

Valiant Life 361

Chapter 361: This doesn't seem right

A lot of the professionals in the room were discussing intensely the surgical procedures in the video clip. They were extremely in awe. They felt that it was a masterpiece and at the same time, they wanted to know who the person was so that they could ask him some questions.

The little girl's test report was out.

It was a big hospital and it had all the amenities needed. An average report would require two or three days but this was a special case and it was completed in a short time.

Doctor Mao held onto the report and gasped, "How could it be?"

"How's the result?" The other experts rushed forward and looked at it. Then, they turned to Doctor Mao. "Can you confirm that the girl had throat cancer?"

Doctor Mao was in disbelief but the results were in front of him and they had to believe it. "Yeah, I can confirm that."

"That's impossible." The experts were stunned. "Throat cancer can't be cured by a simple surgery. Furthermore, the aftermath of the surgery would be extremely complicated and she should be infected with other diseases. It couldn't have been controlled."

"According to the condition of the patient, she's supposed to be in a coma after the surgery for quite some time. A positive case would regain consciousness in a week but it wouldn't be like her current condition. She's just in a deep sleep."

Doctor Mao shook his head. "I don't know either but the report is right here. We can only trust it."

The Chinese medical expert gasped again, "I know the use of the last three needles. According to the old records, a person's head has a lot of acupuncture points and each of them affects the human body greatly."

The experts didn't understand that and asked, "Then do you know the positions of the three needles?"

The Chinese medicine doctor shook his head. "I don't know. Perhaps only that person would know."

The experts looked as if they wanted to kill him. It was as if all he had just said was completely useless.

Doctor Mao sighed. "Impressive. If the truth wasn't right in front of us now, I wouldn't have believed it. Now, I don't even blame him for knocking me out. I have to thank him for that since I understand why he did it. If not for that, I wouldn't have believed him and I would've treated him like a psychopath. Then, I'd have become a sinner. I wasn't really confident in that surgery and if I find out who he is, I have to thank him personally."

The girl's parents said, "When he came out and spoke to us, he said he was a godly doctor and it was fated for him to treat our daughter. Then, you guys came and he jumped out of the window.

The girl's parents wanted to thank him personally. If not for him, the girl wouldn't have recovered.

Inspector Yang looked extremely stern and he said, "A young man in his 20s. He is physically fit, 1.78m and about 103lbs. A skinny man."

"Doctor Mao, is there a surveillance camera at the place where he hit you?" Inspector Yang said.

Doctor Mao shook his head. "That's a blind spot and there's no camera."

Then, the entire conference room went wild. Director Chen said in disbelief, "Inspector Yang, you mentioned that the doctor is in his twenties?"

Inspector Yang nodded. "Yeah, not above thirty years of age."

The crowd looked at each other in shock. It was as if it was the biggest joke ever. How could this doctor with such precise skills be less than thirty years old?

Even if they searched the entire nation, they wouldn't be able to find someone like that. It was for sure.

Then, a policeman entered the room. "Sir, the reporters downstairs filmed his face."

"Play it."

The crowd looked at the video clip curiously and when they saw him jump over the wall, everyone was stunned.

Inspector Yang nodded. "Matching clothes. White t-shirt. Strong physical power. Pause."

The video clip was paused.

In the clip, Lin Fan's head was turned. Although he was wearing a mask, he wasn't wearing a surgical hat. Inspector Yang continued to draw his appearance. He wrote a question mark beside some areas and wrote some words beneath them.

'Runs extremely quickly. Jumps extremely high and has extraordinary physical abilities.'

"Look at all the cameras and find footages of this man. Look at everything closely and don't miss out anything," Inspector Yang said with a serious tone.

"Yes."

Director Chen asked, "Inspector Yang, can this man be found?"

Inspector Yang nodded. "If we can find out how this man looks without the mask and draw it out before doing a facial recognition, we'd be able to find out. His age is a great breakthrough and there shouldn't be a problem. We just need some time. Also, we hired the professional team to collect samples of his fingerprint. He's bound to be caught.

Director Chen sighed. "The nation's investigation skills are so great now. It's unlike the past."

Inspector Yang smiled. "Of course. The cameras are our greatest asset. He has nowhere to run."

Director Chen said, "Inspector Yang, if you find this man, could you inform me right away?"

Inspector Yang nodded. "Of course. This man didn't really do anything wrong in my opinion. I feel like he did a good job. However, in the eyes of the public, they'd think that it's a big security breach. I'll let you know as soon as possible."

"Thank you." Director Chen smiled. If they could hire such a godly doctor then the hospital would be in luck. It would be a good thing for the patients too.

Outside.

It had been a few hours since the incident had happened.

The reporters were still waiting outside but they hadn't gotten any news yet. At the same time, they didn't know the final outcome too. They only knew that the girl was still alive but didn't know how she was doing.

"They're out..." A reporter said when he saw the policemen walking out. Then, the reporters gathered around the policemen.

"Police officers, may we know what's the situation now?"

"Could you tell us the girl's condition? Did her condition worsen?"

Inspector Yang waved his hand. "Everyone, I can only tell you that nothing has gone wrong. As for the specific details, I'll let Director Chen speak about that. Please excuse us, we have to continue with our investigations."

The reporters excused them and went to pester Director Chen.

Director Chen knew that he couldn't hide anything about this incident.

"Everyone, the girl is extremely healthy. The surgery was a success and the sickness was cured. She is perfectly fine now. I have to thank the person that disguised as a doctor. He's really a godly doctor. I am willing to hire the doctor with a high salary and offer him great benefits."

In that instant.

The reporters were stunned.

It was as if they had heard something wrong.

That didn't seem right.

Chapter 362: This situation is f*cked up

The reporters just looked at each other and they were all stunned. The surgery was a success? They want to hire that 'fake doctor'?

D*mn!

Did they mean that the person had godly surgical skills and cured the little girl? The person right in front of them was the director of one of the biggest hospitals in Nanjing. He was quite a reputable man. The fact that he had said that in front of everyone meant that it was definitely true.

The reporters didn't want to let the matter rest like that. They immediately tried to ask more questions as they wanted to find out more. However, Director Chen was quite affected by this. He needed to recover from what had happened. At the same time, he wanted to discuss it with the other experts. This video clip of the surgery was a precious one to the doctors. They needed to learn a lot from Also, they wanted to investigate more so that they could find out more helpful information.

At the police station!

Inspector Yang and his team had taken a set of documents back. Then, a pretty female police officer came over "Inspector Yang, I heard you guys went to Nanjing hospital. How was the girl? Was the surgery a success?"

Inspector Yang looked at her and smiled. "It succeeded. It was perfect and she's recovering well."

The female police officer replied, "Inspector Yang, are you lying? Even if it was a success, she can't be recovering well so soon!"

Inspector Yang waved his hand. "I still have stuff to do. I'll let them tell you about it. I'm curious as to who this mysterious fella is."

The female police officer didn't understand what Inspector Yang meant. Then, she went to ask the other colleagues. However, when she heard about what happened, she was shocked. Then, she recovered from her shock and jumped excitedly. It was as if she had heard the happiest news in her life.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan had already arrived in another city.

Hangzhou.

He had casually chosen a city that was further away. It'd be safer for him to go to a place that was further away. He didn't know if people had found out about what he had done in Nanjing. He was just thinking if he'd get arrested and end up in jail. He was frightened.

After exiting the subway, he went to look for a place to spend the night. He didn't want to think about whether he'd be arrested. He wanted to wait until the task was completed first.

The next day!

The internet was buzzing with the news of the little girl. The reporters had posted online and many people were reading about it. When they read the news, they were extremely happy for the little girl. They had been reading about it and they had even donated money to help the little girl after knowing that her family background wasn't very good.

"Haha, this is the happiest news today."

"I've been anxious the entire time. I was afraid of the surgery failing, but now, I feel so much better after reading this piece of news."

"Wait, did you guys read the article? The person that performed the surgery for her was a mysterious man disguised as a doctor. According to what I know, the best doctor in the hospital wasn't even confident of the surgery being a success."

"I read about it too. This mysterious and silent godly doctor left after being chased by everyone."

"The video clip is out too. Look, he ran so quickly."

"Wait, do you guys remember that a mysterious doctor also appeared in a hospital at Suzhou? He actually successfully cured a patient of cancer."

