

Valiant Life 171

Chapter 171: Sue your mom!

Xia Yi Mo and Huang Miao Miao returned to their hostel. Their two hostel mates avoided them as if they didn't want anything to do with them. Otherwise, they might run into bad luck.

It was actually a common occurrence but their case was a special one and it was rare.

One of the hostel mates laughed sarcastically at them, "The class chairman just came and the fact that the two of you have created false rumors has affected the school. Therefore, you must move out by today."

Xia Yi Mo turned to her, "What do you mean?"

"It's the class chairman's idea, not ours. If you have a problem with that, you can go look for him."

Then, these two students avoided them like a plague. They took their bags and left. As they reached the entrance, they said in disbelief, "To be spread by an Internet celebrity? They must be dreaming. Perhaps they don't know that the Internet celebrities on Weibo are forbidden from posting such things."

Huang Miao Miao remained silent. This issue was destined to end this way. It had been a few days since it happened but she didn't have any evidence. Even the reporters didn't care about this because what Jiang Li and Chen Juan could do with their capabilities was unimaginable.

Xia Mo Yi looked at her phone and exclaimed, "Miao Miao, look. There's an Internet celebrity that posted!"

Huang Miao Miao looked at the phone and started to tear up. She had been waiting for this for the past few days. It was as if years had passed. She felt like she had been under all the pressure in the world.

...

Cloud Street.

Wu You Lan gave Lin Fan a thumbs up and said, "Master Lin, you're too awesome. We should help them in situations like this."

Lin Fan smiled, "I did what I could."

A simple post could be a form of immense motivation for some people.

Lin Fan's Weibo had at least a million followers and these fans were all active ones. There weren't any ghost accounts. Therefore, a simple post made by him could have a great impact.

"Two old and inhumane beasts, indeed."

That was the caption for the cropped picture. Then, he casually mentioned Jiang Li and Chen Juan by '@-ing' their profiles.

When the post was uploaded, online discussions went wild.

"Hey, where did Master Lin get this news from? It's so infuriating."

"After reading the content, I feel like Master Lin was right. They are indeed old and inhumane beasts."

"Let's help to repost it."

As long as one was popular on Weibo, he could start intense discussions about anything they post.

Lin Fan was extremely cautious when he was posting about it. He specially read the fortunes of these two accused men. In regards to the violation accusation, the accuser was more credible.

Jiang Li was well connected on some of the small e-platforms online. At the same time, he had a nickname, Big Three Jiang’.

’Lots of money, connections and female students.’

...

Things were starting to explode on Weibo.

Some of the Internet celebrities were stunned when they read this piece of news. They were told to not repost false news, otherwise, their Weibo accounts might get banned.

To these Internet celebrities, they weren’t going to risk their accounts for this. After all, it wasn’t easy for them to accumulate their followers and gain their popularity. Furthermore, they were getting up to $200,000 monthly for their advertising fees. If they were to get banned because of this, they’d be crying over their loss.

But now that they’ve seen an Internet celebrity posting about it, they were impressed by his bravery.

Night time, at a banquet.

Jiang Li and Chen Juan were eating with a bunch of people. It was crowded and joyous. Then, Jiang Li looked at Weibo and his face suddenly changed.

Chen Juan asked curiously, "What’s wrong?"

Jiang Li passed the phone to Chen Juan and said, "Look at it yourself."

When Chen Juan read the news, her face changed as well. She didn’t expect an Internet celebrity to post about it. Furthermore, the discussion below had increased to over a hundred thousand comments. The issue had been blown up.

Lin Fan's Weibo couldn't have generated such a great impact alone. However, after countless fans have reposted it, more people started to discuss it more intensely. It even had the potential to reach the top searched list.

Jiang Li couldn't tolerate it and he replied to the post.

"You're posting a piece of false news. It's damaging to Professor Chen Juan's and my reputation. I will sue you."

When the reply was posted, the comments section went wild again.

"Wow, he actually dared to challenge Master Lin. Be careful, Master Lin will definitely teach you an unforgettable lesson."

"How disgusting. If Master Lin didn't post about this, I wouldn't have known that the world had such inhumane people like the two of you."

"I am unconditionally supportive of Master Lin."

...

In Shanghai.

Lin Fan was eating supper with Wang Ming Yang. They hadn't met in a long time. Wang Ming Yang had asked Lin Fan out for a simple gathering.

Wang Ming Yang asked curiously, "What's so nice to read on your phone?"

Lin Fan didn't even look up, "Nothing much. I posted about a piece of news today and the culprits have found me and they want to sue me. I'm writing a reply to them now."

Wang Ming Yang took the phone from him, "Why do you even bother with them? Let them sue you then. I'll reply for you. Let's continue drinking."

Lin Fan just smiled and didn't say much. Wang Ming Yang didn't bring his girlfriend and even prepared a chauffeur. It was implied that he wouldn't return home unless he got drunk.

Wang Ming Yang took the phone and tapped away on the screen. Then, he closed the Weibo app and returned the phone to Lin Fan.

"Some things don't deserve your attention. Let's continue drinking."

They lost track of how much they drank, but it was until they started to vomit.

In the car.

The drunk Wang Ming Yang held onto Lin Fan's shoulder and said, "Bro, I want to get married. Which day is good?"

Lin Fan had also lost it. He didn't know what he was doing anymore. "Getting married my a*s. Wait until I get married before you do so."

Wang Ming Yang laughed and waved his hands, "Sure, you can get married first but you don't even have a girlfriend. How long do I have to wait?"

Lin Fan felt extremely dizzy and he mumbled, "Soon, soon... I'll take a rest first. Please wake me up when I'm at my house."

In his daze, he felt like someone was helping him up the stairs and he even heard the drunk Wang Ming Yang talking to the chauffeur.

"Help my friend up and take care of him. I'll just stay here and vomit first."

...

Lin Fan was still in a daze as he ended up on his bed. As he was about to sleep, he tried to read his Weibo but his vision was already blurry. He suddenly felt like he was looking at a few phones. As he gathered himself, he felt like vomiting but he still managed to read what Wang Ming Yang said.

"Sue your mum. Shanghai Eastern Han Group awaits your lawyer's letter."

Then, he couldn't take it anymore. His head felt extremely dizzy.

...

Chapter 172: Weibo banned

In the morning.

*Ring ring*

The phone rang. Lin Fan was still in a daze. He frantically searched his bed and managed to pick up the phone.

"Hello, it's early in the morning. What do you want?" Lin Fan's voice was a little hoarse and he sounded as if he hadn't woken up.

Fraud Tian replied quickly, "What do you mean by that? It's already 10:30 am. If you're still not here soon, people are going to tear the shop down!"

The moment he heard that it was 10:30 am, he quickly looked at his phone.

D*mn, it really is 10:30 am.

He had been sleeping for so long after getting drunk last night.

"Alright, alright. I'll be there soon."

Then, he hung up.

Lin Fan scratched his head in disbelief. It was such a bad thing to be drunk. Once a person got drunk, he/she wouldn't be able to tell the time. He completely forgot about how he returned home last night. He briefly recalled that he had finished two cartons of beer with Wang Ming Yang. He looked at his clothes and realized that it was from the night before. There was even a stench.

Then, he took a shower and changed into a new set of clothes. He felt much more energetic.

He went downstairs and drove to the shop.

As he reached Cloud Street, the townsfolk had already gathered outside the shop. There were only so few scallion pancakes to go around each day but there were still so many customers.

Woof woof!

When Lin Fan arrived, Elder Dog Nicholas charged towards him. Then, he stayed around Lin Fan. He wagged his tail as if he was waiting for a scallion pancake.

Lin Fan smiled, "I'm sorry, everyone. I drank too much last night and woke up late."

The townsfolk replied, "Little Boss, you don't have to speak anymore. We can't wait any longer!"

"Alcohol is damaging to one's health. Little Boss, please drink less in future!"

"Even if Little Boss mistreats me a thousand times, I'd still treat Little Boss like he's my first love."

Fraud Tian and Wu You Lan were busy giving out number tags while Lin Fan quickly made some scallion pancakes. After giving out ten scallion pancakes, he felt relieved. However, Elder Dog Nicholas realized that his owner had not given him any scallion pancakes. He quickly bit firmly onto Lin Fan's pants and wagged his tail as if trying to ask a favor from him.

Lin Fan glanced at Elder Dog Nicholas and gave him half a scallion pancake.

Zhao Zhong Yang stood beside Lin Fan and looked at him eagerly. He waited for awhile but Lin Fan didn't make eye contact with him.

The fans within the broadcast started to laugh hysterically.

"Haha, Brother Yang got ignored by Master Lin."

"Seems like dogs are treated better than humans. Elder Dog Nicholas is entitled to half a scallion pancake every day but Brother Yang isn't."

