's because I don't want to harm you and let you get addicted to gambling."

The shop started to get noisy and everyone was very happy.

Lin Fan had no qualms about Fraud Tian's decision. It actually didn't matter to him.

If Fraud Tian were to go, it would be pretty good.

If he wanted to stay, it was fine too. In any case, nothing much would change. If Fraud stayed in the shop, Lin Fan wouldn't let anything happen to him.

When the shop owners of Cloud Street saw the news on the Internet, they were all stunned. (.c om)

"D*mn. Fraud really became famous."

"Yeah! Looking at this photo, I can't see anything special at all. But those netizens are saying that he looks amazing."

"I have no idea. Perhaps we just have different standards of beauty."

Everyone was discussing intensely. They all didn't feel that there was anything special about Fraud Tian's clothes. They just felt that it was odd.

The next day!

When Lin Fan reached the shop, he realized that Fraud Tian's clothes had changed. He was back to the way he had been before.

"Fraud, you really change too quickly. Why did you change back?"

He was stunned. Was Fraud Tian a shapeshifter? But this version of Fraud Tian still felt more comfortable. The version from yesterday was way too flashy and Lin Fan couldn't quite take it.

Fraud Tian smiled. "I realized that those clothes I had been wearing for the past few days weren't too good-looking, so I gave them all away."

"Huh?" Lin Fan was shocked. He hadn't expected Fraud Tian to give all those clothes away. That was really incredible.

Zhao Zhong Yang said, "Fraud, didn't you say that you had discovered your true self? Why did you change so quickly?"

Fraud Tian replied, “My true self? I went home and took a close look. I’ve made a huge impact on the standards of beauty of the new generation, and I have to change it back. I think these clothes that I’m wearing now are pretty good.”

“Huh? What happened?” At that moment, Wang Yun Fei arrived at the shop again. He had even brought reporters.

However, when he saw Fraud Tian, he was stunned. It was as if he couldn’t believe it. Where had that eye-catching Fraud from yesterday gone? Why had he become a normal old man?

The reporters took a close look but didn’t see anything special. It was just a very normal old man.

Wang Yun Fei went forward and said anxiously, “Where are your clothes from yesterday? Why have you changed?”

Fraud Tian said, “Clothes from yesterday? You’re talking about that set of clothes? That’s too ugly. I don’t like it at all. This looks much more normal.”

“What?” Wang Yun Fei was stunned. Then, he cried out, “If you think it was ugly, why did you even wear it?”

Then, it was as if he suddenly realized something and he was very disappointed.

“So you didn’t really understand it. It looks like it was just a fluke. Sigh. It seems that I had been thinking too much.”

Without saying more, he immediately left Cloud Street.

The reporters were stunned. They had no idea why he had come.

Where was the fashionable old man?

Chapter 1174: There's a problem!

Lin Fan shook his head and smiled. Then, he didn't say much more.

It seemed that Fraud Tian still couldn't bear to leave this place. This Fraud really made him quite touched.

Actually, it really wasn't a problem at all. If Fraud were to really go into another business, Lin Fan would be very happy for him. Every person had his own individual goals.

However, Fraud Tian didn't want to go. He couldn't bear to leave Cloud Street. That was his own choice, and it was a pretty good choice. It was quite great to stay here happily.

Moreover, the people here couldn't bear to see Fraud Tian leave either.

Fraud Tian sat at the entrance, continuing to smoke his cigarette. Last night, he had spent some time thinking, but he still decided not to leave in the end.

Because he had already gotten used to this place, he didn't want to go anywhere else.

In the past, he used to spend his days running his stall on the bridge. But now, he had so many friends on Cloud Street. Although there were times that bad things would happen, these always ended happily.

Moreover, he was needed here as well. If he were to leave, who would give out number tags for the kid?

A few days later.

Lin Fan was driving his car towards a factory. That was the office for Wang Ming Yang's collaboration with the government as well as the headquarters for the artificial limbs.

There were many high-tech facilities over there. (.c om)

After Secretary Chen reported this matter to the higher-ups, the higher-ups took it quite seriously. After all, these artificial limbs could solve the problems of many disabled people.

When Lin Fan arrived, the place was already filled with countless reporters.

The reporters had arrived much earlier. They all cared very much about these perfect artificial limbs.

“Master Lin is here!”

At that moment, the reporters saw the car driving over. When they took a closer look, they realized that it was Master Lin’s car.

Lin Fan came out from the car and nodded at the reporters. “Good morning, everyone! You’re all early. How professional!”

The reporters laughed. “Master Lin, you’re early too! We’re not as professional as you. You’re busy with the scallion pancakes and the artificial limbs at the same time. It must really be tiring.”

“Hahahaha,” Lin Fan laughed. Looking at the time, it was still early. “What time are you guys going in?”

A reporter took out a cigarette and shared it with Master Lin. Then, they stood there smoking. “We have to wait until 9. Master Lin, you came so early too. Is it because there’s something you have to do?”

Lin Fan smiled. “Are you trying to get news out of me?”

The reporter said, “Ah, Master Lin, what do you mean by that? I’m just chatting with you normally!”

Lin Fan said, “Actually, there’s nothing much. I just came early to see how the facilities are and whether the artificial limbs produced are up to standard. If they aren’t, we can’t distribute them. We’d have to re-make them, wouldn’t we?”

