

Valiant Life 481

Chapter 481: The Start of The Gathering

Two days later.

Lin Fan and his group had already visited every single hospital in the Jiangning district. In this time, they had seen a countless number of sick people and as long as they were sick they would treat them. Also, they had yet to meet anyone like Wu Tao.

However, the thing that gave Lin Fan a little excitement was that the ‘Various Types of Typhoid’ had given him 100 Encyclopaedic Points.

It looked like Zhou Qing Quan and his group had already begun to spread it around. However, the number of doctors who could understand the “Typhoid Illness Discussion” was few. But hopefully, over time, there would be amazing benefits from it.

At this moment, Qiu Jie cried out in surprise, “Master Lin, something huge has happened.”

“What?” Lin Fan curiously asked, wondering what could possibly be happening at this moment as they had been here doing their medical treatments and had not gone anywhere else. Could it be that something just appeared out of nowhere?

“Look,” Qiu Jie said as he took out his phone.

When Lin Fan saw the news he was extremely surprised, saying, “It can’t be.”

Qiu Jie expression was still one of disbelief. He did not think that things would turn out this way. He replied, “Yes, it is.”

Lin Fan looked at the news carefully. He knew that this was really a major incident. Wu Tao was done for. Not only was he done for, there were many people who had been implicated also and these people were not just any average people.

When Wu Tao joined the election, he had done some bribery and some of the other people involved in the election were involved with the bribing as well. There were tens of people who gave money in exchange for the votes. The total sum of money involved added up to 100 million and the number was still rising as more data was being collected. Since it involved many of the staff members, they were feeling pretty afraid.

However, this did not appear to be of much concern to him.

“Xiao Jie, don’t you think that this does not involve us?” Lin Fan asked.

Qiu Jie had a foolish look as he looked at Lin Fan, wondering how could it not concern them. But when he saw the look in Lin Fan’s eyes, he nodded and replied, “Mmm, it has nothing to do with Master Lin at all.”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “It’s like it said, how could this possibly concern us? Don’t think about it, continue to treat the sick.”

Qiu Jie felt a little helpless and scared inside. He knew that it did not involve Master Lin but it did concern him a little. Also, this was very important and it was the last straw. However, since Master Lin did not want to talk about it, he would not bring it up anymore.

However, he did have a little sympathy when thinking about Wu Tao.

Why would they insist on threatening Master Lin? Also, why would they want to implicate so many people? If their attitudes were a little better at the start, they probably wouldn’t have gotten into so much trouble.

What should be said about this?

You may have avoided the disaster but you cannot hide from your sins forever.

This situation had a very nasty impact. It caused a massive stir online as no one had thought it would turn out like this. But when they saw the government announcement, they were all shocked.
U.p.dated by . com

Due to this small issue that was drawn into a big issue, Jiangning blew up on the Internet.

And right now, the appointment holders in Jiangning were all scared that they would be brought out for questioning.

The whole situation was not resolved yet and the authorities were still investigating.

5 pm.

They closed the stall and went back.

The hotel.

Zhao Ming Qing asked, "Master, do you have anything on tonight?"

Lin Fan nodded and said, "Mmm, a classmates' meeting and it's also one of the teachers' birthday so I'm required to be there. Ah, right, I forgot to prepare the present. I'm going to go out to get a gift, you guys rest early, we'll be in a different city tomorrow."

Today was the last stop in Jiangning. After attending the student's gathering, he was going to leave.

He never thought that even though he had not seen his university classmates in a while that he would miss them.

They had always been teasing him and this time, he was going to surprise them.

Zhao Ming Qing saw how energetic his teacher was and before he could say anything, his teacher had left already. He had really wanted to tell his teacher to be careful of his safety. But he did not have the chance to.

At this moment, Lin Fan went straight to an art shop and told the owner he wanted to use his area for a while to complete a painting. If he did not prepare a gift for his teacher, Teacher Xia, it would definitely be very wrong.

He thought that buying an expensive gift was too tacky and after a lot of thought decided that a painting was the best since it was cheap and it showed effort.

The shop owner had no idea that this young man was part of the Chinese Art Association and was laughing at him at the start. However, in the end, his face was in shock like he had seen a ghost.

‘Peace and Prosperity’, Lin Fan had managed to display his superb skills.

Within his painting were birds and flowers, which symbolizes luck.

He did not see the point of adding peaches to the painting, which represent long life, as he felt Teacher Xia was still young, in her forties, and was a female so adding peaches would be seen as a complete joke. Also, if she were to hang it on the wall, it would be seen as unseasonal once her birthday ended compared to other more modest paintings.

When Lin Fan left the store, the boss was standing at the door, in complete shock saying, “This is a master...”

Although he was just the boss of an art shop, he had done his research on Chinese art. Was this an amazing artist that had just suddenly appeared? When he turned around and looked at the empty table, he felt a bit of regret. If he had known earlier, he would have asked him to do a painting for him.

“Teacher Xia, may you have your youth forever.”

“That’s right, @Lin Fan @Rich man @Wang Zhen, only you guys are left, why aren’t you all here yet?”

Rich man: “Traffic jam, reaching soon.”

Wang Zhen: “Had to work overtime, but I’m reaching soon.”

“Sh*t, Lin Fan is incredible now, he has shocked all of us.”

“Brother Fan is not average at all. He’s so f*cking awesome on the Internet.”

Rich man said: “That what happens when you’re famous, he has definitely risen above us.”

Rich man was Lin Fan’s university classmate. When the two of them were classmates, they had a lot of disagreements and would argue a lot. Lin Fan did not think that even now, after graduating that he would still make sarcastic remarks about him and Lin Fan could not take it.”

“Chen Xiang, I’ll stuff your mouth with my scallion pancakes, then you’ll see how great I am,” Lin Fan replied.

Rich man: “I can’t eat your scallion pancakes. If I do, I’d start barking like a dog.”

“Amazing, my brother.”

“Lin Fan, no matter what happens, you definitely need to let Chen Xiang try your scallion pancakes. We can sit and watch Chen Xiang bark.”

Rich man: “F*ck off, are you all just trying to piss me off?”

Teacher Xia: “What are you guys still arguing about? What time are you all going to reach?”

Rich man: “Happy birthday, Teacher Xia. I’m reaching soon.”

Lin Fan: “Teacher Xia, I’m reaching soon too, I’ll be there in 20 minutes at most.”

Teacher Xia: “Come quickly, we are waiting for you all.”

Although their class was a little messy, their form teacher was really nice to them, frequently organizing reunions. Thus, when it came to Teacher Xia's birthday, a majority of them were willing to join in.

However, there were some who did not join. These people did not need to be cared about. After graduation, they had never bothered to open up to the group.

Chapter 482: Do you dare to take a bite?

At the entrance to the hotel.

Lin Fan came out of his taxi and saw his classmates standing at the door. Then, he shouted, "Wang Zhen."

From the doorway, a young man came out and started looking around. After hearing his name being called, he could not help going out to look. He let out a smile and then walked to Lin Fan's side and looked at him from top to bottom before saying, "You've become f*cking awesome. Who would have thought this scallion pancake business would make you famous?"

"Hehe, who was the one who said that selling those scallion pancakes wasn't good back then?" Lin Fan teased.

Wang Zhen shook his head and said, "That wasn't my intention. I just thought that it wasn't good enough, I never thought that you would really become famous from that. Come, let's go up, you're the last one."

Lin Fan asked, "Chen Xiang has reached already?"

"He reached at least 10 minutes earlier than you. I'm the only one still here waiting for you to arrive. Looking at this, you have to make me a scallion pancake later for me to try and to see if it really is that good," Wang Zhen laughed and said.

"No problem," Lin Fan replied. It was just a small request, definitely not a problem.

However, the thing that made Lin Fan a little suspicious was that he did not mention him being a godly doctor. Could it be that they were not aware of it yet?

That was indeed the case. They really had no idea of it.

After all, the internet had only been mentioning Godly Doctor. If you did not pay enough attention, you would not know his name.

They reached the private room in an instant. The moment Lin Fan stepped in, a countless number of eyes just locked straight onto him, he had the attention of every single person.

Lin Fan waved with humility and said, "Hello, my fellow classmates."

"Wow, the famous man is here."

"The king of scallion pancakes has arrived, everyone, welcome him."

"Bullsh*t." Chen Xiang glanced at Lin Fan and did not want to acknowledge him at all. However, on the inside, he was pretty curious, wondering what was so special about those scallion pancakes that could make Lin Fan become so popular.

They had not really paid much attention to Lin Fan but the classmates had seen many links online saying that Lin Fan was very popular on Weibo. From the links they saw, they knew that this youngster was not only a fortune-teller but he was also selling scallion pancakes and had massively boosted his reputation. Many of them simply could not comprehend this and thought it was outrageous.

"Happy birthday, Teacher Xia. This is the gift I've prepared for you," Lin Fan smiled and said.

Teacher Xia accepted the gift and her face was full of smiles when she said, "Lil' Fan, it's good enough that you're here but you're even giving me a present. What is it? A painting?"

Lin Fan nodded and said, "Yeah, I drew it myself to show my appreciation. I hope that you take good care of it."

Although he was not famous in the Chinese Art industry, this piece of art was highly valuable but there was no demand for it. If he were to make another, it might be in demand in future, but it would become priceless as well.