Zhao Zhong Yang shouted, "An Elder Dog indeed. He has such a good life. He can just lay down after eating. Where else could you get such a good life?"

Woof woof!

Elder Dog Nicholas stood at the door and stuck out his tongue. He was so carefree. To Zhao Zhong Yang, it would be a real blessing to have this type of life.

To some of the townsfolk, they sometimes envied Elder Dog Nicholas as he was able to taste such heavenly scallion pancakes every day. Such a blessing!

Lin Fan drank his tea and played with his phone. Suddenly, he spat out his tea, "Who banned my Weibo account?!"

The crowd looked at Lin Fan.

"That can't be. Why did they ban your Weibo?"

Lin Fan was speechless. "D*mn it, posting of false news is such a stupid and vague rule. They probably banned it because of this."

Wu You Lan said angrily, "The news that I reposted got blocked too."

Fraud Tian whipped out his phone and said in disbelief, "Mine too."

Wu Tou Lan and Fraud Tian weren't Internet celebrities. They merely got a repost blocked. Meanwhile, Lin Fan, an Internet celebrity with millions of followers, had his whole Weibo account blocked along with the post.

Lin Fan went to Jiang Li's Weibo page and got even angrier.

"An Internet celebrity by the surname Lin has been banned because of misconduct and posting false news. Everyone has to be fairly treated on Weibo so that Weibo can be improved. As for the creation of false news, Professor Chen Juan and I will handle it with the law."

There were a lot of comments and many of them came from fans that have been taking note of the news.

"F*ck, Master Lin actually got defeated."

"Your mom, f*cking dog. How dare you sabotage our Master Lin! Beware of Master Lin's comeback."

"This won't be so simple. Although we don't know the truth yet, I will still support Master Lin unconditionally."

"Everything is destined by the laws of Heaven. What's fated to happen will definitely happen."

When Huang Miao Miao and Xia Yi Mo found out about this, they were silenced. In this place, there were no opportunities for them to speak up about things.

The media and Weibo had been affected. Whoever reported about it would suffer a tragic fate. Nobody dared to interfere with the matter.

Zhao Zhong Yang went forward, "Master Lin, how about you give a call to Weibo's customer service and ask them what happened?"

Lin Fan immediately made a call.

The Customer Service said, "Hi, I am Weibo's Customer Service officer 005, at your service. May I know what I can help you with?"

Lin Fan replied, "My Weibo account just got banned."

The Customer Service officer replied, "Hi, may I know your Weibo account number?"

Lin Fan replied to the inquiries accordingly, "..."

After a while, there wasn't any reply. The Customer Service officer just hung up.

"What the f*ck?!" Lin Fan gave up. Perhaps the Customer Service officer found out about his Weibo account number and was afraid to reply. How infuriating!

Zhao Zhong Yang was in disbelief, "That's too much. Can't they provide a reason for banning you?"

Wu Tian He interrupted, "This matter isn't so simple. There are many implications and an average person won't be able to resolve them."

Lin Fan was extremely angry. He replied, "They're just bullying me. Can't they give me the freedom to post whatever I want? They even banned my Weibo. It's simply too much."

Then, Wang Ming Yang called.

"We had a little too much alcohol last night. Are you okay?"

Lin Fan replied, "I'm fine. Something just happened, though."

Wang Ming Yang replied, "What is it? What happened?"

Lin Fan helplessly said, "My Weibo account got banned and there isn't any platform for me to appeal."

Wang Ming Yang was infuriated and he replied, "F*ck, how can Weibo be so sh*tty? Bro, don't worry. I'll help you to lift the ban."

Lin Fan asked, "Can you really do it? It's not your field after all."

Wang Ming Yang replied, "I have to do it even if I can't. I can't just do nothing and watch my brother get hurt. Wait for my news."

He hung up.

Lin Fan shrugged his shoulders, "It's probably useless."

It was an issue with Weibo, which wasn't something that they specialized in. Furthermore, it wasn't easy to deal with Weibo. There was surely someone that sabotaged him to have caused his Weibo account to be banned. Wang Ming Yang was only a wealthy man in Shanghai and Weibo wasn't even based in Shanghai. Perhaps they might even find trouble with him.

20 minutes later.

Wang Ming Yang called and his tone sounded a little gloomy and awkward.

"Bro, I'm sorry. I contacted a lot of people and they all said they can't help. It's not that simple after all. But don't worry, I'll remember this. Since Weibo doesn't want to give me 'face', I will create an account to challenge it too. It's just a competition of wealth. I'm not afraid."

Lin Fan was a little touched and he replied, "No problem. Don't worry, I'll think of something."

Wang Ming Yang's first call was to Wu Yun Gang, one of the wealthiest men in the capital. But the two of them didn't specialize in online applications like Weibo. Their main and secondary profession were both real estate. It was beyond their reach to interfere with such a thing.

Lin Fan lay down on his chair helplessly. He didn't know what to do and had a headache.

Just as everyone was at their wits' end.

Wu Tian He said slowly, "I think I might be able to help..."

Lin Fan's jaw dropped, "..."

Chapter 173: Elder Dog's disdain

Lin Fan was stunned. Perhaps the elderly really know best. He was the ultimate pretender. When everyone didn't know what to do, Wu Tian He suddenly said that he might be able to help.

Furthermore, he sounded extremely conservative. He didn't seem like he was certain of it. However, his tone sounded rather assuring. That made everyone a little curious as to what he was going to say next.

The broadcast instantly went wild.

"666..., an expert was actually hidden in Master Lin's shop."

"Besides 6, I can't even say anything else."

"Judging from his expression, I think he's extremely sure."

"Ever since Brother Yang had been given a new life, the quality of the broadcasts has increased. It's brought us to a new world."

"We don't have to say anything else. Just based on this, we have to send a wave of presents before we can settle down."

...

Wu You Lan was stunned. She felt like it was unimaginable for him to know how to help. "Dad, what do you have in mind? Don't tell me you know the Internet celebrities on Weibo..."

She knew that her dad had a lot of connections but most of them were political leaders. Those wealthy men that he knew were locals from Lian Zhou. Even if they were extremely capable, it was useless. She understood that this matter couldn't be helped by the leaders even if he called them up.

Wu Tian He laughed, "I'll try making a call. I can't just watch Master Lin suffer."

Lin Fan just stared at him. He didn't know what Wu Tian He was up to. Then, Wu Tian He's call managed to get through. Lin Fan listened intently.

Wu Tian He laughed, "Chief Zhao, do you remember me, the old man?"

Chief Zhao sounded modest over the phone but at the same time, he sounded respectful. "Elder Wu, I'm not worthy of that salutation. Just calling me Mr. Zhao will do."

Wu Tian He nodded, "Mr. Zhao, I actually have a favor to ask of you."

Chief Zhao replied, "Elder Wu, you must think too highly of me. Go ahead and speak about it. If you hadn't advised me that year, I wouldn't have had such a successful life. I am eternally grateful for what you've done for me."

Wu Tian He laughed, "Thank you for remembering that. Weibo has banned my teacher's account. I was wondering if you could help him out with this."

"Huh? Elder Wu, your teacher's Weibo account got banned by my company? I will send someone to unban it immediately. At the same time, I will investigate it thoroughly and let you know as soon as possible."

Lin Fan was stunned. How did Wu Tian He know the boss of Weibo? Furthermore, the boss sounded as if he was speaking to a superior. The problem was complicated and although Wu Tian He was extremely capable, the things just didn't gel together. As a fortune-teller, Wu Tian He should be dealing with wealthy men and political leaders, instead of the boss of a giant tech company. How was that possible? Everyone was puzzled.

...

After that, Wu Tian He didn't speak much about the matter. Out of concern as an elder, he asked about some other things.

Wu Tian He raised his cup of tea and took a sip. "Mr. Zhao, I remember the time when I gave your company the name, 'Qi Yi'. Do you know the meaning now?"

Chief Zhao replied, "Of course. Elder Wu, don't worry, I will handle this matter properly."

Wu Tian He laughed, "Thank you, Mr. Zhao. Just carry on with your work, please. The Heavens are looking at what you're doing. Do not follow my path in the future."

Chief Zhao was shocked. He didn't know what Elder Wu was referring to but he still replied respectfully.

After hanging up.

Wu You Lan asked in shock, "Dad, did you just call the boss of Qi Yi Weibo?"

Wu Tian He smiled and nodded.

"Twenty years ago, when I hadn't ruined my fate yet, I only read the fortunes of the wealthy and powerful. Only those that were fated were able to get their fortunes read. There was once when I drove past a bridge and I saw this Mr. Zhao trying to end his life. He was in his twenties and he had just graduated from college. I went up to speak to him and gave him advice..."