"D*mn it, that sounds legit but I don't think they're the same person. I feel that the Suzhou incident could be a fake one. How can anyone successfully cure cancer?"

The netizens were discussing intensely on the Internet.

At Nanjing's police station.

A police officer held a document and came hurriedly to Inspector Yang's office. "Inspector Yang, look at this piece of news. Recently, a mysterious man also cured a man of cancer in a hospital in Suzhou. Then, he disappeared. Nobody could find him. These pictures were taken from the Suzhou hospital. They're a little unclear. Meanwhile, this picture was taken from the Nanjing hospital. The person lowered his head and they didn't manage to capture his facial appearance."

Inspector Yang took the documents over and looked at them closely. He started to frown.

The police officer asked, "Inspector Yang, are they the same person?"

Inspector Yang was curious and he examined the pictures carefully. Then, he nodded. "I can confirm that they're the same person. Pass these two pictures to them and let them analyze it to confirm their identities. If they're the same person, it would aid in our investigation greatly."

"Alright." The police officer nodded. He was extremely curious and he wanted to know who the mysterious doctor was and how he possessed such powerful abilities.

Of course, a lot of people on the Internet started to talk about this matter. These people were professional doctors from hospitals all over the world and there were some reputable figures too. They didn't believe in it at all. At the same time, they criticized Nanjing hospital for faking everything even though they were a big hospital.

A lot of people had been watching the news about the little girl closely. Many hospitals knew about the condition of the little girl. If they said that she had recovered from just a mere surgery, it would've been an impossible feat. They definitely did not believe it.

However, Nanjing hospital didn't defend themselves about it. They felt that there wasn't a need to do so and they couldn't be bothered anyway. There was no need to argue with a bunch of ignorant people. They just wanted to find the mysterious doctor as soon as possible and express their sincerity in hiring him.

A good doctor would be snatched by a lot of big hospitals. Furthermore, Doctor Mao wanted to learn more from him.

Upon arriving in a new city, Lin Fan naturally wanted to look around and he decided to visit the best hospital there. If he was in luck, he might even meet someone of his caliber.

Meanwhile, at Cloud Street.

Fraud Tian looked at the video online and asked everyone to gather around, "Come and have a look. Doesn't that guy's back view look like someone?"

Wu You Lan looked over and said, "Hey, isn't that Brother Lin? Why is he on the internet and why did he get chased by so many people?"

She didn't know what had happened but that back view was extremely familiar.

Fraud Tian was stunned. "Why are you so certain that it's him?"

Wu You Lan looked at Fraud Tian. "Of course I am. Let's not just talk about his back view. His clothes were bought by us. That white t-shirt with the print on the back."

"Oh, right!" Fraud Tian gasped. Then, he called Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was looking for a target and when he saw the incoming call, he was annoyed. He wondered what was happening at the shop.

Lin Fan said, "Fraud, what's up? I'm busy now!"

Fraud Tian said, "Why did you go to Nanjing and why were you chased by so many people?"

Lin Fan was stunned. "What do you mean?"

Fraud Tian looked at the news and read, "A mysterious man appeared at Nanjing hospital and saved a little girl..."

Lin Fan was stunned. "D*mn, how do you guys know?"

Fraud Tian said in disbelief, "Was it really you? I didn't recognize you at first but I felt that the person looked familiar. You Lan was the one who identified you. She said that the clothes that you wore were bought by us. Also, the person was running so quickly and that had to be you. I don't get it. Why did you go to Nanjing to treat a patient?"

Lin Fan had initially been extremely happy but now, he was shocked. What was happening? He hadn't even revealed his face and he had already been discovered by them?

It wasn't logical at all.

"Fraud, tell them not to tell anyone about this. Pretend like you've never seen it," Lin Fan said. He even felt like crying. What was going on? How had he suddenly gotten recognized so easily?

Fraud Tian said, "Understood. You want to stay low-key. Don't worry, we won't tell anyone about it."

After hanging up the call.

Lin Fan hit himself on his head. This situation was f*cked up. He had to quickly rush and finish the task as soon as possible.

Chapter 363: Too unreal!

If not for Fraud Tian's reminder, Lin Fan would've thought that he was a pro at hiding himself. He thought that nobody would've been able to find him but it seemed like he had to protect himself better.

Hangzhou was a good place.

Although the weather was a little hot, had bought a new set of clothes as well as a mask, a cap and a pair of sunglasses. He wanted to cover himself up. If someone were to find out about his identity, then he'd surrender himself.

At a big hospital in Hangzhou.

He just walked around the hospital and they had no problems with it. It was a normal sight in the hospital because of albino people who had to cover their bodies up to prevent exposure to the sun.

Lin Fan had experienced the hospital environment for a few times now and it wasn't a good feeling. One would feel low and depressed in hospitals because there seemed to be a form of repression.

He looked around and some of the people there had minor illnesses while others had major illnesses. Life is always changing and people have to take care of themselves. If one contracts an illness, it'd be disastrous. A minor illness can cause suffering and a major one can cause the person to break the bank too.

Based on his past experiences, he already had an idea of what he was going to do. The secret 'weapon' was in his backpack

He looked around but didn't find anyone suitable. He was extremely cautious. He didn't have any professional medical certificates and if he was arrested, he'd definitely suffer a tragic fate.

Then, from the lobby came a loud noise.

"Move away, let the doctor come over."

There was a commotion in the lobby and everyone was gathered there. Patients were sitting in the wheelchairs. There were limited wheelchairs and some people were left lying on the ground. There was blood all over and bits of metal pieces on their bodies. It was a horrific sight.

"What happened?"

"What happened?"

A lot of people were shocked at this sight. Those people had been badly mutilated and it was a painful sight.

"It was a car accident. The bus collided with a big lorry. The passengers were heavily injured and some of them are losing their breath."

Then, the nurses were so anxious that they started to tear up. The doctors had already been informed but the number of casualties was simply too great and they couldn't operate on all of them. They could only choose those that were more heavily injured.

Some of the family members came and when they saw their affected family members, they were horrified. "Doctor, please save my husband."

"Doctor, come over quickly! My son has been vomiting blood! Please come over now!"

The doctors were extremely busy. There were too many casualties and the family members were extremely emotional. It was an obstruction to their treatment.

Then, a doctor shouted, "Send this patient to the operating theatre now. We have to perform a surgery right away or else it would be too late."

"Quick, quick..."

Lin Fan was stunned at the sight. It was too horrific. Then, he didn't think much about it and quickly went to the toilet with his backpack.

In the toilet, Lin Fan quickly opened the backpack and took out the medical attire and accessories. He changed into it and went to the lobby.

"Excuse me..." Lin Fan pushed and went to the patients.

When he just reached, a family member immediately grabbed him. He was extremely emotional. "Doctor, please look at my son. He said my son can't be saved. Please, save my son."

Lin Fan nodded. He went over to the patient and saw that his heart had already stopped. However, as long as one was treated within a certain timeframe, there was a high chance of him being saved. It was because the human body has its own defense mechanism and it can protect itself in times of stress. To an average person, it looked like he was dead. If they missed the opportunity to treat him then it'd be over.

A doctor that was treating another patient shouted over to Lin Fan, "He is hopeless. Quick, come and save those that still can be saved!"

The family members were infuriated when they heard that. "What did you say? My son isn't dead."

The doctor shook his head. It was a helpless situation but he couldn't say much.

Then, a nurse came over and looked at him. "May I know which doctor you are?"

She felt that she had never seen a doctor with such a physical appearance before. Furthermore, he had covered himself up and it seemed a little weird.

Lin Fan stared at her. "Why are you asking me that? Quickly save the people here. Go over there. Leave this youngster to me."

The nurse anxiously nodded. She couldn't have thought of anything else in such a dangerous situation.

The family member said, "Doctor, please save my child."

Lin Fan replied, "Don't shake me. If you continue shaking me, then I can't save him. Stand aside and wait. Don't interfere with my work."

The family member nodded. He was drenched in sweat and trembling with fear. "Doctor, I won't disturb you anymore. Please save my child!"

Lin Fan looked at the patient and there were a lot of superficial injuries but they weren't fatal. However, there was a metal piece that was embedded in his abdomen.

Then, Lin Fan took out several tools from his robe. There wasn't any anesthesia and he could only use the acupuncture needles to numb the area first. Then, he looked at the abdomen and touched it. Trying to save a life in a badly supported environment was precisely when the Encyclopedia's mysterious power had to come into play.

