

Valiant Life 571

Chapter 571: Something has happened!

“D*mn it, since you don’t want it, fine. You actually humiliated me by rejecting my kindness. I won’t give it to you anymore. I’m going to give it to someone else.” Then, Lin Fan kept the pill. This fella didn’t know how to appreciate things at all. He thought of him the moment he got something good. Now, he even said that the pill he crafted was like bird sh*t.

However, he also admitted that it somewhat looked like bird sh*t because it was white with streaks of yellow.

But he shouldn’t have said that.

It was heartbreaking, truly heartbreaking.

“I was just kidding and you thought I was serious,” Wang Ming Yang said as he grabbed onto Lin Fan’s hand. Then, he smiled and placed the pill on his hand. He looked at I closely and asked, “Are you sure this pill is edible? Why do I feel like something is wrong?”

“D*mn you, why did you take it if there’s something wrong? Return it to me then,” Lin Fan pretended to snatch it from him.

Wang Ming Yang smiled and swallowed it. “Not going to return it. I’ve eaten it.”

Lin Fan looked at him, “Isn’t there something wrong with it? Why did you eat it?”

Wang Ming Yang said, “I don’t really care if there was something wrong. You’re the one who gave it to me. I know you wouldn’t harm me. If someone else gave me this, I’d have thrown it away. But really, what’s this pill for? Why does it taste a little sweet?”

Lin Fan smiled, “I’ll tell you then. This is the little Intelligence pill. It’s f*cking awesome. There are only 3 pills and you took 1. Now, there’s 2 left. It wasn’t easy to make these.”

Wang Ming Yang was anxious to find out what the pill could do. “Tell me, what’s the main function of the pill?”

“Are you dumb? Haven’t I told you the name of the pill? Little Intelligence pill is used to increase intelligence. If you want to become a genius, you have to depend on it.” Lin Fan didn’t know what the pill was capable of achieving but he knew it was good stuff.

Wang Ming Yang gasped, “That sounds so f*cking awesome. You’re not lying, right?”

Lin Fan was fed up, “You still don’t believe me. Forget it, I won’t talk about it anymore. Anyway, you’ve eaten it already. When I come up with the perfect pill, I’ll not give it to you.”

“No way, we’re good friends. Are you sure you won’t give it to me? I was just asking a question out of curiosity. Why are you so angry?” Wang Ming Yang asked.

Lin Fan nodded, “That’s more like it. This pill is definitely something good. I spent so much time and effort to create it.”

Wang Ming Yang nodded, “I’ll believe you then. Since you said it’s good, it’s definitely good.”

“It’s right to trust me. I wouldn’t harm you.” Lin Fan thought of something else. “Oh, do you know where to buy alchemy furnaces?”

“Alchemy furnace?” Wang Ming Yang paused for a moment. “It’s so rare nowadays. Nobody even uses it anymore. However, quite a number of people use it as a display item.”

Lin Fan was a little disappointed. It was indeed something rare.

If he didn’t have an alchemy furnace, it would be nearly impossible to craft the little intelligence pill. The pressure cooker could only craft normal pills. It wouldn’t meet his standards at all.

After leaving Wang Ming Yang.

He still had the new Jeep. Although Wang Ming Yang didn't say anything about it, the way he looked at him was obvious. He couldn't afford to let him continue spending money this way. Nobody could handle the rapid rate.

Before he could obtain an alchemy furnace, he wouldn't practice pill creation anymore since it was useless.

At Cloud Street!

Wu You Lan asked anxiously, "Brother Lin, is everything ok?"

"Yeah," Lin Fan smiled. "It's perfectly fine now."

Although he encountered some difficulties, everything was still considered to be okay.

...

Then, Liu Xiao Tian appeared. Lin Fan was a little shocked. "Inspector Liu, what brought you here today?"

Liu Xiao Tian smiled, "Master Lin, look at this. If you encounter something like this, you have to let me know."

Lin Fan took the paper over. It was a drawing of someone's face. "Who is this guy?"

"He is a drug trafficker. We got information that this man secretly entered Shanghai but we do not have a picture of him. We only have a drawing from a long time ago," Liu Xiao Tian replied.

The entire Shanghai police force was on high alert for this case. The police force with the drugs department had been working hard to crack this case.

"How can I find him with this? Is there only this blur picture?" Lin Fan asked.

Liu Xiao Tian sighed, “We can’t help it. This man is difficult to arrest. However, there is a scorpion tattoo on his neck. That is the only clue we have. You are one of us and I’ll just be frank with you. This man is extremely dangerous. The entire Shanghai police force is working together to capture this man. If not, we’d never know the number of drugs he will be bringing into Shanghai.”

Lin Fan nodded, “Alright, don’t worry. I’ll keep a lookout. If I find out anything, I’ll tell you immediately.”

It was virtually impossible to find a man in Shanghai just based on his tattoo.

Although Lin Fan was righteous and morally upright, he could only handle small cases. These big cases should be left to the police force.

“I have to go. We have to continue our investigations,” Liu Xiao Tian said.

As Lin Fan watched Liu Xiao Tian leave, he shook his head. Life seemed good for Liu Xiao Tian after he became an inspector. His status was high now and he was in charge of a lot more things now. He looked way skinnier than what he used to be.

He held onto the paper and looked at it. This man was crazy. He must be asking for trouble to be bringing drugs into Shanghai.

...

“Little Boss...” Then, Chen Jun, a shop owner, came with a bag of fruits. “This is what I got from my hometown. The apples are extremely sweet. I came here to deliver some to you.”

Lin Fan smiled, “Elder Chen, you’re so thoughtful.”

Chen Jun replied, “Little Boss, don’t mention it. You don’t have to feel bad. We are all from Cloud Street and we’re one.”

Elder Liang came over and when he saw the bag of apples, he asked on purpose, “Elder Chen, that’s unfair of you. You gave Little Boss a bag but only gave us two apples. That’s a little unfair.”

Elder Chen rebutted, “I wanted to give more to Little Boss. He contributed so much to this Street. I have to give him more. If you don’t have enough, I’ll give you a little more later.”

Elder Liang twitched his lips, “No, I knew you’d come here to curry Little Boss’s favor.”

Lin Fan smiled, “Alright, alright. It’s good enough for Elder Chen to give you some. Don’t ask for too much.”

“Did you hear that? What Little Boss said was right. You guys think that I gave you too few apples. You are so greedy,” Elder Chen said.

Of course, it was just friendly banter between the both of them. Lin Fan really liked the friendly atmosphere that they have created here.

Suddenly, Lin Fan looked at Chen Jun’s face and he was stunned.

Chen Jun was shocked, “Little Boss, what’s wrong?”

Lin Fan suddenly realized that Chen Jun’s fortune had changed. It seemed a little weird. Then, he took a closer look and started to read his fortune.

If he hadn’t looked closely, he wouldn’t have realized it.

“No, it can’t be. Are my eyes playing tricks on me?” Lin Fan was in doubt. Then, he grabbed onto Elder Chen’s hand and looked at his palms.

He was going to experience the death of a youngster in his family.

Elder Chen was dumbfounded by the Little Boss’s actions. “Little Boss, what are you doing?”

Lin Fan said, “Elder Chen, where is your son studying at?”

Elder Chen didn't realize the nature of the conversation, he smiled, "Little Boss, my son is with me in Shanghai. However, after he came here with me, he has been staying in the school's hostel. I believe even Little Boss hasn't seen him."

Lin Fan said sternly, "Elder Chen, I am not kidding. Where is your son studying at? Something bad is going to happen."

"What?" Elder Chen was initially smiling but his happiness vanished. It was replaced with shock.

Elder Liang started to look serious too, "Elder Chen, Little Boss is asking you something. Why aren't you replying? Do you know what Little Boss is trying to do?"

Then, Elder Chen recovered from his state of shock.

If someone else said that, he would have slapped his face for insulting his son. However, everyone knew who Little Boss was.

Perhaps everyone in Cloud Street knew how capable Little Boss was.

Then, Elder Chen started to stutter. "Little Boss, my son... my son... is studying at Jin Yang Secondary School."

"Let's go, let's go. We have to go to Jin Yang Secondary School now. Quick..." Lin Fan pulled Elder Chen and walked out anxiously.

Fraud Tian and the others rushed out, "What's wrong? Why did they leave so hurriedly?"

Elder Liang said, "I don't know. Little Boss said that Elder Chen's son is going to be in trouble. Then, he took him away."

Wu Tian He said, "Master Lin's fortune-telling ability is second to none. I'm afraid something bad is really going to happen."

Elder Liang felt unsettled after hearing that, "Elder Tian, can you help me look after my shop? I would like to go along too."

Chapter 572: Things are getting serious

In the car!

Elder Chen was emotionally unstable. He was extremely stunned by Little Boss's words. If it was someone else who said that to him, he would definitely not believe it. However, it was Little Boss who said it.