After hearing what Wu Tian He said, Lin Fan sensed that he didn't just give him advice. If it was solely a piece of advice, Chief Zhao wouldn't have been so respectful towards him. There must have been something more to this.

At the headquarters of Qi Yi Weibo.

Zhao Ming didn't want to be responsible for this but now that Elder Wu had called, he was anxious.

Others may not have known about the impact that Elder Wu had on his life but he knew of it.

It could be said that without Elder Wu, Zhao Ming wouldn't have achieved anything to date.

After a phone call.

The person in charge of Weibo's e-operations had to explain the impact of unbanning Lin Fan's Weibo account.

However, to Zhao Ming, Elder Wu had called him for the first time in twenty years. How could he not help him out?

He didn't change his mobile number in twenty years. He had been looking forward to a call from him. What's more surprising was that Elder Wu didn't even forget his number. He was extremely touched.

He didn't bother about what the person in charge said. He immediately scolded him. If the matter wasn't resolved promptly, he would've fired him.

In the end, the person in charge could sense that Chief Zhao was extremely angry and he didn't dare to continue rebutting. He immediately gave instructions to his subordinates to not bother about this particular matter on Weibo.

...

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan smiled, "My Weibo got banned. I initially didn't plan to do much to these two inhumane beasts. But now, I have to do something about it."

Repost, repost every single thing.

Then, he called Wang Ming Yang and asked him to repost it too. They didn't want to flame anyone. They just wanted to increase the number of reposts. If they could resolve the problem with the click of a button, what could possibly stop them from settling this matter?

Starlight Film School.

Xia Yi Mo and Huang Miao Miao were walking around in school. The surrounding students pointed towards the two of them and gossiped among themselves. The students here were more realistic than other average students.

They knew that if they became close to these two people, they would definitely be affected as well. Hence, they avoided them like a plague.

There were still some students who didn't know what had happened. They went around asking people and people naturally told them the details.

These two people damaged the reputation of the professors, etc.

Just then, Xia Yi Mo looked at her phone and was extremely shocked.

Huang Miao Miao asked, "What's wrong?"

Xia Mo Yi immediately passed the phone to Huang Miao Miao, "Look, quick, have a look..."

The two of them were dumbfounded when they looked at Weibo.

Twilight Sad Melody: "Help Master Lin repost..."

Dreaming of a Thousand Downloads: "Help Master Lin repost..."

Dreamy Brother; "Help Master Lin repost..."

...

Countless netizens started to repost frantically. Although there was just one Internet celebrity, being Master Lin, they still asked for reposts. That was because the fans of this Internet celebrity had power. These Internet celebrities had such tremendous influence on average netizens.

They didn't need Internet celebrities for this issue anyway because everyone started to repost intensely and this naturally swayed the situation. It immediately covered the hottest topic on Weibo.

Lin Fan immediately posted on Weibo and mentioned Jiang Li and Chen Juan.

"Two inhumane beasts, even my Elder Dog Nicholas doesn't want to associate with you."

Then, Lin Fan took a picture of Elder Dog Nicholas.

In the picture, Elder Dog Nicholas had his head raised and his eyes were glaring with disdain.

...

Chapter 174: F*ck your mom's dog sh*t

"666..., Master Lin, where did you get this dog from?"

"This is a Shiba Inu right? It has such nice eyes."

"Shiba Inu your mom. It's a Formosan Mountain dog."

"Your sister's a Formosan Mountain dog. This is Chinese rural dog. Please don't look down on Elder Dog Nicholas."

"Hey, where did the Flame War Emperor go? It seems like I haven't seen him in a long time."

"Yeah, from past experience, he would have appeared on Master Lin's Weibo but now there's no sight of him at all."

"To the one above, don't talk about that for now. Didn't Master Lin's Weibo get banned recently? How did it get unbanned so quickly?"

"Haha, did you forget who Master Lin is? How could anyone ban his Weibo for a long time?"

"Enough said, repost, let's repost..."

Master Lin's Weibo account ban got lifted in such a short time that it stunned countless internet celebrities. Qi Yi Weibo had sent out a notice to the other celebrities and told them not to get involved in this matter. But now that Master Lin's Weibo had been banned and unbanned in such a short time, many people were shocked. Could it be that there was a new policy in place? Furthermore, the normal netizens didn't receive any warning after reposting such news. There must be more to this.

One of the Internet celebrities tried reposting to test it out and realized that nothing went wrong indeed. Then, a few other internet celebrities also followed suit. This issue started to go viral again on Weibo.

At Starlight.

Jiang Li slammed the table angrily, "Where did this stupid Master Lin come from? What's the matter with Qi Yi Weibo?"

Qi Yi Weibo had warned everyone about this matter and prevented any Internet celebrity from getting involved in this. They had to delete all the related news. The issue had died down for a moment but now, it seemed like it was going to go viral again. Jiang Li and Chen Juan were extremely angry. At the same time, they were anxious too. They knew they couldn't hide everything. The most they could do was to hide it from the ordinary crowd. But if things were to go out of hand, they'd be helpless too.

Chen Juan was pretty worried but she calmed herself, "Don't be anxious, we need to tackle this problem properly. I just contacted the person in charge of operations in Qi Yi Weibo. He said he can't be held responsible for this matter. The chief had already given his instructions. I am going to the organization now to make things clear and prevent things from worsening."

Jiang Li nodded. That was all they could do. He didn't expect a small issue like this to create such a big uproar. It was extremely disadvantageous to them and they had to make a comeback.

The netizens online didn't know the truth but they all thought that this student was officially finished. No matter what the truth was, her career was over.

"This student, Xia Yi Mo, is basically dead meat."

"Yeah, she's a true lady. I'm impressed. People would avoid this matter like a plague but she dared to charge forward and tackle this problem directly. I'm really impressed."

"Although an Internet celebrity is involved in this matter, he still has to produce evidence to make substantial claims."

"Let's remain neutral. When we first read this piece of news, everyone was just influenced by rage. But there isn't any evidence and it can't represent anything."

"This matter isn't just a one-time thing. The Xin Cheng Professor incident and this Starlight incident are practically the same. But at least the Xin Cheng incident came to a perfect conclusion."

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan helped to doll up Elder Dog Nicholas. He realized that Elder Dog Nicholas was extremely suitable to be a model dog. But the graceful glimpse of his had disappeared and no matter how he tried to communicate with Elder Dog Nicholas, it was useless.

"Come, give me another fearsome look." Lin Fan held onto his phone as he gave Elder Dog Nicholas a makeover.

Elder Dog Nicholas, who was laying down, glanced at Lin Fan and stuck out his tongue. He yawned and crossed his paws as he rested his head on them. It was as if he was reflecting on his life as a dog.

Zhao Zhong Yang laughed, "Haha, Master Lin, Elder Dog is so indifferent."

Woof, woof!

Elder Dog Nicholas barked a couple of times but Lin Fan understood what he meant.

"These people are so boring. They keep disrupting my rest."

Lin Fan was speechless, "..."

Woof woof!

At that instant, there was a series of barks from the street. Elder Dog Nicholas fiercely raised his head and looked outside. A poodle was walking on the street casually. Elder Dog Nicholas charged towards the poodle without any hesitation.

Lin Fan sighed, this 'chap' really wasn't suitable for him. He decided that he wouldn't give him any scallion pancakes the next day.

Fraud Tian smiled, "How can a dog understand your words?"

Lin Fan smiled, "He definitely understands. I can even understand what he's saying."

Wu You Lan was playing with her phone and suddenly, she screamed, "Quick, come have a look. Starlight has issued a letter to Weibo. It's so infuriating. They're clearly trying to cover up the truth."

Lin Fan stood up. Elder Dog Nicholas was not giving him any respect. He would have to teach him a lesson in future. Then, he looked at the phone.

Official Starlight Weibo: "Student Xia Yi Mo has mild clinical depression. The latest report confirmed that the incident happened due to the illness. As a result, it has caused damage to the school's reputation as well as that of two professors. The school has already made internal arrangements (relevant parties have been expelled). Please refrain from spreading rumors and worsening the situation."

The netizens weren't surprised at the news as they had predicted it.

"The student from Starlight still had to give up her education in the end. Perhaps she would have become a formidable figure in the entertainment. But now that everything's over, she should pack up her stuff and go home. It's not just Starlight expelling her; the whole world is looking to flame her. That's the biggest problem here."

"This problem hasn't ended yet. We are still seeking the truth."

"Seek my a*s, the truth is that Starlight had nothing to do with this matter. It's just Xia Yi Mo's clinical depression acting up, causing her to damage the reputation of others."

"To the one above, do you have any evidence to support that?"

"To the one above the one above, you don't have to say anymore."

...

Lin Fan immediately reposted Starlight's message and said, "F*ck your mom's dog sh*t."