Chen Xiang glanced at it and said, "It's just a painting by you, not even comparable to one done by a three-year-old."

Lin Fan stared at Chen Xiang and said, "Don't look down on me. Who was the one who said he wanted to buy two day's worth of scallion pancakes from me? My scallion pancakes are priceless and if you want to buy them you'd go bankrupt."

Teacher Xia laughed and said, "Okay, okay, don't argue. I'll take care of this painting and I'll hang it in my study room."

Lin Fan laughed and said, "To have my painting hung on Teacher Xia's wall is definitely a huge honor."

The dinner party began. Everyone had not seen each other in a long time so naturally, there was a lot of talk going on.

After graduating, they had all gone down many different paths. Some of them had gone back to work for their parents, some had gone to do office work. Their topic of conversations went from what games they had been playing recently to what they were doing at work.

Teacher Xia stood up and said, "Students, you guys carry on talking without me. There's another table next door that I have to attend to."

The group of them replied, "Teacher, we can chat by ourselves, go do what you have to do."

Teacher Xia left the room and then Wang Zhen said, "Looks like Teacher Xia is eating with her husband next door."

Lin Fan said, "Let's talk among ourselves. Wang Zhen, you left work early tonight. If your boss finds out, will he make life difficult for you?"

Wang Zhen had had a few drinks so he could not help retorting, “Does he dare to? If he dares to make life difficult for me, then I’ll tell his wife about him going to the red light district.”

“Haha,” everyone could not help laughing.

“Lin Fan, how’s your scallion pancake business in Shanghai?” Wang Zhen asked.

The rest of the students were also all looking at Lin Fan. They were all very curious. Especially when they had found out that Lin Fan had blown up on Weibo, they had all been extremely shocked. It was as if they had seen a ghost. It was way too drastic of a change.

Lin Fan smiled and said, “Now that you mention it, I brought some of my products for you all to sample. Today I’ll let you all see what good food is and what you all have been missing out on.”

At this moment, everyone could not help getting excited.

Chen Xiang glared at him and said, “Missing out? I won’t try it even if it kills me.”

Back when they were schooling, the two of them nearly had a huge fight. Now that they had all graduated and experienced life outside, they were all very reminiscent of the times back when they were schooling and when they met up, there was nothing they were too embarrassed to talk about.

“You guys just wait here, I’ll go get it now and I’ll be back quickly. There’s a total of thirteen people here and once I’ve let you guys try it, you’ll remember it forever,” after saying this, Lin Fan ran off.

Inside the private room, everyone was all in laughter and conversation.

“Chen Xiang, I think that you should just forget about your past disputes with Lin Fan.”

Chen Xiang downed half his glass of white wine and said, “Do you guys really think it’s possible? There was a time back then that we beat each other till we almost had to go to the hospital. Making up is not a possibility.”

“I guess it isn’t but those are all things in the past so you shouldn’t take it to heart. It’s only on occasions like this, Teacher Xia’s birthday, that we meet up and look at how few people there are. A lot of them said they don’t have time to meet up and judging by what I see, it’ll be hard for us to meet up again. After today, we’ll all be scattered around the country and I have no idea when we’ll see each other again,” one of the students said.

Everyone was deep in silence. What he said was right. Although they could not see eye to eye back then in school, now that they had seen each other after so long, they should just let go of the things in the past.

After a while, Lin Fan came back holding a plate. He was pretty surprised that he was able to make the scallion pancakes here in this hotel.

Anyway, it did not really matter where he was. As long as he had the ingredients, he could make his delicious scallion pancakes.

Lin Fan smiled and said, “Look, I’ve made my scallion pancakes for you all. However, you have been warned, once you’ve eaten them, it’s not that easy to get your hands on another.”

“Cheh, is that for real? Are they gonna make us addicted to it or something?”

Chen Xiang said with disdain, “Isn’t it just a scallion pancake? What could be so special about it? Where I’m from, it’s eight dollars a piece.”

Lin Fan put down the scallion pancakes and laughed, “Eight dollars is okay, in fact, any amount of money is okay. But do you dare to try one bite?”

Chen Xiang looked at Lin Fan and said, “I’ll never eat it.”

Lin Fan calmly said, “If you’re so good then take one bite and put it down afterward. If you can do that then I’ll call you Big Brother.”

Everyone started to get riled up.

“Chen Xiang, all you have to do is eat one mouth and put it down and Lin Fan will call you Big Brother.”

“Yes, if it were me, I’d definitely eat a bite.”

Chen Xiang looked at the crowd and said, “Okay, I’ll eat a bite. After this, you’ll call me Big Brother.”

At this moment, Chen Xiang took a scallion pancake from the plate and said, “Look carefully. Regardless of the taste, I’m just going to take one bite and put it down.”

Lin Fan confidently said, “Go.”

If he was able to put it down after one bite, Lin Fan would respect his willpower.

Chapter 483: Brother Qiang Qiang

However, after smelling it, his expression completely changed and his eyes lit up in shock. The way he looked at Lin Fan had also changed.

How could this be?

Lin Fan smiled in confidence, indicating to Chen Xiang to taste it. Lin Fan knew that did not even need to think about just taking one bite because he definitely would not even be able to put it down if he took ten bites.

Everyone saw the change in Chen Xiang’s expression and they felt very curious. They were wondering what was up with the smell. They took a sniff as well and felt that something wasn’t right.

It seemed like it had too amazing of a fragrance.

“You’re going to lose for sure,” Chen Xiang said. When his mouth moved it was like every single one of his taste buds had been seduced by the smell, it was a very indescribable feeling.

He took a bite of the scallion pancake.

Chen Xiang was initially planning to put down the scallion pancake immediately, however, at that moment, it was like his tongue grew out a pair of hands, strongly determined to not put the scallion pancake down.

Boom!

It was at this moment, Chen Xiang felt like his head had been blown wide open. A shining light was flowing in his mind, a taste that he had never experienced before was throbbing on the tip of his tongue.

This feeling...

This...

It’s shocking!

Chen Xiang’s eyes just stayed there in a daze, he felt that he had been transported to a whole different world.”

“Ah...”

A very exaggerated noise burst out from Chen Xiang’s mouth. At the same time, his facial expression became very exaggerated as well.

“I feel that after working all those long hours at my job, I’ve finally felt some respite,” Chen Xiang said to himself.

The surrounding classmates were all in shock. They could not believe what they were seeing from Chen Xiang and they were wondering what in the world was happening to him.

The most shocking was when Chen Xiang let out that horrifying noise. It gave everyone an expression of complete shock like they had seen a ghost.

They could not help screaming on inside.

Did he really have to be so dramatic?

Lin Fan looked on with confidence and then took the scallion pancake out of Chen Xiang's hands.

Suddenly, Chen Xiang woke up. He realized that he had lost a very important thing.

"Give the scallion pancake back to me," he said with a lot of urgency in his voice. In his eyes, he had a look of longing that was never seen before.

Lin Fan smiled and said, "Weren't you just going to take one bite?"

The surrounding classmates, who were already dumbfounded, felt that the whole situation was a little fishy.

"Brother, I was wrong, give the scallion pancake back to me," Chen Xiang said.

There was a massive uproar!

Everyone was stunned, surely that was too dramatic. Could it be that the two of them had collaborated beforehand to do this? How could someone with Chen Xiang's character behave like this?

"Can't resist it already?" Lin Fan laughed and said.

Deep in his heart, Chen Xiang wanted to say that he was not going to take another bite. However, his body was betraying him and he could not control it anymore as he felt that this scallion pancake was the best thing he had eaten in his life.

“Yeah,” Chen Xiang had to force himself to nod. He could not take it anymore, the scallion pancake was really too delicious. The flavor was beyond description.

“Chen Xiang, what does it taste like?”

“You two didn’t plan this, right?”

Their classmates all asked with curiosity. They could not understand what was going on and even though it was happening in front of their own eyes, they could not believe it.

“I don’t believe this.”

One of them took one of the scallion pancakes and wanted to see what was so different about it. However, after he took a bite of it, his expression became the same as that of Chen Xiang’s.

In his heart, an amazing taste that he had never tasted before was flowing around, totally irresistible to him.

“Sh*t, is this true or not? One by one, all being hypnotized by this.”

“I don’t believe it, I’m going to try it too.”

Everyone took a scallion pancake each and took a bite of it. They all wanted to know what made these scallion pancakes different from all the others.

However, after taking a bite out of it, they all quietened down. From time to time, a sound would ring out.

“Ah!”

“Ah!”

The hotel staff members heard all the noises and their faces totally changed. The people inside could not possibly be...

Just thinking of it, one of the staff members' face turned red. He decided to sneak a peek inside and after he saw Lin Fan, he felt a little curious. He opened up his phone to check if it was really him and after he confirmed it, he left the scene.

Lin Fan stood in his original spot, the corners of his mouth twitched. Although his scallion pancakes were delicious, did they really have to be that dramatic?

“My gosh, I feel like crying.”

Lin Fan just patiently waited there. After a while, the scallion pancakes on the table were all gone and everyone all started to stare keenly at Lin Fan.

“Why are you all staring at me?” He shrugged his shoulders and started to laugh.

Suddenly, the whole group asked in unison, “Brother Lin, can we have another one?”