It looked like his liver had burst and if Lin Fan was to operate on him immediately, it would also have been problematic. If they opened up the abdomen and couldn't stop the blood flow, it would result in a large loss of blood. Furthermore, the liver is one of the most important organs in the human body. It couldn't be removed and even if it was, the person wouldn't be able to preserve his own life.

And this wasn't even the most difficult thing. The problem was that the patient would die if he was operated on in such a state.

Then, Lin Fan immediately shouted at the teenager's family member, "Go look for a nurse and get me a type A blood bag."

The family member immediately nodded and rushed to find a nurse. They had to find a blood bag.

Luckily he had prepared a lot of acupuncture needles this time. He pierced them at several acupuncture points of the teenager. This was to prevent heavy loss of blood as the metal piece was going to be taken out later

The family member managed to get a nurse over with a blood bag.

"Blood transfusion..."

The nurse said, "What are you doing?"

Lin Fan said, "I'm asking you to transfuse blood. Why are you asking such stupid questions?"

The family member said, "Quick, the doctor asked you to transfuse blood. Just do it. Or else I'll take it out on you."

The nurse was pretty experienced but she had never been in such a situation before. She anxiously transfused blood for the teenager.

The surrounding people were stunned when they saw the situation. It was horrifying, so much so that they didn't know what to say."

Mysterious powers of the encyclopedia, I'm depending on you this time. Lin Fan took a deep breath and looked at the family members. "I'm going to take out the metal piece now. Don't touch me or he will lose his life. Don't blame me if that happens."

They nodded. "We definitely won't touch you."

The teenager was considered to be heavily injured and there was a 99% chance of him dying. Even the nurse felt that there was no chance of saving him.

His liver might have even been split into two by the metal piece. What use could there be?

*splatter*

Blood spurted out and the nurse's eyes widened. It was as if she had seen a ghost. She almost fainted from the shock.

Lin Fan immediately placed the needles on the two sides of the wound. He gently shook the needles. If they had been in the operation theatre, he would've performed a surgery too. However, he didn't have the equipment to do it and it wasn't safe to do it there. Hence, he could only save his life first.

"Go, bring him to the operating theatre and perform a surgery. This teenager has been saved. The recovery of this person depends on the hospital's surgical capabilities now," Lin Fan said. The mystical boost of the Encyclopedia was insane. The teenager's life was no longer in danger.

"How could it be?" The nurse was in disbelief. She knew what was happening and she didn't believe that the teenager was okay now. It was impossible.

Lin Fan patted the teenager's face. "Wake up..."

The teenager suddenly opened his eyes and everyone was shocked. However, his hands and legs were motionless.

The family members immediately went forward. "Son, you're not dead! Doctor, what happened to my son?"

Lin Fan said, "He's fine now. Quick, bring him to the operating theatre. I have already numbed his entire body. He just regained consciousness but he won't be able to move for two days."

The nurse said, "Doctor, what shall we do with the needles on him?"

Lin Fan looked at her and said, "Just pluck them out during the surgery. Quick, go now."

Everyone was stunned when they saw what had happened. It was too f*cking unreal.

Chapter 364: Sprinting away

The surrounding nurses found it unbelievable. However, Lin Fan found it normal. He thought it wasn't a big deal and it had just been a simple task.

The situation was still extremely chaotic. A lot of doctors and nurses rushed over. It was a tragic incident and there were a lot of casualties. There were a lot of screams and cries. The people that were looking also felt extremely heavy-hearted. Some of them even started to tear up.

A middle-aged man looked at his own five-year-old son and looked towards the doctor. He hadn't suffered any serious injuries but his son was badly injured.

A doctor shook his head helplessly. "Sorry, I really can't save him. We tried our best."

*Clatter!*

The man collapsed to the ground and he looked expressionless. Then, the doctor went to another patient. Although he wasn't in the best mood, he couldn't be shaken by emotions. He had to check on other patients and couldn't delay another second.

The police and reporters came.

It was a major accident.

Some of the patients who were badly injured had been rushed to the operating room while those who had been deemed hopeless by the doctors were given up on.

Although a doctor couldn't give up on a patient easily, there weren't enough doctors and they had to save as many people as they could within the limited time.

The middle-aged man started to cry in front of the trolley.

The people around him were extremely saddened when they saw him. His son had just died and no parent could take that easily.

"Excuse me, you're obstructing me from saving your child." Then, a voice came.

The middle-aged man raised his head and looked at Lin Fan. Then, he cried, "The doctor earlier told me that my son is hopeless. He is dead."

"Do you want your son to be alive or dead? If you want him alive, step aside and don't move," Lin Fan said.

"Alive. I want him alive," the middle-aged man cried.

Lin Fan took a deep breath and said, "Then, move aside!"

The middle-aged man was stunned and he didn't know what to do. The first doctor had said that he was hopeless and now this doctor said he could be saved.

The doctor that had said he was hopeless turned to Lin Fan. "That boy is hopeless. Just go and look at the other patients' situations. There isn't much time. We can't waste time on those that are impossible to save. We're all saddened by those that we can't save but we can't rely on our emotions now."

Lin Fan didn't even raise his head. "It's okay, he still has hope. Your deduction is too rigid. You have to think about that in the future and not give up on any opportunity to save a life."

The doctor shook his head. "You..."

He wanted to ask about his identity as Lin Fan was gambling on someone else's life. However, before he could say that, he was stunned by what he saw.

He saw Lin Fan pressing on the boy's body. Lin Fan was breathing slowly and he opened the bag of acupuncture needles. He placed the needles in the 'conceptual vessel', 'Qi Hai', 'Guan Yuan' and other acupoints. Then, he gently placed both hands on the chest and slowly applied pressure. The boy violently raised his legs. It was as if he had felt a heavy impact.

*crying sound*

The child suddenly started wailing. The middle-aged man was stunned when he saw that. Suddenly, he was happy again. "He's alive, he's alive..."

Lin Fan looked at the crying boy and placed a needle on his neck. "Why are you crying? Take deep breaths!"

The boy didn't understand that at all. But he suddenly stopped crying and he began to take deep breaths.

"Doctor, my son is alive!" the middle-aged man exclaimed excitedly.

Lin Fan said calmly, "Not yet. You pressed him down too heavily just now. He couldn't breathe and the lack of oxygen caused a little brain damage. We have to operate on his brain."

"Huh? Brain surgery?" The middle-aged man was stunned. Then, he nodded. "As long as he'll survive, I'll do anything. Even if he has some side effects in the future, it's fine."

"It's not that serious." Lin Fan touched the top of the boy's head and placed a needle there. "This is the Bai Hui acupoint, it helps to reinvigorate the brain. You probably don't even know what I'm talking about. Step aside and watch."

As Lin Fan acted more calmly, the middle-aged man felt even more hopeful. The man even thought that he was a godly doctor and that it wouldn't be a problem for him.

The previous doctor who had said that the boy was hopeless was extremely stunned. Then, he raised his thumb. "Thank you, I guess I was too firm with my deduction."

Lin Fan waved his hand. "Continue to save them. Tell me when you run into a problem."

The doctor wasn't infuriated when he heard that. Instead, he felt even more hopeful. He nodded. "Alright."

He knew what Lin Fan meant by that. He wanted him to hand over patients that he wasn't confident in saving.

The surrounding crowd was stunned.

"Look, he saved another person."

"Didn't he say that the boy died? He's actually alive now."

"He's a godly doctor. This hospital actually has a godly doctor like him."

The police continued to ensure that the situation was free from any distractions. They weren't doctors and they couldn't save anyone. They could only follow their standard procedures and give them the space they needed.

"Doctor, I'm not confident about this patient. He is bleeding profusely and his heart has stopped." He didn't know how to greet Lin Fan and didn't recognize him.

Lin Fan went forward. "Go and continue with the others. Leave it to me."

He roughly knew the situation at his fingertips. The patients' conditions were extremely serious. It was a matter of life and death. If they had received prompt treatment when they had first gotten into the accident, they might have been saved immediately. It was a little too late for them to receive treatment at the hospital. The doctors were helpless but Lin Fan could do it.

The major class of medical knowledge was indeed a powerful one. If not for the mystical boost, he would've needed to spend a lot of energy on saving the patients. With the mystical boost of the Encyclopedia, it didn't seem like a big problem.