Why would he not believe his words?

Although Little Boss was selling scallion pancakes and didn't really read anyone's fortunes anymore, everyone in Cloud Street knew how powerful Lin Fan was at reading fortunes. If he said that something bad was going to happen, it was definitely going to happen.

"Little Boss, will my son be okay?" Elder Chen asked anxiously. He was pinning his hopes on Little Boss.

"He is temporarily okay," Lin Fan said.

He could only have said that. He didn't expect Elder Chen's fortune to turn out that way. However, something was wrong. In the past, he had helped everyone to look at their fortunes and nothing seemed bad. Why did this happen all of a sudden?

He couldn't understand it but at least Elder Chen's son was still okay. However, it was difficult to say if something bad was going to happen later.

Elder Liang asked, "Elder Chen, does your son have a handphone? Call him now."

Elder Chen replied, "He doesn't have a phone. I didn't give it to him as I was afraid of him playing with it."

Elder Liang said, “Quickly call his teacher in charge and find out more.”

Elder Liang was indeed a wise man. Lin Fan didn’t even think of that at all. Suddenly, Elder Chen reacted and quickly called the teacher in charge. However, he couldn’t get through.

“What am I going to do? I can’t get through. Did it happen already?” Elder Chen started to think about all the bad things that could happen. His face was as white as paper. He had been working extremely hard since he left his hometown and he was finally able to have a stable life in Shanghai for his son to be here with him. He didn’t expect this to happen.

Lin Fan knew Elder Chen was extremely anxious. “Elder Chen, don’t be anxious. It hasn’t happened yet. If you’re like that now, what are you going to do when you reach there?”

Elder Chen held onto Lin Fan’s hand tightly. “Little Boss, you have to save my son!”

“Yes, I am here, don’t worry,” Lin Fan nodded. Then, he moved his fingers to find out why did this happen. He didn’t dare to confirm that he read the fortune of everyone at Cloud Street but he had read Elder Chen’s fortune before and this wasn’t supposed to happen.

Although it could be said that his fortune-telling skills were at its best, this type of sudden change was unpredictable.

...

At Jin Yang Secondary School.

At a certain class’ physical education lesson.

Behind the toilet at the stadium.

Chen Jun’s son, Chen Liang, was lying on the floor.

A teenager stomped on Chen Liang’s head. “You didn’t listen to what I said at all. Where is the money?!”

He was a youngster but he sounded fearsome. It was as if he didn't regard Chen Liang as a human at all.

The other students gathered around and smiled as they recorded it on camera.

"I don't have any money." Chen Liang's voice was weak and he looked frightened.

"F*ck, you have no money? Why don't you steal some for me? You're a villager and your dad sells fruits. Do you dare to defy me? I asked you to pass the exam paper to me and you rejected me. Do you want to die?" The teenager stepped on Chen Liang's face and scolded.

Chen Liang didn't say anything. He just endured his insults.

"Brother Yang, will this fella tell the teacher?"

Li Yang looked at Chen Liang disdainfully. "Do you think he dares to tell the teacher? If he were to tell the teacher anything, I will make sure he learns his lesson."

Then, Li Yang pulled Chen Liang up and grabbed him by the neck against the wall. His hand moved and he asked, "Do you know what this means?"

Chen Liang was afraid and he tried to hide, "I..."

slap

Li Yang immediately slapped him. Then, he grabbed Chen Liang's hair and pulled him. His entire body flew backward.

"That's more like it. If I don't see the money tomorrow, I'll make you eat sh*t. Do you believe me?" Li Yang said fearsomely.

One of the other students immediately handed a cigarette over, "Brother Yang, this fella deserves to be beaten up."

Li Yang smoked the cigarette and waved his hand, "Continue whacking him."

The other students smiled and punched Chen Liang's face repeatedly.

One of the students pulled down Chen Liang's pants and took pictures with his phone.

"Stop it!" Chen Liang tried to shrug them off but he was getting beaten up.

Li Yang looked at Chen Liang, "If I don't see the money tomorrow, your picture will appear in the phones of every student. I want to see where you can hide your face at."

Chen Liang's eyes were red. He wasn't going to retaliate. He had a low self-esteem and he didn't dare to retaliate. He didn't even dare to tell the teachers.

Even if he told the teachers about it, it would have invited more trouble.

Ding ding!

School had ended.

The physical education class had ended.

Li Yang threw the cigarette away and looked at Chen Liang sternly, "Remember, if you dare to tell the teachers, you're dead. I will kill you. Let's go."

The others left together with him.

Chen Liang wiped the tears from his eyes and wore his pants. He looked average and had a low self-esteem. However, he knew that it was difficult to get him to study in Shanghai. Hence, he didn't want to disappoint his dad.

However, his nightmare began when he came here.

Li Yang was the tyrant in school and there were a group of people that always followed him. If he didn't like someone, he would beat him/her up. Nobody dared to tell the teachers about it yet. Even if they did, it would have been useless. Although he would be scolded by the teachers, they would be in deeper trouble after that.

Every time his dad visited him, he didn't dare to tell him about it. He could only hide it from his dad.

...

It was time for class.

Li Yang and the others sat at the back of the class. They were reading novels and they didn't care about what the teacher was talking about. Similarly, the teachers didn't care about them too.

If they didn't offend the teacher, the teacher wouldn't make things difficult for them too.

It was a language class and the teacher frowned, "Where did Chen Liang go?"

The students in the class looked at each other. They knew that Chen Liang got beaten up by Li Yang and the others but they didn't dare to tell the teacher about it.

"I don't know."

"I saw him before class."

"I don't know too."

The teacher was a little suspicious. Chen Liang had decent results and was hardworking. However, he had a low self-esteem and was a quiet boy. However, he was always able to complete the teachers' tasks perfectly.

"Li Yang, do you know where Chen Liang went?" The teacher looked at Li Yang and asked. Those people were the bad worms of the school. However, their families were quite influential and they entered the school via other means. They didn't even put in any effort in studying and were difficult to handle.

Li Yang shook his head, "I don't know, I haven't seen him. Maybe he skipped class."

The teacher said sternly, "Even if you were to skip class, people wouldn't skip class too."

Li Yang was shameless and he didn't bother about it at all.

"AHH!"

Suddenly, people started shouting outside.

"Someone is going to commit suicide."

"Who is that? Why is he on the roof?"

When they heard the screams, the students looked out the window.

The teacher quickly ran outside and when he saw the teenager sitting there, his face changed. "Chen Liang, what are you doing?"

...

Chapter 573: Still too late

The fact that a student was going to commit suicide attracted the attention of the entire school.

Some of the students in the class didn't know what was happening when they heard the noise. However, when they looked out the window and saw the silhouette opposite, they gasped.

"Teacher, someone is going to jump down the building."

“What the h*ll, who is that? What happened?”

The teacher looked at the window and when he saw the person on the rooftop, he quickly placed his books down and asked the class chairman to take care of the class. Then, he hurriedly went out to have a look.

On the rooftop.

Chen Liang wiped his tears and looked forward. He looked calm but he was really contemplating to jump.

He suddenly felt that he didn't belong here and everyone was bullying him.

Especially when he thought of what had happened in the day which humiliated him. He felt the urge to jump and he couldn't get rid of that thought.

The teachers and students were discussing it below.

“Which class is the student from?”

“Hey, isn't that Chen Liang from the sixth class? He is a good student, why does he want to commit suicide?”

“Teacher Zhang, what happened to your student?”

The teacher in charge of Chen Liang's class, Zhang Hui, looked at Chen Liang who was on the rooftop. His face was as white as paper and he ignored what the teacher had asked him. He immediately shouted, “Chen Liang, quickly come down. You can tell me what happened. Don't do anything silly.

Chen Liang didn't say anything. He just looked forward.

Teacher Zhang was extremely anxious. He didn't know what to do. “Quick, call the police, call the police!”

The surrounding teachers were all anxious. They quickly took out their phones.

This was a major incident. If it were to happen, the consequences would be unimaginable.

In a distance away.

Li Yang looked at the rooftop and sneered.

“Brother Yang, this fella actually dares to commit suicide?”

Li Yang laughed disdainfully. “Him? I swear he wouldn’t dare to do it. He’s just scaring everyone. When he comes down, you’ll see what I’m going to do to him.”

“Brother Yang, it’s going to be blown up. Why do I feel like it’s because of us?”

Li Yang glared at him, “What do you mean by that? It has nothing to do with us. Stop guessing blindly. Let’s see what this fella wants.”

Then, the principal of the school came.

“Teacher Zhang, what’s happening? Why is your student thinking of committing suicide?” The principal was frantic when he went there. It was an educational institution, why did something like this happen?

If it really happened, he was going to be doomed.