The reporters nodded. "Mmm. Master Lin is right. Once these perfect artificial limbs are released, they will bring fortune to those people. However, I heard that the matter regarding those other artificial limb companies hasn't been resolved yet. It wouldn't be a big problem, would it?"

Lin Fan waved his hand. "I don't know about that, nor do I care. In any case, I believe that the government will take care of it."

A reporter said, "Master Lin, we all really respect you. You gave away this technology so willingly and unselfishly. That's really admirable."

"You're too courteous." Lin Fan smiled. "Alright, I'm going in now. See you later. But when you ask questions later, don't ask questions that are too complicated. I may not be able to answer them."

"Hahaha."

The reporters burst into laughter. Then, they watched as Master Lin went in.

Wang Ming Yang had been waiting for a long time. When he saw Lin Fan enter, he immediately approached him. "Ah, my brother, you're finally here."

Lin Fan replied, "What's the hurry? It's only 8. Is Secretary Chen here?"

"Not yet. Secretary Chen is very busy, and we've set the meeting time at 9. He'll be on time for the press conference. This time, things are really troublesome. Sigh, I shan't say more. In any case, this is up to us." When Wang Ming Yang thought about those other artificial limb companies, he was so anxious that he had a headache. However, the good thing was that it was already mostly resolved.

There were only a few old foxes that refused to give in. They really made him feel helpless.

Lin Fan smiled. "They must be giving you a real headache. Anyway, this has nothing to do with me. Let's go. Let's take a look at the manufacturing process. The quality is up to standard, right? There are no problems with the components, are there?"

Wang Ming Yang patted his own chest as he said confidently, “Don’t worry. There are definitely no problems.”

In the factory. (.c om)

The workers were busy working. The machines were operating as well.

Each machine had been programmed with the data written by Lin Fan previously.

The final assembly of the components was still dependent on the specialists’ knowledge.

“Take a look. These have all met the standards. Once the press conference is over, they can be they can be placed on the market,” said Wang Ming Yang.

Lin Fan smiled. “Who assesses the quality of all these parts?”

Wang Ming Yang replied, “Those people from the government. As for the core, it’s still taken care of by my people.”

Lin Fan nodded and continued looking around. When he saw an artificial limb come out, he picked it up and looked closely. Then, his brows furrowed. “Ming Yang, there’s a problem, isn’t there?”

Wang Ming Yang was taken aback. “What’s the problem?”

Lin Fan said, “Why do I feel as if there’s something wrong with its rotation? And there’s a problem with its flexibility as well.”

“It can’t be. These components were all produced according to your blueprints. Moreover, there are people checking the quality as well. How could there be a problem?” Wang Ming Yang’s expression changed drastically. If there really was a problem, it would be a disaster. However, it didn’t seem possible.

“Give me some tools. Let me take a look.”

Then, Lin Fan took the tools and dismantled the artificial limb.

When the surrounding workers saw this, they were all stunned as they had no idea what was going on. They were all specialists, and they had been posted here specially to produce these perfect artificial limbs.

Suddenly!

“Everyone, stop what you’re doing. Stop producing!” Lin Fan shouted.

Wang Ming Yang had no idea what had happened but he shouted as well, “Everybody, stop. Stop the machines.”

“Brother, what’s wrong?”

Lin Fan held a very small component in his hand. “Who produced this? Look. The f*cking corner is blunt. How can it be used?”

It was a very small component. But with a closer look, one could see that there was a problem with it.

Wang Ming Yang instantly looked a little stifled.

“Director Li, come here,” Wang Ming Yang shouted.

At that moment, a middle-aged man walked over. “Chief Wang, what’s wrong?”

Then, he saw Master Lin and was stunned. “Master Lin, you’re here.”

Wang Ming Yang placed the component on the table. “Look. What’s up with this part? Why is the corner blunt?”

Director Li picked it up and took a look. Then, he said calmly, “It’s nothing much. This is very normal. It can still be used. It’s fine.”

...

Chapter 1175: An apology ceremony

Lin Fan smiled after finding out the state of the component. “Director Li, you must be kidding me. The corner’s in such a bad shape. Are you sure we can use it?”

Director Li replied, “Master Lin, you don’t understand. This is a normal occurrence. There is no problem with it.”

Wang Ming Yang was stunned. He felt that he had let his brother down.

Lin Fan did not say anything else. He just continued to inspect the other parts of the artificial limbs one by one.

Suddenly, he stopped and stared at a particular artificial limb in shock. Then, he took some tools and inspected it further.

Some components dropped out. It seemed like they were not properly screwed together. After further inspection, he realised that the parts were too small.

“Director Li, are you telling me this is okay?” Lin Fan asked as he picked the parts up and stuffed them back into the artificial limb. Then, he waved it around in the air and the parts fell out again.

Wang Ming Yang was furious after seeing that. “Director Li, how did you manage to approve these artificial limbs after inspection?”

Director Li was stunned. “Director Wang, something must have gone wrong. These components have nothing wrong. Furthermore, they’re not essential parts. It must have been a mistake.”

“Are you sure there’s nothing wrong? Who built these? Shouldn’t they have realised this?” Wang Ming Yang shouted.

Director Li continued, “Director Wang, why do you think Secretary Chen asked me over? They value our professional skills. I can assure you that there will not be any problem. I have done this for so many years and I’ve seen this happen countless times. It’s perfectly normal.”