He didn't know what exactly the mystical boost was. Could it have given him some immortal powers?

Time passed quickly.

Lin Fan had looked at almost ten people that had been pronounced helpless by the doctors. He treated them and it seemed like all of them had been saved.

They just needed prompt follow-up procedures from the hospital and they'd be fine.

However, the most unfortunate one was the person who had been pronounced dead upon arriving at the hospital. He was the driver. His injuries were too serious and he had died on the way there.

If Lin Fan had been at the site of the accident, he might have been able to help. But the person was already dead now. Nothing could be done.

The crowd started to clap. The doctors and nurses collapsed onto the ground in fatigue. They had finally managed to get the situation under control.

Then, the doctors turned to the unknown godly doctor.

They knew that if he hadn't been there, there would've been even more fatal casualties.

The reporters recorded everything and looked at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan tried to move away discreetly. He wanted to leave immediately.

"Doctor," a police officer greeted Lin Fan.

When Lin Fan heard it, he ran away immediately.

The police officer was stunned. It was as if he was still in shock. He didn't know why Lin Fan ran away after hearing his words.

"Quick, follow him. See if the doctor has another important task," the police team leader said.

"Okay." The police officers followed him and the reporters were close behind them.

Lin Fan sprinted and when he turned back, he was stunned. D*mn, they're actually following me.

"Doctor, wait!" The police officers shouted.

"Wait your f*cking sister. I'm trying to run away," Lin Fan said. He couldn't have stopped. He continued sprinting away.

But what Lin Fan hadn't expected was that the police officers started using electric bikes and followed him. The speed was pretty fast too.

Chapter 365: Not that simple

The electric bikes were chasing after him. The police officers didn't know why the godly doctor suddenly ran for his life. Perhaps he might have thought of something or even wanted to go to another hospital for an important surgery.

"Doctor, stop! Tell us where you're heading to, we'll send you there," the police officers shouted. At the same time, they were murmuring about how the doctor could run so fast. The electric bike had been specially modified and it was pretty quick. However, they still couldn't catch up with the doctor. It was a little weird.

The reporters were riding electric bikes and chasing after them as well. The cameras were pointed to the front.

"Quick, quicker!"

"Bro, it's our fastest speed already."

"We can't even get a shot."

The reporters were anxious and they didn't know what to do. How can the doctor manage to run so fast? Did he eat some pills?

Lin Fan was speechless. What's happening? Are these people crazy? Why are they chasing after me?

He couldn't get arrested. Otherwise, he would definitely be imprisoned and his task wouldn't be completed.

"Stop chasing me, I have something on," Lin Fan shouted.

The police officer said, "Doctor, we are not chasing you. Please stop and we will send you to where you want to go."

The policeman sitting behind said, "Drive faster."

"This is the fastest already," the driver said.

"D*mn, how could it be? Our fastest speed is 50km/h."

"Who knows? How is the doctor running so fast? There must be a problem with this vehicle. The mechanic isn't a good man. He definitely slowed down our speed. We can't even chase after one man. What is going on?"

Lin Fan looked over and the policemen were still chasing him. He thought that he had to think of a way to escape. Then, he turned at the corner and jumped over a few walls. He instantly disappeared from their sight.

Lin Fan hid somewhere and smiled when he saw the police had left. The problem was solved.

The police called back, "Sir, we lost him. The doctor is missing."

At the hospital.

"Did anyone of you recognize the doctor?" the policeman asked.

The nurses and doctors looked at each other and shook their heads. "We don't know him."

The surrounding crowd said, "Do you think he's the godly doctor that was reported in the news recently? He appeared in Nanjing and ran extremely quickly. Then, he vanished."

"Yeah, that seems like it. Did you guys realize that the doctor covered himself up and his medical skills were insane? Everyone could be saved by his treatment. I think he definitely is the man."

The townsfolk started to discuss intensely amongst themselves.

The next day!

Hangzhou's various news agencies started to report about the incident that had happened the previous day. At the same time, this mysterious doctor became famous online.

There were a lot of posts about him. There was one that said, "Yesterday, there was a huge crowd of traffic accident casualties that arrived at a hospital in Hangzhou. The situation was intense and many of them had sustained serious injuries. The doctors and nurses were extremely busy and anxious. A man who was well covered up in a white robe suddenly appeared. His medical skills were insanely good. More than ten people had been deemed hopeless by the hospital's doctors but his medical capabilities saved all of them. I was one of those in the crowd and I was stunned. Then, the godly doctor suddenly fled. The policemen went after him but didn't manage to get him. I heard he ran exceptionally quickly. The police drove electric bikes but couldn't even catch up to him. This godly doctor is definitely the one that's been mentioned on the Internet. He is famous in various cities. According to what we know, he's been to Suzhou, Hangzhou, and Nanjing. Who knows where he's heading to next?"

Thousands of people replied to this post and there were more than a hundred thousand views.

"D*mn, is that true? Could he be the legendary godly doctor? Why did he run away?"

"I can't think of the reason too. I have been reading the news ever since it was reported but I still can't understand why he ran away."

"There are a few reasons: 1. He's too ugly. 2. He wants to stay low-profile. 3. He's not a doctor and he pretended to be one. 4. He has no medical certificates. 5. He is crazy."

"I support 1."

"I support 2."

"I support 3."

A lot of people started discussing it.

At the Nanjing police station.

"Inspector Yang, there's been another news article. A big hospital in Hangzhou received a large batch of casualties. According to our investigation, we believe that the godly doctor appeared again. However, there isn't enough evidence to prove that it's the same person," the policeman said.

Inspector Yang frowned. "That's weird. Why do you think this godly doctor keeps running away? It's as if he's playing a game."

The policeman replied, "I don't know."

Inspector Yang looked at the limited documents and the drawing that he had. "Go and do a match and see how many people match these pieces of evidence."

"Alright." The police officer nodded.

After a while, he returned.

"Sir, the results are out. There are a total of 11860 people. There's a large disparity in this portrait. Do you think we got it wrong?" The police officer asked.

Inspector Yang shook his head. "It's too difficult. The most obvious thing is to choose the one that runs the fastest. However, that's challenging too."

A few days later.

The Internet went wild. After appearing in Hangzhou, this mysterious doctor had appeared in two other cities.

He had saved a lot of incurable people in the two other cities. It created an uproar in the medical industry. Countless people wanted to know who this godly doctor was but nobody knew.

Although Inspector Yang and his team had some evidence, there was too much work involved. The rate of the investigation was quite slow too. Hence, they didn't make much progress.

The five hospitals, in particular, were looking for the godly doctor as they wanted to employ him immediately to their hospitals.

At that moment, in a certain place.

Lin Fan waited patiently. "Why is the task still incomplete? I've been to five cities."

"Could it be that I have to return to Shanghai before I'm considered done?"

Then, Lin Fan immediately booked a ticket to Shanghai. He had traveled an extremely long distance for this mission. He had been chased by people everywhere and nobody had managed to catch him.

At Shanghai's train station.

Lin Fan stood at the station and took a deep breath. Task, come. I've made ample preparation.

However, the notification sound didn't come.

D*mn, do you have to be like that? Do you really want me to work to death? Lin Fan gasped internally. Then, he looked at the Encyclopedia closely.

'Task: Become a barefoot doctor, help the public by practicing medicine, go to five different cities.'

Then, Lin Fan suddenly thought of something. Although the Encyclopedia was reasonable and generous, it loved to play word games.

D*mn, he had suffered for so many days. However, it had not been in vain. He had saved a lot of people and that made him feel better.

After thinking about it for a moment, Lin Fan gradually understood that the tenth page of the major knowledge classification wasn't that easy to be completed.

A major classification was indeed unlike a minor one. It wasn't that simple.

It looked like he had to keep on grinding.

Chapter 366: The commemoration day

Cloud Street!

"Little Boss is back..."

"The Little Boss that disappeared for so long is finally back!"

The shop owners and the townsfolk were extremely emotional as they had been waiting for a long time. They had been dreaming of the magical taste of the scallion pancakes ever since Little Boss had disappeared.

"Woof, woof!" Elder Dog Nicholas charged over and wagged his tail. He started going around Lin Fan's legs.

He was feeling pretty low. He had hustled for so long but the task hadn't been completed. Then, he decided to take it slow. He was already extremely powerful after unlocking a major classification of knowledge. It already made him one of the most powerful human beings on earth. Furthermore, he could live a carefree and happy life. There was no need to overthink things.

