Chapter 511: Can't say anymore

“The paragraph below has a small mistake. This was written based on ancient texts. However, is that correct? Does it mean that whatever the ancient scholars wrote is true? We need to use our own logic to differentiate this too.”

“Page 35, third paragraph.”

“Page 103, the twelfth paragraph.”

...

The netizens on the Internet were stunned. They realized that Master Lin was incredible.

“666...He's just brutally humiliating them.”

“Master Lin is indeed Master Lin. What he said was based on facts and there's nothing we could argue about.”

“I feel that what Master Lin said is very true. The ancient scholars are humans and we're humans too. Why should we hold firmly onto ancient beliefs? We need to use our own logic and challenge them sometimes.”

“Yeah, the medical technology is so advanced now. That's something that the ancient scholars can't compete with.”

Zhao Ming Qing sat in front of his computer and scrolled through Weibo. He saw that his mentor was doing extremely well. However, he wasn't particularly happy. He was serious about what his mentor posted on Weibo. He treated it like a lesson.

He started to flip through a Chinese Medical Foundation textbook as he continued reading the posts. He tried to look for the ideas that Lin Fan had posted and used a pen to mark them out in the book.

He also realized that the Chinese Medicine foundational teachings had something wrong but he wasn't clear about it. When he looked at it again, he realized that things seemed really wrong.

At the Chinese Medical Association.

Zhou Qing Quan immediately got everyone to open up Weibo and look at Master Lin's Weibo. Although Master Lin's words sounded a little stupid, they were indeed true. They looked through some of the questions and found out that what he said was correct.

Wang Tian Feng heaved a sigh, "Master Lin is going to create a revolution in Chinese Medicine."

Zhou Qing Quan smiled bitterly, "Yeah, I didn't expect it too."

Wang Tian Feng smiled, "I feel that what the godly doctor said was true. We should reflect on his words."

The surrounding crowd nodded in agreement.

This was the first time someone had criticised the Chinese Medicine foundational teachings online. Also, he did it with evidence and it was difficult to argue about it.

The students in the Chinese Medical Academy were all stunned.

"D*mn, is it true? There are so many mistakes in the teaching materials?"

"I don't know. My medical skills are average and I don't understand anything. Anyway, I just believed whatever the book wrote."

"The 'Qing Yuan Medical Text' is a book that we have had to memorize by heart. The godly doctor said that it had a lot of misconceptions. Does that mean that we memorized it for nothing?"

“D*mn, that can’t be. That means we’ve been played.”

“Quick, make a note of what he wrote. What the godly doctor said must be logical and true. If he removes his posts, we won’t be able to find it anymore.”

“That’s right!”

Lin Fan started to publish more posts. He had already offended people and he wasn’t afraid anymore. He just wanted to spill the beans and cause chaos.

“I shall answer the above question with another question.”

“Why is Chinese Medicine still using the wrong theories and using them to develop misconceptions? The teaching materials are practically useless.”

“I think it is because of people’s thinking. That caused this to happen,” Lin Fan said.

Zhao Ming Qing had been concentrating on his mentor’s words.

Those questions were worthy of consideration.

Then, he realized that the teacher’s words were shocking. It was the most shocking thing on earth.

Ding ding!

His phone rang.

“Director Zhao, please appease the godly doctor. His words shouldn’t be said now,” someone from the Education Department called.

They were dumbfounded by those posts online.

The peaceful world of Chinese Medicine was going to be overturned.

Zhao Ming Qing said regretfully, “Sorry, I agree with his ideas. Also, my mentor has his own way of thinking. As his disciple, I don’t have any reason to go against him.”

He hung up the call

Zhao Ming Qing continued to read what Lin Fan had posted. He wasn’t going to be commanded by anyone.

Furthermore, he felt that what his mentor said was flawless.

The modern society had advanced technology and the medical facilities were highly capable. Chinese Medicine should be progressing rapidly in such a good environment. People should be able to create more medications to benefit people. However, Chinese Medicine was stagnant.

He felt that Chinese Medicine had to be reformed but it was difficult.

If an average Chinese medical doctor said those things, he would definitely have been attacked by people as they would think that he was spreading nonsense.

Students in the Chinese Medical Academy were brilliant. However, they could only handle exams. If they were to face patients, they might be lost and not know what to do.

Although they didn’t know what was going to happen in the future, his words were extremely impactful.

Countless of netizens were looking at Lin Fan’s Weibo.

Although they didn’t really understand what was going on, they felt that he was incredible.

Lin Fan was typing non-stop and he published a lot of posts.

The modern medical students were also looking at his Weibo.

“This Master Lin is incredible. Just by reading these posts, I can tell that he understands modern medicine very well.”

“I heard this godly doctor isn’t just good at Chinese Medicine. He is also amazing in modern medicine. It is incredible.”

...

Wu Xi Jun was infuriated. He didn’t expect this fella to talk so much regarding this.

“@Master Lin, that’s enough. Stop it.”

Lin Fan was extremely happy from posting. When he saw Wu Xi Jun directing a message at him, he smiled and replied.

“Not enough. It will never be enough. There are so many things I want to talk about. Wait till I’m done.”

Wu Xi Jun was dumbfounded by his reply. He really wanted to kill this man. However, he couldn’t do anything about it.

He felt that things were about to go down after looking at the situation online.

“Your mum! I want to see how long you can continue posting.” Wu Xi Jun knew that he couldn’t have stopped him. However, he didn’t believe that Lin Fan wouldn’t stop posting.

Half an hour later.

The netizens were stunned because Lin Fan was still posting.

Zhao Ming Qing was dumbfounded too. His mentor had so much to say and it was all based on evidence.

An hour later.

Lin Fan was still feeling energetic and he was still typing non-stop.

Wu Xi Jun felt like killing himself. He didn't expect this fella to have so much to say.

The people from the Education Department were stunned. They could only laugh at it. He wasn't even finished and this matter was blowing up. They could already predict what was going to happen the next day.

It wouldn't have mattered if it was posted by an average citizen but he was a godly doctor.

He was a godly Chinese medical doctor. His sudden stream of posts would definitely cause a chain reaction.

The Education Department was going to be the first group of people to be affected.

After all, they were the ones who were managing the Chinese Medical Academies.

People from the Chinese Medicinal Association were helpless. Zhou Qing Quan could only laugh about it. He knew that this would happen.

Two hours later.

Lin Fan was a little tired from typing. "That's all for today. I'll post more in the future. If I were to continue, I'd get beaten up."

Some of the netizens observed it for two whole hours and they could only post the following lines.

"6666...."

"You're the most awesome guy ever."

"You've spoken about it for two hours and you're still afraid of being beaten up?"

“Brother Fan has the most knowledge in society. It is truly terrifying.”

...

Chapter 512: Wang Ming Yang is in trouble

The next day!

What Lin Fan did on Weibo the previous day was impactful. A lot of anonymous people complained about it and wanted Weibo to delete Lin Fan’s account.

However, Weibo would be doomed if they did that. The godly doctor was so powerful and if they really deleted his account, who knew what would happen?

Anyway, the matter had nothing to do with them. Furthermore, all those that complained were using anonymous accounts. Hence, they ignored those complaints. If they were brave enough, they should use their real accounts. If not, Weibo wouldn’t bother about the complaints.

The discussion online was intense.

“D*mn, that’s shocking. I’ve never seen a person who dares to publicise the truth to everyone.”

“Haha, that doesn’t mean a thing. Look at who it is, he is Master Lin. He has always been fearless on Weibo.”

“Perhaps the people at the Education Department really want to kill themselves now. Although Master Lin didn’t blame anyone, this matter would definitely implicate them directly.”

“I am truly impressed by Master Lin and nobody else.”

“There is a number of people that have started to go against the Education Department. They feel that they’ve been teaching people incorrect information about Chinese medicine.”

“Hey, where is Master Lin today? Did he run away after what had happened yesterday?”

“You must be talking rubbish. He’s already pushed the blame to them. Why would he still care?”

...

At the Education Department.

They held an urgent meeting.

The Director was at a loss. They had been spammed with phone calls. All of them requested for new Chinese Medicine materials. He felt like killing himself. This matter was so bizarre. They weren’t Chinese medical doctors and those grandmasters who taught the materials didn’t say anything about it. How would they have known that there had been a problem with the materials? Lin Fan had cornered them and they didn’t know what to do.

“Director, what should we do now? The public opinion matters a lot.”

“We have to try to control the situation as soon as possible.”