When the message got sent out, it immediately caused a stir online.

"666..., Master Lin is too awesome."

"I believe in Master Lin unconditionally and I will definitely fight for him until the end."

"Forget it, Master Lin. Although you're powerful, you can't do anything about this matter."

"Yeah, Starlight won't allow such a thing to happen. Furthermore, there isn't any evidence in this matter. There's no turning back from this."

"I agree with the views of the person above."

Jiang Li and Chen Juan looked at Master Lin's Weibo and immediately replied. They thought he was crazy since this matter had nothing to do with him anyway.

Jiang Li said, "May I ask this Master Lin to be cautious with your words? As for your malignment, we have already gathered the evidence and we will deal with it by law."

Chen Juan also replied, "Now that the truth is out and it all happened because of Xia Yi Mo's clinical depression, you don't have to guess any further. Please erase all relevant content or we will take action accordingly."

Lin Fan replied, "@Jiang Li @Chen Juan, f*ck your moms' dog sh*t."

Netizens: "..."

Jiang Li: "..."

Chen Juan: "..."

Chapter 175: Enter the world of inhumane beasts

On the train towards the North-east.

Xia Yi Mo had been summoned back home. In her heart, she felt that she didn't deserve to be treated like that. "Mum, Dad, what are you doing..."

Father Xia was filled with anger, "Are you stupid? Why did you get yourself involved in this? How capable do you think you are? Even if you were the best, Starlight has already expelled you. Your past twenty years of hard work has been ruined. When we go back, I want you to go for matchmaking and get married."

Mother Xia just sat in a corner and cried. She didn't blame her daughter as she knew that her daughter did it for justice. However, this matter wasn't something that an ordinary person could interfere with.

Xia Yi Mo's eyes turned red as she looked at the scenic views outside. "I'm not going for matchmaking. You don't understand. We can't just care about ourselves. Tolerating it and not doing anything would only have caused even more trouble."

Mother Xia tried to console her, "Your dad is just caring for you. Don't think too much. If you go for the exams again next year, you will still be able to return."

"What do you mean by that?" Xia Yi Mo was stunned. She had a bad feeling about things.

Father Xia waved his hand and said, "Don't ask. Just listen to your mum and me."

Xia Yi Mo was a little hot-tempered. With regards to something that concerned her, she had to do something about it. "No. You have to tell me now, or else I will not go back."

Father Xia's face became more stern, "Just listen to me. Don't be involved in this matter any further and do not cause any more trouble."

"I remember that the school management called for you. What exactly did you tell them?" Xia Yi Mo anxiously asked.

Father Xia just closed his eyes and didn't reply while Mother Xia was sitting at the side. She tried to console her, "Nothing much, your dad just begged for mercy. The school management agreed to let you go back next year."

She didn't buy their story. Then, she received a Weibo notification on her phone. When she saw it, she was so angry that she cried. "How could they do that? When did I even have clinical depression? They're maligning me. No, I have to clear things up."

Father Xia snatched the phone over and looked at her, "Do you really want to infuriate your mum and I to death?"

"Did you agree with the school management about something? Otherwise, they'd never let me go back. Dad, tell me, honestly, did you make any agreement with them?" Xia Yi Mo looked at her dad and asked. "If you don't want me to die, you have to tell me."

*slap*

A slap went across her face.

The passengers on the train looked over to see what was happening.

"What was that for..." Mother Xia's face changed as she grumbled at Father Xia.

Father Xia looked at his daughter and he was heartbroken. Even then, he shouldn't have done that.

"Yes, it's my fault. I'm incapable. I agreed with the management to admit that you have clinical depression. But you have to understand that this matter is not something you can be involved in. I know exactly what you did and I'm proud of you. But you have to remember that this is not something that a teenager like you can interfere with."

Then, he calmly said, "Listen to me. Don't get involved in this incident again. It's not easy for your mum and me. We can't afford to offend anyone. Listen to me, okay?"

Xia Yi Mo looked at her dad as she held onto her clothes tightly with both hands. She lowered her head and her tears started to flow down her face.

Father Xia sighed. He thought to himself that maybe things would get better once he counsels her at home.

"Dad, pass my phone to me," Xia Yi Mo said.

"No," Father Xia declined.

"Dad, pass it to me. I promise I won't post anything. I just want to have a look at Weibo," Xia Yi Mo added.

Finally, when Xia Yi Mo received her phone, she opened Weibo and read through it intently.

Master Lin...

She believed that justice will prevail one day. It was just a little late.

...

At Cloud Street.

Zhao Zhong Yang looked at the current situation and shook his head, "This matter is technically finished."

Wu You Lan didn't believe it. "How could it be? Things have blown up. There's definitely more to this."

Fraud Tian sighed, "The conclusion has been written. She has clinical depression."

Wu Tian Gang was a wise and experienced man. Naturally, he had seen these things happen before. "The more people that are dragged into this, the greater the impact. They all don't want any of this to damage their reputations. It's not that simple."

Meanwhile, Lin Fan stroked his chin as he looked outside. Nobody knew what he was thinking.

*Ring ring*

Wu Tian He's phone rang. When he looked at it, he shook his head. "Looks like it's almost finished. Mr. Zhao tried his best."

Zhao Ming said, "Elder Wu, I'm really sorry. I can only help you till this point. All related content on Weibo has to be removed. I will keep your mentor's Weibo unblocked but he can't post about this any further."

Wu Tian He already knew it was going to happen. Naturally, he didn't have much of a reaction. "Mr. Zhao, thank you very much."

Zhao Ming replied, "Elder Wu, I can't afford to take any responsibility for this. I can only help you so much."

...

When he hung up the phone, the shop became silent.

Wu You Lan didn't believe it. "How can things just end like that?"

Zhao Zhong Yang cursed, "They're despicable."

Fraud Tian looked at Lin Fan and asked, "What do you plan to do? Is it really going to end like this?"

Lin Fan recovered from his daze and smiled. "I have no choice. I'm not powerful enough to defeat them all."

Fraud Tian took a glance, "This is unlike you."

Lin Fan smiled but he was a little angry inside. Then, he opened up Weibo.

Indeed!

The headlines that just went viral got removed. He couldn't seem to open the articles.

Although the Weibo accounts of the Internet celebrities didn't get banned, the related content that they reposted were all removed. In an instant, the matter was back to ground zero. It was as if it never happened before.

Some of the ordinary netizens were flaming them online but it was useless.

Furthermore, Lin Fan's first few reposts were also removed. At least he managed to keep his Weibo account.

Many netizens flooded Lin Fan's Weibo and discussed in the comments.

"F*ck their moms, what's going to happen to Master Lin?"

"They've started to remove posts again. We can't seem to avoid it. At least they didn't ban us. Otherwise, we'd be crying now."

"Haha, the truth will always prevail. Evidence must be provided, if not, everything is nothing but a lie."

"This rubbish Master Lin must be riding the waves and he's probably just creating rumors."

"To the one above, can you bloody get lost?"

"Master Lin is helpless. In front of the mighty, Master Lin can't do anything. But I still admire Master Lin a lot. Nobody dared to repost about it, only Master Lin dared to do so."

Just when everyone was filled with hopelessness, Master Lin's Weibo shocked them again.

Lin Fan: "@Jiang Li @Chen Juan, hahahahahahaa..."

Lin Fan: "@Jiang Li @Chen Juan, f*ck your moms..."

Lin Fan: "@Jiang Li @Chen Juan, why did the old man die naked on the streets? Why did hundreds of donkeys cry out in the middle of the night? Why do condoms cause people to suffer? Why do females lose their panties in hostels? Who was involved in the gang-rape case of a female pig? Who was responsible for the sudden death of hundreds of puppies? Behind all these things, were they caused by fractures in the human soul or differences in moral values? Please stay tuned and look out for Master Lin's annual show, 'The untold secret behind Jiang Li and Chen Juan'. Let us follow the cameras and zoom into the world of these two inhumane beasts so that we can see how these humans became beasts."

...

Chapter 176: Fight to the death

The netizens were all shocked. What was Master Lin trying to do? Had he gone crazy?

Zhao Zhong Yang looked at WeChat and was stunned. "Master Lin, you're too awesome. That was insane."

Wu You Lan laughed hysterically after reading what he wrote. She realized that at times, there was a humorous side to Master Lin too.

On Weibo.

Twilight Sad Melody: "666..., Master Lin has nature-defying abilities."

Zhou Shi Yan: "Master Lin, you're hilarious. Do you want to take my credit card?"

Purple Wind Maniac: "I'm impressed by Master Lin."

...

Lin Fan had not thought of a good way to destroy them. Furthermore, he didn't have any evidence either, but he knew that these two people were inhumane beasts. Despite others backing down, he didn't want to give up.