Teacher Zhang shook his head, “Principal, I don’t know. I only realized Chen Liang was missing from the class but I didn’t expect him... him...”

“What are you thinking about? Quickly get him down,” the principal said anxiously.

Teacher Zhang didn’t think about anything else. He immediately shouted, “Chen Liang, don’t be rash. I’ll come up to talk to you.” Then, he quickly ran up.

At the walkway of the sixth level, there was a metal staircase. It was leading to the rooftop. The metal staircase wasn't locked at all. Who knew this would happen?

He climbed to the roof.

Teacher Zhang stood at a distance away, "Chen Liang, listen to me. Come over here."

When Teacher Zhang was inching forward slowly, Chen Liang started to get emotional, "Don't come over..."

"Alright, alright. I won't come over. Listen to me, don't be rash. You're the best student in my eyes and nothing must happen to you. If not, I'll be heartbroken," Teacher Zhang tried to console him.

Chen Liang wiped his tears, "Teacher Zhang, I know you are good to me but don't come over. If not, I'll really jump down."

"Chen Liang, don't be rash. Think about your dad who worked so hard to bring you up. He brought you to Shanghai from the villages and hoped that you would grow up to become a capable man. If you were to jump down now, what's going to happen to your dad?" Teacher Zhang explained. He knew that Chen Liang was from a single-parent family. His dad was a shop owner at Cloud Street and life was tough.

Chen Liang was a sensible boy. He hadn't caused trouble before. He didn't want his dad to be worried. The others didn't want to stay in school but he volunteered to stay in school because he wanted to reduce the burden on his dad. At the same time, he wanted to concentrate on his studies and do his dad proud.

Chen Liang lowered his head and cried. "Teacher, I..."

Then, Chen Liang looked downwards and saw Li Yang.

Li Yang stood there and pointed his middle finger. At the same time, his finger slid across his neck. It was as if he was saying that he was as going to be doomed.

Then, Chen Liang became more emotional.

Teacher Zhang looked downwards and shouted, “Li Yang, what are you doing?!”

Li Yang put down his hand and pretended that nothing happened. “Teacher, nothing much. A mosquito bit me.”

“You... you...” Teacher Zhang was furious. He didn’t expect Li Yang to still trigger Chen Liang at such a crucial moment. He wanted to go down and slap his face.

Then, something terrible happened.

Chen Liang became emotional and he shouted, “Li Yang, I won’t let you off even if I become a ghost!” Then, he jumped down from the sixth floor.

“No!”

A series of heartbreaking screams could be heard.

When Elder Chen saw his own son jump down from the rooftop, he shouted like a madman. Then, he collapsed to the ground.

Lin Fan charged forward as quickly as he could when he saw that.

The power that he had gotten from athletics was activated.

He ran extremely quickly and everyone was stunned. He was like a rocket flying forward.

The crowd was stunned and felt that everything was blurry. They wondered how could anyone run that quickly.

Lin Fan stretches out his arm and wanted to stop Chen Liang from falling.

However, when Chen Liang's waist landed on his arms, there was a loud crack. Lin Fan's arms immediately bent under the immense force of Chen Liang's weight.

bang

There was a loud thud.

“AH!!”

A series of frightening screams could be heard.

Everyone was stunned by the scene and started screaming.

The female students were screaming non-stop while some teachers collapsed to the ground after witnessing what had happened.

“F*ck!” I just touched him but it was useless.

Lin Fan stood before Chen Liang. He didn't expect it to be unsuccessful.

His arms were completely broken and they were twisted. He gradually felt the pain but Lin Fan didn't react to it.

“There's still time.”

Lin Fan grabbed onto his arms and twisted them back to normal. There was a loud click.

It was a violent way of recovering the use of his arms. The pain was definitely excruciating but Lin Fan didn't care at all.

“My son...” Elder Chen rushed over and saw his bloodied son on the ground. Then, he collapsed to the ground.

Elder Liang's eyes widened as he couldn't believe what he just saw.

"Little Boss..." Elder Chen's face was filled with tears as he looked at Lin Fan.

Lin Fan kneeled down and did some visual checks. Thankfully, he managed to help reduce the impact of the fall. At the same time, he didn't let his head touch the floor. The main area of impact was at his waist. Due to his arms redirecting his fall, the condition was pretty serious. There were a lot of broken bones and organs.

"Elder Chen, do not touch your son, quick, call the ambulance. Let me handle this," Lin Fan said.

Elder Chen looked at his son, who was bleeding everywhere. He was already extremely frightened. When he heard what Little Boss said, he nodded forcefully. His hands trembled as he tried to make a call.

"Little Boss, please, you have to save my son." Elder Chen was shocked and he could only pin his hopes on Lin Fan.

Chapter 574: I'll handle it

"Okay." Lin Fan nodded. The situation was tight and if not for the mystical boost of the Encyclopedia, he wouldn't have dared to answer him.

However, things were getting out of hand and he couldn't afford to delay any more time.

He looked around and went to a few females to take their hairpins. Then, he straightened them and use them as acupuncture needles. In such an urgent situation, where was he going to get them from? He had to make the best out of what he had.

The principal was dumbfounded. "It's over..."

Teacher Zhang kneeled on the rooftop and he covered his face when he saw what happened below. He didn't expect to see his own student commit suicide in front of him.

It was extremely difficult to accept that.

Suddenly, Teacher Zhang stood up and hurried down.

At the ground floor.

Li Yang was dumbfounded. He didn't expect Chen Liang to have dared to jump down. What did the last sentence mean? Was he going to drag him to hell with him?

The others didn't notice him, they were staring at Chen Liang who had fallen from the rooftop. He was prepared to leave sneakily.

Just when he turned around, Teacher Zhang grabbed Li Yang, he said furiously, "Li Yang, what have you done?!"

Li Yang was anxious but he pretended to be calm. "Teacher Zhang, what do you mean by that? I didn't do anything."

slap

Teacher Zhang immediately slapped him, "You're literally inhumane."

Li Yang was stunned. He realized that the other students were looking at him. Then, he shouted, "Are you looking for trouble?"

Teacher Zhang knew that Li Yang's family was pretty influential. He usually ignored the stupid things that he did. However, he had caused the death of someone today.

Even if his family was extremely influential, he couldn't tolerate it anymore. He immediately slapped him.

The surrounding students didn't expect Li Yang to have dared to scold a teacher. When they realized that, most of them didn't focus on it as they were looking at Chen Liang.

Teacher Zhang told a few Physical Education teachers, “Look after him. Don’t let him run away.”

The teachers nodded. This was a grave matter. They had to watch Li Yang closely.

Teacher Zhang came to Elder Chen, “Mr. Chen, I’m sorry. I am the form teacher and I failed to look after him. It is my fault.”

Elder Chen sat on the floor and he was stunned. He didn’t even care about Elder Zhang. He just stared at Chen Liang.

Then, Lin Fan opened up Chen Liang’s clothes and his body was filled with patches of green and purple. It was traumatizing.

Lin Fan was stunned. This wasn’t supposed to be the case for a person who had just jumped down from a high story. Then, he looked at Teacher Zhang, “Look closely.” Then, he didn’t say much as he started to stabilize Chen Liang’s condition.

Elder Zhang was stunned when he saw Chen Liang’s injuries.

These injuries were done by man. It wasn’t caused by him jumping down the building. Then, he looked at Li Yang and his eyes were filled with rage.

How did this happen? The only person he could’ve thought of was Li Yang.

Chen Liang once told him that Li Yang asked him to beat someone up. He thought that it was just a small conflict between students. Then, he talked to Li Yang about it. Li Yang promised to stop bullying him. Who knew that this would happen?

He was blaming himself and he felt that he was responsible for it.

As the teacher in charge of the class, he actually allowed this to happen. This was all because of him.

“Little Boss.” Elder Chen recovered from his sadness and he looked at Little Boss who was trying to save his son.

Elder Liang covered Elder Chen's mouth. "Shh, Elder Chen, I know you are devastated. Little Boss is trying to save your son. Don't disturb him. If Little Boss can't save him, it'd be hopeless."

Elder Liang shook his head and sighed. He didn't expect this to happen.

Then, Lin Fan looked very serious. The temporary tools to replace those that he needed weren't sanitized and perhaps an infection would happen. However, he had no choice. He had to secure his life.

He opened up a few acupoints.

It wasn't enough. He had to use the mystical boost of the Encyclopedia.

His palm pressed on Chen Liang's body and it looked as if he was massaging him but he was actually sustaining his life using the mystical boost. At the same time, he started to treat his body.

The police vehicle and ambulance came.

Lin Fan started to let go and he heaved a sigh of relief.

His life was temporarily sustained but the situation was still dangerous.

Elder Chen looked at Lin Fan, "Little Boss, how is it?"

Lin Fan nodded. He patted Elder Chen's shoulder, "There's still hope. But it's a little troublesome. Don't be anxious, I am here. There wouldn't be a problem."