"Hi guys, it's been long." Lin Fan waved at everyone and smiled. He kind of missed them after not seeing them for so long.

One of the shop owners, Elder Zhang, said, "Little Boss, do you remember what occasion is coming up?"

Lin Fan smiled. "How could I forget? The 20th of each month is a special day for Cloud Street. Let's prepare ourselves."

"Haha, we've been looking forward to this day." Elder Zhang smiled. Everyone was the same, they also had been looking forward to this day. They could do something meaningful and also taste Little Boss's delicacies. It was like killing two birds with one stone.

Wu You Lan came out of the shop and looked at Lin Fan with a mellow look. She had missed him after not seeing him in so long.

"Woo!"

Suddenly, the surrounding shop owners made some weird noises as Wu You Lan hugged Lin Fan. "Brother Lin, we've missed you."

"You must be wanting to take advantage of me." Lin Fan smiled. "Actually, I've missed all of you too."

Fraud Tian looked at Lin Fan with a suspicious look. "We need to have a talk later."

They hadn't known what Lin Fan had gone out for but when they saw the news online, they realized that he had gone to treat patients. Since when did this fella possess medical skills? He even caused an uproar in the society.

A godly doctor!

Countless people online were looking for the godly doctor but nobody knew who he was.

Wu You Lan let go of Lin Fan and smiled. "Do you know that we've been reading news about you online?"

"Shh, don't say it too loudly. I have to stay low-profile," Lin Fan said softly. He felt that this matter was a little complicated and he didn't know how to resolve it if people were to find out about this.

Wu You Lan nodded. "Don't worry, we won't tell anyone. But are they true?"

Lin Fan smiled mysteriously. "What do you think?"

Zhao Zhong Yang rushed out. "Everyone, Master Lin is back. You can see his glory in the future again!"

Lin Fan waved his hand at the camera with a smile. Although he had wasted his efforts this time, he had gone to five cities to save people and that felt great, especially when he had managed to save those that had been deemed incurable. That feeling couldn't be described by words. It had to be personally experienced.

In the shop.

Fraud Tian gasped, "You're made it big this time. I read the online news and there are a lot of people that are looking for you. If they realize that it's you, I'm afraid this shop will be packed to the brim."

Lin Fan looked at Zhao Zhong Yang. Zhao Zhong Yang nodded. "The broadcast has been turned off."

"I won't talk about it now. I don't know what to say. Let's just hide this and not tell anyone," Lin Fan said.

Fraud Tian replied, "Actually, if we become a clinic, it wouldn't be bad either. Furthermore, I'm not too confident in our hospitals right now."

Lin Fan smiled. "Why? Did you get harmed there?"

Fraud Tian nodded. "Of course. I went to the hospital when I had slight flu and they wanted to test my blood. They even did some other tests on me. If not for my resilience and vitality, I'd have spent all my money there."

Lin Fan smiled. "It's all for your own good. It's good to do a check-up once in a while. Alright, I won't speak nonsense anymore. It's getting a little difficult."

"After settling the stuff here, I'll be going to get a medical certificate. Without it, I can't see patients openly," Lin Fan said.

Fraud Tian smiled. "There's no hurry. It's already the 20th tomorrow. I've prepared the stuff and the people at the supermarket know that we are going to the children's welfare organization, so they charged us lower prices for these."

Lin Fan nodded. "Alright, let's go tomorrow. I'll contact the people in charge too."

In the WeChat group.

Lin Fan posted: "It's the 20th tomorrow and we will be going to the Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute. Those that lost the bet, please don't forget about it."

A few seconds later, some people replied in the group.

He Cheng Han: "Master, don't worry. I've prepared for it a long time ago. There are two thousand toys and a thousand of them are specially handcrafted. They're beautiful."

Jin Yun Ming: "I've also prepared my gifts. A thousand children's outfits."

"A hundred laptops have been prepared."

"A hundred smart learning devices have been prepared."

Zhu Zhu: "Your gifts are all so expensive. I just bought a lot of tidbits."

Li Hao: "I prepared a thousand bookshelves. I've already ordered them and they'll be delivered tomorrow."

Lin Fan was stunned. "D*mn, you guys have been preparing for it!"

He Cheng Han: "Haha, how could we forget? We've remembered it."

"Thank you, thank you." Lin Fan smiled. It was a great feeling. There was power in unity because if they had depended on only one person, they wouldn't have managed this.

Lin Fan: "Alright, see you guys tomorrow."

*Ding ding!*

Then, Wang Ming Yang called.

Wang Ming Yang said, "The paperwork has been done. All that's left is for you to sign it."

Lin Fan was shocked. "So fast?"

Wang Ming Yang replied, "Haha, look at who's processing it. How could it be slow?"

Lin Fan nodded. "Alright, see you there tomorrow and I'll sign it. Thank you so much."

Wang Ming Yang replied, "You're being too polite. I'm a little unhappy. Why did you thank me? I have to do one or two meaningful deeds in my lifetime."

"Haha..."

Then, they chatted for a while and hung up.

The next day!

Cloud Street was extremely crowded and lively. The shops were all closed and there was a huge van at the street entrance. There were some private cars behind it.

The surrounding townsfolk were stunned when they saw this. They didn't know what was happening.

Chapter 367: A Slight Annoyance

"Little Boss, are you selling scallion pancakes today?"

"Why is everyone closed today? Did something happen?"

"What is going on? Aren't they a bit domineering having so many cars here? Could it be that they are having some sort of driving tour?"

The surrounding residents were all in deep discussion, having no idea what was going on.

Lin Fan laughed and said, "Everyone, I forgot to tell you, on the 20th of each month, the people of Cloud Street will volunteer at the Children's Welfare Institute. On this day, we will all close our shops, I hope you all understand.

A resident replied, "So that's how it is. We can definitely understand, this is a very meaningful act."

"I never knew that the Little Boss was so caring, I want to join in too."

"Little Boss, we all wish to join in. Are there any requirements?"

Lin Fan laughed and replied, "There are definitely no requirements. It's volunteer work, so whenever you feel like helping, you can go and help. Also, it does not have to be a one-time thing, if anyone wants to come again next time, you can register with us over here."

"Master Lin..." At this moment, the reporter, Chu Yuan, appeared in the distance. He was smiling as he said, "Master Lin, I've come here early because I knew beforehand about the significance of the 20th to the people of Cloud Street."

Lin Fan had not expected that Chu Yuan would come again. "The big reporter Chu is here to help as well?"

Chu Yuan laughed and replied, "It's only natural that I would. I'm not only here to help out, I'm also here to take pictures. I've managed to fight for a page on the papers for you guys. This act of goodwill must definitely be announced to everyone."

Lin Fan gave Chu Yuan a pat on the shoulder and said, "Good, I really appreciate it. Come, let's get in the cars and go there early. There are a lot of things to be done today."

"No problem," Chu Yuan replied as he carried his video camera and boarded the car. Although Chu Yuan was just a reporter, he was also a man with a high moral standard. To many reporters, this act of charity was a small scale event. But to Chu Yuan, it was this kind of news that deserved to be broadcasted.

At the entrance to Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute, Director Huang and a few of his employees were waiting at the door.

Director Huang said, "Inspector Liu, I really don't know how to thank you all."

Liu Xiao Tian waved him off and replied, "You're welcome, Director Huang. However, you don't need to thank me for this, you should be thanking Master Lin. He is a kind-hearted man. Nowadays, there are a lot of Children's Welfare Institutes. Some of them are just out there to scam the government's money and the money of kind-hearted people. Recently, there were two of them that were exposed and sparked a huge controversy, but also caused a huge backlash to those legit organizations."

Director Huang nodded. She was aware of the whole situation. There were a lot of children welfare institutes around and it was super hard to get funding from the government. To many of these institutes, feeding the children 3 meals a day and satisfying their nutritional needs was very tough.

Inspector Liu looked in the other direction and said, "who are those people?"

Director Huang laughed and replied, "Those are some hot and rising celebrities. Looks like they've come to the Children's Welfare Institute to express their sympathy but they have been standing there in discussion for a while and have not come in yet."

Liu Xiao Tian's eyebrows furrowed and he said, "Are they just here for show?"