Wang Ming Yang replied, “You don’t have to mention Secretary Chen. If he were to find out about this, he’d reprimand you for sure.”

Director Li said, “Director Wang, Secretary Chen doesn’t understand this and he won’t say anything about it. Regardless of who you ask, they would also say that this is perfectly fine.”

Lin Fan picked up his phone and dialed a number.

“Master Lin, what are you doing?” Director Li was stunned and asked anxiously. (.c om)

In the meeting room, Secretary Chen was discussing about the Shanghai Industrial Zone’s situation when his phone suddenly rang. Usually, he would not entertain any phone calls during work, but when he saw the caller ID, he quickly picked up.

The other people in the meeting room were stunned. They wondered who was the caller that made Secretary Chen pick up his phone.

After all, they knew that Secretary Chen would not usually do such a thing during work. Hence, they knew that it must have been about something important.

Upon picking up, Lin Fan started to talk.

“Secretary Chen, the representative that you sent is so irresponsible.”

Secretary Chen was stunned. “What is it? Did something go wrong?”

They held the matter regarding the perfect artificial limbs in high regard. They wanted everything to proceed smoothly. Now that Master Lin called him, something must have gone wrong.

Lin Fan continued, "Secretary Chen, the production of the perfect artificial limbs was entirely entrusted to your people. This representative was sent by you. However, the components are not compatible. I just checked ten of them and three had problems with the components. Of course, I'm not expecting everything to be perfect, but this incidence rate is too high.

"Secretary Chen, if you are not sincere about partnering us, you don't have to force yourself to do so. We can do it on our own."

Secretary Chen was stunned. "Master Lin, wait for me. I'll be there in a minute."

He felt that things must have gone really wrong. He had to resolve this promptly, as they knew the importance of this matter. After hearing what Master Lin said, he felt the need to go down to take a look so that it would be prevented in the future.

"Secretary, we're not done here," the surrounding members of the board whispered.

Secretary Chen waved his hand, "Let's end the meeting for now and head straight to the factory."

"Okay."

In the factory.

Director Li furrowed his brows, "Master Lin, there's really nothing wrong. Isn't it a little overboard for you to call Secretary Chen?"

Lin Fan waved his hand, "I wouldn't know that. Since Secretary Chen doesn't know anything about this industry, let's get him to judge this then."

He did not expect this to happen on the first day even before anything proper took flight.

After some time, Secretary Chen and a few others arrived.

"Master Lin, what is it?" Secretary Chen asked.

“Secretary Chen,” Director Li greeted upon seeing him.

(.com) Lin Fan replied, “Secretary Chen, come and have a look at this. He said this is perfectly fine. What do you think?”

Secretary Chen walked forward and inspected the components. He was a little far-sighted, but he could still somewhat see them.

“These components...” Secretary Chen sighed and placed them down. Then, he looked at Director Li, “I need an explanation.”

Director Li was stunned. “Secretary Chen, this is perfectly normal. There’s no problem.”

Secretary Chen waved his hand. “Don’t tell me that. I can tell if something is good or bad. I’m not that stupid.”

slam

Suddenly, Secretary Chen slammed the table loudly.

“Director Li, how did you pass these components through inspection?” Secretary Chen asked.

“That, I...” Director Li did not know how to answer. Cold sweat droplets started forming on his forehead.

He really did not know what to say because something must have gone wrong somewhere.

Secretary Chen added, “Master Lin, don’t worry. I will do a thorough investigation about this. This is my problem. I will take full responsibility for it.”

Wang Ming Yang replied, “Secretary Chen, we can’t blame you for this. We can only say that you trusted the wrong person. If these components were to be used on these artificial limbs, it is difficult to foresee what would happen in the future. Furthermore, you should question the manufacturers thoroughly. Initially, we were worried that the workers might not have anywhere to settle down at.

Therefore, we agreed to proceed with this business. Now that this has happened, who will be responsible for it if something were to go wrong?”

Director Li became anxious. “Secretary Chen, I really don’t know anything about this. It really is nothing significant. It would be too early to make any announcements during the conference now. If...”

Secretary Chen interrupted, “The conference? Just admit your mistakes. I will investigate this and hold the right person responsible for this.”

Lin Fan added, “Yeah, the news conference should be changed to an apology ceremony. Please be stringent in the selection of the components. The manufacturer should be changed too. If you do not cherish this opportunity, you can’t blame anyone else. You wanted to save costs on the quality of the components. Completely unacceptable.”

After hearing that, Director Li was stunned.

He did not expect to be exposed.

How did they even find out about this just by looking at the small components?

Chapter 1176: A great speech

Director Li felt that everything was over.

He really did not know how Master Lin saw through everything.

It was unbelievable.

Secretary Chen said, “Master Lin, this was caused by us. I’m sorry for that. We will take full responsibility for this. How should we resolve this production problem?”

Lin Fan waved his hand. "Do a thorough check and only take the best parts. Destroy those inferior ones. Tell the reporters the truth about the components and hide nothing from them. Let everyone know the situation."

"If we were to use these inferior parts, they would be good enough in the short term, but there would definitely be huge problems in the future. Then things would really get out of hand."

Secretary Chen nodded and understood the severity of the problem. "Alright. I did not expect people would have dared to do this. It's too much. If not for Master Lin's discovery, the consequences would have been unimaginable."

Wang Ming Yang added, "It's f*cking bullsh*t. How could they do such incorrigible things? Aren't they afraid that their children wouldn't..."