Elder Chen anxiously nodded, "Little Boss, I believe in you. I know you can do it."

The paramedics came and they knew that someone had committed suicide. They had made ample preparation. One of the nurses was prepared to shift Chen Liang into the ambulance but Lin Fan stopped her. "Don't move him like that. Support his back with your hands. Don't remove the needles."

Lin Fan see four metal needles and placed them around Chen Liang's heart. He had to ensure that the area around his heart had proper blood circulation. At the same time, it would help to keep his heart pumping.

Chen Liang's throat opening was blocked by blood. He opened up a small opening at his throat to ensure that air is able to flow properly. At the same time, there was an acupuncture needle at his neck to prevent blood from flowing out. If not, the injury would be fatal.

What was left to do was for him to operate on him in the hospital.

The surgery was going to be complicated but he had complete confidence.

"Who are you?" The doctor frowned. It was a fatal situation and he was still trying to dictate things?

Lin Fan didn't bother to answer him. "Master Lin from Cloud Street. Do you know me?"

The doctor was stunned. He became emotional, "The godly doctor."

Lin Fan nodded, "Yeah. Send him to the hospital and tell your director that I will be operating on him personally. Nobody else is supposed to touch him."

The doctor smiled, "Godly doctor, don't worry. I will be following closely. I won't let anyone touch him."

He knew about Shanghai's godly doctor. He was the idol of all the medical doctors. Everyone knew about his voluntary consultation booth.

His godly pair of hands saved so many people and his medical skills were incredible.

"Elder Chen, Elder Liang, go on the ambulance. I'll be driving to the hospital and will be waiting there for you," Lin Fan said.

...

The police arrived and started to investigate the matter. Those students that bullied Chen Liang were all frightened when they saw the police. However, nobody knew that it was caused by them. They lowered their heads and acted like nothing had happened.

Lin Fan looked at Li Yang and stood in front of him.

Li Yang looked at Lin Fan in fear, "What are you doing?"

slap

Teacher Zhang stood aside and didn't do anything to stop him. He just watched Li Yang collapse to the ground after Lin Fan slapped him.

"I'm giving all of you a chance," Lin Fan looked at the other students in the crowd.

The other students were extremely afraid when they saw what was happening. They were the kids of ordinary families. They haven't encountered such a situation before.

"It's not me, it's Li Yang. He pulled Chen Liang to the area behind the toilet during our physical education lesson. Then, he started to beat him up."

"We didn't participate. Li Yang was the one who wanted to teach Chen Liang a lesson."

Then, the other students started to blame Li Yang.

The police officers also began to understand the situation.

"Bring him away and investigate this matter."

Lin Fan didn't have time to waste on them. He just looked at Li Yang again and left the school immediately.

“Time for a meeting. Everyone, come for the meeting now.” The principal was in a terrible mood. They had to get rid of violence in the school.

Chapter 575: Fighting with the God of Death

At the hospital!

The ambulance was here.

When the emergency doctor knew about the situation, he had already changed into the proper attire and was prepared to enter the surgical area.

Lin Fan had been waiting at the hospital for some time.

“Godly doctor, do we send him to the surgical theatre now?” The doctor that was in the ambulance asked.

“Yeah, send him to the surgical room now,” Lin Fan said.

The doctor nodded. Then, he turned to the nurse beside him and said, “Quick, bring the godly doctor to change and then to surgical room 2.”

“Roger.”

The doctor and nurses started to prepare everything.

“Please excuse me, there’s an emergency!” The nurses shouted to make way for the stretcher.

Elder Chen and Elder Liang had been following behind closely. They were in an extremely bad mood, especially Elder Chen, who was mumbling Buddhist scriptures to seek help from the Heavens.

Everything was prepared in the surgical room.

The doctor who was supposed to operate on Chen Liang started to prepare but he was stopped by the doctor beside him. “Doctor Ma, you can’t handle this surgery, someone else is doing it.”

Doctor Ma frowned, “What are you doing? His injuries are so serious and you’re bothered by who’s going to do it? Quick, we have to operate on him now.”

The doctor shook his head, “No, the godly doctor said nobody else besides him can operate on him.”

Doctor Ma was furious, he was the head doctor of the hospital but he was being stopped. Then, Doctor Ma was stunned, “Godly doctor? What godly doctor?”

“Godly doctor Lin from Cloud Street. The patient jumped from the sixth level and his life got sustained by the godly doctor. However, a lot of his organs and bones have broken and he has to be operated right away. However, the operation is extremely complicated. Doctor Ma, although your medical skills are superb, you will definitely not be able to handle this.”

Doctor Ma knew about the reputation of the godly doctor. Then, he asked, “The godly doctor is really going to operate on him?”

“Yes. The godly doctor will do it personally.”

Doctor Ma didn’t think about anything else. “Alright, I will inform the Director. This is a major accident, where are the family members of the patient?”

“They’re signing the consent form for the surgery. Although it is done by the godly doctor, we have to follow the rules,” the doctor said.

Doctor Ma nodded. Then, he rushed out. When he walked out, he noticed a doctor who was about to enter the room. Then, he stopped and looked. “Are you the godly doctor?”

Lin Fan looked extremely serious, “Let’s start.”

The nurses and doctors nodded. Although they weren't going to operate on him, they knew the problem.

In the hospital.

When he reached the Director's office, the Director rushed out.

"Director, the godly doctor is in our hospital," Doctor Ma said anxiously.

The Director nodded, "I have already been notified. Gather all the doctors who are available now."

Doctor Ma nodded, "We have to gather all of them. We only know that the Chinese medical skills of the godly doctor are superb. Furthermore, he said that his Western medical skills are incredible too. If we could witness an operation, it would be of great help to us."

Outside the surgical room.

Elder Chen was anxiously walking around. He wouldn't be able to relax unless his son is out of danger.

"Elder Chen, don't be afraid and don't worry. He'll be okay," Elder Liang tried to console him.

Elder Chen didn't say anything but Elder Liang could tell that he was extremely frightened.

"Elder Chen, how did it go?" Then, Sister Hong from Cloud Street came with some other people.

When they heard about the news, they were completely stunned. They didn't expect Elder Chen's son to really encounter a tragedy. Then, they quickly rushed over after closing their shops.

Initially, more people wanted to come over but were stopped by Sister Hong. If a lot of people came, the situation would be too messy. Hence, only a few of them came on behalf of the others.

Elder Liang shook his head, "We don't know what's the situation like. He is currently in the midst of operation."

Sister Hong replied, “Elder Chen, don’t worry. There wouldn’t be a problem with the hospital bills. The people at Cloud Street have agreed to split the bill equally among all of us.”

Elder Chen cried when he heard that. “Thank you, everyone...” Other than that, he didn’t know what to say.

Elder Liang said, “Don’t be too worried. Little Boss is operating on Lil’ Liang. You guys should know how incredible Little Boss’ medical skills are. There would definitely be no problem.”

The crowd heaved a sigh of relief when they heard that. “Luckily Little Boss is here. Then, there would definitely be no problem.”

Elder Chen was still feeling extremely down. He was never this worried before.

They were really confident of Little Boss and they felt that Little Boss would definitely resolve the problem.

The Director brought the doctors to watch the video footage of the surgical procedures. They were able to see the situation in the surgical room.

One of the doctors said regretfully.

“I can’t see clearly at all. If only we could be inside.”

“According to the patient’s test report, his situation is extremely serious. Even if we were operating on him, we probably wouldn’t stand a chance. Also, even if the operation was a success, the patient would still be in danger. I wonder if things would be different if the godly doctor handles it.”

“I don’t know but based on the godly doctor’s medical skills, I am pretty confident.”

“Look, what’re the needles around the patient’s heart for?”

“The nurses said that they were needed to ensure blood circulation. However, does it really work! It doesn’t seem to have any scientific evidence.”

“It should be a Chinese medical procedure. This time, we will be witnessing a fusion of Chinese and Western medicine. I’m so excited.”

The godly doctor was reputable in the medical world. The surgeons really wanted to meet and interact with him.

In the surgical room.

“Godly doctor, the patient is losing a lot of blood,” a doctor said anxiously.

Lin Fan nodded, “Okay, I know that. Continue cleaning the wounds. I will resolve that. Pass me some acupuncture needles.”

“Roger.”

The atmosphere in the surgical room was tense but everything was running smoothly.

During the surgery, the patient had been in a lot of dangerous situations. If it was left to them to resolve it, they’d definitely be lost. However, under the lead of Lin Fan, everything was going according to plan even though it was a little rushed.

The dangerous situations were gradually improving.

The doctors and nurses in the surgical room were completely stunned. If they hadn’t seen it with their own eyes, they wouldn’t have believed that this was real.

They felt that it was simply unbelievable. The small needles were actually capable of producing such great effects.