Director Huang replied with an embarrassed laughter and said, "That could be one of the reasons. Regardless, it is still a good thing. As long as the kids can gain something, it's already pretty good. There isn't really anything wrong with them showing off a little."

At that moment, the celebrities came in with some of the workers.

At that time, the sun was blistering hot. A few of the male and female celebrities were wearing sunglasses and their staff members were holding umbrellas for them. Then, one of the staff members came over and said, "Director Huang, we brought some gifts along for the children, however, we need the children to cooperate with us for a bit."

Director Huang replied, "May I ask what you need them to cooperate with?"

The staff member laughed and replied, "It's very simple. I need the children to hold out the banner that we gave and cheer. Then, get them to pose with our celebrities so we can take a few pictures."

The male actor, Jin Yang, who had just acted in some Han dynasty show, impatiently said, "Hurry up, the weather is so hot, my skin is going to turn black."

The young lady next to him, who barely looked 20, was also being very self-centered and said, "This Director Huang is troublesome. Our time is precious and yet she is still having other activities behind. We brought so many gifts for them today, can't she just be more flexible and just cooperate with us for awhile?"

Director Huang frowned and felt a bit displeased.

At this moment, a muscular looking man appeared and said, "All you celebrities, will it kill you guys to not try to promote yourselves for once? This is a Children's Welfare Institute and all of you all are acting like this just to create an image that you guys are kind. It's disgusting."

With this sentence, all the celebrities were infuriated.

"Who are you? What gives you the right to say that to us?"

"You think we're here to promote ourselves? What a joke. We are here to spread our kindness. Also, we are superstars. We just need to spread the word and this Children's Welfare Institute will become famous and more people will be drawn here."

Director Huang pulled the man aside and said, "Han Lu, don't argue with them."

Han Lu looked at them and said, "I just can't stand this kind of people. On the outside, they say that they are just here to spread joy but they are just here for self-promotion. They even brought a banner here to have the kids thank them. Do you guys even know their names? Have you guys even interacted with these children? These children are already in a very pitiful state and now they are abused by you disgusting people for self-promotion."

Inspector Liu was standing at the side, feeling very annoyed. He said, "What are you guys doing? All of you celebrities should just leave, you are all not welcome here."

Looking across, Jin Yang, who was applying makeup, laughed and said, "You welfare institute people have such bad attitudes. All you all need to do is help us out a little and you can gain our goods. Where else can you find such a good deal? We've been to so many other Children Welfare Institutes and we've never met anyone like you all."

"F*ck you, are you all looking for a fight?" Han Lu exploded in anger and he cracked his knuckles. He had been working in the Children's Welfare Institute for almost a month and when he had first started out, someone had told him that Master Lin came often and liked kind people. He had thought that if he was able to do good things here and Master Lin saw it, he would definitely accept take him as his disciple.

However, in the month that he had been volunteering there, after eating and living with the children, his mindset had gradually changed. He used all the money he had earned from the MMA to buy things for the children and he loved hanging out with them.

Director Huang grabbed onto Han Lu and said, "Calm down, don't do anything rash."

She felt that Han Lu was a good man, had a good heart, got along with the children well and he was strong. During times in the Children's Welfare Institute when there were things she could not do, Han Lu could do it. He was also able to keep the Children's Welfare Institute safe as robbers would be too scared to come in. Han Lu would chase them away.

At this moment, a huge cluster of cars arrived.

A big truck stopped in front of the Children's Welfare Institute and a small car followed behind.

Lin Fan smiled as he got off the vehicle and said, "Inspector Liu, you're here too."

Liu Xiao Tian looked at Lin Fan and smiled. "I knew you were coming today, so I came down early to wait for you."

When Han Lu saw Lin Fan, his face lit up with a smile. He had completely forgotten about his anger from before.

When Director Huang saw Master Lin, she also let out a smile.

Lin Fan looked to the other side and said, "Hey, what are they doing?"

Liu Xiao Tian was about to open his mouth when Han Lu beat him to it and said, "Master Lin, they are here as an act only. They said they are here to give gifts to the Children's Welfare Institute but they are really just here to use the children for self-promotion."

When Lin Fan looked at Han Lu, his heart groaned a little, wondering why this man was here. However, the situation looked like it was upsetting a lot of people.

Chapter 368: Left in his underwear

The male star Jin Yang came up to Lin Fan and spoke to him in a mocking way, saying, "Why are you talking like that? We have come here with good intentions, to give them gifts, and all we have is just a small request. Is that too much to ask? It can't be that hard to just accommodate us for a bit."

Lin Fan looked at the man in front of him and he was happy for a moment, replying, "Aren't you that person who acted in the 'Seven Heaven Romantic Love'? What's your name again?"

"Jin Yang."

"Oh." Lin Fan nodded and said, "So you were the one who acted in that retarded Han dynasty film. I felt that all the retarded actors in it were very well suited for their roles."

Jin Yang had been very happy at the start but after hearing that, his expression totally changed as he replied, "What do you mean?"

"How could you say something like that?" a staff member at the side shouted.

The young and pretty actress who was standing at the side said, "Who are you to say such horrible things? Do you even know what you're saying?"

Lin Fan did not even look at them but just replied with one word, "Leave!"

"What did you say?" Jin Yang was furious. He had risen up and become a superstar and he had never been in such a situation before. He had never met someone who was not welcoming to him and then here he was. His first time coming to the Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute and he was in this bad situation.

Lin Fan waved them off, saying, "Was I not clear just now when I asked you all to leave? Let me repeat it. Get lost."

The few celebrities and their staff members were all thoroughly pissed off and they all pointed at Lin Fan and said, "Who in the world are you? How can you be so rash with your words? Can you look carefully before you don't trust us? Also, please watch your language, do you know who you're talking to? A small amount of their power is enough to completely destroy you."

Liu Xiao Tian patted Lin Fan on the shoulder and said, "Calm down."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "How can something so small rattle me?"

Zhang Zhong Yan took out his phone and said, "Let me take a picture of all your big mouths. Superstars, huh? If I post this online, it will definitely blow up."

"What are you doing? Give me your phone. You better delete that video."

"He just took a video of us."

Lin Fan shook his head and said, "Today is a special day, I don't wish to have to deal with you b*stards. I still stand by what I said. Get lost."

Jin Yang said, "Don't try and run away. You better apologize to us right now. If not, this is not over."

"Come out, everyone," Lin Fan shouted backward.

All the shop owners came out from their private vehicles and, from behind, walked towards Lin Fan and said, "Little Boss, what happened?"

When Jin Yang saw all the people in front of him, he started to tremble inside but then, when he thought about his social status, he was not afraid anymore. He became even more thick-skinned and said, "What are you trying to do?"

The director was at the Children's Welfare Institute and he did not wish to cause a ruckus. If they were not at a welfare institute, he would just chase these b*stards away. Moreover, Inspector Liu was here also, so they definitely could not beat them up.

Lin Fan raised up two fingers and said, "Right now, I'm giving you two options. You can either leave right now, or I'll get my people to strip you all of all your clothes and you guys can streak the town, whether you believe it or not."

The female celebrities were all very scared and wanted to leave right now. They were all not fans of this kind of activity. However, Jin Yang felt like he was being threatened. He knew that he was a celebrity and he was so well known. Also, there were so many people around here. If he were to leave now, he'd lose face completely.

"Haha, let me tell you something. Firstly, I'm not leaving without an apology. Secondly, I don't believe you have the balls to do something like that. If you as much as touch me, I'll let you know what regret is," Jin Yang replied with aggression.

The staff members at the side could not help sighing. Brother Jin had always possessed such vigor.

Lin Fan immediately waved him off and said, "The male will be stripped to his underwear. I'll leave the females alone. To have to come to the children's welfare institute to promote yourselves, you all must be very desperate already."

Jin Yang scanned his surroundings and could not help letting out a sneer, "Let's see who has the balls to take action first."

Then, the shop owners went into action and surrounded Jin Yang without hesitation. They said to Lin Fan, "Little boss, do we really strip him?"

Lin Fan nodded and said, "Strip him..."

Suddenly, all the people at the scene were completely stunned. They asked, "What are you all doing?"

"F*ck you, I'm a superstar, let go of me."

"Let go...."

Lin Fan looked at Liu Xiao Tian and whispered, "Inspector Liu, I don't think you should stay here. Wait for me inside."