Lin Fan patted Wang Ming Yang's shoulder, "Don't take this to heart. Just be more vigilant in the future. You should send someone from your side to inspect the parts too."

Wang Ming Yang nodded. "Yeah, understood."

Secretary Chen smiled awkwardly. This was certainly their fault. Now that Master Lin said such a thing, it showed that Master Lin did not trust them anymore. Hence, he was furious at people like Director Li that resulted in their reputation being tarnished.

"Secretary Chen, it's not that we do not trust you. We just want you to know the importance of this matter and that nothing can go wrong. Everyone has their own responsibilities," Lin Fan said.

Secretary Chen said, "I understand. There will be no more problems from now on. As long as it is beneficial to the production of these artificial limbs, nothing will be a problem."

At the news conference.

The reporters sat in their respective areas and waited.

They were really excited about the perfect artificial limbs, and they wondered how they would turn out. Furthermore, they heard that children from the Welfare Institute would be there too.

Soon, Lin Fan and the others arrived.

The reporters started to take pictures.

Lin Fan signalled towards Secretary Chen.

Secretary Chen nodded and stood up. Then, he took a bow. That scene shocked the reporters and they wondered what was that for.

Furthermore, they even felt humbled after seeing their superior bow at them. They wondered what made him do that.

“Everyone, I have an announcement to make. Because of a management problem in the government, some people have caused the production of the perfect artificial limbs to go wrong. Thankfully, Master Lin spotted it. Hence, the project will be delayed.”

“Huh?”

The reporters were stunned after hearing that.

Lin Fan cleared his throat, “Secretary Chen, there is no other meaning behind that. There’s probably only a small impact on the project. Since so many reporters are here to witness the perfect artificial limbs, let’s invite our children to demonstrate the usefulness of them.”

Soon, a group of children ran happily towards the stage.

The reporters turned their cameras towards them. They knew that these children were physically handicapped and that they were so active because of the help of the perfect artificial limbs.

They started to jump, run, and do all sorts of difficult movements.

That was sufficient in making the reporters forget about what had happened earlier. They just kept their cameras rolling as they were overwhelmed by shock.

It was unbelievable.

Then, the children stopped moving.

The reporters clapped enthusiastically. It was simply too amazing. If they did not witness it themselves, they would not have believed it.

“D*mn, these are really perfect artificial limbs. They’re too good.”

“Yeah, if I didn’t see this with my own eyes, I wouldn’t have believed it.”

“Although something went wrong, we can’t say that there’s something wrong with these perfect artificial limbs. It must have been something personal, and the fact that Master Lin and the others apologised about it shows how much they care about this matter.”

“Yeah, that is very true. We can write that in the news articles. I believe the netizens will understand it.”

Lin Fan tried to get the attention of the reporters. “Everyone, we have demonstrated the power of the perfect artificial limbs. If you weren’t informed about it, would you have believed it?”

The reporters shook their heads. “Of course not.”

“Yeah, if we didn’t know about them, we definitely wouldn’t believe that it was all made possible by artificial limbs.”

Then, a foreign reporter asked, “Master Lin, will they be available internationally?”

Lin Fan nodded. “Yes. We will never hide anything from the world as long as it helps to solve problems.”

clap

The reporters clapped enthusiastically again. The foreign reporter also nodded. He felt that what Master Lin said was awesome. As a firm believer of equality, he felt that what Master Lin said was perfect for improving the world.

“Master Lin, would you be looking for representatives internationally?”

Lin Fan replied, “It’s not appropriate for me to answer that as I am not in charge of that. Let me hand it over to Director Wang.”

Then, Wang Ming Yang stood up and smiled. “Everyone just witnessed the power of the perfect artificial limbs. Although a personal issue delayed the production, they will be made available to the market soon. We didn’t produce these to make money since they are for the handicapped to use. It would help them regain confidence. We never intended to make money out of it. Hence, the price will be fixed, and the international pricing will also be reasonable.”

“But for now, it will only be available in China. We welcome people from all over the world to purchase it here.”

Wang Ming Yang did not actually think too much about the matter yet, but he answered it to the best of his ability.

The reporters continued to ask questions about the perfect artificial limbs.

Secretary Chen smiled. He was determined to investigate the matter thoroughly. He did not want anything to go wrong again.

After the news conference.

Lin Fan shook Secretary Chen’s hand. “Secretary Chen, we will have to count on you for what is to follow.”

Secretary Chen smiled, “Master Lin, you are too polite. Don’t worry, I will investigate it.”

“Alright.” Lin Fan nodded. Then, he looked at Wang Ming Yang. “You gotta work hard too. I’ll be heading off first. Let’s just see what happens in the news tomorrow. Anyway, we did our best.”

“Alright, sure.” Wang Ming Yang nodded.

Chapter 1177: I really want to help you

The conference ended.

Wang Ming Yang sent his brother and Secretary Chen home. Then, he went to investigate the matter right away. He could not let this matter go just like that. He had to investigate it thoroughly. He wanted to find out how many people wanted to use these perfect prosthetic limbs to make a fortune.

He knew that such a matter was not going to be resolved so easily since there was a lot of money to be earned and people were greedy.

However, he knew that if he could not resolve it, he had to minimize the negative impact. (.c om)

At Cloud Street.

Wu You Lan noticed that Brother Lin was a little off. She asked curiously, “Brother Lin, what happened?”