If they weren’t personally involved, they might never ever have known about how dangerous and complicated the situation was.

Even the most experienced doctors were impressed by the way the godly doctor was handling the situation.

This matter was simply unbelievable.

Time past really quickly.

Four hours later.

The lights outside the surgical room became dim.

bang

The door was slammed open.

Everyone at the walkway held their breaths.

started trembling with fear. "Please be fine, please be fine."

A silhouette emerged.

Lin Fan wiped the sweat from his forehead and smiled, "He is fine now, he is out of the danger period."

Then, everyone gasped.

There was a thunderous clap.

"Haha, it's nothing much."

"Little Boss is incredible."

"Awesome, Little Boss!"

Elder Chen was so grateful that he didn't know what to say. He just cried and held Lin Fan's hand. "Little Boss, thank you so much, thank you so much..."

Lin Fan replied, "Stop thanking me. You already gave me apples. You don't have to thank me anymore. You have to thank these doctors and nurses too. I wouldn't have been able to accomplish it without them."

The doctors and nurses chuckled. They were also in a good mood. After all, they literally brought a patient back from the God of Death. Although they didn't do much, at least they were involved in something.

Chapter 576: It isn't over yet

In the ward.

The situation had been stabilized.

Elder Chen said anxiously, "Little Boss, when will he wake up?"

Lin Fan patted him on his shoulder, "I think he'll be awake soon."

Elder Chen replied, "He fell from the sixth level. Can he wake up so quickly after just a surgery?"

Lin Fan didn't say much. If it was a typical patient, he/she would definitely still be in a coma. However, with the mystical boost of the Encyclopedia, the patient would definitely wake up in no time. If not, the boost would have been useless.

Chen Liang started to make soft noises from the bed. Elder Chen was ecstatic, "He's awakened, he's awakened! This fella scared the hell out of me. I have to talk to him about it."

This matter nearly shocked Elder Chen to death. If not for Little Boss, the consequences would've been unimaginable.

Lin Fan replied, "Elder Chen, hold it in. Your son just woke up. You can scold him in the future. Furthermore, this matter isn't as simple as it seems. I will help you to handle the aftermath of this incident. How could the school advocate violence? It is unacceptable."

"Dad..." Chen Liang was still in a daze. However, when he saw his dad's anxious expressions, he thought of what had happened. He was embarrassed and fearful at the same time. He wondered why he was so rash.

Elder Chen said, "Lil' Liang, how do you feel? Do you feel uncomfortable anywhere?"

"It hurts..." Chen Liang was in pain everywhere. It was as if every part of his body was broken.

Initially, Lin Fan could've removed the pain but he didn't. He wanted this kid to feel the pain and realize how foolish his actions were.

However, some things cannot be understood by third parties. The individual's mental health is different and people would act rashly under certain circumstances.

The medical knowledge of the Encyclopedia did mention that the brain would secrete a substance under rash circumstances to trick the brain. People would normally feel remorseful for doing it but it was useless to be regretful.

"You deserve to be in pain. This should teach you to not be so impulsive in the future. Your dad was almost shocked to death," Lin Fan reprimanded.

Elder Chen felt helpless. Initially, Little Boss told him to not scold his kid but Little Boss actually reprimanded him. However, he wasn't angry at all because Little Boss meant well for Lil' Liang.

Elder Chen said, "Hurry up and thank Uncle Lin. If not for Uncle Lin, you wouldn't be here now."

Chen Liang knew who Lin Fan was as his dad told him about him before.

"Thank you, Uncle Lin."

Lin Fan nodded. "No problem. What happened to your face? Did you get bullied by the students?"

Chen Liang hesitated for a moment and nodded, "Yeah."

"Why didn't you tell your dad about it?" Lin Fan asked.

Chen Liang said softly, "I was afraid of being beaten up by them."

Elder Chen shook his head helplessly, "Little Boss, this kid has been a timid boy since young. He has been soft-spoken and doesn't really like to talk to people."

Lin Fan replied, "It's okay when he recovers, he can undergo my special training for two months. This way, he wouldn't be timid in the future."

Naturally, Elder Chen knew that Little Boss was just kidding. He just wanted his kid to be fine.

Then.

The people from the school came.

The principal and the class' form teacher brought some things in.

Elder Chen stood up, "Principal, Teacher Zhang..."

Regardless of what had happened, these people were the leaders of the school. Although it was somewhat related to them, it wasn't something that they wanted to witness.

The principal said, "Mr. Chen, sorry. As the principal of the school, I didn't expect this to happen at all. I want to apologize to you and I hope you would forgive me."

Elder Chen was furious but he wasn't someone that would scold people for nothing. "Hey, I don't blame all of you. I just want an explanation to seek justice for my son."

The principal said, "Of course, the school will definitely give Chen Liang a satisfactory answer."

They had been extremely nervous after the incident. They were afraid that something would happen. After all, this involved the school's education system.

Teacher Zhang came to Chen Liang, "Chen Liang, sorry. In the past, you have reported it to me before but I wasn't bothered by it. I didn't expect this to happen at all. Would you forgive me?"

Chen Liang replied, "Teacher, I don't blame you. You're just in the dark."

Lin Fan wanted to scold the two of them for being so ignorant about what was happening in school. However, they seemed repentant and his rage slowly disappeared.

"What is happening now?" Lin Fan asked.

The principal knew that this man was the person that saved Chen Liang. He was the godly doctor of Shanghai. Hence, he replied politely, "Teacher Zhang and I just came out from the police station. The investigations have concluded that Li Yang led a few other students and bullied Chen Liang. The school will definitely follow up on this matter and give all of you a satisfactory answer."

Lin Fan said, "This is school violence. If you don't follow up with it, who will? You can forget about washing your hands off this matter."

The principal nodded, "Yes, yes. We will definitely follow up with it till it is over."

Lin Fan didn't want to say anything else. The school's management had already put it that way. Then, he stood up and said, "Elder Chen, take good care of your son. I will be heading to the police station."

Elder Chen didn't know what Little Boss was up to but he just nodded. Then, he spoke to Teacher Zhang and the others. Something like that had happened in the school and regardless of whether it was because of the school or him, they were both important factors. At the end of the day, it was all because he didn't take good care of him.

The doctors of the hospital wanted to keep the footage of the surgery as a specimen for them to study it. When they wanted to look for the godly doctor, they couldn't find him and they were regretful.

On the Internet.

A video was posted online.

‘Shanghai Jinyang Secondary School had a case of violence. The victim committed suicide by jumping down from the sixth level. His fate is still unknown.’

When the video was posted online, it immediately caused an uproar.

School violence happened occasionally but serious cases like this were rare.

Most of the netizens who watched the video were furious.

“D*mn, is he even human?”

“If I was there, I would’ve beaten the hell out of this fella.”

“The education system is too useless. Are these even kids? I’m afraid that even adults aren’t as inhumane as them.”

“What happened to the kid? Does anyone know the final outcome?”

“He jumped down from the sixth level. Do you think he can still survive that?”

“Hey...”

The video was posted from the police station. One of the workers found the video after checking the phones and he was furious after watching it. Then, he immediately sent to the online groups.

In the end, it went viral.

The online discussions were endless and they were all talking about the flaws in the education system.

A lot of people started reading about it.

The principal who was still in the hospital didn't expect the matter to have blown up. The educational department immediately instructed that this incident must not happen again.

Chapter 577: We know you're guilty

At the police station.

It wasn't the one that Liu Xiao Tian was at, it was the one near Jin Yang Secondary School.

Lin Fan went there to look for witnesses and at the same time, he wanted to see how the post-incident investigation was going.

The policemen recognized Lin Fan. He was the one that cracked the major human trafficking case and they definitely knew who he was since then.

Lin Fan said, "Where are the few students locked at?"

The policeman replied, "They're inside. We're investigating the situation. Master Lin, how is the boy who jumped down?"

The policemen were concerned about the boy's safety.

"He is okay. He is not in any danger anymore," Lin Fan said.

They heaved a sigh of relief, "That's good then. Thank God he kept his life. School violence cases like this are common and I wonder why."

Lin Fan smiled and didn't say much. Why? It was obviously just a way that teenagers used to protect themselves.

The times have changed and some laws have to be changed to meet the changes.

In the past, teenagers who were 13 or 14 years old were still watching animated cartoons and they didn't think so much about these things.

However, the Internet has been so developed these days and teenagers may even know more things than adults now.

Inside.

Lin Fan looked at those few students and they looked fearful. However, one of them looked calm and was trying to argue with the police officer.

"I'm not involved. I only whacked him. I didn't ask him to kill himself. Why did you arrest me?" Li Yang said calmly.

The police officers shook their heads. This type of students was no different from the thugs outside.

They just changed the location that they were messing in. They treated the school like the society outside.