Liu Xiao Tian helplessly smiled and then left the area. It was really like Master Lin had said. It was not suitable for him to be there, so he decided to stand aside.

"Ah!"

The ladies let out a scream of shock but just like Master Lin had ordered, none of the ladies were touched. However, Jin Yang was stripped completely, left only with his underwear.

"Hehe, there's nothing great about your body. There's so much fatty meat and your body looks chubby. Your clothes hide a lot of it." Lin Fan analyzed the stripped Jin Yang and he could not help laughing. Then, he said, "My name is Lin Fan and my shop is along Cloud Street. If you're not happy, you can come and find me there."

The surrounding townsfolk looked at what was going on and they were all stunned.

"Sh*t, that's Jin Yang."

"Jin Yang is my idol. Why has he been stripped completely? However, he did say on his Weibo that he has a 6 pack. It doesn't even look like it and he even has a beer belly."

"Sigh, that's really disappointing. He is my favorite star and seeing him naked, his body is not even equal to mine. I've hurt my eyes for nothing."

The residents all took out their phones and started filming. Jin Yang snarled, "Don't record this. Everyone, stop recording."

He did not want to imagine further. This whole fiasco had been posted online already and he did not want to think about how big of an impact it would have.

"You...you..." Jin Yang pointed at Lin Fan furiously, wishing he could kill Lin Fan.

Lin Fan looked at him and said, "What? You still don't want to leave? Then I'll strip you of your underwear too."

Jin Yang looked at Lin Fan with fierce eyes and said, "Okay, you win."

Then, with the protection of his staff members, Jin Yang dejectedly left the scene.

"Cheh..." Lin Fan looked on with disdain. Then, Lin Fan smiled and said, "Okay, let's get moving. This b*stard wasted so much of our time. It's definitely not worth it."

"Woo..." the shop owners let out a cheer and then started moving the things from the van.

Then at this moment, a stream of vans came from the distance.

Wang Ming Yang stuck his head out from the van and said, "We're here."

Chairman Huang looked on dumbfounded and said, "Master Lin, this is..."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "They are all kind-hearted people, here to give stuff to the Children's Welfare Institute."

Vehicle after vehicle, it was really very chaotic. This kind of things was something only Lin Fan could do. This was probably something to do with a person's abilities but since he had the ability, no one could blame him.

Wang Ming Yang came down from the vehicle. He pointed at the vehicles behind and said, "How is it? Isn't it spectacular?"

Lin Fan laughed. "Spectacular, really spectacular."

Wang Ming Yang smiled and said, "Just wait till we bring everything down, it'll look even more spectacular. There's even some more behind. Everyone really put in a great amount of effort this time. However, the thing most worth celebrating is that the file has already been registered by the authorities, so once we sign it, we can assume ownership of the place."

Lin Fan nodded and replied, "Understood. I've prepared for it already."

Chapter 369: Trouble Again

Lin Fan had not thought that Han Lu would be here. When he first saw that b*stard, he had been surprised. This b*stard was really too patient and persistent in trying to become his apprentice. However, this time, he felt like the situation was a little different.

"Not trying to be my apprentice anymore?" Lin Fan quietly asked.

Han Lu shook his head and replied, "Not anymore. I realized that volunteering here is my calling in life. I'm teaching these children shadow boxing again."

Lin Fan gave him a pat on the shoulder and said, "Very good. It's very noble of you and I support you completely."

Han Lu nodded and said, "However, if Master Lin has any advice and wants to change anything, feel free to tell me. I definitely won't reject it."

"Relax, I have nothing to change," Lin Fan smiled and said.

Wang Yang Ming pat Lin Fan on the shoulder and said, "Have you signed it yet?"

Lin Fan smiled and replied, "Don't worry, we'll settle this later."

He Cheng Han was waiting for the workers to arrive to instruct them and conduct the unloading of the stuff. They had brought a lot of things with them like computers, clothes, toys, books, etc. They definitely could not organize them properly by themselves.

"This goes here. Don't put the books too high up and push the bookshelves against the wall so the children don't knock into it while playing."

"Take note of the wiring when installing the computers. I don't want any exposed wires. This is to prevent electrocution."

"There are toys over there. Make sure every child gets one."

The whole scene was extremely busy. Everyone was all busy with something. Even the shop owners were all busy playing with the children.

Lin Fan took a deep breath and said, "I'm going to go to the kitchen. It's going to be a busy day ahead."

Wang Ming Yang smiled and said, "I've been waiting for this moment for a long time. I told them that your cooking is uncomparable in deliciousness but they didn't believe me. Time to let them see for themselves."

Lin Fan laughed and said, "What makes you think you are going to get to eat it."

Wang Ming Yang suddenly realized. "Oh yeah, there are so many children here. They are definitely the priority but I'm sure they won't mind if I take a bite or two."

Lin Fan helplessly laughed, saying, "Stealing food from children, you're really something."

"That's your fault for making such delicious food." This sentence was not one of flattery but the truth. His own brother's skills were really off the charts. Lin Fan's food was the most delicious, none came close to it. If he were to become a chef and open a restaurant, becoming the best and most famous in the world was not a problem. Of course, Wang Ming Yang knew that he did not want to open one so it was just a fantasy.

In the commercial vehicle outside, Jin Yang who had been stripped completely had a very gloomy expression. He said, "Disgusting. It's really too disgusting. That b*stard had the nerve to do that to me."

His manager was also furious, saying, "How could he do something like that? You are a public figure. I don't even want to think about what kind of impact the video will have once it is circulated."

*Pa!* Jin Yang smacked his phone while inside the car and he said, "Now what are we going to do? I've become a laughing stock."

The manager replied, "I'll have to bring this up to the company and let them handle it. However, when the word spreads on the news tomorrow, regardless of the situation, there's going to be huge consequences. You see, I keep telling you to work out but you never listen and now that you've been stripped and your figure is shown to the world, all that fake boasting you've been doing on your Weibo has been exposed."

Jin Yang was silent for before he said, "Who knew that something like this would happen. No, I won't avoid this problem. I'm going to give a call to Sister Zhang and let her handle this. She has a large number of contacts in Shanghai. Also, if I have a public relations disaster, she would be the one affected the most."

His manager nodded and said, "Seems like the best way."

Meanwhile, inside the building, a group of people was gathered together and the children were all in pairs. Ever since the news of human trafficking groups had been released to the public, many children had been claimed one after another. However, there were still many children left in the Children's Welfare Institute and at the same time, there was a steady flow of children coming in.

"Ah, that smells heavenly. Where is that smell coming from?"

"Could it be our meal for today? Wang Ming Yang said that we are in for a treat today and I have no idea what he meant by that."

"Food is ready..." The shop owners said as they came out of the kitchen with exquisite and delicious food.

Wang Ming Yang smiled and told the group, "Don't try and steal the food. It's all for the children. However, you can sample a bit. Master Lin's amazing cooking is not something that you can buy with money."

He Cheng Han asked with surprise, "Are you sure? You're making this out to be a little unbelievable."

Wang Ming Yang smiled and said, "Unbelievable? Just wait till you try it, then you'll understand."

In the kitchen, Lin Fan was meticulously preparing dish after dish. The whole kitchen was filled with the fragrance of his cooking. To the Welfare Institute workers who smelled the fragrance, it was a torture to be in this kitchen and only be able to see but not eat the food.

Meanwhile, there were many sounds of surprise coming from outside.

"This is really amazing."

"This amazing taste. I've never tried anything like this in my lifetime."

When Wang Ming Yang saw this scene, he started to laugh. "It's just like I said. Master Lin's cooking is not like anyone else's. If you all want to eat this again, it's only available here. However, control yourselves a bit, the food is meant for the children and if you all eat them all, what are they going to eat?"

The children impatiently looked at them and said, "Uncle, I want to eat some too."

"Auntie, I haven't eaten yet."

"Haha..."

At that moment, the entire canteen was filled with laughter. The children also slowly started to come out of their shells and came out to try this delicious food.

Time slowly passed by and Lin Fan was starting to feel tired, so he went outside and pulled out a cigarette.

He Cheng Hano came from behind and said, "Master Lin, you smoke too?"

Lin Fan smiled and said, "I don't usually do it. Only when I'm tired, I'll smoke a stick. Why did you come out? Aren't you supposed to be inside playing with them?"

He Cheng Han smiled and said, "I came out to thank you. I'm really grateful for what you did for my son last time."