Initially, he wanted to ask people to do their part and repost the content. Now, things were different. If I don't fight to the death with you, my surname isn't Lin!=

Jiang Li and Chen Juan weren't worried at all. The incident should have ended there. But when they saw the Weibo post, they were infuriated. Was this guy crazy? Things were getting out of hand. Now, he even scolded them on social media. This Master Lin seemed too arrogant.

Jiang Li: "Could this Master Lin please remove his post from Weibo? Otherwise, Chen Juan and I will deal with you accordingly by law."

He didn't want to have a quarrel with someone like that. Only the two of them knew what had happened. Also, due to special reasons, this incident had already been suppressed and covered up. At the same time, there wasn't any evidence even after a few days. Still, Master Lin kept insisting that something was wrong and didn't want to let them off. But they weren't afraid at all. Lin Fan just felt that these people needed to be taught a lesson.

When Jiang Li sent out the message on Weibo, Lin Fan immediately replied.

Lin Fan: "@Jiang Li @Chen Juan, recently, I had two people that tried to threaten me. But now they're dead to me. If you want to sue me, go ahead. I'll be waiting. If not, you're just losers."

"Master Lin is humiliating the two of them."

"I admire you, Master Lin. But besides admiration, there's really nothing else."

"Yeah. This incident has already been concluded. It's useless for Master Lin to do this."

"Hey... Although it doesn't have much impact, it still helps."

...

Lin Fan was flaming the two of them on Weibo and he knew that this wouldn't even harm them. But he still did it because he was extremely furious.

At Starlight!

Jiang Li was extremely angry. He didn't even know where this Master Lin came from. But he was like a mad dog biting onto them, not wanting to let them off. Then, he made a call.

"Master Lin's Weibo is flaming Chen Juan and me. I hope you can ban it."

"Professor Jiang, I'm sorry. We advocate freedom of speech on Weibo. It was posted on his personal page. Qi Yi Weibo can't ban his Weibo account just based on this. If you'd like to, you could sue him."

Jiang Li was speechless.

Chen Juan said, "You don't have to bother about this Weibo frenzy. This incident has already been concluded. The discussions online were also removed. It won't cause much of a problem."

Jiang Li said unhappily, "Aren't we going to sue him then?"

Chen Juan just smiled, "Yeah, but now's not the time. He's taking joy in flaming us, isn't he? I'm going to employ the internet trolls to repost his posts. As long as it can create a certain impact, we can sue him for slander."

Jiang Li slapped his thigh and smiled widely. Then, he said, "Good idea. Let him continue flaming then."

...

At night!

The shop was closed. Everyone was feeling a little bored and helpless. The main reason was that the way the opposing parties had handled the situation was extremely ruthless. They just wanted to shut everyone down and not let anyone have a chance to speak.

When they were closing the shop, Elder Dog Nicholas came over and entered the shop slowly.

Fraud Tian said, "Don't be angry, you already did your best."

Wu You Lan nodded as well. She felt that Master Lin was indeed a good person to not be fearful of opposing such people.

Lin Fan chuckled, "I'm not angry. There will be a conclusion to this. Sometimes justice gets lazy and falls asleep. Let's just wait."

"Haha."

Everyone laughed and agreed with what Master Lin said.

Lin Fan waved his hands and said, "Alright, I'm leaving now."

Of course, Lin Fan knew that sometimes justice wouldn't prevail on its own. Someone had to give it a push.

But now, even he didn't know what to do. This incident was a tough nut to crack.

In the car.

Wang Ming Yang called. When he picked up, Wang Ming Yang just laughed on the phone.

"I spent my entire day looking at Weibo. You're too d*mn awesome."

Lin Fan chuckled, "That's not awesome. I just scolded them. I can't do anything else to them."

Wang Ming Yang replied, "Don't be too pessimistic. You already did your best for this. That's how society works. Some things can't be resolved by brute force. Furthermore, Starlight isn't so simple. There are a few departments that are handling this."

"Oh, right. Don't be manipulated by them. There isn't any evidence online now. It's difficult to say how the final outcome will be like. People nowadays are extremely cunning. They act like they're the victim but they're the ones benefiting from it. It's complicated, extremely complicated."

Lin Fan chuckled, "Don't worry, I understand that. I read their fortunes. These two people are not any good."

Wang Ming Yang was shocked. "You could still read their fortunes?"

Lin Fan replied, "What do you think? Alright, let's not talk anymore. I'm driving now. It's difficult to talk."

"Alright."

He hung up and focused on driving.

When he reached home, he switched on the television. He felt extremely gloomy. He took a shower and lay down on the sofa while watching the television.

The news channel.

"Today, a hacker named 'Heavenly Wolf Dog' got arrested for hacking into tablets to steal the information of others. The following are today's news..."

Lin Fan had just closed his eyes. He was about to take a nap but he was stunned by this news. D*mn, a hacker could be that awesome? That's sick.=

Then, he watched the news carefully. It only explained the incident briefly without much background information. However, he did a search online and the results were astounding.

This 'Heavenly Wolf Dog' hacker was indeed awesome. He hadn't just stolen the information of others. He also controlled the tablet and used the camera function to capture the actions of the victims. That was way too sick.

But this 'Heavenly Wolf Dog' was quite pathetic. Based on what was described online, this hacker had hacked into the computer of a female idol that he loved. When the camera was activated, the female idol had been changing her clothes. He was instantly captivated. He didn't know that the Internet police were tracking him and they immediately arrested him when they found his ID.

This showed that 'Heavenly Wolf Dog' was a pro hacker but he couldn't protect himself.

Of course, nobody knew the actual situation.

*smack*

Lin Fan slapped his thigh. He realized that he had the Encyclopedia and it definitely contained hacking skills. Then, he opened up the Encyclopedia and started searching. But when he found the page for hacking, he was shocked.

The Encyclopedic Points required were a little too much. He couldn't afford it at all.

Also, this page for hacking skills didn't contain any sub-classification. It was just a major class on its own. It actually required a thousand Encyclopedic Points.

Helplessness...

But then, Lin Fan realized that things weren't what he had thought.

The Encyclopedia still had some humaneness to it.

Chapter 177: You are all my grandchildren!

Borrowing the Encyclopedia's Internet hacking ability would cost 100 Encyclopedic Points. The Encyclopedia calculated that the task at hand could be completed.

When Lin Fan read this description, he got a little bit agitated.

Borrowing the Internet hacking ability was rather humane, but taking a closer look, it had quite a number of limitations.

100 Encyclopedic Points would cost him almost all his points. He had only accumulated 118 points up until that day. Was it worth it to spend 100 Encyclopedic points on a matter that didn't even have a rat's a*s to do with him?

Some people might have washed their hands off the matter because it wasn't any of their business. As the saying goes, as long as the knife does not stab you, it is never your business.

But, Lin Fan also knew that when there was no justice, it was up to him to bring justice. Even though hacking might be breaking the law, he still had to look at the bigger issue of the situation.

Lin Fan had no hesitation. He made up his mind. 100 Encyclopedic Points was worth it. It was worth upholding justice for a young lady. It was what officials should have been doing.

Encyclopedic Points could still be slowly accumulated even after they run out, but right now, he needed to be righteous.

When he rented this house, the landlord had been rather generous and had provided a computer. Although it was a little bit dated, it was still useable.

Sitting in front of the computer, Lin Fan immediately spent the 100 Encyclopedic Points and got down to business, monitoring Jiang Li and Chen Juan.

*click click*

Lin Fan sat there without moving. He knew nothing about hacking, yet his hands were moving on their own, typing furiously on the keyboard. The display on the monitor kept changing, but he didn't understand a single thing on it. At last, the monitor displayed some English words. However, Lin Fan had not even sat for the Grade 3B English examination, so it was impossible for him to recognize any words. Despite all this, he still felt proud of himself.

Window after window kept popping up on the screen, eventually filling the whole screen. At this moment, the computer started making random buzzing noises. It seemed that the computer was overloading. Lin Fan was afraid that this old computer was unable to handle all the processes that were on-going and might just explode.

Not long after, a display popped up on the screen. The display showed the interior of a house. A conversation between a man and a woman could be heard. The conversation was about trivial matters and they didn't mention anything important.

Lin Fan stared at the screen for nearly half an hour, but nothing major happened. He decided to take a shower before heading to sleep. He probably did not need to bother himself with the computer. After all, he had spent 100 Encyclopedic Points. The computer program should be able to take care of itself.

This was like finding a needle in a haystack. The matter could only be resolved when the needle was found.

The next day.

Lin Fan woke up early. He took a look at the screen, which did not display any motion. However, there were breathing noises. It seemed that the computer program had hacked into a phone.

He squatted there for awhile, but realized that he saw nothing that was of use. He then headed out to his shop.