Lin Fan laughed and said, “Tell me, is it delicious?”

“Delicious.”

“Yes.”

Lin Fan helplessly replied, “Well, I'm very sorry. There's no more already, it's only one piece per person. I wanted all of you to remember today, to know how amazing the scallion pancakes are.

Everyone cried out, “Brother, we are your classmates, just give us one more.”

“Haha,” Lin Fan laughed. He felt very satisfied with himself as he had been waiting for this day for a long time.

...

The private room next door.

Teacher Xia and her husband were there entertaining the school’s principal. Afterward, she stood up and offered a toast, saying, “Thank you, sir, for taking care of us all this time. The two of us, husband and wife, are very grateful to you.”

The school principal replied, “There’s no need to say things like that. Teacher Xia and Teacher Shen have been very conscientious and have helped out a lot of people here in our school, we should be the ones thanking you. Come, everyone, the important thing today is to be happy. It’s not a must to get drunk.”

“Right, right,” the rest of them said.

Suddenly, the doors burst open.

“Shen Hong, you have money to organize a dinner but don’t have any to repay your debts, huh?” a few big men said as they walked in.

Teacher Xia’s husband was Shen Hong and when he saw the people come in, his face completely changed. Then, he said, “What are you guys doing? I’ll return the money that I owe but today is my wife’s birthday, please don’t disturb us.”

Shen Hong had recently been brought to a gambling den by someone and within a short amount of time, was deeply involved in it. He lacked self-control and lost a huge amount of money. He eventually saw the wrong in his acts but the deed was done and he had already lost the money. He promised himself that he would not gamble anymore and would slowly return the money.

When Teacher Xia had found out about it, she had been furious at the start, however, she got over it and she managed to convince the school principal to advance them a year of salary to pay off some of his debt.

The principal's brows furrowed as he said, "What are you guys trying to do? The money that Teacher Shen owes you will be repaid so please leave now."

"What makes you so special? Come, give me a place to sit." The big man had drunk a bit of wine and was a little intoxicated. He had also been eating at this restaurant when he suddenly saw Shen Hong. When the wine was being served he brought his men there to try and collect some money.

The principal's face turned red, however, he could not do anything against these ruffians.

Shen Hong stepped up and said, "I will return the money. What else do you want?"

"I don't care, I want all the money to be returned today. If not, you'll see what will happen," the big man argued loudly.

Teacher Xia stepped up and said, "My husband was drawn into a gambling den by you guys and he lost a lot of money. We acknowledge that the money must be returned but can you guys be more reasonable?"

The intoxicated man came up and at the corner of his mouth, let out a smile. Then, he gave Teacher Xia a huge pat on the shoulder and said, "You might be a bit old but you're still pretty attractive..."

Shen Hong stepped up, slapped the man's hand away and said, "Please have some respect."

The man fiercely replied, "Respect? If you want respect then return me my money."

At the hotel office area, there was a short haired, pretty and soft looking lady. She was carrying a girl in her arms and softly speaking to her. At that moment, the door was knocked on.

"Come in."

The hotel attendant came in and after a quick glance at the person seated there, he lowered his head and said, "Brother Qiang Qiang, we just saw the godly doctor enter the hotel."

Brother Qiang Qiang was the person in charge of this place. Although she was very pretty, she always felt that she was more of a guy. Also, she was always surrounded by girls.

The whole hotel was scared of this Brother Qiang Qiang.

However, they found the name 'Brother Qiang Qiang' very weird. They had no idea how she got that name and they didn't even know the boss's real name.

At times, they would also think that for a lady this pretty to become like that was a pity. It was like someone carefully taking care of their cabbage only for it to be given to a pig.

At this moment, when Brother Qiang Qiang heard the two words, 'godly doctor', her expression changed and she said, "Really?"

"Yea, he's in room 605. When I was serving the dishes over there, I saw him in the room. I even went online to compare the faces and I'm certain it is him," the attendant said.

Brother Qiang Qiang let go of the girl in her hands, got up and headed out of the room. Her facial expression was slightly emotional and it was like she was in a hurry.

She had only just found out about the godly doctor today and when she wanted to go look for him, he was gone and no one knew where he was.

She did not think that she would find him at the hotel. How lucky.

Chapter 484: Direct Conflict

In the private room, everyone's eyes were locked onto Lin Fan. Their looks were like those of people begging, however, Lin Fan turned a blind eye which broke their hearts. The scallion pancakes were really too delicious and one was not enough to satisfy their cravings. Although the food on the table also had a very nice smell, once they had tried the scallion pancakes, they did not want anything else.

Chen Xiang was still reflecting. The look in his eyes towards Lin Fan was slowly changing.

To the classmates, they knew that one scallion pancake was not enough to leave this place with, so they were hoping to use their friendship with Lin Fan to get some more.

Lin Fan asked with astonishment, “Teacher Xia has been gone for quite awhile hasn’t she?”

“Yes she has, I’ll go check on her,” Wang Zhen got up and said. Then he smiled and said, “Come on guys, whether we can eat the scallion pancakes again will depend on you guys now.”

Everyone nodded, they were willing to work together just to get to eat the scallion pancakes again.

“Brother Lin, I respect you. Anything that you want me to do, I’ll do it.”

“Ah, do you remember the time when we were in the same dorm and you had no money to eat? I helped you buy some food.”

“When you didn’t want to attend class back then, I helped you take attendance, surely you can’t forget that act of kindness.”

Lin Fan helplessly said, “You guys can’t possibly be so shameless.”

When he saw how his classmates had been hypnotized by the scallion pancakes, he felt pretty good inside. However, for him to make another batch of these pancakes was definitely not something that was possible. He was the head of Cloud Street, the famous scallion pancake master and to make these scallion pancakes just like that to satisfy their hunger was not fair to the others who could not eat it.

However, since they had already been hypnotized by his scallion pancakes, he was afraid of how the future class gatherings would be like.

Suddenly, Wang Zhen shouted from the outside, “Guys, come quick...”

Everyone was shocked and Lin Fan was very suspicious. They had no idea what was going on but Wang Zhen’s cry sounded very urgent like something big had happened outside.

“Something happened?” Chen Xiang stood up and said, his eyes filled with suspicion.

“Let’s go out and see.” Lin Fan, without a second thought, got up and headed outside. There was something very off about Wang Zhen’s voice so it could be possible that something had happened.

He opened the door, only to see Wang Zhen rushing over and saying, “Quick, Teacher Xia is in trouble.”

“Sh*t, what happened?” Everyone was in shock and suddenly became very fired up.

Quickly, they heard a ruckus from the private room next door and also heard sounds of arguing and scolding. All the words that were being shouted were pretty mean.

“What happened?” Lin Fan asked.

Wang Zhen shook his head and said, “I have no idea, but it seems like someone is causing trouble inside Teacher Xia’s room. The moment I realized, I came back to call you guys.”

Lin Fan, without a second thought, rushed towards Teacher Xia’s private room.

Inside the private room, Teacher Xia had already been scolded until she was in tears and her husband, Shen Hong, was also extremely flustered. He did not think that this b*stard was such a hoodlum.

He had already admitted to the debt he had picked up at the gambling den and had already returned a portion of it. However, this man was not willing to move an inch and if he did not get his money today, was not willing to leave.

“Haven’t you guys gone too far?” Shen Hong furiously said. Today was his wife’s birthday and he had planned to give her a happy celebration. He had never thought that something like this would happen.

If he had known something like this would happen, he would never have entered the gambling den, even if it killed him. However, it was too late to change that.

The school leaders were also furious. They felt that this man had gone way too far.

Regarding the situation of Teacher Shen being lured into a gambling den, they were not too satisfied with it. However, they did not say much about it as in today’s society, there was not anyone who was perfect so as long as they were willing to change, it was okay.

Therefore, they did not have any objections against Teacher Shen.

The men sneered and said, “Too far? If you owe money, you have to pay, that is a universal principle. Even if you call the police, the money will still have to be returned.”

Although the man was drunk, it was not because of the drunken state that he went crazy looking for the money. It was because he knew that if he chased Shen Hong for the money now, in front of such a big crowd, he would be embarrassed if he did not pay up.

This guy was a teacher and they valued their reputations a lot. If more people knew he gambled, it would kill his reputation even more.

At this point, Shen Hong was lost for words. He had already been pissed off by this b*stard, so he angrily said, “Back then we already told you that we did not have enough money and we had already agreed to slowly pay you back. So even if you chase us for the money now, we have no way of getting it.”

The man sneered, “I don’t care. You better get me the money tonight,” then he stared at Teacher Xia and said, “If you can’t find the money, then let me give you an idea. Your wife is pretty decent, just sell her off.”

“You...” Shen Hong furiously said.

Bam!

Suddenly, the private room's door was pushed open.

“What did you say?” Lin Fan had heard everything from outside and was furious when he heard it. He burst into anger. This b*stard was really too much, to have the nerve to say that about Teacher Xia.

Er!

The man turned around and saw the group of people standing outside, all in anger and then saw Lin Fan rush in and say, “Teacher Xia, are you guys okay?”

When he saw Teacher Xia's eyes completely red, Lin Fan was pissed off. Then, he looked at the man and said, “What do you want?”