Lin Fan replied, “Nothing much. Something happened at the conference and the factory. However, it’s no big deal. Luckily, we found out about it. If not, there might have been grave consequences.”

Wu You Lan was stunned, “Really? Isn’t Director Wang collaborating with the government? Even so, something went wrong?”

Lin Fan said helplessly, “That’s exactly why it happened. However, it’s been resolved. You can look at the news tomorrow. I’m going to the Welfare Institute. I haven’t seen the kids in a long time and I kind of miss them.”

At Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute.

A middle-aged lady was holding onto a little girl who was about two years old.

They were standing on the pavement opposite the building and they kept looking at it.

"Mum, why are we here?" The little girl asked curiously.

The middle-aged lady looked a little uncomfortable. She did not know what to say. She just patted the girl's head and said, "Nothing much."

Although the little girl did not know what was happening, her gut feeling told her that she was going to be abandoned. Then, she hugged her mum's leg.

"Mum, don't leave me. I will be obedient."

The middle-aged woman kneeled down and hugged the girl. "No, it's just that I..."

She lowered her head and did not say anything after that.

The little girl was embraced by her mum, and she felt a little calmer after hearing her mum's heartbeat. However, she was still afraid.

The middle-aged lady was devastated. She had no choice. She had to support her husband, and if the girl were to stay with them, she would only suffer.

She researched about a lot of places and finally decided on Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute.

The people there treated the kids really well and they would not be bullied there. It was much better than staying with her and her husband.

When Lin Fan arrived at the Welfare Institute, he wanted to go into the building, but he saw the couple opposite the building.

Initially, he thought that the girl was being abducted, but he realised that he was probably overthinking after observing the situation.

However, he had a bad feeling.

He stood there for some time and decided to go over and find out what was going on.

After all, he was quite a busybody. Since he noticed that something was wrong, he would definitely do something about it.

“Hi, may I know what are you doing here?” Lin Fan asked.

The middle-aged lady looked at Lin Fan and anxiously replied, “Nothing much, nothing much.”

Lin Fan smiled. “If there’s something you can’t resolve, you can tell me about it. I am more than willing to help.”

Then, the little girl hugged the lady’s leg tightly.

“Mum, don’t send me away.”

Suddenly, the middle-aged lady burst into tears.

Lin Fan was confused by what he had just witnessed, and he still did not know what was going on. Then, he decided to read their fortunes and find out for himself.

Then, he realised what was wrong.

He only believed that people were destined to suffer in life if he actually witnessed it himself.

She wanted to send her daughter to the Welfare Institute.

“Master Lin...” Han Lu walked out of the security post and ran across the road.

Lin Fan replied, “Bring this little girl inside to play. I want to speak to this lady.” (.c om)

Han Lu did not know why Master Lin said that but he nodded anyways. He wanted to bring little girl in, but she was frightened and just hugged her mum’s leg tightly.

Lin Fan helplessly asked, “Are you thinking of sending her here?”

The little girl was only about two years old and she probably did not know what was happening. Hence, he just asked her about it directly.

The middle-aged lady looked at Master Lin and nodded. “Yeah.”

Lin Fan replied, “Actually, that is really cruel. The children inside are in there because they can’t find their parents or they lost their parents. You and your husband are still present. If you were to send her here, she would lack her parents’ love.

“Poverty and illness are not that scary. I can help you with that.”

The middle-aged lady shook her head. “You don’t understand.”

Lin Fan said firmly, “I do.”

“You really don’t.”

Lin Fan added, “I really understand. I am Master Lin. I can help you. Really. Come, follow me to the car.”

Since he encountered it, he wanted to do something about it.

His biggest dream was not for the Welfare Institute to be filled with more children. He wanted it to become emptier. When that happened, all of the children in there would have their own homes.

Han Lu added, “Master Lin asked you to enter the car. Just go for it. He will definitely help you.”

The middle-aged lady looked at him in confusion. “Who is he?”

Han Lu was stunned. “He is Master Lin. Don’t you read the news?”

“Nope.” The middle-aged lady shook her head. She did not have a lot of free time in her life, and watching the news was like a luxury to her.

Han Lu did not know what to say. If she did not even know Master Lin, something must be really wrong. If she had a phone, she would definitely know who he was.

However, since she did not watch the news, there was nothing he could do.

However, he believed that Master Lin could resolve the problem.

Soon, Lin Fan started the car and drove off with them.

He followed the lady’s instructions and drove to the destination. Although it was some distance away, he did not really care about it since he just wanted to help them.

They drove off.

Soon, it was nighttime.

Wu You Lan and the others were in the shop, but they did not wait for Master Lin to return. They just called him and found out that he was in some place far away.

Where was he heading to?

At midnight.

The speed of the car was low and the roads were narrow and winding.

“Is that your village?” Lin Fan asked.

“Yes.”

Lin Fan smiled, “Alright, we will be there soon. Please wait a little longer. Sometimes, you don’t have to complicate things too much. It can be easy to resolve.”

Chapter 1178: They’re having an affair

The car was parked in the corner of a courtyard. It was just made of a row of wooden blocks, and the height of the fence was about half the height of a human. The area beside it was used to plant crops. Also, the building was barely visible due to the lack of light in the night. However, Lin Fan’s vision was not affected by that. He could still see clearly.

It was a house held together by mud and it looked really old and fragile.