Lin Fan waved him off and said, "It's nothing. It was just a small issue."

Meanwhile, outside the Children's Welfare Institute, a limousine came to a halt. A middle-aged lady came out from the car and there were also many commercial vehicles following along. From the vehicle, there were a few bodyguards that came out and those bodyguards looked very well-trained.

Sister Zhang did not say a word but she had a very fierce outlook, giving the impression that she was a very powerful woman. She opened her mouth and said, "What are you guys doing? Do you all not know you are public figures? You guys should know how big of an impact something like this will have, especially on the company. Where are those people?"

Jin Yang nodded and said, "They are over there."

Sister Zhang looked gave Jin Yang a glare and said, "I'll handle this. Regardless of the circumstance, I will find a solution."

"Sister Zhang, I'm not happy with this. We can't just let this go simply," Jin Yang said.

Sister Zhang replied, "We'll discuss this later. Don't you worry, you are our company's actor. We won't let you lose out."

Jin Yang felt very assured after hearing Sister Zhang say that. Other people may not have known who she was but he did. She was a big woman with many connections.

Chapter 370: I won't let you disgrace me

Lin Fan and He Cheng Han were in deep conversation. Although the two did not have much in common, He Cheng Han really admired Lin Fan. He had heard from Wang Ming Yang that Lin Fan was going to take over Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute and to him, that sort of action was really one to be admired.

This was a strenuous task that brought with it very little gain and it was also a sink financially, requiring a lot of resources. Accounting for the fact that there were hundreds of mouths to feed as well as many other factors, it was definitely not going to be a small sum of money. It was definitely not something many people would go into and if it was not for the government, no one would dare to do something like this.

Even the richest man in the world would not dare to go into something so strenuous and unrewarding. After all, it was something that had no personal benefit, so who would be willing to do it?

However, the thing that made him admire Lin Fan the most was that not only was he willing to do it, he did it with no hesitation.

Lin Fan put out his cigarette and threw it into the bin at the side. "Let's go in."

"Wait." He Cheng Han was about to nod his head when suddenly, he saw a few people enter through the door. He suddenly let out a smile and said, "Ah, what a surprise. What is she doing here?"

Lin Fan glanced up and saw the celebrity that he had just dealt earlier with and he looked like he had come with ill-intentions. He said, "You recognize her?"

"I know her but not very well," He Cheng Han replied, "That lady at the front is a very cunning lady. However, she usually only deals with the entertainment business and she has made many male teen idols famous. She is definitely seen as a very successful woman. However, what is she doing here? She is normally at those high-class wine-receptions or doing important business.

Lin Fan laughed and said, "She looks like she's come here to find trouble."

He Cheng Han looked at Lin Fan in astonishment and said, "Why do you say that?"

Lin Fan calmly replied, "You see that man next to her? That is the celebrity, Jin Yang. I just dealt with him just now, had him stripped of his clothes. I think that woman was asked to come here by him."

He Cheng Han looked at Lin Fan in shock and replied, "Amazing, however, you do not need to worry. We are here for you and we will not let them harm you. She may be a powerful woman but we are not scared of her. If there's any trouble later, I'll deal with it."

Lin Fan smiled and said, "There's no need for such trouble."

He Cheng Han waved him off and said, "No, I'll settle this. The lady's name is Zhang Hui. She is not a simple lady and she has a lot of connections, definitely not easy to deal with."

Meanwhile, when Jin Yang saw Lin Fan, his expression turned to one of anger and he wished that he could just get rid of this b*stard. Then, he said, "Sister Zhang, that's the guy."

Sister Zhang looked in front and nodded, replying, "Mmm."

She stood up for Jin Yang not because she looked up to him but because he was her actor. Especially since the situation was pretty serious, for a big-time actor to have such a scandal, it would definitely cost a huge amount in damages.

At this point, if she did not handle this situation perfectly, she was determined to not let it go.

At that moment, there was a group of people standing in front of Lin Fan. Jin Yang looked directly at him could not help groaning, "Sister Zhang, that's him."

Lin Fan looked right at the b*stard and could not help smiling and saying, "What? Can I help you with something?"

Jin Yang could not hold it in anymore. He said, "Are you people crazy? Do you guys not know what you all did to me?"

"Woah, wasn't it just stripping you naked? Wasn't that it?" Lin Fan calmly replied."

All of a sudden, a slap came from the side.

The one who initiated it was Zhang Hui, She was standing there and without saying a word, she had lifted up her hand and was trying to slap Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was shocked and then immediately grabbed her wrist.

Zhang Hui said, "Young man, up till now, do you still refuse to admit that you're in the wrong?"

"Were you trying to hit me?" Lin Fan looked at Zhang Hui. He looked very composed as he replied.

Zhang Hui glared at Lin Fan and said, "Let go of me. You young people don't understand the complexity of situations like this."

He Cheng Han finally reacted and rushed to say, "Sister Zhang, this is..."

*Pa!*

He Cheng Han had yet to finish his sentence when Lin Fan immediately lifted his hand and slapped Zhang Hui in the face.

At that moment, it was just complete silence, as if everyone was completely stunned.

Jin Yang looked on with a stunned expression. He had not thought that this young man would dare to hit back. Also, the bodyguards behind Zhang Hui were all dumbfounded and wanted to tackle Lin Fan to the ground.

"Do be rash," He Cheng Han shouted, trying to get everyone to stop.

"You have the nerve to hit me?" Sister Zhang's eyes were filled with rage.

Lin Fan giggled and replied, "You wanted to hit me, so why shouldn't I be able to hit you?"

He Cheng Han had not thought that Lin Fan had meant it when he had said he was going to take action. Without giving anyone any time to react, this Zhang Hui had started to take action and he had been stunned by that. He had not expected that Lin Fan's reflex was that quick, to be able to grab her wrist and then strike back.

"What are you guys still looking at? Do something!" Sister Zhang ordered her bodyguards, "Beat him to death. Anything that happens, I'll take responsibility."

He Cheng Han saw this whole situation and panicked. "Sister Zhang, can we just talk this out?"

"You..." Zhang Hui was prepared to give the guy a huge scolding but after she saw He Cheng Han, she felt that this person looked familiar and said, "You must be He Cheng Han from Xin Cheng Toys."

He Cheng Han nodded and said, "Correct, it is me. Sister Zhang, please give me some face. He is my friend, so please don't make a big fuss out of this."

Zhang Hui's face immediately turned black and she said, "So what you're saying is that it is okay for your friend to hit me? If I want to make a big deal out of this, I will. I, Zhang Hui have worked for so many years and I've never been afraid of anyone."

He Cheng Han rushed to say, "Sister Zhang, I don't mean it like that. He is my friend, so I'm hoping that you'll give me some face."

"Face? Your face isn't even worth any money." Zhang Hui was really mad now. She had not expected to get slapped. To her, her own reputation was more important.

Lin Fan said, "Chief He, don't worry about this. I can handle it myself."

He Cheng Han waved him off and said to him, "Master, I don't need you to worry about this. If I don't settle this properly, I'll be scolded to death by the rest."

To He Cheng Han, although this situation was very serious, he did not want to back down. He knew that, through this situation, he could get closer to Master Lin. Also, disregarding his relationship with Master Lin, he knew that if he backed down, he would be a joke.

"Okay, Zhang Hui, if you want to play, I'll play with you. I actually wanted to see what abilities you have. If you can't even move me then you have no right to do anything," He Cheng Han said as his aggression was leaking out. His previously polite and kind attitude had taken a drastic turn.

Zhang Hui looked at He Cheng Han and said, "You want to protect him?"

He Cheng Han said, "Yes. If you think about the odds right now, you should probably end this here. If not, if you wish to keep going on, I'm not afraid of you."

Jin Yang was standing at the side and said, "Sister Zhang, these people are really too arrogant."

"Okay." Zhang Hui looked at He Cheng Han as well as the calm and composed Lin Fan before saying, "You guys have guts. I want to see how you guys plan to match me."

At this moment, Zhang Hui took out her phone and made a call. "Brother, I am at Nanshan Children's Welfare Institute. Bring back up. I have a small problem here. Yes... You'll know when you get here."

After putting down the phone, Zhang Hui looked at He Cheng Han and said, "Chief He, you're very unyielding. If I, Zhang Hui, cannot convince you, then I am a disgrace."