“I don’t think we can control it. A lot of Chinese medical students from all universities are on a strike now. They want us to bring in teaching materials that teach the right content.”

“Teaching materials without any mistakes... Where do we go to find them?”

“Isn’t the godly doctor writing it now? Actually, we can just bring in his teaching materials.”

“Quickly contact Zhao Ming Qing. Wait until his teacher finishes writing the materials and get him to send it to us. If it is possible, we will immediately publish it.”

“That’s the best we can do.”

They quickly went to publicise the matter. Furthermore, this had a huge implication and they had to organize a press conference to report it. At the same time, they needed to gain the trust of people.

They didn't want to talk much about the godly doctor. He was indeed superb at pushing the blame.

Wu Xi Jun, in particular, had been doing well by selling his medical equipment. He had a conflict with the godly doctor and thus the Education Department was in this hot mess. Therefore, they hated Wu Xi Jun a lot.

Meanwhile, other family members...

Some of the parents that sent their children to the Chinese Medical Academies had been reading the news. When the news came out, they were extremely nervous. They didn't like the fact that their children chose to study Chinese medicine. Now, something like this had happened and they were worried.

If not for the godly doctor revealing the truth, they wouldn't have known that the foundation teaching materials for Chinese medicine actually had a lot of mistakes. Weren't they harming their children by sending them there?

At Shanghai's First Chinese Medical Academy.

Some of the students that felt conflicted were silenced. They didn't feel conflicted anymore. The teaching materials had mistakes and they couldn't do anything about it. They would be learning the wrong things if they continued studying.

Then, they took a different stand.

They had to support the change in teaching materials.

Zhao Ming Qing read the news online and chuckled. His mentor was indeed incredible. He had immediately pushed the blame to the people at the Education Departments.

...

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was extremely bored. He didn't bother about the online situation anymore. Anyway, he wasn't the one in trouble. They had to resolve it themselves. He just had to write the materials in peace.

Fraud Tian walked over, "How could you be sitting here? Don't you care about what's happening online?"

Lin Fan looked calm, "What happened online? It has nothing to do with me."

Fraud Tian raised his thumb, "You're awesome. You created such a big mess and you're still so calm. I'm impressed."

Lin Fan smiled, "Haha, don't be."

Wu You Lan smiled, "Brother Lin, you were awesome yesterday. A lot of netizens are discussing your posts right now. However, if they knew that you're so calm, what do you think they would do?"

Zhao Zhong Yang said, "What else? They would definitely kill Brother Lin."

Lin Fan was a little upset. "That's not correct. I have done my part. Now, it depends on them."

"Alright, I have to write the materials now. This is an important task. It's extremely stressful," Lin Fan shook his head and said. Then, he continued writing.

Ding ding!

Then, his phone rang.

It was Wang Ming Yang. He finally bothered to call him.

He picked up the phone.

“Hello, Ming Yang, you finally called me,” Lin Fan chuckled.

However, something was wrong. The person on the phone was crying and it was a lady.

“Who are you?” Lin Fan asked.

“Brother Lin, I am Zi Le. Something bad happened to Ming Yang,” Xu Zi Le was anxious.

Lin Fan was nervous after hearing that. “What happened?”

Something was wrong. He had read Wang Ming Yang’s fortune before. Wang Ming Yang was supposed to be enjoying the later years of his life. What could have happened?

Xu Zi Le said anxiously, “I don’t know. Come to the office quickly. We don’t know what happened.”

“Alright, I’ll be there soon.” Lin Fan stood up after hanging up and left immediately.

Fraud Tian looked at Lin Fan, “What happened?”

However, Lin Fan had already left. Fraud Tian shook his head helplessly. He wondered what had happened.

Lin Fan was mumbling to himself as he drove off.

Could something bad really have happened?

No, it didn’t seem logical.

His fortune-telling abilities were the best in the world. It definitely wouldn’t go wrong.

At Eastern Han Organisation.

Lin Fan parked his car at the entrance and rushed inside.

The staff at the counter greeted Lin Fan as she knew that he was their Boss's best friend.

He went up the lift to the top floor.

As he walked towards the conference room, he could hear frantic noises coming from it.

Lin Fan pushed the door open and entered. He saw a group of people which gathered around. Xu Zi Le was in shock. She was leaning on Wang Ming Yang. "Ming Yang, what's wrong? Don't scare me like that."

"What happened?" Lin Fan asked.

Xu Zi Le immediately went forward when she saw Lin Fan. "Brother Lin, come and have a look. It seems like something is wrong with Ming Yang."

The others made way for him. They were also nervous and afraid of what was to come.

One of the secretaries said, "Master Lin, I feel like Chief Wang got possessed by a ghost."

Lin Fan frowned in silence. Who would dare to possess his best friend?

Chapter 513: Slapping him profusely

Wang Ming Yang was sitting on the chair. He looked extremely different. He was looking out of the window into the city.

Then, he was breathing deeply and his four limbs seemed to have hardened. They were trembling.

“Wang Ming Yang, what are you doing?” Lin Fan said sternly.

He had heard of people being possessed by ghosts but he had never seen it before.

This was a common occurrence in the villages and the main reason for that was still unknown.

Some said that it was a mental illness and some said that these people were possessed by ghosts.

Nobody had a complete explanation for the occurrences.

“I am not Wang Ming Yang. I am Zhao Shan,” Wang Ming Yang said. His tone had changed and it really seemed like he was possessed by a ghost.

Xu Zi Le said worriedly, “Brother Lin, what happened to Ming Yang?”

The others started to whisper amongst themselves.

“Did Chief Wang really get possessed by a ghost?”

“I think so.”

“How could it be? I thought ghosts only possessed those people who are plagued with illnesses? Chief Wang is so young. How could he be possessed by one?”

“That’s right but regardless, it could still happen.”

Lin Fan touched Wang Ming Yang’s forehead and arms. They both felt cold.

His body was fine.

Lin Fan’s medical skills were considered the best. He could tell if a person had a problem just with one touch. However, Wang Ming Yang didn’t have any problems at all.

If that was the case, something was wrong.

“Master Lin, I think Chief Wang really got possessed by a ghost. Should I get a professional here?”
An employee asked.

Lin Fan remained silent. Then, he asked, “Zhao Shan, right? What do you want?”

Since Wang Ming Yang was believed to be possessed, Lin Fan wanted to ask him some questions as if he was really possessed.

Wang Ming Yang trembled. “I don’t want anything. I don’t want to leave. I want to stay here.”

Lin Fan said sternly, “You are not him. He is not you. Why are you staying here? Get lost!”

Zhao Shan shook his head, “I’m not leaving, I can’t bear to leave.”

Then, Lin Fan really couldn’t do anything about it.

He knew little about people being possessed by ghosts. It was something that couldn’t be explained by modern science.

Then, he took out his phone and searched online to see what to do about it.

He had to do it out of desperation. Although he didn’t know what was happening, he wanted to see how netizens solved the problem.

He was stunned after searching it online. There was a lot of news about it and many netizens shared about it.

He felt that one of the methods would work.

Lin Fan plucked a strand of hair from Xu Zi Le’s head and placed it in front of Wang Ming Yang. Then, he allowed Wang Ming Yang to take a breath before he swirled the strand of hair in front of him thrice in the clockwise direction and thrice more in the opposite direction.

The crowd was stunned and they didn't know what Master Lin was doing. Did Master Lin know something about being possessed by a deity?

Xu Zi Le was dumbfounded. She could only rely on Brother Lin.

Lin Fan then pulled the hair in front of Wang Ming Yang and struck it with a finger. The strand of hair broke into two.

Huh?

Nothing happened.

Lin Fan felt that he had been pranked.

Wang Ming Yang had nothing wrong with him but he seemed mentally unsound. Lin Fan didn't know what had happened.

He opened up the Encyclopedia's knowledge classifications and there was one about spirit possession. It was a small classification but it was expensive. It was impossible to buy with his current Encyclopedic Points.

The Internet also had another method. If that didn't work, he would have to temporarily borrow the Encyclopedia's knowledge.

Xu Zi Le and the others stood there and looked but nothing happened. They were nervous and they wondered if Brother Lin could handle the situation.

However, they could only rely on Brother Lin.

Lin Fan took a deep breath and grabbed onto Wang Ming Yang's collar. According to the Internet, one had to be stern. "Are you leaving or not?!"

"I am not leaving!" Wang Ming Yang shouted.

slap

Lin Fan slapped him. According to the Internet, if the ghost didn't want to leave, one didn't have to treat it nicely. He/she could start hitting the person until the ghost decided to leave.