Lin Fan asked, "How's the situation here?"

The police officer replied, "We can only detain them for fourteen days. The situation depends on how their family members choose to settle with the victim's parents. If they can resolve it privately, then they wouldn't have to be detained for fourteen days."

Lin Fan furrowed his brows, "It doesn't matter if they only caused physical injuries. They caused him to commit suicide. His injuries should be considered to be a serious case. Shouldn't they be locked up for a few years and not just detained for fourteen days?"

He was extremely unhappy.

The police officer was a little embarrassed, “We can’t help it. The law states that those who are not of legal age cannot be punished so severely. Furthermore, there isn’t any similar case in history that we can use to decide on the punishment.”

“Initially, they could be sent to some disciplinary homes but these students are not even fourteen years of age. The law states that those who are not fourteen years old are to be disciplined by their parents.”

Lin Fan shook his head, “Look at them. Do you think they look like they’re not fourteen years old?”

The police officer shook his head helplessly. Their identification cards were there and that was evidence. They couldn’t have done anything about it.

Then, some people came.

A group of parents came in and were extremely frantic.

“Son, how are you?”

“What are these police officers trying to do? My son is not even fourteen years old yet. You guys handcuffed him. Do you want him to be traumatized by this? What if he has flashbacks of this in the future? Are you going to be responsible for that?”

“I want to sue all of you.”

These parents that entered were furious.

“Dad, save me...”

“Mum, save me. I don’t want to stay here.”

Those students were shouting for their parents.

The police officers tried to manage the situation. Some of them were even stopped by the parents.

Lin Fan shook his head but he was just looking at one of the males.

The man didn't cause any trouble. He calmly handled the situation.

Li Yang saw the person that walked over and said, "Dad, save me..."

The middle-aged man nodded and asked a police officer, "Where is your inspector?"

...

Lin Fan guessed that these parents were gathered by this man to make the situation more complicated.

"Shut up," Lin Fan said sternly. "Your kids were violent to another student and caused him to commit suicide. He almost died and you guys can still make a big fuss out of it?"

After he said that, the parents shouted.

"That's not possible. My son will never do that."

"That's right. It must have been a misunderstanding."

"My son is a very kind boy. He wouldn't even bear to kill a chicken. How could he show violence towards a student?"

"You must be maligning him. Quick, release my kid."

The police officer replied, "Master Lin, this matter isn't as simple as it is. We can only let them out quickly."

Lin Fan didn't want to say anything else. Anyway, he couldn't have spoken to them about it. Even if this matter was real, they wouldn't have believed it.

Furthermore, those kids looked innocent and fearful. They looked as if the incident didn't happen.

After a while later.

Li Yang's father appeared with the Inspector of the police station, Inspector Wang.

"Silence," Inspector Wang said.

The parents kept quiet. It was obvious that they wanted their kids to be released as soon as possible.

Inspector Wang added, "We are currently investigating this matter. Your children caused physical harm to another student in school. That has been confirmed. According to the rules, we have to conduct further investigation. What you can do now is to speak to the parents of the victim and seek forgiveness."

The parents didn't agree to it.

"Sir, what if he doesn't want to forgive us? My son is not even fourteen years old. Could he end up in jail? The law didn't say that."

"Yeah, my child is so young. How could he be locked here?"

"We admit our mistakes but you have to release our kids to let us discipline them."

Inspector Wang was frustrated, "Send them out."

The police officers went forward and asked them to leave the police station.

It was impossible to release all of them now. The online discussions couldn't be of any help. Furthermore, the educational department was also involved in this matter. The situation was still unknown to many of them.

Then, Inspector Wang looked at Lin Fan, “Master Lin...”

Lin Fan nodded, “Inspector Wang, how are you going to resolve this?”

Inspector Wang sighed, “Sigh, Master Lin, you don’t know how difficult this matter is. Right, this is Li Yang’s dad. Li Hu.”

Li Hu stretched out his hand and smiled, “I’ve heard of Master Lin’s reputation. I didn’t expect you to be so young. I really didn’t.”

Lin Fan looked at Li Hu and shook his hand. Then, Lin Fan gently sniffed. “Your hand smells weird.”

Li Hu was a little embarrassed and guilty. Then, he smiled. “Master Lin, you’re humorous. What do you mean by my hand smells weird?”

“Our Lil’ Yang is wrong for this matter. I will discipline him sternly. At the same time, I will speak nicely to the victim’s parents. I hope we can be forgiven.”

Lin Fan sneered, “He’s probably like that because of you. Since the older generation is involved in vices, it is normal for the younger generation to turn out like that. Your ‘stern disciplinary measures’ will probably not change anything. I think he should be thrown behind bars for a few years to learn from his lesson.”

Li Hu was furious but he held it back, “Master Lin, I don’t really catch what you are saying. This matter is indeed infuriating. My son turned out like that because I am bad at educating him. I will be going to the hospital to talk to the victim’s father. I’ll leave now.”

Lin Fan knew that Li Hu was already overthinking but he wasn’t bothered by it. He knew that something was up with him.

If he was an honest man, he would definitely be okay to settle this matter slowly.

If he was a dishonest man, he would definitely make things difficult for him.

Lin Fan said, "Inspector Wang."

"Yeah?" Inspector Wang asked.

Lin Fan added, "I suggest Inspector Wang stay away from this type of person. You might be in trouble because of him and it will be too late to regret it."

Inspector Wang was stunned. However, when he wanted to ask him about it, Lin Fan had already left.

Chapter 578: Time for Elder Dog to shine

At Cloud Street!

Fraud Tian asked, "How is Elder Chen's son? I saw the news and it looked terrible."

Lin Fan replied, "He is okay now. He is alive but he needs to undergo treatment in the hospital. He needs at least three months to recover."

Wu You Lan said, "It's good to not be in danger anymore. Why are the students like that? How could they do such a thing?"

"Huh?" Lin Fan was stunned. "How did you guys know about this?"

Wu You Lan said, "The video surfaced online. It was frightening. I don't even dare to watch it."

Zhao Zhong Yang said angrily, "If I saw them, I would've slapped all of them."

Then, the other shop owners came. They all asked how was Elder Chen's son. Although Sister Hong and the others told them that Lil' Liang was fine, they were still worried about him. Although he wasn't their child, they had a really good relationship with each other and they were worried about him.

However, when they heard Little Boss say that he was fine, they heaved a sigh of relief. It was good that he was fine. If something had happened to him, what would Elder Chen do about it?

To them, it was awesome to have Little Boss. They knew that Lil' Liang managed to survive because of Little Boss. If not for Little Boss, the situation would've been way worse.

The Internet didn't seem very peaceful.

There were a lot of versions of the incident.

Some said that he had already died.

Some said that he became paralyzed.

There were a lot of other versions on the Internet.

Lin Fan felt that there was a need to clarify things.

On Weibo: "The victim of the Shanghai Jin Yang Secondary School's suicide case has been saved. He is currently recovering. Everyone, please refrain from spreading rumors."

The netizens were curious.

"D*mn, Master Lin actually came forward to talk about it. But how did you know about this?"

"I want to ask the same thing too."

"The netizens are all concerned about this matter. We have to stop school violence."

"He is fine after jumping down from the sixth level? Are you lying?"

He was helpless after seeing the comments of the doubtful netizens. Didn't they know who he was and what he was good at?

However, some netizens spoke the truth a while later.

“Are you guys stupid? Master Lin is a godly doctor. Are you guys asking for fun?”

“Master Lin’s medical skills are second to none. He can even save someone who’s on the brink of death. How could he not save the victim?”

“I am the doctor of the hospital. Master Lin personally operated on the victim.”

“Impressive.”

...

Lin Fan wasn’t ecstatic from reading the compliments at all. After all, it wasn’t something that deserved to be happy about.

“Little Boss, how are we going to resolve this matter? Are those people free to go?” Zhao Zhong Yang asked.

Lin Fan shook his head, “I don’t know but the police station said that they’re all not 14 years old yet and they can’t be held responsible. I believe you guys should know about it.”

Zhao Zhong Yang was furious, “That’s just bullsh*t.”

Lin Fan said, “It’s just like that, you can’t do anything about that.”

The others shook their heads. What else could they have done about this?

The rules were rules after all and they couldn’t have done anything about it. They could only pray that this wouldn’t happen in the future again.

At night!

At a random bar on a street.

Lin Fan stood there and looked around. Then, he placed Elder Dog Nicholas down. He stretched his hand forward in front of him. “Smell it, besides my smell, could you smell anyone else?”

Elder Dog barked, “I smell it.”

Lin Fan patted Elder Dog, “Go and look for it. See where this man is at. If you managed to find him, you’ll get five scallion pancakes.”

After hearing that his reward was five scallion pancakes, Elder Dog jumped about ecstatically. Ever since those incorrigible fans sent dog food over, he had never eaten scallion pancakes anymore. Now that he was entitled to five, he was over the moon.