The rest of his classmates followed suit. They had all heard the humiliating things that man said and so when they all entered the room, they went to protect Teacher Xia. The females all gathered by her side to comfort her.

“Oh, you've got some backup,” the man saw this whole scene and laughed. Then, the look in his eyes became serious as he said, “I don't care how many people are here, but you all better remember this, your teacher's husband owes a huge amount of money and I want the money today.”

Teacher Xia looked at Lin Fan and said, “Go back to your room, let me handle this myself.”

When the students came, Teacher Xia felt a little bit more confident. However, she did not wish to involve them especially since it was her own family issue and it had no relation to them.

“Relax, Teacher Xia. As long as I am here, nothing bad will happen to you. Just let me handle this,” Lin Fan took the initiative and said.

Although this situation did not involve them, Teacher Xia was their teacher and during their schooling days, they were on very good terms with her. Now that they had grown up and had more power, they could not just sit back and watch.

Wang Zhen also said, “Teacher Xia, leave this to us.”

Chen Xiang nodded and said, “Teacher Xia, you should sit aside and rest.”

At this moment, Wang Zhen stepped up and said, “Big brothers, how about we put aside our teacher’s debt for today? It is her birthday so just give her some face and we can discuss this later.

Wang Zhen was a well-traveled man who spoke very politely. He did not want to cause any trouble especially since these men did not look like very good people. They themselves did not have much power in Jiang Ning either, so if things took a turn for the worse, it would not really benefit anyone.

They were just ordinary people. Against these bullies, there was not really much they could do.

Lin Fan pulled Wang Zhen back and said, “Why are you speaking to them so nicely? This situation isn’t that simple. Disregarding the money that Teacher Xia owes, they also humiliated her.”

He had never been afraid of anyone, especially not these people. He had an idea.

Wang Zhen looked at Lin Fan and for that moment, felt powerless. He knew that these people were bullies and not to be trifled with, which is why he did not want to blow things up.

However, they had no idea that when Lin Fan was met with such a situation, he would never try to reconcile. He would press forward and go for direct conflict.

Chapter 485: A Misunderstanding

Lin Fan raised his hands to block the way, then he looked at Teacher Xia and said, “Let me handle this.”

Teacher Xia looked at him with concern and said, “Little Fan, don’t get yourself into trouble.”

Lin Fan calmly smiled and said, “Relax, I don’t ever get into trouble.”

What he did not mention was that whenever trouble came upon him, he would never fear it. Also, when it came to dealing with the people that provoked him, he would go in like a bulldozer, not showing any mercy.

Lin Fan approached the man in a calm state. However, his expression was of a playful smile, then he said, "You're the one who is trying to get money from our teacher right?"

The man looked at Lin Fan with some disdain and said, "So what? Your teacher owes us money, are we not allowed to come and claim it?"

Lin Fan smiled and said, "If you owe money, you have to pay money. That is a universally understood law and I won't dispute that. However, what was it that you said to Teacher Xia just now? I didn't hear it clearly so can you say it again?"

The man looked at Lin Fan, he could not help becoming more aggressive in his appearance as he said, "Little boy, do you not feel that you are a nuisance?"

"No, I do not. I just did not hear what you said just now, so can I trouble you to repeat it? What did you say would happen to our teacher if they do not repay the money?" Lin Fan said with a smile on his face.

To Lin Fan, this b*stard really had no respect for others. For him to have the nerve to say such things to his teacher made him feel like punching them all in their faces.

Wang Zhen and the rest of them saw how Lin Fan and the other guy were in a standoff and he could not help feeling concerned. He said, "Do you guys think that Lin Fan will end up losing out?"

"I have no idea, how about we just call the police?"

"Let's not do anything rash, we should see how the situation goes."

"If we were to call the police, wouldn't that lead to everyone knowing about Teacher Shen gambling and having a huge debt? It will definitely have a big impact on him."

"That's true."

At that moment, Shen Hong's face was filled with regret. If he had known that this was how things would turn out, he definitely would not have joined the gambling den and this definitely would not have happened.

The man ignored what Lin Fan had said and then said, "Do you know how much your teacher owes us? If you really want to help him foot the bill then I'll have you know that he owes us a total of..."

"Shut up. Right now, I don't care how much he owes, I'm asking you what you said just now," Lin Fan's tone became solemn. If the other party did not explain clearly what happened just now, he would not let it slide.

When his classmates looked at Lin Fan, they felt that he had changed a lot. Unknowingly, he had become tougher. When it came to dealing with this big sized man, he showed no fear at all and was even willing to standoff with him, something they had never thought he would do.

"I said you're retarded," the man angrily rebuked.

"You are retarded," Lin Fan lifted his hand and immediately slapped him. "I dare you to scold me again..."

Suddenly, the scene erupted in commotion.

Teacher Xia was dumbfounded.

Wang Zhen and the rest of them were stunned also.

The man was dumbfounded too.

He never thought that this small man in front of him would even dare to touch him.

How ferocious!

Wang Zhen and the rest of them had the same thoughts in their mind. They felt that Lin Fan was very wild, willing to take action without a second thought.

Teacher Xia stepped up and said with concern, “Lil’ Fan, don’t be rash.”

“Teacher Xia, leave this situation to me. Relax, I’ll definitely settle this by today,” Lin Fan confidently said.

If it was anyone else, Lin Fan would not really care, but since it was Teacher Xia, he did.

If this man was not so disrespectful and had just kept to the original agreement, then everything would be fine. After all, it was something that was caused by Teacher Xia’s family member. However, these men were being bullies and saw the rest of them as pushovers.

“So? Are you going to give in? I’m telling you, I’m going to slow play with you today and whether you want to give in or not, I’ll make you give in. Today is my teacher’s birthday, supposedly a happy occasion but you’ve ruined it, so how do you plan on making it up to us?” Lin Fan sternly said.

The school leaders saw this situation and gently pulled Teacher Xia to them. They asked, “Teacher Xia, this is one of your students?”

Teacher Xia nodded. He was definitely one of her students, however, she felt like she did not recognize him. With his state of anger right now, he had definitely changed a lot.

Compared to when he was still in school back then, he was like two different people.

The school leaders were shocked when they heard that. They never thought that there would be someone like this in the midst of all of her students.

The man looked at Lin Fan and shouted, “Okay, today I’m going to make you see. Come, call for more men.”

“Okay.”

They did not dare to make a huge fuss inside the hotel but once they stepped outside of it, they would teach these b*stards a lesson.

When some of the surrounding students, who were a little cowardly, heard that they were calling for backup, they were very scared. They had never been in such a situation before and their hearts started to race.

However, in this situation, they could not run away. If they did, they would be scolded to death by the rest of their classmates. As a result, all they could do was pretend to be brave and just stand there.

“This...this,” Teacher Xia was dumbfounded. She had never thought that things would go down this path. It exceeded anyone’s imagination.

“Who wanted to call for backup?” At this moment, a sound came from outside. The room doors were pushed open and a person, whose gender was really hard to tell, came in.

When the man saw this person come in, his expression totally changed. His face suddenly turned into a smile and then he said in a welcoming way, “Brother Qiang Qiang, it’s nothing, just a small misunderstanding.”

The rest of the men behind him did not recognize Brother Qiang Qiang so they all looked on curiously, wondering who it was. However, before they could give this much thought, the man instructed, “Hurry up and greet Brother Qiang Qiang.”

“Brother Qiang Qiang,” the rest of them greeted. They definitely could not defy orders.

“Mmm,” Brother Qiang Qiang nodded, then her gaze shifted to Lin Fan.

Lin Fan was also looking at Brother Qiang Qiang. But upon closer inspection, his expression changed. There was something off about this person.

“Sh*t, I’ve never seen anyone with this level of hormonal dysfunction. Her estrogen levels must have entirely crumbled. She... she, could she be a tranny?” Lin Fan thought to himself.

This person was definitely very sick.

When Teacher Xia saw this person, she was also stunned. This person's features were all exquisite but there was still a weird feeling coming from this person. She could not understand this feeling but what she did know was that something was off about this person.

“Godly Doctor, I’ve been looking forward to seeing you for a long time,” Brother Qiang Qiang looked at Lin Fan and smiled.

Lin Fan nodded and with some suspicion, said, “You know me?”

Brother Qiang Qiang laughed and said, “The famous Godly Doctor who has been here in Jiangning, who would not know him?” Then she looked at the man and said, “I don’t care what kind of disagreements you have with the Godly Doctor. Will you write it all off for me?”

The man looked at Brother Qiang Qiang and with no hesitation, said, “Sure, sure, for Brother Qiang Qiang, I definitely will.”

At that moment, Teacher Xia was a little dumbfounded, wondering what was going on.

What in the world was this about the Godly Doctor? She knew all about the situation in Jiangning but what did it have to do with Lin Fan?

At that moment, Wang Zhen asked with huge surprise, “Lin Fan, are you the Godly Doctor?”

“Huh?”

Everyone was shocked. They were all in disbelief.

This situation was beyond everyone’s imagination, especially Teacher Xia’s. She could not help but let out a sigh of relief because, with the way things seemed right now, nothing should go wrong anymore.

Suddenly, the man rushed in front and looked at Lin Fan, his expression was a little emotional as he said, “You are the Godly Doctor in Jiangning everyone has been talking about?”