“Are you leaving?”

Wang Ming Yang was stunned. It was as if he didn't expect to be hit.

Lin Fan saw that there wasn't a response. Hence, he slapped him consecutively on both sides of his face. He didn't give him an opportunity to speak.

After more than ten slaps, Lin Fan said angrily, “Get lost now!”

Then, a miraculous thing happened. Wang Ming Yang's eyes closed and his body froze. It was as if he had fallen asleep.

Lin Fan measured his pulse and checked that there wasn't any problem with him.

However, the situation didn't seem favorable. He didn't know if the method had worked or not. If it didn't work, he would have to unlock the 'spirit possession' classification temporarily. Although it was expensive, he had no choice.

Xu Zi Le went forward, “Brother Lin, is he okay now?”

Lin Fan wasn't sure. “I don't know. We have to wait and see.”

After a period of time, Wang Ming Yang opened his eyes. When he saw Lin Fan in front of him, he asked, “Why are you here?”

When he heard that, Lin Fan heaved a sigh of relief. That really worked.

Indeed, the fastest way to overcome it was to use force.

Xu Zi Le went to Wang Ming Yang, "Ming Yang, you scared me!"

Wang Ming Yang was in a daze. He didn't know what had happened.

hiss

"Ouch, why does my face hurt so much? What happened just now?" Wang Ming Yang asked.

Lin Fan waved his hand at the other workers. "You guys can make a move first."

They nodded and left the conference room.

Lin Fan pulled a stool over. He was curious and wanted to know if he had really gotten possessed by a ghost.

"Do you really not remember what just happened?" Lin Fan asked.

Wang Ming Yang shook his head, "I don't remember anything but I know I got hit by someone. Why is my face swollen?"

"Nobody hit you. It was a hallucination. Also, you got possessed by a ghost. You said you were Zhao Shan. Do you know who he is?" Lin Fan asked.

Wang Ming Yang's face changed drastically when he heard that name.

Lin Fan knew that he really knew this man. At the same time, he was curious about why the ghost had possessed him.

Why would something like this happen in the modern society?

Wang Ming Yang looked at Lin Fan, "You said I was possessed by a ghost called Zhao Shan? That..."

Lin Fan said, “Just tell me your relationship with Zhao Shan. I don’t really believe in these things. However, I am quite interested to find out about it after seeing what had happened earlier. I feel that it was weird.”

Wang Ming Yang remained silent for a moment. Then, he nodded, “I know Zhao Shan. He was my childhood friend. However, he died more than ten years ago. We went to the river to swim but he drowned. I have always remembered this incident and I feel like I caused his death...”

Lin Fan continued listening and Xu Zi Le didn’t expect Wang Ming Yang to have faced such an incident.

Then, Lin Fan stood up. “It’s okay now. However, I think you should go back to the village and visit Zhao Shan’s family. Since you were possessed by him, I don’t think he did it for fun. Something must have happened. If something happened to his family, you should help them out.”

Wang Ming Yang nodded. “Why do you know so much about this?”

Lin Fan chuckled, “There’s Baidu, why wouldn’t I know about it? I’ll head back first. Have a good rest.”

“What exactly happened to my face? Why do I feel like I got beaten up by someone?” Wang Ming Yang asked curiously.

Lin Fan shrugged his shoulders. “Anyway, I wasn’t the one that hit you. You should ask someone else.”

...

After leaving, Lin Fan started to think about what had happened. It wasn’t a mental issue. It could be that Wang Ming Yang had always been stressed and guilty about causing Zhao Shan’s death. In the long run, it caused him to develop a split personality which would be activated randomly. Could that be the case?

However, that was just Lin Fan’s guess. He still didn’t know the exact details.

If he traded his Encyclopedic Points for the ‘spirit possession’ minor classification knowledge, he would definitely understand it. However, it was extremely expensive. Only an idiot would trade for that.

Chapter 514: Clinging to the powerful and influential

After leaving the Eastern Han Group.

Wang Ming Yang immediately called to ask what had happened. After Xu Zi Le told him about what had happened, he was probably extremely frightened.

However, Lin Fan wasn’t capable a ‘spirit possession’ master. He couldn’t have explained it. He could only go on Baidu and search it up. After all, the Internet was filled with such information.

After Wang Ming Yang rested for a day, he immediately returned to his old home. He felt that Zhao Shan must have had something to tell him. Returning home was the right thing to do.

A few days had passed. Lin Fan had been writing teaching materials and he had completed a few of them.

According to the knowledge in the Encyclopedia, some of the content in the Chinese Medicine foundational teaching materials that he had borrowed wasn’t up to scratch. However, after he made some corrections, the teaching materials had become perfect.

Wu You Lan smiled, “How is the writing going?”

Lin Fan nodded, “I’ve already completed two books. I’m working on another one now.”

Wu You Lan’s eyes looked as if they were glimmering. She realized that Brother Lin was really multi-talented. He seemed as if he knew everything. Especially Chinese Medicine, which was such a difficult thing to master but yet he was able to do it so well. It was shocking.

However, what Wu You Lan was frustrated about was her relationship with Brother Lin. It didn’t have much progress. Every time she wanted to initiate something, it was interrupted by another event.

She always thought that her greatest enemy was Wu Huan Yue but she had been watching the news. Recently, Wu Huan Yue had been busy attending large-scale events. She wouldn't have had time to visit Brother Lin. To Wu You Lan, she had to be wary of the other lustful women out there. However, she was already the closest to Brother Lin and she was naturally in the best position.

Her figure and complexion were perfect.

Confidence!

She had to have confidence. She had to believe that she was the perfect one for him.

Wu You Lan sat there and looked at Lin Fan as if she was admiring him. Lin Fan felt a little awkward. This lady's stare was starting to get offensive.

He felt like he was being exposed.

Ding ding!

Zhao Ming Qing called.

"Teacher, how is the composition of the teaching materials? Is it successful?" Zhao Ming Qing asked with anticipation.

This had a huge impact on the world of Chinese medicine. Just because of his mentor's theories, there had been an uproar in the world of Chinese medicine. Furthermore, the Chinese Medicine Association would always be on his side. Therefore, his mentor's theories were definitely supported.

Furthermore, Zhou Qing Quan, the President of the Chinese Medicine Association was fully supportive of his mentor's views and ideas. He felt that they had to improve on the past bad habits.

Since the President had spoken about this, nobody else dared to say anything.

However, the people from the Education Department were worried. Although this matter had nothing to do with them, they were the ones that published the teaching materials. They couldn't say anything even though they were suffering. The public wouldn't have believed them.

Lin Fan smiled, "I finished two books already. If you're interested, you can come to my shop."

Zhao Ming Qing was elated when he heard that. He felt that his mentor was extremely swift. "I will make my way there now."

After hanging up, Lin Fan continued to write and he thought about things.

Ding ding!

Wang Ming Yang called.

Lin Fan felt that he was receiving a lot of calls everyday. His phone bills must have been crazy.

Wang Ming Yang had gone back to his old home. This matter had affected him a lot. After he had first left his old home in the past, he had never returned until now.

Lin Fan asked, "How did it go? How's Zhao Shan's family?"

Wang Ming Yang said sadly, "After returning to my old home, I looked around for a while and realized that Zhao Shan's family had moved away. I found out from the police station that their family is in a dire situation. It's all my fault. I haven't thought about this at all. The house that they're living in is extremely torn and tattered. I think I'll have to be here for some time to build a nice house for them. I was very much responsible for Zhao Shan's death."

Lin Fan said, "Alright, don't think too much about it. It has already happened. You have to manage this matter properly. The conflict in your heart has been resolved and you don't have to think about it anymore."

"Okay." Wang Ming Yang agreed with what he said. He wanted to manage this matter properly. After all, Zhao Shan's family had lost their sole breadwinner and their future was ruined.

Lin Fan didn't want to ask anything more about it. This matter wasn't something that happened to him often and there was no need for him to be thinking about it.

After chatting with Wang Ming Yang for a little more, he hung up.

After a moment.

Zhao Ming Qing came over ecstatically. "Teacher, where are the teaching materials?"

Lin Fan chuckled, "The teaching materials are all you think about."

Zhao Ming Qing smiled embarrassedly, "No, I'm just a little excited. After all, these materials are composed by my mentor. They're definitely of superior quality. It is beneficial to the entire world of Chinese Medicine."