Lin Fan was elated when he saw Elder Dog start running. He realized that Elder Dog had become smarter. It looked as if the defective Little Intelligence pill was useful.

With Elder Dog’s ability, it was definitely not a problem for him to find a man based on his smell.

Li Hu didn’t look like a decent man at all. It wasn’t that Lin Fan wanted to mess with him. It was just that he had to mess with him. Chen Liang was Elder Chen’s son. He had suffered so much and how could they live comfortably just because his son wasn’t fourteen years old yet?

Those that bullied him wouldn’t be able to escape so easily.

Especially since this fella’s dad wasn’t a decent man at all. If he didn’t mess with him, who else would he mess with?

If he was a decent man, he wouldn’t have done anything to him. Even though this matter was unfavorable, he couldn’t have done anything to the laws in place.

After a while.

Elder Dog Nicholas returned. It looked like he had found out about something.

bark

“Follow me,” Elder Dog said.

Lin Fan followed Elder Dog and they went to a few districts before stopping in front of a bar.

“Looks like it’s here,” Lin Fan said to himself. Then, he kept Elder Dog Nicholas in his clothes and walked into the place.

It was dimly lit and he couldn’t really see. He brought Elder Dog to the toilet and left after he confirmed that there wasn’t anybody there.

“Elder Dog, I’ll leave the rest to you. Find the man and follow behind him. Don’t be found out by anyone. If it’s possible, hear what they say and report it back to me. Remember, don’t get caught,” Lin Fan said.

He read the fortune of his facial appearance and realized that he was going to do something illegal in the near future. Hence, he didn’t want to miss that opportunity.

According to his fortune-reading skills, Li Hu was only going to face the law in a year’s time.

However, he didn’t want to wait for a year. He wanted to change his life now and bring the time forward.

Elder Dog looked at Lin Fan, “Bro, why can’t we be caught?”

Lin Fan felt that Elder Dog seemed a little dumb. “We just can’t get caught.”

Elder Dog said, “Why must I listen to you?”

Lin Fan was speechless. What was Elder Dog doing? Why wasn’t he being obedient?

Suddenly, he understood what was happening.

“Elder Dog, ten scallion pancakes.”

Elder Dog was initially pretending to be dumb but his eyes lit up and he ran towards the exit of the toilet.

In the dimly lit area, the small body of a dog wouldn't attract any attention.

Lin Fan stood outside and saw a white silhouette. He went to the second level from the first level. Furthermore, he also saw him hiding from strangers. When the strangers left, he continued to look for his target.

Then, Lin Fan sighed. Elder Dog was probably capable of being a spy.

His body was small and he was intelligent. Even if he was caught by someone, they wouldn't have thought much about it.

Then, he came to a table and sat there alone. He was waiting for Elder Dog's good news.

...

“What should I do?” Elder Dog hid behind a flower pot and looked into a closed private room. He couldn't enter it at all.

He knew that the target was inside.

If he didn't complete the mission, he wouldn't be able to get ten scallion pancakes.

Just when Elder Dog was thinking of what to do, a service crew member walked over. He was carrying a handful of beer and he pushed the door of the private room open.

Elder Dog quickly ran in.

Chapter 579: Discovering a big secret

In the private room.

Elder Dog hadn't been discovered by anyone. He hid behind the corner of the sofa motionlessly. Then, he slowly stuck out his dog head and observed the surrounding situation.

After the waiters finished serving the wine, he would go out.

There were a total of four people in the private room and Li Hu was surprisingly one of them. The other three people didn't look like good people. Although they didn't look fierce, there was darkness within their eyes. Also, their eyes kept looking around alertly. They were very vigilant. If anything happened, they would definitely leave immediately.

One of them, a long-haired man, was playing with a wine glass in his hands. "Brother Hu, this is a big business deal. It just depends on whether you can take it."

Li Hu laughed softly, "Long Hair, don't talk about whether I can take it. It's whether you can do it or not. Don't be like the last time, talking so much but unable to back it up with action."

Long Hair was a little embarrassed. But he seemed to have a lot of confidence this time. "Last time was last time. This time, I'm serious. I will bring the goods. You're a salesperson. This time, you have someone great to help you. As long as you dare to do it, the reward will be unimaginable."

Li Hu looked at him and smiled, "Alright, alright. Enough said, let's drink. Today, you all have come to look for me, it's an honor. Let me take care of all the expenses."

Long Hair and the other two men exchanged looks as if they were talking with their eyes. He placed a hand on Li Hu's thigh and said, "Brother Hu, I'm serious. You should consider it."

Li Hu shook his head and smiled, "Long Hair, I'm someone who does honest business." But then, his expression suddenly changed. There was a white packet of things on his thigh.

Long Hair smiled as he looked at Li Hu, "Brother Hu, you can take a look."

At that moment, as Li Hu placed his hand on his thigh, the door was opened.

The waiter said, "Chief Li..."

Li Hu waved his hand, indicating for the waiter to leave.

This had initially been arranged by him, for the waiter to come in and check on the situation. In case something happened, at least it would be discovered.

Long Hair seemed to realize the situation. "Brother Hu, this time I came with sincerity."

Li Hu was silent for a moment, then he loosened his hand. Looking at the item in his hand, his expression changed. "Are these new goods?"

Long Hair smiled, "Mmm, they're new goods. Authentic new goods. You can have as much as you want. This is just a sample. Brother Hu can have a try. As long as Brother Hu agrees, there will be a never-ending source of income. It will definitely satisfy you."

Li Hu was a little emotional. "Long Hair, according to my knowledge, you can't possibly obtain these goods. A while back, someone smuggled them into Shanghai and he is now wanted by the police. Don't tell me that you got it from there. If that's the case, I wouldn't dare to accept this.",

"Haha..." Long Hair laughed, "Brother Hu, if you're going to be like this, then there's no need to talk anymore. You know too that not just one person dares to do this in Shanghai. In the past, I've relied on your wealth and I've received your grace. Now that I have something good, you were the first person I looked for. If you really don't want it, I won't force you."

Li Hu paused for a moment before saying, "Alright, let's arrange a meeting for me to take a look. I want to confirm it."

Long Hair waved his hand, "That's not possible. You know the rules. It's not convenient. Tomorrow night, we'll still meet here and make the first transaction."

"Okay. Let's drink. Enough talk about this. Although this place is safe, there are various kinds of people here," said Li Hu.

“Right, right.” Long Hair smiled. The two other people were silent but they had let out smiles as well.

Li Hu’s gaze fell on these two men once again. He had never seen them before and he didn’t know where Long Hair met them.

...

Downstairs.

Lin Fan had been waiting for a long time. Why wasn’t Elder Dog out yet? Could it be that something had gone wrong?

Just as he was about to go up to take a look, Elder Dog appeared at his feet.

Lin Fan was delighted. He picked Elder Dog up into an embrace and they retreated together.

Outside.

“Elder Dog, how’s the situation? Did you hear anything?” asked Lin Fan curiously. He didn’t know the full situation and he hoped that Elder Dog had heard some useful information.

Although he knew that Li Hu was going to do something big soon, he wasn’t sure of what information they would be able to scout out that night.

“Woof woof~” Elder Dog barked, “Can’t take it, can’t take it. The reward is big. I’m an honest man. Very authentic new goods...”

Lin Fan stared at Elder Dog stupidly. What kind of game was this?

What use would it be if he didn’t understand any of it?

Lin Fan was disappointed in Elder Dog. He couldn't expect too much. If he thought that Elder Dog would be able to understand what those people had said, then he was undoubtedly an idiot that was dreaming.

However, when he realized that Elder Dog had an anticipatory look on his face, he was stunned. This face was so mischievous. It was as if he had some sort of hidden agenda.

Lin Fan raised a finger, "Ten servings."

When Elder Dog Nicholas saw Lin Fan raise his finger, he had become energized but when he heard that he would only get ten servings, his legs softened and he lay flat on the ground as if he was very exhausted.

At that moment, Lin Fan understood. Elder Dog had turned bad.

Lin Fan patted Elder Dog on the head. "Twenty servings, that's the most. If you don't agree, then forget it. Although you're a dog, you have to know that even a dog mustn't be too greedy."

"Woof woof~" Elder Dog barked excitedly, "Brother Hu, this is a big business deal. It just depends on whether you can take it..."

Lin Fan never expected that Elder Dog was hiding so much. Elder Dog had clearly remembered it but he had been acting like he hadn't. What a f*cking devil.

Meanwhile, Lin Fan listened closely and his expression slowly changed.

Judging by Elder Dog's description, although they hadn't said explicitly what was going on, Lin Fan understood.

"Drugs."

And from this, he realized in astonishment that there seemed to be many big secrets hidden among this.

Wanted by the Shanghai police.