“Alright, bring me inside to take a look.” Lin Fan carried the little girl out of the car and spoke to Wang Qin.

Lin Fan had asked her about many things in the car and had found out more about her family.

To others, it might seem like a situation that was impossible to resolve. However, it was not difficult to him at all. He thought that it was a pretty simple task.

In a distance, a man walked towards them. When he saw car lights shining outside Wang Qin’s house, he was curious about what was happening. After all, who would come over at such a late hour?

However, when he saw that a man carried the little girl into the house, his face changed. He held his breath and spied on them.

“Wang Qin is having an affair. Furthermore, she made it so obvious. Her husband hasn’t even died yet.”

The man mumbled to himself furiously. Then, when he saw the door was closed, he quickly ran over. He looked at the car and hesitated for a moment before running away.

He wanted to tell people about Wang Qin bringing a man to her house.

In the house.

Lin Fan felt that the house was a little humid. It was apparent that it rained for the past few days which caused the interior of the house to be damp and reek of a musky smell.

A wooden plank was used as a bed and a man was lying down on it. With the help of the light, he could see that this man was pale and skinny.

“Master Lin, this is my husband, Zhou Zhuang. He used to work in the city, but he fell from the roof and has been in a coma since then. I am unable to pay for the costly medical fees, and if my child were to stick with us, she would be suffering...” she said as she started to cry.

“Don’t cry. Let me have a look at him.” Lin Fan went forward and felt the pulse of Zhou Zhuang which was rather weak. Then, he added, “Don’t worry, it’s not a big problem. I can help him become healthy again.”

It was the furthest place away from home that he had ever gone to treat a patient. However, he felt that it was worth it to help the family of three be reunited again.

Outside.

The man who saw Wang Qin bringing another man home went to every house in the village.

“Everyone, wake up! Wang Qin brought a man home. She must be having an affair while her Husband is in a coma.”

After saying that, the lights of each house started to light up. Everyone was so shocked that they woke up.

What?

Wang Qin was having an affair? How could it be?

They knew that Wang Qin really loved her husband. She had never given up on him for the past year. Now that she suddenly brought someone home, things seemed unbelievable.

“Are you lying?”

The man replied, “Why would I do that? I saw it when I came home. The man drove here and stopped outside her house. Does Wang Qin have any relative? No. Furthermore, it’s a luxurious car and it must be a wealthy man. Do you think she knows any wealthy man?”

“Yeah, but if she’s really having an affair, she shouldn’t have brought him here.”

“Are you stupid? I’ve heard that wealthy men these days are all perverts. They love to be in the houses of these women. Let’s kill this adulterous couple.”

“Let’s go.”

Then, the male villagers each took a set of tools and went over to take revenge.

Soon, they reached Wang Qin’s house.

“Shh, keep your volume down. Look, that’s the car. The lights are still on.”

“Look at the door, it’s closed tightly. The lights are on too. They must be doing something.”

“Disgusting. Lil’ Zhuang is my childhood friend, and I can’t just watch him get bullied like that. I’m going in to settle scores for him.”

“Let’s smash his car.”

Suddenly, a loud shriek could be heard from the house. The villagers outside were furious after hearing that.

In the house.

Lin Fan managed to awaken Zhou Zhuang.

However, Zhou Zhuang was still groggy when he woke up. He did not know what was going on.

Wang Qin immediately ran to Zhou Zhuang and hugged him. “Zhuang, you’re finally awake.”

Zhou Zhuang gradually regained his senses and asked, “My wife, what happened?”

Lin Fan smiled. “You fell from high up and became paralyzed, but you’re fine now. Nothing’s wrong anymore.”

“Who are you?” Zhou Zhuang was stunned upon seeing Lin Fan.

Wang Qin replied, “Zhuang, Master Lin saved you. I wanted to take care of you and send our daughter to the Welfare Institute. I didn’t expect to meet Master Lin at all. When he found out about us, he came back with us and saved you.”

Zhou Zhuang was stunned speechless. While he was in a coma, he felt as if he had entered a dark void and was not able to find any source of light. However, he felt a surge of light enter his world earlier when Lin Fan saved him.

“Thank you, Master Lin...” Zhou Zhuang said in gratitude. Especially when he heard that his wife wanted to send their daughter to the Welfare Institute, he was frightened. He did not expect his wife to make such a great sacrifice for him.

Lin Fan smiled, “It’s okay. it’s great that you’re fine now.”

slam

Suddenly, a loud thud could be heard.

“Wang Qin, how dare you bring a man home? How could you betray your husband? Get out of the house now!”

“Yeah, get out of the house. Otherwise, we will destroy you and the adulterer.”

Lin Fan was confused after hearing that. Suddenly, he sighed, “Oh my, my car...”

He knew that the people outside probably thought that Wang Qin brought him home to have an affair. He inferred that they must have smashed his car.

‘D*mn, why am I so unlucky? Why must I lose something so precious even though I helped someone?’

Wang Qin immediately rushed out and said hurriedly, “STOP! Do not smash anything. What are you doing?”

“Why are you asking us that? We should be the ones asking you that.”

Zhou Zhuang, who was lying on his bed, wanted to get up to see what was happening outside. “Master Lin, could I trouble you to help me up? I want to explain it to them.”

Lin Fan helplessly carried Zhou Zhuang up, who probably was the only one who could explain things.

The villagers outside started to argue with her, and some of them even smashed the car repeatedly.