"Alright, stop praising me. Just look at them." Lin Fan handed two books to him. He didn't mention how good these books were but they were definitely flawless.

Even a beginner would be able to understand them. Even beginners would understand what Chinese Medicine was all about and what was the main purpose of it.

'Foundational Chinese Medicine'

Zhao Ming Qing flipped to the first page and read it slowly. Lin Fan didn't disturb him after that, he just continued writing another book.

Wu You Lan poured a cup of tea for him. Meanwhile, Wu Tian He looked at Zhao Ming Qing. He finally understood the power of Master Lin.

In Lianzhou, Wu Tian He was considered a powerful individual. However, he realized that he wasn't that powerful after all.

He was now just reading fortunes in this small shop and it was a decent job. He could chat with people and talk about life. Furthermore, his daughter was right by him and he felt that his life was blissful.

However, what Wu Tian He hadn't expected was to have met a good friend like Fraud Tian in the later years of his life.

He was someone who had a drastically different mindset.

However, when the two of them were together, they could actually click with one another.

“Awesome!”

Suddenly, Zhao Ming Qing shouted. He looked at Lin Fan in awe. “Teacher, this is so well-written. This ‘Foundational Chinese Medicine’ accurately depicts the humble beginnings of Chinese medicine. This is way better than the old teaching materials.”

“It’s not surprising. Is this your first day knowing me? It has to be well-written. If not, would I be qualified enough to be your mentor?” Lin Fan said.

Zhao Ming Qing smiled awkwardly, “That is right. I was just too emotional. This is a great masterpiece and it will be a valuable treasure to any Chinese medical practitioner. To us, it will definitely be extremely beneficial too. It will strengthen our foundation and give us a deeper understanding of Chinese medicine.”

Zhao Ming Qing wasn't just praising Lin Fan, he was speaking the truth.

Then, Zhao Ming Qing sighed. It was good to have a mentor. He could always have a strong support and he found relief in having one.

Although he was an old man, he was young at heart.

He felt that there weren't any problems with clinging onto someone as powerful and influential as him.

Chapter 515: Danger strikes!

Lin Fan had personally handwritten these two books and he allowed Zhao Ming Qing to bring them home. This was so that he could scan it into the computers. Lin Fan didn't want to interfere with what he was going to do with the content.

If they were to be published, it would be extremely beneficial to him.

Zhao Ming Qing left happily. He wasn't going to be bothered with the people at the Education Department. He wanted to read the materials first and he would only send the materials to them after he was done reading.

However, he didn't understand why they needed to check the materials' content. These were written by his mentor. How would they be able to understand it?

At night!

Lin Fan did some stretching and wanted to go home to rest after a long day at work.

"I'll be making a move first, see you guys tomorrow." Lin Fan waved at the others.

At the apartment block.

In a place like Shanghai, everyone dreamt of owning a house. To Lin Fan, his biggest dream was still to return to Zhongzhou.

The reason why he couldn't return was that he had no money.

A typical house would cause a few million dollars and a better one would be more than ten million. Furthermore, he didn't even have a girlfriend. Why would he need a house? It was more practical to rent a place instead.

He went towards the lift after exiting the car.

The lift door opened.

Lin Fan hummed a song and was feeling happy.

Then, as he stepped into the lift and wanted to turn around, a man attacked him from behind. He brandished a dagger across his face and pointed it at his neck. “Don’t move.”

Things were getting out of hand.

Lin Fan’s mind was frantically thinking.

Kidnap! Robbery! Rape!

Regardless of what it was, he had to retaliate.

Lin Fan immediately twisted his wrist and thrust his hips. Then, did an impressive shoulder throw.

“How dare you try to kidnap me?”

There was a loud slam and the lift was shaking.

“Ouch, it hurts...” Suddenly, a female’s voice could be heard.

Lin Fan was stunned. Why was it a female? When he looked at the lady on the floor, he was dumbfounded. Then, he chuckled, “Brother Qiang Qiang, what are you doing?”

The situation made Lin Fan feel awkward.

It was too violent. Brother Qiang Qiang seemed a little crazy. she actually came from Jiangning and held a dagger to him. Was she really thinking of kidnapping him?

Brother Qiang Qiang lay on the floor and her eyes were red. It was as if she was going to cry. However, there were no tears.

“It’s so d*mn painful.” Brother Qiang Qiang looked to be in a lot of pain.

Lin Fan hadn't known that it was Brother Qiang Qiang who wanted to kidnap him. Hence, he wasn't merciful at all. His shoulder throw might have sprained or fractured her hips.

"Don't move." Lin Fan realized that Brother Qiang Qiang wasn't faking it. Then, he squatted down.

"What are you doing?" Brother Qiang Qian hated him a lot. If not for him, she wouldn't be in a situation like this.

Lin Fan said, "If you don't want to be in a wheelchair for the rest of your life, be serious."

Brother Qiang Qiang was stunned when she heard that. If she was going to be in a wheelchair for the rest of her life, she'd rather be dead.

"Quickly treat me then! Why are you standing there?" Brother Qiang Qiang shouted.

Lin Fan actually wanted to treat her immediately but his attitude seemed a little bad. "I'll only take a look when your attitude improves."

Brother Qiang Qiang looked at Lin Fan, "You...you..."

Lin Fan didn't expect Brother Qiang Qiang to really look for him. However, her dad had said that he wouldn't let Brother Qiang Qiang cause trouble. Why did he let her come here then? However, when he looked at Brother Qiang Qiang's fearsome expression, he knew that she wanted to cause trouble.

"What? You mean you were right to attack me? Your attitude sucks and yet you want me to treat you? There isn't such a good thing in this world," Lin Fan said.

Brother Qiang Qiang wanted to kill this man. "Are you going to treat me or not?"

Lin Fan shook his head, "When your attitude improves."

"Ha, dream on. I, Brother Qiang Qiang, have never known about being good-natured," Brother Qiang Qiang said. "I don't need your help anymore. I'll just call the ambulance myself."

Then, Brother Qiang Qiang tried to tolerate the pain and called the ambulance. After beeping twice, the phone call got disrupted.

“F*ck, what kind of rubbish signal is this? I can’t even make a call.” Brother Qiang Qiang was furious. It was as if everything had gone wrong.

Lin Fan was helpless too. This walkway was a little weird sometimes, the signal would be disrupted occasionally and they wouldn’t be able to make any calls.

“Hey, think about it. The evidence is all here. Why not I call 110 for you and you can be sent to the hospital by the police? By then, your hip would be useless.” Lin Fan said. “A beautiful ‘lady’ like you would be paralyzed. That’s a pity.”

Brother Qiang Qiang looked at Lin Fan and felt that he wasn’t just trying to scare her. Then, she was frightened. “Please take a look at me. We can discuss about anything else in the future.”

Then, Brother Qiang Qiang’s attitude suddenly became better.

Lin Fan was stunned. “Didn’t you say that you were the most arrogant person on earth?”

“A wise man submits to circumstances. If a person has substance, he or she wouldn’t be afraid of failing again,” Brother Qiang Qiang said.

Lin Fan shook his head, “I don’t understand what you mean. Could you repeat that?”

Brother Qiang Qiang tried to contain his rage, “Please take a look at my injuries.”

“That’s right. What was the purpose of the attack?” Lin Fan said. Then, he pressed on Brother Qiang Qiang’s hips. She had a small waist. This feeling was really peculiar.

“Are you done?” Brother Qiang Qiang said.

Lin Fan didn’t say anything. He pressed on it again and there was a clicking sound. It was as if the bones had been pushed back to its original position.

“Okay, how do you feel now?” Lin Fan asked.

“That’s all? Didn’t you say that I would be paralyzed?” Brother Qiang Qiang moved and felt that it was much better than before.

Lin Fan smiled, “Are you stupid? You think you’d be paralyzed from a fall like this? I was just lying to you. Your bones just went out of position.”

Brother Qiang Qiang was furious. She felt that she was humiliated. However, she was there to discuss important things with him.

“Are you going to treat me?” Brother Qiang Qiang tolerated the pain and asked.

Lin Fan sighed helplessly, “I’m speaking the truth. I can’t help you. What do you want from me? Look, your current appearance is beautiful. You look like a fairy. Your complexion is so much better and your boobs must be even bigger than before. Did you feel as if a lot of guys looked at you back in Jiangning?”

Brother Qiang Qiang tried to contain her rage. What this fella said was right. After her body had changed, she realized that a lot of guys looked at her differently.