Wasn't that the same guy that Liu Xiao Tian had mentioned?

How did that guy get implicated in this?

"Hey, this is interesting, coming to such a place with a mutt." At that moment, a sly laughing voice rang out.

Lin Fan looked up at the person. Long Hair glared at Lin Fan. "What are you looking at, kid? If you look anymore, I'll beat you up."

The man by his side said, "Don't cause trouble."

Long Hair's expression changed. He became cautious. "Yes...yes."

Then, the three men passed by Lin Fan's front.

Lin Fan looked at the three men and a grin appeared on his face. These three men had something to do with Li Hu.

As one of them lowered his head to board the car, his shirt collar slipped down and the tattoo on his neck was revealed.

"Scorpion!"

Lin Fan suddenly recalled the image that Liu Xiao Tian had shown him. Although he hadn't seen the person's face clearly, Liu Xiao Tian had described him clearly. The distinctive feature of the drug lord was the scorpion on his neck.

In an instant.

The three men drove off.

Lin Fan didn't chase them because he knew that they would be back the next day.

“Beautifully done, Elder Dog. Let’s go home.” Lin Fan smiled.

Elder Dog barked. Thinking about the next day’s scallion pancakes, he was filled with delight.

Chapter 580: Overconfidence

Lin Fan didn’t tell Liu Xiao Tian about this matter. It wasn’t the right time yet. When the next day comes and he catches those guys red handed, everything will be well.

This was the first time Elder Dog Nicholas had come to Lin Fan’s rented apartment. He was filled with excitement as he ran around the house. But luckily, Elder Dog didn’t like to bark a lot. Otherwise, somebody would definitely have reported them.

Elder Dog found a comfortable nest for himself where he started fantasizing about the next day’s scallion pancakes. Gradually, he fell asleep.

The situation regarding Elder Chen had not been resolved yet. Although no one’s life was in danger, it was still a very severe matter. But he had no idea how the school and the Education Department was going to handle this.

The next day!

Cloud Street.

Elder Dog stuck out his tongue as he ran around Lin Fan’s feet with his tail wagging left and right. His dog eyes kept gazing at the stall intently. The marvelous scallion pancakes were about to come out fresh from the wok.

The townsfolk waited.

While waiting for the scallion pancakes, everyone was discussing what had happened to Elder Chen family. They had never expected a school violence case to happen so close to them. Moreover, it was very severe. It felt inconceivable to them.

“Little Boss, is Elder Chen’s son alright?” asked one of the townsfolk who was waiting for the scallion pancakes.

Lin Fan smiled, “He’s alright. Everything is safe and he’s recovering as we speak.”

“That’s good.”

Lin Fan wrapped up a serving of scallion pancake. “Alright, please enjoy.”

“Woohoo! The scallion pancake is here. My luck today is really great.”

Although there were only ten servings a day, the townsfolk who didn’t manage to get them weren’t unhappy. To them, queuing up every morning before going to work had become a habit in their lives. Even if they don’t manage to buy the scallion pancakes, they could still come here and chat with their fellow queuers and tighten up their relationships.

They could even find out some interesting news.

...

Lin Fan was originally prepared to go and rest but when he saw Elder Dog’s gaze, he sighed helplessly.

“Hey, Little Boss, what are you doing? Haven’t you finished making scallion pancakes already?”

“Could it be that Little Boss is having a burst of generosity today and wants to make a few more servings?”

What they wished for the most was for Little Boss to be in a good mood someday and remove the limit on the number of scallion pancakes sold. That would really be brilliant.

Of course, this kind of situation did happen occasionally but he would only increase the limit to twenty.

Lin Fan said, “No, Elder Dog helped me with something, so I have to compensate him.”

Everyone looked at Elder Dog with faces of jealousy and hatred.

Someone cried out in a surprised tone, “Are humans worth less than dogs?!”

Elder Dog sat there calmly. He was a dog who would have thirty scallion pancakes. These insignificant humans were nothing compared to him.

“A serving a day for a whole month. If I make them all at once, you won’t be able to finish them,” said Lin Fan as he finished preparing a single serving.

“Wow, Little Boss is communicating with Elder Dog again. I’ve said it long ago that Little Boss can talk to pets but you all still didn’t believe me. You’ve seen it now. This is real.”

“That can’t be. In the past, I’ve heard you guys say it but I’ve never really seen it for myself. This...”

“I think he’s probably just talking to himself. No one knows what he’s talking about.”

“Don’t doubt Little Boss. You didn’t see that scene from last time. Little Boss issued a call for action and a hundred dogs came to him. That scene was something I will never forget for life. This is an extraordinary man.”

The people of Cloud Street all knew how capable Little Boss was. He was really amazing but some who had never personally seen his skills before, even though they had heard about it from others, didn’t believe it completely.

Woof woof~

Elder Dog Nicholas barked at his surroundings.

Some of the townsfolk who knew the situation seemed to understand what was going on.

Meanwhile, some other townsfolk didn't understand.

But suddenly, a shocking thing happened.

Woof woof~

A group of dogs came running over from all directions. These dogs were the hidden warriors of Cloud Street. They would play around seemingly pointlessly around Cloud Street but when someone with an abnormal scent appears, they would step out immediately.

These dogs were very sensitive and they could tell if someone was bad.

“What's going on? Why have so many dogs come?”

“Haha, I told you guys. Elder Dog is amazing. It seems like he wants to receive everything in one go.”

Lin Fan was a little dumbfounded. This Elder Dog was too cunning. In order to get all the scallion pancakes in one go, he called his teammates over.

“Woof woof!” Elder Dog Nicholas barked at Lin Fan, “I want to give the scallion pancakes to my buddies. There are twenty-nine to go.”

Lin fan looked at Elder Dog weirdly. In the end, he had no choice but to do it. He couldn't cheat Elder Dog. Otherwise, the next time he needed Elder Dog's help, it wouldn't be as easy.

What happened next doesn't have to be said. The townsfolk stared blankly with their jaws dropped as they felt miserable in their hearts.

They didn't even manage to buy the scallion pancakes but Elder Dog was feasting on them. How could anyone understand the reason behind that?

It was painful.

...

Nighttime!

Lin Fan appeared at the same old place.

Tonight was time for the transaction.

He had originally wanted to just stop Li Hu but he had never expected to come across the drug lord who was wanted by the police. It seemed that he was in luck.

However, he still had to be a little careful. For this drug lord to have evaded capture for so long, he had to have some special abilities. He was probably very cautious and alert.

And for them to choose this place for the transaction, it had to be a safe place.

This was a place where all kinds of people mixed together. It was less likely to draw attention.

Soon after.

An average looking sedan stopped.

That Long Hair from the previous day appeared. Just as Lin Fan let out a smile, he realized that there was one less person than the previous day. That drug lord didn't appear.

"D*mn, where did that guy go? Why didn't he appear?" Lin Fan was stunned. If he didn't take them all down in one go, it would be a shame.

But fortunately, Elder Dog was here as well. He hadn't planned to bring Elder Dog at first but he was afraid that something out of the ordinary might happen, so he brought Elder Dog here just in case.

"Elder Dog, one of the people from yesterday isn't here. See if he's around here," said Lin Fan.

Lin Fan had seen numerous movies where, during the important times, those ‘bosses’ would usually hide in the shadows and observe the situation on site. Then, they would leave immediately if something went wrong.

Elder Dog lay on the ground. His nostrils twitched. Suddenly, he stood up and started running.

His destination was the nightclub.

“This guy must have come here earlier to hide inside the nightclub,” Lin Fan thought. But thinking about it, it was a smart plan. It would be extremely difficult for someone to find him there.

How clever.

But against Elder Dog, it didn’t matter how clever you were. You would never escape Elder Dog’s nose.

The second floor.

Scorpion was leaning against the railing, observing the place. When blended in with the crowd, he looked very normal and he wouldn’t have drawn anyone’s attention.

But at that moment, his sense of alertness made him feel as if he was being watched.

When he turned around, he realized that a young man was staring at him.

At that moment, Scorpion’s heart raced. He felt that something was wrong. He had escaped from so many places and the reason why no one discovered him all this time was this sense of alertness that he possessed.

Then, without thinking, he turned around and walked towards the toilet.

Lin Fan was a little surprised. This guy actually managed to discover him.

Initially, he had thought that this guy would escape into the crowd. He never thought that he would walk towards the toilet. Wasn't that just walking into a trap by himself?

Meanwhile, Scorpion was thinking. He didn't know who this man was or how many people he had with him.

If he hid in the crowd, there might be someone from the opposite side of the crowd. Hence, he could only go into the toilet and take down the opposition directly.

With his skills, even seven or eight big men wouldn't be able to lay a finger on him.

He thought to himself, "You think you can capture me? You are too naive."

"Young man, you can only blame your own overconfidence."