Lin Fan nodded and said, “Mmm, what’s up? Do you still have any issues?”

“Oh no,” after hearing this, the man slapped his own leg, his face filled with regret and said, “I’m sorry Godly Doctor, I did not recognize you. If I had known this before Brother Qiang Qiang appeared, I definitely would not have bothered you. Do you remember Little Brother Hu?”

“Yes, I do,” Lin Fan nodded.

“I am Little Brother Hu’s biological brother, his daughter is my niece and my name is Little Brother Bao. You’ve done so much for my family and this was just a result of people not recognizing each other. A family not recognizing each other. Godly Doctor, this is all my fault, I know what to do.” At this moment, Little Brother Bao had become sober, the tipsy feeling earlier was gone and he walked up to Teacher Xia.

When Teacher Xia saw him coming, she was stunned and was feeling a little scared.

“I’m sorry, Teacher Xia. I should slap my own mouth, I’ve been too disrespectful to you all. Please don’t take it to heart.” Little brother Bao slapped himself on the mouth in front of everyone, then looked towards Shen Hong and said, “Teacher Shen, I’ve let you down. All the money that you lost while gambling, I’ll return it all to you. This is all just a misunderstanding, a big misunderstanding.”

“Huh?” Shen Hong was dumbfounded

What in the world was going on?

Chapter 486: You are the expert

Little Brother Bao picked up the wine bottle on the table, then apologetically looked at everyone and said, “Teachers, school leaders, and students, I, Little Brother Bao, have caused a massive inconvenience for you all. This is my fault and I’ll punish myself by drinking three glasses. I’m really sorry to the teachers for this misunderstanding and tonight’s bill will be settled by me.

If his boss knew about this, that he bullied the people close to the Godly Doctor, he might as well cut off his own leg.

Although he relied on the gambling den to feed his family, it was his brother who dragged him into this. Also, his brother's temper was really bad. Although he was not lower in the hierarchy than his brother, if his brother were to hit him, he would not dare to say a thing.

However, thinking back to his youth, if it was not for his brother taking care of him, he could have already been dead.

The surrounding students also let sighs of relief. The whole thing had scared them to death but it appeared to be over.

However, they were still pretty shocked. When they looked at Lin Fan, it was really weird as he had changed so much.

His scallion pancakes being so delicious had already made them really surprised and now, he turned out to be a Godly Doctor. The change was really too drastic.

Lin Fan felt helpless. He had planned to show some heroism in front of his classmates today, but he never thought that the situation would be settled so quickly and in such a mysterious fashion.

Was it that helpful having the title of Godly Doctor?

It made him a little unhappy.

His plan had been ruined.

When he was halfway through showing his force and was about to show his true strength, the opposition became terrified. It was a boring outcome, really too boring.

"You better return my teacher's money," Lin Fan said.

Little Brother Bao nodded and smiled, "That's a given. I will personally send the money to her doorstep. I've disturbed your teacher's birthday today, that's my fault. Right now, I'll leave you all to be. If there's anything else, you can come and find me."

Afterward, Little Brother Bao left the scene. He had been slapped by Lin Fan but he would not take that to heart. To be taught a lesson by the Godly Doctor was something that should happen. Anyway, if his brother were to know about this, he would slap him a few times as well.

“Teacher Xia, this was just a small interruption, why don’t you continue?” Lin Fan said.

Teacher Xia was very grateful and replied, “Lil’ Fan, I can’t thank you enough.”

Lin Fan waved her off and said with a smile, “No need, no need, it’s just a small matter.”

The surrounding classmates were really all in shock. They felt that Lin Fan had become more awesome, being able to resolve the whole situation. However, regarding the Jiangning Godly Doctor situation, they had all heard about it but to hear that it was Lin Fan, it left them flabbergasted and it was unimaginable.

They were all bustling with noise and excitement after all of this.

Lin Fan looked at Brother Qiang Qiang and knew that there was definitely a reason for her coming here to find himself. Otherwise, she would not have appeared. As the situation was resolved already, everyone else naturally went back to having fun. The hotel room was filled with amusement and people eating. Brother Qiang Qiang had booked the most high-end karaoke room for Teacher Xia, free of charge.

He wanted to reject it at first, but after some thought, he remembered that Teacher Xia was his teacher and her reputation was pretty important so he did not say a thing.

The school leaders’ opinions of Teacher Xia had changed also. They had a sort of feeling that the teacher was relying on her student’s riches and honor to stand up.

In the private room, Wang Zhen and the rest of them were in high spirits while Lin Fan and Brother Qiang Qiang were alone.

Inside the office, Lin Fan was trying to analyze Brother Qiang Qiang. “Brother Qiang Qiang, your name is a little amusing, I’ve never seen anyone call himself that.”

Brother Qiang Qiang's lips were perfectly red and teeth perfectly white, so even her smile was perfect. However, it was ruined by her temperament. She replied, "A name is just a title and that's all. As far as it goes, Brother Qiang Qiang is my name."

"However, my real name is Liu Xu. The thing is that no one knows it and I'm hoping that the godly doctor won't spread that."

Lin Fan nodded and said, "I am not the type to gossip."

Brother Qiang Qiang replied, "Godly doctor, I'll get straight to the point. I..."

Lin Fan waved him off and said, "There's no need to say it, I know it already. Whenever I'm attending to my patients, they don't have to tell me their illness and I'd know it already. When I first laid eyes on you, I knew what was wrong already."

Brother Qiang Qiang laughed and said, "You are the expert and the godly doctor, you have my full trust to do whatever you need to. Tell me whatever the price is."

Brother Qiang Qiang's condition was very serious. Lin Fan had no intention of seeing any more patients, however, Brother Qiang Qiang, who had perfect features as well as a slim body had a huge hormonal problem. If she had been a girl from birth, then how could she have these problems?

Even if Lin Fan did not think that way, the millions of youngsters in society would definitely think that way.

Wasn't that a huge pity?

Lin Fan waved him off and said, "My work is out of good will, so my services are all free. Relax, in this situation, there are only two problems, one being your body and the other being your mind."

Brother Qiang Qiang laughed, she could not help becoming really happy. This illness had always been her greatest headache.

From birth, she had already known what gender she was meant to be.

She had seen countless doctors and taken countless amounts of medicine, all to no avail.

She wanted to become a true man. However, she was not willing to accept the kind of treatment they do in Thailand and she had no intentions of becoming their plaything. As long as she could grow a mustache as well as get rid of her menstrual cycle she would be satisfied because to her, that was a very troublesome thing.

Also, she felt that her female parts were too prominent. She thought they were too big and wanted to make them smaller.

Without operating, these wishes would not be possible. However, she did not want to go under the knife.

Now that she had seen that Jiangning had a godly doctor, she wanted to try her luck. After hearing the confidence from him, she could not help feeling happy. All she had to do was let the expert go to work and she could relax.

“Do you need anything for this medical treatment?” Brother Qiang Qiang asked.

Lin Fan waved her off and said, “No need. All I need are some silver needles and I will prescribe you with some medication. You just need to diligently eat it for a month and you’ll be fine.”

“So long?” Brother Qiang Qiang curiously asked.

Lin Fan laughed and said, “This is considered long? To be able to change your body is a very difficult thing since it has been accumulated in your body for such a long period of time. To want to have it cured in a short amount of time is not something that is possible.”

Brother Qiang Qiang nodded and said, “That’s true. Okay, godly doctor, I have some silver needles here, I’ll get someone to send them over.”

Regarding Brother Qiang Qiang’s issues, Lin Fan could not just sit back and do nothing. To have perfect features and then be in a situation like this, where she had an interest in women but not in men, was a scary thing.

To have such good features but not be able to enjoy them because of physical and mental issues, was really a sad thing.

But, she was lucky to have met a godly doctor like Lin Fan, who could easily solve this.

Brother Qiang Qiang said, “Godly doctor, I feel like I have to tell you about my condition.”

Lin Fan waved her off and said, “No need to use your own words. Experts are experts. I am an expert so let me do what I have to. All you need to do is eat medicine for a month and after that, you’ll see the effects of my expertise.”

Quickly, the needles arrived.

Lin Fan was about to begin his treatment when he said, “Brother Qiang Qiang, you must remember that while taking the medicine for this month, there will be side effects, however, they will go away with time.”

“Yea, I know,” Brother Qiang Qiang nodded. Her mind was filled with anticipation as the time she had been waiting so long for was finally here.

She did not really care about the opinions of the people at home because, in life, you have to put your own needs first.

Chapter 487: Task finally completed

To others, Brother Qiang Qiang’s situation could be seen as very troublesome or even incurable. However, to Lin Fan, it was just a small thing and not a problem at all.

He kept the needles.

Lin Fan started to write down the prescription and then he said, “This is the prescription. As long as you continue to take it for a month, the problem will be easily solved and will never come back.”

Brother Qiang was feeling good. When the godly doctor was using the needles on her, she felt pretty weird. It was hard to describe the feeling but it was a comfortable one.

“Thank you very much, godly doctor,” Brother Qiang Qiang said very gratefully.

Lin Fan waved her off and said, “It was no big deal. If there’s nothing else, I’ll be taking my leave. As long as you follow the prescription, I guarantee no problems will occur.”