Even the staff at the counter of the hotel would sneak looks at her.

However, this feeling wasn’t what she wanted. She didn’t want guys to look at her, he only wanted girls to look at him.

She had been in Shanghai for two days. She had been following Lin Fan around and she had been prepared to kidnap him to force him to change her back.

If she couldn’t be changed back, she would have killed him right there.

Chapter 516: The Valiant Brother Qiang Qiang

Both Lin Fan and Brother Qiang Qiang felt helpless. This matter was clearly causing trouble for Lin Fan.

“If there’s anything to talk about, we can meet another day. It’s pretty late now,” Lin Fan looked at the time and realized that it was quite late. Then, he turned and was prepared to go.

Brother Qiang Qiang wasn’t going to let him go. She held onto Lin Fan’s wrist. Although she put on a fierce face, a pretty lady would still look cute. She said gently, “You can’t go, you have to be responsible for me.”

“Responsible for what? If you don’t say it clearly, people would be suspicious,” Lin Fan said.

Brother Qiang Qiang had a stern look on her face. She stared at Lin Fan and shook her head, “No, you have to give me an answer today. If not, I will not back down.”

If he had known that things would turn out this way, he wouldn’t have gotten involved in this. This person actually went to look for him and was interfering with his life. What could he do?

A neighbor’s door opened.

“Young man, I heard what you guys were talking about. This is your fault. You can’t be wishy-washy about this. She is already so pitiful, how could you do this?” It was a middle-aged man and he woke up in the middle of the night to go to the toilet. He eavesdropped when he heard a commotion outside. When he opened the door and saw Brother Qiang Qiang’s face, he was stunned. She looked like a beautiful lady. At the same time, he was a little doubtful of why Lin Fan would dump a pretty lady like her.

Lin Fan said apologetically, “Sorry to have disturbed your rest.”

The middle-aged man didn’t want to go back. He added, “That’s okay. It’s just this incident...I’ve been involved in a similar situation before. I regretted it so much. Look at me...”

He started to talk about himself and things were getting interesting.

Brother Qiang Qiang looked at him, “This is none of your business, get lost!”

Huh?

The middle-aged man was a little embarrassed. He hadn’t expected a beautiful lady like her to be so hot-tempered. Then, he understood it. Just as he was about to close the door, he shouted, “Bro, I support you for dumping a lady like her. She deserves it...” Then, he slammed the door shut.

Lin Fan felt so helpless. This matter didn’t concern him at all but he had to make things clear. If not, this would continue to drag.

Lin Fan said, “Tell me what you want. I’ll be frank. This can’t be changed. When things can’t be changed, you have to find joy in what you have.”

Brother Qiang Qiang sounded a little different, “I regret it so much. I shouldn’t have believed you that time. I didn’t know that there were people like you. You’re so irresponsible after what you’ve done. It’s clearly your fault, okay?”

Lin Fan thought about it for a moment. “Let me study about this and if I can figure this out, I will let you know. What do you think? With my current medical knowledge and skills, it shouldn’t be a problem if I were to put in some effort.”

Brother Qiang Qiang thought for a moment. She knew that this matter wouldn’t be resolved so quickly. Initially, she had wanted to kidnap Lin Fan and torture him everyday. If he didn’t transform her back, he could forget about being free.

However, she could tell that this fella was way more powerful than her. She couldn’t have matched up to him.

Perhaps the hard approach wouldn’t work and she had to use the soft approach.

“Alright, I’ll give you some time. One month. If you can’t help me after a month, I’ll kill you,” Brother Qiang Qiang said angrily.

One month wasn't too short.

He needed to calm her down first.

As for the one month offer, that could still be negotiated later.

The most important thing was to return home for a good night's rest.

Lin Fan patted his chest, "Alright, no problem. One month it is then. If it doesn't work after a month, we can discuss it again."

"Hmph!" Brother Qiang Qiang left after saying what she needed to say.

Lin Fan shook his head and returned home to sleep.

Brother Qiang Qiang left the small district full of frustration. She hadn't expected to be scammed by a godly doctor. If he didn't change her, she wouldn't let this matter go.

After all, she had done a search online and bought some sex hormones to consume. However, they didn't help at all.

she didn't know what this fella had fed her with. Even the sex hormones didn't work.

She wasn't prepared to leave Shanghai so soon. If she couldn't resolve this matter, she would be too ashamed to return to Jiangning.

After being slammed to the ground, she felt as if her waist was broken.

There wasn't anyone on the way out.

Then, a young man looked like he was drunk. He walked over unsteadily and when he saw Brother Qiang Qiang, his eyes glimmered. "A beautiful lady, a beautiful lady indeed. You're even wearing a uniform. Come, sleep with me."

Brother Qiang Qiang was indeed a woman now but she still had a man's heart. She was wearing unisex clothing but it couldn't have hidden her figure.

The man walked to Brother Qiang Qiang and wanted to touch her face.

Brother Qiang Qiang was furious. This man was asking for trouble.

"Go back and sleep with your mom." Brother Qiang Qiang kicked the young chap's private part and slapped his face. He collapsed to the ground. "You're a f*cking loser. Go to Jiangning and find out who Brother Qiang Qiang is."

Then, he screamed in pain as he held onto his private part. Brother Qiang Qiang immediately left.

It had been such an infuriating day. Her hips were still hurting. Furthermore, she had a black belt in Taekwondo. She was qualified to be a coach but this a*shole still messed with her. He was simply asking for trouble.

However, when she thought of being slammed to the ground by that fella, she was extremely furious. At the same time, she knew that the fella was perhaps an extremely powerful individual.

After everything, she couldn't let this matter rest so easily. She had to do something about it.

She had to continue pestering him until he changed her back.

Upstairs, at the apartment block.

Lin Fan was holding a glass of water as he looked below from his balcony. As he looked at the road, he drank a sip of water. "You're a pretty valiant individual."

Although it had already been late at night and he couldn't see clearly, he knew that the person that attacked him had probably been feeling tragic.

Then, he shook his head helplessly.

This matter really left him helpless. He was actually being pestered by a fake man.

A lot of bizarre things existed in this world and it was normal to see a transgender. However, he had never seen one that requested to have her inner self changed. Furthermore, she wanted to have a beard and rougher skin.

Where did this kind of people come from?

He thought of those young male idols who wanted to change into women and have better skin so that they could seduce anyone with just one look.

He shook his head and decided to not think about it anymore.

He went to sleep.

He hoped that he would be able to settle things soon.

However, he couldn't just change what had happened. He could have answered her that right then. The matter had already happened and he couldn't do anything to change it.

It looked like he had to think of a solution to resolve this.

Chapter 517: I would only shout 666 for you

The next day!

At Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was a heartless man. After being pestered by someone last night, he was still extremely lively today. He wasn't bothered by it at all. He didn't even think about it. Sometimes, he would think about it but realize that there was nothing he could do to change the situation.

He was concentrating on writing the books. It was finally the last book and it would be a relief to finish it. Then, the matter wouldn't concern him anymore.

Meanwhile, things at Nanshan Children's Welfare Organisation were normal. The kids loved Chinese arts and although they didn't make much progress, he believed that they would definitely become potential young Chinese artists in a few months' time.

As he thought about that, he felt much happier.

Suddenly, Fraud Tian came forward and looked into the distance. He said, "Look there. That person has been staring at me for a long time. I have been noticing her for some time now but she's still staring."

Lin Fan was stunned when he looked towards that direction. That b*tch was just standing there watching him as if she was following a movie star.

"Do you know her?" Fraud Tian asked.

Lin Fan shook his head, "Nope."

Fraud Tian replied, "Looks like we have to be more careful. I've seen quite a lot of movies and this types of people are usually up to no good. Look at her. She's a woman but she's wearing men's clothing. I think she's a pervert. Besides me in this shop, I doubt anyone else would be her target. I have to be careful."

Lin Fan just stared at Fraud Tian in shock. Could he be any more shameless?

After a moment, Brother Qiang Qiang disappeared. It looked like she had left.

Lin Fan wasn't bothered by it as he continued writing his books. When he felt tired, he just scrolled through Weibo.

"F*ck!"

Suddenly, Lin Fan gasped. Then, the others came over. "What's wrong? Did something happen?"

Lin Fan shook his head. "Nothing, it's just a pity that an old grandma died."

The others didn't know what was happening. "What does it have to do with you? Why did you make such a big deal of it?"

Lin Fan pointed at the screen, "Take a look at it for yourselves."