Even though the investigations were currently on-going, he didn't know how long more he had to wait. He figured that he should just slowly wait it out using his method.

However, he had to rage post at least once every hour on Weibo everyday.

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan arrived at his shop. He finished his daily business then proceeded to take a rest there.

Jiang Li and Chen Juan had posted a few statements. However, they were all superficial statements that just wanted to clear their names. What shocked Lin Fan was that in the comments section of Jiang Li and Chen Juan's Weibo, there were several rage posts from netizens, and the content in these posts was from Lin Fan's own post the day before.

At the same time, there were many netizens re-posting Lin Fan's post from the day before on Weibo. Lin Fan was rather astonished. He felt that there was something fishy as they seemed to be from a group. However, he just let them do as they pleased as it didn't scare him one bit.

Lin Fan was lying there, with Elder Dog Nicholas in his embrace. Elder Dog was very quiet that day and just laid motionlessly on Lin Fan's leg as if he was tired from the day before and needed ample rest.

Wu You Lan enthusiastically looked through Weibo on her phone but was stunned for a moment. "Master Lin! Go take a look at your Weibo! There are several celebrities teaming together to scold you!"

Lin Fan opened his eyes. He took out his phone, not giving too much thought to what Wu You Lan had just said.

There were many random netizens flaming him on his Weibo. However, he only went to read what the celebrities posted.

He wouldn't have known if he hadn't seen it for himself. But once he knew, it was too much for him. There were several famous celebrities!

Out of the many celebrities, there was one by the name of Yang Yue Chen, who was particularly famous for Chinese Soap Operas. Her reputation was very widespread and she had many fans. She made a post that had many re-posts by the netizens.

Yang Yue Chen: "Professor Chen Juan is my greatly respected teacher. I would never have imagined that ever since my graduation six years ago, she would be sabotaged like this by a few lowly beings, suffering such public nuisance. She's very academically skilled and has good teaching morals. Using my name, I can vouch for her that she would not commit such an act. At the same time, will the person by the name of Master Lin please stop demeaning Professor Chen Juan and raking up a fuss? If you mean business, you have to base it on your own abilities. But of course, looking at your Weibo, you are a self-proclaimed fortune-telling master. As everyone knows these days, we are a scientific fact-based society and fortune-telling is all but a phony. I hope you know your place and stop being a clown in the Internet community."

"Well said! I have always disliked that Master Lin. He's just a clown."

"Exactly! How can he say such things with no solid evidence? He doesn't have any brains. I think he just wants to hype himself up."

"What kind of fortune-telling master is he? I think he's just a fake. Everyone, please do not get scammed by this guy. I trust Yue Yue. I trust Professor Chen Juan."

"Bunch of dogs! Who are you all to slander Master Lin? He is someone of real capabilities, not someone you spineless clowns can judge."

"A brainless dog just posted above me. Everyone, be careful."

Shortly after Yang Yue Chen's post on Weibo, many other hot-headed netizens posted on Weibo as well.

Jiang Chen Yu was the angriest of the lot. He had acted in a number of movies and gained quite a large fanbase in the process.

Jiang Chen Yu: "My results were very poor before and I was also very introverted. With such circumstances, I wouldn't have survived long in the entertainment business. However, Teacher Jiang had faith in me. He coached and helped me along, frequently giving me many chances, which allowed me to slowly combat my introverted nature. Teacher Jiang is a great teacher. Please don't tarnish the reputation of these two great teachers over some mere discussion by random people. As for this 'Master Lin', I urge my fans, as well as friends on the Internet, to boycott him and the harmful impact the Internet has."

"Agreed! I agree..."

"I will definitely support you!"

"I will go and flame that bullsh*t Master Lin right now."

...

Lin Fan's power had been weakened by netizens ganging up on him, especially since it involved the influence of several currently popular celebrities. It was something that Lin Fan couldn't compare to. This led to his Weibo being attacked by the fans.

Even some of the netizens who followed Lin Fan turned their backs against him and started flaming him.

"Thinking about it last night, I feel that I might have been cheated by Master Lin. I have no connections with the victim, yet I cared more than anybody else. I think he just wants to ride on the outburst of this matter to hype himself up. I hope no one else gets cheated by him."

"Boycott this b*stard!"

"Hehe, I don't even know what he has to do with this matter, so what rights do I have to scold him?"

"Unfollow him! The truth of the matter is already out and he's still here scolding others. What's he trying to prove?"

"I will unconditionally support Master Lin."

"The guy above me, are you a ret*rd? Are you here to dig your own grave?"

...

Lin Fan didn't take any of these comments to heart. He continued to send out a Weibo post.

Lin Fan: "@YangYueChen @JiangChenYu @JiangLi @ChenJuan. What a bunch of idiots that sold their butts to get famous."

...

Wu You Lan raised her head and shockingly said, "Master Lin, are you trying to start an all-out war?"

Lin Fan blinked, then laughed.

When Yang Yue Chen, Jiang Chen Yu, and several other celebrities saw this, they were enraged. One by one, they started commenting that they wanted to sue him.

Lin Fan: "Don't sue me. You are all my grandchildren..."

Yang Yue Chen: "..."

Jiang Chen Yu: "..."

Netizens: "..."

Chapter 178: Enrage the beast!

Lin Fan's declaration of war angered many celebrities. To people in the celebrities' circle, they definitely wouldn't dare. But so what if they didn't dare? That didn't mean that Lin Fan wouldn't dare.

Everyone, please continue to spam me, or get even more people to spam me!

Right now, he was just pouring more fuel into the fire, making it an even larger flame.

This matter seemed to have been censored for unknown reasons. Weibo was blocking out all the news regarding this matter. At the same time, Starlight Film School was announcing the final conclusion.

The conclusion was that the reporter had a mental disability and had given his report under the influence of his mental illness.

If there were to be no follow-up to the news with each passing day, such a matter would vanish without a trace within a day or two. With nobody paying attention to it, it would disappear like smoke vanishing into thin air.

Lin Fan looked at the situation on Weibo. It wasn't enough. He decided to probe further at the celebrities' Weibo. As long as they were Starlight Film School graduates, he would spam them all, disregarding which faculty they graduated from.

Man Ting Chao was a hugely popular star. He had acted in several big IP movies and won various awards. Even though he was over forty, many young ladies still regarded him as their number one male star.

Lin Fan: "@ManTingChao You're the student of two old b*stards! What a surprise! I really look down on you now..."

Man Ting Chao was currently advertising his new film when he saw the Weibo. He was stunned for a moment. Who the hell is this guy? What does he mean?

After researching for a bit, he found out that this Master Lin was arguing with Jiang Li and Chen Juan, and they were on awfully bad terms with each other. Even though he had graduated from Starlight Film School, he had zero connections with those two people.

Man Ting Chao: "What are you talking about?"

He wanted to find out what exactly Lin Fan meant, but Lin Fan didn't care about any of this. He had already begun probing other celebrities' Weibos.

Lin Fan: "@SummerFlower, you actually dare to support those two old b*stards? I really look down on you."

Summer Flower was a famous actress. She was very pretty, and thus enjoyed the favor of many fans. However, at that moment, she got randomly scolded by this Master Lin for no reason and was stunned. What is this guy doing? Could it be that he's a brainless Internet troll?

Since when did I support those two people?

Lin Fan continuously searched for more than ten other famous celebrities, and somehow linked the two old b*stards to them, regardless of anything.

All this was done just to thoroughly and completely piss off the fans of those celebrities.

Even though his personal Weibo had millions of followers, it was useless. Most of them were just there to join the hype. He had angered so many celebrities, which would definitely lead to the retaliation from their fans.

He took a look at his Weibo, but decided not to look through it anymore after seeing such a tragic sight. Those fans were scolding him so much that he didn't know what to say anymore.

However, he had already achieved his objective.

Haha!

They wanted to wait for the news to die down before dealing with it. How could he give them such a chance?

As for the fans of Master Lin, they felt that he had gone insane.

When Jiang Li and Chen Juan looked at their Weibo, all they could do was laugh. He was indeed a madman. They didn't even have to deal with this matter by themselves. They could just leave it to their fans to sort him out.

Wu You Lan was momentarily stunned. "Master Lin, you have really enraged the beast this time. Nothing bad will happen right?"

Lin Fan laughed, "This is exactly what I wanted."

Wu Tian He laughed, "Sometimes when nothing is reported, we have to take it into own hands. It might even have a better outcome. You wouldn't already have the evidence, would you?"

Lin Fan shook his head, "Not for the time being."

After scolding more than ten over celebrities, Lin Fan had started an all-out war on Weibo. Once he was done with scolding people on Weibo, he closed it. He had already achieved his objective and didn't need to care about it anymore. What mattered most then was whether or not he could get the evidence.