“Godly doctor, if you may, can you leave me your phone number?” Brother Qiang Qiang asked. She wanted to make sure that she had someone to turn to if she ran into some weird problems during her transformation.

“Just follow me on Weibo and if there is anything, just message me. I’ll reply as soon as I see it,” Lin Fan smiled and said. He had no relation with this Brother Qiang Qiang so he did not feel the need to give her his number. However, by asking her to follow him, he had gained himself another enthusiastic follower, something money cannot buy.

After leaving Brother Qiang Qiang, Lin Fan returned to the private room to enjoy his time with his classmates.

They had no idea when the next gathering would be so they had to treasure the time they had right now.

The next day, Lin Fan and the rest of them left early in the morning for a different town. The news of Jiangning’s godly doctor had spread around. Thus, the news of him leaving Jiangning was also widely known. The good thing about this was that whatever city he was going to next already knew about him.

Those people who were sick and yet to receive medical treatment all rushed to find a car and search for the Godly Doctor. When the people in Jiangning got treated by the Godly Doctor, they all started to get better. This drew the attention of reporters who brought some of the Godly doctor’s cured patients to the hospital for checkups. When the results came out, everyone was stunned.

Their condition had turned for the better. This definitely made them all very surprised.

A few days passed. The entire country’s social media network was going crazy.

“D*mm, this is too amazing. This world actually still has this kind of Godly Doctor?”

“He can’t possibly fake this. The Godly Doctor has arrived in Hangzhou. We should go there and welcome him.”

“As of right now, the rate of people being discharged from all the major hospitals is at an all-time high. Also, there are many people hiring vehicles to send them to the town which the Godly Doctor is in. In fact, there are rumors that there aren’t enough cars to meet the demand.”

“Traditional Chinese Medicine doctors are all the rage now. However, there are many imposters trying to scam people, who have been caught already.”

“Recently, there was a patient who revealed that he had cancer. Apparently, his cancer was healed by the Godly Doctor.”

“D*mn, for real?”

“I have no idea, but it seems legit. Everyone in the country is buzzing about it. Some think it’s not possible, some think it is. In any case, they have been divided into the two extremes.”

“Many hospitals have come out releasing statements, all saying the traditional Chinese medicine can’t cure cancer.”

“Anyway, we should not care so much about this. Recently the whole country’s patients have gone crazy. If you check out the tickets for the high-speed rail as well as for airplanes heading to Hangzhou, getting a ticket is almost impossible. Even the ticket resellers don’t even have any stock left.”

“This is too much...”

Lin Fan had brought Zhao Ming Qing and the rest of them to many different cities and their influence was being bigger and bigger.

It was so chaotic to the extent that the police had to come and control it.

When Zhao Ming Qing, Qiu Jie, Zhang Tong Tong and the rest of them encountered this situation, they were all dumbfounded. They felt like this was a game show or something.

However, when they looked at Master Lin, he looked calm and collected, like he was not really concerned about what was happening.

Zhao Ming Qing had reminded his teacher before to take it easy and not be so high profile. However, Lin Fan had already made Chinese medicine soar to new heights. He simply could not undo it.

However, to Lin Fan, he was very indifferent about this. Healing sick people was a good thing, so why was there a need to take it back?

Anyway, as long as he worked hard it would be fine.

Lin Fan was sure that this time, he would complete his task and he would be able to unlock the next page of knowledge. He felt really good inside when he thought about entering a new profession.

He had to keep changing to keep life interesting.

At a hotel in Jiangning.

“Brother Qiang Qiang...” a beautiful lady said as she came along. She started to smile even brighter when she saw Brother Qiang Qiang.

Brother Qiang Qiang sat in the room with a smile on her face. She had been taking the prescription that the Godly Doctor had given and felt the results were pretty good. The girl sweetly said to her, “Brother Qiang Qiang, it’s been a long time since you’ve come to find me.”

Brother Qiang Qiang laughed. Her soft, tender hands touched the girl’s face. The girl’s natural reaction was to go in for a kiss. If it was like before, brother Qiang Qiang would have gone in for the kiss also. However, she inexplicably felt really disgusted inside and did not like it when she saw it.

She had no idea what was going on. She had never experienced anything like that. However, when she remembered what the Godly Doctor told her about the medicine's side effects, she felt more relieved. Could this be one of the side effects?

Brother Qiang Qiang did not kiss her but smiled and said, "Ok, go and play by yourself, I'll look for you tonight."

"Hmph," the little girl acted like she was unhappy but still obeyed.

Ding ding~

A phone call came. Brother Qiang Qiang looked at the phone and her brows furrowed. She looked very displeased but still picked up the phone. She said with a displeased tone, "Hello, what do you want?"

There was a moment of silence on the other side of the call before he responded, "Is this how you speak to your father?"

"Okay, if you have something to say, just say it, I'm very busy."

"Liu Xu, you're my daughter. Look what you've turned into. This is not up for discussion. I've found you a doctor and we are going to get you cured."

Liu Xu laughed and said, "No need. I've already gone to the Godly Doctor. The Godly Doctor has given me medication and once I finish it, I won't be able to change anymore. Father, you're old already, don't need to worry about me. Also, didn't you regret not having a son last time? In a while, you'll have a son."

"You...you..."

Clatter

Liu Xu hung up. Then, she went online to start finding a new name. When the prescription was finished, she would have to find a new name as this Liu Xu would not really suit her anymore.

She thought of calling her self Liu Ying Hao or Liu Cheng. Both of them were not bad.

However, she did not feel very good inside. She had such feelings of disgust towards the girl just now. Her voice was beginning to feminize also which was hard for her to take as she did not know when these symptoms would fade away.

Time gradually passed.

Lin Fan was already the final city. The final hospital in the final city.

“Finally going to be done,” Lin Fan said. This period of time had let Lin Fan realize what true pain was.

Every day, having to see countless sick people, some of which was pretty terrifying.

He was seeing a few hundred patients everyday, leaving no time for him to rest at all.

But now, this whole thing was coming to a close.

Right in front of him was the last patient.

“Okay, here is the prescription. Your condition will slowly improve,” Lin Fan smiled and said.

The patient was very grateful and replied, “Thank you, Godly Doctor.”

Zhao Ming Qing, who was standing by his side, said, “Master, we’re finally done.”

Lin Fan nodded and said, “It is. We will return to Shanghai tomorrow, our 20-day voluntary medical work is over. Did you gain a lot from it?”

Zhao Ming Qing happily nodded and said, “Master, I gained a lot. I never thought I would ever have a day like this.”

“Haha,” Lin Fan laughed. But suddenly, his smile disappeared.

The notification from the encyclopedia came.

“Come on, my eleventh page of knowledge. I’ve been waiting for you for a long time.”

Chapter 488: The nature-defying new knowledge

“The tenth page’s task has been completed. Encyclopedic Points will be increased by 100.”

“Unlocking the eleventh page of knowledge. Since it is the eleventh page of knowledge, a specialty of someone close to the host will be chosen.”

Sh*t, here we go again.

At that moment, Lin Fan was very nervous. He had no idea what the eleventh page of knowledge would be but he was hoping to god that it was not some dishonest craft.

However, based on the knowledge he had gotten in the past, none would be too bad. Therefore, his anxiousness was to a small extent.

“Zhao Ming Qing has great admiration towards the host. However, besides traditional Chinese medicine, he does not have any specialties, so another person will be chosen.”

When he heard that it was going to be chosen from Zhao Ming Qing, he was very relieved. However, his relief was short lived.

Motherf*cker. What was this situation? What did it mean by Zhao Ming Qing having no other specialties and having to choose again?

At this moment, Lin Fan was very worried. He had no idea what kind of surprise the encyclopedia would throw up.

“Tian Han Ming has a strong affection towards the host. Autumn Sword Fish Killer has a deep hatred for the host. One of them will be randomly chosen.”

“Tian Han Ming has many specialties. Unlocking the subclass of the workmanship major class: Godly Back Scrubbing technique (With the Encyclopedia’s mystical boost).”

“Note: Since this is a sub-classification, you are not required to be involved in the profession.”

“Encyclopedic Points: 220.”

Right now, Lin Fan was dumbly rooted to the spot. Thousands of thoughts were flowing through his head.

Godly back-scrubbing technique

Why do you have to mess with me like that?

I’m f*cked.

“Master, what happened?” Zhao Ming Qing saw his Master just blankly standing there so he couldn’t help feeling worried.

Could it be because he was too tired and it had brought about mental problems?

Lin Fan awoke from his daze and very dispiritedly raised his hands and let out a sigh. He said, “Nothing.”

“Sigh...”

He wanted to kill himself. Why did it have to be like that? Then he looked at Zhao Ming Qing. Zhao Ming Qing was stunned. He realized that his teacher's gaze was very strong and he felt a little scared and softly said, "Teacher, what's up?"

Lin Fan very sternly said, "Ming Qing, when you go back, I don't care what you do but, besides Chinese medicine, you better pick up other specialties. If you don't, you're not fit to be my disciple."

Zhao Ming Qing was stunned and said, "Teacher, I don't have the energy to learn other specialties."

Lin Fan shook his head and said, "I don't care. Once you go back, you better pick up a hobby."

Zhao Ming Qing felt helpless and said, "Okay, Teacher, whatever you say. When I go back, I'll work hard at it."

"Let's go."