Fraud Tian looked at it and read. "An old lady picked up a stranger's call and the person said that her retirement funds were ready to be collected. Then, she went to the bank to make a transaction and lost $50,000. She was devastated and she died from that. D*mn, these scammers are too inhumane. If they're so capable, try me. I would definitely make them eat sh*t."

Wu You Lan remarked, "That's so pitiful. There are so many scammers now. We can't seem to stop them."

Zhao Zhong Yang said, "Look, do these netizens have a screw loose? They even commented bad stuff about this. That's so immoral."

The netizens discussion.

"She deserved it for being so stupid."

"She had $50,000 and she still wanted to 'redeem' retirement funds. She's already so rich. Why did she apply for it? It's normal for her to be scammed."

"^ are you guys stupid? How could you scold her for this? It shows how inhumane you guys are."

"How pitiful, the scammer should be shot to death."

"In the past, this happened before too. The scammer said it was for a scholarship. In the end, he cheated the person of his school fees. These scammers look for people that need help. Furthermore, they know a lot about their family situations. Someone must have sold the information to them."

"Isn't that rubbish? I bought a house and I received a lot of random calls a few days later. They told me they needed to renovate the house and asked me about mortgage loans. The housing department must have sold our information to them."

“Things are different now. They talk about retirement funds and that information can only be found in government departments. How do these people get it? Besides arresting these scammers, they have to arrest those who sold the information too.”

“That makes sense.”

“That makes a lot of sense.”

...

Lin Fan was infuriated. “Look, these scammers are too incorrigible. I can’t take it anymore.”

Fraud Tian added, “Yeah, I can’t tolerate it. As long as you’re human, you shouldn’t be able to tolerate this.”

Lin Fan opened up Weibo. “Let’s look at other news.”

On Weibo.

This incident had become the headlines and everyone had been discussing it.

“This incident reminded me of the news that happened three years ago where Xu Jiao Feng died after being scammed too.”

“In the end, the scammer got caught, right?”

“Yeah, he got caught. I think they spent about a month on it.”

“Hey, if people didn’t die, the authorities wouldn’t have treated the matter seriously.”

“This is about whether they’re determined to arrest the culprits or not. It’s totally two different things altogether.”

“I want to see how long they’ll need to arrest this culprit.”

Lin Fan said, “Look, the netizens on Weibo are friendlier. It’s unlike the other websites.”

Fraud Tian nodded, “Yeah.”

Lin Fan immediately posted on Weibo. “This matter is too heartbreaking. We have to arrest the culprit.”

When it was published, netizens immediately commented on it.

“Master Lin is right. This person is so inhumane. He actually cheated the money of an elderly woman.”

“I am an Internet policeman. It is extremely difficult to capture these scammers. It is unlike the past. After those incidents in the past, the scammers have become smarter.”

“Master Lin, please read their fortunes and see where these scammers are.”

“Do you think Master Lin is a God? Reading fortunes? But if there were super hackers. They’d be able to hack into banks and steal information.”

“^ I think that’s logical. However, did you think about the consequences of hacking into a bank? They’d definitely be imprisoned.”

“That’s true.”

...

After looking at the discussion of the netizens, Lin Fan thought of something. “I have an idea.”

Fraud Tian was stunned. “What idea do you have?”

Lin Fan smiled, "I gotta stay low-key. Can't tell you about it yet."

Wu You Lan said confidently, "I believe Brother Lin has definitely thought of a plan. We have to capture these people."

Lin Fan nodded, "I'll be heading out for a while."

He had thought about this. His computer skills were awesome and it was easy to capture these people. However, he knew that it was difficult to erase trails after hacking into a system. He would definitely be arrested for that.

Therefore, he needed the support of someone.

He thought for a moment and felt that he could only approach Liu Xiao Tian about this.

Justice had to be sought for this incident. He didn't care about completing his task anymore.

Lin Fan was a man of morals.

Fraud Tian looked at him, "Where is this fella going again? He's so secretive."

Wu You Lan said, "Brother Lin must have gone to seek justice. He is the man that I admire."

Zhao Zhong Yang said to his broadcasting camera, "Brothers, did you guys hear that? Master Lin is going to seek justice. Under his might, any criminal would definitely be caught."

"666...that's impressive."

"What's happening? Why is Master Lin trying to seek justice?"

"I don't really understand but I think he's awesome."

“I’ll only shout 666 and say nothing else. However, that’s enough. I would only shout 666 for Master Lin.”

...

Chapter 518: Righteous Fan is unstoppable

At the local police station.

Lin Fan arrived and the police officers were curious.

One of the lower ranking officers came to greet him, “Master Lin, what brings you here today?”

Lin Fan smiled, “I’m here to look for your Inspector.”

The officer smiled, “Our Inspector is in a meeting. Why don’t you have a seat first? I’ll let him know when the meeting is over.”

Lin Fan nodded. “Alright...” Then, he sat down and waited.

To them, although Master Lin wasn’t a police officer, they felt that he was more qualified than any of them to be a police officer. They had cracked a lot of cases with his help. They were really grateful for that.

Furthermore, Inspector Liu and Master Lin were close to one another.

One of the police officers served a cup of tea. “Master Lin, please have some tea.”

One of the new colleagues didn’t know who this man was. Then, he asked curiously, “Who is this man? Why is he so welcome here? It seems like he is even more welcome than our Inspector. You guys have been treating him so nicely ever since he came in here.”

“Hey, newbie. You don’t even know Master Lin? You’ll know in the future. Be more respectful. He is a powerful individual.”

The new colleague nodded, “Okay... Okay...”

After a while, Liu Xiao Tian came out and when he saw Lin Fan, he smiled. “Master Lin, what brought you here? Don’t tell me yet. Let me guess...”

Liu Xiao Tian felt that Lin Fan’s appearance at the police station meant that he was going to help them crack another case.

As he continued thinking...

Liu Xiao Tian smiled, “You must have found out something about a big case, right?”

Lin Fan smiled and nodded, “Yeah.”

Liu Xiao Tian chuckled, “I knew it. Let’s talk in my office.”

However, this time, Liu Xiao Tian was probably going to vomit blood.

In the office.

Lin Fan shook his head and said, “I’m not in a very good mood today.”

Liu Xiao Tian asked, “What’s wrong? Did something bad happen?”

Lin Fan looked at Liu Xiao Tian, “Did you see the trending news today? The old lady got cheated of her savings and she died from sorrow.”

“There’s such a news?” Liu Xiao Tian was stunned. Then, he read the news. “No, that’s in the countryside. It doesn’t involve us.”

Lin Fan shook his head, “Inspector Liu, how could you say that? We are from the same country. How could you say that it has nothing to do with you?”

Liu Xiao Tian nodded, “That’s true. However, what happened in the countryside should be managed by the people there. We don’t have the authority to care about it.”

“That’s not what I meant. You just have to see if you want to be involved in this. Look, although the people there got scammed, these scammers are definitely not from the countryside. Therefore, this matter can be said to be affecting the whole nation. What do you think?” Lin Fan asked.

Liu Xiao Tian remained silent for a moment. He was wondering what had happened to Master Lin today. It was as if he wanted to manage this matter. He knew that Master Lin was a man of morals and this caused Liu Xiao Tian to admire him a lot.

“Master Lin, tell me the truth. Do you want to manage this matter? Did you read the fortune of someone?” Liu Xiao Tian knew that Master Lin was a pro at fortune-telling. However, they were public servicemen and they couldn’t believe in that. Still, Liu Xiao Tian really trusted him.

Lin Fan shook his head, “How could I have read the fortune of anyone? However, I got another idea. If Inspector Liu is willing to help, it would be resolved in a matter of minutes.”

It was clearly impossible to be resolved in minutes. However, saying that meant that he was really confident.

Liu Xiao Tian was interested now. If he could crack another case, it would be a good thing even if he didn’t get promoted.

However, he was getting curious. “Master Lin, it’s not that I’m doubting you but can you tell me what you’re thinking?”

Lin Fan smiled and drank a sip of tea calmly. “Actually, I haven’t told you about this but my computing skills are superb. As long as I want to hack into something, there’s nothing that could stop me.”

“Huh?” Liu Xiao Tian looked at Lin Fan in shock.

“Do you not believe me?” Lin Fan asked. He didn’t expect Liu Xiao Tian to be doubtful of his abilities despite the fact that he had helped him crack a few cases before.

Liu Xiao Tian waved his hand, “That’s not it. It’s just that I haven’t believed anything like this before.”