“STOP!” Zhou Zhuang shouted.

When the villagers saw him, they were stunned.

“Lil’ Zhuang, you...”

They were stunned and they did not know what was happening.

Chapter 1179: Everyone was stunned

“Lil’ Zhuang, weren’t you in a coma?”

Some villagers asked in shock. How did Zhou Zhuang awaken? That did not make any sense at all.

Zhou Zhuang felt a little weak, but Lin Fan managed to help him recover gradually.

“This is Master Lin, who helped me get out of that. How could you smash his car?”

“Huh?” The villagers who were smashing the car stopped. They did not expect that at all.

The man was actually here to save Lil’ Zhuang and they actually smashed his car. How could they be so rash?

Then, Wang Qin cried. She felt humiliated. “How could you do that?”

“Hey, don’t cry. We... Sigh, who said that earlier? Why didn’t he make sure of that before announcing it?”

They really did not know what to do. If they knew earlier, they would not have done that at all.

Lil’ Zhuang was their good friend. Lin Fan actually saved him but they smashed his car. That... (.com)

“Brother and sister, it’s our fault this time. We were too rash.”

“Also, Master Lin, thank you for saving Lil’ Zhuang. We did not do that on purpose. Really.”

Lin Fan looked at the villagers and realised that they felt really guilty. He smiled. “It’s okay. Since it’s a misunderstanding, we don’t have to explain too much. However, please do not be so rash in the future.”

He could tell that the villagers were not very wealthy, and some of them were wearing pyjamas with holes in the fabric.

“No, we have to pay. We have to pay the fees needed to repair Master Lin’s car.”

Some of the villagers said that after feeling remorseful for wrecking his car.

Lin Fan looked at the car and realised that the damage was not very significant. Hence, he did not even think about asking the villagers to pay.

“No, it’s fine. Just don’t be so rash in the future,” Lin Fan said.

However, he realised that he did not think through his actions thoroughly. He actually came into this woman’s house in the middle of the night. Obviously, people would think of it that way.

From this, he could tell that the villagers were really united.

Then, Lin Fan and Zhou Zhuang talked for a little while before he entered his car and was prepared to drive off.

However, just as the car was about to turn away, someone stood in front of it.

“Master Lin, you can’t leave yet. We have to thank you for saving Lil’ Zhuang.”

“Yeah, it’s a huge favour.”

Lin Fan wound the windows down and replied, "It's okay. I have to rush back to Shanghai. I have things to settle there."

"Master Lin, wait."

Then, some of the villagers rushed back.

He did not know what the villagers were up to.

He was exhausted after such a long drive, but he was happy to have been able to help a family. At the same time, he managed to help a child stay with her family.

Then, there were cries of chickens.

The villagers carried a bunch of chickens with their legs tied together.

"Master Lin, we don't have anything valuable here. Please accept these chickens. They were raised by us." the villagers said.

Lin Fan immediately replied, "No, how can I take anything from you? Please keep them."

"No. Master Lin, you have to accept it. We just want to show our gratitude as you helped to save Lil' Zhuang. Also, we even damaged your car, and it is entirely our fault. We'd feel uneasy if you didn't accept it."

"Yeah, sigh, we did not even confirm things before wrecking it. We were poisoned by anger."

"Lil' Zhuang, sorry, we didn't know he was here to save you."

Lin Fan felt that it was probably impossible for him to leave if he did not accept the chickens.

The villagers were actually pretty adorable. They felt so bad about damaging his car, and although they were rash in their actions, they were sincerely sorry about it.

“Alright, I’ll accept it then. However, I’ll only take one. Please keep the rest for yourselves,” Lin Fan said, as he did not want so many chickens.

However, what he did not expect was that the villagers actually opened the boot of his car and placed all the chickens in it.

“Master Lin, we’ve placed them in your car.”

“Just take them. We raised them ourselves and they’re really nutritious.”

“Yeah.”

Lin Fan sighed helplessly, “Alright, I’ll take them. It’s getting late. I’ll be leaving now. Perhaps I could see all of you again if fate brings us together. Goodbye!”

Wang Qin said, “Master Lin, thank you so much for coming such a long way.”

Lin Fan smiled, “It’s okay, it’s nothing much. If anyone in the village were to contract any serious illness, you may come to look for me again.”

Then, he just drove off and vanished from their sight.

(.c om) The villagers surrounded her and asked, “Wang Qin, how did you know this man?”

Wang Qin told them about what had happened in Shanghai and also about her desire to send her daughter to the Welfare Institute.

Then, the villagers fell silent.

“I didn’t expect that there exists someone as nice as Master Lin in this society.”

Then, a villager who was using an old smartphone shrieked in surprise.

The others were stunned after hearing that. Then, they gathered around him.

“Look, isn’t that Master Lin? The Welfare Institute belongs to him and he’s a doctor. No wonder he’s so impressive.”

Then, the villagers started to talk about him and forgot about resting.

They didn’t expect someone so powerful to have visited their village. Furthermore, he was there to save Lil’ Zhuang’s family.

They felt that he was a great man.

Lin Fan shook his head helplessly as he drove when he thought about repairing his car.

He wondered what he should do about the chickens in the boot. He felt that he probably had to make some chicken soup when he got back home.

That seemed like the only plausible solution.

The next day!

At Cloud Street!

Fraud Tian and the others had arrived at the store early in the morning. The townsfolk had already lined up for scallion pancakes. However, they were curious as to why Master Lin had not arrived yet.