He felt like crying but the tears would not come. What in the world was this? Godly back-scrubbing technique? Scrub your f*cking head.

Going to the bathhouse and else to scrubbing someone's back, that was basically asking for his life. He was such a powerful person but he had to scrub someone else's back. Sigh. F*ck. Just thinking about it was a pain in the a*s.

However, if he did not do it, then the encyclopedia would be stuck on page 11 forever.

"Forget it, I will think about it at home, no point thinking about it now," he thought.

The next day.

The news erupted online.

'The godly doctor has disappeared, no one knows where he is.'

‘These 20 days, the godly doctor gave us an indescribable amount of hope’

‘The whole nation’s medical treatment organizations are all trying to learn the godly doctor’s methods. They are doing intensive research and vow to learn from the godly doctor.’

‘Many major hospitals are trying to hire the godly doctor to be a professor or maybe even a lifelong specialist’

The netizens were all in deep discussion about this.

“Are these editors stupid? No one knows where the godly doctor is? Isn’t he at Shanghai’s Cloud Street?”

“I am really grateful to the godly doctor for turning me into a new person.”

“Thank you, godly doctor, for saving my mother. From this day on, I owe him my life.”

“After this whole fiasco, my impression of traditional Chinese medicine has changed. Who knew that our ancestor’s teachings are still so valid right now?”

“True. All these Chinese doctors should be like the godly doctor. All those tactless Chinese doctors have all smeared the good name of Chinese medicine and made us lose trust in our ancestors.”

“What?”

“This is big news.”

On Weibo.

Lin Fan said, “With this volunteer medical work, I’ve used up a lot of my inner strength. I need at least 10 years to recover it. If you have anyone who sick, please do not come and find me. I want to help but I don’t have the in strength to do so. I will die if I try.”

“Pfff. This is such a sour message to read, the godly doctor was here for such a short period of time.”

“I told you all. How could this godly doctor have such amazing power? Turns out he had some inner power. But what in the world is that?”

“Let me explain this to everyone. What the godly doctor is trying to say is that he doesn’t wish to see any more patients, so don’t go looking for him.”

“Don’t do this, godly doctor. You are a god to us.”

“We can empathize with this. After twenty days of volunteer medical work, seeing so many sick people. It must have been at least a thousand of them. It definitely must have sapped a lot of his energy.”

“Sapped my a*s. If there’s a picture, it’s the truth. See for yourselves.”

“D*mn...”

It was just a few pictures of Lin Fan holding some steamed buns and nibbling on them happily.

Cloud Street.

The shop owners were all gathered together.

Elder Zhang said, “We definitely will. We need to make a giant banner for him. Little Boss is a godly doctor, who went to do volunteer medical work for 20 days. He is definitely a hero.”

Elder Liang nodded and said, “That’s right. Look at the townsfolk. They haven’t been complaining about the lack of scallion pancakes as they have been touched by the Little Boss’s actions.”

Sister Hong laughed and said, “Elder Chen must be filled with regret now. He was suffering in the hospital so much. Especially when he found out that Little Boss was a godly doctor, his intestines must have been filled with regret.”

“Haha. He didn’t believe Little Boss and got what he deserved. Sigh, you’ll have to beat me to death to get me to leave Cloud Street. It is so great being with Little Boss that I want to be neighbors with him forever.”

“I feel like Little Boss is our mascot here at Cloud Street.”

In the afternoon, Lin Fan could not help smiling when he stepped into familiar territory. He was finally back.

The only thing was that he did not know if the residents would beat him to death or not. He felt that they probably would not since they loved him so much.

“Little Boss is back.”

At this moment, the sound of firecrackers rang out.

The shop owners all came out with a giant banner in their hands that said ‘Welcome back Little Boss’.

When Lin Fan saw this, he was almost moved to tears. He was really emotional and realized how much he meant to them.

In the crowd, a series disharmonious voices rang out.

“Little Boss, you were gone for so long so you should sell twenty scallion pancakes a day now.”

His original feeling of being emotional disappeared. It turned out that they did not miss him but rather, missed his scallion pancakes.”

“Woof woof...”

Elder Dog Nicholas rushed to Lin Fan. Lin Fan had not seen him for twenty days and it looked like he had grown in size. Also, it looked like he was running on his two legs a lot better now.

Elder Dog Nicholas was sticking out his tongue and was full of joy. He was running circles around Lin Fan, looking really happy.

Wu You Lan had not seen Lin Fan in a long time so she was all smiles when she finally saw him.

Fraud Tian gave him the thumbs up, showing his approval.

Zhao Zhong Yang started a live broadcast and shouted, “Little Boss is back!”

Chapter 489: This is Normal

Zhao Ming Qing had been following his teacher around all this while. When he finally got home, he laid down on his sofa, not willing to move an inch. Although he was very tired, he felt good inside.

“Are you tired?” His wife was holding a bowl of chicken soup in her hands as she approached him. She had not seen her husband these few days and was missing him dearly.

Their children would also frequently call. At first, they were not happy about it but they eventually came to accept it. She felt it too. However, to be able to turn on the news every day and see her husband on it made her feel very happy inside.

Zhao Ming Qing smiled and nodded. He replied, "I am a bit tired. However, I feel very fulfilled. You may not know this but besides being married to you, these past 20 days have been the most important of my life.

His wife laughed and said, "As long as you're happy, that's good enough."

"Teacher's medical skills are really amazing. If he was placed back in the olden times, he would be known as a godly doctor and be famous for hundreds of years. Even though I said I was tired, Teacher is even more tired. The patients came from far away just to see him. So compared to him, my job was easy," Zhao Ming Qing sighed. Then, he took out his notebook which was completely filled up. Although to others, this was useless, to him, it was a priceless treasure.

In his journal, he wrote down the illness of each patient, what Teacher did to heal the patient and what kind of prescription he gave.

He also wrote down all the things that he did not understand at first but understood after his teacher explained it to him.

However, this was just the tip of the iceberg. A disease had many different forms so it requires a much deeper form of research. However, if they were able to treat a certain disease, it did not matter how it mutated as the general way of treating it was still the same.

Zhao Ming Qing asked, "How are the kids?"

"They are good. Are you still angry at them?" The wife smiled and asked.

Zhao Ming Qing shook his head and said, "They're all my favorite children. There is no angry or not. I'm just disappointed. Please tell them that if it was anything else, I, as their father, would be able to accept it. However, if they disrespect my teacher again, then don't blame me for my actions."

His wife shook her head and said, "Why do you have to be so serious? The kids haven't been thinking this way at all. Recently, they have also been feeling pretty good after seeing the news."

"That's good," Zhao Ming Qing nodded. The age difference between him and his teacher was pretty big so many people would find that pretty weird. However, to him, he was lucky enough to be his disciple and he did not care what anyone else said. He had a huge amount of respect for his teacher.

Traditional Chinese Medicine was something passed down from his ancestors. To have someone like his teacher personally teach him about it was something that made him very happy. In fact, nothing in the past few years had made him happier.

Ding ding~

A call from Zhou Qing Quan came.

“Look, my phone has rung. Must be someone asking about our volunteer medical work. I’m going to go to my room first,” Zhao Ming Qing said as he picked up the phone and was all smiles as he walked upstairs.

To see her husband so happy made her feel happy inside too.

To be able to do what he loved, especially during his old age, also being able to meet a teacher who has taught him so much, made her feel happy for him.

At the Chinese Medical Academy.

Qiu Jie and Zhang Tong Tong were standing at the entrance to the school.

There was a banner raised at the entrance to the school, welcoming them back.

It was an honor to them and it made them feel very emotional.

Qiu Jie happily said, “This period of medical volunteer work is one I will never forget. I have so much confidence in Chinese Medicine and I believe that it will pick up in popularity.”

Zhang Tong Tong, who was a girl, nodded her head, saying, “Yes, we were definitely very lucky to meet someone like Master Lin. Director Zhao also told us if we have any further question we could approach him. Do you think that Director Zhao will take us in as disciples?”

Qiu Jie happily replied, “It’s still too early to say. Although Director Zhao isn’t at the level of Master Lin, he is still a Chinese medicine doctor. If he takes us in he will definitely be very strict in observing and testing us. So we still have a long way to go if we want Director Zhao to take us in. However, he did say that if we have any troubles we could approach him.”

“I told my family about this and they all praised my decision. They also became very supportive of me learning Traditional Chinese Medicine. This whole situation has had a very big impact on the way they view Traditional Chinese Medicine,” Zhang Tong Tong said. To her, there was nothing else that made her happier.

She was a girl, so initially, her family did not support her studying of traditional Chinese medicine. But after this whole thing, they approved of it.

The surrounding students saw the two of them and they were extremely envious. They were also filled with regret. Had they known it would be like that, they would have signed up also.

However, it was too late for regret.

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was very reluctant to even pick up his phone.

However, there was a phone call he could not reject.

“Dad, is something up?” Lin Fan asked.

Father Lin said, “Son, is that you on the news? When did you learn about Traditional Chinese Medicine?”

Lin Fan laughed and said, “I taught it to myself.”

“My son is so amazing. Self-taught and yet so successful. Okay, I’ll leave you to your own business. Oh yes, your mother wanted me to ask you, when are you bringing a girlfriend home? We are very eager,” Father Lin said.