Lin Fan said, “Then do you support me?”

“I’ll definitely support you. Tell me then, what do you want me to do?” Liu Xiao Tian asked. He didn’t understand the situation and wanted to find out more.

Lin Fan waved his hand, “Actually, you don’t have to do anything. It’s just that I need to make something clear. If I violated the law and got arrested, you have to save me.”

“Huh?” Liu Xiao Tian was shocked. “Wait, what do you mean by that? Breaking the law? I don’t understand.

Lin Fan suddenly realized that it was difficult to communicate with Liu Xiao Tian. “Look, I want to find those scammers. I would have to hack into their bank accounts and the police’s bank accounts. If I was to get caught, I’d be doomed. Don’t you think so?”

“Huh?” Liu Xiao Tian was stunned.

Lin Fan said, “Stop huh-ing. Tell me if what I said was right.”

Liu Xiao Tian was stunned. He didn’t expect Master Lin to be using a method like this.

“Master Lin, you have to be calm about this and not be rash. Regardless of what happens, you can’t hack them. If you were to hack them, things would go out of hand.

Lin Fan shook his head, “No, this world needs justice. I don’t mind suffering for it.”

Suddenly.

Liu Xiao Tian realized that Master Lin looked like he was glowing. It was a bright and strong light. It was as if he was a God.

Could he really be seeking justice for them?

However, something seemed off. Lin Fan stood up and asked sternly, "Inspector Liu, I'm just here to give you a heads up today. It's to prevent you from doing the wrong thing in the future when the situation arises. Till then, don't stress over it. Do whatever you like. I'll be making a move first."

Liu Xiao Tian recovered from his daze. "Master Lin, don't be rash. We can discuss it. If you end up in jail and can't get out...Hey, hey..."

D*mn it.

Liu Xiao Tian slapped his thigh and called his boss immediately. It was a big piece of news and Master Lin didn't seem to be joking.

If he really did that, even if it was out of good will, he would definitely be imprisoned.

Master Lin was his good friend and he didn't want to see him in prison. He would have to do something about it.

"However, it's not for sure. Master Lin said that he is a pro hacker. He will definitely know how to protect himself. Although that will cause another problem, I'll definitely keep it to myself and won't report it. I'll give the Station Chief a heads up first and prepare myself for it," Liu Xiao Tian thought to himself.

...

Then, Lin Fan exited from the police station. At that moment, he felt that the matter was improbable.

Then, he suddenly thought of Zheng Zhong Shan. If he could get Zheng Zhong Shan involved, things would definitely be fine.

Alright... that was it!

After all, it wouldn't be that bad to be caught. He would be able to hide from the wrath of Brother Qiang Qiang.

Chapter 519: Crush them all the way!

The police station.

Liu Xiao Tian immediately called Bureau Chief Qin.

"Bureau Chief, something big has happened."

"What is it?" Chief Qin asked.

"Master Lin wants to hack his way to find out who cheated the old lady. More importantly, he said he wanted to hack into the bank system and access the police account but this is illegal." Liu Xiao Tian said anxiously.

"Haha," Chief Qin laughed. "Little Tian, you're just too innocent and you trust this Master Lin too much. Do you think all those guys who designed the system are rookies? Master Lin is just one person. Without any preparation, do you think he can hack the system? You're really looking down on all those computer geniuses. Don't get your hopes up too high. Master Lin is just saying that out of good intention."

Liu Xiao Tian was still a little worried, but he realized what Chief Qin said did have some logic to it. The people who designed the bank system weren't rookies. It wasn't going to be easy at all to hack into their system. "But Chief, what if he could actually do it?"

"If he could do it by himself, I'll give it to him. I'll leave this problem to him. Don't think too much, I still have meetings to attend. Alright, I'll hang up now. You better do what you need to do."

He hung up.

Liu Xiao Tian was still worried, but with the Chief's green light, he felt a little more at ease.

...

Lin Fan dialed Elder Zheng's number...

"Elder Lin, how's everything going? Are you calling me because you want to come to Beijing?" Elder Zheng chuckled on the phone.

"Elder Zheng, I just need to ask you one thing. Did you see the news today about that seventy-something-year-old lady who got cheated?"

"What news is that? I didn't really pay any attention to it," Elder Zheng replied in an unsure tone.

"Say, don't you think this is rather despicable? When I saw that news, my heart went out to her. It is just too despicable," Lin Fan said, too impatient to explain the whole situation to him.

Elder Zheng's tone was heavy. "There are still things like this happening? If this happened to me, I'd kill those guys with a bullet each, but wait a minute. What are you going to do? If you need my help, I'm all yours. Although I'm old, I'm still useful."

"I don't really need your help. I just need to ask you this. If I found those cheaters, do you think I'd be doing the right thing?" Lin Fan asked.

"Definitely. Elder Lin, what is your plan?" Elder Zheng replied

"It's a secret, an absolute secret. However, what I'm about to do may just break a few national laws. So you see, me calling you now is to see if you would agree and support what I am about to do."

After living for so long, Elder Zheng knew exactly what moral conundrum Lin Fan was getting at. "I understand. Let me tell you, the bottom line is this. As long as you don't hurt anyone innocent, compromise the people's interest or cause any trouble for the country, I think that there shouldn't be any moral issue with breaking a few laws."

"Really?" Lin Fan said excitedly. A big shot was a big shot, and the way he handled things was far less rigid and more logical compared to most people.

“Truer than white gold. What do you think?” Elder Zheng laughed.

Lin Fan was now full of confidence. “Elder Zheng, I must thank you. However, after I do this, I will definitely face the consequences. Why don’t you let them lock me up for a month?”

Elder Zheng was puzzled. What exactly did Elder Lin want to do? Didn’t he already say that as long as he followed the three golden rules, there wouldn’t be any problem? What did Elder Lin mean when he said that he had to be locked up for one month after he accomplished what he was going to do? He didn’t think too much after that.

“Don’t worry, as long as you don’t break those three golden rules, I, Elder Zheng will be your guarantor.”

“Great, thank you so much!” Lin Fan said.

The phone hung up.

Lin Fan’s heart was full of energy and fighting spirit as he readied himself for what was about to come.

Cloud Street!

“Where did you go? Did you settle the problem?” Fraud Tian hurried over, asking Lin Fan.

“We’ll see in awhile,” Lin Fan chuckled, not saying anymore after that.

Thereafter, he took out his phone and wrote a post on Weibo.

“I, Master Lin, am about to do something in the name of justice. In the face of evil, I cannot back down. I am about to make a move and seek justice for the old lady.”

The netizens were all stunned.

“666... this is really about to go down...”

“Master Lin is about to defy the odds again.”

“Keep calm and absolutely do not use violence.”

“Lin Fan is about to burst out, and the world is about to shake.”

“Damn, Master Lin. If you can solve this, my pet dog is yours.”

...

Sitting in front of the computer.

Lin Fan combed his hair backward and cracked his knuckles, readying himself.

Wu You Lan looked at him curiously. “Brother Lin, what are you doing?”

I’m about to fight a virtual battle,” Lin Fan replied calmly.

“Ah?” Wu You Lan stood there stunned, not quite understanding what Brother Lin was saying.

Zhao Zhong Yang stood there shocked, and under Lin Fan’s instructions, he turned off his live broadcast. He stood next to Brother Lin, looking at him as his fingers flew across the keyboard mercilessly.

“This is unimaginable...” everyone said, shocked. All they saw was Lin Fan’s ten fingers dancing across the keyboard without any hesitation.

This was Autumn Sword Fish Killers consummate skill, the phantom butterfly hands. But compared to Autumn Sword Fish Killer, it was much more graceful and high-end.

Lin Fan laughed coldly. In his twenty plus years of existence, he had never done a more intense battle than this.

pattering sounds

“You’re going to destroy the computer,” Fraud Tian exclaimed, as he saw the numerous lines of gibberish on the computer screen.

Zhao Zhong Yang was experienced with computers and knew what the screen was showing. But he realized that Brother Lin’s skills were too superior for him to even understand. He looked on, confused and unable to understand what Lin Fan was typing.

Lin Fan only knew how to attack but not conceal himself. With that in mind, he didn’t have any misgivings as he went on an all out direct attack on the system.

Violence, speed, and complete suppression.

In some city, a middle-aged woman rode her electric scooter to a bank deposit machine.