They wondered what happened to Master Lin.

Then, a car stopped.

Fraud Tian gasped when he saw the car. “Bro, what happened to you car?”

Chapter 1180: I'm that confident

They felt that the car was probably wrecked by someone.

Lin Fan opened the car door and alighted. "What's wrong? Please help me to unload the things from my boot."

Fraud Tian replied, "The boot? What's in there?"

Then, he opened the car boot which released a pungent odor.

"F*ck, what's that? Why is it so smelly?" Fraud Tian almost passed out from the stench.

Lin Fan replied, "They're chickens. Some people gave them to me. Please bring them down, and you can each take one of them home as a form of welfare from me."

Fraud Tian gasped, "Where did you get these from? Also, what happened to your car? Did you get your car wrecked after they found out that you were stealing these chickens?"

Lin Fan smiled, "That's right. Do you want it? If not, I'll give them away."

"Yes, I want them. They look healthy; I guess they must taste great," Fraud Tian chuckled.

However, they were curious as to where this fella had gone to get these chickens from.

"D*mn, I have to clean the car boot. It's so smelly," Lin Fan said as he could not take the stench. Initially, there had been no foul smell, but as he had continued to drive on, the chickens had probably taken a dump which had emitted the stench.

Furthermore, the only way for him to get rid of the smell had been to wind down the windows for the air to flow.

“Master Lin, we’ve waited a long time. We want to eat scallion pancakes.”

The townsfolk shouted impatiently.

However, when they saw the state that Master Lin was in, they wondered what exactly happened. How did the car get damaged and how did he get these chickens?

“I’ll be making the pancakes now,” Lin Fan said energetically.

However, his clothes smelled bad, and he wanted to quickly get home to shower after selling the scallion pancakes.

On the internet.

The reporters published articles about what had happened yesterday.

“The perfect artificial limbs were very successful, but there is a twist to this tale.”

“The perfect artificial limbs demonstrated their power, but some of the small parts were not well built due to personal reasons.”

“We have to believe that Master Lin will produce perfect artificial limbs with the best quality.”

“Secretary Chen deserves respect for admitting his mistakes.”

The netizens were stunned after reading the headlines.

“D*mn, which idiot actually messed up? He must be heartless.”

“I think Master Lin made a mistake by involving the government. He should taken on the project all by himself.”

“^ Bro, that’s a risky mentality to have. You should change that.”

“These kinda things couldn’t be foreseen. Furthermore, Secretary Chen is a human after all. He probably didn’t expect this to happen at all. I believe this will not happen again.”

“I feel that it is pretty commendable that they admitted their mistakes. If Master Lin had hidden this from the public, we wouldn’t even have known about this.”

“I know about the manufacturing problems with the small components. The manufacturers of the components wanted to maximise their profits, so that’s why they did this.”

“Master Lin is so kind.”

When Lin Fan changed his clothes and returned to his shop, he smiled after reading what was published online.

He knew that the netizens would be understanding about this incident.

This was something that nobody could have predicted and wanted. As long as they were sincere in repenting, nobody would blame them for it.

Then, the official government e-platform also posted about it.

As the results of the investigation were published, the manufacturers were banned from this project.

Also, Director Li was arrested for his despicable means. The investigation was finally concluded.

However, this also made Secretary Chen more serious about this project. He kicked up a big fuss during the meeting and asked relevant departments to oversee this project closely. If this were to happen again, he wanted to hold everyone responsible for it.

The importance of the perfect artificial limbs was not to be underestimated, and everyone should have understood the importance of it. It was especially important to the handicapped people in the society.

Ding ding!

Then, Zhao Ming Qing called.

“Ming Qing, what’s up?” Lin Fan asked.

Zhao Ming Qing said, “Teacher, We haven’t done any research in a long time. Shall we?”

Lin Fan felt helpless. He knew what his student wanted. However, he understood why since it must have felt great to be able to do research with him.

If he had researched alone, he probably would not have felt so great about it.

Lin Fan thought about it and realised that it had indeed been some time since they last met to research. His disciple was probably bored of life.

“Alright, let’s meet then. Have you selected a range of diseases?” Lin Fan asked.

Zhao Ming Qing smiled. “My teacher knows me the best. Recently, I’ve done a whole lot of preparation, and I can dive into research at any time. Also, I have a collection of things that I am unsure of and would like you to explain.”

Lin Fan replied, “Hmm, no worries. We can arrange for a meet up. Alternatively, if you’re free, you can just come to Cloud Street to clarify any urgent questions first.”

Zhao Ming Qing nodded. “It’s fine, but recently the internal department has some issues. The quality control has to be flawless or else we would be in trouble. It’s really...”

After all, the perfect artificial limbs served to help the handicapped regain their freedom. If the small components went missing and something went wrong, the responsibility wouldn’t be something that anyone could handle.

Then, they hung up.

Lin Fan did some stretching to relax himself before opening up Weibo.

“Recently, I’ve been too bored. I’m prepared to accompany my disciple to tackle a particular illness. In the future, another illness will be perfectly eradicated.”

When the message was published, the internet went wild again.

“D*mn, we’ve waited for this from Master Lin for a long time.”

“Master Lin finally realised that he has been slacking all this while. I am glad that he is finally making an impact on society again.”

“He sounds so confident that he can resolve it even before doing any research.”