He didn't know what the situation was with his old computer back at home. He wasn't sure if he had gathered any useful evidence.

Nighttime.

Lin Fan reached home. He arrived in front of the old computer, hopeful that it had managed to gather evidence.

When he looked at the screen, he was momentarily stunned. All the windows on the screen had disappeared. It seemed that the computer program hadn't been successful.

Just like that, those 100 Encyclopedic Points might as well have been flushed down the toilet bowl. Without the necessary evidence, there was zero chance that the situation could be turned around. Everything that he had done in the day would have been for nothing.

"Hey!" To Lin Fan's amazement, there were two folders on the desktop of the computer. The folders were even named!

Jiang Li!

Chen Juan!

Burning with excitement, he sat down and hurriedly opened one of the folders.

He took a glance at it. There was only ten minutes worth of videos. As for the content, there was no way he would know what it was about. He had to watch it at least once.

A display popped up. It showed the interior of an office. It seemed that it was showing what Jiang Li's phone was recording, and it was nicely placed facing Chen Juan.

Chen Juan: "Starlight Film School has already helped us suppress this matter. What do these netizens think they can do?"

Jiang Li: "The media doesn't even dare to expose this matter. Only this guy with only a few million followers on Weibo dares to challenge us. I really don't know where he gets his bravery from."

Chen Juan: "Xia Yi Mo's father has agreed to our request to admit that she has clinical depression. Are you really prepared to take her back in next year?"

Jiang Li: "Do you think that's possible? It would be too late by then. And did I even that before? Did I agree to any of his conditions? But if I take her back in next year and force it on her again, don't you think that's even better?"

Chen Juan laughed but immediately changed to a stern-looking face. "Elder Jiang, you should do less of these immoral things in future. This time, you met someone that doesn't fear death. If it weren't for these special reasons, something might really have happened."

"Relax. What could happen? Unless they decide to come here and mess around."

...

Looking at the video, Lin Fan was enraged. However, he was more excited that he had finally gotten the evidence. The Encyclopedia wasn't just any encyclopedia, but also produced awesome results! It had taken all the useful videos and put them together.

Furthermore, the video also showed a lot more infuriating content. Even after they did all that, Jiang Li still continued his nasty acts. He still dared to book a room with one of his students. But of course, the Encyclopedia blurred out the face of this female student, giving her a chance.

Another video showed Chen Juan inviting a superior for dinner. After which, they did some shameful acts.

As of now, these videos were the best evidence he had and was enough to cause them to be in deep trouble. If this won't work, then there wasn't anything else he could do.

Lin Fan downloaded the videos onto his phone. Tomorrow would be the day to expose them.

He was content, and he let out a sigh of relief.

He didn't regret getting involved in this case, nor was he scared. Even if people dared to come to his doorstep, what could they do?

His Ba Gua Zhang was no joke.

Of course, these were just his thoughts. Ultimately, he had to remain calm. As for the videos, where would he say they came from? Of course, he had gotten them unintentionally when he had been downloading other movies.

Who knew which b*stard had uploaded it?

After going through so much trouble to download a few gigabytes of movies, in the end, all he got was this nonsense?

Of course, the Encyclopedia was still rather humane. The computer displayed a lightning bolt icon, and he was still downloading several tens of gigabytes of movies.

As for the names of these movies, they were really not appropriate to be seen.

Chapter 179: Everything within his power

In the morning. The air was fresh.

Lin Fan had enraged the beast. The ten over angry celebrities had reported Lin Fan's doing.

"666... Who is this Master Lin? How can he do this? Where does his bravery come from?"

"He really is a madman. I would never have imagined that such a matter would be reported on media."

"Who are these two b*stards that Master Lin mentioned?"

"The person above, you just need to search the Internet for their names, then you'll understand. Some news websites still have information on them."

"I can't believe it! I just searched it up. Since when did such a thing happen? How could I not have known anything about it?"

"These motherf*ckers really are b*stards. However, what does this have to do with those celebrities?"

...

This topic had burst open again. It had not mentioned anything about Starlight Film School. However, all these discussions made the observant netizens curious. They didn't know who these two b*stards represented.

Once they searched the matter up, they were in for a huge shock. How could such a thing happen? By following the different news channels, they gathered various news regarding this. Some of them were trusting, yet skeptical, not knowing the truth behind the issue. However, there were still some that stood by Starlight Film School.

After all, Starlight Film School already had enough evidence to prove that Xia Yi Mo indeed had a problem.

Jiang Li had also released a video involving Xia Yi Mo's father to provide proof of the situation, hence many netizens still believed Starlight Film School and thought that Master Lin was crazy.

These ten over celebrities could practically hold up half the sky. Yet, there was still someone that dared scold them for no rhyme or reason. This naturally upset lots of fans.

On the web forums.

"Do you guys know what happened yesterday? Lin Fan is practically seeking death."

"Hehe, this guy is someone who goes crazy whenever he wants. He even wants to put his foot into this matter concerning Starlight Film School. He didn't want to believe the truth even after it had been revealed, but he still started flaming these celebrities. Won't you say he's gone mad?"

"I see so many people like this these days. When they want to get famous, there's nothing they won't dare to do."

"These ten over celebrities are already preparing to sue Master Lin. It'd be best if they sue him till he dies so that he would stay away from the Internet. Save the Internet another vermin."

"Supported. Agreed."

Cloud Street.

A lady owner, who was holding hands with a little girl, arrived. "Little Boss, regarding the incident on the Internet, you mustn't provoke it anymore."

Lin Fan laughed, "Thank you for your concern. I am well aware of the situation."

Fraud Tian laughed, "Little Sister Hong, your daughter is very cute."

The little girl, who was standing behind the lady boss, was looking at the people inside the shop. After which, she went to hide behind her mother's back.

The lady boss twitched her lips. "I'm older than you, so you have to address me as Big Sister Hong."

Fraud Tian laughed. He looked for the little girl. "Come here, sweet girl."

Lin Fan jokingly said, "You're too scary. Being a little kid, she wouldn't dare to go near you."

Sister Hong clapped her hands. "I have to go first. I need to send my child to school."

After Sister Hong left, Fraud Tian laughed out loud. "Little Sister Hong is rather capable. She's already so old, yet she's still able to have a second pregnancy."

Lin Fan laughed along with him. He decided to check Weibo. His own Weibo had been taken over by spammers. Scrolling downwards, all the posts were filled with curses. It was simply frightening.

His act of flaming the celebrities the day before was on the trending page. Although most of the discussion was just netizens scolding him, none of it mattered now. He had already achieved his goal of catching the attention of more netizens.

All he needed to do was wait for the right moment to strike.

At this moment, Jiang Li released a statement.

Jiang Li: "In view of matters regarding Master Lin, because he is unable to prove his words, he has heavily damaged the reputation of Professor Chen Juan. Therefore, we have already lodged a report to the court of law with the relevant evidence..."

"Good! I support Professor Jiang."

"Such people should pay for their acts. Because of people like this, the Internet is so toxic."

"Support +1."

"Professor Jiang and Professor Chen are both people with good morals and are highly respectable. People of such lowly caliber aren't worthy of slandering them."

"There are too many people that want to get famous. However, it's really a first seeing such a shameless person."

The popular celebrity Yang Yue Chen also released a statement which stated that she would unconditionally support Professor Jiang and Professor Chen.

At the same time, there were many celebrities who re-posted Professor Jiang's Weibo, showing their stand.

This topic was getting hotter and hotter, gaining the attention of many more people.

Most of the netizens were in support of Professor Jiang.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan's side wasn't looking too good.

"I've stopped following him. I used to be pretty fond of Master Lin. However, now he's just a clown who likes to cause trouble without rhyme or reason."

"+1, stop following! Let him spam by himself. Let's see how long more he will continue to spam if no one cares about him."

"Hehe, that's really funny. So he wanted to get famous."

"Thinking about all his past doings, he probably collaborated with others just to gain our attention."

"Guys, don't be like that. Master Lin isn't that kind of person."

"If he isn't this kind of a person, then what kind of person is he?"

"I'm utterly disappointed. Who knew that Master Lin would turn out like that?"

...

Lin Fan had been pushed into the heart of the storm, getting scolded by all sides, with everyone hating on him.

However, none of this even bothered Lin Fan a single bit. What he had wanted to come had come. As for now, he wanted to let the storm rage on for a little while longer.

Qi Yi Weibo.

"Master Lin has pissed off many people on Weibo. Should his Weibo account be blocked?"

The person-in-charge replied, "There is no need to block his account. We can't touch his account."

The employees at Weibo were all stunned. They had never thought that someone could ever cause such a huge fuss. It was like a once in a lifetime situation.

It wasn't like such an event had not happened on Weibo before, but rather, it hadn't been to such a huge extent. This time, Master Lin had enraged a bunch of celebrities as well. It was as good as seeking death.