“Soon, soon. I’ve been very busy recently so let me finish my things first. I’m almost finished with it,” Lin Fan said. He could only delay. This whole situation had not yet concluded. Moreover, it was definitely not so easy to find a girlfriend.

After hanging up.

In a residential building in Zhongzhou.

Father Lin was staring at the news on his phone and he could not help laughing. He said, “Dear, I’m going to Elder Li’s house next door to gloat, I’ll be back soon.”

The corridor outside.

Father Lin knocked on the door and said, “Elder Li, quickly open the door. Let’s go for a walk.”

He was prepared to go into the room, take out his phone and surprise Elder Li with the news. He wanted to show off to Elder Li. This time he had definitely beaten him.

On the other side of the door.

Elder Li took a glance through the peephole, then he looked at his phone. On his screen was the news about Lin Fan. “Hmph, this Elder Lin is up to no good again. He is probably here to show off again. Do you think that I haven’t seen the news? Last time, you already came down here to show off, do you think I’m going to give you this chance again?”

Elder Li pretended not to be home.

Elder Lin became suspicious and said, “Ah, is Elder Li not home? Forget it, I’ll come back tonight.”

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan unlocked his phone and checked Weibo. He had gained a lot of followers and had over 5 million of them. This was really a massive change, especially in his comments section. There were many enthusiasts all praising the godly doctor's reputation, making him feel very good inside.

He saw a private message, so he opened it to have a look.

“Godly doctor, it's me, Brother Qiang Qiang. I have been having some weird symptoms. My voice has changed and became more feminine, is this a problem?”

Lin Fan laughed and was wondering how this was a problem. He replied, “Not a problem. This is very normal and is just a short-term effect. After a short period of time, it won't change anymore.”

Brother Qiang Qiang replied, “Oh, that's good. Thank you for your time godly doctor.”

Lin Fan smiled and said, “No need to thank me, it's what I should be doing. Remember to follow the prescription.”

To be able to settle the problems of a beautiful lady made him feel very good inside.

Once Brother Qiang Qiang completes her change, what will she look like?

Thinking about it made him very curious.

Chapter 490: I'm setting the industry's benchmark, understand?

The enthusiasm over volunteer medical work had not gone away yet but the Wu Tao situation was dominating the headlines. This was a big issue but if it was back in the old times, the news would not have spread to such a large extent. However, since it was the age of the internet, if something happened today, by tomorrow, the whole world would know about it. It was truly a terrifying prospect.

Also, this issue caused by this one person, Wu Tao, had implicated so many people. This was something everyone thought was unbelievable.

Whenever Lin Fan looked at the news, he would laugh. He knew a long time ago that there would be he would and up in jail and it would be a severe sentence. Wu Tao had been insistent on going against Lin Fan. That was simply asking for death.

At this moment, Wu You Lan came over and poured tea for Lin Fan. Then, she sat opposite Lin Fan, both hands under her chin, staring at him with her eyes wide open and with a twinkle in them.

Lin Fan sipped the tea, smiled and said, “You Lan, what are you doing? I can see a love-struck gleam in your eyes.”

“Pah! You are the one who is love-struck. I’m just here trying to study you and see what other things you are hiding from me,” Wu You Lan replied.

Lin Fan smiled and said, “If you guys didn’t ask, you guys would not know. Actually, I do have one thing that I have been hiding from you guys. Do you see my two hands?”

Wu You Lan nodded and replied, “Yes I do. So what?”

“Let me tell you. My two hands are really good at scrubbing backs, it’s really very comfortable,” Lin Fan said. Thinking about the 11th page of knowledge made him feel like crying.

When Wu You Lan heard that, her cheeks turned red and she said, “Brother Lin, you went out for awhile and then... then, forget it,” Wu You Lan said as she dejectedly went to hide in the corner.

“What’s is it? I’m telling the truth,” Lin Fan helplessly said.

“When it comes to back scrubbing, there really isn’t anyone better than me. When I was going through tough times back then, I used to scrub backs in Xiaohong’s bath center. My technique was so good that there was a long line of people chasing me to scrub their backs. It’s a pity that my interests did not lie in back scrubbing. If not, I would have become the most famous back scrubber in the nation,” Fraud Tian said as he reminisced about the past. He could not help letting out a sigh.

Lin Fan looked at Fraud Tian. He really despised how Fraud Tian seemed to have such exotic talents.

You are a Fraud and yet you still insist on being multi-talented. Do you not know that this will be the death of some people?

“Shall we go to the bathroom and have a contest?” Fraud Tian smiled and said.

Lin Fan shot a glance at him and said, “Who would want to compete with you? I’m going for a stroll, you guys take care of the shop.”

Outside the shop.

Lin Fan went to end of Cloud Street. There was a bath center there. Although the place was not very big in size, it had a good enough reputation. The boss was a short and fat person who was very likable. Although Lin Fan interact with the guy much, he had come to queue at Lin Fan’s shop many times before. After some time, they had become familiar with each other.

“Little Boss, how come you have the time to come here?” at the bath center’s entrance, the boss, Elder Zeng asked with a smile on his face.

Lin Fan smiled and said, “I was thinking of you so I came over to find you.”

Zeng Wei was happy at that moment. He knew what Little Boss stood for in Cloud Street so he spoke to him in a very welcoming manner, saying, “Little Boss, I bought some good teas recently, do you want to try some?”

Lin Fan had initially been planning to find a bathhouse. If he was going to go to someone else’s house for it, he might as well go to his neighbors’ one. He then smiled and said, “Looks like I’ll have to trouble you to do that.”

Zeng Wei brewed the tea, poured it for him and said, “Please, try it.”

Lin Fan had no idea how to judge tea so he took a sip and said, “Not bad, not bad. Oh yes, Elder Zeng, how has your business been, recently?”

Zeng Wei shook his head and said, “Passable. It hasn’t been doing poorly but hasn’t been earning much money either. Looks like you’re having trouble believing what I’m saying.”

Lin Fan nodded and said, “It is a little hard to believe. The shop’s decor isn’t bad and the location is quite good. How can you not be earning money?”

Zeng Wei laughed and said, “It’s because I don’t have that thing. You should know what it is.”

“Haha,” Lin Fan smiled and said, “I know, I know.”

He was talking about prostitutes, wasn’t he?

However, it was true. Here in Shanghai, this field was well developed. Eight out of every ten of these bathhouses would have such an item. As for the other two, they depended entirely on their own capabilities.

“When I first opened this store, I had analyzed the situation. What I saw were many laborers that came to Shanghai. However, what I did not realize is that when people came to these bathhouses, they were also there to relax. Not just relax, but to do that also. So, given that I don’t provide that, how can I compete with others? Look at that Golden Phoenix Bath Centre. Their one night of business is equal to a month of mine. Don’t you think that is scary?” Zeng Wei said. Zeng Wei admired them but would not dare to do something like that because if he got caught, it would be a tragedy.

“They are that amazing?” Lin Fan exclaimed.

“Definitely. They are not just amazing but they are simply money grabbing. You see, their lowest price is 698 dollars and the highest goes up to 1288. There are even times where they are at full capacity. Also, if you want to go for higher quality, it can go up to two or three thousand dollars. However, that’s other people’s business. I’ll just mind my own, I don’t have the guts to do something like that.”

Lin Fan nodded and then asked, “Oh yeah, I’m prepared to work here as a back-scrubber, what do you think of that?”

“Sure,” Zeng Wei laughed and said. Then, his expression changed and he was dumbfounded as he looked at Lin Fan and said, “Little Boss, what did you say just now?”

Lin Fan blinked his eyes and then said, "I want to come here and work as a back scrubber, what do you think of that?"

Zeng Wei had a stupid look on his face as he looked at Lin Fan and said, "Little Boss, you aren't pulling my leg right? How can my small little shop..."

Lin Fan cut him off and said, "So will you let me? We are all neighbors, I won't joke with you like that."

"You know how to scrub backs?" Zeng Wei doubtfully asked.

"What a joke. My back scrubbing skills are the best in the world. As long as I come here to work, your business will turn around and increase more than tens of times," Lin Fan boasted.

Regarding Little Boss' request, he did not reject it. Even if Little Boss did not know how to do it, he still had to agree since it was the Little Boss asking.

Also, Little Boss was so popular around Cloud Street and everyone admired him. So he might be able to bring some extra business along.

"Okay, then it's a deal. You can relax, I guarantee that I am not wrong," Lin Fan said as he got up. "I shan't bother you anymore, I'm going to buy some goods. As for wages, you need not bother about that."

Zeng Wei was still in shock and he said, "Little Boss, why are you doing this?"

Lin Fan very seriously replied, "To experience every profession. To leave a legend in this industry. To become the benchmark in this industry. I don't think you will understand. That's all, I shall take my leave."

Zeng Wei still had that retarded look on his face as he stared at Lin Fan. He had already been left in a daze by him. He still did not understand what was going on and even after much thought, he still did not get it. He felt that Little Boss was really too impulsive, acting so fast and not giving people any time to react.

However, the fact that Little Boss agreed to come to his bath center and experience it would definitely help him out a lot.

Thinking about it made him feel a little happy.

The next day!

A group of unexpected guests arrived in front of the shop.

Lin Fan was astonished. What in the world was going on?