She had just received a call, with the other party telling her that she had won a lucky draw and all she had to do now was transfer twenty thousand dollars to claim her prize money of one hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

She had her suspicions at first, but the other party managed to convince her by telling her about which lucky draw she had entered, her name and which city she stayed in.

She really had entered that lucky draw back then.

When she heard that the prize money was one hundred and eighty thousand dollars, she was moved and decided to try her luck.

Just as she pressed the send button to transfer the money to the other party, she realized that the deposit machine had something wrong with it.

The screen was frozen and after loading a while, it still didn’t move.

Suddenly!

A sentence appeared on the ATM screen, causing her to be utterly shocked.

“This bank account belongs to a cheater, do not remit money to this account.”

Just at this moment, the ATM page went back to the first screen, showing that the transaction had failed.

Am I seeing things?

Thereafter, without hesitation, she inputted the bank account of the other party, preparing to send money over again.

This time, her face turned pale.

Notification:

“Are you mentally handicapped? This bank account belongs to a scammer.”

“Ah!” the middle-aged woman exclaimed, immediately pressing the emergency help button next to the ATM.

“Quickly come, your ATM machine has some problems. It just called me mentally handicapped...”

The bank staff was speechless.

Chapter 520: Something huge just happened

The bank staff rushed to the scene and the middle-aged lady pulled the staff over, her face full of panic. “Your machine just called me mentally handicapped. The screen showed it just now, really! You have to believe me!”

The bank worker heaved a huge sigh. “Madam, can you not kid with us? We are very busy right now.”

“What I’m saying is the truth! If you don’t believe me, just take a look.” The middle-aged lady tried to send the money over to the same bank account again, pointing at the screen.

“Just you wait, it’ll appear in a while.”

The bank worker shook his head, ready to call the mental institution to get the lady checked up. It was maybe also possible that this lady had escaped from the mental asylum.

The machine was processing.

“Lady, if you keep on...”

“F*ck!”

At that moment, the bank worker looked at the words on the ATM screen, stunned and speechless.

“This bank account belongs to scammers, please don’t make the mentally handicapped look like geniuses.”

“Look, look, I didn’t lie at all. The machine is calling me mentally handicapped!” the middle-aged lady exclaimed, pointing excitedly at the screen.

The bank worker’s face was in a daze, not knowing what was going on. He immediately contacted his superior.

“Director, it’s not good. The ATM machine is not working properly. It’s calling us mentally handicapped.”

The Director was speechless.

...

Cloud Street.

Lin Fan was cursing under his breath. How stupid could this person be? He had reminded her three times and she still continued to send money. Maybe it wasn't because the scammers used such devious tactics, but because the people they scammed were just plain stupid.

He had covered every angle, and the main entry point was the bank system. At the same time, he blocked every single bank account which belonged to any scammer and froze their accounts. If anyone wired money to them, the transaction would be rejected.

Of course, that wasn't the main goal. Lin Fan was out to look for the scammer who had scammed the seventy-year-old lady.

"62170013...4584."

That was the bank account of the scammers, and Lin Fan had retrieved it from the bank system. Although the bank system had sophisticated defenses against hackers, it was as good as a paper tiger. It couldn't resist him at all.

It was troublesome looking for a single person amongst so many numbers, but for Lin Fan, was it really a problem?

Manically searching.

"Ah!"

"Found it." Lin Fan rejoiced as he remotely accessed a recording which showed a man who was standing in front of an ATM suspiciously.

"Shit, he's wearing a face mask. But do you think that's the end?" Lin Fan talked to himself. Normal people would only reach the competency of using the computer for daily use, but for Lin Fan, his level was that of a god.

A certain bank in Shanyuan.

The bank alarm rang.

“Not good, there’s a hacker who has accessed our system and is currently looking at our internal data.”

“What? Quickly make a report to the Director! Where is the specialist? Quickly, get him to secure our system.”

“What specialist? Don’t you know that all our specialists are just rookies?”

“Huh?”

“Have you ever seen anyone hack our system before? We don’t need hacking specialists around.”

The director of the bank rushed over hurriedly, his face full of shock. How did anyone manage to hack into their system?

“How is that possible? Where are the guys who are supposed to intercept him?” the Director asked.

The worker looked like he was about to cry. “Director, there is no use trying to intercept him. All the defense mechanisms didn’t trigger when the hacker accessed our system. We only knew about it when our guys accessed the system and found out that everything in the system had been decrypted.

“Well, why are you still standing here? Quick, make a police report and get the Internet specialists to come. If anything happens, we are all screwed.”

“Yes, sir!”

...

Zhao Zhong Yang looked at the screen in awe. “Brother Lin, what are you doing?”

Lin Fan continued typing on the keyboard rapidly, “Nothing much, just hacking into the bank system looking for something.”

Zhao Zhong Yang stood there, stunned. “Brother Lin! Are you trying to defy the natural order? You’ll be screw hard if you get caught. Please tell me you covered your tracks. If you hack into the bank system, you must make sure you clean up your tracks to prevent people from discovering who you are. Anyway, you better finish this fast. If you get found out, it’ll be the end of you.”

“Why should I finish this soon? And why would I need to cover my tracks? I’m just going straight at them. By the time they respond, I’ll be done.”

“This is really bad, you could go to jail for this,” Zhao Zhong Yang said, concerned.

Fraud Tian immediately sprang up from his couch after hearing the word ‘jail’.

“Kid, you better not play around,” Fraud Tian said, his face full of worry.

Wu You Lan also chimed in, “Brother Lin, why are you doing this?”

“If I won’t descend to hell to do it, who else will? Although that seventy-year-old lady has no relation to me whatsoever, as the righteous Master, I cannot back down in the face of evil. I must bravely go forward. Anyway, I won’t say anymore. I’m going to hack into the police department system. You guys just do your own things.”

“What?”

Everyone around was shocked. As if hacking into the bank system wasn’t enough, he was now going to mess with the police. Did he have a death wish?

Everyone looked at Lin Fan, their faces full of worry. They couldn’t believe it. They had known Lin Fan for so long. Since when did he become a genius at computers?

The Shanyuan Police Station received a police report.

“Not good. One of the banks in Shanyuan had their system hacked. We have to send a professional over to deal with their situation.”

“This is huge.”

“Have you contacted the Internet specialist?”

“Yes. He’s on his way.”

Suddenly.

“Not good, something just happened. All the banks in the country had their systems hacked.”

“What?!”

“Where is our Internet specialist group?”

“They are all on their way to the banks.”

“Get them to come back here to make sure everything here is good.”

“Yes.”

At this moment, the Shanyuan Police Station was in chaos.

...

“I’ve finally found you,” Lin Fan laughed to himself. After much effort, he had managed to find the scammer he had been looking for.

He retrieved the person’s data from the police system and noted it down.

“Let’s see if you have anywhere else to run.” Lin Fan’s mood was rather good. At this moment, the people in Shanyuan still hadn’t realized that they had been hacked. Their reaction time was just too slow!

After looking at the scammer’s profile, Lin Fan was stunned. The scammer was from Shanghai.

He opened his Weibo and posted a picture.

“I have found the person responsible for cheating the old lady. If you, the scammer, see this post, please surrender yourself to the authorities immediately.”

Lin Fan picked up his phone and called Liu Xiao Tian.

“Chief Liu, I’ve found the scammer. It’s also a coincidence that he’s from Shanghai. Why don’t you bring some men over to take a look?”

Liu Xiao Tian couldn’t believe what he was hearing. He had found the person that fast?

“Master Lin, how did you find him?” Liu Xiao Tian asked hastily.

Lin Fan chuckled. “This wasn’t easy. I hacked into the bank system and looked for the latest bank transfer to that account. After that, I hacked the traffic police database to find him. That brat was really sneaky, going to a different location to collect his money, even wearing a mask. After that, I entered the police database and did a facial recognition until I got a match. After that, I did a search over the national bank database and found all the transactions to his account. Anyway, I still have a few more things to do and few more systems to hack into, so I’m going to hang up first...”

Liu Xiao Tian was speechless. He wasn’t exceptionally happy, instead, he was filled with terror.

What did Master Lin just say?

He had hacked into the bank system!

He had hacked into the police database!

He had hacked into the traffic police database!

He had just turned the whole world upside down.

He was the Inspector, but at this moment, his heart was pounding rapidly. He had been frightened by Master Lin.

“Hello...” Liu Xiao Tian spoke into the phone. However, Master Lin had already hung up.

This was big trouble.

Liu Xiao Tian felt like crying. Master Lin! Even the Bureau Chief won't be able to get you out of this!