Noontime.

Master Lin hadn't replied a single post. Everyone thought that he had already backed out of Weibo, or that he was so scared that he went into hiding.

After all, the celebrities were getting ready to file a lawsuit. With so many celebrities suing him, there wouldn't just be a typical outcome.

Lin Fan's number of followers on Weibo was beginning to look miserable. In a short span of a few hours, he had lost almost two hundred thousand followers.

For others, if they were to kick up a fuss, the more they did it, the hotter they would become. This was because, in order to join in the discussion, people had to follow the user first.

However, for Lin Fan, he didn't turn on this setting. As a result, the discussion count was much higher than his followers count.

Wu You Lan worriedly asked, "Master Lin, are you really not anxious at all?"

Lin Fan looked at the time. "What's there to be anxious about. It has just started. But it is about time for me to make my move."

At this moment, after a span of 10 over hours, his first Weibo post appeared.

"Last night, I downloaded two movies. They were supposed to be sexy, but I didn't expect that it would be..."

The Weibo was posted together with the two videos.

The moment the Weibo was posted, discussions started flying about.

"Fools, what a bunch of fools."

"Master Lin, we have all wronged you..."

"Master Lin, how f*cking disgusting can you be?"

The discussions rose very quickly.

Suddenly, at this moment, all the comments stopped. It was as if they had pre-planned this.

It was like everyone had disappeared.

As for Lin Fan, he knew that he had already done what was needed to be done. Whatever happened after this was no business of his.

Inside the shop.

Wu You Lan played the videos. Her initial curious expression suddenly changed...

Chapter 180: Turn of events!

Jiang Li was leisurely drinking his tea in his office while looking at his computer. Recently, things had been very troublesome on his part, however, it was all over now. As for the mad dog on Weibo, he felt that it was time to put a stop to it. He was afraid that if he did not teach him a lesson, he wouldn't know who's boss.

On his computer was a list of all the particulars of his students. Although it might have looked like he was doing work, Jiang Li's expression was as if he was choosing an imperial concubine.

This one is alright, but there's a pimple on her face.

This one is not bad, she seems to be pretty all-rounded.

...

His phone rang. It was a call from Chen Juan.

Jiang Li shook his head. He knew that woman was definitely worried. What was there to be worried about? Everything had already been settled. There was no need to worry. If anyone was to worry, it should be the other party.

He picked up the call. He could practically hear Chen Juan's sense of urgency through the call. "Hurry up and look at Weibo. That b*stard just released two videos. Tell me what's going on. Was it you who took the video? No, it can't be. Why are there videos of me as well? Who did this?"

Jiang Li frowned. What was she talking about? She was speaking so messily, he had no idea what she was talking about.

"What's going on? What videos?"

"Go and take a look at the videos yourself." Chen Juan cut the call immediately after. She seemed to be very anxious.

Jiang Li shook his head, then opened Weibo. There didn't seem to be anything going on. Maybe it was happening on Master Lin's side? He then went to Master Lin's Weibo and when he looked at the title, he couldn't help but laugh. Was this all an effort to switch the topic? Too bad it was already too late.

He then clicked on one of the videos and he heard a very familiar voice coming from it.

"This matter has already..."

"What do the netizens think they can do..."

...

After watching the video, the teacup that he was holding slipped from his hand. He was completely stunned.

"How...how is this possible..."

...

It was very quiet on the Internet. There was momentarily no activity ongoing.

Xia Yi Mo, who had already returned to her old home, was very quiet. She locked herself in her room daily.

She had always been following Master Lin's Weibo but she was unable to understand all of Master Lin's actions.

Especially what had just happened. What did he mean by that post?

She then laughed to herself. Why would anyone help her? It was only natural to assume that this was his ploy to switch the topic. Neither of those videos interested her enough to play them. She thought of Huang Miao Miao, and what she must have been doing then.

However, for some strange unexplained reason, Xia Yi Mo opened one of the videos, and when she watched the contents of the video, she was stunned.

Starlight Film School.

There was a teacher scrolling through Weibo. The topic recently had been very hot. Everyone knew that this teacher admired Master Lin. However, due to Master Lin's actions the past day, he began to have his doubts. He didn't understand the point of Master Lin's actions. Could it be, like what the netizens were saying, that it was all to make himself popular?

At this moment, he saw the two videos on Master Lin's Weibo. Curious, he opened one of them. After watching the contents of the video, he was stunned.

The voices coming from the video were Jiang Li and Chen Juan's, and it was being played out loud. All the surrounding teachers looked up, not knowing what was happening.

That teacher was astonished, following which he mumbled to himself, "This is a huge matter..."

The surrounding people asked, "What happened? What is the matter?"

"You guys can go take a look at it yourselves on Master Lin's Weibo..."

Everyone immediately stopped what they were doing and went to watch the videos on Master Lin's Weibo. One by one, they were all stunned by what they watched. They all knew that this time, the issue was really big. Some of them immediately took out their phones.

"Headmaster! Something has happened, something bad has happened!"

The Headmaster responded, "What is it?"

"Hurry up and take a look at the videos Master Lin posted on his Weibo. Professor Jiang and Professor Chen's videos have been leaked, and now they've been uploaded onto Master Lin's Weibo!"

The call was still ongoing, but the moment he heard what was going on, the sound of a table being slammed could be heard from the Headmaster's side.

...

Lin Fan had already become unwelcomed on Weibo. Many netizens were very unhappy with him, especially when he released the two videos. Everyone wanted to see what other things he could come up with.

If he was just distributing short films on Weibo, it would be like digging his own grave.

However, when the netizens opened the video, there were all stunned.

In the video, it showed a conversation between Jiang Li and Chen Juan, in which they clearly spelled out the situation regarding Huang Miao Miao. At the same time, they also revealed the situation regarding Xia Yi Mo. Not only that, many netizens were also enraged at one of the sentences Jiang Li said.

"In this place, I am God."

The contents towards the end of the video were also very infuriating for the netizens. It showed Jiang Li bringing a girl into a hotel room, as well as Chen Juan currying the favor of a director, setting up activities at night. One event happening after another made the netizens furious watching the videos. They felt like idiots, getting their feelings played by such people.

The videos had been released by Lin Fan. However, due to the overwhelming number of re-posts by netizens, the video managed to be thoroughly spread out in just a short period of time.

As for the employees at Weibo, they were stunned after learning about the situation. What should they do?

Delete the post?

This was no joke. In such a short period of time, it had been re-posted a total of six million times, and the number was still rising.

They were afraid that if they were to block the videos, they would be in for a lot of scolding from the netizens.

Media Company.

Employee: "Guys, quickly go and look at the video on Weibo. It reveals the truth of the matter!"

"It can't be. It is too drastic of a change."

The Editor-in-chief anxiously ordered, "Hurry up and write this down. I want the article within an hour!"

An employee said "Chief! This matter isn't for us to dip our hands into!"

The Editor-in-chief responded, "That's because there wasn't any solid evidence before! Now that there's plenty of evidence, do you think that everyone else is blind? Hurry up and write the news!"

The employees hurriedly began working on the story. At the same time, they were a little suspicious. Who is this Master Lin? How could he possibly get his hands on such a thing?

According to what has been said on Weibo, he got these videos when he was downloading movies?

Who is he trying to fool?

In the whole of China, of all people, why would it only be him that downloaded it?

On the Internet.

"F*ck! They are too disgusting."

"They are really outrageous. We have been too trusting all this while. Never have we ever thought that such a thing would happen."

"You bunch of retards. You all still dared to scold Master Lin on his Weibo. Where's your face now?"

"I understand now. Master Lin wasn't insane. This incident was covered up and was disallowed to be reported on. So Master Lin went to scold those celebrities just to generate hype, and when enough hype had been generated, he then released those videos."

"The person above, how is it that you are suddenly so smart? Where was your brain before? You seem to have been scolding Master Lin the most furiously on his Weibo before this."

"Everyone, hurry up and save the videos before Weibo takes them down."

"+1, I have already saved them."

...

When the Weibo officials read the ongoing discussions, they were lost for words. What was there left to take down? The evidence had already been released, anymore blocking would just be asking for a scolding.

At this moment, Master Lin sent out another Weibo.

"I was really too bored out of my mind yesterday. I painstakingly downloaded those movies for a few hours but it turned out to be a trick. It really hurt me. But today's weather is great. Very bright and radiant..."

The comment section below was being flooded.

"Master Lin, please don't cry! I can give you 1000gb of seeds for free!"

"What's the point of seeds? I have a hard disk filled with thousands of movies. I can pass it to you at the shortest notice."

"Master Lin, I was wrong. I should not have scolded you!"

"I've followed you again! Next time, don't anybody try to fool me!"

"A true warrior."
